HIT SHOW PRODUCES 'WITHERING' RUN AT 'BIG A'

Hit Show | Sarah Andrew

by Alan Carasso

The betting public got it right in Saturday's GIII Withers S. at Aqueduct, rescheduled from Feb. 4 due to extreme cold, as Gary and Mary West's Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) sat a golden trip beneath Manny Franco and shot clear from 8-5 second-elect Arctic Arrogance (Frosted) to take the Triple Crown prep by about four lengths.

Looking to build on a strong 3 1/2-length allowance victory going Oaklawn's short-stretch mile Dec. 17, the homebred gray was quietly ridden and was content to save ground after a clean break, as Arctic Arrogance--runner-up in the local GII Remsen S. and Jerome S. in his two most recent appearances--set a pressured pace from 80-1 Prove Right (Justify) and 'TDN Rising Star' Andiamo a Firenze (Speightstown) over the heavy surface. Working his way into it nicely with an inside move leaving the three-furlong marker, Hit Show had his sights set on the pacemaker as they hit the stretch, grabbed him at the eighth pole and drew off while weaving in and out to the line.

Hit Show was a fast-finishing, 5 1/2-length debut winner going seven furlongs at Keeneland Oct. 9 and bobbled at the start of his first two-turn try at Churchill Nov. 26, running on to be fourth as the favorite behind the promising Confidence Game (Candy Ride--Eblouissante)--subsequently third in the GIII Lecomte S.--and Rocket Can (Into Mischief), winner of the GIII Holy Bull S. on his sophomore debut Feb. 4. Cont. p3

EPICENTER CONNECTIONS RELOADING FOR THE NEW YEAR by Steve Sherack

With recently crowned champion 3-year-old Epicenter (Not This Time) off to begin his career at stud at Ashford, the team behind the popular GI Runhappy Travers S. winner have some highly regarded reinforcements on the way.

Disarm (c, 3, Gun Runner--Easy Tap, by Tapit), off since earning his 'TDN Rising Star' badge in runaway fashion at second asking on the Whitney undercard at Saratoga last summer, could return versus allowance company at Oaklawn later this month.

The Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred, previously highlighted in our 'Second Chances' series following a smart debut third behind subsequent GIII Sanford S. winner Mo Strike (Uncle Mo) at Churchill Downs last June, has posted five workouts at Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen's Fair Grounds base since early January, including a five-furlong bullet in 1:01 (1/7) Feb. 7. Cont. p8

"We're all proud of the horse, proud of the performance," said trainer Brad Cox, whose charge picked up 20 Kentucky Derby points. "He had an opportunity to breeze at Belmont on Monday and we're happy with how the horse was doing leading up to the race. He had plenty of time to recover from his last one at Oaklawn in December and it set up well. He ran a big race."

Pedigree Notes:

Hit Show is the 109th stakes winner and 52nd graded winner for Candy Ride and is the first graded stakes winner (five stakes winners overall) bred on the cross of Candy Ride over Tapit mares. Twirling Candy is the sire of Grade III winner Gear Jockey, who is out of a Tapit dam.

The Wests also bred and raced Hit Show's dam, winner of the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. and this track's GIII Comely S. at three and placed twice at the graded level in 2018. A daughter of Sovereign Award-winning 3-year-old filly Milwaukee Appeal, herself a three-time stakes winner and placed in the GI Alabama S. and GI Juddmonte Spinster S., Hit Show is kin to the winning 4-year-old filly Hot Rumor (Medaglia d'Oro), a juvenile filly by Curlin and a yearling filly by Medaglia d'Oro. Actress is due for a full-sibling to Hit Show this season.

LITIGATE LAYS DOWN THE LAW IN SAM F.

DAVIS by Alan Carasso

Asked to negotiate two turns for the first time from a high draw, Centennial Farms' Litigate (Blame) sustained a long, wide run and dug in gamely to stake his claims on this year's Triple Crown trail with a victory in Saturday's GIII Sam F. Davis S. at Tampa Bay Downs. Groveland (Street Sense) made good progress up the rail to be second ahead of Classic Car Wash (Noble Bird) in third.

Bobbling ever so slightly as a steady rain began to fall across the Oldsmar oval, the $370,000 Keeneland September yearling was asked for some early speed to gain a forward position through the early stages and remained in the vanguard into the first turn before settling back into centerfield for the run up the backstretch. Racing in a share of sixth and wide on the track past an opening half-mile in a sensible :46.94, Litigate was no better than four wide at the three-eighths peg, but was beginning to find his best stride as 43-1 Zydeceaux (Cajun Breeze) continued to do the heavy lifting up front. Put to a hard drive, the bay colt caught the eye with a three- or four-wide sweep approaching the stretch, struck to the front with a little more than a furlong to travel and held sway late to score.

Favored Dubuyhnell (Good Magic), winner of last year's GII Remsen S., was checked sharply into the first turn and never reached contention.

"The first turn was very rough and I had to check really hard," said jockey Jose Ortiz. "After that, he never got back on rhythm. That took him out of the race. It was very hard to get back to where I wanted to be."

By an Eclipse Award and GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner and out of a mare by a Horse of the Year who twice won Grade Is at 10 furlongs, some might have questioned Litigate's ability to shine going three-quarters of a mile on Aqueduct debut Nov. 19, but that he did, overcoming a wide trip to graduate by 3/4 of a length. He found only beaten GIII Holy Bull S. favorite Cyclone Mischief (Into Mischief) too strong over Gulfstream's one-turn mile Jan. 8 and was well-backed to give Todd Pletcher a seventh Sam F. Davis trophy.

"He just really improved mentally since his last race and he put it all together today," said Centennial President Don Little, Jr. "[Jockey] Luis [Saez] gave him a really tactical ride. He broke him early, got in there and saved some ground in the first turn and then moved him to the outside and let him rock. He came running at the end. It's exciting to be on the Derby trail."

A 20th winner at the graded level and 44th black-type winner overall for his productive stallion, Litigate is out of an unraced half-sister to dual Grade III-winning sprinter Pacific Ocean (Ghostzapper) and to British stakes-placed Salsa Star (Giant's Causeway), the dam of Blame's two-time Grade III winner Blamed and of the stakes-placed Chubby Star (Malibu Moon). Third dam Oscillate was responsible for the outstanding South American shuttler Mutakddim (Seeking the Gold) and was a half-sister to champion Rhythm (Mr. Prospector) and his full-sister Get Lucky, whose produce included Grade I winner Girolamo (A.P. Indy) and MGSW & GISP Accelerator (A.P. Indy).

A winner in half of his previous 14 visits to the Gulfstream turf course and of eight of 19 tries at this abbreviated distance, Yes I Am Free successfully defended his title in the Gulfstream Park Turf Sprint, albeit at a fraction of the 8-1 on offer 12 months back.

The 7-year-old won the break and was soon down onto the fence for Miguel Vasquez, covering the opening couple of furlongs in a manageable :21.75. The pacesetter appeared to want to lay out as Carotari and Shekky Shebaz rolled up two and three wide, respectively, to take a crack, but Yes I Am Free gave a nice kick and never truly looked like losing.

Victorious in the course-and-distance Silks Run S. last March, Yes I Am Free was well beaten in the Get Serious S. at Monmouth in May and went missing off an eighth in the Bob Umphrey Turf Sprint at this venue July 3. The chestnut prepped for this with a hard-fought nose success in a Jan. 19 allowance.

Disarm's maiden win was further flattered by last weekend's GIII Holy Bull S. winner Rocket Can (Into Mischief), who was a distant fifth on debut at the Spa that day.

"He went a little off behind," said David Fiske, longtime advisor to the Winchell family. "It was diagnosed as a sesamoid problem, so he just took some time off. It took a little longer than what we expected. He's been working well at the Fair Grounds. He actually worked with (MGISW) Clairiere (Curlin) the other day. He's on the verge of a comeback."

What have the reports been like coming out of New Orleans so far?

"He worked with Clairiere (Tuesday)," Fiske reiterated with a big laugh. "I think he's been doing really well."

Disarm--one of seven 'Rising Stars' for his record-setting 2021 freshman sire Gun Runner--is a half-brother to Venezuelan champion stayer Tap Daddy (Scat Daddy), who was also a stakes winner and graded-stakes placed on these shores.

"He's been jogging a considerable number of miles at the Fair Grounds for about the last month and is doing great," Fiske said. "He's due to have a reassessment this weekend, and if Dr. (Larry) Bramlage likes all the ultrasounds and X-rays and everything, then hopefully we get a green light to resume serious training."

He continued, "The race that he ran at Keeneland was super impressive--impressive enough to be the favorite in the first future pool. We'll see if he comes back as good as he was. Every indication is that he is. So, we'll just have to see."

One of 36 'Rising Stars' for leading sire Into Mischief, Extra Anejo hails from the extended female family of the brilliant champion grass mare Islington (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). He was bred in Kentucky by Mt. Brilliant Farm, LLC and Orrin H. Ingram.

In addition to the aforementioned highly promising 3-year-old duo, there is plenty more to look forward to for these connections in 2023.

Red Route One (Gun Runner) will continue down the GI Kentucky Derby trail following a second-place finish in the GIII Southwest S.; GISW Gunite (Gun Runner) is on target for the $1.5-million G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint on the Saudi Cup undercard; and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint second and third-place finishers champion Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) and Wicked Halo (Gun Runner) are currently back in training for their 4-year-old seasons.

"I told Steve (Asmussen) the other day, it's almost like we're putting the band back together," Fiske concluded. "Bunch of talented horses and hopefully we can make some noise with them this year."

LEARNING TO FLY 'JUSTIFYS' THE HYPE

by TDN AusNZ

The Annabel Neasham-trained Learning To Fly (Aus) (Justify) turned heads when she broke her maiden in the G3 Widden S. last month and she more than justified that hype when overcoming a wide barrier to win the Inglis Millennium (Listed Restricted) at Sydney's Randwick Race Course on Saturday.

After breaking cleanly from gate 15, the filly was settled on the outside by Chad Schofield, who was happy to sit on the wide outside. As the field rounded the turn, Learning To Fly showed she was aptly named, storming down the outside to swoop the A$2-million honours and come away with a 0.27l win over Blanc De Blanc (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}). Kundalini (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) ran another solid race to finish third (video).

LOOKIN AT LUCKY'S TALL BOY BREAKS MAIDEN IN UAE 2000 GUINEAS

by Heather Anderson

Calumet Farm's Tall Boy (Lookin At Lucky) broke his maiden in stirring fashion, running out a length winner of the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas over Shirl's Bee (Bee Jersey) for trainer Doug O'Neill and jockey William Buick at Meydan on Friday evening....Bred by Rockingham Ranch, the February-born colt.....is the 72nd stakes winner for his GI Preakness S.-winning Coolmore Ashford sire.

SHE'S LOOKIN LUCKY won a MSW at the Fair Grounds by 13¼ lengths on Thursday for Matt Shirer & owner/breeder Richard Dunn.

THE 2022-23 ALL-VALUE SIRE TEAM

BY JOE NEVILLS 11.28.2022

Simply put, there is no active stallion in North America standing for under $20,000 with a resume more complete than that of Ashford Stud resident Lookin At Lucky. On a roster that features Triple Crown winners, champions, and plenty of fresh faces on an annual basis, it can be easy to forget just how much Lookin At Lucky has done in a relatively short amount of time....Reminiscent of his own sire, Smart Strike, Lookin At Lucky has proven he can meet a breeder's intent at a high level.

Kia Ora paid A$900,000 for the filly at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale last year when she was offered by Coolmore, who retained a share in the youngster.

"To the staff's credit back at the farm, they earmarked this filly from day one as the best of all of them and from what we've seen so far, she looks extremely special and possibly the filly of her time," Coolmore's Tom Magnier said.

"What Annabel has done with her is nothing short of extraordinary. She's weaved her magic and turned this filly into the star she is today. "She's in the [G1 Longines Golden] Slipper [A$4.92 million, Rosehill, Mar. 18] now, with some of this Inglis prize money counting toward qualification so we'll set out a path now toward there and hopefully become the first Millennium winner to win the Slipper."

Kia Ora's Shane Wright said he always thought the filly had star quality.

Learning To Fly | Ashlea Brennan

"We knew she was an exceptional filly so while you never expect to see that, it's always a delight to sit back and watch a win like that with a very, very special filly," Wright said. "When we drew barrier 19 I think everybody was a bit flat, but once we looked at things and decided to run, we knew we'd need a great ride by Chad [Schofield] and while he was obviously wide, he always had cover and just let the filly come into the race.

"At the top of the straight, she was still a way off them but I always thought deep down she was good enough to round them up and it's amazing to see her do it."

In winning the Millennium, Learning To Fly earned her connections a new Ferrari, as part of a Coolmore promotion at last year's yearling sales for the first progeny of Justify to one of 16 races they earmarked, and the A$2 million-event was one of them.

"The keys are in my pocket at the moment but we'll work out the next few days who gets the car," Wright said.

Quality Road | Lane's End

NO SHADE ON HOLLYWOODLAND AT GULFSTREAM

7th-GP, $84K, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 3:07 p.m.

HOLLYWOODLAND (Quality Road) was a $500,000 KEESEP purchase as a yearling by owner Joseph Allen, who bred and campaigns recent GIII La Prevoyante S. winner Personal Best (Tapit). This filly's dam, Union City, is a full-sister to MGSW Dixie City, whose own offspring Reef Point (Giant's Causeway) produced MGSW Bubble Rock (More Than Ready). Not to be outdone, Union City is also responsible for GII Peter Pan S. hero Unified (Candy Ride {Arg}). Breaking from the three hole on Sunday, Hollywoodland will get the services of Tyler Gaffalione.

TJCIS PPS

9th-GP, $84K, Msw, 3yo, f, 1m, 4:06 p.m.

SHADE (Street Sense) was a $500,000 KEESEP purchase by now-retired agent Frank Brothers for Star Ladies Racing, LNJ Foxwoods and Gainesway Stable. Irad Ortiz, Jr. will be in the irons aboard the Todd Pletcher trainee, who breaks from the outside. Second dam Carolina Sunrise (Awesome Again) has a pair of stakes winners to her credit, including Reveron (Songandaprayer) and Steal Sunshine (Constitution). Shade's dam Simply Sunny produced G3 UAE Two Thousand Guineas winner Fore Left (Twirling Candy), and is responsible for an unnamed colt by Flatter who fetched $360,000 at KEESEP in 2021. TJCIS PPS

Since breaking her maiden at Colonial Downs last September, Dreaming of Snow has been a Florida girl, contesting three straight at Tampa Bay Downs including an 8 1/2-length win against optional claimers two starts back Dec. 17. Fourth in the Gasparilla S. Jan. 14 behind a pair of rivals she faced Saturday, the $60,000 OBS March grad was let go as an unconvincing 38-1 shot against newly crowned Eclipse champion Wonder Wheel and GII Demoiselle S. winner Julia Shining.

Undeterred by the falling rain and hustled to the front after brief contact with Champagne Calling (Empire Maker) to her inside at the break, Dreaming of Snow tucked in against the rail continued to set the tempo up the backstretch, opening up nearly a length on the field as the opening half went in :47.07. Challenged by a three-wide Wonder Wheel as the field exited the far turn, Dreaming of Snow refused to give in, fighting gamely on the rail to hold off the champ and a closing Julia Shining for the win.

"I know this filly well and when I got on her in the morning for the first time, I told [trainer Gerald Bennett] I have to stay on her," said winning jockey Samy Camacho. "She's pretty nice, but I never thought she would run two turns like this. She came back again when Wonder Wheel came to her. I beat Wonder Wheel--Wow! I'm pretty happy!"

Snow Fashion has a 2-year-old colt, Snowname (The Big Beast) and foaled another colt, Keep On Snowing (Valiant Minister), last year but was not reported bred for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Second to 'TDN Rising Star' Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) when debuted at Churchill in September, Klassy Bridgette had to endure one more runner-up effort before breaking her maiden by a neck at Oaklawn over a muddy track Dec. 11. A six-length winner against optional claimers last time out, Saturday's 5-2 choice entered on a roll in Arkansas and already well-prepared to handle the off going. Despite breaking on even terms with the field, she took back to rate off the pace, leading only one rival through the opening half while saving ground along the inside. Angled out wide while starting her run as the field straightened for the wire, Klassy Bridgette dove between rivals with a furlong to travel, engaged Pate late, and narrowly prevailed. The winner was a $2,000 in-utero purchase at Keeneland November in 2019 and is her dam's last reported foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

A European turf sprinter that was fourth against the boys in the G1 Prix Morny S. at Deauville (Fr) Aug. 21 and third in the G3 Prix Eclipse S. at Chantilly (Fr) Sept. 17, the bay filly came to Keeneland for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Filly Turf where she ended up eighth. Making the transition to a new barn, her first trip to Southern California was a strong second by 1 1/2-lengths at a mile on the grass in the Blue Norther S. at San Anita Dec. 30.

This time, rewarded at the windows with even-money favoritism, the McCarthy trainee bided her time in the second flight as Itzel (Mo Town) led the way down the unique hillside course. Crossing over the dirt at the top of the lane, Manhattan Jungle swung to the outside, exhibited a strong turn of foot, and barreled towards the line to win by 3/4 length over the tardy Ragtime Rose (Union Rags).

"Frankie said she was kind of busy checking out the surroundings coming down the hill," said Mike McCarthy. "From my vantage point as they were coming down the hill, I lost her for a quick second as they went behind the (video) board, it looked like she was just off the pace."

The winner is out of a dam that most recently produced a 2-year-old filly by Sioux Nation and a yearling colt by Shaman (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Margins: 4 1/4, 3/4, 9 1/4. Odds: 1.75, 2.60, 3.10.

Also Ran: Daydreaming Boy, Kool Kathmandu.

A debut winner at Churchill Downs in May 2022, Drew's Gold went to the sidelines for the next eight months before making a winning return to the races at Laurel Park Jan. 28. Favored at 8-5 for his first try against stakes company in New York, the colt pressed the pace, keeping things tight up front for early leader Kool Kathmandu (Frosted). Outside with plenty of run left, he drew alongside a new leader in Clubhouse and went right on by past the quarter pole, stretching his lead down the lane to win by open lengths and stay undefeated in his short career.

"I loved seeing that [the good break] because what he was doing is he was getting himself left and then he was taking off up the backside," said winning trainer James Chapman. "Whenever you've got to grab a horse like that, it takes a lot out of them. He [Jose Gomez] was able to ride him with one rhythm today, which I think helped him. He likes to sit with horses and watch horses, so when he broke good, I figured we had a really good chance."

A half-sister to a stakes winner in American Frolic (Blame), Drew's Gold has only one younger sibling--a yearling half-brother by the late Laoban. Frolic's Revenge visited City of Light for a 2023 foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Despite having only raced three times since debuting late as a juvenile in 2021, Drifaros has managed to maintain a perfect record since that third-place unveiling, capturing her fourth victory in a row and first black-type success in the Minaret S.

Off at 7-1 here with the betting public understandably settling on GISP Caramel Swirl (Union Rags) as the favorite, Drifaros locked horns with an eager early rival but managed to maintain a head advantage at every internal call.

Still in battle from the two path as the pair swung around the turn, she kicked clear in upper stretch as her sparring partner faded to last and maintained a healthy margin to the wire as Olivia Darling kept on to pick up second.

My Destiny closed from the back to round out the trifecta, while Caramel Swirl could do no better than fourth at 2-5.

"She's so gutsy. She really is," said Pompay. "It went better than the game plan. I was worried that [My Destiny] might push us, because you never know when they get to a certain point and go 'I can't do this.' But this was a great effort."

debut Aug. 6, filled the same spot in a Sept. 3 Spa maiden won by future MGSW Instant Coffee (Bolt d'Oro) and also included GII Remsen S. winner Dubyuhnell (Good Magic) and GIII Holy Bull S. victor Rocket Can (Into Mischief). Making his seasonal debut with first-time Lasix, Arthur's Ride contested the issue with 8-5 favorite Case (Sky Mesa) from the two path. Shifting to the rail around the bend, he came under urging passing the three-eighths pole before getting a right-handed cue at the top of the lane. Having put open lengths on his early challenger, the eye-catching grey safely held his 1 1/2-length margin to the wire as seven-wide Dreamlike (Gun Runner) overtook Case for the runner-up spot. TITA MIMOSA (IRE) (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Needmore Flattery {MSW, $732,103}, by Flatter), the half-sister to 'TDN Rising Star' and G1 Saudi Cup probable favorite Taiba (Gun Runner), MGISW, $1,956,200, broke as the 7-2 second choice in her afternoon bow and immediately charged to the front outside of Sweet Melady (Maclean's Music) to take a narrow advantage. Dueling up the backstretch with 24-1 shot Rosario's Prayer (Sky Kingdom), Tita Mimosa continued to fight that rival around the turn and into the lane. The pair took turns on the lead, bobbing heads down to the wire with Tita Mimosa getting the winning end of a photo finish as Rosario's Prayer just held on for second in front of a fast-closing Broken Hearts Bay (Super Saver). Needmore Flattery is the dam of a colt by G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Waldgeist (GB) that sold for €81,000 at last year's Arqana October Yearling Sale and has not been reported bred since. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

JUNIPER'S MOON (f, 3, Galileo {Ire}--I'm a Chatterbox {MGISW, $2,354,454}, by Munnings), a debut second on the grass around two turns at Aqueduct Nov. 5, was eased over the dirt as the favorite when she attempted nine panels in Ozone Park Nov. 25. Shipping to Tampa, the chestnut filly was sent on her way at odds of 9-2, and though a touch rank, she took the lead into the clubhouse turn. Slowing the pace down the backstretch, the $725,000 KEESEP buy conserved enough energy for a final push down the lane, and staved off a late charge up the rail by Lil Miss Moonlight (City Light) to find the wire by 3/4 length. The winner's dam needs no introduction after such a stellar racing career. The dam of just one other offspring make it to the races, I'm A Chatterbox was most recently bred to Into Mischief. Sales History: $725,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $32,525. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Stradivarius embarks on his first season at stud this year

The National Stud

By Alayna Cullen

It is almost unimaginable to think that this year's Yorkshire Cup, Ascot Gold Cup, Goodwood Cup or Lonsdale Cup will be run without Stradivarius (Ire). His appearance in those races had become a near constant occurrence for the past number of years and in an industry where retiring a stallion prospect at two is not out of the question we should count ourselves lucky that we were able to witness the striking son of Sea The Stars (Ire)'s prowess on the racecourse for so long. Having now swapped Newmarket Heath for the green pastures of The National Stud, as he begins his stallion career, the draw of Bjorn Neilson's superstar has not been lost.

"Everybody across the world knew about Stradivarius," says Joe Bradley, the recently appointed Head of Bloodstock Operations at the stud. "But here in Newmarket in particular, he was a huge personality on the heath and he's a very important horse to a lot of people."

It may seem a daunting task to take on a celebrity of the racing ranks and maybe even more so when a horse whose career like Stradivarius's may not necessarily be what every breeder is after but the team at The National Stud are confident in the horse, allowing his credentials to speak for themselves.

MARQUAND SUSTAINS CONCUSSION IN RANDWICK FALL

Jockey Tom Marquand, who is riding a stint in Australia, fell off his mount due to interference in the A$2-million Inglis Millennium and sustained a concussion at Royal Randwick on Saturday.

Marquand was riding trainer Annabel Neasham's Dorothy Gail (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}), and was unseated by a mid-race maneuver from the Josh Parr-ridden Hellish (Aus) (Hellbent {Aus}). Parr was suspended 20 meetings for the careless riding incident.

"That was pretty horrible," Neasham, who won the race with Learning To Fly (Aus) (Justify), told SKY Thoroughbred Central. "He [Marquand] is ok, he is sitting up, he is talking, he is holding his shoulder but he's okay. He's conscious, so he looks okay."

"We don't shy away from what he achieved," said Bradley when reminiscing on Stradivarius's racing career. "We're proud of it. He finished races in a way that most horses couldn't.

People understood the quality he has. He's by an amazing stallion, he's got a fantastic pedigree. He's got the race performance, and physically he's an exceptional animal."

By allowing the facts to do the talking Stradivarius has been well received so far with "a range of breeders that provide mares from a range of distance, from six furlongs right up to a mile and a half," booking a nomination. Given the mix of owner-breeders and commercial breeders that have expressed interest in Stradivarius, the team behind the horse have every reason to be optimistic for his future at stud with a book of over 100 mares coming together nicely.

Joe Bradley | The National Stud

"It's been such an interesting process and it's been great seeing the confidence that breeders have for Stradivarius," Bradley added.

There is no doubt that launching a new stallion brings fresh enthusiasm and excitement, but it is hard to imagine that The National Stud has been lacking in those departments given the other stallions on their roster. Time Test (GB)'s first crop made a huge impression on the track and "he covered 160 mares in 2021." There were a few key performers for the stallion last year with one of note in particular.

"He's got some leading horses for the big races in the summertime," said Bradley.

"What we're really looking forward to is Crypto Force (GB), who is with John Gosden now, making his seasonal return."

Another on the roster who impressed with his first, albeit small, crop was Rajasinghe (Ire). Cont. p4

“She was an exceptional racemare and is heading to Wootton Bassett. The sire is high on our radar having gone from rags to riches and he has already got a Group 1 winner [Zellie] out of a Nathaniel mare. Al Riffa is out of a Galileo mare so it's a good cross, and you'd have to imagine with all those top-class Coolmore mares they are sending it'll go from strength to strength.”

"He has been an amazing horse for Phil Cunningham," said Bradley. "He won the G2 Coventry [S.] in the fastest time. And now, I think people are starting to connect those dots because he's had an amazing first crop with 80% winners to runners with horses that have really shown a good turn of foot."

Rounding off the quartet is Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) who has his first crop of foals this year. Of course, that is not the only interesting fact about the son of Lope De Vega (Ire).

"Lope Y Fernandez is a horse that we're hugely excited by," said Bradley. "We are in a great partnership with Nick Bradley and Whitsbury Manor. And what we're doing is combining what we have, to give him every chance to be a very successful stallion."

Of his first-born foals, so far, Bradley remarked, "They are exactly what we thought they would be. We've been telling breeders that Lope Y Fernandez will put plenty of bone and quality into your mare and into the progeny and that's exactly what we've got."

Like the stallions around him, Bradley seems very at ease in his new role which "incorporates a variety of things that are directly related to the farm and also dealing with clients, sales and nominations."

Starting at a time with the promise of so much growth is not lost of the Irish native who cited it as "very poignant" to be working alongside the likes of Stradivarius. As both embark on what should hopefully be a long and fruitful career, perhaps going the distance isn't such a bad thing after all.

MAKING WAVES: FEB. 4-10

by Heather Anderson

In this new semi-weekly series, the TDN takes a look at the notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column, Feb. 4-10, is highlighted by the victory of upwardly mobile mare Quattroelle (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) in the GIII Megahertz S. on Saturday.

No 'Quat'er Given In Megahertz

Tally-Ho Stud's rising stallion star Mehmas has gone from strength to strength with his progeny, and his freshly minted 5-year-old daughter Quattroelle became his 12th graded/group winner from just three crops to race when running out a half-length winner of Santa Anita's GIII Megahertz S. going a mile over firm turf on Feb. 4 (video).

The winner of the Listed Blue Norther S. as a juvenile in December of 2020, the then-4-year-old mare hit a purple patch of stakes form beginning this past November, running second in the GIII Red Carpet S. at Del Mar behind Bellstreet Bridie (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}), who shares two of the same owners--Red Baron's Barn LLC and Rancho Temescal, LLC --with Quattroelle, who was brought over to the States after just one run in Ireland, a third in a Leopardstown maiden. Third in the GIII Robert J. Frankel S. to subsequent GIII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Queen Goddess (Empire Maker) on New Year's Eve, the Rossenarra Bloodstock-bred was winning for the fourth time in 14 starts in the Megahertz.

Mehmas, a dual Group 2-winning sprinter, has also tasted American stakes success with his progeny in the form of GI Del Mar Oaks victress Going Global (Ire) among others.

On the female side of the pedigree, Quattroelle, who was a €10,000 Tattersalls Ireland September yearling buyback, is the best performer of the placed Heavenly River (Fr), by former star French 3-year-old colt Stormy River (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}). That sire won the G1 Prix Jean Prat, and was placed in the G1 French 2000 Guineas, as well as three other times at the highest level throughout his career. The second foal of her dam, herself a half-sister to stakes winner and G3 Prix du Calvados third Katie's Diamond (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}), Quattroelle is followed by the placed 4-year-old colt The Ganges (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}), the unraced full-sister to that horse named Heavenly Mark (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}) and a yearling full-brother to Quattroelle.

Heavenly River is bred on the same Stormy River--Anabaa cross as Listed South Beach S. heroine Stormy Victoria (Fr) (Stormy River {Fr}), who placed four times at the graded level in North America. Katie's Diamond is the dam of a graded/group winner in the form of G2 Queen Mary S. winner Dramatised (Ire)

(Showcasing {GB}), who was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. This is the extended family of G3 Prix Miesque winner Aquatinta (Ger) (Samum {Ger}), the best foal out of Quattroelle's third dam Arpista (Ger) (Chief Singer {Ire}).

Chief Singer, a foal of 1981, proved top class at both six furlongs and a mile at three with victories in the G1 July Cup, G1 Sussex S. and G2 St. James's Palace S., and was also a winner of the G2 Coventry S. at two. Good enough to bring up the exacta in El Gran Senor's G1 2000 Guineas, he sired just two stakes winners, but Quattroelle's great-granddam was not among them, instead taking third in the Listed Scherping-Rennen at Baden-Baden in 1997

'Earl' Brings The Thunder

It was also a first win at the graded level for another Irish-bred later on the Santa Anita Saturday card, as Earl's Rock (Ire) (Fascinating Rock {Ire}), won the GIII Thunder Road S. over a mile on the grass (video).

From the first crop of his G1 Champion S. and G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup-winning sire who stands at Burgage Stud in Ireland, and one of two overall stakes winners, the 5-year-old gelding became Fascinating Rock's first graded winner with his nose victory.

Bred by Newtown Anner Stud, who also bred his sire, the gelding was an €8,000 yearling purchase out of the Goffs Autumn Sale in 2019. His Darley-bred dam, Ajaadat (GB) by dual French Classic hero and top sire Shamardal, won a trio of races in the UK at 1500 metres and a mile and holds a record of six foals, four of racing age, with Earls Rock her second produce. The gelded 4-year-old Tamra's Rock (Ire) (Fascinating Rock {Ire}) is also a winner, as is his year-younger full-brother Cash Or Crypto (Ire). Ajaadat foaled fillies by Camelot (GB) and the winner's sire in 2021 and 2022, respectively. Cont. p6

Out of the unraced Taarkod (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) herself a daughter of G1 Nassau S. heroine Zahrat Dubai (GB) (Unfuwain), Ajaadat is a full-sister to G3 International Istanbul Trophy second Rekdhat (Ire). Sharmardal has sired German Group 3 winner and G1 Sun Chariot S./G1Prix Rothschild runner-up Half Light (Ire), as well as two other stakes winners out of Singspiel mares. Himself a Group/Grade 1 winner four times in the UK, Canada, and Japan, Singspiel sired 99 black-type winners (52 group), but has bettered that mark as a broodmare sire, with 111 stakes winners (64 group) led by the young Darley sire Too Darn Hot (GB).

Another Graded Success For The 'Prince'

Santa Anita Park was the place to be for Euro-breds last weekend, as Prince Abama (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}), already victorious in the GII Hollywood Turf Cup, beat Masteroffoxhounds (War Front) by a neck over the 1 1/4-mile GIII San Marcos S. on Sunday (video). He was a €29,000 Goffs Sportsman's Yearling Sale purchase by BBA Ireland in 2019.

One of 25 stakes winners and 15 group winners for the recently pensioned Tamayuz, the T. Jones-bred is one of five winners from five to race for his Mr. Greeley dam, who never made it to the races. She is a half-sister to two stakes winners, among them Nymphenburg (San Romano), who was second in the GII Canadian H. His second dam is a winning half-sister to Canadian Champion 3-Year-Old Filly La Lorgnette (Val De l'Orne {Fr}), who took two Canadian Classics including the Queen's Plate, and was also the dam of the high-class three-time Group 1 winner Hawk Wing (Woodman).

Expert Eye Filly Graduates At The Fair Grounds

Away from California graded stakes action, Juddmonte stallion Expert Eye (GB), best known for his GI Breeders' Cup Mile upset in 2018, sired his 27th winner from his first crop with Beautifulnavigator (Ire) (video) striking by three-quarters of a length in New Orleans at the Fair Grounds. From just 19 first-crop 3-year-old runners, she is his seventh winner, taking a 1 1/16-mile turf maiden special weight for trainer Ken McPeck, his wife Sherri's Magdalena Racing and Alfred Riccio on Sunday.

A €70,000 Goffs Orby yearling, the Rathbarry Stud and Abbeylands Farm-bred is a half-sister to Tabarrak (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who won five times at the listed level in England, and was second placed in both the G3 Sovereign S. and G3 John Of Gaunt S., as well as the stakes-placed half-sister The Wagon Wheel (Ire) by Expert Eye's sire Acclamation. Stakes-placed at Warwick, Bahati has a 2-year-old colt by Kodi Bear (Ire) and produced a filly by Acclamation (GB) in 2022.

Racing NSW later tweeted, "Tom's CT scan of his head is clear, however he does have concussion and will be staying in hospital overnight. So far the scans on his shoulder have been clear."

Marquand, who has ridden with success in Australia several times, was due to ride in Qatar next weekend. He had won the day's first race, the Coolmore Pierro Plate, over 1100 metres aboard Café Millenium (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}).

Harper graduated to stakes winner and group stakes winner all at once with a neck victory in her very first attempt in black-type company on Saturday, after breaking her maiden at Hanshin in her second career start on Dec. 18.

The dark bay filly had to work for her first stakes victory, however. After a clean break from the gate, she was content to sit mid-pack in the early going and let the speedy Nishino Cashmere (Discreet Cat) set the pace. As the frontrunner made her way around the far bend, she was quickly overtaken by a handful of rivals, while Harper was on the move as well, making her way from closer to the rail toward the outside. Swung out to avoid the traffic jam in front of her, she set sail for the leaders. Down the stretch, she dug in gamely and had passed all but three with just a handful of yards left to run. A sudden last burst put her head in front to claim the victory as an 11-1 outsider.

JACQUINOT WINS ORR IN STEWARDS' ROOM

Jacquinot | Bronwen Healy

by Lydia Symonds

Jacquinot (Rubick) was awarded victory in the G1 CF Orr S. in the stewards' room after a successful protest from jockey Damian Lane against the Lindsay Park-trained Gentleman Roy (So You Think {NZ}), who was first over the line in the 1400-metre race.

Gentleman Roy crossed the line a 0.2l clear of Jacquinot, but it was deemed a bump around 100 metres from home when Gentleman Roy shifted out led to Lane lodging a complaint which the stewards agreed with and the race was gifted to the Mick Price and Micheal Kent, Jr.-trained son of Rubick.

European import Nugget (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) finished third, while I'm Thunderstruck (NZ) (Shocking) came home in fourth.

This was the first Group 1 win for the colt out of his own age group, having taken out the G1 Golden Rose S. in September a victory which prompted Widden Stud and their partners to purchase a controlling share in the colt, who will stand at Antony Thompson's farm at the conclusion of his racing career.

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Lindsay Maxsted, who retained the colt after he was passed in for $90,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2021, Jacquinot is out of unraced Pierro mare Ponterro, who is herself a daughter of listed-placed Redoute's Choice mare Pontiana.

Pontiana herself has proved herself a top-class broodmare having foaled Group 1 winner Inference, Group 2 scorer Dragon Leap (Pierro) and Jacquinot's listed-winning stablemate Illation (So You Think {NZ}).

Rubick, who began his career in the Coolmore Stud barn, now stands at Swettenham Stud in Victoria and he has enjoyed a brilliant day, siring a new stakes winner when his son Glint Of Silver ran out an impressive winner of the G2 Autumn S. at Sandown-Hillside which saw the stallion's total stakes-winning tally move to eight.

IMPERATRIZ CHALKS UP FOURTH GROUP 1

Imperatriz (I Am Invincible) chalked up her fourth Group 1 victory on Saturday when she produced an effortless display to win the G1 BCD Sprint at Te Rapa.

The daughter of I Am Invincible was settled on the fence and then unleashed her usual turn of speed to collar Babylon Berlin (All Too Hard) halfway down the straight, pulling clear to hand the daughter of All Too Hard her third Group 1 runner-up placing in succession.

Mark Walker was also thrilled with the result and admitted his charge has a special affinity for the Te Rapa track where she remains unbeaten in five starts, all at stakes level.

Imperatriz | Trish Dunell

"When the loose horse was out there, I was a little bit mindful of what was going on, but she is the real deal," he said. "I would love to get her to Australia in this form and maybe get a Group 1 over there."

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Raffles Dancers NZ Ltd, Imperatriz was bought by David Ellis for $360,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2020, where she was offered by Bhima Thoroughbreds, and she is out of winning Shamardal (USA) mare Berimbau, who is herself a half-sister to listed winner Vinco (I Am Invincible).

Imperatriz is one of 14 Group 1 winners for the Yarraman Park-based sire I Am Invincible and with four top-flight wins to her name, the mare is the most elite-level-winning progeny of the stallion.

SHARP PRODUCES SMART PERFORMANCE IN HERBIE

Top-class gelding Sharp 'N' Smart (NZ) (Redwood {GB}) overcame a wide run in transit to win his second Group 1 in the G1 Herbie Dyke S. at Te Rapa.

Having just his second start since returning from an Australian spring campaign that saw him win the G1 Spring Champion S. at Randwick before being narrowly denied victory in the G1 Victoria Derby, the Team Rogerson-trained showed tenacity in spades to beat Campionessa (NZ) (Contributer {Ire}) by 0.8l, while Wild Night (NZ) (Vanbrugh) was another 2l away in third.

Co-trainer Graeme Rogerson said the next stop for the gelding was the G1 New Zealand Derby, before another planned trip across the Tasman for the G1 Australian Derby.

Pedigree Notes

Purchased by his trainers for NZ$55,000 at Book 2 of the 2021 New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale, the Gerry Harvey-bred gelding is out of Queen Margaret (NZ) (Swiss Ace) and she is the half-sister to Absalon (Mossman).
