

AFTER A CHILLY RECEPTION FROM STALLION FARMS, ROMBAUER IS MAKING HIS WAY BACK TO THE RACES

Rombauer | John Fradkin

by Bill Finley

Back in early 2022 when John and Diane Fradkin announced that their homebred GI Preakness winner Rombauer (Twirling Candy) was being retired after suffering a soft tissue injury they went to work to find him his new home. The horse has a good pedigree and is a Grade I winner, so the expectations were that he'd stand at stud in Kentucky. Regional markets were also considered. Another option was Japan. But no matter where their horse might land, the Fradkins decided that Rombauer's racing career was over.

Q&A: HISA'S ANTI-DOPING AND MEDICATION CONTROL PROGRAM

by Dan Ross

As the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act's (HISA) drug and medication control program has rolled out over the past couple of months, various questions have been raised over the mechanics of the new law.

As such, the TDN has decided to maintain a Q&A on this new program comprising questions raised by readers, and answers fielded by representatives from either HISA or the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU), which implements HISA's anti-doping and medication control (ADMC) program.

The first set of responses can be read here.

Note: This is not a regular Q&A conducted in the form of an interview. Rather, these questions have been submitted in writing, and the written responses arrive typically days after. TDN does not have the ability, therefore, to ask follow-up questions immediately. If you have any questions about the answers received, please submit them in writing to:

suefinley@thetdn.com.

TDN: Can you explain the difference in penalties for trainer Douglas Nunn, responsible for an intra-articular joint injection within 14 days of a race, and the other trainers found guilty of violating the intra-articular joint injection rule prior to a workout?

That was the plan, until the plan went awry. Rombauer's current home is not in Central Kentucky but in South Florida. Based at Gulfstream Park for trainer Saffie Joseph Jr., Rombauer is in training and could make his next start some time next month. He has not raced since finishing third more than two years ago in the 2021 GI Belmont S.

"I never expected this," John Fradkin said.

The calls began after the decision was made to retire Rombauer and the Fradkins reached out to all the usual suspects. While they were willing to listen to any offers, they felt their horse had done enough to have earned the right to stand in Kentucky. He had also won the El Camino Real Derby and finished second in the GI American Pharoah S. and third in the GII Blue Grass S. while earning $1,040,500. He was a winner on dirt, turf and synthetic. Those are solid credentials, but the Kentucky farms weren't sold.

Rombauer wins the GI Preakness S. | Maryland Jockey Club

"The only real market in this country is Kentucky and Kentucky wasn't interested in him, which shocked me," Fradkin said. "I never received a real offer in writing at any price. I did offer the horse to several places for what I thought was a spectacular deal, where they would almost be guaranteed to get their money back in one year, and they still didn't take it."

The Japanese weren't interested, either, Fradkin said. He might have been able to find a farm outside of Kentucky to take Rombauer, but he didn't aggressively pursue that avenue. Whether it was from Kentucky, Japan, New York, California, Maryland, Fradkin said he never received an official offer in writing for the horse from anyone.

"The plan was to have him stand in Kentucky," Fradkin said. "Plan B was Japan. Plan C was to run him again, and that's what we are doing. To borrow a quote from Jena Antonucci, 'when there's no seat at the table, you have to build your own table.'"

Fradkin admits that not everyone among the group that teamed up to win the Preakness was on board with the comeback. Rombauer was trained by Michael McCarthy and the Fradkins offered to give him the horse back. He declined.

"Michael wasn't that receptive to training him for a comeback," Fradkin said. "His exact comment was that he had done enough and should be a stallion. I don't disagree with that, but the stallion farms weren't interested in him. We couldn't force them to take the horse. Michael is a conservative guy and I respect that. He just didn't want to be responsible if something goes wrong. I have two trainers and Saffie is my East Coast trainer. Saffie was up for it. So he's with Saffie now."

After the Belmont, Rombauer was training at Del Mar and the Fradkins were looking at races like the GI Haskell S. and the GI Travers S. After McCarthy expressed concerns that the horse wasn't 100 percent, they gave him 90 days off. Back in training and gearing up for a 4-year-old campaign, Rombauer suffered the soft tissue injury and the decision was made to retire him.

After deciding to regroup because of the lack of interest from the stallion farms, the Fradkins put Rombauer back into light training at WinStar Farm on Dec. 1. The next stop was Ocala and from there he went to Joseph's barn at Gulfstream, where he arrived in mid-June. He has had two official workouts for Joseph, both at three furlongs. Fradkin is thrilled with how the horse is doing.

"Rombauer is happy and thriving at the racetrack," he said. "I am sure that he enjoys being back in training."

Should Rombauer make it back to the races in August that will mean a gap of about 26 months between races. Fradkin believes it's an obstacle he can overcome.

"The world is going to get to see a bigger, faster version of Rombauer," he said. "One thing people may remember about him is that in his moment of glory in the Preakness he looked like this little horse galloping by these much bigger horses. I think people will be surprised by how big he is now. It's not for sure that we'll make it back. Things could always go wrong. But if he makes it back he's going to make it back at a high level."

For the Fradkins, the ideal scenario would be for the now 5-year-old to win some major races during his comeback, to do enough that next time around the major Kentucky stallion farms will come knocking on their door. If not, Fradkin is confident he will be able to work out a deal with a farm in another state.

"He will be a stallion some day," he said. "So far as where, we'll just have to see how things turn out. In the meantime, we're ready to try him on the big stage once again."

Among the penalties meted out to Nunn: 30-day period of Ineligibility for the horse; Disqualification of Covered Horse's Race results, including forfeiture of all purses and other compensation, prizes, trophies, points, and rankings and repayment or surrender (as applicable); a fine of $5,000; imposition of 3 Penalty Points.

In contrast, the trainers found guilty of violating the intra-articular joint injection rule prior to a workout saw the horses in question ineligible to race for 30-days.

According to HISA's notice, enforcement of the intra-articular (IA) joint injection rule against trainers as it relates to workouts is paused through July 15. The enforcement of the rule against trainers in relation to races remains in effect.

The rules (4320) state that horses who breeze less than seven days or race less than 14 days after an IA joint injection become ineligible to race or breeze for one month following the date of the injection(s). HISA's rules include this period of Ineligibility to protect equine safety and welfare.

TDN: When it comes to violations of the intra-articular joint injection rule, will the trainer's name be issued alongside the horse in question from here on in?

HIWU will continue to publish the names of the horses.

The names of the trainers who receive warnings will not be published because a violation is not being enforced against them.

TDN: When it comes to the split sample costs, is the charge $2,000 for a blood sample and a separate $2,000 for a urine sample?

The medium (e.g., blood, urine) selected for split sample testing is determined by the medium associated with the positive test result. Thus, if the positive test result was originally confirmed in urine, only the urine split sample will be tested and incur the split sample charge. The trainer will not have to pay to test both the blood split sample and the urine split sample.

The cost of testing the split sample will be refunded if the result is negative.

TDN: Can you explain the reason for provisionally suspending a covered person before all the evidence is in-what could be construed by some as finding an individual guilty before they've had a chance to prove their innocence?

The HISA rules state that a trainer must be Provisionally Suspended if an A sample tests positive for a Banned Substance. The rules were written this way in acknowledgement of the severity of using Banned Substances under HISA as it relates to the health and wellbeing of our equine athletes and the importance of protecting the integrity of the sport, as well as fairness to trainers who are following the rules.

HISA's Provisional Suspension regulations mirror the regulations in most international horse racing jurisdictions, as well as all Olympic sports, including equestrian, cycling, soccer, tennis, and track and field.

The adjudication procedures include the right for the affected trainer to request a timely Provisional Hearing to lift the suspension. They may also request the testing of the B sample. The process gives the trainer the opportunity to present evidence and demonstrate that they are not at fault for the positive test result.

There's every chance that National Treasure (Quality Road)'s half-brother and rail-drawn 4-5 morning-line favorite Pirate (Omaha Beach) turns out to be a complete monster, but I'll be taking a shot against him with fellow firster Special Element (Copper Bullet).

There's plenty of precocity in Special Element's pedigree. His freshman sire Copper Bullet, winner of the 2017 GII Saratoga Special S., is off and running with three winners and his dam It's High Time (Gone Astray) was a runaway 2-year-old spring winner at Gulfstream (and subsequent stakes winner) and her first foal Fourteeneightyfour (Straight Fire) also romped at first asking at two at Delaware.

Special Element brought $260,000 from Pin Oak Stud after a powerful-looking :10 breeze at OBS April. Hall of Famer Bill Mott's debuting 2-year-olds have come out firing so far at this meet with the very impressive debut winner Sugar Hi (Twirling Candy) on opening day and runner-up Book of Wisdom (Solomini) on Friday. Selection: #4 Special Element (7-2).

HISA ISSUES UPDATED GUIDANCE ON INTRA-ARTICULAR INJECTIONS

The Anti-Doping and Medication Control Standing Committee (ADMC) of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority ("HISA") has re-considered the Intra-Articular injection rule and has issued new guidance regarding its enforcement.

HISA ADMC Rule 4222 prohibits Intra-Articular injections on Race Day, within 14 days prior to Post-Time and within seven days prior to any Timed and Reported Workout. Effective July 16, 2023, the Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit (HIWU) will sanction the Responsible Person of any Covered Horse that violates the prohibition on Intra-Articular injections within 7 days prior to a Timed and Reported Workout as follows:

- 1st violation: $3,000 fine.
- 2nd violation: $6,000 fine, 10-day suspension.
- 3rd violation: $10,000 fine, 30-day suspension.
- 4th violation: $20,000 fine, 60-day suspension.
- 5th violation: $25,000 fine, 120-day suspension.

Beginning July 16, 2023, Covered Horses will not be subject to a period of ineligibility for violations of the Intra-Articular injections Workout rule or Race Day rule, unless multiple violations involving the same horse are incurred within the 365-day period.

Until this new guidance takes effect on July 16, and in accordance with guidance previously announced on June 26, the prohibition on Intra-Articular injections within 7 days prior to any Timed and Reported Workout will continue to be enforced only against the Covered Horse through the imposition of a period of ineligibility of 30 days. The sanctions associated with the prohibition on Intra-Articular Injections within 14-days prior to Post-Time have not been modified, other than the fact that the Covered Horse may not be suspended.

Under Rule 4222, the day of administration is considered day 1. A horse may breeze on day 8 following administration and may enter to race at any time, provided the race is on day 15 or later.

NEXT RACE STILL UNDECIDED FOR KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER MAGE

Mage | Horsephotos

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y.--A decision will be announced Tuesday on whether Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) will run in the GI Haskell S. July 22 or train up to the GI Travers S. Aug. 26, co-owner Ramiro Restrepo said Friday.

Mage was given a break from training by trainer Gustavo Delgado after his third-place finish in the GI Preakness S. May 20. He had his fourth timed work Friday--six furlongs in 1:13.40--at the Thoroughbred Training Center in Lexington, Ky.

"Gustavo just wants to watch the horse until Tuesday," Restrepo said. "There is no injury. No setback. Nothing negative. We just want to make sure that he is ready to go against horses like Tapit Trice (Tapit) and Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo). There are some serious horses in the Haskell. We want to make sure he makes a good account of himself. The horse has to say to us, 'I'm good.'"

The summer goal for the colt has been the historic $1.25 million GI Travers S. at Saratoga Race Course. Delgado and Mage's connections have been considering whether to have him make his first start back in the Haskell or the GII Jim Dandy at Saratoga July 29. They have focused on the Haskell in recent days, Restrepo said, because it is five weeks before the Travers. However, Delgado may elect to send Mage to Saratoga to train and skip a prep.

Mage did not race as a 2-year-old and has made five starts this year. He broke his maiden Jan. 28 at Gulfstream and finished fourth in the GII Fountain of Youth S. March 4. He secured his Kentucky Derby qualifying points with a second in the GI Florida Derby April 1 and delivered in the Derby at odds of 15-1.

Delgado did not immediately commit to run in the Preakness two weeks after the Derby, but did decide to try him in the Middle Jewel of the Triple Crown. He promptly was sent off to a vacation after the Preakness.

"The break did him wonders," Restrepo said. "That's what caught our attention. You're so focused from the Derby to the Preakness, there's such a small window, you're really trying to make sure he makes it into the Preakness well, and there's no hiccups that you don't have a chance to step back and kind of view a bigger picture."

Restrepo said that after being away from the colt for a few weeks, it was apparent that Mage benefitted from what he called a mini off-season.

"We all come back and we're like, 'Whoa. He's put on muscle. He's put on weight. He's matured,'" he said. "You could see it in his bones, in his body. It's crazy how that time off helped him kind of refill his gas tank. It was a wonderful break for him."

FORTE WORKS TOWARDS JIM DANDY; BECKY'S JOKER TO SPINAWAY

Reigning Champion 2-Year-Old Colt Forte (Violence) logged his first breeze of the summer at Saratoga Race Course when covering a half-mile in :48.90 seconds over the Oklahoma dirt training track Friday with regular jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. up for Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher.

The colt worked in company with graded stakes-winner Grand Sonata (Medaglia d'Oro) in preparation for the GII Jim Dandy July 29 at the Spa.

"He jumped on the bridle a little early, so I kind of took a little hold away from the horse," said Ortiz, Jr. "I allowed him to see the company and go after him. He did."

Pletcher said he was pleased with the work, which he moved to the training track after heavy rains overnight led to the main track being sealed this morning.

"We fortunately had the option of coming over here on a harrowed track," said Pletcher. "I thought he worked well. He's a pretty straightforward horse and he does what you ask him to do. I thought he was moving really well and he seemed happy. He usually sits a little off [his workmate] to keep him focused."

Ortiz, Jr., who regularly works the colt, said Forte was as professional as usual.

"We went 48 and change. On this kind of track, it is really good," Ortiz, Jr. said. "He is doing good. He looked good, he looked happy, so let's see what happens. The way he does things [excites me]. He knows where the wire is. He loves to win. You can see in the Belmont Stakes, I kept trying with him and he kept coming. He's a fighter."

"He's obviously a very fit horse and he just ran a mile and a half, so we don't feel like we have to do a lot with him leading up to this race," continued Pletcher. "We'll probably come back with another maintenance work next week."

"I think you can see he's a little more laid back. He's an intelligent colt and takes everything in stride, and you can see he's matured that way," said Pletcher. "Obviously it was a frustrating spring and he ran terrific in the Belmont considering what he was up against. To me, he's a deserving divisional leader, but like everyone else, he's got to continue to win to hold that spot."

Pletcher also provided an update on 2-year-old filly Wine On Tap (Tapit), who finished an even fourth in Thursday's GIII Schuylerville S. as the post-time favorite.

"She looks good. She was just kind of one-paced down the lane and I thought she recovered and galloped out really well," said Pletcher. "She is a filly that we've always thought would be better going longer. It was just a little disappointing that she didn't finish up a little better than she did yesterday, but she came back well and looked good this morning."

Speaking of the Schuylerville, trainer Gary Contessa was still watching replays on Friday morning of Lee Pokoik's Becky's Joker (Practical Joke), who launched what appears to be a promising career with a debut victory in the opening-day feature.

The sizable bay stands 16.3 hands high and, "towers over everybody" in the barn according to Contessa, who confirmed the filly for the seven-furlong GI Spinaway S. September 3 at the Spa.

"She came back sound and they tell me she looked great this morning," said Contessa, who was catching a flight to Nashville to watch his son's baseball tournament. "She honestly can only get better. She's got a lot more left in the tank, so we're looking forward to seeing what she can come up with next. As big as she is, and as big as her stride is, she's going to get better as the distances stretch out. I think seven-eighths is going to hit her right between the eyeballs in the Spinaway." Cont.

Contessa commented on the soundness and the good mind of his newly minted graded stakes winner.

"Knock on wood, she's been very, very sound and very healthy. Everything has gone our way so far, so we're keeping our fingers crossed that it continues," Contessa said. "She's trained as well as any horse I've ever had as a 2-year-old. No matter what you ask her to do, she's push button and picks it up to another gear. Her mind is so good. She had it figured out and she's really a smart filly."

One can expect Contessa, who has 10 stalls on Saratoga's Oklahoma backstretch, to unleash more promising young talent throughout the meet.

"All these babies are ready to run, so we're going to have a real presence," Contessa said. "This was a great win to start with and we have even more pretty nice horses awaiting their turn."

AVERAGE DAILY HANDLE JUMPS NEARLY 10 PERCENT AT BELMONT SPRING/SUMMER MEET

The recently concluded Belmont Park spring/summer meet generated $14,746,421 in average daily handle, a 9.7 percent increase over 2022 the New York Racing Association, Inc. announced Friday.

Originally scheduled for 40 days of live racing, NYRA was forced to cancel two cards due to poor air quality caused by wildfires in Canada. All-sources handle for the 38-day spring/summer meet totaled $560,363,986, which compares to $591,250,409 in 2022.

The blockbuster June 10 Belmont Stakes Day card, highlighted by Arcangelo's (Arrogate) victory in the 155th running of the GI Belmont S., generated all-sources handle of $118,283,455, a NYRA record for a non-Triple Crown year.

Average field size for the 368 races run during the 2023 spring/summer meet was 7.60, a 3.4 percent increase over 2022 when average field size was 7.35. Of the 368 races held during the spring/summer meet, 187 were on the main track and 181 on the turf while 14 races were forced off the turf due to rain.

INDUSTRY VOICES

BE TRANSFORMATIVE!

The following is an open letter to the industry by Joanne K. Adams, Executive Director of the Belmont Child Care Association, Inc. (BCCA), a 501 c 3 organization.

Our one-of-a-kind organization is changing lives at the racetrack every day as we continue to expand our programs to better serve our families. This year, BCCA launched BCCA Blooms: Nourishing Mind • Nourishing Body • Nourishing Family to help further our mission. Our goal is to Be Transformative by changing the lives of our families through knowledge and by providing the proper tools for success as we focus on the importance of establishing healthy eating habits, introducing new snack options to our children in an age-appropriate way, and expanding our garden to provide more fresh fruit and vegetables for our families.

BCCA Blooms because the programs we offer at Anna House and Faith's House have become an invaluable resource for the backstretch families and each year we see our children thrive as they continue on their road to success. This year, in its third year of operation, our program at Faith's House is so acclaimed that we are now proud to offer a school-age program during the summer race meet. Thanks to our early childhood education program, Anna House graduates enter the local public school system at the same level as or ahead of their peers. Our program has proven successful as our graduates often earn a spot on the Principal's Honor Roll and are celebrated for showcasing their leadership skills in the classroom. Many of our families speak Spanish as their primary language, so our children are often exposed to English for the first time at Anna House. A recent research study led by an MIT economist established a correlation between preschool-educated children and positive outcomes, which include a boost in high school graduates and college attendance, and a decrease in problematic behavioral issues. Cont.

As Anna House celebrated its 20th anniversary last year, BCCA can now follow the long-term effects of providing our students with the foundation for educational success from an early age. One of our earliest graduates, Xochilt, is now preparing to enter college. Xochilt just graduated from high school and plans to attend Northeastern University in the Fall, where she will be pursuing a double major in Civil Engineering and Architectural Studies. Our first Anna House graduate, Jonathan, has thrived in the Thoroughbred racing industry since he graduated from high school. Last year, we were so proud to see him recognized with the Godolphin Newcomer Award, sponsored by NYRA. Both Xochilt and Jonathan participated in BCCA's early childhood education and school-age programs.

How do contributions make a great impact on our enrichment programs? Outside of academics, BCCA offers an Integrated Arts curriculum in music, art, and dance. Our students are provided with an opportunity to expand their perspectives by working in different disciplines to foster development, social and emotional skills, and increase mindfulness. Lourdes always loved art classes at Anna House and decided at a very young age that she wanted to become an artist. Lourdes, now in sixth grade, recently had her art exhibited at the Long Island Children's Museum. Her piece was influenced by the Aztec culture and she created it using mixed media of copper and metal. Lourdes loves fashion and sketching designs, especially Japanese Lolita dresses. She often uses her free time to sketch and draw and her greatest wish is to become a fashion designer.

BCCA's annual Racing for the Children dinner and auction, BCCA Can Do--"We got the horse right here!" honoring Barbara Banke will be held August 24th at Universal Preservation Hall, Saratoga Springs, NY. BCCA will recognize LSU Stables with a Humanitarian Award and we invite you to join us and Think BIG for BCCA at any level because when we come together, we can make a great impact on the lives of our children and their families. To learn more about our event and our programs, please visit us at www.belmontchildcare.org.

Trainer Tom Morley admitted that he was doing a bit of a rain dance Thursday, and his prayers were answered when Friday's Coronation Cup was washed onto the Saratoga main track. Scratched down to a field of just four sophomore fillies, Unified Alliance took full advantage while making her first start for Morley and the in-form Javier Castellano.

Nicely into stride from gate three, the dark bay filly had early company to her inside in the form of Anna's Arabesque, as odds-on L Street Lady--the lone main-track-only entrant--chased that pair from third. Unified Alliance cut the corner into the stretch and kept finding up front en route to an ultimately comfortable first black-type success.

Unified Alliance made the first six starts of her career for John Servis, winning her maiden at first asking at Parx last December before adding a romping 10 1/4-length allowance score in Bensalem Apr. 3. A distant last of four in the rained-off Memories of Silver S. at Aqueduct Apr. 29, she led into the final furlong of the June 11 Jersey Girl S. at Belmont, but was outfinished by L Street Lady and settled for second.

"We were sitting at the table with claps of thunder and bolts of lightning [last night], and I said, 'I could really do with this going on for four more hours just to really knock it on the head,'" the winning trainer said. "She actually worked really, really well on the grass at Belmont, so we were definitely going to roll the dice and see if she could [run on] turf today, but obviously it cut up into an easier race when it came off."

The fourth stakes winner for her Lane's End-based sire (by Candy Ride {Arg}), Unified Alliance is the only of her dam's foals to race and hails from the female family of GISW A. P. Adventure (A.P. Indy). Star Power did not produce a foal in any of the last three years and was bred to McKinzie this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: 1HF, 10, 12 1/4. Odds: 1.30, 8.70, 3.50.

Also Ran: Accede. Scratched: Sacred Wish.

After breaking her maiden by 5 1/2 lengths Mar. 31 at Aqueduct, Randomized was last seen running sixth June 9 in the GI Acorn S. behind GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief).

Installed here as the 13-10 second favoriteto her stablemate Accede (Into Mischief)--off at 5-4-- the bay filly broke alertly from the outside post, carved out a half-mile in :47.49 and off the final turn, the $420,000 Keeneland September Yearling purchase proved a decisive winner over the rallying Just Katherine to collect her first stakes win.

Randomized | Sarah Andrew

On a potential start for his filly in the GI Test S. Aug. 5, Chad Brown said, "You'd think a cut back [would suit]. It's a pretty good group this year. It's shaping up to be a really fast race. She might have to put her hat in the ring for that race. I think it would make sense."

The winner is out of an extended female family which includes GISP Penny's Reshoot (Turkey Shoot), plus GISP and MGSW Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union). French Passport is a half-sister to MGSW Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) and Super Phoebe (Malabar Gold), dam to both MGSW Got Stormy (Get Stormy) and MSW Sir Alfred James (Munnings). Randomized counts unraced 2-year-old colt Marginal Cost (Justify) as a half-brother and she has a yearling half-sister by Frosted. Her dam foaled a filly by Maxfield May 11. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Pirate at Keeneland last September | Keeneland

1st-Saratoga, $136K, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, post time: 1:10 p.m. ET
PIRATE (Omaha Beach) has been made the 4-5 morning-line favorite in the Saturday opener from the Spa and is bred to be any kind. The $350,000 Keeneland September acquisition by Starlight Racing and Harrell Ventures is the latest foal from Peter Blum's Treasure (Medaglia d'Oro), herself a debut second going this distance on Saratoga debut for Jimmy Jerkens in August 2014, who has since gone on to become a prized member of the Blum broodmare band. A mid-march foal, Pirate is a half-brother to the Starlight part-owned National Treasure (Quality Road), an impressive first-out winner over a sprint distance at Del Mar last September and better known for his gate-to-wire victory in the GI Preakness S. May 20.

Treasure is also the dam of Ultimate (Speightstown), who most recently came from off the speed to take the Iowa Sprint S. at Prairie Meadows July 7. TJCIS PPs

SUMMER BREEZES

by Alan Carasso

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Saratoga and Ellis Park Saturday:

After a break, she was fifth against allowance company in Baltimore May 20, but she just missed by a neck June 22 at Belmont. Trying dirt for the first time in this off-turf affair, the 8-5 shot led up the backstretch before trading blows with even-money favorite Quarrel (Speightstown) into the far turn. Edging away at the quarter pole, the bay filly increased her margin down the lane and went on to graduate by 2 3/4 lengths over Modern Love (Curlin). INSIGNIA (f, 4, Curlin--Keep the Peace {GISP, $323,553}, by Touch Gold) was seen running third against allowance company at Saratoga last summer in her third career race after breaking her maiden for her new barn at Churchill Downs. After more than a year off, bettors were undeterred as the chestnut filly went off as the short-priced 3-5 favorite. Breaking from the rail, Insignia chased a longshot from second who was trying to get away. With a sweeping move around the far turn, the Brad Cox trainee sailed passed the pacesetter and powered away to a nine-length return to the races over Her Ladyship (Bernardini). Out of a female family which includes MGSP Our Super Freak (Mineshaft), the winner's dam is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old colt named Hollywood Icon (Quality Road) and she was bred back to Street Sense, a mating which yielded a filly Mar. 6. YESTERNIGHT (f, 3, Midnight Storm--Better Not Blink, by Hard Spun) broke her maiden by 3 1/4 lengths at first asking Apr. 22 at Oaklawn Park before finishing third against allowance company June 3 in her first local appearance. As the 4-5 shot here, the dark bay filly chased the pace from third up the backstretch, began to make her move to the outside around the far turn and won going away by 8 1/2 lengths over Beautiful Karla (Ransom the Moon). GIVE IT A WHIRL (c, 2, Hard Spun--Chic Thrill {SP, $159,375}, by Smart Strike) ran a field of Delaware maidens off their feet to the tune of 7 1/4 lengths at first asking June 15 and was the 17-10 second choice to put them back to back. Sent for the lead by Charlie Marquez from the inside stall, the homebred dueled heads apart through the opening exchanges, began to get away in upper stretch and drove clear to take it by 4 1/4 lengths. The homebred is out of a stakes-placed daughter of Sovereign Award-winning juvenile filly Catch the Thrill (A.P. Indy), whose five winners from seven to race includes SW Curlin's Catch (Curlin) and MGSP Arollercoasterride (Curlin). The colt's third dam is champion Catch the Ring (Seeking the Gold). The Bentley family raced 2014 GI Arlington Million winner Hardest Core (Hard Spun). Give It a Whirl has a foal half-sister by Gun Runner. STONE SILENT (f, 3, Adios Charlie--Travelator {MSW & MGSP, $647,672}, by A. P Jet) broke her maiden at first asking in the Fasig-Tipton Debutante S. at Santa Anita a little more than a year ago while under the care of John Sadler and was exiting a neck second over this course and distance in her first run for this barn June 24. Making no mistakes here as the 2-5 mortal, the $410,000 OBSMAR breezer shot right to the lead from the rail, bossed her rivals through smart splits of :21.33 and :44.05 and opened up on them in the final eighth of a mile. Stone Silent, whose dam was a seven-time stakes winner, is a half-sister to Hollywood Jet (Uncaptured), SW, $269,730, and to the dam of Isolate (Mark Valeski), a two-time black-type winner and Grade II placed in this country and wire-to-wire winner of this year's G2 Godolphin Mile for RRR Racing and trainer Doug Watson. Another half-sister produced MGSW Last Judgement (Congrats). Travelator is the dam of Stone Silent's year-younger full-sister Sugar N Spice, placed in a pair of Gulfstream maidens this season, and foaled a Girvin colt this term. Sales history: $410,000 2yo '22 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: SW, 5-2-1-0, $93,550. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

2nd-Saratoga, $105,000, Msw, 7-14, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:49.71, gd, 6 3/4 lengths.

DREAMLIKE (c, 3, Gun Runner--Time to Tap, by Tapit) began his career Feb. 11 at Gulfstream, where he finished second in a mile maiden contest and in a 1 1/16-mile Mar. 11 main-track race before shipping north Apr. 8 to Aqueduct to try his hand in the GII Wood Memorial S. Third in that Derby qualifier at 3-1 with a blanket finish separating him from winner GSW Lord Miles (Curlin) and runner-up GSW Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}), he was given a brief freshening before being brought back here at America's summer playground. Crushed at the windows to the tune of 1-5 favoritism on an overcast afternoon, the chestnut broke well enough to save ground on the first bend in fourth. Settling as the leading flight showed the way, he drafted in the two path with cover along most of the far turn and was rolling from four wide outside of the quarter pole. Rallying to take the lead as rivals to his inside knocked each other around coming into the homeward drive, he extended his advantage to a comfortable 6 3/4 lengths as Moore's Law (Good Magic) motored in from last to take the minor placing. Mount Craig (Arrogate) gamely overcame the interference to round out the trifecta. An inquiry into that stretch trouble would later disqualify fourth place finisher Hero's Medal (Medaglia d'Oro) to sixth.

Dreamlike | Sarah Andrew

Dreamlike claims Australian export MSP Backflash (Medaglia d'Oro) as an elder sister. He's the third winner from three to race and has two full-siblings--a 2-year-old colt Dimatic and a yearling filly. Dam Time to Tap, herself a full to champion 3-year-old filly and GI Kentucky Oaks victress Untapable, had a 2023 Silver State colt. Among her other accomplished siblings hails GISW & MGISP Paddy O'Prado (El Prado {Ire}), and the dams of GSW Majestic Eagle (Medaglia d'Oro) and GISP Red Route One (Gun Runner). This is also the family of that one's full-brother GSP Red Run and at least eighteen other Graded or listed black-type runners. Sales history: $975,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: GSP, 4-1-2-1, $162,850. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

CONCERTI (f, 2, Mendelssohn--Queenardini, by Bernardini) went off at 5-2 in this debut and seized the lead up the backstretch. Commanding the fractions, the dark bay filly turned for home and began to clear past the eighth pole en route to a 3 1/4-length victory over Book of Wisdom (Solomini). Out of a female family which includes Canadian Horse of the Year Alywow (Alysheba), the winner is her dam's second offspring to make the races. Queenardini has yearling filly by War Dancer and she foaled a filly named Imnobodysfool (Classic Empire) Apr. 1. 3rd-Colonial Downs, $75,250, (R), Msw, 7-14, 2yo, 5 1/2ft, 1:04.46, fm, 5 3/4 lengths.

KING KONTIE (g, 2, Karakontie {Jpn}--Jumelle Springs, by More Than Ready) broke sharply on this debut and never gave the field a second opinion. Sent hard for the early lead, he put up all the fractions on his clear advantage and was riding an eight-length margin coming into the turn. The field could offer no challenge as he came in 5 3/4 lengths best over fellow debuter Massif (Sky Mesa). A half to a fleet of accomplished runners including Unaquoi (Gattopardo), SW, $425,332; Nellysford (During), SP, $290,608; and SP Roll Dem Bones (Freedom Child), King Kontie is the last registered foal thus far for his dam, who aborted her 2023 Blofeld offspring and visited Mr. Monomoy for 2024. YEAGER (c, 3, Air Force Blue--Good Time Sally, by Forestry) could only manage fifth on this sloppy main track last season on unveiling and was gone until Apr. 21 when he resurfaced at Gulfstream Park in a turf sprint with first-time blinkers. Finding a new pep to his step to finish second in back-to-back efforts at five-panel sprints, always under pressure or dueling in both, he was crowned the 3-2 favorite here for his New Jersey return. Once again showing good speed while two wide after the jump, he locked horns with a rival into the stretch and took command nearing the furlong marker. Kept to his task but coasting in as Italian Symphony (Mendelssohn) closed from the rear, Yeager broke his maiden by two lengths in the end. The victor is his dam's final registered foal. NEW DIAMOND (f, 2, Bee Jersey--Shirl's Soul, by Perfect Soul {Ire}) was the unknown in the field as a firster, and didn't have the best break to start her career, hitting the gate on the way out. Recovering well to race from the back behind cover, the 9-5 second elect was tilted out for her midstretch charge and cleared Mist (Brethren) late to win by 2 1/4 lengths. The Charles Fipke-bred filly is a half-sister to Spikes Shirl (Speightstown), MSP, $373,880 and is a full-sibling to GSP-UAE Shirl's Bee. New Diamond has a pair of brothers--a yearling half by Speightstown and a 2023 full-sibling--and hails from the female family of GISW & GISP Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}); GISW & GISP Shirl's Speight (Speightstown); MGISW Shakespeare (Theatrical {Ire}); that one's full-sister MGSW Lady Shakespeare; and three-time Canadian champion Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown). This is also the family of GSW Mona Rose (Gold Legend). Sales history: $13,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP; $75,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR. ## 'JOHN GOSDEN IS A MASTER' - DOYLE THRILLED WITH NASHWA'S FALMOUTH ROMP

Nashwa and Hollie Doyle | Getty Images

by Sean Cronin

Imad Al Sagar's dual Group 1-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)--Princess Loulou {Ire}, by Pivotal {GB}) wrested defeat from the jaws of victory in last month's G3 Hoppings S., but was a different proposition facing a stellar cast in Friday's G1 Tattersalls Falmouth S. at Newmarket and back on song to dish out a wide-margin beating in the one-mile distaffers' test.

Persistent drizzle had fallen at Headquarters throughout the day, easing the official going to good, and enticed connections into rubber-stamping the participation of last week's G1 Pretty Polly s. victrix Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Nashwa, last term's G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Nassau S. heroine, endured a winless run in four outings since annexing the latter test and was reined back to occupy a slot in rear through the early fractions here. Tanking forward on the bridle from halfway, the 4-1 chance cruised to the front underneath the stands' side rail approaching the final furlong and surged clear up the hill to easily outclass G1 Coronation S. runner-up Remarquee (GB) (Kingman (GB)) by an impressive five lengths. ## SAUDI BUYERS NAJD STUD SNAP UP 210K DUBAWI GELDING AT JULY SALE

By Brian Sheerin

Tattersalls has been a happy hunting ground for Najd Stud in recent years and the powerful Saudi outfit struck for the 210,000gns top lot Tabaretta (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) on the final day of the July Sale.

Tabaretta (lot 902) has good form under his belt and boasts a rating of 90 after eight starts for Charlie Appleby. The three-year-old's latest win came in a 1m4f handicap at Wolverhampton in January and it was that sort of form that led Jimmy George of Tattersalls, who was doing the bidding on behalf of Najd Stud, to label the gelding as the "standout" of Friday's catalogue.

Even-money favourite Via Sistina was 1 1/2 lengths further adrift in third.

"She's a filly that has taken a long time to come to herself," revealed John Gosden. "She ran in France and she wasn't there and at Newcastle she was a little keen early. It's a stiff mile-and-a-quarter up there and she just over-raced early and got caught in the last few strides. I only thought in the last week that she needs racing, I didn't want her to be too fresh for the [G1] Nassau by waiting seven weeks. I thought coming here would suit as she's got plenty of speed. I rang Teddy [Grimthorpe] and he wondered what I was smoking. I just knew it was the right thing to come here and she's proven it. She's a classy filly who could run in the [G1] QEII at the end of the year."

Rider Hollie Doyle, collecting her first win in the contest, added, "For this filly to get her head back in front and just display how good that we know she is, it is the icing on the cake. She's been a real flagbearer for me and the team and there were plenty of doubters on the back of her last two runs, but John Gosden is a master and you shouldn't doubt him. I think she's just proven to be extremely versatile, you can ride her anywhere and she stays 10 furlongs. Plenty more doors have been opened stepping her back down to a mile."

Remarque's trainer Ralph Beckett was not too downcast in defeat and said, "I was really pleased with her. She is getting more professional with racing as I hoped she might as it is a trait of the family. It was a good effort, but John [Gosden] got it right again. Ground doesn't appear to matter much to her and she is in the [G1 Prix] Rothschild [at Deauville], so we will see how that goes. She is also in the [G1] Matron [at Leopardstown] and there is the [G1] Sun Chariot [at Newmarket's Rowley Mile] as well. We will see how we feel at the time and take our chances as they arise. I'd say we will keep to a mile for the time being."

Smiling in the rain: Nashwa's connections celebrate her victory

It's one innings at a mile and out for Via Sistina, with trainer George Boughey declaring, "She just got tapped for toe, Jamie [Spencer] gave her one flick and I was pleased to see her stay on well. She looked like she was booked for fourth, fifth or sixth at one point, but she galloped out well up the hill and went all the way to the end. She will have a bit of a break now and we will prep her for the autumn, but we won't see her over a mile again."

Pedigree Notes

Nashwa, kin to the unraced 2-year-old filly Mesmerising (GB) (Decorated Knight {GB}) and a yearling colt by Dubawi (Ire), is the third of five foals out of stakes-winning G1 Prix Jean Romanet runner-up Princess Loulou (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), herself a half-sister to Listed Pomfret S. third Easy Target (Fr) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Descendants of the May-foaled homebred bay's dual stakes-placed third dam Sweeping (GB) (Indian King), herself out of G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Glancing (GB) (Grundy {Ire}), include G1 Middle Park S.-winning sire Awzaan (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}), G2 Keio Hai Nisai S. winner Ball Lightning (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) and GIII Will Rogers S. victor Media Mogul (GB) (First Trump {GB}). Nashwa is one of her sire's 32 Group 1 winners.

He explained, "This [Tabaretta] was a bit of a standout today. The scene in Saudi Arabia is going from strength to strength and he looks a horse who will suit the country's racing perfectly.

"Najd is a regular buyer here and a great client and hopefully this gelding will go on to be successful for the Stud."

Najd Stud has enjoyed some memorable days at Tattersalls, including when coming out best at 3.6 million gns for Jane Chapple-Hyam's dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) at last year's December Mares Sale.

The latest recruit for the operation is a half-brother to G3 Prix Miesque winner Devant (Fr) (Showcasing {GB}) and, according to George, should fit in perfectly in the expanding programme in Saudi Arabia.

George concluded, "Najd has been buying for many years but the racing in Saudi is expanding. The farm has been very successful with Tattersalls graduates and, like everything, it is success driven--the more winners they buy from Tattersalls, the more they come back."

It was a strong July Sale on the whole with 574 of the 635 lots selling at a clearance rate of 90%. The aggregate climbed marginally by 1% to 16,986,000gns for a bigger catalogue while the average fell 8% to 29,592gns and the median stayed the same at 15,000gns. Cont. p5

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "To have bettered last year's wide margin record breaking Tattersalls July Sale turnover is a clear indication of the robust and vibrant market which year after year makes this fixture so popular with vendors and purchasers alike.

"The key feature of the Tattersalls July Sale is its unique combination of quality and diversity which cannot be found anywhere else at this time of year and as ever Park Paddocks has been alive with a global melting pot of buyers from every continent in the world who have faced strong competition from British and Irish buyers, both Flat and National Hunt."

He added, "A record 12 lots making in excess of 200,000 gns and 35 selling for 100,000 gns or more demonstrates the strength at the top of the market, but equally important has been the consistent demand at all levels resulting in a record-equalling median and for the fifth consecutive year the Tattersalls July Sale has achieved an enviable clearance rate above 90%.

"While the high class consignments from Godolphin, Juddmonte Farms and Shadwell Estates have as ever proved to be amongst the highlights of the July Sale we have also seen some smaller operations spectacularly rewarded, none more so than Tipperary-based trainer Michael O'Meara and owner Emma Kennedy whose three-year-old homebred Ethical Diamond (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) sold for 320,000 guineas. Results of this nature are the hallmark of mixed sales at Tattersalls and we now look forward to the Tattersalls Summer Sale, relocated from Ascot, which numbers 120 lots and takes place at Park Paddocks in Newmarket on Tuesday, July 18."

Clouds The Gift That Keeps on Giving For Tuer

At first glance, the sale of Walking On Clouds (Ire) (Gale Force Ten {GB}) for 40,000gns may not appear too exciting, but the horse has to go down as the gift that keeps on giving for trainer Grant Tuer and his owner Jay Dilger.

After being bought for small money on the private market in Ireland by Dilger and his close friend and fellow Limerick man Conor Magner, Walking On Clouds (lot 948) was sent to Tuer rated just 59, but changed hands on Friday to JB & WJ Lewis with a rating of 84.

In climbing those 25lbs in nine months, Walking On Clouds won six and placed a further seven times for Tuer, with the majority of those performances coming on the all-weather.

That led to Walking On Clouds netting connections a whopping £100,000 bonus for being crowned the leading all-weather horse last season and Tuer was left marvelling at the fun the four-year-old provided his stable in such a short space of time.

Tuer said, "He's been a superstar for us, hasn't he? He was sent to us around September last year and we certainly didn't plan or plot winning the bonus with him. It just happened that way and it was only around Christmas time that we spotted the opportunity for him to win the bonus and plotted his campaign from there on in.

"I think the amateur race that Eirann Cagney won on him at Southwell back in February was the key to winning the ARC Million Bonus. It looked a soft opportunity for him and he got away with winning over five [furlongs]. It was after that where we started to think, 'we have a chance here.'" Cont. p6

Walking On Clouds ran 17 times all told for Tuer and it was the gelding's soundness that was put forward as the main reason for him winning the bonus.

Tuer said, "He's never seen my vet. You wouldn't find a nicer horse and he has a great mind on him. He just takes his racing very well and I hope he gives his new connections as much fun as he gave us."

There are few trainers who are regarded as highly as Tuer is in improving second-hand horses and Walking On Clouds is just the latest example. Although he picked up a cheap horse at the sales this week, he reported trade to be strong and said that he doubts he will be coming home with the next Walking On Clouds from the sales.

He said, "We bought a cheap horse for a small syndicate in the north to run on the all-weather and try and win some bonus money with. He was pretty inexpensive and I would be surprised if he was another Walking On Clouds but here's hoping. The sale has been very difficult all week. It's been the same old story, everyone seems to be on the same horses and inflation is there."

Putting the "wow factor" into Friday night's G1 Grand Prix de Paris at ParisLongchamp, Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard's TDN Rising Star Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}--Knyazhna {Ire}, by Montjeu {Ire}) swooped on unsuspecting victims to provide further proof of the outstanding merit of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club form.

Only fourth behind Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) in that 10 1/2-furlong Chantilly Classic, the Pascal Bary trainee who had dazzled on his first two starts looked an unlikely winner throughout the early stages with Cristian Demuro detached in last.

It was not until the turn into the straight that the eventual winner truly engaged and while he had all rivals still to pass there, he was in their range and ready to fire his bullets. Ryan Moore committed first on the Irish Derby runner-up Adelaide River (Ire) (Australia {GB}) with the 8-5 favourite Soul Sister (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) chasing hard, but it was Feed The Flame who was finishing with the biggest rattle on the outside. Cont. p8

Looking as if he had jumped in 100 metres from the finish, the 13-5 second favourite was in domineering mood as he registered a length verdict over Adelaide River, with the Oaks heroine Soul Sister a neck away in third.

“He’s a great horse,” Bary said. “The Prix du Jockey Club came a little soon for him and 2400 metres is his true distance. He broke slow, but he needs time to warm up and he has terrific acceleration. I won this race for Juddmonte with Zambezi Sun and both horses had exactly the same career up to this, winning the same first two races and then finishing fourth in the Jockey Club, so history can repeat itself sometimes. We will give him a break now and wait for September and the [G2] Prix Niel and then the Arc.”

So demonstrative when successful by 5 1/2 lengths over 10 1/2 furlongs on the opening card of ParisLongchamp’s 2023 season, Feed The Flame beat the subsequent G3 Prix Hocquart winner First Minister (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and fellow TDN Rising Star Silver Crack (Fr) (Cracksman {GB}) next time over another 55 yards in this venue’s Prix de Ferrieres conditions race prior to his first genuine test in the Jockey Club. This was probably an upgrade on that effort after a subsequent freshener, but it is hard to get away from how strong that race looks this year, with Ace Impact recording stunning sectionals to deny the top-class Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) and the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains hero Marhaba Ya Sanafi (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}).

Jean-Louis Bouchard said, “Christophe Soumillon said after his second outing that he was probably more of a 2400-metre colt rather than a Prix du Jockey Club colt and so an Arc type. We’ve been working together with Pascal Bary for a long time. With my trainers, it’s very much a team effort and I’m also thinking of Stephane Wattel because it’s thanks to him that I own Feed the Flame as he trained the colt’s brother Sacred Life for me who should have won his race.”

Soul Sister appeared to have no excuses in third and Kieran Shoemark said, “We didn’t go particularly quick, which suited us because she’s got a strong turn of foot and I tried to utilise that into the straight. She picked up well for me, but I struggled to peg back Ryan [Moore] and I think we’ve been beaten by a very good colt.”

Thady Gosden echoed that sentiment. “The winner looks an exceptional colt. He quickened by the whole field from arguably the worst position in the race like a proper horse,” he said. “He looked smart coming into this and was supplemented like our filly, he’s probably one of the best mile-and-a-half horses around at the moment. She’s run a very good race in defeat to him. There are options back with the fillies now, we’ll see how she comes out of it and probably do that.”

DREAMER IMPRESSES IN THE DUCHESS OF CAMBRIDGE by Sean Cronin

Amo Racing's 'TDN Rising Star' Persian Dreamer (Calyx {GB})--Surprisingly {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), fresh off a fourth-place finish in last month's G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot, upset the odds with an impressive display for a career high in Friday's G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. over Newmarket's six-furlong strip.

She was restrained in rear after an alert break and inched forward into a handy third before halfway. Nudged along passing the quarter-mile marker, the 5-1 second choice quickened in style to launch her bid entering the final furlong and kept on powerfully under mild urging thereafter to upset 1-6 favourite and 'TDN Rising Star' Star Of Mystery (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths. Persian Dreamer becomes the first pattern-race winner for trainer Dominic Ffrench Davis and the first black-type winner for her freshman sire (by Kingman {GB}).

The €145,000 Goffs Orby yearling debuted in taking fashion to earn her TDN benchmark over five furlongs at the town's Rowley Mile venue in April, but slipped to fourth in the following month's Listed Marygate Fillies' S. at York in her penultimate start.

Amo Racing supremo Kia Joorabchian, celebrating his 52nd birthday, said, "We've loved this filly from day one. She had one unfortunate midfield run [at York], but ever since she's been wonderful. She's very quick and it worked out very well today. She's beaten a 1-6 favourite and well thought of Godolphin horse so we will look at Group 1 options."

Dominic Ffrench Davis, on the occasion of registering his first pattern-race success, added, "It's a relief to get there at last. She's a smashing filly and she's done nothing wrong all year really, but she needs to get her toe into the ground. We were praying for the rain today and it has come. I was saying before the race that I didn't wear a jacket in the hope it would rain. She was the last horse off the bridle at Ascot and she just doesn't let herself down when the ground is as fast as that. It was proper fast ground, but there was no jar and she's been able to come here not that long afterwards and run a top race."

"She's a big, strong filly and that's probably why she doesn't go on the fast ground, but I think she's a lovely filly going forward. When she won on the Rowley Mile I thought she could make up into a [G1 1000] Guineas horse and she gives you that sort of impression."

Persian Dreamer | Getty Images

Star Of Mystery's trainer Charlie Appleby reflected, "Fair play to the winner. They have got a nice tow, got the cover and picked us up. Small fields can become messier than a big-field event, but full credit to the winner. Our filly didn't lose too much in defeat and I think she will be better when she can get a bit of cover. At the end of the day, we know it is tough on the front end with a bit of a headwind. We did enough early on, and it just paid that last couple of hundred yards."

"We will carry on down the [sprinting] route with her."

Whether we look at the [G2] Lowther or hold on I don't know. She is a filly that is a this-year filly on the scope of her."

Pedigree Notes

Persian Dreamer, who becomes the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Kingman {GB}), is a half-sister to 'TDN Rising Star' Queen Olly (Ire) (No Nay Never), who hit the board in this contest last year. She is the fourth of six foals and also kin to a yearling colt by Into Mischief and a weanling colt by

American Pharoah. Persian

Dreamer's dam Surprisingly (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is out of G3 Ballyogan S. victrix and G1 Golden Jubilee third Lesson In Humility (Ire) (Mujadil) and thus a full-sister to G3 Kilternan S. victor and G1 Irish Derby runner-up Tiger Moth (Ire) and G3 Balanchine S. second Butterscotch (Ire). ## RUE BOISSONADE TAKES THE MALLERET

by Tom Frary

Giving only minor indication that she was up to winning a G2 Prix de Malleret before Friday evening, Ecurie X's Rue Boissonade (Fr) (Seabhac) was the surprise package on ParisLongchamp's Fete Nationale fixture.

Having beaten the subsequent G1 Prix de Diane fourth Wise Girl (Fr) (Recoletos {GB}) over this 12-furlong trip at Saint-Cloud in April, the Mikel Delzangles trainee was third in the course-and-distance Prix de Croissy conditions event in May and had spent the interim lying in wait.

Settled fourth of the quintet early by the masterful Gerald Mosse, the 9-1 shot briefly looked beaten at the top of the straight as the long-time leader Crack Of Light (GB) (Kingman {GB}) kicked on but found a surge to overwhelm that British raider 300 metres from the finish en route to a 2 1/2-length success.

“Even though she had never been tested at listed or group level before, we were really tempted to take the gamble in this race because she had won well at Saint-Cloud beating the filly that finished fourth in the Prix de Diane,” Delzangles said of the bargain €6,000 Osarus Breeze-Up purchase. “She was training very well and sending good vibes. Softer ground would not be a problem for her and the [G1] Prix Vermeille ought to be a target now.”

THE GOOD MAN IN CHARGE IN THE MAURICE DE NIEUIL by Tom Frary

As solid a pattern-race stayer as it is possible to find, The Good Man (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}) found once again that his best was good enough as he registered a career-best success in Friday's G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil at ParisLongchamp.

Only twice out of the frame in 14 black-type outings since making his bow in that sphere in the 2021 G3 Prix d'Hedouville here, last year's G3 Prix de Barbeville winner was in his usual happy rhythm settled behind the leading trio by Alexis Pouchin.

As is often the case in this country's races over extended distances, little happened until the field had straightened for home and it was The Good Man who had the most potent initial kick as he forged his way up the fence to lead passing the two-furlong pole. Digging deep in customary fashion, the 27-10 second favourite saw off the visiting G3 Bronte Cup winner River Of Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) by 3/4 of a length. The 21-10 market-leader Sober (Fr) (Camelot {GB}), who was carrying a three-pound penalty having beaten the winner in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier last time, paid for that extra burden a short neck away in third.

“This horse puts his heart on the track to win,” trainer and part-owner Stephane Wattel said. “He has a tendency to idle when he hits the front, but he didn't today--maybe the roar of that fantastic crowd motivated him. I had toyed with the idea of going to Goodwood, but decided against it as I didn't want to take a chance only to see something go wrong. I felt he was maybe in better shape than last year and he has rewarded us nicely. He had a busy first half of the season and we want to protect him, so we'll wait now.”

Pedigree Notes

Also successful in this term's Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid and second in the 2021 G2 Grand Prix de Deauville as well as the aforementioned G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier, The Good Man is out of So Good (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who is a daughter of the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup heroine and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas third Luas Line (Ire) (Danehill). Cont. p13

SWINGALONG EDGES YORK THRILLER

by Sean Cronin

Last term's G2 Lowther S. victrix Swingalong (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}--Pilates {Ire}, by Shamardal) was winless in four starts since that breakthrough tally and regained the winning thread with a narrow victory in Friday's G3 William Hill Summer S. at York.

Her run of defeats does not come without some mitigation, three of the four having been contested at the highest level. She closed last term with a fourth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. and ran third in Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup when last seen. Breaking sharply to seize an immediate advantage down in grade, the 5-4 favourite refused to yield under a drive inside the final quarter-mile and kept on bravely as her owner Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum's second colours, sported by Royal Aclaim (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}), joined the exacta party in the dying strides.

"She showed her class and had to do it the hard way I think," said the owner's representative Philip Robinson. "That suits her and that is her style of running. With the ground going as it did, it made it very hard towards the end and I think she was just coming to the end of her tether. Had it been fast ground, she would have won very easily, so I was very impressed with her.

"There were half-plans in the pipeline to go up to six-and-a-half at Deauville [for the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest], but I don't think that will be the case now. It would be easier coming back than going further and I think six is her limit. Karl [Burke] says there are plenty of races for her, so we'll have a chat with the owner and see where we would all like to go next. The main thing is she won today."

Reflecting on the old one-two, Robinson added, "I was pleased with Royal Aclaim too and I think she ran really well. That proved today that six furlongs is not a problem for her and she ran a big race. I think both fillies will be better on better ground. The rain has come down here and it seems very loose." Cont. p14 Swingalong, one of her sire's 33 pattern-race winners, is the fourth foal and winner out of a dual-winning half-sister to Listed Hilary Needler Trophy victrix Knavesmire (Ire) (One Cool Cat) and to the dam of Listed Derby du Languedoc scorer Sushi Tuna (GB) (Halling). Swingalong's G3 1000 Guineas Trial-winning third dam Soluce (Ire) (Junius) produced by stakes-winning G3 King George S. third Splice (GB) (Sharpo {GB}), herself the dam of G2 Lowther S. victrix Soar (GB) (Danzero {Aus}). Splice's black-type dynasty includes Group 3-winning Scandinavian champion Entangle (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and G2 July S. second Konchek (GB) (Lethal Force {Ire}). The March-foaled chestnut, from the family of G2 Royal Lodge S.-winning sire Reach (Ire) (Kris {GB}), is kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt Filey Beach (Ire) (Profitable (Ire) and a yearling colt by New Bay (GB).

Pedigree Notes

ARABIC LEGEND A NEW TDN RISING STAR

by Tom Frary

Newmarket's Weatherbys British EBF Maiden S. is one of those key races that can uncover a class act and Friday's renewal of the seven-furlong July Festival test may have witnessed another as Arabic Legend (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--Sheikha Reika {Fr}, by Shamardal) earned a TDN Rising Star tag.

Withdrawn from his intended start at Doncaster last month after becoming upset in the stalls, the second foal out of Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's GI E.P.Taylor S. heroine was always travelling strongly on the wing with Rob Hornby trying to contain him off the moderate pace.

Looming on the front end approaching the furlong pole as the even-money favourite Emperor's Star (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) appeared at the fore on the other side, the 17-2 shot mastered that well-touted rival in the final 100 yards. At the line, the Andrew Balding trainee had 1 1/2 lengths to spare over the Godolphin relative of Cloth Of Stars (Ire), with another three lengths back to that sire's son Dallas Star (Fr) who had been beaten under three lengths in Royal Ascot's Listed Chesham S.

"He's got a lot of ability and he's an exciting prospect," Balding said of the winner, who was adding his name to a recent list that includes the future group winners Youth Spirit (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and Noble Truth (Fr) (Kingman {GB}) and the Group 1-placed Epictetus (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). This is also the maiden that saw Alhaarth (Ire) beat Mark Of Esteem (Ire) in 1995 and was won by Bahhare a year later, by Dubai Destination in 2001 and by Rio De La Plata in 2007.

"He is a very well-bred horse and we think a little bit of him," Balding added. "He quickened up nicely and when the rain came it was encouraging. That certainly wasn't going to inconvenience him. I'm sure he will stay a mile and I'm sure he will get further in time. Anything's possible, as he's a high-class horse who is bred to be. He'd be right up towards the top of our two-year-olds."

Making it TDN Rising Star number 38 for Dubawi and joining the likes of In Italian (GB), Space Blues (Ire), Too Darn Hot (GB), Benbatl (GB) and Zarak (Fr) to name a few, Arabic Legend is connected to another who was handed the tag at this meeting in 2015. That was Sheikha Reika's full-sister Lumiere (GB), who after beating Dubawi's relative in these colours Sharja Queen (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by six lengths on debut, went on capture the G1 Cheveley Park S.

Lumiere was later to produce Dubawi's Listed Feilden S. winner and G3 Diomed S. runner-up Highland Avenue (Ire) and this year's Listed Oaks Farm Stables Fillies S.-placed Silver Lady (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), while the family also includes Sensation (GB) (Soviet Star), who was successful in this card's Falmouth S. when it was a Group 2 in 1996. Cont. p15

NEWMARKET: "IT WILL BE A DIFFERENT SORT OF PRESSURE." SHAQUILLE THE TARGET IN THE JULY CUP

by Tom Frary

First there was Dettori's ban, meaning that the one missing English Group 1 on his palmares was going to stay void. Then the setback to Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never). Now, the persistent rain that dogged Friday's action at Newmarket's July Festival and has changed the complexion of Saturday's feature G1 Pertemps Network July Cup. Ironically, every bit of that unexpected wet spell acted further to aid the cause of Kinross (GB) (Kingman (GB)) who would have been Frankie's final ride in his last-chance saloon which is now closed for business forever.

Among all those twists and turns, the one imperturbable element has been 2023's shock sensation from Julie Camacho and Steve Brown's North Yorkshire-based stable little-known outside of the UK. What their ludicrously-talented 3-year-old colt Shaquille (GB) (Charm Spirit (Ire)) doesn't know about racing at this stage probably isn't worth labouring over, with his ability to do it any which way offering little hope for his opponents. Showing disdain for some basic universal rules when comfortably overcoming a criminally-slow start in the G1 Commonwealth Cup, he established himself as the sprint division's poster boy and this is his to lose.

"It will be a different sort of pressure, as it looks like we are going to start favourite whereas at Ascot Little Big Bear was a short-priced favourite and we went there slightly under the radar," Brown said. "So it's different from that perspective, but you've got to deal with it and what a great position to be in--to have a favourite for a group one race. Physically, for all he will be probably be a nicer horse next year, he is a big strong fella who holds condition well. We just hope he is maturing as we are going along. It has been a steady progression in the right direction with him and hopefully that will continue on Saturday."

Camacho added, "We turned him out for three or four days and he started to get a bit fresh. He cantered on the Wednesday after Royal Ascot and he did a nice piece of work last Saturday and everything seems to be good."

Rain In Time For Kinross...

While Friday's rain was an unwelcome sight for connections of most in this line-up, it was welcomed by Marc Chan and Ralph Beckett as they ponder a second major sprint for TDN Rising Star Kinross. Challenging Shaquille for favouritism on Friday night, last year's G1 Prix de la Foret and G1 British Champions Sprint S. hero looks to have things falling into place at the eleventh hour. That cannot be said for fellow TDN Rising Star Little Big Bear, who already had a question mark over him given how readily he was brushed aside late by Shaquille at Royal Ascot before his foot problem. Aidan O'Brien is happy to let him take his chance, but softening ground could add to his woes. "At the moment everything is going well with him. It hasn't been ideal, obviously, but we're happy enough," he said. "He just missed five or six days last week and we won't know until he runs how much it has affected him."

Horses For Courses...

If there is one in the field who can be called a track specialist it is Michael Dods's latest sprinting starlet Azure Blue (Ire) (El Kabeir), who is four from five in this town including the Listed Boadicea S. and Listed Kilvington S. Upping her game last time to upset Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder (Ire)) in the G2 1895 Duke of York S. in May, she will be assisted by Paul Mulrennan who is hoping for more of the same. "She wintered very well and is more like a colt--I think she weighs more than 500 kilos and has definitely got better with age," he said. "She seems to love Newmarket and that's a big thing as the two courses there are unique and test just about everything."

City Of Troy And Great Truth In TDN Rising Star Superlative Tussle...

Newmarket's G2 Superlative S. has always signalled the beginning of the focus on next year's 2000 Guineas and Saturday's edition is no exception as TDN Rising Stars City Of Troy (Justify) and Great Truth (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) square up after their impressive debuts. While the former excelled in a Curragh maiden that Ballydoyle have turned into a springboard for their Classic prospects down the years, Godolphin's Great Truth was doing his stuff in a Leicester novice that Charlie Appleby used for last year's leading juvenile Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo (Ire)). Cont. p17

Aidan O'Brien was waxing lyrical about City Of Troy and his stride after his debut and said, "We've always thought he was a nice horse. This looks an ideal race for him and hopefully it will do him good long term and it gives him a good education."

Appleby said of Great Truth, "He was very green that day and hung across to the left, but mentally and physically he's done very well since. When I say physically, he's tightened up, but mentally he galloped on Wednesday, William rode him, and he was very slick. We were second with Victory Dance last year and he didn't quite get to where we hoped he might get. But this year, with Aidan's horse, it will be tough, because he looks decent. But we like our horse. He is slick."

Charlie Hills has a live contender in Teme Valley and Ballylinch Stud's Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), who may not have carried the same gravitas of the big two into his introduction at Newbury but who gave the impression he has a bright future nonetheless. "Charlie is quite bold on him and he shows up quite well in the mornings," Teme Valley's racing manager Richard Ryan said. "We're hopeful progress can continue to be made, but it is a hell of a race."

Best Of The Rest...

Ascot's Saturday card sees the G2 Fred Cowley MBE Memorial Summer Mile, where Shadwell's Aldaary (GB) (Territories {Ire}) looks to build on his solid comeback fourth in Newmarket's G3 Criterion S. at the start of the month. The William Haggas-trained Listed Spring Trophy winner was coming back off a 420-day absence in that seven-furlong contest and has the easing ground to suit, as does the 2021 G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Criterium International hero Angel Bleu (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) who could make it a big day for Marc Chan and Ralph Beckett. The nationwide rain was also very welcome for another Haggas bigwig in Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}) ahead of York's G3 Silver Cup.

COURSETRACK SET TO ROLL OUT AT IRISH TRACKS IN 2024

Coursetrack will be offered at all Irish racecourses beginning in 2024
Horse Racing Ireland

Starting in 2024, all 26 Irish Racecourses will have live in-race timing information for all races broadcast on-screen and published online, the Horse Racing Ireland (HRI), Association of Irish Racecourses (AIR), Sports Information Services (SIS) and Racecourse Media Group (RMG) announced on Friday. The feature is part of the recently concluded media rights renewal between the organizations.

The system is operated by RMG's timing partners, Coursetrack. Runners will carry lightweight GPS trackers designed to fit within the saddlecloths and transmit data directly to a centralised operation at Racing TV's London studios. Coursetrack already is in operation at Leopardstown, Dundalk and Fairyhouse.

More transmitted data includes race clock, leader's speed, leader's time per furlong and distance to finish.

"Racecourses in Ireland enter a new media rights environment from January and it is imperative that we ensure there is as much information as possible for those who want to bet on the action on our tracks," Suzanne Eade, CEO of Horse Racing Ireland, said. The rollout of timing data from Coursetrack will be a key element in that, and I warmly welcome today's announcement." Cont. p18

Sectional time reports for each race will be published in the results section on RacingTV and other affiliated websites the day after racing.

“Pace is arguably the single most important factor of a horse race—horses generally run best when their energy is used optimally, which means regulating their effort as evenly as possible,” Ruby Walsh, former 12-time champion jockey and now RTE, ITV and Racing TV presenter and pundit, said. “Get the pace wrong and you’ll usually get the result wrong. Sectional times are vital for my role as an analyst, especially in upgrading and downgrading a horse’s performance depending on how the race and their individual race was run. And while watching a race, it’s just vital to have the clock to back up what your eyes are telling you about the pace of a race.”

HOW THEY FARED

16.10 Newmarket, Mdn, £15,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT

Ballydoyle nominee Capulet (Justify), a son of G2 Kilboy Estate S. victrix and G1 Nassau S. runner-up Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), was scratched from this intended debut.

Friday's Results:

3rd-York, £30,000, Nov, 7-14, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:11.93, gd.

SYMBOLGY (GB) (f, 2, Havana Grey {GB})--Showstopppa {GB}, by Showcasing {GB}), representing a trainer who had three winners the day before, was without cover racing wide in midfield after breaking from the far-side stall. Powering into contention once past halfway, the 2-1 chance went second approaching the final furlong and was ridden out in the latter stages to deny Nighteyes (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) by 3/4-of-a-length. "She's behaved impeccably, so we're delighted with that debut," said trainer Clive Cox. "She's always been a Grade A student and we've loved her from the first minute we've had her. It was really pleasing for Sheikh Isa to see her take that first step on the track in such a good manner. She was clearly a little green early, with just having horses on one side of her, but when she straightened up she went pretty true and straight. It was very much her first day at school and I do expect her to take a lot of advantages it. The [G2 Lowther S.] entry shows we held her high enough in regard before today and we will see how she comes back from this." Cont. p20

Symbology is the fifth foal and scorer produced by a multiple winning half-sister to G2 Mill Reef S. victor Temple Meads (GB) (Avonbridge {GB}), G3 Firth of Clyde S. runner-up Sneak Preview (GB) (Monsieur Bond {Ire}) and to the dam of Listed Prix Kistena winner Harry Three (GB) (Adaay {Ire}) and the dual Group 3-placed Diligent Harry (GB) (Due Diligence). The February-foaled grey is kin to last term's G2 Sandy Lane S. winner El Caballo (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}), Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi victrix Avengers Queen (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) and a yearling filly Sergei Prokofiev. ## GOLDEN SIXTY NAMED HONG KONG HORSE OF THE YEAR--AGAIN by Alan Carasso

During a season that saw him become the richest-ever horse and most prolific winner of Group 1 races in Hong Kong history, Stanley Chan Ka Leung's Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) was named Horse of the Year in the jurisdiction for an unprecedented third straight season during a black-tie affair held Friday evening at the Grand Ballroom of the Rosewood Hotel.

The son of Gaudeamus (Distorted Humor) won four of his five trips to the post during a well-managed 7-year-old campaign, his only loss coming at the hooves of the very talented California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) when looking for a third consecutive victory in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile in December. In one of the most anticipated races in recent memory, Golden Sixty squared off with his Mile conqueror and G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup romper Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) in the G1 Stewards' Cup in January, a race in which Golden Sixty had a 16-race winning streak snapped in 2022. The three top-rated horses in Hong Kong had the race to themselves when push came to shove, and $2.50 (3-2) second favourite Golden Sixty proved equal to the task with a one-length defeat of $2 (evens) pick Romantic Warrior (video).

It was $1.50 (1-2) Romantic Warrior and $2.30 Golden Sixty in the G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup over a 2000-metre trip that was sure to favour Romantic Warrior. But Golden Sixty had the final say yet again, scoring by a head (video), before adding his ninth Hong Kong Group 1 tally with a third straight win in the G1 FWD Champions Mile in April (video) also securing champion miler honours. Golden Sixty, who will train on as an 8-year-old, has a record of 25-2-1 from 29 starts and earnings of nearly US$18.8 million to date.

Other luminaries to have been named Horse of the Year on multiple occasions include Silver Lining (Aus), Quicken Away (Ire), River Verdon (Ire), Fairy King Prawn (Aus), Silent Witness (Aus), Ambitious Dragon (NZ) and Beauty Generation (NZ).

The first two named were also three-time Horses of the Year, but non-consecutively.

Romantic Warrior did not go home empty-handed, as his efforts were rewarded with champion middle-distance horse honours for the second straight season. He managed to bounce back from his Gold Cup effort--for which he was reportedly not 100%--to defend his title handsomely in the G1 FWD QE II Cup to lock up his championship.

But for an unlucky defeat when favoured in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, Lucky Sweynesse (NZ) (Sweynesse {Aus}) would have given Golden Sixty a tussle for Horse of the Year. As it was, the 4-year-old had a much more rigorous campaign than Golden Sixty, winning seven of his nine starts, including a maiden Group 1 in the Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) and additional elite-level successes in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m) and Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) (video). He carried 135 pounds to victory in the G3 Sha Tin Vase H. June 4, spotting his rivals 14 to 20 pounds. With no standout horse among those that competed in the Classic series, Lucky Sweynesse was also recognized as champion 4-year-old.

Russian Emperor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was the only Hong Kong horse to win a race on foreign soil this season, having impressed in the HH The Amir Trophy in Qatar, but it was his victory over Romantic Warrior in his title defence in the G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (2400m) that secured the 6-year-old the award as champion stayer (video) for the second year in a row.

Golden Sixty won an unprecedented third straight Horse of the Year trophy on Friday | Alex Evers/HKJC

Howdeepisyourlove (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}) finished his first Hong Kong preparation with four wins from 12 starts and was named champion griffin (2- and 3-year-old horses unraced upon arrival into Hong Kong). His rating lifted from the standard debut mark of 52 to 96 by season's end. Beauty Eternal (Aus) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) saw his rating rise from 52 to 117 to be named the most improved horse. Third as the favourite in the BMW Hong Kong Derby, he closed the season with a pair of victories at Group 3 level.

Trainer John Size won a 12th Hong Kong premiership, while Zac Purton will be crowned champion jockey for the sixth time after breaking Joao Moreira's record 170 victories for a season. He currently sits on 176 heading into Sunday's final meeting of the season, 82 clear of Vincent Ho, who received the Tony Cruz Award as leading homegrown jockey. Purton also became the second rider in history to register better than 1600 winners in Hong Kong, joining Russian Emperor's trainer Douglas Whyte.
