NAZEEF PREVAILS IN FALMOUTH THRILLER

Nazeef (left) outpoints Billesdon Brook and Terebellum in the Falmouth | Racing Post

Confirming her upward trajectory, Shadwell's Nazeef (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) had her determined head down where it counted to come out on top of a three-way go in Friday's G1 Tattersalls Falmouth S. at Newmarket. Looking all heart when successful in the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. over this mile trip at Royal Ascot on June 16, the 9-2 shot was ideally placed by Jim Crowley in the slipstream of the 5-6 favourite Terebellum (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) throughout the early stages. Working her way past that stablemate in the last 150 yards, the homebred had to dig in as Billesdon Brook (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) emerged strong on the other side of the long-time leader but proved up to her latest assignment to master her by a neck, with the same margin back to Terebellum.

"She's come a long way now and is a real trier and gorgeous-looking as well," Crowley said. "To cap it like that is testament to her will to win. Frankie's horse was the only one with 10-furlong form and it was obvious he was going to go forward so I only had to get in behind and the rest was pretty easy. Although I didn't want to get into a war with Frankie, on the other hand she was a bit flat-footed going down into the 'dip' and he took a length out of me there. In fairness to her, when we got to within half a length she was always going to get there." Cont. p2

GORESBRIDGE BREEZE-UP MOVED TO NEWMARKET

The Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale has been moved to Newmarket as a result of continued quarantine restrictions for people traveling to Ireland. The sale will remain on its original date of July 24 at Park Paddocks, with the breeze taking place down the road at Newmarket Racecourse on July 22. Tattersalls Ireland Chief Executive Matt Mitchell said, "The team at Tattersalls Ireland are doing everything possible to stage a successful breeze-up sale and by holding our Goresbridge sale in Newmarket it allows all purchasers to attend the sale at the leading breeze-up sale venue in Europe without the imposition of the travel restrictions currently in place in Ireland. We are taking every precaution to make the sale the safest environment for our staff and clients and strict proven protocols will be in place. Live Internet Bidding, which has proved extremely successful already at Tattersalls, will be available to all purchasers who cannot attend the sale in person as well as telephone bidding on the day of the sale."

The sale was traditionally staged at Gowran Park before an association with Tattersalls Ireland beginning last year saw it moved to Fairyhouse and its accompanying sales grounds.

"She had a hard time at Ascot, as I had to be quite forceful that day so I didn't want to give her too hard a race here but she seems to be thriving on her racing. She could have gone the other way from Ascot, but has taken a big step forwards again. She seems to be always hitting the line very hard and I wouldn't rule out going further or taking on the boys. She's a tough filly and a pleasure to ride wherever she goes."

Lightly-raced at three, the fully-mature Nazeef has now had only one fewer outings in the last six weeks than she had in her previous campaign. Off the mark over seven furlongs on this track last June, she went on to take a Chelmsford mile novice contest in early September before scoring by six lengths in a handicap on fast ground on the Rowley Mile here later that month.

Richard Hannon and John Gosden, trainers respectively of Billesdon Brook and Nazeef, after the Falmouth | Racing Post

Getting seven pounds from Billesdon Brook in the June 3 Listed Snowdrop Fillies' S. on Kempton's Polytrack on her 4-year-old bow, she beat that G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Sun Chariot S. heroine by 3/4 of a length before upstaging Agincourt (Ire) (Declaration of War) in a tight finale to the Duke of Cambridge.

Putting clear water between her and Agincourt here while showing that she could best Billesdon Brook on level terms, Nazeef arguably has further significant progress within her scope to continue to reward the decision by her owner-breeder to break habit and keep her in training. Trainer John Gosden admitted to being surprised that she was able to beat the June 16 G1 Queen Anne S. runner-up afterwards. "I just don't think Terebellum ran her race, but she'll be fine. She seemed to have it won, but she didn't finish the race off in the way you would have expected her to do," he said. "The winner is a lovely, brave filly, but I thought Terebellum had it under control.

"They don't work together, but from what we know of them, I thought the betting was correct."

Gosden has a trip to Deauville in mind for the winner now. "The [Aug. 2 G1] Prix Rothschild is the obvious place to go with Nazeef. She is quite lazy and doesn't show you much at home, but she dug deep today and has a great attitude," he added. "Sheikh Hamdan doesn't normally keep 4-year-old fillies in training. He allowed me to do it with this filly and she has now won a Group 1 here and a Group 2 at Royal Ascot, which is great."

Richard Hannon said of Billesdon Brook, "She has run a super race and I'm delighted--she is our most loyal soldier. We will keep going with her. There is the Prix Rothschild and lots of other races. She has run a super race and is as hard as nails and one of the most robust mares ever. She is a star and her owners are immensely proud, as am I."

Pedigree Notes

Nazeef is out of the operation's Handassa (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who captured the Listed Garnet S. on similar ground to that which her daughter encountered here. She is a half to the GII San Gabriel S. winner and GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile third Desert Stone (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and the G3 Darley S. scorer Euginio (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who was as versatile ground-wise as Nazeef.

DANDALLA SURVIVES A SCARE IN THE DUCHESS OF CAMBRIDGE

Imperious when taking the G3 Albany S. by storm, Dandalla (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) made her syndicate members sweat in Friday's G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at a rain-afflicted Newmarket but ultimately prevailed to complete the notable double. Reluctant to load and a touch tardy from the gates, the even-money favourite raced up the centre of the track in fourth early before being asked to close by Ben Curtis approaching the two-furlong marker. Working hard to gain the lead a furlong from home, she was unable to put the contest to bed as she had at Royal Ascot on June 19 but kept finding to hold on by a head from the strong-finishing fellow Nick Bradley Racing-owned Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}). The latter, who traded at 28-1 and was completing a dream forecast for her owners, was half a length ahead of the 50-1 shot Santosha (Ire) (Coulsty {Ire}) in third.

"She's tough and game and has a great attitude, but I think the ground was a bit sticky for her today," Curtis said. "It's a bit softer than it was at Ascot and she didn't travel like she did that day. She had a lot of ability and a lot of guts to get home in front. At the end of the race I was trying not to give her too hard a time and do it hands and heels. I could hear them coming, but she had her head down to the floor and held on. She has a great mental attitude, the looks to go with it and evidently the ability to go with that. She has a lot of the ticks needed."

Dandalla and connections after the Duchess Of Cambridge | Racing Post

Soft ground meant that 'TDN Rising Star' More Beautiful (War Front) gave this the swerve and it was also hardly suitable for Dandalla, who had gone to the Royal meeting despite Karl Burke's concerns as to how she would deal with good-to-soft there. Now three-for-three, having won over five furlongs on Newcastle's Tapeta on June 2, the bay was also overcoming a minor setback in the lead-up to this. "She is tough and a very high quality filly," her trainer said. "Ben was adamant the tacky ground didn't help her--she is a good-actioned filly and it was wetter at Ascot, where she got away with it. We had a small issue about 10 days ago with a slight temperature. It wasn't plain sailing going into it and we took a bit of a chance, but we got away with it. Last weekend we weren't sure about running, but she scoped good on Monday and we decided to give it a go, so it's onwards and upwards from here."

Burke is no hurry to back up the winner now and added, "We will give her a short break now, as she has had three quick-ish runs. The [G1] Prix Morny is in the middle of August, so we have got a bit of time and we can give her two or three weeks and prep her for that. She is in the [G2] Prix Robert Papin, but wouldn't go there. There is the [G2] Lowther at York, but she has a Group 2 penalty now and it makes sense to have a crack at the boys in a Group 1 if she is fit and well. It is amazing to get another good one so quickly after Laurens."

Pedigree Notes

Burke had talked about the mile Classics as feasible targets for Dandalla next spring following her Royal Ascot win, but this was not the performance of a filly in need of further and the suggestion from her pedigree is that it is more unlikely than likely that she possesses stamina for a mile. One of the dam's half-sisters was the Italian listed scorer Konkan (Ire) (Aussie Rules), who was stretched at that trip, but there is hope from another of her half-siblings as the listed-placed Cortese (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}) was a stayer. Further back is Ballymacoll Stud's G1 Prix du Cadran-winning stout stayer Sought Out (Ire) (Rainbow Quest), dam of the G1 Epsom Derby hero North Light (Ire) and another smart performer more in her mould in Cover Up (Ire) (Machiavellian). Also related to the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud-winning sire Gamut (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), Chellalla (GB) (Elnadim) has a yearling filly by Divine Prophet (Aus) to follow.

K CLUB RULES AT HAMBURG

With Germany's leading sprinter Namos (Ger) (Medicean {GB}) waging war in Saturday's G1 July Cup, the stage was vacated for another of the domestic brigade to enjoy the limelight and Stall Walzertraum's K Club (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) was not waiting for a second invitation on Friday. Beaten a short head by that rival when runner-up in Baden-Baden's G3 Silberne Peitsche over six furlongs on May 23, the filly had tried seven and five subsequently but was back in her comfort zone as she gained a first black-type success in this G3 Grosser Preis von LOTTO Hamburg. Sent off the 29-10 second favourite, the bay was restrained leaving the stalls and had all rivals in front at halfway. Delivered up the centre of the straight to collar the long-time leader Zargun (Ger) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) 150 metres from the post, she asserted for a ready 1 1/4-length success.

K Club, who started her career with Richard Hannon before moving to the Jens Hirschberger stable and onto her current base at Erika Mader's, had achieved three listed placings before her career-best effort in the Silberne Peitsche. She is the first foal out of Big Boned (Street Sense) with the second being Sunday's Listed Sweet Mimosa S. runner-up Back To Brussels (Ire) (Starspangledbanner (Aus). A half to the stakes winner and GIII Commonwealth S. runner-up Cool Bullet (Red Bullet) and the GIII Lexington S. third Casper's Touch (Touch Gold), the dam descends from Windy's Daughter (Windy Sea) who captured the Mother Goose and Acorn. COMING IN THREES

Enjoying days in the sun during the last decade with Lethal Force (Ire) and Harry Angel (Ire), it did not take long for Clive Cox to unearth another star sprinter and the former's son Golden Horde (Ire) looks to emulate his achievement in winning the G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket on Saturday. Dynamic when winning the G1 Commonwealth Cup on similar ground at Royal Ascot on June 19, last year's G2 Richmond S. winner and G1 Middle Park S. runner-up gets six pounds weight-for-age from the older brigade and 3-year-olds have won three of the last four editions. His trainer said he believes the Commonwealth Cup will have brought him on. "I think mentally with a sprinter, it's more important than anything to have a proper race," Cox said of AlMohamediya Racing's chestnut. "It's great we've got that run under our belt and we've won his Group 1, which is fabulous. I have every confidence he's bound to have taken a step forwards mentally as much as anything for having that race."

"He's going in here with a very helpful weight-for-age allowance and I think physically he's in good nick," the Lambourn handler added. "It's a formula that works--it's tried and tested and I believe in it very much, but as an individual this fellow is extremely mature and strong as a 3-year-old. Lethal Force was helped by the extra maturity of being a 4-year-old, but with the allowance Golden Horde is going to be a worthy favourite.

"It's a pleasure to know we've won it in the past, but it's all about being in the right races with the right horses and I'm just so thrilled we've got a horse of this calibre to follow in the footsteps of the likes of Harry Angel and Lethal Force. He can make his own running, but he got a lead in the Richmond last year so I don't have any particular concerns about tactics."

In a fascinating encounter, the June 20 G1 Diamond Jubilee S. first and third Hello Youmzain (Fr) (Kodiac {GB}) and Sceptical (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) take on the younger generation with the former also applying pressure from the front at Royal Ascot. Last year's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner now races for the partnership of Haras d'Etreham and Cambridge Stud and trainer Kevin Ryan is hoping he can add another major prize to his tally. "He's in good form and we're very happy with him going into the race, but it's another tough race--they've all turned up."

Ryan also saddles Brando (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who was third in this in 2017 and runner-up in 2018. "Brando loves it at Newmarket and has run well in the race before," he added. "The ground will be right for Brando, so we're more than happy with him as well. He's only run 39 times in his life, so he's got low mile mileage for a sprinter. Hello Youmzain was always going to strengthen up in the winter, as he's a big horse and as a sprinter they always do that."

Sceptical would have been pulling off a fairytale win for the Denis Hogan stable in the Diamond Jubilee and Frankie Dettori was castigating himself for committing too early on that occasion. "I felt I went too soon at Ascot--I hit the front and stopped," the rider said. "Denis said he could improve the horse a bit, because he missed one gallop before the race.

"I think perhaps a bit softer footing and me going too soon might have made the difference between winning and losing. The July Cup is the only Group 1 I haven't won in England. It looks a wide-open contest and we're going to try again."

One who could enter the fray from leftfield is the Roger Teal-trained 4-year-old Oxted (GB), a son of the 2012 soft-ground July Cup hero Mayson (GB) who took the G3 Abernant S. over this six-furlong trip on the Rowley Mile on June 5. Last year's champion apprentice Cieren Fallon rides in the race that his father never managed to win, which adds extra spice. "He is going into the race with me really pleased with him at home," Teal said. "He is drawn nine and I think that is okay. I would just like the ground to tighten up a bit. He looked good at the Rowley Mile last time and he was second over here last year."

> HE IS GOING INTO THE RACE WITH ME REALLY PLEASED WITH HIM AT HOME. I WOULD JUST LIKE THE GROUND TO TIGHTEN UP A BIT.
> Roger Teal on Oxted

In the card's G2 bet365 Superlative S., Aidan O'Brien saddles the 'TDN Rising Star' Hudson River (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) whose dam Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) was at home on easy ground. His comfortable debut success in a seven-furlong Curragh maiden on June 28 marked him as potentially special, but he meets several similarly unexposed types from leading stables. One is Prince Faisal's Seventh Kingdom (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a John Gosden-trained relative of the 2017 Superlative winner Gustav Klimt (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who scored by four lengths at Doncaster on June 13. "He has come out of his Doncaster race well and seems in good form at home," Gosden said. "It was on the easy side at Doncaster, so he should handle the ground but obviously it is a huge jump in class. We did think about going for a novice with a penalty, but we thought we would try our luck."

Godolphin have won this three times, including with Dubawi (Ire) in 2004 and with his ill-fated son Quorto (Ire) two years ago. The latter's trainer Charlie Appleby saddles Master of the Seas (Ire), who took a soft-ground maiden over this seven-furlong trip on June 18. "He has come out of his last race well," he commented. "Looking at them on paper, they have all either just broken their maidens or won novices, so we felt he wouldn't look out of place. He has definitely come forward for his last run. The form has worked out okay, because the second horse has come out and won. We liked our horse the last day and the first two pulled well clear. He is very straightforward and the ground will be no problem at all for him."

At Ascot, Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum's Mohaather (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) looks for better fortune then he encountered when seventh in the G1 Queen Anne S. at the Royal meeting on June 16 when he lines up as the favourite for the G2 Summer Mile S. He has significant ground to make up on the third-placed Marie's Diamond (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) on that form, but Shadwell's racing manager Angus Gold said he believes he is better than his finishing position.

'TDN Rising Star' Hudson River steps up to stakes company | Racing Post

"He was unlucky not to be a lot closer," he said. "I'm not saying he would have won it, but he never got a run at them at all. He was in particularly good form going into Ascot. I just hope he is still in as good form now and I see no reason why he wouldn't be. We just hope for a bit of luck and see what he can do."

One who could shake up the exiting order is Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's San Donato (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who returns from a lengthy lay-off having finished third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains on his sole 3-year-old start last May. Andrea Atzeni will be on board the Roger Varian-trained 4-year-old and he said, "He obviously runs well fresh, because he hadn't run for a long time when he ran in the French Guineas--he ran a good race that day behind two very good horses. He has been training well and his work has been very good. He should like the ground and we would be very hopeful he will be competitive.

"His work has been very pleasing, but he is a horse that we have always liked. He did have a hold-up last year, which is why he only ran the once in the French Guineas, but he has been in full training for a bit now and he looks great."

On Sunday, the G1 Qatar Prix Jean Prat takes centre stage and Godolphin's 2019 juvenile champion Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) was one of 11 3-year-olds declared for the seven-furlong test over Deauville's straight track. Third in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket June 6 and runner-up in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Aascot a fortnight later, he bids to follow where Too Darn Hot (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) led 12 months ago and Charlie Appleby issued an upbeat bulletin on Friday. "We have been delighted with Pinatubo going into the Prix Jean Prat. He has put up two gallant performances over a mile, but the drop back to seven furlongs should suit," he said. "We feel that he sees the mile out, but he has just been outstayed on both occasions this season."

Pinatubo has failed to scare off meaningful opposition and will meet a pair of Ballydoyle runners in Arizona (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), two from the Andre Fabre stable in Alson (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) and Tropbeau (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) and also Shadwell's June 18 G3 Jersey S. winner Molatham (GB) (Night of Thunder {Ire}). Appleby is unconcerned and is bullish ahead of the race. "This is hopefully the right race for him to get his head back in front," he said. "We know that the distance is well within his comfort zone and it is his last opportunity to take on three-year-olds only at this level. He is in good order and we will be disappointed if he doesn't win." The official ground at Deauville is expected to be good, with no significant rainfall forecast in the run-up to the fixture.

'PHENOMENAL' CLEARANCE RATE MAINTAINED AT TATTS JULY

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--One of the few sales not to have been ousted from its traditional slot in the turbulent wake of the global pandemic, the Tattersalls July Sale had a markedly different feel this year but it would be hard not to be encouraged at the level of trade across the last two days in Newmarket.

As noted in Thursday's TDN, the clearance rate of 96% was the most extraordinary feature of the first session of the sale and that continued through to its conclusion on Friday afternoon at exactly the same rate. Only six horses put through the ring during the second day left without a new owner, meaning that, from the sale as a whole, 330 of the 344 lots offered were marked as sold.

From the quieter Friday session, another 1,768,900gns was added to the final turnover of 5,940,900gns. The sale's overall average was 18,003gns and the median was 10,000gns.

"For a bloodstock sale conducted under normal circumstances to register a clearance rate in excess of 95% is quite an achievement," acknowledged Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony in his closing statement. "To do so in the current climate and with the prevailing government travel regulations preventing so many regular buyers from attending this week's sales is little short of phenomenal."

The session-topping Pawpaw | Tattersalls

Despite travel being restricted at present, no fewer than 19 different nationalities appeared on the buyers' list, the online bidding facility doubtless playing its part along with tried and trusted relationships with local agents, trainers and vets. That list of nations, which included Australia, America, Hong Kong, Japan, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, the UAE, and Britain's nearer European neighbours is very much down to the hard work done by the Tattersalls team. While it is to their credit, as well as being a badge of honour for the strong international reputation of the quality of Thoroughbred to be found within British racing, it is also a troubling reminder of the woeful state of the country's race funding mechanism. Simply, many owners and trainers are being pushed into a business model which encourages them to trade their best horses abroad in order to remain in operation. When once racing sold the dream of being associated a top-class horse, British racing now relies on its participants playing the bloodstock market and selling that dream to someone else. It is unsustainable for the sport in the long term.

While clearly there are other more pressing concerns for the world in general at present, those worries inspired by the shutdown of racing in Europe for several months as coronavirus stalked the continent have so far not been a major issue in the sales ring. Yes, the breeze-up sector has suffered significant delays and many of the consignors will have taken financial hits when selling horses privately and having to keep other horses for several months longer than usual. But while the breeze-up market was down, that drop was nowhere near as severe as initially feared. Similarly, there was plenty of interest at the middle- and lower-market level for the mixed fare on offer at the July Sale. So far, so good, though undoubtedly the yearling sales will still be approached with caution and concern.

Reflecting on the condensed spring and summer sales season which got underway in mid-June, Mahony said, "There have been four COVID-affected sales which have taken place at Tattersalls in the past three weeks and the clearance rate at every one of them has exceeded 80%. Not for a moment are we pretending that it has been plain sailing at all these sales, but they have all exceeded expectations and have all demonstrated an extraordinary resilience in the face of unprecedented challenges and an enduring appetite for British and Irish bloodstock at all levels of the market."

Friday's closing horses-in-training session was headed by the China Horse Club-owned Pawpaw (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), the winner of a 10-furlong handicap last month for Clive Cox. The 3-year-old (lot 607) will leave that trainer's Lambourn stable for a short move to Paul Webber's Cropredy Lawn in Oxfordshire. Jimmy George conducted the bidding on Webber's behalf and, after securing the gelding for 62,000gns, said, "Paul has been up here all week doing the hard yards, I have just stood here and waved. He should be a fun dual-purpose type."

Another 3-year-old gelding, the dual-winning sprinter Wonderwork (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), will be continuing his racing career in Dubai having been sold from Karl Burke's Spigot Lodge Stables as lot 646 to Alessandro Marconi for 60,000gns.

"The horse has some very good form and Night Of Thunder is on fire, but he comes from a very good trainer so that will be difficult to match," said the agent, who was acting on behalf of Ahmed Bintooq.

Continuing his assessment of the July trade, Mahony added, "Over the two days of the Tattersalls July Sale we have sold horses to buyers from nearly 20 different countries, most of whom have had to explore unconventional ways in which to participate at the sale.

"Our recently introduced live internet bidding platform has added a new dimension and has been consistently used by international buyers, with many others using the telephone bidding service provided by our team on the ground. While the catalogue may understandably have lacked a little of the usual quality and quantity, demand for horses in training and in particular well-bred fillies and mares has given some cause for encouragement in uncertain times. We must thank vendors and purchasers alike, all of whom have shown a determination to keep the wheels of the industry turning in the face of considerable adversity."

The next scheduled auction at Park Paddocks is the new mixed sale on Aug. 25 and 26. The final breeze-up sale of the season is currently set to be staged at Tattersalls Ireland on July 24. On Thursday it was announced that Tattersalls Ireland's Derby Sale, originally set to start next week, would be delayed until Aug. 11 to 13 while visitors from the UK are still required by the Irish government to spend 14 days in isolation on arrival in Ireland.

INCREASED PURSE, CONSOLATION PRIZE FOR IRISH EBF BALLYHANE STAKES

The inaugural Irish EBF Ballyhane S. at Naas Racecourse on Aug. 23 has had its purse upped to €320,000 from €200,000–making it the richest Irish 2-year-old race of the year--and a consolation race has been added due to high demand.

The Irish EBF Ballyhane S., open to the progeny of sires with a median of no more than €75,000 at last year's yearling sales, attracted an initial 563 entries–an Irish record. The winner will receive €150,000 and prizemoney will be paid to all 20 runners, with the final five finishers to receive €2,000.

The Silver Irish EBF Ballyhane S. will be worth €80,000 and will be run on the same card. It will be automatically open to all horses still entered which receive a ballot number in the Irish EBF Ballyhane S., and prizemoney will be paid to 10th place.

The next forfeit date is July 15 with a final forfeit stage on Aug. 18. The fees for the final forfeits have been reduced from €500 each to €200 and €100, respectively.

Joe Foley, owner of Ballyhane Stud, said, 'We have been thrilled with the response to the race and delighted to reward the owners and trainers who have entered with the increased prize money for the main race and with the extra race. There are some exciting 2-year-olds already targeting the contest and it should be a great occasion at Naas in August."

JUST THE JUDGE'S SECOND FOAL DEBUTS

12.45 Newmarket, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT
NASH NASHA (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is one of three Godolphin representatives here but the most significant on breeding as a daughter of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and GI E. P. Taylor S. heroine Just the Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}). She is the second of just three foals out of Just The Judge, who died following complications from colic last year. Charlie Appleby saddles all of the trio in the royal blue and James Doyle takes the ride on this €1-million Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale graduate.

Nash Nasha as a foal at Arqana, where she sold for €1-million and was the sale's joint second most expensive horse | Arqana

2.35 Leopardstown, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 7f 30yT
VAN GOGH (American Pharoah) is the 12th foal out of the 2001 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Imagine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), which makes him a half-brother to the high-class and ill-fated Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill). Aidan O'Brien introduces the February-foaled bay against Khalid Abdullah's Masen (GB) (Kingman {GB}), a Ger Lyons-trained grandson of Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill), and Toshihiro Matsumoto's Toshizou (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a Joseph O'Brien-trained half-brother to last year's Listed Windsor Castle S. winner Southern Hills (Ire) by Galileo's freshman son Gleneagles (Ire).

6.10 Salisbury, £5,400, 3yo/up, 6f 213yT

AMERICAN ENTENTE (War Front) debuts for Stone Farm LLC & Speedway Stables LLC and John Gosden and is a full-sister to the G1 Phoenix S., G1 National S. and G1 Dewhurst S.-winning first-season sire Air Force Blue. Meeting her on this belated debut is Merry Fox Stud Limited's fellow newcomer Tinker Toy (GB) (War Front), a Roger Varian-trained son of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor).

Providing the Denis Hogan yard with a major boost the evening before Sceptical (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) goes into battle in the G1 Juy Cup, Make a Challenge was bouncing back from a flat effort in the G2 Greenlands S. to record a third listed win. Bursting onto the scene with a six-length win in the five-furlong Joe McGrath H. here in September, he followed that with a 4 1/2-length success in the six-furlong Listed Waterford Testimonial S. again at this venue six days before finishing under three-lengths fifth in Ascot's G1 Qipco British Champions Sprint. Sixth in the Feb. 22 Dukhan Sprint at Doha, the bay was back on track when taking the five-furlong Listed Sole Power Sprint at Naas on June 20 before running sixth in the Greenlands back here on June 28.

Out in front in customary style here, he was tackled and passed by Urban Beat inside the last 150 yards but rallied gamely to regain the advantage close home. "It was good to see him back. The last day was a bit of a mess," Hogan said. "A few times we rode him too forward over six, including on Champions Day at Ascot last year. It was more me than [jockey] Joe [Doyle] last time, as I decided to change it up but we just disappointed him. There wasn't a lot of pace up front and he was disappointed when he had so much to do. Joe was adamant to ride him this way today and he was right--we were beaten but he dug deep to get back up. There is a fair chance he'll be supplemented for the [G2] Sapphire here next weekend.

The long-term target is the [G1] Prix de l'Abbaye and we're hoping for soft ground there. There is the [G1] Flying Five here and a lot of options in the UK. Joe rides him every day at home and he does a great job with him as he can be a hard ride at home. He knows him better than anyone and it was his tactics that worked out there."

Make a Challenge is one of three winners from four runners for the unraced Crinoline (Street Cry {Ire}), a half-sister to the G1 Phoenix S. and G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Saoirse Abu (Mr. Greeley) from the family of the multiple Grade I-winning champion It's In the Air (Mr. Prospector). She is the ancestress of the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Balanchine (Storm Bird), the G1 Prix de Diane winner West Wind (GB) (Machiavellian) and the dual G1 Dubai World Cup hero Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}).

1st-Curragh, €19,470, Mdn, 7-10, 2yo, 6fT, 1:13.44, yl.
TERESA MENDOZA (IRE) (f, 2, Territories {Ire}--Ceoldrama, by Mr. Greeley) settled into a rhythm behind the leaders after the initial strides and was within range throughout this debut. Cruising up to the front rank on the bridle approaching the final quarter mile, the 18-1 chance was shaken up to seize control entering the final eighth and ridden out late to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Monaasib (GB) (Bobby's Kitten), becoming the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by Invincible Spirit {Ire}). "She's been a nice filly since she got here and all her work has been very progressive and nice," said trainer Ken Condon. "She went through the race nicely and I'm sure she will improve from it. It's nice to be able to come to The Curragh with a nice filly and for her to do that. She's in the [July 19 G2] Balanchine here next week so we'll see how the week goes. That's an indication of where we thought we might be, but they have to go and do it between the white rails. From what she's done at home, we thought she was stakes class and after that she warrants going in that direction. Shane [Foley] said she'd have no trouble going an extra furlong. Shane's riding enough nice ones and he was quite taken with her." Teresa Mendoza is the third of three foals and first scorer produced by a daughter of G3 Oh So Sharp S. victress Raymi Coya (Van Nistelrooy). Herself a granddaughter of GI Spinster S. heroine Try Something New (Hail the Pirates), Raymi Coya is also the dam of Listed Radley S. and Listed Surrey S. runner-up Make Fast (GB) (Makfi {GB}), who in turn produced Thursday's G2 July S. hero Tactical (GB) (Toronado {Ire}). Sales history: €0 RNA Wlg '18 GOFNOV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $11,172.

Curragh, €17,700, Mdn, 7-10, 3yo/up, f, 8fT, 1:40.40, yl.
ETNEYA (IRE) (f, 3, Siyouni {Fr}--Eytarna {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by Dubai Destination), the 16-5 second favourite, broke well from her wide stall and travelled with ease behind the leading trio early. In front approaching the two-furlong pole, the homebred drew away in impressive fashion to score by 3 1/4 lengths from Never Forgotten (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "That was a pleasing performance for a filly having her first run," trainer Dermot Weld said. "She had been working nicely and did it well. She's from a good family and her half-sister was a very good filly for us. Hopefully she is stakes class and she will go next for a black-type race. She's been a late-maturing filly. She has lots of pace, but there is plenty of stamina in the family. If she gets a mile and a half she could be a very talented filly. We'll look at a mile to a mile and a quarter and we'll see how she gets on." The winner is a half-sister to the Listed Platinum S. winner Eshera (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) and to Eziyra (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who captured five group races for this stable including the G2 Blandford S. and was third in the G1 Irish Oaks, G1 Hong Kong Vase and G1 Yorkshire Oaks, Hwt. Older Mare-Ire at 11-14f, MGSW & G1SP-Ire, G1SP-Eng, G1SP-HK, $754,699. Her listed-placed dam is out of the triple listed scorer and G3 Killavullan S. runner-up Ebaziya (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), whose four individual Group 1 winners are headed by the stakes-producing G1 Irish Oaks heroine Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and the G1 Ascot Gold Cup-winning pair Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}). Ebaziya's full-sister Ezilla (Ire) is in turn the second dam of the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. heroine Taghrooda (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). Also featuring in the pedigree is the same connections' 'TDN Rising Star' and Irish Oaks entry Eldama (Ire), like this winner by Siyouni. Eytarna also has an as-yet unraced 2-year-old filly by Gleneagles (Ire) named Eylara (Ire) and a yearling filly by Almanzor (Fr). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $10,157.

A DARING STAND FOR GENDER EQUALITY

Swiss Skydiver | Coady

by Chris McGrath

In theory, all horses are created equal. Then stuff happens. Between their genes, accidents of life, and the designs of those who raise and train them, they develop strengths and flaws. And we end up, like George Orwell's pigs, with "some animals more equal than others."

After hundreds of years of observation, however, we have concluded that one half of the breed is born with an athletic superiority over the other. And we duly grant Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) a five-pound concession for daring to square up to males in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S. Saturday.

Her participation redeems afresh a race that had lost its bearings twice over: first when Keeneland's spring meet was called off; and then when Maxfield (Street Sense), having promised to turn the revised Classic calendar to opportunist and thrilling advantage, glumly returned to the sidelines.

The first six names engraved on the Blue Grass roll of honor include Bull Lea, Bimelech and Shut Out, while a Round Table or Northern Dancer or Spectacular Bid would reliably maintain standards every few years thereafter. But the race palpably suffered from that experiment with a synthetic surface which--whatever its benefits--was perceived to invalidate its purpose as a rehearsal for a GI Kentucky Derby on dirt. Three years ago, the Blue Grass was relegated to Grade II level.

SAEZ TESTS POSITIVE FOR COVID-19; TAKEN OFF KEENELAND MOUNTS

After riding the second race at Keeneland today, where he finished second aboard Fortuna (Medaglia d'Oro), jockey Luis Saez received a positive result back from a COVID-19 test he took on Thursday at Keeneland, and was removed from the remainder of his mounts. The news was confirmed by Keeneland's Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Vince Gabbert. Since July 4, Saez has ridden at four different tracks--Keeneland, Belmont, Indiana Grand, and Los Alamitos.

"Based on the protocols we set up, we had him and several others isolated based on the areas in which they have been riding," said Gabbert, who explained that Keeneland is currently operating with four jockeys rooms to keep people together who had already been together and to maximize social distancing.

Good Magic (Curlin) soon initiated a revival, however, when beaten at Churchill only by a Triple Crown winner; and last Saturday the 2019 winner, Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}), reiterated his elite caliber in the GI Met Mile. The boldness of the Swiss Skydiver team, then, duly completes a good week for this historic prize.

With a GI Kentucky Oaks gate long secured, trainer Kenny McPeek and owner Peter Callahan have asked themselves how her world might look if she also had 100 starting points for the Derby. In partly attributing the decision to the fact that he already had Envoutante (Uncle Mo) for the GI Central Bank Ashland S., McPeek will have made some people wonder how patrons of bigger barns reconcile themselves to horses in different ownership being "socially distanced" in this way.

But McPeek is always animated sooner by adventure than petty strike-rates and, once the idea was floated, it always seemed likely that Swiss Skydiver would try to add an audacious new chapter to what is already a remarkable tale. When she first blossomed in the spring, remember, McPeek gave earnest consideration to filling the Oaks void by shipping for a Classic in Newmarket instead.

REGALLY BRED PER CAPITA SELLS AS HIP 85 AT FASIG-TIPTON HORA

By Gainesway's super sire Tapit and a full-brother to graded stakes winners Anchor Down and Iron Fist, Per Capita enters Monday's Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale off a maiden-breaking score for trainer Chad Brown at Churchill Downs May 24. He will be offered as hip 85 through the Gainesway consignment.

The 4-year-old, who was making just his fourth lifetime start in that one-mile maiden special weight in Louisville, put in three works at Churchill in June.

"I think he's got significant racing potential and appreciation," said Gainesway's Michael Hernon. "He's really coming around now and he likely has graded stakes ability. He won well and he's worked very solidly since at Churchill. He's a sound, promising racehorse with a top physical backed up with a very strong stallion's pedigree."

Per Capita | Coady

Per Capita's appeal to perspective buyers extends beyond the racetrack to his residual value as a stallion. The handsome chestnut is a son of graded stakes winner Successful Outlook (Orientate), who has also produced GI Test S. winner Sweet Lulu. His full-brother Anchor Down, who stands at Gainesway, was a two-time graded stakes winner and was second in the GI Metropolitan H.

"He is a son of the great Tapit who is having a terrific year this year with six graded stakes winners already," Hernon said. "And Tapit is rapidly becoming a sire of sires with the likes of Constitution, Tapizar, Flashback, etc. His mother won two of three, including a graded stakes, and she's bred the high-class Grade I winner Sweet Lulu and the very good New York graded stakes winning miler Anchor Down, as well as the millionaire Iron Fist. So he's got built-in residual value."

Thinking big, paradoxically enough, means postponing Swiss Skydiver's first crack at a Grade I. The butterfly first emerged from her chrysalis with a GII Gulfstream Park Oaks success that was widely credited, at the time, to her control of slack fractions; she then won a Grade III race–Oaklawn's Fantasy S.--overloaded by the compression of national opportunity in Hot Springs; and saw off just three pursuers in the GII Santa Anita Oaks. But there's no doubt that success here would do much to illuminate this bleakest of seasons, setting up either a showdown with the lightning bolt Gamine (Into Mischief) in the Oaks; or a bid to emulate Winning Colors, Genuine Risk and Regret in the Derby.

Daredevil | Louise Reinagel

Either would represent a remarkable prospect for a filly McPeek found for $35,000 as Hip 2997 at Keeneland September and must be causing fresh excitement for the Idaho gentlemen who managed to persuade the purchasers of her dam Expo Gold (Johannesburg)--for just $15,000 at the CTBA January Sale last year--to take a modest profit in a private sale. TDN recently featured how one of them, Var Reeve, cherishes the mare as a memorial to his mentor in this business, Clay Murdock, the Rancho San Miguel manager whose premature death last September so grieved the Californian bloodstock community. Expo Gold is still only 12 so, with luck, this legacy will only grow richer.

Nor, perhaps, will she prove the only case of sellers' remorse. Daredevil never really built on the impression he made winning the GI Champagne S. on his second start, when clearly at home on the slop, but he has a good pedigree and WinStar put Expo Gold into both his opening books. But while his third season was actually his busiest, with 140 mares, his abandonment last year was jaw-dropping even by the notoriously puerile standards of commercial breeders who dread nothing so much as a stallion about to demonstrate whether or not his stock can actually run. He was dignified with a grand total of 21 mares. Cont. p5

So when Daredevil mustered no more than 13 juvenile winners from last year, that was that. By the time his second foal out of Expo Gold reached Keeneland in September, Southern Racing were able to buy Swiss Skydiver's young brother for just $4,000. In November it was announced that Daredevil was on his way to Turkey.

But Swiss Skydiver is not his only parting shot. One of his sons, a $30,000 yearling last fall, was pinhooked for $400,000 at OBS March; and earlier this week Shedaresthedevil won her second graded stakes in the GIII Indiana Oaks.

Daredevil would hardly be the first exported stallion to leave a rebuke or two among his indigenous stock. And you can't win them all. WinStar made a terrific signing this week in Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike), a top-class racehorse whose graded stakes-placed dam is by Giant's Causeway out of a sister to Candy Ride (Arg).

For Daredevil himself, meanwhile, fulfilment may yet await if he fares as well in Turkey as Expo Gold's damsire, Strike the Gold--still the leading active stallion there when he died at 23. Strike the Gold remains the last Blue Grass winner to follow up in the Derby. If Expo Gold's daughter were to menace that barren streak, on a card also containing three Grade Is confined to females, then Keeneland will have staged a Ladies' Day with barely a frock in the house.

Gabbert continued, “The procedure when someone tests positive is they vacate the premises, and take all of their tack. We had regular cleaning already in place, and there will be some additional cleaning in areas where he might have been. He is off his mounts for the rest of the day, and he’ll go into isolation and have to do his followup.”

Gabbert said that Keeneland’s four jockeys rooms limits the contact jockeys have with others coming from other parts of the country. “Tomorrow, for example, Mike Smith and Flavien Prat are coming in to ride from California, and are only riding the one day, and they will be separated together. The same goes for jockeys who had been riding in New York and Indiana.”

While Gabbert declined to say what jockeys Saez might have interacted with, he said that everyone with whom the jockey had been in contact had been notified. “We’ve gone through all of the contact tracing measures, and luckily for the jockeys, their contact is very minimal. We have had testing set up here each morning, so people who are shipping in, trainers, jockeys, have the availability to get testing here at Keeneland. The result usually comes back same day.” Cont. p6

QUEEN OF GOD COULD GO FROM FASIG-TIPTON HORA TO KENTUCKY OAKS

When it comes to 3-year-old fillies, it gets no bigger or more important than the GI Kentucky Oaks. It's the race everyone wants to be in and the ticket into the race could come with the purchase of Queen of God, Hip 152 in Fasig-Tipton's July Horses of Racing Age Sale.

Queen of God earned 20 Kentucky Oaks points when winning the March 14 Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway Park.

"If you are looking for a filly that could get you to the Oaks, certainly this is one that has a leg up on some other horses with her points," said Sean Tugel, the director of bloodstock services for the consignor, WinStar Farm. "This was a last-minute decision by the owners to throw her in the sale and see if anybody wanted to buy a filly with the features she has."

Queen of God | Coady

Even if Queen of God doesn't make it into the Oaks, there should be plenty of spots where she can win additional black type. A winner of four of eight career races, she's won on both turf and over the synthetic surface at Turfway. She's never run on the dirt, but Tugel said that could be part of the future for a filly who is by Paynter out of a Meadowlake mare.

"Her pedigree suggests she is a dirt filly," he said. "She was excelling on the turf so they kept her on the turf and the Polytrack. She works on the dirt and works great on the dirt."

Trained by Mike Maker, Queen of God appears to be going in the right direction. She ran career best Beyer numbers in her last two starts, the Bourbonette Oaks and the Tepin S., indicating that the best for this young filly may be yet to come.

Since Keeneland opened on Wednesday for a five-day summer meeting, Saez has ridden three horses at Keeneland; Fortuna on Friday and Habitus (Kitten's Joy) on Thursday for trainer Graham Motion; and Exult (Noble Mission {GB}) on Thursday for Rodolphe Brisset.

Saez rode at Belmont Park July 3; then Los Alamitos Racecourse July 4, taking the GII Los Alamitos Derby aboard Uncle Chuck (Uncle Mo); was back in New York for Belmont's July 5 card; then rode eight races on the GIII Indiana Derby card at Indiana Grand July 8, notching two stakes victories.

The photo of Saez in the winner's circle after Copper Nickel (Stroll)'s score in Hoosier Breeders Sophomore S. on Wednesday night shows a maskless Saez with 11 others in close proximity in the picture. No one in the photo is wearing a mask. Graham Motion, who trained two of Saez's mounts at Keeneland this week, said that he had remained at his home base of Fair Hill in Maryland, and had not traveled to Keeneland so had not been in contact with Saez. "The contact my staff had with him was minimal," he said. "They wouldn't have actually touched anything but his tack."

Still, Motion raised an alarm about complacency and differing protocols in different parts of the country. "I think in general, it's a sign that we need to run a tighter ship," he said. "Perhaps everybody has got to stop moving around as much for their own well being. We're putting a lot of pressure on everyone, including the jockeys."

"There are a lot of complications here," he said. "But look, we suffer again because we don't have a governing body. Of course everybody is trying to do the right thing, but every track has different protocols."

Gabbert said Keeneland had set up and followed its protocols, and will continue to make improvements on them for the September sale. “We’ve had our protocols in place, and we’ve followed them,” said Gabbert. “Procedurally, I’ve been pleased. There are a few little tweaks we can make on our set up, but our staff has done a good job putting things in place.”

Saez is the regular rider of Maximum Security (New Year’s Day), and was supposed to ride the champion in his first start for Bob Baffert in the GII San Diego H. at Del Mar next Saturday.

Several tracks have put restrictions in place limiting the movement of jockeys riding at their facilities. Patrick McKenna, a spokesman for NYRA, sent the following statement to the TDN.

“NYRA discourages jockeys from riding in other jurisdictions due to the troubling inconsistency of COVID-19 safety protocols in many states around the country. Any jockey traveling out of New York State to ride will be required to provide NYRA with a negative COVID-19 test in order to gain access to NYRA property and resume any and all activities related to morning training or afternoon racing. The COVID-19 test must be administered in New York at the conclusion of the period of travel. This policy has been in place since the resumption of live racing at Belmont Park on June 3.

“NYRA will follow current C.D.C. and New York State Health Department guidance when determining the return of a jockey who has tested positive for COVID-19. This process is often lengthy and generally includes a period of quarantine of varying length depending on the individual case followed by a series of diagnostic tests that rule out any ongoing infection. NYRA will consider allowing a jockey to resume racing or training activities on NYRA property only when his/her physician has provided clearance to do so.”

WAR OF WILL BACK TO WINNING WAYS IN MAKER’S MARK MILE by Alan Carasso

Looking for his first trip to the winner’s circle since annexing the GI Preakness S. some 14 months ago, Gary Barber’s War of Will (War Front) did it toughest, but called on all his class and determination to scratch out a short-head success in the GI Maker’s Mark Mile as the Keeneland summer meeting reached its mid-point Friday.

Drawn widest in the field of 10, the handsome blaze-faced bay raced three off the fence leaving the stretch for the first time and punched the breeze from up close as High Crime (Violence) set sensible fractions of :23.19 and :46.91 in advance of fellow longshot Parlor (Lonhro {Aus}).

High Crime carried a tenuous advantage into the final two furlongs, but Parlor raced under a long Florent Geroux hold as they reached the entrance to the straight and struck to the front an eighth of a mile from the line. Parlor led grimly into the final 50 yards and was looking for the line, but War of Will was kept to his task by Preakness-winning rider Tyler Gaffalione and got home half a head to the good. Favored Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) sat a midfield trip and hit the line with good energy to be third, just in advance of his fast-finishing stablemate Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

War of Will (pink jacket) | Coady

War of Will failed to regain the form that saw him score at Old Hilltop in four subsequent appearances last season, his best effort coming when a close third to upstart Math Wizard (Algorithms) in the GI Pennsylvania Derby in September. Ninth after setting the pace in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, he resumed in the GI Shoemaker Mile S. at Santa Anita May 25, crossing the line fifth before being demoted to sixth behind Raging Bull.

"Coming into this race, if you'd asked me two weeks ago, I was a little bit nervous," admitted David Carroll, assistant to trainer Mark Casse. "I didn't think he was training quite as sharp as he could. But his last work was like, 'OK he's back.' I felt a lot more confident. We're happy to see him back on turf; he's bred for it. Felt like today with the pace scenario he'd be laying close, and what a ride for Tyler. It was an unbelievable race."

Pedigree Notes:

War of Will is the fourth of his tremendously successful sire's offspring to win the Maker's Mark Mile in the last nine years (Data Link--2012; Gary Barber's Jack Milton--2015; American Patriot--2017) and was led out unsold at Keeneland September in 2017 before changing hands post-RNA. He fetched €250,000 from Justin Casse at the Arqana May Breeze-Up Sale the following spring.

War of Will is one of 21 top-level scorers for War Front, of which fully six are out of mares by Sadler's Wells (3) or his prodigious son Galileo (Ire) (3). The stakes-winning Visions of Clarity is a half-sister to Spinning World (Nureyev), who carried the Flaxman silks and Cash Asmussen to a two-length victory in the 1997 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood Park. Visions of Clarity is also a half-sister to Rangoon Ruby (Kingmambo), the dam of 2007 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe third Sagara (Sadler's Wells). War of Will's third dam includes Eclipse Award-winning sprinter and GI Met Mile hero Aldebaran (Mr. Prospector); GISW Good Journey (Nureyev); and Sea of Showers (Seattle Slew), who won the 2003 Jenny Wiley S. when it was contested as a Grade III.

War of Will has an unraced 3-year-old half-brother named Visionit (Tapit) and a yearling half-brother by American Pharoah. Visions of Clarity was bred back to War Front during the most recent breeding season.

Hammered into heavy favoritism with a recency edge over the come-backing 'TDN Rising Star' Wicked Whisper (Liam's Map), Whitham Thoroughbreds's Four Graces proved the easy winner of Friday's GIII Beaumont S., stopping the clock in a stakes and track-record clocking of 1:24.90 for the extended seven-furlong distance.

Ridden for speed by Julien Leparoux over a track that had been playing kindly to front-end types, the homebred half-sister to McCraken (Ghostzapper) set a pressured pace from last year's GI Frizette S. winner Wicked Whisper, as they whistled through an opening half-mile in :44.37. Cont. p10

Four Graces stiff-armed the challenge of Wicked Whisper, having won the battle, and managed to win the war as well, coming home well clear of Sconsin. Brereton C. Jones's Turtle Trax completed the trifecta for stallions who stood/stand at Jones's Airdrie Stud. The aforementioned McCraken also stands at Airdrie.

"She's a fast filly," Leparoux said. "The track is pretty quick today too. But she was doing it very nicely for me in a good rhythm. That's the way she likes to run--free--and she makes that big kick at the end... I'm surprised we broke the track record, really. But she's getting much better right now and she's doing very good."

Four Graces was registering her second straight graded win, having posted a 2 1/2-length victory in the GIII Dogwood S. at Churchill June 6. She was a debut winner at Gulfstream Mar. 1, but settled for fourth attempting a one-turn mile there Apr. 10. She bounced back with a Churchill optional claiming tally over a strong group that included Sconsin, subsequent GIII Iowa Oaks runner-up Aurelia Garland (Constitution), and two other next-out allowance winners.

Trainer Ian Wilkes, who saddled the first and third home, said the winner would likely be aimed for next month's GI Longines Test S. at Saratoga.

Pedigree Notes:

Majesticperfection, now standing in Uruguay after beginning his career in Kentucky at Airdrie, will be represented Saturday at Keeneland by Bret Jones-bred MGSW Bell's the One in the GI Madison S. Four Graces is one of five winners from as many foals to race and three graded performers out of Ivory Empress, who was second in the 2010 GIII Endine S. for these same connections. Ivory Empress is out of GSW and GISP Madame Pandit, making her a half to GISW Mea Domina (Dance Brightly). She has a 2-year-old colt named Milliken (Into Mischief) who has five published breezes at Churchill Downs and produced a full-sister to 'Rising Star' McCraken Mar. 31.

FIELD OF 13, HEADED BY FILLY SWISS SKYDIVER, SET FOR BLUE GRASS

Peter Callahan's streaking Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) will take her shot at the GI Kentucky Derby trail as she faces males for the first time in a loaded field of 13 set for Saturday's GII Toyota Blue Grass S. Keeneland.

No filly has won the Blue Grass and only one (Harriet Sue finished fifth in 1944) has run in the race since it debuted during the track's inaugural spring meet in April 1937.

Swiss Skydiver, trained by Ken McPeek, certainly has the credentials. She's won her last three starts in impressive fashion at three different racetracks–the GII Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 28, the GIII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn May 1 and the GII Santa Anita Oaks June 6. She earned a career-best 99 Beyer Speed Figure while defeating GI Central Bank Ashland S. 6-5 morning-line favorite Venetian Harbor (Munnings) in the Fantasy.

"[Swiss Skydiver is] doing super," McPeek said of the 3-1 morning-line favorite. "She gets weight [five pounds] from all these colts. I think she's going to like the added distance. I like the mile and an eighth better than the mile and a sixteenth [distance of the Ashland]. It'll be exciting."

Art Collector (Bernardini) gets tested for class following a pair of eye-catching victories, including a 6 1/2-length, front-running romp over subsequent good-looking GIII Indiana Derby victor Shared Sense (Street Sense) in an optional claimer going 1 1/16 miles at Churchill Downs June 13.

"He had to earn his way into this spot," trainer Tom Drury Jr. said. "There was a question if he really wants to go two turns, but he checked that box and did it maybe with an exclamation point. He drew away at the end and had his ears up while galloping out afterwards. It is time to jump in to the deep end of the pool and see how he stacks up against this kind."

Mr. Big News (Giant's Causeway), a decent fifth in the split-division GII Risen Star S. Feb. 15, made some big headlines upsetting the Oaklawn S. with a come-from-behind victory at odds of 46-1 last out Apr. 11.

"A lot of people aren't going to believe in him, they think that [the Oaklawn S.] was basically a fluke," trainer Bret Calhoun said. "So yeah, he's got to prove it to everybody. You know, we're seeing him in the mornings, he's proven to us in the afternoons, this is another step forward, and he's a really royal-bred horse and I think he's going to prove himself."

Basin (Liam's Map), winner of last summer's GI Runhappy Hopeful S. at Saratoga, followed a fourth-place finish behind Mr. Big News in the Oaklawn S. with a well-beaten second to the talented Charlatan (Speightstown) in the GI Arkansas Derby May 2.

DeRosa - Indiana Derby Result - Earner was fourth. Bankroll: $3680.

GII Blue Grass S. - Art Collector and Swiss Skydiver are the most likely winners. Not sure if they'll be as far apart in the wagering as the morning line suggests, but the separator for me even at equal odds is Art Collector's breeding. I much prefer Bernardini out of a Distorted Humor mare going long than Daredevil out of a Johannesburg mare. Art Collector looked awesome in both starts at Churchill, and there's no reason to think he can't maintain that form here with one of the game's most underrated trainers in Tommy Drury at the controls. Selection: #3 Art Collector (5-1).

Sherack - Indiana Derby Result - Extraordinary got bet much harder than I was anticipating and could do no better than fifth. Bankroll: $2605.

GII Blue Grass S. - Yes, Art Collector has cashed in on favorable pace scenarios in his last two starts. But, man, has he looked good doing it. Shared Sense's mid-week win in the Indiana Derby certainly makes him look even that much better now. Selection: #3 Art Collector (5-1).

OUT OF THE SHADOWS, DRURY COULD COLLECT FIRST GRADED WIN IN BLUE GRASS

by Bill Finley

There is paying your dues and then there is the story of Tom Drury, Jr.

Thirty-eight years after he started his training career at age 18, Drury will go into Saturday's GII Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland with an outstanding chance of winning a prestigious $600,000 race that could be a gateway to the GI Kentucky Derby. His Art Collector (Bernardini) is the co-second choice on the morning line at 5-1 and is coming off a 6 1/2-length win in an allowance race at Churchill Downs. A win would be Drury's first in a graded stakes.

Tom Drury, Jr. | Coady

Through much of the eighties and nineties, Drury wasn't worried about winning a Blue Grass. He just wanted to make ends meet.

"It took me forever just to win my first race," he said. "There were a couple of years where I didn't win a race at all. This was when I had three or four horses and was having to gallop on the side. I was getting by, but just getting by and that was a long time."

From 1984 through 1988, he won a total of two races. In 1992, he went 0 for 25. He was 0 for 4 in 1994.

Despite his record, Drury had managed to impress the right people. Based at a training center, Skylight Training Center in Goshen, Kentucky, and in need of income, Drury was well positioned to work with other trainers who needed someone to work behind the scenes to get their horses ready for the races. Bill Mott was among the first to use Drury's services. Al Stall, Jr., Frank Brothers and Neil Howard were among other trainers who trusted some of their better horses to Drury. The horses that Drury had a hand in includes: Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike), Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), Lea (First Samurai) and Hansen (Tapit).

Drury tried to do more than just prepare the horses. He made it a priority to take advantage of the opportunity to work with top trainers. He was always watching and learning.

"I have been able to see what the thought process was with these other trainers," he said. "I followed the way they approached training that kind of horse. I I tell people I got a Harvard education because I have been able to work with those guys. That really helped give me confidence."

It didn't happen overnight, but word started to get around that several top trainers were working with Drury and that helped bolster his reputation within the sport. He eventually would have 15 to 20 horses of his own and he started winning races. That led even more owners to give him a chance.

"When people start hearing that you are working for Bill Mott that automatically gives you credibility," he said. "That led to me getting involved with Frankie Brothers and Bruce Lunsford. I've gotten my foot in the door with Claiborne Farm and Spendthrift has given me horses. I feel blessed. We try to do a good job. It's all snowballed into something special."

His numbers steadily improved. He won 39 races in 2018, with a winning rate of 28%. He won with 25% of his starters in 2019, going 35 for 140. But what he lacked was the type of horse that could break through and put him in the winner's circle for an important race. Art Collector represents the type of opportunity that has eluded him for the 38 years he's been in the business.

Art Collector | Coady

Ironically, Art Collector wasn't supposed to land permanently in Drury's barn. Through his 2-year-old season, he was trained by Joe Sharp. Entering the year, Lundsford was looking to make some changes and his intent was to send Art Collector to trainer Rusty Arnold. With Arnold in Florida, the plan was to let Drury oversee Art Collector until Arnold made it back to Kentucky. But COVID-19 complicated Arnold's travel plans, and by the time he got to Kentucky, Drury had already won a May 17 allowance at Churchill with Art Collector. It was decided to just let Drury keep the horse.

His June 13 allowance win at Churchill was the race that put him in the mix for the Blue Grass. It was his first try around two turns on the dirt.

"He certainly answered some questions and really jumped forward," Drury said. "When Brian [Hernandez, Jr.] called on him, he was full of run. We're hoping to see that same kind of performance this weekend."

His opposition Saturday will include Mott, Mark Casse, Steve Asmussen, Dale Romans, etc. For them, running in a $600,000 graded stakes has become routine. For Drury, this is far more than just another race.

"It takes a lot of people to get a horse to any race, let alone the Blue Grass," he said. "For me and my staff, we have been watching from afar with a lot of really good horses. This is our chance to prove ourselves to the world and we are anxiously looking forward to it. For me to be in a situation like this, words can't really describe it. It's a big deal and something I am not taking for granted."

VENETIAN HARBOR TO CATCH IN ASHLAND

Venetian Harbor | Benoit

The speedy Venetian Harbor (Munnings) will look to run five rivals off their feet in Saturday's GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland.

A runaway heroine of Santa Anita's GII Las Virgenes S. Feb. 8, she set a fast pace and only found the streaking GII Toyota Blue Grass S.- bound Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) too tough as the 4-5 favorite in the GIII Fantasy S. going this same distance at Oaklawn last time May 1.

Venetian Harbor fired a five-furlong warning shot in :58 3/5 (1/29) for trainer Richie Baltas at the San Luis Rey Training Center June 27.

Since graduating by nine lengths at Los Alamitos last December, Speech (Mr Speaker) has hooked standouts such as Gamine (Into Mischief), Swiss Skydiver, Donna Veloce (Uncle Mo) and Auberge (Palace) while finishing second in four straight. She completed the exacta behind Swiss Skydiver in the GII Santa Anita Oaks last time June 6.

Juddmonte homebred Bonny South (Munnings) enters riding a three-race winning streak for Brad Cox, led by a breakthrough score in the GII TwinSpires.com Fair Grounds Oaks last time Mar. 21.

Tonalist's Shape (Tonalist), heroine of Gulfstream's GIII Forward Gal S. and GII Davona Dale S. around one turn, made up for a disappointing run in her route debut in the GII Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 28 with a dominating tally in the Hollywood Wildcat S. at this distance last time
May 15. Trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. adds blinkers for her first start outside of the Sunshine State.

The Ashland carries 170 qualifying points (100-40-20-10) for the Kentucky Oaks.

RUSHING FALL BACK TO FAVORITE TRACK FOR JENNY WILEY DEFENSE by Alan Carasso

The 2019 Jenny Wiley was Rushing Fall's fourth stakes success at Keeneland | Coady

Already a four-time stakes winner at Keeneland, eFive Racing Thoroughbreds's 'TDN Rising Star' Rushing Fall (More Than Ready) looks to add to that total in defense of her title in Saturday's GI Coolmore Jenny Wiley S.

Winner of the GIII Jessamine S. at two and the GIII Applachian S. and GI QE II Challenge Cup at three, Rushing Fall controlled the pace in last year's Jenny Wiley, her one-length victory belying the ease with which it was accomplished. The $320,000 FTSAUG acquisition repeated the dose in the GI Just A Game S. last June, but found stablemates Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) and Uni (GB) (More Than Ready) too tough when second and fourth, respectively, in the GI Diana S. at Saratoga and GI First Lady S. at this track. She was uncustomarily off the speed in those two losses, but atoned in no uncertain terms with a pillar-to-post tally for a second consecutive Just A Game June 3.

A Rushing Fall win would take her past Take Charge Lady into second place among Keeneland's all-time stakes winners. Dual Horse of the Year Wise Dan won a remarkable seven black-type races in Lexington.

The very talented Jolie Olimpica (Brz) (Drosselmeyer) adds a layer of intrigue to the race. Perfect in three Brazilian starts, including a Group 1 mile over 'heavy' turf, the chestnut was sensational in winning the GIII Las Cienegas S. on her U.S. debut in January and again when besting next-out GI Jaipur S. victress Oleksandra (Aus) (Animal Kingdom) in the GII Monrovia S. at Santa Anita. In her lone try around two turns, she carried the lead into the final furlong of the GII Buena Vista S., but had no response when confronted late by Keeper Ofthe Stars (Midnight Lute). She has another 110 yards to negotiate here, but her Hall of Fame connections undoubtedly inspire confidence that she is equal to the task at hand.

Fellow California raider Toinette (Scat Daddy) ventures to the Bluegrass for the second time in her career, having handed Rushing Fall her first career defeat in the 2018 GIII Edgewood S. at Churchill. A winner of eight of her 12 career appearances, the two-time Keeneland sales graduate was easily best as the long odds-on favorite in the GII Goldikova S. on Breeders' Cup weekend last November and closed the season with a fourth to Got Stormy (Get Stormy) in the GI Matriarch S. Dec. 1. The dark bay prepped for this with a dominating victory in the GIII Wilshire S. at Santa Anita June 20 and should be in a position to capitalize if either or both of the two chalks fail to deliver their best.

GUARANA TOUGH TO GO PAST IN MADISON by Alan Carasso

'TDN Rising Star' Guarana (Ghostzapper), already a two-time Grade I winner from only five career starts, will look to remain undefeated around one turn in Saturday's GI Madison S. at Keeneland.

Accorded 'Rising Star' status after romping by better than 14 lengths through the local slop last April, the bay defeated GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Serengeti Empress (Alternation) by a half-dozen lengths in the GI Acorn S. last June and successfully stretched to two turns in the GI CCA Oaks at Saratoga the following month. She suffered her first loss when runner-up to Street Band (Istan) in the GI Cotillion S. at Parx in September and was never out of second gear in landing a June 4 Churchill allowance by 5 1/4 lengths. Guarana would become her sire's third Madison winner in the last seven runnings (Judy the Beauty, 2014; Paula'ssilverlining, 2017). Cont. p15

Mia Mischief (Into Mischief), decisive winner of last year's GI Humana Distaff S. going this distance, has retained top form since being purchased by Stonestreet for $2.4 million at Fasig-Tipton November last fall. The 5-year-old is two-for-three this season, having defeated the fleet-footed Amy's Challenge (Artie Schiller) by 4 1/2 lengths in the Apr. 25 Carousel S. at Oaklawn, but she was a well-beaten third behind Bell's the One (Majesticperfection) in the May 30 GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill.

Bell's the One, who is forced to give weight all around under the conditions of the race, got a tremendous set-up in the six-furlong Winning Colors that flattered her off-the-pace running style, as she rolled home to best Break Even (Country Day) by three sound lengths. The waters are considerably deeper here, but she returns to the same track and trip over which she annexed last October's age-restricted GIII Lexus Raven Run S. and the race shape could be in her favor this time as well.

MONOMOY GIRL HEAVILY FAVORED IN GRADED STAKES RETURN

Monomoy Girl | Coady

Champion Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) will face four overmatched rivals in her return to graded competition in Saturday's GII Ruffian S. at Belmont Park.

After missing her entire 4-year-old season due to several different setbacks, the Michael Dubb, Monomoy Stables, The Elkstone Group and Bethlehem Stables colorbearer made her first start since capturing the 2018 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff a winning one, annexing an optional claimer in impressive fashion in the Churchill Downs slop May 16.

Monomoy Girl, winner of the 2018 GI Kentucky Oaks, is a perfect three-for-three at the one-mile distance of the Ruffian. She is the 2-5 morning-line favorite.

"I talked to [trainer] Brad [Cox] today and he's expecting her to run well, she's training as well as she has ever trained," co-owner Sol Kumin said of the five-time Grade I winner. "She obviously ran that first race, but you still have your fingers crossed until Saturday. She's giving all the right signs, and at this point, she has to stay sound and do it. Saturday will be the next step. She went to allowance company, now she's in a Grade II and we'll progress from there."

Hall of Famer Bob Baffert will be represented by the MGISP Mother Mother (Pioneerof the Nile), heroine of this term's Kalookan Queen S. at Santa Anita. She was fourth in the Harmony Lodge S. in the Belmont mud June 5.

DELAWARE HANDICAP GOES THROUGH DUNBAR ROAD

Dunbar Road | Sarah Andrew

Dunbar Road (Quality Road) lays over a field of eight entered for Saturday's GII Delaware H.

Last term's GI Alabama S. and GII Mother Goose S. heroine followed a third-place finish behind Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize) in Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. with her lone career off-the-board finish, reporting home fifth behind that foe in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Santa Anita.

Trained by Chad Brown, the Peter Brant colorbearer got right back on track with a visually impressive, come-from-behind victory while making her 4-year-old debut in the Shawnee S. at Churchill Downs May 23.

Bellera (Bernardini), winner of Aqueduct's GIII Comely S. in late November, returns to dirt for Todd Pletcher following an off-the-board finish as the 2-1 favorite in the grassy Ginger Punch S. versus Florida-breds at Gulfstream June 6. Lucky Move (Lookin At Lucky), second behind Bellera in Aqueduct's Ladies H. Jan. 19, was last seen upsetting the local prep Obeah S. at 42-1 June 17.

Always Shopping (Awesome Again), last year's GII Gazelle S. heroine, and GIII Rood and Riddle Dowager S. winner and GIII Modesty H. runner-up Vexatious (Giant's Causeway) have been cross-entered for Belmont's GII Ruffian S.

G.W.'S SKIPPIE FILLY AMONG TRIO OF BULLET BREEZERS AT OBS FRIDAY

A filly by the late Arkansas-based stallion G.W.'s Skippie was among three juveniles to breeze a furlong in a bullet :10 flat (Hip 803 video) at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's July Sale breeze show Friday morning.

Catalogued as Hip 803, the filly was bred in Arkansas by Jarett Wolfe, who stood her stakes-winning sire G.W.'s Skippie. The daughter of Jena's Gold (Seeking the Gold) was consigned to the sale by Hartley and DeRenzo Thoroughbreds.

"My son got G.W.'s Skippie from Clear Oak Stallions back in Fulsom, Louisiana," Wolfe said. "G.W.'s Skippie hurt his knee in his last race and that finished him up. He is the only stallion we have had and, unfortunately, he passed about a week ago. He was a very, very nice horse. He had a good mind and he put that into his babies too. They try hard."

The other :10 flat workers were Hip 859, a filly by Anchor Down (video), and Hip 864, a colt by Cinco Charlie (video). From the first crop of Anchor Down, Hip 859 was bred by Wynnstay and GWR Consultants. A $40,000 KEENOV weanling, she was purchased by Captiva Bloodstock for $100,000 at Keeneland September. The daughter of Lin Marie (Curlin) was consigned by Julie Davies.

Bred by Linden Branch, Hip 864 is out of Lookin' Foxy (E Dubai), a half-sister to GSW Humoristic (Sefapiano). New Beginnings purchased the colt for $75,000 at FTKJUL and he RNA'd at this venue's March Sale for $112,000. He was consigned by McKathan Bros. Sales that day and returns to that consignment today.

The quickest quarter-mile breezer of the day was Hip 839, a daughter of MGISW Palace, who went in :21 flat. Blue River Bloodstock consigns the filly on behalf of breeder Beth Bayer.

LOS ALAMITOS ON TEN-DAY PROBATION WITH CHRB

by Dan Ross

In an emergency California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) teleconference Friday in the wake of a series of equine fatalities at Los Alamitos, the board voted to put the track on a 10-day probation, while live racing continues, to devise a plan to address various horse welfare issues raised during the meeting.

At the end of those 10 days, the board will reconvene to review the plan. At that point, if the proposed plan doesn't pass muster, the board has the option of suspending the track's racing license.

"I agree that there needs to be a serious review of policies and procedures at Los Alamitos," said CHRB chairman Greg Ferraro. "Not necessarily as a fault of track's management, but I think there is a culture there amongst the practicing veterinarians and trainers that are pushing the envelope when it comes to the safety of these horses."

The sole dissenting vote to the motion came from CHRB board member Wendy Mitchell, who preferred an immediate suspension of Los Alamitos's license while a review occurred.

At the start of the meeting, CHRB executive director Scott Chaney explained his decision to file a petition to hold the emergency meeting, arguing that there has been an increase in equine fatalities during the first six months of this year when compared to the same period the year prior, along with a recent spike.

Since the start of January this year, there have been 14 racing-related fatalities and five training fatalities, Chaney said. "In that same period last year, there were four training fatalities as opposed to five racing fatalities," he said, pointing out that the numbers constitute a near three-fold increase in racing deaths. There have also been nine fatalities at the track since May 26 alone.

Attorney Drew Couto, representing Los Alamitos, urged the board to step back and take a look at the broader picture, pointing out that that the race-day fatality rate at Los Alamitos decreased the most recent fiscal year when compared to the year prior. "That reflected a decrease that has been occurring at Los Alamitos since 2008," said Couto.

Couto noted that some of the fatalities at Los Alamitos this year have been unrelated to racing and training, with 10 due to "gastrointestinal" problems. He also said that the recent cluster in equine fatalities at Los Alamitos have mirrored equine fatality clusters that have occurred at Santa Anita this year.

"Clusters occur, and they are perceived by Los Alamitos as exceedingly unfortunate and of great concern," he said. "Every time they occur, they are examined by track management, and particularly the track crew to determine if there are any issues related to the track."

According to CHRB equine medical director, Rick Arthur, various officials--including respected track manager, Dennis Moore--have voiced no concerns with the track surface. "To be clear, I do not believe that Los Alamitos is an unsafe track," he said

Arthur also said that he disagreed with Chaney's decision to file the petition for the emergency meeting, arguing that while the recent cluster of fatalities is concerning, there are broader issues that factor into any equine fatality.

"What I do see from the preliminary necropsy findings, and what I have reviewed on these cases so far are the same problems we see everywhere in racing: questionable training and horse management and questionable veterinary practices," he said.

Arthur stressed the need for a systematic continuing education program in California, and urged the board to pass additional regulations concerning intra-articular corticosteroid injections.

"I would like to see restrictions on multiple intra-articular injections, and particularly multiple intra-articular injections of cortisone, which we see more commonly at Los Alamitos than other tracks," he said.

Veterinarian Becky Fitzgerald, who conducts all pre-race examinations at Los Alamitos, explained that the program she conducts is comparable to the one at Santa Anita. "We're crossing our T's there and doing the best we can as far as that's concerned," she said.

Ferraro asked if additional examining veterinarians would make the system more efficient.

Fitzgerald responded that being Los Alamitos's sole veterinarian works to her advantage, giving her a thorough history and understand of each horse at the track. "I know these horses like the back of my hand," she said, emphasizing how many Los Alamitos-based trainers voice frustration with her strict ethos when it comes to pre-race exams. "I scratch plenty of horses at the end of the day."

The Long Beach-located racetrack is primarily associated with Quarter Horse racing, though many Thoroughbred trainers operate a barn at the facility. During the COVID-19-related suspension of racing at other California racetracks, Los Alamitos was given the green-light to remain operational and posted additional Thoroughbred races during its regular evening Quarter Horse cards.

A brief daytime Thoroughbred meet recently concluded without an equine fatality

The emergency meeting--the petition for which Chaney filed early Thursday morning--is the first time the CHRB has exercised its authority afforded through SB 469, a state bill passed last year giving the board the ability to provide just a day's public notice for a meeting to discuss the possible suspension of a racing license. Prior to that, the CHRB had to provide 10 days public notice.

The bill was passed in the aftermath of the Santa Anita welfare crisis that erupted during the first half of last year. At the height of the crisis, the board was under intense public pressure to immediately suspend live racing at the track--a move the board was unable to make, if it wanted, due to the former regulatory constraints.

ELLIS PARK INCREASES TRACK, RACING PROTOCOLS

Ellis Park Racing & Gaming has increased track and racing protocols in compliance with Governor Andy Beshear's order requiring facial coverings to be worn at all times in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Ellis Park has been requiring masks for all patrons since July 6--three days earlier than the official government mandate. All employees and backside personnel have been required to wear masks since the June 8 reopening of the racing and gaming operation.

"Governor Beshear's actions will make it easier for us to keep our guests, our team, and the entire community safer," general manager Jeffrey Inman said. "It is important to remember that confirmed cases are spiking elsewhere in the United States, so we applaud Governor Beshear's decision to further protect our residents and we are making considerable efforts to provide a safer environment for our guests."

Backside, trackside and racing protocols have also been increased. All backside entrants, including jockeys, who do not transfer to Ellis Park directly from another Kentucky track will be required to provide a negative COVID-19 test result taken within 48 hours before being admitted to Ellis Park.

"With the uptick in active cases, and the highly mobile nature of the jockey community, we felt it was better to require a negative test before allowing them on the premises," Inman said. "In addition, we now have access to tests with same-day results."

The 98th season at Ellis Park, the Runhappy Summer Meeting, runs July 17 through Aug. 30.

TRAINER AKIKO GOTHARD PASSES AWAY

Akiko Gothard | Horsephotos

Akiko Gothard, who trained K One King (Apalachee) to an eighth-place effort in the 1999 GI Kentucky Derby and a victory in the 2000 GI Oaklawn H., passed away July 6 in Lexington, the Blood-Horse reported. She was 89 years old.

Born Akiko Ozeki, she was married to Don McVarish, an American soldier, in her native Japan, relocating to the United States in 1956. Gothard served as a liaison in helping Japanese buyers at Keeneland. She became a trainer in the 1990s, saddling 347 winners from 2,008 starters for earnings of $5.8 million, according to Equibase statistics. She took over the training of Secreto's Hideaway (Secreto) from her then husband Marvin in late 1993 and promptly sent him out to annex that year's Listed River City H. at Churchill Downs. Secreto's Hideaway would go on to add a pair of stakes at Turfway the following season.

K One King was easily the best horse in Gothard's career, as he won the Presidents S. by six lengths and the John Battaglia Memorial S. by nine lengths before finishing runner-up to Stephen Got Even in the colors of Madeleine and Allen Paulson in the GII Galleryfurniture.com S. Beaten just over four lengths by Charismatic in the Run for the Roses, he won his first two starts at four, including a brave defeat of 1999 G1 Dubai World Cup hero Almutawakel (GB) in the Oaklawn H. She retired from training following the 2015 season.

According to Blood-Horse, Gothard is survived by her daughter Kay Boudinot and her husband Jim, two grandchildren, three siblings and an extended family in Japan.

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: $510K PIONEEROF THE NILE COLT DEBUTS AT KEE

by Christina Bossinakis

2nd-KEE, $70K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:39 p.m. ET

John Oxley's PALAZZI (Pioneerof the Nile) makes his career debut for trainer Mark Casse. Out of the stakes-winning and multiple graded-placed sprinter Kindle (Indian Charlie), the $510,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling graduate is a half to two-time winner Made in America (Tiznow). A year earlier, Palazzi realized $375,000 at Keeneland in November, while his year-younger brother, by American Pharoah, brought $2.2 million at that venue in September. Also worthy of note is first-time starter Swill (Munnings), trained by Brad Cox, who has a 18% strike rate with his juvenile firsters. Campaigned by Kueber Racing and Ten Strike Racing, the bay was a $265,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearling purchase, making him the second highest-priced offspring and the top-priced colt by Munnings sold at auction in 2019. TJCIS PPs

Klaravich Stables' ABUSE OF POWER (Karakontie {Jpn}) debuts for trainer Chad Brown following a series of four works over the seaside track's dirt oval. A $460,000 OBS April juvenile purchase after breezing a furlong in :10 flat, the grey is the top-priced of 15 juveniles sold by the sire in 2019. Stakes-placed dam Oblivious (Cozzene) is already responsible for the stakes-winning Street Storm (Stormy Atlantic). TJCIS PPs

Liam's Pride came from off the pace to collect his first black-type victory in Friday's Gold Fever S. at Belmont. A two-wide fourth through an opening quarter in :21.65, the grey picked up the tempo noticeably entering in the final turn and was four wide at the quarter pole.

Given some stiff encouragement by Dylan Davis through the lane, the Doug O'Neill trainee battled with Long Weekend and Wondrwherecraigis, stationed along his inside, but it was Liam's Pride that proved best en route to a head score.

"He broke well and I loved what I saw in front of me, a little duel," said winning rider Dylan Davis. "He kind of ranged up a little earlier than I thought, but it was okay with this track so I decided to let him do that. At the quarter pole, I pulled him off and let him focus on what was in front of him."

Wondrwherecraigis crossed the wire ahead of Long Weekend, however, the the final order of those two was reversed after the former was determined to have initiated some bumping late. Moments after the race, Davis said he wasn't concerned about the inquiry after racing outside of rivals down the lane.

"I went to the left hand and they decided to kind of drift out in front of me," he said. "I wasn't worried. I knew there might have been a little bit of action with the inquiry involved, but I was sure I was okay."

Liam's Pride graduated at fourth asking going six furlongs at Oaklawn Mar. 7, then finished fourth in his next two at the Hot Springs oval, including optional claiming company Apr. 24. Sent off at long odds for his stakes bow in Churchill's grassy War Chant S. at a mile May 23, he sprung the gate prematurely and subsequently ran 13th, beaten 11 lengths.

A daughter of dual Grade I-winning November Snow (Storm Cat), unraced Indian Snow is the dam of GI Carter H. winner Morning Line (Tiznow). Liam's Pride is the third black-type winner for sophomore sire Liam's Map.

TITLE READY (h, 5, More Than Ready--Title Seeker, by Monarchos) hit the board in a pair of graded stakes last season, including Lone Star's GIII Sexton Mile S. in April before finishing a close-up second in the Evangeline Mile in June. Wrapping up the season with a sixth in the Michael G. Schaefer Memorial S. at Indiana in July, he was given an 8-1 chance in this reappearance.
