When Anthony Melfi purchased a 100-acre property in Schuylerville, New York two years ago, he and his partner Gary Gullo did not want to have what would be just another farm. Instead, they hoped to create something that could have a lasting impact on the sport of racing.

"We thought that if we could get something that's unique, we could improve the horse racing business a little bit," explained Gullo. "We didn't want to have a regular farm just to have a farm. We wanted to make a difference, trying to help this industry out as best as possible."

Their vision would soon become GMP Farm, an equine rehabilitation and training center with state-of-the-art facilities and a long list of services available to help equine athletes return to top form.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR: LEXINGTON'S URBAN SERVICE BOUNDARY by Don Robinson

Horses are at the heart of what makes Lexington, Kentucky unique. It is the unparalleled quality of our soils that makes Lexington the world's center of the equine industry.

The equine industry has been an important part of Lexington for over 200 years, with some of the first known racetracks in the region dating back to the late 1700s. Over the past two centuries, Lexington has proudly become the Horse Capital of the World, serving as home to some of the industry's biggest icons.

Numerous Thoroughbred champions, like Man o' War, Citation, Seattle Slew, Zenyatta and American Pharoah, to name just a few, have been bred and raised in Fayette County. World-class farms like Calumet, Gainesway, Godolphin, and Spendthrift operate here. Some of the industry's most storied institutions--Keeneland, the Red Mile, Fasig-Tipton, and the Kentucky Horse Park--are here, and draw substantial numbers of visitors to our region each year. Global sporting events like the FEI World Equestrian Games and the Breeders' Cup have been hosted here. A study of the November 2022 Breeders' Cup at Keeneland found that the event had an $81-million impact on Fayette County.

They started with the original barn, which was once home to Stone Bridge Farm training center, but quickly began construction on a second due to high demand. They redid the base of their seven-eighths Tapeta training track and developed an expansive list of rehabilitation services including a cold water spa, Theraplates, cryotherapy, thermal imaging, laser therapy and more. This spring, they added an equine hyperbaric chamber.

Melfi and Gullo's efforts were rewarded this year as GMP Farm has been a model of success. With a capacity of 60 horses, the operation located 15 minutes from Saratoga has been in full swing as it has attracted horses from some of the top barns in the country.

"Bill Mott has been a big supporter of us," said Gullo. "Todd Pletcher, Linda Rice, Rudy Rodriguez, Ray Handal—we have all different trainers sending us horses. It's a pleasure to have them have faith in us to get their horses right and send them back."

A veteran trainer himself before he teamed up with his longtime client Melfi to start GMP Stable in 2020, Gullo said the expertise his team has to offer has been a major factor in getting GMP Farm off and running.

"We know how to take care of horses and we know what to look for," he explained. "When they leave here, they look great. Their weight is good and they're dappled out. Being a trainer, I know what I expected when horses came off the farm and 90% of the time they were too fat or too thin. Then I would have to give them 30 days or so just to get them back to where I wanted them. We know what other trainers expect and we better deliver what they want."

GMP Farm is managed by Steve Rydowski, who worked under Hall of Famer John Nerud and was a longtime assistant for Gullo.

"We've gotten very good reviews," said Rydowski. "A lot of owners will touch back with me after the horse ran and they'll say, 'Wow, this horse ran one of the best races he's run.' So it's been very positive. Between all of us, we're very hands on. We pay attention to detail with the horse, determining what's going on and where to go from there on each individual horse."

The facility is not restricted to racehorses. Gullo estimated that about 65% of the horses in their care have been Thoroughbreds, but they've also brought in many Standardbreds. They've also worked with a number of equestrian-type horses, even attracting an Olympic-level jumper.

GMP Farm was a popular destination for both horses and humans during the Saratoga race meet. Not only did many of the top horsemen in the business stop by to see the evolution of the operation, but the farm was also the host of a performance of Robert Montano's Off-Broadway show "Small" and it brought in visitors looking to enjoy the property's human spa destination, Sacred Spa and Wellness.

While the hubbub of the Saratoga season has since quieted down, Gullo said he believes that their facility will stay busy on into next year, noting that the additions of a temperature-controlled barn last year and the hyperbaric chamber this spring should attract all types of equine athletes in the coming months.

"Last year we might have been 30% full in the wintertime," he shared. "But I feel like this winter there are going to be more people from Belmont that will ship up and more of the trotters that will be at Saratoga or Yonkers. And you've also got your equestrian horses that are starting to funnel in."

But Gullo isn't all that worried about having a packed barn year-round. He said GMP Farm is in it for the long game.

"We're really not looking so much at numbers," he said. "We're looking at building something that's going to be great for the horses. We just want to have the horses and do the great job that we do."

GMP Farm's Tapeta training track | Katie Petrunyak

Gullo and Melfi are already looking into how they can continue to improve their facility. Gullo said they are considering the additions of a swimming pool and an aqua-treadmill.

Even as demand grows as more owners and trainers utilize their services, Gullo said they don't intend on increasing their intake too much. Instead, he said they have their sights on expanding in a different way.

"We don't want to get too big," he said. "Actually we're looking at maybe trying to have this as a template to go somewhere else with this type of thing. Maybe Ocala, the World Equestrian Center, or Wellington-- somewhere like that where we could do the same thing."

The key to future success, he reiterated, will be having the right people behind the project.

"You can have this beautiful place that looks great, but if you don't have the right people in place, it's going to fail. You have to have qualified people that know what they're doing. The people who work here make it special. Anthony makes it special. There are a lot of moving parts, but everybody's proud of it. And that makes a difference too, when you're really proud of what you do."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The equine industry is a core part of our region's economy, history, and identity. The land on which we raise our horses is the foundation of the industry.

According to the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association, the equine industry is responsible for $6.5 billion in economic activity and a total of 60,494 jobs in the state of Kentucky. Much of that activity is centered in Lexington-Fayette County.

Keeneland alone has a reported economic impact on Fayette County of nearly $600 million annually, according to a University of Kentucky study conducted in 2015.

Now consider this: what would happen if horse farms ceased to exist in Lexington-Fayette County because of urban sprawl? What would happen to our region if the equine industry left town, and instead our land was used for subdivisions and shopping centers?

Lexington is currently engaged in a critical land-use debate, the outcome of which could very well threaten the cornerstone of our economy and identity. The soils that support our industry are at risk.

The Lexington-Fayette County Urban Council voted in June to expand the Urban Service Boundary (USB) by between 2,700 and 5,000 acres. The Council decision was made without any data justifying an expansion and was a rejection of the recommendations of the Planning Commission and Planning Staff.

A committee was hastily organized and tasked with identifying specific areas of land that should be included in this expansion. The committee was given just seven weeks to complete this task; seven weeks to make a recommendation that will undoubtedly result in permanent land-use changes for Lexington-Fayette County.

Most of the land that the committee identified for USB expansion is prime farmland.

The committee held a public hearing in which many members of our community objected to the USB expansion and the development of our productive farmland.

If our city continues to move forward with the current plans for expansion, Lexington will be changed irreversibly. Once our farmland has been developed, it is lost forever.

We risk the vitality of our urban core which has so recently been reinvented because of infill and redevelopment. If we pursue reckless expansion, we will abandon our history of innovative land use planning, which has been developed over the nearly 70 years since the adoption of the Urban Service Boundary in 1958. Cont.

I urge members of our community--and of our industry--to stand up for our economy, our identity, and for our farmland. Call on the Planning Commission and the City to approach any expansion of the USB with the utmost prudence and care, recognizing the value of Lexington-Fayette County's farms. You can do this by sharing your thoughts via email, sent to imagine@lexingtonky.gov.

Lexington can find better ways to accommodate economic growth without sacrificing our farms. We must ensure they hear from our industry in order to do so.

MOUNTAINEER STEWARD DEFENDS $100 FINE FOR JOCKEY WHO WHIPPED HORSE IN FACE by T.D. Thornton

Mountaineer | Coady

The chief state steward at Mountaineer Park, Jim O'Brien, on Friday defended his board's seemingly light $100 penalization of jockey Jose A. Leon after other licensees who were on horseback during training hours at the West Virginia track Sept. 10 testified that the 24-year-old rider dismounted from an unruly horse and struck it across the face with his whip.

"He was wrong, but I guess he let his anger get the best of him, and he hit the horse in the face," O'Brien told TDN.

O'Brien added that he and the other two Mountaineer stewards--Maureen Andrews and Phil Heidenreich--won't be revisiting the penalty, because they believe the punishment fits the violation.

"The horse was acting up after he got off, which is no excuse, but that's what happened," O'Brien said.

Leon, in a separate interview Sept. 22, denied he hit the horse in the face after dismounting from it. But he did admit that he was "frustrated," and that he struck the horse "in the mouth" earlier in a workout while still on horseback in an effort to keep it from careening through the outside fence after it bolted.

Specific information about the horse's identity and condition were not available at deadline for this story.

TDN first reported Leon's fine on Sept. 21. At the time of publication, details about the incident were scant. The stewards' ruling, dated Sept. 18, didn't even mention that a whip was involved.

That initial news story caught the attention of TDN readers, and it quickly cycled to the top of the most-read articles list. Within 24 hours of publication, it drew 19 reader comments, which skewed 18-1 against Leon's actions, with a number of the commenters suggesting that the penalty should have been stiffer.

One reader who phoned TDN directly was Justin Jensen, a former jockey who now owns, trains, and exercises horses at Mountaineer. Jensen said he had witnessed Leon's actions, and was one of the witnesses who reported what happened to the Mountaineer stewards. Cont.

Jensen said his motivation for wanting his side of the story told was because "A hundred-dollar fine isn't acceptable. The stewards are not doing what they should be doing by throwing the book at him a little bit more."

Leon, Jensen, and O'Brien essentially told TDN the same version of what occurred during the botched workout. It's what happened after the horse got pulled up that Leon disputed.

"I'm at the three-eighths pole galloping in a set, and Jose Leon worked up the rail, worked past us, and his horse bolted to the outside," Jensen said. "Now to his credit, he stayed on, and I thought for a second that horse was going through the outside rail. And he corrected the horse by hitting it in the face."

O'Brien corroborated that explanation: "Other witnesses said they don't even know how he stayed on the horse, and the horse was acting up bad," the steward said.

"I showed him the whip," said Leon, who has been a licensed jockey for five years. "I did hit him on the bit; just tried to correct him. The stewards told me that was okay, because they know if I'm in a dangerous [situation], I really have to do something to correct the horse. I hit the horse on the mouth. It wasn't on the face."

Jensen said that at that point, he couldn't really blame Leon for his actions.

"You're in a dangerous spot. He reached out and smacked the horse in the face. Not the end of the world, okay?" Jensen said. But what happened afterward troubled Jensen.

"So now he gets the horse back down on the rail," Jensen continued. "They finish the workout, and I'm galloping right behind him. We pull up. I'm maybe 30, 40 yards away from him. Now the problem is done. All he had to do was turn that horse around and jog it home. And because he's got a bad attitude, and he always has a temper, he jumped off that horse, and as he jumped off that horse, he grabbed the right rein with his left hand, and he reached back with his right hand, and he whipped that horse in the face. I don't know if he hit him in the eye, but he whipped him hard across the face."

Jensen continued: "Now I yelled at him, and I said, 'Jose, that's enough.' I said, 'Calm down, get that horse back to the barn safely, and just take a breath.' We rode away from him. He continued to get a little bit more mad at the horse, but he did not whip him in the face again. But he did whip him in the face the first time, 100 percent."

Jensen said by that time, outrider Theresa Akers had come over to assist. She would also testify at Leon's hearing.

"If we had some patrons from the casino standing up on the turn, watching horses train in the morning, which they do quite often, and they witness a jockey whip a horse in the face like that, that makes our business look worse," Jensen said. Cont.

Asked directly by TDN if he dismounted from the horse and struck him, Leon said no.

"I came up to the seven-eighths pole [and] just put my stick up, and I started, like, holding the bridle, working with him," Leon said. "The outrider, she was saying I hit the horse in the face, that the horse had an [injured] eye, and I explained to the stewards the horse did not have any damage, that the horse was fine, and everything was okay. The horse is the type of horse that is a crazy horse. He's super hyper."

"I was frustrated, but I did not do things on purpose," Leon said. "I know it's something serious. I will pay the fine, because I know if I lose [an appeal], I don't want to get in trouble for something that I know that I did, but it wasn't on purpose to hurt the horse. I did it to take care of myself. I know with all the [new] rules that are going on, [an incident like this] can affect my career."

Jensen, in telling his version of events, also referenced the slew of new national anti-whip rules that are in effect. He said he can't square Leon getting fined only $100 for what happened when other jockeys who violate crop rules for being a few strikes over the in-race limit get hit with multi-day suspensions or fines that are much higher than that.

Jensen also gave an example of something that happened to him last year at Mountaineer: He got into a disagreement with the track superintendent and swore at him. He said he was asked to explain his actions before the same board of stewards and admitted that what he said was not appropriate.

"Now those were words," Jensen said. "How did I get a $400 fine for saying [expletive], but this guy gets a $100 fine for whipping a horse in the face?"

Jensen said he is well aware that speaking out against alleged horse abuse can have repercussions for those within the industry who choose to report it, especially at a small track like Mountaineer. He said there were others who witnessed Leon's actions on that morning but chose not to come forward, and that he understands their reasons for not doing so.

"But I'm okay with you putting my name on this," Jensen said. "I'm probably going to be dragged through the mud with the stewards. I foresee them dragging me in and giving me a hard time over this. But you know what? There's a difference between right and wrong, and I'm trying to stand up for the right right now."

LOOKIN AT LUCKY ACCOUNTS FOR TOP SELLERS ON PENULTIMATE DAY AT KEENELAND SEPTEMBER

by Alan Carasso

Coolmore's Lookin At Lucky was responsible for the top-selling colt and priciest filly as the Keeneland September Sale reached its second-last day of trade Friday afternoon in Lexington.

Robert Clay's Grandview Equine signed for a pair of seven-figure yearlings--colts by Into Mischief and Curlin--during the select Book 1 and 2 sessions early last week, and the operation remained focused on the task at hand all the way through Book 6, going to $120,000 for hip 3910. The Apr. 27 foal was consigned to the sale by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa, which acquired the stakes-winning Vast (Lea) for $210,000 with this colt in utero at the 2021 Keeneland November Sale. A half-sister to MSW & GSP Sower (Flutter), the chestnut colt hails from the family of stakes winners Cease (War Chant), Total (Forest Wildcat) and Mucho (Blame).

Hal and Patti Earnhardt, whose recognizable 'NO BULL' silks were carried aboard two-time Eclipse Award and five-time Grade I winner 'TDN Rising Star' Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), purchased the session's top filly, hip 3831, for $85,000. The Apr. 5 foal is out of the winning Roadbug (Quality Road), whose granddam Diplomat Lady (Forestry) won the 2005 GI Hollywood Starlet S. Hip 3831 was prepared for the sale by Eaton Sales.

The auction house reported sales on 187 yearlings Friday for gross receipts of $3,060,600, good for an average of $16,367 and median price of $11,000. Those numbers were down by 5.7% and 26.7%, respectively, from last year's figures.

With Saturday's 12th and final session remaining, 2,579 yearlings have sold for $391,710,300, down 2.8% from 2022.

The cumulative average of $151,885 was essentially static when compared to last year, while the median declined by 6.3% to $75,000.

PARX FEATURE MARKS LAST MAJOR DERBY OF THE YEAR By Margaret Ransom

For the connections of 11 3-year-olds, the GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx on Saturday represents a last-ditch effort to pick up an elusive Derby win and while it's not the Derby win most started out the year in search of, the $1-million purse, Grade I status and strong history of past winners makes it a coveted race to win nonetheless.

Since Hall of Famer Woody Stephens trained Smarten (Cyane) to earn the inaugural Pennsylvania Derby trophy in 1979, a number of good 3-year-olds have also emerged from the nine-furlong feature victorious, including GI Preakness S. winner Summer Squall (Storm Bird) in 1990 and 1987 Canadian Horse of the Year Afleet (Mr. Prospector), as well as Dixieland Band (Northern Dancer), Skip Trial (Bailjumper), Wallenda (Gulch), Macho Uno (Holy Bull), Harlan's Holiday (Harlan), Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song), Frosted (Tapit), West Coast (Flatter) and the recently retired Taiba (Gun Runner) a year ago. Cont.

In 1985, in what was one of the more memorable editions, GI Wood Memorial S. winner Broad Brush (Ack Ack), with Angel Cordero, Jr. aboard on a beyond-sloppy track, bolted toward the outside rail while on the lead past the quarter pole, gave up a dozen lengths into the top of the lane but made it all up in the stretch to win while racing closer to the outside rail than the inside rail.

Bayern (Offlee Wild) in 2014 and Macho Uno in 2000 are so far the only runners to complete the Pennsylvania Derby-Breeders' Cup Classic double. Will Take Charge in 2013 and West Coast in 2017 are so far the only two to be named the champion 3-year-old male after winning the Parx main event.

Bob Baffert has saddled four winners to lead all trainers and this year sends out Reincarnate (Good Magic) in his first start since capturing the Los Alamitos Derby 2 1/2 months ago. Regular rider Juan Hernandez will be at Parx to ride the colt, who drew the far outside post position, and is the slight morning line favorite at 3-1.

"We call him Moby Dick," Baffert said of the big gray colt. "He is a big, strong white horse; he has the same coloring as Moby Dick."

"I have always been very high on the horse. We have always liked him. He is the kind of horse that will run up near the lead and be forwardly placed."

Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) seeks an initial stakes score after a runner-up finish behind champion Forte (Violence) in the GII Jim Dandy S. last out at Saratoga two months ago. Brad Cox trains the colt, who was also second in the GIII Dwyer S. on July 1 at Belmont Park, for FMQ Stables.

"I love how he's doing," Cox said "We've been pointing for this ever since he ran second [in the Dwyer] at Belmont."

Todd Pletcher tightens the girth on a pair of Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable runners in Dreamlike (Gun Runner) and Crupi (Curlin).

Dreamlike was third in a very tight finish in the GI Wood Memorial S. as a maiden in the spring and graduated to winner status in July on Saratoga's opening weekend, but was then a disappointing fifth as the 4-5 favorite in a first-level allowance race at Saratoga a month later. Crupi was seventh in the GII Risen Star S. and ninth in the Wood as a maiden earlier this spring, but is riding a two-race win streak including his maiden and in allowance company at Monmouth Park and Saratoga, respectively.

"They're both training well," Pletcher said. "Dreamlike is coming off a little bit of a disappointing race, but he's always shown potential. Crupi is coming off a good effort. Considering those things, it's worth a swing."

Reincarnate | Benoit

LNJ Foxwoods's homebred Scotland (Good Magic) is coming off a disappointing sixth-place finish in the muddy GI Travers S. in his graded stakes debut after winning three of his first four starts, including the listed Curlin S. at Saratoga in July. Bill Mott trains the gelding, who will be ridden by Junior Alvarado again.

West Coast Cowboy (West Coast), from the first crop of his Pennsylvania Derby-winning sire, was briefly on the GI Kentucky Derby trail earlier this year, finishing third in the GII Holy Bull S. and seventh in the GI Florida

Derby. Saffie Joseph, Jr.'s 31-1 chance Math Wizard (Algorithms) upset this race in 2019, the now significantly accomplished trainer's very first graded stakes winner.

"[West Coast Cowboy] is a big, strong horse that seems to be improving," Joseph said. "He is not at the top level yet, but he seems to get better and better every time he runs."

"Sometimes you just have to take chances. Sometimes it works out, but most of the time it doesn't. You can't be afraid to run them in the race."

Pretty Mischievous Stars in History-Rich Cotillion

The GI Cotillion S., run every year except one since 1969, boasts some of the more notable sophomore filly names as past winners. The names of champions Shuvee (Nashua)--who won the inaugural running--Susan's Girl (Quadrangle), My Juliet (Gallant Romeo), Revidere (Reviewer), Ashado (Saint Ballado), Havre de Grace (Saint Liam), My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike), Untapable (Tapit), Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) and Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) are all listed in the history books.

'TDN Rising Star' and GI Kentucky Oaks winner Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) seeks a fourth straight Grade I win after taking the tragedy-marred GI Test S. at Saratoga last out. She also won the GII Rachel Alexandra S. at Fair Grounds back in February. Tyler Gaffalione will ride for trainer Brendan Walsh.

"I was looking at her record the other day and it's unbelievable," Walsh said of the Godolphin homebred. "It's a testament to her. Look, you have to have the ammunition, but it is a testament to her. I haven't had too many of them that have been able to keep it that consistent for that long. Generally, you hit some bump, or they'll back up, something. She's won seven of nine and the couple times she got beat she was second or third. It will be nice if we can pull it off again Saturday."

Pretty Mischievous | Sarah K. Andrew

Eight will try to take down the clear division leader, including California-bred shipper Ceiling Crusher (Mr. Big) from the Doug O'Neill barn. She is coming off a win in the GIII Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar three weeks ago and makes her first foray outside of the Golden State for the 1 1/16-mile main track affair.

"It is always a concern until you do it," O'Neill said. "I had the great Lava Man, who was so brilliant in California, but once you had to sleep in another hotel room and try to perform on the road, he just couldn't do it. In my expectations, she ranks as one of the top 3-year-old fillies, but, until you do it against the best, on the road, it's all just hot air."

Chad Brown will saddle GIII Monmouth Oaks winner Occult (Into Mischief) while Tom Amoss will sent out another good Into Mischief filly in the stakes-winning Hoosier Philly.

Pennsylvania Derby Undercard Loaded with Stakes

Three of the other 10 stakes on the Parx Saturday card are graded, including the GIII Turf Monster, which features the four-win streaking Roses For Debra (Liam's Map) for Christophe Clement in the five-furlong grass dash; GIII Brooklyn S. winner Next (Into Mischief) seeking a third straight stakes win in the grassy GII Greenwood Cup 1 1/2 -mile marathon; and the Steve Asmussen-trained GSW Ryvit (Competitive Edge) hoping to get back to winning in the GII Gallant Bob S. after a pair of disappointing fifth-place finishes in stakes company in his last two.

Dogwood Rounds Out Saturday Graded Stakes Action

Down further south at Churchill Downs, nine 3-year-old fillies will sprint the seven furlongs in the GIII Dogwood S. The lightly raced Yesternight (Midnight Storm) drew the rail and the role of 3-1 favorite after a second-place finish in the Cathryn Sophia S. at Parx in her black-type debut a month ago.

AQUEDUCT'S BELMONT AT THE BIG A CARD CANCELLED SATURDAY DUE TO WEATHER

Aqueduct | Sarah Andrew

Live racing has been cancelled Saturday at Aqueduct Racetrack as hazardous weather is forecasted for the area, the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) announced in a release late Friday afternoon. High winds and significant rainfall are expected in the New York metropolitan area and are expected to create inclement weather conditions on Saturday.

The National Weather Service (NWS) is calling for sustained high winds with gusts up to 40 MPH and heavy rainfall throughout the day. Saturday's race card for the Belmont at the Big A meet was scheduled to have 10 live races, including the GIII Noble Damsel S. at a mile on the turf for fillies and mares ages 3/up. That race, as well as the listed Ashley T. Cole S., will be brought back on Friday, Sept. 29 with entries to be taken on Sunday.

Aqueduct will remain open for simulcasting on Saturday, with live racing scheduled to resume Sunday at 1:05.p.m. ET.

OAKLAWN NAMES DINERMAN TRACK ANNOUNCER

Matt Dinerman | Vassar Photography

Oaklawn Jockey Club in Hot Springs named Matt Dinerman as the new track announcer for the upcoming Thoroughbred racing season, which begins Dec. 8, the organization said in a release early Friday morning.

Dinerman, 31, comes to Hot Springs following a six-year stint as the track announcer at Golden Gate Fields in Berkeley, California. He has also served as track announcer at the Sonoma County Fair meet in Santa Rosa, California, for the past two years.

"I'm honored to be selected for such a prestigious role, following in the footsteps of some very talented announcers," said Dinerman. "Oaklawn has tremendous racing with great field sizes, outstanding connections, top quality horses, and great purses. I look forward to my interaction with an enthusiastic and knowledgeable fan base and being part of the Oaklawn family."

A native of San Diego and graduate of Chapman University, Dinerman grew up attending races at Del Mar Thoroughbred Club near his home. While in high school, he worked as a stablehand for trainer John Sadler and later served as part of the Del Mar Publicity Department. In 2015, he was hired as the track announcer at Emerald Downs in Auburn, Washington, becoming one of the sport's youngest announcers.

Among his career high points, Dinerman points to his calling of the 2021 El Camino Real Derby at Golden Gate Fields, which was won by the eventual Preakness winner that year, Rombauer (Twirling Candy).

"We are excited to welcome Matt Dinerman to our racing team at Oaklawn," said Wayne Smith, General Manager of Oaklawn. "He brings a passion and high-energy style to the announcer's booth that builds anticipation at each turn and reaches an exciting climax down the stretch and across the finish line. Oaklawn fans will be entertained and informed by Matt's style."

Dinerman has also worked in racing media, having served as a television racing analyst, and as a blogger by posting race analysis, making selections, and offering wagering strategies.

ARCANGELO HAS FINAL WORK AT HOME BEFORE SHIPPING TO CALIFORNIA

Arcangelo and Javier Castellano | Sarah. K Andrew

Blue Rose Farm's GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. winner Arcangelo (Arrogate) breezed five furlongs in 1:03.25 and galloped out six furlongs in 1:13.13 over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga on Friday. Regular jockey Javier Castellano was aboard for the move, which was the gray colt's final work before shipping to California on Wednesday to begin final preparations for the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita.

"Everything was good," trainer Jena Antonucci said. "It was what we were looking for, it was just a maintenance work today. It's too soon for serious stuff. He had one previous breeze after [the Travers] and this one is just maintaining bottom-line fitness for him.

"I think it was important for Javier as well knowing our next move is out to California and that will make it harder for him. He and [exercise rider] Robert [Mallari] have a very good relationship and can communicate very well about how the horse is doing and feeling. I think it was good for everybody to let Javier get a good feel of him after the Travers and make sure he was happy with where everything is." Cont.

"He does continue to mature and take his work very seriously. I think he's enjoying it and having a lot of fun with everything. Our focus is that he maintains that mind set and is thriving in what we're asking of him.

"He's a tall drink of water and you can physically see he continues to put more body on and hasn't lost weight with the races. So he'll just continue to mature out as he's supposed to do."

KEENELAND ADDS BANK OF AMERICA AS VALLEY VIEW, ART AUCTION PREVIEW BRUNCH SPONSOR

Keeneland welcomed back Bank of America as the sponsor of the GIII Valley View S., which is set for Friday, Oct. 27, and the financial institution also becomes the presenting sponsor of the Preview Brunch that will precede the 11th Sporting Art Auction at Keeneland's Sales Pavilion on Saturday, Nov. 18, the organization said in a release Friday.

"Keeneland is delighted that Bank of America has joined our roster of corporate sponsors, who participate in a variety of events and activities here and play an important role in our success," Keeneland Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Christa Marrillia said. "We thank Bank of America for their commitment to this community and the Thoroughbred industry and look forward to celebrating our new relationship."

The Bank of America Preview Brunch begins at 10 a.m. and is for attendees of the Sporting Art Auction slated for noon.

"Keeneland is an iconic organization well-known for its high standards in the Thoroughbred industry not only in Lexington but also throughout the world," said John L. Gardner, President Bank of America Kentucky. "Bank of America is honored to support Keeneland in these prestigious events, which also support our community as we expand and grow in Kentucky."

OMAHA BEACH FILLY DEBUTS AROUND TWO TURNS OVER TURF

1st-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 6:00 p.m.

WITHOUT CAUSE (Omaha Beach) tackles two turns over the turf in this debut run. Dam Without (Tiznow), out of MGSW Mary's Follies (More Than Ready), is a half-sister to GIII Transylvania S. victor Night Prowler (Giant's Causeway), champion female turf horse Regal Glory (Animal Kingdom) and Japanese champion dirt horse Cafe Pharoah (American Pharoah). Trained by Mark Casse, the $180,000 Keeneland September Yearling sale graduate will have Adam Beschizza in the saddle.

Also out for her first test is Bridewood Farm homebred Moshine (Uncle Mo), a Brendan Walsh trainee slated to be ridden by Declan Cannon. The bay filly is out of GI Chandelier S. heroine Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon)--a half to the dam of MGSW Souper Hoity Toity (Uncle Mo)--who was purchased for $3.4 million by West Bloodstock in foal to Into Mischief at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale. The resulting filly went for $475,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale to North Hills Co. Moshine hails from an extended female family under her third dam which includes Horse of the Year Favorite Trick (Phone Trick) and his half-sister's MGSW son, Favorite Tale (Tale of the Cat). TJCS PPS

Runaway Rumour | Susie Raisher

Larry Goichman homebred Runaway Rumour avenged her narrow third-place effort in the 2022 John Hettinger S. with a hard-fought victory Friday at Aqueduct.

A tugging fourth passing under the line for the first time, the bay improved one position while still keen down the back as Whatlovelookslike took them along at a slow pace. Up into second racing into the second turn, Runaway Rumour was asked to sprint in upper stretch by Jose Lezcano and outfinished the rail-rallying Spungie--and withstood an inquiry--for the victory.

"We've been waiting awhile," said noted New York breeder Goichman. "The track was perfect, the distance was perfect, the ride was perfect, the inquiry was not so perfect, but it was pretty fun. You could see on the backstretch that she was wanting to go. Jose didn't fight with her, he just said 'You want to go? Let's go.'"

A stakes winner and twice graded-placed at two, Runaway Rumour was beaten 3/4 of a length into third in this event before atoning with a season-ending victory in the Oct. 30 Ticonderoga S. Third in the Apr. 16 Plenty of Grace S. against open rivals, Runaway Rumour made her last four starts for Horacio de Paz, finishing a latest third to New Ginya (Tonalist) and Spungie in the Yaddo H. at Saratoga Aug. 27. She was having her first start for Linda Rice Friday. Goichman indicated that the winner would have her final career start in defense of the Ticonderoga Oct. 29.

"It's always hard to replace a horse that always gives you her best. She's been a nice girl to be around," he said.

Elusive Rumour, a half-sister to fellow stakes-winning homebred Beebe Lake (Grand Slam), is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly She Is All Business (Oscar Performance), a weanling Constitution filly and was covered by Mandaloun this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

The winner is his dam's first progeny. She has also produced the 2-year-old colt and 'TDN Rising Star' Agate Road (Quality Road), an impressive maiden winner at Saratoga this summer. Her Quality Road yearling filly sold for $650,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale to Live Oak Plantation. Yellow Agate was bred once again to Quality Road for next year. GASOLINE (g, 4, Curlin--Yellow Agate {GISW, $291,503}, by Gemologist) was last seen in action last winter at Aqueduct, winning an allowance Jan. 5 and finishing third in an optional claimer Feb. 19. Off at 5-1 here, the chestnut gelding raced in between runners in the second flight into the first turn and built up a head of steam heading into the far turn. Gasoline challenged for the lead at the top of the stretch, and, after briefly changing to his left lead down the lane, rallied nicely to defeat Decision Maker (Court Vision) by a neck in a wild finish.

filly was sent off as a 7-1 shot here. She sat just off the speed up the backstretch, split horses around the far turn and seized the lead at the eighth pole. High Class held on to win by a neck over The Great Maybe (Upstart). Out of an extended female family which includes GI Santa Anita H. hero Combatant (Scat Daddy), High Class has a yearling half-brother by Extreme Choice (Aus). Saratoga, then promptly went to the sidelines. Beginning his 3-year-old campaign with a second-place finish sprinting over the dirt in the early spring at Fair Grounds, the Al Stall trainee was a well-beaten seventh in the William Walker S. over the turf at Churchill Downs May 13 before finishing in the same spot three weeks later against optional claimers on the main track. Now racing as a gelding and off at odds of 3-1, the dark bay battled favorite Easy Action (Speightstown) up the backstretch, continued the match around the far turn and finally got the better of his rival by a neck. The winner is his dam's first produce of record, but he does have a filly half-sister by Runhappy who was foaled Feb. 27. His dam was bred to Candy Ride (Arg) for 2024. UPHILL DANCE (f, 2, Tonalist--Stormy Below, by Stormy Atlantic) graduated at first asking in a maiden optional claimer Aug. 5 in Toronto. Racing with Lasix for the first time here as a 5-2 shot, the dark bay filly was hard held in fifth up the backstretch, but let loose around the far turn. The hooded filly finally separated herself from the leaders at the sixteenth pole and won by four lengths over favorite Two Ghosts (Ghostzapper). POST TIME (c, 3, Frosted--Vielsalm {SW & GSP, $329,285}, by Fairbanks) was perfect in all three of his races at Laurel Park as a juvenile with his final win coming in the Maryland Juvenile S. in early December. Back after the long layoff and racing with Lasix for the first time here, the 3-5 choice trailed the field up the backstretch. He began to make his move around the far turn, and, despite being bumped at the eighth pole, cruised home under a hand ride to win by 4 1/2 lengths over Top Boss (Khozan). The winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly named Field Song (McKinzie) and she visited Nyquist for next year. "We know this is a nice horse. We gave him time and did the right thing," winning trainer Brittany T. Russell said. "You think you have him ready to go and he has some little quirks about him, so it's a relief to see that, mentally, he was an absolute star. I felt like he traveled nice. R HARPER ROSE (f, 2, Khozan--True Bliss, by Yes It's True), a front-running, runaway debut winner in the mud here Aug. 5, was favored at 1-2 to stay perfect. She shot out to the front, led through fractions of :22.26 and :45.34 and wasn't for catching once again. It was 5 3/4 lengths back to Star of Saturn (The Big Beast) in second. The winner's dam had a filly by Leinster in 2023. R Harper Rose was a strong morning-line favorite for the $100,000 Desert Vixen S., the first leg of the FTBOA Florida Sire Stakes series Sept. 9, only to be scratched due to a minor fever. "She's a special horse. She has a chance to be the best I've ever owned," longtime South Florida owner Rich Averill said. "As a 2-year-old, she's definitely the best that I've ever had up to this point." R Harper Rose will be pointed toward the $200,000 Susan's Girl S., the seven-furlong second leg of the FTBOA Florida Sire S. series Oct. 21. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring.
Here are the horses of interest for Sunday running at Hanshin and Nakayama Racecourses:*

4th-HSN, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m SONIC STAR (c, 2, Into Mischief--Carolina Bertie, by Speightstown) is the first foal from his unraced dam, a half-

Gran Orca as a yearling | Courtesy Dixiana Farm sister to three-time Grade I winner Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid), who has been represented by 36 winners from his two crops to race in Japan. A $300,000 purchase by Katsumi Yoshida at Keeneland September last year, the Feb. 5 foal hails from the family of MGSWs Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot) and Allamerican

Bertie (Quiet American). Yuga Kawada has the call. *B-Nancy C
Shuford (KY)*

DOBBIACO (c, 2, Street Boss--Rubindy, by Bernardini) fetched just $25,000 as a KEESEP yearling, but improved dramatically and was hammered down for $450,000 at OBS March after breeding a furlong in :10 flat. There is pedigree to boot, as Rubindy is a half-sister to GSW Mo Tom (Uncle Mo); SW/MGISP
Beautician (Dehere); MGSW Red Ruby (Tiznow); and SW Bella
Castani (Big Brown). B-Bonne Chance Farm LLC (KY)

4th-NKY, ¥13,720,000 ($93k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200m

GRAN ORCA (c, 2, Liam's Map--Layla, by Union Rags) was the joint most-expensive of his sire's 58 yearlings sold (75 ring) in 2022 when hammering to TN Racing for $625,000 at Keeneland September 12 months ago. The dark bay's dam, an impressive maiden winner at first asking over six furlongs, is a full-sister to GI Santa Anita H. winner Express Train, who graduated by better than 14 lengths in his second career start. Third dam November
Snow (Storm Cat) won the 1992 GI Alabama S. B-Dixiana Farms LLC (KY)

HISTORIAI (c, 2, Liam's Map--Cara Bella, by Ghostzapper) sold to Katsumi Yoshida for $525,000 at Keeneland September last year, the third-priciest yearling by his sire. A half-brother to GISW Silent Poet (Silent Name {Jpn}), the Mar. 31 foal is out of a half-sister to 2000 GI Preakness S. winner Red Bullet (Unbridled) and SW Millennium Allstar (Meadowlake). Stone Farm acquired the unraced Cara Bella for $60,000 in foal to Silent Name at Keeneland November in 2017. B-Stone Farm (KY)

O'BRIEN RELIES ON "CLASSY" CHERRY BLOSSOM TO PLUNDER GOFFS MILLION RICHES

Cherry Blossom | Racingfotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

Aidan O'Brien has set his sights on winning the Goffs Million at the Curragh for the first time on Saturday and says that Cherry Blossom (Ire), who has Group 1 targets later this season, could be just the answer in the lucrative contest.

Bred by Barronstown Stud, the daughter of No Nay Never was a €360,000 buy at the Goffs Orby 12 months ago by MV Magnier. Cherry Blossom broke her maiden at the second time of asking over six furlongs at the Curragh before running second to Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the G2 Lowther S. and O'Brien is hopeful of a big performance provided she handles the step up to seven furlongs. O'BRIEN PREPARES BERESFORD ASSAULT

by Tom Frary

It is the time of year when ideas begin to form about the following season's Classics and with Derbys in mind, Saturday's G2 Alan Smurfit Memorial Beresford S. at The Curragh offers food for thought. Aidan O'Brien's record in this mile staging post is plain remarkable, even by his standards, with a tally of 21 winners including St Nicholas Abbey (Ire), Saxon Warrior (Jpn), Japan (GB) and Luxembourg (Ire) and the fact that he has a trio engaged in the race he missed out in 12 months ago for the first time since 2010 suggests he is looking to resume normal procedure.

With Ryan Moore in Australia, Frankie Dettori flies in to partner Navy Seal (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a son of Athena (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and full-brother to Never Ending Story (Ire) who put a debut fifth at Killarney behind him when scoring over an extended mile on heavy ground at the Galway festival in August. Colin Keane rides Grosvenor Square (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a half-brother to Santiago (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) who also won over that same course and distance this month, while the mile Leopardstown maiden winner Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is the mount of Gavin Ryan.

"Chief Little Rock came forward nicely to win at Leopardstown but he only just won, we thought he'd win easier than he did," O'Brien said. "He's in good form and we think he's a horse who is going to progress more. He's got a stout pedigree and will be staying well next year." Cont., p3

He said, "We're very happy with Cherry Blossom. She was a little bit green going to York, which we thought she might be, and Ryan [Moore] thought that she would come forward from that run."

O'Brien added, "She has been very well since but we are not sure about the seven furlongs for her. We still think it's worth letting her take her chance. She is a classy filly."

"Originally, we were going to go straight to the Cheveley Park with her but, because of the huge value of this race, we said we'd take our chance. Credit to Goffs for putting a race of this value on."

Cherry Blossom will be partnered by Frankie Dettori for the first time and heads the betting for the 23-runner contest. The Goffs Million returned to the calendar 12 months ago and went to export with the Charlie Hills-trained (Ire) (Camacho {GB}), who cost just €45,000 at the Orby the previous year, landing the spoils.

Goffs chief Henry Beeby spoke to the Nick Luck Daily Podcast on the eve of the Million about all things Orby and the different bonuses the sales company has introduced this year.

He explained, "The Goffs Million is Europe's richest two-year-old race and was won by the Charlie Hills-trained Galleron last year amid much excitement. The race was worth €1,234,000 last year and tomorrow it will be worth

€1,232,000, so that's €660,000 to the winner."

Beeby added, "We've now introduced the Goffs €2 million series so the yearlings sold next week will be qualified for the Goffs Million and the Goffs 500 and the Goffs €50,000 Bonus Series, which means we will have a series of two-year-old maidens from the start of the season right up to Million day and a total of 10 €50,000 bonuses can be won if those two-year-old winners come from the Orby Sale next week. We have converted the Orby Sale and the Sportsman's into Orby Book 1 and 2 so about 1,000 yearlings will qualify."

The Orby Sale kicks off on Tuesday and O'Brien confirmed that he will be one of the many key industry figures to attend the highly-anticipated sale.

He said, "I'll be at Goffs next week. I go to all of the yearling sales and always have done. We've got some great horses from Goffs and we're looking forward to it."

"He's another with plenty of stamina in his pedigree. Frankie is riding Navy Seal for us. He won nicely at Galway the last day, but he was a little but green. He ended up winning nicely at the end and we think he's ready to go again. The first day we were a bit disappointed, we expected him to run better but he was very green. He was still green the last day, so we're just hoping that he keeps coming forward."

Joseph O'Brien attempts to stem the tide of Ballydoyle winners in this with Teme Valley Racing's Stromberg (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), who steps up from seven furlongs for the first time having a Galway maiden and Roscommon conditions race by a total of 17 lengths, while Vimal Khosla's Deepone (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}) brings the form of the Leopardstown's G2 Champions Juvenile S. into focus having been four-lengths fourth behind Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel (GB)).

Mister Sketch In Mill Reef Test...

Newbury's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef S. is the other juvenile feature on Saturday, with speed as the contrast for the six-furlong feature of the card. Wathnan Racing's acquisition Mister Sketch (GB) (Territories {Ire}) won by 9 1/2 lengths over this trip at Salisbury last month and trainer Eve Johnson Houghton is hoping he can cope with this easy ground. "It's not ideal ground for him, but it's the same for everyone and I think he'll run a big race," she said. "He's a lovely, strong horse, so I hope he'll be able to handle the ground."

This renewal is dominated by those who have danced a few dances already and with conditions demanding toughness, that could play into the hands of the G3 Sirenia S. second and third Seven Questions (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Array (Ire) (No Nay Never). The latter is a relative of Frankel (GB), so this is a big opportunity for the Juddmonte homebred.

"I think the ground won't be an issue for him, Andrew [Balding] always felt he'd go with a bit of ease in the ground and obviously he ran well at Goodwood on desperate ground," Barry Mahon said. "He's a nice horse who probably hasn't been the luckiest, but he looked good winning his maiden and he's shown a good level of form to partake in such a race."

Sense Of Duty Returns...

In the five-furlong G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy at Newbury, St Albans Bloodstock's exciting filly Sense Of Duty (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) is back in action having been absent since her impressive 4 1/2-length success in Newcastle's G3 Chipchase S. last June. This looks an ideal starting point for the William Haggas-trained 4-year-old, who has a class edge over her four rivals if retaining her ability.

"She's never run over five furlongs, but she has to run somewhere with as big a gap as possible between Champions

CACHET TO BE OFFERED AT TATTERSALLS DECEMBER MARES SALE

Cachet | Tattersalls

Highclere T'bred Racing--Wild Flower's G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas winner Cachet (Ire) (Acclaim {Ire}) will be offered for sale at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale in the second edition of the Sceptre Sessions on Monday, Dec. 4 and Tuesday, Dec. 5. Trained by George Boughey, the 4-year-old filly is intended to run in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket on Oct. 7.

As a 3-year-old the Classic winner won the G3 Nell Gwyn S. on her first start at three and was also top class at two and was also second in the G1 Fillies' Mile. In her only start this year at four, she was fourth in last week's JRA Sceptre Fillies S. at Doncaster.

"Cachet became Highclere's first domestic Classic winner when winning the QIPCO 1,000 Guineas last year," Highclere Racing's Harry Herbert commented.

"She provided her 20 share owners with the absolute thrill of a lifetime at Newmarket and many will be there to see her sold at Tattersalls in December. Brilliantly bought by Jake Warren and trained to perfection by George Boughey, she is a stunningly beautiful filly with great presence."

The Tattersalls December Mares Sale takes place Dec. 4-7 and the Sceptre Sessions for Elite Fillies and Broodmares is set for Dec. 4-5.

BLOOM, MCLOUGHLIN JOIN TATTERSALLS; MCKIBBIN PROMOTED

Jack Bloom and Max McLoughlin | Tattersalls

Tattersalls has brought on two new bloodstock executives as Jack Bloom and Max McLoughlin join the auction house. Freddie McKibbin, who started four years prior as an intern before moving to the more recent role of bloodstock administrator, has been promoted within the bloodstock sales department and will see his responsibilities grow to now include coordination of the Tattersalls December sale.

Bloom graduated from the Royal Agricultural University and spent time working at Newsells Park Stud as well as for Godolphin at Kildangan Stud. He moved to the stallion nominations team at Dalham Hall Stud for the past three years. McLoughlin graduated from Durham University before participating in the TBA's inaugural Entry to Stud Employment Programme at The National Stud. He was later placed at Cheveley Park Stud which led to a full-time position as management assistant for the past four and a half years.

"Freddie's role has recently evolved with new responsibilities, and we look forward to broadening the scope of his work going forwards, whilst new additions Jack and Max will both be major assets to the team, particularly as we enter the autumn sales season," said Gavin Davies, Tattersalls Sales Director.

Consigned by Barton Sales as lot 15, Jack Darcy, the G3 Glorious S. runner-up, is out of a half-sister to Group 1 winners Elmaamul (Diesis {GB}) and Reams of Verse (Nureyev). This is the close family of champion, six-time Group 1 heroine Middyay (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

Freville, lot 25, conditioned by Christopher Head, found success in the G3 Prix d'Aumale at ParisLongchamp in early September and the juvenile filly hails from the female family of Linamix (Fr) (Mendez {Fr}). She will be offered with her entry in the G1 Prix Marcel Bousac-Criterium des Pouliches, where she is considered one of the favorites for the contest.

One of only two older fillies or mares in the line-up and the only one with a chance on form, Pink Crystal defied the 3-year-old generation to make amends for a second to Gale Force Maya (GB) (Gale Force Ten {GB}) in this 12 months ago. Subsequently third in the Listed Boadicea S. at Newmarket in October and fourth in York's G3 Summer S. on the latest of two outings this term in July, the homebred had no Gale Force Maya to worry about after that rival was withdrawn and with conditions and race set-up ideal was able to gain that black-type win that she was brought back into training for. Detached in last initially with the pace too hot up front, she grafted her way into contention and saved the best for last as she swamped her rivals inside the final 150 yards.

Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum's assistant racing manager Philip Robinson said, "The plan today was to sit quite close to the pace, but she was struggling with the ground early on then she came home very strongly and I was very impressed with her. She's a very tough filly, she loves her racing and she's a very good competitor."

The winner is the first foal and only runner to date out of the Listed Radley S. scorer Cristal Fizz, who is kin to the useful G3 Tattersalls Somerville S.-placed Persuasion (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). From the family of the Acclamation's dual G3 Greenlands S. winner and G1 July Cup-placed Hitchens (Ire), she also has a yearling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB) and a filly foal by Dark Angel (Ire).

Downing the hot favourite and G1 Sussex S. fourth Aldaary, Popmaster was making his belated black-type debut here after a string of creditable efforts in tough handicaps. Second in last year's Wokingham at Royal Ascot, the grey had enjoyed this trip of late and had failed by just a neck to give the prolific 3-year-old Quinault (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}) eight pounds at Ascot earlier this month. Always happy on the easy surface, the grey travelled strongly under cover before being produced by Ross Coakley to readily upstage the Shadwell representative inside the final furlong.

"What an absolute legend of a horse he is," trainer Ed Walker said. "We ran him because other than the favourite, there was nothing to be scared of so we had a crack and he's done it well. He's so versatile. We've always felt that he needs everything to fall right and Ross gave him a peach today, he's always got on really well with him and he deserved to win on him. I think we'll have to run him in the Challenge Cup [Handicap]. He could run in the [G3] Bengough, but the Challenge is worth so much money we almost have to go for it and he loves Ascot."

Beautiful Diamond, an impressive debut winner at Nottingham in June, hit the board in Royal Ascot's June 21 G2 Queen Mary S. and went postward for this straight dash coming back off a close-up fifth in last month's G2 Lowther S. at York. On the lead after a swift getaway, the odds-on favourite was allowed an inch of rein passing the quarter-mile marker and maintained a high tempo under a late drive to withstand the threat of G3 Molecomb S. and Listed Roses S. runner-up Purosangue (GB) (Aclaim {Ire}) by a length.

"She deserved that and I was very pleased with her," reflected owner's representative Philip Robinson. "She was third in the Queen Mary and didn't get home at York over six furlongs, so five furlongs today was perfect. She's very quick and that seems to be her game. I don't rule out six furlongs in the future on faster ground, maybe next year, but at the moment she's showing more and more speed. She doesn't just look like a 2-year-old and she's the type of filly that may progress from two to three as she has a bit of scope about her."

Beautiful Diamond is the second foal and multiple scorer out of a half-sister to the stakes-placed duo Sabre (GB) (Mayson {GB}) and Wave Aside (GB) (Reset {Aus}). Her second dam Crinkle (Ire) (Distant Relative {Ire}) is an unraced half-sister to G2 Richmond S. third Cedarberg (UAE) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and to the dam of dual stakes-winning G3 Gallinule S. runner-up Lisvale (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). The February-foaled grey, half to a yearling filly by Due Diligence and a weanling colt by Ubettabelieveit (Ire), hails from the family of three-time Group 3 winner and dual Group 1-placed sire Desert Style (GB) (Green Desert).

BRACKEN'S LAUGH (IRE) (c, 2, Zoffany {Ire}--Guardia {Ger} {SP-Ger}, by Monsun {Ger}), sent off at 11-2 tackling winners in this storied Haynes, Hanson & Clark S., travelled smoothly off the early pace. Staying on strongly to gain the advantage in the last half furlong, he hit the line a head in front of King's Gambit (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) with stablemate Palace Green (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) finishing loose having unshipped his rider coming out of the stalls. Trainer Richard Hughes said, "Finley [Marsh] gave him a great ride. I said to him to be the last one off the bridle, as he's a big, weak horse but very talented. I haven't told the owner, but in the back of my mind I'm thinking of those races in Saint-Cloud, there's one over a mile and one over 10 furlongs [the G1 Criterium International and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud]. I knew he could win a maiden, but I wanted to see if he would win a proper race and he's done that today. He's every right to go into a group one now." The listed-placed dam had produced one black-type performer so far in the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen and G3 Ittlingen Derby Trial-placed Guiri (Ger) (Motivator {GB}).

Slipstreaming the leader in third through halfway here, the 8-11 favourite tanked forward on the bridle to lead hard held passing the furlong pole and lengthened clear under mild urging to defeat Hiya Honey (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by an impressive 3 1/2 lengths, becoming the 38th winner for her freshman sire (by Shamardal). "We've always thought a lot of her, she was a little bit keen the last day and just got tired," commented Richard Hannon. "We didn't go to [Royal] Ascot with her, she's a big filly for next year. She won like we hoped she would, she didn't mind the [soft] ground and hopefully she'll come back [next year] for the [G3] Fred Darling. Soon accepting a lead, the 13-8 favourite was sent back to the head of affairs approaching the furlong pole and drew away in style to score impressively by 2 1/2 lengths from Flag Carrier (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). "He was a bit green and off the bridle on his debut, but was a lot more professional today," jockey Jack Mitchell explained. "I like the way he put the race to bed and he was pricking his ears at the end. He's a good-moving horse and seemed to appreciate that surface." Quickstep snagged a Dec. 16 debutantes' heat at Deauville, her lone juvenile outing, but endured a nightmare trip when fourth on the turf back at that venue in the Apr. 6 G3 Prix Imprudence next time. She regained the winning thread in a hot conditions test over one mile at ParisLongchamp, also in April, and had been on sabbatical after fading late to finish eighth back there in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches last time.

Steadied to settle off the tempo in rear until turning for home, the 21-5 chance made smooth progress in the straight to join the front rank with 350 metres remaining and kept on strongly under late urging, comfortably holding British raider Orchid Bloom (GB) (Farhh {GB}) by a short-neck for a career high.

"We came here today with the ambition of seeing her run a good race after such a lengthy break," explained Godolphin's Louise Benard. "We hoped she'd run well, even if she was unable to win, but we liked what we saw and she deserved it after being so unlucky in running this spring. This allows us to have a look at the programme and formulate a new plan for her."

Quickstep is the seventh of eight foals and one of six scorers from as many runners produced by a half-sister to four black-type performers out of G3 Prix d'Arenberg victrix and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches second Toupie (GB) (Intikhab).

Puchkine is the fourth of five foals and one of two scorers produced by an unraced half-sister to Listed Diana-Trial victrix Romina Power (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). The April-foaled homebred bay, whose second dam is MGSP dual Listed Premio Royal Mares winner Rockatella (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), is a half-brother to Listed Prix Amandine third Slevka (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Fas (Ire). Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, €25,000. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Alain Jathiere (FR); T-Jean-Claude Rouget.

ALABAMA (IRE) (c, 2, No Nay Never--Dream The Blues {Ire}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), a half-brother to the G1 Phoenix S. and G2
 Norfolk S.-winning sire Sioux Nation by No Nay Never's sire Scat
 Daddy who had been mentioned so favourably in dispatches from Ballydoyle in the spring, had been second in the Listed Tipperary S. and Listed Curragh S. but badly needed a confidence boost here. Sent forward to race close to the early pace by Colin Keane, the 4-9 favourite had control approaching the furlong pole and stayed on to score by 3/4 of a length from Emerald Banner (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). "With his rating and his runs, he was entitled to do that but I'd say that surface and going round the bend really helped him over that trip," Keane said. "He enjoyed that surface. He's a real good, low-actioned horse."

The dam, whose son of Wootton Bassett (GB) failed to sell at €475,000 at the recent Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale, is a daughter of the G3 Ballyogan S. winner and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup third Catch The Blues (Ire) (Bluebird). Lifetime Record: MSP-
