

HOUSE HORSE WYNSTOCK NO 'SOLO' ACT IN LOS ALAMITOS FUTURITY

Wynstock | Benoit

by Alan Carasso

Wynstock (Solomini), campaigned in partnership by Los Alamitos track owner Ed Allred and one-time Hollywood Park president and current Los Al vice president Jack Liebau, provided his New York-based stallion with his second stakes winner of the afternoon and first at the graded level when narrowly outlasting Stronghold (Ghostzapper) in Saturday's GII Los Alamitos Futurity.

It was the eighth victory in the 10 runnings of the Futurity since relocating to Orange County for trainer Bob Baffert and first since 2020. Ironically, Solomini crossed the wire best in the 2017 renewal, only to be demoted to third behind his 'TDN Rising Star' stable companion McKinzie. It was nearly deja vu all over again on Saturday.

Off at 13-1, the second-longest shot in the scratched-down field of five and easily least-preferred of the three Baffert entrants was ridden aggressively from the inside gate by Kyle Frey and set the pace in advance of Wine Me Up (Vino Rosso) as Ace of Clubs (Mor Spirit) poked through between them. Stronghold and odds-on 'TDN Rising Star' Coach Prime (Quality Road) raced at the back of a compact group as they turned down the backstretch.

FEWER GRADED RACES, NET LOSS OF FOUR GRADE I EVENTS FOR 2024

A total of 429 graded stakes races--down from 440 in 2023--and four fewer top-level events will be contested in 2024, the American Graded Stakes Committee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association announced following its two-day grading session Dec. 14 and 15.

The Committee reviewed 970 overall with purses of at least $75,000 and also assigned listed status to a further 213 races. Some 10 races were upgraded from their previous status--one new Grade I and nine Grade IIs. Four new Grade III events were also listed. Fourteen new listed races and two new listed/restricted races were upgraded from non-listed black-type status.

The Franklin-Simpson S. at Kentucky Downs is the lone new Grade I for 2024, while the Carter H., the Man o'War S., the Beverly D. S., the United Nations S. and Hollywood Gold Cup each lost its elite-level grading. Cont. p5

COULD GOLDEN GATE CLOSE EARLY?

The City Council of Berkeley, California, could vote on an ordinance that could lead to the premature closing of Golden Gate Fields, casting further doubt on the Northern California racing scene.

Urged along as they raced into the final half-mile, Wynstock was put to a more vigorous drive as Wine Me Up and Coach Prime took runs at him from the outside. Three and four wide, respectively, into the lane, that duo failed to go on with it, and Stronghold emerged the biggest danger down inside. Wynstock and Stronghold exchanged two or three bumps in the final furlong and a half, and the former gutted out a narrow victory before withstanding a stewards' inquiry. Coach Prime re-rallied late to get within a length at the finish.

"He was on his toes and actually looked like he was going to run in the Champion of Champions," Baffert said, referring to the famed Quarter Horse race. "He's a stout, beautiful horse. I'm just really happy for Doc. We go back way back. To have this moment is special. He bought him and trusted me. I'm so excited."

Of Coach Prime, he added: "He was sort of in and out the whole way. He got a little warm behind the gate and got shuffled back a bit. He's still green."

A $50,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $700,000 OBS April breezer, Wynstock burned plenty of money in his first two appearances, finishing a well-beaten fourth at 8-5 on Del Mar debut Aug. 25 and fifth as the 12-5 chalk over a rain-affected Santa Anita strip Sept. 30. The bettors deserted him for his latest and those that jumped ship paid for it, as Wynstock led all the way to graduate by 7 1/2 lengths going a mile in Arcadia Oct. 15. Cont. p4

BERKELEY CITY COUNCIL ORDINANCECOULD CLOSE GOLDEN GATE EARLY By Dan Ross

Berkeley City Council could vote on an ordinance that, if passed, would essentially lead to the premature closure of Golden Gate Fields and throw into question the near-term future of the Northern California horse colony, workforce and training colony, the latter already buffeted by 25% cuts to the track's purses.

The Bay Area racetrack is scheduled to race from Dec. 26 through June 9, 2024, after which the facility is set to close permanently.

The proposed ordinance--which makes the claim that confining a horse to its stall for the majority of the day is akin to animal abuse--would make it illegal to keep a horse stabled for more than 10 hours a day and requires every horse access to a minimum of one-half acre of pasture turnout.

There are currently around 1200 horses stabled at Golden Gate, with nearly 290 grooms, hotwalkers and other stable employees living there, according to Dave Duggan, Golden Gate vice president and general manager.

Though tweaked in places, the revised language closely resembles the original ordinance introduced earlier this year by Berkeley City councilmember Kate Harrison, who is currently running to be Berkeley Mayor.

On Nov. 12, the city council's Health, Life Enrichment, Equity, and Community Committee unanimously voted to send the item to the nine-member Berkeley City Council for a formal vote.

According to Harrison, the ordinance will be heard by the City Council in January and would need a majority vote to pass. The first Berkeley City Council meeting after winter recess is on Jan. 16.

It's currently unclear if the ordinance, if passed, would go into effect immediately or after a period of time.

California Thoroughbred Trainers (CTT) president Eoin Harty wrote in a statement that as proposed, the ordinance would seriously impinge upon the ability of the horsemen and women of Golden Gate to properly care for their horses.

"If enacted, this measure would not protect the welfare of horses but, in fact, be detrimental to them as horses in enclosures outside of stables may suffer greater risks to their health and safety," wrote Harty.

"Stables have been honed over thousands of years to allow horses to remain social while protecting them from injury caused from other horses as well as self-inflicted harm. This ordinance would also negatively impact the large numbers of people whose own livelihoods depend on racing," Harty added.

"It's not something to be taken lightly," said California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) executive director Scott Chaney.

According to Chaney, the proposed ordinance has some "serious legal problems" in terms of Berkeley's legal jurisdiction to impose such a mandate.

The nine-page proposed ordinance states that the legislation is designed to govern "only those areas not already directly covered by State and Federal laws. It specifically focuses on a limited set of conditions to supplement the existing regulatory framework."

It also claims that, as a charter city, Berkeley has the authority to "establish regulations and the jurisdiction to protect and promote the public health, safety and welfare by establishing safeguards for horses as long as they do not conflict with or duplicate state and federal law."

But horse racing in California is regulated by the CHRB and by the federal government through the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA), explained Chaney.

"That area's been pre-empted by state and federal government, and so, I don't believe, at least preliminarily, that it would survive a legal challenge," said Chaney.

The proposed ordinance--which is specifically focused on horses "Held, Owned, Used, Exhibited, or Otherwise Kept for Racing or Other Sport, Entertainment or Profit"--makes several glaring misrepresentations of the Thoroughbred racing industry.

The ordinance appears to make the erroneous suggestion that Thoroughbred racehorses, on average, live to only three to five years of age.

"Many fatalities in horseracing are euthanizations after horses suffer catastrophic injuries, cutting their lives unnaturally short," the ordinance states. "When CBS Bay Area reported on the most recent horse death at GGF in May of this year it cited the fact that 'live into their 30s, but the average age of is [only] three to five years old.'"

The ordinance also states that "horse deaths continue to rise at the horse racing tracks within City limits."

According to the Jockey Club Equine Injury Database, race-day equine fatalities are declining nationwide. Last year saw the lowest statistical equine fatality rate since 2009, when record keeping began--1.29 fatalities per 1000 starts.

When it comes to Golden Gate Fields, the track's equine fatality rate has been consistently below the national average since 2017. Last year, the rate was 0.56 fatalities per 1000 starts--a number less than half the national average.

The proposed ordinance marks just the latest turbulence faced by the horsemen and women of Golden Gate Fields--which opened in 1941--as it lurches towards its official end.

The Stronach Group (TSG) announced in July that it was closing Golden Gate Fields at the end of December with the goal of increasing field size and adding another day of racing a week at Santa Anita.

After pushback from industry stakeholders who argued that such an abrupt closure would pose an existential threat to the future of racing in Northern California, TSG officials left the door open to delaying the track's closure another six months. But they appeared to make such a deal incumbent upon a reshaping of the way simulcasting proceeds are allocated in the state.

The rule of thumb is that proceeds from wagers made in the "northern zone" stay in Northern California to pay for purses and operational expenses, while the proceeds from wagers made in the "southern zone" stay in Southern California for the same purposes.

Initially, various stakeholders in Northern California—including representatives of the California Authority of Racing Fairs (CARF)—voiced resistance to TSG's idea of moving these proceeds south.

In September, however, California lawmakers sought enough buy-in to pass legislation that meant if Golden Gate Fields is not licensed to operate beyond July 1 next year, proceeds from simulcast wagering in the north are funneled south when there is no live racing in the northern half of the state after that date.

In recent years, Golden Gate Fields has found itself the target of animal rights activists.

In March of 2021, protestors disrupted racing by running onto the track before lying in a circle with interlocking pipes.

The protestors belonged to animal rights organization, Direct Action Everywhere, which had sought to shut Golden Gate Fields down for good.

Alan Balch, CTT Executive Director, wrote in a statement that CTT is concerned about the negative impact the Berkeley ordinance will have on horse welfare, mirroring Harty's comments.

"We are working with all segments of equestrian sports to educate legislators about horse safety, and we look forward to meeting with Berkeley's elected leaders to discuss this ordinance," wrote Balch.

Balch added: "Relying on the good faith of the Berkeley City Council and leadership, CTT believes this is a matter requiring the facts about good horsemanship and horse care—not just for horse racing but all horses—to be brought to their attention."

Down in Hallandale, Whisper Hill Farm homebred Tapit's Starlet (Tapit) will make her debut. The Ralph Nicks trainee is a half-sister to GIII Lexington S. runner-up Unbridled Honor (Honor Code). A $1-million purchase by Whisper Hill at the 2011 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, dam Silvery Starlet is a half-sibling to GI Cigar Mile champ El Corredor (Mr. Greeley) and GI Haskell Invitational H. victor Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus).

Kuldeep Singh Rajput's Gandharvi Racing has Urgence (Into Mischief) set for her inaugural run. Trained by Brendan Walsh, the $575,000 Keeneland September buy is out of SP Divine Elegance (Uncle Mo), who went for $750,000 to Breeze Easy at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale while in foal to Tapit. Urgence's extended female family includes MGISP Standard

The 5-2 choice here settled mid-pack along the rail before moving up a couple spots just behind the leaders. The Carlos David trainee was on hold around the far turn, but past the quarter pole the inside lane opened up, she moved to the two path at the eighth pole and sealed the deal.

"I kind of want to give her a little bit of time off," said David. "She's been running good. I'm going to talk to the guys and maybe send her to the warm weather for a couple of months. I'll leave it up to them."

He added. "She's great and has done good for us. I always like to give them a little break, maybe run her one time in Florida. She's a New York-bred, but after a race like this, maybe we just give her a couple months off and let her refresh."

The winner's dam has continued to visit Solomini, producing a yearling colt, foaling another May 9 and she visited that sire once again for next year. Antonio of Venice broke his maiden at third asking against auction restricted open company at Saratoga July 20 before finishing a well-beaten sixth upstate in the Skidmore S. Aug. 18. The Rudy Rodriguez trainee was last seen finishing fourth in the state-bred Aspirant S. At Finger Lakes Sept. 25.

A 6-1 shot here, the bay colt nestled behind stablemate Heavyweight Champs (Solomini) up the backstretch. Boxed in around the far turn, Antonio of Venice ran into traffic when he attempt to tip to the outside past the quarter pole. Finally getting free, he swung to the outside at the eighth pole and uncorked a rally to win at the wire.

"It's one of the bucket list things that we got one-two in the $500,000 race," said Rodriguez. "That's what we work so hard for. All the credit goes to the help in the barn, they do an amazing job. The grooms, the hotwalkers, my assistants--we have a very good team. I'm so happy to be around in the mornings with them. Otto the Conqueror (outside) | Dustin Orona

Otto the Conqueror picked up a black-type feather for his cap with this gutsy victory in the Remington Springboard Mile S., and earned 10 points for the Road to the Kentucky Derby.

A dominating four-length winner last out Oct. 29 over a Churchill allowance optional claiming group which included next-out GII Kentucky Jockey Club winner Honor Marie (Honor Code) and SW Just Steel (Justify), he'd broken his maiden two back over that track by a neck and ran a length second on unveiling Aug. 13 at Ellis Park to eventual GIII Street Sense S. victor Liberal Arts (Arrogate).

Locking horns almost from the jump, Otto the Conqueror and Glengarry refused to give each other peace, their duel opening a sizeable gap between the pair and the field. Taking the slimmest of margins coming into the straight, the eventual winner sustained his long drive best in the end, scoring by 3/4 of a length over his long-time rival as Magic Grant closed from the rear to pick up third.

"It's off to Hot Springs [Arkansas and Oaklawn Park] and Derby trail, here we come," said Steve Asmussen, who has won this contest seven times. "You just saw two nice horses hook up from start to finish."

The first to the races for dam Dream It Is as 3-year-old eldest sister Petit Reve (Empire Maker) has yet to make a start, Otto the Conqueror sets a high bar for the siblings to follow for his young dam, a pair of half-sisters; a Blame yearling and a 2023 Curlin. Dream It Is was bred to Uncle Mo for 2024. This is the female line of European champion 3-year-old filly MG1SW Bosra Sham, who went on to produce GSW Rosberg (A.P. Indy) as well as Otto the Conqueror's branch of the family. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Last seen in the winner's circle at Churchill Downs in late May, War Campaign easily held a pair of salty rivals to the wire in the Tinsel S.

Placed in Ellis Park's Hanshin S. in July, and producing a 97 Beyer-worthy second in a Keeneland allowance two back in October before running third last out Nov. 4 beneath the Twin Spires, he was given 6-1 odds here. Tracking from third as MGSP Speed Bias and Strong Quality took up spots in front of him, War Campaign skimmed the rail into the lane to take over the lead. Drifting out passing the furlong marker, he held steady to the wire while Speed Bias claimed second over early leader Strong Quality.

"[Owner] Mr. Namy and I, we had this race circled back in November," winning trainer Phil Sims said. "That was kind of our plan to bring him there. He's been stakes-placed three or four times, I think, but never had been able to win one. It's good to get one out of the way. Horse will probably get a little better with age."

Hailing from an accomplished first three offspring for the dam, the victor has a multiple-winning 3-year-old half-brother Gunflash (Gun Runner) as well as a 2-year-old Arrogate half-brother named Kalahari King. Flashy Campaign produced a 2023 Constitution filly before visiting Authentic for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Miss Code West won all three of her starts this fall while facing state-breds at Remington Park. After a debut, maiden-breaking performance Oct. 5, the bay filly won a pair of black-type races as the favorite.

The 7-5 second choice here, Miss Code West took the lead into the first turn and continued to set the fractions up the backstretch. Despite some pressure from Tx Women for Arts around the far turn, the leader responded and strolled home to stay perfect.

"She's just coming into herself," said trainer Kevin Scholl. "She came to me last spring, I liked her looks and all, but the first time she ran, I didn't know what to expect. I was hoping she could win (tonight)." Cont.

The winner's has two elder siblings with black-type, namely SP J B's Legacy (Den's Legacy) and SP Inca Empire (Midshipman) as well as a trio of full-siblings--a winning 3-year-old brother Missing Code, a yearling filly and a weanling one. After a two-month break, Perfect Wish came off the shelf to run a well-beaten seventh in the Remington Park Oaks Sept. 24.

As a 5-2 shot here, the dark bay filly established a comfortable lead before the first turn and kept to the task up the backstretch. With no one to challenge her around the far turn, Perfect Wish kicked for home and clearly had more to give as she crossed the wire.

The victress's unraced dam, a half-sister to MGSP Strongconstitution (Constitution) and SP Four Inch Heels (Afleet Alex), is responsible for yearling filly Princess Maha (Complexity), who was sent to Saudi Arabia. WOODS EDGE FARM GRADUATE 7th-Laurel, $59,470, Alw (NW2X)/Opt. Clm ($32,000-$40,000), 12-16, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10.43, ft, 4 1/4 lengths.

WITTY (g, 4, Great Notion--Zeezee Zoomzoom, by Congrats) dropped from stakes company after running fifth in the Aqueduct Turf Sprint Championship Nov. 18. The 2-5 choice here broke slowly, but had plenty of pace to chase. With a six-wide move at the top of the lane, the homebred won by 4 1/4 lengths over Magic Mule (Distorted Humor). The winner is a half-brother to the recently retired Caravel (Mizzen Mast), MGISW-USA, GISP-Can, $1,983,327. His dam produced a yearling filly by Street Boss and was bred to Justify for 2024. Lifetime Record: MSW, 20-7-7-0, $505,260. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B/T-Elizabeth M. Merryman (PA).

9th-Fair Grounds, $54,000, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($50,000), 12-16, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m (off turf), 1:44.71, sy, 8 1/2 lengths.

TRYINMYHEARTOUT (f, 3, Into Mischief--Miss Hollywood {SW, $151,430}, by Malibu Moon) ran third in Monmouth's Violet S. in early September before changing conditioners from Jose Camejo to Shane Wilson for her trip last out, where she finished a non-threatening 10th over this distance on the grass. Washed off the turf for this start, she settled off the pace early before sweeping past the leader on the far turn. She sailed home 8 1/2 lengths best over Lady Jeopardy (Liam's Map). The first to the races for her dam, the winner has an unplaced half-sister Hollywood Dream (Uncle Mo) as well as a 2023 Charlatan half-brother.

Miss Hollywood was bred to Life is Good and Speightstown for 2024. Sales history: $400,000 Ylg '21 FTSAUG; $625,000 RNA 2yo '22 OBSOPN. Lifetime Record: SP, 11-3-0-1, $153,950. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

JUST BEAT THE ODDS (c, 3, Munnings--Bella d'Oro, by Medaglia d'Oro), second last out by a neck to MSW Ninetyprcentmaddie (Weigeila) in the off-turf Carle Place S. at the Belmont Big A meet, had never left Monmouth Park before that start but managed to break his maiden by a stylish 8 1/2 lengths on his fourth try at the venue. The 4-5 heavy favorite here, he set up good position from midpack early and swung into the bend from three off the rail. Launching his winning bid passing the quarter pole, he locked horns with long-time leader Spikezone (Speightster) until the final strides and won by a half-length. The most recent to the races, Just Beat the Odds is thus far the last registered offspring for his dam, who missed in 2021 and 2022 coverings, and again produced no offspring after a second visit in 2023 to King for a Day. Lifetime Record: SP, 7-2-3-1, $110,425. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

MIDSHIPMAN'S DANCE (f, 2, Midshipman--Sticks Wondergirl {SW, $198,048}, by Stevie Wonderboy), off at debut odds of 9-2, dropped to the back of the field as Tale of La Bee (Bee Jersey) contended with Spiritual Lady (Nyquist) on the front end. The aforementioned pair were joined on the rail by Ruby Queen (Classic Empire) at the top of the stretch and forced Midshipman's Dance to swing five wide. She charged gamely down the stretch to catch Ruby Queen at the wire, scoring by a half length. Midshipman's Dance commanded a final price of $150,000 at last year's Keeneland September Sale. She proved more precocial than her siblings, becoming the first debut winner for her stakes-winning dam Sticks Wondergirl. Sticks Wondergirl has a yearling colt by Vekoma and has been bred to Knicks Go for 2024. Sales history: $150,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

1st-Aqueduct, $82,450, Msw, 12-16, 2yo, 6f, 1:11.03, ft, head. STRAT MO MATIC (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Elusive Raven, by Elusive Quality), a full-brother to Lost Raven, GSW, $359,050, was hammered down to 4-5 to win at first asking here. He tracked the early leaders from the outside and took over from the pacesetter on the far turn. He kicked for home with a commanding lead and dug down deep in the stretch to hold off Have You Heard (Hard Spun) by a head. The winner's dam, a half-sister to MGSW & MGISP Lewis Bay (Bernardini) and GSW's Winslow Homer (Unbridled's Song) and Misconnect (Unbridled's Song), had a filly by Vino Rosso in 2023. She was bred back to Mo Donegal. Sales history: $75,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP; $23,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR. AGRA (f, 2, Blame--Field, by War Front), fifth as the favorite going six furlongs over the Aqueduct turf Nov. 5, looked to restore her luster despite the heavy rain and move to the all-weather course here. The 3-1 chance settled off the pace set by Joyful Lass (War Front) and raced to the outside of 2-1 favorite Mitole Magic (Mitole). Joyful Lass attempted to steal the race on the front end, but was thwarted as Agra found her best stride heading into the stretch. Agra kicked clear of Joyful Lass from there and had 2 3/4 lengths over that rival at the wire. The win was her first departure from the turf in three starts. Agra hails from the female family of Claiborne Farm stallion Lea, who demonstrated an affinity for multiple surfaces with wins in the GI Donn H. on the dirt and GIII Commonwealth Turf S. on the turf. The first to the races for her dam, Agra has a yearling half-brother by Flatter and a weanling half-sister by Uncle Mo. Her dam has been bred to Not This Time for 2024. HONKY TONK HIGHWAY (c, 2, City of Light--Shared Humor, by Distorted Humor) donned blinkers for the first time as he attempted to avenge his last out fifth-place finish over the Fair Grounds turf Nov. 18. The 2-1 chance broke sharply in this off-the-turfer and rocketed to the early lead chased by fellow City of Light colt Big Fig. The pair were inseparable up the backstretch as 6-5 favorite Redeposit (Omaha Beach) inched closer. Honky Tonk Highway shook clear on the far turn and poured it on in the stretch, driving home 6 3/4 lengths to the better of Redeposit. Honky Tonk Highway, a $180,000 Keeneland September yearling graduate, is out of a half-sister to GSWs Slow Pace (Distorted Humor) and Funny Duck (Distorted Humor). His dam Shared Humor has also produced a yearling colt by Laoban and a weanling filly by Not This Time. She was bred to Olympiad for 2024. INTO STARS (f, 2, Into Mischief--Star Billing {GISW, $415,067}, by Dynaformer), a debut second in an off-the-turfer at Saratoga Aug. 10, made her next two starts on grass, including a sixth-place finish at Keeneland last time Oct. 19. Backed at 7-2 with first-time Lasix here, she raced on the inside in sixth through an opening quarter in :21.92. She began to make her move on the far turn, was tipped out to the six path at the top of the stretch and kicked home down the center to win by 1 1/4 lengths over Oh My Mia (Quality Road). SCATIFY (c, 2, Justify--Broadway Run {SW, $228,360}, by Prospective) debuted as a 9-1 shot here. The chestnut colt raced wide in fourth up the backstretch and was given his cue around the far turn. Taking on Beneficial (Malibu Moon) before the top of the lane, the John Sadler trainee hooked favorite March of Time (Justify) and gained the upper hand at the sixteenth pole en route to a half a length win. His dam's first record of produce, the winner has a yearling half-brother by Munnings and a weanling half-sister by Mendelssohn who was foaled Mar. 8. Broadway Run visited Blame for 2024.

BIG-RACE WINNERS IN WAITING? FIVE TO FOLLOW FROM THE MARES SALES

Pipsy: could be the type to do well in America | Racingfotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

The breeding stock sales are, by definition, where many of the best broodmares and foals are offered under the hammer, but many fine racing prospects have emerged from these sessions in recent years.

Some farm the sales better than others, notably trainers Joseph O'Brien and Paddy Twomey, who have made a habit of replenishing their stables with high-class runners each winter.

SPEAK IN COLOURS RETIRES TO HARAS DES FONTAINES

Multiple group winner Speak In Colours (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}--Maglietta Fina {Ire}, by Verglas {Ire}) has been retired and will stand at Haras des Fontaines for €1,900 next year. The Jour de Galop reported the news on Saturday.

Bred by Scuderia Archi Romani, the half-brother to G1 Nassau S. heroine Lady Bowthorpe (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) won a total of six stakes over a six-year career, and was also third in the 2019 G1 Prix de la Forêt. He won the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. in 2018, the G3 Renaissance S. in 2019, and the G2 Greenlands S. and G3 Ballycorus S., both in 2020. After changing hands for 22,000gns out of the 2021 Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale, he made several more starts. The grey 8-year-old's record stands at 36-8-5-4 and $512,719 in earnings.

His dam won four times in Italy and England, and is from the family of stakes winners Pie In Your Eye (Spend A Buck), Pie's Lil Brother (Roar) and Monsagem (Nureyev). The last-named horse was third in the G1 Prix Jean Prat.

Another on the move to Fontaines is listed hero Master's Spirit (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}--Lavayssiere, by Sicyos). Produced by Bouzid Chehboub and Kamel Chehboub's breeding programme, the four-time group-placed 12-year-old will stand for €1,600 as a dual purpose sire.

So who fared best this winter? O'Brien and Twomey were back again, with the pair signing for some interesting prospects with a view towards next season, while a number of mares with interesting profiles were sold abroad or to new partnerships with the aim of enhancing their profiles over the coming 12 months. Here are five to follow from the breeding stock sales.

Rogue Millennium

The case for Rogue Millennium (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) was an obvious one and it was bloodstock agents David Lanigan and Ted Durcan, working on behalf of American owner Scott Heider, who secured the classy filly to go into training with Joseph O'Brien.

Rogue Millennium deservedly occupied star billing in the Sceptre Sessions and she lived up to her reputation when selling for 1.65 million gns.

Fillies with genuine Group 1 form and the ability to race on don't come up on the market too often, and Heider, who has already had some classy performers with O'Brien, was forced to pay to secure the four-year-old.

However, Rogue Millennium showed top-notch form for former trainer Tom Clover and owners The Rogues Gallery, with her runner-up effort behind the brilliant Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) suggesting that she is not far off making the breakthrough at the highest level.

A Group 2 winner at Royal Ascot this season, Rogue Millennium rarely disappointed and her ability to handle quick ground could mean she is a candidate to take in races abroad. Given that O'Brien is a dab hand at travelling horses all over the world, Rogue Millennium could well be the type to be on her travels next year. Now, that would be exciting.

It must be said that Rogue Millennium was not the only classy prospect that O'Brien snapped up at the mares sales this winter. At the opposite end of the spectrum, classy youngster Without Words (Mendelssohn), who Mick Murphy and Sarah O'Connell of Longways Stables put into training after failing to sell the filly at the breeze-ups, went the way of Justin Casse on behalf of the trainer for €450,000.

Without Words looked a smart prospect in the making when winning second time up for trainer Francois Rohaut at Toulouse and commanded a price tag to reflect that ability. She's another to note.

Lady Tilbury

Word on the street is that Lady Tilbury (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), a four-time winner over sprint trips for David Marnane, is off to Paddy Twomey after being knocked down to BBA Ireland for 150,000gns at Tattersalls. Cont. p4

On the face of things, Lady Tilbury may not scream Group performer in the making, but the four-year-old has offered flashes of high-class form for Marnane.

One thing we know about Lady Tilbury is that she is very quick. Something of a Tipperary specialist, she won three times at that track over the minimum distance, with her sole other victory coming at another speed favouring course in Cork.

It may not be the craziest idea to compare Lady Tilbury's profile to that of Sonnaiyla (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who joined Twomey rated 82, but improved 26lbs and bagged a Group 3 success for the Golden-based trainer.

It will be a big ask for Lady Tilbury to improve to that extent but it's worth noting that Marnane thought highly enough of the filly to pitch her into Group 3 company on her final start for the stable at Dundalk in October.

Things may not have gone to plan on that occasion but an argument could be made that Lady Tilbury's best days are still ahead of her and she is one to keep an eye on in 2024.

It's no secret that Twomey has done extremely well out of the mares sales in recent years and La Isla Mujeres (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) was another interesting recruit to his yard at 330,000gns.

Signed for alongside bloodstock agent Jason Kelly, La Isla Mujeres showed classy form for Ralph Beckett on behalf of Valmont, winning twice and reaching a rating of 93.

She was not far off achieving black-type for her former connections and, given her lightly-raced profile, rates another interesting prospect for next season. Cont. p5

Relief Rally

It's fair to say the Yulong team likes to keep everyone guessing. Between buying online and signing under different pseudonyms, Yuesheng Zhang's major ownership vehicle made things interesting at Goffs, Tattersalls and more recently at Arqana.

The top lot at Arqana, Place Du Carrousel, was rumoured to have been bought by the Yulong outfit under the banner of Portofino Bloodstock for the unusual sum of €4,025,000. It was also suggested by some in the know that the Group 1 winner would be continuing her career in Australia for the powerful operation, similarly to Alcohol Free (Ire) (No Nay Never).

Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) could be another interesting one to have joined the Yulong team. One of the star juveniles this term, Relief Rally won four of her five starts for William Haggas, culminating with a brilliant victory in the G2 Lowther S.

She was knocked down to the unknown entity of Mrs A Sullivan for 800,000gns during a helter-skelter edition of the Sceptre Sessions at Tattersalls.

Should time reveal Relief Rally to be another big-name signing for Yulong, she would form part of a strong group of older mares for the team to look forward to next year and definitely has Group 1 aspirations.

Pipsy

Young trainer Will Walden marked his first trip to Tattersalls by snapping up three quality fillies for just over 1.8million gns and Pipsy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) could well prove the pick.

Pipsy went from strength to strength in three starts for trainer Ger Lyons, building on her debut second at Cork to run out an authoritative winner of a Curragh maiden before making the breakthrough at listed level back over the minimum trip at Dundalk.

The juvenile is just the type who could suit the style of racing in America and has already proved that she handles a quick surface in winning at Dundalk.

She could be a name to note for Walden who also landed Aussie Girl (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) for 380,000gns and Olivia Maralda (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) for 725,000gns at the Sceptre Sessions.

Royal Grey

Nobody could accuse John O'Connor of Ballylinch Stud of being a rigid thinker and, while some people would turn their noses up at Italian form, he thought it worthwhile to partner up and buy Royal Grey (GB) from Endo Botti for €135,000 at Arqana last week.

By the sire of the moment, Havana Grey (GB), Royal Grey showed a likeable attitude to win at listed level in Italy. What that form amounts to is hard to weigh up but she's clearly a filly who tries hard and is deserving of a tilt at black-type races in France. Cont. p6

That's exactly what the plan is for Royal Grey, who was purchased alongside an unnamed partner to go into training with Nicolas Clement. There could be a lot of fun to be had with her over sprint trips in France next season.
