

NEXT DESERVES A SHOT IN BREEDERS' CUP CLASSIC

Next | Sarah Andrew

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

There will no doubt be a tendency to dismiss Next (Not This Time) as a novelty act, even after his 25-length romp in Saturday's GIII Greenwood Cup on a sloppy, dreary day at Parx. That comes with the territory when your speciality is marathon-distance races of 12 furlongs or more. But to do so would be a mistake.

While it's true that he does not face the best of competition in these races, Next is obviously a seriously talented race horse. You have to be to win a graded stakes race by 25 lengths--no matter the distance or the level of competition.

Next was claimed for $62,500 by trainer Doug Cowans out of a seven-furlong race in April of last year, but the story really begins five months later. Cowans was running him on the turf, but stayed in when the Cape Henlopen S. at Delaware Park was rained off the grass and run at 12 furlongs on the dirt. He won by 18 1/4 lengths. Then it was the GII Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance S. at Keeneland, which he won by 6 1/4 lengths. He didn't run his race in his 2023 debut when third in the Isaac Murphy Marathon Overnight S. at Churchill Downs, but has been nothing short of sensational since. He won the GII Brooklyn S. by 2 1/4 lengths and then the Birdstone by 11 3/4. Then he turns the Greenwood Cup into a laugher.

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS OF THE BREEDERS' CUP WITH 40 WINNERS

This year will mark the 40th anniversary of the Breeders' Cup, an annual event also known as the World Thoroughbred Championships. There is no denying the Breeders' Cup has become far more than a year-end championship. It has sculpted our modern sport and left an indelible mark. Whether an equine winner or one of the human connections, having that Breeders' Cup-winning score is more than just a victory; it's a life-long badge of honor and proof one has made it to the highest echelon of the sport.

As a special tribute in celebration of the 40th running of the Breeders' Cup, the TDN's Sarah Andrew photographed some of the living legends who earned a Breeders' Cup trophy. In each of the 40 days leading up to the 2023 edition, the TDN will share a daily photo by Sarah and an update by Jill Williams. Throughout the series, we will also share features and a video celebrating some of the more than 350 cumulative winners. Cont. p4

The Week in Review (cont. from p1)

Yes, comparing him to the top horses in training is somewhat a matter of apples-to-oranges, but the Beyer numbers indicate that he's fast enough. He got a 104 Beyer Saturday and has twice run a 105, in the Thoroughbred After Care Alliance and in the Birdstone. Arcangelo (Arrogate), who could be the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, ran his top number in the GI Travers S., where he got a 105.

But Next's connections remain committed to a schedule that includes only more of the same. When asked after the Greenwood Cup if they might try to drop back in distance and try tougher competition, Cowans said that wasn't the plan.

"It has not been a thought process up to this point," he said. "At the beginning of the year there was a five-race plan for this horse and we have made every one. Lucky enough, he has stayed sound and healthy and has made every race."

He said the plan is to run again in the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, which will be run this year at Santa Anita.

That certainly makes sense and you can't really fault Cowans and owner Michael Foster to sticking to what has worked so well since the Cape Henlopen. With $915,672 in career earnings he is closing in on the $1-million mark. Not bad for a horse who was claimed for $62,500.

But what if? Could Next duplicate his form in a mile-and-a-quarter race? Is that type of race, just two furlongs shorter, really that different than what he's been running in? It's certainly not out of the question that he could be competitive in some of these races, maybe even in the Classic. Even if he were to run second or third, that would be a huge accomplishment, result in a payday much bigger than anything available to him in the marathon races and open up all sorts of doors. A 5-year-old gelding, if he stays sound he has a lot of racing in front of him.

So why not run in the Classic? There is absolutely nothing to lose, especially when you consider that the alternative, the Thoroughbred After Care Alliance, is worth only $250,000. If he doesn't run well, you can always go back to Plan A.

"We've got a hell of a horse," Foster said.

He's right. They do. Now let him go out and prove it--in the Classic.

Parx Stewards Need to Come Down Hard on Paco

The other story in the Greenwood Cup was Paco Lopez's ride aboard Ridin With Biden (Constitution), who finished third as the 7-2 second choice. He chased Next for the first nine furlongs or so and was obviously going to lose and lose by a wide margin. But it looked like the horse was going to be second and easily so as he was eight lengths clear of everyone else in the field at the eighth pole. But in the final 40 yards or so, Lopez just gave up.

Here's how the Equibase chart caller saw it: "RIDIN WITH BIDEN prompted the winner to midway on the final turn, proved no match then was eased in the final stages costing the place."

That's exactly what happened as Ridin With Biden wound up finishing third, beaten a nose by 84-1 shot My Imagination (Lea). The difference between the place and show money was $19,000. Then, of course there's all the money that went down the drain in the exactas, where the Next-Ridin With Biden combo was the favorite. The irony is that Lopez is often accused of being too aggressive.

Maybe he thought he had the place position wrapped up, but that's no excuse. His job was to ride the horse out to the wire and he didn't. The Parx stewards shouldn't take this lightly. An appropriate suspension and fine is called for. Send a message.

Turf Paradise's Demise

It's sad, but hardly surprising to see that Turf Paradise will not re-open. The sport keeps losing racetracks and now will no longer have a track in another major market. With a population of 1.6 million, Phoenix is the fifth biggest city in the U.S.

But this is also a story of how casino gaming has changed the sport. I don't know what the bottom line details were at Turf Paradise, but trying to make a racetrack go without help from casino revenue is a battle that few tracks can win. That's especially true at a place like Turf Paradise, where the handle is small. And there was nothing on the horizon in Arizona in the way of the track getting help from Historical Horse Racing Machines (HHR) or anything else.

It's no coincidence that the other track about to close, Golden Gate Fields, was also trying to get by without help from a casino, slots or HHR. The list of places where there is an operating racetrack that gets nothing in the way of casino revenues or a subsidy from the government has dwindled to just a handful. Of all the U.S. tracks racing over the weekend, Los Alamitos was the only one. Even Monmouth, which has been fighting a losing battle against the Atlantic City casinos for decades, gets $10 million a year from the state to fatten the purse account.

STORM SONG, THE OLDEST LIVING BREEDERS' CUP WINNER

Celebrating 40 Years of the Breeders' Cup with Living Legends

Photos by Sarah Andrew; story by Jill Williams

Some moments last a lifetime. Breeders' Cup wins are like that. They affect everyone associated with the horse, from owners whose silks the horse sports in the race to breeders to consignors to grooms to farriers and so many others. They even touch those many years down the road, such as those who care for the winner more than a quarter century removed from that magical winner's circle and those signature purple and gold flowers. It is, without a doubt, a privilege to have any association at all with a Breeders' Cup winner.

Dr. Naoya Yoshida of Winchester Farm embraces that honor. He has charge of 1996 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Storm Song, believed to be the Breeders' Cup's oldest living winner. The 29-year-old mare has been at his Winchester Farm near Lexington since Dr. Aaron Sones purchased her in 2009.

"We were quite excited to welcome her to our farm," said Yoshida. "Of course we feel pretty privileged to have these kind of mares."

WATCH STORM SONG'S 1996 JUVENILE FILLIES WIN

40 YEARS OF CHAMPIONS

The rich heritage of the Breeders' Cup is woven into horse racing's history. Thirty-nine years and more than 360 champions later, the world-class festival of racing has transcended the sport itself.

JOIN US IN CELEBRATING THE 40TH RUNNING ON NOV 3 & 4

To celebrate the 40th running of the Breeders' Cup, the TDN will share a photo and catch up with a past winner in each of the 40 days leading up to the event. Today, we have 1996 Juvenile Fillies winner Storm Song, believed to be the oldest living Breeders' Cup winner. | Sarah Andrew Yoshida is a veterinarian and fourth-generation horseman whose family ties to the Thoroughbred industry date back 125 years to his great-grandfather, who bred horses in the U.S. and Europe.

"It's amazing when we work in the Thoroughbred industry, we have this history. I remembered this mare when she was sold at Keeneland November as broodmare prospect [in 1997]. I was training at Hagyard and saw her and never thought I would take care of her in the future. After that I saw her name with a breeding to Dubai Millennium (GB). I used to work for Sheikh Mohammed and saw him try to buy those mares. And the next time I saw her name, she came here [to Winchester Farm]. I feel like it was destiny."

Now pensioned after producing six foals during her tenure at Winchester, Storm Song was campaigned by pioneering racing syndicate Dogwood Stable. Dogwood's Cot Campbell, who was a master at finding horses that might have slipped just a little bit through the cracks, bought Storm Song from Lane's End's Book 1 consignment at Keeneland September for $100,000 in 1995. She turned out to be one of the brightest stars to carry the distinctive Dogwood Stable colors, behind her own sire, Dogwood's GI Preakness S. winner Summer Squall. Dogwood had Storm Song for just over two years, selling her as a broodmare prospect at the 1997 Keeneland November sale for $1.4 million to J. S. Carrion. Sandwiched between those two times the filly went through the ring were umpteen thrills for Dogwood partners.

"It was the greatest thrill you can imagine when she won that race [the Breeders' Cup]," said Anne Campbell, co-owner of Storm Song with her late husband, Dogwood founder Cot. "We were particularly thrilled because she was by our wonderful racehorse, Summer Squall, who of course won the Preakness in 1990, so it was just one of the thrills of our lifetime.

“Ironically, Cot woke up about three in the morning [of the race] with vertigo, just sick as a dog. I don't think he felt very well at all during the day, but he forgot about that [when she won]. I remember thinking the paddock in Toronto at Woodbine was so incredibly lovely and classy. The people, the demeanor, just the atmosphere of the whole place. It was a wonderful experience and we were overjoyed that she was clearly going to win before she got to the finish line.”

Yoshida with Storm Song | Sarah Andrew

The year that Storm Song got her Breeders' Cup title was, perhaps, a simpler time. The Breeders' Cup was in only its 13th year in 1996, was being held at Woodbine--the first and only time it was hosted outside of U.S. borders--and was still in its original seven-race, one-day format. The Juvenile Fillies was the first Breeders' Cup race on the card that October day with the looming presence of Cigar's final career start in the Classic just under four hours away.

The 8-5 Juvenile Fillies favorite off a four-length romp in the GI Frizette S. just 20 days prior, Storm Song waited midpack in the Juvenile Fillies, tipped out on the turn, and mowed down her Nick Zito stablemate Love That Jazz (Dixieland Band) to glide clear by 4 1/2 lengths with her ears pricked. Even the Equibase chart called it a “perfect trip.” Storm Song was a no-brainer to be named that year's Eclipse champion 2-year-old filly off the merits of her two Grade I wins, with an extra score in the GI Adirondack S. for good measure. Despite placings at three in both the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Ashland S., Storm Song never won again and retired after finishing unplaced in the GI Acorn S. at the end of May in 1997. Less than six months later, she was purchased by Carrion.

“We were practical about selling horses when the time came for us to sell them because we weren't in the breeding business,” said Campbell.

Campbell continued, “It wasn’t our thing. We never looked back, we were always glad and so grateful for those horses for what they did. It’s a business, so you can’t be too sentimental, but you can still love them.”

Storm Song’s first foal, Another Storm (Gone West), fetched $1 million as a Keeneland September yearling and would go on to produce European champion Order of St George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), as well as GSWs Angel Terrace (Ghostzapper) and Asperity (War Chant). As one of the mares selected for what would be the single and abbreviated book of the brilliant Dubai Millennium, Storm Song was eventually purchased privately by Darley and traveled a good deal during her broodmare career, making three separate trips to Great Britain and even a sojourn to Japan, where she produced her Dubai Millennium daughter before being sent back to Kentucky with a Sunday Silence filly in utero.

She sold again in 2009 to Sones at Keeneland November for $100,000, which is where Yoshida enters her story. Storm Song produced six foals for Sones, including 2016 GI Wood Memorial S. runner-up Trojan Nation (Street Cry {Ire}). Her last foal is the now-5-year-old My Favorite Uncle (Uncle Mo), whose most recent race was a second-place finish at Belterra Park Sept. 20 for Joshua Galindo and trainer Climaco Galindo-Torres. Yoshida raised each of those six.

“She produced good-looking foals,” said Yoshida. “She was a good teacher to me and the farm crew, to see what a good-quality horse is. She’s also proven as a broodmare herself.

“She is easy to handle, however, she has kind of a strong personality. She has the dignity of a Grade I-level mare. She’s not difficult, but uses her strong personality to show us what she wants to do.”

Yoshida keeps Storm Song turned out with 2005 GI Humana Distaff H. winner My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat) and 1997 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac-placed Plaisir des Yeux (Fr) (Funambule). The trio are enjoying pensioned life together.

“We keep them in a big field by a creek and forest to keep them calmed down. They gallop so hard, considering their age. We pay very good attention to their feet and change their feeding program if necessary because of cold or hot weather, but these mares are in very good shape. They really don’t need special care.”

Yoshida was asked about the first words that come to his mind when he thinks of his Breeder's Cup-winning charge.

“Sophistication. She has a very beautiful eye and face and good conformation. Balance. Dr. Sones still keeps a few daughters of Storm Song, so the story of Storm Song is still going. Hopefully we can give more exciting news from this family.”

NOBODY LISTENS DIES IN TRAILER ACCIDENT

Nobody Listens (Conveyance), the 5-year-old gelding who earned his first graded stakes victory in the GIII Turf Monster S. at Parx Saturday, died in a trailer accident Sunday, according to a Facebook post from co-owner Mike Kwiatowski.

“Yesterday was one of the greatest days when Nobody Listens won the GIII Turf Monster at Parx,” Kwiatowski wrote. “Today was one of the worst. Nobody Listens had an unforeseen and unpreventable trailer incident resulting in us losing him. We love and cherish every moment that we shared with him.

“The ride Nobody Listens took us on was the greatest one we have ever been on. Our hearts are broken as we share this tragic news. Thank you to all who supported and helped make him who he was.”

Trained by Tim Eggleston, Nobody Listens was winning his fourth straight race in Saturday’s Turf Monster. He also won the Brickyard H. at Horseshoe Indianapolis and the Parx Dash. A five-time stakes winner, he hit the board in 22 of 26 starts with 14 wins and earnings of $251,361.

In a mad dash to the wire, it was How Did He Do That who got his nose in front on the line just ahead of late-rallying Red Route One and Tumbarumba to win the GIII Oklahoma Derby at Remington Park Sunday night. The 44-1 outsider pressed pacesetting Ghost Hero (Shaman Ghost) through fractions of :23.57 and :48.05 with Tumbarumba just to his inside, while Red Route One was well back in the 12-horse field. How Did He Do That rushed up to put his nose in front just as Tumbarumba was finding room to run at the rail at the top of the lane. Those two foes were going head to head, while Red Route One had worked his way through the entire field and was producing a powerful late rally to bully his way between the two leaders in a dramatic blanket finish.

On a tour of midwest derbies, How Did He Do That was a dead-heat winner of the July 8 Iowa Derby. Sixth behind Tumbarumba in the Aug. 13 Ellis Park Derby, he was coming off a third-place effort in the Sept. 2 Super Derby.

Honor D Lady overtook pacesetting Ancient Peace in deep stretch and kicked clear to score by 2 1/2 lengths in the GIII Remington Park Oaks Sunday night.

The 7-1 shot sat just off the early leaders while three wide around the first turn and down the backstretch. She began to reel in Ancient Peace approaching the stretch and finally got the better of that stubborn foe in the waning strides before pulling away to the wire.

Honor D Lady, making just her second start on conventional dirt, ended her juvenile campaign with a third-place effort over the synthetic surface at Woodbine in the GIII Mazarine S. and won the Honey Ryder S. over the lawn at Gulfstream in her sophomore debut in May. Third over Gulfstream's Tapeta in the June 10 Martha Washington S., she was runner-up in the July 1 GIII Selene S. and was coming off a 10th-place effort in the Aug. 4 GIII Saratoga Oaks Invitational.

Pedigree Notes:

Out of Complicated, Honor D Lady is a half-sister to stakes winner Churchtown (Air Force Blue), as well as recent GI Natalma S. runner-up Simply in Front (Summer Front). She has a weanling half-sister by War Front and a yearling half-sister by Omaha Beach who sold for $750,000 at last month's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Her third dam is multiple Grade I winner Educated Risk (Mr. Prospector).

Honor D Lady is the sixth graded winner for her sire Honor Code, who was recently exported to stand at Yushun Stallion Station in Japan.

Lady Radler appeared to have plenty to find to be a factor in Saturday's GIII Dogwood S. at Churchill Downs and was accordingly sent off as the longest shot in a field of nine, but the chesnut capitalized on a perfect trip to pull the 23-1 upset.

Away without incident from gate five, the $37,000 OBS March breezer landed just behind the speed, though was a touch keen, as fellow outsider B G Warrior (Run Away and Hide) showed the way from the well-backed Twice as Sweet (Candy Ride {Arg}) into the turn. Racing in the slipstream of that Godolphin homebred approaching the stretch, Lady Radler split rivals decisively and went on to score convincingly. Metaphysical rallied down the center for second ahead of favored Yesternight, who was off a bit slowly and raced in a detached last before finishing off nicely for third.

It was a first graded winner for Chicago-based trainer Mike Campbell since No Tolerance won the 2006 GIII Carey Memorial H. at Hawthorne.

"I've been on her before and she's a really nice horse," said winning jockey Jesus Castanon. "I've worked her and I always thought she would breakthrough in graded stakes company. Tonight she did just that and I'm very proud of her."

In her nine previous trips to the post, Lady Radler had raced at eight different tracks, including a heretofore high-water mark in the May 13 Goldfinch S. at Prairie Meadows. An all-the-way winner of a Hawthorne turf sprint allowance June 18, Lady Radler was a well-beaten eighth when last seen in the Aug. 7 Lady Erie S. at Presque Isle Downs.

Pedigree Notes:

Lady Radler is the ninth winner at the graded level for Kantharos and is one of two black-type scorers for her dam, who carried the Team Valor colors to a Group 2 victory and a runner-up effort in Group 1 company in South Africa. Sally Bowles was purchased by Stonestreet for $180,000 in foal to Proud Citizen at the 2009 Keeneland November Sale and Lady Radler is the mare's last listed produce.

MONDAY'S INSIGHTS: EXPENSIVE OMAHA BEACH BREEZER GETS GOING AT INDY

by Alan Carasso

Code Omaha | Sandra Madison

7th-IND, $34k, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2ft, 5:36 p.m. ET

CODE OMAHA (Omaha Beach) debuts here for Lauren and Rene Woolcott and trainer Jonathan Thomas. The Feb. 15 foal is the first produce for his stakes-placed dam and was purchased by Bregman Family Stable for $185,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July Sale. The bay breezed a quarter-mile in a slick :20 3/5 at this year's OBS April Sale and was originally led out unsold, but was subsequently acquired by the Woolcotts for $550,000 in a private transaction. The Complexity yearling half-brother to Code Omaha was sold to Thomas & Mitchell Bloodstock for $50,000 during the sixth session of the just-concluded Keeneland September sale. TJCIS PPs

Slip Mahoney | Coady

Hotly contested from a pari-mutuel perspective, Saturday's Bourbon Trail S. was equally hard-fought on the racetrack, with the battle-tested Slip Mahoney just getting the better of a driving finish.

The slight betting favorite secured the ideal spot in the box seat from third, as Manciatà d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) set the pace from Oscar Eclipse, with Big Data stalking that pair from a three-wide perch. Oscar Eclipse inherited the lead when Manciatà d'Oro called it a day with three furlongs out, but Big Data made a three-wide move to strike to the front at the quarter pole. The latter was firmly in front at the furlong grounds, but Slip Mahoney--switched out in upper stretch--refused to lie down and was shoved across the line first. Cont. p2

Runner-up in the GIII Gotham S. earlier this season, Slip Mahoney was only sixth in the GII Wood Memorial S. Apr. 8 and got a bit of a freshening after finishing fourth in the May 13 Long Branch S. at Monmouth. A facile Saratoga allowance winner July 23, the gray was mugged on the line to drop a head decision to stablemate Tabeguache (Into Mischief) in the St. Louis Derby at FanDuel Racing Aug. 26.

The 12th stakes winner for the late Arrogate, Slip Mahoney hails from the Phipps family of Grade I winners Girolamo (A.P. Indy), Imagining (Giant's Causeway), Super Saver (Maria's Mon) and Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat). He has a 2-year-old half-sister named Affection (Ghostzapper), a weanling half-sister by Charlatan and 2015 GI Juddmonte Spinster S. winner Got Lucky was most recently covered by Good Magic. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Purchased out of the horses-of-racing-age section at Keeneland November last fall, Everso Mischievous continues to make his $85,000 purchase price appear like an all-time bargain after posting a first black-type success in Saturday's Harrods Creek S.

A debut second at Aqueduct Feb. 11, the bay graduated over this course and distance May 6, was just beaten when trying a mile fr the first time at Ellis June 22 and returned to winning ways with an allowance victory back when blinkered for the first time at this distance Aug. 5 at Saratoga.

Everso Mischievous | Coady

Away alertly for Cristian Torres, Everso Mischievous eased up alongside the rail-drawn Bouncer (Adios Charlie) and pressed reasonable splits of :22.79 and :45.31. Putting the pacesetter to the sword with about 2 1/2 furlongs to travel, Everso Mischievous took command for good in upper stretch and pulled away smartly in the final furlong.

"This was the first time I was aboard him but I watched all his races," Torres said. "Last time they put blinkers on him and it helped him be more forward. Every time he ran he had a target. If he gets in front too early he gets a little lazy. I had a lot of horse beneath me down the lane but I had to stay after him. He responded the entire time."

A $600,000 Keeneland September purchase by China Horse Club/Gandharvi, Everso Mischievous is the only winner from two to the races out of the 2017 GIII Fantasy S. heroine, herself a half-sister to a pair of black-type performers. The 2-year-old full-brother to Saturday's winner was a $400,000 buyback at KEESEP last fall, while the yearling colt by Into Mischief was one of 30 seven-figure horses at Keeneland this year, hammering to West Point Thoroughbreds for $1.1 million. Ever So Clever was covered by Jack Christopher this past breeding season. Everso Mischief is the 136th stakes winner for his sire. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Notching a pair of wins to start her 3-year-old campaign on the turf at Churchill Downs June 2 against allowance company and in the Tepin S. July 1 at Ellis, the dark bay filly was last seen finishing sixth Aug. 4 in the Saratoga Oaks Invitational.

Backed into odds-on favoritism over the Ophelia-affected strip, the homebred found his way to the front without having to do too much work, covered the opening half-mile in a manageable :46.03 and was off and gone in the stretch to score by an imposing margin as Aggelos the Great held second.

"He broke sharp. Obviously, he has speed," said winning rider Jose Ortiz. "I went out there and he was the fastest in the race. He proved that he was much the best today. I can't take any credit--he was the best horse."

The winner is likely to make his next start in the $200,000 Sleepy Hollow S. on Empire Showcase day Oct. 29.

Cara's Time broke her maiden at first asking June 23 at Belmont Park before being a well-beaten fifth in the Seeking the Ante S. Aug. 27 at Saratoga.

Shedding the blinkers as a 22-1 longshot here, the gray filly led up the backstretch, continued to set the fractions around the far turn and held off a late charge from favorite Caldwell Luvs Gold to become a stakes winner.

"I thought she would probably get the lead by herself, but I was surprised [to win] a bit," said trainer Mitchell Friedman. "She didn't run good last time, but I knew she had a good excuse. I put the blinkers on her and it made her a little worse. I thought the blinkers would help with all of that and she worked well with them, but we took them off and [hoped] she would stay focused."

War Painter lost by a head July 29 at Woodbine in her debut before running third in Toronto Aug. 27 just behind next-out winner from earlier on this card Jayhawk (Cross Traffic).

In receipt of Lasix for the first time and as a 5-1 shot, the bay filly trailed the field up the backstretch and into the far turn. Launching her run past the quarter pole, the red and white silks of the home country angled to the four path, uncorked a strong burst and ran on nicely to record her first stakes win.

"A lot of guys [Canuck Racing Club members] are new to the game, some have had previous experience, so it's just a great way for people to get involved in a great sport and own a small fractional share of a horse," said winning trainer Kevin Attard. "Now, we're in the winner's circle with a stakes winner in the first year. A pretty good start."

IN SEARCH OF THE NEXT PORTA FORTUNA - MEDALLION MAKE FIRST TRIP TO GOFFS ORBY

Porta Fortuna | Horsephotos

By Brian Sheerin

Medallion Racing's Phillip Shelton has explained how the sweet taste of Royal Ascot success with Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) has made the ownership group hungrier than ever, which has lead to the racing manager for the American-based outfit make his first trip to the Goffs Orby Sale this week.

The plan, according to Shelton, is to purchase three or four yearlings to support Donnacha O'Brien, the mastermind behind that brilliant G3 Albany S. success back in June.

Medallion Racing has already been on the scoresheet at the Goffs UK Sale at Doncaster this year. Fillies by Ten Sovereigns and Australia were added to the team for £82,000 and £100,000 respectively through bloodstock agent Mark McStay.

Up until this point, Shelton and McStay had been working solely to snap up form horses, with Porta Fortuna the most high profile recruit. However, given the success they enjoyed this year with that star filly, who is on target for the G1 Cheveley Park S. next, Shelton and his investors have decided to go right to the very source and try and find a group of talented yearlings to go into training with O'Brien. INDIA IS THE PREIS VON EUROPA HEROINE

by Tom Frary

Sunday's G1 Preis von Europa was all about the fillies and mares as Gestut Ittlingen's India (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}--Ivory Coast {Fr}, by Peintre Celebre) overcame the Irish challenger Trevaunance (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) to keep the Cologne prize at home. Registering her fourth group win when getting the better of the talented pair Mqse De Seigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Rogue Millennium (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in ParisLongchamp's G3 Prix Allez France in April, the Waldemar Hickst-trained homebred was settled with two behind early by Rene Piechulek.

Sent forward at the top of the straight, the 5-year-old had total control 1 1/2 out and only had to be kept honest from there to score by 1 1/4 lengths from the Moyglare representative who outstayed Godolphin's Siskany (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) to get the silver medal by a neck. "Wow, what a girl she is! She is absolutely awesome," Hickst said. Cont., p5

He explained, "Generally, we have almost exclusively been buying form horses out of Europe but, due to the success we have been enjoying, we decided to make the trip to the Orby to try and buy some yearlings. We brought a large group of people over to Ireland for the Irish Derby weekend this year and the appetite has continued to grow. We wanted to get more involved in running horses in Europe and, at some point, bringing some back to America. I'm definitely looking forward to the Orby."

Porta Fortuna wasn't Medallion's original pick. The owners tend to try and buy horses who have finished placed in Europe, rather than those who have won, because the option to return to America for lucrative maiden races is always there. However, such was the style in which Porta Fortuna won her maiden at the Curragh on debut, Shelton was convinced that she was the right filly to add to the roster.

Shelton said, "What I would say is that we are always looking at what the next two or three months looks like for any horse we buy in America or in Europe. At the time, we had Del Mar in the back of our minds and said that, if we could find something that had finished second or third on debut, we could go to the Group 3 at Naas and, if you break your maiden there it's a home run deal. If you just run well, you can go to Ascot knowing that you will not be a 100-1 shot. We just didn't fall in love with the second and third-placed horses in Porta Fortuna's race so we decided to buy the winner instead.

"Another thing I would say is, Mark and I are constantly back and forth about what could be bought and what the buzz is on certain horses in Ireland. We try to get a good read on the form and, visually, we were just so impressed with Porta Fortuna on debut. Luckily, we have a lot of customers and partners who said, 'hey, if you guys like it, we'll jump in.'" But all the credit needs to go to Donnacha and his team for having her in great form all year and fingers crossed she can run well in the Cheveley Park and then on to the Breeders' Cup."

The equine talent is not the only lure for Shelton as he describes the ownership experience that O'Brien has provided all of the investors at Medallion Racing to be hands down on another planet to what owners in America have become accustomed to with the bigger barns.

He said, "Working with Donnacha has been an unbelievable experience for us. Donnacha is very hungry and, what I like about everything is that his communication and how he explains what he is thinking about doing with the filly has been absolutely first class. We use The Racing Manager for communication with all of our partners and, when we came to Ireland, Donnacha spent a bunch of time with us." Cont.

"The biggest problem a lot of the American trainers have is they have so many horses and they are set up in so many different locations. Frankly, the communication is just not very good. You very rarely get any form of content from any trainer in America. But the communication with Donnacha has been very good."

"Take Porta Fortuna, there are four partners involved in her at 25 per cent apiece. We want Donnacha to drive the bus but we have guys who are putting up real money and all they want is to be included in the conversation and have their opinion be heard. It doesn't mean Donnacha has to do it, not at all."

He added, "In America, with the bigger stables, you are just being dictated to. Donnacha will send multiple voice messages about what he thinks of a race, what he thinks about tactics and he'll just ping that across. That means that I can just circulate that among our partners and it has been a complete game-changer."

"We want to deliver a very high level racing experience. We've had roughly 300 starters in the last seven years and 25 per cent of those have come in Grade 1s. It's a very high level experience and, frankly, every horse I have had in training in Ireland, be it with Donnacha, Johnny Murtagh or Paddy Twomey, the communication and the level of involvement we get is significantly higher than in America."

Phillip Shelton | Medallion Racing

There is said to be a typically-strong travelling contingent of American buyers making their way to the Goffs Orby Sale this week. Their presence at the sale in recent years has provided a fascinating subplot and Shelton says he is hoping that this trip marks the beginning of an exciting new chapter for Medallion Racing.

He said, "We'll be looking to buy three or four more at Goffs this week." Cont.

"We want to be averaging about €150,000 but we might partner up on one if we really like it. I know it is a sale that has been well-attended in the past by American buyers and last year Goffs had Niall Brennan, the Gladwells and David Ingordo. The reality in America right now is that dirt horses are very hard to keep sound and these turf horses are becoming more popular. We're looking forward to this week and the trip is all about how we can best serve our partners."

Shelton added, "It is in our best interests to keep our partners happy and we try to deliver something they could never do on their own, whether it's leveraging our connections or utilising our experience in the industry. I always say that, if you want to go and buy a Porsche, all you need is the money to do it. There's no secret formula."

"If you want to go to Ascot or run at the Breeders' Cup, it's going to take a significant amount of capital, but we can bring that down significantly for some people and there's no better example than Porta Fortuna. How many people dream of winning a race at Royal Ascot and how many dollars do they spend trying to chase that dream? All of our guys got to experience that for pennies on the dollar."

"Ridden that way, she can easily do this twelve furlongs. We are over the moon and it was a brilliant ride from Rene."

India, whose previous best had come when winning the G3 Furstenberg-Rennen over this trip at Hoppegarten by six lengths last July, had done all her other winning in notable races at shorter including another 6 1/2-length success in Hanover's 11-furlong G3 Waldpfad-Trophy in October. Third in the 10 1/2-furlong G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud in May, she had been demoted from first to second behind Kolossal (Ger) (Outstrip {GB}) when defending her title in the Furstenberg-Rennen back in Berlin when last seen in July and was a fresh mare entering this test which is traditionally one of Europe's weakest coming so close to the Arc.

Pedigree Notes

Becoming the eighth group 1 winner for her much-missed sire, India is the last live foal out of the unraced Ivory Coast (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), who is also responsible for the triple group-winning stayer Ivory Land (Fr) (Lando {Ger}). The second dam is the Listed Ben Marshall S. runner-up Land Of Ivory (The Minstrel), who produced G1 National S. hero Heart Of Darkness (Glint of Gold {GB}), counts among her descendants the G2 German 1000 Guineas winner Akua'da (Ger) (Shamardal). Don't miss their yearlings selling at the upcoming sales

HARZAND'S CAUGHT U LOOKING ON TOP AT THE CURRAGH by Sean Cronin

Noel Meade trainee Caught U Looking (Ire) (Harzand {Ire}-- Wild Mix {GB}, by Mastercraftsman {Ire}) posted an impressive five-length tally when shedding maiden status at Leopardstown in July and made a smooth transition to black-type company with a landmark success in an attritional renewal of Sunday's G3 Weld Park S. at the Curragh.

The 4-1 chance broke smartly from the outside stall and raced without cover in fifth through the initial fractions of this third start at the seven-furlong trip. Inching closer to the leading duo from halfway, she came under pressure passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to deny Sakti (Ire) (Caravaggio) by a half-length in the dying embers. Long-time leader Brilliant (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) kept on gamely once headed and finished a neck adrift in a close-up third.

"She won easy enough in Leopardstown and there was plenty of interest in her, but Tony O'Callaghan, despite all the horses he has, wasn't for selling," explained trainer Noel Meade. "He just wanted to keep her and said to roll the dice and see how she goes. Obviously there is a little bit of pressure on when you do that and [breeder] Peter [Kelly] was happy enough to do that as well. She's a good filly and she's a filly that will improve because she's a Harzand."

"She's going to be better next year, and probably a mile-and-a-half filly. I know she only just won, but Ger [Lyons] thinks quite a lot of his filly and you are always running against something decent from Ballydoyle. It's hard to win a stakes race in Ireland. Ben [Coen] said she was a little green and leaning away from them in the last furlong-and-a-half. He said she'll come on a ton. With the ground the way it was, it maybe suited her more than the others because of her stamina."

RENAISSANCE COMPLETE FOR GO

ATHLETICO by Tom Frary

Three years on from beating Sealiway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) in the Classic staging post of the G3 Prix la Rochette, Team Valor International LLC and Shamrock Thoroughbreds' Go Athletico (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) proved himself a sprinter through and through by winning Sunday's G3 Westgrove Hotel Renaissance S. at The Curragh. Successful in Cork's Listed Midsummer Sprint S. in June and runner-up in the G2 Sapphire S. and G3 Phoenix Sprint S. here in July and August since joining Adrian McGuinness, the indomitable 5-year-old was held up in mid-division early by Ronan Whelan. Staying on to reel in Big Gossey (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) a furlong from home, the 7-2 second favourite asserted for a half-length success as they drew clear of the classy 3-year-olds Aesop's Fables (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Ocean Quest (Ire) (Sioux Nation), with the latter disappointing as the 6-5 favourite.

"He's in the Abbaye next week. We ran him here because the forecast was giving it to be quite a dry week. He might travel, but if it is dry we won't run him," McGuinness said. "I have to speak to Barry [Irwin] first. There is a big possibility that he goes, as there isn't a whole pile left for him. He's been a great horse for me, he's only had four runs and hit the ground running. There's been very little between him and Ken [Condon]'s horse [Moss Tucker] all year and if he's fancied for the Abbaye next week he won't be too far behind him. There is plenty to look forward to with him."

A CONTINUOUS QUEST FOR NEW FRONTIERS by Paul Hayward

The Corinthian quest is finding life tough. These days romance is run off its legs by finance. Victory for Continuous in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, though, 15 days after his St Leger win, would make history of the most reassuring kind.

Each week frontiers in sport are crossed: stats shredded, records set, barriers smashed. With every new 'first' the surviving 'nevers' gain mystique. Racing still has a few. No horse has won the St Leger and the Arc in the same season. It was hard enough already with a three-week gap. This year Continuous could be squeezing it into a fortnight.

Enhancing the intrigue is the knowledge that Continuous's owners are not sentimental strategists. Stirring the public's imagination isn't the first job of an Aidan O'Brien horse in Coolmore colours. If it happens, all well and good. The priorities though are winning, prize-money and stud values.

Yet every now and then we see an illustrious O'Brien Thoroughbred chase something grander than commercial worth. Continuous is on that path. Before him, O'Brien's Camelot was appointed to become the first Triple Crown winner since Nijinsky in 1970. A three-quarter length defeat to the 25-1 shot Encke in the Leger was the resting place for that noble dream.

Avoidance is a modern reflex. In heavyweight boxing risk-aversion has addled the sport's marquee division. Real Madrid can't decline a Clasico fixture with Barcelona. But in racing horses can be confined to comfort zones. Derby winners may be chauffeured off to covering sheds to avert the possibility of defeat. In National Hunt racing last week the announcement that Constitution Hill would stick to hurdling this season was not well-received by armchair proponents of boldness. Their horse, their choice, is the riposte.

Yet 'the lads,' as O'Brien calls the Coolmore team, are sometimes true to Saul Bellow's line: "A man's life is not a business." Their reaction to Camelot's defeat at Doncaster was not to give up on the Triple Crown. Only six months ago it was the target set for Auguste Rodin, who crashed out at stage one, in the 2,000 Guineas, but progressed nevertheless to stardom.

O'Brien's last four St Leger winners all tried their luck straight away at Longchamp. Kew Gardens (seventh), Capri (17th), Leading Light (12th) and Scorpion (10th) proceeded to Paris. None made it seem a good idea; but Continuous, you sense, would travel to France with more authority and a bigger chance.

"He's a hardy horse and he could back up," O'Brien said after the seventh St Leger win of his training career. Continuous has speed to go with his stamina and the mark of an autumn horse. He began 2023 underwhelmingly with three defeats but now acts like the boss. Within days of his Doncaster win he had shortened from 12-1 to 8-1 for the Arc.

Continuous and Ryan Moore, right, win the St Leger
Racingfotos.com

So, let's line up the historians by Longchamp's winning post? Maybe, but at their own risk of having an idle day. Ballymoss won the 1957 Leger and the 1958 Arc but had a year in between to think about it. The demands of a 1m 6f Classic for three-year-olds are distinct from an all-age European championship over a mile and a half. It's not an obvious progression, especially with the proliferation of big autumn targets, which were less numerous in Nijinsky's time.

By any measure the Arc is a gruelling race to win. And at the end of a hard campaign we enter the realm of the unknowable, unseeable vulnerabilities veiled by form. Eight horses have won the Arc twice but none has scored a treble. When Enable tried, many reasons could be found for thinking her brilliance would carry her. When she failed, it seemed strangely obvious that it was a mission too far. There is a reason why frontiers stay uncrossed. Cont.

It's because they're beyond equine endurance, even with the best pedigrees, trainers and jockeys to call on, though Nijinsky's pomp was finally ended in 1970 not by fatigue so much as a narrow tactical defeat in the Arc.

O'Brien has harvested English and Irish Classics but could be said to have something of an itch, by his standards, at Longchamp. Most trainers would retire content with two Arc wins (Dylan Thomas in 2007 and Found in 2016). You might have a small bet however on O'Brien being desperate to bring his Arc record closer to his extraordinary tally of English and Irish Classic wins.

A €120,000 supplementary fee four days before the Arc would buy him another ticket to ride, with a Japanese-bred horse by Heart's Cry. And victory in Paris would add lustre too to the St Leger in an age when the case for stamina as a glamorous attribute feels harder and harder to win.

It is the way of modern sport that people talk less these days of "making history," except as a sardine tossed to the media, or with one eye on the financial rewards. But when racehorses make history, we sure as hell honour it. We remember the trailblazers more keenly - and with gratitude. They answer the heart's cry.

EUROPEAN NEWS

CLASSIC WINNERS ON COURSE FOR ARC

The St Leger winner Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) remains on course to attempt an historic follow-up in the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe next Sunday. The colt, who also won the G2 Great Voltigeur S. on good to firm ground at York en route to his Classic triumph in much softer conditions, would need to be supplemented for the Arc on Wednesday at a cost of €120,000.

Speaking on Sunday afternoon, his trainer Aidan O'Brien told TDN, "The plan is for him to run in the Arc as long as everything remains well with him up to the supplementary stage. He appears to have come out of Doncaster very well and we don't feel that he is ground-dependent."

Also heading towards Longchamp next weekend is the 2021 Deutsches Derby winner Sisfahan (Fr) (Isfahan {Ger}) following his late scratching from Sunday's G1 Preis von Europa over ground concerns. Holger Faust, racing manager for Sisfahan's owner Darius Racing, said, "Due to the fact that the ground in Cologne has received more water in the last few days than was previously expected and is now stated as soft, Sisfahan was withdrawn this morning and is now scheduled to race next Sunday in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. In Paris, as of today, the ground, the track and the expected fast pace of the race should suit him."

Another Classic winner given a positive update ahead of next Sunday's big race is Juddmonte's Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}), last season's Irish Derby winner, who later finished sixth in the Arc. Successful in this year's Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud before finishing a close second to Hukum (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., the Ralph Beckett trainee has recently been given a racecourse gallop followed by a trip to the beach.

"Westover went to Salisbury last Friday and to Hayling Island beach this Friday and both exercises went well," said Beckett.

"It suited him to just take the edge off him ahead of Longchamp and he's shown he can handle any ground between the extremes."

It is expected to be a largely dry week in Paris, with the long-range forecast showing the possibility of some rain on Saturday morning.

Sunday's Results:

6th-Curragh, €600,000, Hcp, 9-24, 3yo/up, 16f 124yT, 3:53.35, sf.

MAGELLAN STRAIT (IRE) (g, 4, Australia {GB}--Reine de Coeur {Ire}, by Montjeu {Ire}), sent off at 150-1 for this hugely valuable Friends Of The Curragh Irish Cesarewitch, had been unplaced in four of his last five starts since showing promise last summer and raced prominently under seven-pound claimer Hugh Horgan early. Battling to the front 50 yards from the line, the half-brother to the listed-placed stayer Lagostovegas (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) had half a length to spare over Falcon Eight (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at the line. "A great run and a great ride from Hugh," trainer Joseph O'Brien said. "He's not been the most consistent horse in the world, but when he runs his race he generally runs a good race. Cont.

He stays very well and stamina has always been his thing. That's what he did today, he outstayed them. I'm delighted for Ray [Grehan], he bred the horse. It's a big day today for everyone." The dam, who also has a yearling full-brother to the winner, hails from the family of the Derby-winning sire Secreto. Lifetime Record: 10-3-1-1, $375,704. GASPER DE LEMOS (IRE) (c, 2, Justify--Hence {Ire} {GSP-Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), fourth behind his stablemate and subsequent G2 Beresford S. runner-up Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) over a mile at Leopardstown on debut in August, showed speed to race up near the pace before finding himself in front at halfway. Responding to Ryan Moore's urgings, the 9-4 favourite stayed on strongly to score in authoritative fashion by three lengths from Taraj (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). "Obviously he'll be very happy going back up to a mile and he'll be a middle-distance horse next year," Aidan O'Brien said. "It's tough out there and they have to stay to get it. He's probably a Futurity Trophy horse more than a Dewhurst horse. He'll get further, he's like all those Justifys when they go up in distance they grow a leg. He's a very good mover, so I'm surprised he handles the ground. He's a lovely-actioned horse." Gasper De Lemos is the second foal and winner out of the G3 Snow Fairy S.-placed Hence (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), with the first being Justify's 3-year-old filly Dame Kiri who was fourth in the G3 Flame of Tara S. before winning her maiden by 10 lengths last term. Hence is a full-sister to four black-type performers headed by the triple group 1-winning Alice Springs (Ire), in turn responsible for the stable's G3 Concorde S.-placed Prettiest (Dubawi {Ire}), and including the G2 Ribblesdale S. and G2 Park Hill S.-placed Criteria (Ire). The third dam Golden Choral (Slew O'Gold) is a full-sister to the G1 Coronation S. heroine Golden Opinion, whose descendants include the G3 Nad Al Sheba Turf Sprint winner Final Song (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Hence's yearling colt and colt foal are by Wootton Bassett (GB), while she was bred to Epicenter for 2024. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $11,250. Impressive in a Ripon novice before finishing third in Deauville's G3 Prix Six Perfections and runner-up in Newmarket's £100,000 Tattersalls Somerville Auction S., Geologist made that battle-hardened experience count when making all and seeing off some choice domestic peers for a black-type breakthrough. Attacked on both sides up the straight, having been at work some way out, the British raider did enough to hold on despite her stamina seeming to give out late on.

The unraced dam is out of the G3 Premio Primi Passi winner Palanca (GB) (Inchinor {GB}), whose three black-type performers are headed by the Listed Silver Cup winner and G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Pamona (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}). From Bloomsbury Stud's family of the G2 Gimcrack S.-winning sire Precocious (GB), Parknasilla's yearling colt by Expert Eye (GB) was a £32,000 purchase by LDS Bloodstock at the recent Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, while she also has a colt foal by Mohaather (GB).

WONDERFUL BOY (GB) (c, 2, Sea The Moon {Ger}--Wonderful Gorl {Ger} {SP-Ger}, by Areion {Ger}), an Aug. 26 debut third going seven furlongs at Baden-Baden last time, broke well and stalked the pace in second through the early fractions of a heat won by his sire in 2013. Left in front at the top of the straight, the 9-10 favourite was nudged along approaching the quarter-mile marker and stayed on well under mild coaxing inside the final furlong to hold the late thrust of Palladium (Ger) (Gleneagles {Ire}) by a half-length. Wonderful Boy is the lone reported foal produced by Listed Grosser Soldier Hollow Preis runner-up Wonderful Gorl (Ger) (Areion {Ger}), herself kin to MGSW G2 Union-Rennen victor Wonderful Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). The March-foaled chestnut's third dam Wonderful World (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), who produced G3 Prix Chloe victrix Wunder (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), is a full-sister to three black-type winners headed by MGSP Listed Gran Premio d'Italia victor Winning Dash (Ger). Unraced since taking the Listed Premio Gino E Luciano Mantovani S. at Milan nearly three months ago, Sioux Life picked up right where she left off to capture Sunday's Listed Premio Repubbliche Marinare at Rome by 1 1/4 lengths.

After a smart break, she gained good position early and sat in close behind and to the outside of the pacesetter Dea Hathor (Ire) (El Kabeir) in third for the run up the backstretch and around the turn. As the frontrunner led the field into the stretch, the winner began to make her move toward the lead and soon after passing the gap, slowly began to weave back and forth, ultimately drifting well out and near to the outside rail.

Tomiko (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) had taken command from the early leader with about 300 yards left to run while Sioux Life continued to run greenly in the stretch, leaving only that rival to get by with under 100 yards to run. In the final few yards, she gamely out-gunned her determined foe, who had followed her in her drift toward the grandstand, and drew away for the win. She is the third and so far most successful foal out of her dam, who earlier this year foaled a filly by Inns Of Court (Ire).
