STEADY TRADE CONTINUES AT OBS JUNE

Hip 653 | Tibor & Judit Photography

by Jessica Martini

OCALA, FL--Trade continued to be steady during the second session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's June Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale in Central Florida Thursday, with numbers ticking up from the auction's corresponding 2018 figures as horses continued to find new homes at the last juvenile auction of the season.

Through two sessions, OBS has sold 399 juveniles for a total of $13,635,200. The average of $34,173 was up 4% over the 2018 figure, while the median rose 20% to $18,000. A total of 535 horses have gone through the OBS sales ring so far, with 136 failing to sell for a buy-back rate of 25.4%. It was 27.7% with the addition of post-sale transactions at this point a year ago.

David Davila of Backstretch Farms made the highest bid of the week so far, going to $445,000 to acquire a filly by Ghostzapper (hip 653) from the de Meric Sales consignment Thursday. The filly is one of 12 to bring $200,000 or over through the two sessions.

During Thursday's session, 202 horses sold for a gross of $7,359,700 and an average of $36,434. The session median was $17,500 and the buy-back rate was 25.7%.

"I think it's a much better sale today and I think it's a really realistic sale for some of these horses," said consignor Pat Hoppel.

TAKING STOCK: TRACY FARMER'S CLASSIC

By Sid Fernando

Tracy Farmer, owner of Shadowlawn Farm in Midway, Ky. with wife Carol, is a native Kentuckian with a distinct accent that blends hints of the American Midwest in a gravelly southern drawl. He wasn't feeling well enough to travel to Belmont Park for the last leg of the Triple Crown series, instead watching the proceedings with interest with Carol from their home on the farm. No one else was present, he said. His homebred colt Sir Winston (Awesome Again), born and raised at Shadowlawn, was the 10-1 half of trainer Mark Casse's entry with GI Preakness winner War of Will (War Front), but Farmer thought the distance of the 12-furlong GI Belmont S. would suit his colt.

"The [GIII] Peter Pan [S.], when he had the 100 [Beyer], and he had to close, the jockey, [Joel] Rosario, said he could do it. He could close a mile and half. He said distance didn't hurt him at all, he could run right on," Farmer said. "And you and I know, Awesome Again won the [GI] Breeders' Cup Classic and gets those types. So, Rosario said he could win, and he did." Cont. p11

August 8, 1999. *Menifee (Harlan) wins the 1999 GI Haskell Invitational H. with Pat Day aboard, and Cat Thief and Forestry finishing second and third. A perennial leading sire in Korea since his first crop of runners hit the track in 2010 and whose impact on the Korean breeding industry has drawn comparisons to Sunday Silence in Japan, Menifee died on June 13 at the KRA Stud Farm on Jeju Island. OBS June cont. from p1

Hoppel continued, "Some of these horses, we're moving them on and getting them sold, getting them into different hands. And that helps the business. You've got to have big trade. If you keep the big trade going, you've got it. It's when things stall out and we can't trade horses it's bad, but they are seeming to get horses moved--some for a lot and some for not much, but it lets everybody get a new start."

The OBS June sale concludes Friday with a session beginning at 10 a.m.

Ghostzapper Filly to Davila

David Davila | Joe DiOrio

Ocala attorney David Davila made one of his biggest equine purchases to date Thursday at OBS, going to $445,000 to secure a filly by Ghostzapper for his Backstretch Farms. The bay, out of graded stakes winner Palanka City (Carson City), was consigned by de Meric Sales.

"She is the perfect specimen for a filly," Davila said of hip 653. "She is very balanced."

Asked if it was the biggest ticket he's signed, Davila, still relatively new to ownership, admitted, "This is close. It was a little bit higher than we wanted to go, but she was worth it."

Davila owns 75-acre Backstretch Farms in Central Florida. His War Bridle (Shakin It Up) was fourth in this year's Pasco S.

The juvenile will ship to Saratoga to be trained by Jorge Abreu.

De Meric Sales purchased the filly, who worked the furlong in a co-bullet :9 4/5 last week, for $190,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. She was withdrawn from the Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale earlier this year.

"We are thrilled with the price," Tristan de Meric said. "We knew she was a top filly. That's why we took her to Miami in the first place. She just missed the boat down there, but we always believed in her. We gave her another chance here and I'm glad they found her. She is a very special filly. And we wish the best of luck to David." Cont. p4

Hines Strikes for Graydar Colt

Nick Hines, who has been busy shopping at all levels of the June market, made his biggest purchase of the auction when going to $260,000 to acquire a colt by Graydar on behalf of an undisclosed client.

"He was probably the most athletic horse, pound for pound, by an underrated stallion," Hines said of hip 672. "His work (:10 flat) was effortless, his balance is indisputable and his soundness goes without saying. I think he is a class individual. He is correct, he is very forward, but he obviously knows how talented he is. I think this is just the tip of the iceberg for him."

The gray colt is out of stakes placed Pink Diamond (Mineshaft) and is a half to graded placed Zulfikhar (Bodemeister). Cont. p5

He was consigned by Costanzo Sales and was purchased by South Paw for $57,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

Hines said the June sale offers something for buyers at all levels.

"It's been difficult [to buy] on the higher end," he said. "I think in the six-figure range, it's very difficult. This is that type of sale. It's June. I am buying horses for $10,000 and I'm signing tickets for $260,000, so that's a pretty broad range. As a scout and a bloodstock consultant, I think you have to be very open-minded. There is a horse here for everybody."

Uncle Mo Colt to Heiligbrodt

Bill Heiligbrodt, still basking in the glory of Mitole (Eskendereya)'s win in Saturday's GI Met Mile, added a son of Uncle Mo to his racing stable when going to $255,000 to acquire hip 572 from the Wavertree Stables consignment Thursday in Ocala.

"I loved the way he looked," Heiligbrodt said of the colt, who will be trained by Steve Asmussen. "He's breezed twice now and really well. I'll give him a little time and see how good he is."

The dark bay colt is out of Grade I placed Modification (Vindication) and is a half to multiple graded placed Sawyer's Hill (Spring at Last).

Asked if he thought he might have found another Mitole, Heiligbrodt said with a laugh, "You don't find Mitole. That's a once in a lifetime. I hope this horse will be good, let's put it that way. We'll give him some time and see how he does."

Wavertree Stables consigned the colt on behalf of Hoby and Layna Kight, who purchased him for $350,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Cont. p6

He RNA'd for $485,000 after working a quarter in :20 3/5 at the Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream sale. He was re-routed to the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale, but missed that engagement with a sore shin.

"Maybe I paid too much for him, but he was a runner," Kight said. "That's the most I've paid for one in a long time, but I thought he was as good a horse as there was in Book 1. He went :20 3/5 at Gulfstream and I couldn't sell him and then he had a little bit of a shin, so I didn't have him quite ready for Maryland, that's why he was here."

Kight said the colt was hampered by a less-than-ideal vet report.

"The vets beat me up a little bit on sesamoiditis, that was it," he said. "I probably shouldn't have been able to get him bought in September if he had vetted really good, but that [sesamoiditis] never stops them and it didn't stop him this time.

He continued, "We really loved him and we just needed to sell him because we had so much in him. We were prepared to race him, but Steve [Asmussen] loved him, too."

Ryan Strikes for More Than Ready Filly

Bloodstock agent Mike Ryan, often busy filling orders for clients, found a filly he plans to race himself and bought out pinhooking partners to secure the daughter of More Than Ready for $225,000 early in Thursday's second session of the OBS June sale.

"We've had a lot of success with More Than Ready--he's no secret," Ryan said. "And we liked her from the get-go. She's a medium-sized, quality filly who showed plenty of pace. She is very clean, she's ready to go on. I think she could run in six to eight weeks in Saratoga. That's what we bought her for."

Consigned by Niall Brennan Stables, hip 457 is out of stakes winner Knit One Purr Too (Tale of the Cat). The dark bay filly worked a furlong during last week's under-tack preview in :10 flat. Bred by Jamm, which acquired the mare with this filly in utero for $400,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale, the juvenile was purchased by Hades Bloodstock for $150,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

"I bought out Niall and the other partners," Ryan said. "We bought her as a yearling and I liked her all along. So I bought her for myself and I might take in a partner."

Ryan, whose successes with More Than Ready include e Five Racing Thoroughbreds' multiple Grade I winner Rushing Fall, has between 15 and 20 horses in training himself.

"I'm in the breeding business as well," Ryan said. "If they run well, we will retire them and breed them. It's part of our portfolio. We like the whole process--racing, breeding and selling. But if you want to try buy quality fillies who have shown something on the track, they are hard to come by. So if she turns out to be a useful filly, she'll certainly be a nice broodmare. She'll be a good outcross being by More Than Ready."

Tiznow Colt Joins Bourbon Lane Partnership

Mike McMahon | Keeneland

A colt by Tiznow (Hip 438) will be joining the Bourbon Lane Stable partnership after bloodstock agent Mike McMahon made a final bid of $210,000 to acquire the juvenile Thursday in Ocala. Ian Wilkes will train the youngster, who was consigned by Randy Bradshaw.

Out of multiple graded stakes winner Juanita (Mineshaft), the bay colt's half-brother Wings of Dawn (Medaglia d'Oro) is a two-time winner since the catalogue.

He was purchased by Bradshaw for $210,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale and was making his second trip through the sales ring this year after RNA'ing for $205,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream following a :10 4/5 furlong work. He worked a quarter-mile in :21 2/5 last week.

"We are big fans of the sire, he is known as the big-horse sire for a reason," McMahon said. "We like the update to the mare's page--that was a positive over Miami. The horse trained solidly for a guy we respect and trust a lot and that was a real positive. We have horses at Hidden Brook. Our trainer Mark Roberts and Randy share the track, so he's a horse we've known about a long time. There weren't a lot of negatives. We were just hopeful we could get him."

Of the colt's appearance in Hallandale, McMahon said, "We didn't bid on him at Gulfstream. He galloped well there the whole week, he prepped well. He just kind of turned in a flat work there. But it was early in the year and Randy had a lot of faith in him."

Founded in 2010, the Bourbon Lane Stable managed by McMahon and Hill was on the Triple Crown trail this spring with graded stakes placed Bourbon War (Tapit).

Hoppels Double Up at OBS

Jesse Hoppel's Coastal Equine enjoyed pinhooking success Thursday in Ocala when selling a filly by Jack Milton (hip 586) for $110,000 to Team Casse, agent. Hoppel purchased the dark bay for $12,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Not to be outdone, and just some 20 hips later, Hoppel's father Pat sold a colt by Raison d'Etat (hip 609) for $180,000 to Larry Zap, as agent for Joseph Ciaglia, Jr. through his Hoppel's Horse and Cattle Co. consignment. The elder Hoppel had purchased the dark bay for $10,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic October sale.

From the first crop of Grade I winner Jack Milton (War Front), hip 586 impressed Jesse Hoppel last September.

"The filly had a great walk and a great way of moving," he explained. "She looks precocious, she looks fast, she looks like she could make someone happy real soon. She's a bigger version of the filly I bought. She was a little rough, but you've got to look through that. She's a May foal and she's only going to get better for those guys as time goes by."

Of the youngster's $12,000 price tag last fall, Hoppel said, "I try not to spend a lot of money when I buy my horses. I try to emphasize physical and then hopefully I can find something on the paper that is exciting that coincides with the physical I need. I was glad to get her and now I'm really happy I had her."

After outdoing his son's result with hip 609, Pat Hoppel deadpanned, "I'm older. I ought to do better."

Hip 609, out of Neith (Dynaformer), worked the day's quarter-mile bullet time of :20 4/5 last week.

"When I first bought him, I was just hoping he'd come the right way," Hoppel said. "You've got to check all of the boxes and everything has to be right. And he did. He never slowed up. We struggled with the sire, he's a little bit unknown, but he's out of a Dynaformer mare and he worked really, really well. We've had a lot of horses work well. This horse worked as good as our really good horses. I thought he would get over $100,000 and then it was a matter of how bad they wanted him."

Rengifo's Golden Rock on the Rise

Keiber Rengifo lived out his dream of becoming a jockey, riding some 18 winners on the Midlantic circuit in 2015, 2016 and 2017, but now the Venezuelan native is dedicated to building up his Golden Rock Thoroughbreds, which will send 18 horses through the ring at this week's OBS June sale.

"I have had Golden Rock for almost two years," Rengifo said. "About five years ago, I started breezing horses for Hartley/DeRenzo. I breezed horses for them for four or five years and then after that, I rode races in Maryland. I did that for a while, but it was a little tough after I lost my apprentice, so I made the decision to come back to Ocala. Randy [Hartley] and Dean [DeRenzo] gave me the opportunity to breeze for them again."

With the backing of his family, Rengifo made the decision to branch out on his own.

"Last year, I made the decision to buy some horses for myself--nothing too expensive because I just started and I didn't have any big clients," he explained. "So I did it for myself and my family--I have the support of my mom and wife and two babies and my dad. So it's a family business. I am trying to build it up and find clients."

His graduates are already succeeding on the racetrack. One of the graduates from his consignment at last year's OBS March sale is the stakes placed Dunph (Temple City). Sold for $27,500 a year ago, the sophomore has earned over $165,000. Another graduate, Ta (Rattlesnake Bridge), sold for $40,000 at last year's OBS June sale and is now stakes placed for Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt and trainer Steve Asmussen.

In addition to purchasing about 16 pinhooking prospects himself at last fall's yearling sales, Rengifo has been supported by clients like Jose Camejo, Alexandro Centofanti and Nick de Caro. He is also training several horses for Evelyn Benoit's Brittlyn Stables.

"This year, I had a great sale in March and April, in Maryland and now in June," Rengifo said. "It's a big market and I'm still doing great. I just try to keep working hard--I think that's the key."

Rengifo's top seller at the June sale so far is hip 548, a filly by Ghostzapper, who sold to Randy Bradshaw for $62,000. Friday he offers a son of Sky Mesa (Hip 795) who breezed in a snappy :9 4/5.

Of his initial introduction to racing, Rengifo said, "My uncle was a rider in Venezuela. That's how I got into the horse business. When I was young, I wanted to be a jockey. When I came here from Venezuela, for a while I did ride. I didn't do very well, but my dream came true. Right now, I'm so blessed to be in Ocala with my family."

Walden Bloodstock Debuts at OBS June

Ben Walden, along with his wife Elaine, have been camped out in the OBS sales pavilion overlooking the back walking ring while deep in study of the June catalogue. The couple is reinventing their involvement in the industry a year and a half after dispersing their bloodstock at the 2017 Keeneland November sale and have chosen the June sale to unveil their Walden Bloodstock.

"We're establishing, late in life, a different twist to our vocation," Walden explained. "We are shifting our focus to buying and selling horses. Of course, we've done that for many years on our own account, but it's a different world. And with the farm sold and most of our horses sold, we wanted to stay in the business. We thought very seriously about getting out, but we couldn't reconcile it in our hearts or our minds."

The new direction for the former owners of Vinery, as well as ventures from Gracefield to Hurricane Hall and Pauls Mill--was kicked off this week in Ocala.

"This was the first sale on the calendar that came up chronologically after we'd come to this decision," Walden said. "We are just going to approach it like we have approached the business in past, whether it be stallions or selling yearlings or consigning horses. At this sale, we are trying to stumble on a few young horses that are sound and look like they can run and that we like at decent value like we've always tried to find.

He continued, "We have a handful of clients that we're looking for. We haven't struck yet, but we have one that we're going to try to buy later [Thursday]. The cupboard is a little bare in that [client] department, but we've got our old Rolodex and we've made some phone calls to old partners and old clients."

After looking for race prospects for clients at the June sale, the Waldens will shift their focus to the yearling market, which opens next month with the Fasig-Tipton July Sale and continues with the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale in August.

"At this point, I don't have a plan specifically other than we'll look for young horses for a couple people we are trying to find racehorses for here, we'll transfer over to yearlings," Walden said. "My brother [WinStar president Elliott Walden] has given me some partnership ideas and we'll maybe put a little filly partnership together. We're starting to give that some thought. After this sale, when we get home we'll have a little bit of time before July and Saratoga."

Walden is also eagerly looking forward to the bloodstock sales in Kentucky in November.

"The broodmares have always been our strength, as far as buying mares, finding those mares with deep pedigrees who started out a little slow--the pedigree has a way of seeking its way out. So I really look forward to the fall and I think I can really bring something to the table for some folks who might be trying to build on their broodmare bands. And we've always pinhooked weanlings and we might get into that again. Right now, we're just starting out and we don't really have it all mapped out yet." Cont. p10

The Waldens' 21-year-old daughter Hope, an advanced eventer and talented artist, has developed the new initiative's logo and her interests will also provide an additional outlet for the bloodstock agency.

"We've learned to love the event world," Walden said. "We don't know much about the hunter/jumpers, but there are a lot of good people in eventing and we're going to have an arm in the bloodstock agency where we try to buy event prospects, whether they be advanced, intermediate, novice, or young rider prospects. Elaine and Hope are going to head that arm. So there will be a crossover into the sport horse world and we'll just see if we can develop that end of it."

TAKING STOCK

Farmer reflected on the fact that anyone could have purchased Sir Winston as a yearling from Denali Stud's consignment at the 2017 Keeneland September sale, when he was a $50,000 RNA.

"We didn't even get a bid on him," Farmer said. "It was me that bid him in. People said he'd bring a fortune, but you know how that goes. They want to make people happy that sell horses, you know how that goes. It was a mistake putting him in there. He wasn't huge, he wasn't small. He was just all horse; he was like Commentator, when you saw him you just said, 'Wow.' Just think of the people that paid millions of dollars at the sale, and they could have had that one. That shows you the knowledge in our industry."

Tracy Farmer | Horsephotos

And what was it like for the Farmers watching the race, far from the madding crowd?

"We like doing that, because when you invite other people, they always ask you so many questions," he said. "I don't know, maybe I'm not being sensible about it, but we enjoyed it. We couldn't believe it. Then our phones started [ringing], so many messages and voice mails, I couldn't even answer my phone, it had a life of its own for about 30 minutes. It's been a good ride."

At 80, Farmer is a longtime owner and breeder who has invested substantially in racing and is a member of The Jockey Club. A successful businessman before he entered the sport, he's been involved in state and national politics with the Democratic Party, has served on the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission and the Breeders' Cup board of directors, and has deep interests in preserving the environment through the Tracy Farmer Institute for Sustainability and the Environment at the University of Kentucky. Cont. p12

In short, he's accomplished in many arenas and is nobody's fool, is spare with his words, and can be blunt--ideal traits for texting or emailing from his iPhone, at which he's adept. It's how he primarily communicates with me.

Via email from my phone, I'd wished Farmer luck in the Belmont S. On the Wednesday morning before the race, and he'd responded with a one word, “thanks,” almost immediately, from his phone, too. After Sir Winston had won the Classic, I'd sent him, like others had, a congratulatory email. Very graciously, he'd responded right away again, with the following message: “Could not have done it without your help.”

Farmer had reconnected with Werk Thoroughbred Consultants in the fall of 2014 after a period away from the company following the 2010 death of WTC founder Jack Werk. He wanted advice on the matings of his best mares for the 2015 breeding season, La Gran Bailadora (Afleet Alex), the dam of Sir Winston, among them. Until Sir Winston won the Belmont, La Gran Bailadora was Farmer's last homebred graded stakes winner. First in six of 25 starts and the earner of $338,416, La Gran Bailadora had won the GIII Kentucky Cup Distaff S. at Turfway in September of 2011 and was later placed in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland at 27-1. Both races were on all-weather surfaces--her specialty. After La Gran Bailadora, Farmer, a shareholder in Gainesway's Afleet Alex, bred another graded winner, Called to Serve, by the sire, but he was sold as a yearling for $290,000. Called to Serve won the GIII Discovery S. at Aqueduct in November of 2012 and placed in the GI Santa Anita H. the following year behind Game On Dude, a son of Awesome Again.

Sir Winston | Sarah Andrew

Earlier, Farmer had raced (among others) such notable auction purchases as Commentator (Distorted Humor), a popular and extremely fast New York-bred gelding who won 14 of 24 starts and $2,049,845, including the GI Whitney H. in 2005 and 2008; Sun King (Charismatic), a Grade II winner of six of 28 starts and $2,240,008; and Albert the Great (Go for Gin), who earned $3,012,490 by winning eight of 22 starts, including the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. Farmer bred and raced Grade II winner Sir Shackleton (Miswaki), who earned $1,051,500 from seven wins in 22 starts, and he'd bought into Robert Clay's champion mare Hidden Lake at the end of her career. He's been used to success, and now, after about 25 years of breeding horses--he began his foray into breeding with millionaire Fit for a Queen (Fit to Fight)--he has his first Classic winner, with a homebred no less.

The Affirmed Factor…

At WTC, we live and die with our clients. A pall was palpable in the office after Gary and Mary West's Maximum Security (New Year’s Day) was disqualified in the GI Kentucky Derby, because we'd assisted the Wests and their racing manager Ben Glass with the mating. But after Sir Winston won the Belmont S., we at WTC couldn't have been happier for the Farmers.

“"We have 10 people in the company, and everyone was so thrilled for you,” I said to Farmer, who I spoke with Tuesday in advance of this column.

He was gracious again. “Well, you should have been. You're the reason he's here,” he said.

But then he put me on the spot and became the interviewer. “Why did you recommend Awesome Again?” he asked, bluntly.

It came down to the presence of Affirmed--the sire of Sir Winston's second dam--in the pedigree.

This is exactly what I told him over the phone: “If you look at the most recent recommendation, we recommended him again. I'll tell you why. One of the main reasons is because Affirmed is a difficult horse in a pedigree. He was a tremendous racehorse and a good stallion, but if you notice, he doesn't appear a lot in the pedigrees of stakes winners. Sometimes, when they [horses like Affirmed] get into the second and third generations of a pedigree, they exert a negative influence. So we were looking at stallions that worked with Affirmed in the pedigree, and Awesome Again stood out.”

WTC's Roger Lyons co-developed eNicks with Jack Werk and is a brilliant researcher. He'd also developed what we call the LyonScore, a program that acts as a pedigree MRI scan, if you will. It was his research that highlighted the problematic Affirmed in La Gran Bailadora's pedigree and discovered that Awesome Again was the perfect antidote.

“Well, you hit a home run,” Farmer said, before he hung up.

Actually, he did, and it was well deserved.

MAXIMUM SECURITY TO RETURN IN SUNDAY'S PEGASUS

Maximum Security (New Year's Day), disqualified from first and placed 17th in the GI Kentucky Derby, will make his highly anticipated return to the races in Sunday's $150,000 TVG.com Pegasus S. at Monmouth Park. The Pegasus, run at a mile and a sixteenth, is the local prep for the $1-million GI TVG.com Haskell Invitational July 20.

"He's going to run," trainer Jason Servis said. "The horse had a really good day today and I don't see a reason why we shouldn't run."

The Gary and Mary West homebred, first across the line in all five of his career starts, including the GI Florida Derby, became the first Kentucky Derby winner to be disqualified after his 1 3/4-length victory over Country House (Lookin At Lucky).

Servis had blood drawn from Maximum Security on Monday as a precautionary measure.

"Maybe I was over-reading things a little too much, trying to be overly cautious," Servis said. "He's acting really good and training good and his bloodwork came back good. So maybe I just over-reacted a little bit."

The Pegasus attracted a field of six.

MENIFEE DIES IN KOREA

by Alan Carasso

Menifee (Harlan--Anne Campbell, by Never Bend), a perennial leading sire in Korea since his first crop of runners hit the track in 2010 and whose impact on the Korean breeding industry has drawn comparisons to Sunday Silence in Japan, died June 13 from a reported heart attack at the KRA Stud Farm on Jeju Island. He was 23 years of age.

Menifee (1996-2019) | kra.co.kr

Bred by Arthur Hancock and raced in partnership with James Stone, Menifee was conditioned by Elliott Walden to win the 1999 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and runner-up efforts to Charismatic (Summer Squall) in the 1999 GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. He added a popular victory in that year's GI Haskell Invitational H. and was retired to stud following a second-place finish to stablemate and future Korean stallion Ecton Park (Forty Niner) in the GI Super Derby.

Retired initially to Stone Farm, Menifee sired seven crops of racing age in the U.S. and accounted for 25 black-type winners, six of which came in graded company, including GI Princess Rooney H. winner Game Face and other graded winners Just Jenda, Taittinger Rose, Wow Me Free, Burnish and Letgomyecho.

Sold to the Korean Racing Association in 2007, Menifee was the leading freshman sire and leading sire of 2-year-olds in Korea in 2010 and topped the leading general sires list each year from 2012 through 2017. He finished second to Ecton Park in 2018, but was leading the table at the time of his death.

From seven crops to race in Korea, Menifee, who overcame a potentially life-threatening bout with urinary tract stones in 2011, has sired 255 individual winners, chief among them Power Blade (Kor), who won the Korean Triple Crown in 2016 and has added two victories in races officially recognized as black-type subsequent to a decision to award Part II status to a half-dozen Korean feature races in July 2016.

Menifee is represented by 45 current 2-year-olds, 40 yearlings and 59 foals of 2019.

INDUSTRY GROUPS CALL FOR BISPHOSPHONATE RESEARCH PROPOSALS

The Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC), the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and the American Association of Equine Practitioners Foundation have issued a call for research proposals to investigate bisphosphonate administration in racehorses and in young racing prospects intended for sale at public auction.

They seek to understand how bisphosphonates affect the long-term health and soundness of equine athletes. No research exists regarding the medication's influence on horses under four years of age.

"The expeditious development, funding and execution of targeted tactical research will be critical to our industry's efforts to effectively regulate the use of bisphosphonates and prevent their abuse," said RMTC Chair Alex Waldrop.

The areas of requested research are:

- Improving existing detection methodologies, including the potential use of alternative matrices such as hair and biomarkers in addition to the traditional testing matrices of urine and blood.
- Understanding the effects of bisphosphonate administration on bone healing and remodeling.
- Assessing the analgesic properties of bisphosphonates in the horse.

The complete Request for Proposals can be read here. The deadline for submission is Oct. 1, 2019.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Churchill Downs, $88,837, Msw, 6-13, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:04.84, ft.

SHEDARESTHEDEVIL (f, 2, Daredevil--Starship Warpspeed, by Congrats) overcame a slow start and leveled off strongly down the lane to graduate on debut Thursday at Churchill, becoming the first North American winner for her freshman sire (by More Than Ready). Flashing consistent speed in her morning activity, highlighted by a half-mile bullet in :47 2/5 (1/48) May 16 at Keeneland, the $100,000 Keeneland November buy was backed as the 13-5 second favorite here and broke tardily from her rail draw. Quickly advancing into contention behind pacesetting Collude (Secret Circle) past a :22.58 quarter, the bay was angled off the inside into the three path nearing the turn for home. Drawing on even terms in mid-stretch, she forged by Collude a furlong out and skipped clear to a 3 1/4-length success over that rival in 1:04.84. The winner, who follows up the first worldwide victor by her sire Wednesday at Hamilton in Great Britain, has a yearling half-sister by Outwork and a half-sister of this season by Speightster. Sales History: $100,000 Wlg '17 KEENOV; $20,000 RNA Ylg '18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $54,848. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

2nd-Belmont, $62,000, (S), Msw, 6-13, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m (off turf), 1:39.52, sy.

BANGLE GAL (f, 3, Emcee--Tiger Girl {MSW, $142,829}, by Hold That Tiger) began her career with consecutive third-place finishes on the dirt, including a stakes showing in the Apr. 20 New York Stallion S. at Aqueduct. After a sixth in a May 19 maiden special weight at Belmont on the turf, the $65,000 EASMAY purchase was entered here as main track only. When rain forced this race off the turf, Bangle Gal entered the starting gate as the 2-1 second choice. Rating behind the leaders on the outside after a :23.60 first quarter, she swept to the lead around the turn and ran away from the rest of the field under a zealous hand ride from jockey Manuel Franco. The dark bay cleared 3-5 favorite Lady Macho (Mucho Macho Man) by 5 1/2 lengths at the wire. She is out of the multiple stakes winning mare Tiger Girl, the dam of a Majestic City yearling colt. Sales History: $49,000 RNA 2yo '18 OBSMAR; $65,000 2yo '18 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-0-2, $63,140. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Sequel Bloodstock graduate

9th-Gulfstream, $45,700, (S), Msw, 6-13, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:36.85, gd.

ITSHERLUCKYDAY (f, 3, Poseidon's Warrior--Sumthingtotalkabt, by Mutakddim) was given a 4-1 chance in here by bettors after a less-than-ideal debut that saw her check in seventh May 19 at Gulfstream. However, the Florida-bred showed professionalism in this second lifetime start, trailing the field comfortably through solid early fractions of :23.89 and :48.07. After inching up on the leaders around the far turn, the bay was shut off along the inside rail with two furlongs left to run. Rider Jairo Rendon swung Itsherluckyday three wide into the lane and she courageously ran down the heavily favored La Chauffeur (Cairo Prince) to triumph by 1 1/4 lengths at the finish. The winner is a half-sister to the outstanding turf filly and GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint runner-up Lady Shipman (Midshipman), GSW/GISP, $902,387 and Just Talkin (Midshipman), MSP, $221,220. Her dam foaled a filly by Flintshire (GB) last term before visiting Speightster. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $28,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

4th-Delaware, $34,125, Msw, 6-13, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:11.71, sy.

AMUNDSON (g, 3, Curlin--Bridgehampton {SW & GSP, $173,940}, by Bernardini) made amends for his off-the-board finish Jan. 26 at Aqueduct with a rousing second-out score in the slop here. The newly gelded 5-2 shot broke well and quickly engaged in a duel with Blackshear (Overdriven) on the front end through opening fractions of :22.16 and :45.75. Equipped with blinkers for the first time, the New York-bred disposed of his early rival turning into the stretch and stormed home through the mud, winning in hand by 10 1/2 lengths over Ice Rain (Ice Box). He is out of the stakes winning mare Bridgehampton, the dam of unraced juvenile Winner's Laugh (Broken Vow), a Munnings yearling colt and a Sky Mesa filly born this season. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $20,658. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

6th-Belterra, $24,000, (S), Msw, 6-13, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:15.39, ft.
SWING MUSIC (f, 3, Twirling Candy--Lady Symphony, by Consolidator) broke on top in this career debut and controlled the pace from the start. After a :22.63 quarter and :47.22 half, the 2-1 second choice found herself pressured in between horses with a quarter-mile to run. The bay turned back the challengers in deep stretch and held sway by 1 1/2 lengths over Hottlilnumber (Astrology). She is the first winner produced by her dam Lady Symphony. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

#USBRED

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Hakodate and Hanshin Racecourses:

Saturday, June 15, 2019

5th-HAK, ¥13,400,000 ($124k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1000mT

NILKANTA TESORO (JPN) (c, 2, Speightstown--Vapour {GB}, by Galileo {Ire}), by the sire of 21 winners from 24 to race in Japan, including US-bred GSWs Mozu Superflare and Matera Sky, was offered in utero at Keeneland November in 2016, but was led out unsold at $385K. Subsequently exported and foaled Feb. 17, the chestnut was purchased by Kenji Ryotokuji for ¥54 million ($473,685) at the 2017 JRHA Select Foal sale. The colt's dam is a half to SW Quenched (GB) (Dansili {GB}), herself responsible for Australia Group 3 winner Excess Knowledge (GB) (Monsun {Ger}). The further female family includes MG1SW & 2003 G1 Prix de Diane victrix Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat). B-Kuwata Bokujo

Sunday, June 16, 2019

2nd-HSN, ¥9,550,000 ($88k), Maiden, 3yo, 1200m

FIR BOLG (c, 3, Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is a son of Fairytale Ending (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) a full-sister to GSW Aloof (Ire) ($3.9m KEENOV) and a half-sister to SW & GSP Meow (Ire) (Storm Cat), dam of champion and English/Irish 2000 Guineas hero Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and G1SW Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Virginia-based Audley Farm acquired Fir Bolg in utero for $575,000 at KEENOV in 2015 and returned the colt to KEESEP in 2017, where he fetched $240K. Group 1-winning second dam Airwave (GB) (Air Express {Ire}) is a half-sister to the ill-fated G1SW Jwala (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). B-Audley Farm Equine LLC (VA)

11th-HAK, Hakodate Sprint S.-G3, ¥74.6m ($688k), 3/up, 1200mT

ASTER PEGASUS (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--R Heat Lightning, by Trippi) returns to the scene of his victory in the G3 Hakodate Nisai S. last July, his most recent trip to the winner's circle (video, gate 6). R Heat Lightning, winner of the 2010 GI Spinaway S., was purchased by Stonestreet for $1.6 million in foal to Bernardini at KEENOV in 2013 and Aster Pegasus repaid some of that bill when hammering for $150K at KEESEP in 2017. Aster Pegasus exits a sharp runner-up effort in the Listed Aoi S. May 25 (video, gate 13). B-Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC (KY)

INTERNATIONAL CREW ADDS COLOUR TO ASCOT

Singapore raider Lim's Cruiser in Newmarket | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--In a week in which astronomical prize-money has been a topic of debate in international racing, the record £7.3 million on offer at Royal Ascot may not stand up against some newer carnivals but the five days of first-class racing at The Queen's home course remains the meeting with the greatest prestige, never mind its 251-year history.

Horses representing nine different nations will line up at Ascot next week, with the home guard being challenged by a regular strong team from Ireland, as well as France, the Czech Republic, America, Australia, New Zealand, Japan and Singapore.

International raiders arrived in Britain as early as March, led by the Australian mare Houtzen (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}), who, along with Deirdre (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) from Japan, New Zealand sprinter Enzo's Lad (Aus) Testa Rossa {Aus}), and the Singapore-based Lim's Cruiser (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), is currently resident at Abington Place in Newmarket, which has been a temporary home over the years to Royal Ascot winners such as Black Caviar (Aus), Takeover Target (Aus) and Scenic Blast (Aus).

STRADIVARIUS NUMBER ONE FOR DETTORI

Frankie Dettori will no doubt have an enviable book of rides next week at Royal Ascot, and the 48-year-old Italian has nominated the G1 Gold Cup title defender Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) as "the one I'm looking forward to riding."

Stradivarius was one of Britain's most admirable horses in training last season, sweeping all five starts and clinching the inaugural £1-million stayers' million bonus. Dettori was aboard the chestnut for a successful reintroduction in the G2 Yorkshire Cup on May. 17 and he said, "He is doing very well and is very fresh. He has become the people's favourite horse. The great thing about him is that he wears his heart on the sleeve, and he never goes down without a fight and people appreciate that.

"The Queen only comes down to give the trophy out for the Gold Cup and Diamond Jubilee, so it is an honour to receive the trophy from her," Dettori added.

With Wesley Ward's team of eight being stabled at Manton in Wiltshire along with Breeze Easy LLC's Imprimis (Broken Vow), it was left to the Abington Place quartet to parade before the media during Ascot's official press event on Thursday morning. After an extremely dry spring, the heavens have opened over the last few days in the south of England. The visitors have had to cope with unusually cold and wet weather in the week building up to the Royal meeting, while two race meetings in the country were abandoned through waterlogging on Thursday.

New Zealand sprinter Enzo's Lad | Emma Berry

However, the conditions have been welcomed by Ascot's Clerk of the Course Chris Stickells, whose team has been spared the extra task of watering the course. He said, "Clearly it's not going to be lightning-fast ground. We've had 80mm so far this week but the rain band is disappearing, and after Saturday we're unlikely to see much rain, so it's highly likely that we will have good ground for the meeting."

It is also not of concern for Joe Orseno, trainer of the multiple-winning turf sprinter Imprimis, for whom this is a first runner in Britain. His 5-year-old gelding, who arrived in Britain on June 2, holds entries for both the G1 King's Stand S. on Tuesday and Saturday's G1 Diamond Jubilee S.

"He's run over a hard surface and he's taken it well, and last year at Pimlico he handled a really wet surface well," said Orseno, who travelled to Newmarket to join the press conference. "He doesn't have to take his track with him. I'd rather run over a good track but if it rains we'll still be there."

He added, "I had him training in Florida and it's a little warm there so when he got here he welcomed the chillier weather.

"It's really quiet at Manton. He's blossomed since he got here and his coat is dappled, so I'm really happy."

Toby Edmonds trains the sole Australian runner this year, the G3 PJ Bell S. winner Houtzen, whose extended stay in Newmarket has been overseen by his son Trent. The mare's most recent run came on Jan. 12, but her trainer is not overly concerned by her absence from the track and she will be ridden by fellow Australian Kerrin McEvoy, who has also been called up for a number of Godolphin rides in the absence of the recuperating William Buick.

Edmonds said, "Our filly is very, very sharp. She hasn't had a barrier trial, which we would have done in Australia, but she's very good fresh. One of the reasons we came here so early was for her to get seasoned enough with the testing tracks here, which we just don't have at home. I think The Everest, with its big prize pool, has taken away some of the [other Australian] challengers for Ascot but we thought we'd come here and take our chance."

Edmonds, who revealed that his stable star was supposed to have been named after glamour model Doutzen Kroes, added, "We name our horses pretty late and I asked my son for a suggestion. He sent me a text with the name and it was auto-corrected to Houtzen. They are both gorgeous anyway."

Houtzen may have travelled farther but the Ascot challenger with the most airmiles surely has to be Japan's G1 Shuka Sho winner Deirdre, whose three appearances this year have come in her home country, followed by Dubai and Hong Kong after she finished a fast-closing second when splitting the brothers Glorious Forever (GB) (Archipenko) and Time Warp in the G1 Hong Kong Cup in December.

For all her travels, Toji Morita's 5-year-old mare appears to be coping well with yet another new country and she has been the model of calm professionalism in the mornings on Newmarket Heath since her arrival in Britain. She has been exercised on the same ground over which her sire Harbinger was trained in his three seasons with Sir Michael Stoute. In 2010, he won the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot in record time after his Royal Ascot victory in the Hardwicke S., and while his daughter Deirdre looks to have fierce competition in the G1 Prince of Wales's S., she will have the benefit of the experience of her similarly well travelled compatriot, Yutaka Take.

Speaking through a translator, her trainer Mitsuru Hashida said, "Deirdre is a mixture of European and Japanese bloodlines. She comes from a great Japanese female line. We'd like to see her on a comfortable surface: not too heavy and not too hard. We are always fortunate to be supported by the huge passion of the Japanese fans. We had 110,000 people in attendance at the Japanese Derby last month.

"Deirdre has travelled not just around the world but around as Japan as well, so she is very popular. I hope her fans don't drink too much sake before midnight for her race. We are looking forward to seeing how our horse can compete against such strong competition."

Another to have experienced Hong Kong's international meeting in December is Lim's Cruiser, who started his racig career in Australia before being exported to Singapore in 2015. The 7-year-old, who will be ridden by Australian jockey Vlad Duric and is trained by ex-pat New Zealander Stephen Gray, is the most recent arrival in Newmarket having only left his home country on June 8.

Japanese mare Deirdre | Emma Berry

"At home he is in a big barn and the horse is used to being in a confined space. He is enjoying the open space on the training grounds and looking out of his door," said Gray after watching Lim's Cruiser exercise with Duric on board.

"The trip over will have been like a race for him, and we have just got to keep him ticking over and keep him healthy. He had a blood test last night, and it was good. I was happy out with him on the gallops this morning. There are another couple of races for him after this, probably the July Cup at Newmarket and then Goodwood."

The star turn of the morning came not from any of the horses, all of whom undertook routine steady canters, but from Michael Pitman, the 64-year-old trainer of Enzo's Lad, a back-to-back winner of the G1 JR & N Berkett Telegraph in New Zealand. Pitman, who trains in partnership with his son Matthew, has had his fair share of adversity to overcome. He was hit by a car in his first year with a training licence and spent 26 weeks in hospital while recovering from severe injuries, which included his left leg having to be amputated below the knee.

Just less than six years ago, greater tragedy visited Pitman and his wife Diane when their 28-year-old son Jonny took his own life, while last May the trainer was diagnosed with bowel cancer.

"There's a bloke down the end there that keeps telling me I should be dead, but I'm a survivor," he said. "I had an operation on Oct. 8 and they took 17 inches out of my bowel, but they obviously did a good job because I've just been given the all-clear."

He added, "I have an artificial leg so I hate going through airports but I've had the best life of all. I'm lucky, I've trained a lot of winners and most of my owners have been with me from the word go. I've been on the best drug of all for years, and that's winning races."

Enzo's Lad, who was bought for NZ$15,000 as a yearling--the equivalent of roughly £7,750/€8,700--is owned by the trainer in partnership with seven friends and the dual Group 1 winner carries a 'J' on his racing colours in memory of Jonny Pitman.

"He's a real cool dude, he's so laidback," the trainer continued. "John Egan came in and galloped him for us and he worked on his own down the Al Bahathri. I've had so much help from everyone over here, especially Jane Chapple-Hyam, who has been fantastic."

The ride next week--or possibly rides, as Enzo's Lad is entered in the two big sprints and could contest both--will go to Egan's son, 19-year-old David, who was third in the 1000 Guineas with Qabala (Scat Daddy) on his first ride in a Classic in May.

"I'm going to give a young, local fella a go. I'm not against giving young people a chance--they've got to start somewhere and he's a great young fella," said the trainer. "I've travelled horses to a lot of places and I've never had a reception like I've had here. Someone asked me if it was on the bucket list to be here for Royal Ascot and I said 'yes, but also on the bucket list was to go to the moon and that's totally unachievable.'

That's how I felt about this too, it's completely unbelievable to be here."

Stradivarius's Yorkshire Cup win means a chance at a second stayers' million bonus is alive and well, but Dettori stressed the Gold Cup is the priority at the moment.

"[Owner] Bjorn Nielsen's priority is to win a second Gold Cup," he said. "The million, we will only think about if we get to the last leg."

Dettori's rides will also include Too Darn Hot (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is on a recovery mission, in the G1 St James's Palace S.

"We've been unfortunate, because we've had to rush to get him on a racecourse," said Dettori referring to his setback early in the spring. "We tried the Dante. But he didn't stay, and that was perhaps a lack of fitness. We tried the Irish Guineas--and he was not last, he was second.

I feel I've not got him where I want him to be. Hopefully at Ascot on Tuesday, you see the old Too Darn Hot. I feel he has got more to give and you haven't seen the real him yet this season. He looks well and came out of the Irish 2000 Guineas well. He is an amazing horse to ride in the mornings--I sit on him once in a while."

Trainer John Gosden, who has 47 Royal Ascot wins to his name, also shed some light on Too Darn Not's preparation.

"Too Darn Hot has probably been the worst managed horse this year, by me and the manager," he said. "He missed the Guineas which was tragedy because that would have been a perfect race. He then had to walk for two weeks before going for the Dante, when he was quite frankly about 80% fit. Frankie was trying to settle him further back and ignored the pacemakers and consequently got there to be second.

"Then, as we seemed to be missing the Classics, we went over to Ireland nine days later. Due to the rules, he had to have a flu vaccination--he was perfectly eligible to race in the UK but not in Ireland as they changed the rules so he had to have a flu vaccination on the Saturday after the Dante before the Irish 2000 Guineas the following Saturday.

"He ran really well in Ireland and finished second, but we all ask horses to do impossible things and I think it would have been much better if we had targeted the Irish Guineas from the outset. From the horse's point of view, that has not been very clever.

"Having said that, Too Darn Hot is coming into the St James's Palace S. in good form and I hope that he can put in a quality performance as he certainly has not had the opportunity to do that so far this season with his more than interrupted preparation through the spring. I think I am the happiest I have been with him so far this season. Last year went so smoothly it was almost ridiculous, a maiden followed by a Group 3, a Group 2 and a Group 1. This year has been quite the opposite. The good news is that we are only halfway through the season so there is still a lot to look forward to."

Frankie Dettori | Racing Post

Another Group 1 mount for Frankie Dettori next week will be Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S., and as per usual trainer Sir Michael Stoute heads to Ascot with a strong team that also includes G1 Lockinge S. winner Mustashry (GB) (Tamayuz {GB}) and exciting 3-year-old filly Jubiloso (GB) (Shamardal).

"Crystal Ocean will go in the Prince of Wales's S.," Stoute said. "He has to go for Group 1 races now and he has won plenty of Group 2 and Group 3 races. He has run creditably in Group 1 races and has decent 10-furlong form. It is a very tough race, but he goes there in great form. Frankie Dettori rides him and sat on him yesterday morning.

"Mustashry runs in the Queen Anne. I was thrilled with him in the Lockinge and his preparations have gone fine.

"He is impervious to ground conditions which is very handy, and we are hopeful."

Click for a video interview with Juddmonte's Simon Mockridge, who sums up the champion's stud career to date

Stoute continued, "It will be a big step up for Jubiloso in the Coronation S. as she has only won a maiden and a novice race. But she has been very impressive and is progressive. She is a classy filly.

One of Crystal Ocean's chief rivals in a loaded Prince of Wales's will be the filly Sea of Class (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), and her trainer William Haggas could be faced with finding a last-minute jockey should Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) elect to run, requiring James Doyle.

"James Doyle will ride Masar if he runs in the race, but according to James, no decision has been made yet," Haggas said. "Hopefully, he is available, but if not I've got my ideas on some jockeys who could ride as does the owner Mrs. Tsui, who has had jockeys ringing her up, so we will cross that bridge when we come to it."

In other Royal Ascot news on Thursday, Godolphin's G2 Queen Mary S. favourite Chasing Dreams (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) has been ruled out after suffering a setback. The chestnut filly was a five-length winner on her lone start at Newmarket on Apr. 16.

LATE FLIGHT

When it comes to Jim Bolger, it is safe to say anything is possible and the wizard of Coolcullen has even managed to generate a new vigour in the 8-year-old Flight Risk (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) as the veteran showed his rivals a clean pair of heels in Thursday's G3 Plusvital Ballycorus S. at Leopardstown. Back in 2017, the chestnut was 12-1 when taking this for the first time to add to his prior pattern-race success in the 2015 G3 Gladness S. After a clear-cut win in the Listed Glencairn S. over a mile here a week previously, due respect was awarded this time and he traded as the 10-11 favourite sitting happily in fourth off the solid tempo. Delivered with typical accuracy by Kevin Manning to take control a furlong from home, he hit the line with gusto chased by the 5-years younger Inverleigh (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}).

"He is better now than ever, by about five to six pounds," Bolger said. "His problems were never major, just small things and he's finding things easier now. He's in the [G2] Minstrel S. [at The Curragh on July 20] and maybe we'll have a look at that. He'll probably try a mile and a quarter at some stage."

Pedigree Notes

Flight Risk is a half-brother to the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. and G3 Concorde S. winner Marionnaud (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and the group-placed pair of Rock Moss (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and Maqaraat (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}).

He is the last known foal out of Raghida (Ire) (Nordico), who was runner-up in the G3 Molecomb S. and G3 Curragh S. as a juvenile and is a half-sister to the Group 1-winning sire Sholokhov (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Affianced (Ire) (Erins Isle {Ire}). The latter threw the top-class multiple Group 1 winner and Irish Derby hero Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and his G3 Meld S.-winning full-brother and fellow sire Heliostatic (Ire). This is also the family of the G1 Dewhurst S.-winning sire Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway) and last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S., G2 Debutante S. and G3 Silver Flash S. heroine Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy).

THREE TIED FOR WORLD'S BEST

Three horses from three countries are tied for the title of World's Best Racehorse in the latest Longines-sponsored rankings released on Thursday. Sharing a mark of 125 are Hong Kong's six-time Group 1 winner Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock {Aus}) and two horses that have since been retired: America's GI Pegasus World Cup winner City of Light (Quality Road) and Australia's Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}).

Another Australian, G1 TJ Smith S. winner Santa Ana Lane (Aus) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), occupies the fourth spot with a rating of 124, while Happy Clapper (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}), a frequent placegetter behind Winx, shares fifth with G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup winner Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on a mark of 123.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

SECTIONAL TIMING ELIMINATES GUESSWORK

This letter is written in response to Pat Cummings's Op/Ed on sectional timing.

I am a firm believer in the use of sectional times. I explain the need for them to my friends as follows: There is no person with the eyesight to measure the relative speeds of two horses racing against each other. Sectional times enlighten us to possibilities we never entertained. For example, they often tell us that Horse B went past Horse A not because Horse B accelerated but because Horse B slowed down less than Horse A. Yet without sectional data, racing journalists frequently conclude that the winning horse was accelerating.

My baseline selling point on Sectional times is: they tell us what actually happened. Without them we are engaging in guesswork.

Irish and UK flat racing are so much poorer because of the lack of sectional timing.

Regards, John Lynam

KINGMAN FILLY EARNS RISING STAR TAG

Godolphin's Summer Romance (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) faced just three rivals in Thursday's British Stallion Studs EBF Maiden Fillies' S. at Great Yarmouth and outclassed what was placed before her to earn 'TDN Rising Star' status at the first attempt. The grey had already earned a degree of fame when bettering a 300,000gns price tag at last year's Tattersalls October Book 1 sale with the second-highest price, €800,000, at last month's Arqana Breeze-Up sale, and doubled up in style on the Norfolk coast. The 8-13 favourite bowled along in second as €230,000 Goffs November foal Huboor (Ire) (More Than Ready) set a modest pace. Angled into the clear and shaken up with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the response was immediate and she quickened impressively to seize control passing the furlong marker before running on powerfully under negligible cajoling in the closing stages to easily account for Bredenbury (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) by two lengths.

Summer Romance at last month's Arqana Breeze-Up sale, where she sold for €800,000 | Zuzanna Lupa

"It's nice to see Kingman's progeny doing so well, he's already had some nice winners and is set to be a great stallion," said James Doyle, who rode the winner's sire to victory four times at the highest level. "She breezed very well and, quite rightly, cost a small fortune, but I was keen not to give her a hard race on this sticky ground. She's got small feet so we were a little concerned with the going beforehand, but she coped with it fine. Both sire and dam handled similar conditions well and, once we delved into the pedigree, it gave us a little bit of confidence. I knew from her breezing days that she'd be able to drop down and quicken in a short space of time and that's exactly what she did. She's been working well with winners at home and there'll be some nice races coming up for her."

Summer Romance becomes the third scorer for Serena's Storm (Ire) (Statue of Liberty) and the grey is kin to G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Coronation S. heroine Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). Serena's Storm is a winning half to last month's G1 Prix d'Ispahan hero Zabeel Prince (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), MG1SP dual Australian Group 2 winner Puissance de Lune (Ire) (Shamardal), last month's Listed Haras de Bouquetot Fillies' Trial victress Queen Power (Ire) (Shamardal), the dual stakes-placed Majesty (Ire) (Shamardal) and a yearling filly by Iffraaj (GB). The winner's third dam Serena's Sister (Rahy), who produced MGSW & MGISP sire Doubles Partner (Rock Hard Ten) and the stakes-winning Stormy Venus (Stormy Atlantic), is a full-sister to storied MGISW US champion Serena's Song, who in turn is the dam of seven stakes performers headed by G1 Coronation S. victress Sophisticat (Storm Cat).

Antonia de Vega finished lame when losing her perfect record in Newmarket's Oct. 12 G1 Fillies' Mile and was subsequently found to have fractured a pastern, but regained the winning thread with an dominant display in this comeback. The bay, who had previously impressed with wins at Newmarket in July and in the following month's G3 Prestige S. at Goodwood, was steadied at the tail of the six-runner field through halfway. Inching closer when coming under pressure with three furlongs remaining, she was driven to challenge entering the final furlong and powered clear to double her stakes tally in style.

"It's been a tough spring with her and she has shown the square root of zip, which is why she came here as I could see her running to [a rating of] 68 based on what we were seeing at home," revealed trainer Ralph Beckett. "They went a good gallop and it is clear that she wants to go further. The [soft] going helped, ground like that always helps anything by the sire and we will stick to wherever there is juice in the ground. She is in the [July 20 G1] Irish Oaks and that might be a possibility."

Antonia de Vega is the first foal for Listed Platinum S. and Listed Knockaire S. placegetter Witches Brew (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade), herself a half-sister to G1 Prix Jacques le Marois hero Al Wukair (Ire) (Dream Ahead) and G3 Autumn S. runner-up Dream Today (Ire) (Dream Ahead), and the bay is a full-sister to a yearling filly and a 2019 filly. She is also a half-sister to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old colt Witch Hunt (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}). Her third dam Caerlina (Ire) (Caerleon) annexed the G1 Prix de Diane and produced G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third La Nuit Rose (Fr) (Rainbow Quest), who in turn is the dam of GII Kelso H. scorer Tam Lin (GB) (Selkirk) and Listed Derby du l'Ouest victor Blue Rambler (GB) (Monsun {Ger}). Caerlina is also the granddam of MG1SP G2 Kinko Sho winner Curren Mirotic (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and G1SP G3 Kyoto Himba S. victress Hikaru Amaranthus (Jpn) (Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}).

2nd-Newbury, £8,550, Cond, 6-13, 3yo, f, 8fT, 1:44.96, sf. QAMKA (GB) (f, 3, Mastercraftsman {Ire}--First {GB} {SW-Fr}, by Highest Honor {Fr}), a May 10 debut third over an extended mile at Nottingham in her only prior start, was well away to race in a handy sixth through the initial stages of this return. Easing ever closer from halfway, the crowd's 6-4 selection was shaken up to challenge passing the quarter-mile marker and ridden out from there to deny the tenacious pacesetter Beauty of Deira (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths. "She likes that [soft] ground as she has got quite a high action," said trainer Roger Varian. "She got through it well and is probably ready for a step up to 10 furlongs as she was lengthening rather than quickening through the line, but she was going strong through the line. She got a nice lead and moved into the race nicely, but didn't put it to bed immediately as I don't think she is a finisher with a gear change. We are not going to over race her through the summer and we will see the best of her in the autumn." Qamka becomes the eighth scorer from as many runners out of Listed Prix Ceres victress First (GB) (Highest Honor {Fr}), herself a 1.1-million guineas purchase out of Bloomsbury Stud's 2010 dispersal. The bay is a half-sister to G2 Zipping Classic victor Au Revoir (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), MGSP dual stakes winner Perfect Stride (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Listed Prix Casimir Delamarre victress Qazyna (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), Listed Prix Saraca winner Law Lord (GB) (Diktat {GB}), G3 Minstrel S. third Among Equals (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and a 2019 filly by Nathaniel (Ire). Making smooth headway from halfway to loom large at the quarter-mile marker, the 4-1 chance led entering the final furlong and was ridden out in the closing stages to score by 2 3/4 lengths from Baadirr (GB) (Showcasing {GB}). "Mottrib has got quite a round action and we don't like to run the 2-year-olds first time out on this testing ground, but he's by Invincible Spirit out of a Dalakhani mare so I thought he'd probably handle it," explained Roger Varian. "He won going away and was strong at the line. He'd shown enough at home before this, but I'm not sure how good he is. I thought he'd come and run well, but maybe not win." Full-brother to a yearling colt and half to a 2019 filly by Dark Angel (Ire), the bay is the second foal and first winner out of Listed Premio Baggio runner-up Freezy (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), herself kin to five stakes performers headed by G1 Derby Italiano hero Awelmarduk (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}), G1 Gran Premio di Milano-winning sire Jakkalberry (Ire) (Storming Home {GB}) and G1 Gran Premio di Milano and G2 Derby Italiano victor Crackerjack King (Ire) (Shamardal). IRELAND TO STAGE JUMPS RACES FOR SYNDICATE AND CLUB-OWNED HORSES

A series of three hurdles races will be staged across Ireland this summer that will be restricted to horses solely owned by syndicates or racing clubs. The 'Tote Backs Your Team Handicap Hurdles' will be staged at Cork, Bellewstown and Gowran Park, with the first taking place on July 12. The horses must have run for the same ownership group on their previous starts.

Amber Byrne, owner development manager for Horse Racing Ireland, said, "This is a pilot scheme. Syndicate and club ownership is recognised as the growth area in the domestic market. These dedicated races give us an opportunity to invite potential owners to the races and promote multiple ownership to our target market. We are grateful to both the Tote for supporting the races and the HRI Programmes Committee for allowing us to trial the scheme."

Disappointing at a time when the stable's runners were out of sorts in the May 8 G3 Chester Vase, Technician bounced back to register a first black-type success and reward Team Valor's investment. Fifth and beaten over 14 lengths in that Chester Derby prep, the grey who had previously finished 1 1/4-lengths second to Bangkok (Ire) (Australia {GB}) in the Apr. 26 G3 Sandown Classic Trial was sent to the front from the outset by Oisin Murphy. Looking likely to be swamped in early straight, he gave spirited battle once briefly headed by fellow grey Battle of Toro approaching the furlong pole and stayed on strongly to gain the upper hand close home.

The stakes-winning dam, who has also produced Water Hole (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who was third in the G3 Atalanta S., is a full-sister to the multiple group-winning sire Crimson Tide (Ire) and the G3 Give Thanks S. winner Tamarind (Ire). The second dam Sharata, an unraced half-sister to Shahrastani, also produced the stakes-winning and GII San Clemente H. third La Vida Loca (Ire) (Caerleon) and the GII Garden City Breeders' Cup H. and G3 Prix de Sandringham scorer Pharatta (Ire) (Fairy King). She is in turn the second dam of last year's G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and G1 Prix d'Ispahan-winning sire Recoletos (Fr) (Whipper) and the G2 Prix de la Nonette and G3 Prix Cleopatre winner Castellar (Fr) (American Post {GB}). The aforementioned Tamarind is the dam of two black-type fillies for Nurlan Bizakov's Hesmonds Stud including Tauteke (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), who was runner-up in last month's Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial. DERBY WINNER LATEST TO JUSTIFY INTERNATIONAL TRAFFIC

Derby winner Anthony Van Dyck | Racing Post

By Chris McGrath

An Epsom Derby winner out of an Australian mare? It may feel like the bloodstock world has shifted on its axis-but if you look closer, the centre of gravity remains exactly the same. And, with a second U.S. Triple Crown winner now being made available to Australian breeders, it's called Coolmore.

Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) is the record-equalling fourth Derby winner by Galileo (Ire), who bestrides Coolmore's foundation farm in Ireland; while his dam Believe'N'Succeed was exported to join his harem there after her acquisition by Tom Magnier, principal of Coolmore Australia, for Aus$1.1 million at the Magic Millions Sale in 2014.

Believe'N'Succeed had, by that stage, already produced a Group 1 sprint winner in New Zealand in Bounding (Lonhro), and duly satisfied both formulae that have gained increasing trust during Galileo's reign: firstly as a generic source of speed and, more specifically, as a Danehill-line cross.

Yet the reality is that this is just a fresh turn of the same wheel that has driven Coolmore from the outset, when Magnier's father John and grandfather, the late Vincent O'Brien, radically invigorated the European gene pool in the 1970s and early 1980s by a transfusion of American blood-largely channelled through sons of 1964 Kentucky Derby winner Northern Dancer (CAN).

Galileo himself, of course, is by Northern Dancer's most dominant son in Europe, Sadler's Wells (USA). And Anthony Van Dyck's damsire Exceed And Excel, though he raced in Australia and then went to stud for Coolmore's great rival Sheikh Mohammed, represents a double conduit of the great patriarch: he is by Danehill, principal disseminator of the Northern Dancer revolution in Australia, out of a mare by Lomond.

In broader terms, however, it is arguably no less instructive that Anthony Van Dyck's next three dams are all by resonant American influences: Gone West (USA), Storm Cat (USA) and Alydar (USA). This section of the family tree, then, has the densest of Bluegrass dirt foliage. Gone West and Storm Cat are both out of mares by Secretariat (USA); while Alydar is by Raise A Native (USA), who was also responsible for Gone West's sire Mr Prospector (USA).

So it's hardly just through the top-and-bottom presence of Northern Dancer that Anthony Van Dyck has again proved the transferability and transformative properties, in extremely diverse racing environments, of American dirt genes.

With Justify (USA) (Scat Daddy {USA}) now joining American Pharoah (USA) (Pioneerof The Nile {USA}) on the shuttle run from Coolmore's Kentucky branch at Ashford, Tom Magnier believes that Anthony Van Dyck captures a key moment in the evolution not just of his own operation but also of the global industry. Because he distils not only the improvement in the quality of Australian blood, during the shuttling era, but also the ongoing genetic benefits of intercontinental cross-pollination.

"It all started, for us, with U.S. dirt," Magnier says. "My grandfather built Ballydoyle and Coolmore on those horses. From Northern Dancer he found Nijinsky (CAN); and Sadler's Wells, who gave us Galileo; and Danzig, who in this part of the world obviously means Danehill, and then onto Fastnet Rock.

"I think if you look at this country, things have now come full circle. The shuttle stallions have really put Australian breeding on the world stage. You look at everything from Choisir (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock): Australia has really come up there with the best marketplaces. But if you look back, the American dirt horses is where it all started. That's why we hope that adding American Pharoah, and now Justify as well, to the gene pool down here will reap its rewards in years to come."

A personal view is that the American dirt horse has renewed relevance in a global market when one-dimensional speed has, in many theatres, diluted Classic quality. In Australia, an emphasis on speed has left its most cherished race vulnerable to overseas horses bred for different strengths. In Europe, meanwhile, commercial breeders have focused on precocity and dash at the expense of Classic quality. The American dirt horse, conversely, needs not just speed but speed he can carry two turns-because everyone, however commercial or otherwise their agenda, primarily covets those assets that sustain a horse on the first Saturday in May.

A similar blend of speed and stamina has become integral to the Galileo phenomenon. Whether or not there is any more to the revered Galileo-Danehill cross than you could legitimately expect simply in pairing the progeny of two such successful stallions is another story, but the Frankel (GB) model was profitably emulated by Coolmore with a prototype for the kind of mating that produced Anthony Van Dyck: that between Galileo and Hveger (Danehill), producing seven-time Group 1 winner Highland Reel (Ire). (Galileo and Hveger's latest 3-year-old, incidentally, finished fourth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club the day after Anthony Van Dyck won at Epsom.)

To Tom Magnier, the key is that those who do prize Classic quality are no longer confined to their local gene pools. That pure class transcends the simplistic, prescriptive labelling of particular bloodlines as "dirt" or "turf". As such, there is no mistaking his sense that the arrival of Justify, by an established crossover sire in Scat Daddy, has the potential to take Australian breeding to another level again. Certainly the rookie stallion could not, by the sound of it, ask for a better platform than he is getting for his debut in the Hunter Valley.

"The book of mares Justify is going to cover here, I'd say we'll never have seen the like of it," Magnier enthuses. "Pharoah got great foals, obviously. We've really gone through the catalogue at the Magic Millions Sale, and also at the Inglis sale in Sydney, to find the best possible mares to suit these two horses. But many of our clients here are sending their best mares to Justify. And I think both of them will, again, just bring Australia further through the ranks.

"And remember that while American Pharoah and Justify were champions on the dirt, Bob Baffert always said they'd both have gone just as well on the grass. I think you have to look at that pretty closely."

The example of Anthony Van Dyck shows how the arrival of new American blood in Australia's turf environment has the potential to spread ripples right across the world-not least at a time when so many breeders in Europe, in Magnier's words, "are into cheap speed at the moment."

The Autumn Sun is another good example of Australia tapping into the best of the international pool, being by Danehill's son Redoute's Choice out of a Galileo mare bred in Europe by the Aga Khan. But if he showed that Galileo blood works every bit as well here, it remains an abiding mystery why a breed-shaping sire in Europe should have gained relatively little traction during his own sojourns early in his career. Tom Magnier actually believes Galileo did better here than is generally allowed, but acknowledges the possibility that his profile at the time may not have been congenial to a hard-and-fast culture of early 2-year-olds.

Be that as it may, he is adamant that the flourishing racing scene in Australia represents an optimal stage for its ever more cosmopolitan bloodlines. He sees a virtuous circle between the breadth of public engagement with the sport, and the ongoing upgrades being achieved by the specialist industry supporting it. With the Turf now such a global village, indeed, perhaps Australia can offer reciprocal lessons and benefits to those older racing cultures that have been sending all these stallions to energise the local equine population.

"I think the prizemoney here-and they made another announcement last week, that it's going up again-makes it so easy to get someone on the phone and ask if they want a share of a racehorse," Magnier reasons. "Because they can see how they can get their money back, and enjoy the journey along the way. Racing here is exceptionally healthy. You get great crowds, and very young crowds. And very few horses here are owned by individuals, they tend to be owned by groups or syndicates. Even the top people here, the big farms, will get together so there are four or five of them in a horse. That's a big positive. People really enjoy racing these horses together.

"When I first came here, you went to the sales and didn't see anyone from overseas. Whereas now you go to Magic Millions or Inglis, and it's like a meeting of the United Nations. And when we try to find mares in the Northern Hemisphere, to bring down here, people here are keen to get involved. But the point is that when you look at all the good horses of the moment, every single one is influenced by the shuttle stallions. The whole thing has gone full circle."

Magnier notes that the great Winx, raised on the Coolmore farm, was herself by a dirt runner in Street Cry (Ire). And it's worth adding that her second dam was by a son of Northern Dancer. Street Cry had plenty of turf performers in his background, though the fact that he was by Machiavellian reminds us that Northern Dancer's dam, Natalma (USA), multiplies her influence even beyond that of her son: Machiavellian (USA) was out of her grand-daughter Coup De Folie (USA). And Danehill founded his whole Australian in Natalma's 3 x 3 duplication as mother of both grandsire and grand-dam.

That's how genetic family silver will recur, in the elite racehorse, whatever fads might intervene in the marketplace.

By recognising that, with the shuttling of sires and the traffic of top-class mares between hemispheres, Coolmore has been able to dovetail its commercial purposes with the prosperity of the whole breed.

"The sport has become so global now," Magnier concludes. "And I'd say we're only seeing the start of it."
