

HOW WAS THIS COLT 12-1 IN THE HASKELL?

Geaux Rocket Ride and Mike Smith | Sarah Andrew

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

In hindsight, the victory by Geaux Rocket Ride in Saturday's GI Haskell S. was not at all difficult to predict. The real puzzler is how this top-tier Candy Ride (Arg) colt was let go at 12-1 in the betting.

A pari-mutuel post-mortem points to a "perfect storm" anchored by two factors:

The 2-for-2 'TDN Rising Star' Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo), the highly hyped sophomore from last winter, absorbed overzealous 11-10 favoritism despite not having raced in six months, with the Bob Baffert training factor (nine Haskell wins) contributing mightily to the colt's top-heavy price.

Monmouth Park's premier race also included the GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic). His status as a "headline horse," though, was tempered to 4.3-1 in the betting, largely because his connections had telegraphed for weeks in advance that the Haskell would be used as a stepping stone to the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. at Saratoga.

But beyond those two favorites, it's hard to imagine why three other horses received more wagering support in the Haskell than Geaux Rocket Ride, who up until early April had been one of the West Coast's top Triple Crown threats before a fever on the morning of the GI Santa Anita Derby knocked him out of contention for the Classics. Cont. p3

NEST STYLISH IN SHUVEE RETURN

Nest (Curlin), off since finishing fourth in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, was second in the betting to Clairiere (Curlin)--who already had a pair of Grade I victories to her credit this term--but it was the returning champion who sailed under the wire first in the GI Shuvee S. at Saratoga Sunday. Sent off at 4-5, Nest broke on top, but allowed Pistol Liz Ablazen (Daredevil) to take over and spurt to a clear lead on the first turn. That longshot took the field through fractions of :24.82 and :49.87 as Nest tracked from second, just ahead of 3-5 favorite Clairiere. Nest rolled up to challenge the pacesetter midway on the far turn and, getting the jump on Clairiere, scampered clear into the stretch. The favorite tried valiantly to run her down, but Nest was always finding more late for an easy score.

"More than worth the wait," winning co-owner Mike Repole said of the victory. "At the end of the day, you want a horse like this best for the last four races of the year, not the first four."

The Week in Review (cont. from p1)

Maybe you could figure on 'TDN Rising Star' Tapit Trice (Tapit), taking his share of the Haskell action at 4.8-1 off a third-place try in the GI Belmont S. Not so easy to fathom was the 4.9-1 support thrown to Salute the Stars (Candy Ride {Arg}) off his neck win over the track in the not-very-deep Pegasus S., or the 8-1 price on another 'TDN Rising Star,' Extra Anejo (Into Mischief), who entered the Haskell off an Ellis Park allowance romp over four foes.

Monmouth bettors must have also missed the memo on the decades-in-the-making training reputation of Hall-of-Famer Richard Mandella, who is known as a conditioner who doesn't ship horses cross-country for major races unless he believes he has an outsized chance of winning. Mandella had only started one previous colt in the Haskell, which was 23 years ago when he won the race with Dixie Union.

Jockey Mike Smith was in from Del Mar to pilot Geaux Rocket Ride for the first time, aiming for his fourth Haskell win. His last victory in that stakes was in 2020 aboard Authentic, who was 3-5 against a field of six and had secured an easy lead through tepid fractions. Home free by three lengths at the eighth pole, Authentic wilted badly in the final furlong before being reawakened by a desperate flurry of right-handed stick work from Smith to salvage a nose victory.

On Saturday, despite being aboard a 12-1 shot, Smith deftly rode Geaux Rocket Ride like the colt deserved to be odds-on. Next time out, he will be.

It's also conceivable that Geaux Rocket Ride could use the Haskell as a springboard to winning the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and being named Horse of the Year and/or champion 3-year-old colt, like Authentic did three years ago.

Geaux Rocket Ride, who started his career as a speed-centric sort but has adeptly transitioned into dangerous stalking colt, came out cleanly from the inside stall. Arabian Knight broke quicker from post eight, and it was evident right from the outset that Smith wanted no part of fighting for the lead. Arabian Knight hooked up with--and then backed off from--the 61-1 Awesome Strong (Awesome Slew), who cemented his status as a sacrificial pacemaker before the field hit the first turn.

Smith also wasn't too keen on getting bogged down on the rail. In two-turn dirt races, it's often his method of operation to try and get to the outside and establish trouble-free positioning before the field straightens away on the backstretch, even if it means giving up ground. He let Geaux Rocket Ride settle in about the four path through the turn, then was content to be parked six deep and about three lengths behind the five-wide Arabian Knight, whose jockey, John Velazquez, was also avoiding the inside fence like it was strung with barbed wire.

Arabian Knight was toying with Awesome Strong at that point, and Velazquez decided to seize the lead after an up-tempo opening quarter in :22.80 before slowing down the second and third fractions to :24.31 and :24.54.

The field started to bunch approaching the far turn, and while it's not fair to say that the triple-teaming of Awesome Strong, Salute the Stars, and the 37-1 Howgreatisnate (Speightster) were the cause of Arabian Knight's unraveling, they all contributed pesky, mid-race pace pressure at the same time Geaux Rocket Ride was winding up for a confrontation three-eighths from home.

Haskell winner's circle | Sarah Andrew

It took Geaux Rocket Ride a full furlong to crack a stubborn Arabian Knight at the quarter pole. But by that time, the Derby winner had them both within his striking sights and was cresting toward top momentum.

Looking like the horse to beat, Mage snatched the lead off the turn, but only for a brief instant. Geaux Rocket Ride needed only one left-handed crack of the crop to re-assert his presence, and while the small-but-scrappy Mage never quit, the two months off since his third-place try in the GI Preakness S. began to show.

Ridden out while extending his margin through the stretch with every stride, the lankier Geaux Rocket Ride strode home to win by 1 3/4 lengths through a final quarter timed in :25.42 and a last eighth clocked in :12 45.

The Pin Oak Stud colorbearer's winning time of 1:49.52 for nine furlongs translated to a 100 Beyer Speed Figure.

The Haskell yielded two key takeaways for the Travers: 1) Geaux Rocket Ride won't contest it. Not a surprise considering the conditioner--another cross country trip would be "pushing" it, as per Mandella, who was non-committal about the colt's next start; 2) Mage will be a tighter fighter in a month with a very useful runner-up try under his belt and an extra furlong to work with.

Geaux Rocket Ride got a late start this season with respect to the Triple Crown trail. He debuted with a 92 Beyer in 5 3/4-length six-furlong shellacking at Santa Anita Jan. 29, then earned a 96 when second and transitioning to two turns and against winners for the first time in the Mar. 4 GII San Felipe S.

Somewhat surprisingly, he was narrowly favored at 2.7-1 in that 1 1/16-miles stakes over the more experienced winner, Practical Move (Practical Joke). Despite not winning, Geaux Rocket Ride actually uncorked the more powerful performance, forcing a legit pace and finishing with purpose in one of the more impressive prep-race defeats on the 2023 Derby trail.

That positive glow was enough to vault Geaux Rocket Ride all the way to fourth in TDN's Derby Top 12 at the time. In the Mar 14 edition of those rankings, I wrote that such a "combination of raw, front-end torque matched with still-developing staying power is an attribute you don't see often in second-time-starters."

Because of the fever and missed start in the Santa Anita Derby, Geaux Rocket Ride didn't make start number three until the June 4 Affirmed S. at Santa Anita, which he won with a 90 Beyer after stalking three wide on both turns.

Seven weeks later, Mandella was in the Haskell winner's circle, telling FanDuel TV's Caton Bredar in his typically understated way how half a year ago, he wasn't quite sure what type of prospect he had.

"He didn't train exceptional going into his first race. He trained just good enough to give us hope. But when he left the gate the first time with his ears back and fight on his mind, you could just see [the talent] was there."

Asked how confident he was about his 12-1 shot's chances during the running of the Haskell, Mandella put it this way:

"Everything looked great, other than I looked at [Arabian Knight] on the far turn and the rider was sitting there with a heck of a hold. And I thought, 'Oh, boy, when he turns him loose...'

"But," Mandella said, his wry smile evident in his voice, "The Rocket turned it loose."

Repole continued, "She had a huge 3-year-old campaign. We wanted to get her back in June on Belmont day [in the GI Ogden Phipps], but Todd [Pletcher] just thought she needed a little bit more time. Going a mile and an eighth after eight, nine months off against a horse like Clairiere, that was real impressive. They could have gone around two more times, she wasn't going to be passed. Todd did an amazing job, give him credit. [Jockey] Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] is just Irad. No one better than him right now."

Pletcher was more than satisfied with last year's champion 3-year-old filly's return to the races.

"I'm super proud of the filly," he said. "She's all class and it's nice to see her come back and get back on track. We got a bit of a delayed start, but she showed she's still in top-class form."

He continued, "I have so much respect for Clairiere, and I know how good she is--she's one of those that the race is never over. You can feel like you have a two-length lead and she just keeps coming at you. I was watching her intently and knowing she was going to make a big run at her. Nest was able to quicken away from her and keep to task. Super effort beating an older mare like that, as accomplished as she is."

Nest, who won last year's GI Ashland S. and was second in the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Belmont S., is now three-for-three at Saratoga. She won last year's GI Coaching Club American Oaks and GI Alabama S. at the Spa before coasting to a 9 3/4-length victory in the Oct. 2 GII Beldame S. at Belmont Park.

Nest could put her unbeaten Saratoga record on the line in the Aug. 25 GI Personal Ensign S.

"We'd like to run back in the Personal Ensign, if we think that's enough time," Pletcher said. "The ultimate decision will be what we do for a prep for the Breeders' Cup [Distaff]. Do we go back to New York like we did last year or possibly the Spinster at Keeneland. Obviously, we have to suss out how she comes out of it. My initial assessment is she came back with pretty good energy."

Aron Wellman, CEO of co-owner Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, was looking forward to the challenge of doubling up at the Spa two years in a row with Nest.

“The Personal Ensign would be the logical spot,” Wellman said. “She certainly seems to like it here. It’s a tough combination. The Shuvee to the Personal Ensign and the CCA Oaks to the Alabama are two tough combinations. Not many fillies have done it. It’s hard no matter who you are. We had some good fillies win the CCA Oaks and not be able to win the Alabama, some good fillies win the Shuvee and not win the Personal Ensign. She’ll prove herself in a different class if she’s able to do it.”

The Shuvee gave Eclipse Thoroughbreds its second graded victory of the weekend, following Anisette (GB) (Awtaad {Ire})’s win in the GII San Clemente S. at Del Mar.

“Pretty special,” Wellman said of the double. “The main thing is keeping our partners happy and delivering the goods to them. They deserve it. If it’s not for them to put the money to buy these horses, there’s no Eclipse. Two really special fillies in a very short time span on two coasts. I’m just really humbled and in awe. At some point, you just really try to sit back and slow time down a bit so you can appreciate the greatness.”

ELYSIAN FIELD GIVES CASSE FOURTH

WOODBINE OAKS by Alan Carasso

Bet down from a 12-1 morning line to be off at less than half that quote, Team Valor International and Gary Barber's Elysian Field (Hard Spun) stamped her authority on Sunday's Woodbine Oaks--despite some wayward ways in the final eighth of a mile--to give trainer Mark Casse a fourth victory in the first leg of the Canadian Filly Triple Crown and first since Barber's Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay {Ire}) scored in 2014. In partnership with Michael Langlois, Barber also won Sunday's Plate Trial S. with Paramount Prince (Society's Chairman).

Elysian Field | Michael Burns

With the white-hot Sahin Civaci at the controls, Elysian Field broke without incident from her low draw and raced three back on the fence about midfield and six lengths off the lead as 125-1 Friends for Life (Silent Name {Jpn}) and Fashionably Fab (Silent Name {Jpn}) matched motors up front. Favored Ticker Tape Home (Medaglia d'Oro), impressive winner of the Fury S. June 10 and trying a synthetic route for the first time, found the perfect stalking spot from third. Content to bide his time inside and wait for the runs to come, Civaci slipped Elysian Field some rein as they raced around the turn and the duo loomed a threat as they advanced, but Ticker Tape Home had gone for home three wide at the five-sixteenths and dared them to catch her. But reel her in they did, as Elysian Field rolled up to wrest command about a furlong out, threw her ears in the air and got to playing a bit as if the job was done, but was across the line safely clear.

The final time was fractionally faster than that clocked by the colts in the Plate Trial one race earlier.

Dismissed at odds of 47-1 for her debut over the Saratoga turf last August for trainer Bruce Brown, Elysian Field flew home to be second and would have trained on following her private purchase, but for a health scare. Fifth, but placed eighth via DQ on the turf at Gulfstream Jan. 8, she filled the same spot going two turns on the synth in Hallandale Feb. 5. The chestnut graduated by 3 1/4 lengths in her first local try over 6 1/2 furlongs Apr. 30 and was four lengths adrift of Ticker Tape Home in second when last seen in the seven-furlong Fury.

"We bought her a month or two after her first start at Saratoga and we had her here for about two days and she went into the clinic for about a week, almost a little touch and go, colic," said Casse. "I think it took its toll and we brought her home and she's got bigger and stronger. She's beautiful."

Next up could be a date with the boys in the Aug. 20 King's Plate, a race won by Lexie Lou en route to Horse of the Year honors eight years ago.

"I want to talk to Barry Irwin from Team Valor, but she's a big, strong filly and I'm extremely happy how we get a month between the Oaks and the King's Plate, so that's important," said Casse. "Three weeks is tough, so now we get four weeks, and I don't see why she wouldn't."

Pedigree Notes:

Elysian Field is the 99th worldwide black-type winner for the highly reliable Hard Spun and her broodmare sire Smart Strike--whose daughters are now responsible for a remarkable 165 black-type winners around the world--needs little introduction, especially north of the border. Anderson Farms is also the breeder of Hard Spun's Grade I winner Hard Not to Love.

David Anderson's operation acquired Elysian Field's three-time winning dam for $100,000 in foal to Kantharos at the 2018 Keeneland January Sale and she produced three foals before being sold for $35,000 in foal to Collected at Keeneland November in 2021. The mare dropped a filly in 2022 and a filly by Union Rags this season, both in Kentucky.

Elysian Field's female family includes this year's GI Preakness S. hero National Treasure (Quality Road), SW Ultimate (Speightstown) and recent 'TDN Rising Star' Pirate (Omaha Beach).

MANDELLA MULLS OPTIONS FOR GEAUX ROCKET RIDE

Pin Oak Stud's Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) exited his victory in the GI TVG.com Haskell S. in good order, trainer Richard Mandella reported Sunday. The victory earned the lightly raced colt an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and Mandella said he has several routes to consider to get to that Nov. 4 race at Santa Anita.

The Sept. 23 GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx, the Sept. 2 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar and the Sept. 30 GI Awesome Again S. at Santa Anita are all on the table. While Geaux Rocket Ride would be facing just 3-year-olds at Parx, he would face older horses in both California options.

"I'll think about all of those races and about running against older horses," Mandella said.

Mandella has ruled out another trip east for the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. at Saratoga.

"I think it's too much to think about, taking him to Saratoga," Mandella said. "He's young and he's not raced very much and we've pushed him along to get to this point. I don't like the idea of bringing him to Monmouth, bringing him back to California, and then coming back for the Travers. We pushed him to this point and we don't want to keep pushing. The Travers doesn't seem like the right thing to do."

A debut winner at Santa Anita in January, Geaux Rocket Ride was second in the Mar. 4 GII San Felipe S., but was knocked off the Triple Crown trail when a fever caused him to miss the GI Santa Anita Derby. He returned with a win in the June 4 Affirmed S. and was earning his first graded score in the Haskell.

Asked if having the Breeders' Cup at his home track of Santa Anita would give Geaux Rocket Ride an advantage in November, Mandella said, "It does if you're fast enough. We think he's fast enough and so far he's passed every test. But that's another step up to get to the Classic and it's against older horses so we'll just have to wait and see if he leads us there."

Geaux Rocket Ride and the Bob Baffert-trained Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo), the third-place Haskell finisher, were scheduled to ship back to Southern California Tuesday.

CARAVEL ON TRACK FOR TROY

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - On the Whitney Day card with three Grade I races, the GIII Troy S. is pretty easy to overlook.

Last year, though, two-time Breeders' Cup race winner Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) drew attention to the 5 1/2-furlong turf test, which he won by a head. On Aug. 5, Caravel (Mizzen Mast) will be the headliner in the 20th running of the Troy and, if the 2022 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint upsetter prevails, will be its first female winner.

Caravel working at Saratoga Saturday | Mike Kane

Caravel prepped for the race Saturday on the Oklahoma turf training track with a half-mile in :48.88 under Kelvin Perez. It was the sixth-fastest of the 20 at the distance.

Trainer Brad Cox gave the breeze a solid review.

"Very good. She's always a great workhorse," he said. "Great work this morning, so very pleased with what we saw out there."

The gray 6-year-old Pennsylvania-bred mare brings a five-race unbeaten streak into the Troy. Starting with her victory at 42-1 in the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland, three of those wins have come against males.

While she was a very accomplished runner for breeder-owner-trainer Elizabeth Merryman winning seven of nine starts--topped by the GIII Caress S. in 2021 at Saratoga--and finishing third in the other two, she has really blossomed since last summer. Merryman sold a 75% stake to Bobby Flay in 2021 and they sold her for $500,000 to Qatar Racing and Marc Detampel at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale. Madaket Stables subsequently became a partner. The 5-year-old was turned over to Cox, who tried her once against males without success in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint on the Kentucky Derby program.

Cox said he had no idea that Caravel was capable of what she has accomplished.

"She got really good starting last fall," he said. "She's always been good, but she became dominant maybe."

After Caravel won the GIII Franklin S. at Keeneland on Oct. 16, Cox and the owners decided to try her in the Breeders' Cup over the same course. She handled pace pressure throughout, won by a half-length and paid $87.78. This year she is three-for-three and has beaten males in the GII Shakertown S. at Keeneland and the GI Jaipur S. at Belmont Park.

"She stepped up. She's been able to defeat them three times now within the last nine months," Cox said. "She's really good. She's happy. She likes Saratoga. I'm looking forward to getting a run into her here the first part of August."

Cox said entering Caravel in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint was a gamble.

"We were taking a shot," he said. "She had just come off a win at Keeneland in a Grade III. It was a big run. We were asking her to run back in three weeks. We were taking a shot. She was 40-something to 1 or whatever she was. When you run horses in races and when you're that price there's really no pressure. There was no pressure and obviously the favorite that day [Golden Pal] missed the break. I don't know how things would have played out, but she's gone on to capture another Grade I since that against the boys and is undefeated since. She's got a nice win streak going and she gives us a lot of confidence throughout the entire year, really."

MOTT RUNNERS TUNE UP AT THE SPA

Godolphin homebred Cody's Wish (Curlin) tuned up for the Aug. 5 GI Whitney S. with a five-furlong work over the Oklahoma dirt training track in 1:02.81 (10/12) Sunday in Saratoga.

Trained by Bill Mott, the 5-year-old was piloted through his breeze by assistant trainer Neil Poznansky, who guided the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner through splits of :26 2/5 and :38 2/5 before galloping out in 1:15 1/5, 1:27 1/5 and 1:41 3/5.

"He just let him off the bridle and he picked it right up," said Mott.

Cody's Wish heads into the Whitney on a six-race win streak which has included victories in the GI Forego S. last August at Saratoga, the Dirt Mile in November at Keeneland, the GI Churchill Downs in May and the GI Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan H. June 10 at Belmont. He will look to secure his first win beyond one mile in the Whitney, while making his first start at nine furlongs since a third-place finish in a maiden tilt at Saratoga two years ago.

Cody's Wish | Sarah Andrew

Also Sunday, Mott sent out reigning champion sprinter Elite Power (Curlin) to work a half-mile in :51 1/5 over the Oklahoma training track in preparation for the six-furlong July 29 GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H.

Elite Power was clocked with an easy opening split of :24 and change by NYRA clockers Sunday in a breeze that Mott indicated was similar to the chestnut's half-mile work in :51.11 over the Oklahoma last October ahead of his score in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

"That's him by himself," Mott said. "He's run well off of those kind of works right before his races. He did that in Saudi. He was working :51 before he won the Breeders' Cup. He wouldn't wow anyone when he's working by himself."

Dream Shake, third in the 2021 GI Santa Anita Derby, made it two in a row at Woodbine with his first graded tally in the GII Connaught Cup S. Sunday. The dark bay gelding raced up along the hedge to sit just off pacesetting longshot Roaring Forties (Stormy Atlantic). Tipped out a path nearing the stretch, he took over with a furlong to run and, despite drifting out in deep stretch, held on late.

Favored Churchtown (Air Force Blue) was well back early and was behind a wall of horses at the top of the lane. He attempted to split foes twice down the stretch, only to get cut off both times, but he was still trying late to just miss third.

Dream Shake began his career for trainer and co-owner Peter Euron, finishing third in the GII San Felipe S. and GI Santa Anita Derby before coming up just a head behind champion Jackie's Warrior when second in the GII Pat Day Mile.

He was eighth in the 2021 Oceanside S. in his only previous turf outing. With just two starts in 2022, Dream Shake was transferred east to the barn of trainer Mike Stidham. He was last after a troubled trip while making his first start in over a year in an optional claimer over the main track at Belmont June 9, but was a front-running victor over the Woodbine synthetic last time out in a July 2 optional claimer.

Eighth as a 17-1 gamble in last year's GIII Trillium S., Franco Meli homebred Il Malocchio was a bit less than half that price on a rainy Sunday afternoon at Woodbine and was along late to take a three-way photo.

Angelou won the break and the race to the first turn, with favored Souper Hoity Toity in close attendance as Il Malocchio settled in fifth position, but in touch, as the leader lobbed them along at an easy pace. Angelou still held the call into the final four furlongs, but Il Malocchio was asked to improve three furlongs out and loomed a wide threat, going apparently better than Souper Hoity Toity to her inside. Three deep off the final corner as Kate's Kingdom tried to claw her way past Angelou, Il Malocchio was hard-ridden into the final furlong by Sahin Civaci and was shoved across the line to prove narrowly best. Angelou was home second, but was deemed to have come in on Souper Hoity Toity in deep stretch and was demoted to third.

Third in the Woodbine Oaks and winner of the Bison City S. at three, Il Malocchio caused a 9-1 upset in last year's GIII Maple Leaf S. over 10 furlongs and easily defeated her fellow Ontario-breds in the Dec. 10 La Prevoyante S. before getting a breather. Fourth in the Mar. 25 Latonia S. over the Turfway synth on her 5-year-old debut, she was a latest fourth to Souper Hoity Toity in this track's GIII Belle Mahone S. June 3 after sitting a trip handier to the speed.

Il Malocchio takes a three-way go in the Trillium | Michael Burns

"We had her down in the U.S. [at Palm Meadows] for the winter to get her started," said Drexler. "We started her in Kentucky. Off Lasix, it wasn't the best for her, and she was a little bit flat that day and then we came back here. Last time, she [was] caught in a pace [battle] on the front and she doesn't like that, so this is much better."

Order and Law earned his first graded win with an easy score in the GIII Cougar II S. at Del Mar Sunday. The bay sat just off the lead while racing three wide as Azul Coast set the early tempo. The field bunched as Azul Coast attempted to slow the pace down the backstretch. Order and Law shadowed Bye Bye Bobby as the gray moved to overtake Azul Coast heading into the stretch for the final time. Azul Coast battled back along the rail, but it was Order and Law moving best late and striding home to a length victory.

"He galloped. I don't mean he was galloping. He galloped," said winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "He won this one easy."

Claimed for $62,500 at Gulfstream last May, Order and Law headed west and was fourth in last year's Cougar S. He began 2023 in the claiming ranks and had his best finish when runner-up in an June 6 optional claimer at Presque Isle Downs last time out.

"He does tend to hang a touch, but by the eighth pole I thought we were golden," said winning trainer Bob Hess, Jr. "But you never know until the wire. Thank you, Kent Desormeaux. He loves the mile and a half, probably needs farther. I got to run back here before the end of the meet because this is his track...and my track."

SAM'S TREASURE SWITCHES TO DIRT AND ROMPS IN SARATOGA MAIDEN

Sam's Treasure | Sarah Andrew

by Bill Finley & Patrycja Szpyra

As he often does with his 2-year-olds, trainer Wesley Ward started Sam's Treasure (Munnings) off in a grass race--in this case, a five-furlong maiden on May 11 at Belmont. She finished second, 2 3/4 lengths behind the winner--Cynane (Omaha Beach), who had the distinction of being her sire's first winner and was Royal Ascot-bound for a time--but there was nothing about the performance to suggest that she could develop into a top horse. Maybe Ward should have been thinking dirt all along.

In a much improved effort, Sam's Treasure dominated nine rivals to win Sunday's $136,500 six-furlong race by 5 3/4 lengths. She tracked pacesetter Life's Joy (Mitole) down the backstretch, took over on the turn and then drew clear of her rivals to post a dominant victory. After being steadied early and losing ground, Colonial Rose (Constitution) managed to recover well enough to safely secure runner-up honors, but long behind the winner.

Sam's Treasure was ridden by John Velazquez, who was subbing for the injured Jose Ortiz.

The field included Camera (Curlin), a first-time starter from the Todd Pletcher barn who cost $1,050,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. The daughter of MGISP Cassies Dreamer (Flatter) bobbled a few steps out of the gate and never recovered. She finished ninth as the 70-100 favorite.

"Earlier on we had her on both surfaces," Ward said of Sam's Treasure. "I just thought she's a big filly. She came to hand early but the races at Keeneland are at 4 1/2 furlongs and a horse needs to be a little quicker than she is to win those. The Belmont race came up. I like to run horses on grass there because it's a kind and forgiving surface. If she didn't win, I thought that would still set her up nicely for Saratoga and it did."

Sam's Treasure, also a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate, was picked out at the sale by the team of Ben McElroy, Ward and Mike Hall, the managing director of the owner, Breeze Easy LLC. She sold for $700,000.

"She was beautiful here last summer at the Saratoga sale," Ward said. "We went around and looked at all the horses and this was Ben McElroy's pick as well. We kind of pushed Mike Hall into buying her because it was a lot of money for her."

At the time of the sale, Hall's partner in Breeze Easy was Sam Ross. Ross died in September at the age of 79.

"Unfortunately, Sam died last year so Mike Hall named her Sam's Treasure after Sam," Ward said. "And Sam's Treasure came through for him today. Sam is shining down on us. Mike is someone you really want to get behind and win for. It's so hard to win, especially here at Saratoga. To have a filly as promising as this, I'm really excited."

Bred by Baron Thoroughbreds in Kentucky, Sam's Treasure is the second offspring for her dam, Malibu Treasure, but the first to make the races ahead of elder half-brother Buckeye Don (Speightstown). The mare had back-to-back colts by Promises Fulfilled, a yearling and a 2023 foal. Hailing from a Graded stakes-placed and multiple stakes-winning half-sister to G1SP & MGSW Choctaw Nation, Malibu Treasure can also claim GSW Her Temper; GISW El Deal (Munnings); and GSW Thunder Achiever as members of her extended female family.

Paramount Prince | Michael Burns

In the money in each of his four previous starts, Paramount Prince was last seen stepping up in class in the Queenston S. June 11 at Woodbine when he finished second after making his first start in the optional claiming ranks for trainer Mark Casse Apr. 30.

Stretching out in this spot and off at double-digit odds, the chestnut led from the rail into the first turn and continued to make the pace up the backstretch. Despite pressure from the outside, Paramount Prince continued to control the fractions before the top of the lane and increased his margin to win by five lengths over Cool Kiss.

"A dream come true, an absolute dream come true," said breeder Ericka Rusnak. "Just having a horse being talked about in the same sentence as the King's Plate... this is a dream come true."

The winner's dam, who is a half-sister to GISW and successful young sire Army Mule (Friesan Fire), is responsible for a 2-year-old Souper Speedy filly and a yearling filly by that same sire. Wicked Halo finished third in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint behind Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) and stablemate Echo Zulu (Gun Runner), who is entered in Wednesday's GII Honorable Miss H. at Saratoga. The gray filly then started her 4-year-old campaign with a win in Mar. 31 at Oaklawn Park in the Matron S. before turning in a pair of second-place finishes in the GI Derby City Distaff at Churchill Downs and the GII Bed o' Roses S. at Belmont Park June 17.

Sent off here as the short-priced favorite, the homebred sped up the backstretch in the third position as a pair vied for the lead. Rounding the far turn, the gray filly began to take aim at the pacesetters, ranged up to outside and past the eighth pole dispatched Non Violence, who was battling to keep up, to win by 1 1/4 lengths.

Bred on the same cross as stablemates GISW Society and GSW Disarm, the winner's extended female family includes GSW Proforma (Munnings). Visiting Gun Runner each season, her dam is responsible for 3-year-old colt in training Wicked Again and unraced 2-year-old filly Something Wicked, who was a $1.1-million dollar purchase at the 2022 Keeneland September Yearling sale by Richard Knight Bloodstock. Just Wicked also foaled a colt Jan. 16. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Du Jour earned his first victory since winning the 2021 GII American Turf S. with a late-charging score in the Wickerr S. at Del Mar Sunday night. The bay gelding rated at midpack in a strung out field behind fractions of :23.15 and :44.37. He inched closer along the rail on the far turn and was within striking distance with nowhere to run at the top of the lane, but found clear sailing late and flew home to nail Flavius on the line.

"It's taken two years to get him back to this level," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "The way he had been training these last three weeks, he was finally back to where he was. He couldn't be doing any better."

In addition to the American Turf victory, Du Jour's sophomore season with trainer Bill Mott included a fourth-place finish in the GI Belmont Derby and a third-place effort in the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational. He was sidelined 14 months following a fifth-place finish in the off-turf GII Santa Anita Mathis Mile in his first outing for Bob Baffert. The bay was a narrowly beaten second in the Feb. 4 GIII Thunder Road S. and Mar. 4 GI Frank Kilroe Mile before a fourth-place finish in the Apr. 2 GIII American S. and he was most recently sixth in the May 29 GI Shoemaker Mile.

Du Jour has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother by Not This Time and a weanling half-sister by Street Sense. The winner's third dam is Baby Zip (Relaunch), who produced Grade I winner City Zip (Carson City) and Horse of the Year Ghostzapper (Awesome Again). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Despite Antonio Fresu losing his crop at the head of the lane, Raging Torrent needed no extra encouragement, drawing away from the field to graduate by 2 1/4 lengths. 'WE THOUGHT SHE COULD BE SPECIAL AND THAT'S WHERE THE NAME CAME FROM'

The Pat Foley-trained Special Wan is likely to be sold after her Leopardstown romp | Racingfotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

He may hail from a family that will forever be associated with one of Ireland's most famous jumps horses but trainer Pat Foley has been making a name for himself on the Flat of late and sent out the well-named Special Wan (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) to record an emphatic debut success at Leopardstown last week.

That performance put Special Wan slap bang in the shop window and, while Foley admitted that she is likely to continue her career for new connections eventually, he also revealed that his owner Jim Browne could be tempted to up the filly in class before agreeing to sell.

He said, "There have been plenty of phone calls since Leopardstown, plenty of interest. I'm not one hundred per cent sure if there is a deal done or not but we could run her in the Platinum Stakes at Cork if she's not sold. I'll leave that up to Jim. He is in the business of selling but he could be tempted to run this filly in the listed race before letting her go."

A light went out in Irish racing when Foley's father Tom, one of the game's true gentlemen, passed away at the age of 74 in 2021. Tom trained the legendary jumper Danoli, who became the people's horse in the 1990s by winning 17 races all told, many of which were at the big festivals and in front of jam-packed stands full of his adoring fans. KAVANAGH SEEKING HOME FOR MUSEUM

Pat's first victory since taking over the licence from his father was achieved with Special Wan's half-brother Yermanthere (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) and he also sent out the half-sister Yerwanthere (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}) to win on debut at Leopardstown before selling to Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners for Joseph O'Brien

The family has been good to Foley and Browne, who operates under the banner of Kilnamoragh Stud, and has clearly found a diamond in the rough with the broodmare Fast Jazz (Ire) (Frozen Power {Ire}).

Foley said, "She has been a fantastic broodmare for Jim. Fast Jazz has produced three winners for us and none of them have been by the most fashionable sires so the mare is definitely putting plenty of ability in them. They are a very straightforward family to train and they all have a great attitude on them. We've been very lucky with them.

"Jim only has a few broodmares but he does very well with them. He bred Tango Flare (Ire) (Fulbright {GB}), Simply A Breeze (Ire) (Casamento {Ire}) and Bounce The Blues (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}). He has a lovely setup at Kilnamoragh Stud."

He added, "Fast Jazz has a lovely 2-year-old filly by Bungle Inthejungle (GB). We broke her last year and she's due back to us next week with a view towards possibly running her at the back end but we could always wait until she's three. She's a big scopey filly. He has a yearling colt by Profitable (Ire) and the mare is in foal to Blue Point (Ire) so there's plenty more to come from her."

Foley is no different to the majority of trainers in Ireland in that selling potential stars like Special Wan is a necessity to keep the business in lights. While his first big-race win was recorded over jumps when stable stalwart Rebel Gold took the Dan and Joan Moore Memorial at Fairyhouse this year, Foley endeavors to maintain a Flat arm to this famous nursery of National Hunt talent.

He said, "The yard is full at the minute, thank God. We have a mixture of everything and all of the winter jumpers are back in and we have a team for the Flat as well. It has been a great mixture and we'll be hoping to have a few more Flat horses next year and have the yard 50-50 between Flat and National Hunt if we could. Even with a filly like Special Wan, there is an international market out there for horses like that. When it came to selling on the Flat over the past couple of years, we've had phone calls from America, Australia, Hong Kong, all over the place. It's very important to be dual purpose and you have to be selling one or two horses every year to keep everything going.

Foley continued, "From a training point of view, you'd love to be holding on to horses like Special Wan to show that you can do the job but unfortunately you need to sell for the whole thing to make business sense."

Regardless of where Special Wan goes next, Foley says that he is convinced that the filly will live up to her name.

He said, "Her work has always been brilliant. Even as a 2-year-old, she could have run but we were a little bit worried about the ground when it got very soft. Jim is a very patient man and, if he thinks there is any reason not to run, he would rather wait until everything is perfect. We are lucky that way and thankfully it paid off."

"We liked Yerwanthere a lot but this filly was working even better as a 2-year-old. We thought she could be a bit special and that's where the name came from."

KAVANAGH SEEKS INDUSTRY SUPPORT IN BID TO FIND LONG-TERM HOME FOR MUSEUM

By Brian Sheerin

Jim Kavanagh, the retired racehorse trainer who has showcased his vast collection of Irish racing memorabilia at the Courthouse in County Kildare for five years now, has made a passionate plea for support from the industry to keep his rare treasures alive by finding a permanent home for the museum.

At 80 years of age, Kavanagh has single-handedly kept the museum open for the past five summers and, while he had initially planned to close up shop for the year after Oaks weekend, has committed to running the tours for another month by appointment only.

But Kavanagh hopes to secure something more long-term for his vast collection of racing memorabilia which dates back to Orby, the first Irish-trained winner of the Derby back in 1907, and says that people in the industry could make a big difference.

He explained, "We are based in the courthouse, which is owned by the Kildare County Council. In their draft of plans, there is a lot of money going to be spent in Kildare town but they have earmarked this building for the arts. There's a feasibility study being done now and we're putting our speak in.

"We hope to convince them that this building is big enough, if it was invested in properly, to host more than just the arts and that there would be room for us in it as well. That's the dream. We have a visitors book, which we get people to sign and, the more signatures we can gather, the easier job we have of convincing the powers that be that there is a demand for the museum."

There has been a steady stream of people visiting the museum this summer, according to Kavanagh, who explained that a walk through his collection of racing memorabilia was comparable to stepping back in time.

Marie Brennan

He said, "We've had quality over quantity this summer. We've had a lot of visitors from all over the world who were in awe of what we have here. To have them engaging and interested about what we have on display here is great.

"We have a number of display units and behind each one there is a story. There is memorabilia going back to Orby, the first Irish-trained winner of the Derby in 1907, photographs of the old Curragh stand and trophies that were won by the late Darkie Prendergast. It's a refreshing walk back through time to the black and white era."

Kavanagh added, "I trained for a long time and was CEO of the trainers' association for many years. When I retired, I had a lot of memorabilia and it was five years ago when the local Derby committee came to me and asked me to do something for the weekend.

"As soon as I started that, people began to come to me with stuff and we've built it up since then. We missed a year through Covid but we've been building every year since we started and it seems to be going down well with a lot of people, including the locals, who bring me in a lot of pictures and like to come and talk about their relations who used to work in the industry."

Kavanagh's main aim is to find a permanent home for the museum and is convinced that, if enough people show their support, the exhibition could fit in nicely in the Kildare courthouse every summer.

He said, "We will be open for another month and will be doing visits by appointment. I'm happy to put my number [+353872898213] out there and, if there were a small group of people who wanted to come along, I'd be only too happy to give them the tour. I have the time, I'm 80 years old now, so I enjoy doing it and it's a great way to meet people. I love it and I hope to find a permanent home for the museum."

KOLOSSAL AWARDED BERLIN FEATURE IN STEWARDS' ROOM by Sean Cronin

Last month's G3 Premio del Giubileo victrix Kolossal (Ger) (Outstrip {GB})--Kolosseum {Ger}, by Samum {Ger}) finished 3/4 of a length adrift of India (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in Sunday's G3 Furstenberg-Rennen at Hoppegarten, but was impeded by that rival inside the final furlong and doubled her pattern-raced tally in the stewards' room.

The 53-10 third favourite, who has also bagged two editions of Baden-Baden's Listed Preis der Baden-Badener Hotellerie & Gastronomie, broke swiftly for immediate control and held sway for the most part. Joined by India passing the quarter-mile pole, she was rallying gamely when forced into the far-side rail by that rival inside the final 100 metres and was awarded victory after lengthy deliberations by officials.

"My husband Georg [Bocskai], who watched the race on TV at home, told me I had to protest," winning trainer Carmen Bocskai, making her first visit to Hoppegarten in over two decades, told GaloppOnline. "Andrasch [Starke] pressed her all the way down the straight, he maintained her position along the rail and she fought back as best she could. Of course, there is always an aftertaste when winning in such a manner, but disqualification was the correct decision."

Pedigree Notes

Kolossal is the leading performer produced by Kolosseum (Ger) (Samum {Ger}), herself a full-sister to MG1SW G1 Deutsches Derby-winning sire Kamsin (Ger), Listed Altano Steher Cup victrix Kashmar (Ger) and the dual stakes-placed Kings Messenger (Ger). Kolosseum is also a half-sister to G1 Preis von Europa victor Khan (Ger) (Santiago {Ger}) and G3 Kolner Herbst-Stutenpreis victrix and G1 Premio Lydia Tesio third Kapitale (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}). Kolossal's second dam is G3 Preis des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen winner Kapitol (Ger) (Winged Love {Ire}) is a half-sister to the dam of stakes-winning G2 Diana-Trial third Kamellata (Fr) (Pomellato {Ger}) and hails from the family of German Triple Crown-winning sire Konigsstuhl (Ger) (Dschingis Khan {Ger}). Off the mark on debut here in September, Turn Cartwheels had run into Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) prior to running second in the 10 1/2-furlong Listed Prix Caravelle at Toulouse in April and ParisLongchamp's Listed Prix Volterra last month shortening to this trip. Positioned handily early, the grey seized the advantage with 150 metres remaining and found the line just in time as Elounda Queen closed in fast in the Ace Impact silks.

The dam is a daughter of the four-times stakes scorer Atlantic Destiny who was responsible for a quartet of black-type performers headed by the G1 Sussex S.-winning sire Lightning Spear (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and the Listed Newmarket S. winner Ocean War (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Also the second dam of the G2 Railway S. and G3 Marble Hill S.-placed Arctician (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), she hails from the family of the champion sire Be My Guest. Atlantic Light's yearling filly is by Galiway (GB).

ZVALIKOVA (FR) (f, 2, Le Havre {Ire}--Zvalinska {Fr} {SP-Fr}, by Sea The Stars {Ire}), runner-up over course and distance last month, took a keen grip early in second. In front and travelling strongly at the top of the straight, the 1-2 favourite had 3/4 of a length to spare over the closer Nafarroa (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}) at the line. The winner is last known foal out of the listed-placed dam, a daughter of the listed scorer Peinture Rose (Storm Cat) who is in turn kin to the brilliant G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero and leading sire Peintre Celebre. She is also connected to this year's G3 Prix Penelope-winning TDN Rising Star Pensee Du Jour (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and the legendary stayer Stradivarius (Ire) by Zvalinska's sire Sea The Stars. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €16,100. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
