

SINGER HOPES TO STRIKE EARLY AT FASIG-TIPTON SARATOGA

Salty Strike | Horsephotos

by Jessica Martini

Texas businessman Craig Singer, a veteran with over four decades in the breeding business, will look to capitalize on recent additions to his broodmare band when he sends three yearlings through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale next Monday. Through the Taylor Made Sale Agency consignment, a filly by Gun Runner out of Baby Go Far (Brz) (Elusive Quality) will kick off the two-day auction when selling as hip 1. Singer purchased Baby Go Far, with the filly in utero, for $150,000 at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton February sale. Just a month later, the filly's full-brother (video) topped the Goffs Dubai Breeze-Up Sale when selling for €543,210.

"This is really a nice Gun Runner filly," Singer said. "The drawback, if there is a drawback, is that she is number one in the sale. But I think people will find her. She is a really good-looking filly."

Asked if he knew about the 2-year-old colt when he purchased the mare, Singer said, "I did, yes. I was told about him. Hopefully, he goes on and does well."

Also at last year's Fasig-Tipton February sale, Singer purchased multiple graded placed Laseen (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), in foal to Uncle Mo, for $150,000. The mare's Uncle Mo filly will go through the ring next week as hip 88. Cont. p3

TURF PARADISE WON'T OPEN IN NOVEMBER AS SALE OF PROPERTY NEARS CLOSING by T.D. Thornton

The current ownership that is selling at Turf Paradise in Phoenix won't be opening the track in November as planned for its 2023-24 race meet. But horsemen are holding out hope that the incoming ownership will be able and willing to operate the remainder of the scheduled season from January through May 4 if the real estate deal closes as expected by mid-December.

Turf Paradise management issued a statement via Facebook Tuesday afternoon confirming the decision.

Also on Tuesday, an email message reportedly sent to Arizona Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA) members by that group's executive director, Leroy Gessmann, detailed potential next steps as the 67-year-old venue transitions to its new buyer, CT Realty of Dallas and Newport Beach, California. Cont. p5

Turf writer Bill Finley takes ChatGPT for a spin and decides his job is safe... for now.

"I was shopping for young mares in foal to good sires," Singer said of his buying spree last February. "And I was lucky enough to get these two."

Singer has already enjoyed quick return on a mare investment this year. He sold a daughter of Volatile for $285,000 at the Fasig-Tipton July sale. The yearling is out of Whisper to Me (Thunder Gulch), a mare Singer purchased carrying the filly for $65,000 out of the Pin Oak dispersal at Fasig-Tipton in 2021.

"She was at the Josephine Abercrombie dispersal," Singer said of the 19-year-old mare. "I was looking for something in the sale and I thought the mare would go for a lot more than that. She's a difficult mare to get and to keep in foal, but obviously one foal paid for the mare. And she's back in foal [to Idol], too. I thought it was a really good purchase."

Hip 1 | Kelcey Loges/Taylor Made Farm

Singer's trio of Saratoga yearlings is rounded out by a colt by Munnings out of stakes winner Haddie Be Good (Silver Deputy) (hip 62). The chestnut is a half to stakes winner Story to Tell (Bluegrass Cat). Singer sold the mare's 2-year-old by Justify for $400,000 at the 2022 OBS March sale and the colt was a debut winner in his lone start to date in Japan earlier this year.

"I am always in the market to sell horses, that's a business for me," Singer said. "And if I get the right amount of money, I will sell them all. All three of these are nice horses. I think they will sell very well."

Singer, who founded the family entertainment center operator Nickels and Dimes, Inc. in 1972, has been in racing since 1979. The Texan made his first big splash in the industry with the 1981 purchase of a pair of Classic winners, Cairn Rouge (Ire) and Condessa (Ire), who won the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and was second in the G1 Irish Oaks in his colors that year.

In the U.S., Singer campaigned his homebred Salty Strike (Smart Strike) to victories in the 2011 GIII Dogwood S. and 2012 GIII Gardenia S. He sold the filly to Stonestreet for $800,000 at the 2013 Keeneland January sale and she went on to produce champion female sprinter Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper). The mare died in 2019.

While Salty Strike didn't join his broodmare band, Singer does retain much of the family, while supplementing the band with new purchases.

"I've been cultivating what has turned out to be a great family now with Goodnight Olive," Singer said. "I sold Salty Strike and Stonestreet did a great job. But I have that whole family. I am going to keep almost all of that family and I needed some new blood, that's why I went back in and bought some new mares."

Singer has about 15 mares in his broodmare band and the group travels back and forth between his Texas ranch and Kentucky.

"I ship them up to Kentucky to be bred and then I bring them down here to Texas for most of the year," he said. "Then ship them back up to be bred again and foaled out there. But I raise the babies down here. I have a ranch down here which is also my office. I enjoy having them down here and I enjoy seeing them all of the time."

Singer said the plan is to sell most of his foals as yearlings.

"I sold a Justify 2-year-old last year that won in Japan, but I normally sell them as yearlings," he said. "If I don't get what I want and I don't want to keep them to race, then I put them in the 2-year-old sales. I usually keep the fillies and sell the colts."

And while he currently has just one horse in training with Tom Amoss, as well as a late 2-year-old in Ocala with Niall Brennan, Singer said he isn't opposed to increasing his racing stable if his Saratoga yearlings fail to attract enough attention.

"I don't mind racing them," Singer said. "I won't have tremendous reserves on any of these, but if they don't bring it, I will keep them and race them."

A veteran in the industry, Singer still maintains his love of the game.

"I started in 1979," he said. "I have been doing it for a long time. I love the business. I love having the horses. It's just a passion of mine--but it is a business, you have to run it as a business. But it's always been something I've loved and I've been lucky enough to be able to afford to do it. It's worked out pretty well."

The Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale will be held next Monday and Tuesday at the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion. Bidding begins each evening at 6:30 p.m.

Turf Paradise Won't Open in November (cont. from p1)

"After several months of speculation and rumors, I finally have some definite updates that I can report to the membership," Gessmann wrote. "Yesterday July 31, 2023, [AZHBPA] President Lloyd J. Yother received a call from [Turf Paradise owner] Mr. Jerry Simms, telling us that his final decision was to not run a race meet in November and December of 2023. After 23 years of running race meets, he felt it was time that he stepped aside and turn things over to the possible potential buyer, Mr. James Watson," who is the managing partner of CT Realty.

"He wanted to announce this now, so horsemen had time to find alternative plans," Gessmann wrote. "Mr. Simms has started laying off key employees, is issuing a national press release this week and stopped watering the turf track. So, I do not see things changing."

Gessmann continued: "What is next for Arizona racing? After conversations with Mr. Watson, his status is that his final financial approval will be issued on Sept. 15. If this is approved and all the zoning goes through, then they plan to close the sale on Dec. 17. If all that falls into place, Mr. Watson is considering running a race meet starting in January through May 4. A lot of ifs in that last statement, but there is a chance for a race meet in January 2024.

"There also appears to be a lot of interest in Arizona Downs currently," Gessmann wrote, referring to the track 82 miles north in Prescott Valley.

Arizona Downs didn't apply for a June-through-September race meet this year because of financial difficulties. That facility formerly ran as Yavapai Downs between 2000 and 2010. The ownership at that time then filed for bankruptcy.

Arizona Downs co-owner Tom Auther "is telling me he has had some racing companies contact him on the possibility of investing in Arizona Downs to allow the running of some type of race meet. This would require a lot of things to come together quickly and cooperation from the Department of Racing. But there are ongoing discussions," Gessmann wrote.

"There have been some major racetrack operators expressing interest in building a new track in Maricopa County," Gessmann wrote. "These alternatives may be longshots, but there is interest in rebuilding Arizona racing. I know Mr. Simms's decision to close the track is very disappointing and scary news to all of us. However, I want you to know that I, President Yother and the HBPA Board will continue to work on restoring racing in Arizona!"

The sale of Turf Paradise was first made public Apr. 12. At that time, TDN reported that racing was expected to continue there only as a placeholder for several more seasons while new uses for the venue went through the planning, approval, and construction stages.

About a month later, other news outlets in Arizona subsequently reported that CT Realty would consider keeping racing going on a longer-term basis if it could successfully lobby the state legislature to approve historical horse racing machines or some other form of gaming at the track.

The relationship between the Arizona racing community and Simms has been acrimonious. An extraordinarily long pandemic closure, multiple racetrack safety issues, and prolonged fights over off-track betting privileges, simulcast signals, and how the horsemen's purse money can be used have roiled in the courts and at racing commission meetings.

Simms has been quoted in the press since 2020 as saying that he operates Turf Paradise at a "huge negative" financially.

Gessmann told TDN back in April that, "Our understanding is it's going to be developed in stages, and they're going to race for one to two, [maybe] three more years depending on the development process."

WEST WILL POWER RETIRED

West Will Power (Bernardini--Wild Promises, by Wild Event), last-out winner of the GI Stephen Foster S., has been retired from racing after suffering a soft tissue injury, trainer Brad Cox confirmed Tuesday. The news was first reported by Dave Grening of Daily Racing Form.

A homebred for Gary and Mary West, West Will Power hit the board in 15 of 17 starts, with seven wins and earnings of $1,745,390. In addition to his victory in the July 1 Stephen Foster, the 6-year-old also won this year's GII New Orleans Classic and last year's GII Fayette S. He was second in the 2022 GI Clark S. He was also runner-up in the 2023 GIII Razorback H. and 2021 GIII Philip H. Iselin S. and was third in the 2023 GII Alysheba S.

IS AI ABOUT TO STEAL MY JOB? NOT SO FAST

by Bill Finley

We've been told that artificial intelligence is going to take over the world while also taking over the jobs currently being done by humans. I would imagine that would include the press coverage of horse races. I might have 35-years experience on the job, but that doesn't mean I match up to computers or machines being able to simulate human intelligence to perform tasks or solve problems. They say that within our lifetimes, artificial intelligence (AI) will have altered our world more significantly and faster than any other technology since the discovery of electricity.

But can AI do a better job writing a story for the Thoroughbred Daily News than I can and wouldn't that make me expendable? It turns out, I have nothing to fear.

Perhaps some day this will change, but when it comes to horse racing coverage, AI isn't ready for prime time. I have turned to ChatGPT, which is a large language model-based chatbot developed by OpenAI and launched Nov. 30, 2022. It is notable for enabling users to refine and steer a conversation towards a desired length, format, style, level of detail, and language used.

I've asked ChatGPT to write several stories based on recent occurrences in racing. Every time, the result is nothing sort of gibberish and nonsense and factual errors.

Let's take this example, when I asked ChatGPT to "write a story about Forte winning the Jim Dandy."

Here's what the computer came up with:

"Once upon a time in the world of horse racing, there was a magnificent Thoroughbred named Forte. He was a striking chestnut stallion with a strong and muscular build, and his eyes gleamed with a fiery determination. Forte was known for his incredible speed and relentless spirit on the racetrack, and he had captured the hearts of racing enthusiasts around the world.

"The Jim Dandy S. was one of the most prestigious horse racing events of the year. Held at the historic Saratoga Race Course, it attracted the finest 3-year-old horses in the country. The anticipation was electric as the day of the race approached, and Forte's name was on everyone's lips.

"Forte was owned by Mr. Richard Anderson, a passionate horse lover who had invested his heart and soul into raising and training Forte to be the champion he was. He had a team of skilled trainers and jockeys who worked tirelessly to prepare Forte for the big race.

"As the morning of the Jim Dandy S. dawned, the Saratoga Race Course was buzzing with excitement. The grandstands were packed with cheering spectators, and the atmosphere was charged with anticipation. Forte's presence was captivating, and whispers of his victories from previous races circulated among the crowd.

"The gates opened, and the horses thundered down the track. Forte's jockey, a talented and experienced rider named Mike, guided him skillfully through the pack. As they rounded the first turn, Forte's stride was powerful, and he surged ahead, taking the lead.

Team Forte, according to AI: The talented rider Mike, one of the team of trainers, and the owner Mr. Anderson

“But the Jim Dandy S. was no ordinary race, and the competition was fierce. Other top-class horses were vying for the win, and they were not willing to let Forte have an easy victory. The race intensified as they entered the backstretch, and Forte faced the challenge of maintaining his lead.

“In the final turn, two formidable opponents closed in, and the race became a neck-and-neck battle. The spectators held their breath as the horses charged toward the finish line. Forte's heart pounded, and he could feel the determination of his jockey urging him forward.

“In a display of pure grit and determination, Forte found another burst of energy. With every ounce of strength in his powerful legs, he surged ahead, crossing the finish line in a triumphant burst of speed. The cheers from the crowd were deafening as Forte was declared the winner of the Jim Dandy S.!

“Mr. Anderson, tears of joy streaming down his face, rushed to embrace his beloved stallion. The victory was not just a testament to Forte's exceptional talent but also a celebration of the incredible bond between a horse and his owner. Forte had earned his place in racing history as one of the greatest champions of all time.

“The Jim Dandy S. victory was a turning point in Forte's career. He went on to win many more prestigious races, solidifying his status as a legendary racehorse. His story inspired generations of racing enthusiasts, and his name became synonymous with greatness.

“As the sun set on the day of the Jim Dandy S., Forte stood proudly in his stable, bathed in the golden light of his accomplishments. He had proven that with courage, dedication, and a heart of a champion, any dream could be realized--a true testament to the spirit of horse racing and the indomitable Forte.”

So he is owned by Mr. Richard Anderson and his jockey is an experienced rider named Mike. Okay. And where was Todd Pletcher, Mike Repole, Irtad Ortiz Jr. and the DQ that was not? But I'm sure Repole and Pletcher will be pleased to know that Forte's "story inspired generations of racing enthusiasts, and his name became synonymous with greatness."

Okay, so maybe ChaptGPT just had a bad day. I decided to give it another chance, asking it to write a story explaining why Secretariat was such a great horse. Bet you didn't know that much of Secretariat's success was due to his unmistakable bond with his caretaker Henry. Who?

"But it wasn't just his physical attributes that set him apart; it was his unique relationship with his caretaker, Henry, a wise and gentle stable hand," the AI generated story read. "Henry had spent his entire life working with horses, and he had a special connection with these noble creatures. He treated them with respect and love, understanding that their greatness came, not just from their physical abilities, but from the bond they formed with those who cared for them. With Secretariat, he saw something extraordinary--an intelligence and understanding that went beyond the ordinary."

Two stories, both ridiculous. I'm here to stay. In fact, maybe it's time to ask for a raise.

ROTH, DUBB UNVEIL THE RESIDENCES AT THE ADELPHI HOTEL by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Four years into their business partnership, longtime friends Larry Roth and Michael Dubb are ready to unveil and start selling condominiums in their massive downtown project, The Residences at the Adelphi Hotel.

Roth and Dubb have scheduled an informational brunch at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 6 at the Adelphi Hotel, 365 Broadway. The event is by RSVP only. The Residences at the Adelphi Hotel features 79 condominiums that are part of a $90-million development on the corner of Broadway and Washington Street. A decade ago, Roth was a partner in the purchase, reconstruction and rebirth of the historic Adelphi into a 32-room luxury boutique hotel that melded the past with the present. It opened in October 2017.

In 2019, after splitting with his partners in the Adelphi, Roth joined forces with Dubb--a highly successful real estate developer based on Long Island--and bought the Rip Van Dam building next door. The Rip Van Dam was built as a hotel in 1840s, but in recent decades the building housed businesses and offices. Their original plan was to expand the hotel, add amenities and build apartments. Last year, following some test marketing, the Thoroughbred owners and businessmen changed course a bit and decided to build condominiums instead of apartments. The first group of condos are expected to be completed and ready for occupancy in February 2024. The entire project will be finished by September 2024.

Roth and Dubb scheduled their meeting right in the middle of a very busy period during the Saratoga racing season. In addition to the programs at Saratoga Race Course, which include the $1-million GI Whitney S. on Saturday, The Jockey Club's annual Round Table Conference will be held Thursday, the National Museum of Racing's Hall of Fame Class of 2023 will be inducted Friday and the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale of select yearlings will be held Monday and Tuesday evenings.

"We have so many people who are interested," Dubb said. "that we thought we would just do an informational brunch, where Larry and I would introduce the team around us, talk about the vision, talk about the lifestyle, and the amenities and kind of let people get a glimpse."

Dubb said the offering plan for condominium sales required by New York State was approved by the Attorney General's office last week. He said the condos in the five-story new building will range in price from the high $700,000s for studios to a pair of penthouse spaces priced at $3.5 million.

Adelphi Penthouse | courtesy Adelphi

"We are actually now in a position to sign sales contracts and take binders to hold the units until people go to sales," Dubb said. "Our sales reps are almost now working 24/7, keeping up with the interest in it."

"We thought, everybody's in town that week, let's get everybody in one room and let's talk and then let's answer the questions. It's one thing to hear it's nice, it's another thing to really get the deep-down on it. I know what it will be. I've done this before, but it's my job to kind of convey to people what the finished product Larry and I have created will look like."

The nine condo unit types: five studios; 10 studios with den; 21 one-bedrooms; five one-bedrooms with den; 20 two-bedrooms; nine two-bedrooms with den; two three-bedrooms; five three-bedrooms with den; two penthouse suites.

In 2012, Roth and Richbell Capital headed by Simon Milde and his son Toby, acquired the Adelphi Hotel property for $4.5 million. The Adelphi opened in 1877 and is the last of the major hotels that operated on Broadway in the 19th century. The new owners made some improvements to the rundown hotel, had it open for one season while developing a plan then embarked on the major overhaul that took four years. Roth said the hotel has proven to be popular and that occupancy has been at about 100% during the racing season and at an average of approximately 80% for the year.

Roth wanted to continue to grow, incorporating the Rip Van Dam and land behind it on Washington Street, with an even bigger undertaking.

"Basically, the reason I had to separate with my partners was because they did not have the same vision I had," he said. "I said to them, 'We should do something with the rest of the property because someone's going to do something. Someone's going to take that parking lot and they're going to build a competing hotel. You don't want to compete with a hotel next to the Adelphi because we're getting very good rates at the Adelphi and that hotel was not going to get the same rates.' That's when we completely separated. They said, 'No, we're not going to buy it.' I said, 'Yes, we are.' That's when we separated and I decided to buy the Rip Van Dam and that's when Michael got involved."

"He saw the vision too. We both grew up in that same area of Long Island. We both had the same vision of what this property could be."

What Roth and Dubb--equal partners in the entire development of the hotel and the Residences--settled on was the expansion into the Rip Van Dam, increasing the Adelphi from its 32 to 45 rooms. Eight more rooms have just become available in a new adjoining structure. The final 12 to reach the total of 65 are expected to go on-line by mid-August.

Rather than 85 apartments, they opted for the 79 condos in a building being constructed on Washington Street. Among the many amenities available is an underground parking for 100 cars, which includes EV charging stations. A key element of the concept, modeled after top resorts around the world is that amenities, such as gyms, spas, meeting rooms and game rooms, security, as well as hotel concierge and housekeeping services will be available to condominium residents and hotel guests. Condominium owners will be able to rent their properties through the Adelphi, which will handle all the details.

"It's really not just unusual to Saratoga, but I think this is unusual to the entire upstate of New York," Dubb said.

The foundation of the complex are the historic buildings with their distinctive facades that face Broadway. They required extensive upgrades and the new structures were built behind them. What had been something of a quiet corner on busy Broadway has undergone a dramatic change in the last 10 years.

"This is really born out of a passion and a love for Saratoga. In my case, decades and decades long," Dubb said. "It's actually 50 years this year since the first time I came to Saratoga and for Larry, kind of love at first sight and he totally immersed himself in it."

Dubb said the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic slowed the project by six months to a year and added 30% to the cost. Interior work was ongoing for a couple of years, and at the end of last summer, with the permits in place, the structures started to rise.

"In September, there was nothing," Dubb said. "After Labor Day, we started construction on the additional hotel rooms that would be located in the new building, as well as the 79 condominiums. So if you left Saratoga as a horse person, and left on Labor Day, you came back and you said, 'Wow, there's a whole building standing here.'"

Long gone are the days when Saratoga Springs reverted to a sleepy little upstate city when the 24-day four-week racing season wrapped up in late August.

"What we're finding is Saratoga really stands on its own as a very prominent area in New York state," Dubb said. "A lot of people who are involved in Thoroughbreds think Saratoga begins and ends with the Thoroughbred season, but it doesn't. It's busy here all year round. In the wintertime, people will come here and use it as a base to ski. Leaf season. Springtime. Skidmore graduation. Parents Weekend in October."

Roth said his experience through five years with the Adelphi proved there is plenty of demand for luxury accommodations.

"I'm telling you from our own records that the hotel is busy pretty much all year round," he said.

The purchase of the Rip Van Dam and construction of the building directly behind it has enabled Roth and Dubb to create space to increase the size of the Salt & Char steakhouse on the first floor of the Rip Van Dam. Also, the relocation of a kitchen to a new space, will lead to a larger lobby for the Adelphi Hotel. They have also increased the size of the ballroom.

The condos have open floor plans, are bright with plenty of glass and have balconies.

"We really wanted to provide the highest level of detail," Dubb said. "Take the detail and the luxury of the hotel rooms, carry it through to the residences. The residences have high ceilings, nice trim, Andersen Windows, Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances, Restoration Hardware (now RH) vanities, seven-inch hardwood flooring. All of the really high-end details that you would find in a hotel room. And large bathrooms."

The Residences are connected to the Adelphi Hotel with its Morrissey's Lounge and Bistro, Salt & Char, Wine Cellar and the ballroom. A salon will be located in the Residences. The Starbucks coffee shop on the corner has been closed during the reconstruction phase, but will re-open. Nearby on Broadway and side streets are many restaurants, bars and shops. Dubb said that through experience with other properties, he knows the combination is an attractive package.

"I strongly believe in this concept, in this way of living," he said. "We also own apartment buildings, and retail and industrial, so I have a pretty good sense of what people want. Even in large residential communities I've built, I tried to put in a retail shopping area as an amenity to the community. It's a lifestyle."

Roth and Dubb will be part of the community at Broadway and Washington.

"I kid everybody that Larry and I love it so much the first two homes we sold to ourselves," Dubb said. "Then our sales representative also bought one. There's no higher testament to what you believe in than putting your money where your mouth is and wanting to live there. I think both of us look forward to living the dream that we've envisioned and work so hard for. And, trust me, we have worked hard on this project."

FASIG-TIPTON TO OPEN SARATOGA SALES GROUNDS FOR AUGUST ONLINE SALE ENTRIES

Fasig-Tipton's sales grounds in Saratoga will be available for August Digital Horses of Racing Age sellers who wish to use the facility to show their consignments to prospective buyers, the auction company announced Tuesday.

"The July Selected Horses of Racing Age sale illustrated the strength of the current marketplace for active racehorses, and we want to offer sellers another avenue by which to showcase their consignment towards the end of the Saratoga meet," Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton's Director of Digital Sales, said. "Top trainers and owners from across the country will be in Saratoga for the Travers that weekend and recent results have shown that the demand for racehorses is as strong as ever."

All horses of racing age sellers will be permitted to ship in on Aug. 27, for showing on Aug. 28. The catalogue will be released Aug. 24. Bidding for the online-only sale closes starting at 2 p.m. ET Aug. 29.

"The August Digital Sale offers buyers an opportunity to purchase horses of racing age ahead of the lucrative fall race meetings--meetings that feature the last turf racing opportunities of the year in many states," Aaron added. "We encourage racing stables to take advantage of the strong demand for horses of racing age and enter into our August sale."

The deadline to nominate for the August Digital Sale is Aug. 16. Click here to learn more or nominate online.

BREEDERS' CUP EN VIVO RETURNS IN 2023

"Breeders' Cup En Vivo," an all-Spanish digital series covering five Breeders' Cup Challenge Series 'Win and You're In' races will air live on the Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube channels of the Breeders' Cup. The Kentucky Turf Cup and Keeneland broadcasts will be produced in partnership with DRF en Espanol. The "Breeders' Cup En Vivo" team will be comprised of co-hosts Claudia Spadaro, Darwin Vizcaya, Roberto Rodriguez, and Annise Montplaisir--who also produces the show.

The 2023 "Breeders' Cup En Vivo" schedule includes: the Aug. 12 GI Fourstardave S. which offers an automatic berth to the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile; the Sept. 2 GI FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic (GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic); Sept. 9 GI Kentucky Turf Cup (GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf); the Sept. 30 GI Awesome Again S. (Classic); and Oct. 6 GIDarley Alcibiades S. (GI NetJets Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies).

"We are very pleased to present the groundbreaking programming of 'Breeders' Cup En Vivo' for a third consecutive season," said Justin McDonald, Chief Marketing Officer of Breeders' Cup Limited. "This series highlights the truly global nature of the Breeders' Cup while providing on-site coverage of key Challenge Series races for Spanish-speaking fans and participants alike."

Montplaisir added, "The engagement and comments we've received from Spanish-speaking racing fans for these shows has been overwhelmingly positive. Each co-host on this team has their own fan base and provides their own unique perspective, which collectively contributes to extraordinarily high-quality Spanish coverage of the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series."

WEDNESDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: $550K VINO ROSSO FILLY DEBUTS AT COLONIAL by Christina Bossinakis

Spendthrift stallion Vino Rosso | Sarah Andrew

1st-CNL, $60K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:30p.m.

Lael Stables' BUBBLING UP (Vino Rosso) marks her career debut at Colonial Downs for trainer Michael Stidham. Out of GSP Shaken (Uncle Mo), the Mark Stansell-bred filly brought $550,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga Select Sale last summer. The top-priced offspring by the 2019 Champion Older Dirt Male Vino Rosso last season, the filly's pricetag far surpassed the Spendthrift sire's 2022 yearling average of $94,287 for 112 head sold. TJCIS PPs

PAT'SCHROMECOMPASS (f, 3, California Chrome--Dancing Compass, by Orientate), third in her career debut sprinting at Tampa Apr. 12, was bumped at the start of her next race--an 8 1/2-furlong turf test at Churchill May--and faded badly late to be 10th. Overlooked at 25-1 to get things back on track while cutting back on the dirt here, the chestnut was settled back in third early as 6-1 shot Ruby Tap (Tapit) and Port Townsend (Uncle Mo), sent off at 9-2, showed the way through a :22.75 opening quarter. Creeping up on the inside of the leaders passing the quarter pole, Pat'schromecompass pulled on even terms straightening for home, drew clear and had enough to fend off the late-closing Happy Charger (Super Saver)--a full-sister to GISW Happy Saver--at the wire. SONG OF NORWAY (f, 2, Flatter--Cougarstown {SW, $101,723}, by Speightstown) was installed the 2-1 favorite, her position only strengthened by the late scratch of the well-meant Pinotsilgirl (Jimmy Creed). Jumping to the front in a blink of an eye from her high draw, the Wesley Ward trainee led 3-1 chance Saltwater Taffy (Twirling Candy) and Midnight Angel (West Coast) through an initial quarter in :22.12. Rolling through the a half in :45.79, the blinkered filly opened up in the stretch, crossing the wire an uncontested 4 1/4-length winner over Saltwater Taffy, who outstayed 5-2 second choice Candy Landy (Candy Ride {Arg}). Following the race, the stewards had to take a look as Satona (Constitution), who broke awkwardly to the outside, and was forced to check hard as she ran up on the heels of Candy Landy early.

Following some deliberation, the result was allowed to stand. A half to Treason (Constitution), GSW, $196,277 and Elevenses (More Than Ready), SW & GSP, $146,365, the winner also has a weanling sister by Not This Time. 7th-Prairie Meadows, $43,057, (S), Msw, 7-31, 2yo, f, 5f, :59.89, ft, 5 1/2 lengths.

WON HAPPY MAMA (f, 2, Runhappy--Vicarious Won {MSP, $138,339}, by Elusive Quality), sent off the even-money choice, went to the front early, led throughout and cruised home a 5 1/2-length winner over Esprit Rouge (Mor Spirit). The winner is a half to Anarchist (Distorted Humor), GSW-Can, GISP-USA, $310,508. Sales history: $40,000 Ylg '22 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,661. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuelTV.

VINERY SALES GRADUATE

3rd-Ellis, $40,000, Msw, 8-1, 2yo, f, 5 1/2ft, 1:05.04, fm, 1 1/4 lengths.

INTEGRATED DESIGN (f, 2, Hard Spun--Adjudication, by Giant's Causeway) didn't lift a leg when a well-beaten seventh in her debut going a sixteenth shorter on the Ellis dirt July 7 and was given an 8-1 chance to rebound on the turf while drawing in the off the Also Eligible list. Close-up to the fleet-footed Princess Mitole (Mitole) through a flashy :21.86 opening quarter, the grey overtook that rival with relative ease near the quarter pole and drove clear late to score over the rapidly-closing firster My Happy Holiday (Runhappy), who galloped out far ahead of the winner. A daughter of MGSW Criminologist (Maria's Mon), Adjudication produced a filly by Munnings last term and was bred back to Army Mule on a 2023 cover. Sales history: $40,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

6th-Finger Lakes, $31,989, Msw, 8-1, 2yo, f, 5f, :59.28, ft, 8 3/4 lengths.

MYBRONXBABY (f, 2, Mitole--My Bronx Tail, by Speightstown) went straight to the front and led at every call, running off to an eye-catching 8 3/4-length victory. My Bronx Tail, a daughter of GSW Winding Way (Malibu Moon), dropped a colt by Practical Joke this season and was bred back to Epicenter. This is the sixth winner for Freshman sire (by Eskendereya). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,260. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

ANOTHER TRAVIS DURR GRADUATE

8th-Thistledown, $26,400, Msw, 8-1, 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2f, 1:05.80, ft, 6 3/4 lengths.

HONORABLE WOMAN (f, 3, Gun Runner--You Axed Me, by Twirling Candy), fifth going a sixteenth farther at Indiana June 17, was sent off the 3-5 choice while taking blinkers off this time. Off a beat slow, Honorable Woman quickly put herself into striking position down the backstretch despite losing some precious yardage early. Dragging jockey Israel Acevedo to the front approaching the quarter pole, the bay strode clear to score by an easy 6 3/4-length margin over Coromandel (Tekton). A half-sister to MGSW and GISP Core Beliefs (Quality Road), You Axed Me produced her most recent live foal in 2021, a full brother to Honorable Woman. She was bred back to Vino Rosso. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $16,860. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuelTV.

QUICKTHORN IN BRILLIANT GOODWOOD CUP SOLO

Quickthorn dominates the Goodwood Cup | Goodwood Racecourse

by Tom Frary

Maybe the fact that it is so demanding means that it can only be a once-a-year thing, but Lady Blyth's Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}--Daffydowndilly {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) is a joy to behold when he delivers his runaway train impression and Goodwood's gathering had a full two miles to appreciate it again on Tuesday as he turned the G1 Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup into a one-horse show.

As he had last August when issuing a 14-length beating to Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in York's G2 Lonsdale Cup over this two-mile trip, the Hughie Morrison-trained Secretariat of the stayers was allowed to stride on at the pace he is comfortable at by Tom Marquand but which is simply too quick for the rest of this division's leading protagonists.

Turning for home, the yawning gap was still too sizeable for any to bridge and by the time the 16-1 shot hit the line there was still six lengths back to the nearest in the pursuing blanket. That turned out to be Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who denied Coltrane the silver medal by a short head, with the G1 Gold Cup-winning 2-1 favourite Courage Mon Ami (GB) (Frankel {GB}) only sixth in a race that will be cherished for many years for the sheer audacity of the winning performance.

GOODWOOD: "I THINK HE CAN GET EVEN BETTER." SUSSEX AT THE MERCY OF PADDINGTON by Tom Frary

Last year, Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) was 1-6 when extending his influence in Goodwood's G1 Qatar Sussex S. and if the forecast heavy rain leads to the withdrawal of Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) it could be that the 2023 edition sees another mortal lock in Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}). With the prospect of up to 10mm of overnight rain before strong storm winds hit the area, this is going to be tough going and Cheveley Park Stud's Chris Richardson has not ruled out giving it a miss if the ground deepens too much. "At this point in time, all being well, we'll run," he said. "Heavy ground wouldn't suit her. We have taken the chance and more rain would suit Paddington probably more perhaps than us. She handles soft ground." Cont. p11

"He's a fun horse to ride," Marquand said. "There's no masterplan with him. Down at the gates Frankie looked across and laughed and said 'are you going to drop in?' He goes out wearing his heart on his sleeve and everybody knows what he's going to do and they still can't stop him. It is testament to how good he is. He's had some great days, but he deserved a Group 1 and it would have felt wrong if he had never got one."

By the time Quickthorn had demolished the opposition in the Lonsdale Cup last August, he was on a three-timer having also garnered the G3 Henry II S. at Sandown and ParisLongchamp's G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil. As if that effort took him past his limit, his following three outings which included a disappointing no-show in the G1 Prix du Cadran had seen his stock fall and that York tour de force seem an aberration. It all came back together again as he returned to the Knavesmire for the 14-furlong Listed Grand Cup last time, as he was able to turn back the subsequent G2 Princess of Wales's S. winner Israr (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) and while there was much upside to that form this was a deep Goodwood Cup and most were happy to overlook him.

What was remarkable about this performance was that Quickthorn actually ran at the right tempo throughout having shown alacrity on this tricky circuit to gain a huge four-second gap or just over 20 lengths on everything after the first mile. Given a breather out in isolation from seven to five out, he was asked to go again from there and instead of caving in continued to churn out sectionals strong enough to ensure the margin never approached being cut back. Cont. p4

The gap to Coltrane et al was 15 lengths three furlongs from home and while he was almost 2 1/2 seconds slower than Emily Dickinson from there to the line, she was too far back to make a genuine difference.

Quickthorn's final three-furlong percentage was an almost bang-on 101.45%, while Emily Dickinson was at 108.63%, so that means that the leader was ridden ideally and the filly was given too much to do along with the next four home who finished in a tight bunch.

Perhaps the main reason why such class horses got so far adrift was the relatively slow pace set by Oisin Murphy as he lead the peloton, determined not to provide Frankie with a target as he had at Royal Ascot. The others trusted Murphy's judgement and ultimately paid for it.

On the back of some remarkable staying performances in the last 12 months, from the Cadran win of Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to the Northumberland Plate success of Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) and all the parts played by the scene's other main actors Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Coltrane, this was something else.

Marquand's ride will be recalled for some time to come and he was quick to pardon those in behind in the aftermath.

"It's easy to say in hindsight, but I wouldn't be putting down other riders in behind as you would be doing them a disservice—I would be giving this lad credit for going such a gallop," he explained. "If I was in behind I would have done the same. He's a relentless galloper and you think 'no horse can keep that up' but it's a case of going and finding a rhythm and wherever that puts you, it puts you. Obviously we showed that in the Lonsdale Cup last year and it just feels like the right way to ride him." Cont. p5

Hughie Morrison said, “I was amazed he was that price, but we don’t mind. We were pretty bullish today and no one was prepared to be the chaser, but had they been they would have probably not got there and then finished out the back. He’s got a huge stride and I’d love to do an analysis on that, as it would be something for posterity I think, and he’s quite quick. When you cover that kind of ground, it’s psychologically hard work for the others to get there.”

“It’s great to see that York last year wasn’t a fluke and the Lonsdale was like a Group 1, but the opposition didn’t turn up,” his trainer added. “I’m sure we would have dealt with Stradivarius and Trueshan there as we dealt with the others today and he was as straight as a die at the end—you wondered if something had come to him he would have picked up again. He’s quite hard on himself at home—every other horse has to do about three strides for his one—and so probably in the autumn, he seems to go over the top. That’s fair enough after you see what he does on days like today, so we’re probably quite nervous about going into the autumn with him again. He’s in the Lonsdale again and he’ll have a penalty this year, he’s got an entry in Ireland [in the G1 Irish St Leger].”

Paying tribute to the owner-breeders, Morrison concluded, “It is fantastic for James and Pam [Blyth], who bred him and it’s fantastic to see they kept him and owned him. They have been very patient with him and we’ve got our rewards. We don’t have a huge amount of horses, 50 or 60, and it’s fantastic to train these homebreds and to be able to bring them on so they reach their zenith at the right sort of age. Lady Blyth has bred a Grade 1 winner over jumps and a Group 1 winner now—not many people have done that.”

Oisin Murphy saw the damage was done early on as he pondered the ride on Coltrane, who had similarly never got anywhere near the winner at York last year. “It was obvious in the first furlong that Lone Eagle, Tashkhan and Broome—those horses you’d expect to go forward—weren’t going forward, so I changed my plan and decided to let Coltrane roll down to the first turn,” he explained. “I thought Tom was very clever around those sharp bends, he allowed Quickthorn to really slip on. You can only go so fast around those turns, because they are quite sharp and by the time we turned to go back uphill, he had a sizeable advantage.”

“He had to use up a fair bit of energy, albeit basically going downhill, to get away from us but often you pay for that sort of ride and in the last furlong I wasn’t sure if he would stop completely. I probably cost myself second position by trying to close the gap from three down. Quickthorn has a massive pair of lungs and covers so much ground, so he has enough pace to get away from a high-class field. I was aware of what could happen and he was still able to do it.”

Pedigree Notes

Lord and Lady Blyth’s Daffydowndilly, who also has the improving 4-year-old gelding City Streak (GB) (Cityscape {GB}) with Andrew Balding who took a valuable 12-furlong handicap at Ascot on Friday, is a daughter of Art Eyes (Halling) who captured the Listed Noel Murless S. and was second in this meeting’s Lillie Langtry S. when it was staged as a Group 3. From an old Aga Khan family, she has the yearling filly Tardaff (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) and a colt foal Scarlet Legend (GB) who is a full-brother to Quickthorn.

HAATEM PREVAILS IN GOODWOOD'S VINTAGE

by Sean Cronin

Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsabab's Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}--Hard Walnut {Ire}, by Cape Cross {Ire}) was the most experienced of nine contenders lining up for Tuesday's G2 Nicholson Gin Vintage S. at Goodwood and paid a handsome compliment to his G2 Superlative S. conqueror City Of Troy (Justify) with a game success in the seven-furlong test.

The March-foaled bay becomes the first stakes winner for freshman sire Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and a first winner of the contest for Richard Hannon, whose father Richard senior collected five editions.

The 9-4 favourite was positioned within range of the leaders in a handy fifth after a slick getaway. Making smooth progress once into the straight, he was ridden to seize control approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a drive to withstand the late threat of Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) by a length. Ballydoyle representative Mountain Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) threatened out wide passing the furlong pole and ran on well to finish a neck further adrift in third.

"Haatem is a lovely horse, he deserved that after running so well in the Coventry and the Superlative and I am very pleased," said Hannon. "I thought this was his day and could be his Derby, but he will get better as the year goes on. He is a horse big enough for next year and is not just about being a 2-year-old. He is a Group 2 winner now, so obviously we will have to look at Group 1 races, but he is getting better. He has to improve to take on the real big guys, but he is doing that with every run."

Winning rider Sean Level added, "On paper, Haatem deserved to win this. For a big horse, he hasn't missed any dances and he's been unlucky to run into a couple of exceptional horses without getting his head in front. He ran into an exceptional horse of Mr. O'Brien's last time, his form stood out today and I would have been disappointed if he did get beaten. He is a big horse with plenty of scope who will keep improving. It is a sharp track here and, as much as he has a classy way of travelling, I did feel he was a bit workmanlike through the line. He gave the impression that going up to a mile might get a little bit more out of him. He doesn't have anything else to prove this year, but we'll proceed with time in mind. With a winter on him, he could be anything next year."

The runner-up's trainer Charlie Hills commented, "Iberian is a really nice horse and William [Buick] was very impressed by him. Obviously being drawn nine, he had to be patient with him and he has run a great race." Cont. p7

He added, "I think we'll probably look at the [G2] Champagne S. and, if he goes well there, the [G1] Dewhurst. That softer surface probably blunted the speed out of him. He had them covered, but when William asked he just floundered a little bit on the [good-to-soft] going. I am pleased he stepped up to show us that he's up to this level."

Pedigree Notes

Haatem, who had previously run fifth in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S., is the fifth of six foals and one of three scorers out of a dual-winning half-sister to G3 Premio Carlo Vittadini and G3 Premio del Giubileo runner-up Father Frost (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) and Listed Prix Pelleas, Listed Doncaster Mile and Listed Foundation S. placegetter Born To Be Alive (Ire) (Born To Sea {Ire}). His second dam Yaria (Ire) (Danehill), herself a daughter of G1 Phoenix S. runner-up Yara (Ire) (Sri Pekan), is a winning sibling of dual stakes scorer Emirates Gold (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), Listed Prix Melisande victrix Yarastar (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and the stakes-placed Yario (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Haatem, half-brother to a weanling filly by Inns Of Court (Ire), hails from the family of G1SW sires Homme De Loi (Ire) (Law Society) and Mister Majestic (Ire) (Tumble Wind).

HATS OFF FOR HAATEM - BOURKE BACK IN THE BIG TIME WITH ANOTHER BARGAIN

BUY By Brian Sheerin

If anyone had been chalking John Bourke's Classic success down to pure fluke, well then they may have been forced to reevaluate the Hyde Park Stud operator's method to breeding high-class horses on a budget after Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}) stormed to G2 Vintage S. glory at Goodwood on Tuesday.

Haatem is the latest triumph for his approach to sourcing mares on a budget, given he shelled out just 11,000gns for Hard Walnut (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), the dam of the Richard Hannon-trained runner at the same sale in 2020. Cont. p8 Speaking shortly after the Goodwood win, Bourke said, "It's brilliant. I'm watching the racing at home here and I've watched the replay about five times already! I was very worried when Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) appeared on the outside but Haatem was very good.

"He's a tough horse and this was his sixth run. Listen, he's a good solid horse and I have the mare here still. She's in foal to Far Above (Ire) and is a strong, good-looking mare but she lacks a bit of size. Far Above is a fast and scopey horse so the cross should work well. She has an Inns Of Court (Ire) filly at foot as well."

Haatem was consigned by Sherbourne Lodge at Book 2 at Tattersalls last year. He sold to Peter and Ross Doyle on behalf of Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsabah for 27,000gns and has gone from strength to strength for the Hannon team.

Bourke commented, "I sold Haatem as a yearling through Sherbourne Lodge at Book 2. I was buying yearlings at Book 2 and Book 3 so it's very hard to buy and sell at the same time. That's why he went through with Sherbourne Lodge. I just want to thank Sherbourne Lodge, Richard Hannon and Peter and Ross Doyle for everything. They've all done a brilliant job."

But the real success story here, according to Bourke, is Haatem's sire Phoenix Of Spain. The Irish National Stud resident has had an electric start at stud, on the strength of which Bourke has decided to send him two mares next year, including Hard Walnut.

Speaking about what attracted him to Hard Walnut in the first place, he recalled, "The match suited because Phoenix Of Spain is a big scopey horse and Hard Walnut isn't the biggest herself. She's a very strong, good-looking mare but she does lack a bit of size.

"I have to say, I'd be respecting everything that Phoenix Of Spain is doing. Even if I'd nothing to do with Haatem, what Phoenix Of Spain is doing is quite impressive. I've a mare in foal to him on the farm and I am going to send him two mares next year as well."

Bourke added, "Hard Walnut will go back to him next year, that's if they do me a good deal! Phoenix Of Spain was a very good horse himself but what he is doing now wasn't really scripted because he is more of a horse to produce two-year-olds for the second half of the season.

"Haatem was unlucky in the Woodcote at Epsom. He was left in the stalls and still managed to finish third. He was fifth in the Coventry and was second to a machine in City Of Troy (Justify) in the Superlative Stakes at Newmarket so he deserved his Group 2 win today."

Bourke may have an uncanny knack when it comes to pulling a rabbit out of the hat at the sales but you won't see him taking any credit for the whirlwind success the farm has enjoyed in recent years.

Asked to put the past two years into words, he said, "I'm going to start stuttering and stammering now! We all work hard here on the farm and we just like to buy those good-looking, fast and strong mares. For me, just because you spend a hundred grand on a mare doesn't mean you are going to get paid for the foals in year one or two." Cont. p9

He added, "I like these trading mares if I can use that word. Some people call them second-hand mares but you just have to cover them right and hope for the best. There are some good farms in Westmeath. We have Tally-Ho Stud and Lynn Lodge around here so it's a good area."

Providing an update on the most famous mare on the farm, Poyle Sophie, he added, "She foaled at the end of April but didn't go back in foal so we left her off for the year. I have a Mehmas (Ire) colt going to Book 1 out of her and she has a Mehmas filly foal on the ground. We'll sell the colt first and then we will see what we do with the filly. We have a nice bunch of mares to cover next season."

KINROSS DENIES ISAAC SHELBY TO REGISTER A SECOND TRIUMPH IN THE LENNOX by Sean Cronin

The field for Tuesday's G2 World Pool Lennox S. at Goodwood was reduced by a third after three of the nine original nominees were withdrawn, but nonetheless produced a thrilling finish in which Marc Chan's 2021 winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}--Ceilidh House {GB}, by Selkirk) defeated G1 Poule d'Essai de Poulains runner-up Isaac Shelby (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) to become the third dual winner of the seven-furlong contest.

Last term's G1 Prix de la Foret and G1 British Champions Sprint hero was swiftly into stride from the inside stall and raced along the rail in third before slipping to fourth at halfway. Shaken up at the cutaway with a quarter-mile remaining, the 10-11 favourite was ridden along to launch his bid entering the final furlong and kept on well under continued urging to withstand the persistent challenge of Isaac Shelby by a neck. The pair drew three lengths clear of the remainder headed by last term's G2 Vintage S. winner and 28-1 outsider Marbaan (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

"Kinross has spent a good chunk of the last 48 hours with his left fore in a bucket because he trod on a stone," trainer Ralph Beckett said of last year's runner-up and GI Breeders' Cup Mile third. "He's got very, very thin soles and he feels every pinprick, but when he gets here he loves it. He should have won it last year, he got trapped in and got there too late, but what a horse to own and what a horse to train." Cont. p10

Beckett added, “He likes soft ground because he is out of a Selkirk mare, but over a mile he handles it quick and we’ll take the same route [as last year] again. He’ll go to York, he might go to Doncaster for the [G2] Park S. and I hope he’ll go to Longchamp for the [G1 Prix de la] Foret, the [G1 British Champions] Sprint at Ascot, and Santa Anita [for the G1 Breeders’ Cup Mile]. He is a gelding, that’s what he’s there for and he’s got to dance every dance. He could go to Hong Kong, particularly with his owner being Hong Kong-based, and there is an idea that that might happen as well. We might have to duck one of the races here to ensure he gets there at the end of the year, but it’s a good problem to have.”

Frankie Dettori, who also annexed the 2006 renewal aboard Ifraaj (GB) (Zafonic), added, “Kinross is my ATM machine and he keeps bringing in the money every year. He is super consistent, he’s versatile and seven furlongs is his favourite trip. All the credit goes to the Beckett team and this horse. He is a star. He’s good for Marc [Chan], who is not here today, but I’m sure he is watching on World Pool. I think Marc wants to run him in Hong Kong at the end of the season, so fingers crossed for that. There are plenty of other targets, including the race he won last year at Ascot, and he loves the soft ground although he ran a great race in the Breeders’ Cup on firm.”

Reflecting on the performance of Isaac Shelby, Brian Meehan said, “I am disappointed, obviously, but I’m very pleased with my horse and he ran all the way to the line. I don’t know what the official distance is, but he’s that close to a genuine Group 1 horse. Sean [Levey] was very happy and said it was a solid run. I guess the cutaway helped Kinross a little bit, but he’s a wonderful Group 1 horse and we were not far away. My horse is a 3-year-old and relatively lightly raced. He is very good and only going to get better. We space his runs out, so I’ve got to talk to the owners and see what they’d like to do. I think the Foret is an obvious target, but we’ll see.”

Charlie Fellowes was thrilled with the effort of Marbaan and commented, “We have been beaten by two proper Group 1 horses and I am delighted with that. I think Jamie [Spencer] felt, had the ground been just a bit quicker, we might have been able to get a little bit closer to them, but he’s run a cracker. I have always felt that he is one of those horses who is better ridden with a little bit of confidence and a little bit of patience. He has plenty of entries and I need to have a look at the calendar.”

Pedigree Notes

Kinross, third in last month’s G1 July Cup when last seen, is the fifth of six foals and one of four scorers produced by Listed Gillies Fillies’ S. victress Ceilidh House (GB) (Selkirk), herself kin to the dam of G3 Solario S. winner and G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains runner-up First Selection (Spa) (Diktat {GB}). His dual stakes-winning second dam Villa Carlotta (GB) (Rainbow Quest), herself a daughter of multiple stakes-winning G3 Rockfel S. second Subya (GB) (Night Shift) from the family of G1 Irish Derby-winning sire Law Society (Alleged), is a half-sister to G1 Hollywood Derby second Battle of Hastings (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) and to the stakes-placed dam of South African Grade 1 performers Mijet (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}) and Felix The Cat (SAf) (Black Minnaloushe).

RACE PREVIEWS

Even if Inspiral is allowed to square up to Ballydoyle's workaholic colt, it is fair to say that the Gosdens' G1 Fillies' Mile, G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois heroine will have her work cut out in this 'Win and You're In' for the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile in November.

At least the father-and-son trainer combination now have a proper marker on him having lost out with Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the Eclipse. Easy ground is of no concern to Aidan O'Brien, as it shouldn't be when we are talking about a son of Siyouni out of a Montjeu mare. He had heavy ground in the Madrid and soft in the Tetrarch, so if it gets deep this could be a complete mismatch.

Already a step ahead of Giant's Causeway, who was beaten in the Irish 2000 Guineas, Paddington is staying on the trail of the "Iron Horse" for now and Ryan Moore has a warning for those who try to obstruct him. "I think he can get even better," he said on his betfair blog. "What this horse has done this season is little short of extraordinary, as he keeps on building and improving with every run. He won on heavy first time up and he has done it on better ground since and I get the impression there is more in the locker, even if his defeat of Emily Upjohn was obviously top-class form in its own right."

It hasn't been plain sailing for Inspiral since her Coronation rout last June, with surprisingly only one success in her next four starts. On balance, her form is probably short of what is needed to upset Paddington and she has four pounds to give away to him in the bargain. Chris Richardson is aware of the task at hand. "Paddington is a serious horse. He is a bit of a superstar, but we're fresh and he's had a few more races than us," he said.

"We wanted to give her plenty of time after Royal Ascot. France was in the mix, but those races are too close together now and they have had plenty of rain over there."

Big Guns Assemble For The Molecomb

Goodwood also stages the G3 Jaeger-Lecoultré Molecomb S. for 2-year-olds over the rapid five furlongs, where the six-length Listed Dragon S. winner Kylian (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) encounters the three-length Listed Windsor Castle S. scorer Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) and the disappointing TDN Rising Stars Purosangue (GB) (Aclaim {Ire}) and Barnwell Boy (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). Mick Appleby said of Big Evs, "I think he will be okay on the ground, as long as it doesn't go heavy. You'd think he'd be okay on good-to-soft ground and the dam won on soft ground, so hopefully he should be all right. Obviously we have Kylian to beat. Should all go well, we'll probably go for the [G2] Gimcrack next."

Nassau Battle Is On

Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) and Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) have been confirmed for Thursday's G1 Qatar Nassau S. at Goodwood, with just six due to line up for the 10-furlong feature. They include Shadwell's Al Husn (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) who beat Nashwa in the G3 Hoppings S. at Newcastle last month, and Above The Curve (American Pharoah). John Gosden is relishing bringing the brilliant G1 Falmouth S. winner here for a tilt at back-to-back renewals.

"I think it's a fabulous race and, as in the Eclipse, the King George, and the Sussex S., we get that clash of the generations, which we all want to see. It's very healthy for the generations to meet like that and not duck and dive to avoid each other."

EUROPEAN NEWS

SEA THE STARS COLT ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GOFFS ORBY BOOK 2 CATALOGUE

A full-brother to Group 3 winner Alpen Rose (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) is one of the star lots catalogued in the Goffs Orby Book 2 Sale on Sept. 28-29. One of 511 yearlings set to sell over the two-day stand, the colt (lot 712) is out of the winning Valais Girl (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}).

Formerly the Goffs Sportsman's Sale, the re-named sale boasts alumni of the quality of GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile S. winners Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) and River Boyne (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), as well as GI Del Mar Oaks heroine Going Global (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

Some of the sires represented include Acclamation (GB), Blue Point (Ire), Bungleinthejungle (GB), Calyx (GB), Churchill (Ire), Cotai Glory (GB), Dark Angel (Ire), Dandy Man (Ire), Kodiak (GB), Mehmas (Ire), New Bay (GB), Oasis Dream (GB), Soldier's Call (GB) and Starspangledbanner (Aus).

Other lots of note are: lot 636, a half-brother to the stakes winner and group-placed Manhattan Jungle (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) by Shaman (Ire); a Magna Grecia (Ire) colt who is a half-brother to Group 3 winner Coral Beach (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) (lot 743); a Havana Grey (GB) filly out of a half-sister to multiple group winner and three-time Group 1-placed sire Soldier's Call (GB) (lot 902); an Advertise (GB) colt out of stakes winner and Group 1-placed Forever In Dreams (Ire) (Dream Ahead) (lot 912); stakes winner Action Point (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire})'s Ghaiyyath (Ire) half-brother is lot 968; lot 969 is a No Nay Never half-brother to stakes winner and Group 3-placed Royal Acclaim (Ire) (Acclaim {Ire}); and lot 988, a colt by Kodi Bear (Ire) who is a full-brother to stakes winner and G1 Commonwealth Cup third Measure Of Magic (Ire).

Like the 2023 Goffs Orby Book 1 catalogue, all yearlings offered in Book 2 are eligible for the Goffs Two Million Series in 2024 with a guaranteed minimum prize fund of €2 million. The seven-furlong €1-million Goffs Million and the six-furlong €500,000 Goffs 500 will be run at the Curragh on the eve of next year's Orby week. A series of €50,000 bonuses will also be awarded to the winners of a variety of 2-year-old maidens on Irish racecourses throughout next season.

Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, "We are delighted to present a catalogue of real quality for Orby Book 2. The support from breeders across Orby Book 1 and Book 2 has seen a significant increase this year and we are extremely grateful as it allows Goffs to deliver on our promise to provide the gateway to the world for Irish breeders and repay their trust.

"The 2-year-old strike rate and value synonymous with Orby Book 2 is what draws such a diverse group of buyers to this sale each year and, with the unique incentive of the Two Million Series where only Orby graduates will compete for a massive €2 million, there has never been a better time to buy a Goffs yearling."

CROWLEY BANNED, FINED FOR KING GEORGE RIDE

Jockey Jim Crowley has been banned for 20 days and fined £10,000 for his winning ride aboard Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. Both he and Rob Hornby, who was aboard runner-up Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}), were referred to the British Horseracing Authority's Whip Review Committee following the tight finish with only Crowley receiving a ban.

On Monday the whip rules were tweaked once more by the BHA following a six-month review period and under the new regulations Flat riders are only permitted to use their whip six times in a race, with a four-day ban for going one over the limit and seven days for going two over. Crowley used his whip nine times, which incurs a 10-day ban and is doubled for a class one race. Hornby benefitted from the revisions, but had the rules not been changed he would have received an eight-day ban.

Crowley will be sidelined from Aug. 15-21 and Aug. 23-Sept. 4 and will miss riding Shadwell's G1 Prince of Wales's S. winner Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Juddmonte International on Aug. 16 during the Ebor meeting at York.

"I'm extremely disappointed, obviously I had an inkling it was coming so I prepared myself," Crowley said. "I can't change it, I've got to get on with it."

"I don't think anything untoward has happened to those horses in any way, it was a brilliant race. I used my whip in a very correct manner, how I've been brought up to use it. I gave the horse time to respond, we never used it in any incorrect place or at shoulder height or anything like that. Unfortunately it's not something I was aware that I'd done, and neither was Rob. It's very difficult to count in that scenario."

Crowley hasn't decided if he will appeal his punishment.

"Although I broke the rules and I wasn't aware I broke the rules, I didn't think it was a problem watching the race. The horse's welfare always comes first and to me that wasn't a problem. I think they've been very severe and ruled with an iron fist, they don't want the win-at-all cost races. Jockeys aren't aware they're doing it, that's the problem."

"It's very unfortunate but it shouldn't take away from a brilliant race and a fantastic horse. I hope this doesn't overshadow that."

Hornby also didn't think he had violated the whip rule.

"I wasn't aware on the day, not at all," Hornby said. "In fact I was kicking myself as I thought I'd only done five (strokes)--that shows what my counting is like in that situation. I'm sure Jim is the same. It's a shame that it has cast a shadow over such a brilliant race, it should be remembered for two great horses."

MAYSON ON THE MOVE

Mayson (GB) has been sold to his part-owner and breeder David Armstrong and will leave Cheveley Park Stud after completing 11 breeding seasons.

The 15-year-old son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) is out of the Pivotal (GB) mare Mayleaf (GB) and won five of his 18 starts for Richard Fahey, including the G1 July Cup and G3 Palace House S., as well as being beaten just a neck when second in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye. At stud, he has been represented by the G1 King's Stand S. and July Cup winner Oxted (GB) and the G2 Sandy Lane S. winner Rohaan (Ire) among 28 black-type winners and a host of decent sprinters.

Chris Richardson, managing director of Cheveley Park Stud, said, "It has been a wonderful partnership between Cheveley Park Stud and David and Emma Armstrong. However, we feel Mayson could now benefit from a change of scenery. His success rate of winners to runners remains solid and we wish Mayson continued success in the future."

Future stud plans for Mayson are yet to be decided by the Armstrong family.

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

ALCANTOR LOOKS TO GET BACK ON TRACK AT CLAIREFONTAINE

13.25 Clairefontaine, Cond, €34,000, 2yo, 8ft

ALCANTOR (FR) (New Bay {GB}) is moved up to a mile from six furlongs by Andre Fabre, having lacked the raw pace to deal with the subsequent G3 Prix de Cabourg third Havana Cigar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) at Chantilly a month ago. That is no surprise given that Baron Edouard De Rothschild's TDN Rising Star is a half-brother to the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen winner Boscaccio (Ger) (Mount Nelson {GB}) and this potential confidence-booster against four fillies will hopefully see him reiterate what a class act he looked on debut over seven at Saint-Cloud in June.

HOW THEY FARED

18.10 Galway, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, f, 7ft

Mayfair (Ire) (Justify), the daughter of the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), was a serious eyecatcher in the maiden Ballydoyle have won three times since 2018 when their future luminary Hermosa (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) prevailed. Needing a reminder at halfway, the homebred closed to real effect in the last furlong to be fourth.

EXPERT CHOICE (GB) (c, 2, Expert Eye {GB})--Pigota {GB}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}, runner-up over course and distance last month, raced in a close-up second throughout the early stages. In front two out, the 7-4 second favourite forged ahead to score convincingly by three lengths from Galactic Charm (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). The winner is so far the only foal out of the dam, a daughter of the G1 Preis der Diana heroine Penelopa (GB) (Giant's Causeway) and half to the Listed River Eden S. scorer Pennymoor (GB) (Frankel {GB}). KELDEO (GB) (f, 2, Land Force {Ire})--Kept Under Wraps {Ire}, by Clodovil {Ire}, sent off at 33-1 following an inauspicious debut at Catterick last month, broke well before settling behind the leaders on the rail. Staying on strongly to gain the advantage with half a furlong remaining, the grey asserted to score by 3 1/4 lengths from Band Of Joy (GB) (Land Force {Ire}) to provide her first-season sire, who had the one-two, with his eighth winner. Keldeo is currently the last known foal out of a granddaughter of the famed Lagrion (Diesis {GB}), dam of Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Daneshill), Queen's Logic (Ire) (Grand Lodge) and Homecoming Queen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and second dam of Serpentine (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Shaken up when threatened soon after passing the quarter-mile marker, the 20-1 chance was headed by Array (Ire) (No Nay Never) deep inside the final furlong and produced one last lunge under a drive in the dying strides to deny that rival by a short head on the line. "We always liked this horse at home, we know he improved from the run [at Naas] and there's a lot more to come from him," reflected Curragh-based Brazilian Diego Dias. "He's a really nice horse, he went to the breeze up sales in Dubai, but we didn't sell him and had to bring him back. He has a great temperament, he is so chilled and relaxed, and he's just proven how good he is. I came here very confident that he was going to put on a good show. I took out my licence this year and that is my second winner." Mansa Musa, half-brother to a yearling filly by Australia (GB), is the first of two foals produced by a winning granddaughter of GII Dahlia H. victrix and GI Gamely H. third Didina (GB) (Nashwan). Descendants of Didina also include sires Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) and Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}) as well as G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and GI Diana S. heroine Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio). PURPLE LILY (IRE) (f, 2, Calyx {GB}--Boca Raton {Ire}, by Approve {Ire}), sent off the 5-2 favourite, was forced to race in last initially after a tardy start but cornered well to make up some lost ground. Staying on strongly in the brief straight to reel in Tannola (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) in the last 50 yards, the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze Up sensation dug in to prevail by a neck. "[Owner] Alan [O'Flynn] asked me to buy a horse at the two-year-old sale, but I kept saying 'wait, wait' so we got to Fairyhouse and gave him the choice of two and he picked this one," trainer Paddy Twomey said of the winner, who was adding her name to a list that includes Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), Hermosa (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}). "Brian O'Connell did a fantastic job and she breezed very nicely, had a good action and temperament and he recommended her highly. She has no entries, but will have to get some now and the [Listed] Ingabelle [on Leopardstown's Irish Champions Day card] would be a very suitable race. I had her on the list for the [G1] Moyglare [Stud S.], but thought I was dreaming and took her out." Rider Billy Lee added, "Chris Hayes went forward on the Aga Khan filly and I was able to get out and follow him through. He quickened well and I thought I was going to do well to quicken to get to him. To be fair I'd say this is a good filly, she quickened well and she won snug at the line. She's been very straightforward since we got her and I'd say she's a filly with a bright future. She just has a great attitude and she's a lovely filly to ride. The 2-year-olds are just starting to come out now and that's the third one in the last week that's won first time out. It's going well at the moment and long may it last." MR FLEURANT (IRE) (c, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Andalouserie {Fr}, by Poet's Voice {GB}), who placed in starts at Chantilly in May and at Saint-Cloud in June, was well away to race on the front end throughout this third start. Accompanied by Follow Me (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) throughout, the 9-5 joint-favourite was shaken up when headed by that market rival entering the final furlong and kept on resolutely under a late drive to regain a 3/4-of-a-length advantage nearing the line. Mr Fleurant is the third foal and scorer produced by a winning half-sister to three black-type performers headed by G1 Prix

Mr Fleurant | Scoop Dyga

Jean-Luc Lagardere-winning sire National Defense (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The January-foaled homebred bay is a half-brother to Listed Prix Joubert placegetter Avenue Niel (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}), a yearling colt by Kodiak (GB) and a weanling filly by Nathaniel (Ire). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, €28,000. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

2nd-Deauville, €30,000, Mdn, 8-1, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:15.54, hy.
MACU (IRE) (f, 2, Siyouni {Fr}--Macarella {Ire}, by Shamardal), a July 9 debut runner-up over course and distance last time, was positioned second in the wake of the leader through halfway in this return. Nudged along passing the quarter-mile marker, the even-money pick quickened to the fore approaching the final furlong and was pushed clear to easily account for Concertation (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Macu is the latest of six foals and fifth scorer produced by a winning daughter of Listed Prix Roland de Chambure victrix Anbella (Fr) (Common Grounds {GB}), herself a half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Satwa Queen (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}). The March-foaled homebred bay is a full-sister to G1 Prix Marcel Boussac runner-up Marieta (Fr) and a half to G3 Prix Texanita third Cigalera (Fr) (Elusive City). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €24,500. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
