GRASS IS GREENER FOR KLARAVICH

Newspaperofrecord in full flight in the Breeders' Cup | Horsephotos

By Kelsey Riley

When 'TDN Rising Star' Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) stormed to her third successive dominant win in the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf, she ensured that her connections' experiment to import yearlings purchased at Tattersalls to race in the U.S. would go down as a resounding success.

That part of the story has been well-documented. It is also worth reflecting on what this experiment means as a microcosm for the undeniable growth of grass racing in America.

Owner Seth Klarman and trainer Chad Brown didn't need to go to Europe to find good racehorses. Klarman, under his Klaravich Stables moniker, has raced Grade I winners like Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) and Practical Joke (Into Mischief), both trained by Brown. Brown is, of course, one of the preeminent trainers in the U.S. and the dominant top-level turf trainer. Brown's best horses have included both American-breds and European imports sent to him with form.

But these are both men who see opportunity and grab it; they didn't reach the top of their respective professions by resting in their comfort zones.

There is nothing new about importing European horses to America (and vice versa) and winning races. But during a time when high quality turf racing in the U.S. is growing sharply, the fact that a pair of dyed-in-the-wool Americans considered it worthwhile to put the time, effort and expense into selecting and shipping a handful of yearlings from Newmarket to the U.S. when they were having plenty of success otherwise should be considered significant.

Brown said minutes after Newspaperofrecord's Breeders' Cup win, "We decided to go over [to Tattersalls] and try a new market because we're always looking to change our model a little bit, and studying the races over here–yes, I've had success in this race before with the American-bred horses, but I also have a division of my stable where I get a lot of imported horses that we try to buy or owners just send to me from Europe."

"Just thinking forwardly, I said to Seth, 'would you be open to buying some yearlings [in Europe]?' If we want to have some of these European-bred horses that I feel on the average just have better blood for running on turf courses–like this today and at a high level all over the world–then we're going to have to go in and buy some unraced ones. He said, 'sure, we'll go over there and try it.'" Cont. p2

Another of the vital cogs in the experiment was bloodstock agent Mike Ryan, who helped Klaravich Stables pick out six yearlings at Tattersalls last year and 10 this year. The Irish-born Ryan has been living in America for the better part of 40 years.

"It began through Chad," Ryan said. "Chad and I have been friends for seven or eight years now and we began to work together five or six years ago. I had some horses with him and I sent him some owners like Bill Warren and Bob Edwards. Our relationship has grown over the years and we have a great mutual respect. I think he's an incredible trainer, and he sought out my help to help him pick yearlings at the sales and it's worked very well."

"Seth [Klarman] likes to have a balanced stable," Ryan continued. "He loves racing, period, and he particularly loves Saratoga; he races primarily in New York. Having Chad as his trainer, Chad is equally adept at dirt and grass horses and the grass program is fantastic in the States and it's getting better and better. Almost half of our Breeders' Cup races are grass races. It was a natural progression for Seth and when Chad brought up the idea of going to Newmarket, Seth was fully on board with it and very supportive of the concept."

> THE GRASS PROGRAM IS FANTASTIC IN THE STATES AND IT'S GETTING BETTER AND BETTER. ALMOST HALF OUR BREEDERS' CUP RACES ARE GRASS RACES.

> Mike Ryan

Ryan has laid his eyes on enough good horses to know one when he sees one–he even worked at Windfields Farm in Canada during the Northern Dancer glory days–and he said when selecting European yearlings to race in the U.S. he looks for a leaner horse with the potential for a strong finishing kick.

"Personally I don't like horses that are too heavy," he said. "I think the best grass horses are a bit on the leaner side. They have to have a good turn of foot. Turf racing is a bit different to dirt; dirt is fast from the gate to the wire but with turf racing a lot of horses cruise around there then kick on from the quarter pole to the wire and finish the last quarter in :22 and change. I like leaner horses, not heavy horses and ones that can use themselves very well and are agile and not cumbersome. In this country we have good to firm turf most of the year so we're looking for horses that can handle fast ground."

During a time when speed is king in Europe, Ryan noted that the Klaravich team is looking specifically for two-turn horses to take advantage of good purses in that realm on the grass in the U.S. They have also done all their shopping at Tattersalls in the middle market; Newspaperofrecord's group averaged 219,167gns, while this year's haul averaged 213,500gns.

"We're not particularly looking at sprinters; we're looking at horses that can go anywhere from a mile to a mile and a quarter because there is huge purse money in the longer races here," Ryan explained. "It's very difficult to compete on the very high end against the Middle East money, the Maktoum family and Coolmore. Although we did buy a Dubawi in 2017, the Dubawis and the Galileos we kind of leave alone and look underneath that. We're looking for the next best quality, sires like Lope de Vega, Sea the Stars and Kingman."

"They have the best turf horses in the world in England and Ireland, and the Newmarket sales are a melting pot of the best of England, Ireland and France, so you have great quality of stallions and the broodmares are very strong. It's a terrific catalogue and we work it very hard; we look at 350, 400 horses and try to be smart about knowing where we can buy and where we can't buy."

While Newspaperofrecord is the lone horse of the Klaravich Tattersalls experiment to yet start, Ryan said others have given them reason to believe there will be more headlines made in 2019 and beyond.

"There were others that were ready to run and they came up with little issues that have cost us time, but there will be a strong group of 3-year-olds next year and a strong oncoming group of 2-year-olds," he said.

Backing up a July 17 breakthrough score at Vichy with a third in Deauville's Aug. 12 Listed Prix Francois Boutin on stakes bow, Pappalino slipped off the board in ParisLongchamp's Sept. 9 G3 Prix des Chenes and in an Oct. 6 conditions heat back at the Bois de Boulogne venue last time. Racing fifth until turning for home here, he made relentless headway under pressure in the straight to lead approaching the final furlong and drew clear in the latter stages for a career high.

WORLDWIDE NEWS

HEART'S CRY FILLY BLOOMS IN QEII CUP

Lys Gracieux (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) pounced inside the final 50 metres and earned her first Group 1 tally in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Kyoto on Sunday. The Carrot Farm runner was sent off as the 9-2 third choice after being placed at the top level four times earlier in her career. The pacesetting Crocosmia (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) clung stubbornly to second a neck behind, while last year's winner, Mozu Katchan (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) was three lengths back in third.

The dark bay settled in midpack two off the fence and was content to bide her time behind splits of :23.5, :49.1, and 1:13.90 set by Crocosmia. Tenth rounding the final bend in the 2200-metre feature, the 4-year-old improved a spot 400 metres from home and was absolutely flying late under Joao Moreira. She surged past Crocosmia close home and was always holding the game frontrunner.

"Today was her day," said Moreira, who was winning the first Group 1 of his short-term license and had just marked his 100th JRA winner earlier on the card. "We were in a good position, two off the fence, and she had plenty left in the tank after angling out at the last turn. Under pressure, she responded very well and I had every confidence from the 300-meter point that we were going to win. She's a real champion."

The Yoshito Yahagi trainee kicked off her year with a win in the G3 Tokyo Shimbun Hai in February, and ran a solid third to Miss Panthere (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) in the G2 Sankeisports Hai Hanshin Himba S. at Hanshin on Apr. 7. She went one better in the G1 Victoria Mile–her fourth placing at the Group 1 level in her career on May 13.

The winning connections | Horsephotos

Only eighth in Tokyo's G1 Yasuda Kinen at the beginning of June, Lys Gracieux was off just over four months, but returned to play bridesmaid in the G2 Ireland Trophy Fuchu Himba S. on Oct. 13 before Sunday's score.

Pedigree Notes...

Lys Gracieux is the ninth Group 1 winner by Heart's Cry (Jpn), who has celebrated a pair of Grade I wins this term by his son Yoshida (Jpn) in the GI Turf Classic S. and the GI Woodward S. Out of the three-time French listed heroine Liliside (Fr) (American Post {GB}), Lys Gracieux is followed by half-sister Satono Comet (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}), who has won twice to date and a 2-year-old filly by Orfevre (Jpn). Liliside is a half-sister to the dam of GSW Ming Zhi Cosmos (Fr) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) and SW Melodyman (Fr) (Green Tune). Italian highweight and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victor Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post {GB}) is also under the second dam. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

AUSTRALIAN SIRES IN GOOD FORM DURING SPRING CARNIVAL

by John Berry

No young sire could produce a better piece of self-promotion than hitting the trifecta in a Group 1 which has been dubbed a 'stallion-making race'. That is exactly what Widden's Zoustar (Northern Meteor) did on the opening day of the VRC Carnival at Flemington when he was represented by the first three home in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. In fact, one could say that the Coolmore Stud S. has now twice filled the role of a stallion-making race as far as Zoustar is concerned. Initially he advertised his stud potential by winning it in 2013 (just as his own sire had done in 2008) and now he has reaffirmed his merit by providing the trifecta with three of his first-crop 3-year-olds.

That trifecta (consisting of Sunlight, Zousain and Lean Mean Machine) was, of course, merely one of several instances of a stallion's profile being raised and/or consolidated during the Carnival. Perhaps the other stallion who did most to promote himself that day was Lonhro (Octagonal {NZ}) who came up with a black-type running double courtesy of Ranier in the G3 Carbine Club S. and Aristia in the G2 Mumm Wakeful S. Furthermore, the next race, the G2 TAB H., was won by the super-tough five-year-old Osborne Bulls (Street Cry {Ire}) who is the second stakes performer produced by the G3-placed Lonhro mare Jerezana.

Lonhro was not the only Darley stallion to shine during the afternoon. Sepoy (Elusive Quality {USA}) provided the final group winner of the afternoon when Divine Quality took the G3 Furphy Sprint S.; while the day's feature, the G1 Victoria Derby, fell to Extra Brut whose sire Domesday (Red Ransom {USA}) is now standing at Aquis Farm after starting out under the Darley banner. This Classic triumph was a particularly notable landmark for Aquis as Extra Brut is not merely the son of an Aquis-based stallion, but also races in the Aquis livery.

Two of New Zealand's best stallions, the Waikato Stud-based Savabeel (Zabeel {NZ}) and Haunui Farm's long-standing shuttler Iffraaj (GB) (Zafonic {USA}), both enjoyed a particularly good Carnival. Iffraaj was one of the stars of the final day, courtesy of the victory of his imported son Jaameh (Ire) in the G3 Queen Elizabeth S. Savabeel produced a winner on each of the first three days, this treble being initiated when his 7-year-old daughter Shillelagh (NZ) doubled her G1 tally by taking the G1 Empire Rose S., having taken the G1 Kennedy Mile S. on the same card 12 months previously. This was a 32nd Australasian Group 1 strike for Savabeel, who struck on Cup Day with Kaonic (NZ) and on Oaks Day with Savacool (NZ).

Savabeel is New Zealand's reigning Champion Sire, having topped the General Sires' Table there in the 2017/'18 season for the fourth year running. He has also won the Dewar Trophy (for NZ-based stallions, judged on combined Australasian earnings) for the past three years. These honours were formerly mopped up by his own sire Zabeel (NZ) and before that by Zabeel's sire Sir Tristram (Ire) (Sir Ivor {USA}).

No stallions have done more to inject high-class stamina into the Thoroughbred population in the antipodes in recent decades than Sir Tristram and Zabeel, and it was very appropriate that the two most distinguished living sires from their line, i.e. Savabeel and Lonhro, should have enjoyed notable success during the Melbourne Cup Carnival.

Lonhro, whose career reached a peak when he was Australia's Champion Sire in the 2010/'11 season, further reaffirmed his star status when Aristia backed up five days later to complete the time-honoured G2 Mumm Wakeful S./G1 Kennedy Victoria Oaks double. It is too common nowadays, particularly around Melbourne Cup time, to hear the lament that there is not enough high-class stamina in the Australasian Thoroughbred pool.

However, anyone who falls for this defeatist myth could do well to remember that Lonhro, currently 20-years-young and with a lifetime tally of 10 individual Group 1 winners in Australasia as well as 2016 G1 Durban July H. winner The Conglomerate in South Africa, is available at a fee of A$55,000, which could be viewed as remarkably good value for a former Horse of the Year and Champion Sire.

An alternative option for tapping into this sire-line, of course, is provided at Coolmore, where Lonhro's five-time Group 1-winning son Pierro is available at $88,000. Pierro's credits in the past 12 months include the victories of Pinot in the 2017 G1 Victoria Oaks and of Levendi in the 2018 G1 AJC Australian Derby, while his highlight at the VRC Carnival this year was the Group 1 placing of his 4-year-old daughter Pierata. At a more affordable level, the unbeaten dual Group 1 winner Reset (Zabeel {NZ}) is still standing as one of the senior figures among the Victorian sires' ranks, while his G1 Victoria Derby-winning son Rebel Raider stands for merely A$6,600 at Wyndholm Park. Rebel Raider reminded us that, like his eminent sire, he is very capable of siring a high-class stayer when his daughter Miner's Miss ran a bold race to finish third in the Kennedy Victoria Oaks, merely 1.6 lengths adrift of the winner.

Further options for Victorian breeders aiming for Classic or Cups glory include the 2013 G1 Melbourne Cup winner Fiorente, who is currently sitting in second place behind Zoustar in the national second-season sires' standings and whose Group 2-winning son Stars Of Carrum finished an excellent second to Extra Brut in the G1 Victoria Derby.

The merit of Extra Brut's Derby-winning performance was emphasised when the admirable Domesday 3-year-old backed up seven days later in weight-for-age company in the G1 Seppelt Mackinnon S. and featured as one of three mighty horses who collectively treated the huge crowd to an epic race, finishing a close third behind Trap For Fools (Poet's Voice {GB}) and Irish Derby winner Latrobe (Ire) (Camelot {Ire}).

Among stallions who specialise at shorter distances, the I Am Invincible success story continued along its merry way when his daughter Vinicunca made a winning debut in the Niarchos colours in the most prestigious juvenile race of the spring, the G3 Maribyrnong Plate. After this extremely promising beginning, one would not rule out Vinicunca (who cost A$600,000 at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale) eventually joining I Am Invincible's squad of Group 1-winning offspring, which currently numbers five.

Thanks to his extensive success in recent seasons, I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) has been standing this season at Yarraman Park Stud at a fee of A$192,500, which means that he has the second highest published fee of any stallion in the land, behind only Snitzel. It is worth pointing out that Fastnet Rock is listed as 'private', and that both Snitzel and Fastnet Rock sired good winners at the Carnival. The latter registered a double on the final day headed by the victory of Dreamforce in the G3 DeRucci Chatham S., which was his second group win of the Carnival following the triumph of Bleu Roche in the G3 Red Roses S. on Oaks Day.

Two other leading sires to enjoy success at the Carnival were the Woodside Park-based Written Tycoon (Iglesia) and Arrowfield's Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice). The former was represented on Cup Day by MSS Security Sprint S. winner Teleplay; while the latter struck on the final day with G2 Matriarch S. heroine Kenedna.

A TALE OF TWO DANZIGS

By Robert D. Fierro, DataTrack

Let us not take anything away from Accelerate's smashing victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic--he was a worthy and basically easy winner. Yet there was a horse missing from the starting gate who might have had some kind of impact on the event because he could have outrun the early leaders and then maintained the kind of momentum he exhibited over the past year to dare Accelerate to catch him.

That would be the New York-bred Diversify, the front-running fool of an East Coast gelding whose speed figures around two turns were equal or close to those piled up by Accelerate on the West Coast. That would have been a match with regional flavor requiring super strategic moves. But in a denouement of sadness, it did not happen because Diversify came out of his dull GI Jockey Club Gold Cup effort worse for wear, and then his trainer, Rick Violette, passed away.

However, there is another reason we were shortchanged by this set of circumstances, and that was a chance to see a piece of a puzzle that is evolving regarding Diversify's heritage, specifically that of his great-great-grandsire, Danzig. Yes, Diversify is a Danzig-line runner and would not be spotted as such by most experts unless they were quite familiar with his sire, Bellamy Road.

IN SEARCH OF FIRST DERBY WIN, GODOLPHIN TURNS TO BAFFERT

The Week in Review, By Bill Finley

An unraced horse named Coliseum (Tapit) worked four furlongs in :47 2/5 yesterday morning at Santa Anita. It was his fourth recorded public workout, and the word is out. The off-shore bookmaker Bovada has the horse at 20-1 in its latest winterbook wagering for the Kentucky Derby.

It should come as no surprise that the colt is trained by Bob Baffert, but when it comes to the owner it's not one of Baffert's usual suspects. The horse is owned by and was bred by Godolphin. Godolphin only recently became a client of Baffert's. The trainer explained that he is now getting horses from them because they are appreciative of his on-going support of the Dubai World Cup races and they want to win the GI Kentucky Derby. Cont. p5

BROKEN VOW MARE TOPS KEENOV SUNDAY 8

The Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale entered its second week after a workmanlike session Sunday, which concluded the auction's two-day Book 4 section. Bloodstock agent Jason Litt made the day's priciest purchase, going to $300,000 to acquire the broodmare Ducru (Broken Vow) on behalf of Grandview, LLP from the Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency consignment.

ANIMAL KINGDOM 'RISING STAR' STAYS PERFECT RR

Regal Glory, named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a super impressive 5 1/2-length debut romp at Belmont Oct. 6, made good on even-money favoritism in Sunday afternoon's Stewart Manor S. at Aqueduct–though she did have to work for it.*

That's because like most of Bellamy Road's offspring that we have analyzed over the years, Diversify is a virtual clone in appearance, size and biomechanics, indicating that this branch of the Danzig sire line has evolved from what could be referred to as a Danzig-type to something that has become (sorry, we cannot resist) more diversified.

To wit: See Danzig to Bellamy Road Phenotype Target. To the eye, Bellamy Road is as atypical of his sire, Concerto, his grandsire Chief's Crown, and Danzig as one could imagine-the latter was a superbly balanced individual who in his early years sired a host of excellent colts in North America who were all over the aptitude and phenotype map. They included Chief's Crown, who was very similar to his sire but carried a little more weight which did not prevent him from winning the first GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile but might have brought him up short in all three Triple Crown races.

Danzig also flooded the North American racing landscape with Classic performers and two-turn gallopers such as Danzig Connection, Pine Bluff, Polish Navy, Polish Numbers, and Sea Salute, as well as outright speedballs like Belong to Me. Most of these were good one-generation sires but the only North American-based sire to carry on a branch was Chief's Crown, and he did that only through Concerto.

A winner of Grade II and Grade III events, Concerto was a good middle-distance performer whose broodmare sire In Reality may have helped him tilt the branch toward power, but not dramatically. Concerto sired some nice runners while based in Florida and after his export to Panama was a major success in Central American and Caribbean venues. Bellamy Road, who won the GI Wood Memorial by a stunning 17 lengths, was by far his best runner, somewhat lightly made but able to settle quickly and get into a powerful rhythm and keep on going. His broodmare sire, GI Preakness S. winner Deputed Testamony, may have helped. As one can see from Diversify's position on the Target, the line continues to move away from its center.

Now we get to a series of ironies that may tickle your fancy or cross your eyes.

The first irony is that as Diversify got really, really good, the chief noise-maker of the Danzig line in North America was sending out carbon copies of his own self, including more than half a dozen of which have already entered stud. That, of course, is War Front.

(We are not overlooking Hard Spun and the late Exchange Rate, who are doing quite well on their own in getting quality horses but have no serious sons at stud yet. Nor, are we overlooking Big Brown, who bears more of a resemblance to Bellamy Road than to his own sire, Boundary, who is much like War Front. That Bellamy Road has just moved to the same barn as Big Brown at Irish Acres Farm in Saratoga Springs may be Irony One).

Now for Irony Squared: Take a look at the War Front Sire Line Phenotype Target and note where he is positioned. Yup, he is virtually identical phenotypically to Bellamy Road though one would be hard pressed to gather that from looking at them. (Indeed, to many observers War Front may appear to be closer in looks to Danzig as well as the latter's two most overall successful sons, Danehill and Green Desert, whose influence on international racing from their European and Australian bases is breathtaking; but that's another story.)

More interestingly and importantly, War Front's first sons at stud are clustered around him in such a way as to indicate that he might be able to pass on siring consistencies to some of them. This "clustering" is not often seen in our programs and it will be interesting to follow this crowd, and those that follow.

And now for Irony Cubed: It did not escape attention that War Front's son Declaration of War, who will stand in Japan this coming season, had a very good Breeders' Cup weekend during which his juvenile son Empire of War won the Awad S. at Aqueduct the day after his son Uncle Benny was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, pipping out the pacesetter of that race, Somelikeithotbrown, who happens to be by Big Brown.

Ah, diversification! There you go.

With Godolphin having just landed its first G1 Melbourne Cup with Cross Counter (GB) Teofilo {Ire}), the Derby remains of one of the few iconic races on the globe that the stable has not won.

"They're counting on me," Baffert said. "They've won everything there is to win but the Kentucky Derby. I think they're saying, 'Ok, it's up to you now, Bob, to get it done.' They sent me a couple of 2-year-olds, but this one [Coliseum] is definitely the best one."

Before you rush off to Las Vegas to bet on Coliseum to win the Derby, you might want to note that Baffert also said," I don't have any American Pharoahs (Pioneerof the Nile) or Justifys (Scat Daddy) in my barn this year."

But he does believe that Coliseum is a horse with a lot of upside.

"He's a nice horse, but he's a Tapit and has a lot of typical Tapit issues," Baffert said. "He can be a head case. In the middle of his works he just wants to take off. But his work [Sunday] was definitely his best so far."

Courtesy of XBTV, here's a video of Coliseum working Sept. 21.

Baffert is planning to debut Coliseum in a six-furlong maiden race next Saturday at Del Mar. He said the horse will probably be at his best when he gets a chance to go around two turns.

It's easy to see why Godolphin has put its Derby eggs in the basket of Baffert. He has won the race five times and over the last four years has produced two Triple Crown winners.

If Coliseum does not pan out, Baffert should still have plenty of firepower for the 2019 Derby. His 2-year-old contingent is led by GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner and champion-in-waiting Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}). He's looking forward to the return of Roadster (Quality Road), who finished third in the GI Del Mar Futurity in his last start.

"He's a very good horse," Baffert said. "He had to have throat surgery, but should come back strong."

Some believe that Improbable (City Zip) could be Baffert's best Derby prospect. On the same day as the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, Improbable was an impressive winner of the Street Sense S. at Churchill. He will go next in the GI Los Alamitos Futurity Dec. 8.

"He's really good. He's the real deal," Baffert said. "He looks like a smaller version of Justify; a 50% version of Justify. He's the same color and has the same markings on his face."

The Latest from The Thoroughbred Idea Foundation

The Thoroughbred Idea Foundation released its second white paper last week, calling for North American racing to switch its rules when it comes to disqualifications. The TIF would like to see racing go to the Category 1 system, which is used in most of the rest of the world. Under that system, a horse is not disqualified unless the stewards feel the horse it bothered would have otherwise finished in front of the horse causing the foul. The U.S. uses the Category 2 system, whereby a horse can be taken down if it causes another horse to finish further back than it would have without the infraction.

Going to have to respectfully disagree with the TIF on this one. If a horse is clearly bothered and would have finished, say, third, instead of fourth if not being interfered with, the horse causing the problems should come down. To do otherwise, is unfair to the owners of the bothered horse, which lost purse money due to the interference, and to bettors who might have, in this particular instance, used the horse in trifectas or bet it to show.

There is, however, one thing that definitely needs to change when it comes to DQ's. Can anybody explain why the stewards still discuss the race with the jockeys after it's over? What do they expect, that a jockey is going to say, "You know what judge, I almost put that horse over the rail, you need to take me down."

In no other sport do officials talk to the participants when adjudicating an infraction. Imagine how ridiculous it would seem if an NFL referee spoke with the wide receiver and the cornerback before deciding on a possible pass interference call.

Election Day, 2018

While most of the country was fixated Tuesday on which party would take control of Congress, there were two ballot initiatives that were pertinent to racing.

With the passing of Amendment 13, Florida joined the New England states in banning dog racing. No track can continue racing following the end of 2020. That means there will be thousands of greyhounds looking for homes. If you'd like to help a good website to visit is Adopt-a-Greyhound.org.

The greyhound industry has all but been wiped out. Eleven of the 17 remaining dog tracks in the U.S. are in Florida.

It was a major win for animal rights activists, but that's not what should alarm the racing industry. Even the most strident PETA types have never compared Thoroughbred racing to dog racing or made any serious calls for a ban of horse racing.

What's worrisome is that the tracks will be allowed to stay open and offer whatever forms of alternative gaming they currently have. Any dog track owner that might have called for the end of the sport for humane reasons is likely a hypocrite. This was more about "decoupling." The on-going effort by casino companies to drop whatever form of racing they offer and still keep their casinos. It worked, and don't think for a minute that it won't inspire some Thoroughbred/casino track owners to up their efforts to find ways to decouple in their states.

In Arkansas, voters approved an initiative that allows for four casinos in Arkansas. Two of the licenses will go to Oaklawn and a greyhound track in West Memphis. Those two tracks already have casinos, but ones that are limited so far as what forms of games they can offer.

But with Oaklawn's casino doing so well, it's doubtful that track owners are happy to trade an upgraded casino when the cost was added competition. The two new casinos will be built in Jefferson and Pope Counties. Pine Bluff, the largest city in Jefferson County, is just 84 miles from Hot Springs.

Could this be a problem for Oaklawn? Stay tuned.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER BOOK 4 CONCLUDES

Jason Litt | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale entered its second week after a workmanlike session Sunday, which concluded the auction's two-day Book 4 section. Bloodstock agent Jason Litt made the day's priciest purchase, going to $300,000 to acquire the broodmare Ducru (Broken Vow) on behalf of Grandview, LLP from the Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency consignment. Hill 'n' Dale also sold the second-highest priced offering of the session when Dixon Enterprises purchased the racing/broodmare prospect Princessof the Nyl (Pioneerof the Nile) for $200,000.

A colt by Kantharos (hip 2380), consigned by Hunter Valley Farm, had the day's highest weanling price tag when selling for $180,000 to Magnolia Farm.

In all 14 horses sold for six figures Sunday, bringing the two-day Book 4 total to reach that threshold to 26.

Sunday's session saw 256 head sell for $7,733,100. The session average was $30,207 and the median was $18,000. The buy-back rate was 20.99%.

During the two-day Book 4, Keeneland sold 479 horses for a total of $14,969,500. The average was $31,252 and the median was $19,000.

Last year's Book 4 section saw 562 horses gross 19,486,400. The average was $34,673 and the median was $25,000. The section's top price was $440,000 and there were 34 horses to sell for six figures.

Keeneland will offer horses of racing age during its Monday and Tuesday sessions of the November sale. The auction runs through Friday with sessions beginning at 10 a.m.

Magic Result for Ducru

Ducru (Broken Vow), who sold for $150,000 at the Keeneland January sale last winter, returned to the ring at Keeneland Sunday in foal to Violence and sold for $300,000 to bloodstock agent Jason Litt.

"We have clients who have shares in Good Magic, so we bought her to breed to Good Magic," Litt explained. "She was a standout here. She's absolutely beautiful and from a very precocious family. We think it's a really perfect mating for him. He is a beautiful horse and talented and all we need to do is to find something that won't get in his way. And she is the right type."

The 4-year-old mare (hip 2430) is out of stakes-placed Union City (Dixie Union) and is a half-sister to multiple graded stakes winner Unified (Candy Ride {Arg}). She was consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency.

Bloodstock agents Nick Sallusto and Hanzly Albina signed the ticket on the mare at the Keeneland January sale on behalf of Steven Marshall of Black Rock Thoroughbreds. Sallusto was the first over to congratulate Litt on the purchase.

"Our plan was to do exactly this," Sallusto said. "We wanted to buy her potentially for Violence because [Marshall] owns many shares in him. So we were looking for mares who would be compatible to use our seasons. We wanted to use them and not sell the seasons. The plan was to offer her and, if she brought what we felt was acceptable money, to sell her."

Of Sunday's result, Sallusto added, "We're very happy with that. It's hard to double your money in any market in that short amount of time."

Waters Parts With the Nyl

Mike Waters purchased a bay filly by Pioneerof the Nile for $35,000 at the 2017 Pegasus sale, named her Princessof the Nyl and watched as she carried the colors of his Muddy Waters Stables to an eight-length victory in this year's Washington Oaks. Waters decided to test the market with his stakes-winning filly Sunday at Keeneland and was rewarded when the 3-year-old (hip 2613) sold for $200,000 to Dixon Enterprises.

"We had had a lot of interest in her," Waters said of his decision to offer Princessof the Nyl at the November sale. "People were calling about possibly buying her. She ran really well for us as a 3-year-old and we thought we'd try to sell out and she what she'd sell for. She sold for a good number, so we decided to let her go."

Asked if he was tempted to breed the filly, Waters said, "I just race them." He added with a laugh, "That is a bad enough addiction as it is."

Princessof the Nyl is out of Arabisini (Bernardini), a daughter of stakes winner Arabis (Deputy Minister) and from the family of Atelier, Althea and Aldiza.

Fred Seitz signed the ticket on Princessof the Nyl on behalf of a partnership and he said it remained to be seen if the racing/broodmare prospect would race again.

"We're actually not sure if she'll race again, but it's more likely she won't," Seitz said. "But, it's not positive yet."

Of the filly's appeal, Seitz said, "Number one, she has probably one of the best pedigrees you can buy, in my opinion. And number two, she's just a really pretty mare. Everybody wants a really good-looking horse and I'm just like everybody else in that. To me, she was really pretty."

Millionaire New York-bred Highway Star, a midpack eighth–beaten only 5 1/2 lengths--in last weekend's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Churchill Downs, returned on short notice to post a jaw-dropping victory here.

The four-time graded winner was outsprinted in ninth through an opening quarter in :22.72. She made an eye-catching move on the far turn and put on a show in the stretch to win for fun. Highway Star had her picture taken only one previous time from seven prior attempts this season, narrowly capturing Belmont's Iroquois S. Oct. 20.

"It's like she didn't run in her last race," winning trainer Rodrigo Ubillo said. "It sounds crazy that she didn't run at the Breeders' Cup. She got beat five lengths, but it wasn't the Highway Star that I know. She wasn't all there. Coming back here after the race, it felt like she didn't run. She was jumping and kicking, and this race was coming up. I decided to enter and had a few days. We could scratch the morning of, but it worked out good and I can sleep good tonight."

Stolen Star, also represented by a Forty Tales colt of 2017, was most recently bred to Malibu Moon. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Regal Glory, named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a super impressive 5 1/2-length debut romp at Belmont Oct. 6, made good on even-money favoritism in Sunday afternoon's Stewart Manor S. at Aqueduct--though she did have to work for it. Off a beat slowly from the rail, the Paul Pompa homebred rushed up to sit third as Introduced applied a bit of pressure to Guacamole through a :46.07 half. Regal Glory was swung out for clear sailing by Jose Ortiz into the stretch, and had Introduced squarely in her sights as that one seemed to be drifting out slightly. Cont. p2

Undeterred, Regal Glory fought on to take a narrow advantage, and while Introduced punched back got a good bob at the wire, Regal Glory kept a whisker in front to stay unbeaten.

Ortiz had ridden Introduced when she finished second to subsequent GII Jessamine S. winner Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy) first out at Saratoga. That relatively pricey OBSMAR pick-up broke through in a rained-off waiver maiden claimer at Laurel in September.

"She's a nice filly and I remember the horse who finished second from Saratoga and know she is a horse the trainer [Alan Goldberg] is high on," Ortiz said. "When we got to the eighth pole, I knew it was going to be a battle because Manny [Franco on Introduced] had her running. My horse started to run, too, and we went head-to-head. I'm just glad we got it at the end."

The winner's dam, who was campaigned by Pompa for the second half of her career--which included a win in the 2009 GII Mrs Revere S.--has a yearling colt by American Pharoah and most recently visited Candy Ride (Arg). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Souper Charlotte, the priciest yearling to sell by her sire last year by a factor of 6 1/2 when she brought $325,000 at Keeneland September, continued to make good on her owner's investment with a second score from as many trips to the post. The dark bay took an off-the-turfer here going a furlong shorter Oct. 7, and was the public's overwhelming pick while getting first-time Lasix. Drafting from the fence towards the back of the compact bunch early, Souper Charlotte finally worked her way clear in midstretch and leveled off nicely late to get up in the waning stages.

The winner hails from a productive female family that includes the likes of Grade I winners Mani Bhavan, Turk Passer and Speightstown. Her dam produced a yearling filly by Gemologist and a weanling colt by Flatter before being bred back to Vancouver (Aus). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

TAKE THESE CHAINS (IRE) (m, 5, Fastnet Rock {Aus}--Take the Ribbon {GSW & GISP, $372,102}, by Chester House) won her first three attempts in impressive come-from-behind fashion for previous trainer Chad Brown, including an optional claiming tally at Belmont last spring. She suffered her first career defeat when eighth in the GIII Intercontinental S. at Belmont last June. Making her first start off the long layoff for Brad Cox in this one, the 'TDN Rising Star' showed a new dimension, shooting out to the front and rolling home a three-length, wire-to-wire winner as the 6-5 favorite. Take These Chains is a half-sister to Bookrunner (Tiznow), G1SP-Ity & GSP-Fr, $149,856. Take the Ribbon had a colt by Zoffany (Ire) in 2017. Lifetime Record: 5-4-0-0, $163,550. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

TOO CHARMING (f, 3, Bernardini--Tout Charmant {MGISW, $1,781,879}, by Slewvescent) broke through at fifth asking at Tampa in April, and resurfaced in June to finish a neck second at 27-1 in Monmouth's Open Mind S. Off since a far-back finish after chasing the pace in a Saratoga optional claimer contested over yielding sod in July, the homebred was dismissed at almost 23-1 facing off against a salty bunch here. Breaking in a bit at the start, Too Charming took the first turn a bit wide while sitting fourth. She tugged her way up into a joint second down the backside and poked a head in front heading for home. The bay put a sliver of daylight between her and the competition by midstretch, and kept on finding to fend off Munchkin Money (Freud) by 3/4 of a length on the line. The winner's accomplished dam is also responsible for Dancing House (Tapit), GSW & GISP, $450,825; unraced 2-year-old gelding Journeyman (Animal Kingdom; and a yearling filly by Tapizar. Lifetime Record: SP, 8-2-2-1, $79,648. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

LOVE POINT (c, 2, Point of Entry--Love Dove, by Street Cry {Ire}), runner up in his route debut over the yielding turf at Keeneland Oct. 17, was given an 8-1 chance while breaking from the inside here. Off to a good start, the bay led narrowly through pedestrian early fractions of :24.33 and :50.31, shook clear in early stretch and drew off late to score by 2 3/4 lengths over favored A. K. Safari (Animal Kingdom). Love Dove, a half sister to GI Kentucky Oaks winner Bird Town and GI Belmont hero Birdstone, has a yearling colt by Carpe Diem and a weanling filly by Gemologist. She was bred back to Liam's Map. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, $60,006. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

THE BOSS FACTOR (g, 2, The Factor--Curry Cat, by Tale of the Cat) was a non-factoring eighth after a troubled trip over this track Sept. 23, but improved to finish second in a six-furlong test here Oct. 20. Installed the 2-1 choice while getting some added yardage, the grey took control soon after the start, extended her lead throughout and came home a much-the-best 7 1/2-length winner over Just Like Larry (Langfuhr). Curry Cat, out of graded winner Pratella (Jade Hunter), produced a filly by Blame last season and followed up with a filly by Lemon Drop Kid this term. She was bred back to Hard Spun. Moving up to press Tricky Magician in a field of just five, the $500,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling grad took over in midstretch and opened up by 1 1/2 lengths at the line with a chasm of 8 1/4 lengths back to third. The winner is a half to Neck 'n Neck (Flower Alley), MGSW, $1,174,354 and a yearling colt by Liam's Map. His dam most recently visited Arrogate. Sales history: $290,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV. AFLEET DESTINY (f, 2, Hard Spun--Afleet Lover, by Northern Afleet), second going six furlongs in the slop here Sept. 10, clipped heels and failed to finish next time while trying a sixteenth shorter Sept.25. An even third last out Oct. 14, the 35,000 EASMAY juvenile was installed the 9-5 second choice stretching to a route of ground. Content to stalk in fourth through modest opening splits, she tackled Diva Drama (Medalist) turning for home, took over soon after and, despite drifting in the lane, proved best to score by 1 1/4 lengths over Diva Drama. Subsequent to the winner, Afleet Lover dropped a filly by Graydar last season followed by a colt by Anchor Down. She was bred back to Outwork.
