

RICH STRIKE NEARING RETURN, PEGASUS IS POSSIBLE

Rich Strike prior to the 2022 Belmont | Sarah Andrew

by Bill Finley

GI Kentucky Derby winner Rich Strike (Keen Ice) is making progress since being sidelined since May with tendon problems and may make it back in time to compete in the Jan. 27 GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream Park, reports his owner Rick Dawson. Rich Strike last raced on May 5 when a distant fifth in the GII Alysheba S. at Churchill Downs. He was subsequently transferred from the barn of trainer Eric Reed to Hall of Famer Bill Mott.

"The bigger races we are pointing toward would include the Pegasus," Dawson said. "That would be the first Grade I race we might go after, but he could race before that in a less-competitive race."

CHURCHILL MAIDEN WINNER YOU AIN'T POPPN GRITTY SINCE BIRTH

by Jessica Martini

When You Ain't Poppn (Bolt d'Oro) fought his way to a first-out victory at Churchill Downs Saturday night, it was no surprise to longtime Mulholland Springs farm manager Jesus Pinales, who had already witnessed the colt overcome much more than his 4-1 debut odds. Bred by Carlos Rafael and out of Eyepopnruby (Take Me Out), the 3-year-old was born at Mulholland Springs, but what started as a normal foaling on the evening of Apr. 5, 2020 soon took a dramatic turn.

"I called Martha Jane and John Henry [Mulholland] and told them we had a foaling," Pinales recalled. "We all showed up at the barn and I went through the same protocol that we do with all of them--check front feet, head, everything normal. But by the time the baby was a quarter out, his shoulders come out, we started having some real issues with the baby being stuck in the mare. We were on the phone with Carlos Rafael and he started getting nervous. We had to hang up with him and start to do our job."

Pinales spent the next 10 minutes trying to make sure the foal had enough oxygen while attempting to extricate him from the mare.

"We were ready to go to the hospital, but it's hard to pick up a mare on the ground with the baby half inside and out, so we had to do the job here [at the farm] before we brought the foal to the hospital," Pinales said. Cont. p4

Integrity teams conducted searches and seizures last week across a pair of Keystone State racetracks.

Dawson said that shortly after the Alysheba, Rich Strike was sent to the Rood and Riddle clinic as a precautionary measure and it was then that it was discovered that he was suffering from problems with his tendons in both front legs.

“He’s rehabbing from some issues he had with his front tendons, left front and right front,” Dawson said. “Both have recovered extremely well. Dr. Bramlage at Rood and Riddle did all the work. He’s had ultrasounds, X-rays, etc. and he is doing really well. At times, his front suspensory tendons would get inflamed and get slightly damaged. They never tore but scar tissue built up in both legs. There was scar tissue where tendon fibers should have been. Through his treatment and exercise, certain feed, etc., that scar tissue started to reverse itself. It’s been a long process but, basically, the tendons were able to get back to normal. We are very fortunate that he did not tear a tendon while training or running. I’m extremely happy that this was caught back in May.”

Rich Strike is currently under light training at Margaux Farm in Midway, Kentucky.

“He is jogging one day, galloping the next,” Dawson said. “We’ll be there for another few weeks and at that point Bill Mott and I will discuss where we go from there. Due to his lengthy rehab and our choice to be very conservative and take our time with him so he could get back on track and so that we can give him every opportunity to come back at his best, we are looking at sometime in November for him to begin more serious training with Bill. Maybe we can catch a race in late December.”

It’s been a rough go for Rich Strike since he won the 2022 Derby. He’s gone 0-for-6 since and in his last two starts, the Alysheba and the GI Clark S., he was beaten a combined 25 lengths. But Dawson remains hopeful that Rich Strike can get back to the form that carried him to a shocking win in the Derby at odds of 80-1.

“We won’t know more until we get him back in real training,” he said. “I’ll trust Bill to inform me so far as where his skill level is. If he can return to that skill level he showed when winning the Derby, that would be fantastic. We’ll see how he does and let him tell us what is next. If he can continue to run at a high level, we will continue to race him. If not, he’ll retire and go to the breeding shed.”

"So I had a few other options--use my tricks--I think everybody on different kind of farms have their own tricks. Finally we got the baby out. By that time, I can tell you that he was maybe 90% dead, basically. Martha asked me what I thought. And I said, 'He's going to live, he's going to live.' And in the end, another 10 minutes, you can see this baby open his eyes. It was unbelievable. He opened his eyes and finally took a deep breath. Five minutes later, with the oxygen and everything, that baby was like nothing had happened. He was normal."

Once the colt was out of danger, Pinales admitted, "I was tired. Everybody was tired. We see one or two or three cases a year like that when you foal 70 mares. That wasn't normal that this baby stayed for so long in the mare. But when he opened his eyes, it was the best thing to happen to me in my life since I've been foaling mares for 10 years. It's a really nice feeling."

You Ain't Poppn | Coady Photography

The colt spent his first week in the Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital. "When he came out of the hospital, he was another horse," Pinales said. "Typically when babies take this long to wake up, sometimes the lungs are affected. You never know. He was completely 100% normal, like nothing had happened. That's when I told Carlos and Martha Jane that we had a chance with this baby to go to the sales. Because he was a beautiful foal."

You Ain't Poppn spent the next four months at Mulholland Springs before shipping back to Rafael's farm. He eventually made it to upstate New York where he sold for $200,000 at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, but he was always on Pinales's radar.

"I have him on my phone like the rest of our babies," Pinales said. "I like to see the first start, I try to see all of them, but it's a lot. So it popped up on my phone and I was watching the race."

You Ain't Poppn broke alertly in his six-furlong debut Saturday and sat just off the early pace while under a strong hold. He pulled his way into contention with a three-wide move into the lane and drove to the lead in the shadow of the wire (video).

"To be honest, I don't bet because I don't like to bet money," Pinales said. "But in the end, I was so proud and so happy. There were a lot of feelings when you see a horse that almost died as a baby and he comes and wins his first race."

Of the fight the colt showed in the closing strides Saturday, Pinales said, "I think that's the heart that the horse has. It's part of all of this. I hope he can win more races and I would like to see him in the future in a stakes race."

Pinales, meanwhile, has a storybook story of his own. He arrived in Kentucky from his native Mexico as a 16-year-old and found himself at Mulholland Springs.

"I had zero experience with horses when I came here," Pinales said with a laugh. "I didn't know how to put a chain on a horse. But [the breeding industry] was where the job was, especially in Lexington, it's the most popular place to find a job. John and Martha gave me a chance. And I am going to be appreciative all the time."

Pinales is celebrating 19 years working at Mulholland Springs, the last 10 as farm manager.

Asked if his 16-year-old self had ever thought he would be manager of the farm, Pinales said, "Never. It was difficult, back in the day when I saw Martha Jane and John Henry running the farm, I thought it looked so difficult. I told them I don't know how you guys do this. And now, after learning from them, it's not an easy job, but knowing they trusted me, I knew I had to learn quickly. Now we have a good team here. I have a good relationship with Martha and John Henry. He's like my brother and she's like my mom."

After watching You Ain't Poppn win Saturday, Pinales did admit to having one small regret.

The colt may not be named after the man who saved his life as a foal, but he is still doing Pinales proud.

"I was so proud to see a horse with this beginning go and win some races," he said.

USHBA TESORO PREPS FOR BREEDERS' CUP

CLASSIC by Alan Carasso

Kenji Ryotokuji's Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}), last seen recording a powerful victory over an international field in the G1 Dubai World Cup in late March, returns to the races in Wednesday's $456,960 Listed Nippon TV Hai at Funabashi Racecourse about 25 minutes east of Central Tokyo. The 1800-meter test will serve as his lone prep for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita in a little more than five weeks' time.

The 6-year-old, bought for just under $220,000 as a foal at the 2017 JRHA Select Sale, made the first 22 starts of his career on the turf, and while he was often competitive and earned his keep, it was a switch to the dirt in April 2022 that signaled a renaissance.

The bay posted convincing victories in three of his first four appearances on the main track before announcing his arrival as a potentially important dirt animal when taking out the G1 Tokyo Daishoten at Ohi Racecourse last December. A half-length winner of the Listed Kawasaki Kinen Feb. 1, defeating the classy T O Keynes (Jpn) (Sinister Minister), Ushba Tesoro was one of an unprecedented seven Japanese starters in the World Cup. Slowly away and last early, Ushba Tesoro got underway nearing the stretch and motored past Algiers (Ire) (Shamardal) to score by a widening 2 3/4 lengths (video, SC 14), with T O Keynes fourth. Yuga Kawada, in the irons at Meydan, has the riding assignment from gate four in a field of 11 Wednesday.

Chief amongst the opposition is the 3-year-old colt Mitono O (Jpn) (Logotype {Jpn}), who won the final leg on the Japan Road to the Kentucky Derby in March and the Listed Hyogo Sekifu (Jpn) (Henny Hughes) was runner-up in the 2022 G3 Saudi Derby and filled the same spot against older rivals in the G3 Korea Cup, but enters this test off a career-high success in the G3 Elm S. at Sapporo Racecourse.

Though Wednesday's race takes place on the 'lesser' NAR circuit, Marche Lorraine (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) parlayed a victory in listed company at Mombetsu in Northern Japan into a massive upset of the 2021 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Del Mar.

'STEPPED UP THE QUALITY': FASIG-TIPTON CALIFORNIA SALE TUESDAY by Jill Williams

Preparations for Fasig-Tipton's California sale are underway
Cecilia Gustavsson

The one-day Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings and Horses of Racing Age sale, which has firmly established its spot on the calendar for West Coast buyers, will get underway Tuesday, Sept. 26 at the Fairplex Sales Pavilion near Pomona. Expectations for the sale, now in its fifth edition, continue to grow every year.

"If you race in California, you have to have Cal-breds in your barn," said Fasig-Tipton's California representative and former California-based trainer Mike Machowsky. "You need a balance in your stables and a lot of trainers and owners realize that. If you want Cal-breds, this is about the only place where you can find them. California has a really great program and if a horse is good enough to advance out to open company, the benefits are huge.

"Breeders in California have really the last few years stepped up the quality of mares they've purchased and brought to California," Machowsky continued. "If you look at the racing in general out here, Cal-breds are very important to the whole market out here. It works best when people own Cal-breds to balance out their whole stable."

The one-day sale features a catalogue of 283 yearlings and 60 horses of racing age. Saturday's California-bred GI Cotillion S. winner at Parx--Ceiling Crusher (Mr. Big)--was a $115,000 RNA out of the horses of racing age portion of last year's sale as a 2-year-old. Her 4-year-old full-sister, Cashing Big Checks (Hip 315), sells in the racing age portion this year. Excel Bloodstock consigns the four-time winner. Among the stallions represented at the sale this year are Kentucky leaders Bolt d'Oro, Ghostzapper, Good Magic, Hard Spun, Kitten's Joy, Maclean's Music, Mitole, Practical Joke, and Vino Rosso, while California stalwarts Clubhouse Ride, Grazen, Mr. Big, Sir Prancealot (Ire), Smiling Tiger, and Stay Thirsty are also a presence.

"I think this year's catalogue is just as strong or stronger than last year's," said Machowsky. "There's some really interesting young sires and Kentucky sires with their first-crop yearlings. It'll be interesting to see how they size up and how they look."

The 2022 sale featured 14 six-figure lots, led by a $250,000 Mr. Big filly. A total of 205 horses grossed $6,257,100 with a $30,522 average and a median of $17,000.

Machowsky has been busy gauging interest in this year's renewal.

"I've been passing out catalogues, reaching out to trainers and a lot of the buyers," he said. "With Keeneland wrapped up, a lot of people out here are waiting for this sale. It's a strong catalogue with a lot of Kentucky-sired Cal-breds out here eligible for the great California program."

California racing has faced some uncertainty in recent months with the upcoming closure of Golden Gate Fields. In July, 1/ST Racing announced the Northern California track would close its doors at the end of 2023, but it now appears Golden Gate will be able to continue through mid-2024. How does the anticipated closure impact the Fasig-Tipton sale?

"I think we'll be fine; we always get some support from there with trainers and owners," said Machowsky. "It looks like Golden Gate has been extended through June now and with the fairs filling in, we'll see how that all transpires. Will there be year-round racing up there? I don't know, but they're trying to work something out."

"I don't see it affecting [this sale] a whole lot, honestly. Fingers crossed. If you've got an interest in racing Cal-breds, this is the sale."

Bidding opens Tuesday at 11 a.m. PST.

"We make it easy for people who have an interest [even if they can't attend in person]," said Machowsky. "Everything is very detailed on the website and there's a lot of ways to bid online."

KEYSTONE INTEGRITY TEAMS SWEEP PRESQUE ISLE DOWNS TO PARX by J.N. Campbell

Car search at Parx stable gate | PSHRC

Uncovering loaded needles and syringes to apprehending an assistant starter who was in possession of a controlled substance, seasoned integrity teams conducted searches and seizures last week across a pair of Keystone State racetracks.

Led by the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission staff, the sweeps took place first in Erie at Presque Isle Downs before spending three days downstate at Parx Racing in Bensalem through Saturday's GI Pennsylvania Derby.

As part of their integrity program, the Commission once again put together a group of investigators--this time from nine states, plus representatives from England--and set them to work policing the barns and stable gates.

"We do this as part of our commitment to the integrity of horse racing in the Commonwealth and for the safety and security of the horses involved," said Director of Enforcement, Jason Klouser. "The Commission is able to assemble such a large team of investigators through the contacts made from the Organization of Racing Investigators, whose members are the best and brightest when it comes to enforcement at their local tracks."

The Organization of Racing Investigators, known as ORI, is a membership organization composed of specialists who are employed by state racing commissions and racetracks. The members' tradecraft helps protect the sport and perform a myriad of duties from combating allegations of race fixing, stopping horse doping, and breaking up nefarious activities in the barn areas. Their network fights a host of other offenses which are committed against equine athletes. The Pennsylvania Racing Commission is a regulatory agency, however, ORI members in various other states are commissioned law enforcement agents. No matter their standing, all investigators are essential when it comes to enforcing the rules.

In the lead up to the big day at Parx, the Commission's integrity teams moved across the state in an effort to maintain the integrity of horse racing in the Commonwealth.

"The Commission utilizes all industry assets at our disposal to ensure a level playing field for all participants," Klouser said.

Conducting enforcement operations in the barn area and searching vehicles entering the stable gate at both Presque Isle Downs and Parx yielded results.

Based on updates through the Commission's website, Ruling No. 23096PI was handed down to trainer William Joseph Dowling, when a search found him with two loaded needles and syringes. The 6-year-old dark bay state-bred gelding Saketumi (Maclean's Music) was scratched from the seventh race Sept. 18 and a summary suspension was issued by the board of stewards Sept. 21. Shifting the search to Parx last Friday and Saturday, Assistant Starter Luis A. Gonzalez Jr. was found in possession of a controlled substance and paraphernalia. Ruling No. 23254PP indicated that Gonzalez was in possession of a methamphetamine pipe containing residue and marijuana. He was summarily suspended by the Parx Board of Stewards Sept. 22.

"The Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission is incredibly proactive at the state level and will continue to liaise with organizations in order to strengthen the integrity of horse racing and the health and safety of the equine athletes," said Klouser. "The Racing Integrity Team was a collaborative effort between the Pennsylvania State Horse Racing Commission, Parx Racing, Presque Isle Downs, and the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association."

UPCOMING FOAL CROP PROJECTED AT 18,000

The Jockey Club projects a 2024 North American foal crop of 18,000, some 500 fewer foals than the 2023 foal-crop estimate of 18,500.

The projection of the foal crop is made using the Reports of Mares Bred (RMBs) received to date by The Jockey Club for the 2023 breeding season. RMBs are due no later than Aug. 1 of each breeding season.

Stallion owners who have yet to return their RMBs for the 2023 breeding season are encouraged to do so by The Jockey Club as soon as possible. Interactive Registration, which enables registered users to perform virtually all registration-related activities over the Internet, is the most efficient means of submitting RMBs and is available at registry.jockeyclub.com.

The annual registered foal crop has increased just once in the last 17 years and is down from a peak of roughly 44,000 in 1990. As recently as 2008, the number of registered foals exceeded 35,000.

Additional foal crop information is available in The Jockey Club's online fact book at jockeyclub.com/factbook.asp and in the online state fact books.

CLARIFICATION: Sunday's Hallandale Beach S. at Gulfstream Park was officially a non black-type stakes race, contrary to the result that appeared in Monday's TDN. Accordingly, the victorious Omaha Girl (Omaha Beach) is not credited with a black-type victories, while Kiss (Army Mule) and Hepburn (Dialed In) are similarly not credited with black-type placings. We apologize for any confusion.

OPEN LETTER TO THE INDUSTRY

BRERETON JONES: LONGTIME SUPPORTER AND FRIEND OF OLD FRIENDS

Anyone who ever knew Brereton C. Jones can stop reading now. I won't be telling you anything new. He was smart, kind and compassionate. And that is a rare trifecta. But he was so much more than that.

Nearly two decades ago, when I first started Old Friends, I made an appointment to see him at Airdrie Stud, a farm as modest and forthright as he was. "Let me get this straight," he said. "You're going to get these horses, including stallions from Japan, and you're not going to race them or breed them or sell them. What exactly are you going to do with them?"

"I'm going to put them in my yard and hope people come to visit."

He tried his hardest to disguise his incredulity, reached into the lap drawer of his antique desk, pulled out a scraggly checkbook, and wrote a check to Old Friends for $5,000.

“Good luck,” he said, as he shook one hand, and handed me the check with the other. That, to paraphrase my favorite movie, “Casablanca,” was the beginning of a beautiful friendship. Without him, Old Friends might have never existed. And it wasn’t just the money. That was the least of it.

Over the years, we retired several Airdrie stallions, including You and I, Patton, and Afternoon Deelites. And, he made several trips to the farm to check on how things were going. Years later, his filly, Lovely Maria was running in the Ashland Stakes at Keeneland. I ran into him a few days before the race and he told me that if she won the race, he’d write Old Friends a check for $25,000. She did. And he did. And it wasn’t because of me, it was for the horses and horse racing.

I have two wonderful, hand-written notes – one from our late veterinarian, Doug Byars, and one from Brereton C. Jones. If we ever have a fire, I’m going to grab those notes first and come back for the rest of the stuff.

It’s very unlikely that anyone like Governor Jones will ever come around again. I’m just grateful he was here once, and I was fortunate enough to stumble across his path.

Michael Blowen, President and founder of Old Friends

Also Ran: Lika Rolling Stone, Maggy's Palace, Ixodes, Moon Chariot. Scratched: A Thousand Plans, Nicky Jolene.

Soloshot was the short-priced favorite for this stakes debut, but produced an effort similar to her career debut, going coast-to-coast in the Lady Finger S.

A dominant 7 3/4-length victress at first asking Aug. 27 in an off-turf baby dash at Saratoga against state-bred maidens, Soloshot broke like one here and quickly established command from two off the rail. Putting a comfortable margin on Redwineandwhiskey entering the straight, she responded when roused and was ridden to a two-length margin. Unicorn Cake would come on late to secure the last minor placing by a head.

Soloshot is the second winner from three to the races, following elder sister Banterra (Practical Joke). She has a yearling full-sister and the dam returned to the sire for 2024 after missing on last season's visit. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Margins: HD, HD, 1. Odds: 3.30, 2.30, 1.00.

Also Ran: Antonio of Venice, Cable Ready, Go Grad.

Canigetaloan had to lay it all down, but gamely managed to fight off a familiar foe in a wild finish to break his maiden, score his first black-type victory in the Aspirant S., and tally the first stakes winner for his freshman sire (by Candy Ride {Arg}).

Canigetaloan | Sarah Andrew

Debating in the same Aug. 11 state-bred maiden at Saratoga as Trust Fund, who would go on to win by 2 1/4 lengths, Canigetaloan came out on the better end of the photo for second and would have to face that foe again here. In hand early as he coasted along from fourth, he took to the rail through the turn and was cut loose to gain a slim advantage by the sixteenth pole. Canigetaloan turned the table on Trust Fund on the wire, while Tall Paul lost second to the latter in a blanket finish.

Canigetaloan is the most recent winner to the races for his dam, who also produced the winning Avid Sucinori (Ironicus) as her first offspring. The winner has a yearling full-sister as well as a 2023 half-brother by Unified. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

LANE'S END SALES GRADUATE

Margins: HF, 1, 2HF. Odds: 3.50, 3.50, 4.00.

Also Ran: Snow Dance, Chasing Spring, Atmidnight, A Thousand Plans, Takemetothbeach, Shot Girl, Slainte Mhath, Lucky Lesson. Scratched: She's Fire.

Rosa put her best foot forward and crowned herself the belle of the ball, closing furiously in the final strides to claim her first career black-type in the Presque Isle Debutante S.

A debut winner up north over Woodbine's synthetic in a baby dash over the summer, she ran an improving fourth in the Catch a Glimpse S. on the venue's turf course--a race Living Magic also contested but weakened to seventh--and came into this race with a religious appearance on the work tab.

In her customary spot near midpack in seventh, Rosa advanced from the two path through the bend to save some ground and swung three deep into the stretch. Closing fast and the looming danger, she nailed Living Magic and Practicallyelusive in the final strides as those two decided the minors.

The latest in a long list of siblings to win, Rosa is the second to earn black-type behind Robillard, who eventually made an appearance in Graded company as well. She has a 2023 Charlatan half-sister and after going barren in 2022 on a visit the sire, Magnificence went back to Ghostzapper for 2024. Graduating in the next race over two next-out winners and then finding no success at the stakes level in open and state-restricted company, he dropped into the allowance ranks against fellow Ohio-breds. Finding the conditions to his liking, he put in back-to-back open-lengths victories and picked up his third in a row here. ALLURE OF MONEY (c, 3, Central Banker--Alana's Allure, by Shackleford) won his last two starts as a juvenile--including the Tin Cup Chalice S.--by a combined total of over 20 lengths before coming back a tad rusty this summer in his seasonal bow, finishing fifth and last in a roughly run allowance sprint at this venue. Returning to the winner's enclosure twice since then, winning the state-bred restricted New York Derby two back, and running sixth last out in Saratoga's Albany S., he was strongly supported for this contest to the tune of 1-2 odds. Best away from the blocks, he would not be denied late, turning away all comers and staying on gamely to beat veteran Royal Suspect (Animal Kingdom) by 3/4 of a length. CODE OMAHA (c, 2, Omaha Beach--Lantz {SP, $271,821}, by Tizway) was favored by $15 over fellow firster Silent Heart (Heart to Heart) in a five-furlong turf dash Monday at Horseshoe Indianapolis and the duo comprised what turned out to be a fairly rich return to exacta players. A $180,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearling turned $550,000 OBS April breezer, the bay broke sharply, but inward, causing a bit of a chain reaction to his inside. Easing to the lead for Manny Esquivel, the bay carved out an opening quarter in :22.63 with a host of pursuers and maintained a clear advantage into the stretch. Briefly challenged by Azteca's Gold (Sharp Azteca) approaching the eighth pole, Code Omaha kicked on nicely and covered his final furlong in a smart :11.39 to score comfortably at odds of 27-10. Silent Heart was forced to cover extra ground while rallying into the final quarter mile and boxed on gamely for second to complete a $31 exacta.

The 12th winner for his first-crop sire (by War Front), Code Omaha is the first foal from a turf stakes-placed dam. There is further grass influence down the pace, as third dam Candleinthedark (Cox's Ridge) was placed in the GIII Modesty H. on the grass and was a half-sister to GII Hall of Fame S. winner Islefaxyou (Storm Bird). The yearling half-brother to Code Omaha, a colt by Complexity, cost Thomas & Mitchell Bloodstock $50,000 at Keeneland September last week, and Lantz is also the dam of a yearling colt by Maclean's Music. 2nd-Thistledown, $33,900, (S), Msw, 9-25, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05.02, ft, 14 3/4 lengths.

WOMAN'S DREAM (f, 2, Enticed--Reliable Ema, by Smarty Jones) had what truly could be called a nightmare debut Sept. 5 over this track and distance when contact with the leader Saltmakeshersweet (Bird Song) late in the race caused her to stumble, unseat her jockey, and then fall over him. In that accident, she took down Honey Bee Good (Bee Jersey)--back in this contest as well--behind her, though both would go on to finish the race alone and be safely corralled by outriders. That leader would be disqualified for instigating the accident. Back 20 days later, and no worse for wear, the betting public crowned Woman's Dream the even-money favorite and she got her chance to prove them right. Chasing the early pace, ironically being Saltmakeshersweet, she quickly took command midway on the turn and widened willingly to an eye-catching 14 3/4 lengths on the wire over Oh Glorious Day (Dynamic Racer). Woman's Dream is the 12th winner for Enticed (by Medaglia d'Oro). The most recent to get a photo taken for her dam, she has a yearling full-brother and Reliable Ema visited Sky Fire for 2024. Sales history: $20,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP; $17,000 2yo '23 OBSOPN. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $20,679. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Edwin Mundo; B-Larmon Cowles & Cristina Ventura (OH); T-Jason DaCosta.

MY COOL HAND LUKE (g, 3, Frank Conversation--Sakura Ballerina, by Pure Prize) jumped as the 16-1 second-longest shot on the board and burned up some tickets with this debut, in hand four wide early and floating as far as five off the rail coming into the lane. Asked for a rally and responding, he took the lead from Support the Cat (Courageous Cat) late and won going away by a length. The victor has a yearling half-brother Mo Town Music Man (Mo Town) as well as a 2023 Known Agenda half-sister. Sakura Ballerina went to Keepmeinmind for 2024. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,260. Click for the Equibase.com chart. O/B-Allen C. Hallett (NY); T-Paul W. Barrow.

Saturday's Results:

12th-Hanshin, ¥21,740,000 ($146,115), Allowance, 3yo/up, 1800m, 1:52.6, gd.

AWESOME RESULT (f, 3, Justify--Blossomed, by Deputy Minister) was made the 3-10 favorite to run her winning streak to three, but hopped a bit at the break before setting midfield and well off the inside down the back of the course. Five deep on the second turn, the half-sister to Bodacious Babe (Mineshaft), GSP, $154,259; and Sippican Harbor (Orb), GISW, $262,650, loomed a threat off the final corner, hit the front at the 200-meter marker and understandably began to tire, but was home a 1 1/4-length winner. Springhouse Farm purchased Blossomed--a half-sister to GSW Cinemine and to the stakes-winning dam of GSW Greengrassofyoming (Quest)--in foal to Honor Code for $425,000 at the 2018 Keeneland November sale. Blossomed is also the dam of the yearling full-sister to Awesome Result, a $350,000 KEENOV weanling that RNAd for $520,000 at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga last month. Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $184,530. VIDEO (SC 9)
O-Insel Racing; B-Orpendale/Chelston/Wynatt (KY); T-Yasutoshi Ikee.

9th-Hanshin, ¥15,200,000 ($102,174), Allowance, 3yo/up, 1200m, 1:11.6, gd.

DIXIE GUNNER (c, 3, Gun Runner--Dixie Crisp {SP}, by Dixieland Band) broke his maiden at third asking this past April and was having his first start since finishing a good third in allowance company June 3. Off slowly, the $150,000 KEENOV weanling settled in the latter third of the field, taking the worst of the heavy kickback and had plenty to do with three furlongs to race. Committed to an inside run in the straight, the half-brother to Reconstruction (Broken Vow), SW, $117,374; Southern Freedom (Pure Prize), SW & GSP, $284,284; and Epic Dreamer (Orb), GSP, $204,800, made eye-catching progress at the rail into the final furlong, angled out and was up in time for a one-length victory as the 3-5 favorite. Sales history: $150,000 Wlg '20 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-2, $138,281.

Sunday's Results:

4th-Hanshin, ¥13,720,000 ($92,212), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m, 1:56.5, ft.

SONIC STAR (c, 2, Into Mischief--Carolina Bertie, by Speightstown), picked up for $300,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale, was dispatched the 13-10 favorite to open his account at first asking and was off fairly from gate one, but appeared somewhat uncomfortable while in traffic early on. Eased out into the clear down the backstretch, the dark bay traveled better beneath Yuga Kawada, but was consigned to a wide run around the second turn. Four deep into the stretch, he hit the front with a furlong to travel and edged away to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths. Sonic Star is out of a half-sister to three-time Grade I winner and current Japanese-based stallion Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid) and hails from the family of MGSWs Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot) and Allamerican Bertie (Quiet American). Carolina Bertie is also represented by an American Pharoah filly who sold for $130,000 at KEENOV but was bought back on a bid of $110,000 at this year's KEESEP sale. Sales history: $300,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $48,537.

4th-Nakayama, ¥13,720,000 ($92,212), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200m, 1:11.6, my.

HISTORIAI (c, 2, Liam's Map--Cara Bella, by Ghostzapper) was knocked down for $525,000 to Katsumi Yoshida at last year's Keeneland September sale, making him the third-priciest of 58 of this sire's yearlings sold in 2022. Favored at 11-5 at first asking, the half-brother to Silent Poet (Silent Name {Jpn}), GISW-Can, $988,884, raced prominently early on as $625,000 KEESEP grad Gran Orca (Liam's Map)--the joint top-priced yearling for his sire last year--showed the way at a good gallop. Going well as they approached the stretch, Historiai hit the front three off the inside with a bit less than an eighth of a mile to travel and went on to take it by 2 1/2 lengths. Out of a half-sister to GI Preakness S. hero Red Bullet (Unbridled), Historiai has a yearling full-sister that was purchased by Jonathan Thomas for $260,000 at the just-concluded September sale and a weanling half-sister by Candy Ride (Arg). Cara Bella, who was purchased by Stone Farm for $60,000 carrying a full-brother to Silent Poet, was most recently bred to Quality Road. Sales history: $525,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $48,537. VIDEO (SC 13)

"IF PEOPLE BACK US, WE CAN DELIVER" - TOP-TIER YEARLINGS ON OFFER AT GOFFS ORBY

Philip Stauffenberg: consigning at Goffs Orby for the first time | Sarah Farnsworth/Goffs

By Brian Sheerin

With great trust comes responsibility and nobody knows that better than Henry Beeby. After throwing down the gauntlet to the breeders of Ireland to support this year's Goffs Orby with their top-tier yearlings, Beeby has assembled what he describes as the strongest catalogue for this sale in his 41 years working for the company.

Along with some of the major farms in Ireland—your Glenvales, Camas Parks, Barodas, Tally-Hos, Ballylinches and more—Philip Stauffenberg is here. Consigning at the Orby Sale for the first time, Stauffenberg Bloodstock will offer the Kingman (GB) half-brother to Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy), who lit up the foal sales here in November when selling to the German native for €550,000.

But it's not all about the Kingman colt. Stauffenberg will also offer a Masar (Ire) filly out of his beloved mare Frangipani (Ger), producer of the brilliant German Derby winner Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}).

SEVEN DAYS: THE REMARKABLE JARVIS TRAINING DYNASTY

By Emma Berry

As we stand braced for five consecutive weekends of Group 1 action in France and Britain, it is a sign of course that the Flat season of 2023 is drawing to a close, albeit with a bang rather than a whimper.

As announced in the Racing Post on Sunday, these final skirmishes on the turf will also bring with them the ending of the longest-running family training dynasty in Britain when William Jarvis saddles his final runner after 38 years with a licence. You could say he was born to it, following not just in his father's footsteps, but those of his grandfather and two generations before that, as well as various uncles and relatives, which include members of the notable Leader, Rickaby and Hall families. Goffs Orby, Cont. from P1

Already named Fire And Ice (Ger), the presence of that Masar filly and the Kingman colt, along with the Sottsass (Fr) filly Stauffenberg has brought to the Orby, can be viewed as a major vote of confidence to Goffs.

As far as Stauffenberg is concerned, he has no doubt that, given the right horses, Goffs is as equipped as anyone at selling yearlings of the highest standard.

Speaking alongside his wife Marion at their base in Barn C, he said, "Our connection with Goffs goes back many years and we have been very lucky here. It was a special wish of Marion's to bring the sister to Fantastic Moon here. The family has been wonderful to us and Marion said that, if the filly is to go to a sale, then it would be at Goffs. They have proven they can sell the horses when they get the right ammunition."

Marion Stauffenberg added, "I know Goffs very well and I love it here. I have bought my best horses here and have sold very good horses here through Eimear Mulhern. I have just spoken to two agents and they have said that the quality of the horses here is really up."

Beeby shared that the feedback he was receiving from the buyers and sellers on the ground to be similarly positive, which is good, given he went on to explain how he couldn't remember a stronger book of yearlings assembled for the Orby Sale in over four decades working for the company.

He said, "When you get somebody like Philip Stauffenberg coming here for the first time, and coming here with his best horse, that's a huge vote of confidence. It's a huge trust but it's also a huge responsibility. Then there's Dermot Cantillon of Tinnakill House with his Sea The Stars (Ire) half-sister to State Of Rest (Ire). He's here with the best horse he's ever bred--by his own admission.

"You've also got the sister to Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) from Ballylinch Stud belonging to the China Horse Club and they've also chosen Goffs. Those are only three horses and, on paper, it's as good an Orby Sale that I can remember. All of that is for better judges than me to say but the feedback has been very, very consistent that we have assembled a solid bunch of horses."

Beeby added, "It's hard not to keep coming out with the same things on the eve of a sale; you hope for the best and all of that kind of stuff. But, the closer you get to a sale, you do twitch because I do genuinely feel the responsibility.

"For those two, two-and-a-half minutes, we are handling what could decide some people's year, or maybe even longer. We know there are alternatives and that people could say, 'well, why haven't you gone to other places to sell your horse.' That's a reasonable thing to say.

But that's what makes the market in Britain and Ireland so vibrant, that there is strong competition between the sales companies. It's a big deal for us to get the big horses and we take it very seriously."

And the Orby is jam-packed full of serious horses. The second lot into the ring on Tuesday is an American Pharoah half-sister to Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). Lot 8 is a Kodiak (GB) half-brother to The Lir Jet (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}), 12 a Wootton Bassett (GB) filly out of a sister to Saxon Warrior (Jpn), 16 a brother to California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) while lot 27 is another who has the potential of hitting the heights early on in the session by being a Wootton Bassett filly out of a sister to Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

There are big-ticket lots right throughout the catalogue. From Stauffenberg's duo to the Sea The Stars (Ire) half-sister to State

Of Rest (Ire) (Starspangledbanner) [48] from Tinnakill House and Ballylinch Stud's sister to Saffron Beach [356], there are countless potential headline-makers in the sale. There are also plenty more bubbling with intrigue.

The Night Of Thunder (Ire) half-sister to Lucky Vega (Ire) [37], Staffordstown's Sea The Moon (Ger) half-brother to Sandrine (GB) [78], the Mehmas (Ire) half-brother to River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett) [150] and the Camelot (GB) half-brother to Poetic Flare (GB) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) [500] could also make waves.

But for esteemed bloodstock agent Jeremy Brummit, there was little doubt in his head about what the best horse he'd seen on the sale ground during inspections was.

"The most exciting pedigree in the catalogue is matched by the physical," he said of Saffron Beach's sister, before adding, "it's rare that happens." Cont. p5

Brummit went on to describe the quality of the Orby Sale to be on the rise year after year, to which Beeby later attributed to the confidence placed in the sales house by the Irish breeders.

He explained, “It’s a credit to the Irish breeders. We have very directly said to a whole range of Irish breeders that we are the Irish national yearling sale. Everything is set up right. We have put our heart and soul into it—money, time and effort—and have expanded our team. For example, our recruitment team is significantly bigger than what it was a few years ago. But we can’t do it without the horses and, if people back us, we can deliver. Thankfully, we’ve had a good run in the sales ring and on the racetrack.”

Beeby added, “Success breeds success but it also breeds confidence. It’s all down to the breeders. I’m part of the team that goes around looking at the horses and every year we are getting a greater share of the top-tier yearlings in Ireland. I really believe that and, similarly to what Jeremy said, a lot of key figures have come up to me over the past few days to say that we have assembled a better bunch of horses again. When you put all of that together with the number of people on the ground, you would have to be very hopeful of a good sale.

“It’s like the old Avis advert from years ago, ‘when you are number two you try harder.’ We know where we are and we know what we have to do and how we can do better. We are always reaching and striving to be better. We have an ambitious team of people here at Goffs. This is my 41st year in this business and I love it.”

One of the major subplots to the Orby Sale in recent years has been the strength of the American buyers and, with familiar faces like Ben McElroy and first-time visitors like Phillip Shelton of Medallion Racing on the ground, that presence is expected to be as strong as ever this week.

Beeby said, “Jacob West [American agent for Goffs] has been an outstanding appointment for us. Tom Taaffe and Hayley O’Connor have also been out to America quite regularly and got around to everybody to promote the sale. Success breeds success and people keep coming back. Happily, the people who have travelled over from America in recent years have spread the word about the sale. We’ve invested a lot of time and resources in making sure that they are looked after and they play a huge role in this sale.”

Few trainers have exemplified the value on offer at the Goffs Orby Sale quite like Paddy Twomey has in recent times. Twomey ripped up the playbook in sending out One Look (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) to win the Goffs Million by a scorching six lengths on debut at the Curragh on Saturday.

The Golden-based trainer shared how, along with One Look, Leopardstown maiden winner Juxtaposition (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) was picked up out of this sale by Kevin Connolly and Cormac McCormack for just €150,000 combined 12 months ago. The pair are worth a whole pile more 12 months on.

Twomey said, “I had never met Kevin before this sale last year. He bought two horses, Juxtaposition, who won the first mile maiden of the year at Leopardstown, and who has since been sold to Hong Kong. The other one was One Look, who won the Million on debut. Cont. p6

"It was through Cormac McCormack that I was introduced to him and he asked me to train them for him. The Connollys are a very famous racing family and Kevin trained in China, Macau and Australia."

He added, "We turn up to all of the yearling sales and try to find the horses we'd like to train and buy them at the best value we can. Sales is something I have been around all my life and I have been lucky at Goffs. The job is to try and find the next ones this week."

Seven Days

by Emma Berry

More than that though, Jarvis is simply a really good bloke who will be much missed among the Newmarket training ranks and beyond, especially in his role as a proactive and industrious president of the Newmarket Trainers' Federation.

In a sense, the Group 1 winners Grand Lodge (Chief's Crown) and Lady Bowthorpe (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) served as book-ends for Jarvis's training career, which commenced in 1985 after he had worked in Australia as an assistant to George Hanlon and Tommy Smith, and back in Newmarket to Henry Cecil.

It was at the latter's Warren Place where Jarvis would have first encountered the stock of Lord Howard de Walden, in whose famous apricot silks ran such great names as the Cecil-trained Slip Anchor (GB), Kris (GB) and Diesis (GB).

The same owner-breeder's Weld (GB) became an important early group winner for Jarvis in the Doncaster Cup and Jockey Club Cup of 1989 and he was followed several years later by Grand Lodge. As the trainer's first Group 1 winner, he ensured that Phantom House Stables remained very much on the map with his victory in the Dewhurst S., followed the next year by an agonising short-head defeat by Mister Baileys (GB) in the 2,000 Guineas before he notched his second top-level success in the St James's Palace S. Jarvis also oversaw the careers of Grand Lodge's sister Papabile and half-sister La Persiana (GB) (Daylami {Ire}), both of whom were dual Listed winners.

More recently, those colours were carried to success for Phantom House and Lady Howard de Walden by the G3 Lillie Langtry S. victrix Gravitation (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

"I was very lucky in the early days to have had the support of some English owner-breeders. It gave me a real headstart to have had Mr Jim Joel's colours and Lord Howard de Walden's colours hanging in the racing tack room. That was always very special," Jarvis said, while acknowledging that the demise of the owner-breeder has been one of the major changes in the near-four decades that he has been training.

"Mr Joel and Lord Howard de Walden never sold a yearling or a foal. Every single horse they bred was put into training," he said. "Even now, if you look at Cheveley Park Stud and Mr Oppenheimer and the Lloyd-Webbers: I would classify them as commercial owner-breeders. They sell some of their colts and to an extent they have to balance the books.

"The game has changed completely, that's for sure, and whether it's changed for the better is for other people to comment on. To an extent, and it's not a chippy remark at all, but it is becoming a bit more polarised, and the big are getting bigger, and the middle tier and smaller tier of professionals are going to be up against it."

Jarvis, who turns 63 next month, has three children who have steered different courses, but he admits that he only ever really had a desire to continue the Jarvis family tradition. His sister Jane George, who is married to Tattersalls' marketing director Jimmy George, is a director of the Newmarket-based International Racing Bureau.

"It was important to me, and I felt very honoured to be part of it, because my father was a pretty good trainer and my grandfather trained for King George V and trained Classic winners for the royal family from Egerton. My uncles, Jack Jarvis and Basil Jarvis, trained [Derby winners] Blue Peter and Papyrus, and Jack was given a knighthood for services to racing. My great-grandfather was a trainer and so, I'm pretty sure, was my great-great-grandfather. From the 1880s there has been a Jarvis training in Newmarket."

Sir Jack Jarvis, one of three sons of William Arthur Jarvis to train a British Classic winner, was indeed the first racehorse trainer to be knighted by the late Queen in 1967. A history of some of Newmarket's most famous training yards would doubtless unearth that a member of the Jarvis family had trained there at some stage, with Palace House, Park Lodge, Egerton House, Hackness Villa, Green Lodge and La Grange all included on that list, along with the now-defunct Waterwitch House and Warren House

Jarvis added, "My father trained at Clarehaven for a while, after the war until 1952 when he bought Phantom House."

While the conclusion of this season will bring about an end to his participation from Phantom House, he will remain in situ with plans to rent out the stables to Dylan Cunha, who already rents the bottom yard.

"I have a young grandson now but it's not going to be pipe and slippers," he said. "I need to find something to keep the adrenaline going. That's the thing about our industry, every day there's something to get the adrenaline going. It's not really a job, it's 24/7 and you have to overcome a lot of things as a racehorse trainer, but it's also a wonderful way of life and I've loved it.

"Newmarket is unique and long may it last. We've had a great time. I've had some wonderful staff over the years and I've trained for some wonderful people.

"It is sad, of course it is, but having said that I'm happy, I'm relieved, and I've had a wonderful career - well, I've enjoyed it, I don't know if other people have."

Anyone who was present at Glorious Goodwood two years ago when Lady Bowthorpe won the Nassau S. for Emma Banks would have heard and seen how much "other people" truly enjoyed a Group 1 winner trained by the eminent and popular William Jarvis.

"That meant a lot," he recalled. "It was very humbling."

Niarchos Restructuring

The Niarchos family's racing manager Alan Cooper was keen to stress that the sale of a significant number of the operation's mares at Goffs in November represents a restructuring of the breeding empire rather than a dispersal, but it was nevertheless

From three different consignors --Baroda Stud, Kiltinan Castle Stud and Norelands--44 mares will be offered for sale, including the four-time Group 1 winner and Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and her half-sister Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), who emulated her sibling by winning the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. The sisters are offered in foal to Sea The Stars (Ire) and Frankel (GB) respectively, and a full list of the mares being consigned, along with their covering sires, can be found here.

"The family will have the opportunity to set reserves on the stock as they see fit," Cooper told TDN's Brian Sheerin. "The racing stables will continue to be supported by foals, yearlings, two-year-olds and older horses that are already in the system."

Such a reassurance was music to the ears of anyone who has followed racing over a number of decades with a keen eye on the pedigrees of the top horses, for a Niarchos influence is never far from the winner's circle. The chance to buy into some of the family's best bloodstock presents an extremely rare opportunity that will draw breeders from across the globe to Goffs' Kildare Paddocks.

Sleepy in Name Only

Just in case you were in danger of thinking that Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) was the star of the show at Hughie Morrison's stable, up jumped the redoubtable 11-year-old Not So Sleepy (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) to remind us all that there's plenty of life in the old boy yet.

The two horses both race for their breeders Lord and Lady Blyth and, though unrelated, have a similar way of going: jump out smartly and try to make all. This was indeed the method of Not So Sleepy's latest win in the Dubai Duty Free Autumn Cup at Newbury on Saturday, which was his fifth on the Flat, his first having come on his debut nine years ago at Nottingham. Since those days, he has also won the Listed Dee S. and has been Group 3-placed but has enjoyed even greater success over hurdles. The peak of his five National Hunt wins came when he dead-heated with champion hurdler Epatante (Fr) in the G1 Fighting Fifth in 2021.

Not So Sleepy had not raced since his fifth-place finish in the Champion Hurdle in March, and he may yet head to the Cesarewitch before returning to hurdles.

Ittlingen Strikes Again

For the second weekend running, the colours of breeder Gestut Ittlingen returned to the winner's enclosure after a group race, each time borne by the offspring of the late Adlerflug (Ger). The previous weekend had seen victory for Lordano (Ger) in the G3 Deutsches St Leger, which was followed seven days later for victory in the G1 Grosser Preis von Europa for the mare India (Ger), who is both pretty and pretty talented.

The five-year-old, trained by Waldemar Hickst, became the eighth Group 1 winner for Adlerflug, and it is worth reflecting in this week that his success is not restricted to Germany, as his son Torquator Tasso (Ger) won the Arc two years ago, 12 months after another, the Deutsches Derby winner In Swoop (Ger), had finished second. Another son, Alenquer (Fr), won last year's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup in Ireland. For a stallion that has only had 272 runners to date, and not that many more to come, a ratio of 10.7% stakes winners to runners reads well.

Italian Flavour to Japanese Success

The Irish Oaks winner and Arc runner-up Sea Of Class (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) was arguably the best known of the offspring of Holy Moon (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) on the international stage, but the mare also produced a trio of winners of the Oaks d'Italia. The three - Charity Line (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}), Final Score (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), and Cherry Collect (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) - were all bred by the Botti family's Razza del Velino and have all subsequently been sold to Japan for their broodmare careers.

The most successful in this secondary phase to date is Cherry Collect, whose three-year-old son Satono Glanz (Jpn) (Satono Diamond {Jpn}), bred by Katsumi Yoshida's Northern Farm, won Sunday's G2 Kobe Shimbun Hai, his second victory at that level. He is the mares's sixth winner from six consecutive foals to race, along with the Listed winner and Grade 2-placed Wakea (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and Listed winner Diana Bright (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). Charity Line has produced three winners from her three runners, while Final Score has also produced three winners to date.

The sisters will not be the only Italian Oaks winners to be gracing the paddocks at Northern Farm as Katsumi Yoshida also purchased this year's winner, Shavasana (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) from her owner Mario Sansoni prior to her Classic success. She too was bred by Razza Del Velino and trained by Stefano Botti.

racers, owners and trainers will be presented with a three-metre tree of their choice supplied by locally-based nursery, Barchams, who will have a range of trees on display at the course.

"Trees are such an important contributor to the health and beauty of our planet," said owner and breeder Malih Al Basti, founder of Al Basti Equiworld Dubai, which is the UAE's leading distributor of horse feeds and supplements.

"Whenever I travel I try to make time to take an interest in the natural surroundings, and in the UK I am always staggered by the variety of trees.

"As a racehorse owner for many years I appreciate the significance of race trophies. With Al Basti Equiworld Dubai-sponsored races we try to be innovative and to source locally. This initiative offers us the opportunity to fulfil both these ambitions."

Another unusual twist to the day's racing comes in the form of the cover of the day's race cards which will be made from 'seed paper'. Once removed and planted, the biodegradable cover will release its seeds to create a wildflower bloom.

To mark the occasion a tree will be planted by Al Basti in the pre-parade ring on the Rowley Mile. The Crataegus laevigata, otherwise known as 'Paul's Scarlet', is a British native species and has been chosen because it traditionally flowers in early May, in time for the QIPCO Guineas Festival.

"Newmarket is one of my favourite racecourses in the world," he said. "I am delighted that the racecourse executive has accepted this gift as a token of my affection and recognition of the work they do to support horsemen and the wider racing community."

SISTER TO JOHANNES VERMEER DEBUTS AT CORK

15.40 Cork, Mdn, €16,000, 2yo, f, 8fT

FLIGHT OF FANCY (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) is the latest Ballydoyle newcomer to come to the stage and this is no back-number, being a full-sister to six black-type performers of varying degrees of quality headed by the G1 Criterium International winner and G1 Melbourne Cup runner-up Johannes Vermeer (Ire) and the G1 Dewhurst S. runner-up Wembley (Ire). Among her opponents is the similarly-unraced Wendla (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}), Juddmonte's 12th foal out of their high-class Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill) who is part of Ger Lyons's set-up.

Monday's Results:

3rd-Wolverhampton, £6,600, Novice, 9-25, 2yo, 6f 20y (AWT), 1:14.08, st.

PEN PORTRAIT (IRE) (c, 2, Night Of Thunder {Ire})--Beautiful Memory {Ire}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}), third on debut over this trip at Thirsk in August, was keen initially until restrained under cover in the box seat. Getting to the front a furlong from home, the 6-4 second favourite hit the line with 3/4 of a length to spare over City House (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). The winner is the first foal out of the dam, a half-sister to Rahy's G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua and G1 Premio Roma-winning sire Rio De La Plata and to the Argentinian group 1 hero El Expresivo (Arg) (Candy Stripes), as well as to the dam of this year's GIII Jockey Club Oaks Invitational and Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial winner Eternal Hope (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). Also connected to the multiple Argentinian group 1 winner Eragon (Arg) (Offlee Wild), her yearling filly is by Dark Angel (Ire), while she also has a colt foal by Victor Ludorum (GB). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $5,822. O-Rabbah Racing; B-Godolphin (IRE); T-Simon & Ed Crisford.

AMBIENTE FRIENDLY (IRE) (c, 2, Gleneagles {Ire}--Roxity {Ire}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}), sent off at 8-1, was able to dictate on his own terms in front from the outset. Asked to close the deal inside the final two furlongs, the 80,000gns Tatts Craven Breeze-Up graduate who was fitted with a hood for this debut responded to comfortably beat Majed (Ire) (Magna Grecia {Ire}) by 3 1/2 lengths. "It was pretty straightforward and was kind to himself early, which is good to see from a breeze-up horse," jockey Tom Marquand said. "He was really professional--when they are wearing a hood it usually tells its own story, but they've got him to the races in a real good frame of mind and he's rewarded their patience." The dam is a full-sister to the dual listed-placed Fastnet Mist (Ire) and a half to two others with that profile in Walkinthesand (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) and Aceland Street (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}). She is a granddaughter of Wannabe (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}), responsible for five black-type performers headed by the top-class Wannabe Grand (Ire) (Danehill) and the second dam of the GII Sheepshead Bay S. winner and GI Belmont Oaks Invitational third Higher Truth (Ire) by Gleneagles's sire Galileo (Ire) and the G1 Hong Kong Mile and G1 Champions Mile runner-up More Than This (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}). Next up from Roxity is a yearling colt by Blue Point (Ire). Sales history: 25,000gns RNA Ylg '22 TATOCT; 80,000gns 2yo '23 TATBRE. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,927.

QUEEN OF THE PRIDE (GB) (f, 3, Roaring Lion--Simple Verse {Ire} {MG1SW-Eng, $1,456,105}, by Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}), too green when eighth on debut over a mile at Newmarket in August, was kept wide initially before crossing over to lead the pack after the first three furlongs. Killing the contest between the two and the one, the 11-2 shot stayed on strongly to account for Safety Catch (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) by two lengths. The winner is the first representative for the dam, who was a trailblazer for the owners, winning the G1 St Leger and the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. as well as the G2 Park Hill S. and G3 Lillie Langtry Fillies S. She is a half-sister to the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Even Song (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), in turn the dam of last year's G1 Criterium International runner-up Espionage (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and to the G2 Superlative S.-placed Maxentius (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). Simple Verse's son of Kitten's Joy was unsurprisingly another Qatar Bloodstock acquisition for 130,000gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Sales history: 115,000gns 2yo '22 TATMA. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $6,618. O-Qatar Racing Limited; B-The Simple Verse Partnership (GB); T-John & Thady Gosden.

ESQUIRE (GB) (g, 2, Harry Angel {Ire}--Ladyship {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) broke swiftly and led from flagfall in this debut. Holding sway throughout, the 9-2 third favourite was allowed an inch of rein approaching the furlong marker and lengthened clear in style up the hill to easily account for Amancio (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}) by 2 3/4 lengths. Esquire is the sixth of seven foals and fifth scorer produced by Listed City Plate winner Ladyship (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), herself a half-sister to the stakes-placed Kinsman (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) out of G1 Sun Chariot S. and G1 Lockinge S. heroine Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). The March-foaled homebred bay is kin to G3 Dick Poole Fillies' S. victrix Dark Lady (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}), G3 Criterion S. winner Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) and a yearling filly by Mehmas (Ire). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $5,890. O/B-Cheveley Park Stud Ltd (GB); T-David O'Meara.

SHAMARKAND (FR) (c, 2, Harzand {Ire}--Shamkala {Fr} {GSW-Fr, $171,838}, by Pivotal {GB}), an Aug. 4 debut third going nine furlongs at Clairefontaine last time, was steadied to race in a midfield fifth until inching forward into fourth at halfway here. Easing closer in the straight, the 3-5 favourite was shaken up to launch his challenge passing the quarter-mile marker and ran on strongly under sterner urging inside the final furlong to deny The Shaking (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) by a neck in the dying strides. Shamarkand is the third of four foals and first scorer produced by G3 Prix Cleopatre victrix Shamkala

(Fr) (Pivotal {GB}), herself a half-sister to the dual stakes-placed Shamshad (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) out of MGSP Listed Prix de Thiberville winner Shamakiya (Ire) (Intikhab). Shamakiya, in turn, is a daughter of G2 Prix de Malleret victrix and G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Shamadara (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) and thus kin to a trio of black-type performers headed by G1 Gran Premio di Milano heroine Shamdala (Ire) (Grand Lodge). The March-foaled homebred bay is half to a yearling filly by Almanzor (Fr). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, €14,500. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-H H The Aga Khan; B-H H The Aga Khan's Studs SC (FR); T-Francis-Henri Graffard.

SLUICE (IRE) (f, 2, Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Song Maker {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), trapped wide racing handy after a slick getaway from the outside box, tucked in and found cover with a quarter-mile on the clock in this unveiling. Ushered back to the outside for a clear passage soon after passing halfway, the 4-1 second choice seized control approaching the final furlong and was driven out to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from Cornahilt Soldier (Ire) (Soldier's Call {GB}). "The [heavy] ground here today would have been questionable in whether she would handle it or not, but Declan [McDonogh] said she did and did things right," reported the winning stable's Sean Corby. "He slotted over from a wide draw and she picked up well up the straight and won nicely. Declan said another furlong would do no harm, she would definitely stay a mile and he was happy with her. She won a Dundalk barrier trial a few weeks back and she should be a nice filly going forward, but I'm not sure where Joseph [O'Brien] will go next. She handled Dundalk and heavy ground here today, so she seems quite versatile." Sluice, half-sister to a yearling colt by Night Of Thunder (Ire), is the first of two foals produced by a winning half-sister to GII Bernard Baruch H. and GIII Saranac S. placegetter Good Governance (GB) (Kingman {GB}).
