

GODOLPHIN LOOKING AHEAD TO SUMMER FOLLOWING ANOTHER 'PRETTY' BIG WEEKEND

Cody's Wish | Sarah Andrew

by Steve Sherack

It was a banner weekend for Godolphin homebreds during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival.

Cody's Wish (Curlin) added another chapter to racing's feel-good story with a powerful, come-from-behind victory in the stallion-making GI Hill 'N' Dale Metropolitan H.

The GI Kentucky Oaks winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) validated her upset neck victory on the first Friday in May with a heart-stopping victory in the GI Acorn S.

The up-and-coming Loved (Medaglia d'Oro)--a 4-year-old half-sister to MGISW and young Darley stallion Maxfield (Street Sense)--made it three straight runaway wins with a 12-length victory in an optional claimer in the Ellis slop on Sunday.

The 'Boys in Blue' also won last Friday's GII Belmont Gold Cup with Siskany (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and finished third with both 425,000gns TATOCT buy Ottoman Fleet (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) (the lone auction purchase of the group) in Saturday's GI Manhattan S. and 'TDN Rising Star' Strobe (Into Mischief) in the GII True North S., respectively.

SAFFIE JOSEPH, JR. RESUMES TRAINING AT NYRA; GETS 23 STALLS AT SARATOGA

Saffie Joseph, Jr. has nominated Violet Gibson (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}) to the Wild Applause S. at Belmont Saturday, June 24, and has been given 23 stalls for the summer at Saratoga Race Course, according to an email from NYRA's Vice President of Communications, Patrick McKenna.

"Following consistent and productive dialogue between Saffie Joseph, Jr. and NYRA, Joseph Jr. will resume training and racing at NYRA tracks," McKenna wrote. "He has nominated Violet Gibson to the $150,000 Wild Applause and has been allotted 23 stalls for the 2023 summer meet at Saratoga Race Course. NYRA will adjust accordingly should the investigation in Kentucky reveal any wrongdoing." Cont. p6

TDN's Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack caught up with Godolphin USA Director of Bloodstock Michael Banahan earlier this week to discuss some of the highlights from last weekend as well as domestic summer plans for Sheikh Mohammed's high-powered global operation. Banahan also provided an update on 'TDN Rising Star' First Mission (Street Sense), who was a late scratch from last month's GI Preakness S.

Q: Cody's Wish seems like a good place to start. He made it six straight wins while matching his previous career high Beyer Speed Figure of 112 in the Met Mile. Bill Mott said a title defense in the seven-furlong GI Forego S. (at Saratoga Aug. 26) could be in the cards for Cody's Wish later this summer, but also left the door open for potentially stretching him out to 1 1/8 miles for the GI Whitney S. (at Saratoga Aug. 5). Has there been much dialogue yet regarding his summer campaign?

MB: It's certainly a good discussion point. It's just unfortunate that there's not really any race at his distance that suits at the moment. And it's a long time from the first week in June until the last weekend in August. So, we'll have to decide what's the best route for him. He's gone over a mile a couple of times unsuccessfully (finished third going 1 1/8 miles at Saratoga second out in 2021 and finished a close second in the GIII Challenger S. at Tampa last March), but there's probably reasons for that. We feel like he's a better racehorse now than he was 12 months ago. He's more professional and Junior Alvarado has gotten to know him and rides him very well.

We also have (2022 GI Clark S. winner and this year's GI Santa Anita H. runner-up and GII Oaklawn H. winner) Proxy (Tapit)

that's gonna run in the (GI) Stephen Foster (S. at Ellis Park July 1), hopefully. Those races that are 1 1/8-miles plus suit him very well. We'll probably wait until after he runs in the Stephen Foster, then see where the cards lay.

But the Whitney or the Forego are the two obvious races for Cody's Wish. We'll just wait and see. It's a wonderful position to be in.

We saw what he did last weekend in the Met Mile and it was another step up for him. He just seems to be getting to a different level. It's hard to tell if they want to stay any further until you actually try them. They can gallop out well, but in all honestly, when you get to the winner line, that's the end of the race. It doesn't really count what you do afterwards.

Q: It's always great to see the Kentucky Oaks winner back up their form in the Acorn on Belmont Stakes weekend. Will Pretty Mischievous follow up in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga on July 22?

MB: We might go in a little bit of a different direction with her. She has a lot of pace as we've seen in the Oaks and in the Acorn. She travels extremely well. We are very tempted to back her up a little bit and go in the (GI) Test (S. going seven furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 5) instead. We think that's a race that she has enough pace for and it might suit her even better. We'll have a good strong look at that. Nothing written in stone. We also have the Oaks favorite Wet Paint (Blame) drawn in this weekend in the Monomoy Girl S. at Ellis Park (finished a rallying second behind Hoosier Philly). We feel that the Coaching Club Oaks--depending how she gets on this weekend--might come into play for her.

The NY Race Track Chaplaincy, for over a decade, has provided a Summer Enrichment Program in Saratoga in order to keep Saratoga families together during the racing season and give the children an opportunity to experience a summer that some have never had before; away from the city and the track. This program meets so many critical needs for the families we serve. We turn no child away and rely entirely on contributions to keep the program going.

Your donation will directly impact the life of a child.

We invite you to partner with us as we prepare to begin the 2023 program.

Thank you for allowing us to serve the families of the backstretch in this critically important way.

Q: What's the excitement level like having a Kentucky Oaks winner and another sophomore filly of such a high caliber--and both homebreds--carry the Godolphin blue?

MB: We've always liked Pretty Mischievous. We never felt that she ever let us down, but she probably is only getting the respect that she deserves now. And maybe that's a little bit to do with her racing style where she sort of waits on horses a little bit and ends up being in tight finishes. We've always been very high on her and going into the Kentucky Oaks--I said it at the time--that I couldn't really separate the two fillies. And I still think that they're very equal talent wise.

I don't think we saw the best of Wet Paint that day (in the Oaks). Flavien Prat came back and said that she didn't really take to the Churchill surface as well as she did to Oaklawn. I might be a little bit biased, but the record is out there for everyone else to see that we maybe have the two best 3-year-old fillies in the country. We're very excited to see what the balance of the year will hold for them. We'll try to keep them separated from each other for the near future.

Q: She's missed a lot of time, but Maxfield's half-sister Loved continues to make up for it. She was super impressive once again winning over the weekend at Ellis Park, her third straight victory since sitting on the shelf for more than a year. The patient approach by Brendan Walsh certainly looks like it's all paying off now. Is there a stakes race with her name on it next out?

MB: We've been waiting on her a long time. Brendan had to be very patient with her. We were hoping to get her running down in Florida in the winter time and different things conspired where we didn't get a start in her. She's developed mentally and physically since. She was one filly that we were very much looking forward to getting back to the racetrack and seeing what she could do and she hasn't let us down. She's taking those nice building-block races and getting a little bit more experience every time. She looks like she's very talented. We'll take it slowly, but we're probably looking at the GIII Molly Pitcher on Haskell day (July 22) at Monmouth for her. She deserves to get into a graded race now and see where we are. If she stays healthy and well, we'll have some nice days down the road with her.

Q: First Mission's GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. form was further flattered over the weekend when both Arabian Lion (Justify) (GI Woody Stephens S.) and Disarm (Gun Runner) (GII Matt Winn S.) won impressively. Obviously a crushing blow to have to scratch him out of the Preakness last month. What's the latest on him?

MB: We're just giving him a little bit of time off. We'll regroup next month and see where we stand. Get him reevaluated and try and get him back on track again. No need to rehash our Preakness disappointment. But it was a pretty crushing one. We thought we had maybe the best horse in the race. But, anyway, we saw what Arabian Lion did in the Woody Stephens and we felt like we beat him pretty readily in the Lexington.

Look, First Mission is a very talented horse. We just look forward now rather than backwards and hopefully in the fall and next year we're gonna have an exceptionally nice horse for some big days down the road.

Q: What was the diagnosis? Was it an issue with his left hind leg that led to the time off?

MB: Not really, it was a little bit of bone bruising. Nothing major, relatively insignificant. We'll just give him that little bit of time (60 days off). He seems like he's doing OK and enjoying his time off. We're looking forward to getting him back going again.

Q: Glancing over her worktab, it looks like Matareya (Pioneer of the Nile) has bounced out of her win in the GI Derby City Distaff S. on Kentucky Derby day in good form. What kind of targets does she have lined up for the summer and fall?

MB: It's a funny program. We had the Distaff set up nicely in the spring and then there's not any races at the Grade I level--the Breeders' Cup champion (Goodnight Olive) is having a run this weekend in a Grade II in New York (in the GII Bed O' Roses S.).

Matareya, we wanted to keep her at home. We're gonna run her in the (GIII) Chicago (S. at Ellis Park June 24). She obviously likes Churchill Downs and we were expecting to be running at Churchill Downs. But she'll take a day trip down to Ellis and hopefully lead us to the (GI) Ballerina (H. at Saratoga Aug. 26). She's doing well. We're very happy with her. She improved from her first race of the year at Oaklawn (second in Matron S.), which we were hoping would happen. There's some really nice sprinting fillies out there and she's at the top end of the table with them. We were delighted with her win at Churchill. She's tactically very astute and has that speed to put herself in a good position to win those type of races. Looking forward to a big second half of the year with her.

Matareya | Sarah Andrew

Q: Final question. Three Grade I victories over Kentucky Derby weekend, led by a win in the Kentucky Oaks, and another two during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival, including the prestigious Met Mile. What does this level of success on racing's biggest stages--all with homebreds--mean for the operation?

MB: It's what we get out of bed every morning for. It's all the hard work over the previous years that lead up to that to try and develop these horses and get a broodmare band established that we feel like we have an opportunity to do so. It takes plenty of luck to get there as well. We had a massive Derby weekend and to back it up with Pretty Mischievous winning the Acorn and Cody's Wish winning the Met Mile--we were especially delighted to be able to provide the assist for Bill Mott to get his first Met Mile win.

They're the weekends you look forward to all year long and want to be winning on. We realize that we've been fortunate and on a great run here lately. It means everything to all of our people that work on the farms in Kentucky and also to Godolphin globally as well. We had people over from Europe and for them to see what we're achieving over here in America first hand was great. And back in Dubai for Godolphin's founder Sheikh Mohammed, who takes a great interest in how we're doing in America as well. I think he got a big kick out of seeing those horses perform at that level. We all have a great pep in our step on Monday morning after those big weekends.

Two of Joseph's trainees died of unexplained causes in the week leading up to the Kentucky Derby, causing Churchill Downs to suspend him indefinitely, and scratch his Derby entrant, Lord Miles (Curlin) from the race.

While Joseph was never officially forbidden from running at NYRA, the association issued a statement after the Churchill ban that made it clear he would not be running at New York tracks.

"Following recent events at Churchill Downs, which remain under investigation by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission, NYRA has engaged in discussions with trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr.," said McKenna at the time. "Mr. Joseph has no horses stabled at Belmont Park and, to our understanding, is not currently planning on shipping horses to New York or entering races at Belmont Park while the matter is under investigation. NYRA will continue to evaluate our response should new information come to light."

"In general, after what happened at Churchill, we wanted answers," said Joseph in explaining his absence from New York. "I was going to give NYRA respect until I got answers, thinking it

The necropsy result released on the first of the two horses, Parents Pride, was inconclusive, according to a statement from the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission on June 3. The report said that bloodwork did not detect any prohibited substances or overages of allowed medications. A necropsy report on the second horse, Chasing Artie, is still pending.

CHAMPION GOODNIGHT OLIVE BOUNCES BACK IN BED O' ROSES

Goodnight Olive | Janet Garaguso

Last year's champion female sprinter Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper), a luckless third as the heavy favorite in the GI Derby City Distaff S. May 6, stayed out of trouble this time and was along in time for a narrow success in Saturday's GII Bed O' Roses S. at Belmont Park.

Drawn on the fence, the 1-4 chalk broke on top and dropped back to caboose the tightly bunched field of five beneath the hot-handed Irad Ortiz, Jr. through an opening quarter in :22.90. Traveling nicely approaching the quarter pole, Goodnight Olive was tipped out and into the clear while four wide off the turn for home and rallied down the center to outbox Wicked Halo (Gun Runner) by a hard-fought neck. Goodnight Olive was the fifth winner on the card for Ortiz Jr.

Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint winner and GI Ballerina H. heroine kicked off her 5-year-old campaign with a win in Keeneland's GI Madison S. Goodnight Olive never got a chance to run and was defeated by two lengths in her aforementioned attempt on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard.

"I was really proud of her," winning trainer Chad Brown said. "She made multiple moves in the race. I thought each time Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] moved with her and used her, it was with good judgement. He gave her a great ride like he has every time he's ridden her."

Brown added that Goodnight Olive could potentially stretch out to two turns for the GIII Molly Pitcher S. at Monmouth Park July 22.

Pedigree Notes:

Goodnight Olive, one of 14 top-level winners for Ghostzapper, brought $170,000 as a FTKOCT yearling. Goodnight Olive is one of two winners from three to the races out of dual Grade III winner Salty Strike, who was acquired by the Stonestreet team for $800,000 at the Keeneland January Sale in 2013. A half-sister to the stakes-winning Salty Response (Cozzene) and to the stakes-placed dam of MSP Mohawk Trail (Pioneerof the Nile), Salty Strike is also the dam of the unraced Katie's Keepsake (Medaglia d'Oro), who was sold for $250,000 in foal to Ghostzapper at this year's Keeneland January Sale.

The streaking Petulante made his first attempt versus graded stakes company a winning one. The rail-drawn favorite raced within striking distance in fifth through a half mile in :48.41. He was under a ride on the far turn and was angled out by Luis Saez at the quarter pole. He came into the stretch while four wide and came rolling home to get there in a dramatic finish.

A runaway debut winner at Gulfstream last summer, Petulante won his two previous starts versus optional claimers going a mile this term. He dead-heated for a win at Gulfstream Jan. 20, then fired fresh off the layoff with a career-high Beyer Speed Figure of 95 at Churchill Downs May 6.

"He has been improving with every race," winning trainer Victor Barboza said. "He has never had a bad race, so I thought he was ready for a graded stakes. He has always shown talent. I was a little worried where he was at the three-eighths, but then I saw he was starting to move and I felt confident he would finish strongly and he did."

Pedigree Notes:

Fresh off the heels of Arcangelo's GI Belmont S. victory, Petulante becomes the seventh graded/ninth stakes winner for the gone-too-soon Arrogate. The winner's graded stakes-placed dam is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt The Donegal Clan (Twirling Candy) ($240,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Donegal Racing), a yearling colt by Curlin and a Constitution filly of this year. Consumer Spending | Sarah Andrew Romantica (Into Mischief) hot on her heels. The top pair took their time, ticking off fractions of :25.36 and :49.74 while Consumer Spending stalked just off the pace in fourth. Widest of the trio turning for home, she got up on even terms with a furlong to run and led a four-wide bid for the wire, edging out favored Surprisingly for the win.

"There was no pace," explained Chad Brown's assistant trainer Luis Cabrera. "So our other filly [Gina Romantica] was rank coming off that long layoff when she was chasing. The winner had perfect trip. This is how she likes to race, even though the fractions weren't fast. She was close. She was right behind the speed so it doesn't matter how slow they were going. She's a quality filly. I worked a lot with her all winter at Payson. She's a classy filly."

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's second dam Shaconage (El Prado {Ire}), herself an accomplished racemare with a pair of graded-stakes wins, would go on to produce the dam of a trio of South American winners, including GSW/G1SP Jacare (Chi) (Lookin At Lucky). Third dam Carita Tostada (Chi) was also successful in Chile with three Group 1 wins to her name. The winner's dam, a $390,000 purchase out of the 2022 Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale, saw her now 2-year-old More Than Ready filly bring a final bid of $650,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale but sadly lost the American Pharoah foal she was carrying this year.

With only one other stakes start to his credit, Susan and John Moore's homebred Catnip rolled late for a career high here.

Skipping his juvenile season, the dark bay gelding broke his maiden at second asking on the grass last summer at Colonial Downs before finishing sixth over the same course in the GIII Virginia Derby. Finishing just off the board against allowance types going nine furlongs at Keeneland, Catnip was turned out for the winter.

Returning to Keeneland Apr. 23 to begin his 4-year-old campaign, Catnip won by a neck to clear the condition before shipping to Monmouth May 27 where he defeated optional claimers by a length with another off-the-pace score.

Drifting upwards on the board to 6-1 here, the homebred broke from the outside gate and hustled down the chute into second behind the pacesetter Tribhuvan (Fr) (Toronado {Ire}). Catnip bided his time despite being shuffled back just before the far turn as Never Explain and Speaking Scout pressured the leader. Entering the stretch, Catnip tipped to the outside, was shaken up past the eighth pole, and, with a furious late charge, went right on by to get the money.

"He always had the potential," said winning trainer Michael Stidham. "We ran him in the Virginia Derby and it was probably a little premature where he was mentally and physically. So, after he had time off before he came back this year, we gelded him and that has really helped a lot. Mentally, he's a little more relaxed, a little more focused, and just a better race horse. Joel [Rosario]'s strength is his patience. He's unflappable and patient and always has some horse at the end. We'll certainly be looking next in the direction of the [GI] United Nations."

Pedigree Notes:

Catnip becomes the 57th graded/116th stakes winner worldwide for Kitten's Joy. Catnip's multiple stakes-placed dam, just a $15,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling purchase by John and Susan Moore, is also responsible for the 2-year-old filly Mixologist (Frosted) ($175,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Solis/Litt), a yearling filly by American Pharoah and a filly by Gun Runner of this year. Her first foal, the millionaire Princess Grace (Karakontie {Jpn}), brought $1.7 million from China Horse Club at the 2022 FTKNOV sale.

STOLEN TROPHIES FEARED MELTED, SOLD IN DECADE-OLD RACING MUSEUM HEIST

by T.D. Thornton

Arrests have been made and one fugitive is still at large in the recent cracking of an alleged theft network that targeted sporting museums between 1999 and 2019. Included in the crime spree was the 2013 smash-and-grab heist of five trophies worth an estimated $400,000 from the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in Saratoga Springs, New York.

According to the felony indictment, there appears to be no hope for recovering the looted trophies, three of which were solid gold, and one of which was the 1903 Belmont Stakes trophy valued at $150,000.

That's because in the hours following the theft, two of the alleged conspirators drove 215 miles south to a bar that one of them owned in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and "melted the trophies down into easily transportable metal pieces."

The very next day, the alleged thieves drove to New York City, where they sold the raw materials "for approximately $150,000 to $160,000," the indictment stated.

A methodology of target-steal-melt-sell was the blueprint for how at least nine known individuals broke into 14 museums in the Eastern United States over a 20-year span, ripping off artwork, sporting hardware, and high-value, antique memorabilia.

According to the June 6 indictment filed by prosecutors in U.S. District Court (Middle District of Pennsylvania), 20 of the stolen pieces are considered "objects of cultural heritage" as defined by the federal criminal code because they are "either over 100 years old and worth in excess of $5,000 [or] less than 100 years old and worth at least $100,000."

The alleged thieves are also accused of a 2012 robbery at the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame in Goshen, New York, where they made off with 14 trophies and other awards worth over $300,000.

They also hit museums related with baseball, boxing and golf, looting nine World Series rings and other items once belonging to New York Yankees greats Yogi Berra and Roger Maris; six championship title-fight belts; and the U.S. amateur golf trophy once awarded to Ben Hogan.

The alleged thieves also dabbled in popular art and firearms, hauling off paintings by Andy Warhol and Jackson Pollock, plus three antique firearms worth a combined $1 million.

The trophies and awards would be stripped "of the gemstones and other valuable attachments prior to melting the objects down into easily transportable bars, disks, pucks, and other small pieces of the valuable metals," the indictment stated.

The "objects of cultural heritage which could not be broken down, such as antique firearms and paintings," were then sold on the black market, the indictment stated.

On one occasion, one of the alleged conspirators burned a painting by the 19th Century artist Jasper Cropsey valued at $500,000 out of fear that the artwork would be seized as evidence against the members of the conspiracy. The exact fate of many of the stolen objects remains unknown.

In its coverage of a June 15 press conference, the New York Times reported that prosecutors underscored "the remarkable disregard that the suspects had for such culturally significant memorabilia, given how the melted down pieces were sold for a fraction of what the actual items had actually been worth."

But, the Times added, "their tactic seemed to indicate that the suspects fully understood the shadowy scheme they were engaging in, preferring easy money grabs over underground dealings that would put them more at risk of being caught."

Charged via indictment were four Pennsylvania men: Nicholas Dombek, 53; Damien Boland, 47; Alfred Atsus, 47; and Joseph Atsus, 48. They were indicted by a federal grand jury for conspiracy to commit theft of major artwork, concealment or disposal of objects of cultural heritage, and interstate transportation of stolen property.

Dombek was further charged with a substantive count of interstate transportation of stolen property. The Times reported he was still at large as a fugitive at the time of the press conference.

Five other Pennsylvanians were charged by "felony information" (meaning a grand jury's vote was not required) for the same conspiracy: Thomas Trotta, 48; Frank Tassiello, 50; Daryl Rinker, 50; Dawn Trotta, 51; and Ralph Parry, 45.

The indictment gave a glimpse of how the National Racing Museum heist was planned and executed.

It is unclear, though, if the thieves intentionally timed their break-in there to coincide with a relative lull in Saratoga. The racing season at the historic track right across the street had just concluded 10 days before, making for a mass exodus of tourists and racing-industry workers.

"Prior to Sept. 13, 2013, Nicholas DOMBEK, Damien BOLAND, and Conspirator No. 1 made multiple visits to the National Racing Museum and Hall of Fame [to] view objects of cultural heritage displayed therein and to observe the security measures protecting said objects," the indictment stated.

Then, in the overnight hours of Sept. 13, Boland drove Conspirator No. 1 to Saratoga, "where Conspirator No. 1 entered the National Racing Museum and Hall of Fame without authorization, smashed multiple glass display cases with a center-punch tool and grinder, and stole and removed five trophies displayed therein."

Published news accounts at the time described how the thief was able to navigate the unlit corridors of the landmark Union Avenue building without triggering perimeter alarms.

In the museum's steeplechase gallery, Conspirator No. 1 took trophies from the 1914 Brook Cup Handicap Steeplechase (won by Compliment) and the 1923 Grand National Steeplechase (won by Sergeant Murphy). He then moved to the post-Civil War gallery, and from a single case pilfered trophies from the 1903 Belmont S. (won by Africander), the 1903 Brighton Cup (won by Hermis), and the 1905 Saratoga Special (won by Mohawk II).

Upon exiting the museum, Boland drove Conspirator No. 1 and the looted objects 1.7 miles to the parking lot of the Saratoga Casino Hotel, where Conspirator No. 1 transferred the trophies to his own car. The two then drove their separate vehicles 190 miles south to the parking lot of a Denny's restaurant in Dickson City, Pennsylvania, "to inventory the trophies stolen," the indictment stated.

They then proceeded another seven miles or so to Scranton, where they met up at a bar called Collier's, owned by Boland, to melt down the trophies, the indictment stated.

The next day they drove together to New York City "and sold the pieces to an individual known to the Grand Jury," the indictment stated.

After Sept. 14, "Conspirator No. 1 paid Nicholas DOMBEK $30,000 from the proceeds...in exchange for DOMBEK's help in planning the theft," the indictment stated.

The maximum penalty under federal law for the conspiracy count is a five-year imprisonment, while each of the other offenses calls for a 10-year maximum sentence.

PIKE RACING TO RELOCATE OPERATIONS TO HIGHLANDER TRAINING CENTER

Al and Salley Pike | Photos by Z

As of July 1, two highly respected entities in Thoroughbred training and racing are joining forces as Pike Racing will be relocating to Highlander Training Center in Sulphur Springs, Texas, the facility said in a release.

Pike Racing, owned by Al and Salley Pike, has become a fixture at the 2-year-olds in training sales, and their graduates have experienced success in the sales ring and at the racetrack.

A native Texan from Palestine, Al Pike said he has been eager "to come back to Texas" for years. "Salley and I are both Texans, and it's great to be able to come home. I think this is going to work perfectly, for both Highlander and for us."

"We have fielded numerous requests from clients to add preparing horses for 2-year-old in-training sales to our operations," said Jeff Hooper, Chairman & CEO of Highlander. "There is a market demand for premium service in this sector, and the opportunity to align with Al and Salley for them to base their operations here at Highlander was a perfect fit."

Not seen in the winner's circle since the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs last fall, Hoosier Philly won impressively as the 6-5 second choice in the Monomoy Girl S. at Ellis Saturday afternoon. A perfect three-for-three to start her juvenile career, the Tom Amoss trainee went into the break over the winter as one of the leading candidates to win the GI Kentucky Oaks. Finishing third in New Orleans in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. and a well-beaten fourth in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks in the spring, Hoosier Filly skipped the signature 3-year-old filly race and took a month and a half off following throat surgery before running second in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 19 at Pimlico.

Breaking alertly here, the gray filly shot to the lead, controlled fractions of :25.23 for the first quarter-mile and :48.86 for the first half-mile, and rounding the far turn, began to extend her margin. Despite a late challenge from favorite Wet Paint, Hoosier Filly cruised to a three-length victory.

"She got away with a very easy opening quarter-mile but quickened up well in the lane when Edgar [Morales] asked her," said trainer Tom Amoss.

Salute the Stars continued his rise through the ranks here with a determined victory in the Pegasus S. at Monmouth Park.

Coming into the race riding a two race win-streak which began when he wrapped his juvenile season with a victory against maidens at Ellis on the grass, he moved from John Ortiz to Brad Cox before his seasonal bow last out May 14 in an off-turf allowance. Winning there by a neck, he was made the 5-2 second choice behind Kingsbarns, who was reappearing for the first time since his 14th place in the GI Kentucky Derby. Bumped and steadied at the start, Salute the Stars pulled early for his head, leaving him rank entering the clubhouse turn. Joel Rosario was finally able to reason with his charge as he settled in fourth off the rail on the backstretch, and slowly inched closer from the three path in the final bend. Rallying to the outside of runners, he set his sights on Kingsbarns passing the furlong marker and surged late to run that one down by a neck on the wire.

"I was not feeling good on the backside. He was too aggressive going into the first turn. On the backside Joel did a good job getting him to relax. Even at the three-eighths pole I thought 'he's not going anywhere.'," admitted Trace Messina, Brad Cox's assistant. "But when he straightened out he got going. We'll see [on the GI Haskell]. Obviously that's an option. We have a lot of 3-year-olds in this division. But that's a possibility for sure."

The most accomplished runner of his siblings thus far, Salute the Stars is the first black-type winner for Star Sighting. He has a 2-year-old full-sister Jazz Party, and a 2023 half-sister by Hard Spun. Said dam herself hails from a busy family as the half-sister to MGISW Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway); GISW & MGSW Farrell (Malibu Moon); MGSP Doncaster Rover (War Chant); GISW J. Last seen against optional claimers over the grass going nine furlongs May 11 at Churchill Downs when he was fifth, the Shortleaf homebred went off as the 8-1 choice in this distance test. Vivar took up a position along the fence in third under a hard hold, as Hidden Stash showed the way in front of the grandstand and into the first turn. Rounding the far turn, the gray came alive, took aim at the pacesetter and at the top of the lane under strong encouragement, held on to a tenuous lead all the way to the wire to win by a head over the hard-charging Therapist.

"I thought the stretch out in distance would suit him better," said trainer Robert Medina. "He's a son of Cairo Prince out of a Tapit mare and so once we were able to stretch him out longer, I figured it would suit him better. When he goes shorter he just seems to be a little bit too far off the early pace and it gives him a little too much to do early."

A $50,000 OBS April grad, Flakes came out running on debut but faltered against tougher company in the GIII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream Feb. 4. Back in the winner's circle against state-bred allowance horses next time out, she's posted a pair of on-the-board efforts including a third in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Apr. 1. Sent off at 9-5 here, Flakes broke to the outside from her inner draw and had to hustle to improve her position, gaining steadily from fourth to third through a half in :44.86. Caught out four wide around the turn, she stuck a head in front past the quarter marker, gained a bit of separation inside the final furlong, and dug in to hold off a charging Charlie's Wish for the narrow win. Flakes has a yearling half-brother by Thousand Words while her dam reported a filly by Higher Power this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Chilly on the board at 20-1, Tranche missed the memo, and never looked back from the lead to upset the Fasig-Tipton Futurity in his third start. Seventh on debut in April at Keeneland and then third beneath the Twin Spires May 4, he broke like a shot and quickly cleared his competition to claim his spot on the inside. Showing the way as :22.15 and :45.36 splits sailed by, he cut the corner turning for home and continued to extend his lead under right-hand urging. It was 7 1/4 lengths back to Mirahmadi, who got up in time to grab second from Refocus.

"To be honest, I wasn't really [confident going into this race], in this business when you think you're going to win, it can sometimes go the other way," said Luis Mendez, who won the 2021 Fasig Tipton Futurity with Big City Light. "[Owner] Bill Peeples, I mean everybody on the team loved him, but I was not convinced. That beautiful field of horses was against him, so I was a little worried." The second of Theory of Change's offspring to get his picture taken, Tranche is her first black-type winner. He has a yearling half-brother by Street Sense and the mare came up barren from her 2023 cover to Maxfield. This is the female family of GSP America America (Mister Baileys {GB}), who is responsible for MGSP Bluegrass Princess (Dynaformer) and MSW Partisan Politics (More Than Ready) through her branch of the family. Despite delays behind the gate after her inner rival sent her rider to the hospital with an injured ankle, Grand Slam Smile found enough late to nail her first career black-type in the Fasig-Tipton Debutante S. As one of three winners coming into this contest, Grand Slam Smile was made 7-2 third choice after coming in off a four-length victory over Golden Gate synthetic May 14. Pressing the pace on the outside in the early stages, she lost contact with Becky's Dream as that one showed the way for most of the race but managed to make some headway coming into the lane before being left behind again.

Rallying under left-hand urging, her rider had to resort to a vigorous hand ride after losing his stick in midstretch but Grand Slam Smile dug in and found enough to get by the longtime leader.

"She handled the dirt just fine. You never really know until you put them on it. Galloping versus running isn't the same thing and she seemed to handle it fine," said conditioner Steven Specht. "I've been here a couple of days and missed a couple days of training since they shut the track down at [Golden Gate Fields] unannounced, but she handled it okay."

One of several accomplished runners from her dam, Grand Slam Smile is the last registered foal thus far after Royal Grand Slam did not produce offspring from her 2022 cover to Rousing Sermon and she had been bred to Hard Spun for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Entered off a narrow defeat over this same distance at Keeneland Apr. 26, the 4-5 favorite ran mid pack in pursuit of pacesetter Kawhi Me a River (Kantharos) through mild fractions of :24.18 and :48.78. Fanned out four wide at the quarter pole, Exact Estimate had plenty of run despite drifting in and just got up in the final jumps to defeat that rival by a half-length. DONEGAL FOREVER (c, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Flutter Up {GSP, $137,557}, by Flutter), enthusiastically supported in this unveiling despite giving away a lot to his rivals in terms of experience, stumbled out badly as the even-money favorite a couple strides after the jump. Coasting along as a line of four exchanged disputed issues out in front of him, Donegal Forever bided his time through the long turn behind a half in :47.23. DANCING DIANA (f, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Oh Scatty Oh, by Scat Daddy) broke alertly and went right to the front as the 7-2 third choice facing just a trio of other maidens in this unveiling. Ursuline (Medaglia d'oro) kept pressure on her early as the top pair worked through fractions of :22.55 and :47.17 before Dancing Diana began to assert herself, clearing off under only mild asking with a furlong to run. Cont. p10

Much the best late, she cruised home alone with a final winning margin of 7 1/2 lengths with favorite Tina Tina Tina (Connect) having to settle for second in a strung-out group. Dancing Diana has a yearling half-brother, Lil Bit Wicked (Wicked Strong), still to race behind her. Sales History: $100,000 Ylg '22 EASOCT.

CHANTILLY: CAN BLUE ROSE CEN PULL OFF A CLASSIC DOUBLE?

Blue Rose Cen is seeking her second Classic | Scoop Dyga

by Tom Frary

Beaten only once since her debut and now the proud owner of two Group 1 titles including the Poule d'Essai des Poulaches, Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) goes into the unknown on Sunday as she bids to extend her tally in Chantilly's G1 Prix de Diane Longines. So assured at ParisLongchamp, where she also garnered the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on Arc day, the G3 Prix d'Aumale in September and G3 Prix de la Grotte in April, Yeguada Centurion SL's prized homebred now has to conquer new territory and a new trip. There should be no fears as far as stamina is concerned, being by Churchill who stayed this far at three out of a GIII Santa Barbara S. winner in Queen Blossom (Ire) (Jeremy).

Blue Rose Cen is after something rare and special here. Only the French legend Allez France in 1973, Divine Proportions in 2005 and Zarkava (Ire) in 2008 have completed the Marcel Boussac-Poule d'Essai des Poulaches-Diane treble, so there is that extra pressure on Christophe Head who looks to land this Classic 10 years on from the last of his aunt Criquelette's in Treve (Fr). PRIX DE DIANE LONGINES: WHERE DID THEY COME FROM? By Emma Berry & Heather Anderson

From homebreds, to pricy auction purchases, the 15 G1 Prix de Diane Longines's contenders run the gamut of backgrounds. G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches victress Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) will try to add another Classic to her resume, but she faces strong competition in the form of the unbeaten Jannah Rose (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), and the Gosdens' Running Lion (GB) (Roaring Lion) among others.

NOVAKAI (GB), Lope De Vega (Ire)--Elasia (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire})

Owner/Breeder: Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum

Trainer: Karl Burke

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Her 92-rated dam won at up to 1m6f and is from the family of quirky but talented stayer Pallasator (GB). From a stable in rich form, she was second to subsequent Oaks winner Soul Sister in the G3 Musidora S. on her sole start this season. Cont. p4

"I think she is in prime form," he said. "I'm crossing my fingers that everything goes well in terms of the longer trip. She is really one of those brilliant kinds and has been very professional the whole time. I have the feeling we can do it again--it's going to be a very nice race and of course we will encounter new fillies, good fillies, but I can't wait. She has a great mentality, has been easy to train and has been working brilliantly."

Ready Yourself

This is as deep a Diane as has been seen for some time, with the Gosdens' representative Running Lion (GB) (Roaring Lion) almost certainly up to this standard on the evidence of her electric performance in Newmarket's Listed Pretty Polly S., Ballymore Thoroughbred Ltd's TDN Rising Star Pensee Du Jour (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) looking so dominant in the early-season staging posts of the Listed Prix Rose de Mai and G3 Prix Penelope, Ballydoyle's Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) moving up to a more suitable trip still giving off the vibe that she is a top-class filly in the making, and Al Shira'aa Farms's unbeaten G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Jannah Rose (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) prompting such notable comments from the normally reticent Carlos Laffon-Parias.

Any Other Rose?

Jannah Rose may have fared best in the draw on Thursday, with her middle position in seven meaning Christophe Soumillon can make an early decision as to where best to position her throughout those all-important early stages.

Three winners in the last nine years emerged from that stall and six of the last nine were drawn between six and nine and it is interesting to note that in the G3 Prix Vanteaux and Saint-Alary she was also drawn middle to wide. In the latter, she was produced to beat Elusive Princess (Fr) (Martinborough {Jpn}) by just 3/4 of a length, but the manner of her performance suggests there will be plenty more to come faced with sterner opposition.

Carlos Laffon-Parias, who is part of the Head family having married Christopher's cousin Patricia, is after his first renewal and said, "I have come close before, but time is passing and I must win it before things become more complicated! I remain confident I will eventually win it and I hope that day is close at hand."

Bridging The Gap

Blue Rose Cen has been putting some notable fillies in their place for some time now, but this is a different test and different day for a couple who are looking to make it closer. Never Ending Story was beaten over five lengths by Christopher Head's pride and joy in the Marcel Boussac, but that was after a troubled trip on contrastingly deep ground when things hadn't yet fallen into place for her.

In one way, her five-length fifth in the Pouliches was a surprising backward step having looked so dynamic when slamming the 1000 Guineas third Matilda Picotte (Ire) (Sioux Nation) in Leopardstown's Ballylinch Stud 1000 Guineas Trial in April, but there is a nagging sense that middle distances and summer ground will see her make a leap forward as it did for her dam Athena (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). Behind Blue Rose Cen in the Grotte and Pouliches, Everest Racing's Lindy (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) also has solid claims for being more competitive this time, but stall 13 is a major disadvantage and she will need all the luck from there.

Ryan Moore believes that his mount's story is far from over. "I don't think we saw the best of my filly at all when she was fifth in the French 1000 Guineas last time," he said. "She didn't run badly, but she didn't fire and pick up as I was expecting as I thought she had a big shot at winning that race. However, I think she remains a Group 1 filly and I hope she can prove it over a trip that she is bred to get. She could just surprise some fillies with more obvious claims."

Lindy | Scoop Dyga

Best Of The Rest

Chantilly's card also features the G3 Prix du Bois Longines, with the TDN Rising Star fillies Les Pavots (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Ramatuelle (Justify) taking on Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard and Bruno De Montzey's unbeaten colt Zorken (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) and the G3 Prix du Lys Longines, where Maniatic (Ire) (Intello {Ger}) and Don Diego De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) provide further evidence of the merits of Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) having chased home that impressive G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero in this venue's Listed Prix de Suresnes last month.

Where Did They Come From Cont. from p1

A maiden winner on debut at two, she was later runner-up in both the G2 May Hill and G1 Fillies' Mile. A surprise not to see her start in the Oaks as she should stay beyond the distance of the Diane.

JANNAH ROSE (IRE), Frankel (GB)--Sophie Germain (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire})

Owner: Al Shira'aa Farms

Breeder: John Hayes

Trainer: Carlos Laffon-Parias

Sales History: €650,000 Goffs Orby yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: A half-sister to the Group 2 winner Creggs Pipes (Ire), she is unbeaten in her three lifetime starts, including once last year and most recently in the G1 Coolmore Prix Saint-Alary. A real class act who should start close to favourite.

PENSEE DU JOUR (IRE), Camelot (GB)--Painter's Pride (Fr) (Dansili {GB})

'TDN Rising Star'

Owner: Ballymore Thoroughbred Ltd

Breeder: Dayton Investments Ltd

Trainer: Andre Fabre

Khahira | Scoop Dyga

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: From a family which includes the brilliant Arc winner and sire Peintre Celebre, she is a half-sister to the Meydan Group 3 winner Canvassed (Ire) (Shamardal) and has looked very smart in her three runs this year. Never beaten to date, she won on Chantilly's all-weather track in February before coping well with soft conditions to post easy victories in the Listed Prix Rose de Mai and G3 Prix Penelope. A smart prospect if she can handle faster turf than she has encountered so far.

KHAHIRA (FR), Pedro The Great--Excitante (Fr) (Excelebration {Ire})

Owner: Andy Claire, Abdel-Hakim Benahmed & Nour-Eddine Smail

Breeder: Mme J-H De Cheigny

Trainer: Myriam Bollack-Badel

Sales History: €25,000 Arqana October yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Her dam was placed once at two over 6f and is herself out of a 6f Listed-winning juvenile. Khahira was highly tried at two, but was consistently in the first three and eventually won her sixth of seven starts last year, at Deauville. Kept on the go through the winter, she has made another five appearances this year, including when third in the Listed Prix de la Seine. This looks a tough assignment.

LINDY (FR), Le Havre (Ire)--Llanita (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire})

Owner: Everest Racing, Ecurie Waldeck Et Al

Breeder: Ecurie La Vallee Martigny Earl

Trainer: Christophe Ferland

Sales History: €90,000 Arqana August yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Runner-up in both the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G3 Prix de la Grotte to Blue Rose Cen (Ire) having previously been unbeaten in three starts, including at Listed level. She has a decent chance to become her late sire's third winner of the Diane.

TASMANIA (GER), Australia (GB)--Tusked Wings (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger})

Owner/Breeder: Gestut Schlenderhan

Trainer: Francis-Henri Graffard

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Her dam won the G2 Diana Trial, was fourth in the G1 Preis der Diana, and produced the Listed-placed Task (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) as her first foal. Grand-dam Tucana (Ger) Acatenango (Ger) is a half-sister to Tertullian (Miswaki), from a long established Schlenderhan family. Tasmania looks very much an improving sort, who built on her debut fourth in October last year by winning maiden and conditions races in Paris, in the latter beating subsequent G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Ottery (GB). An interesting each-way prospect who should cope with stepping up in trip in time.

Tasmania | Scoop Dyga

RUNNING LION (GB), Roaring Lion--Bella Nouf (GB) (Dansili {GB})

Owner: D P Howden

Breeder: The Bella Nouf Partnership

Trainer: John & Thady Gosden

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: A half-sister to Group 3 winner Majestic Glory (GB) (Frankel {GB}), her dam is a dual-winning half-sister to three black-type performers. Impressive winner of the Listed Pretty Polly S. in May and was among the leading fancies for the Oaks but was scratched at the start when unruly in the stalls. As long as there is no repeat drama she could go close.

ELUSIVE PRINCESS (FR), Martinborough (Jpn)--Elusive Action (Fr) (Elusive City)

Owner: LNJ Foxwoods, Ecurie Victoria Dreams & Jean-Philippe Dubois

Breeder/Trainer: Jean-Philippe Dubois

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis:

A daughter of the Group 3-winning Deep Impact stallion Martinborough, she is the first foal of her unraced dam who traces back to a Lagardere family which includes the Group 2 winner Diamond Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}). The winner of both starts last year, and again on debut this season at Saint-Cloud in April, she has subsequently been a close second in the G3 Prix Cleopatre and was then runner-up to Jannah Rose in G1 Prix Saint-Alary, for which she was supplemented. Doesn't need to have improved much to play a leading role.

NEVER ENDING STORY (IRE), Dubawi (Ire)--Athena (Ire) (Camelot {GB})

Owner: Mrs John Magnier/Michael Tabor/Derrick Smith/Westerberg

Breeder: Coolmore

Trainer: Aidan O'Brien

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Won the G3 Ballylinch Stud Priory Belle 1000 Guineas Trial S. and was fifth in the Poules d'Essai des Pouliches, having placed at Group 1 level in France at two. She is out of a G1 Belmont Oaks Invitational S. winner and is Athena's first foal. From the family of Urban Sea (Miswaki), which is replete with Group 1 winners, the granddaughter of Cherry Hinton (GB) (Green Desert) is a live chance, but must continue to improve.

CAROLINE STREET, No Nay Never--Harvestfortheworld (Ire) (So You Think (NZ)

Owner: Marc Detempel & Michael Buckley

Breeder: Grantley Acres, R Conner & R Davidson

Trainer: Joseph O'Brien

Sales History: $200,000 Fasig-Tipton NY Saratoga Select yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Successful in last month's G3 Blue Wind S., the Kentucky-bred is the first foal out of the G3 Gallinule S. third Harvestfortheworld and is from the extended family of G1 Phoenix S. winner Pharaoh's Delight (Ire) (Fairy King). If the chips fall her way, she could grab a piece of the spoils.

'TDN Rising Star'

Owner/Breeder: Wertheimer et Frere

Trainer: Carlos Laffon-Parias

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis:

Another contesting the French Oaks on the back of a victory is this homebred filly, who rolled to a three-length win in the Listed Prix Melisande at ParisLongchamp earlier this month. The second foal and winner out of G1 Prix Vermeille heroine and 2016 Diane second Left Hand, Left Sea is kin to French Oaks third Plumania (GB)

LADY EWELINA (GB), Mukhadram (GB)--Quadri (GB) (Polish Precedent)

Owner: Westminster Race Horses GMBH

Breeder: Lady Legard

Trainer: Andreas Wohler

Sales History: 3,500gns Tattersalls October Book 3 yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: The undefeated German group winner is the 16th and final foal out of Quadri, and a half-sister to New Zealand Group 1 winner Turn Tide (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Her second dam is a half-sister to American champion Wandesta (GB) (Nashwan), and if her form translates to Chantilly, she will be right there.

ROMINA POWER (FR), Le Havre (Ire)--Rockatella (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire})

Owner: Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Stables

Breeder: Ecurie Haras du Cadran & SCEA Bissons

Trainer: Michael Figge

Sales History: €10,000 Arqana October yearling; €20,000

Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge 2-year-old

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: This filly broke her maiden in her eighth start, the Listed Tattersalls Diana Trial at Baden-Baden last time, and her dual Italian stakes-winning dam was also placed thrice at group level in Europe. Part of the immortal Reprocolor (GB) (Jimmy Reppin {GB}) clan, Romina Power must continue to progress if she is to make an impact on Sunday.

BLUE ROSE CEN (IRE), Churchill (Ire)--Queen Blossom (Ire) (Jeremy)

Owner/Breeder: Yeguada Centurion SL

Trainer: Christopher Head

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: A Group 1 winner at two and already successful in the G1 Poules d'Essai des Poulaches this year, the homebred is the first reported foal for G3 Park Express S. heroine Queen Blossom, who also won the GIII Santa Barbara S. in the U.S. Her granddam was placed in the G3 Silver Flash S., and Blue Rose Cen has every chance of adding another Classic laurel. Breaking from the favourable inside gate, she is the one to beat.

WISE GIRL (FR), Recoletos (Fr)--Darma (Fr) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})

Owner/Breeder: Yeguada Centurion SL

Trainer: Christopher Head

Sales History: €105,000 Arqana October yearling buy-back

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Bearing her breeder's second colours, this filly won at Chantilly in May, and is a half-sister to the useful stakes winner Dariyma (Fr) (City Zip), who was third in the G2 Prix Dollar. The relative of French Classic winners Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) is facing her first black-type race on Sunday. A win here would be a shock.

QUANTANAMERA RETURNS AT HANNOVER

13.30 Hannover, Cond, €20,000, 3yo, 12ft

QUANTANAMERA (GER) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) has her seasonal bow in this Derby-Trial which formerly carried listed status and is quite a presence, having beaten this week's listed scorer Empore (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}) by 8 1/2 lengths when last seen in Baden-Baden's G3 Preis der Winterkonigin in October. Bred to appreciate middle distances, Jurgen Sartori's Andreas Suborics trainee is the sole filly against six colts as she bids to further her claims for both the July 2 G1 Deutsches Derby and Aug. 6 G1 Preis der Diana.

Lady Hamana, unplaced in five black-type starts since shedding maiden status at Wolverhampton last August, lined up for this straight dash returning off a fifth contesting Chelmsford's Listed Chelmer Fillies' S. in April.

Settled along the rail in fourth after breaking on the lead, she was caught in a pocket passing the quarter-mile marker and quickened smartly once presented with an opening on the far-side fence at the furlong pole to claim a career high in decisive fashion.

Lady Hamana is the second of four foals and lone winner out of an unraced half-sister to G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Sobetsu (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The February-foaled bay's dual stakes-winning second dam Lake Toya (Darshaan {GB}), who also hit the board in the G3 Prix de Flore, is kin to three black-type performers and to the dams of G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas)-winning sire Dee Majesty (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), G1 Sprinters S. victor Tower Of London (Jpn) (Raven's Pass) and G1 Goodwood Cup runner-up Away He Goes (Ire) (Farhh {GB}). Also Ran: Roberto Escobarr (Ire), Outbox (GB), Rhythmic Intent (Ire).

Quickthorn finished off the board in four starts since sealing a G3 Heny II S., G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil and G2 Lonsdale Cup treble last summer and went postward for this marathon coming back off a fourth in the May 19 G2 Yorkshire Cup. Employing patience early before inching to the front after a half mile, he was hustled along when threatened approaching the quarter-mile marker and maintained a relentless tempo under continued urging to hold the persistent threat of Israr for a fourth black-type triumph.

Quickthorn is one of five winners produced by Daffydowndilly (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), herself a multiple-winning daughter of stakes-winning G3 Lillie Langtry S. runner-up Art Eyes (Halling). His fourth dam, Listed Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial winner Kotama (Shahrastani), is a half-sister to Listed Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial victrix Khanata (Riverman) and to the dam of G1 Derby and G1 Irish Derby-winning sire High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Descendants of Kotama also include G1 Queensland Derby third Heidilicious (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}). The March-foaled bay is half to a yearling filly by Bated Breath (GB) and a weanling colt by Nathaniel (Ire). VIDEO.

UNBREAK MY HEART (GB) (f, 2, Showcasing {GB}--Place In My Heart {GB} {SW-Eng & GSP-Fr}, by Compton Place {GB}), a May 18 debut third over this trip at Salisbury last time, tracked the leaders in a handy fourth after the initial strides of this return. Staying on strongly to hit the front with 100 metres to run, the 4-5 favourite asserted to score by a length from Sacred Spirit (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). The dam, who was successful in the G3 Prix Minerve and third in the G2 Prix de Royallieu, is a half to the owner-breeder's legendary dual Classic and Arc-winning champion Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) who produced Dubawi's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud-winning sire Zarak (Fr).
