

'GEAUX' ROCKETS TO HASKELL VICTORY

Geaux Rocket Ride | Sarah Andrew

by Christina Bossinakis

This year's GI Haskell was flattered by a GI Kentucky Derby winner in Mage (Good Magic), an undefeated $2.3 million OBS purchase in Arabian Knight (Uncle), in addition to this season's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Tapit Trice (Tapit), who realized a healthy $1.3 million at Keeneland last September. However, it was Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella who pulled the rabbit out of his hat with Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}), who sprang the upset when coming from off the pace to best the Derby winner at odds of 12-1 in the 'Win and You're In' test for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar in November.

"As smart as that looks, the honest truth is that I'm 72 years old and I thought I'm not going to let this get away from me. I'm going to go again," said Mandella, who was returning to the Haskell for the first time since winning the race with Dixie Union in 2000.

"There is no man better to have this horse in his hands than Mr. Mandella," said Hall of Famer Mike Smith, who was winning his record fourth Haskell. "He's only going to get better. We saw that today. This was the deepest Haskell field I've seen in a long time. For him to perform, that is a credit to Mr. Mandella and his whole crew. Of course, Geaux Rocket Ride deserves all the credit, too."

WET PAINT REGAINS THE WINNING THREAD IN CCA OAKS by Christina Bossinakis

Favored to earn her first taste of Classic glory in the GI Kentucky Oaks in May, Godolphin's Wet Paint (Blame) could only manage a fourth-place finish behind stablemate Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief). Fast forward through a runner-up effort in Ellis's Monomoy Girl S. last month followed by a trek to upstate New York, the bay finally bagged her own Grade I, taking Saturday's Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga.

"She's a super consistent filly who always comes running," said trainer Brad Cox, who won the 2018 renewal of the Oaks with subsequent champion Monomoy Girl. "Her run in the [Kentucky] Oaks was good and her last race at Ellis was probably better than it looked on paper running against a huge bias with no pace. I'm glad she stepped up and finally got that Grade I—that was big for her." Cont. p6

Smith explained, "I think Richard was very confident in this horse. I was, too. When I found out two or three weeks ago that I was going to get the opportunity to ride this horse, my agent called me from New York and I was in California, I flipped out of my bed I was so excited. I just knew there was a lot of upside to this horse and room to get better."

Geaux Rocket Ride was taken in hand by Smith from Post 1 as Awesome Strong (Awesome Slew) immediately assumed command, but was soon joined by the fleet-footed Arabian Knight, who was hustled into contention by Johnny Velazquez from their outside draw.

Carving out an opening quarter in :22.80, even-money choice Arabian Knight overtook the 60-1 shot down the backside, throwing down an equally confident-looking half in :47.11. Meanwhile, the Pin Oak Stud runner was camped out wide as a slew of challengers swarmed in on the front-running duo, including Mage, who was covered up between rivals yet picking up momentum with every stride. With Smith giving his charge the signal leaving the backstretch, Geaux Rocket Ride bore down on leading Arabian Knight as Mage continued drawing ever closer while widest of all. With the trio entering the home turn in almost unison, Geaux Rocket Ride and Mage inched ahead of the wilting favorite, and while it looked like this year's Derby winner would just roll on by, the former found another gear to pull away late by a two-length margin over Mage. Arabian Knight held on to round the trifecta.

“When Arabian Knight went out to the front, I was very happy that [Awesome Strong] went out there with him,” explained Smith. “He wasn’t getting away with anything easy and on his own, which I wasn’t going to let happen if someone else didn’t do it. But I was glad someone else did my dirty work and I was able to tip out and just relax.”

Smith added, “I always felt like I had a lot of horse left, but you don’t know. When you get to them, they might, too, so I was just happy.”

“This horse is super intelligent. When you have a horse that has a brilliant mind, you just work together. It’s so much easier. It’s like slicing butter with a hot knife. He just moves when you tell him to move. He does everything he’s supposed to do.”

As for the runner-up, trainer Gustavo Delgado Sr. said, “This horse is very, very good. I think that five works, six works would have been better, but I had only four [going into the Haskell]. This race was very good for him. This sets him up going forward.

It’s a long year. There are many races more.”

Regarding the beaten favorite, Jimmy Barnes, assistant to Bob Baffert, explained, “It’s quite possible that the long layoff caught up to him. He hasn’t run since the end of January. He jumped out of there running and he was just third best today. We’re starting the second half of the schedule [for 3-year-olds] and there are a lot of races left to run.”

Saturday’s Haskell Day card drew 35,286 with on-track handle topping $1.7 million.

Geaux Rocket Ride debuted with an eye-catching 5 3/4-length victory going six furlongs at Santa Anita Jan. 29 before coming home a respectable second to Practical Move (Practical Joke) in the 8 1/2-furlong GII San Felipe S. Mar. 4. Missing the GI Santa Anita Derby because of a fever, thus dashing any Derby aspirations, the $350,000 Fasig-Tipton July graduate once again found the winner’s circle following Santa Anita’s Affirmed S. June 4.

Wet Paint (extreme outside) | Dom Napolitano

GSW Southlawn (Pioneerof the Nile) stumbled dramatically leaving the innermost stall, spotting the field several lengths while 14-1 chance She's Lookin Lucky (Lookin At Lucky) and Sacred Wish (Not This Time) enjoyed cleaner starts and proceeded directly to the head of affairs. In the meantime, Wet Paint was unhurried in last, about four lengths off of She's Lookin Lucky, who registered a comfortable opening quarter in :24.67 as Sacred Wish and the awkward starting Southlawn pursued in second and third, respectively. Still content to linger out back through an equally modest half in :48.81, Wet Paint launched her bid heading to the quarter pole as Sacred Wish forged to the front and appeared to be en route to victory. Wet Paint, however, had other ideas. Fanned out several paths wide straightening for home, the 7-5 second choice slowly reeled in game leader in the final jumps and nailed her rival by a neck at the wire. Favored Gambling Girl was a long way back in third, finishing ahead of She's Lookin Lucky and Southlawn.

"She closes into soft paces like she did today, she closes into a fast pace," said Cox. "This is her thing in regards to just kind of flopping out of the gate and finding her way and finishing up. I told Flavien [Prat] today, 'Just ride her like a turf horse.' He knows what to do and you don't have to tell him anything. That's really what it comes down to--just let her break and kind of find her way around there, and when she starts picking up, just keep her out of trouble."

Added Prat, "Turning for home, I thought I was going to win, at the eighth pole I was questioning it, and then she finally found another gear to get by that filly."

Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) was scratched the morning of the race after sustaining a minor foot issue, via a Tweet posted by trainer Tom Amoss Saturday morning. "Hoosier Philly was not herself this morning with a minor foot issue. Out of an abundance of caution, agreement with the state vets, & doing the right thing by her, she will be withdrawn from the CCAO. We look forward to getting back to the track in the future."

On the board in two of three starts last season, Wet Paint kicked off the season with a win in Oaklawn's Martha Washington S. before adding wins in a sloppy renewal of the GIII Honeybee S. and GIII Fantasy S. ahead of her Classic bid.

Cox said Wet Paint will likely target the 10-furlong GI Alabama S. Aug. 19 at the Spa.

"That's the logical spot moving forward," Cox said. "We'll talk it over with the Godolphin team, but I think a mile and a quarter is definitely something she's going to be able to handle based off her running style and showing today that she likes Saratoga."

Pedigree Notes:

Wet Paint is one of 21 graded winners and 45 black-type winners for Claiborne's Blame, who also has six winners at the highest level. Three of those six Grade I winners are out of Mr. Prospector-line broodmare sires, making them inbred to that prolific Claiborne stalwart. Wet Paint herself is 4x4 to Mr. Prospector and her damsire, Darley's late Street Cry (Ire), is responsible for 140 stakes winners out of his daughters. The CCA Oaks winner is Blame's second Grade I winner at the Spa following Marley's Freedom, who won the 2018 Ballerina S.

A second-generation Godolphin homebred after Darley acquired the family from Stonerside, Wet Paint has a yearling half-sister by Medaglia d'Oro. Dam Sky Painter, who hails from the same family as 2020 GII Del Mar Derby winner Pixelate (City Zip) and whose third dam is four-time G1SW Nastique (Naskra), most recently produced a filly by Not This Time Apr. 26.

THERAPIST UPSETS UNITED NATIONS TO SCORE FIRST GRADE I VICTORY AT EIGHT

by Jill Williams

With the most starts in the field at 41 and the most claims under his girth in the last year with three, Therapist (Freud) may not have appeared to be the one most likely headed back to the barn after Monmouth Park's GI United Nations S. as the winner. But like fine wine, he has improved with age, winning his first graded race earlier this year and adding his first Grade I score in Monmouth's Haskell undercard highlight. Therapist is 8-years-young.

Off at 12-1 in the $600,000 United Nations, Therapist broke cleanly from the inside and settled into a nice midpack spot as 58-1 longshot So High (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) showed the way through early :24.76 and :49.32 quarters. Unhurried, Therapist bided his time until the final turn, where he kicked on wide and rallied down the lane to reel in favored last-out GIII Monmouth S. winner Catnip (Kitten's Joy), who had tracked So High all the way before tackling him in the stretch. Therapist also held off a surging Red Knight (Pure Prize), a fellow older model who has had a resurgence of his own, to win the GI Man o' War S. in May. Red Knight, like Therapist, hails from the barn of Michael Maker, who has now won this race three times since 2017.

"He's a really good horse," said jockey Javier Castellano of the winner. "He's a long-distance horse. He seems to always maintain his rhythm. I knew that horse on the lead was going to stop. I just rode my race."

Therapist | Sarah Andrew

Castellano continued, "I knew he was going to come back to us. I didn't want to chase him and not have anything left. It's a long distance. You have to have a lot of patience and have a lot of confidence in the horse. It's amazing that he won a Grade I race at 8-years-old. He's just a professional horse."

Therapist has had a long career, breaking his maiden in 2017--three years before the competitors in the GI Haskell S., the next race on Monmouth's card--were even born. A multiple listed winner at two and winner of several black-type races in the ensuing years, he has clearly improved over time, adding his first graded win in Gulfstream's GII Pan American S. just this April. Last seen finishing second in the Chorleywood Overnight S. at Ellis Park June 17, Therapist was picked up by owner Michael Dubb for $50,000 at Gulfstream in January after he lost a $25,000 shake for him in December.

"I followed this horse throughout his career," said Dubb, who was winning his third consecutive United Nations, although the last two were in partnership. "I knew the ability he had and that's why I claimed him."

"This is Mike Maker's sweet spot. When we got him the horse hadn't been racing this long and I asked Mike why he wanted to go this long. He said, 'I see it in the breeding.'"

Pedigree Notes:

Therapist is the fifth Grade I winner for New York's veteran star sire, Freud. The 25-year-old Sequel Stallions stalwart, a full-brother to the late Giant's Causeway, has 61 black-type winners bred in the Northern Hemisphere and 11 graded winners. Freud has three stakes performers out of Smart Strike mares, with two of those being Therapist and his younger full-sister, Fresco. Smart Strike currently sits second on the 2023 list of leading broodmare sires and has 164 black-type winners out of his daughters.

Now 20, Lady Renaissance has been sold since foaling Therapist and Fresco in the Empire State. She brought $52,000 at the 2018 Keeneland January sale from Dennis Yokum and was shipped to California. Her most recent produce is Seize the Derby (Carpe Diem), an unraced 3-year-old gelding. Lady Renaissance's lovely extended pedigree includes a granddam who is a half-sister to 1994 Broodmare of the Year Fall Aspen (Pretense), whose influence is still felt today.

Looking to record her third consecutive victory, Anisette stormed from off the pace to take Saturday's GII San Clemente S. at Del Mar. Settled toward the back early, the 2-1 chance was reserved along the rail as Fast and Shiny (Bernardini) blasted along in front through a :22.33 opening quarter. Moving between horses following a :46.68 half, the Eclipse Thoroughbreds filly swung out extremely wide turning for home, yet was narrowing the distance on the leaders quickly. Hitting top gear in early stretch, she powered to the front with relative ease and ran off to collect her first graded stakes victory in style. Ocean Club was second while And Tell Me Nolies took third.

"It was a good trip for me," said winning rider Umberto Rispoli. "I had to use her a little bit on the backside to get her into the spot where I wanted her so we could wait. Then when it came time to go wide, she was there. Terrific closing kick. And I absolutely believe the farther they go, the better she'll be."

Her trainer, French transplant Leonard Powell, added, "I was very happy with the way the race was unfolding. There was plenty of speed and we were looking for the same kind of run as last time. She was very impressive again and a fast time, 1:34 and four. Older [horses] earlier went 1:35."

Fourth and second going a mile over the synthetic surface at Kempton late last year, the 3-year-old rounded out her European campaign with a score at Wolverhampton Dec. 27. Trying turf for the first time in a Santa Anita allowance May 29, she closed from off the pace to post a narrow 3/4-length score at 9-2 odds.

Shotgun Hottie won the first graded stakes of her career on Saturday afternoon in Oceanport, the track where she missed by a head in last year's GIII Monmouth Oaks.

Seen winning the Lady's Secret S. by 5 1/2 lengths in a prep for this spot June 10 at Monmouth Park, the 8-1 shot went four-wide around the first turn in an attempt to catch the leaders, which included heavy favorite Search Results. Hustled along up the backstretch, the bay filly steadily passed rivals before the far turn, ranged up to the extreme outside and past the eighth pole, wore down the chalk to win by a length over the surging Le Da Vida (Chi), who finished second.

"Paco [Lopez] looked like he had a lot of horse throughout the race and when he ranged up on the backside, it then was just sustaining that run," said trainer Cherie DeVaux. "She did sustain her run and I'm just really proud of her. I left her here (after the Lady's Secret) under the care of (trainer) Dan Ward. She's been working over this track and has a lot of experience on the track."

Pedigree Notes:

Out of an extended female family which includes GISW Finley'sluckycharm (Twirling Candy), second dam Swift Girl is a half-sister to MGISW Pure Clan (Pure Prize) and MGSW Greater Good (Intidab). She also produced GISW and GISP Sky Diva (Sky Mesa). The winner's dam is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly named Hurricane Hottie (Palace Malice) and a yearling colt by Echo Town. She foaled a filly by Irish Surf Mar. 20.

Sometimes Proxy, the GI Clark H. winner, shows up and sometimes Proxy, the last-place finisher in the GI Stephen Foster S., makes an appearance. Saturday in Monmouth's $400,000 GIII Monmouth Cup S., it was the former, as the gutsy bay and 2-5 choice called on his class to uncharacteristically set the pace and turn back stiff challenges from Whelen Springs (Street Sense)--the only horse in the field with a recent win over the surface--and last-out GII Brooklyn S. runner-up Calibrate (Distorted Humor).

"He really showed some guts," said winning trainer Michael Stidham. "He's never been on the lead in his life. He's laid close early on in his career, so we knew he could be close and still finish. But he was never on the lead so I didn't know what to think. I was hoping for the best, and then when they hooked him at the three-sixteenths pole, I thought, 'Oh boy, here we go.' Then he dug in and class came through in the end."

Proxy, who has been running with cheek pieces for his last couple of starts, took some bumping out of the gate, but shrugged them all off to emerge from the fray on top. After a first quarter in :23.80 and a half in :48.13, Calibrate tackled him from the outside while Whelen Springs jumped in around the turn. With the trio heads apart coming into the stretch and well clear of the rest, Joel Rosario encouraged the winner with a couple of right-handed taps and he quickly put daylight on the interlopers to cross the wire 2 1/2 lengths the best. The final time for the nine furlongs was 1:49.99.

"I think it was just a case of too much class," said Rosario. "He was the best horse in the race. He broke well and I just kind of let him go and do his thing. He's a little tricky sometimes to ride. You have to let him do the work. I know he always tries. He never gives up. He just does what he does. I was on the best horse and I rode him that way. They put some pressure on us but I was never worried. He has so much class. I just let him show the way."

The Monmouth Cup was Proxy's third win at the distance. After knocking at the door with five graded placings from 2021-22, he finally broke through last November, getting his first graded score in a big way with a 101 Beyer Speed Figure and a visit to the winner's circle in the aforementioned Clark at Churchill Downs. He kicked off 2023 by missing the superfecta in the GI Pegasus World Cup, rebounded with a game second by just a neck to Stilleto Boy (Shackleford) in the GI Santa Anita H. prior to a GII Oaklawn H. win, then threw in the towel last out in the July 1 Stephen Foster.

Proxy | Sarah Andrew

Pedigree Notes:

Gainesway's remarkable Tapit, an annual fixture on the leading sires list, is the sire of Proxy and exactly 100 other graded winners bred in the Northern Hemisphere. His 159 black-type winners include the likes of Horse of Year Flightline, a number of champions including Godolphin's Essential Quality, and four GI Belmont S. winners. Both Proxy and MGSW Pink Sands are by Tapit and out of Include mares. Airdrie's late Include, a son of Broad Brush who passed away last summer due to complications from a heart condition, has 29 stakes winners out of his daughters.

Godolphin-bred Proxy out of 2007 GI Juddmonte Spinster S. and GI American Oaks winner Panty Raid after John Ferguson purchased her for $2.5 million at the 2008 Fasig-Tipton November sale. The full-sister to 2011 GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up GSW St. John's River has also produced GSW & GISP Micheline (Bernardini) and has an unraced 2-year-old gelding named Out in Force (Frosted). Her most recent offspring is a yearling filly by Into Mischief.

Consumer Spending was last seen winning the June 17 GIII Eatontown S. where she rolled late to best rival Surprisingly by a 3/4-length at Monmouth Park for the second graded stakes victory of her career. Sent on her way here as the even-money favorite, the Chad Brown trainee settled toward the rear of the field into the clubhouse turn and up the backstretch. Under pedestrian fractions, Consumer Spending launched her bid just before the top of the lane, and with good energy, she got up in time over Surprisingly to win by a half-length. Brown has won seven of the last nine Matchmaker S., including the past four.

"She's a nice filly in her class," said Luis Cabrera, assistant to Chad Brown. "I was a little concerned about the slow early pace, but her class came through and she showed how good she is. With horses like these, she's a classic horse. They know where the wire is. She was ready for this race."

Pedigree Notes:

Irad Ortiz Jr. and Roses for Debra | Susie Raisher

Despite never having won against open stakes company, Roses for Debra was nonetheless installed the 8-5 choice to best four others in Saturday's GIII Caress S. at Saratoga. Undeclared in a pair of starts since joining Christophe Clement's string earlier this season, the Pennsylvania-bred filly made short work of her rivals, coming from off the pace to win by an authoritative margin over Wakanaka (Ire). MGSW Our Flash Drive (Ghostzapper) got off to an awkward start, spotting the field a couple of lengths as 2-1 chance Bubble Rock took control while Roses for Debra settled two lengths behind through a brisk quarter. With Bubble Rock still in front turning for home, Wakanaka loomed up on the outside of the favorite and it appeared to be anybody's race. Unrelenting down the center of the course, Roses for Debra collared Bubble Rock midstretch and powered home a three-length winner over Wakanaka, who outlasted the early front runner.

"She broke well. I thought there was going to be a little more speed in the race, but she broke so well so I just sat on her," said Irad Ortiz Jr., winning his fourth race on the day's card. "When the other horse [No. 2, Bubble Rock] went, I just followed the leader. After that, I just let her do her thing from the quarter pole."

Under the care of Presque Isle trainer Michelle Brafford, the grey reeled off a quartet of synthetic wins at that venue, including the Malvern Rose S. against state-bred company one year ago. Stepping into better company in a six furlong main track test at Keeneland in October, she came home fourth before resurfacing in 2023 with Clement.

"She came [to me] in the spring," explained Clement. "One of our owners, Mr. [Dean] Reeves, tried to buy her last year, so we knew about the filly. The deal fell through, but we liked her. I knew the owner because we trained for the owner years ago and he's also the breeder of Big Invasion [Clement-trained graded-stakes winner]--the good sprinter--so, I got the phone call to train her, which is great. I'm absolutely delighted to have her in the barn."

Trying the turf for the first time at Pimlico this season, the 4-year-old came from off the pace to score sprinting five panels against optional claiming company May 19 before posting yet another win while progressing into 3-other-than company and adding an extra furlong at Belmont July 3.

"She's very good. She was impressive at Pimlico. She was very impressive at Belmont," said Clement. "She came out of the race at Belmont in great shape. When you run [there] you don't have to ship, you take them straight from the stalls to the paddock and back. I know it was ambitious, but why not have a look. It worked out. It's nice when you're aggressive and it works out."

Pedigree Notes:

Rose for Debra represents the ninth group/graded stakes winner for MGISW Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song). Out of the unraced Bernardini mare Essential Rose, the filly is a half-sister to SW Rose's Vision (Artie Schiller) and SP Rosie's Alibi (Justify). A daughter of the GSW Essential Edge (Storm Cat), the 12-year-old mare is from the prolific family of Flame Of Tara (Ire), responsible for a bevy of accomplished runners, including Irish Highweight route horse Salsabil (Ire) and G1SW Marju (Ire).

Essential Rose is also responsible for an unraced juvenile filly by Palace Malice and a yearling filly by American Pharoah. She failed to produce a live foal this season.

After winning her 2023 debut in allowance company over the all-weather surface a month ago, Loyalty earned both her sixth career synthetic victory, and career first graded stakes win, all at once here with a 2 1/2-length victory as the even-money favorite. In the early going, Loyalty was comfortably tucked in along the rail and was content to track the pacesetter Clitheroe (GB) (Ribchester {Ire}), who held the advantage over chasing Hard Edge (Hard Spun) for the first half-mile. Around the turn, Loyalty was asked for her best run and took the inside route at the head of the lane, ducking through a narrow hole with 300 yards to go. The dark bay Florida-bred took command in deep stretch and handily pulled away to earn the victory over the determined Clitheroe.

"I would say that she was the best in the field," jockey Kazushi Kimura said. "She's quite easy to ride. She was able to stay close and also if there's space, she's able to go in the lead. There were so many options for me. She was feeling comfortable, so comfortable behind the frontrunner. She was able to take a step outside and find a hole and just showed me an amazing race. It was perfect."

backstretch as the previously undefeated 6-5 favorite Queen Picasso (GB) (Kingman {GB}) set all the pace in somewhat pedestrian splits of :24.68 and :47.87 with a clear lead. As the pacesetter rounded the bend, she began to pull away and leave the field behind her, but the winner wasn't through. Shifting into gear, she slipped through an opening along the rail with less than 300 yards to run, and ran down Queen Picasso in the final yards, pulling away to earn the clear victory.

"I had a discussion with [trainer] Kelsey [Danner], and she said, 'Do we stay where we are or do we stretch her out a little bit?' And the discussion was to go, obviously, a mile," winning jockey Adam Beschizza said. "She's starting to mature a lot more. She has a great will to win which stacks up in her favour, so that's half the battle with these horses.

"When she had a target in front of her there the last eighth of a mile, she dug deep. Like I said, she is definitely maturing in the right direction. Good on Kelsey. She's done a great job with her and congrats to NBS as well."

Pedigree Notes:

Mohawk Trail is the second foal out of his dam, who is a half-sister to MGSW Salty Strike (Smart Strike), the dam of last year's champion female sprinter and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint winner Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper). She also produced the unraced 2-year-old colt Justify Charlie (Justify) and was bred last year to Constitution.

BLINKERS ON FOR FORTE

Forte preparing for the Jim Dandy | Adam Coglianese

By Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's Forte (Violence) worked in blinkers Saturday morning at Saratoga Race Course and Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher said the colt will have them on in the GII Jim Dandy on July 29.

"We just want to get him a little bit more locked in," he said.

Pletcher described the small blinker is a French cup with some holes in it.

Under jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr., Forte, who worked in company with MGSW Emmanuel (More Than Ready), breezed a half-mile on the main track in :50. Pletcher said he was happy with the work. Emmanuel remains on target for the Aug. 12 GI Fourstardave H.

"I thought he went really well," he said. "He was enjoying himself out there."

It was Forte's second breeze this summer at Saratoga after covering a half-mile in :48.90 July 14.

"I feel like he lost focus a little bit in the [GI] Florida Derby in the middle of the turn and in the [GI] Belmont. It might have cost him the Belmont," Pletcher said.

He continued, "Irad and I had a conversation after that work about possibly trying some blinkers on him. We galloped him in them one day this week and it seemed like that went fine. Irad felt like he was a little more focused on what he was asking him to do rather than what the horse next to him was doing. If we were going to try an equipment change, we felt like the Jim Dandy would be the race to do it in and not wait until the Travers if we felt we needed to make a change."

Forte has won six of eight career starts and was the 2-year-old male champion last year after compiling consecutive Grade I victories in the Hopeful, the Breeders' Futurity and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

He opened his 2023 campaign with a 4 1/2-length victory in the GI Fountain of Youth. In the Florida Derby he made a huge rally in the stretch to overtake Mage (Good Magic) and win by one length. Forte, the morning-line favorite, was scratched from the Kentucky Derby the morning of the race because of a bruised foot. He was second in the Belmont, 1 1/2 lengths behind Arcangelo (Arrogate).

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: HIT SHOW, ANGEL OF EMPIRE WORK AHEAD OF JIM DANDY

Hit Show schooling in the paddock at Saratoga Friday
Sarah Andrew

GSWs Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Angel of Empire (Classic Empire) breezed five furlongs in company over Saratoga's Oklahoma dirt training track Saturday as both horses prepare for the July 29 GII Jim Dandy S. at the Spa.

Under clear skies and temperatures in the mid-60s, the Brad Cox-trained pair stepped onto the fast track right at 5:30 a.m. with Flavien Prat aboard Angel of Empire and Luis Saez on Hit Show. The two walked in tandem midway up the stretch before turning back around to assume their starting position. Angel of Empire was positioned to the inside of Hit Show with the two completing their exercise on nearly even terms.

Cox said this week's work was almost identical to their July 14 work when the two covered five-eighths in 1:00.90.

"I had them in a minute and four [fifths] this weekend and last," he said. "It was really good and very similar to what we saw last week. I loved that work and I loved this work. They work well together and it went so well last week, I didn't want to change much. I was very happy with what we saw."

Gary and Mary West's Hit Show and Albaugh Family Stables' Angel of Empire were last seen dead-heating for fourth in the GI Belmont S. Hit Show won the GIII Withers S. in February before a runner-up effort in the Apr. 8 GII Wood Memorial, while Angel of Empire took the Feb. 18 GII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds followed by the Apr. 1 GI Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park. He subsequently finished third in the GI Kentucky Derby.

Also Working at Saratoga Saturday..

Saturday morning's work tab also featured MGISW Caravel (Mizzen Mast), who went a half-mile solo over the Oklahoma turf training track ahead of an anticipated start against males in the GIII Troy S. Aug. 5. The 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint champion worked just after 10 a.m. under regular exercise rider Kelvin Perez.

The 6-year-old previously posted a half-mile breeze in :48.88 on July 15. "It was really good and again, it was similar to last week," affirmed trainer Brad Cox. "I was super happy this morning. Kelvin [Perez] was on her and does a great job with her. He was on her last year. She's very professional."

Trainer Todd Pletcher also sent out Stonestreet Stables' homebred Julia Shining (Curlin) to a half-mile move in :50.22 over the main track Saturday morning. The full-sister to dual Champion Malathaat was last seen finishing third in the GI Ashland S. in April at Keeneland.

According to Pletcher, the GII Demoiselle S. winner may make her next start in 10-furlong GI Alabama S. Aug. 19 at Saratoga.

"She's really starting to come around. She's just getting going but looking good so far," Pletcher said. "You never know, the Alabama might be in play if things were to go perfectly. The one thing is I know she wants the mile and a quarter. If she wants it under that scenario having not run since the Ashland is the question."

GRADED STAKES SUNDAY PITS CLAIRIERE VERSUS NEST IN SHUVEE by J.N. Campbell

After a rousing Saturday lineup, the stakes weekend isn't complete yet, as Saratoga, Woodbine and Del Mar present graded offerings. The marquee match on Sunday is the GII Shuvee S. at Saratoga, which honors the 1970 and 1971 champion older female by Nashua, who was the second filly to win the Triple Tiara. The Virginia-bred is also the only filly to ever defeat colts in the Jockey Club Gold Cup. And she did that twice. Though only four are entered here, the race includes the defending champion from last year in Clairiere (Curlin), who comes in after a pair of Grade I victories in the Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park and the Ogden Phipps S. at Belmont Park.

The veteran mare trained by Steve Asmussen will take on last year's champion 3-year-old filly Nest (Curlin), who is making her first start of the year for trainer Todd Pletcher.

The bay filly collected a pair of Grade I wins last summer at Saratoga when she won the Coaching Club of America Oaks and the Alabama S.

Shifting to Woodbine, they card a pair of graded races on Sunday starting with the GIII Trillium S. for 3-year-old fillies and up over the Tapeta, which has Souper Hoity Toity (Uncle Mo) as the 2-1 morning-line leader. The $550,000 OBSMAR purchase won the GIII Belle Mahone S. by a neck and the Mark Casse trainee will face many of the same competitors once again in this spot. Switching to the grass, the other graded event in Toronto is the GII Connaught Cup S., which includes veteran turf traveler Bound for Nowhere (The Factor). The 9-year-old will face the winner of the GII Highlander S., Lucky Score (Lookin At Lucky) and Churchtown (Air Force Blue), who just missed last time out in the Opening Verse S. at Churchill Downs.

Finally, the weekend graded action wraps up at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club with the annual renewal of the 12-furlong GIII Cougar II S. over the dirt. The class edge goes to Kiss Today Goodbye (Cairo Prince), who ran third May 29 in the Gold Cup at Santa Anita and Azul Coast (Super Saver) who hasn't been seen since he ran second last November at Del Mar in the GIII Native Diver S. Bye Bye Bobby (Quality Road), an $870,000 KEESEP buy, ships in from New Mexico.

NYRA TO HOST FUNDRAISER ON PDJF AWARENESS DAY

On Saturday, July 29, the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) will pay tribute to the jockey colony at Saratoga Race Course while also raising funds for their cause with the launch and sale of jockey trading cards on Permanently Disabled Jockeys' Fund (PDJF) Awareness Day, the organization said in a release Saturday.

Nest | Sarah Andrew

In recognition of the non-profit organization's fundraising awareness day, which is observed annually at race tracks across the U.S., fans will be given the opportunity to purchase a pack of five jockey trading cards for $5, with a limit of three packs per person. Similar in design to baseball trading cards, the limited-edition cards will feature 20 of Saratoga's active and most popular jockeys.

Many of the jockeys represented on the trading cards will be available from 11:30 a.m.

ET to 12:30 p.m. ET for an autograph signing on the Jockey Silks Porch. Suggested donations are encouraged to support the PDJF.

"Saturday, July 29 is Permanently Disabled Jockeys' Fund Day across America and a day we also recognize The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a critical piece of legislation for all Americans with disabilities," said PDJF Board President Nancy LaSala. "On this day, the PDJF invites all race tracks conducting horse racing contests to coordinate with their local jockey colony to hold fundraisers and create awareness about how important this day is. We are grateful to NYRA for creating this collector series of trading cards and making them available to fans for a modest donation to the PDJF."

There are 4,500 total packs available for purchase with all proceeds to be donated to the PDJF. Representatives from PDJF will be on site collecting donations and selling the jockey trading card sets inside Gate A near the Taste NY Pavilion beginning at 11 a.m. until supplies last.

SO NOTED: PLETCHER, REPOLE TEAM UP FOR SARATOGA MAIDEN WIN ON GRASS

Noted | Susie Raisher

by Bill Finley and Stefanie Grimm

Mike Repole has had dozens of top horses and has won a slew of 2-year-old maiden races in Saratoga over the many years he's been a force in the ownership ranks. But, usually, Repole's strength is with young dirt horses. It might be time to rethink that.

Repole is the co-owner of what is arguably the top grass horse in the sport in the 4-year-old Up to the Mark (Not This Time), the winner of this year's GI Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs and the GI Manhattan S. at Belmont. And now he's got another one that could some day follow in his footsteps.

The team of Repole, Todd Pletcher and jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. teamed up to win Saturday's first race at Saratoga, a mile-and-a-sixteenth maiden special weight race on the grass with a $136,500 purse with 3-5 favorite Noted (Cairo Prince). A $200,000 Keeneland September purchase, it was his second career start after he finished second in his debut in a five-furlong turf maiden at Belmont. Clearly relishing the stretch out in distance, Noted stalked the pace set by Fortune Seller (Kitten's Joy) before grabbing the lead at the top of the stretch. Noted edged clear of Fortune Seller at the sixteenth pole and then had to hold off a bid from Spirit Prince (Cairo Prince), who was making his debut for trainer Christophe Clement. Sons of Cairo Prince finished one-two.

"We entered him in a dirt race that didn't fill, so we opted to try the turf," Pletcher said. "He had enough pedigree to suggest he would take to the turf."

"I was happy with the win," Repole said. "He needed more ground after his first start. He was training well on the dirt but we decided to try him on the turf early on. I think it's paying dividends."

Bred by Brereton C. Jones, Noted is out of Sea View Millie (Proud Citizen) and was the dam's first winner.

Pletcher said the GIII With Anticipation S. on Aug. 31 would be next for Noted.

Pletcher has still another top turf horse in his barn in the 3-year-old Far Bridge (English Channel), who is owned by LSU Stables. Far Bridge is coming off a win in the GI Belmont Derby Invitational S.

Out of a full-sister to MGSW Mark Valeski and a half to GSW & GI Haskell Invitational S. runner up Albano (Istan), Noted has a yearling half-sister by Global Campaign while his dam reported a filly by Upstart this spring.

VALENTINE CANDY FLASHES IMPRESSIVE SPEED TO WIN LOADED SARATOGA MAIDEN

by Bill Finley & Patrycja Szpyra

On paper, Saturday's seventh race at Saratoga looked wide open and loaded with talent. All the major players had horses in the race, Wayne Lukas, Chad Brown, Steve Asmussen, Brad Cox, Bill Mott and Todd Pletcher, who had two starters in the six-furlong maiden special weight event. The race figured to be fought all the way to the wire.

Instead it was the Asmussen horse, Valentine Candy (Justify), who ran them off their feet right out of the gate. Sent off at 5-2 and ridden by Ricardo Santana, Jr., he exploded off the blocks and was three lengths in front in what announcer Frank Mirahmadi called "the blink of an eye."

The fractions were :22.10 and :45.94, but Valentine Candy was still cruising on the lead as the field turned into the stretch. The Todd Pletcher-trained Protective (Medaglia d'Oro) made a solid late bid to cut into the winning margin, but it was a case of too little too late.

Cont.

Valentine Candy (rail) | Coglianese

The final time for the six furlongs run over a fast track was 1:11.74 and Valentine Candy won by three-quarters of a length.

"I had a good talk with Steve two days ago," Santana said. "He said he really liked this horse. When the gate opened, he broke so fast. Then I just sat chilly with him. When turning for home, I asked him and he gave me a good kick. I have a lot of respect for Steve. Basically, he and his family are part of my family. Thanks to him, I am Ricardo Santana."

Valentine Candy is owned by Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt in partnership with Jackpot Farm, Whispering Oaks Farm, and Keith and Ginger Myers. He was purchased for $250,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling Sale.

"I love 2-year-olds and I loved the way he ran," said Bill Heiligbrodt. "He ran like a Heiligbrodt, Asmussen, Santana horse, especially with the way he broke out of the gate. This is a really nice horse."

"This was very exciting and we are excited about his career. We thought he would win and he did," said Corrine Heiligbrodt.

Valentine Candy's dam is Taste Like Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}), who won the GI Hollywood Starlet S. in 2013. The 2-year-old was bred by Pine Creek LP. He is her first to race in the States behind lone elder half-brother King Happy (Street Sense), who campaigned in Europe. The mare most recently had a 2023 Mitole colt and hails from the extended female family of GSW Wonderwhereraigis (Munnings); MGISW Affirmed Success (Affirmed); GISW & G1SP Exbourne (Explodent); and GISW Expelled (Explodent).

The Heiligbrodts, Asmussen and Santana have gone down this road before with a quick, classy horse. After he broke his maiden in his third start at Oaklawn, the same connections went on quite the roll with Mitole (Eskendereya), a four-time Grade I winner who wrapped up the 2019 sprint championship with a win in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Daily Grind (Medaglia d'Oro), a $1.35 million Fasig-Tipton August purchase finished eighth for trainer Wayne Lukas and BC Stables LLC.

SUMMER BREEZES

by Alan Carasso

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Sunday at Saratoga and Ellis and Del Mar:

Veteran campaigner Front Run the Fed was no match for the likes of Breeders' Cup champion Caravel (Mizzen Mast) last out in the GI Jaipur S. at Belmont Park in early June, but found the return to listed company to seek a repeat win in this race to his liking, earning a neck victory in an impressive last-to-first performance. He was content to anchor the field in the early going as Yes I Am Free (Uncaptured) showed the way, blistering through splits of :21.70 and :43.89 for the first half-mile. As the leader rounded the bend, the eventual winner found a wall of horses at the head of the lane, waited for an opening in mid-stretch, darted through a hole between rivals and surged late to earn the victory at odds of 3-1. The 7-year-old, who also won Saratoga's Better Talk Now S. in 2019, is the first and most successful foal from his winning dam, who also produced the 3-year-old placed Presider (Connect), unraced 2-year-old Pursuit of Freedom (Speightstown), an unnamed yearling colt by English Channel. She was bred last year to Mendelssohn. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

UNDERVALUED ASSET (f, 3, Speightstown--Hard Headed Temper, by Hard Spun) broke her maiden on debut last November at Aqueduct before running second in the GIII Forward Gal S. and then a well-beaten seventh in the GII Davona

Dale S., both at Gulfstream Park. Last seen dropping down into optional claiming company when she was the runner-up May 5 at Churchill Downs, the bay filly showed up here after a break as the 6-5 race time favorite. Chasing a pair of pacesetters up the backstretch, the Chad Brown trainee bided her time, took aim at the leaders around the far turn and, shifting into high gear at the eighth pole, was urged along to win by 3/4 length over the late-running Cupid's Heart (Cupid), who was up for second. Out of an extended female family which includes GISW Rosalind (Broken Vow), the winner's unraced dam is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly named Miss McGill (Mitole), who was purchased by Greg Foley for $50,000 at the '22 Fasig-Tipton October Yearling sale. ACCRETIVE (g, 4, Practical Joke--Mallory Street {SP, $111,837}, by Street Sense) was a stylish 5 3/4-length winner on unveiling at Belmont last season before running a neck short of victory in this venue's GII Amsterdam to Gunite (Gun Runner) in July. On the sidelines since finishing fifth in the GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S., he made his seasonal bow a productive one as the 4-5 favorite here. Tracking the pacesetters from third down the backstretch, he engaged Bourbon Bash (City of Light) from four wide on the turn and was called on for more while splitting runners in upper stretch. Horns locked into the final furlong, he finally shook clear under strong right-hand urging to push his advantage to 3 3/4 lengths on the wire. The win was jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr.'s fifth on the day. Bourbon Bash held on for second. Accretive has a 2-year-old half-sister Amor Fati (Liam's Map). Their dam aborted her 2022 Practical Joke and has no cover on record for 2023. TAKING CANDY (c, 3, Twirling Candy--Taking Aim, by Trappe Shot) graduated at second asking in his 3-year-old debut at Churchill Downs May 21 but was beaten as the favorite by two lengths in fifth in his first try against winners at Ellis June 24. Dismissed off that effort at 12-1 Saturday, the $400,000 OBS

March grad was quick into stride after brushing the gate to be a well-positioned third up the backstretch. Asked for a run while caught outside at the top of the lane, Taking Candy built a narrow advantage, was headed close to home by Scramble (Gleneagles {Ire}), and managed to get the best of the bob to take the win by a nose. Taking Aim, herself a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Tapizar (Tapit), last foaled a Speightstown filly last year and visited Jackie's Warrior for next spring. Off here at 4-1, the bay colt tracked a longshot from second up the backstretch. Getting in gear to the outside rounding the far turn, the John Shirreffs trainee poked his head in front, entered the lane under a full head of steam and ran on nicely to win by 4 1/4 lengths over Tahoe Sunrise (American Pharoah). RUBY NELL (f, 3, Bolt d'Oro--Rich Love, by Not For Love) broke her maiden at fourth asking May 20 at Santa Anita after finishing in the money in all of her prior races at The Great Race Place. On the turf once again in this spot as the 7-2 shot, the bay filly claimed the lead from the start, modulated the pace up front and entering the lane, she increased her margin on the field by 2 1/4 lengths over Mrs. Astor (Lookin At Lucky). OLGA ISABEL (f, 4, Tiznow--Miss Patricia, by Indian Charlie) hit the board three times in a protracted season in 2022, disqualified once from a victory to second in an Oct. 7 Keeneland allowance, and changed barns from Gustavo Delgado to Brad Cox during her layoff. Making her seasonal bow here and enthusiastically supported at the windows when even the morning line had her at even-money, Olga Isabel caught a flier and the races was over from there. Setting all the fractions, she steadily drew away from her competition to the tune of 7 1/4 lengths on the wire as Claiborne's Pigalle (Blame) managed to pick up a distant second. A half-sister to SP Sugar Queen (Gemologist), who delivered a 2023 filly by Authentic and has a 2022 Gun Runner yearling filly, Olga Isabel has an unplaced 3-year-old half-brother Top d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) as well as a yearling half-sister by Authentic. Off here at 15-1, the bay filly was at the back of the field heading into the first turn and up the backstretch. Given a 5-2 shot to pair up that effort Saturday, he was sent straight to the lead under jockey Joel Rosario with pressure from the post-time favorite Subrogate (Arrogate) to his outside. Through the far turn, Army Times held a narrow advantage and as Subrogate began to fade into the lane, he responded well to a shake of the reins, opening up to the wire to win under confident handling by 6 1/4 lengths. El Hermano (El Padrino) did well to close for second at odds of 27-1. Paid Up Subscriber, herself a successful race mare, is a half to GSP Chasing Time (Not This Time). PUTT FOR DOUGH (f, 2, Nyquist--Almost Guilty, by Distorted Humor) turned in an impressive debut performance to win by a half-length over a field of nine other state-bred juvenile fillies. After the break, she found a comfortable spot well off the pacesetting duo of Bella Vienna (Smiling Tiger) and Borntostaythirsty (Stay Thirsty) and rated while traveling off the rail. As the early leaders rounded the bend, the bay filly was fanned out six-wide into the stretch, rallied gamely under a vigorous ride and a couple of taps from the right-handed stick, and made it to the wire in time to snatch the win over a hard-trying Raising Silver (Nyquist). Favored here to graduate third time out, she was hustled to the lead to set the pace from the rail through a :22.49 opening quarter. Heartstruck (Nyquist) poised a challenge at the head of the lane but Driana was ready and repelled that rival to maintain the lead through the wire, winning by 1 1/4 lengths. SAVETHELASTDANCE LEAVES IT LATE IN THE IRISH OAKS

by Tom Frary

It was a case of save it until the last minute as Savethelastdance (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Daddys Lil Darling, by Scat Daddy) left hearts in mouths en route to delivering Aidan O'Brien a record seventh G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks at a rain-soaked Curragh on Saturday.

Failing to match her 22-length Listed Cheshire Oaks success when second in the G1 Oaks in June, the 10-11 favourite enjoyed the perfect trip until the straight and looked flat-footed and beaten as the sponsors' TDN Rising Star Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) swooped on the Ballydoyle pace-setter Library (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) approaching the furlong pole.

Rescuing a seemingly hopeless cause with Ryan Moore conjuring the surge that had taken her into clear daylight at Chester, she reeled in that pair inside the last 50 metres for an ultimately cosy half-length success. Bluestocking forged 1 3/4 lengths clear of the 80-1 outsider Library, who showed again what an advantage it is to be on the front end at this track.

"It's been a long time since she ran and we were treating this as her first run back for an autumn campaign," O'Brien said. "Ryan gave her a brilliant ride. When she was in a little bit of trouble, he kept her coming forward without panicking and got her out then re-motivated her." Cont. p3

KAIRYU PREVAILS IN THE ANGLESEY

by Sean Cronin

Michael O'Callaghan trainee Kairyu (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}--Vegatina {GB}, by Lope De Vega {Ire}) was the clear-cut winner of a five-furlong Naas maiden last month and franked the promise of that debut score with an upset win upped in trip for Saturday's G3 Jebel Ali Racecourse And Stables Anglesey S. at the Curragh.

Kairyu employed patient tactics from flagfall and lobbed along off the pace in sixth through the early fractions. Making smooth headway once past halfway, the 4-1 chance quickened beyond rivals to seize control approaching the final furlong and was driven out in the closing stages to hold the late threat of 10-11 favourite Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never) by 1 1/4 lengths.

"She looks very smart, Colin [Keane] said she doesn't want that [soft] ground and she was just good and tough," said trainer Michael O'Callaghan. Cont. p7

He added, "She's a big relaxed mare and obviously the ground was way different than what she ran on the last time. It's a very difficult thing to motivate a horse on that type of ground, but she did answer for him."

Savethelastdance had offered only a slight glimpse of her inherent piledriver finish when fifth over a mile at Thurles in October, but must have shown the right stuff at home to suggest she should be lining up for the 10-furlong Leopardstown maiden in early April that the stable have used for their Oaks aspirants in recent years. Belying odds of 20-1 there, she saw off all threats from the front to book her place in the Cheshire Oaks and with the perfect easy ground and race set-up there killed substandard opposition to become one of the shortest-priced favourites at Epsom in recent years.

On this evidence, her subsequent defeat by Soul Sister (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) on a surface riding on the fast side there makes sense as she clearly needs a distance of ground and is one of the stouter winners of this for some time. After tracking the front duo looking comfortable, she was under the pump turning for home and had received three smacks with Moore's whip by the time she reached the two pole.

Bluestocking got at least two lengths on her there and it looked all over bar the shouting, but then came the rampant closing sectionals which had so astounded at Chester but which, for whatever reason, are still not available in 2023 from Irish racing. That is a shame, as even visually it was clear that Savethelastdance had stormed through the final furlong in impressive fashion to not only catch the Juddmonte filly but beat her all ends up at the line.

"Obviously we know she stays very well and I'd say she's going to sharpen up a good bit from today," O'Brien added. "You can bounce her out as forward as you want and I'd say she will find plenty and save plenty. She's a massive big masculine filly, she's unusual as she's a filly but she has a pair of horns on her head which is very unusual for a filly. She has a big, strong backside on her and a typical Galileo--when all the others are down on their knees that's when they kick in. She could go on to York for the fillies' race [the G1 Yorkshire Oaks], she could go to the Leger and the Arc on soft or heavy ground--all those races are open to her. It's very possible she will stay in training next year."

Of Library, he added, "She ran over a mile-and-six last time and ran better than anyone thought, she was just getting into gear off the bend when her rhythm got broken and was probably better than her run. She's a very well-bred filly as well and another Galileo. Gavin [Ryan] gave her a lovely ride. Seamie [Heffernan] said Warm Heart wasn't acting on the ground from the time he jumped off and ground is probably the key to her."

Pedigree Notes

Savethelastdance is the first foal out of the GI American Oaks and GII Pocahontas S. heroine Daddys Lil Darling, a $3.5million purchase by MV Magnier at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale. Also runner-up in the GI Kentucky Oaks, GI Ashland S., GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup and GI Alcibiades S. as well as bolting to the start of the 2017 Oaks as Olivier Peslier ejected, she is a half-sister to the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and GIII Woodford S. winner Mongolian Saturday (Any Given Saturday), to the Luther Burbank H. scorer Victoryascret (Victory Gallop) and to the dam of the GII Saratoga Special S.-placed Momos (Distorted Humor). A daughter of the stakes winner and GII San Clemente H. runner-up Miss Hot Salsa (Houston), Daddys Lil Darling's 2-year-old full-brother to Savethelastdance named Mr Hampstead was bought by Robson Aguiar for Amo Racing for $575,000 at the Keeneland September Sale. She also has a filly foal by Into Mischief and has been bred to Gun Runner.

EMILY DICKINSON DOMINANT IN THE CURRAGH CUP by Tom Frary

Making it another big day in Kildare for Ballydoyle, Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) brought up a treble for O'Brien and Moore with an authoritative display back on easy ground in the G2 Comer Group International Curragh Cup on Saturday.

Fourth on unsuitably quick turf in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot last month, the G3 Loughbrown S. and Listed Vintage Crop S. winner had it all falling into place after the rain and was able to wait patiently in mid-division early.

Surrendering first run to market-rival Rosscarbery (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) at the top of the straight, the 6-4 favourite was under a ride as that rival's jockey Billy Lee took a look around to check their progress two out. While he would have been happy enough there, he wasn't as the dark blue Magnier silks loomed at his side less than a furlong later and Emily Dickinson had soon overhauled the Twomey runner before staying on powerfully to win by three lengths.

"I was a bit worried that she was a couple of pieces of work short, but she loves that ground and grows another leg on it," O'Brien said. "She loves being ridden like that, is very genuine and tries very hard. Ryan gave her a peach, he filled her with confidence. He said going to the start he knew she was different, obviously she loves that ease in the ground. She would run every day on fast ground and come out of it perfect--she could go to Goodwood, but after today we know that ground is important to her. If there is no ease in the ground at Goodwood she won't run and we'll keep her for the autumn."

Pedigree Notes

Impeccably-bred, Emily Dickinson is the best of three foals of racing age out of the high-class Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), whose finest hour came when winning the G1 Irish Oaks on this card. Her first was the G3 Silver Flash S.-placed Secret Thoughts (War Front), while her second was the G1 American Oaks runner-up Nicest (Ire) (American Pharoah) who was also third behind Snowfall (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the 2021 Irish Oaks. The second dam is the listed-winning Prudenzia (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), dam of the stable's prolific top-level performer Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who got her win at that level in the MacKinnon S.

Prudenzia, who also supplied Dubawi's G3 Prix Penelope winner and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Philomene (Ire) and the group-placed Enemy (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) and Je Ne Regretterien (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), is kin to the G3 Prix de Lutece winner Pacifique (Ire) who shares Montjeu as a sire with Chicquita and is in turn the dam of another Lutece scorer in Paix (Ire) also by Muhaarar and the G2 Prix Greffulhe-placed Sir Bob Parker (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). This is also the family of the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial winner English King (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) and the G1 Oaks, Irish Oaks and Yorkshire Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Chicquita's as-yet unraced 3-year-old full-sister to Emily Dickinson is named Beware (Ire), while her 2-year-old filly also by Dubawi is named Magical World (Ire). She also has a colt foal by Wootton Bassett (GB).

ART POWER GOES 4-FOR-4 AT THE CURRAGH by Sean Cronin

King Power Racing's Art Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}--Evening Time {Ire}, by Keltos {Fr}), fresh off a fourth in last week's G1 July Cup, lined up for Saturday's G2 Barberstown Castle Sapphire S. with a perfect three-for-three record at the Curragh and extended his unbeaten record at the Co. Kildare venue with a commanding display.

The dual G3 Renaissance S. victor, whose unblemished record in Ireland includes a G3 Lacken S. win at Naas, was swiftly into stride and raced in a close up second through the early stages. Easing to the front at halfway, the 6-5 favourite was untroubled thereafter and lengthened clear in style once shaken up with 200 yards remaining to easily outclass Go Athletico (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) by an impressive 4 1/4 lengths.

"He's been awesome and he loves coming to Ireland for some reason, nobody knows why, but he seems to come to life here," said rider David Allan. Cont. p7

He added, "We thought bringing him back to five [furlongs] might be an issue, but I've always been confident five is going to be okay for him, especially if the ground is soft. It went right up his street today and it all worked out perfect. You don't have to do anything fancy on him, you can just bounce out and let him run his race. He's run well in some Group 1s in England, but he's just not got to it yet. I think if he gets proper soft ground it might just happen one day."

Pedigree Notes

Art Power, one of his sire's 55 pattern-race winners, is one of three stakes winners out of the Listed Sweet Mimosa S. victrix and G3 Phoenix Sprint S. runner-up Evening Time (Ire) (Keltos {Fr}), herself kin to multiple stakes-winning G3 Prix du Bois third Distinctly Dancer (Ire) (Distinctly North). Evening Time is also responsible for G3 Ballyogan S. winner Penny Pepper (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), Listed Prix Ronde de Nuit victrix Morning Frost (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) and the stakes-placed Shaan (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). Descendants of the May-foaled grey's second dam Shadow Casting (GB) (Warning {GB}) include dual Italian Group 3 winner Titus Shadow (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}) and G3 Premio Primi Passi scorer Orpen Shadow (Ire) (Orpen). Art Power is a full-brother to the unraced 2-year-old colt Symetric Power (Ire).

He added, "The gaps appeared a little bit before Colin wanted them, but she has a savage turn of foot where she can go and put a race to bed. She relaxes so well that she'll probably get seven furlongs in time. I was thinking about going to the [G2] Duchess Of Cambridge at Newmarket last week, but I wasn't happy with her work so we waited another week.

"Colin thinks she'll be better on better ground and she'll probably go for something like the [G2] Lowther [at York] now. She's still a little bit high behind and she's going to grow plenty, so she could potentially be a very nice filly."

Pedigree Notes

Kairyu becomes the fourth pattern-race winner for her sire (by Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and is the only reported foal produced by Vegetina (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), herself a granddaughter of Listed Prix Isola Bella third Vassiana (Fr) (Anabaa). Vassiana is the dam of G3 Phoenix Sprint S. victrix Girouette (Ire) (Pivital {GB}), herself the second dam of G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S.-winning sire Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never). Vassiana, who is also a full-sister to G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Villadolide (Fr) and Listed Prix Hampton scorer Victorieux (Fr), is from the immediate family of G1 Prix de Diane heroine Mrs. Penny (Great Nephew {GB}).

COMMANCHE FALLS POUNCES FOR HACKWOOD SUCCESS by Sean Cronin

Michael Dods incumbent Commanche Falls (GB) (Lethal Force {Ire}--Joyeaux {GB}, by Mark Of Esteem {Ire}) added to his litany of handicap wins, which includes a brace of Stewards' Cups, with a black-type breakthrough in this month's Listed Curragh Dash and continued his rise through the ranks with a last-gasp success in Saturday's G3 bet365 Hackwood S. at Newbury.

This term's G3 Abernant S. and G2 Duke of York S. placegetter sought cover from the break and tracked the leaders in fourth through the early stages. Bustled along passing the halfway mark, the 4-1 favourite was under continued rousting thereafter and kept on relentlessly to challenge between rivals in the dying strides en route to a head verdict in a bunch finish.

"He is obviously improving and getting better and stronger as he gets older," said winning rider Connor Beasley. "He is a horse that races behind the bridle, but today I just felt like I wasn't getting any sort of momentum. There wasn't much room from where I was and I just had to switch him and make him think again. Once I did that, he really put his neck down and he did it nicely in the end. The team and these owners have been very supportive of my career, so I can't thank them enough."

Pedigree Notes

Commanche Falls is one of four winners from five foals out of a multiple-winning half to G1 Premio Lydia Tesio victrix Aoife Alaiinn (Ire) (Dr Fong) and the stakes-winning Adorable Fong (GB) (Dr Fong). He is a half-brother to G3 Bengough S. victor Dakota Gold (GB) (Equiano {Fr}). SON OF MINDING A NEW RISING STAR IN IRELAND

by Sean Cronin

Aidan O'Brien had annexed six of the last 10 renewals of the Curragh's Juddmonte Irish EBF Maiden, among them 2013 winner Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), and he claimed Saturday's latest edition with Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who collected a 'TDN Rising Star' rosette with a taking performance in the seven-furlong test.

The eventual winner was steadily away and raced in a close-up third initially and eased into second approaching halfway. Hitting the front soon after passing the quarter-mile marker, the well-backed 5-4 favourite was never seriously threatened thereafter and kept on powerfully under mild coaxing inside the final furlong to easily outpoint G2 Railway S. fifth Mythology (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) by 1 3/4 lengths. He becomes the 39th Rising Star for his sire (by Dubai Millennium {GB}).

"He's an exciting type of horse and I'm delighted with him," the winning trainer said. "He's a Dubawi out of Minding and he looks a lovely horse. Minding handled that [soft] ground and he does bend his knee a bit, but he quickens. Ryan [Moore] said it was very easy, he didn't touch him with the stick and was very happy with him. He had been working well and he just came on the scene lately. For the last three weeks, week after week, he was working well."

Henry Longfellow is the second of four foals and first runner produced by seven-time Group 1 heroine Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a full-sister to G1 Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf victrix Tuesday (Ire), G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Empress Josephine (Ire) and G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial winner Kissed By Angels (Ire). The January-foaled bay is full to a yearling filly and half to a weanling filly by Wootton Bassett (GB). Minding, herself a daughter of G1 Coronation S. and G1 Matron S. winner Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), was bred to Gun Runner this year.

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

DAUGHTER OF CLEMMIE DEBUTS AT THE CURRAGH

14.00 Curragh, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, f, 7ft

MAYFAIR (IRE) (Justify) debuts for Ballydoyle in the maiden won two years ago by the stable's star Snowfall (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and carries obvious gravitas as the second foal out of the G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). That full-sister to Churchill (Ire) already has a black-type performer after Mayfair's full-sister Unless finished runner-up in this week's Listed Cairn Rouge S. and it is significant that Ryan Moore has opted for her over the stable's fellow newcomer Grateful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). A daughter of the ground-breaking six-times top-level heroine Tepin (Bernstein), who was an $8-million purchase by M V Magnier at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale, she provides a formidable back-up for Rosegreen in this intriguing card opener.

HOW THEY FARED

13.30 Curragh, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, c/g, 7ft

Aidan O'Brien trainee Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a son of MG1SW distaffer Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), attained 'TDN Rising Star' status with an impressed debut triumph.

15.35 Newbury, Cond, £250,000, 2yo, 5f 34yT

Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up, was the clear form pick on paper for this Weatherbys Super Sprint S. and proved it on the track too with a performance that suggests she can have a go at the top level.

Impressive on her Doncaster debut almost a year ago to the day, Novakai had failed to land a blow on her Classic date when down the field in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly last month but cut an entirely different figure dropped in class here. Also runner-up in the G1 Fillies' Mile and G2 May Hill S. last term and in the G3 Musidora S. on her 3-year-old bow, the homebred tanked through the early stages of this contest restrained behind the leading group. In front two out, she stretched clear for an emphatic success in the rain-eased conditions to suggest she can go back to the top table very soon.

"She loved that step up in trip and I think we can go back up to group class again now," trainer Karl Burke said. "Early on in the year, Sheikh Obaid was keen for her to try a mile and a quarter and target the Prix de Diane. I'm not sure it was the distance why she ran so poorly, but she wasn't on song and it could have been down to the travelling. She is a little bit quirky, but her temperament is lovely."

"After that Sheikh Obaid gave me free range with her, so I decided to step her up in trip," he added. "She is out of a stout staying mare and she was always going to improve going up in trip and she has proved that today. She is in the Yorkshire Oaks and whether that is too big of a jump I'm not sure, but we will get her home and have a chat with Sheikh Obaid. I'm hoping I can persuade him to leave her in training next year, as she will only improve and there are some nice staying races for fillies like her."

Novakai is the first foal out of the 14-furlong winner Elasia (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), a half to the Listed Ballymacoll Stud S. winner and G2 Prix de Malleret-placed Elasia Ruby (GB) (Raven's Pass) and the listed-placed Espresso (GB) (Dark Anhel {Ire}). A granddaughter of the G3 Lancashire Oaks winner and multiple Group 1 and Grade I-placed Ela Athena (GB) (Ezzoud {Ire}), her unraced 2-year-old filly by Dubawi {Ire} is named Dubawi Dream (GB) while she also has a filly foal by Postponed (Ire).

Employing patient tactics with just one of five opponents in arrears for the most part, he was last off the bridle in the straight and was ridden out inside the final furlong to assert superiority with something to spare.

“He was good today, but it has been a battle with him, both mentally and physically,” said trainer William Haggas. “He is not straightforward and has had a couple of injuries, but he’s coming. He will now go for the [Aug. 12 G3] Rose of Lancaster at Haydock.”

Al Aasy, who also ran second in the 2021 G1 Coronation Cup, is the first of six foals out of a winning half-sister to dual stakes scorer and G2 Prix Noailles runner-up Kapour (Ire) (Toylsome {GB}). His dual stakes-winning second dam Kitcat (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), who also ran second in the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani, is a full-sister to G3 Prix Minerve victrix Kalla (GB) and G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit winner and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Karavel (Ger). Kitcat is also a half-sister to G1 Gran Criterium-winning sire Konigstiger (Ger) (Tger Hill {Ire}). Al Aasy is a full-brother to Listed Pretty Polly S. second Sea Karats (Ire), the unraced 2-year-old colt Alin The Stars (Ire) and a weanling colt. VIDEO.

RELIEF RALLY (IRE) (f, 2, Kodiak {GB}--Kathoe {Ire}, by Fayruz {GB}), sent off the even-money favourite for this ever-competitive Weatherbys Super Sprint S. which can prove a banana skin for class acts like her, followed the pace stand’s side from the outset. Surging to the front 150 metres from the finish, the G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up swamped the far-side leader Dapperling (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) en route to a three-length success. “She was in front before the line and after the line, but not on the line at Ascot,” trainer William Haggas said. “I think the Abbaye, but who knows? I think the French race is such a draw race. If you get a low draw, it is such an advantage, whereas in the Nunthorpe you can win from anywhere. If our luck is in at that time of the year, we will get a low draw. We will see.” The winner is a full-sister to the G3 Chipchase S. winner Koropick (Ire) and the last known foal out of the unraced dam whose family includes the G1 Cheveley Park S.-winning champion Woodstream (Northern Dancer) and the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 Sussex S.-winning sire Jaazeiro. SWEET MEMORIES (IRE) (f, 3, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Time Control {GB}, by Sadler's Wells), a half-sister to the G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor), was a promising fourth on debut over an extended nine furlongs on Wolverhampton's Tapeta on her sole start in December and led narrowly from Red Danielle \(GB\) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) throughout the early stages. Only really getting the better of that rival in the last half a furlong, the 5-2 favourite prevailed by half a length on Frankie Dettori's return ride from his lengthy suspension. The aforementioned Cursory Glance, who is in turn responsible for the listed winners Voodoo Queen \(GB\) (Frankel {GB}) and Tinker Toy \(GB\) (War Front), is also a half to the dam of the G1 Turf Classic hero Digital Age \(Ire\) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the G3 Prix la Rochette scorer Acer Alley \(GB\) (Siyouni {Fr}). Time Control, who also has a yearling filly by Make Believe \(GB\) named Fantasy Time \(Ire\), is a full-sister to the G2 Prix de Malleret winner Time On \(GB\) who produced Distorted Humor's G3 Oh So Sharp S. winner Mot Juste. SKETCH (IRE) (c, 2, Showcasing {GB}--Scintilating {GB}, by Siyouni {Fr}) broke smartly and led from flagfall in this debut. Holding sway throughout, the 15-2 chance was shaken up passing the quarter-mile marker and lengthened clear under urging inside the final furlong to easily account for Government Call (Ire) (Soldier's Call {GB}) by an impressive five lengths. "He had been going nicely at home and what surprised me was how quickly he got going and put the race to bed," said rider Tom Marquand. "For his first time, he was extremely professional and did everything right." Trainer Freddie Meade added, "We will push him up in class and the [G2] Richmond [at Goodwood] is the obvious choice, but whether that comes a bit quick I don't know. We will look at stakes races and see what suits." Sketch is the the first of two foals produced by a half-sister to G2 Richmond S. victor Prolific \(Ire\) (Compton Place {GB}) and the stakes-winning Deal Breaker \(GB\) (Night Shift). JAMES'S DELIGHT (IRE) (c, 2, Invincible Army {Ire}--Heavens Peak {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}), a 12-1 shot on this debut, was forced to race on the wing halfway down the field from the widest draw. Needing until the last 50 yards of the trip to get to Mister Sketch \(GB\) (Territories {Ire}), the fifth winner for his first-crop sire had a neck margin to spare at the line. The dam, a daughter of the G2 Prix de Sandringham-placed Lurina \(Ire\) (Lure), is also kin to the G2 Great Voltigeur S. scorer Centennial \(Ire\) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and the Listed Salsabil S. winner Siren's Song \(Ire\) (Azamour {Ire}). CAROLINA REAPER (GB) (f, 2, Too Darn Hot {GB}--Dark Promise {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Shamardal), a last-out sixth in Royal Ascot's Listed Chesham S., was swiftly into stride and led from the outset of this one. Shaken up with a quarter-mile remaining, the 7-4 favourite was comfortably clear entering the final furlong and extended her winning margin under urging on the climb to easily defeat Ambiente Amigo \(GB\) (Postponed {Ire}) by 4 1/2 lengths. "It was then a great run in the Chesham and she has learned from that," said assistant trainer Jock Bennett. "She got quite an easy lead, but she responded well and I like the way she really put it to bed. I would think the [Aug. 12 G3] Sweet Solera comes into the equation." Carolina Reaper is the seventh of nine foals and fourth scorer produced by Listed Rosemary S. victrix Dark Promise \(GB\) (Shamardal), herself a half-sister to four black-type performers headed by G1 Oaks heroine Love Divine \(GB\) (Diesis {GB}).
