

EIGHTY WINSTAR-BREDS HEAD TO KEENELAND; 'A SPECTACULAR CROP,' SAYS HANLEY

David Hanley | Horsephotos

by Sue Finley

With just around 100 homebred yearlings every year, WinStar Farm puts a particular importance on the Keeneland September Sale, this year selling four-fifths of their annual crop over 12 days starting on Monday, September 11. That importance could be about to pay off, as by all accounts the 80-strong WinStar-breds entered in the sale are a particularly strong group this year.

"For us, it's the most important sale," concedes WinStar's general manager David Hanley. "It's the sale that really represents the market for yearlings." Cont. p3

DIFFERENT HATS KEEP MCDONALD EVER HOPEFUL by Chris McGrath

Perhaps it is called the Hopeful Stakes because that's the most anyone can ever be with a Thoroughbred. But if nearly any purchaser at Keeneland over the next couple of weeks would like to be contesting that race, a year from now, then one consignor might give them not just hope but something closer to confidence.

Okay, so a trifecta for Eaton Sales graduates in the Saratoga Grade I last year featured only the winner, Forte (Violence), from the 2021 Keeneland September Sale. Runner-up Gulfport (Uncle Mo) and third Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) were respectively sold through the Eaton drafts at Fasig-Tipton's July and Saratoga Sales. Nonetheless it was an achievement all the more remarkable for the fact that champion juvenile Forte and Blazing Sevens, subsequently runner-up in the GI Preakness, were both pinhooked through Reiley McDonald's own farm, Athens Wood LLC.

Another complement to his supervision of a flagship sales agency, moreover, is the band of around 20 broodmares resident there. These diverse silos help McDonald to stay tuned into the marketplace from every side, but bring much satisfaction besides. Cont. p6

Hanley continued, “You’ve got the biggest amount of buyers. We send a few horses to July. We try to send usually three to five horses to Saratoga. We like to support that sale, and then the majority of our horses go to Keeneland. That’s really the market.”

Hanley was asked why this particular group was getting early buzz as a top group.

“In general, we keep trying to increase the quality of our mares that we buy and we try to cull some every year and try and bring in new blood,” he said. “Also, in the last few years, we have bred to more to outside stallions as well as our own. Obviously, we have some of our stallions here, but we have spread it a bit more, whereas in the last number of years, sometimes we’ve bred a lot of mares to young stallions to try and get them started. And if one of them hits, great. But if he doesn’t, it can hurt you in the sales ring. So, we’re increasing the quality of our mares, which means you breed them to a higher-quality stallion.”

Six of the 80 expected to draw some attention at the sale demonstrate just that, with three of them by WinStar stalwarts Distorted Humor, Speightstown, and Constitution; the other three, by top outside stallions.

As an example, he points out hip 87, by Curlin and the third foal out of the GIII Delaware Oaks winner Dark Nile (Pioneerof the Nile), who died giving birth to this colt. He is consigned by Warrandale Sales.

“We raced Dark Nile,” he said. “She was a Grade III winner trained by Arnaud Delacour, and this is just a lovely horse. He’s a typical Curlin, very powerful, very good mover.”

Hip 337 is a filly by Uncle Mo out of Starship Warpspeed,

Hanley calls half-sister to Shedaresthedevil “one of the best fillies we’ve had on the farm in several years.” | Thorostride responsible for producing the multiple Grade I winner Shedarestheevil. She will be offered through Denali.

"She's a beautiful filly," said Hanley. "She's been a standout foal from the moment she was a week old and she's continued to grow and develop like we hoped she would. She's a good-sized filly with plenty of leg and stretch to her, but she's full of quality and a very light, easy-moving filly who seems to be all class. She's absolutely beautiful when you see her standing up there. She's got such a beautiful neck, shoulder, head, and beautiful hip on her and she's got the class and presence to go with it. I think she's a really special filly, one of the best fillies we've had on the farm in several years."

Hip 125 is by Justify, and is the second foal from the WinStar-raced First Hour (Speightstown). Her very deep page features the multiple graded stakes winner Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union), GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}), and GI Remsen and Fountain of Youth winner Mohaymen (Tapit), among others.

"This is the first foal out of a Speightstown mare," said Hanley. "We bought her mother as a foal and we raced her. She had some issues as a yearling and didn't really get to show her potential on the racetrack. She was not a very big filly, but a beautifully balanced quality filly. It's an incredible family, with some very talented horses on the page. And when we saw her as a foal, we decided to buy her and race her, mostly for her broodmare potential. his first foal is a big, strapping, powerful Justify filly. She's gorgeous standing there, with a great neck, beautiful shoulder, and great attitude as well. She carries herself with great poise and great class. A really exciting filly by Justify."

Hanley also points out three top prospects by WinStar stallions.

Hip 282 is a filly by Distorted Humor out of Princess Ash (Indian Charlie), and is a full-sister to Quip, the GI Oaklawn H. and Tampa Bay Derby winner who was second in the GI Arkansas Derby. She sells with Denali Stud.

"For a Distorted Humor, she's got a lot of size, and being out of an Indian Charlie mare she's got leg and stretch to her," he said. "She's a very, very good physical for a Distorted Humor. She's a really easy mover, hits the ground very lightly, and has great limbs on her. She has a beautiful neck and head and is full of quality. It's the last available crop of Distorted Humor yearlings and being as good a broodmare sire as he is and her being a half to a Group I-level horse, I think she's a unique package."

Hip 442 is a filly by Speightstown, selling with Machmer Hall, out of Ballykiss (Street Boss), who produced the fast multiple stakes winner Miss J McKay (Hangover Kid).

"She's a beautiful physical and she's got a lot of leg under her for Speightstown. She's got a lot of stretch, but yet she's got that body of the Speightstowns, with muscle structure and scope, but yet looks like she could be fast. She's a beautiful mover. Very correct and very classy. We're very excited about her. We expect her to sell well."

Hip 779, consigned by Elite, is a colt by Constitution out of the young mare America's Tale (Gio Ponti), and is her second foal. "This is a horse that we loved all along," said Hanley. "He's a medium-sized horse, not overly heavy, very athletic. He's out of a Gio Ponti mare and obviously, the Storm Cat on Tapit is attractive. But the best thing about him is he moves like a cat, very balanced, lovely level top line, great neck set and head carriage. He's a real athlete when you see him move."

Hanley's prediction for the overall market is one we've heard a lot in recent years.

"For the people buying top-end bloodstock, I think they're going to be strong as ever. The colt market that we play in a lot is strong. There are a number of groups that are buying colts to try and make stallions over the last number of years, and I think they're all going to be doing it again, which makes it a very strong market for a selective group of horses that have the pedigree and the physical conformation."

WinStar-breds are spread about with 10 different consignors throughout the sale, a diversity WinStar finds beneficial.

"There are several advantages to it," he said. "First, your horses are not competing against each other. We will have several yearlings by, say, Constitution, and we don't put them all standing against each other in one consignment where it's human nature to come in and pick the one you like. And we're buying horses so it's difficult for us to try to run a consignment and buy horses. And, we like to support our breeders and I think giving horses to consignors who breed mares with us is nice a nice way to give them back something."

Hanley gave a shout-out to the team back at the farm for this year's crop.

"Our team here on the farm, our yearling crew led by Donnie Preston, I think they do an exceptional job in raising these horses. We try to raise them naturally. They're out in big pastures that are never overused. They come up in the morning, get fed and checked, and go back out. We try to raise racehorses and I'd like to compliment our team on the job they've done at presenting these horses because I think they all look spectacular."

One of those mares has produced Defunded (Dialed In) to win another Grade I this year, in the Hollywood Gold Cup. Only last weekend McDonald had winners in his own silks at Saratoga and in a stakes at Colonial Downs, while last month he co-bred a €1 million Wootton Bassett yearling sold at Arqana.

Such is the constant action resulting from the long experience that has brought us to McDonald's office in downtown Lexington. And while there's an intensity here, for sure, it is accompanied by a breadth of perspective that also permits a fulfilling life away from the business. (McDonald, indeed, typically spends half his year with his partner, Cricket, in Connecticut.)

"That was unbelievable," he acknowledges, when reminded of his Hopeful achievement. "But really, I've done this so long, I don't get too excited, don't jump up and down, because there are so many that don't work out-you have to take the good and bad just the same." He pauses and chuckles. "And, of course, we only just about broke even on Forte!"

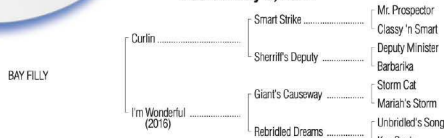

Every year, with a couple of partners, McDonald pinhooks a dozen or so weanlings. Having found Forte for $80,000 at the preceding November Sale, they had to settle for $110,000 from Repole Stable & St. Elias when bringing him back to the same ring.

"Forte is one of the prettier horses you'll ever see, but at that time nobody wanted a Violence," McDonald recalls. "And then Jacob West walked up, right as he was going into the ring, and said, 'What's your reserve?' I told him he had to bring more than a hundred. All those brilliant horsemen, and it came down to just one guy, one bid."

But such are the vagaries of this business-and such, duly, is McDonald's achievement, over the past 28 years, in maintaining both quality and quantity since taking on the game-changing agency founded by Lee Eaton.

He has actually started to scale back somewhat, having concluded that sheer volume is nowadays less sustainable. As he says, it costs as much time, labor and administration to sell a horse for $2,000 as for $2 million. Eaton Sales still has over 100 yearlings catalogued at Keeneland, but there have been times when they might have processed as many as 350 at that sale, following maybe 50 at Saratoga.

"That was a dangerous managerial feat and I don't think anybody can pull it off," McDonald says. "It's so hard to find the help now. I really do worry about the animals, with the kind of help that's out there. And these days, if you're selling a horse for, call it $50,000 or less, you're losing money. Because some of the consignors have cannibalized themselves, reducing fees to a point where there's very little profit margin at the end of the day."

By the time Eaton (and partner John Williams) stepped down, quite apart from a formidable address book, McDonald could feel no less grateful for his mentorship.

"Lee was like so many people who are successful in business," McDonald reflects. "He worked hard, and demanded that the people around him worked hard. And he really was smart, always thinking of how you might do things differently, and better. He made it a much more professional business. The 'good old boy' stuff went out the window. The big parties before the July Sale, I mean, we never really did that. We just stuck to trying to make that horse look as good as it could. That was the whole thing: how do you present the horse?"

"It used to be the old 'baggy pants' off the farm. But Lee hired all these guys from Virginia who would come in with their creased pants, and they really knew how to show a horse. And suddenly smart guys like Ed Cox, even Warner Jones as good as he was, started to sell with Lee. When you walked into his courtyard at Saratoga or Keeneland, it was definitely different: very clean, very professional--like they all are now. He really did set the standard."

No less crucially, there were also corresponding advances in preparation, heeded to this day by McDonald.

"He decided to build huge run-in sheds and turn his horses out," he says. "He was the first to do that. He didn't bring them up in the winter. And I follow the same program. Now, if it's a horrible, icy wet night, we bring everything in, and he would too. But they were out 99 percent of the time. And he developed his own feed. We've modified it over the years, but I still feed the same cubed feed."

"He was very good about horses' weight, getting the proper conditioning to each yearling--which is something that surprisingly few people do well. Back in the day, people wanted yearlings to be almost obese. Lee started to make them look more like racehorses."

Before joining Eaton, McDonald had spent 10 years under John Finney at Fasig-Tipton, gaining a comprehensive insight into the market. Under head inspector Bobby Powell he learned the optimal physique of a commercial yearling, and as sales announcer he came to understand the functioning of the marketplace itself. "At the time John Finney was probably the smartest guy in the business," McDonald says. "That's where I really learned about the business of horses, valuations, matings."

There were other paths McDonald might have taken, having studied Animal Science at Cornell (where he captained the lacrosse team), but he has basically been working with horses since he was 13. The family had moved to the country, the kids got a pony, there was a horse farm down the road. He went to school five minutes from Pimlico, and would run in "smelling of manure and throwing on a tie to get to assembly." The teenage McDonald then cut his racetrack teeth under Maryland hardboot B. Frank Christmas.

"He was one of the real old-timers," he recalls. "Quite a crusty character, always chewing tobacco and spitting, always with the hat and the coat on. He was a trainer, but also had a farm and a stallion. We were breeding mares, we were breaking all our horses, we legged up everything on the farm."

One way or another, then, the young man who took over the sales agency had plenty of miles on the clock. "Then Tom Van Meter bought a 20 percent interest, and he was my partner for about 20 years," McDonald says. "Tom was a vet, he was sort of the country boy while I was more the city boy. So we had different sets of clients, and that worked for a long time. But that's when the business was huge. We were doing too many horses."

In admitting as much, and with Eaton having been such a trailblazer, does McDonald sometimes feel that he has helped to create a monster? This, after all, has become an industry where horses are routinely exploited through several investment cycles before they get anywhere near the gate.

"I feel like I've probably overseen the sale, personally, of more horses than anybody," he replies. "Which, the last couple of years, doesn't make me the proudest guy in the world. Because I really feel like our business has deteriorated a good bit. And I don't mean just the selling business, but the racing, to a large extent.

Nyquist's spectacular sophomore crop, led by G1 Alabama winner Randomized, could soon be upstaged when his 2023 yearlings get to the track.

"I think often we interfere way too much with these horses. By 'we' I don't mean us, I mean the industry. The more I learn and observe about what's happening on the tracks, the more disappointing I find it. And we're losing fans, and alienating the non-horse public."

This conversation, it should be noted, took place before the recent traumas at Saratoga. In other words, McDonald was already thinking in terms that have meanwhile come to feel imperative. He feels that the spirit of reform behind HISA is vital, albeit that early mistakes were made: overreaching, not consulting adequately. "I think the trainers got a double whammy," he says. "They didn't have a lot of say in it, and then a lot of the responsibility was put onto them. But we need HISA and it will get better--as it has to. Like anything worth doing, it needs time and we all need to work on it."

Nor does he feel that the current use of the crop can last. ("Three strikes and you're out," he recommends. "One to start, one to steer, one to finish.") But for all the challenges we face, the magic of the horse itself abides. That's where every fulfilment begins--and many opportunities, too. Standing in the back ring at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale, for instance, McDonald saw a Touch Gold mare led past.

"Oh, she's really pretty," he murmured to himself. In fact, she reminded him of Scarlet Tango, a mare he had once found in the same ring for $35,000. Five years later, having meanwhile produced GI King's Bishop winner Visionaire (Grand Slam), he sold her on for $850,000 to Stonestreet.

"I can't afford to buy a whole package: race record, pedigree, everything," McDonald says. "But I can buy looks." While this mare actually had multiple stakes placings, she cost barely more than Scarlet Tango at $37,000. And Wind Caper is now dam of Defunded, sold for $210,000 at Keeneland September in 2019 and hitherto winner of $1.6 million.

"I don't breed the fanciest pedigrees," McDonald says. "But they come up to that little farm and do really well. It was a cattle farm for 300 years, all with the same family. It was about to be developed into 10-acre 'piano-key' lots when four other guys and I bought it. I kept 120 acres, and it's just great land. It's heavy in limestone, it's been fertilized for hundreds of years. And I kind of stick to the old 'leave' formula: leave them out, leave them alone, just keep an eye on any problems creeping up."

"They're well raised, and the guys have been on the farm for years. Chuchie has been with me 35 years, was on the old Eaton Farm when he was 18. These are the best guys I've ever seen with foals, it's magic to watch their hands."

But many of the elite performers whose photos are crammed onto the walls have obviously come through the core business of the agency. And here, McDonald says, how you handle people counts for at least as much as how you do horses. Before anything else, he needs to understand his clients' risk tolerance: where they might have slack, when they might race a horse, and so on. Because the market itself is never predictable. Neither Hard Spun nor Omaha Beach made their September reserves, for instance, McDonald eventually persuading the late Rick Porter to take both. ("You're now about $60 million to the good from those two horses," he told Porter later. "Don't you think I should get a share?" Porter replied: "On the next one!")

Unique Bella, the daughter of Tapit and Unrivaled Belle (Unbridled's Song), had over 160 shows at the 2015 September Sale and was not vetted once.

"So, you got the best horseman from around the world looking at this filly," marvels McDonald. "She toed in a little bit, and had a $399,000 reserve. And one person runs up to me, right as she's walking into the ring, and says, 'Can I see the vet report?' And runs back inside. There was one bid at $400,000, and it happened to be Carlos [Heller] at Don Alberto. And look what he got: one of the great mares of that decade. She was gorgeous. So sometimes it just blows your mind."

Unique Bella and Hard Spun were both bred by Betty Moran, owner of Brushwood Stables, who became another cherished influence.

"An angel was on my shoulder the day I bumped into her, in 1991, and she told me she'd just lost her general manager," McDonald recalls. He volunteered for the role and they worked together for nearly 30 years, perhaps their most memorable moment actually being with a steeplechaser, Papillon (Ire), in the 2000 Grand National. "Mrs. Moran only wanted to compete at the highest level," McDonald notes. "And we built and maintained one of the best 20-head broodmare bands in the country. She was a best friend, confidante-and tough boss!"

That highest level, however, is never always confined only to the top of the market--and that, of course, is what drives the whole business."

"How about Victory Gallop, who I sold many moons ago for $25,000?" says McDonald. "He had a chip in a stifle, and three ankles. Pug Hart bought him and said, 'I can't keep this horse.' This was before the repository. And I said, 'Well, essentially, he's sold, but let me talk to the owner.' And he agreed to take $10,000 off. So, they got Victory Gallop for $15,000! But I could count so many good horses that [apparently] had big, big problems. I purchased Mitole for very little [$20,000 September yearling] because he had a lot of writing on the vet report, but he was a horse of exquisite conformation."

Kenny McPeck | Sarah Andrew

Like many experienced consignors, McDonald reckons to know buyers' tastes well enough to pull out a horse they haven't even asked for. "The only guy I still can't figure out is Kenny McPeck!" he admits. "He has bought so many good horses through auction, and I still don't know what he looks for. But that's really what puts it all together for us: knowing both sides, the seller and the buyer. And that takes a long time to do. That's why anybody who wants to get into the consignment business, you have to be willing to get on an airplane, to be everywhere and see everyone."

While he isn't comfortable with everything about the industry, or the way it has changed over the past 40 years, McDonald emphasizes an undiminished passion for the sport.

"We've got a lot of hard work to do, but there are still great parts to it," he says. "I do feel blessed to have been able to do what I have. It all comes from being hands on. My favorite thing I ever did in my life, and the thing I was best at, was on top of a horse. You learn so much if your hands have learned to absorb what the animal is telling you. Even today I love showing a horse at the sales.

"I don't know, I just love this animal. It's incredible. I mean, last night I was walking around the foals, just thinking how lucky I am, to be in that moment, with these beautiful little animals coming up to you. I still love it."

SEVERAL CALIFORNIA RACETRACK VETS PUT ON PROBATION BY VET MED BOARD

by Dan Ross

Over the last few months, several California backstretch veterinarians have been placed on probationary periods by the California Veterinary Medical Board (CVMB) for alleged problems in their practice of veterinary medicine.

The latest backstretch veterinarians to face such disciplinary actions are Vince Baker, placed on probation for four years, and Sarah Graybill Jones, placed on a three-year probationary period. The effective date for both probationary periods was Aug. 21.

These disciplinary actions signify an ongoing conundrum for backstretch veterinarians in California, who have found themselves afoul of the CVMB for veterinary procedures and approaches that are deemed legal under the California Horse Racing Board's (CHRB) rules.

Baker and Graybill Jones are two of six Southern California-based backstretch veterinarians who have been placed on probation by the CVMB so far this year. The veterinary medical board has filed complaints against at least another 15 backstretch veterinarians.

The various complaints and accusations against California's backstretch veterinarians are similar in nature and reflect a yawning schism between the veterinary board and the CHRB concerning approaches to standard equine veterinary care.

The main areas of conflict surround what the CVMB deems prescribing and dispensing medications or treatments without an examination or forming a diagnosis, how to define the proper veterinarian-client-patient relationship (VCPR) on a racetrack backstretch, and the prophylactic use of medications.

The CHRB has updated its rules on compounded drugs with the aim of clarifying another area of disagreement with the VMB.

Several equine veterinary experts have said that a key part of the conflict surrounds the Veterinary Medicine Practice Act--the overarching rules by which all licensed veterinarians must comport their business--which is almost entirely geared around small animal practice, and therefore is unrepresentative of the practicalities of herd health on a racetrack backstretch.

In an effort to resolve the differences between the two agencies, veteran equine veterinarian Barrie Grant was appointed to the VMB earlier this year by California Governor, Gavin Newsom. The veterinary board has also established an Equine Practice Subcommittee.

Baker is the long-time veterinarian for Bob Baffert, trainer of Medina Spirit, who finished first in the 2021 G1 Kentucky Derby, only to be disqualified due to a post-race betamethasone positive. The following December, Medina Spirit suffered a sudden cardiac death during training.

Due to the high-profile litigation surrounding Medina Spirit's disqualification from the Kentucky Derby, and the horse's subsequent death, the CVMB's disciplinary actions Baker, Medina Spirit's track vet, have proven a lightning-rod on social media.

The CVMB accused Baker of several causes of discipline including alleged negligence in the practice of veterinary medicine, the "dispensing of dangerous drugs without medical necessity," prescribing "controlled substances without medical necessity," and failure to establish VCPR.

The TDN reached out Friday morning to attorney Lisa Brown, who represents Baker, for comment. Brown has not yet responded.

year. We're delighted to be selling this pair."

Campaigned by Qatar Racing, Marc Detampel and Madaket Stables, Caravel scored a half-length victory against the boys in the 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Keeneland during a five-race win streak. Earlier this year, the 6-year-old mare defeated males again in both the GII Shakertown S. and the GI Jaipur S. at Belmont Park.

"Keeneland is excited to welcome back a star the caliber of Caravel, who turned in some of her most memorable performances here and, as a three-time stakes winner, raced into track history," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. "Both Caravel and her dam, Zeezee Zoomzoom, will attract global attention from owners and breeders."

Caravel is the first foal out of 11-year-old Zeezee Zoomzoom, who scored her maiden victory on the turf at Saratoga. The mare, who also produced multiple stakes winner Witty (Great Notion), has four winners from four starters.

"She's not a big mare herself," said Caravel's breeder, Elizabeth Merryman, about Zeezee Zoomzoom, "but she throws very big foals that are very correct, lovely, good movers--she's a really good mover. They all get a lot of natural speed from her. Some of them want to go long, and some want to sprint. They're really talented, smart, lovely horses that are well put together. I love the nick to Justify; I think it's just right for her."

The catalog for the November Breeding Stock Sale will be posted Oct. 3.

SOD DABBLER OR DIVER, SATURDAY'S GRADED STAKES RUNS DEEP

by J.N. Campbell

The going sticks will get stuck and with the rails down or out, the Saturday graded stakes lineup trucks in with heaps of sod for your turf racing enjoyment.

Whether you are a dabbling duck or one that takes a deep dive, there is something for everyone as the Downs--Kentucky and Colonial--plus Woodbine Racetrack and the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, all feature high-level grass action.

KENTUCKY DOWNS GRADED SIX PACK

The uniquely designed turf course at Kentucky Downs cards the most graded stakes this Saturday, which will lead off with the GIII Ladies Marathon S.

Going one mile and 5/16ths, look for MGSP Vergara (Noble Mission) to stalk the pace as she returns to the site where she won last year by a head in the Dueling Grounds Oaks. Standing in her way is GSW Personal Best (Tapit), who broke her maiden at last year's meet before going on to face graded company this spring at Gulfstream Park where the homebred won the GIII La Prevoyante S.

With no overwhelming favorite on the morning-line, expect the GII Franklin-Simpson S. to be an all-out war both on the tote and sprinting down the stretch. Playlist (Uncle Mo), making her first stakes start, will look to go on the offensive early versus the boys, but she will have to contend with Sweet Cherry Pie (Twirling Candy), who has never sampled turf, and GSW Mo Stash (Mo Town), who is cutting back for the first time in almost a year.

"I like to run fillies against colts in sprints," said Playlist's trainer Wesley Ward. "I don't think it makes a big difference. If you look at the times in the 2-year-olds in training sales, the fillies are always faster as a group. I think they can compete against the colts every time."

The GIII Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf S. pits GISP and MGSP White Frost (Candy Ride {Arg}) against GSW and 'TDN Rising Star' New Year's Eve (Kitten's Joy). After a very solid first half, the former was second in the De La Rose S. Aug. 2 at Saratoga and will face many of those competitors in this spot, while the latter prepped ably by winning this race's preview at Ellis Park Aug. 6.

Back to the speedsters for the GII Turf S. for males, it is going to be a pleasure to see another bout between the top two finishers in Aug. 5 running of the GIII Troy S. at Saratoga. That slugfest upstate saw Cogburn (Not This Time) catch GSW Nobals (Noble Mission {GB}) just before the wire. If this race wasn't tough enough, you will also find 'TDN Rising Star' and Woodbine GII Connaught Cup hero Dream Shake (Twirling Candy) looking to make it three wins in a row.

The GII Ladies Turf S. includes favorite MGSP Bay Storm (Kantharos), as she looks to add to her overall earnings after winning the prep for this race Aug. 5 at Ellis Park, and the experienced GSW and GISP Wakanaka (Ire) (Power {GB}).

Bringing up the graded rear going 12 furlongs will be the $1.7-million GII Turf Cup S., which offers a 'Win and You're In' opportunity into the GI Breeders' Cup Longines Turf. A pair of Brendan Walsh trainees in GSW Verstappen (War Front) and MGISW Santin (Distorted Humor) come calling, but they are going to have to be cognizant of GI United Nations S. victor Therapist (Freud) and GIII Dinner Party S. winner Never Explain (Street Sense).

"I wouldn't completely rule out him going back to dirt again at some point," Walsh said of Santin. "But he's a heck of a turf horse ... he ran a very good second in the Arlington Million. It was a fantastic run. He was up on the pace the whole way and was there to be shot at. And he held in there and ran a really, really good second. I feel he's doing really well coming into here. He got a mile and a quarter at Colonial. I don't see why he wouldn't get a mile and a half. He's a very relaxed horse, maybe a little too laid back if anything."

KLARAVICH STABLEMATES TRADE BLOWS IN VIRGINIA DERBY

On its closing day Saturday, Colonial Downs hosts the nine-furlong GIII Virginia Derby.

Klaravich Stables has a pair of Chad Brown trainees which pose a major threat to the rest of the field. Activist Investing (GB) (Kingman {GB}) was very sharp at this distance when he cleared the optional claiming ranks Aug. 13 at Saratoga in his lone race this year. He will do battle with GI Saratoga Derby star Program Trading (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) by attempting to relieve his speed-oriented stablemate of his perfect record.

Also present is Salute the Stars (Candy Ride {Arg}), winner of the Monmouth Park Pegasus S. June 17 and surprise longshot from the Aug. 12 GII Secretariat S. at Colonial, Gigante (Not This

WOODBINE'S TURF ACE RETURNS

Not to be missed in the GII Canadian S. for older females is the return of last year's victoress Fev Rover (Ire) (Gulfalan {Ire}), who wired the field last out in the GI Beverly D Aug. 12 at Colonial. She will square off against the top three finishers from the GII Dance Smartly S. Aug. 20 at Woodbine, which includes Miss Dracarys (Malibu Moon).

"Javier [Castellano] and I were flying to Colonial Downs, and we were talking about the race [Beverly D]," said Fev Rover's trainer Mark Casse. "He said, 'There's no speed in this race.' I agreed and told him that she can go right to the lead. The nice thing about her, and Tepin [champion and dual Hall of Fame mare] was the same way, is that a great horse can bring their A-game no matter the situation. So, we went right to the lead, and it was over when that happened."

Also on the graded docket is the GIII Singspiel S., which returns to 1 1/4 grass distance from two years ago. GSP Malibu Mambo (Point of Entry) could be the hot commodity after a sharp late surge against optional claimers in Toronto Aug. 12, but don't count out GSP Palazzi (Pioneer of the Nile).

DEL MAR SPORTS LONE GRADED DIRT RACE

The GI Del Mar Debutante S., the only graded dirt race on Saturday, is sure to bring some attention with a capacity field of 14. First-crop sire Flameaway is well represented with 'TDN Rising Star' Julias Dream, who broke her maiden by 5 1/2 lengths over the turf at Del Mar Aug. 6. She will take on the top two finishers from the GIII Sorrento S. Aug. 12, Dreamfyre (Flameaway) and Benedetta (City of Light). The lineup also includes Chatalas (Gun Runner) and Tamara (Bolt d'Oro), who both broke their maidens at first asking in Solana Beach July 30 and Aug. 19, respectively.

It wouldn't be Del Mar's turf without the turf and this year's GII John Mabee S. might be remembered as a match between GII Yellow Ribbon H. wearer Closing Remarks (Vronsky) and MGSW Neige Blanche (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}). Still, no one should overlook trainer Phil D'Amato's offerings. After all, he is looking to edge out Bob Baffert for the training title, and both Oakhurst (Mr Speaker) and GSW Turnerloose (Nyquist) will try to help the cause as the Del Mar meet concludes Sunday with a pair of graded races, the GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity and GIII Del Mar Juvenile Turf S.

CHURCHILL MAKES SLIGHT CHANGES TO KENTUCKY DERBY AND OAKS ROADS

149th Kentucky Derby | Coady Photography

Churchill Downs Racetrack officials have made slight modifications to the upcoming Road to the Kentucky Derby, the series of select races that will determine the preference list for the 150th GI Kentucky Derby presented by Woodford Reserve on Saturday, May 4, 2024.

The Road to the Kentucky Derby, which debuted in 2013, annually awards a sliding scale of points to the top five finishing positions in select qualifying races. At the conclusion of the series, the leaderboard will determine the preference list for entries into the 20-horse Kentucky Derby.

Second-place points in all qualifying races have been increased to create added separation from second and third-place finishers. Additionally, third and fourth-place points in races that award 100 points to winner have been decreased.

Series Races:

Early Prep Season

Last Year: 10-4-3-2-1, This Year: 10-5-3-2-1

Breeders' Cup

Last Year: 30-12-9-6-3, This Year: 30-15-9-6-3

Late Prep Season

Last Year: 20-8-6-4-2, This Year: 20-10-6-4-2

Early Championship Series

Last Year: 50-20-15-10-5, This Year: 50-25-15-10-5

Late Championship Series

Last Year: 100-40-30-20-10, This Year: 100-50-25-15-10

In other changes:

- The GIII Street Sense S. scheduled for Oct. 29 at Churchill Downs has been added to the Early Prep Season;
- The GIII Sunland Park Derby has been decreased in value from 50-20-15-10-5 in 2023 to 20-10-6-4-2 in

Similar changes were made to the 32-race Road to the Kentucky Oaks series, which awards points to fillies to qualify for the 150th GI Longines Kentucky Oaks on Friday, May 3, 2024:

- The Rags to Riches S. to be run Oct. 29 at Churchill Downs has been added to the Early Prep Season;
- The Sunland Park Oaks has been decreased in value from 50-20-15-10-5 in 2023 to 20-10-6-4-2 in 2024; and
- The GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland has been removed from the Championship Series.

HISA IN DEPTH: ELECTROLYTES

Editor's note: This is the latest in a series in the TDN to help industry members better understand the procedures under the new HISA and HIWU regulations.

TDN: Changes have been made to the electrolytes protocols. Can you explain them?

HISA: Last month, HISA released updated guidance concerning the use of electrolytes before races and vets' list workouts. The key points for horsemen and veterinarians to know are summarized below:

- Electrolytes that are administered orally are permitted up to 24 hours before a horse's scheduled race or vets' list workout. Examples that fall in this category include powders that are top-dressed or mixed in the feed, as well as electrolytes administered via paste or drench gun.
- Unsupplemented isotonic electrolyte solutions such as lactated ringer's solution are permitted up to 24 hours before a horse's scheduled race or vets' list workout when administered intravenously.
- Electrolytes administered via nasogastric (stomach) tube are permitted up to 48 hours prior to a horse's scheduled race or vets' list workout.
- Salt and mineral blocks may be made available to a horse at any time.
- Unsupplemented isotonic electrolyte solutions may be consumed by free choice by the horse, i.e., electrolyte water in the stall, at any time.

The recent guidance expands the permissiveness of electrolytes under HISA's Anti-Doping and Medication Control Program, bringing their use in line with that of oral vitamins. This change was made to further promote equine health, especially in hot and humid environments in which electrolyte supplementation may be necessary due to excessive sweating.

SHANNON CASTAGNOLA NAMED AIRDRIE STUD'S NEW DIRECTOR OF SALES

Shannon Castagnola has been named as Airdrie Stud's new Director of Sales, the Midway nursery said in a release Friday afternoon.

Helping to head up both the stallion nominations and public sales divisions, Castagnola managed the yearling and breeding stock consignments for Woodford Thoroughbreds for the past nine years.

"I am thrilled to be working with the incredible Airdrie Stud team," said Castagnola. "It's energizing to be working with a farm this diversified and with such a tremendous history of success. From the beautifully bred mares whose families have been developed over the past five decades, to the dedication in raising their horses to be tough and sound, I have always been a great admirer of the Airdrie formula. I believe our stallion roster, led by the success stories of Girvin, Upstart, Cairo Prince and Collected is one of the most exciting in the industry and I couldn't be looking more forward to being part of what I believe is a very bright future at Airdrie."

Airdrie said she would continue to be a major presence on the sales grounds as she leads the various Airdrie Stud consignments throughout the sales season. An industry veteran of the last 23 years, Castagnola also worked with West Point Thoroughbreds and Taylor Made Sales.

"I could not be more grateful to Shannon for joining our team," said Airdrie's Bret Jones. "Smart, kind and honest is an incredible combination and it's those qualities that make Shannon so widely respected within our sport. Our breeders will absolutely love working with her and her insight and ideas will be a major reason for Airdrie's future success. We are exceptionally lucky to have her."

TIF REPORTS PRAIRIE MEADOWS HIT BY POOL MANIPULATIONS

The Iowa Racing and Gaming Commission is investigating a spate of pool manipulation incidents which seem to have occurred on three races run at Prairie Meadows in the last eight race days, the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation (TIF) said in a release Friday morning.

Daily double pools on Sept. 4 (Races 2/3), Sept. 1 (Races 6/7) and Aug. 25 (Races 5/6) were subject to massive bets on combinations the manipulator(s) expected to lose. In each case, the bets were made in the final betting cycle when projected payouts for each combination are not updated until the race was underway.

TIF has drawn attention to such incidents, and the problems they create, at other U.S. tracks in the past. Most notably, Gulfstream Park eliminated its quinella pools after a significant manipulation event was detected in November 2022.

"These incidents at Prairie Meadows have all the hallmarks of pool manipulation based on TIF's multi-year focus and every time they occur, it calls into question the outcomes of the races involved," said TIF executive director Patrick Cummings.

"Integrity is paramount and when pools are manipulated like this, bettors are rightly confused and can lose confidence that races are run fairly and the betting pools are operated fairly."

KEENELAND LIBRARY EXPANDS EXHIBIT THROUGH FALL, ADDS EVENTS

Keeneland Library has scheduled a number of events for the remainder of 2023 to expand the reach of its exhibit, The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers.

Due to demand, the Library's free exhibit and its on-site youth and adult programs have been extended through Dec. 8.

Other events include:

Now: Companion book available

- The companion book to The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers is available at the Library and The Keeneland Shop (in store and online) for $10. All proceeds will benefit the Keeneland Library Foundation.
- Keeneland Library will begin to donate copies of the book to community and industry organizations Sept. 11.

Sept. 15: LexArts Gallery Hop at the Lyric (5-8 p.m.)

- To celebrate the launch of the traveling exhibit in Lexington's East End, incoming Library Director Roda Ferraro will deliver the evening's educational program and the first 100 Gallery Hop attendees will receive a free copy of the companion book.

Sept. 19: "Meet the Authors" free at Keeneland Library (6:30-8 p.m.)

- Pulitzer Prize nominee Sarah Maslin Nir and co-author Raymond White Jr. will present their new book, The Jockey & Her Horse, the story of Cheryl White Breyer. Books will be available for purchase for $17. A brief program will be followed by a book signing. RSVP here.

Sept. 20: "Meet the Authors" free at the Lyric (6-7:30 p.m.)

- After an opening program in the Lyric's Community Room, a meet and greet is scheduled with Nir and White. The first 100 attendees under the age of 18 will receive a free copy of their book, along with free General Admission passes to Keeneland's Fall Meet.

Oct. 21: Cheryl White Breyer Sets at Keeneland

- During Sunrise Trackside, a free, family-friendly event at Keeneland from 8-10 a.m. (ET), Keeneland will spotlight White's career as a jockey. Children will have a chance to try on a replica of White's silks, and fans will have a chance to win Keeneland Breyer sets featuring a figure of White, the model horse Jetolara (her first winning mount) and a copy of the book.
- The Keeneland Shop and Keeneland Library will host a signing with Raymond White Jr. from 1-3 p.m. Cheryl White Breyer sets and copies of The Jockey & Her Horse will be available to purchase.

Nov. 18: An Evening with Geraldine Brooks at the Keeneland Sales Pavilion (6:30-8 p.m.)

- Keeneland Library will host Pulitzer Prize winning-author Geraldine Brooks, who will discuss her 2022 novel, Horse. Details to follow.

LONGTIME PLETCHER RACING COO MAGGIE SWEET TO STEP DOWN

Maggie Sweet | courtesy of Maggie Sweet

After 25 years behind the scenes at Pletcher Racing Stable, COO Maggie Sweet has decided to step down later this season.

"A number of factors have influenced my decision. Personally, I would like to spend more time with my young daughter during the summer. Professionally, I am interested in exploring other aspects of the racing and breeding industry," Sweet said.

During her tenure, Sweet played a pivotal role in the growth and continued success of Pletcher Racing Stable. More recently, she was a driving factor behind the establishment of Todd Pletcher as an industry stallion maker.

Pletcher commented, "Maggie contributed in many ways and has played a huge part in the success and development of our stable. She will be missed by our entire team and will be impossible to replace."

MAIDEN COLTS SHINE ON DEBUTANTE DAY

4th-DMR, $82K, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 5:59 p.m.

An $850,000 Keeneland September yearling, CONCORD BRIDGE (Medaglia d'Oro) makes the races for owners Talla Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds under the tutelage of trainer John Sadler. Dam Pauline Revere, a half to GI Bing Crosby S. winner American Theorem (American Pharoah) and her first foal, Donegal Mischief (Into Mischief), romped to a 10 1/4-length maiden win on debut at Evangeline Downs July 28.

Lined up just to his outside, Utopian (Curlin) is a full-brother to MGISP Ride On Curlin and out of a daughter of GI Test S. winner Victory Ride (Seeking the Gold). Bob Baffert trains for SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing, and Madaket.

That one's stablemate lined up inside, Divino (Good Magic), brought $400,000 as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling Sale. His second dam, a GI Ashland S. winner, first brought $6,000,000 from Hill 'n' Dale at KEENOV in 2006 and then sold again to John Sikura for a further $3,100,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Fall Mixed Sale two years later. Divino is out of a half to GI Darley Debutante S. winner Mi Sueno (Pulpit) and from the family of $2,000,000 2-year-old and GI Ballerina S. heroine Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again). TJCIS PPS

5th-KD, $150K, Msw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 2:51 p.m.

A Juddmonte homebred by the late Arrogate, Auden will look to become the fourth winner from as many to race for his GSW/MGISP dam. Juddmonte raced this colt's first, second and third dam, each of whom found success at the grade/group level. Trainer Bill Mott trains while Joel Rosario picks up the mount. TJCIS PPS

SUMMER BREEZES:

'Rising Star' Julias Dream Tries Dirt in Debutante

by Alan Carasso

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the summer's boutique meetings.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the entries for Saturday at Del Mar, including previously raced fillies going postward in the GI Del Mar Debutante:

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

2nd-Del Mar, $84,500, Msw, 9-8, 2yo, f, 5fT, :57.22, fm, 1 1/4 lengths.

SOHO (f, 2, City of Light--Keri Belle {GSW, $323,140}, by Empire Maker) lacked racing room in the opening jumps and took back to split the field from fifth as Feisty Mitole (Mitole) surged from the inside gate to the lead. Always traveling well, the 4-1 shot took a ground-saving track around the far turn before tipping out to kick for home. Charging past favored Avoir (More Than Ready) and a fading pacesetter, Soho went clear close to home and opened up 1 1/4 lengths to win going away. A $625,000 yearling purchase, Soho is the fourth winner from as many to race for her graded-stakes winning dam. Keri Belle has a yearling Vekoma colt and reported a Twirling Candy filly this year before returning to City of Light for a full-sibling to Friday's winner next spring. Sales History: $625,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

UNDERSTUDY KITTY (c, 2, Kitten's Joy--Theatric, by Bernardini), fourth over this same course and distance Aug. 19, broke sharply and cleared down to the rail from an outside gate. Alone on the lead through the top of the lane, he found just enough in the final yards to hold off a pair of charging rivals to the line and defeat Fondre (Demarchelier {GB}) by a neck. Theatric, a $400,000 purchase carrying the winner at Keeneland January in 2021, is a daughter of champion 3-year-old filly, champion older mare and $9,000,000 KEENOV 2005 sale-topper Ashado (Saint Ballado). The winner has a yearling Medaglia d'Oro half-brother and Theatric visited Gun Runner for next spring. 2nd-Colonial Downs, $58,000, Msw, 9-8, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10.88, ft, 1 length.

BETSYLICIOUS (f, 2, Omaha Beach--Miss Behaviour {MGSW & GISP, $790,834}, by Jump Start), dispatched at even money, battled up front with Pola of Trouble (World of Trouble) to her inside. Joined by Lou Anna (Fast Anna) into the turn, she managed to shake off that pair of rivals and open up a safe advantage to the wire, keeping Lou Anna at bay by a length. The ninth winner for Omaha Beach (by War Front), Betsylicious has a weanling half-sister by Knicks Go. Her dam was bred back to Cyberknife. 2nd-Pimlico, $52,600, Msw, 9-8, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:39.24, fm, 1 1/2 lengths.

MONTICELLO (f, 2, Nyquist--Crushed Velvet {GSP}, by Malibu Moon) vied for command early and established the lead through easy fractions of :24.92 and :50.49. Sharmin (Mosler) never let her get too far ahead but, when the real running began, the 6-1 shot had plenty left to turn back a challenge from Tales to Tell (Hard Spun) and hold safe inside the final sixteenth to graduate by 1 1/2 lengths. From the extended family of MGSW, champion sprinter and sire Midnight Lute (Real Quiet), Monticello has a yearling Hard Spun half-brother and a weanling half-sister by Raging Bull (Fr). Her dam visited Rock Your World for 2024. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $31,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Peachtree Stable (KY); T-Arnaud Delacour.

3rd-Gulfstream, $45,000, Msw, 9-8, 2yo, f, 1m 70y (AWT), 1:44.62, ft, 1/2 length.

ALCOHOL (f, 2, Vino Rosso--Cool and Stormy, by Stormy Atlantic) never did much running in her 5 1/2-furlong debut over this track and surface Aug. 20 but showed improved early speed Friday to settle third as Mi Amore (Vino Rosso) set a :51.75 opening half-mile tempo. Up to make a bid into the lane, the 9-2 shot found a gap between horses close to home and was able to seal the deal with a half-length score over Majestic Venezuela (Mendelssohn). The 10th winner for her freshman sire (by Curlin), Alcohol has a yearling McKinzie half-sister and Cool and Stormy returned to the Gainesway stallion for 2024. WILLY D'S (c, 2, Lookin At Lucky--Boston Mine, by Mineshaft) wanted the lead from the first jump and ran unopposed until Derbyness (Hoppertunity) came to challenge into the turn. Game inside of that rival down the lane, the 5-1 shot dug in to just get on the winning edge of the duel by a half-length. Out of a half-sister to two-time Puerto Rican champion imported mare Pure Lone (Eskendereya), Willy D's has a yearling First Samurai half-sister and a weanling half-brother by Volatile. CONTESSA'S SONG (f, 2, Street Sense--Bev's Summer Song, by Birdstone) tired to fourth after leading much of her debut running at Monmouth July 29. The 7-5 second choice took back off the runaway leader Arch Street (Constitution) through a quarter in :22.87 before pouncing into the turn. Unchallenged once up front, she was kept to task to the line but won easily by 3 1/4 lengths over Arijana's Pearl (Curlin). Bev's Summer Song, a daughter of champion 2-year-old filly Storm Song (Summer Squall), is a half to the dams of high-weighted MG1SW Order of St George (Ire) (Galileo), Singapore's 4x champion Better Life (Aus) (Smarty Jones), and Turkey's Horse of the Year The Last Romance (Tur) (Tizway). SI CERTO (f, 2, Mineshaft--Pure Confidence, by Pure Prize) split the field from sixth behind Watcher (Tapiture) through a half in :47.21. Patiently handled, the 19-1 longshot waited for room to open up between rivals as the field swung past the quarter pole and dove through the gap to clear off into the final sixteenth. Lil Gin N Class (Coal Front) checked in second 2 3/4 lengths behind Si Certo. The winner's only younger sibling is a weanling half-brother by Jimmy Creed. In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Hanshin and Nakayama Racecourses:

Saturday, September 9, 2023

4th-HSN, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

LUDIQUE (c, 2, Into Mischief--Miss Besilu, by Medaglia d'Oro), whose dam was third in the GI Alabama S. and GI CCA Oaks in 2014 and was purchased for $2.2 million with this foal in utero at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, is a half-brother to the dual Grade III-placed Gun It (Tapit). Miss Besilu, who topped the weanling section as part of the Ned Evans dispersal at Keeneland November in 2011 on Ben Leon's bid of $2.6

million, is a daughter of SW & GSP Quiet Dance (Quiet American), the dam of Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado); GISW sire Funtastic (More Than Ready); and GSW Quiet Giant (Giant's Causeway), the dam of the wildly successful sire and Horse of the Year Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Ludique carries the Carrot Racing colors. B-Northern Farm (KY)

Sunday, September 10, 2023

3rd-NKY, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

RUN GUN (JPN) (f, 2, Gun Runner--Kristizar, by Tapizar), a $90,000 in-utero purchase at the 2020 KEENOV sale, is out of a half-sister to no fewer than four black-type horses by Tapizar's sire Tapit, including the Grade III-placed Taxable. The MGSP third dam Here I Go (Mr. Prospector) was the dam of five winners from seven to the races including 2005 GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Summerly (Summer Squall). Run Gun went through the JRHA Select Sale last summer, bringing ¥38 million. B-Senri Farm Co Ltd

5th-HSN, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

CIRCLE OF JOY (JPN) (f, 2, Constitution--Mirth, by Colonel John) is the first foal from her dam, all-the-way winner of the 2019 GI Rodeo Drive S. for Little Red Feather and Phil D'Amato and later purchased by Katsumi Yoshida for $1.05 million with this filly in utero at FTKNOV in 2020. Mirth is a half-sister to Grade II winner Vault (Jump Start) and Call Me Andy (Midshipman), twice stakes-placed at two this term. Third dam Orrefer (Our Native) produced some top Illinois-breds for Asiel Stables, including MSW/MGISP Copper State (Jump Start), MSW Bonita Meadow (Meadowlake) and the dam of fellow MSW Caruso (Cape Canaveral). B-Shunsuke Yoshida

Miss Besilu selling at Fasig-Tipton in 2020 | Fasig-Tipton

5th-NKY, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600mT

ATARAYO (f, 2, Justify--Magic Fountain, by War Front)

represents the first produce for her dam, who caused a 10-1 upset for Coolmore in the 2014 G1 Darley Irish Oaks. Third dam Cherry Hinton (GB) (Green Desert) was herself a daughter of the magnificent Urban Sea (Miswaki), the dam of the legendary Galileo (Ire), Sea The Stars (Ire), etc. Cherry Hinton's GI Belmont Oaks-winning daughter Athena (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) has accounted for Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), victorious in this year's G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial before finishing runner-up in this year's G1 Prix de Diane. North Hills acquired Magic Fountain for $525,000 at KEENOV in 2020.

LEOPARDSTOWN: ALL SET FOR AUGUSTE RODIN IN THE IRISH CHAMPION

Auguste Rodin & Ryan Moore | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

He has become something of an enigma, but Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) has the x-factor most dream of despite his sharp falls from grace and has the ball in his court ahead of Saturday's G1 Royal Bahrain Irish Champion S. Adept on Epsom's lively surface either side of unequal struggles through the rain-dampened sod at Newmarket and Ascot, Ballydoyle's beau ideal has the aid of the current heatwave at a Leopardstown track that he has already mastered when on the rise as a juvenile. Whatever the reason for his white-flag moments in the 2000 Guineas and King George, this is a colt that has proven that he can truly shift when it rides on top and none will be finishing to greater effect.

Like all good Derby winners, Auguste Rodin has a nemesis in King Of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Ryan Moore has his sights on that rival above all others. "King Of Steel probably deserves to head the betting given the way he beat our Voltigeur winner Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) at Royal Ascot and backed that up with a good third in the King George, but don't forget Auguste Rodin beat him fair and square in the Derby and he showed a lot of speed to win that day," he said. "My colt obviously has a big question to answer after his lifeless run in the King George, but if he returns to his Epsom form then he has a big chance." Cont. p3

DELLOYE RETURNS TO ARQANA AS CHAIRMAN OF MANAGEMENT BOARD

Olivier Delloye is set to leave his role as Managing Director of France Galop and return to Arqana as Chairman of the Management Board, where he will succeed Éric Hoyer, Arqana announced on Friday.

He will be supported by Freddy Powell, currently employed as the Executive Director but who will become the Managing Director, and by the members of the Executive Committee, including Ludovic Cornuel (Bloodstock Director), Arthur Serres (Technical Director), Sylvain Gosselin (Financial Director), Agathe Capdepon (Communication & Marketing Director) and the rest of the teams. Éric Hoyer will become the Senior Advisor to the Management Committee of Arqana Holding.

Delloye said of his appointment, "I am thrilled and honoured to be joining Arqana once again, a company in which I spent 10 outstanding years before taking up as Managing Director of France Galop." Cont. p10

RACE PREVIEWS

Aidan O'Brien added, "We're really happy with him, the circumstances are all different for this. It's a mile and a quarter, quicker ground, he's drawn in rather than out and we've been happy with him since Ascot. There are a lot of things different this time. Ryan felt him come off the bridle early last time and didn't take a chance, he took the decision to protect him rather than damage him, which definitely wasn't the wrong thing."

Amo Racing's game-changing King Of Steel, who at this stage could be argued has the edge in their private dispute having run a bigger average over their two encounters, is one of the best big horses of recent times and Ascot's mile and a half on soft ground would not have been his bag either. At least he kept fighting in the wake of the older, more seasoned boys up ahead and this, a qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, is a golden opportunity to settle the argument once and for all.

Kevin Stott, who has been catapulted to the limelight by his partnership with this colossus, believes he is on the one with the bragging rights at present. "I wouldn't swap him for anything in the race and honestly believe he's the one they all have to beat," he said on his William Hill blog. "Going that slightly quicker tempo should allow him to get into a rhythm quicker and I can't wait to get back on board him again. He's been given plenty of time to get over his run in the King George and while it was a hard race, we think he'll have learnt a lot from it and I expect him to step forward mentally as much as anything here. He could easily go back to up in trip, but we feel this might be where he is at his optimum so the fact we haven't actually run him over it is something we are all really looking forward to."

At this stage, the older horses hold sway after the big summer clashes and with the likes of TDN Rising Stars Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in here there is no guarantee that the Classic generation will win out. Nashwa is probably a dubious stayer at this distance and has the QEII written all over her, so Onesto looks the more intriguing given that he was less suited to the easier ground 12 months ago than Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). He has arguably shown more in one run in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois than that rival has in his major tests this term and this is undoubtedly the French colt's big moment.

Luxembourg has been so disappointing since his dynamic success in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup that it looks as if he is on the downward curve, while Shadwell's Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) needs more than a fair share of Owen Burrows spell-casting if he is to jump from the G2 York S. to these kind of heights. Cont. p4

Is The Matron The Graveyard Of The Favourites?

Leopardstown's G1 Coolmore America "Justify" Matron S. is prone to surprise results, with five of the last six winners priced at 10-1 or bigger and two of them trading at 20-1 and 25-1. Perhaps it is the slight change of the season throwing the midsummer femmes fatales off track and bringing the autumn goddesses into their element, but this is a race where the formbook rarely holds water. With that in mind, The Aga Khan's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. heroine Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) is in the same boat that her opposing stablemate Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) was 12 months ago as she returns from her sojourn in this "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

Homeless Songs looked a "good thing" back then and faltered, much as Winter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), Fancy Blue (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) had done in the preceding renewals. This ground is as quick as connections of Homeless Songs would like, while Tahiyra needs to do more than she has in her last two races to justify short odds. Perhaps Juddmonte's unflinching Zarinsk (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) is the answer, given her relentless run of success in her native country, or the newly-blinkered Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never).

Tahiyra's jockey Chris Hayes thinks she has what it takes to hold on to her mantle of leading 3-year-old filly miler. "She just finds everything so easy--she finds going fast easy, she finds going slow easy and there are no issues or anything with her," he said. "I've sat on her plenty and she has strengthened up quite well--she's a stronger filly than she was earlier in the year."

Moyglare Stud's Fiona Craig warned that Homeless Songs may yet be taken out of the Matron. "Homeless Songs is in good shape, she might be a week or two short and if Leopardstown don't water and it stays as hot and sunny as this and the ground is fast she probably won't run, but she's declared and we'll just see," she said.

Can Shaquille Get Away With A Slow Start Again?

Saturday's third Group 1 is at Haydock and with the heat unrelenting the Betfair Sprint Cup is to staged on unusually fast ground which will not daunt connections of the seemingly-flawless G1 Commonwealth Cup and G1 July Cup hero Shaquille (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}). That said, his tendency to gift rivals a headstart might catch up with him eventually as it did the habitually stalls-wary Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). In terms of sheer ability, the Camacho colt has a healthy advantage over a collection of sprinters that have found many ways to undermine their reputations.

Shaquille has undergone stalls schooling with specialists Craig and Jake Witherford and Camacho's husband and assistant Steve Brown is hoping they have got to the bottom of that particular quirk.

"You'd rather we had a conventional situation, but we haven't in his last two races. We've acknowledged that we had a problem, we've tried to do something about it, we're pleased with what happened at home and we hope to see that on the track on the day," he said. Cont. p5

Brown added, “He looks really fit and well and everything has gone to plan. We planned four good bits of work, which he’s done, and we haven’t missed a day with him—I don’t think we can have any gripes about his preparation at all.”

If there is one unknown in the line-up it is Peter Harris’s Mill Stream (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) and while his last two wins in Deauville’s Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud and G3 Prix de Meautry leave him with a bridge still to cross, he is at least a young colt on the up with confidence high. One of the older brigade who has been at times frustrating is Cheveley Park Stud’s talented Sacred (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), but she is at least still unexposed at this trip with her four outings over six resulting in a narrow second to Khaadem (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in Royal Ascot’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee S. in June. She will love the flat track, fast surface and fast pace and this could be her day at last.

Sacred’s jockey Tom Marquand said, “Going back to a flat six furlongs on fast ground should be right up her alley and hopefully we will see her back to where she was before. She has shown on so many occasions that she belongs at this level. Hopefully she can get the job done on Saturday.”

The Supporting Cast

This is one of the European season’s finest weekends and Saturday’s action is boosted by the appearance of Ballydoyle’s TDN Rising Star Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile S., a “Win and You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup

Juvenile Turf; and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf hero Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) in the G2 Dullingham Park S. on the Leopardstown card. Cont. p6

There is also Kempton's G3 September S., which sees the high-class Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) tackle a mile and a half for the first time, and G3 Sirenia S. where TDN Rising Star Eben Shaddad (Calyx {GB}) puts his reputation on the line for Prince Faisal bin Khaled and Najd Stud and the Gosdens.

Sunday's Fixtures Set

Sunday's Curragh card and the ParisLongchamp Arc Trials fixture were firmed up on Friday, with Aidan O'Brien suggesting that the stable's big 2-year-olds City Of Troy (Justify) and Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) could line up in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. Declared alongside each other in opposition to the G1 Phoenix S. hero Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett (GB)), the pair of TDN Rising Stars would make for a stellar clash.

"It's possible they could both run," O'Brien said. "Obviously City Of Troy would prefer the ground to be quick, whereas Henry Longfellow handles an ease but they are both in good form." The stable's multiple Group 1-winning stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is one of five in the G1 Irish St Leger, while their unbeaten TDN Rising Star Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) heads the nine fillies engaged in the G1 Moyglare Stud S.

Last year's G1 Flying Five heroine Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) has nine to beat in her repeat bid, while in Paris the eight fillies confirmed for the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille include the starlets Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) and Warm Heart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Jean-Louis Bouchard's G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}) is back in the G2 Qatar Prix Niel.

VESPERTILIO AL SHIRA'AA'S 'BEST CHANCE' AT IRISH CHAMPIONS FESTIVAL

By Brian Sheerin

Al Shira'aa's Kieran Lalor has nominated Vespertilio (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) as the operation's best chance of a winner at the Irish Champions Festival where the rapidly-progressive filly lines out in Sunday's G1 Moyglare S. at the Curragh.

Vespertilio forms part of a three-pronged attack on Ireland's flagship Flat festival that features homebred Atlantic Coast (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in Saturday's G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile S. at Leopardstown and Ocean Jewel (Ire) (Sioux Nation) in the Matron S. on the same card.

"We've six horses in training in Ireland and three of them are competing at the Irish Champions Festival, so we need to keep pinching ourselves," racing and bloodstock manager Lalor said on Friday.

The black and red silks of Al Shira'aa has already enjoyed top-level triumphs with Mutamakina (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in America and Jannah Rose in France (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Lalor has talked up the chances of Vespertilio in Sunday's eagerly-anticipated Moyglare.

Vespertilio comes into that race off the back of a wildly impressive display in the G2 Debutante S. over the same course and distance and, while Lalor is respectful of the opposition with G3 Silver Flash S. conqueror Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) heading the market, he is expecting a bold show.

He said, "Vespertilio is getting better and better with experience. She had a fantastic run in the Debutante, showing a tremendous turn of foot to come from last under Billy [Lee] and I don't think he had to ride her too hard to do that, either. I'd say if she had been closer to Ylang Ylang in the Silver Flash, I think she would have been right there at the line. She's only a May foal so is developing and growing all the time." Lalor added, "She's just getting better and better with racing. It's a tough task and to have a runner in the Moyglare is very special for us. We're going in there with a lot of confidence but obviously it's Group 1 and anything can happen. We're very excited. She's our best chance of the weekend and it's great for Willie [McCreery, trainer], who is a big part of our operation. He's a top-class trainer—he was a bloody good footballer but some would argue he's an even better trainer and he's hugely important to us."

Atlantic Coast has the unwanted task of staring down the barrel of another Ballydoyle big gun in Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) at Leopardstown.

Trained by Joseph O'Brien, the homebred colt made a fine start to his career when winning a Curragh maiden in good fashion, and Lalor is expecting more to come.

He said, "This is actually a good story because we usually sell all of our colts but the day before the Orby, David Cox of Baroda Stud called to say that this lad had kicked a wall and that he had to be scratched. Thank God he did!

"Now, he probably would have made three or four hundred grand because he's such a beautiful-looking colt, but it's very special for everyone on the farm to have a homebred running in a Group 2 at the Irish Champions Festival."

Lalor added, "It's a big step up from a maiden into a Group 2 but Joseph has done a brilliant job with him and I don't think stepping up to a mile will be an issue for him either. It's a good race, with Deepone and Formal Display in there, but it seems as though we all have to beat Diego Velazquez."

"The really exciting thing about this is, when I speak to the boss, everything points to the future and with these fillies, they will all retire here and are exciting broodmares for us to look forward to."

Should Diego Velazquez justify his short price in the betting, it wouldn't be all that bad for Al Shira'aa, the emerging bloodstock force of Sheikha Fatima bint Hazza bin Zayed Al Nahyan.

Lalor wisely secured Saadiyat (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), a half-sister to Diego Velazquez, at Book 1 at Tattersalls in 2021 and the page has gone from strength to strength ever since.

Saadiyat, like the majority of the Al Shira'aa string, will return to the farm just off the Curragh at Maddenstown and join the broodmare band when her career is over.

The small but select approach to one of the newest owner-breeding operations in Ireland is paying rich dividends and, while Al Shira'aa were not active at Arqana last month, Lalor explained that it was not for a lack of trying and he revealed the team would be out in force at the Goffs and Tattersalls sales in the coming weeks.

Lalor said, "We didn't get anything at Arqana but we plan on being active at the Orby at Goffs and at Tattersalls as well. I must say that the Orby looks very good this year. I've gone through the catalogue a couple of times and it looks like one of those great Orbys from the late nineties when everyone was scrapping for Flame Of Taras and the like. We've a very big list to get through and, in fairness to the breeders and to Goffs, they've put on a good book. Hopefully the physicals match up."

But before then, Al Shira'aa also has Ocean Jewel to look forward to in the Matron, and Lalor is not ruling out McCreery's filly out-running her odds of 33-1.

He said, "Ocean Jewel is much better than what she showed at Naas a few weeks back. She won a Group 3 at Leopardstown over seven furlongs earlier this season and the question with her is if she will get the mile or not. If she does, she could get a slice of it but Tahiya is the one to beat, for sure. The ground will suit Ocean Jewel and anything can happen at this level. She's a very good filly and deserves a shot at her Group 1 here. This has been the plan for a while."

He added, "The really exciting thing about this is, when I speak to the boss, everything points to the future and with these fillies, they will all retire here and are exciting broodmares for us to look forward to."

Le Havre Filly Wins in Kentucky

The French Classic-placed Lindy (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) won a Kentucky Downs affair for Everest Racing and trainer Brendan Walsh on Thursday (video).

Part of the Ecurie La Vallee Martigny Earl breeding programme, Lindy was knocked down to Ghislain Bozo's Meridian International for €90,000 as a 2021 Arqana August yearling. A winner of her first three starts including a listed race at Toulouse for trainer Christophe Ferland and an ownership group of Ecurie Waldeck, Didier Provost, Ecurie Elag, Et Al, the filly was second in the G3 Prix de la Grotte behind Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), and would be runner-up again to that rival in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches for Everest Racing, Ecurie Waldeck, Meridian International, Ecurie Elag, Ecurie Ninioe, Provost and Frank Dhooche. Unplaced in the G1 Prix de Diane, she was making her first Stateside start this week. Cont. p9

An Oaks For Saxon Warrior Filly

Ken McPeck trainee Freydis The Red \(Fr\) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) found the unique undulations of Kentucky Downs to her liking when winning the Listed Dueling Grounds Oaks for Walking L Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm (video).

Bred by Eric Puerari, Ocean Bloodstock, Ecurie du Parc Monceau et. al., the chestnut was plucked by McPeck out of the Arqana August Yearling for €125,000 in 2021. The daughter of the winning Songerie (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}) had previously been placed in the GIII Pucker Up S. at Ellis Park last month. A half-sister to the stakes-placed Sojourn (Ger) (Iffraaj {GB}), the 3-year-old's juvenile half-sister Sogniamo (Fr) (Calyx {GB}) has been placed. Numerous Group 1 winners trace to the stakes-placed second dam Suivez (Fr) (Fioravanti), among them American champion Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), Japanese champions Soul Stirring (Jpn) (Frankel {GB}) and Stars On Earth (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}), and Sunday's G1 Prix du Moulin heroine Sauterne (Fr) (Kingman {GB}).

Freydis The Red is the second stakes winner for Saxon Warrior in the U.S. after GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Victoria Road (Ire). Three of his four starters (75%) are winners in America, while worldwide he has seven stakes winners. His Zulu Warrior (Fr) took the Listed Prix Turenne on Friday.

Siyouni Gelding Takes Rich Kentucky Downs Event

Representing Qatar Racing and Marc Detampel, Beuys \(Ire\) (Siyouni {Fr}) won for the first time on American soil at Kentucky Downs for trainer Brendan Walsh on Thursday evening (video).

Bred by Ecurie David Salabi, the gelding was a €220,000 Arqana October yearling in 2019 when picked up by Oceanic Bloodstock. He won his first two starts for Peter Brant's White Birch Farm and trainer Jean-Claude Rouget, and was subsequently transferred to the Chad Brown barn in the U.S. two starts later. Sold following a pair of tries at Gulfstream Park in Florida earlier this year, he brought $82,000 at the Keeneland April Horses of Racing Age Sale on the bid of agent Fergus Galvin.

Out of the winning Kendor (Fr) mare Plain Vanilla (Fr), Beuys is a half-brother to the G3 Prix Fille de l'Air second Vespera (Ire) (Teofilo {Ir}), and is from the family of G2 Prix de Sandringham heroine Volta (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), herself placed in both the G1 Prix Rothschild and the G1 Prix de Diane.

Standing under The Aga Khan Studs' banner at Haras de Bonneval, Siyouni has 15 winners from 37 runners (40%) in the U.S. to his credit. Four of them has struck at stakes level (10.1%), including Grade III winners Sacred Life (Fr), La Signare (Fr), and Love And Thunder (Ire). Cont p10

Del Mar Route The Trick For Zoustar Filly

Lunar Impact (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) won at fourth asking stepping up to a mile for trainer Dan Blacker and D K Racing, Qatar Racing, Radley Equine, Rick Gold and Dave Odmark on the Del Mar grass on Saturday (video).

The P. E. Barrett-bred chestnut was a 100,000gns graduate out of Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale when picked up by David Redvers and Boomer Bloodstock's Craig Rounsefell in 2021. She is the third winner for her dam, whose best result was a third at listed level in Germany. Button Moon (Ire) (Compton Place {GB}) has the juvenile filly Wedyan (GB) (Advertise {GB}), a yearling filly by Mohaather (GB), and a full-brother to Lunar Impact to come. This is the family of multiple Group 1-winning sprinter Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

From just six U.S. runners, reverse shuttle stallion Zoustar is responsible for three winners (50%) to date, with his first Northern Hemisphere-bred crop just 3-year-olds. Worldwide, the Widden Stud (SH)/Tweenhills Stud (NH) resident has 39 stakes winners, with his Northern Hemisphere best the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Lezoo (GB).

He added, "I am very excited at the opportunity to work with such a talented and committed team. It is a privilege to rely on individuals of such high standard to develop Arqana further. The company's success reflects that of the breeders, vendors and buyers who have been working year in, year out to produce and select horses to perform at the highest level in France and overseas, on the Flat, over jumps as well as in standardbred racing.

"Arqana has contributed significantly to the international outreach of French racing and breeding and my personal commitment is to build on this momentum in the coming years to make the French racing and breeding industry ever stronger and attractive."

GOSDENS CONSIDERING QUARTET FOR ST LEGER

John and Thady Gosden could have as many as four runners, led by G2 Queen's Vase hero Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}), in the Sept. 16 G1 Betfred St Leger at Doncaster next Saturday.

The Wathnan Racing colourbearer was most recently third to St Leger rival Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York last month. He will be partnered by the retiring Frankie Dettori, who has already won the Classic six times including twice for Gosden with Shantou (Alleged) in 1996 and Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in 2019.

"He came out of the race at York in very good order," said the elder Gosden, who has already won five editions of the British Classic. "If the weather is set fair at Doncaster that won't bother him with it being top of the ground. I have had some luck going from the Voltigeur to the St Leger but I often feel it is quite close if they have had a hard race and I have had a couple bounce, that can happen. I'm very pleased with him at this stage, he seems in great order and very content in himself.

"He's got a great mind and he is a pretty laid-back character. I trained both the mother and father and he's inherited all their good traits of their mental attitude towards racing. I think he'll enjoy the distance. We are perfectly aware it looks like being a vintage St Leger."

Qatar Racing's Middle Earth (GB) (Roaring Lion), a winner of the Melrose H., will need to be supplemented to run, while Anthony Oppenheimer's stakes-placed homebred Lion's Pride (GB), another by the late Tweenhills stallion, is also a St Leger prospect. The final member of the quartet is Juddmonte's one-time G1 Betfred Derby favourite Arrest (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who won the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. in August, however the colt is ground dependent.

"Middle Earth ran a lovely race in the Melrose and I'm really happy with him," said Gosden. "He has a very strong likelihood, all being well with his bloods and scopes, to be supplemented. Qatar Racing have won the race before and I think they are game to go.

"We're very pleased with Arrest, he took his race very well at Newbury. He's in top order but I think if it's good-to-firm at Doncaster I think you'll find him heading to Paris for the [G2] Prix Chaudenay rather than Doncaster. He's a lovely horse but he rolls his knee and he'll enjoy more what I call the autumn ground."

Of Lion's Pride Gosden added, "I think there's a likelihood he will run in the race as well, after all there's only one St Leger. His sire was the last horse off the bridle in Masar (Ire)'s Derby but he didn't get the mile-and-a-half. This boy is out of a good source of stamina on the dam's side."

CACHET EYEING SCEPTRE RETURN AT DONCASTER

Classic winner Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}) is approaching her long-awaited return and is targeting the G3 Sceptre S. at Doncaster during the St Leger meeting next week, trainer George Boughey revealed.

Boughey told SBK, "I'm very happy with her. She's in as good a form as I could have her considering the lay-off she's had. She's been away to Chelmsford, and we worked her at Kempton on Thursday morning. She's worked in between on fast ground at home in Newmarket. Fast ground is really key to her. The surfaces on the all-weather are very deep at the moment due to the heat. Her work is good away from home but it's even better on the grass." Cont. p12

Placed in the G2 Rockfel S. and G1 Fillies' Mile and fourth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf as a juvenile, the Highclere Thoroughbred Racing runner won the G3 Nell Gwyn S. upon resuming as a 3-year-old. The 'TDN Rising Star' then ran out a narrow winner of the G1 1000 Guineas and as second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches in May of 2022. Last seen running fifth in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. that June, she has been on the sidelines since. Boughey is considering either the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket on Oct. 7, or the G1 Prix de la Foret at ParisLongchamp on Oct. 1 after her Sceptre start, with a return to the Breeders' Cup also a possibility.

"If we get a warm autumn and the Sun Chariot S. comes up good or better, then that would be my preference over the Forêt," he added. "She's proven how good she is at Newmarket's Rowley Mile. The Breeders' Cup has always been in the back of our minds at the end of the year too, but there are a few bridges to cross before we get there."

HORSERACING BETTORS FORUM MET WITH MINISTER ON GAMBLING ACT REVIEW

Horseracing Bettors Forum (HBF) Chair Sean Trivass led a delegation from the HBF and met with Stuart Andrew MP, the minister with responsibility for the Gambling Act Review, on Wednesday.

Discussions included topics such as account closures and restrictions, the protection of funds, and terms and conditions, but focused primarily on affordability checks and their potential consequences for bettors and the horse racing industry in the UK. The HBF urged the minister to ensure affordability checks had no negative consequences on an individual's crediworthiness. Andrews was receptive to the suggestion that ordinary gamblers, who gain enjoyment from what is a hobby for them, should be included in future industry consumer groups, such as through the HBF itself.

Sean Trivass said, "We felt it was a positive meeting, with the minister seeming receptive to many of the points we made, not least about affordability checks, which are already taking place with undesirable consequences.

"HBF is very aware of the need to act to protect the small minority of punters who suffer harm through their betting, and is supportive of initiatives to improve their situation but this must not come at a significant cost to the many who enjoy a bet responsibly and for whom tackling the puzzle of horseracing is a hobby and a passion.

"We look forward to discussing matters further with the minister, and to continuing to put forward the views and concerns of the British horseracing betting public to him and others."

IRISH BLOODSTOCK INDUSTRY SURVEY LAUNCHED BY ITM

A new Irish bloodstock industry survey was launched by Irish Thoroughbred Marketing (ITM) on Friday.

The aim of the survey is to hear the views of all those involved in Thoroughbred breeding and sales on subjects like selling in Ireland, the IRE Incentive, and Brexit. The survey is anonymous and should take less than 10 minutes to complete. The survey, which will remain open until early October 2023, is available here.

£50,000 EX-RACEHORSE CLASS ADDED TO CORNBURY HOUSE HORSE TRIALS

A new class for ex-racehorses, worth £50,000, will be conducted at the Cornbury House Horse Trials in 2025, Jayne McGivern and Cornbury House Horse Trials announced on Friday.

The new class is the initiative of McGivern of Dash Grange Stud, who owns top event horses, and David Howden, group CEO and founder of Howden and founder and president of the Cornbury House Horse Trials. Her aim is to also raise the profile of the adaptable nature of Thoroughbreds, especially in terms of their suitability for eventing. She is donating £50,000 in prize-money, and the class will be run alongside the other classes at Cornbury House Horse Trials. The class will showcase Thoroughbreds and their abilities, aiming to encourage riders to take on and retrain ex-racehorses and incentivise riders to work towards the 2025 class. It will also provide an additional opportunity for ex-racehorses, building on the existing resource and guidance provided by Retraining of Racehorses (RoR).

Jayne McGivern of Dash Grange Stud said, "I am thrilled to be able to launch a new ex-racehorse class that will run in 2025, and thank David Howden for his support in allowing my idea to come to fruition. Racing and eventing are both my passions and through this class we will be able to showcase the talent that Thoroughbreds have in their second careers."

The class will begin at CCI2*/Novice level with further details to be announced in due course.

RAQIYA (IRE) (f, 2, Blue Point {Ire}--Rihaam {Ire}, by Dansili {GB}), penalised six pounds for notching an Aug. 10 three-length breakthrough over six furlongs at Salisbury, raced in mid division for the most part. Easing closer from halfway, the 6-5 favourite quickened smartly to gain control approaching the final furlong and powered clear under mild urging in the latter stages to easily account for Lunar Shine (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) by an impressive 4 1/4 lengths. Raqiya is the fourth of five foals and one of three scorers out of an unraced half to five black-type performers headed by stakes-winning G3 Prestige S. second Mudaaraah (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Listed Star S. victrix Sudoor (GB) (Fantastic Light). Sudoor is the dam of G3 Prix Noailles victor Raseed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and her descendants also include dual G1 Jebel Hatta hero Alfareeq (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The March-foaled bay is half to Listed European Free H. third Ribhi (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and a weanling filly by Dark Angel (Ire). Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $28,051.

SEAWARD (IRE) (f, 2, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Zvarkhova {Fr} {MSP-Fr}, by Makfi {GB}), who endured a troubled trip when a close-up fourth over seven furlongs in her Aug. 5 unveiling at Newmarket last time, was the sharpest of five into stride and assumed immediate control. Untroubled in front for the most part, the 5-6 pick came under pressure when tackled by Climate Action (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) inside the final quarter-mile and kept on strongly for continued rousting to deny that rival by 1 1/2 lengths. Seaward is the third of five foals and second scorer produced by Listed Prix Finlande and Listed Prix Delahante third Zvarkhova (Fr) (Makfi {GB}), herself kin to dual G3 Abu Dhabi Championship victor Gm Hopkins (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Descendants of her multiple stakes-placed second dam Varsity (GB) (Lomitas {GB}) include last term's G1 Prix de Diane runner-up and G1 Prix Vermeille third La Parisienne (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}). The February-foaled chestnut is half to a yearling filly by Starspangledbanner (Aus) and a weanling colt by Kodi Bear (Ire). Sales history: €460,000 Ylg '22 GOFOR. LINGUA FRANCA (GB) (f, 2, Study Of Man {Ire}--Leaderene {GB}, by Selkirk), who finished 11 lengths off the winner when a July 28 debut fourth going seven furlongs at Thirsk last time, was well away to lead from the outset of this one. Scrubbed along with three furlongs remaining, the 13-2 chance came under a drive passing the quarter-mile marker and stayed on in resolute fashion to hold Bolsena (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) by a half-length, becoming the fourth winner for her freshman sire (by Deep Impact {Jpn}). 4th-Haydock Cont.

Lingua Franca is the latest of four reported foals and third scorer produced by a multiple-winning half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef), herself the dam of dual Group 2 victor Loxley (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}). The February-foaled homebred bay is a half-sister to multiple stakes-winning G1 Metropolitan second Le Don De Vie (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $7,466. O/B-Kirsten Rausing (GB); T-Sir Mark Prescott.

2nd-Kempton, £9,900, Novice, 9-8, 2yo, 7f (AWT), 1:27.07, st/sl. PILOTO PARDO (IRE) (c, 2, Bated Breath {GB})--Ivory Charm {GB}, by Charm Spirit {Ire}, fourth on debut behind the G3 Sirenia S.-bound TDN Rising Star Eben Shaddad (Calyx {GB}) over six furlongs at Newmarket last month, tracked the leading pair early. Working his way to the front approaching the furlong marker, the 17-2 shot asserted to score by half a length from Khisah Bu Thaila (Qa) (Cracksman {GB}). The dam, who also has a yearling filly by Belardo (Ire) and a colt foal by Space Blues (Ire), is kin to the G3 Nad Al Sheba Trophy-placed Red Galileo (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) from the family of the G2 Gimcrack S. and G2 Norfolk S. winner and G1 Middle Park S.-placed Approve (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). OLYMPIC CANDLE (IRE) (c, 2, Profitable {Ire})--Delphinidae {Ire}, by Sepoy {Aus}, an Aug. 19 debut third tackling this distance at Newbury when last seen, skipped along in a handy fourth until improving one spot at halfway here. Looming large on the bridle with three furlongs remaining, the 5-2 favourite hit the front passing the two pole and was ridden out in the closing stages to withstand the late threat of Accumulate (GB) (Calyx {GB}) by an ultimately comfortable two lengths. Olympic Candle is the second of four foals and first scorer out of a half-sister to G1 Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Territories (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The February-foaled homebred bay is kin to a yearling colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire) and a weanling colt by Awtaad (Ire). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $18,088. Also Ran: Silawi (Ire), Bold Act (Ire), Cassius (Fr).

Zulu Warrior backed up a June 6 Compiègne maiden win with a fourth on stakes bow in Vichy's July 17 Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange and went two-for-three at the 12-furlong trip when doubling his win tally at Clairefontaine last month. He settled in the slipstream of the pacesetter Silawi (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) until well beyond halfway here. Hemmed in along the far-side rail for most of the straight, he unleashed a barnstorming turn of foot when offered a belated opening and overpowered his rivals nearing the line to snag a career high in style.

Zulu Warrior, who becomes the seventh black-type winner for his second-crop sire, is the second of four foals and lone scorer out of a dual-winning full-sister to G3 Prix de Cabourg-winning sire Zanzibari (Smart Strike) and Listed Prix Le Fabuleux third Zenobios (Smart Strike). The May-foaled bay's dam Zindziswa, herself a daughter of G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte and G3 Prix Eclipse victrix Zinziberine (Zieten), is also kin to the stakes-winning duo Zelimir (Grand Slam) and Zenji (Hat Trick {Jpn}) and hails from the family of G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Amilynx (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}). Zinziberine, in turn, is a half-sister to the multiple stakes-placed dam of this year's G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Txope (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). Zindziswa has a yearling colt by Ten Sovereigns (Ire) and a weanling colt by Magna Grecia (Ire) to come. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
