

ZEDAN CONTINUES BUYING SPREE AS OBS SPRING SALE MARCHES ON

by Jessica Martini & Christina Bossinakis

Ocala, FL—The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training reached its halfway mark Wednesday with a familiar name at the top of the sheets as Amr Zedan paid a session-topping $900,000 for a son of Frosted as figures kept largely on par with the auction's record-setting 2022 renewal.

Through two sessions of the four-day auction, 351 juveniles have sold for $45,886,000. The average is down 6.3% from the end-of-day figure from a year ago and the median is down 6.7% to $70,000. The buy-back rate was 18.9%. It was 19.5% at the same point a year ago.

When post-sale transactions are included in the 2022 figures, the median is unchanged at $70,000 and average is almost identical at $131,826.

The Spring sale a year ago had a million-dollar juvenile on each of the auction's four days and the absence of a break-out horse left Wednesday's session feeling a little threadbare.

"We had some fireworks yesterday and maybe there was a disappointment that we didn't have similar fireworks today, but you can't pick how the catalogue goes," said OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski. "But I thought it was steady all day. I thought we got a lot of horses traded and I thought the action was steady."

TRAINING OPEN AS LAUREL CARDS RACES FOR SATURDAY by J.N. Campbell

Laurel Park will be open for training on Thursday and Friday, with the intent to run this Saturday, Apr. 29, Alan Foreman, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (THA), said by phone Wednesday afternoon.

Last Saturday's cancelled Apr. 22 card of 98 entries included a pair of $100,000 races in the Native Dancer S. and the Primonetta S., scheduled for the main track. This time around, the racing office has taken 116 entries over 11 races with the same slate of five stakes.

The decision to cancel last Friday into the weekend came one day after a horse had to be euthanized, while the another was vanned off and reportedly euthanized. Both ran over the dirt surface Thursday, Apr. 20 in the fourth and fifth races--making five fatalities within the month.

With a pair of $700,000 juveniles leading the way, Wavertree Stables was the session's leading consignor, selling eight lots for $2.4 million.

"It doesn't feel like the easiest market," Wavertree's Ciaran Dunne said. "We sold two really nice horses really well. It's been sticky in spots, but we are really happy with what we've sold and a little disappointed in what we didn't get done."

Making two purchases on behalf of Repole Stable, West Bloodstock was the session's leading buyer.

The OBS Spring Sale continues through Friday. Bidding begins each day at 10:30 a.m.

Frosted Colt Another for Zedan

A day after going to a session-topping $1.45 million for a son of Arrogate, trainer Bob Baffert and bloodstock agent Donato Lanni were back in action for Amr Zedan Wednesday at OBS, going to $900,000 to acquire a colt by Frosted (hip 449) from Longoria Training & Sales. The juvenile worked a furlong last week in :9 3/5.

"He was ridiculously fast," Baffert said of the colt. "He worked beautifully and came out of it well. That's half the battle."

The colt is out of Handwoven (Indian Charlie), a full-sister to multiple stakes-placed Auspicious.

"This was one of the best horses in the sale, I thought," Lanni said. "He deserved to bring that kind of money."

Of the juvenile's sire Frosted, Lanni added, "I believe in the sire. He's still very young and he doesn't have that many crops out there."

Jesse Longoria and Paul Neatherlin | Jessica Martini

The colt was consigned by Jesse Longoria, who partnered with Paul Neatherlin, the vice president of sales for the Texas-based Platinum Pipe Rentals, to acquire him for $50,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Cont.

Asked about the colt's appeal last fall, Longoria said, "The first thing I want to say, because I've been very blessed, I want to thank my Lord and Savior. It's because of him that I am able to do this."

He continued, "When we saw that horse, I just knew I had to have him. And he has been nothing but a blessing. He was kind of late in the sale. I just happened to be in the right place at the right time. And here we are. He's been so easy to train. Everything he did was effortless."

Longoria said he had spent the spring trying to slow the colt down, so he didn't know what to expect of his work last week.

"We've never been able to turn him loose at home," Longoria said. "He was always so fast, I was afraid he would get hurt. He was too fast for what he was fit for. So I always had to be really easy with him because he would give you too much."

Of the $900,000 price tag, Longoria said, "We knew it was going to be good, but we didn't know how good. I am tickled to death by that result."

Longoria and Neatherlin have been friends for three decades, but this is the first year they have partnered up on pinhooking prospects. The partners, all smiles in the back walking ring Wednesday, readily agreed it wouldn't be their last partnership. "He's been great to work with," Longoria said of Neatherlin.

"We had appraised him right before the sale and that was right on the money," said Sharp. "We came in here with quiet confidence. He was a horse on the farm that we really liked. And until you go through the battle, you never know. But we really expected him to do well."

Outlining several of the May 8 foal's main attributes, Sharp explained, "He's just a really well put together horse. The appeal obviously was his sire. I have quite a few [by Justify] at the farm, and they all train great, so that was the key. In addition to the fact that he worked really well. It was a really spectacular work and the gallop out was one of the best that we have seen."

"He is no nonsense, just a good horse and people recognize that."

The bay is out of Iadorakid (Lemon Drop Kid), a half-sister to Canadian champion turf horse El Tormenta (Stormy Atlantic) and graded stakes winner Zero Tolerance (Mizzen Mast). The colt was bred by Idaho native Jason Hall in partnership with BCS Thoroughbreds.

Wallace, formerly Chief Operating Officer with China Horse Club, is very well acquainted with the Ashford Stud stallion, who swept the 2018 American Triple Crown while remaining undefeated. Trained by Bob Baffert, Justify was campaigned by a partnership including China Horse Club.

"He took the eye, physically," said Wallace of the colt. "Back on the shank, everything appealed to us. Obviously, we had some familiarity with Justify. He was a colt we were keen to acquire. We had to pay a little bit for him, but that's the way things go."

Confirming where the colt would go next, he added, "He's going to stay in the States. He'll go out to California to Bob Baffert and we'll take our chances out there."--@CBossTDN

A Homerun for Hall

The reward in the ring of the Justify colt (Hip 510) on Wednesday also provided a broader success for his co-breeder Jason Hall, who has connections with several key members of the immediate female family.

Jason and Silvia Hall | Courtesy Jason Hall

Hall first tasted success with the family when purchasing Iadorakid's dam, Torreadora (El Prado {Ire}), for $8,200 out of the Sam-Son Farm consignment at the Keeneland January sale in 2017. For her breeder, the bargain mare went on to produce El Tormenta, who most notably won the 2019 renewal of the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile en route to a year-end championship. Hall was not left out in the cold, however, since Torreadora would go on to drop a filly by Mizzen Mast in 2018. Campaigned by Hall in partnership, Zero Tolerance would become the longtime breeder's first graded stakes winner as an owner. According to Hall, that grey mare is in foal to Justify.

"We sold Torreadora after [El Tormenta] won the Grade I in Canada, but we still have Zero Tolerance," confirmed Hall.

Iadorakid herself was a $130,000 KEENOV purchase in 2019 carrying a colt by Creative Cause, subsequently named Welton. The 3-year-old broke his maiden first time out at Golden Gate in March for trainer Jonathan Wong and Hall in partnership with Custom Truck Accessories and MJVET Stables, and is set to return in a second-level allowance at Golden Gate shortly. RNAing for $80,000 at Keeneland November last fall, Iadorakid is back in foal to Midnight Lute.

Asked about co-breeder BCS Thoroughbred with whom he partnered to sell Wednesday's second-highest priced colt, Hall explained, "Scott Carbone is a longtime friend and partner from Louisiana. He was one of my original clients back in the day. We've partnered with several horses over the years."

He continued, "Our total operation is at over 90 horses right now and I have partners on every single one. It allows me to diversify and to spread out over 90 rather than own only 20."

Over the past two days of selling, Hall was also represented in the breeding lines by Hip 239, a colt by Jimmy Creed, who sold for $240,000 and Hip 470, a colt by Munnings who brought $170,000. Bred in partnership, Hall also offers Hip 776, a colt by Tapwrit, who sells Thursday. All of the members of Hall's other offerings at this year's OBS Spring sale are consigned by Marcial Galan.--@CBossTDN

Omaha Beach Filly to Join Cox Barn

A filly by Omaha Beach (hip 532), who worked a furlong in :9 4/5 during last week's under-tack preview, will be joining the barn of trainer Brad Cox after selling for $700,000 to bloodstock agent Clay Scherer, bidding on behalf of an undisclosed client, Wednesday in Ocala.

Clay Scherer | Photos by Z

"She had a great work," Scherer said of the filly. "It was really fast, she leveled off, changed leads. She did everything you like to see."

The bay filly is out of Intelyhente (Smart Strike)--a full-sister to graded winner Bel Air Beauty--and is a half-sister to stakes-placed Count Alexander (Scat Daddy). Cont.

The filly was consigned by Ciaran Dunne's Wavertree Stables and was purchased for $200,000 at Keeneland September last year for the Red Wings Enterprises pinhooking partnership of Dunne and Paul Reddam.

Red Wings had pinhooking success at the beginning of Wednesday's session, selling a colt by Bolt d'Oro (hip 320) for $700,000 to Kerri Radcliffe, as agent for Lady Sheila Stable and Partners. That gray had been purchased for $210,000 at Keeneland last fall.

"They were two really nice horses who worked really well," said Dunne. "They were well-received at the barn and I think they sold well."

Freshman sire Omaha Beach was represented by a host of speedy juveniles over the OBS track last week and they began delivering in the sales ring Wednesday. In addition to hip 532, the sire had a colt (hip 466) who worked in :9 4/5 who sold for $650,000 to Spendthrift Farm and Nice Guys Stables from the Mayberry Farm consignment.

"The Omaha Beaches are incredibly athletic," Scherer said. "They do everything the right way. He's a good son of War Front and he comes from a huge family. He's a horse who won the GI Arkansas Derby and another Grade I at seven furlongs. I think, like every other son of War Front, he's going to get you a good horse." @JessMartiniTDN

Colt Proves Lucky for Arellano, Cortez

Javier Arellano, who has been pinhooking for just three years and admits he buys only three or four yearlings a year while working on budget, hit a home run in the OBS sales ring Wednesday, selling a colt by Lookin At Lucky (hip 570) for $700,000 to Jacob West, bidding on behalf of Repole Stable. Arellano and Alex Cortez purchased the bay for $50,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton October sale.

"Dr. Gustavo Vautier helped me to look at horses," Arellano, still basking in the glow of the sales success, said. "I liked the colt, I liked the pedigree. Lookin At Lucky is a nice stallion who was doing really well in Chile and I am from Chile. I liked him physically and I was looking at how I thought he would develop in a couple of years. I was looking to see if he would develop into what he looks like right now."

Javier Arellano | Photos by Z

The bay colt is out of stakes-winner Joffe's Run (Giant's Causeway) and worked a furlong last week in :10 flat.

"We are extremely happy to sell him for that much," Arellano said. "We were expecting a good result, but not this much, to be honest with you. So we are extremely blessed."

Arellano was first exposed to racing in his native Chile. Now an insurance inspector in South Florida, he has been involved in racing for just a few years.

"I started racing some and pinhooking seriously two or three years ago," Arellano said. "And I've been blessed with some good horses, but this is my biggest score so far. It feels great. I can't put it into words. I am just extremely happy."

He continued, "Alex Cortez is the consignor and my partner on the horse. He does really well. He's a horseman. We are a small operation. I normally try to pinhook three or four horses a year. But we just want to do the right amount—we don't want to pay too much on the pinhooking."

Arrogate Colt a Highwater Mark for Weiss

When the hammer came down at $1.45 million for a son of Arrogate (hip 253) Tuesday at OBS, it marked a new high sale for his breeder, Jeff Weiss's Rosedown Racing.

"I sold one for $1.1 million [at the 2018 OBS Spring Sale], a beautiful Medaglia d'Oro filly," Weiss said Wednesday morning. "I didn't think I would beat that, but I did. So I am happy about that."

Still, Weiss admitted it was a bittersweet decision to part with the colt, who was purchased by Amr Zedan and will be joining the Southern California barn of trainer Bob Baffert.

"It was a bit emotional," he said. "I really liked this horse. He was big, 16.2, and he's fast. I love that combination. And it turns out that Baffert does, too."

Based in South Florida, Weiss is involved in commercial real estate, with properties throughout the southeast. He has been involved in racing for over a decade.

"I went to my cousin's wedding in Louisville," Weiss explained of his introduction to the sport. "I met someone who hooked me up with Three Chimneys and I got involved with syndications. And then I went out on my own from there. I really enjoy it. It is my best hobby." Cont.

Weiss currently has six horses in his broodmare band.

"These mares are top of the line," he said of the group. "Scat Daddys, War Front, Medaglias. They are the best of the best. I bought them to race and most of them got injured, that's how they ended up as broodmares. They are all quality, unbelievable pedigrees."

The unraced Destine (War Front), who produced the Arrogate colt, went through the sales ring while in foal to Improbable at last year's Keeneland November sale. Rosedown Racing purchased out a partner on the mare for $30,000.

"She just foaled a bay filly on Saturday," Weiss said. "I am looking at stallions for her. I am looking at Uncle Mo and Justify." Weiss both races and sells his foals as 2-year-olds. His current racing stable is led by Champions Dream (Justify), who won last year's GIII Nashua S.

Weiss admitted he kept celebrations over the seven-figure sale to a minimum.

"I didn't really do anything," he said. "I had some fried chicken. Which I never eat because it's too fattening." @JessMartiniTDN

Laurel Park | Maryland Jockey Club

With numerous talks between the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (MTHA) and The Stronach Group (TSG) last weekend and into Monday, the two sides agreed, with the approval of the Maryland Racing Commission, to allow Laurel and Pimlico's former track superintendent John Passero to conduct his own third-party assessment of the track's suitability for racing.

"Mr. Passero made recommendations and adjustments based on his expertise and understanding of Laurel, and the horsemen respect those decisions," Foreman said. "Training is open Thursday and Friday, and it is my understanding that he will be present to ensure that all goes well during that time."

The Friday forecast calls for heavy rains that could derail the running of Saturday's card, but Foreman confirmed that Passero would be present into the weekend.

"If rain moves in, then we could have to postpone," Foreman said. "There will not be training Saturday morning, and that will give him [Passero] time to issue further findings. There is an air of palpable confidence and we know this will lead to a positive situation for everyone. I only regret that we did not come to a decision sooner."

Within the ranks of Maryland's horsemen others have expressed ongoing concern.

Trainer Lacey Gaudet said, "I won't be participating in breezing or racing this weekend. The weather is also a factor in that, but everything is still awfully raw, and I just want to be confident before my stable moves forward. I can't thank all of my owners and clients enough for supporting that decision as a horseman."

Laurel's 11-race card on Saturday also includes three turf stakes and an allowance race, which could be rained off and moved to the main track, if racing is deemed safe to proceed.

DERMA SOTOGAKE DRILLS; THURSDAY OAKS SCHEDULE QUICKENS

Derma Sotogake | Coady Photography

Three GI Kentucky Derby hopefuls, as well as a GI Kentucky Oaks potential entrant, worked Wednesday morning over a fast surface at Churchill Downs, the track said in a release on Wednesday.

Hiroyuki Asanuma's G2 UAE Derby winner Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits) drilled five furlongs in 1:01.40 and was partnered with Lion Race Horse Co. Ltd.'s Continuar (Jpn) (Drefong), who worked a half-mile in :50.

Shortly after those breezes during the 7:30-7:45 training window for Derby and Oaks horses, R.T. Racing Stable and Cypress Creek Equine's Sun Thunder (Into Mischief) worked a half-mile on his own in :48.60 with jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. aboard.

"He pretty much just clipped 12s the whole way around," Hernandez said. "They added blinkers to him this morning, and that seems to make him want to go forward, and kind of get into things a little earlier than he did before the blinkers. He finished in 48 and 3 [-fifths], with a good gallop out."

Richard Bahde's Taxed (Collected), the runner-up in the GIII Fantasy S. and No. 15 on the Road to the Kentucky Oaks leaderboard, worked a half-mile in :47.60 under jockey Rafael Bejarano.

Derma Sotogake and Continuar's Work

The pair of Japanese workmates drilled continuing through five furlongs, with Continuar completing a half-mile.

THOROUGHBREDS

WEST POINT THOROUGHBREDS has generously donated a 2% interest in their 2-year-old-racehorse LADY BONHEUR during her racing career to Habitat for Humanity of Monmouth County's Veterans Build Program.

The interest will be auctioned off by silent auction on Saturday evening, APRIL 29.

Lady Bonheur is an unraced 2-year-old filly by Munnings trained by Hall-Of-Fame nominee Christophe Clement. The filly is expected to compete on the New York and Florida racing circuits.

This incredibly awesome ownership experience includes:

- ★ Absolutely NO BILLS EVER
- ★ Access to online communications about your horse and the entire West Point stable
- ★ Access to paddock and (hopefully) winner's circle
- ★ Invitations to partner and industry special events
- ★ You get ALL the fun and we guarantee NONE of the training bills. You'll receive any net racetrack purse distributions the horse may earn.

Habitat for Humanity's Veterans Build program equips houses for vets to allow them to stay in their own homes with dignity, provides home repairs, builds new homes, and more.

Fractions for Derma Sotogake were :25.80, :37.20, :48.60 and 1:01.40. Continuar was clocked in :13.40, :26.40, :50 and out five furlongs in 1:04.40.

Both horses will walk in the Quarantine Barn on Thursday.

Kate Hunter, the Japan Racing Association representative for the Kentucky Derby, said that both riders were happy with the works with Segawa pleased with the response in the stretch from Derma Sotogake.

Yoshito Yahagi, trainer of Continuar, is scheduled to arrive in Louisville on Monday with Hidetaka Otonashi, trainer of Derma Sotogake, due in the following day.

Thursday Schedule

One Derby work is scheduled for Thursday morning and that is Wild On Ice (Tapizar). Jockey Ken Tohill is flying to Louisville this afternoon and will be aboard for the work for trainer Joel Marr.

The Kentucky Oaks work schedule Thursday is much heavier with nine breezes slated.

Trainer Brad Cox is expected to work his trio of Wet Paint (Blame), Botanical (Medaglia d'Oro) and The Alys Look (Connect). Trainer Todd Pletcher has his duo of Gambling Girl (Dialed In) and Julia Shining (Curlin) scheduled to breeze along with Southlawn (Pioneer of the Nile) for Norm Casse, Flying Connection (Nyquist) for Todd Fincher, Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) for Mark Casse and possibly Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) for Brendan Walsh.

TRIPLE CROWN HERO JUSTIFY RETURNS TO COOLMORE AUSTRALIA FOR SHUTTLE DUTY

Triple Crown hero Justify (Scat Daddy) will resume his shuttling duties at Coolmore Australia this year. The Jerry Plains operation released its 2023 roster and fees earlier Wednesday. It will be the chestnut's fourth Southern Hemisphere season and his fee will be determined in the coming weeks.

Of his three Southern Hemisphere winners--Californian (Aus), Legacies (Aus), etc.--the best is G2 Reisling S. and G3 Widden S. heroine Learning To Fly (Aus). He covered books of 149, 142 and 82 from 2019-2021. Justify is currently leading the Australian First-Season Sires' table by earnings.

"We welcome Justify back to Australia with open arms," said Tom Moore, Coolmore's head of marketing and nominations. "It's on the back of a remarkable start to his stud career, and while it's only early days for him in Australia, he has already produced arguably the best 2-year-old filly in Australia in Learning To Fly.

Justify | Coolmore

"He's the leading First-Season Sire by a significant margin, and the feedback we're getting from trainers throughout Australia suggests this is only the tip of the iceberg for him in this part of the world. We expect his credentials to keep improving as the season goes on."

In the sale ring, Justify's debut yearlings averaged A$244,545 last year, and his second crop averaged just shy of A$220,000. His priciest yearling was a A$1.4-million son of Group 1 winner Sunlight (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}), who went to Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott.

"It's particularly encouraging that Justify has already proven to be extremely effective with Danehill blood," Moore said. "Learning To Fly is out of a Fastnet Rock (Aus) mare, while Legacies (Aus) is out of a Danehill Dancer (Ire) mare. Cont.

"We are immensely confident that Justify will elevate himself into an elite stallion within the Australian ranks and, most importantly, provide another outcross option for top-class mares, just like So You Think (NZ), Wootton Bassett (GB) and Pierro (Aus)."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

by Richard Resnik

I am writing in response to one of the comments on Dan Liebman's Letter to the Editor on Computer Assisted Wagering (CAW). I am certain the CAW issue is drowning you and there are more important voices than mine to be heard.

I will take this opportunity to share a few pieces of relevant information that form the basis for my ire on this issue. First, I am 77, a retired litigator and at a point in my life where betting is part of horse racing as a hobby. I was never a big bettor, but I am now betting 10-20% of what I used to bet.

My enjoyment comes from playing contests online and picking a race here and there to bet. And it is not just me--it is all my friends who have shared this passion with me for up to 50 years. (The photo of me and my wife at Royal Ascot--me in Dave Johnson's top hat--is available on request.) To use a Bronx expression, I would have to be a schmuck to continue to bet as in days of yore in the face of the CAW issue (among others) and my parents did not raise a schmuck. Second, I was at the NHC in March.

In the past, much of the gossip centered around the super-trainer issue and their magical powers. Not this year. All conversations were dominated by the CAW issue. As a well-known owner said to me, "it is the elephant in the room."

Coady

Finally, the lack of transparency is troubling. Although it is fairly well-known now that NYRA and Stronach are partners in Elite Turf, both entities have attempted to secret that ownership. I had used Xpressbet as my primary ADW.

When Stronach's involvement in Elite became known, I was troubled. I wrote to Xpressbet, expressed my concern that the playing field was not level and received the following response: "Stronach has no interest in Elite Turf." I replied by advising the sender that I was a retired litigator who did a lot of fraud litigation and I asked, "Are you stating that Stronach or its affiliates have neither a direct nor indirect interest in Elite?" I received the same form response.

I will not allow myself to be treated like that and my wagering has gone elsewhere. I am a minnow--if that--in the scheme of what is going on and have found a successful work-around to enable me to continue to enjoy my hobby. I am troubled at the racing press's lack of focus on this issue and appreciate your being a captive audience. Thanks for listening.

OLD FRIENDS TO DEDICATE NEW SIGNS DURING HOMECOMING

Old Friends Farm | Sarah Andrew

The Thoroughbred retirement farm Old Friends will dedicate three new street signs during its 18th Annual Homecoming event, Sunday, May 7 from noon to 4 p.m. (EST), the organization said in a release on Wednesday.

The new signs will honor: Dave Litfin, "Litfin Lane," author and writer for the Daily Racing Form; Bob Neumeier, "Neumeier Street," NBC broadcaster; and Jay Privman, "Privman Pass," recently retired turf writer from the Daily Racing Form.

"This trio of remarkable chroniclers of Thoroughbred racing will have paths named after them at Old Friends to remind all of our visitors of the importance of their stories," said Michael Blowen, President and founder of Old Friends. "We owe them a huge debt of gratitude."

KEENELAND.

the GREEN PAPERS

Fast Out of the Gate

Eager to get their hands on the best of the best, buyers at last year's September Yearling Sale jumped at the opportunity from the start, resulting in some of the auction's most robust trade coming in the first 20 horses that sold. In fact, across-the-board stats from the first 20 hips sold suggest sellers can have confidence in the marketplace to deliver exceptional results from Hip 1 on.

THURSDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: WELL-RELATED UNION RAGS FILLY DEBUTS AT KEENELAND

Union Harmony at the 2021 Saratoga Sale | Fasig-Tipton

3rd-KEE, $100k, Msw, 3yo, f, a7f, 2:04 p.m. ET

Bridlewood Farm homebred UNION HARMONY (Union Rags), produced by a half-sister to the superstar trio of Into Mischief, Beholder and Mendelssohn, kicks off her career for trainer Brendan Walsh. Union Harmony's dam Leslie's Harmony (Curlin), a $1.1-million KEESEP yearling, was winless in two tries for Bridlewood Farm and trainer Todd Pletcher. Union Harmony, scratched from the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale, worked four furlongs from the gate in :47 1/5 (2/56) at Keeneland Apr. 16. This same Union Rags over Smart Strike cross is responsible for GISW Union Strike as well as graded winners Dynamic One, Spielberg, Caramel Swirl and Bees and Honey. TJCS PPs nice hold in fifth and hit the gas while four wide at the top of the stretch. He struck the front in the stretch and held off favored Exact Estimate (Into Mischief) to win by a neck. Catnip, a popular maiden winner over the Colonial grass last summer, followed a sixth-place finish in the GIII Virginia Derby with a fourth-place finish in a Keeneland allowance last time Oct. 26. The winner is a half-brother to Princess Grace (Karakontie {Jpn}), MGSW & MGISP-USA, GSW-Aus, $1,548,485. Masquerade has also produced the 2-year-old filly Mixologist (Frosted), the yearling filly Miss U. S. A. (American Pharoah) and a filly by Gun Runner of this year. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $113,849. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O/B-John & Susan Moore (KY); T-Michael Stidham.

the front. The 3-1 chance led through fast fractions of :21.49 and :44.22 and never looked back, scoring by three lengths. Popular 9-year-old Bound for Nowhere (The Factor) completed the exacta as the 4-5 favorite. Our Shot made only two previous attempts on grass, coming from off the pace in both, winning a Pimlico allowance last May and finishing a close fourth off the layoff at Gulfstream Jan. 19. He entered off an optional claiming win over the Tampa main track Mar. 3. Fleetheart is also represented by the 2-year-old colt Michaelshatrick (The Factor) and a yearling filly by The Factor. She was bred to Kantharos for 2023. CHARGING (c, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Electric, by Smart Strike), breaking from the far outside in post 10 as the 5-2 choice, sped out to the front through fractions of :21.53 and :44.84, and dropped the hammer in the stretch to graduate with authority by six lengths. Say It Loud (Midnight Storm) won the blanket photo for second. The Triple Crown-nominated Charging was turning back from a second-place finish as the favorite behind a next-out winner going a mile over the Fair Grounds lawn Mar. 26. Electric, from the same female family as GI Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos (Maria's Mon) and GI Hill 'N' Dale Metropolitan H. winner Silver State (Hard Spun), has also produced the 2-year-old colt Green Light (Hard Spun) and a yearling colt named Engineer (Omaha Beach). She was bred to Essential Quality for 2023. Sales history: $125,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $72,850. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

1st-Keeneland, $74,410, Msw, 4-26, 2yo, 4 1/2f, :52.52, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

COMMISSIONER DAN (c, 2, Commissioner--Miss Livona, by Dixie Union), listed at 30-1 on the morning-line and off at 11-1 for this debut run, pressed heavily favored Wesley Ward-trained firster Blue Eyed Soul (Ire) (No Navy Never) from an outside second and powered right on by in the stretch to graduate by 1 3/4 lengths. The winner's dam was bred to Coal Front for 2023. Sales history: $40,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $47,120. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

5th-Keeneland, $64,641, Msw, 4-26, 2yo, f, 4 1/2f, :52.49, ft, 3 lengths.

BRIGHTWORK (f, 2, Outwork--Clarendon Fancy, by Malibu Moon) fired a four-furlong bullet from the gate in :46 4/5 (1/56) at Keeneland Apr. 16 and was off at 4-1 in this debut run. She wasn't off to the sharpest of beginnings from her rail draw and rushed up to force the issue from second. Racing in tight quarters on the inside rounding the far turn, Brightwork took a bump from heavily favored Wesley Ward-trained firster Barbtourage (Into Mischief) at the five-sixteenths pole. Brightwork never said die, impressively, and fought on gamely while racing along the fence down the lane to outbattle that aforementioned rival and win going away by three lengths. The winner is a half-sister to Quiet Company (Temple City), SP, $196,835. Clarendon Fancy, from the family of GISW and promising young sire Girvin (Tale of Ekati), produced a filly by Volatile in 2022 and was bred back to Yaupon. Sales history: $95,000 Wlg '21 FTKNOV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $30,551. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O-WSS Racing, LLC; B-Wynnstay Inc. & H. MARKET REFLECTIONS: BOOMING TRADE BUT IS GOFFS UK IN THE RIGHT SLOT?

Eddie O'Leary: would like to see the sell revert to its original slot Goffs

By Brian Sheerin

Leading vendor Eddie O'Leary has said that Tuesday's record-breaking trade at Goffs UK would have come as a huge relief to vendors who expressed concern about the bolstered catalogue resulting in a watered down trade.

However, the Lynn Lodge Stud boss also suggested that the figures could be even better if the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale returned to its original slot before the Craven Sale at Tattersalls to maximise a horse's chance of getting to Royal Ascot.

There are eight weeks between the the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale and Royal Ascot, which is not enough for a sale that promotes itself as being number one at producing fast and early horses, according to O'Leary.

That argument has been countered by Goffs chief executive Henry Beeby, who says that a record of seven Royal Ascot winners in as many years for its graduates speaks for itself, and explained that the ground in late March on Town Moor would be less than ideal for breezing.

O'Leary said on Wednesday, "I'm a big believer that Doncaster should return to its original slot before the Craven. If it was before the Craven, they could market it as the Royal Ascot two-year-old sale, the first domestic sale of the year where you can get the sharp horses." Cont. p3

BITTER BLOW FOR SHADWELL AFTER DEATH OF PROMISING STALLION EQTIDAAAR

By Brian Sheerin

Shadwell Stud have been dealt a bitter blow with the news that Commonwealth Cup winner and young stallion Eqtidaar (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) has died.

A high-class sprinter for Sir Michael Stoute, Eqtidaar won the G1 Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot in 2018.

The eight-year-old had achieved his greatest result in the sales ring on Tuesday when a filly consigned by Danny O'Donovan sold for £120,000 at the Goffs UK Breeze Up Sale to Peter and Ross Doyle on behalf of Kia Joorabchian's Amo Racing operation.

A statement published by the stud on Wednesday read, "Shadwell are very sorry to have to announce that Eqtidaar, our Group 1 Commonwealth Cup winner and promising young sire, has been put down upon veterinary advice following complications from a recent health condition." Cont. p6

He added, "The way things are at the moment, you can get a big horse at the Craven and then go up to Doncaster to look at the real sharp horses. To me, that's completely the wrong way around."

He added, "There are just eight weeks between Doncaster and Royal Ascot. Buyers have to take the horses home and they could have a snotty nose after the sale, they also have to be named and then they need to run well if not win a maiden before you can think about Ascot, so a lot needs to be crammed into those eight weeks."

"If you flipped it by two weeks, then you have 10 weeks until Royal Ascot, and that would make a huge difference. A lot of sharp horses have gone to the Craven in recent years because it is the first sale of the year so that meant that Tattersalls got the real sharp horses as well as the mid-season types."

While Beeby agrees that, in an ideal world, graduates of the sale would have more time to pull themselves into shape before the royal meeting but he is choosing to adopt a 'if it's not broke don't fix it' approach after booming trade.

He said, "Eddie makes a good point but there are two things to consider. First of all, we've got an unbelievable Royal Ascot record in recent times with the sale in its current slot. We are proving that, as long as the vendors support us with the horses that they have been, that's all that matters."

"There have been seven Royal Ascot winners from the past seven years of this sale and that speaks for itself. The second thing to consider is that the ground is always a major issue at any breeze-up. It was good breezing ground this year but those extra couple of weeks make a heck of a difference to the ground, which in turn has a real impact on what happens in the sales ring."

Beeby added, "I completely understand what Eddie is saying but we have a good slot, have just smashed every single record and are pumping out Royal Ascot winners. One thing my dear old father used to say was, when you've got something right, don't be messing around with it. Keep it the way it is."

Daniel Creighton: 'Demand For Royal Ascot Runners Helped The Market'

Top bloodstock agent Daniel Creighton, who bought multiple Group 1 winner and superstar mare Laurens (Fr) (Siyiouni (Fr)) at the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, maintains that Tuesday's trade is an illustration of the demand for Royal Ascot two-year-old runners and said that he was bowled over by the fact 33 horses realised £100,000 or more.

"My main takeaway from the sale was the amount of horses who made six figures," Creighton said. "I can't remember so many six-figure horses at the Doncaster breeze-up sale. The market was extremely hot for horses who were deemed acceptable." Cont. p4

He added, “The polarisation of the ones they want and the ones they don’t is probably increasing to some degree as well.

“Doncaster obviously has a very good record at producing horses for Royal Ascot and they were probably helped by the amount of people who want that two-year-old who is ready to go and maybe end up at the royal meeting. That’s definitely swinging the market in their favour.”

Creighton is in the rare position to comment on the market given he owns a share in a number of breeze-up horses with Katie McGivern of Derryconnor Stud and also lays claim to a notable track record as a buyer.

He admits that he was operating from a small but select list at the Craven Sale and, after leaving Tattersalls empty-handed, struck at Goffs UK when securing a Night Of Thunder (Ire) colt consigned by Norman Williamson of Oak Tree Farm for £155,000.

He said, “I tried to buy at the Craven but I couldn’t get the horses I wanted. They made too much money. To be honest, there weren’t many on my list at the Craven and anything that I really wanted, they were too expensive. I’m looking to buy a good horse who can run at two. My brief is to try and buy a Group horse.”

Daniel Creighton | Goffs UK

Creighton, who operates alongside Josh Schwarz under CS Bloodstock, added, “I also believe that the clock still has a huge influence on what horses are making. A lot of people are determined by it. I can’t speak for everyone but there are a lot of other things to take into account when buying a horse.”

Like Eddie O’Leary, who relayed that numerous outfits were feeling the heat on the eve of the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale, Creighton explained how Tuesday’s results would have come as a huge relief to many. Cont. p5

He said, "I think there were a bit of nerves on Monday evening, for sure. These vendors have a lot of money invested and put a lot of effort into getting the horses there. It's good to see that the market has improved from Dubai and again from the Craven. It's gone on an upward trajectory and hopefully that will continue at the Guineas Sale at Tattersalls next week and then on to the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Sale and Arqana as well."

O'Leary pointed to the fact this year's catalogue featured 26 more horses compared to last year and 40 more than what was offered in 2021 as one of the main causes for concern with vendors.

That opinion was shared by Brendan 'Blarney' Holland in these pages with Emma Berry following the Craven Sale, with the Grove Stud maestro expressing a belief that there were just a finite number of horses to be put on the market.

Those comments came off the back of an overall clearance rate of 76% for a bolstered Craven catalogue that featured 38 more horses compared to 12 months ago.

However, Holland's theory may have been kicked to the curb at Doncaster on Tuesday, with a healthy clearance rate of 84% recorded for its beefed-up sale.

O'Leary commented, "It is great to see a positive market and the success the breeze-up horses have had on the track has fuelled it. What Blarney Holland, John Cullinan and others have done in recent times, it's been fantastic for all of us. They have proved that a lot of good racehorses can be sourced from the breeze-ups and the racetrack has been the best advertisement of that. Goffs worked very hard to get the clients in at Doncaster and the proof was in the results. It was a good sale."

He added, "We were all very nervous because of the increase in numbers. We were worried there would be a watered down trade but there were a lot of serious players at Donny who wanted to buy nice horses and that was good. A few years ago, there might have been a couple of big players but there were five, six or seven big-hitters playing on Tuesday.

"The good horses remain hard to buy and there are a lot of people who tell me that they still haven't bought yet. Time is running out, that's why Doncaster should revert to its original slot in the calendar."

Strength Of The Middle Market A Notable Takeaway

The record-breaking Harry Angel (Ire) colt consigned by Tally-Ho Stud and knocked down to Michael O'Callaghan for £500,000 will have grabbed the headlines and helped the average climb 29% to £63,396 but it was the strength of the middle market that also pleased Beeby.

There were buyers at Doncaster from Australia, Denmark, Dubai, France, Hong Kong, Italy, Norway, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Sweden, which ensured horses at every level found new homes.

Beeby commented, "The team did a great job in making sure that we had buyers there for every type of horse. Michael Orton and Bernard Condren in particular spent time in Scandinavia and Italy with our agents Philip Zwicky and Gianluca Di Castelnuovo to make sure that we had people there for the middle market. Not only was there a very high clearance rate but, also, for the odd horse who didn't sell in the ring, we got a lot of private sales done afterwards. That was important."

He added, "At the higher end, vendors sent us some really good horses and really got behind us in giving the sale great support. As Roger O'Callaghan said to me before the sale, 'we brought the horses, now it's your job to get them sold.' After the sale, Roger said, 'you did your job and we did ours.' It's pure teamwork between the vendors and the auction house to make sure we get as good a sale as we possibly can.

"From a personal point of view, my father [Harry] started breeze-ups in Europe back in 1977, so that's 45 years ago. I'd have loved to have been able to tell him that we just sold a breeze-up horse for £500,000 at Doncaster. I don't think he'd believe me. He'd have a big smile on his face, that's for sure.

"It wasn't just about that, though, as we had some really good touches for the established people like the Willie Brownes and Blarney Hollands of this world but also the young lads like Shane Power of Tradewinds Stud. It was wonderful to see it."

"From a personal point of view, my father [Harry] started breeze-ups in Europe back in 1977, so that's 45 years ago. EUROPEAN NEWS

"In addition to his impressive performance at Royal Ascot, the homebred son of Invincible Spirit was also a winner on debut at two years with other strong performances in stakes company," the statement continued.

"This extremely sad news comes as his first two-year-olds hit the racecourse in 2023; meanwhile, yesterday his filly out of L'Ile Aux Loups (Ire) sold for £120,000 to Peter & Ross Doyle at the Goffs UK Breeze Up Sale. Shadwell would like to thank the many breeders who supported Eqtidaar during his all too brief stallion career. He will be sorely missed by all those who worked with him."

Eqtidaar has had just two runners hit the track, including Mistress Teite (GB), who showed distinct promise when running on late to grab third on debut at Redcar for trainer Adam West. His yearlings sold for an average of just over £16,000 last year and he had been standing for £5,000 at Nunnery Stud.

"WE HAVE TO GIVE HER A CHANCE" - BIN SUROOR BULLISH ON MAWJ FOR GUINEAS

Group 2 winner Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) is in good order ahead of an intended start in the May 7 G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas, according to Godolphin trainer Saeed bin Suroor.

A winner of the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. and third in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at two, the bay won both the Jumeirah Fillies Classic and Jumeirah Fillies Guineas conditions races at Meydan over the winter.

Bin Suroor said, "She is good, has been working well and in good form. She will run in the Guineas. She is a nice filly and a proven filly. She has shown plenty of speed, but she stayed a mile well in Dubai and now we will give her a chance in the Guineas."

"It is a very tough race, but we have to give her a chance and see how she goes, as she has earned that chance. She has grown a little, but not much. That is why we gave her a break between races. Two-year-olds, when you give them a break, they generally grow and strengthen."

BETFRED DERBY TIME ADJUSTED TO AVOID CLASH WITH FA CUP FINAL

The G1 Betfred Derby will be run at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 3, The Jockey Club announced on Wednesday.

Previously slated for 4:30 p.m., the race's earlier time is a result of the decision to switch the Emirates FA Cup Final at Wembley, which sees Manchester City and Manchester United go head-to-head at 3 p.m. the same afternoon. The 244th running of the Blue Riband will be the second race on the eight-race card that begins at 12:50 p.m.

James Crespi, General Manager of Epsom Downs Racecourse, said, "This year, the first Saturday in June will play host to two Derby's and two of Britain's great sporting events."

"In order to give fans of both horseracing and football the opportunity to enjoy the Betfred Derby and the FA Cup Final and to maximise the publicity and exposure of these two iconic sporting occasions, which will both be broadcast live on ITV1, we have made some changes to our usual schedule." Cont. p7

Crespi said, “We are grateful to our partners at ITV and our generous sponsors Betfred for their help in facilitating the move, and we can’t wait for what is sure to be a great afternoon for British sport.”

JOHN O’CONNOR NEW CHAIRMAN OF THE EUROPEAN BREEDERS’ FUND

Ballylinch Stud’s John O’Connor has been named the new Chairman of the European Breeders’ Fund. He replaces Philip Freedman, who served two terms in that role.

O’Connor, who has also been Chairman of the Irish EBF and ITBA in the past, said, “I am delighted to take on the Chairmanship of the EBF in its 40th year. The EBF plays a significant role in supporting the racing industry at many levels. Due to the calibre of stallions that now stand in Europe and through the commitment of stallion farms large and small, the EBF contributes more to prize-money than ever at a time when it is of crucial importance with costs rising rapidly for all participants in racing. I will aim to continue and build on the excellent work of my predecessor Philip Freedman and I look forward to working with Kerry Murphy and the team.”

MARIE ROHAUT APPOINTED HEAD OF THE FRANCE GALOP/FRBC OWNERS’ DEPARTMENT

Marie Rohaut has been named the new head of the France Galop/French Racing and Breeding Committee (FRBC) Owners’ Department. Rohaut, a Godolphin Flying Star graduate, joined France Galop in the beginning of April.

The daughter of Pau-based trainer Francois Rohaut, the 29-year-old was a co-creator of “Aux courses les jeunes” (Young people, let’s go racing), and she also holds a Master’s degree in entrepreneurship and international business. She gained work experience in Japan with the Yoshida family, as well as in Australia, Ireland and the UK. After her Flying Star years from 2019-2021, Rohaut returned to France and joined trainer Jean-Claude Rouget as his Deauville satellite yard as his pupil assistant.

“Above all, I want to put my experience and my field knowledge to work for France Galop,” Rohaut said. “After having travelled around the world, I remain convinced that France has one of the best horseracing models and that we need to make it known loud and clear. This is also the role of the younger generation.”

THIRSK HUNT CUP ADDS VICKERS AS NEW SPONSOR

Thirsk Racecourse added local independent bookmaker Vickers as its new sponsor of the 2023 Thirsk Hunt Cup, the racecourse said in a release on Wednesday.

First run in 1859, the £50,000 mile handicap headlines the Thirsk Hunt Cup Coronation Celebration Raceday on Saturday, May 6.

"We have had a great working relationship with Vickers for a couple of years now and we're thrilled to have them on board as sponsor of the Thirsk Hunt Cup," said Erin Boswell, General Commercial Manager at Thirsk. "The race is always well supported, and the day is set to be a real celebration alongside the King's Coronation."

The Darlington-based bookmaker was launched in 2020 by former jockey and trainer Ian Vickers and is now managed by his daughter Jo Vickers.

ROMANTIC SCENE (FR) (f, 3, Teofilo {IRE}--Award Winning {IRE}, by Dubawi {IRE}), third on debut over 9 1/2 furlongs at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat earlier this month, raced in a close-up second throughout the early stages. Staying on to gain the advantage a furlong from home, the 7-1 shot was immediately tackled by Amalfina (FR) (U S Navy Flag) but was game as she held on to score by a neck. The winner is the only foal produced by the deceased dam, who was a half-sister to Whipper's G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein scorer and G1 Hong Kong Mile runner-up Royal Bench (IRE) and G3 Prix Allez France scorer Mayhem (IRE)--who went on to produce these connections' smart listed-winning G2 German 1000 Guineas runner-up Sky Angel (IRE) (Dark Angel {IRE})--and to the G3 Ormonde S. winner and G1 Irish Derby third Memphis Tennessee (IRE) (Hurricane Run {IRE}). The third dam is the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Cerulean Sky (IRE) (Darshaan {GB}), sister to the G1 Irish Oaks runner-up L'Ancrese (IRE) and half to Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {IRE}) who went one better in that Curragh Classic. Sales history: €220,000 Ylg '21 ARQAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, €14,150.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

SUSSEX NEXT FOR PANTHALASSA

Panthalassa in the Riyadh winner's circle | Jockey Club of Saudi Arabia

2023 G1 Saudi Cup hero Panthalassa (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) will target the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood in August, according to the entire's trainer Yoshito Yahagi.

Yahagi, who ran Bathrat Leon (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) in the race last year, told www.netkeiba.com, "We had the idea of a mile race somewhere, I think the Sussex S. on a tough course would suit. The [G1] International S. is the flattest one-turn race in the UK, and I have the image of it being suited to a speed type of horse."

Panthalassa won the 2022 G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan and was also runner-up in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) later that year. He secured the Saudi Cup by 3/4 of a length over Country Grammer (Tonalist) at King Abdulaziz Racetrack in Riyadh in February.

Of his 10th-place finish in the G1 Dubai World Cup on Mar. 25, the trainer added, "He was quite tired but seems to be recovering well now. He will return to Ritto Training Centre in a month, I'm confident that is plenty of time."
