RISING STARS TRY TO STOP 'GREEN LIGHT' IN CHAMPAGNE

Green Light Go | Coglianese

Stronach Stables' Green Light Go (Hard Spun) has found no equal in two outings thus far, but will have his hooves full with a trio of 'TDN Rising Stars' and an additional impressive debut winner when he goes postward in Saturday's GI Champagne S. at Belmont, a "Win and You're In" qualifier for the GI TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

Debuting at Big Sandy July 4, the homebred showed surprising speed and ran away from subsequent stakes winner Another Miracle (American Pharoah) in the stretch to score by 3 1/4 lengths. Favored off of that effort in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 10, the bay impressed once more, settling professionally off the speed and kicking clear to a wrapped-up 3 3/4-length score. The Jimmy Jerkens trainee has worked six times going as long as seven furlongs since that try, finishing preparations with a half-mile breeze over the local training tack in :48 flat (4/14) Oct. 1.

August Dawn Farm's Three Technique (Mr Speaker) was runner-up as the favorite in his first two outings, including behind subsequent GI Runhappy Hopeful S. romper Basin (Liam's Map) July 21 at Saratoga. Cont. p3

WEST OFFERS $500,000 FOR DERBY STUDY

By Sid Fernando

Gary West lives in Rancho Santa Fe in San Diego, but he was back at Keeneland in Lexington last month to buy potential classic colts; or, to be specific, to try to buy a colt for the GI Kentucky Derby--a race he's wanted to win more than any other. Inconspicuously dressed in a long-sleeved t-shirt, jeans, and sneakers, he sat alone behind the desk in Room H, one of several private rooms in the sales pavilion for big spenders, but he had more on his mind than buying yearlings.

West and his team of racing manager Ben Glass, veterinarian Dr. Doug Brunk, Dell Ridge Farm manager Des Ryan, and Jeff Kirk, who breaks and trains his young stock, assemble daily in Room H to systematically scrutinize the day's short-listed candidates. [Disclosure: Gary and Mary West and Ben Glass are retained clients of Werk Thoroughbred Consultants.] Cont. p15

Heavily backed again Aug. 31 at the Spa, he broke through in a big way, finishing powerfully to score going away by 5 1/2 lengths and earn the 'Rising Star' designation.

Zayat Stables and Gary Barber's Gozilla (Flatter) got his 'Rising Star' nod when cruising by 4 1/2 lengths at 3-5 in his career bow upstate Aug. 10. Hammered down to 13-10 favoritism in the Hopeful, he retreated to finish a well-beaten third. The chestnut bounced back to record a five-panel bullet in 1:00 4/5 (1/13) Sept. 22 over the Oklahoma training track.

Paul Pompa, Jr.'s Alpha Sixty Six (Liam's Map) was also strongly supported first out, getting pounded down to a nickel above even-money going 6 1/2 furlongs here Sept. 7. Hung wide on the turn, he appeared beaten by rail-skimming Hemlock (Into Mischief) through much of the stretch, but found another gear in deep stretch to get up for a 'Rising Star'-earning graduation.

The top Beyer in the field belongs to Sackatoga Stable's Tiz the Law (Constitution), who earned a 90 when easily annexing a New York-bred spot Aug. 8 at the Spa for Barclay Tagg. The bay has done nothing in the mornings since to suggest that was a fluke, recording a pair of bullets including a half-mile spin in :46 4/5 (1/16) here Sept. 19.

VALID POINT TACKLES ELDERS IN 14-HORSE SHADWELL MILE

Valid Point | Coady Photography

by Joe Bianca

With seven figures and a GI Breeders' Cup Mile spot up for grabs, a diverse field of 14 horses are set to do battle in Saturday's GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. at Keeneland, headed by e Five Racing Thoroughbreds and Mike Ryan's undefeated sophomore Valid Point (Scat Daddy), who takes on elders for the first time in the million-dollar, "Win and You're In" event.

A well-bet debut winner Feb. 10 at Gulfstream, the $140,000 Keeneland September graduate had to be sidelined for a few months, but came back running with a 3 1/2-length allowance score at Belmont, stopping the clock in a sizzling 1:33.09 to earn 'Rising Star' status. Venturing into deeper waters Aug. 10 at Arlington, the bay put in a strong late rally to capture the GI Secretariat S. over Coolmore and Aidan O'Brien's re-opposing Van Beethoven (Scat Daddy).

A trio of Euro invaders spice things up, headlined by 2017 Shadwell hero Suedois (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). Running a solid fourth in the Breeders' Cup Mile after that conquest, he returns to American shores having won just once in 14 starts since. That victory came two starts back, when the 8-year-old conquered the G3 Weatherbys Supreme S. at Goodwood before running fourth last out in the G2 Clipper Logistics Solonaway S. Sept. 14 at Leopardstown. The other two pond jumpers are Godolphin's ascending Vintager (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), coming in off scores in the G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil at Chantilly and Germany's G2 Oettingen-Rennen, and Haven't A Pot and Richard Foden's Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post {GB}), who annexed the G2 Meilen Trophy at Dusseldorf two back before running seventh in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 8.

Last year's winner, Next Shares (Archarcharch), returns to defend his crown as one of two West Coast shippers. Bought for $190,000 at KEENOV in 2017, the gelding was beaten a half-length in the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile S. and GI Shoemaker Mile S. before breaking through with a 23-1 upset here. The dark bay looks to recapture that top form, as he's been sixth or worse in five of six starts since. Also shipping cross country is Bowies Hero (Artie Schiller), who topped Next Shares in the aforementioned 2018 Kilroe and captured the GII Eddie Read S. July 21 at Del Mar before running fifth in the GII Del Mar Mile H. last out Aug. 18.

CONSTITUTION RISING STAR DRAWS WIDE IN BREEDERS' FUTURITY

by Joe Bianca

Team Valor International and WinStar Farm's Gouverneur Morris (Constitution)'s reputation preceded him when he made his debut last month at Saratoga, and he didn't disappoint despite the obstacle of a sloppy track. Saturday, he faces another hurdle after drawing the outermost stall as a likely heavy favorite in Keeneland's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity, a "Win and You're In" qualifier for the GI TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

Bought for $600,000 at Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream after breezing a furlong in :10 1/5, the gray was punched down to 3-5 favoritism debuting on closing day at the Spa. Named after one of the Founding Fathers who wrote the Preamble to the United States Constitution, Gouverneur Morris didn't break all that sharply and had to be pushed on early, but had no issues once finding his footing, powering away to a nine-length score under wraps. That effort was easily good enough for 'TDN Rising Star' honors, and the Todd Pletcher trainee has worked three times in the interim, most recently going five furlongs in 1:00.80 (2/11) Sept. 27 at Belmont in company with fellow 'Rising Star' Alpha Sixty Six (Liam's Map) (XBTV video).

Live Oak Plantation's Tap It to Win (Tapit) and Godolphin's Maxfield (Street Sense) also will look to build on promising maiden scores. The former, second at 6-5 debuting on the Woodbine turf July 21, switched to the main track Aug. 24 at Saratoga and graduated by a good-looking 3 1/2 lengths. The homebred tuned up for this with a snappy five-furlong bullet in :59.34 (1/18) Sept. 22 at Big Sandy. The latter showed promise when overcoming a slow start and passing every horse to get up and win going a mile on debut Sept. 14 at Churchill.

The lone stakes winner in the field is Anderson Stables' By Your Side (Constitution). A first-out winner June 14 at Churchill, the $240,000 Keeneland September buy repeated by three lengths in the GIII Sanford S. July 13 at Saratoga before running a disappointing fifth in the GI Runhappy Hopeful S. there Sept. 2.

RUSHING FALL MEETS VASILIKA IN STACKED FIRST LADY

It'll be a good, old-fashioned East Coast vs. West Coast battle when a loaded field of 14 fillies and mares line up in Saturday's GI First Lady S. at Keeneland, a "Win and You're In" qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf.

The two clear headliners in the one-mile test are the brilliant and consistent win machines Rushing Fall (More Than Ready) and Vasilika (Skipshot), who will face off for the first time.

Rushing Fall | Sarah Andrew

Undefeated in her first four starts, including a conquest of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, e Five Racing Thoroughbreds' Rushing Fall suffered her first defeat, by a neck in last spring's GIII Edgewood S. The 'TDN Rising Star' got back to business with scores in the GII Lake Placid S., GII Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S., GI Jenny Wiley S. and GI Longines Just A Game S. before running second to champion stablemate Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) in the GI Diana S. last out

July 13 at Saratoga. The bay filly has a definitive home-field advantage over her rival, as she's a perfect four-for-four over the Lexington lawn.

One of the most lucrative claims in recent memory, Vasilika (Skipshot) has spent the past 20 months terrorizing California's filly and mare turf division since being haltered for $40,000 by Jerry Hollendorfer last February. Making her graded stakes debut in the GII John C. Mabee S. last summer at Del Mar, she rallied to victory, starting a string of eight graded successes in her next 10 starts. Rattling off triumphs in the GIII Megahertz S., GII Buena Vista S., GII Royal Heroine S. and GI Gamely S. to start her season, the chestnut finally was bested when third, beaten a half-length in the GII Yellow Ribbon H. Aug. 3 at Del Mar, but promptly bounced back to annex the Mabee last out there Aug. 31.

Chad Brown, conditioner of Rushing Fall, brings backup in Grade I winner Uni (GB) (More Than Ready). Capturing the GII Sands Point S. at three in 2017, she went undefeated in four starts as a 4-year-old last season, culminating in a last-to-first conquest of the GI Matriarch S. Dec. 2 at Del Mar. An easy victress of the Perfect Sting S. in her 5-year-old bow June 29 at Belmont, she rallied to be third as the favorite against males in the GI Fourstardave S. last out Aug. 10 at Saratoga.

Coolmore and Aidan O'Brien take a shot with the improving Just Wonderful (Dansili {GB}). Fourth in last fall's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, the bay was off the board in three Group 1 tries to start her 3-year-old campaign, but perked up with a strong second despite a troubled trip at 18-1 in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. July 6. She was hampered again when fifth trying elders in the G1 Qatar Nassau S. Aug. 1 at Goodwood and was beaten less than a length when third in the G1 Coolmore Fastnet Rock Matron S. last out Sept. 14 at Leopardstown.

PROPER 'CHANNELS' IN JOE HIRSCH

Turf champion English Channel is represented by a trio of runners in Saturday's GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic S. at Belmont, headed by Wachtel Stable, Gary Barber, R.A. Hill Stable and Reeves Thoroughbred's Channel Maker (English Channel), listed at 7-2 on the morning line. Winner of this race last season, the Bill Mott trainee annexed the GI Man o' War S. in May and reeled off a trio of fourth-place efforts subsequently, including Saratoga's 11-furlong GII Bowling Game S. July 27 followed by the GI Sword Dancer S. Aug. 24. John Velazquez gets the call on the 5-year-old.

"He's run three good races since the Man o' War," Randy Hill of R. A. Hill Stables said. "He's a hard horse to ride and he's had some bad trips in his last few starts, so with the right trip he should be able to run his race. One of the biggest pluses is the fact that it's Belmont and we know he likes the surface. We'll see what the jockey switch does."

Also likely to get some play at the windows is Channel Cat (English Channel), who finished third in the June 22 GI United Nations S. before wiring the field in the aforementioned Bowling Green. Coming from just off the pace last time in the Sword Dancer, the Todd Pletcher pupil tired late to be third. Luis Saez returns to ride. “He's very consistent and a solid performer. He always shows up and runs well," Pletcher said. "We've been pointing for this race since Saratoga so, hopefully, he puts in a good effort. I think he's versatile. If there's someone intent on having the lead, that's fine. If it ends up being a toddling pace, he can take control so we have to see how it all shakes out.”

Cross Border (English Channel) rounds out the English Channel-sired trio. Trained by Mike Maker, he enters this off a three-race win skein, including his latest going nine furlongs in a statebred optional claimer at the Spa Aug. 29.

Sadler's Joy (Kitten's Joy), winner of the 2017 GI Sword Dancer, recorded his latest victory in the GII Mac Diarmida S. in March of 2018, and while winless in nine races since, he did manage to hit the board in five Grade I races, including his latest when a neck second in the Sword Dancer.

OMAHA BEACH RETURNS IN SA SPRINT CHAMPIONSHIP

By Christie DeBernardis

Omaha Beach | Coady

Grade I winner Omaha Beach (War Front) makes his highly anticipated and long-awaited return to the races Saturday in the GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship S., a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint S. Nov. 2 in Arcadia. Graduating by nine lengths in his fifth start going seven panels over a sloppy main track at Santa Anita Feb. 2, he followed suit with a nose defeat of champion Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) in one of the two GII Rebel S. divisions at Oaklawn Mar. 16. He defeated that Eclipse winner's Grade I-winning stablemate Improbable (City Zip) by a length next out in the GI Arkansas Derby and was installed as the favorite for the GI Kentucky Derby, but was scratched due to an entrapped epiglottis and underwent throat surgery. The dark bay was originally scheduled to make his return in last weekend's GIII Ack Ack S. going a mile at Churchill Downs, but was re-routed to this six-panel affair over his home track.

"I'm excited," trainer Richard Mandella told the Santa Anita notes team. "I'm not sure if he's quick enough to beat some of the top sprinters in there, but he sure acts like he could. We're anxious to see how it goes, but the main thing is getting him back to the races. We'll see what might be next after we run."

Omaha Beach biggest competition will come from another sophomore in the super speedy Shancelot (Shanghai Bobby), who was installed as the 4-5 morning-line favorite. A debut winner at Gulfstream in February, the dark bay wired a Monmouth optional claimer by 6 1/4 lengths June 23 and destroyed the field in Saratoga's GII Amsterdam S. July 28, romping by 12 1/2 lengths. Heavily favored in that venue's GI H. Allen Jerkens S. Aug. 24, he dictated terms early, but was run down late by Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) and GISW Hog Creek Hustle (Overanalyze), finishing third by a head in a very tight four-way photo.

Of their elder rivals, Flagstaff (Speightstown), who, coincidentally is a half-brother to Game Winner, boasts the strongest resume. Kicking off this term with an optional claimer score in Arcadia May 4, the gelding was a close second to MGSW American Anthem (Bodemeister) at Del Mar July 20 and returned to winning ways last time in a six-panel affair at the seaside oval Aug. 18, in which California Street (Street Boss) finished third.

MIA MISCHIEF TRIES TO GET BACK ON TRACK IN TCA

by Joe Bianca

Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt's Mia Mischief (Into Mischief), a Grade I winner earlier this year, will look to bounce back from a pair of poor Saratoga efforts as a likely favorite in Saturday's GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland, a "Win and You're In" qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint.

Capturing the GI Humana Distaff S. May 4 at Churchill, the

$300,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream buy repeated in the Roxelana S. there June 22, edging out subsequent GI Longines Test S. heroine and likely F&M Sprint favorite Covfefe (Into Mischief). Backed down to 6-5 off of those efforts in the GII Honorable Miss H. July 24 at the Spa, the 'TDN Rising Star' retreated to finish fourth, and then was last of five in the GI Ketel One Ballerina S. there a month later. Not usually a quick worker, she may have signaled a return to top form when blowing out five furlongs in a bullet :59 2/5 (1/21) here Sept. 28.

A pair of California invaders loom large, particulary Spiced Perfection (Smiling Tiger). Annexing the GI La Brea S. last winter for trainer Brian Koriner, she was subsequently privately purchased and transferred to Peter Miller's outfit. Running a close second in the GIII Barbara Fritchie S. Feb. 16 at Laurel, she conquered the GI Madison S. at this oval Apr. 6 before flattening out to be fourth behind Mia Mischief when last seen in the Humana. Bad Boy Racing's Danuska's My Girl (Shackleford) reeled off three Golden State Grade III scores this spring and summer and gets a stiffer class test here for trainer Jerry Hollendorfer.

Lael Stables' Chalon (Dialed In) looks to break through locally after running second in the TCA the past two years to go with a runner-up finish in the GII Lexus Raven Run S. She also filled the exacta in last year's F&M Sprint and sports victories in the Skipat S. and Roamin Rachel S. this season.

'BLUE' CUTS BACK IN HILL PRINCE

A Thread of Blue | Adam Coglianese/NYRA

A three-time winner this year, Leonard Green's A Thread of Blue (Hard Spun) hopes to capitalize on the cut back to nine furlongs in Saturday's GII Hill Prince S. at Belmont. Victorious in three straight races at Gulfstream last winter--including in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Palm Beach S. Mar. 2--the Kiaran McLaughlin-trained colt was runner-up in the GII American Turf at Churchill Derby Day before tiring to fourth over a yielding turf course in the Penn Mile June 1. Back in the winner's circle following the 9 1/2-furlong Saratoga Derby Aug. 4, the dark bay was fourth in the 12-panel Jockey Club Derby Invitational Sept. 7.

"We like the cutback," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "It rained the day before the Jockey Club Derby. We were unlucky because he likes it firm.

The trainer added, "We're switching to the inner course which I think is better. The turnback is obviously to our advantage. He ran very well at a mile and a half, but a mile and an eighth is probably better. The outer course was a little bit loose last time, so all systems are go."

Chad Brown is represented by a pair of runners in the latest renewal of the Hill Prince, including Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The Klaravich Stables runner won three straight early in the season--including the latest in the 8 1/2-furlong GII American Turf S. May 4. Fourth in the Belmont Derby in July, he was a length back in second in the Saratoga Derby, and failed to see out the distance last time in the Jockey Club Derby. The other Brown/Klaravich runner Standard Deviation (Curlin) won two of his last three since trying the turf, including his latest in Monmouth's Jersey Derby over 8 1/2 furlongs Aug. 18.

Bloom Racing Stables' Henley's Joy (Kitten's Joy) annexed the Belmont Derby over the summer and finished fifth in a pair of starts since in the Saratoga Derby and Jockey Club Derby. Dylan Davis is at the helm from post 1.

KARAK LOOKS TO MAKE THE GRADE IN MATRON

By Christie DeBernardis

Karak | Bill Denver

'TDN Rising Star' Karak (Karakontie {Jpn}) earned her black-type badge last time in the Tyro S. and looks to add graded success to her resume Saturday in Belmont's GIII Matron S. An impressive three-length victress on debut over the local lawn May 25, the $365,000 OBSMAR buy failed to fire when making the trip across the pond for Royal Ascot's Windsor Castle S. June 19, finishing 15th. She returned to winning ways last time with a defeat of males in Monmouth Park's Tyro Aug. 3.

"She's been doing really good between races; her works at Keeneland have been great," Wesley Ward told the NYRA notes team. "Her race at Ascot happened right after a downpour, the heavens opened up, and it was a soft, soft turf. I definitely think she's going to appreciate a firmer turf. We're ready."

Godolphin homebred Alms (City Zip) jumps up in class here off a 3 3/4-length graduation over course-and-distance Sept. 19.

"We had liked her early on," trainer Mike Stidham said. "She had shown a lot of talent in the mornings, which is the reason we shipped her to Belmont. We thought she was above average, so we took a shot and she ran really well. When you get horses like her, you have to get results, so we're happy."

Mike Maker has a pair of runners in A Freud of Mama (Freud) and Time Limit (Bustin Stones), who is stakes-placed against fellow Empire-breds on dirt, but tries turf for the first time here. Off the board in a Saratoga turf sprint Aug. 23, the former earned her diploma next out in a six-panel turf event here Sept. 13.

CASSE EYES SIXTH MAZARINE

Trainer Mark Casse has won five of the past seven editions of Woodbine's GIII Mazarine S. and sends out three runners to try and add a sixth in this year's renewal. Leading the fray is Tracy Farmer's Skygaze (American Pharoah), a debut fourth going six panels on the turf in July before breaking through with a stylish seven-length score while trying the synthetic for the first time in a seven-furlong test Aug. 30.

"I thought her last race was tremendous," said Casse. "She had a big Beyer, but more importantly, she's come back and trained extremely well. We think a lot of her. We liked her a lot [before the win], but our feeling is that she's progressed even more since then. We're excited about her."

Sporting a similar progression, Gary Barber's Roman d'Oro

(Medaglia d'Oro) flattened out to be fourth in her unveiling in a six-furlong turf maiden Sept. 1 before wiring a main track event Sept. 15.

"She's a really well-bred filly," said Casse. "My brother [Justin Casse] bought her in France at the same sale where we bought [2019 Preakness Stakes champ] War of Will. The first time we ran her, we were expecting her to run a little better. It was on the grass, and she ran just okay. We ran her on the Tapeta next time out--Tyler was at Woodbine for the races, he rides a lot for Gary (Barber), so we let him ride her--and she was pretty impressive."

Rounding out the Casse trio is another Farmer juvenile, maiden Special Honor (Honor Code). Third in her career debut over seven panels on the main track, the grey was runner-up last out while negotiating just over a mile Sept. 28.

Looking to stand in Casse's way is Josie Carroll with Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings and Windsor Boys Racing Curlin's Voyage (Curlin). Second and third, respectively, in a pair of 5 1/2-furlong main track tests July 7 and July 27, the chestnut came from off the pace to graduate going a route of ground Sept. 28. Eurico Da Silva, whose been aboard for all three prior starts, gets the call in the Mazarine.

IDIOM-ATIC IN THE ALCIBIADES

by Alan Carasso

LEXINGTON, KY – Trainer Brad Cox said that British Idiom (Flashback) didn't necessarily have to cross the wire first in Friday's GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland in order to merit consideration for a start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita four weeks down the road. But the chestnut, the well-backed 18-5 third choice, made those discussions a fair bit easier, as she got first run on GI Spinaway S. victress Perfect Alibi (Sky Mesa) into the short stretch and powered home to score by 6 1/2 commanding lengths. Perfect Alibi settled for second, three lengths clear of the somewhat surprising 21-10 favorite Alandra (Blame).

British Idiom was one of two fillies in the Alcibiades to proceed directly from graduation day to Grade I company. The $40,000 Fasig-Tipton October graduate took advantage of one of the Saratoga maiden allowance races during the 2019 meet that were restricted to horses that were sold or bought back from any auction for $45,000 or less. Sent off the lukewarm 7-2 choice for one such event Aug. 15, the chestnut attended a decent pace, but did her best work through the line for a 3 1/2-length defeat of next-out maiden romper Miss Marissa (He's Had Enough), suggesting that more ground would work in her favor.

Away fairly from gate six, British Idiom was a forward factor from about fourth as longshot Spitefulness (Palace Malice) set the pace in advance of Sequin (Bayern), a maiden in two starts on the turf, but trying the main track for the first time Friday. British Idiom looked to exchange a bump or two into the first turn with the rail-drawn Gone Glimmering (Tapiture) and that appeared to fire her up, as she raced keenly, with Javier Castellano doing his best to conserve some energy.

In the clear down the backside, British Idiom settled noticeably better and she was called upon for some acceleration to come after the top two with a little less than three furlongs to travel. Perfect Alibi stalked British Idiom through the middle stages and made her move almost simultaneously around the turn, but British Idiom had the greater kick and gapped her rivals through the final sixteenth of a mile. Alandra was bothered at the break and took herself back to second last in the opening three furlongs. That left her far too much to do late, but she rallied nicely to grab third money while no menace to the winner.

Referring to his mount's ability to drop the bridle during the Alcibiades, Castellano said, "I think good horses can do that. She pulled a little bit, but I liked the way she did it on the backside. She relaxed, kept tracking the horses, and I liked the way she finished. She's a good filly."

Mark Casse was not unduly disappointed with Perfect Alibi's first try at a route of ground and said she had earned a shot in the Juvenile Fillies.

Pedigree Notes:

British Idiom is the first stakes winner of any variety for Flashback, who initially stood at Hill 'n' Dale before being relocated to Diamond B Farm in Pennsylvania. A $21,000 in utero purchase out of the 2017 Keeneland January sale, she is out of Rose and Shine, winner of the 2013 Princess Elizabeth S. over the Woodbine all-weather. British Idiom is a half-sister to a Cairo Prince colt that made $70,000 at Keeneland September last month and a filly foal by Jimmy Creed. Rose and Shine was most recently bred to Speightster.

Let go at 9-1 despite plenty of back class in his past performances, Woodford Racing's Engage was produced in the stretch by the hot-riding Jose Ortiz and was able to stave off a late rally from an unlucky Whitmore to win Friday's GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. on opening day of the Keeneland fall meet. Lexitonian raced wide throughout and plugged on gamely to be third in a blanket finish.

Settled about third last as defending champion Promises Fulfilled (Shackleford) took some pace pressure to his outside from 84-1 Zipp On By (City Zip), Engage raced three and four deep on the backstretch, but with cover on the back of Recruiting Ready (Algorithms) and Lexitonian. Allowed to creep into contention leaving the three-eighths marker, Engage was pulled off heels and into the five path to deliver his challenge in upper stretch. Lexitonian led for a stride or two entering the final eighth of a mile, but Ortiz was able to coax just enough finish out of Engage to find the wire first. Whitmore, victorious in this event in 2017 and second in defense of his title 12 months ago, bobbled at the break and trailed early, but finished with good energy to just miss.

Engage made the first nine starts of his career under the tutelage of trainer Chad Brown, winning the 2017 GIII Futurity S.–when it was still contested on the main track. The bay was victorious in the Gold Fever S. at three, his lone success from six starts, but he also ran with credit in defeat, finishing second in the GIII Bay Shore S. at Aqueduct, the GII Woody Stephens S. at Belmont and in Saratoga's GI H. Allen Jerkens S. Fourth in a July 19 Saratoga allowance in his first go for this barn, Engage earned his Phoenix shot with a half-length tally in the Bensalem S. at Parx Sept. 2.

"We're very pleased with the outcome," winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. "It's great to see this horse dig in. Quality field, rush to the wire and he found enough. He's always been a quality horse. Loved the opportunity for him.

They inspect and vet the horses they like on pedigree, and Glass bids on those that suit. It's ordinarily an upbeat time for them. They spend millions each September chasing Derby dreams, and in recent years Glass has signed for two Eclipse Award winners at Keeneland, West Coast (Flatter) for $425,000 in 2015 and Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) for $110,000 in 2017--outstanding achievements. But the day we met up in Room H, West didn't want to speak about either of those champions, or even about any of the yearlings he was interested in.

Instead, he spoke first about his homebred multiple Grade I winner Maximum Security (New Year's Day), who was first past the wire at Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May before becoming the first horse in the history of the Kentucky Derby to be disqualified for impeding another competitor.

The Wests went on a roller coaster of a ride that day: initially, elation and a celebratory walk towards the winner's circle; then, the inquiry; and, finally, a historic disqualification and the ensuing daze that enveloped them for the rest of the evening, if not for days and weeks. West's emotions since then have run a path from shock to frustration to anger to introspection, but he's emerged from the ordeal with some clarity about the Derby.

He's a competitor by nature who's been racing horses for close to 40 years, and he's come close to completing his racing bucket list: the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, which he's won twice, most recently with Game Winner last year and before that with New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}) in 2013; the GI Travers, which he won with West Coast in 2017; the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, which he hasn't won yet; and the daddy of them all, the Kentucky Derby--which he thought he'd won, but didn't.

Competition aside, West is also a humanitarian with deep concerns for people and horses. Along with his wife, he has given away more than $200 million to aid the low-income elderly through their philanthropic foundation, and before every race, he'll say a prayer for the entire field of horses. Last year, in this space, he said: "People can believe this or not--and they may think this is bullshit--but the first thing I say is a prayer for everybody's horse to come back safe after the race. Okay. That's my number one thought. Then number two, I want our horse to win the race, and if he doesn't win the race, I want him to do as good as he can do. I've been on the bad end of horse problems in races, and I know that gut-wrenching feeling it is for people who love their horses so much, and I don't wish that on anybody."

The Kentucky Derby

Though at Keeneland to reload the stable, West was preoccupied by his concern for the sport that he's been passionate about and heavily invested in for so long. This wasn't about what happened with Maximum Security, but about what could have happened to him--and others.

West has always been concerned about horse and rider safety, but he's even more sensitive to it now with the heightened public outrage the sport is facing for the racetrack fatalities that have marked media coverage since the winter meet at Santa Anita. All of this has led to angst about the Kentucky Derby itself, the race that drives him and others to spend millions at Keeneland and to breed horses.

"It's our Super Bowl," he said. "You've got 150,000 people there and millions watching it on TV here and around the world. It's the race, let's face it, that defines the sport; from January on, every 3-year-old race is essentially a 'Kentucky Derby prep,' and the race, frankly, transcends Churchill Downs's ownership of it. It's really the face of our industry, if you want to be honest about it. Some people know about the Breeders' Cup and the Travers, but everyone has heard about the Kentucky Derby. What if we have a pileup in that race? We could have had one or more in it this year. In this climate, that would be devastating for the sport, but more importantly, what about addressing real horse and rider safety? Have we addressed these issues, both for public consumption and for our knowledge as industry participants?"

West said that "because of what happened with Maximum Security, I have watched the race more than 1,000 times--probably more than anyone out there." As he's replayed the Derby over the months, he said that he gradually found his narrow focus on the outcome of the race shifting to the broader picture of the potential dangers the race posed for any of its equine and human participants. Call it an epiphany.

"Racing is a dangerous sport, granted, but [the Derby] makes it seem more so, and you start to eventually think about one thing, because it's staring at you in the face: Why are there 20 horses out there on a track supposedly built for 14? If you step back, you'll see it's the only race in the country where they run more than 14 in a race, and there were more than 36,000 races in the U.S. last year. They don't do it in the Breeders' Cup. Churchill doesn't do it in the [Gl Kentucky] Oaks. It's a true outlier."

For the record, researcher Chris Rossi said that from Jan. 1, 1994, until Oct. 3, 2019, there were 26 pari-mutuel races on the flat in the U.S. that had fields of more than 14 runners, and 24 of them were the Derby (with two 16-horse fields at Calder in 1994 and 1998). Put another way, over this time span of almost 26 years, there have been only 26 pari-mutuel races with more than 14 runners from a total of more than 1.2 million races in the U.S.

There's a direct correlation between increased field size and increased handle that likely drives Churchill owner CDI's bottom-line philosophy, but at what future price, West wonders. "People forget the 2008 Derby when Eight Belles died. It wasn't field size with her, but it was a really big deal when it happened. It was horrible when it happened, and people talked about it ad nauseum for weeks, if not months. It was a tragedy of epic proportions, but it was a tragedy that would pale in comparison to a multi-horse catastrophe going into the first turn or coming out of the last turn when horses are getting leg weary late. These are horses running a mile and a quarter for the first time under conditions that aren't ideal, and if a couple of jockeys and two or three horses get killed, it's game over."

A Louisville Courier-Journal article from earlier this year--"Churchill Downs is one of the deadliest racetracks in America"--noted the track's fatality rate was one of the highest in the country in 2018 and was "50% higher than the national average" from 2016-2018. "A high fatality rate, plus 20 horses, all running the farthest they've ever run, is a potential catastrophe, in my opinion," West said.

A $500,000 Offer

His opinion aside, West said he'd fund "up to $500,000 to commission a safety study" to find the optimal field size for the Derby. "Horse and rider safety is the biggest issue today in American racing and is probably the only issue that can literally ruin racing overnight. I think everyone--the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance, The Jockey Club's safety group--should do everything they can to help the industry validate and confirm the safety of the highest-visible horserace in the world."

West said he'd write a check for $500,000 to a group like The Jockey Club or the NTRA to oversee the study, would have no input in it, and would accept the findings. "Let me be clear. Once I write the check, I walk away. It has nothing to do with me. If the study finds that 20 horses are perfectly safe--I will accept that. And the industry will have a study that confirms that. But, if the study finds that, say, 14 or 16 is the safest number, we as an industry would be compelled to change. That's why I want the study to be done or overseen by racing organizations like the NTRA or The Jockey Club that are beyond reproach in matters like safety. And, these groups have publicly stated how important safety is to them, so I would provide the resources so they can fulfill their stated purpose. If they and Churchill do not support this initiative, I and much of the racing community will naturally question how important safety really is to them. For me, if I can save the life of one horse or rider, it will be one of the best investments I have made."

Offers of this magnitude don't come around often. TJC or NTRA should accept this with open arms, and as soon as possible.

OMAHA BEACH OPENING A NEW FRONT

By Chris McGrath

By Summer Tan, out of Fleet Valor. By Allied Flag, out of Joy Of Spring. And by Tactical Cat, out of Shoreline. Just three among several Thoroughbreds who had already borne his name before a son of War Front offered, as the GI Kentucky Derby favorite, to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Normandy landings. In the event, of course, Omaha Beach instead reminded us that destiny seldom obeys our own sense of aptness. His late withdrawal, with an entrapped epiglottis, confirmed its disobligingly random ways.

Omaha Beach | Coady

But that is not to say that fate is always inexorable. Otherwise there would have been no point to the bravery of those men wading ashore in 1944. We have to believe that our own efforts can help to determine the course of events. Our efforts, and our skills. And now, after a five-month disappearance, we are about to find out whether one of the most skilled of all contemporary horsemen, Richard Mandella, can ensure that the ultimate fulfilment of Omaha Beach has only been delayed-rather than thwarted altogether.

The stakes for his comeback, in the GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship, are certainly high for Spendthrift, who acquired the breeding rights in a Derby favorite, but have been unable to test the value of that investment since.

As things stand, Omaha Beach has made five of his seven starts in maiden company; while the two Baffert colts he beat in breaking into the elite of the crop, Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) in a division of the GII Rebel S. and then Improbable (City Zip) in the GI Arkansas Derby, appeared to moderate their juvenile stature somewhat when fifth and sixth past the post in the Kentucky Derby. That's not the easiest resume to quantify with a stallion fee, even if Country House (Lookin At Lucky) himself was beaten nearly seven lengths into third in the Arkansas Derby.

What we do know is that he's going to a farm smart enough to give him every chance, however things go from here. But it's a captivating crossroads, not least because the people around Omaha Beach--with a completely free hand, now that they are no longer obliged to stretch his brilliance over Classic distances--have taken a radically different turn in dropping him back to sprinting.

Obviously going shorter rather than longer is fairly standard procedure with any horse ending a lay-off. If he is to move forward Saturday, mentally and physically, Omaha Beach hardly wants to be pushed to any kind of physiological limit. Nonetheless there is already talk of confining his Breeders' Cup options to the GI BC Sprint and the GI BC Dirt Mile, with even a Classic as porous as this one already off the agenda.

Possibly it just seems sensible, with such a troubled summer behind him, not even to think about exposing the colt unnecessarily to a more grueling examination. On the other hand, perhaps those closest to him always had it in the back of their minds that his real metier was always going to be speed.

Not at first, clearly, because he made his first three juvenile starts over a mile on turf. It certainly makes sense on paper, however. When he burst onto the scene in the spring, the focal point of his pedigree was naturally his grand-dam Take Charge Lady (Dehere), especially after her son Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) produced Long Range Toddy to win the other division of the Rebel. But her inherent distinction, both on the track and in her second career, should not distract us from a key element in Omaha Beach's pedigree: the fact that both Take Charge Lady and War Front are out of mares by Rubiano, dashing winner of races like the GI Carter S. and GI Vosburgh S.

On the face of it, hardly the first name you'd seek 3 × 4 in a Kentucky Derby colt. On the other hand, Rubiano was out of the same mare as Tapit's dam Tap Your Heels, who was by a son of his own sire, Fappiano, in Unbridled. And their dam, in turn, was by the bottomless Classic influence Nijinsky out of a sister to Relaunch. So it was perfectly credible to have Omaha Beach on the Triple Crown trail, not least given the two-turn reinforcements available along his bottom line.

Take Charge Lady's son champion Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) had top-class form at 10 furlongs, for instance. That said, Omaha Beach's full-brother was pointedly confined to sprints during a modest career at Ballydoyle; and their champion half-sister Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) was never able to explore Classic distances. (Their dam Charming {Seeking The Gold} broke down on only her third start, when odds-on for a stake over a mile.)

We should always avoid being too prescriptive with pedigrees, of course, but that would seem especially true here. War Front, for instance, gained a turf reputation simply through opportunity, as one of few Kentucky sires in recent years given meaningful opportunity in Europe. Remember that one of his very first European envoys, Declaration Of War, shared a three-way photo (along with Mucho Macho Man {Macho Uno} and none other than Take Charge Lady's son Will Take Charge) on his dirt debut in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Whatever else he does, then, Omaha Beach has already helped to correct some lazy misapprehensions about his sire.

Like another son of Danzig in Danehill, moreover, War Front has also proved a versatile influence in terms of distance. In the case of Omaha Beach himself, we have some "proof of the pudding" in the way he saw out nine furlongs for his Grade I success. True, both then and in the Rebel he coasted through the race with conspicuous leisure. Nonetheless it would be pretty remarkable if he were able to bounce out and beat a specialist as blisteringly fast as Shancelot (Shanghai Bobby). (Curiously, the opposition also includes Flagstaff {Speightstown}, who bids to settle a family grudge against the colt who wrecked the unbeaten run of his half-brother Game Winner.)

As such, it would seem unfair to expect more than some kind of legible signpost to the way ahead. On the face of it, persevering with sprinting at the Breeders' Cup might give him some extra commercial glitz at stud. But those in charge of the whole package--which matches his classy and very flexible genes with an unmistakable aura of class, whatever gilding he can add hereafter--hardly need telling that what works best for Omaha Beach the racehorse will ultimately work best for Omaha Beach the stallion.

To that extent, with so much still to learn about his capacities, it would be nice to think that the door might yet be ajar to a 4-year-old campaign. Regardless, you have to wish the horse's connections well. Besides their maddening summer with Omaha Beach, remember the deal that determined his future was never purely about dollars and cents: Rick Porter, his owner, says that he owes his life to B. Wayne Hughes of Spendthrift, whose support of pioneering cancer treatments at Massachusetts General Hospital opened the door to a game-changing clinical trial.

An intervention, typical of so many critical moments in life, shared between the determination of mortals, on the one hand, and sheer luck on the other. And there's a combination that was greatly respected, 75 years ago, on the beaches of Normandy. So who knows? Maybe it will turn out that fate, or fortune or whatever else you care to read into Omaha Beach's ability to run fast, has reserved these gentlemen some kind of gratifying denouement, after all.

MAGNUM MOON EUTHANIZED

Magnum Moon | Coady

Grade I winner Magnum Moon (Malibu Moon--Dazzling Song, by Unbridled's Song) was euthanized at Cornell's Ruffian Clinic across the street from Belmont Park Friday after a year-long battle with laminitis. The bay had been under the care of the Ruffian Clinic since suffering a career-ending injury during a workout in June of last year. He was undergoing treatment for multiple fractures when he developed laminitis.

"We want to thank Dr. Piggot, Dr. Nixon and the excellent staff at the Cornell Ruffian Clinic for their superb care for Magnum Moon," said owners Robert and Lawana Low. "He was a special colt that was obviously talented on the racetrack, but also very smart and courageous during his treatment. Magnum Moon was all class until the very end. We cherished him dearly and thank him for all the joy, great times and for the inspiration he brought to our lives."

Bred by Ramona Bass, Magnum Moon was purchased by Jacob West on behalf of the Lows for $380,000 at Keeneland September. A debut winner at Gulfstream in January of 2018, the 'TDN Rising Star' captured a Tampa optional claimer a month later. The Todd Pletcher trainee followed suit with victories in Oaklawn's GII Rebel S. and GI Arkansas Derby last spring and suffered his lone loss in the GI Kentucky Derby. Magnum Moon's record stood at 5-4-0-0 with earnings of $1,117,800.

"It's a sad day for our entire team," said Pletcher. "Magnum Moon showed immense talent from the very beginning at my father's training center in Ocala. He came to us with high expectations and delivered in a huge way. I'm sorry he won't get to pass on his heart and talent"

WHAT WOULD YOU FIX FIRST?

For the past few weeks, we have been running a series of responses to The Jockey Club's proposed cap on a stallion's book at 140 mares. Many people expressed the feeling that there were more pressing problems to which the industry should attend. So we asked a group of respondents, `What would you fix first?'

ERIN O'KEEFE
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS, TASTE OF VICTORY STABLES

What would I fix first about the Thoroughbred industry? In a word: everything. There isn't a facet of the industry that cannot be improved. The central driving feature of this industry is the Thoroughbred horse--a creature that captures the dreams and imagination of almost every child. Able to represent peak masculinity as the valiant steed of cowboys, knights, and princes and simultaneously be the real-world embodiment of little girls' dreams of unicorns, Pegasus, and the dream horse with an unspoken bond, we have the perfect product to market. And yet we are losing fans. Clearly, as an industry, there are tremendous changes that need to occur to allow this industry to thrive and achieve its full potential.

The industry agrees that ease of access and participation in the sport is a key issue. The way to efficiently do that is to consolidate control with a single entity. I recognize that this is complex and difficult, but this industry can not shirk away from the challenge. While no single entity currently wields the power to create change easily, if we could set aside egos and individual financial goals, we could come together as an industry and create change. Everybody is willing to say that changes need to happen and have meetings about it. But it is not enough to pat yourself on the back for talking about things, and never stick your neck out and work for change. Those in power need to be willing to rock the boat and demand change. We need a single, national governing body. If you don't think we need that, I encourage you to speak to someone outside of the industry and tell them we don't already have that. Look at their shocked expression, answer their questions about why an industry this large doesn't have a governing entity, and then try and tell me it wouldn't improve our public image. The debate for federal control vs. self-regulation is valid. In my opinion, whatever reform we can agree on is what needs to happen. But rather than pass the buck to the federal government, I urge everyone to think about if we want control handed over to those that do not have a vested interest in or understanding of the industry. We would gain uniformity in some areas, but it would not solve all the issues the industry has.

Many people are quick to fixate on medication policies as the thing that needs to be uniform and controlled, and I'm not disagreeing with that. But it is important to realize that a governing body should do much more than just create uniform medication policy. And it is more important to have a complete solution than to argue over what the specific medication rules should be. Put together an entity that has a public relations department to address media issues. Have a safety board that oversees tracks and shares ideas, allowing tracks to learn from the mistakes of others. Have an aftercare branch that works to make sure all horses retiring do so safely. Have a horseman's division to advocate for those who make their living in this industry. Have The Jockey Club to make the best rules for the breed, and allow rules to be enforced across the ENTIRE sport. Fund research to allow for medication and welfare policies based in science and fact. Share data across the industry to improve the sport and make racing more accessible to the general public.

As an industry, we need to stop squabbling about the most pressing issue. At the end of the day, it doesn't matter if access to information, or betting takeouts, or stallion book size, or racing surface are the biggest issue. They are all big enough issues and need to be addressed. Now. Every organization associated with racing needs to collaborate with each other, like a team, to develop a governing body so that so everyday hurdles are minimized in an effort to address the pressing issues efficiently and to rebuild what was not long ago the most popular spectator sport in America.

LETTER FROM PARIS

by Dave Johnson

Enable fever has struck France | Horsephotos

I don't speak French, but I do eavesdrop in both English and French. Wearing ear-buds, as if I am listening to Sirius SXM, makes it easy.

What I have gathered by being "on the earie" here in Paris this week is that there is a frenzy going on. Almost every overheard conversation comments about one of two things.

1. The unusually cold weather.
2. Can Enable win the Arc?

In French conversations I hear the words Enable, Frankie, Gosden, ParisLongchamp, Euros and "historique."

In English, from ex-patriots and tourists, it is less about the betting, more about the quest for history.

The interest in this one race, her finale, the rich Arc de Triomphe Sunday has created what I can only label as a frenzy.

Trying to find such racing hysteria back home, the adulation of Ruffian, back in the mid 1970's is the closest I can find and feel. Oh sure Zenyatta, Lady's Secret and even Genuine Risk had fan clubs, but not the frenzy of a 5-year-old mare who has won the last 10 of her races, all in Group 1 company. That includes two runnings of the Arc and the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Imagine that! What a record!

Ruffian was undefeated in 10 races, and she usually won by very wide margins. Many thought she was the greatest Thoroughbred in history going into the ill-fated match race against Foolish Pleasure. There were over 50,000 paying spectators that afternoon at Belmont Park in July of 1975. Millions more watching on CBS then, and even now on YouTube.

The New York Racing Association stoked the rivalry by giving away buttons which simply read "HIM" or "HER." Those little tin mementos now sell on Ebay for about $100. each. Yes, Ruffian still has her loyalists.

Sunday, the mile and a half on turf will have 12 entries, thousands of stories and a few excuses for the losers. I think Enable will indeed rewrite the history books.

Yes, Ghaiyyath has the best early speed, and with top jockey William Buick could go wire to wire. Yes, Waldgeist could give trainer Andre Fabre his eighth Arc winner. Yes, Aidan O'Brien is always dangerous, and he has Magical and Japan. And, yes, Scottsass, the now horse, did win the French Derby and could surprise.

But, they would all have to beat Enable. I don't think they will, and the uproar, the fury and yes, the frenzy will live on.

TERF AWARDS RRP $5000 FOR EDUCATION

The Thoroughbred Education and Research Foundation has awarded the Retired Racehorse Project $5,000 to be used for educational purposes, according to a release Friday. TERF, created in 2013 by Herb and Ellen Moelis, supports and promotes equine education and research. RRP, which facilitate's the placement of retired Thoroughbred racehorses in second careers by increasing demand for them in the marketplace and educating equestrians to provide the training that secures their future, furthers their initiative through the annual Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium.

In 2018, TERF awarded RRP a $20,000 grant that supported their expanded four-day model of the Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium, increased RRP presence at equine events throughout the U.S., and helped create the "Ask a Trainer Anything" feature, in which a panel of experts responded to training questions. For more information, click here.

GOLDEN GATE POSTS GAINS IN ALL SOURCES HANDLE

Golden Gate Fields' 2019 Summer Meet, which concluded this past Sunday, posted a strong finish and positive gains in all sources pari-mutuel handle over its 2018 summer season. With all sources handle showing an increase, the accomplishment marked the bayside track's sixth straight race meeting that ended with an increase in all sources handle over the previous season.

At the 2018 Summer Meet, Golden Gate registered $49,056,628 in all sources handle. One year later, the number increased to $55,357,826, a net gain of 11%.

"Needless to say, we were very pleased with our result," Golden Gate Fields General Manager and Vice President David Duggan said. "We finished our meeting very strong. We remain very positive regarding the future of racing in Northern California, with great anticipation for our big Fall and Winter/Spring Meets coming up."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

JOHN BROWN, DVM

I thought the two articles by Mike Cline and Elliott Walden were excellent and spelled out the problems of large stallion books extremely well. Both gentlemen are highly knowledgeable, long time participants in the Thoroughbred breeding industry and represent top class farms.

I hope that their opinions are taken seriously by the majority. Several factors were raised in the articles which have not been mentioned previously:

1) The physical and mental health of the stallion being forced to breed too many mares at one time.

2) Our duty as horsemen and horsewomen to rectify this situation.

3) The greed of some farms to obtain more and more control of the breeding industry.

One simple policy which could be instituted and, I believe would have some bearing on increasing the demand for a larger group of stallions rather than a few, is to change the way stallion stats are documented.

Instead of publishing the total earnings, total number of stake winners etc., rate stallions as to percentage of winners, percentage of stakes winners, average earnings of starters etc.

This would shift the emphasis to stallions who do not breed as many mares but who actually have better stats than those breeding huge numbers.

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: $1.8-MILLION CURLIN COLT DEBUTS AT BELMONT

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency
by Brian DiDonato

1st-KEE, $71K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:05 p.m. ET

John Oxley's Specially (Tapiture), just a $40,000 yearling, blossomed into a $475,000 OBS March juvenile off a powerful :9 4/5 breeze. The most expensive 2-year-old in training by her first-crop sire, she has been further flattered since selling as her year-older half-brother Joevia (Shanghai Bobby) annexed Monmouth's Long Branch S. in May and finished third in the GI Belmont S. in June. Michael and Reiko Baum homebred Ivyetsu (Tapit) prepped for this with a :46 flat bullet from the gate here Sept. 28 for conditioner Rusty Arnold. The $300,000 KEESEP buyback is a half to French Group 3 winner Last Kingdom (Frankel {GB}) and a granddaughter of Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}), a Group 1 winner in Ireland and Group 2 winner at Royal Ascot as a juvenile. Lucrezia (Into Mischief) is out of Grade III-winning 2-year-old Verdana Bold (Rahy); Letter Storm (Candy Ride {Arg}) is a half to GI Del Mar Futurity third Blameitonthelaw (Blame) and bred like so many of her sire's best runners being out of granddaughter of Storm Cat; Crafty Lady (Carpe Diem) is half to MGISW Giant Oak (Giant's Causeway), et al. TJCIS PPs

7th-BEL, $75K, Msw, 2yo, 1m, 3:40 p.m. ET

OXO Equine and Chad Brown newcomer Vintage Print (Curlin) was the fourth topper at last year's Keeneland September sale at $1.8 million. He is the first foal out of GI La Troienne S. heroine Molly Morgan (Ghostzapper), who was purchased for $1.35 million by Stonestreet at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton November sale. He prepped for this with a 1:01.21 spin in company with $750,000 buy Turnagain Tide (Into Mischief) Sept. 28 (Click for XBTV Video). Thor-Bred Stable homebred Jedi Master (Empire Maker) is out of Grade I-winning 2-year-old Rigoletta (Concerto), making him a half to late 'TDN Rising Star' and GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile hero Battle of Midway (Smart Strike). Rigoletta is a half to the dam of last year's GI Cigar Mile H. hero Patternrecognition (Adios Charlie). There are a number of runners signed on here with solid established form, including $375,000 KEESEP grad Sonneman (Curlin), who improved dramatically last time in his second try to be second at 25-1 going seven panels at Saratoga Aug. 31. He is out of Grade II-winning dirt router Zardana (Brz) (Crimson Tide {Ire}) and a half to stakes winner Smart Transition (Smart Strike). Goodolphin homebred Tapage (Tapit) is out of GISW Hystericalady (Distorted Humor), making him a half to two-for-two 'Rising Star' Comical Ghost (Ghostzapper). He checked in eighth in his Spa unveiling Aug. 31 behind 'Rising Star' Three Technique (Mr Speaker) and last week's good-looking Churchill graduate Necker Island (Hard Spun), but has fired two bullets in preparation for this second try. TJCIS PPs

11th-BEL, $75K, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 5:54 p.m. ET

Belmont's strong Saturday card concludes with a salty-looking event for juveniles on the grass. Among the first timers signed on are Paul Pompa Jr.'s Country Grammer (Tonalist), the co-priciest 2-year-old to sell earlier this season by his MGISW freshman sire. A $60,000 yearling, he brought $450,000 at OBS April after a :21 flat move. He hails from the extended female family of G1SW Etoile Montante. Tapaloof (Tapit)'s Irish MGSW dam Aloof (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) topped the 2014 Keeneland November sale when selling for $3.9 million to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm while in foal to War Front. That resulting first foal is now named Balon Rose (War Front)--she sold to OXO Equine for $1.6 million at KEESEP '17 and was most recently second in a Belmont maiden special weight Sept. 21. Cont. p2

Tapaloof's second dam is Group 1-winning sprinter Airwave (GB) (Air Express {Ire}), whose other foals include Irish SW/English GSP Meow (Ire) (Storm Cat), the dam of dual Guineas winner Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Group 1 winner Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Group 3 winner Blenheim Palace (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Lord of the Nile (Pioneerof the Nile) is the first foal out of a winning Tapit daughter of MGISW turfer Dynaforce (Dynaformer). He was a $420,000 in utero purchase at Keeneland November. Uncle Ned (Uncle Mo) is out of a half to the aforementioned Tonalist. The $150,000 KEESEP yearling was a $375,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream graduate after breezing in :10 3/5. TJCIS PPs

LUCKY JINGLE (f, 2, Tonalist--No Splits, by Smart Strike), third in her turf route unveiling at the Spa July 14, came back to graduate over yielding sod at Laurel Aug. 10, defeating a group that included Friday's Laurel optional claiming romper Dixie Cannon (Freud). She was cutting back off a seventh-place run in the P.G. Johnson at Saratoga Aug. 29, and was let go at 8-1 while also switching surfaces. Dropping back to second last as Ununderstandable (Violence) showed the way, the dark bay looped past foes on the turn and shifted in while taking over in midstretch before leveling off to score by 3 1/4 lengths. Ununderstandable held second. The winner's second dam is MGSW Great Intentions (Cat Thief). Her yearling half-brother by Air Force Blue was bought back for $100,000 at Keeneland September. Sales history: $65,000 Wlg '17 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $78,900. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

LOOKING AT BIKINIS (c, 3, Lookin At Lucky--Bikini Beauty, by Bernardini) was taking on some tough competition in this allowance restricted to sophomores who hadn't won a graded race in 2019, including last year's local GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity romper Knicks Go (Paynter), but was pounded down to 7-10 cutting back from an 11th-place run in the GI Runhappy Travers S. Aug. 24. A 5 3/4-length debut romper sprinting in the Belmont slop last September, he resurfaced to take a one-turn-mile optional claimer at Big Sandy in fast time June 27. The bay was third in the nine-furlong Curlin S. at Saratoga July 26, and further supported the theory that he may prefer shorter distances after his effort in the Midsummer Derby. Dropping back off the pace from his outside draw, Looking At Bikinis sat third last early as Knicks Go took up his preferred spot on the lead. The favorite began to respond to Javier Castellano's shoves around the bend, collared the pacesetter in midstretch and ran up the score to 4 1/2 lengths on the line.

LYKAN (c, 2, Congrats--Up to Speed, by Papa Clem) failed to show up when a distanced seventh in his debut going five furlongs at Arlington July 21 and rebounded to run an infinitely improved third next time Aug. 10. Tiring to fifth in the seven-furlong Arlington-Washington Futurity Sept. 7, the dark bay finished third in his latest trip to the post going six panels Sept. 19. Overlooked at 21-1, Lykan stalked the early pace in third through :22.52 and :46.64, challenged for the lead at the quarter pole, gained command in early stretch and drew off to win by 4 1/2 lengths over Fast Dreamer (Fast Anna). Up to Speed sold for $17,000 at KEENOV in 2017 while in foal with a Street Boss filly. She produced a filly by Rule by Night this term and was bred back to Sky Mesa. Up to Speed is a daughter of graded-winner Speed Dialer (Phone Trick), a half-sister to Canadian Champion 2yo Filly Wavering Girl (Wavering Monarch) and multiple graded-stakes winners and Grade I-placed Tricky Creek (Clever Trick) and Parade Ground (Kingmambo). DIXIE CANNON (f, 2, Freud--Dearest Dixie, by Dixie Union) broke through last time Sept. 5 going approximately 7 1/2 panels on the Delaware sod, and was installed the 2-1 choice here. Seizing the early advantage from her rail draw, she doled out splits of :23.80, :48.34 and 1:13.56 and spurted away by five lengths in the stretch over R Sea Smoke (Lea). The winner's dam, who is a half to the dam of New York-bred near $700,000 earner Saratoga Snacks (Tale of the Cat), sold for $11,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale in foal to Exaggerator. CARPE VICTORIAM (c, 2, Carpe Diem--Paying Off {SW, $192,380}, by Malibu Moon) finished sixth on debut here Aug. 3, but rebounded with a victory over this strip Aug. 28. Favored at 2-1, the chestnut ran three-wide in a close-up fourth through a first quarter in :23.12. Moving into second on the far turn, he battled Ryan's Cat (Kitten's Joy) down the lane, edging clear by a head at the line. The winner is a half to Joint Custody (Outflanker), MSW, $274,530; and Risky Mandate (Strong Mandate), GSP, $135,448. CANTEEN (f, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Sweet Tess {SP}, by Afleet Alex) was a well-beaten second sprinting on debut here last September, and had been off since finishing fourth over 8 1/2 panels Oct. 25. Sitting third out in the clear early, the 3-1 shot took over despite traveling a bit awkwardly at the head of the lane, and bounded clear from there to dominate by 7 1/4 lengths. Miss You Blues (Big Drama) was second. The winner's 2-year-old half-brother Eel Point (Into Mischief), a $600,000 KEESEP yearling, closed from out of the clouds to be fourth on debut at Santa Anita last Sunday. ACROSS (f, 2, City Zip--Gozlan, by Tiznow) provided a fitting finale to the card for the Brad Cox barn, which took the GI Darley Alcibiades S. one race earlier with British Idiom (Flashback). Checking in second to stablemate Ginseng (Tiznow) at Indiana Aug. 6, the bay was supported as the 3-1 second chance but hopped slightly at the start before working her way over to the rail into the first turn. Settling into a comfortable rhythm while midpack down the backside, she still had some work to do at the top of the lane, and switched out into the clear while struggling a bit with her leads. Leveling off in midstretch, she reeled in favorite Lucky Polly (Lookin At Lucky) by a neck. The winner's dam is an unraced full to Sheikh Mohammed colorbearer and MGSW/GISP turfer Tizaqueena. She produced a Street Boss colt in 2018 and was bred back to him for 2020. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $48,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

On the engine early, she held a comfortable advantage throughout and held on to win by a length over Urban Fairytale (Distorted Humor). Moanin, who sold for $100,000 at KEENOV while carrying the winner in 2016, also has a yearling colt by Declaration of War and a filly foal by Air Force Blue. PERPETRATE (c, 2, Distorted Humor--Empire Desire, by Empire Maker) did no running in his sprint debut behind GI Champagne S. entrant Tiz the Law (Constitution) at Saratoga Aug. 8, but was adding Lasix for this try and took a bit of tote attention at 8-1. Hard ridden early for position by Joe Bravo, the homebred chased the pace from in between rivals and continued on under a busy ride around the bend. Guided to the outside for clear sailing in upper stretch, he forged to the front in the final sixteenth to graduate by a measured length. Favorite True Grace (Competitive Edge) got up for second. The winner is out of a half-sister to MGSWs Miss Isella (Silver Charm) and Sir Cherokee (Cherokee Run) and to the MGSP dam of a G1 German Oaks winner. Runner-up in the state-bred Lady Finger S. on the main track at Finger Lakes Sept. 9, she was favored at 6-5 in this off-the-turf affair. The dark bay kept close tabs on the leaders from a two-wide third through an opening quarter in :22.67. Four wide rounding the far turn, Single Verse swept past the pacesetting-duo in mid-stretch and rolled clear to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Desbordes (Central Banker) was the runner-up. BOUNTIFUL DELIGHTS IN TATTERSALLS OCTOBER SALE

Yearlings on display | Tattersalls

By Emma Berry

With healthy returns at the major yearling sales around the world so far this season, it doesn't require too much imagination to believe that the extraordinary growth seen at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale over the last seven years will continue unabated this autumn.

From a slight dip in trade as the market readjusted after a global recession and breeders responded to overproduction, since 2010 the aggregate for all sections of the October Sale has more than doubled, from just over 72 million gns that year to last year's record-breaking tally of more than 162 million gns from the sale of 1,552 yearlings.

Many of the headlines focus on Book 1 (Oct. 8 to 10) and that is hardly surprising, for these are the three days which draw potential buyers from all parts of the world, where pedigrees which would look the part in the stud book of any elite operation are to be found. This year, the number catalogued for Book 1 is up a little on the past two seasons, with 552 slated to sell across the three sessions. Among them are the siblings or half-siblings of 59 Classic or Group 1 winners.

ALL SET FOR ARC WEEKEND

As Khalid Abdullah's Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) starts out from Clarehaven Stables on Saturday morning on her journey to Chantilly for her overnight stay prior to her day of days, ParisLongchamp's two-day meeting gets underway with her stable simply dominating the feature G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu. John Gosden's season has been dramatically successful on just about every level, but it with his middle-distance fillies and mares that he has particularly excelled and the evidence of that comes in the line-up for the newly-promoted 14-furlong test. With the G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Anapurna (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in action against 'TDN Rising Star' Lah Ti Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Enbihaar (Ire) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), a thriller is guaranteed before any of the outside stables are even considered.

Enbihaar has proven a revelation in 2019, winning the July 6 G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock, Aug. 3 G2 Lillie Langtry S. at Goodwood and G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster Sept. 12 and carrying a penalty in the latter two events. Cont. p6

"It has been Europe's number one yearling sale for a very long time and the catalogue seems to get stronger and stronger. This year again, from the moment people saw the catalogue they were saying that they felt this could be the strongest ever, and there have been some very strong Book 1 catalogues in the last four or five years," says Jimmy George, Tattersalls' Marketing Director.

George also points to the draw of Europe's 'super sires'--Galileo (Ire), Dubawi (Ire), Sea The Stars (Ire), Frankel (GB) and the youngster whose stock are already scorching hot property, Kingman (GB). Tellingly, this quintet accounts for 164 of the yearlings, or almost 30%, of Book 1.

He says, "There is extraordinary depth to the quality of sires that we have at the moment in Britain and Ireland with probably four or five that would have been the top dog in any other era. For all of the top buyers, it would be very hard to ignore this sale. It's a key event for anyone interested in owning an elite Thoroughbred."

Beyond the famous five there is a raft of excellent names on the list of stallions with sizeable drafts during the opening week, including eight members of the penultimate crop of Juddmonte pensioner Dansili (GB), another eight by Shamardal, 30 by Dark Angel (Ire), 25 Lope De Vega (Ire) yearlings and another 23 by Kodiac (GB). And among those sires whose stock are seen less frequently in Britain are the Kentucky-based Flintshire (GB) (three), American Pharoah (two), War Front (two), Air Force Blue (two) and one by freshman Tamarkuz, as well as a sole yearling by German-based Adlerflug (Ger).

Of course, the stallions tell only half the story, often less. The bottom line is that there are also some pretty serious bottom lines. Cont. p3

Watership Down Stud topped last year's sale with a 3.5 million-guinea full-brother to Too Darn Hot (GB), and they bring another Dubawi colt from one of their top-class racemares in lot 77, a son of the four-time Group 1 winner The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}), who is bred on the same cross as the Book 1 topper of 2016, now known as Glorious Journey (GB) and a multiple group winner for Godolphin.

During the same opening session is lot 109, Chasemore Farm's Sea The Stars half-brother to this season's G3 Prestige S. winner and G2 May Hill S. runner-up Boomer (GB) (Kingman {GB}), while Woodcote Stud will offer lot 118, a Kingman half-brother to the dual Group 1 winner Poet's Word (GB) (Poet's Voice {GB}).

With a name like Yummy Mummy (GB) one would hope for a mare to be producing good-looking foals and Newsells Park Stud's daughter of Montjeu (Ire) has had her fair share of Book 1 limelight via her offspring over the years. This time around her Dubawi colt will be sold as lot 128, and he has plenty to live up to with his brother having made 1.2 million gns last year, while half-siblings have been sold for 870,000gns, 725,000gns, 575,000gns and, for the subsequent Guineas and treble Group 1 winner Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), 350,000gns.

A colt by Dubawi out of Yummy Mummy is lot 128

Newsells Park Stud

Of course it's all very well assembling a cast of equine stars, but they need an audience, and enticing buyers is a job which Tattersalls takes every bit as seriously as inspecting yearlings.

"We focus very closely on trying to attract top-end buyers from as many countries as we possibly can," says George. "America and Australia are two particularly important markets at the moment. The expansion of the American turf programme is in itself very significant. I think that has been something that we have been able to build on and to use as a strategy when we go to America, in terms of targeting trainers and owners."

That country's dominant trainer of the turf, Chad Brown, has been a visitor to Newmarket for this sale over the last few seasons, with his purchases having included GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

George continues, "Chad Brown doesn't need us to point to the expansion of the turf programme but what is wonderful is that he has identified Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale as the premier sale to source those sorts of turf horses at that level."

He adds, “He's been staggeringly successful at doing that and hugely enthusiastic about it. He loves coming to the sale and he, Mike Ryan, Peter Brant and Bob Edwards work the sale very hard and they have been hugely rewarded for doing so. It hopefully makes other buyers enthused by that success."

At a time when the spring racing is hitting top gear in Australia, it is not uncommon now to find buyers from the Southern Hemisphere making a trip to Tattersalls. To a degree, the rising prices for horses with staying form has seen a shift in focus from the Horses-in-Training Sale to the yearling market, and sometimes to foals.

"We have something that the Australians don't have," George says. "Of course their industry is totally turf-orientated but we have horses that can stay beyond a mile and they are painfully short of that. As we know, the top-end horses-in-training market is very expensive so we have been working hard to try to say to the Australians that are interested in Northern Hemisphere horses that they might find it equally, if not more rewarding, to target the October Yearling Sale and some of them have already been successful doing that."

He adds, "What we try to promote when we are travelling the world is that buyers can find something in Britain at Tattersalls that they will not find anywhere else in terms of the quality of the pedigrees. And also with the way the pound is they are not just getting unprecedented quality but also unprecedented value for money in terms of how far the overseas currencies are stretching."

Among those yearlings who may well pique the interest of Australian buyers is lot 185. Offered by Stauffenberg Bloodstock, the €180,000 foal purchase is a Siyouni (Fr) half-brother to recent German Group 1 winner Danceteria (Fr) (Redoute's Choice), owned by Australian Bloodstock and currently in quarantine ahead of a trip to Melbourne for the G1 Cox Plate. The colt's dam, Bal De La Rose (Ire), is a Cadeaux Genereux (GB) half-sister to Lope De Vega (Ire), a stallion with a lofty profile in both hemispheres.

Two young stallions with first-crop yearlings in the sale are Vadamos (Fr) with four and Shalaa (Ire) with six, but interestingly their respective breeders will each offer Dubawi half-sisters to these two Group 1 winners.

Lot 216 is the half-sister to Vadamos from a select draft of five yearlings from Andreas Putsch's Haras de Saint Pair, three of which are by Dubawi. Meanwhile Aisling and Mark Gittins of Castlefarm Stud will bring lot 315, the half-sister to Haras de Bouquetot's Shalaa, who was the leading first-season sire at Arqana's August Sale.

Also related to a promising young stallion is lot 283, New England Stud's Dubawi colt out of Filia Regina (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), a winning daughter of Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and thus a sister to dual Derby winner Australia (GB). Five lots later, Norelands Stud will offer as lot 288 a Frankel half-brother to the champion 3-year-old Golden Horn (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}).

Potential buyers will have to keep their wits about them when lots 488 and 489 go through the ring. Extraordinarily, both yearlings are by Kingman and out of a mare named Parle Moi. In the case of lot 488, a colt and a first Book 1 offering from Farran Anstock of Clearwater Stud, the Parle Moi (Ire) in question is a winning Montjeu (Ire) mare and a daughter of dual Group 3 winner Di Moi Oui (GB) (Warning {GB}). Cont. p5

He will be followed by the filly (489) from Oghill House Stud's Parle Moi, herself a daughter of Giant's Causeway out of the G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Pas De Reponse (Danzig).

To highlight each of the top-drawer pedigrees on offer could fill many more pages here. In an exacting market, the physical qualities of each individual have to match the bloodlines in quality, and despite the elite nature of the sale, a median price last year of 167,500gns--albeit a figure any sale company would be delighted to achieve--tells its own story of how price cannot necessarily match expectation right the way through the book.

Jimmy George | Racing Post

Five years ago, in a bid to ensure that more buyers, and in particular trainers, were not shunning Book 1 and waiting for the second week of the October Sale, Tattersalls launched its Book 1 Bonus, which rewards graduates with an extra £25,000 on top of prize-money won in a maiden or novice contest. Plenty of owners have benefited from this scheme over the last four racing seasons and, as our accompanying tables highlighting Book 1 bonus winners sold for less than 100,000gns show, not all have required princely sums to have been paid in order to have taken them home from Park Paddocks.

"Trainers have actually changed their strategy for buying now and they are particularly targeting Book 1. They say to us at this is now the sale that they want to buy at, which is encouraging," says George. "For example, Alan and Mike Spence recently received a total of £37,352 for Star In The Making (GB) winning a novice race at Salisbury, and that was more than they won for Positive (GB) winning the G3 Solario S. in the same week."

He adds, "We are pleased that the message is very much getting through that there are horses here that will sell under that elite level but they have the pedigrees and the potential to earn decent bonuses on top of their prize-money. By the time of the sale we will have given out almost £5 million from four seasons of bonuses won by more than 180 different horses."

For buyers who don't manage to bag themselves a Book 1 horse, there are of course many more horses still to come through the following week's Books 2, 3 and 4, with the sale coming to an end on QIPCO British Champions Day. And if history has taught us anything, it is that sales at every level are worth perusing closely in order to find a horse capable of winning on such an illustrious day of racing. The search is on.

Whereas she had 13 pounds more to carry than Ballydoyle's game runner-up Delphinia (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Park Hill, Shadwell's 4-year-old has only to give the Classic generation a seven-pound concession this time. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's racing manager Angus Gold said, "She's a lovely filly, but she's got a few others of John's as well as everybody else to contend with, including the Oaks winner. She's done nothing but improve all year and everybody loves her. She's a thoroughly good filly, so hopefully she'll run very well."

Anapurna is one of the sophomore crew in receipt of the weight-for-age and Frankie has opted for her over the Lloyd-Webbers' June 30 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud third Lah Ti Dar. She was having her first start since the Oaks when seventh in the G1 Prix Vermeille over 12 furlongs here Sept. 15 and is entitled to come forward for that effort over a trip that promises to suit. Meon Valley Stud's Mark Weinfeld commented, "She looks to have a nice enough draw and we've got Frankie on board, so fingers crossed. We're always hopeful. She was boxed in when she ran in the Vermeille and couldn't get out and didn't really have a race. She's in the race on Champions Day at Ascot [the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S.] later in the month, but we'll get Saturday out of the way before we make any plans." Cont. p7

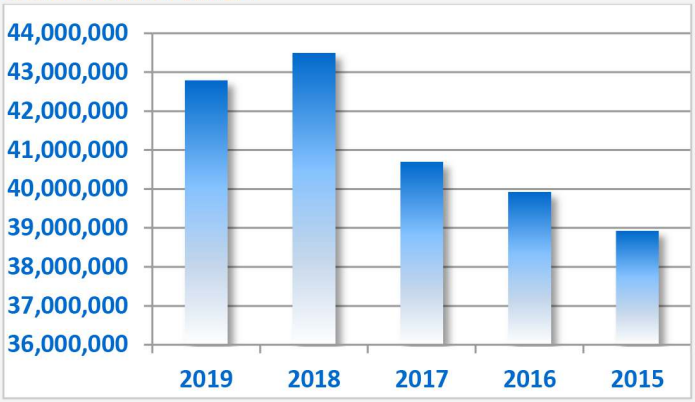
GOFFS ORBY SALE



"Following a reduction in numbers last year, a bigger catalogue for the 2019 Orby Sale led to a decline in average and median. But there were three millionaire fillies, the clearance rate remained solid, and the international participation at Goffs continues to grow."

Perhaps Andre Fabre represents the biggest obstacle to a Gosden whitewash as he sends Godolphin's Musis Amica (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) back to the scene of her latest second placing to Star Catcher (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the Vermeille. Mickael Barzalona knows the 4-year-old well and the fact that she likes to be ridden cold early on may help if this turns into an attritional battle. "Musis Amica is in great form," Godolphin's Lisa-Jane Graffard said. "She has been given plenty of time to come back to her best this season and we expect her to improve again for her run in the Prix Vermeille. We will have to see whether she stays this trip but, if there is plenty of pace on and she gets a clear run up the straight, she should run well."

ParisLongchamp's Arc Saturday now boasts a welcome brace of Group 1 events, with the Qatar Prix du Cadran seemingly entrenched in the warm-up fixture. Connections of Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) have opted to give all else a chance by staying at home and waiting for Ascot, which must be a relief for those involved with his regular subordinate Dee Ex Bee (GB) (Farhh {GB}). Runner-up to Bjorn Nielsen's dual millionaire without any hint of progress beyond that placing in the June 20 G1 Gold Cup at Ascot, July 30 G1 Goodwood Cup and G2 Lonsdale Cup at York Aug. 23, Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's 4-year-old will be begrudged a first top-level success by nobody if he can take full advantage of his nemesis's absence.

Charlie Johnston, assistant to father Mark, is hoping this is Dee Ex Bee's time as the stable look for a first Group 1 success of 2019 after a string of seconds at the highest level. "He's had a fantastic year, running some great races in defeat--without bumping into Stradivarius in his last three races, he'd be unbeaten and would have won a £1million bonus himself. Ever since Goodwood, this has been his main target. I think the softer ground and going back up to two and a half [miles] will suit him. Everything looks to be in favour, so hopefully this will be his day."

Last year's Cadran hero Call the Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}) may have failed to truly shine for the most part of this term, but the way George Strawbridge's homebred came home when second in the 15-furlong G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville suggests he is ready to peak again. There is no Marmelo (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) in this line-up and with his old rival Holdthasigreen (Fr) (Hold That Tiger) giving signals that he might be finally at the end of his fine run Call the Wind looks the most potent threat among the home-trained contingent.

The third Group 1 event on Saturday comes at Newmarket with the Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot S. serving as the stand-off between five winners at that level including Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) who has six in total including the 2018 renewal of this race. Her latest defeat when fourth in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown Sept. 14 was a rare deflating performance, as she failed to see out her effort with her usual spirited fight. Three of her five outings this season have been up to scratch and trainer Karl Burke is hoping the 4-year-old can end her career in style. "Laurens is in great form. I couldn't be happier with her going into the race and my daughter Lucy, who knows the filly inside out, is delighted with her," he said.

Burke revealed that a change in direction was suggested by the owner. "John [Dance] was fairly keen to run her back over seven furlongs in the Prix de la Foret, but personally I think a mile is her best trip. John slightly disagrees with me, but he's let me have my way so I hope she proves me right," he explained. "We know she likes the track--the only time she's been beaten on the Rowley Mile was when she finished second in the 1000 Guineas. We're going into the race with plenty of confidence."

He said, "As far as I'm aware, this will be her last run. She has been a privilege to train--we've been very, very lucky to have her. I don't think I will really appreciate what she has done for us for a while."

First and second in the Matron, the 3-year-olds Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler of the World {Ire}) and Hermosa (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will be on Laurens's case again here with the latter returning to the course-and-distance of her G1 1000 Guineas success May 5. Her full-sister Hydrangea (Ire) only began to come good at this time of year and with that Matron run under her belt it would be no surprise if she was able to turn the tables on Joseph O'Brien's flagbearer. "She's in good form and she won't mind the ease in the ground," Aidan said of Hermosa. "She hasn't done an awful lot since Leopardstown, but what's she has done we've been happy with. It was her first run back in a while last time."

Laurens | Scoop Dyga

Saturday's group action starts early, with the G2 Qatar Prix Dollar over an extended nine furlongs launching the festival just after an early lunch. Godolphin will be hoping that the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Prix du Moulin third Line of Duty (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will provide them with a strong opening flourish and he will be a warm order to do so. "We tried him over a mile and a half in the Derby earlier in the year, but he blatantly didn't stay," Charlie Appleby said of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero. "His last couple of runs over a mile have been very good and you'd think stepping back up to an extended mile and one is going to suit him. He ticks a lot of boxes in that he has track experience and will appreciate the ground. On the evidence of his last couple of runs, he is the one to beat."

Olmedo | Scoop Dyga

Jean-Claude Seroul's momentum-gaining 4-year-old Skalleti (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) comes into the reckoning on the back of a career-best win in the G3 Prix Quincey over a mile at Deauville Aug. 25, while another entering the fray off a first pattern-race breakthrough is the Devin family's Sept. 16 G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte winner Villa Rosa (Fr) (Doctor Dino {Fr}). The French have more solid claims in the G2 Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein, where 'TDN Rising Star' Olmedo (Fr) (Declaration of War) returns to the course and distance of his success in last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. At his best on a turning track, Ant Caro's bay was a place behind Line of Duty in the Moulin and a reapeat of that might be enough. "He is better than ever, I think. I'm very confident with him," trainer Jean-Claude Rouget commented.

Godolphin are ever-present this season and may provide the biggest threat to Olmedo in the Andre Fabre-trained Impulsif (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), who is on a roll after three straight successes culminating in the G3 Prix Messidor at Deauville July 21. "There is a slight question mark over the ground, but he seems to handle soft fine in the mornings," the operation's Lisa-Jane Graffard said. "Being a gelding, he wasn't eligible to run in the Prix Jacques le Marois or the Prix du Moulin, but he seems to be in great form. Everything seems to be going right for him and we don't quite know his limits yet."

Also in the royal blue is Moonlight Spirit (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Qatar Prix Chaudenay for the budding Cup horses over 15 furlongs. Having won the traditional stepping stone to this, the course-and-distance G3 Prix de Lutece Sept. 1, with real authority Charlie Appleby has expectations he can make into a performer of substance in this sphere. "Moonlight Spirit is a nice, progressive stayer. He has a bit to find on the book with a couple of his rivals but has course-and-distance experience, while ease in the ground will suit," he commented. Cont. p9

The Chaudenay is, on the face of it, set to be dominated by the Brits this time with the Mariscottis' June 19 G2 Queen's Vase winner Dashing Willoughby (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) challenging alongside one of his old rivals, Mohamed Obaida's Aug. 1 G3 Gordon S. scorer and Sept. 14 G1 St Leger third Nayef Road (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and Team Valor's Aug. 17 G3 Geoffrey Freer S. winner Technician (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). Charlie Johnston said of Nayef Road, "After Doncaster, we were thinking we'd probably finish him for the year but he was already entered in this race and it just looked too good an opportunity to pass up. He has conditions to suit and I think a mile and seven will be just about ideal for him. He's the top-rated horse in the race and if he reproduces his Leger run, he should win."

At Ascot, Shadwell test another potential sprinter of note in the Owen Burrows-trained unexposed 4-year-old Tabdeed (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}) in the G3 Bengough S. after trying their 1.5million gns 3-year-old son of Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), Faylaq (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), in the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. Both are making their black-type debuts and the operation's racing manager Angus Gold commented, "Tabdeed is a horse with a lot of ability. He needs easy ground, so that should suit him. He's just a hard horse to train physically. He's had plenty of problems, but at his best he's a decent horse. We haven't run him in a proper race, so we can't tell, but he's potentially a smart horse. Faylaq is a great, big horse. He's been immature and it's taken a long time to get him together. Hopefully he's on the right track now, so this will tell us a bit more."

At Redcar, there is perhaps the epitome of a racing certainty in action in the valuable Listed Two Year Old Trophy. It is Saturday's G1 Middle Park S. third Summer Sands (GB) (Coach House {Ire}), who attempts to take advantage of highly favourable race conditions with weights based on the median price of a sire's yearlings sold in Europe and North America in 2018. The Richard Fahey-trained colt, who surprised so many in a vintage edition of the Middle Park last week, gets an abundance of weight from all bar one of his 17 rivals.

EXCEED AND EXCEL COLT THE STAR AT GOFFS By Daithí Harvey

KILDARE, Ireland—Torrential morning rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of buyers and traders as the second day of the Goffs Sportsman's Sale brought to a close a successful week of business at Kildare Paddocks. This second day was added after an oversubscription of entries were received and while there was an air of trepidation over the prospect of an extra day of trading, fears were thankfully unfounded when the session provided the highest priced Sportsman's Sale topper in 12 years. This was courtesy of lot 822, a colt by Exceed And Excel (Aus) offered by Derrinstown Stud on behalf of breeder Hadi Al Tajir that was hammered down to Joe Foley for €135,000.

After signing for the son of the Tamayuz (GB) mare Oriental Step (Ire) on behalf of Clipper Logistics Foley said, "He is a really nice colt and was very well produced. He has a stallion's page, is by a sire of sires and has every chance of being a smart racehorse, he certainly looks like one."

Lot 822, Friday's topper | Sarah Farnsworth

The colt is a half-brother to Saffran (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) who was an impressive winner of a maiden for Simon Crisford at Chepstow in June and further down the page the eye is drawn to such influences as Height Of Fashion, Nayef and Nashwan.

Overall it was a solid edition of the sale with the aggregate of €4,854,900 admittedly from a larger catalogue, up on last year's figure of €4,325,500. The clearance rate of 78.6% couldn't quite match last year's impressive 85.1%, while the average of €17,155 (-9.6%) and median of €13,000 (-13.3%) were also just shy of last year's totals of €18,971 and €15,000.

Commenting after the close of business Goffs CEO Henry Beeby said, "A two day Sportsman's Sale always provokes discussion and this year has been no different. The decision goes back to inspection time when we received a higher than ever number of applications from established vendors with the right types. That growth in demand flowed from a good renewal of the sale in 2018 and presented us with a real conundrum. Do we keep the sale to one day and upset large numbers of valued clients who have good yearlings or do we expand and risk supply outstripping demand? There is never going to be an answer that is 100% correct but first and foremost Goffs exists to serve Irish breeders by providing a viable market place for their produce so we decided to hold a two-day sale, committing extra resource to buyer recruitment." Cont. p10

He continued, "Doubtless opinion will be split as to whether we made the right decision but we feel the results ultimately vindicate the move with a vibrant trade on both days especially given prevailing market conditions and the background of a volatile world economy. We have welcomed a wide variety of buyers from home, the UK, across Europe and further afield following a concerted effort from our network of international agents and the team at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. Their presence meant that there was keen competition for those that appealed with a high of €135,000 today although the trends witnessed at every other yearling sale in 2019 were evident. That said a 79% clearance rate is perfectly acceptable and points to a trade of some depth. So as the week closes we can reflect on a market that soared at the top of Orby, headed by the second highest yearling filly price in Irish auction history amongst four millionaires, but tightened in the lower echelons notwithstanding a top Sportsman's price that was the second highest on record. These results clearly demonstrate the enduring demand for the best and that Goffs is absolutely the measure of any sale in the world at the top whilst perhaps highlighting some issues that may give pause for thought. As ever we are supremely grateful for the support of our vendors and wish every buyer success on the racecourse."

Foley Looking To The Future

Before getting the top lot Joe Foley was already in pole position as the buyer of the session topper when he signed for a daughter of Raven's Pass offered by Clonsast Stud for €60,000. Foley, who bought this year's G2 Lowther S. winner Living In The Past (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) at this sale last year for €65,000 was again acting on behalf of Steve Parkin of Clipper Logistics and he was determined to add lot 737 to the team.

"We liked her a lot, she is a real athlete and we have a lot of faith in Raven's Pass as a future broodmare sire. She will come back to Ballyhane for her early education and we will decide on a trainer in the spring," Foley said.

For breeder Pat McCarthy it was also good bit of business. McCarthy had bought the unraced mare Kirouna (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), a daughter of G2 Blandford S. winner Katiyra (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), for €22,000 from the Aga Khan draft at the Goffs November Sale in 2016 and his initial foray into the market place with the mare's first progeny has certainly been encouraging. He has a colt foal by Dawn Approach (Ire) waiting in the wings and Kirouna was covered this year by Decorated Knight (GB).

Murtagh's Perseverance Pays Off

Johnny Murtagh has been an active participant this week stocking up for next year and among his purchases on Friday was lot 798 from Mountain View Stud. The €55,000 son of Ajaya (GB) has plenty of stamina in his pedigree being related to the likes of Millenary (GB) (Rainbow Quest) and Knight To Behold (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) but Murtagh thinks the Invincible Spirit (Ire) influence will help add a gear or two.

"He looks fast," he said. "He has plenty of size and scope too and is just a lovely horse. We've been trying hard all week and it hasn't been easy to buy. Every time I follow in one I like there seems to be plenty of others there as well and you just have to go that extra yard to land the ones you want."

Gerry Hogan also paid €55,000 for daughter of Camelot (GB) late in the session. Lot 849's credentials were certainly done no harm by the recent exploits of her 2-year-old half-brother Helvic Dream (Ire) (Power {GB}). The Noel Meade trained juvenile has been impressive in winning twice this autumn and looks a lively candidate for the final of the Foran Equine Irish EBF Auction Race at Naas in two weeks' time.

Derrinstown Excel Again

The early pace was set by the fifth horse into the ring when lot 697 was knocked down to BBA Ireland for €43,000. The son of Exceed And Excel (Aus) was bred by Shadwell, who played such a pivotal role as a buyer during the week and consigned by its Derrinstown Stud. It was the BBA's Michael Donohoe who was doing the bidding, alongside trainer Michael Halford.

Afterwards Donohoe said, "I bought him for a syndicate to race and then hopefully to sell on. He's by a good stallion, from a nice family and he will go to Mick Halford."

Donohue and Halford have previous form when teaming up at Goffs to buy a Shadwell bred yearling having purchased the Hong Kong runner Happy Dragon (GB) (Raven's Pass) in 2015 for €62,000. That horse went on to win a maiden at Naas for Halford when called Yulong Xionghu (GB) before being sold to continue his career in Hong Kong for John Moore, for whom he is a dual winner.

It's been a hectic week for John O'Connor and Ballylinch Stud between selling the Orby sale topper on Wednesday among 30 horses catalogued in total over the four days. The stud was also represented by the first crop of yearlings by New Bay (GB) and Fascinating Rock (Ire).It was a Ballylinch-consigned daughter of Belardo that caught the eye of Kevin Ross on Friday. Acting on behalf of Paul & Clare Rooney, Ross went to €45,000 to buy lot 774, a daughter of G3 Firth Of Clyde S. winner Majestic Dubawi (GB) (Dubawi {GB}).

"We like what we've seen of the Belardos so far," said Kevin Ross. "He was a very good racehorse himself and this is a lovely filly. She is out of a very good mare as well so there was a lot to like about her."

Also popular on Friday was an Acclamation (GB) filly sent up from Norelands Stud as lot 783. Her year older half-sister Justina (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) has shown a decent level of ability this year for Jessica Harrington and the relation to Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) was ultimately knocked down to Cormac O'Flynn for €47,000.

"Acclamation is a great sire and I just fell in love with this filly," O'Flynn said. "The 2-year-old filly is fairly smart and it's a brilliant back pedigree as well."

A route towards the 2020 breeze ups looks on the cards for lot 760, a colt by Cable Bay (Ire) bought by Willie Brown for €40,000. Offered by The Castlebridge Consignment the colt benefitted from a recent update when his half-brother Solemn Pledge (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), the mare's first produce, won for the first time at Redcar for Karl Burke. Another likely to be seen in that sphere next year is a Kingman (GB) filly (lot 778) bought by Cian Hughes for €40,000.

FUTURE PROSPECTS SET FOR ARC SALE

ParisLongchamp warms up for its marquee Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe card with an quality slate on Saturday, after which the action moves down the street to Saint-Cloud Racecourse where Arqana hosts it boutique Arc Sale. An initial catalogue of 42 has since been bolstered by nine wildcards with notable recent performances, including Haras de Saint Pair's Trais Fluors (GB) (Dansili {GB}), a Group 3 winner who has won or placed in six of his seven starts this year at five, including a 1 1/2-length third in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan. The Andre Fabre trainee is offered as lot 10. Pretty Boy (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) (lot 20) boasts progressive sprinting form, having been Group 3-placed at two and most recently winning a ParisLongchamp handicap on Sept. 12. Those seeking a middle distance or staying prospect may be enticed by 3-year-old Mister Nino (Fr) (Magician {Ire}) (lot 15), twice a winner over 2400 metres this year and second in Saint-Cloud's Listed Prix Turenne on Sept. 13.

A trio of promising juveniles with recent form are up for grabs: the unbeaten Listed Critierium de Lyon victor Chares (Ger) (Ivawood {Ire}) (lot 25); the winning and listed-placed Jessely (Fr) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) (lot 35); and Ikigai (GB) (Sayif {Ire}) (lot 40), a winner on debut at Yarmouth in July and listed-placed.

German miler Kronprinz (Ger) (Lord of England {Ger}) (lot 50) was added to the sale after a victory in the G3 Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf on Sept. 29, and 3-year-old filly Stone Tornado (GB) (Toronado {Ire}) (lot 30) took up the last wildcard slot after finishing second to fellow Arc sale entrant Style Presa (Fr) (Style Vendome {Fr}) (lot 6) in the G3 Premio Elena e Sergio Cumani on Sept. 22.

Other entries of note include George Strawbridge's consistent stakes-winning miler Stunning Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) (lot 8) and Wertheimer 3-year-old Flop Shot (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) (lot 21), winner of the G3 Prix de Guiche on May 6 and third in both the G2 Prix Eugene Adam and G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano subsequently. Les Hogues (Ire) (Bated Breath {GB}) (lot 29), a listed winner and second to Earthlight (Ire) (Shamardal) earlier this year, is also an attractive prospect from the Jean-Claude Rouget barn.

KING'S COMMAND TAKES THOMAS BRYON

Sporting the white cap of the Godolphin duo, King's Command (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) readily put fellow Charlie Appleby-trained Royal Crusade (GB) (Shamardal) in the shade when making all in Friday's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud. Having been sent off the favourite for Newmarket's G2 Superlative S. July 13 after his debut win over six furlongs there June 21, he failed to beat any of his seven rivals but fared better when third in the Listed Prix Francois Boutin over this seven-furlong trip at Deauville Aug. 11. Cont. p13

King's Command | Scoop Dyga

Coming into his own with forcing tactics on this testing ground, the 9-1 shot was too strong in the closing stages.

"I talked to connections this morning and they said they were quite disappointed with his last two runs and that he had shown very good form at home on soft ground," jockey Mickael Barzalona said. "That proved the key today and I liked him. He seems to have a good deal of quality."

Looking initially to be fulfilling a role of pacemaker for his stablemate, who was runner-up in the G2 Champagne S., King's Command was sent forward from the break and all appeared to be going to plan 300 metres out as William Buick loomed large on the first string. The even-money favourite's effort proved short-lived, however, and the leader maintained the power up ahead to assert by 3 1/2 lengths at the line, with Royal Crusade denying Al Shaqab's G3 Prix la Rochette runner-up Wooded (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) second spot by a neck. Happy Bere (Fr) (Pedro the Great), who had King's Command well beaten in the Francois Boutin, was another three lengths back in fourth as a measure of the turnaround from the winner in the interim period.

Pedigree Notes

King's Command is a half-brother to the G3 Up and Coming S.-winning sire Albrecht (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) who was also runner-up in the G1 Golden Rose S., and to the stable's Spring "talking horse" Zakouski (GB) (Shamardal) who has not been seen since finishing fifth in the G3 Craven S. The dam, a daughter of the G3 Sweet Embrace S. winner and G1 AJC Sires Produce S. and G1 Champagne S. runner-up Shadea (NZ) (Straight Strike), is a full-sister to the multiple group 1-winning Australian Horse of the year and sire Lonhro (Aus) and Niello (Aus) who captured the G1 Rosehill Guineas, G1 Canterbury Guineas and G1 Spring Champion S. This is also the family of the New Zealand sensation Grosvenor (NZ) (Sir Tristram {GB}).

ALPINE STAR TO RETURN AT THREE

Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) has suffered a setback which has prematurely ended her juvenile season. One of several potentially top-class fillies trained by Jessica Harrington, the G2 Debutante S. winner had been due to head across the Channel for this weekend's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at ParisLongchamp. However, Harrington instead sends Albigna (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) for that Group 1 contest, with a minor issue ruling Alpine Star out of a trip to France as well as next Friday's G1 Fillies' Mile at Newmarket.

"Unfortunately she pulled a muscle on Monday, in her quarters, and will be put away for the winter," said Alan Cooper, racing manager to her owners, the Niarchos Family. "I suppose, if it's a saving grace, she did it at home and not in a race when the damage could have been much worse. She won't be going for the Fillies' Mile."

BALLYDOYLE UNVEIL VATICAN CITY AT HQ

2.50 Newmarket, Novice, £10,000, 2yo, 8fT

EMISSARY (GB) (Kingman {GB}) debuts in a potentially hot contest in which Godolphin and Ballydoyle are represented, but Khalid Abdullah's homebred has much to commend him as a half-brother to the G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Workforce (GB) (King's Best). Hugo Palmer is entrusted with the handling of the May-foaled bay, who faces the likes of Never Alone (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a Charlie Appleby-trained 1.2million gns Tattersalls October Book 1 graduate who was second in a decent novice at Sandown last month.

4.00 Newmarket, Novice, £8,000, 2yo, 7fT

VATICAN CITY (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) is the day's most notable newcomer, being a full-brother to the dual Guineas-winning sire Gleaneagles (Ire), the Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Marvellous (Ire), the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Happily (Ire) and other Group 1 performers The Taj Mahal (Ire) and Coolmore (Ire). Aidan O'Brien introduces the son of You'resothrilling (Storm Cat) in an intriguing race which also features Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's unraced colt Al Qaqaa (War Front), a Richard Hannon-trained $1.2-million Keeneland September purchase whose family features the Sadler's Wells mares Quarter Moon (Ire) and Yesterday (Ire).

Fort Myers | Racing Post

Fort Myers had done enough during his busy summer to suggest this was well within his grasp and he produced his professional best to duly deliver and double his tally on this Polytrack. Third in the June 29 G2 Railway S. and Aug. 30 G3 Round Tower S. at The Curragh, the bay had also been fourth in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 18 and G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster when last seen Sept. 14. In front initially, he was handed a lead by Justifier after the first furlong and when produced by Donnacha O'Brien in the straight battled back to the head of affairs passing the furlong pole.

The dam, who was successful in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, is a full-sister to four group winners headed by the G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas, G1 St James's Palace S. and G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S.-winning first-season sire Gleneagles (Ire) and G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere heroine Happily (Ire). The G2 Cherry Hinton S.-winning second dam You'resothrilling (Storm Cat), whose 2-year-old colt Vatican City (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is introduced at Newmarket on Saturday, is a full-sister to Giant's Causeway. Marvellous's yearling colt is also by War Front, while she also has a filly foal by Quality Road and was bred to Justify for 2020. Click for the Racing Post result. Matematica | Scoop Dyga

Matematica, runner-up in last term's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, was just off the board in five black-type starts since shedding maiden status over one mile at Chantilly in April and earned a vital breakthrough here. Racing in a handy third until slipping to fifth when allowed a breather on the final turn, she bided her time in heavy traffic once straightened for home and kept on well under mainly whipless urging when finding room at the 300-metre pole to claim a belated first stakes rosette.

"There were a few questions she needed to answer because she hasn't quite fulfilled her promise after finishing second in the Marcel Boussac last year and winning first time out this season," admitted racing manager Pierre-Yves Bureau. She hasn't done what we expected or hoped of her, but she hasn't run that badly either. [Trainer] Carlos [Laffon-Parias] was quite certain that the ground was a contributing factor and, with softer conditions like today, she'd be capable of better. He was right and she's now a stakes winner! We'll see how she comes out of this before deciding whether, or not, she runs again this year."

Matematica is one of three winning black-type performers from as many foals produced by a winning daughter of Listed Prix Occitanie victress Never Green (Ire) (Halling), herself a sibling of six stakes performers headed by G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}). The homebred bay is a half-sister to GSW G1 Prix Saint-Alary third Soustraction (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), dual stakes placegetter Guerriere (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), the unraced 2-year-old filly Euclidia (Fr) (Maxios {GB}), a yearling filly by Manduro (Ger) and a 2019 colt by Lope de Vega (Ire). Click for the Racing Post result. Also Ran: Diluvien (Fr), Stellar Mass (Ire), Marouche (Fr), Libello (Ire), El Gringo (Fr), Waheebah (Ire), Tiberian (Fr).

A former Wertheimer project, In Front had upped his game since joining Christophe Lotoux's stable during the winter and booked this tilt at black-type when successful in a 12-furlong handicap at Parislongchamp Sept. 1. Always handy, the bay was committed approaching the two-furlong pole and stayed on in game fashion to hold Palomba safely at bay in the run to the line. "He's been improving steadily and is a very consistent horse," Lotoux commented. "In time, I think he will develop into a nice stayer."

The unraced dam is a half to the G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. runner-up Chabal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) connected to the useful group performers Spin Cycle (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and San Sicharia (Ire) (Daggers Drawn). Also related to the GI Breeders' Cup Mile-winning sire Val Royal (Fr) (Royal Academy) and the Classic-winning Vahorimix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), her first foal was the G3 Prix Noailles runner-up More Than a Dream, while she has the 3-year-old filly Calla Lily (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) who has yet to start. Her yearling filly by Shalaa (Ire) sold to Agence BHB for €135,000 at the recent Arqana August v2 Sale, while she also has a filly foal by Dabirsim (Fr). Click for the Racing Post result. Margins: 3/4, 1 1/4, SNK. Odds: 6.30, 1.50, 4.90.

Also Ran: Palmyre (Fr), Shahnaza (Fr), Golden Rajsa (Fr), Skill Set (Ire).

Lanana backed up a pair of handicap wins to run second behind Tosen Gift in the Sept. 7 Listed Grand Prix de Fontainebleau last time and remained in bloom to secure a career high here. Finding a rhythm tracking the leaders in fourth after breaking to the fore, she made headway under mild coaxing in the straight to launch her challenge approaching the final furlong and was pushed out to account for the returning Magic Lily in ultimately snug fashion.

"She improved throughout the spring and is now in the form of her life," insisted winning rider Eddy Hardouin. "She was up to the grade when second in stakes company, after winning two big handicaps, last time and she confirmed that on ground which probably helped her today. It's up to the boss to decide what happens next, I imagine she'll be tried at a higher level."

Lanana, half-sister to a yearling filly by Dabirsim (Fr), is the first of three foals and lone winner out of a winning half to MGSW G1 Dubai Duty Free runner-up Bankable (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) and G3 Grand Prix de Vichy victor Cheshire (GB) (Warning {GB}). Her second dam Dance To The Top (GB), who ran second in the G1 Fillies' Mile, is one of three black-type performers--including G1 Underwood S. runner-up Polar Bear (GB) (Polar Falcon)--out of G3 Premio Chiusura victress Aim For The Top (Irish River).

AROD TO STAND IN INDIA

Globetrotter and English highweight Arod (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}–My Personal Space, by Rahy) will stand at Sans Craintes Stud in India in 2020, Racing Post reported. The MGSW & MG1SP 8-year-old, who raced almost his entire career for Qatar Racing, won both the G3 Diomed S. and G2 Summer Mile S. in 2015. The half-brother to three Italian black-type placegetters was also third earlier that season in that year's G1 Lockinge S. After his pair of group wins, the €170,000 Goffs Orby yearling missed by only a half-length to be second in the G1 Sussex S. Later on in his career, he rolled a pair of twos in a brace of Group 3s in Australia. Sold for 145,000gns during the Tattersalls July Sale in 2018, Arod made his final three starts for Two Towers Partnership, with his last two in Dubai. His record currently stands at 31-5-7-4 and $948,616 in earnings.

His winning dam is a half-sister to the dam of GSW Dark Islander (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), while his winning second dam is a full to MGISW Annoconnor (Nureyev) and a half to MG1SW At Talaq (Roberto). This is the extended family of Marcel (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), won G1 Racing Post Trophy.

AQUIS SECURES PIERATA'S STUD FUTURE

Pierata | Bronwen Healy

by Paul Vettise

Aquis Farm has landed a momentous blow in securing a Group 1 winning sprinter it believes has the potential to develop into a champion stallion, but in the meantime, he's poised to further lift his profile before his already decorated racing career comes to an end. After protracted negotiations, the three-state operation has hammered out a deal for a majority share-holding in the Greg Hickman-trained top-liner Pierata (Pierro).

For some time, Aquis has been chasing the 5-year-old, who will run in the $14-million The TAB Everest slot for the Fung family, owners of the progressive breeding and racing operation with bases in New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland.

"It's certainly quite a relief to secure him for stud duties. He's been on our radar for a while and he's by an unbeaten champion 2-year-old out of a daughter of a champion broodmare sire," Aquis Chief Executive Officer Shane McGrath said.

Pierata is a son of the G3 Millie Fox S. winner November Flight (Flying Spur), also the dam of the G3 Skyline S. winner and G1 Golden Rose S. placegetter Ashokan (More Than Ready {USA}). Bred by Hobartville Stud, Pierata was purchased by Hickman for $160,000 out of Kitchwin Hills' draft top at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

"He's got all the pedigree and performance and he's a grand-looking horse," McGrath said.

"We know the appetite for these horses in the commercial market and it's exciting now to take part in the rest of his racing career and have him at the stud here in 2020."

Pierata will be ensured a high-quality book in his first season at Aquis.

"We've got a broodmare band that will give him every opportunity and between us and our partners and growing client base he'll have a great start. He's every commercial breeder's dream," McGrath said. "We've got a sizeable broodmare band and we support our own stallions. There will be a line-up of mares here that will be the envy of any stallion master.

"He could be the next young champion sire in the making and it shows where the farm is heading. He's the horse we wanted to secure and they don't come along too often. He's got pure speed and he's adaptable enough to be equally effective on top of the ground as we saw when he won the Gold Coast Guineas and we saw at Randwick where he won the Shorts on soft ground.

"That versatility is a huge factor as well. He's certainly good looking and he's got a lot of racing in front of him. Greg Hickman says he's never had him better so he's obviously going to run in the Aquis slot in The Everest so it's very exciting going forward and it's given everyone a boost around the farm."

Pierata has won eight of his 21 starts, including the G1 All-Aged S., twice at both Group 2 and Group 3 level and has earned more than $3.6 million. Cont. p2

McGrath said all racing avenues for Pierata would be explored after The Everest with Royal Ascot, Hong Kong and Dubai in the mix before he begins the next phase of his career at Aquis's Hunter Valley base.
