

$250,000 PRACTICAL JOKE COLT HEADS KEENELAND'S BOOK 5 OPENER

Wednesday's topper by Practical Joke | ThoroStride

by Christina Bossinakis

A colt by Practical Joke led the way Wednesday, kicking off Book 5 of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington. Consigned by Bluewater Sales, Hip 2980 is out of Jetbird (Wildcat Heir), a half-sister to Group 1 winner X Y Jet (Kantharos).

"We were prepared [for the $250,000 price] because of the entire package," said CJ Thoroughbred's Corey Johnson. "We felt between $200,000-$250,000 was what it was going to take to purchase him. We were expecting somewhere around that number."

On Day 9, Ashford's Practical Joke was the second-leading sire of the session, grossing $565,000 for five yearlings sold, with an average of $113,000. The leading sire of the session, Frosted, drew an aggregate of $617,000 for 11 sold, averaging $56,091.

"[Bloodstock advisor] Marette Farrell selected the horse for his fabulous physical and the potential there. We also believe that Practical Joke brings brilliance to the equation as an emerging top sire," said Johnson. "Basically, we had a colt that was a really promising physical and by a brilliant sire that brings toughness to the equation."

WADE JOST JOINS THE TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST TO TELL THE STORY OF CARSON'S RUN

When Carson's Run (Cupid) won the GI bet365 Summer S. at Woodbine Racetrack this past weekend, earning a trip to the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita, the story was bigger than one horse and one race.

The 2-year-old chestnut colt is named for the 31-year-old son of Wade Jost, who bought into the horse from his classmate at the United States Military Academy, Terry Finley, thorough West Point Thoroughbreds.

Carson Jost continues to battle Wolf-Hirschhorn syndrome. The story might sound familiar, as Cody's Wish (Curlin) is named in honor of Cody Dorman, who also suffers from the rare genetic disorder.

CLARK SHEPHERD ON STABLE RECOVERY

Clark Shepherd pens a letter to the editor, calling Frank Taylor's Stable Recovery initiative a "call to arms for an industry that needs both positive PR and meaningful solutions to real-world challenges."

OPEN LETTER TO THE INDUSTRY: LISA LAZARUS

HISA's Lisa Lazarus updates industry participants about recent challenges and responsibilities facing us all, as well as what HISA is doing to help.

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS

Johnson also pointed a little bit farther back on the page, with the appearance of several Argentine performers, including GSP Argentine mare Tripulina (Sings), a sister to Argentine GSW and GISP Tizna.

"I've also spent quite a bit of time in Argentina and watched that industry very closely and what I find is, those families bring soundness and durability to the pedigree," he explained.

In foal to Bolt d'Oro, 13-year-old Jetbird realized $20,000 at Fasig-Tipton in February, while this May foal brought $27,000 as a short yearling from DKW Racing.

"Today, this was the only horse we were on," Johnson affirmed. "I thought he is a physical with, just a little bit of vision, you could see where this would turn into a stunning racehorse. He may be just a touch immature but someone like Marete, who has done this for a long time, can see that blue sky ahead with these young horses. We may have gotten really lucky to find this kind of colt in Book 5."

Through nine sessions, CJ Thoroughbreds, alone or in partnership, collected nine yearlings for a gross of $2.1 million. The operation's top-priced purchase was a colt by Not This Time (Hip 594), who realized $535,000.

When asked about the market thus far, Johnson offered, "I think the sale has been really strong. I can't remember a Book 5 with that many people looking. The place was packed with quality buyers. I still see a lot of enthusiasm."

Indicating that he was likely done on the buying side of things, Johnson said he would now put on his seller's cap for Thursday's session, offering Hip 3485, a filly by Spun to Run, who is represented by his first yearlings in 2023. Out of Northern Netti (City Zip), the Feb. 19 foal is a half-sister to SW North County (Not This Time). She is consigned by agent Four Star Sales.

"We sell a horse [Thursday] and she had almost 30 looks today," said Johnson, underscoring the strength of the current buying bench at Keeneland. "That is really a good sign. I'm very positive about the overall market. At times, it's been difficult to buy a good horse within our budget. But that's why you just have to work hard, have a great bloodstock advisor and hope some things fall your way."

At the conclusion of Thursday session, gross figures for the first nine days came in at $379,373,200, dipping slightly from last year's blockbuster renewal which generated $389,605,000 over the same time frame. During Wednesday's session, 298 yearlings sold for $13,430,200, up 3.56% from 2022 when 329 sold for $12,969,000.

Both the session ($45,068; +14%) and cumulative ($180,396; 0.94%) averages rose, while cumulative median remained unchanged at $100,000 from last year's sale. This year's median of $33,500 was also up from $30,000 in 2022. Cont.

To learn more about Carson Jost and this colt, Wade Jost was the Green Group Guest of the Week on this week's TDN Writers' Room podcast presented by Keeneland.

"It's been emotional, as my voice breaks right now," Jost said.

"We just wanted to do something for Carson. He's never walked and this is an opportunity to give him some focus, give him some limelight. Terry and I have been talking for over a decade about this, the possibility of doing something in his honor. The timing was just right. Carson just turned 31. He wasn't supposed to be with us and was supposed to have passed early in life. But mainly because of all the love he gets from his mother, who has constantly taken care of him, he is still with us."

The Josts have yet to see Carson's Run compete live, but a trip to the Breeders' Cup and a meeting with the Dorman family is a possibility.

"It sounds like both Cody's Wish and Carson's Run may be at the Breeders' Cup," Jost said. "If so, we'd love to get together with the Dormans. We'll talk about it after we get through some more races here. It's good that the Breeders' Cup is at Santa Anita on the West Coast, given that we live in Washington State.

It may still be tough. Carson has a lot of issues, one of which is a very low immune system. So with everything going on right now, with all the viruses going on in the world, it may be tough to get them down there, but we'll see."

Jost's military career included fighting in the Gulf War. An inordinate number of people who fought in that war went on to have children born with disabilities. Could that be what happened with Carson?

"The bottom line is we don't know," Jost said. "But yes, the possibility exists. I know it definitely did for some that have been diagnosed." Cont.

Jost continued: "By and large, this chromosomal disorder is overwhelmingly a matter of one of the two parents carrying it in their chromosomes. But it just hadn't affected them until they had offspring. That didn't happen with my wife and I. So we don't know. Carson was doing studies. We were doing studies for three years after he was born. And we got to a point where the studies got to be too frequent. The blood that they drew, the tests that they did, and we finally just decided that it was time to move on with life and not put him through any more of that rigor. Nothing was ever conclusive for us."

Carson's Run | Michael Burns

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the Retired Racehorse Project, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, WinStar Farm, XBTV.com, Lane's End and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Zoe Cadman, Bill Finley and Randy Moss delved into another big weekend in North America for trainer Charlie Appleby, who won the GI Woodbine Mile S. and the GIII Jockey Club Oaks Invitational S. Cadman gave an update on the Keeneland September Sale and the trio looked ahead to Saturday's GI Pennsylvania Derby and the GI Cotillion S. at Parx. There was also a spirited debate about whether or not running a horse too often or on short rest could be a contributing factor when it comes to breakdowns. Moss said yes. Finley said no.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A BLUEPRINT FOR INDUSTRY TRANSFORMATION AND RESURRECTING TRUE HORSEMANSHIP by Clark Shepherd

In a time when true horsemanship is increasingly considered a lost art, and our industry faces a barrage of criticism and skepticism, Frank Taylor's Stable Recovery initiative shines as a beacon of what can be accomplished. This program is not just a cutting-edge approach to addiction recovery; it is a call to arms for an industry that needs both positive PR and meaningful solutions to real-world challenges.

True Horsemanship: The Heart of Stable Recovery

What stands out about Stable Recovery is its focus on horsemanship as a cornerstone of recovery. Horsemanship is an invaluable skill that is slipping through the cracks in our industry. Frank Taylor's initiative serves as an antidote to this trend, emphasizing the healing power of horses and the importance of caring for them in a way that honors their role in our lives and our industry. Cont.

The Power of the Horse in Healing

The industry has long understood the untapped potential for horses to heal the human spirit. Stable Recovery takes this one step further by incorporating addiction recovery into daily life on a Thoroughbred farm. Frank Taylor's insight into the "secret sauce" of combining horse care with a 12-step program exemplifies the symbiotic relationship between horsemanship and healing.

Two-Fold Impact: On People and Industry

Stable Recovery is not only a compassionate endeavor; it is a strategic workforce development for our industry. Participants become not just architects of their recovery, but valuable contributors to an industry that urgently needs passionate, skilled workers.

Our Responsibility to Scale

Programs like Stable Recovery should not be anomalies; they should be models for what our industry can achieve on a larger scale. Frank Taylor envisions a future where more Kentucky Thoroughbred farms embrace similar initiatives. Here is where the rest of the industry can make a significant impact.

Actionable Steps:

- Investment: Financial backing from within the industry can help expand the reach of programs like Stable Recovery.
- Collaboration and Sponsorship: Involve other key industry players in partnerships to extend these programs' resources and scope.
- Spread Awareness: Leverage media platforms to make these initiatives well known and well understood. Cont.

Letter to the Editor, cont.A Challenge to Fans and Stakeholders

To fans and stakeholders alike, your role is indispensable. Social media advocacy, financial support, and open dialogue about the importance of such programs can propel them into mainstream consciousness.

Conclusion

The Thoroughbred industry has a unique opportunity to not only change its social narrative, but also to lead in transformative programs that benefit both humans and horses. Frank Taylor's Stable Recovery is proof that we can simultaneously resurrect true horsemanship while healing lives.

Let us be part of this impactful change, one horse and one healed soul at a time. God Bless!

OPEN LETTER TO THE INDUSTRY: LISA LAZARUS

Dear Thoroughbred racing participants,

HISA's most important mission is to protect the health and wellbeing of the horses participating in Thoroughbred racing. Over the past few months, the challenges of that mission--and the critical importance of it--have never been more apparent.

The events at Churchill Downs, Laurel Park and Saratoga Race Course this spring and summer were a sobering reminder that we must further prioritize creating a culture of safety and an ecosystem of care that takes into account all factors contributing to equine fatalities. And it is the responsibility of all racing participants to do their part.

HISA's investigation into the circumstances surrounding equine fatalities at Churchill Downs earlier this year did not identify any singular explanation for the fatalities, despite extensive investigation and analysis of the track surface, veterinary records, necropsies and whether any rule violations occurred. The absence of a singular explanation underscores the urgent need for further action and analysis to mitigate risk stemming from several factors potentially contributing to equine fatalities. HISA's full report on the findings was released publicly last week and can be found here. Cont.

HISA's strategic recommendations and next steps moving forward--also announced last week--include the following:

- A sophisticated data analysis effort to explore critical questions facing the sport to yield new, actionable insights, made possible by uniform reporting requirements under HISA.
- The creation of a committee to work toward the study and ultimate introduction of more synthetic surface options in Thoroughbred racing.
- Improved veterinary screening and diagnostic procedures, including:
 - Making PET scans more accessible to racetracks across the country;
 - Conducting a research study to examine the causes of exercise-associated sudden deaths;
 - Further use of wearable technology as an injury detection tool;
 - An examination of whether there are any other equine fitness tools worthy of investment and deployment

HISA has also formed a new Track Surface Advisory Group comprised of seasoned track superintendents to assist in surface analysis and make recommendations on an ongoing basis.

This moment is and should be a turning point for our sport. It is essential that all corners of the racing world come together to do their part to reduce equine fatalities and protect these magnificent athletes.

HISA is grateful for the work of everyone involved in the sport whose job it is to protect the health and wellbeing of Thoroughbreds. We know that you share in our cause and that together, we can make racing the safest, and best, version of itself.

Yours in racing, Lisa Lazarus

NEW CHAPLAIN HIRED AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

The Kentucky Race Track Chaplaincy has named Pavel Urruchi as Churchill Downs's new chaplain, the track said in a release Wednesday morning.

Originally from Lima, Peru, Urruchi has a B.A. in Religion, an M.A. in Divinity, and he is working on a Ph.D. in Applied Theology. Bilingual in Spanish and English, the new chaplain has served for the past five years at Turfway and Belterra Parks.

"I am excited that Pavel has accepted this position, and I can assure you he is eager to build on the momentum of human connections already underway at CDRT alongside Women's Ministry Director Melanie Case, Children's Ministry Director Erica Williamson, and Ministry Coordinator Drew Lindman," said Rich Gimmel, Director of Ministry Staff. "We are truly blessed to have Chaplain Pavel on our team, and we're excited to see his energy and his love for our Lord and His people brought to our Churchill Downs ministry."

Chaplain Urruchi will be responsible for developing relationships with everyone in the backside community from the workers in the barns and on the track as well as the various organizations located there serving the racing community.

"Primarily, I am here to show them God's love in tangible ways," said Urruchi, who is married with two kids. "In the end, I want everyone to experience the love of God, be transformed by Him and find a family to belong."

MARYLAND HORSE FOUNDATION RECEIVES TCA GRANT

The Maryland Horse Foundation (MHF) was named as a 2023 Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) grant recipient, the institution said in a release Wednesday. Cont.

Spendthrift Farm's Ned Toffey on KING'S EQUINE

BEHOLDER 4-time Eclipse Champion

"For nearly two decades we have sent our yearlings to Raul Reyes at King's Equine in Ocala for one simple reason. He has done great for us. Included among the good horses they have started for us are Champion Beholder and most recently, her Grade 1 winning daughter Tamara that we are very excited about."

The grant will focus on the Foundation's educational outreach efforts, including the Maryland Thoroughbred Career Program (MTCP), whose fellows have landed jobs in the Thoroughbred industry from the breeding shed to the racing office.

"I believe that it is important for these young folks to see that there are various opportunities that will allow them to embrace their passion for horses, while using their talents to make a career in the equine industry," said Cricket Goodall, executive director of the Maryland Horse Foundation. "That is the goal of this program."

The MHF has also created a Work Experience Program, which allows qualified applicants to design a custom internship experience that will benefit their long-term career goals. Click here to learn more about MHF programs.

Dreaming of Mo | Fasig-Tipton

UNCLE MO FILLY'S BELMONT AT THE BIG A DEBUT

5th-BAQ, $90K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6ft, 3:11 p.m.

Blue Devil Racing Stable purchased DREAMING OF MO (Uncle Mo) at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale for $700,000. Two years prior, the bay filly's dam Dreaming of You (Pioneerof the Nile) was sold to Phoenix Thoroughbreds with the filly in utero at the Keeneland November Sale for $500,000.

Second dam General Jeanne (Honour and Glory) also produced MGSW Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union), who foaled GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}) and three full-brothers by Tapit--MGSW Mohaymen, GSW Enforceable, and GSW Kingly.

In receipt of Lasix for this debut, Dreaming of Mo is trained by Carlos Martin and Joel Rosario has the call.

A $475,000 OBS April Sale graduate, You Only Live Once (More Than Ready) makes her first start for Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher with Irad Ortiz aboard. Also with Lasix for the first time, the bay filly's dam is out of GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. winner and turf specialist Magnificent Song (Unbridled's Song).

TJCIS PPS

3rd-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 5:58 p.m.

Heading to Kentucky for some early evening racing for juvenile fillies, Austin Traffic (Cross Traffic) will attempt to graduate at first asking from the barn of Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott. The Mike Rutherford homebred is out of GSW Taittinger Rose (Menifee), who also is responsible for the chestnut filly's full-brother and Jimmy Winkfield S. winner Montauk Traffic and her half-sister SP Rosebug (American Pharoah).

Corkage Fee (Vino Rosso), bred and owned by Jim and Donna Daniell, goes out for trainer Michael McCarthy. The bay filly's unraced dam is out of GI Ballerina S. and GI Test S. heroine Turbulent Descent (Congrats). TJCIS PPS

5th-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 6:56 p.m.

With demand high, the Churchill secretary drew a second race for juvenile fillies and out of this bunch Dazzlin' Dictator (American Pharoah)'s dam is a half-sister to the dam of GISW She's A Julie (Elusive Quality), and GIII Sorrento S. victoress Untouched Talent (Storm Cat), who produced GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Bodemeister (Empire Maker) and MGSW Under the Stars (Pioneerof the Nile).

Also making the starting gate is Magic Gathering (Liam's Map), who counts MGSW Gotta Have Her (Royal Academy) as her second dam. Montclair Road (Quality Road) is out of Dothraki Queen (Pure Prize)--winner of the GIII Pocahontas S.--who was a $950,000 China Horse Club buy at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale back in 2016. TJCIS PPS

GIANT MISCHIEF (c, 3, Into Mischief--Vertical Oak {MGSW, $773,095}, by Giant Oak) made a triumphant return off a near seven-month absence, landing this stakes-quality sprint in sharp fashion. The 7-5 favorite was off fairly and was hustled along early, but did not quite have speed enough to head them off and settled on the heels of the leaders to the turn. Angled away from the inside and into the four path going ominously well at the five-sixteenths pole, the $475,000 Keeneland September grad swept to the lead with a furlong and a half to race and kicked home to score by an impressive 2 3/4 lengths over fellow comebacker Two Eagles River (Cloud Computing). A debut winner at Horseshoe Indianapolis this time last year, Giant Mischief outgamed future GI Woody Stephens S. hero and 'TDN Rising Star' Arabian Lion (Justify) in a seven-furlong allowance at Keeneland on Breeders' Cup Friday.

A troubled-trip second as the 4-5 choice in the Dec. 17 Springboard Mile S. at Remington, the bay was a latest sixth in a sloppy-track renewal of the GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Feb. 25. The winner's dual graded stakes-winning dam was a acquired for $700,000 with this colt in utero at the 2019 Keeneland November Sale and is also the dam of a yearling Curlin filly and a weanling colt by Quality Road. Vertical Oak, a daughter of MSW Vertical Vision (Pollard's Vision), was covered by Into Mischief this season. Sales history: $475,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. COPPOLA (c, 4, Into Mischief--Blind Copy, by Distorted Humor), an $800,000 Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase grad, won his first two starts for SF/Starlight/Madaket and partners last season before changing hands for hands for $105,000 at Keeneland November last fall.

The bay, open-lengths winner of a May course-and-distance allowance, was just touched off by the classy Arzak (Not This Time) in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 23 and was all the rage here at 3-5. Content to lay second as MSW Bodenheimer (Atta Boy Roy) made play up front, Coppola looked destined to finish runner-up yet again as Bodenheimer proved stubborn on the engine, but there was no Apocalypse Now as he managed to get up in the final jump. Blind Copy is a full-sister to SW Lucky Folie, the dam of GSP Ambitieuze (Medaglia d'Oro) and was purchased by Fred Hertrich in foal to More Than Ready--one of his favorite stallions--for $105,000 at KEENOV in 2019. The mare is also the dam of the 2-year-old gelding Trucker (Flatter), a yearling Authentic colt that was purchased by Powerstown Stud for $105,000 on day five at the ongoing Keeneland September and a weanling colt by Essential Quality. She was covered by Golden Pal this term. Sales history: $800,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $105,000 3yo '22 KEENOV. GEE WIZ (f, 2, Sea Wizard--Crafty Coed, by Crafty Friend) overcame gate 12 of 12 to boss her fellow Jersey-breds by 2 3/4 lengths on Monmouth debut Aug. 27 and was the 19-10 second favorite behind fellow Garden State raider D'lightful Summer (City of Light) as 3-5. Railing through to share the lead after the opening two furlongs, Gee Wiz held her spot at the fence for the run around the turn, was asked to take advantage of an inside run at the quarter pole and did her best work through the wire to score by daylight, covering the final furlong in a sharp :11.78 before galloping out powerfully into the turn. A half-sister to Optic Way (Cable Boy), MSP, $486,899, Gee Wiz has a weanling full-sister. VIOLA (f, 3, Violence--Bold Union {GSW, $356,416}, by Dixie Union), purchased for $635,000 out of last year's OBS April Sale, easily broke her maiden sprinting on the turf at Hawthorne Aug. 13 and followed up with a runner-up effort in a two-lifetime allowance in Stickney. Shipping across from Chicago for this as the 3-5 chalk, the dark bay alternated on the front end while occupying the outside position, edged to the front 2 1/2 furlongs from home and the half-sister to Bold Confection (Candy Ride {Arg}), SP, $155,380, turned back a late challenge from Honorable Woman (Gun Runner) to take it by three-parts of a length. Viola's Grade III-winning dam was acquired by Yeguada Centurion for $130,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale and is also the dam of the British-bred 2-year-old filly Boldly Forward (GB) (City of Light). She produced a filly by the classy Ghaiyyath (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) this year. Sales history: $82,000 Wlg '20 KEENOV; $90,000 Ylg '21 FTKJUL; $635,000 2yo '22 OBSAPR. LEUCADIA (f, 2, Mendelssohn--Theonewewaitedfor {SW, $118,680}, by Creative Cause) was awarded this maiden victory by the stewards, who ruled that first-past-the-post 17-1 Livi Me Dreaming (Always Dreaming) 'crossed into the paths of several rivals by interfering with Run Run Rabbit () in the first turn. Leucadia, stretching out a bit in trip off a debut 11th sprinting at Kentucky Downs Aug. 31, sat a box seat trip as Livi Me Dreaming attended a moderate pace. The latter kicked home gamely in the stretch and crossed the wire 1 1/4 lengths to the good, only to be disqualified to eighth. The winner has a half-sister by Cairo Prince and a weanling half-sister named Won Ton (Tonalist). Sales history: $95,000 RNA Ylg '22 FTKJUL; $185,000 Ylg '22 FT KOCT. ROBSON AGUIAR ADDS 88K WOODED COLT TO BREEZE-UP TEAM AT TATTS IRELAND

A Wooded colt led the way on day two at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

It has been a year to remember for Robson Aguiar, largely down to the exploits of Amo Racing's breakthrough Group 1 winner Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who he sourced for Kia Joorabchian's ownership vehicle.

The ultra-shrewd Brazilian native snapped up a colt by Wooded (Ire), who is a brother to Amo's Phoenix S. hero, for €88,000 on day two of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale and revealed afterwards that the plan was to go breezing for his new recruit.

"I bought him for myself and he will breeze," Aguiar said. "I saw a few by Wooded in France and I really liked them. Wooded is a full-brother to Bucanero Fuerte, who won our first Group 1, so it's nice to get one by him. He stood out in this sale. We are looking for quality and I think he is a nice horse."

A brilliant winner of the Prix de l'Abbaye, Wooded stands at Haras de Bouquetot and his first yearlings have been well-received. Lot 347 was one of only two horses by the stallion in the sale and he represented a whopper of a pinhooking result for John Foley of Ballyvolane Stud who paid just €15,000 for the colt in February.

GROUP 1 WINNERS LEZOO AND PROSPEROUS VOYAGE PART OF SCEPTRE SESSION AT TATTERSALLS

Group 1 winners Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Prosperous Voyage (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) will be offered at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale on Dec. 4-7. The pair will sell during the Sceptre Session on Tuesday, Dec. 5, for co-owners Marc Chan and Andrew Rosen.

The Cartier European Champion 2-Year-Old Filly in 2022, Lezoo won the G1 Cheveley Park S. over subsequent G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) and G1 1000 Guineas victress Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}). The Chasemore Farm-bred filly is out of Group 3 winner Roger Sez (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}), who has also produced the Group 3-placed winner Navassa Island (Ire) (Territories {Ire}). She was originally a 77,000gns Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 3 yearling, and made €110,000 at the Arqana May Breeze-Up Sale as a juvenile. Cont. p7

"Wooded was a Group 1-winning son of Wootton Bassett and I really wanted to buy one by the sire," he explained. "He was a good-moving foal, a bit weak, and I thought there was a chance he might grow into a nice horse. He has thrived, really thickened out, and most people who saw him said that he was one of the better physicals here and that he stood out a little bit. He has been very popular."

Foley added, "We always send five or six to sell at this sale and always try to send a couple of nice horses. There are a lot of British trainers here and the Tattersalls Ireland team does a great job getting people to the sale. It has been a lucky sale for us—we sold Sir Busker (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) here."

Poste Picks Up Another Speedy-Looking Colt To Go Breezing

Charlie Poste spoke to TDN Europe on Tuesday about his reasons for branching out into the breeze-up game and, alongside Blandford Bloodstock's Tom Biggs, he continued his recruitment drive on day two.

Top of Poste's list was a Blue Point (Ire) colt (lot 366) from Oak Lodge and Springfield House Stud for €78,000, which brought his total haul to €169,000 for four yearlings all told.

The Blue Point colt represented a fantastic touch for Reddy Coffey, who purchased the dam Platinum Coast (Speightstown) for just 4,500gns in 2019.

He said, "It is a great result. Blue Point looks like he is going to be a proper sire. We bought the mare for just 4,500gns. She is by Speightstown and we thought the stallion's physique would suit the mare and he was a very fast horse. Who doesn't like a fast horse!"

Grant's Wishes Come Through With Sioux Nation Colt

Mark Grant knows a thing or two about fast horses. The leading breeze-up handler is famed for producing dual Royal Ascot winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) and came away from Fairyhouse with four yearlings bought for the upcoming season.

Grant, who is based in Britain, said that the conversion rate from Sterling to Euro was a sweetener in going to €80,000 for a belter of a Sioux Nation colt (lot 373) from Glidawn Stud.

He said, "I thought the Sioux Nation was the best horse in the sale and I knew I'd have to pull a bit out for him. I think all of the right people were on him. Hopefully he will turn out to be a Craven horse."

Grant also came away from Fairyhouse with an Earthlight colt from Moanmore Stables for €60,000, a Saxon Warrior (Jpn) colt from Castletown Quarry Stud for €55,000 and an Acclamation (GB) colt for €45,000.

He commented, "I have bought some nice horses here in the past and I like coming back here. Buying in Euros is a big help as well. When you look up at the bid board and eight grand was just sixty eight Sterling, so that's a big help." Cont. p4

He added, “I have eleven bought now and I’ll probably buy another three or four at the upcoming sales but the nice ones are hard to buy. It’s been very hard to buy them this year. A lot of the breeze-up handlers haven’t filled their orders yet so they will probably be driving on now.”

Solid Trade Posted On Day Two

There may not have been any six-figure lots on day two but the trade remained solid. The €12,522,000 aggregate was up marginally on the figures posted in 2022 while the average climbed 3% to €30,995. The median was also up 8% to €28,000 while the clearance rate was down 5% to 85%.

Buy(s) of the Day

John Murphy and his son George have a track record at sniffing out a bargain and time may prove that the father-and-son duo found another here on Wednesday in the shape of lot 322.

A Tamayuz (GB) colt consigned by Wardstown Stud attracted plenty of shrewd judges to the ring but it was Murphy who won out at €30,000.

Out of an Arcano (Ire) mare who has yet to produce a winner, the Tamayuz is a fine stamp of a colt and should make up into a nice two-year-old.

He is a three-parts brother to Blond Me (Ire) and the pedigree traces back to a strong Ballymacoll family.

Elsewhere, another Make Believe colt appeared to be well bought at this sale. It was in this section on Tuesday where Luke Lillingston's €70,000 purchase of a colt by the Ballylinch stallion was put forward as the buy of the day to go to Andrew Balding.

Well, Billy Jackson-Stops may well have found similar value in the Make Believe colt that he sourced for the trainer (lot 286) for just €40,000.

Consigned by Airlie Stud, the Make Believe colt is out of an unraced Galileo (Ire) mare, who has already produced the highly-rated Ralph Beckett-trained Quantum Impact (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

Finally, if it's early speed that you were looking for, Patrick Vaughan and Conor Hoban of Beechlea Bloodstock may have found it. They shelled out just €15,000 to secure a Kuroshio (Aus) colt (lot 261) from Baroda Stud early in the morning.

Kuroshio has already proved himself as a good source of speed, largely down to the exploits of trainer Michael O'Callaghan through Gozen (Ire) and Kairyu (Ire), with the latter on course for Group 1 targets.

This colt looks well capable of clocking a good time should his next connections go down that route and it wouldn't be a surprise to see them turn a profit in the spring whatever path they chart with the colt.

Strong Trade, As Curtain Falls On Part 1

Tattersalls Ireland, CEO Simon Kerins said, “Today completes two very successful days of trade at the September Yearling Sale, resulting in a turnover surpassing €12,522,000, the second highest ever recorded for this sale. It was immensely satisfying to see advancements in most key indicators with this year's catalogue producing a record median and the second highest average for the two days.” Cont. p5

He added, "There was also a record number of lots making over €40,000 a testament to the solid trade.

"Results do speak volumes and up to last weekend, the September Yearling Sale was Europe's leading sale for 2-year-winners, complemented by Dawn Charger and Tiger Belle's recent Group 3 success in France. It is these winners that have reinforced the confidence with new and existing buyers to come to Fairyhouse, with more buyers in attendance than ever before. Heartfelt appreciation must go to Charles O' Neill and his team at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing for their exceptional efforts that have contributed to a very successful week.

"I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the vendors who supported us with a catalogue worthy of attracting so many visitors to the site. We wish all our purchasers continued success with their purchases as they go on to achieve great things on the racetrack."

WERTHEIMERS' SEA THE STARS BLUEBLOOD A NEW TDN RISING STAR by Tom Frary

Chantilly's Prix de Toutevoie for unraced 2-year-old fillies on Wednesday had an intriguing look to it beforehand and it did not disappoint as the Wertheimers' Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}--Balladeuse {Fr}, by Singspiel {Ire}) won impressively to earn TDN Rising Star status.

Placed handy behind the early leaders by Stephane Pasquier, the Christophe Ferland-trained half-sister to the G1 Prix Vermeille winner Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was committed passing the 300-metre marker and responded generously to put the contest to bed.

Strong to the line, the 41-5 shot had 3 1/2 lengths to spare over The Aga Khan's Siyandra (Ire) (Medaglia d'Oro), the daughter of the G1 Prix Saint Alary winner Siyarafina (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) from the family of Siyouni (Fr). There was another neck back to the Andre Fabre-trained 6-4 favourite Solite (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the other Wertheimer representative who is out of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud scorer Plumania (GB) (Anabaa) and therefore a relative of the winner. Aventure is the 18th TDN Rising Star for Sea The Stars, whose tally includes the luminaries Sea The Moon (Ger), Crystal Ocean (GB), Star Catcher (GB) and Emily Upjohn (GB).

"She is a nice filly who was working well for this debut," Ferland. "I said to Stephane to have her in the clear for the finish and to show her that he is the boss, because she can show some temperament in the mornings. She didn't this afternoon, so that is certainly a good sign, and we will see in time what we do with her this year."

Aventure is the 10th foal out of the G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Balladeuse, whose aforementioned daughter Left Hand also took the G3 Prix de Psyche and was runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane before producing the Listed Prix Melisande-winning fellow TDN Rising Star Left Sea (GB) (Frankel {GB}) who was also runner-up in the most recent edition of the Psyche. A winner on debut herself, Balladeuse's second-best progeny at present is Romanciere (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) who was placed in eight black-type contests including the G1 Prix Jean Romanet and her Listed Prix Charles Laffitte-winning full-sister Bilissie (GB). Cont. p7

Balladeuse is kin to the aforementioned G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud heroine and G1 Prix de Diane-placed Plumania (GB) (Anabaa), dam of the G2 Prix du Muguet scorer Plumatic (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the G2 Prix d'Harcourt-placed Maniaco (GB) by Sea The Stars's half-brother Galileo (Ire) and G2 Prix Greffulhe-placed Starmaniac (GB) by Sea The Stars himself. She is also the second dam of the Listed Prix Zarkava winner and G1 Prix Saint-Alary-placed Solsticia (Ire) (Le Havre {Ire}) and the G3 Prix Belle de Nuit-placed Solania (GB) (Zoffany {Ire}).

Other half-siblings of Balladeuse are the listed-placed Dancequest (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), dam of the G3 Prix de Guiche winner Flop Shot (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) and the group-placed Double Major (Ire) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}); and Secrete (Fr) by Sea The Stars's sire Cape Cross (Ire) who is responsible for the G2 Prix de la Nonette and G3 Prix Vanteaux scorer Rumi (Fr) (Frankel {GB}), Galileo's listed-winning Solage (GB) and the G3 Prix Noailles-placed Normandy Eagle (Ire) by Flop Shot's sire New Approach (Ire).

The third dam in this illustrious dynasty is Featherhill (Fr) (Lyphard), a half to the champion filly Indian Rose (Fr) (General Holme) and sires Vert Amante (Fr) and Le Nain Jaune (Fr) who produced the operation's G1 Prix Lupin hero and leading sire Groom Dancer and fellow sires Tagel and Slew The Slewor. She is also the ancestress of the top-level winners Falco (Pivotal {GB}), Kinshasa No Kiseki (Aus) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}), Nettoyer (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) and Absolutely (Aus) and Abbey Marie (Aus) by Redoute's Choice (Aus). Next up from this astoundingly successful family is Balladeuse's yearling Astropark (Ire) who is a full-brother to the winner.

A winner of last year's G1 Falmouth S. over Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}), Prosperous Voyage was also second in the 1000 Guineas at three and the G1 Fillies' Mile at two to that foe. Bred by Lynch Bages and Camas Park Stud, the £65,000 Goffs Orby yearling also won the G3 Princess Elizabeth S. and was third in the G2 Duke Of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot this term. Her dam, the Mizzen Mast mare Seatone, is a winning half-sister to three stakes winners, led by dual Grade I winner Senure (Nureyev).

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "Lezoo and Prosperous Voyage were both outstanding Group 1 winners with their Group 1 wins made even more impressive by the calibre of the fields they defeated. They are both from top class international families and it is an honour to be asked to offer two fillies of this quality at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale on behalf of Marc Chan and Andrew Rosen. There is no doubt that they will be among the highlights of this year's Sceptre Sessions which received international acclaim in their inaugural year."

BUCANERO FUERTE HEADS TO WINTER QUARTERS WITH A GUINEAS IN MIND

Group 1 winner Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) will not race again this season and be trained with an eye to either the G1 2000 Guineas or the Irish equivalent, according to trainer Adrian Murray. Cont. p8

A winner of the G1 Phoenix S. in fine style earlier in the year, the colt was unplaced in the G1 National S. during the Irish Champions Festival. He also claimed the G2 Railway S. at the Curragh in the colours of AMO Racing and Giselle De Aguiar.

“Nothing came to light, it just looked to me like it was a race too many for him,” said Murray of his charge’s National performance. “He’s on a break now, he won’t run again until next year. I’ve given him an entry in the Irish Guineas and he’ll also get entered in the English Guineas. Hopefully he’ll have a prep run before going for one of those.

“He’s had five races now so he’s got plenty of experience at two if we’re thinking of a Guineas. That’s the plan anyway.”

Murray also shed light on the plans for his G2 Norfolk S. surprise winner Valiant Force (Malibu Moon), who is bound for the Breeders’ Cup in California next month. The colt was a late scratch due to the ground prior to the G2 Flying Childers S. on Friday.

“Valiant Force is going to go straight to the Breeders’ Cup,” said Murray. “The plan for him is for him to then stay in America after that.

“I’m not sure yet which race he’ll run in over there, I’ll have to talk to Kia [Joorabchian, owner], he’ll have a few options.”

CHEVELEY PARK NEXT FOR RELIEF RALLY

Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the winner of the G2 Lowther S., will take her chance in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket on Oct. 30, Anthony Bromley, racing manager for owners Simon Munir and Isaac Souede, revealed on Wednesday.

The four-for-five William Haggas-trained bay was also being considered for the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye in open company and versus elders the day after the Cheveley Park. Second in the G2

Queen Mary S. by only a nose at third asking in June, she triumphed in the Weatherbys Super Sprint S. a month later, before her Lowther score in August.

“The plan is very much to go to the Cheveley Park at this moment in time,” said Bromley. “It’s pretty much decision made, obviously other variables can happen between now and then, but at the moment all roads lead to Newmarket.

“It just seems she deserves a go at a Group 1 and the Cheveley Park is fillies’ only and six furlongs, which seemed to suit well in the Lowther. William seems happy with her and there’s no reason not to go to Newmarket really.”

VIRGIN BET TO SPONSOR SUN CHARIOT STAKES

Virgin Bet is the new sponsor for the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket on Oct. 7.

In addition, Virgin Bet will also sponsor three more races on the card, as it expands its sponsorship portfolio across The Jockey Club. The company already sponsors races at Exeter, Kempton Park, Sandown Park and Wincanton. Part of the QIPCO British Champions Series, the Sun Chariot is the first Group 1 Flat race sponsored by Virgin Bet.

Virgin Bet Marketing Director, Ric Leask, said, “We are hugely excited to expand our partnership with The Jockey Club and support this prestigious contest through the sponsorship of the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket’s Rowley Mile.

“The Sun Chariot S., with its rich history and exceptional line-up of past winners, perfectly aligns with Virgin Bet’s commitment to top-tier horseracing.” Cont. p9

IFHA CONFERENCE ON EQUINE WELFARE SET FOR OCT. 2 AT SAINT-CLOUD

The 57th International Conference of Horseracing Authorities will take place on Oct. 2 at Saint-Cloud Racecourse. This year's conference, organized by the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA), will focus on safeguarding equine welfare and explore shifts in societal expectations and the racing industry's response around the world. The conference will examine both immediate concerns and forward-looking initiatives to protect and promote equine welfare.

“The well-being of the equine athlete must always be at the forefront of the decisions we make,” IFHA Chair Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges said. “I look forward to sharing with the membership and key stakeholders the ways in which industry standards and practices are continuously enhanced, particularly through scientific advances in improving existing safeguards. The importance of our sport embracing an even more active role in public discourse on the issue and ensuring that our sport remains as a fully engaged and integral part of our communities cannot be understated.”

Nick Luck will serve as the moderator for the conference, which includes discussions on horse racing in an evolving society, approaches and strategies to shape the narratives surrounding equine welfare and protecting the sport's equine athletes, and effective public engagement and response, particularly in relation to the issue of equine welfare.

A live video stream of conference will be available on the IFHA's website. A replay of the live video stream and presentations will be available in the days following the event.

FRANKEL'S SAPPHIRE SEAS TAKES THE JOHN MUSKER

by Tom Frary

Coming into Wednesday's Listed EBF Stallions John Musker
Fillies' S. off a win in Haydock's Reprocolor Premier Fillies' H. 13 days previously, Godolphin's Sapphire Seas (GB) (Frankel {GB}) raised her game again to beat some talented peers for her

Tracking the leaders early, the 9-2 shot travelled smoothly to the fore under William Buick approaching two out and had command soon after. Pushed out to assert her superiority, the Charlie Appleby-trained homebred hit the line with 2 1/2 lengths to spare over the smart yardstick Mukaddamah (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), with the returning TDN Rising Star Infinite Cosmos (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) 3/4 of a length away in third. The 10-11 favourite Al Asifah (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who had so impressed earlier in the season, was only seventh.

Buick, who registered a four-timer on the card for Appleby, said, "It was a very smart performance. She won nicely last time at Haydock in a fillies' handicap and she's certainly stepped up on that. She's going to keep improving hopefully. I would say the team will be delighted with what they saw there and hopefully she'll be around for next year. This is a nice race, a lovely race for fillies. Let's hope she can go on to better things."

Sapphire Seas' Listed Meydan Classic-winning dam Pure Diamond (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) is a daughter of the G3 Prix Miesque winner White Rose (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) who was also second in the G1 Preis der Diana. Responsible also for the fellow listed scorers Elite Army (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) and Promesse De L'Aube (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), the family includes Wild Coco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}) who captured the G2 Park Hill S. and two renewals of the G3 Lillie Langtry S. and was second in the G1 Prix Vermeille. Pure Diamond also has an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old colt by Kingman (GB) and a filly foal by Night Of Thunder (Ire). VIDEO.

Saddled with a five-pound penalty for his Superior Mile success at Haydock 11 days previously, he travelled with typical enthusiasm tracking the leader and when committed approaching the furlong pole saw off TDN Rising Star Knight on the run to the line. Cont. p12

"He is one of the biggest allies our yard has had for years," Hannon said. "He has run in all these good races and turns up on every occasion. He never runs a bad race. He is in the [G2] Joel S. and I've put him in the [G2] Challenge S. I'd like to take him to America or Australia and run him on fast ground, but there is also the Hong Kong option as well."

Poonawalla, who had made a flying visit especially to view the race, added, "It was a win that we were a little worried about getting because of the ground, but all the way up you could see clearly that he was handling the ground well. He is a lion-hearted horse and he took the challenge the way he should and held on to win. He is by an up-and-coming champion sire and that is what you need if you want a horse to retire to stud. I'm taking him in a month's time to India and I've got 100-plus mares to give him. If the ground holds on, we may run him once more. I'm very keen and the trainer is very keen to run him once more and if he wins that we may change our plans, but not for taking him to India as he is all set to go home."

Chindit, whose full-brother is selling at next month's Tatts Book 1, hails from the family of the Derby-winning sire Motivator (GB) and his G2 Hardwicke S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial-winning full-brother Macarthur (GB). Delivered towards the stands, the €200,000 Arqana August graduate reeled in Teraabb (Ire) (Masar {Ire}) close home to score by a head and bring up winner number 36 for his first-season sire, who would 15 minutes later have another to his tally at Beverley. Cont. p13

DAMBUSTER (GB) (c, 2, Kingman {GB}--Wall of Sound {GB} {GSP-US, MSP-Eng, $116,108}, by Singspiel {Ire}), settled towards the rear early from his wide stall, began to close from the top of the straight. Nursed into contention inside the final two furlongs, the 17-2 shot hit the front with 100 yards remaining before holding Go Daddy (Ire) (Smooth Daddy) to score by a head. Owner-breeder Andrew Black, who opted to buy back the colt, one of the clutch of yearlings knocked down to Saleh Al Homaizi when initially sold for 750,000gns at the Tatts Book 1 before his non-payment, said, "I thought we'd seen him off--we got very well-paid and it was the most money we'd ever got so it was a big decision to buy him back, but I liked him so much I was quite happy to do it. He's probably the best-looking horse we've ever bred and along with Johannes Brahms they were two outstanding colts we sold. I try to accept that we sell all the colts. Oisin was very positive and said the horse has a lot of ability and he thinks one more run this year. I don't think I ever had a horse finish a race and blown so little afterwards, so you wonder how much more there is there. We may go up in class or have another quiet one, as he's a big baby and we need to make sure we look after him this year." The winner is the sixth foal out of the dam, one of Chasemore Farm's better performers who was third in the GII Goldikova S. Her daughter Boomer (GB), also by Kingman, captured the G3 Prestige S. and was second in the G2 May Hill S., while she has also produced the dual Australian stakes winner and group-placed Uncle Bryn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). She is a half-sister to past TDN Rising Star The Cheka (Ire) (Xaar {GB}), winner of the G3 John of Gaunt S. and placed in the G1 July Cup and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest, while the family of Zafonic also features Regal Parade (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) who took the Maurice de Gheest and the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup. Her yearling colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) is in next month's Book 1, while she also has a colt foal by Dubawi (Ire). Sales history: 750,000gns Ylg '22 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $6,692.

SOSIE (IRE) (c, 2, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Sosia {Ger} {SP-Fr}, by Shamardal), sent off the 19-10 favourite, followed the pace set by Atlast (Fr) (Farhh {GB}). Taking command a furlong from home, the homebred asserted to score with authority by two lengths from that fellow Wertheimer representative. The listed-placed dam has already produced a trio of black-type performers from her first four foals. They are the Listed Prix Rose de Mai and Listed Prix Charles Laffitte winner Anasia (GB) (Intello {Ger}) who was also placed in four Group 3 contests, the German listed scorer Copie (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) and the G3 Prix Daphnis runner-up Sosino (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}). WORLDWIDE NEWS

LASTOTCHKA PURCHASED BY AUSTRALIAN BLOODSTOCK WITH MELBOURNE CUP AIM

Multiple Group 3 winner Lastotchka (Fr) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) has been purchased by Australian Bloodstock and is under consideration for the G1 Melbourne Cup in November.

The 4-year-old filly most recently won the G3 Prix Gladiateur at ParisLongchamp earlier this month. She was raced by Ecurie Noel Forgeard, Pierre Bonnier, Earl Touchstone, Charles-Henri Bonnier and Philippe Stein prior to her acquisition. The daughter of Muthla (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) won the G3 Prix Belle de Nuit earlier in her career.

"We completed the deal last night," Jamie Lovett of Australian Bloodstock told Racing.com on Wednesday.

"There's a few things to play out so we are leaving her in in Chantilly for more scans at the moment. She's passed the RV (Racing Victoria) trot-up and they've seen the X-rays so far."

Of the former Jean-Marie Beguigne trainee's appeal, Lovett added, "We really liked the form. The thing that ticked the last box was that she's obviously won at a mile and a half but interestingly enough her two Group 3 wins were at 2800 metres and 3100 metres.

"She's bought for that race and she's come in with 51kgs. She's also good residual value as a multiple Group 3 winner with a lovely pedigree."

Australian Bloodstock won the 2022 Melbourne Cup with Gold Trip (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}), and he is currently top weight for the two-mile prize when the weights were released on Tuesday.
