

FUSAICHI PEGASUS, HORSE OF MANY 'FIRSTS'

Fusaichi Pegasus | Horsephotos

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

There were a lot of "firsts" associated with Fusaichi Pegasus, the 2000 GI Kentucky Derby winner who was euthanized at Ashford Stud May 23 due to old-age infirmities that had accumulated over his 26 years.

As the first Derby winner of the 2000s decade, this high-spirited, headstrong son of Mr. Prospector had commanded a $4-million price tag at Keeneland July, then the highest price paid for a yearling at that sale in 13 years. And to this day, that auction price remains as the highest ever paid for any starter in, let alone winner of, the Derby.

At 2.3-1 odds, Fusaichi Pegasus was the first favorite to win the Derby since Spectacular Bid in 1979. At the dawn of the 21st Century, recall that the Derby was mired in a deep drought of well-backed losers. At the time, its streak of losing favorites (since 1979) was almost as long as the span back to the sport's last Triple Crown champ (in 1978).

Although it wasn't evident at the time, beyond the numbers, the Derby victory by Fusaichi Pegasus would become a benchmark in the globalization of the sport.

Fusao Sekiguchi, who owned about 80 horses in Japan, became the first horse owner from that country to campaign a Kentucky Derby winner. Japanese connections have yet to win a second Derby, but horses based in Japan now have a points-based qualifying path to get into the Derby each year. Cont. p3

STONESTREET'S MONARCH BUILDS A GROWING DYNASTY by Katie Petrunyak

Compared to an exquisite painting by her owner Barbara Banke, Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy) has been regarded as racing royalty from the very beginning. Now 13 years old, the Grade I winner reigns as monarch of Stonestreet's world-class broodmare band, and this spring, she was crowned 2022 Kentucky Broodmare of the Year.

Thanks to the efforts of her two Curlin daughters, Malathaat and Julia Shining, Dreaming of Julia has already put together a produce record for the books, yet Banke and her team at Stonestreet are hopeful that their star mare is just getting started.

"I think Dreaming of Julia is our top mare," Banke said. "Every year we look forward to seeing her baby and she does not disappoint. Every year, there is something really special from that mare." Cont. p5

The Week in Review (cont. from p1)

And Japanese-campaigned horses have steadily been making their presence felt in other elite American races like the Breeders' Cup.

"FuPeg" got pounded to 3-10 favoritism for the GI Preakness S., but was upset by Red Bullet on a wet track, finishing 3 3/4 lengths behind in second. He was pointed for the GI Belmont S., but a minor foot injury kept him from starting. In an era when top contenders were still more or less expected to dance every dance in the Triple Crown series, his defection in 2000 meant that it was the first time since 1970 that neither the winner of the Derby nor the Preakness contested the Belmont.

Sekiguchi sold Fusaichi Pegasus to Coolmore Stud in June 2000 in a deal that was widely reported (but never officially confirmed) to be in the neighborhood of $60-70 million. At the time, that was the highest price ever paid for a racehorse.

The sale called for Sekiguchi to control FuPeg's racing for the rest of that sophomore season. Under the care of trainer Neil Drysdale, the colt won the then-GII Jerome H. at Belmont Park on Sept. 23, missed the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup with another foot ailment, and finished sixth as the beaten 6-5 favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic to close out his career.

Fusaichi Pegasus went on to sire six champions worldwide, and his Grade I winners included Roman Ruler, Champ Pegasus, Haradasun (Aus) and Bandini. Southern Hemisphere stints at Haras Don Alberto and Haras Philipson yielded champion older horse Bronzo (Chi). Fusaichi Pegasus was pensioned in 2020 and had been living in retirement at Ashford.

Now nearly a full generation (human, not horse) has passed since that 2000 Derby. The official chart of the race reads like a Who's Who of A-list jockeys and trainers.

In fact, the 1-2-3-4 jockeys from that 2000 Derby (Kent Desormeaux, Alex Solis, Craig Perret, John Velazquez) are now all inductees in the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. So too are the top four trainers (Drysdale, Bobby Frankel, and Todd Pletcher, who ran third and fourth). Fellow Hall-of-Famers Jerry Bailey, Chris McCarron, Pat Day, D. Wayne Lukas and Bob Baffert rounded out an impressive list of also-rans in FuPeg's Derby.

Pletcher's Understatement...

That 2000 Derby was the first for Pletcher. He saddled Impeachment (third), More Than Ready (fourth), Trippi (11th) and Graeme Hall (eased to last). Then 32, he said post-race with a positive vibe, "We showed we belonged here."

Now fast-forward 23 years. Two Derby wins and four scores later in the Belmont S., Pletcher looks loaded for this year's edition of the third leg of the Triple Crown, with 'TDN Rising Stars' Forte (Violence) and Tapit Trice (Tapit) vying for favoritism.

Forte, the 2-year-old champ, is two breezes back after being scratched as the morning-line favorite for the Derby with a bruised right front foot on the morning of the race. He'll attempt 12 furlongs off a 10-week break.

According to DRF's Formulator, Pletcher has won at a 21% clip (45-for-217) with all starters who were off between nine and 11 weeks over the last five years. Within that group, his strike rate dips to 1-for-12 (8%) in just Grade I races with the same layoff parameters.

Tapit Trice | Coady Photography

Tapit Trice may end up attracting more pari-mutuel attention, simply by the virtue that his running style begs for 1 1/2 miles over a vast, expansive oval like Belmont's.

Although seventh in the Derby after yet another characteristically slow break and some backstretch momentum loss, that poor result masks a decent middle move that is also emblematic of Tapit Trice's way of going.

It takes this burly gray quite a while to fully uncoil, and in both the Derby and in his previous win, in the GI Blue Grass S., he launched his bid from six furlongs out, which is something no other contender on the Triple Crown trail has been able to do with any degree of success this season.

Pletcher also said that GII Louisiana Derby winner Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo), 14th in the Derby, will bypass the Belmont after demonstrating signs of colic Friday morning. The colt did not need surgery and is recovering after treatment with fluids.

Derby winner and Preakness third Mage (Good Magic) is being freshened for a run at the GI Runhappy Travers S. in August. Derby runner-up Two Phil's (Hard Spun) will reportedly take aim at the June 24 GIII Ohio Derby. Wire-to-wire Preakness victor National Treasure (Quality Road) is listed as probable for the Belmont, as are deep-closing Derby third Angel of Empire (Classic Empire), Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}), Il Miracolo (Gun Runner), Raise Cain (Violence) and Red Route One (Gun Runner).

Santa Anita's top colts all had to opt out of this year's Derby because of illness. Two of them are back on the work tab and being considered for the $100,000 Affirmed S. at 1 1/16 miles June 4, according to that track's notes team.

Geaux Rocket Ride, (Candy Ride {Arg}), who was scratched from the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8 with an elevated temperature, worked seven furlongs in 1:26.40 (1/1) Friday for trainer Richard Mandella in preparation for the Affirmed.

In just two lifetime starts, Geaux Rocket Ride has paired 92 and 96 Beyer Speed Figures. He was narrowly favored in the betting for the GII San Felipe S. in just his second lifetime try and first around two turns. A speed-centric threat, he gamely forced the issue on the front end of a high-tempo pace, yet still managed to finish determinedly in the final furlong to hold second when faced with a fresh challenge from a more experienced winner.

Skinner | Coady Photography

The late-developing Skinner (Curlin), who was third in the Santa Anita Derby for trainer John Shirreffs, shipped to Louisville and was entered in the Kentucky Derby. Then he, too, missed a start with a fever.

Skinner has returned with three works at Santa Anita since then, including five eighths in 1:02.20 (33/44) on Sunday, with the Affirmed as his next possible target.

Practical Move (Practical Joke), who beat both Geaux Rocket Ride and Skinner at Santa Anita, has yet to post a published workout since a fever caused him to be scratched from the Derby two days before the race.

With three of Dreaming of Julia's fillies still awaiting their moment in the spotlight, Banke has the opportunity to dream big with a mare that very well could have wound up in a different breeding program had it not been for Banke's steady confidence from day one.

Foaled at Stonestreet in early March, Dreaming of Julia was the first foal out of Grade I victress Dream Rush (Wild Rush), who Stonestreet was the underbidder on at the 2007 Fasig-Tipton November Sale but then purchased privately two years later when she was carrying Dreaming of Julia.

“Dreaming of Julia was beautiful from the first minute we saw her and she stayed beautiful,” Banke recalled. “She was elegant and really aristocratic-looking.”

As the A.P. Indy filly progressed as a yearling, Banke could not be swayed by the commercial attention that this youngster would attract in the sales ring. She decided that the filly would be a birthday gift to herself and would remain in the Stonestreet program.

Flash forward several years and Dreaming of Julia was concluding a successful racing campaign for Stonestreet and Todd Pletcher. A 'TDN Rising Star' on debut, Dreaming of Julia's career was highlighted by three straight victories as a juvenile, which she won by a combined 27 lengths and culminated with a Grade I score in the Frizette S., as well as a stunning 21 3/4-length romp in the GII Gulfstream Oaks as a sophomore.

“She was brilliantly fast and had a tremendous stride,” Banke said of the racehorse she named after her daughter. “She just ate up the ground. And she has a great mind, the nicest horse in the world. All of those things combined to make her a great racehorse.”

Many of the characteristics that defined Dreaming of Julia's career could also be used to describe her daughters Malathaat and Julia Shining--the first a champion for Todd Pletcher and the second a Grade II winner now in training as a sophomore for the same Hall of Fame trainer.

Pletcher reflected on the shared qualities of his former stable star Dreaming of Julia and her daughters.

"First and foremost, they all have natural talent," he explained. "They all have very good minds and are very willing, straightforward-training horses."

Pletcher has now worked with four fillies out of Dreaming of Julia, starting with her first extremely promising daughter Golden Julia (Medaglia d'Oro) who died tragically in a stall accident before she made it to the starting gate.

The next foal sold to Shadwell Estate Co. for $1.05 million as a yearling in 2019. Malathaat's tremendous campaign was marked by Eclipse Award honors at three and four and led Banke to decide that, "We're not going to sell any more fillies out of Dreaming of Julia."

Dreaming of Julia's 2-year-old filly by Medaglia d'Oro | Stonestreet

"Malathaat was special from the first time we breezed her," Pletcher said of the six-time Grade I winner and Kentucky Oaks victress. "She was just different. She was gifted and she continued to get better. A really intelligent filly to be around and a sweetheart in the barn, she was a pleasure."

Going out a champion in the 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, Malathaat retired to Shadwell's broodmare band and visited Spendthrift's leading sire Into Mischief. She is the first of Dreaming of Julia's daughters to launch a breeding career.

While Malathaat is the most decorated of her dam's offspring for now, it is her younger sister Julia Shining--who is also by Stonestreet's two-time Horse of the Year Curlin--that Pletcher said reminds him most of Dreaming of Julia.

Like her elder sister and dam, Julia Shining was named a 'TDN Rising Star' on debut last fall at Keeneland. She went on to win the GII Demoiselle S. to conclude her juvenile season, but settled for third in both starts this year and did not earn enough points to qualify for the Kentucky Oaks.

Stonestreet Training Center's Ian Brennan, who worked with Dreaming of Julia herself when she was learning the ropes as a racehorse just over a decade ago, spoke highly of Julia Shining, but said that the filly was always likely to get better with time.

"Julia Shining was big and pretty, a beautiful mover with a lot of class," he recalled. "You could tell that she was long and narrow, so with time she was just going to get better and better. Even back to her first work on the farm, you could tell that there was a lot of ability there but that she would just get better with time. When you look at Julia Shining now, she has filled out a bit more and I do think her best is in front of her."

Pletcher is also a firm believer that the best is yet to come for his trainee. Asked if Julia Shining has already realized her true potential, Pletcher responded emphatically.

"Not at all," he said. "She's still putting it all together. I think the blinkers helped last time. She's the type that will get better with time and I don't think we've seen her peak yet. Hopefully she can stay in training as a 4-year-old and she'll be even better then."

Pletcher added that Julia Shining is enjoying a brief freshening and will return to the starting gate later this summer.

Dreaming of Julia has three more daughters in the pipeline who could potentially add to their dam's legacy in the coming years.

The next filly set to begin her racing career is an unnamed 2-year-old by Medaglia d'Oro who just arrived in Pletcher's barn at Saratoga a few weeks ago.

"She's doing great," Pletcher reported. "So far everything is straightforward. She's very professional, like this whole family has been."

According to Pletcher, while his team is still getting acquainted with the juvenile, if all goes smoothly he could anticipate a debut in Saratoga later this summer.

Brennan said that he believes this juvenile might come out swinging a bit earlier than her older sisters.

"The 2-year-old is a little more precocious than the others," he shared. "She's maybe not quite as big as Julia Shining, with more of Medaglia d'Oro in her. She's very, very smooth. They're all very smooth."

Continuing to draw comparisons between Dreaming of Julia and her daughters, Brennan added, "Just a ton of class with the whole family. They cover a lot of ground with a lot of power behind. They're all very easy to handle. If anything, they just need a bit of time to fill out and mature. Even though they're precocious enough at two, they all just get better with time."

Dreaming of Julia's yearling of this year is a full-sister to Malathaat and Julia Shining.

"She is spectacular, but once again, she is not in the sale," Banke prefaced. "She will be going to Ocala for training sometime soon. This will now be the third Curlin filly out of Dreaming of Julia and hopefully there will be others in the future. The brains and the speed of Curlin and Dreaming of Julia are a really good match."

This spring, another auspicious individual arrived at Stonestreet when Dreaming of Julia produced her first foal by Into Mischief. The filly arrived Apr. 25.

Just this year, Into Mischief has produced two Grade I winners from similar matings with Kentucky Oaks victress Pretty Mischievous, who is out of GISW Pretty City Dancer (Tapit), and Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational S. winner Atone, who is out of a daughter of A.P. Indy.

Dreaming of Julia was bred back to Curlin.

Dreaming of Julia's filly by Into Mischief, foaled April 25 this year

Katie Petrunyak

"One of these days, we might even get a colt," Banke said with a laugh.

In Banke's eyes, Dreaming of Julia has been deserving of every accolade she has received, but the leading owner said that celebrating the mare's Broodmare of the Year distinction was a rewarding chapter in Dreaming of Julia's story.

"We always thought that she should be considered as a Broodmare of the Year just on the basis of Malathaat," she explained. "But with Julia Shining and her wins to follow, she's definitely Broodmare of the Year."

Banke is already scouting out which of her productive broodmares might be deserving of the same award some day. She said Glinda the Good (Hard Spun) is a top candidate. The Stonestreet homebred is the dam of champion and now leading second-crop sire Good Magic and her produce record also includes a 2-year-old full-sister to Good Magic that Banke just named Penny Royal, as well as a Quality Road yearling filly and an Into Mischief colt foaled Mar. 16 this year.

With a breeding program like Stonestreet's, the stars might just align for the operation to land another award-winning producer in the future. Pletcher emphasized just that point.

"I think any time you have a Broodmare of the Year, that's an accomplishment," he said. "It's really a tribute to Barbara and her entire team to have a mare like that. I think it exemplifies Stonestreet's entire mating plan of buying a filly like Dream Rush with loads of speed and then putting Dreaming of Julia to a stallion like Curlin with loads of ability and stamina. It's a tremendous achievement on their part and it tells you how special of a breeding program they have developed."

TRIO OF GRADE ONES HIGHLIGHT HOLIDAY STAKES ACTION

Santa Anita will play host to three Grade I races, while Grade III action features the return of a champion at Churchill Downs and a talented Louisiana-bred attempting to make the grade at Lone Star Park during holiday stakes action Monday.

The GI Shoemaker Mile S. at Santa Anita is set to be the first of 41 Breeders' Cup Challenge series races in North America this year. A field of 11 goes postward seeking the winner's share of the $500,000, as well as an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup FanDuel Mile, which will be held over the same course in November.

Trainer Phil D'Amato saddles three in the race, including morning-line favorite Hong Kong Harry (Ire) (Es Que Love {Ire}), who was a three-time graded winner in California last year. He was fourth behind reopposing stablemate Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) in the Mar. 4 GI Frank Kilroe Mile before heading east for a runner-up effort in the May 6 GI Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic at Churchill Downs.

Gold Phoenix, who was 10th in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf, returned from his win in the Kilroe Mile to finish fourth when stretched to 1 1/4 miles for the Apr. 8 GII Charles Whittingham S. last time out. Unbeaten in two tries at a mile on grass, Gold Phoenix will be reunited with Japanese sensation Kazushi Kimura, who has been aboard for his last two starts and will fly in from his Toronto base for the ride Sunday.

Rounding out the D'Amato trio--who were all plundered from Europe to find graded success in the U.S.--is Balnikhov (Ire) (Adaay {Ire}), who was seventh in the Kilroe Mile before getting up in the last jump to win the Apr. 29 GIII San Francisco Mile at Golden Gate in his most recent start.

Both Gold Phoenix and Balnikhov represent the red-hot Little Red Feather Racing partnership, which captured four stakes races last weekend.

An hour before the Shoemaker Mile, seven older fillies and mares head postward at Santa Anita for the GI Gamely S. Trainer Michael McCarthy will saddle morning-line favorite Queen Goddess (Empire Maker). The 5-year-old raced last year for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and her breeder TOLO Thoroughbreds and, after selling for $1.525 million at Fasig-Tipton last November, returned for the partnership of Eclipse Thoroughbreds and Gary Barber to win the GIII Robert J. Frankel S. last December. She added a win in the GIII TAA Pegasus World Cup Filly and Mare Turf Invitational at Gulfstream in January and returns to the West Coast following a sixth-place effort in the Apr. 15 GI Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland.

Queen Goddess | Benoit

D'Amato has two chances in the nine-furlong Gamely, with School Dance (Animal Kingdom) and Macadamia (Brz) (Hat Trick {Jpn}) in the line-up.

The GI Gold Cup concludes the Grade I action at Santa Anita Monday. Trainer Bob Baffert holds a strong hand in the 1 1/4-mile race with Country Grammer (Tonalist) and Defunded (Dialed In) appearing to tower over the six-horse field. Country Grammer, second in the Feb. 25 G1 Saudi Cup, will look to get back on track following a seventh-place effort while attempting a defense of his title in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan in March. Defunded had to settle for third after setting the pace over this track and trip in the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H., but returned to the winner's circle with a three-length tally in the Apr. 22 GII Californian S. last time out.

In other graded stakes action across the country, champion Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) makes her return to the races in the GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill Downs. Champion 2-year-old filly of 2021, the 4-year-old has been off since finishing second in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint last November at Keeneland.

Touchuponastar (Star Guitar) looks for his seventh straight victory in the GIII Steve Sexton Mile S. at Lone Star Park. The Louisiana-bred, trained by Jeff Delhomme, will be making his first start outside state-bred company. The 4-year-old's toughest competition might be the Mike Maker-trained 7-year-old Endorsed (Medaglia d'Oro), who won a pair of one-mile graded events at Gulfstream this past winter.

BACKGROUND CHECK: GAMELY

by Jill Williams

The singular Tapit, shown at his Gainesway home, traces to 1969 Gamely winner Foggy Note | Sarah Andrew

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they've had on the breed. Up today is Santa Anita's GI Gamely S., the first Grade I of the year for fillies and mares on the turf out west.

Although the great Hall of Famer Gamely split her time between coasts, it was California that got to name what has become a major race after her. The daughter of Bold Ruler won some of the sport's biggest contests for fillies and mares, was a success on both surfaces, carried weight, and wasn't afraid to tackle the boys (including Dr. Fager!). Despite dying at just 11 and leaving only two foals, Gamely produced an English Group 1 winner, so perhaps it's fitting that this race, with just over 50 individual winners, has provided some exceptional broodmares.

Following are highlights of some of the most important Gamely winners by what impact they've had on the sport through their sons and daughters.

Tranquility Lake (1995, Rahy--Winters' Love, by Danzig), bred by North Central Bloodstock: This lovely mare's first four foals--all by Storm Cat--resulted in MGISW After Market, GISW Courageous Cat, and $9.7-million Keeneland September yearling (and later U.A.E. GSW) Jalil. One reportedly went to Turkey and another to China, but Courageous Cat still stands in New York.

Hollywood Wildcat (1990, Kris S.--Miss Wildcatter, by Mr. Prospector), bred by Irving and Marjorie Cowan: Her crown jewel was undoubtedly son and GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner War Chant (Danzig), but she also produced English GSW and three-country G1/GI-placed Ivan Denisovich (Ire) (Danehill). Her grandsons include Japanese G1SW Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) and Canadian Classic winner Danish Dynaformer (Dynaformer).

Toussaud (1989, El Gran Senor--Image of Reality, by In Reality), bred by Juddmonte Farms, Inc.: Named Broodmare of the Year in 2002, this Juddmonte great produced GI Belmont S. winner Empire Maker (Unbridled), as well as additional GISWs Honest Lady (Seattle Slew), Chester House (Mr. Prospector), and Chiselling (Woodman). She also produced GSW & GISP Decarchy (Distant View) and is granddam to GISW First Defence (Unbridled's Song), as well as to MGSW & MGISP Honorable Duty (Distorted Humor).

Wishing Well (1975, Understanding--Mountain Flower, by Montparnasse II {Arg}), bred by George A. Pope, Jr.: She is the dam of Horse of the Year and GI Kentucky Derby winner Sunday Silence (Halo), whose rich revolutionizing of the breed in Japan is quickly spilling over into the rest of the world. His runaway success as a sire and the legacy he has left borders on the obscene.

Foggy Note (1965, The Axe II--Silver Song, by Royal Note), bred by Frank D. Turner and James D. Drymon: Four of her first five foals were stakes winners and a goodly number of black-type winners, including the likes of MGISW Life At Ten (Malibu Moon), trace to her. However, it's the trio of sires--champion and MGISW Rubiano (Fappiano), MGSW & MGISP Relaunch (In Reality), and perennial leading sire and GISW Tapit (Pulpit)--tracing directly to her that have more than secured her place in history.

BOOK EXCERPT: IF THOREAU HAD A BICYCLE: THE ART OF THE RIDE

by Mark Kramer

In a delightful book of reflective essays, frequent TDN contributor Mark Cramer leads readers on 39 bicycling day trips through the environs of Paris, his adopted home. Inspired by Henry David Thoreau's daily walks in nature, Cramer pedals through forests, along rivers, and into French towns, each trek prompting fresh reflections on the environment, economic growth, simplicity, and well-being. His key takeaway: A life of adventure is well within reach, locally. We need only travel lightly, observe with eyes of wonder, and be open to surprise encounters.

Day Seven: Longchamp

Bicycle road racers work out every day around the perimeter of the Longchamp racecourse, in bright jerseys pockmarked with advertisements. They never stop to watch a horse race. A bird's eye view would show parallel flows of bright colors within a green forest: jockey silks on the inside circumference, bike racing jerseys on the outside.

I wonder whether I belong more to the bicycle culture on the outer perimeter or the racing culture within, or perhaps I am the missing link between the two subcultures.

The only American horse race trainer in France, Gina Rarick, has a horse running at Longchamp. The racecourse is a 10km ride via the Boulogne Forest. I've followed her career, written about her courageous adventure that pitted her against the highest odds. As a journalist, Gina had written a NY Times sports blog about our 1,000k bike trip of 2010. When she decided to train horses, she set aside her career as a journalist.

During long periods, Madame Rarick's horses were profitable to bet on, with their average return on investment in the black. But she's been in a discouraging slump of late and I've decided to show up as a fan, to encourage her filly, Ameera. From her Paris-Turf past performances, Ameera does not have much of a chance, but during the past calendar year, Rarick had pulled off two upsets with 70/1 horses.

I am particularly inspired by Gina's resilience. She wakes up at sunrise to gallop her horses or takes them out to a paddock where they can jump and roam. She makes grinding trips to dozens of racetracks, often with horses that, given the competition, have little chance to win, even if they are in great shape.

The last time I'd been to Longchamp, I'd registered a complaint about the absence of bike parking facilities. When I arrive two races before Ameera is to run, I'm pleased to see that bike parking rails have been installed. To my satisfying surprise, I count 45 bikes parked outside the entrance. I am not alone.

In fact, all the bike bars are occupied, so I have to chain my bike to a fence.

I make one wager prior to Ameera's race. In a bet called the Multi, I need the top four finishers in any order, in a 15-horse field. My horses finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th, great handicapping with zero return for the effort.

I stroll back to the stable area to say hello to Gina. She flashes a broad smile, optimistic that Ameera will run well. In her underfunded stable, positivity is the best tool for long-term survival. I tell her to say hello to her husband Tim, a fellow bicycle rider.

Gina is doubtful about defeating the race favorite but hopes to finish in the top three. I've seen at least seven other horses that have a better chance than Ameera, but I say nothing to discourage her. After all, she's a hands-on trainer, and I do not want to say anything that might diminish her magic touch.

In the walking circle prior to the race, Ameera is acting up, using some of the energy she needs to conserve for the race. As a symbolic gesture I make a small placé wager on Ameera (placé yields a payoff if the horse finishes in the top three).

Ameera breaks well from the gate and presses the early speed horse from the outside, but visually the pace looks too fast for her to handle. She weakens before the stretch and the rider decides not to force the filly when the cause is lost.

Pedaling on my way home I have a lot to think about. I'm in the final outing of my adagio period, and I feel ready to seek climbing challenges while boosting the average number of daily kilometers.

Like Gina I am in it for the long run. But she has short-term bills to pay while I bicycle for free. Her fortunes are tied to a fiercely competitive business and need financial backers. I have total control over my own stamina. Unlike Ameera, I can pedal at my own comfortable pace. If I get passed by mamils (middle-aged men in lycra), it makes no difference.

I'd wanted to buy a racehorse through Gina. But Martha vetoed the project.

"You have a better chance betting on the horses than owning them," she contended, with her usual objectivity. (In Ameera's subsequent race, she finished second, less than a length from winning it all, earning purse money that would help pay the bills.)

MAY 29 INSIGHTS: PRICEY INTO MISCHIEF COLT LOOKS TO SHINE IN CALIFORNIA

by Patrycja Szpyra

Into Mischief | Sarah Andrew

6th-SA, $61k, Msw, 3-5yo, 6 1/2f, 6:42p.m. ET

In against a field of mixed maidens of various age, Bob Baffert will unveil two expensive stablemates in this sixth at the Great Race Place lead by EXTORTION (Into Mischief). Out of an unraced half-sister to full-siblings MGISP Munnings (Speightstown) and GSP Munnings Sister, another of Gaudete's half-sisters produced Speight'spercomete (Speightstown), listed placed in the UAE. Extortion can claim a group-placed sibling of his own in MGSP-UAE Snowboarder (Raven's Pass) and one of his half-sisters named Beauty and Light (Unbridled's Song) is the dam of SW-Jpn Pingxiang (Speightstown). A $350,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by the China Horse Club/Gandharvi Racing partnership, he was a $1 million buyout last year at KEENOV by Gandharvi. He hails from the female line of GISW La Gueriere, the third dam who can claim a host of accomplished runners directly beneath her including GISW Icon Project (Empire Maker, dam of GSW Fashion Business (GB) (Frankel {GB}); MGISP Lasting Approval (With Approval) and the dam of GSP Artemis (Empire Maker).

To his outside will be Truehood (Nyquist), a $700,000 KEESEP procurement by owners Dr. Ed Allred & Liebau, who claims Canadian champion 2-year-old, GI Kentucky Derby hero Mine That Bird; MGISW Dullahan; GISW Bolo (Temple City) and GSP Golden Domer (Quality Road) in his female family. TJICIS PPS

The lightly raced Old Pal made his stakes debut a winning one in the Snow Chief S. at Santa Anita Sunday. The chestnut colt bobbled slightly at the break and was taken in hand to race at the back of the field behind moderate splits. He took closer order while racing along the rail down the backstretch and was waiting for room to run nearing the straight. Once he found a seam along the rail, he charged through to take the lead in the final strides.

Old Pal was runner-up down the hill in his Feb. 18 debut before stretching out to graduate over a mile Mar. 25. He was third over the same trip in an Apr. 21 optional claimer last time out.

Athina Lee has a 2-year-old full-sister to the winner who sold for $20,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton California Yearling Sale. With no reported foal last year, she was bred back to Not This Time. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Ceiling Crusher earned her second black-type victory and stayed perfect in what was her fourth career race against Cal-breds. Last seen Apr. 8 at Santa Anita crushing the field in the Evening Jewel S. by 15 1/2 lengths, the bay filly was rewarded here with 1-5 favoritism. Utilizing her early speed into the first turn, Ceiling Crusher was tracked closely by Chismosa down the backstretch. Into the far turn though, the undefeated filly went to work and put away her rivals by an eye-catching, geared down 17 lengths over Tom's Regret. The winner's dam produced a 2-year-old unraced colt named Majestic Palisades (Majestic Harbor), a yearling colt by Desert Code and she just foaled a filly by Smiling Tiger May 16.

Eddie's New Dream won her third Cal-bred stakes of her career--all at Santa Anita--on Sunday afternoon, but it was her first victory in the Fran's Valentine S. Last seen running third Feb. 19 while sprinting over the dirt in the Spring Fever S. At the Great Race Place, the gray mare returned to her preferred surface here as the 2-1 second choice.

Eddie's New Dream grabbed the lead going :23.06 for the first half-mile, but was able to slow things down before the final turn. Unchallenged at the top of the lane, she spurted away and despite some late pressure from Rose Maddox, was able to hold on to win by a half length.

The winner's dam was bred three years in-a-row to Mrazek and produced a 3-year-old colt named Barely Functional, a 2-year-old colt and a yearling filly. She visited Pavel last year.

Spirit and Glory collected the second black-type win of her career in the Liberty S. at Monmouth Sunday afternoon.

Racing in Ireland under Michael Mulvany's care, the bay filly came to America last summer and won in her first attempt against optional claimers over the grass at Belmont before contesting several stakes races with her best effort coming with a victory Sept. 6 in the Virginia Oaks at Colonial Downs. Off the board since, she was last seen running fourth Apr. 16 in the Plenty of Grace S. at Aqueduct.

As the 3-1 shot here, Spirit and Glory was squeezed early and after shaking off some rankness, settled in fourth around the first turn. As heavy favorite Scottish Star and Kalifornia Queen began to duel into the far turn, the bay filly cut to the rail at the top of the lane. Under a drive, Spirit and Glory found more and with less than a sixteenth left, she struck the front to win by 3/4 length over the chalk.

"She's a tough filly and Nik Juarez did a good job with her," said trainer Robert Falcone. "She got a little rank early on and got squeezed a few times, but he got her to relax after that and got her into a rhythm. I think we're definitely ready to try another graded stakes with her. We'll see what happens. I'll let her tell me. She seems to run well fresh, so I want to give her a little time."

The winner's dam produced a 3-year-old filly named Marians Gal (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}), who is unplaced in Ireland in her only start, and her yearling full sister.

KAUFYMAKER (f, 4, Jimmy Creed--Heaven's Touch, by Montbrook) an impressive debut win over Keeneland's main strip during her juvenile year warranted a trip to Royal Ascot for the G2 Coventry S. Eighth in that European endeavor, she returned stateside to finish third in the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Sprint, was runner up in Keeneland's Indian Summer S. before rounding out the season with a third at odds of 24-1 in the G2 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Del Mar. A winner in a Keeneland allowance last fall in her sole start of 2022, the chestnut tired to fourth last time out at the Lexington oval Apr. 7. Sent off the 9-5 choice here, the Wesley Ward trainee pressured the early pace through a :21.65 quarter, took over midstretch and had enough left to best the fast-closing Linguistic (Flatter) at the wire. The winner's dam, Heaven's Touch, is also responsible for a yearling filly by Caravaggio and a colt by Mendelssohn from this season. Lifetime Record: GSP, 8-3-1-2, $360,205. DEER DISTRICT (c, 3, Oscar Performance--Eagle Sound, by Fusaichi Pegasus) was second over the turf last fall in the Castle & Key Bourbon S. at Keeneland before switching to the dirt this year, finishing third in both attempts with latest against Federal Judge (Army Mule) on the Derby undercard. Sent off here as the 3-2 favorite, the chestnut was shuffled toward the back of the pack, but began to make up ground to the outside into the far turn. Running out in the center of the track, the chalk unleashed a powerful kick and ran on nicely to win easily by 9 1/2 lengths over Zambezi (Candy Ride {Arg}). Out of an accomplished female family which includes GISW All Fired Up (Timeless Moment), GISW Competitive Edge (Super Saver), GISW Awesome Humor (Distorted Humor) and GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Spun To Run (Hard Spun), the winner is a half-brother to Pick of the Litter (Kitten's Joy), GSW, $419,110. His dam also produced a yearling filly by Echo Town. Sales History: $140,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. GASTON (c, 4, Hard Spun--Bola de Cristal {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) broke his maiden over the turf last August at Woodbine and after running fourth in the October Breeders' S. in Toronto, switched to the Tapeta to run a close second against optional claimers later that month. Clearing the condition by a nose Dec. 11, the dark bay colt returned from the layoff as a 9-2 shot here.

Gaston raced in between rivals around the first turn and down the backstretch as 15-1 Malibu Edge (Malibu Moon) showed the way. Around the far turn, the Kevin Attard trainee got a dream trip along the rail and after tipping to the pacesetter's outside, he went right on by him to win by 1 1/4 lengths to the late-running War Court (Declaration of War). Malibu Edge was third. The winner hails from a female family which includes GISW-Ire Crystal Music (Nureyev) and GISP Space Traveller (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}). His dam is responsible for a 3-year-old unraced gelding named Sunshine Coast (West Coast) and a yearling colt by Good Magic. She was bred to both Classic Empire and Good Magic last year. Sales History: $60,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL. BUS BUZZ (g, 3, Stay Thirsty--Lost Bus {GSW, $412,818}, by Bring the Heat) romped by eight when unveiled over this same track and distance Feb. 4 and responded with a pair of close seconds including a last out defeat by just a head in the Echo Eddie S. Apr. 8. Up to challenge for the lead right from the jump as the heavy 1-5 choice, he began to inch away from the field as he swung off the far turn and drew off nicely under a right-handed stick to score by 6 1/2 lengths over Rookie Mistake (Square Eddie). Out of a half-sister to MSW Brandonthebartender (Tribal Rule), Bus Buzz has only one younger sibling--a yearling full-sister named Better Buzz. Sales History: $97,000 Ylg '21 FTCAYR. GROOMS ALL BIZNESS (c, 4, Fed Biz--Bride to Be, by Candy Ride {Arg}), winner over this course and trip last year, was runner up in a pair of 2022 stakes in addition to finishing fourth in Parx's GIII Turf Monster S. in September. Second last out against optional claiming company at Belmont May 4, the 5-1 shot raced three wide off the pace in fifth early before moving up into fourth from the four path on the turn. Rolling with a full head of steam into the final furlong, Grooms All Bizness gave one final lunge and was up in the shadow of the wire to beat Just Feremy (Bustin Stones) by a half-length.

GRANNYS CONNECTION (f, 4, Connect--Granny's Drink, by Old Fashioned) broke her maiden by 6 1/4 lengths against open company in her second career start Jan. 15 at the Big A before scoring in Ozone Park in her next pair of starts against state-bred allowance types Feb. 25 and optional claimers Mar. 19. Sent off the 2-5 chalk here, the bay filly seized the lead down the backstretch, set a torrid pace into the far turn and cruised home by six lengths over Practicality (Practical Joke). The winner is her dam's first offspring to make the races, but she does have a 3-year-old unraced full-sister named Dixie Lullaby and a yearling half-brother by Vekoma. SOVIET EXCESS (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Westit {GB} {SP-Fr, SP-USA}, by Tapit) has tried a little of everything at Gulfstream, from sprinting to be fourth on the turf when debuting Jan. 8 to winning at a mile and 70 yards on the all-weather track last time out Apr. 30. Narrowly second behind GIII Soaring Softly S. winner Queen Picasso (GB) (Kingman {GB}) on the grass two starts back on Mar. 5, she returned to the grass to face winners for the first time Sunday. Racing as the 3-2 choice, Soviet Excess stayed in touch from third while racing wide up the backstretch and advanced with an outside move around the far turn. On even terms with late leader Pawky (Twirling Candy) from the quarter pole, she finally put that rival away and gained separation close to home to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Westit (GB) produced a now 2-year-old colt by Uncle Mo, was barren to War Front last year, and returned to Uncle Mo with a colt reported this spring. LINCOLN HIGHWAY (c, 3, Quality Road--Frivolous {MGSW & GISP, $750,718}, by Empire Maker) was unveiled over this same distance during Keeneland's opening weekend and, while he made up some ground late, had to settle for fifth on the day. Sent off at 2-1, he sat much closer to the pace this go round, tracking from third behind Curlins Incharge (Curlin), who sprung loose on the front end. In a simultaneous move outside Soybean Man (Lookin At Lucky), Lincoln Highway bid wide into the lane, fought for a narrow advantage over that rival, and managed to keep his head in front at the wire. Already a half-sibling to a pair of stakes horses in Flippant (Tapit), MSW, $266,909 and Never Forget (War Front), GSP, $150,923, Lincoln Highway has a 2-year-old Constitution half-sister, a yearling half-brother by Improbable, and a newborn half-brother by Justify still to represent the family behind him. MO TOWN MAYHEM (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Town Tour, by Speightstown), fifth in her debut going a mile over the Gulfstream turf Apr. 1, was let go at 14-1 while trying a dirt sprint this time. Well back in the early going, she was still well out of it through a half in :45.69, swung out seven wide turning for home, and despite seeming like she might have too much to do late, she closed to the outside of late-leading favorite Pumpkin Scone (Into Mischief) en route to a 2 1/4 length victory. A full to MGSW Souper Hoity Toity (288,936), the filly also has an unraced juvenile sister by Malibu Moon and a yearling brother by Game Winner. Town Tour, a half to MGSW Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon), was bred back to Uncle Mo. This represents the family of HOTY and champion juvenile Favorite Trick. Virtual Reality | Adam Coglianese

4th-Belmont, $90,000, Msw, 5-28, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:25.06, ft, neck.

VIRTUAL REALITY (f, 3, Cloud Computing--Miss Malibu Style, by Malibu Moon) had been on the work tab religiously since the middle of February, and put it all together here at first asking. Breaking inward at the jump, Manny Franco was able to correct her but wound up three wide before jostling with eventual third-place finisher Ms. Solveig (Bernardini) as that one steadily inched closer to the rail. The bumper cars came to a head when Virtual Reality ended up eased back at the half-mile pole in order to get racing room on the outside of that rival. Swinging five wide into the stretch, she gamely surged by her early accoster in the final furlong and nailed Risk Free (American Freedom) in the closing jumps by a neck. The first surviving offspring to the races for Miss Malibu Style, Virtual Reality has a 2-year-old half-sister Miss Maximus (Maximus Mischief) as well as a yearling half-brother by Honest Mischief. KEROUAC (g, 4, Uncle Mo--Walk Close {GSW, $294,458}, by Tapit) began his racing career in the barn of Bob Baffert with a second--his only on the board effort from three starts in California. Last seen running sixth after changing barns to conditioner Sean McCarthy in a Santa Anita maiden last April, the $420,000 FTKSEP yearling brought $21,000 as a horse of racing age at Fasig Tipton last July. Moved to Kevin Attard and onto Woodbine's all-weather surface along with a myriad of equipment changes--including gelding and shedding blinkers--Kerouac seems to have found a new lease on life, breaking his maiden in this seasonal bow by open daylight. Sent away the 8-5 favorite, he strut into the lead and set an uncontested pace, his advantage unchallenged in the final furlong as he drew away to win by 5 3/4 lengths. Fanore (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), who stumbled at the jump in his state-side debut, came on to grab second. A half to Anneau d'Or (Medaglia d'Oro), GISP, $459,491, Kerouac is the most recent winner for his dam, who also produced 2-year-old Daily Grind, a full-brother to that Grade-I runner. The winner has a yearling full-brother as well. Walk Close, out of GISP Spring Awakening, hails from the G1SW Hold That Tiger; GSW Micromanage (Medaglia d'Oro); and GISP & MGSW Indescribable. THE WINE STEWARD (c, 2, Vino Rosso--Call to Service, by To Honor and Serve) brought a final bid of $340,000 from trainer Michael Maker at OBS March earlier this year after breezing in :10.2 to be the second-highest progeny of his freshman sire (by Curlin) at the sale. A popular choice at the window, the bay drew the inside gate at post-time odds of 2-5 and, despite a hesitant beginning, stayed in contention with a rail-skimming ride around the far turn. As space opened up, he darted through an opening past the quarter pole, drew past pacesetter Khadullah (Mission Impazible), and was kept to task into the final sixteenth before easing up close to home for the six-length win. Khadullah was another 3 3/4 lengths clear for second. The first foal out of a half-sister to MGSW Isotherm (Lonhro {Aus}), GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile third Giant Game (Giant's Causeway) and GISP Gio Game (Gio Ponti), The Wine Steward now has a yearling half-brother from the first crop of GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic and a newborn half-sister by Curlin. Back on the grass, the chestnut turned in another sixth Apr. 29 in Hallandale. Off at 9-2 here, Justin's Legacy secured the lead before the first turn, controlled the fractions throughout and began to uncork down the lane en route to a 5-length victory over Lyte Crude (Mizzen Mast). The winner's dam is out of GSW-Ire Queen Cleopatra (Ire) (Kingmambo), who counts MGISW-Ire & Eng Henrythenavigator as a full-brother. TAHIYRA GOES ONE BETTER IN THE IRISH 1000 GUINEAS

Tahiyra winning the 2023 Irish 1,000 Guineas | PA Media

by Tom Frary

Making amends for a narrow eclipse at Newmarket, The Aga Khan's Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) returned to re-establish her dominance at The Curragh on Sunday, providing Dermot Weld with a sixth G1 Tattersalls Irish 1000 Guineas and completing a weekend Classic double for her sire in the process. So impressive when taking the G1 Moyglare S. here in September, the 'TDN Rising Star' was quicker away here than in the 1000 Guineas and able to draft in behind Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) and that runner's stablemate and pacemaker Dower House (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Delivered by Chris Hayes to tackle Meditate approaching the furlong pole, the 2-5 favourite asserted to confirm the Moyglare form by 1 1/2 lengths, with Jim Bolger's 150-1 shot Comhra (Ire) (Vocalised) a strong-closing head away in third.

For Hayes, the need to make up for Tahiyra's defeat by Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) three weeks earlier was intense enough to make the win one more of relief than pure joy.

"I always consider myself a journeyman jockey and you don't get opportunities like this too often, so I blamed myself for her getting beaten at Newmarket," he explained. Cont. p3

LUXEMBOURG DENIES BAY BRIDGE IN GOLD CUP THRILLER by Tom Frary

Sunday's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup lived up to the billing and then some, with Ballydoyle's Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) making all and outbattling Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) in a stirring finish to The Curragh's joint-feature of the day. Having put in one of those on-the-face-of-it underwhelming comeback performances that the stable's kingpins can when fifth in the G2 Mooresbridge S. here at the start of the month, last year's G1 Irish Champion S. hero took the requisite leap forward with Ryan Moore intent on taking no prisoners.

Relishing the new tactic, the 11-4 outsider of the "big three" which included the bitterly disappointing Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) was challenged hard by Bay Bridge inside the two as they pulled clear of solid yardsticks.

Hayes continued, “Nobody else did, but I was very deflated after and I took it hard. I’m obviously relieved and proud of the filly. We were able to get things right today and tactically I had to be very aware from where I was drawn and needed a willing partner. By god, she’s good.”

For Weld, who masterminded the career of Tarnawa, the win was confirmation of his concerns prior to the 1000 Guineas. “I said before Newmarket that she ideally needed another two weeks and it cost her the race,” he commented. “The warm weather has been a huge help and my only concerns were whether she would let herself down on the quick ground and the [inside] draw, in case she got locked away off a slow pace but they have done a good job here with the ground and everything went according to plan. She is a very talented filly and we’ll look at the Coronation depending on how she comes out of the race. Further ahead, there is the Matron and the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf now that we see she handles this faster ground very well. She’ll possibly have a break over the summer to prepare for the autumn.”

Pedigree Notes

Tahiyra, one of her sire’s nine Group 1 winners alongside Saturday’s hero Paddington (GB), is the third foal out of the Listed Oyster S. and Listed Martin Malony S. winner and G3 Curragh Cup-placed Tarana (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Fast gaining legendary status at The Aga Khan’s Studs, her first was the triple top-level scorer and Breeders’ Cup Turf heroine Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal) who is one of the best Irish racemares of recent times. The second dam Tarakala (Ire) (Dr Fong), who took the Listed Galtres S. and was third in the G3 Noblesse S., is related to the G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero and G1 Prix du Cadran runner-up Tiraaz (Lear Fan) and the G1 Phoenix S. heroine Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}). Tarana’s 2-year-old colt by Frankel (GB) is named Tarafi (Ire), while she also has a yearling filly by Lope De Vega (Ire).

There was a neck between them at one stage, but by the time Luxembourg hit the line it was half a length, with six lengths back to Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}) in a no-excuses contest. Vadeni made no inroads on the front pair at any stage and beat only one of his five rivals, unable to live with the solid tempo set by the winner who recorded a stellar time relative to the other Curragh races during the weekend.

Perhaps now free of the muscular issues which dogged him last term, Luxembourg has always been a class act as his record of G1 Futurity Trophy and Irish Champion victories attest and O'Brien has a big-name older horse again for the major middle-distance tests ahead. "He's not for kids, he's a hardy customer," the trainer said. "He's tough and has loads of class. The last day was his first day and we were happy to sit in, but when a horse is happy to make the running you are not at the mercy of anybody. He went to the [Irish] Champion Stakes after a terrible preparation and then to the Arc on bad ground after that hard preparation and it was always possible that he would not be as good. The lads had the patience to leave him alone and he's a very serious horse."

O'Brien was keen to heap praise on the rider as much as the colt afterwards. "That was a masterclass from Ryan--he has everything and is a great fellow to work with," he added. "He was happy to make the running and happy to take a lead, but the horse gets a mile and two very strong. This is about the hard work from so many people day in day out, so I'm delighted for everybody."

JUST BEAUTIFUL STARS ON CURRAGH

UNDERCARD by Sean Cronin

Just Beautiful | Racingfotos

Seen out just three times since 2021, Moyglare Stud's relatively unexposed Just Beautiful (GB) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}--Astrelle {Ire}, by Makfi {GB}) made the most of a swift departure in an open renewal of Sunday's G2 Lanwades Stud S., also known as the Ridgewood Pearl S., to make all for a career high at the Curragh.

The 4-1 third choice broke sharply from the outside gate and cut across her rivals to claim the rail and the lead. Comfortable on the front end for the most part, she was stirred into action approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a late drive to easily hold the late threat of Jumbly (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) by 2 1/4 lengths.

"I'm delighted for the filly and it's great to get her back on track," said trainer Paddy Twomey of the 2021 G3 Sceptre S.

victrix. "We had an interrupted campaign last year and I asked Moyglare could they leave her with me. The fact she ran at all last year was amazing. She was third to Art Power on soft ground [in September] and that told us all we needed to know. She needed the run [at this venue] the last day and, on soft ground, she can't function. She's in the [G2] Duke Of Cambridge [at Royal Ascot], but anything from six to nine [furlongs] on fast ground suits."

Pedigree Notes

Just Beautiful is one of three pattern-race winners produced by G3 Oh So Sharp S. second Astrelle (Ire) (Makfi {GB}), whose first is G2 German 2000 Guineas victor Fearless King (GB) (Kingman {GB}). She is also a half to last year's GI Belmont Oaks Invitational heroine McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Astrelle is kin to four black-type performers headed by G2 Premio Ribot victor Porsenna (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and G2 Gran Criterium runner-up Basileus (Ire) (Dream Ahead). Astrelle is also a granddaughter of GI Black Helen H. victrix and G1 Oaks d'Italia third Sopran Mariduff (GB) (Persian Bold {Ire}), whose descendants also include G1 Grande Premio Joao Cecilio Ferraz hero Tweet (Brz) (Midshipman). Just Beautiful's fourth dam Marina Duff (Ire) (Caerleon) landed the G3 Premio Dormello as a juvenile and is also the second dam of G3 Premio Ambrosiano victor Voice Of Love (Ire) (Poet's Voice {GB}) and G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio scorer Time Chant (GB) (War Chant). Astrelle has a 2-year-old filly by Calyx (GB) and a yearling filly by Pinatubo (Ire) to come.

Last term's G1 Prix Saint-Alary and G2 Blandford S. heroine Above The Curve (American Pharoah--Fabulous {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) encountered stellar opposition in Sunday's G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud and halted a three-race losing streak with a pillar-to-post victory in the 10 1/2-furlong contest.

Coolmore and Westerberg's 'TDN Rising Star' was undone by Saint-Alary runner-up Place Du Carrousel (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and the reopposing Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) when third in October's G1 Prix de l'Opera before running seventh in both November's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf and this month's G2 Mooresbridge S. on seasonal return last time.

The eventual winner was swiftly into stride and held sway at a comfortable pace. In command throughout, the 47-10 chance was shaken up when threatened at the top of the straight and stayed on relentlessly under a drive inside the final quarter-mile to hit the line strong with a two-length buffer from Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}). German raider India (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) kept on well to finish one length adrift third while 'TDN Rising Star' Nashwa, who held every chance turning for home, faded out of contention in the latter stages and finished another 1 1/4 lengths back in fourth.

"I am delighted to win this race for Joseph O'Brien and in these famous silks too," said Maxime Guyon. "We used to ride together and know each other very well indeed. He said that she is a very straightforward filly with a huge action and to go on if nobody wanted the lead. She travelled beautifully and quickened well. She had the race in the bag quite early."

Hollie Doyle, reflecting on a satisfactory return to action for G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Nassau S. heroine Nashwa, added, "She's a big, burly mare and I think she just got tired. She's grown a lot and has put on a lot of weight. She had a busy year last year and was coming back off her first proper break. She probably needed the run and I think she'll come on for it."

Pedigree Notes

Above The Curve is the third of six reported foals and one of two scorers produced by an unraced sibling of eight black-type performers headed by MG1SW sire Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat). She is a full-sister to G3 Irish 1000 Guineas Trial and G3 Weld Park S. third Thinking Of You and her dam Fabulous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was bred to Justify last year, has the unraced 3-year-old filly Deadly Nightshade (Justify) and a 2-year-old filly and yearling filly by Justify to come. Descendants of the April-foaled bay's MGSW second dam Mariah's Storm (Rahy), herself kin to G1SP sire Panoramic (GB) (Rainbow Quest), also include MG1SW sires Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Decorated Knight (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Classic heroines Joan of Arc (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Marvellous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), MG1SW distaffer Happily (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and elite-level performers Vatican City (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Coolmore (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Taj Mahal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

SAXON WARRIOR'S BROTHER AWARDED

THE GALLINULE by Tom Frary

Drumroll (centre) | Racingfotos

His name conjures a sense of suspense, so when Drumroll (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) was denied a short head by Teutates (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)) after a pulsating tussle for Sunday's G3 Heider Family Stables Gallinule S. at The Curragh, it was only right that the drama would play out further as an inquiry was announced. Once the head-on had revealed the extent of the interference caused by the first-past-the-post to Ballydoyle's full-brother to Saxon Warrior (Jpn), the writing was on the wall and the result was duly amended in his favour.

Runner-up to the stable's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Paddington (GB) (Siyouni (Fr)) in the Listed Tetrarch S. here at the start of the month, Drumroll tracked the leading pair early before engaging Teutates passing two out. Bumped twice late on as the line neared, the 4-5 favourite had done enough to convince the officials that he would have prevailed with a clear run and, drumroll, he was able to add further gravitas to his illustrious family's record.

"He's progressing and a mile and a quarter looks a good trip for him," commented Aidan O'Brien, who was to go on to a four-timer on the card. "The Irish Derby is a possibility. He's still a bit of a baby and ran a bit green."

Pedigree Notes

The aforementioned Saxon Warrior, who is establishing his name at stud having won the G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Racing Post Trophy, started his career here with a 'TDN Rising Star' performance. The dam Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who also excelled at this venue when taking the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G2 Debutante S., is also responsible for the listed-placed Pavlenko (Jpn)--again by Deep Impact--and More Beautiful (War Front).

Maybe is a full-sister to Promise To Be True (Ire), who like her captured the G3 Silver Flash S. and who was also second in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac; and to Fluff (Ire) who produced the stable's promising 3-year-old colt Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) who took the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon and dead-heated for third in the G2 Dante S. Her listed-winning dam Sumora (Ire) (Danehill) is kin to the G1 Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana heroine Dancing Rain (Ire) by Danehill's son Danehill Dancer (Ire) and she went on to produce the dual Group 2 winner Magic Lily (GB) from a mating with Galileo's son New Approach (Ire). Also related to the G1 Derby-winning sire Dr Devious (Ire), Maybe's yearling colt is by Kingman (GB).

KASSADA MAKES ALL IN HOPPEGARTEN'SG3 DIANA-TRIAL by Sean Cronin

Gestut Rottgen's Kassada (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger})--Kasalla {Ger}, by Soldier Hollow {GB}) was two from four heading into Sunday's G3 Diana-Trial at Hoppegarten and booked a ticket to Dusseldorf's Aug. 6 G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) with a wide-margin rout in the Berlin feature.

She graduated over 10 furlongs at Munich last November, her third juvenile start, and continued on an upward trajectory with an impressive four-length tally in an Apr. 16 Mulheim conditions heat on seasonal return last time.

Kassada was sharply into stride and seized an immediate lead. Unchallenged on the front end throughout, she was asked to stretch off the home turn and powered clear in style inside the final quarter-mile to easily account for Drawn To Dream (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}) by a hugely impressive five lengths. Drawn To Dream, in turn, finished a comfortable 2 1/2 lengths clear of Ultima (Ger) (Amaron {GB}) in third.

"She really is exceptional and the star filly in the [Markus Klug] stable," winning rider Andrasch Starke told GaloppOnline. "I actually think racing on the lead is not her optimum style of running, but I was able to organize everything perfectly from the front here. She needs a strong pace in her races and should get that in the [Preis der] Diana or wherever she runs next. If she gets a solid pace I think she will be even stronger and able to show her true ability."

Pedigree Notes

Kassada, who becomes the 13th pattern-race winner for her sire (by Sea The Stars (Ire)), is the second of four reported foals and one of two scorers produced by G1 Preis von Europa third Kasalla (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). Kasalla is a full-sister to G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 second Kassiano (Ger) and a half-sister to GSW G1 Deutsches Derby placegetter Kaspar (Ger) (Pivotal {GB}) and MGSP G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen runner-up Kastano (Ger) (Nathaniel {Ire}). The March-foaled bay, who is from the family of G1 Derby Italiano-winning sire Kallisto (Ger) (Sternkonig {Ire}) and dual Classic-winning German champion Konigswiese (Ger) (Wahnfried {Ger}), is a half-sister to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old colt Kampf (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}) and a weanling colt by Zarak (Fr).

Successful in the Listed Stockholm Fillies & Mares S. over 10 1/2 furlongs at Bro Park in October, Go On Carlras upped her game to register a hard-fought career-best in this competitive affair. Tracking the leaders throughout the early stages, the bay was marginally ahead at the top of the straight but after being headed by White Heart soon after battled gamely towards the stands' rail to overhaul that rival in the dying strides.

The dam is a granddaughter of the multiple group and graded-stakes scorer Cox Orange (Trempolino), who produced the G1 1000 Guineas third Vista Bella (GB) (Diktat {GB}). This is also the family of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Amonita (GB) (Anabaa), the four-times group 2 winner Enbihaar (Ire) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) and, more recently, the dual listed-placed Holguin (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}).

ANOTHER BALLYDOYLE NO NAY NEVER 'TDN RISING STAR' EMERGES by Tom Frary

When it comes to the maidens at The Curragh's Irish Guineas weekend, it has become essential to follow Aidan O'Brien's chosen runners with the following year's Classics in mind and Sunday's Tally Ho Stud Irish EBF Fillies Maiden produced a winner in Matrika (Ire) (No Nay Never--Muravka {Ire}, by High Chaparral {Ire}) who very much gave that vibe. Following the 'TDN Rising Star' label handed to the yard's Unquestionable (Fr)

(Wootton Bassett {GB}) on Saturday, the same honour is bestowed on this debutante who went two places better in the six-furlong maiden than her classy stablemate Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) had done 12 months ago.

Sent forward from the break by Ryan Moore, the market-weak 6-1 shot travelled strongly throughout in the front line and always looked comfortable exposed without cover before beginning to assert from the furlong pole. There is nothing in the winning margins of 3/4 of a length and a neck to the Joseph and Donnacha O'Brien-trained Grand Job (Justify) and Mysteries (Ire) (No Nay Never) respectively, or the unspectacular winning time, to suggest this was a 'TDN Rising Star'-type performance but it is all about the future with this full-sister to Unicorn Lion (Ire) and The Wow Signal (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

Most of the stable's eventual group 1 fillies do not win by far on debut and it is more the manner of her success that suggests she can soon dine at the top table. Another 'TDN Rising Star' in the armada to head to Royal Ascot, the imposing bay who becomes the eighth in that category for her sire, with Ten Sovereigns (Ire) and Little Big Bear (Ire) the obvious picks of them. She has apparently turned being laid-back into an art form at Rosegreen.

"She's been very idle and lazy at home and so has been working in blinkers--she was declared in them and they were on and off about three or four times since, but Wayne [Lordan] who rides her in all her work decided last minute to leave them off," the master of Ballydoyle explained. "It was his call and the right one, so it was lovely to see her doing that. She is totally asleep all the time at home, but now she's done that first time we could leave the blinkers off again for the [G3] Albany. She could be one of those lazy workers and that is often a good thing. I think Joseph and Donnacha liked their fillies, which is a good sign." Cont. p11

Matrika is, as mentioned above, a full-sibling of the dual group 3-winning Unicorn Lion (Ire) who was also runner-up in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen and a half to The Wow Signal who captured the G2 Coventry S. at the Royal meeting before collecting the G1 Prix Morny. The third black-type winner for the unraced dam Muravka is the Listed Prix des Jouvenceaux et des Jouvencelles scorer and G2 Rockfel S.-placed Miss Infinity (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), who also produced the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon runner-up Make Me King (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Muravka is also the second dam of the smart 3-year-old filly Breege (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), who was runner-up in the G3 Prestige S. and third in the G3 Princess Margaret S. last season.

The second dam, the dual listed-winning and G2 Prix de l'Opera-placed Tabdea (Topsider), is a half-sister to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulisches heroine Ta Rib (Mr. Prospector) responsible for the Listed Heritage S. and Listed Amethyst S. winner Tolpuddle (Ire) (College Chapel {GB}). Muravka's colt foal is by St Mark's Basilica (Fr).

PARISLONGCHAMP: CAN EREVANN GET HIS GROUP ONE?

by Tom Frary

Things may not have gone to plan with Vadeni (Fr) (Churchill {Ire}) on Sunday, but The Aga Khan and Jean-Claude Rouget will be looking to put that experience behind him quickly as 'TDN Rising Star' Erevann (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) takes aim at Monday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at ParisLongchamp. Successful in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein here in October, having finished in the frame in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August, the son of the high-class Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) enjoyed the perfect sharpening when third in the G2 Prix du Muguet over a mile at Saint-Cloud at the start of the month.

Starting Point For Onesto...

This also serves as the reintroduction of fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who may find this trip shy of 10 furlongs too sharp so a win is probably asking too much of the 2022 G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero and G1 Irish Champion S. runner-up. Shadwell's G2 Prix Dollar winner Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) will provide a pointer to the G1 Prince of Wales's S. prospects of Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), having finished runner-up to Godolphin's giant in the G3 Gordon Richards S. staged at Newmarket earlier this month.

Classic Action At Cologne...

Cologne stages the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen, or German 2000 Guineas, with Yoshiro Kubota's dual Polytrack winner Dragon Icon (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) a fascinating contender for the Roger Varian stable. Disappointingly, the home defence looks weak on paper, with the market leaders all from Britain or France.

He was steadied to track the leaders in fourth after an alert getaway upped in trip here. Making smooth headway in the straight, the 17-10 chance quickened smartly to go second approaching the furlong marker and kept on strongly in the closing stages to deny Ramatuelle by a head nearing the line, the pair finishing six lengths clear of the remainder.

TASTIERA BESTS SOL ORIENS IN TRAGEDY-MARRED TOKYO YUSHUN by Alan Carasso

Tastiera (12) lasts in the Tokyo Yushun as Sol Oriens (red cap) falls just short | JRA

Carrot Farm's Tastiera (Jpn) (Satono Crown {Jpn}), who fell victim to a stinging late rush from Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) Apr. 16, got first run on that favoured foe in the long Tokyo straight and found the wire a neck to the good, dashing any hope for a Triple Crown for 2023. Heart's Concerto (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) was a strong third at longshot odds, but the race was marred by the death of Carrot Farm's second betting choice Skilfing (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), who suffered a cardiac event in the late stages and collapsed past the winning post.

The Derby was run at just a steady tempo, as Pax Ottomanica (Jpn) (Victoire Pisa {Jpn}) set the pace in advance of fellow outsider Ho O Biscuits (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits). Tastiera, somewhat surprisingly no better than the fourth most-fancied runner, assumed a prominent spot beneath the visiting Damian Lane after beginning a beat slowly and raced two wide and with the benefit of cover entering the back straight.

Pax Ottomanica was slipped a bit of rein and had stretched his advantage to a good half-dozen lengths passing the 1400-metre peg, but those doing the chasing were being ridden patiently, waiting for the speed to come back to them. Pax Ottomanica opened up by as many as 10 lengths entering the final three furlongs, but Tastiera was given his cue by Lane three deep off the home corner, with odds-on Sol Oriens just behind and to his left, right on his flank. Pax Ottomanica held bravely, clearly advantaged by the easy tempo, but was collared by Tastiera just inside the furlong, and although Sol Oriens was in the clear with every chance from there, the wire arrived in time for Tastiera.

Dura Erede (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) stumbled at the start and lost jockey Ryusei Sakai.

A Trip Down Memory 'Lane'

Damian Lane | Horsephotos

Just 29 years old, Bunbury, Western Australia, native Damian Lane is perennially among the top riders in Victoria and is the latest big name to make a big impression on short-term contracts in Japan. Sunday's Derby marks the jockey's fifth top-level success in the country, two of which came aboard Carrot Farm's Horse of the Year Lys Gracieux (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen and G1 Arima Kinen either side of a stirring score in the 2019 G1 Cox Plate at Moonee Valley for Yoshito Yahagi.

The first of his 13 Japanese group victories came astride Carrot Farm's Mer de Glace (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) in the 2019 G3 Niigata Daishoten, and Lane was once again in the irons for a one-length tally in that year's G1 Caulfield Cup, a week prior to the Cox Plate.

Lane's relationship with Japanese horsepeople also resulted in his landing the ride aboard Crown Pride (Jpn) (Reach the Crown {Jpn}), whom he duly piloted to take out the 2022 G2 UAE Derby. Prior to that, he won the 2017 G1 Toorak H. and G1 Mackinnon S. with the Japanese part-owned Tosen Stardom (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), while he also guided Win Marilyn (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) to salute in last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase.

Of his first Japanese Classic, Lane said: "It's a very special, great feeling especially for Hori Stables and Carrot Farm with whom I've had success. It was definitely the position [today], and credit to the horse--he's so versatile, he could jump quick, put himself in a good position and relax. It's just a great sense of achievement."

Lane, who closed Sunday's card with a last-gasp success atop Heat on Beat (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in the G2 Meguro Kinen, rides Serifos (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) in next Sunday's G1 Yasuda Kinen. The duo teamed to win last year's G1 Mile Championship S.

Pedigree Notes

Tastiera is the first elite-level scorer for his sire, who was acquired in utero in a private transaction and subsequently fetched ¥58 million ($573,040) from prominent owner Hajime Satomi at the 2013 JRHA Select Sale. Also trained by Noriyuki Hori, the dark bay was third to stablemate Duramente (Jpn) in the 2015 Tokyo Yushun and recorded the first Group 1 of his career in the Longines Hong Kong Vase at the tail end of his 4-year-old season. He also annexed the G1 Takarazuka Kinen in 2017 and was retired to Shadai Stallion Station at the end of the following campaign. Satono Crown, a brother to 2011 G1 Cheveley Park Stud S. heroine Lightening Pearl (Ire), has been represented by 29 individual winners to date, including Tosen Laurier (Jpn) and Uvarovite (Jpn), each victorious at the listed stakes level.

On behalf of Shadai Farm, bloodstock agent Patrick Barbe spent $90,000 for Tastiera's Florida-bred fourth dam Crafty Wife (Crafty Prospector) at the Due Process Dispersal at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky in 1989. She was exported to Japan, was bred to Northern Taste and the result was Kyoei Forte (Jpn), a stakes-placed winner of nearly $1.5 million. Second dam Fortepiano was a full-sister to the listed-placed Sound Axis (Jpn) and foaled Partitura to the cover of 2001 Kikuka Sho hero Manhattan Cafe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) in 2014.

Partitura is the dam of a 2-year-old filly by Bricks and Mortar, a yearling filly by 2017 Derby winner Rey de Oro (Jpn) and was most recently covered by Kitanas Black (Jpn).

'EMPEROR' OUTBATTLES 'WARRIOR' IN CHAMPIONS AND CHATER CUP by Alan Carasso

Russian Emperor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has been campaigned ambitiously this season, with stops in Doha and Dubai, but the 6-year-old saved his best for last, running down heavily favoured Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) to successfully defend his title in Sunday's G1 Standard Chartered Champions and Chater Cup, the last of 12 Group 1 events on the annual Hong Kong racing calendar. Longshot Five G Patch (Ire) (Camelot {GB})--a two-time winner from two runs for Joseph O'Brien when racing as Collins Street (Ire)--went a massive race to be third in spite of a rating some 30 pounds inferior to the winner.

Money Catcher (NZ) (Ferlax {NZ}) mapped as the chief speed of the Champions and Chater, but when Derek Leung elected not to go on with it, Zac Purton was left no option but to make the running with Romantic Warrior, trying 12 furlongs for the first time having won the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup and G1 FWD QE II Cup over a mile and a quarter this term. Romantic Warrior can get fired up in his races, but he settled kindly enough and took them past halfway in 1:15.51, just outside standard clocking of 1:15.15. Cont. p17

While Money Catcher ensured that Romantic Warrior would not get loose on the lead, Russian Emperor was ridden back in the field by Hugh Bowman, knowing full well that his mount's best asset was his ability to run a strong 2400 metres, while the distance was the potential fly in the ointment for Romantic Warrior. Purton upped the tempo a bit on the final turn and Romantic Warrior gave a good response when asked for a sprint in upper stretch. As late as 150 metres from home, it appeared he'd left the others too much to do, but Russian Emperor ultimately called upon his superior stamina and was along late to join the likes of River Verdon (Ire), Indigenous (Ire), Viva Pataca (GB) and Exultant (Ire) as back-to-back winners of the race.

Russian Emperor became the first overseas runner for trainer Douglas Whyte when saluting in the Listed H. H. The Amir Trophy in Qatar in February and he was a highly creditable fifth in the G1 Jebel Hatta at Meydan over an insufficient 1800 metres the following month. Eighth to Equinox (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) in the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 25, Russian Emperor carried 135 pounds to a running-on sixth behind Straight Arron (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the G3 Queen Mother Memorial Cup over track and distance May 7.

"He's a superstar of my stable and he's certainly given me one hell of a ride since he's joined me," Whyte said of the 2020 G3 Hampton Court S. hero. "We've had our ups and downs but there's been a lot more ups than downs. To travel with him and winning in Doha, and coming back now to repeat that effort on a firm track. You've just got to give it all to the horse. When he won in Doha, that was probably the highlight of my career, both as a jockey and a trainer, to go abroad and do that."

The beaten favourite gave it his all in his jockey's view.

"[Romantic Warrior] showed today it's [2400m] not his favourite distance, but he tried bloody hard—he was gone at the 600m," Purton said. "Coming into the straight, Money Catcher actually headed me and I thought he was going to drop out, and to his credit, he tried as hard as he could. It was just not his distance."

Russian Emperor's champion and four-time Group 1-winning dam sadly passed away days after foaling a colt by Justify in August 2020. The soon-to-be 3-year-old, an A$240,000 Inglis Easter yearling named Maravillas (Aus), is currently spelling for trainer Annabel Neasham.
