CONTESSA STRIKES AGAIN WITH 54-1 HOPEFUL UPSET

Nutella Fella | Sarah Andrew

Trainer Gary Contessa, who sprang a 21-1 upset in the opening-day GIII Schuylerville S., brought the curtain down on the 2023 Saratoga season with another shocker when 54-1 outsider Nutella Fella (Runhappy) ran down the field late to take the GI Hopeful S. Monday in upstate New York. Fractious behind the gate and away slowly, Nutella Fella was well back in last as a four-way speed battle developed up front. After tacking onto the rest of the field approaching the three-eighths pole, Nutella Fella was committed to an inside run into the stretch before swinging out in search of running room. Favored 'TDN Rising Star' Timberlake (Into Mischief), who had raced keenly up on the heels of the pacesetters through fractions of :22.19 and :44.89, was mired in traffic down the lane and was finally muscling his way to the lead inside the final furlong, but Nutella Fella was making eye-catching progress on the far outside to edge past the favorite late while racing on his incorrect lead.

WELL-STOCKED FOR KEENELAND SEPTEMBER, THERE IS NOTHING RANDOM ABOUT COVE SPRINGS' SUCCESS

by Jessica Martini

Richard and Connie Snyder moved their commercial breeding operation from New Mexico to Kentucky nine years ago with the aim of competing at the highest levels of the game. The Snyders' Cove Springs Farm seems to have that goal well in its grasp after a memorable August which saw the operation represented by its first Grade I winner when Randomized (Nyquist) captured the GI Alabama S. and by a high-water mark in the sales ring when a colt by Not This Time brought $725,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Cove Springs will hope the momentum carries into the new month with offerings from Book 1 straight through Book 6 of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, including a half-sister to Randomized who sells in Book 3.

Asked how the couple first got involved in racing, Richard Snyder paused before admitting, "Oh my goodness. That's too long ago. I can't remember that far back."

Straddling breeding in New Mexico and Kentucky, the Snyders decided to commit to the bluegrass nearly a decade ago.

"We've had horses for a long time," Snyder said. "We were breeding some horses in Kentucky and we decided, if we were to be successful and where we wanted to be, we needed to be here in Kentucky." Cont. p11

'TDN Rising Star' Pirate (Omaha Beach) covered ground and ran on bravely for third.

"We kind of figured he was going to break slow from the gate because he's a moron in the gate, and I just was hoping there'd be plenty of speed, which there was," Contessa said. "When they said :22 flat, I was thinking, 'This is great.' Then Junior [Alvarado] went from the inside to the outside and I thought he rode him masterfully. He saved ground when he could and then ultimately went outside and got the money."

Nutella Fella, owned by Nick and Delora Beaver's Bell Gable Stable, was a first-out winner going 5 1/2 furlongs at Delaware July 26 for the couple's trainer Richard Sillaman. Contessa had been serving as the Bell Gable private trainer since 2021, but gave up day-to-day operations earlier this year and now serves as the operation's general manager. Bell Gable was the leading owner at Delaware Park in 2022 and 2023.

Despite his 2 1/4-length victory, it was not all smooth sailing for Nutella Fella in his debut.

"That [his gate issues today] was a minor incident today compared to what he did at Delaware, so it's a work in progress, but it's a big improvement over the last time," Contessa said.

Nutella Fella had breezed extensively at Saratoga in preparation for the Hopeful, including a five-eighths effort in 1:01.85 Aug. 19 over the Oklahoma training track, a seven-eighths effort in 1:29.66 last Sunday over the main track and a three-eighths effort in :34.80 Thursday on the Oklahoma.

Contessa credited NYRA's head starter Hector Soler and his team, in part, for the victory along with a smart steer by Alvarado, whose agent Mike Sellitto spotted the horse at the Spa and picked up the call.

"The New York gate crew made this happen as much as I did," Contessa said. "He was an absolute maniac in the gate at Delaware Park and Hector and the gate crew on the training track side worked with him every day and absolutely straightened him out, and I have a lot of thanks for that gate crew."

Despite the long odds, Contessa said he was confident Nutella Fella belonged in the Hopeful.

"When I looked at the field I said, 'This is a salty field, but if you look at his workouts, they've been phenomenal.' So, it's kind of like [Schuylerville winner] Becky's Joker. He had the workouts and the question was, is he good enough? Sure enough, he is."

Nutella Fella | Sarah Andrew

As for next targets for Nutella Fella, Contessa said, "[Oct. 7 GI] Champagne to [Nov. 3 GI] Breeders' Cup [Juvenile], unless he throws us a curve. He's going to stay up here the next six weeks with me and we'll be racing in the Champagne from here. I think [he'll get two turns]. It looked like it today."

The Hopeful lost a potential headliner when 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic), the 5-2 morning-line favorite, was scratched by trainer Bob Baffert Monday morning.

The $2-million OBS March toppler romped by 8 3/4 lengths in his June 18 debut at Santa Anita and was coming off a runner-up effort behind stablemate Prince of Monaco (Speightstown) in the Aug. 13 GIII Best Pal S.

"I was coming back a little quick and I looked at that field and it's pretty salty," Baffert told Daily Racing Form's Dave Grening, adding the colt will be re-routed to the Oct. 7 GI American Pharoah S. at Santa Anita.

A SEASON OF TRIUMPH AND TRAGEDY, SARATOGA MEET CONCLUDED MONDAY

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Following a tradition that has been in place for several years, King's Tavern across the street from Saratoga Race Course was not open for business Monday, the final day of annual summer meet.

Closed on closing day.

On purpose.

While it may be a sad afternoon for the 22,097 patrons on the grounds for the last card of 2023, the Fitch brothers, who operate King's and the City Tavern on Caroline Street, use closing day at the track to pause a bit on Labor Day and celebrate. They put on a party for every member of their staff, all of whom were able to bring a guest, in late morning and then take the group over to the races.

Jason Fitch teed up "awesome" and "fantastic" to describe business at King's during the season.

That wasn't the case for the New York Racing Association. Despite unusually wet weather that did a number on total handle, NYRA reported that attendance was up 2.8% to 1,105,863, the third-highest in history. It was the eighth consecutive year that Saratoga's attendance topped one million. The average daily paid attendance was 27,642.

With 65 races washed off the turf--a 306% jump from the 16 last summer--and four cancelled due to wet weather, handle dropped 9.0%, from $878,211,963 to $799,229,288. The daily average handle was $19,980,732.

A year ago, the handle jumped $62.7 million, 7.7%, from rainy 2021 when NYRA lost 45 grass races.

For King's, Fitch said, "The weather was OK. I think the weather not being as hot helped out. Unfortunately, when it rains during the season it sucks for the track, but for us, people just get out of the rain."

The Fitch brothers' taverns and other Saratoga businesses are likely to be packed with racing fans in early June if the New York Racing Association moves the GI Belmont S. upstate during the demolition and rebuild of Belmont Park. NYRA officials acknowledged in June that the 2025 Belmont could be held at Saratoga. On Sunday, NYRA President and CEO David O'Rourke said his company is considering running the Belmont S. in Saratoga in 2024 and 2025.

Irad Ortiz | Sarah Andrew

In a runaway, Irad Ortiz, Jr. was the leading jockey for the second consecutive year and fifth overall with 62 wins. His brother, Jose, was next with 37 wins.

Linda Rice tied Chad Brown for the training title with 35 victories by winning twice Monday, including the final race of the season with Lt. Mitchell (The Lieutenant). In what might be a historic bookend, Rice also won the first race of the season on July 13 with Bustin Bay (Bustin Stones).

"We won three yesterday which gave us a chance," said Rice. "I thought it was pretty unlikely, but you never know. The day before we were second beaten a neck, fourth beaten a head. But then yesterday after winning three, I thought, 'Well, maybe we have a chance.' It's been a tremendous year. A lot of highs and lows in racing. We've all seen them and we've all experienced them. Today was a good day."

Rice made history in 2009 when she became the first woman to win the Saratoga title. Now she has two.

"They were both really special in their own way. You never take the fun out of the first one and, of course, this is a win and a tie at the same time," said Rice. "It's been a great year, it's been a lot of fun, there's always a little heartache in the middle and would've, could've, should've. But it's been a great meet."

It was Brown's third straight title and sixth overall.

"It was a great meet and I'm proud of my team," said Brown. "The Alabama and Saratoga Derby at the top, those were huge wins. My team persevered through the weather--we had a record number of off-the-turf races and second-places, and they were still able to grind out a tie for the win, which is amazing. Hopefully, we can continue that into the fall."

Chad Brown | Sarah Andrew

Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables finished on top of the owner's table with 22 victories, including the GI Alabama S. with Randomized (Nyquist).

"Winning at Saratoga is always special," said Klarman. "Winning a race that's as historically important as the Alabama will always be a highlight of my ownership career."

Klaravich Stables now boasts 23 owners' titles at NYRA tracks, and six consecutive at Saratoga.

According to NYRA, 10.61 inches of rain fell after July and led to a soggy, sometimes grim meet. The 155th Saratoga season was irreparably damaged by the deaths of eight horses, who suffered injuries in racing, and four more who were euthanized after being injured in training.

Even though more than five dozen races were taken off the turf for safety reasons, six of the eight deaths were from incidents in races that were conducted on the turf courses. One of the six on turf was believed to be a heart attack.

The two fatalities from dirt races were eerily similar: high-profile unbeaten 3-year-olds breaking down in the stretch while leading and on their way to victory in seven-furlong undercard races on the two biggest days of the meet. Maple Leaf Mel (Cross Traffic) shattered her right foreleg in the GI Test S. on Whitney Day, Aug. 5. Three weeks later, New York Thunder (Nyquist) suffered a catastrophic injury to his left foreleg in the GI H. Allen Jerkens on Travers Day.

The horrific injuries dramatically changed the atmosphere each day and diminished the reaction for White Abbario (Race Day)'s surprise win at 10-1 in the Whitney and Arcangelo (Arrogate)'s victory in the Travers.

"Triumph and tragedy could be a good way to put it," O'Rourke said.

New York Thunder's death was the second on Travers Day. Two hours and forty minutes earlier, Nobel (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) was injured in the gallop-out after the fifth race on turf. O'Rourke said NYRA considered cancelling the remainder of the card following the Jerkens and possibly not running the following day.

O'Rourke said that his team reviewed the surfaces, consulted with jockeys, trainers and veterinarians and decided that the tracks were safe. There were no serious injuries reported in the seven race days following the Travers program.

"I think a fair question would be, 'Well, what's our reaction?'" O'Rourke said about the injuries and deaths. "Over the last few years, we've leaned pretty heavily on the technology, whether it is trackers, projects going on two years now. PET scan imaging has been a discussion that's coming to fruition near-term. Of course, you have other things such as tracks. For us, it's leaning in to those type of two aspects of technology that will allow us to improve safety. We're completely focused, and more than ever motivated, to move as quickly and as prudently as possible on some of these."

Tracking sensors are aimed at identifying changes in a horse's stride that may be the result of stress on legs or an undetected injury. PET scans will be used for deeper analysis of horses that have been flagged by vets for possibly having an issue.

NYRA will have a synthetic track at the new Belmont Park and O'Rourke said a synthetic track could be installed at Saratoga, but it would not happen in time for the 2024 season. Synthetic tracks are considered to be safer surfaces for horses. Turf horses adjust better to synthetic surfaces than dirt and there are likely to be fewer scratches when races are moved from turf to synthetic surfaces.

"You could do one here with the inner turf course and then widen the outer turf course. You'll get more lanes," O'Rourke said. "You'll have technically less running lanes on turf, but in off-weather you wouldn't be beating up the course. So you might get more actual run out of it. And then Option B is you go with synthetic and you change out the dirt tracks. And that's something that the board is engaged on right now, that conversation."

O'Rourke said it was not likely that the dirt track at Saratoga would be replaced by a synthetic track in the near term.

The $1.25-million Travers drew the three winners of the Triple Crown races for a showdown in August for just the fourth time in history. Forte (Violence), the 2-year-old champion, also was in the mix and was the favorite. Arcangelo, trained by Jena Antonucci for Blue Rose Farm, completed the Belmont S.-Travers double. In the three previous times, a horse that did not compete in any of the Triple Crown races prevailed.

Antonucci bucked current practices and did not give the gray colt a prep race before the Travers. Hall of Famer Javier Castellano added to his stakes record, with his seventh victory, as Arcangelo won by a length over Disarm (Gun Runner).

With the victory, Antonucci became the second woman and the first since Mary Hirsch, to win Saratoga's biggest race. She gave credit to her crew.

"Mostly gratifying for the team and for what we collectively have done," she said. "Yes, someone has to sign the paychecks and drum the drum, but this isn't a "me" thing, it's an "us" thing. This horse is showing what the team can do."

Antonucci said the meet was one of mixed emotions, of highs and lows.

"If anything, I hope that it heightens the responsibility of every person involved to steward the best decisions possible," she said. "And if, through tragedy, we all feel the most exposed to do better and to grow, than that's what's going to be. I think every single person needs to make sure and do a self-check that everyone's doing their part to make it all more productive and a better outcome for everybody."

Castellano continued with what has been a strong year with three graded-stakes wins: the Travers, the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and the GIII Schuylerville on opening day. Veteran trainer Gary Contessa, returning to racing in New York after a stint in Delaware, managed just two wins, but they were in graded stakes, the Schuylerville and the GI Hopeful on Monday with Nutella Fella (Runhappy), who paid a whopping $111.

This is the 10th season that the Fitch brothers have operated King's. The track season is the busiest time of the year for their business. To mark the end of the exciting and tiring summer, the Fitches and their staff take the day, have a party and go to the races.

"It's bittersweet," Jason Fitch said. "Love the meet. Love the hustle and bustle of summer. You love Travers, but you hate Travers because Travers means that summer is over."

The Snyders hung the Cove Springs sign outside their new farm on Paynes Mill Road in Versailles in August of 2014. One of their first big investments for the new farm was French Passport (Elusive Quality), who they purchased in foal to American Pharoah for $200,000 at the 2018 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

"She was the first big-money mare that we bought," Snyder said. "If you are going to live here and compete with these guys, you've got to play the game. You've got to compete."

The unraced French Passport is a half-sister to graded winners Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) and Overdriven (Tale of the Cat), as well as to the dam of multiple Grade I winner Got Stormy (Get Stormy).

Richard and Connie Snyder with yearling half-sister to GISW Randomized | Amy Lanigan

"We were very familiar with the family," Snyder said of the mare's appeal. "It's a deep family. At one time we had a stallion that is back in that family. So we just kept up with the family and knew it well and when she showed up in foal to American Pharoah, we knew this was where we were going to start."

After RNA'ing for $225,000 at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase, the mare's American Pharoah colt sold for $550,000 at the 2021 OBS March sale. French Passport's second foal bred by Cove Springs was Randomized, who was purchased by Klaravich Stable for $420,000 at the 2021 Keeneland September sale. Klaravich came back to purchase the mare's yearling colt by Justify for $410,000 last September.

Randomized, a maiden winner in March, was well-beaten in the GI Acorn S. in June, but rebounded with a win in the Wilton S. at Saratoga in July.

She glided home a front-running four-length winner of the Alabama Aug. 19.

What was it like to watch the farm's first Grade I winner come down the stretch in front at Saratoga?

Snyder laughed. "It was unbelievable," he said.

Snyder admitted he was impressed with French Passport's Nyquist filly right from the start.

"Did we know she was going to be a Grade I filly? Of course not," he said. "But she always had a tremendous air about her and a great, great walk. She always wanted to do more than we would let her. This mare's babies are all like that."

Hip 1711, Frosted half-sister to Randomized | Amy Lanigan

Through the Hidden Brook consignment, Cove Springs will offer a half-sister by Frosted to the Alabama S. winner as hip 1711 during Sunday's sixth session of the two-week auction.

"I love her," Snyder said of the yearling. "She is beautiful and has the same aura about her. She knows she is who she is. And she's a great-moving filly. She's maybe not be as big as Randomized, but she's a beautiful filly."

Cove Springs's September contingent is led off by a Book 1 filly by Justify (hip 133), who sells during Monday's first session of the auction with Four Star Sales. The yearling is the first foal out of Gaels Win (Daaher), a half-sister to graded winner T.D. Vance (Rahy) and to graded-placed Bergerac (Rahy) and Philippe (Mineshaft). Her third dam is Grade I winner Fantastic Find (Mr. Prospector), who produced multiple Grade I winner Finder's Fee, the granddam of Flightline.

"She is drop-dead gorgeous," Snyder said of the bay filly. "She's a big, scopey, great-moving filly. And it's an outstanding family. I think buyers will appreciate this pedigree. It's loaded with both turf and dirt runners. So I think she will appeal to a wide range of people. We are expecting big things for her."

The Snyders purchased Gaels Win, who is currently in foal to Tapit, for $375,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November sale.

"She was in foal to Into Mischief when we bought her," Snyder said. "Unfortunately, she aborted that foal, so this is her first filly."

Cove Springs has about 20 broodmares of its own and is home to some 10 to 15 outside mares. The plan is to sell their foals as yearlings, Snyder said, adding, "That's Plan A. It doesn't always work out. Consequently our sales are pretty good, but our racing stable is not always on top. But we do have some nice horses in training at the moment."

The operation enjoyed success in the sales ring in Saratoga when its colt by Not This Time out of Speightstastic (Speightstown) (hip 171) sold for $725,000 to Repole Stable and Spendthrift Farm.

"Realistically, we thought he would sure bring $500,000 to $600,000, so he brought more than we expected of course," Snyder said. "But he was a beautiful horse. And I think he has a huge future in front of him."

The couple will stay busy straight through to Book 6 of the Keeneland September sale when they will offer a colt by Good Samaritan out of Lightning Dove (Uncle Mo) as (hip 3752) with the Legacy Bloodstock consignment.

"We have some other really nice horses in the sale, all the way from Book 1 to Book 6," Snyder said. "We have a great horse in Book 6. We are pretty proud of him."

Randomized | Sarah Andrew

Connie and Richard Snyder are reaping the rewards of some 35 years of working together towards a common goal.

"Connie and I work hard at it," Snyder said. "This is what we do and this is what it takes to get there. If hard work and want-to is the key, we should move forward."

The Keeneland September sale begins with a pair of Book 1 sessions Monday and Tuesday beginning at 1 p.m. Book 2 sessions Wednesday and Thursday begin at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 23 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

WOODBINE CANCELS MONDAY CARD

Due to extreme high temperatures forecast for the greater Toronto metropolitan area, Woodbine cancelled its live racing program scheduled for Monday. The decision was made in consultation with the local HBPA and the commissioned veterinarian.

According to a release, the track will endeavor to make up for the lost races over the next few live racing days.

Live racing is scheduled to return Thursday, with first post scheduled for 4:50 p.m. ET.

Margins: 2 3/4, NK, NK. Odds: 3.10, 7.70, 3.95.

Also Ran: Emaraaty (GB), Wit. Scratched: Jake Rocks.

Former claimer Pioneering Spirit capped a productive run under the care of trainer Linda Rice with a victory in the Bernard Baruch S. on Saratoga's closing-day holiday card. Coming into this off a third-place finish behind Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the 12-furlong GI Sword Dancer S. Aug. 26, the gelding was installed the 3-1 second choice behind favorite Wit (Practical Joke) for this cut back in trip. Tucked along the inside in a ground-saving third as Bring Me A Check through an opening quarter in :24.19, the 4-year-old was forced to steady slightly midway down the backstretch while eagerly looking for some headway. Picking up the tempo leaving the far turn, he was swung out turning for home, mowed down the pacesetter who was being pressured late by defending champion Emaraaty (Dubawi {Ire}) and burst clear late to win by a comfortable margin. Favored Wit never really factored and crossed the wire last of five.

"He broke a little slow but I got the position I want," said winning rider Jose Lezcano. "He really ran on nicely. I had horse the whole way around. When I got to the quarter-pole, I had a lot of horse. I didn't know how much the others had, but I had a lot of horse."

Entering Monday's card two behind Chad Brown, Rice also won the day's final race to tie Brown as the meet leader.

"I could see him improving with the distance," she said. "I think his distance limitations are boundless. He could run a mile and a half, he might go two miles. But I think he's not pace-dependent, per se. He can switch it up from short to long, obviously this was a mile and a sixteenth. I had a little concern but I thought maybe they could set a fast pace and he can close into it. Jose Lezcano came to the paddock, he changed it up, he convinced me that we were going to be closer. He's a fantastic turf rider, so I just let him do his thing."

Claimed for $40,000 from Team Valor and Todd Pletcher at the Big A in March, the bay failed to find the winner's circle in two subsequent starts, but later kicked off a four-race winning skein when trying the turf against $40,000 maidens at Belmont May 11. Two starts later, he triumphed against open allowance rivals going 10 panels at Belmont June 24 and added his third consecutive win in an 11-furlong optional claimer at the Spa July 27 before his Grade I tilt.

On targeting GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Sept. 30 at Belmont at the Big A, Rice added, "We were really considering that race. We'll revisit that one day at a time."

The winner's dam, Foundation Spirit, is a daughter of Chilean Horse of the Year Wild Spirit (Chi) (Hussonet), who won at the highest level in both Chile and the U.S. The 9-year-old mare is also responsible for an unraced juvenile filly by Constitution and a filly foal by McKinzie. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Also Ran: Last Romance, Amatteroftime, Smithwick's Spice, Pogi.

Second to Mo Strike (Uncle Mo) in last year's GIII Sanford S., Great Navigator continued his run of consistently good finishes Monday with his first stakes win. Facing New Jersey-breds in each of his last three starts, the 5-2 second choice entered off a third over the same track at a mile and 70 yards July 23. Fourth but never too far from the front while in chase mode up the backstretch, Great Navigator began to inch up into the turn and made his bid for the lead splitting horses as the top trio swung into the stretch. Much the best to the wire, he opened up a double-digit advantage to win going away. Out of a full-sister to SW/MGSP Stiffed, herself the dam of GSW Affirmative Lady (Arrogate), Great Navigator is the first stakes winner for his sire (by Uncle Mo). His dam produced a 2-year-old full-brother and has returned twice more to Sea Wizard without reporting a foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: 3 1/4, 3/4, HD. Odds: 3.30, 7.50, 0.30.

Also Ran: Smoothlikebuttah, Una Chiquitita (Chi). Scratched: Trouville.

Entered off of back-to-back wins facing optional claimers at Pleasanton June 24 and at Del Mar at this distance Aug. 6, Micro Share earned her first stakes score Monday in Del Mar's one-mile Tranquility Lake S. Away a step behind the field, the 3-1 second choice stayed close to early leader Yuki while checking in outside of heavily favored Fun to Dream. The top three stayed together through a :46 flat opening half as Micro Share began to pick up momentum into the turn. Yuki surrendered the lead past the quarter pole and the daughter of Upstart took over from there, opening up a safe advantage to the line. Micro Share's only younger sibling is a 3-year-old half-brother by American Freedom. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

JUST KATHERINE (f, 3, Justify--Reve Enchante, by Medaglia d'Oro) further franked the form of the July 14 Wilton S. with a good-looking tally on closing day at the Spa. The 21-10 favorite raced in a prominent position and in a bit of traffic through the opening exchanges as last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Filled third Raging Sea (Curlin) settled deep on the course while also in touch. The latter got first run with a three-wide sweep rounding the turn and went calling for the lead at the quarter pole, but Just Katherine continued to travel nicely for Javier Castellano, rallied at the fence to join the battle with a furlong and a half to travel and came away in the final stages to take it by 1 3/4 lengths. A well-beaten eighth in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks back in March, Just Katherine had come on for her time in the Big Apple, finishing a good third in Belmont allowance company June 16 before rounding out the exacta underneath subsequent GI Alabama S. heroine Randomized (Nyquist) in the Wilton. A half-sister to 2017 GII Schuylerville S. winner Dream It Is (Shackelford), GSW-US, SW-Can, $175,544, Just Katherine counts the outstanding European three-time Group 1-winning and champion turf mare Bosra Sham (Woodman) as her third dam. The filly is her dam's most recent live produce. Sales history: $85,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: SP, 7-2-2-2, $164,550. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

MAIDENS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

9th-Saratoga, $105,000, Msw, 9-4, 3yo/up, 5 1/2ft, 1:02.34, fm, 1/2 length.

AMERICAN KNOW HOW (c, 3, American Pharoah--Kimberlea K {SW, $118,995}, by Indian Evening) was on the board in four of five prior starts, including his most recent try over course and distance Aug. 13. Installed the 8-5 choice this time, the chestnut was forced outward after Triumphant Road (Quality Road)--in post one--lost his rider after the start, causing the favorite to lose early position. Still several lengths back leaving the backstretch, he swung five wide turning for home, took over in deep stretch and inched clear en route to a half-length success over Alexis Zorba (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}). Iron Man Jimmy (Jimmy Creed) rallied strongly to complete the triple at 44-1. A half winner to SW and GSP StealtheDiamonds, Kimberlea K is the dam SP Riperton (Constitution)--acquired in utero for $200,000 by OXO Equine at KEENOV in 2020--and a pair of Instagrand foals from the past two season--a filly last term and a colt this season. She was bred back to that sire. Sales history: $25,000 Wlg '20 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-2, $123,750. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Reagan Jack Racing, Hickey, John M., McKenna, Michael and Pepe, Anthony T.; B-Jason Litt, SB Racing LLC & Zayat Stables (KY); T-Thomas Morley.

Split Strike | Sarah Andrew

1st-Saratoga, $88,000, (S), Msw, 9-4, 2yo, 5 1/2fT, 1:02.79, fm, 1/2 length.

SPLIT STRIKE (c, 2, Goldencents--Split Time {MSW, $415,950}, by Take Charge Indy) could do no better than fourth in his Belmont debut June 23 and earlier in the Saratoga meet July 28, both on the main track. Switched to the grass in Monday's spot, 5-2 second choice stalked just off pacesetter Red Burgundy (Noble Mission {GB}) before pouncing past that rival with an outside move into the stretch. Runner up Marco T. (Kantharos) made a late bid but had to settle for second, a half-length behind Split Strike. The winner has a weanling half-sister by Connect while his dam was bred back to Sir Winston for 2024. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $58,180. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-TIC Racing Stable (NY); T-Christophe Clement.

5th-Saratoga, $88,000, (S), Msw, 9-4, 3yo/up, 5 1/2fT, 1:02.94, fm, neck.

RUSSI (g, 3, Lookin At Lucky--Riserva, by Dixie Brass) finished runner-up in a pair of 5 1/2-furlong off-turf starts at this meet, including most recently Aug. 17, and was given a 4-1 chance while trying turf for the first time. Settled off a crisp early pace, the gelding was several paths wide turning for home, gained control at the furlong marker and fought back late to best Scherzando (Maclean's Music) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-0, $88,640. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Russi | Sarah Andrew

6th-Saratoga, $88,000, (S), Msw, 9-4, 2yo, 6f, 1:12.25, ft, 5 lengths.

BONNE CHANCE (g, 2, Good Samaritan--Uman Candy, by Candy Ride {Arg}), given a mild 14-1 chance on debut, showed good early speed but was outsprinted after the first few jumps and settled back to take fourth against the fence. As Sorority Prank (Maximus Mischief) and Winwood (Poseidon's Warrior) battled for the lead, Bonne Chance hugged the rail but had to angle out sharply for a gap into the stretch. Once in the clear with a sixteenth to run, the gelding was in total control and cruised to a five-length win over Solo's Fury (Solomini). Uman Candy has not reported a foal since Bonne Chance. 8th-Del Mar, $84,500, (S), Msw, 9-4, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 1:05.58, ft, nk.

CATMANSUE (c, 2, Cat Burglar--Janice Sue, by Harlan's Holiday), sent off the 5-2 favorite, found himself near the back after clipping heels early, made steady progress throughout, was four wide turning for home and got up just in time to nail Stay On the Fence (Pavel) by a neck. Sales history: $4,500 Ylg '22 NCAAU; $100,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

ARROWTHEGREAT (g, 3, Arrogate--Burning Arch, by Arch), second last time out sprinting six panels here Aug. 17, was given a 5-2 chance in this stretch out. To the front early, the dark bay led at every call, rolling home a 2 1/2-length winner over Mucino (Nyquist). Burning Arch, a $440,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, is responsible for a trio of yearlings to bring $250,000-plus at Keeneland, including 2019 grad Red Hot Blue (Candy Ride {Arg}) who realized $650,000 and Berenice (American Pharoah), a $450,000 buy in 2018. A half-sister to SW Cat's Claw, the 12-year-old mare is out Chili Cat (Storm Cat), daughter of Matlacha Pass (Seeking the Gold), a sister to GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Pleasant Home and Grade II winner Country Hideaway and dam of GISWs Point of Entry and Pine Island. Burning Arch produced a Game Winner filly last year followed by a colt by Twirling Candy this term. She was bred back to Olympiad. Sales history: $60,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. TEE OFF TIME (c, 2, Not This Time--Dawnie Macho {SW}, by Macho Uno), backed down to 4-5 favoritism for this unveiling, contested the early pace with Blitzed in Bee Six (Palace) through a :22.62 quarter, gained a narrow advantage following a :46.51 half and from there it was just a mere matter of how far as the Albaugh hombred rolled home an eye-catching 9 1/2-length winner over Stroller Boy (Stroll). The winner is a full to Time Goes On, SP, $243,501. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,423. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

TATTERSALLS SOMERVILLE LOOKING TO CONTINUE UPWARD CURVE

A hot day of viewing at Tattersalls | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--The third European yearling sale within eight days gets underway as Tattersalls pulls the curtain up on its yearling season with its increasingly popular Somerville Sale.

It will be a frenetic day at Park Paddocks on Tuesday with more than 300 horses to go through the ring, but the sale is riding high on the back of some decent results, with Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), the star of the inaugural edition in 2021, adding the G1 King's Stand S. to his previous Royal Ascot success in the G2 Coventry S. for Archie Watson and Victorious Racing.

In recent weeks, last year's graduates Indian Run (Ire) (Sioux Nation) and Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) landed the G3 Acomb S. and G2 Lowther S. at York, while Anisette (GB) (Awtaad {Ire}) won the GI Del Mar Oaks.

It took a total of 206,000gns to buy these four horses, a figure that was barely two-thirds of the average price of a yearling at Tattersalls October Book 1 last year, so it is easy to see why this auction, which has taken a strong lead from the Doncaster playbook of precocity and speed, is catching on.

SEVEN DAYS: NO HOLLYWOOD ENDING BUT BADEN STILL SHINES By Emma Berry

The Tattersalls Somerville Sale has meant that a return to Newmarket could be delayed no longer but this column sprang, or perhaps staggered, into life on the final day of Baden-Baden's Grosse Woche.

The scribbling started reasonably early on Sunday morning from a desk in the press room that boasts one of the best views in the racing world, looking out across the turf to the wooded mountains of the Black Forest. It was also the desk that was once occupied by British-born but German-based racing correspondent David Connolly-Smith, who died in July. David was 83 but he had still been a regular presence at the races, and I always enjoyed a chat with him on my annual trip to BBAG. He brought German racing to life for readers of various publications in Britain and Ireland and, more than that, he was always so helpful and welcoming. Cont., p4

The emphasis on youth also extends to the marketing for this sale, with its snappy video featuring the younger members of the Tattersalls team.

One of those, auctioneer Matt Hall, was looking particularly dapper in a jaunty Panama as he inspected the yearlings he will be selling on Tuesday, but he played down his leading role in the sale. "It's been very busy over the last few days, with plenty of footfall, so let's hope that transfers to the ring," he said while conferring with Jenny Norris.

There's been a good name game taking place in the Norris Bloodstock draft for the filly by Harry Angel (Ire) out of Meghan Sparkle (Ire) [Lot 213]. Netflix (GB) has been suggested, along with the less flattering Ginge N Whinge (GB), which would work better if she was a chestnut. Either way, the neat bay is a smart and racy-looking filly, quite typical of the kind on offer here this week.

On Monday morning, as British politics limped back into action after the summer recess, Angela Rayner was named Shadow Levelling Up Minister in a Labour reshuffle. I've no idea what that actually means, but there is a good deal of levelling up underway at Tattersalls on 'Catholic Hill' which will presumably be ready for its unveiling at the October Sale. In the meantime, it's a little discombobulating trying to find some consignors away from their usual spot, but plenty were enjoying the shade of the trees in the Highflyer paddocks on a roasting hot September day.

Jenny Norris and Matt Hall | Emma Berry

There are unconfirmed rumours that the July Sale ice-cream man could make a return to Park Paddocks on Tuesday, and even bigger rumours about the money being offered by various stallion farms from around the world for Havana Grey (GB). The rising star of Whitsbury Manor Stud claimed his Group 1 in the Flying Five on Irish Champions Weekend five years ago, and since then both he and his offspring have continued to fly. From £8,000 to £18,500 his fee has already climbed, and TDN's Brian Sheerin selflessly stayed up into the wee small hours the other night in Doncaster specifically to listen to the gossip on where his price will be pitched next year.

It is unclear whether or not Brian fell asleep in the bar of the Earl of Doncaster, but we still don't know the magic number. We just hope that Havana Grey stays in England. Sixteen of his yearlings are in the Somerville Sale, including two from his breeder Mickley Stud, who sold Havana Grey as a foal at Tattersalls back in 2015.

From an opening average of 21,345gns and median of 16,250gns for the first Somerville Sale as the world started to right itself after the Covid pandemic, those figures climbed almost 50% to 30,377gns and 26,000gns last year. It would be folly to expect such extravagant percentage gains this time around, but the sale has taken root. And there have been enough people in action during the inspection days of Sunday and Monday for plenty of consignors to be feeling quietly confident as they tucked into their burgers at the pre-sale barbecue on Monday night.

Selling begins at 9.30am, and a 12-hour session is likely, but it makes sense to have kept this relative newcomer to the sales scene to its one-day boutique format.

Seven Days

by Emma Berry

David is much missed and it was an honour to be granted temporary residence at the desk that still bears his name.

The last day of Baden-Baden's premier week of racing is not for the faint-hearted. By 11am, the runners were already leaving the parade ring just after 11am for the first of a 12-race card on a sweltering day at Iffezheim. Three of those races, much to the delight of Baden Galopp's effervescent Stefan Buchner, featured within the World Pool, an increase from just one race on the same card last year and following on from the inclusion of the Deutsches Derby and Grosser Preis von Berlin earlier this season. By the end of the day, World Pool reported turnover of HK$64.3million (€7.5m) on those three races.

It is hard not to be concerned about German racing, primarily because it is really important for it not just to survive, but to thrive. Any country that continues to make such an impact on thoroughbred breeding globally really must have a strong domestic racing scene in order for that reputation not to start waning. Germany is not alone in struggling with falling racecourse attendances and a reduction in the number of horses in training and mares in the paddocks, but the contraction, to around 850 broodmares and slightly less than 2,000 racehorses, is worrying nonetheless.

The Zagrey team on the podium after the Grosser Preis von Baden
Marc Ruehl

Who

A day or two at the bustling Baden-Baden racecourse during this late summer week almost certainly gives a false sense of the health of German racing overall, but it also provides an encouraging glimpse of racing at its very best, where a significant portion of the crowd is fully engaged with the stars of the show: the horses. It is hard to think of another racecourse where the runners and riders are clapped as they pass the stands for the first time. This happens for every race of sufficient distance at Baden-Baden; not so much a Cheltenham roar, more a polite Iffezheim ripple of applause, but it is beguiling.

The huge hedge-lined parade ring is encircled by racegoers four or five deep for every race, even from such an early start. Each winner and the also-rans are cheered back in by those lining the route, including plenty of children, along each side of the walk of fame that has the names of every winner of the Grosser Preis von Baden embedded in a path back to the winner's enclosure.

I wonder how many bosses of British racecourses have visited Baden-Baden on a raceday to see what's possible with low-cost entry, very little division of enclosures, no dress code, plenty of seating and picnic areas, and better still no noisy sideshows to divert attention from the main event or to upset the horses. It can be done, as long as we promote a day at the races as just that, and not as a big boozy outdoor party with some horses galloping around in the background.

To Longchamp via Baden-Baden

The trophy for Germany's main race of the week, the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, hopped over the nearby border to France when Christophe Soumillon timed his run to perfection on the statuesque Zagrey (Fr) to give Zarak (Fr) his first Group 1 winner. The Aga Khan Studs stallion was also the sire of the third home, Straight (Ger), and in the States over the weekend he was represented by Parnac (Fr), winner of the GII Flower Bowl S. At Saratoga.

It was a banner day for Zagrey's trainer Yann Barberot, who was in Germany to receive the prize for the second Group 1 win of his career despite having the smart Beauvatier (Fr) in action at Longchamp, where he remained unbeaten in the G3 Prix la Rochette. That son of Lope De Vega (Ire) looks a smart Classic prospect for Barberot's Deauville stable next season. Before that, however, the trainer has much to look forward to on the first weekend of October, with Zagrey bound for the Arc and Beauvatier likely to start next in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere.

Zagrey was the sole foreign runner in the Grosser Preis, and his last-gasp win was a blow to fans of the second-placed Mr Hollywood (Ire), who has featured in this column before and almost made all, going down by just a neck at the line. It was encouraging to see the three-year-old in the flesh, as he is a strong, handsome individual, who will surely notch his top-level win before too long.

Sean Cronin and Tom Frary, who are the racing writers entrusted with handing out TDN Rising Stars, guard this honour closely, and it was hard not to prick up one's ears when Tom decided to award one to a son of the little known (outside Germany anyway) Iquitos (Ger) back in early April. That was the day that Mr Hollywood made his debut at Mulheim and bolted in to win by 16 lengths. He won the G3 Bavarian Classic on his next start, and has been second in his ensuing three runs, including when second to Fantastic Moon in the Deutsches Derby. He is one of one five foals from the first crop of his sire, a son of Adleflug (Ger) standing at Gestut Graditz. Another of the quintet is the G3 Diana Trial runner-up Drawn To Dream (Ire). Both were bred by Dietrich von Boetticher of Gestut Ammerland, where the stallion stood for his first two seasons, and they are both out of mares by the owner-breeder's Arc winner Hurricane Run (Ire).

We'll keep a close eye on Iquitos. I've a feeling there may well be plenty more to report on his offspring in the coming seasons.

Breakthrough Win for Pearson

Baden-Baden is likely to be remembered fondly by British jockey Laura Pearson, who had her first German ride there on Saturday. She won the Listed Wackenhut Mercedes Benz Fillies Cup with a cool-headed ride aboard the Ralph Beckett-trained Diamond Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

THE SECRET SUPER SIRE

Laura Pearson all smiles after her Listed win | Emma Berry

It was the first stakes-race victory for Pearson, 22, who only rode out her claim a month ago having had to sit out the second half of 2022 with a serious neck injury. She returned to the saddle in January and is already well on her way to surpassing last year's tally of winners, with 19 on the board, including a Ffos Las treble for Beckett on August 25.

"I had a really fun trip to Italy last February and was lucky enough to have a double at Pisa, so it's great to keep my overseas record at 100 per cent," Pearson told TDN.

She is enjoying her association with Beckett's Kimpton Down stable, which currently has one of the best strike-rates in Britain after a hugely successful August.

"I ride out there four days a week and it's a pleasure to be in there with the team," she added. "I recently had my first treble for the boss, and it's great to get this win for him. I can't thank him enough for the opportunities he's given me. It's brilliant."

Along with Zagrey, various international raiders struck in the major races during the week at Baden-Baden. Charlie Johnston saddled the third group winner from the first crop of Too Darn Hot (GB) when Carolina Reaper took the 150th running of the G3 Renate und Albrecht Woeste Zukunfts Rennen last Wednesday, and Francis Graffard sent out the Aga Khan's Darkaniya (Fr) (Frankel {GB}) to win the G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis.

Stauffenbergs on Top

Philipp and Marion Stauffenberg may be best known to many on the sales circuit as the leading German consignors internationally, but they are also first-class breeders and currently occupy the top spot on the list of German breeders with significantly fewer runners than their nearest rivals in the table, Gestut Karlshof and Gestut Rottgen.

Blue Diamond
Stud

Of course, a large portion of the prize-money haul comes from the Deutsches Derby victory of Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), who disappointingly was a late withdrawal for the G1 Grosser Preis on Sunday owing to ground worries. But they were also represented at the course on Saturday by a homebred debutante, Lady Mary (Ger) (Lawman {Ire}), winner of the strong maiden, the Gestut Etzean Winterkonigin Trial, for Andreas Suborics. The juvenile is out of La Reine Noir (Ger) (Rainbow Quest), a half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Opera winner Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef), who, like Fantastic Moon, had been sold by Stauffenberg Bloodstock for €49,000 at the BBAG September Yearling Sale.

None of the five yearlings in the Stauffenberg draft sold for that magic number this year, but the vendor was among the leaders with a €220,000 filly by Sea The Stars (Ire). The other Sea The Stars yearling in the consignment, a colt from the Lordship Stud family of Classic winners Love Divine (GB) and Sixties Icon (GB), sold for considerably less than one might have expected, and was knocked down at €80,000 to Tina Rau for the Ullmann family of Gestut Schlenderhan.

The good-looking colt will be well worth following when he heads into training with Joseph O'Brien, however. As we see time and again, there is often little correlation between sales prices and racecourse performances, and the most notable Lordship Stud graduate of recent years was another by Sea The Stars who was sold for just 60,000gns as a yearling. Later named Emily Upjohn (GB), she turned out to be rather good.

King of Paris

Kingman (GB) was represented by a notable double at Longchamp on Sunday when his daughter Sauterne reeled in the front-running Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) to land the G1 Prix du Moulin and Narnaco (GB) made all in the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte.

For Sauterne, who delivered her trainer Patrice Cottier a first Group 1 win, this was truly reward for effort and consistency. Bred by her owner Jean-Pierre-Joseph Dubois, she won the Listed Prix Pont du Neuf in April and since then has been placed three times at Group 1 level, in the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, Prix Jean Prat and Prix Rothschild.

On the same weekend two years ago, Spain's champion trainer Guillermo Arizkorreta sent out Rodaballo (Ire) and Kitty Marion (GB) to win the G2 Oettingen Rennen and G3 Goldene Peitsche in Baden-Baden, and this year he turned his attention on Longchamp with Naranco.

It was a truly international result. The colt was bred in Britain by the Hong Kong-based Eric Chen and was bought at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale by the former head of the Spanish Jockey Club, Jose Hormaeche, for owner Yeguada Rocio. Trained in Madrid by Arizkorreta, he was ridden to glory by Czech jockey Vaclav Janacek. Naranco also owns a pretty smart pedigree that is spreading its wings. His dam Patsy Boyne (Ire) is a Galileo (Ire) half-sister to High Chaparral (Ire) and she has been exported to Australia by Chen.

Hays Making Merry

One should never say never, but it seems highly unlikely that any other owner will be able to repeat having a treble spreads across Kincsem Park and Kentucky Downs, as enjoyed by Jim and Fitri Hay on Saturday.

This unique feat was pulled off by Splendent (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) and Silent Film (GB) (New Approach {GB}), both of whom won at Hungary's big meeting with Frankie Dettori in the saddle. This was followed later in the day by victory in the valuable GIII Mint Millions S. for Ancient Rome (War Front). Trained by Charles Hill and ridden by Jamie Spencer, the 110-rated four-year-old won almost £1 million in prize-money and was following up on his win in the Chesterfield Cup at Goodwood last month.

BREEDERS' CUP AMBITION FOR MANSA MUSA

Mansa Musa has the Breeders' Cup as an option | PA Media

The Breeders' Cup is calling for the connections of Mansa Musa (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) after the Diego Dias-trained colt acquitted himself well in Group company at the Curragh.

Mansa Musa was last seen finishing a good second in the G3 Round Tower S. and now Barry Irwin, who heads Team Valor, the part-owners of the speedy juvenile, is dreaming of a tilt at the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint.

Irwin said, "I think six furlongs for him at this moment is just a little too far against the really good horses. The horse that beat him [Letsbefrankaboutit (Ire) (Sioux Nation)] the other day looks pretty smart.

"We're going to run him back one more time going six furlongs at Fairyhouse on September 18 because that is the most suitable race and if he performs well enough we will send him over to America for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (Turf) Sprint."

He added, "That is five furlongs around a turn and it is one of those races where if you get the right draw, then he is a very speedy horse and I think he could do something in a race like that.

"In his first race he showed a ton of speed and it just caught up with him in the last furlong, he went from first to last in a heartbeat. But he has a tremendous amount of early speed for a horse of his size."

Mansa Musa was bought back at the Goffs Dubai Breeze-Up Sale earlier in the year and is another success story for Dias and Star Bloodstock on the track with the horses they failed to sell.

Geanari (Ire) (Inns Of Court {Ire}), who Dias also bought back for just £3,000 at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale this year, has not managed to win in six starts this term but has achieved black-type and climbed to a rating of 99.

CONNECTIONS OF BELIEVING AND MILL STREAM SUPPLEMENT FOR SPRINT CUP

Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) and Mill Stream (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) have been supplemented at a cost of £20,000 to take on Shaquille (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) in the Betfair Sprint Cup at Haydock on Saturday.

A total of 23 speedsters are in contention for the six-furlong Group One, with the Julie Camacho-trained Shaquille very much the star attraction as he looks to add to his previous top-level wins this summer in the Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot and the July Cup at Newmarket. The George Boughey-trained Believing and Jane Chapple-Hyam's Mill Stream are two interesting contenders after their respective connections decided to add them to the field.

Believing has won two Listed races and a Group 3 this season and is one of two potential runners for the Highclere Thoroughbred Racing team along with Karl Burke's Spycatcher (Ire) (Vadamos {Fr}), who was beaten a short head by King Gold (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}) in the Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville last month.

Mill Stream won a Listed race and a Group Three at the French track in August and fully merits his place in Group One company.

"Mill Stream has come out of his Deauville race in good order, so we have decided to take the opportunity to run him again while he is good form as there are no other options for him until Champions Day," said Chapple-Hyam.

Shaquille: sets the standard in the Sprint Cup | Megan Ridgwell

Ralph Beckett has left in both Kinross and Lezoo after on Sunday suggesting he is likely to rely upon the latter, while Aidan O'Brien could run Aesop's Fables and The Antarctic.

Other hopefuls include Ed Bethell's Regional, the William Haggas-trained Sacred and July Cup runner-up Run To Freedom from Henry Candy's yard.

GERMAN OAKS WINNER MUSKOKA TO BE SOLD AT ARQANA

Muskoka (Ger), the brilliant winner of the G1 German Oaks, will be offered at the Arc Sale at Arqana on Saturday, September 30 at Saint-Cloud.

A winner at two, the Henk Grewe-trained filly won the Listed Henkel Stutenpreis at Dusseldorf in May before landing the G3 Brummerhofer Stuten-Meile at the beginning of July at Hamburg.

She followed that success up with a top-level triumph in the German Oaks at Dusseldorf on August 6 in the colors of Stall Golden Goal, managed by Lars-Wilhelm Baumgarten.

Muskoka is sold with an entry in the G1 Prix de L'Opera on Sunday October 1 at ParisLongchamp.

Rated 110, the daughter of Sea The Moon (Ger) is out of a half-sister to Brametot (Ire), and hails from the maternal line of Monsun (Ger) and other Group 1 winners Aunt Pearl (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Molly Malone (Fr) (Lomitas {GB}).

The catalogue for the Arc Sale will be released on Monday, September 11.

1st-Roscommon, €25,000, Cond, 9-4, 2yo, 7f 54yT, 1:34.66, yl. STROMBERG (GB) (c, 2, Iffraaj {GB})--Stacey Sutton {Fr}, by Tertullian, who impressed with a 10-length tally tackling seven furlongs at Galway in his second start last month, settled behind the leaders in fourth after breaking well from the outside stall. Nudged forward on the home turn. the 1-5 lock was stoked up to seize control soon after passing the two pole and stayed on strongly under continued urging to easily defeat Barnso (GB) (Belardo {Ire}) by seven lengths. "He's progressing really nice and he's sharpening up with every run," said winning rider Dylan Browne McMonagle. "I travelled really well and, like the last day, he kept powering clear. He gallops out through the line, which is a good sign, and he's a lovely colt. He handles the [yielding] ground well." Stromberg, kin to a yearling colt by Kameko, is the third foal and scorer produced by a winning half-sister to G3 Prix Imprudence victrix Spectre (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), herself out of a half-sister to G2 German 2000 Guineas hero and G1 Prix Jean Prat third Irian (Ger) (Tertullian). The March-foaled bay's second dam Inez (GB) (Dai Jin {GB}) is also a kin to G3 Geelong Cup victor and G1 Preis von Europa runner-up Ibicenco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}) while her descendants include G3 Premio Guido Berardelli victrix and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Isfahani (Ger) (Isfahan {Ger}). Stromberg hails from the immediate family of G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Iota (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) and her G1 Deutsches Derby-winning son In Swoop (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). Sales history: 22,000gns Wlg '21 TADEWE; €30,000 Ylg '22 TATIRY; €66,667 RNA 2yo '23 GOFFDU. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $40,010. O-Teme Valley; B-Aston Mullins Stud (GB); T-Joseph O'Brien.
