PINATUBO BACK IN THE GROOVE AT DEAUVILLE

Pinatubo gets back to the winner's enclosure in the Prix Jean Prat | Scoop Dyga

Dropping back to the seven-furlong trip over which he proved so dominant in 2019, Godolphin's Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) was duly back to winning ways in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix Jean Prat at Deauville. Vanquished at a mile when third in the G1 2000 Guineas and runner-up in the G1 St James's Palace S., the 3-5 favourite was buried in the pack early by William Buick and was at his previous best as he threaded through rivals to take command a furlong out. Threatened by one of last year's foes Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the run to the line, the homebred pulled out extra to score by 3/4 of a length as Ballydoyle's 40-1 shot pulled 2 1/2 lengths clear of another outsider in Malotru (GB) (Casamento {Ire}) in third.

"I never lost faith in Pinatubo and Sheikh Mohammed gave us a lot of confidence this week, saying if we were happy then to go again, it's no problem," Charlie Appleby said. "He delivered this time. When you have been champion 2-year-old, to get beaten in the Guineas is hard to take and then he had the stiff mile at Ascot, but I wouldn't take anything away from the horses that beat us on both occasions, they are good horses. We are proud of him and will probably give him a little rest now and talk to Sheikh Mohammed. He was a little far back early, but was travelling as nicely as you'd hope in such a top race and he has that turn of foot and kick. When he found the gap, he went through it very nicely." Cont. p2

SEAMLESS RETURN FOR EARTHLIGHT

Recovered from an injury which forced the abandonment of any and all plans for this term's rescheduled one-mile Classics, the belated reintroduction of Godolphin's homebred Earthlight (Ire) (Shamardal) in Sunday's Listed Qatar Prix Kistena at Deauville was as straightforward as starting odds of 2-5 might suggest and the Andre Fabre trainee maintained his perfect record, going six-for-six, with an impressive 2 1/2-length dismissal of Wanaway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) in the six-furlong dash. Settled under cover in sixth after an alert departure from the outside stall, last term's G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. hero eased into the clear at halfway and was hard on the steel until shaken up for control passing the eighth pole, powering clear with familiar gusto to score by daylight.

"It is a relief to see him win like he did," said Godolphin's Lisa Jane Graffard. "He was relaxed and very professional and you can see that the quality is still there." Cont. p12

Very few juveniles are capable of turning it on as Pinatubo had in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. at The Curragh in September and after he had confirmed his status as generation kingpin in the G1 Dewhurst S. the following month at Newmarket the world was his oyster. Whether the month's delay to the 2000 Guineas cost such a set and mature colt will never be known, but when the die was re-cast at Royal Ascot a fortnight later he had reversed the form of that June 6 Classic with the runner-up Wichita (Ire) (No Nay Never) only to find Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}) too strong at the finish.

> GOING BACK TO A MILE IS SOMETHING THAT WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT. HE DOES TRAVEL EXTREMELY WELL AND HAS THAT ACCELERATION.
> Charlie Appleby on Pinatubo

Just as Too Darn Hot (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) had done last year, Pinatubo almost had to win here and he had every excuse for failing to come through. Bumped and hassled by Kenway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) in the early stages as Buick sought to get some daylight, he was helped by the strong tempo set by his stablemate Well of Wisdom (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who has class in his own right and looks the perfect pacemaker from here on. Working between rivals to subdue Wooded (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) approaching the last furlong, he had only Lope Y Fernandez to concern him from there with last week's G1 Prix du Jockey Club-winning jockey Ioritz Mendizabal getting a real tune out of the colt who had been behind Pinatubo when second in the Listed Chesham S. and third in the G2 Vintage S. last term.

Appleby is still learning about his stable star and said, "This is what we saw from Pinatubo as a 2-year-old. He travels and then has that electric turn of foot. William said that he was sat last at halfway with not a lot of room but, before he knew it, he was up there on the bridle again. We have always felt that Pinatubo is a very courageous horse. Going back to a mile is something that we need to talk about. He does travel extremely well and has that acceleration. He is going to be one of those milers that you are going to have to ride with so much confidence and just hope that you get there."

DEEP FIELD SETS NEW AUSTRALIAN RECORD

Lope Y Fernandez's rider said, "We had a very good trip and he's a nice horse who was just beaten by a superior one on the day, so I have no excuses really. I just feel that on softer ground, he'd be better." Wooded's trainer Francis-Henri Graffard said of the eventual fourth, "At the two pole, he was travelling so nicely I was hoping but it is obvious to me now that he doesn't stay seven. He has run a great race."

Pedigree Notes

Pinatubo's dam Lava Flow (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), a half-sister to the G1 Gran Criterium runner-up Strobilus (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), was able to win the 11-furlong Listed Prix de la Seine so it is probable that like Too Darn Hot he is not conforming to his pedigree. The second dam Mount Elbrus (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) also scored at listed level at 10 1/2 furlongs and is out of a half-sister to the G1 Prix de Diane heroine and outstanding producer Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}).

That connects Pinatubo with the all-powerful sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) and his brother Kodiac (GB), so it could be that he draws from the family's fount of speed as other members Gustav Klimt (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and James Garfield (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) did before him. This remarkable dynasty also features last Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}), the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Chinese White (Ire) by Lava Flow's sire Dalakhani, and the G1 Inglis Sires and G1 Blue Diamond S. hero Pride of Dubai (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}). Lava Flow's 2-year-old filly is by Sea the Stars (Ire), while she also has a yearling filly by Teofilo (Ire).

A GERMAN DERBY FIRST FOR FRANCE

Stall Wasserfreunde's domestic star Wonderful Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) was eclipsed, but Gestut Schlenderhan's homebred In Swoop (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) stepped into the spotlight with a battling success in Sunday's G1 Idee 151st Deutsches Derby at Hamburg, with the Francis-Henri Graffard trainee becoming France's first winner of Germany's Blue Riband. Employing patient tactics in rear off the tempo set by habitual frontrunner Kellahen (Ger) (Wiesenpfad {Fr}) for the most part, the 137-10 chance was under stern urging turning for home and kept on relentlessly for continued rousting in the straight to hit the front with just 50 yards remaining en route to a 3/4-of-a-length verdict from Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). Grocer Jack (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who was threatened on all sides once setting sail for home inside the final quarter mile, kept on to finish the same margin back in third. The Henk Grewe-trained 2-1 favourite Wonderful Moon came from off the pace to threaten out wide in the straight, but faded late to finish just over three lengths off the winner in sixth.

In Swoop, who went untested as a juvenile, followed up a May 15 debut success tackling 11 furlongs at Lyon-Parilly with a third back over that strip in the June 6 G2 Prix Greffulhe in his only other start last time and franked Gestut Schlenderhan's policy of spreading its talent further afield after an extensive overhaul of operations. Having emerged from tumultuous times and fresh from its own 150th anniversary in tandem with this contest itself last year, the stud extended its imposing record haul to 19 and, with Graffard at the helm of this project, a landmark win for France.

"He was a horse with little experience going into the race, but had improved quite a lot from the Greffulhe," explained the Chantilly-based conditioner. "Ronan [Thomas] gave him a beautiful ride and it went exactly as we had planned, which was to avoid all the scrimmaging in the race."

"I knew he would quicken well from the top of the straight and I'm sure he will improve more. There is nothing for him now until September and the G1 Grand Prix de Paris, so we will bring him back for that." The winning rider, celebrating a career high of his own, added, "We knew there'd be some pace beforehand so we decided it would be best to give him a chance to find his own rhythm. As expected, it was fast and that's what he did. I started to get an idea where to go on the final bend and down the middle was the best way home. He can be a little bit lazy at times, but he's a big baby who only started his season two months' ago. He's still learning, he hasn't finished improving and I think he will get better race by race."

Pedigree Notes

In Swoop marks the fourth Group 1 and first Deutsches Derby winner for his sire (by In the Wings {GB}). Kin to a 2-year-old filly by Australia (GB), he is the third pattern-race winner produced by G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Iota (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}), who is also the dam of In Swoop's G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern-winning full-brother Ito (Ger) and G3 Ssangyong Counties Cup victress Igraine (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}). Iota is herself kin to G3 Grand Prix Premiere Aufgalopp victor Illo (Ger), G1 Preis von Europa placegetter Ioannina (GB) (Rainbow Quest) and to the dam of last year's G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Wirtschaft victor Itobo (Ger) (Areion {Ger}). In Swoop's second dam Iora (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}) is the sole produce out of Listed Festa-Rennen runner-up Incitation (Be My Guest), who in turn is a daughter of Listed Fruhjahrs Stutenpreis victress Iberica (Ger) (Green Dancer). Descendants of the latter include G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Irian (Ger) (Tertullian) and GSW G1 Preis von Europa runner-up Ibicenco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}), with this being the dam line of G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Idrissa (Ger) (Tamerlane {GB}).

GALILEO'S TUSCAN GAZE ON TOP IN ROME

Making his first start in Italy for new connections, Tuscan Gaze (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) proved an inspired purchase when getting up late to deny the Mark Johnston-trained King's Caper (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) by a nose in Sunday's €704,000 G2 Derby Italiano.

Tuscan Gaze was bred by Coolmore and Daylesford Stud out of the unraced Crystal Gaze, who had been bought by MV Magnier for £1.15-million in foal to Frankel (GB) from the inaugural Goffs London Sale in 2014. At that point Crystal Gaze was already the dam of the talented group-winning sprinters Spirit Quartz (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Caspian Prince (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and the pedigree has been boosted since with Crystal Gaze's daughter Contrary (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) having left the Hong Kong champion Exultant (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). Crystal Gaze's most recently reported foal is a yearling colt by Caravaggio (Ire).

Tuscan Gaze made his first two starts for Lady Bamford, Mrs John Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor and trainer John Gosden, winning a seven furlong Newcastle maiden by a length last November and returning with a 3 3/4-length score going 1 1/4-miles at Newbury on June 12. The subject of a private transaction in the interim, Tuscan Gaze was making his first start for new owner Mag Horse Racing and trainer Luciano Bietolini here.

Stepping up a furlong, Tuscan Gaze was content to travel midpack and about five lengths off the lead through the opening stages as Voices From War (Ire) (Poet's Voice {GB}) set the tempo on the rail with King's Caper keeping him company further out on the track. Tuscan Gaze was forced to travel four wide around the bend but that proved of little hindrance. As King's Caper inherited the lead at the top of the stretch, Tuscan Gaze was looming large down the middle of the course.

VALERIA MESSALINA ON TOP IN THE BROWNSTOWN

Bouncing back from an unplaced effort on her return in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, Valeria Messalina (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) kept the flag flying for the Jessie Harrington stable in Sunday's G3 Irish Stallion Farms EBF Brownstown S. at Cork. Ridden with more restraint than she had been when ninth in that June 13 Curragh Classic, the 11-2 shot tracked the leaders and when sent to the front with a furlong remaining gave generously for Shane Foley. At the line, there was half a length between her and Unforgetable (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}), with a short head separating that rival and Soul Search (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in a tight and competitive affair. "I wasn't sure if she'd stay in the Guineas and I don't think she did--seven is a good trip for her and I knew the track would suit her as she is a strong traveller and stuck at it well," Foley commented. "She was in front in the Guineas with 150 yards to go, so she is a good filly."

Pedigree Notes

Valeria Messalina, who had come off a neck the worse in a battle with the tough Rose of Kildare (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) when runner-up in Newmarket's G3 Oh So Sharp S. in October, is a half-sister to this stable's G3 Desmond S. winner Pincheck (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The dam is a full-sister to the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. hero Prince Arch, as well as being a half to the G1 National S. winner Kingsfort (War Chant). The third dam is the dual listed-winning and G2 Prix de Royaumont runner-up As You Desire Me (Ire) (Kalamoun {GB}), responsible for the G3 May Hill S. scorer Intimate Guest (Ire) (Be My Guest) and the second dam of the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. heroine Luas Line (Ire) (Danehill). Arty Crafty (Arch) also has an as-yet unraced 2-year-old filly by Mayson (GB) named Brave Blossom (Ire) and a colt foal by Kodiac (GB).

BLUE CRUSADE

It was very much Godolphin's day at Deauville on Sunday and the fixture almost acted as a tribute to the power of Shamardal with Royal Crusade (GB) bringing up a treble for his late sire and a four-timer for the operation overall in the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis. Campaigned at seven furlongs when runner-up in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September and in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud in October, the bay had dropped to this six-furlong trip when sixth in the G1 Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot on June 19. Dropped out towards the back by William Buick as Pinatubo (Ire) had been earlier on the card, the 21-10 favourite was delivered to split the long-time leader Tour To Paris (Fr) (Fuisse {Fr}) and Dubai Station (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) a furlong from home. Pushed out to assert, he had a comfortable 1 1/4-length margin to spare over the gallant Glen Shiel (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) at the line, with a head back to Dubai Station in third.

Charlie Appleby will hardly have a more perfect day in his career, with his three favourites all collecting, and he has high hopes for this unexposed and promising sprinter. "We have learned the hard way that seven furlongs is too far and dropping back to six is definitely his bag," he said. "He has learned an awful lot today. It was a bit rough out there, but he is a strong unit."

"He was a bit slow out of the gates, but William didn't want to light him up because he knows the horse can over-race sometimes. He let Royal Crusade find his feet and the horse has done it all the right way round."

Appleby has a return date in mind next month. "Hopefully, he can come back for the [Aug. 9 G1] Prix Maurice de Gheest," he said.

"It was always our long-term plan with this horse and I don't see any reason why he wouldn't be able to see out the extra half-furlong." Buick was also full of praise and added, "He was a 3-year-old coming up against older horses, so it was a top performance. It was easy in the end and he is a sprinter with a turn of foot, which is nice to see."

Royal Crusade was one of four Godolphin stakes winners on Sunday's Deauville card | Scoop Dyga

Pedigree Notes

Royal Crusade's dam Zibelina (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) was successful at this Normandy venue in the G3 Prix de Lieurey in 2013, having won the Listed Valiant S. also at a mile. Her speedy listed-winning half-sister Floristry (GB) (Fasliyev) has produced another fast performer for this operation in Lazuli (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) who took the Listed Scurry S. last month. The third dam Talented (GB) (Bustino {GB}) captured the G2 Sun Chariot S. before throwing the G2 Dante S. winner Carlton House (Street Cry {Ire}) who was also second in the G1 Ranvet S. and G1 Prince of Wales's S. Further back is one of Godolphin's first sprinting forces Three Points (GB) (Bering {GB}) who captured the G3 Prix de Meautry at this venue and was runner-up in the aforementioned Maurice de Gheest. Zibelina's 2-year-old colt is a son of Lazuli's sire Dubawi, who is also the sire of her yearling colt.

EYE ON THE PRIZE

Coolmore, Moffitt and Meduri Syndicate's Nobel Prize (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who ran fifth in Royal Ascot's June 19 G2 Queen's Vase on seasonal return last time, took a scenic trek down Dundalk's straight in Sunday's G3 Woodford Reserve Ballysax S., but was in front where it mattered most to deny Roscommon maiden winner Indicative Vote (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) by a sliver in the rescheduled contest. The May-foaled bay, who had annexed a one-mile Naas maiden heat in the last of three juvenile starts, was out front and setting a testing beat through halfway. Shaken up soon after passing the quarter-mile marker, the 4-1 chance rolled around for pressure in front as threats mounted at the eighth pole and he kept on well under a late drive to secure a narrow verdict in a bobbing finish.

"I ride a lot of work for Aidan [O'Brien], he's been very good to me giving me any spares that come up and I was delighted to get the ride here," said apprentice rider Killian Hennessy, who was unable to utilise his seven-pound claim in the contest. "Aidan was very confident he'd get the trip well and his rider at home, James Maher, was very happy with him. He stays very well, the plan was to go out and go a good gallop and thankfully it worked out. He wandered around a little bit, but he's very genuine and just kept staying on the last furlong. He stuck his head out at the line and did that very nicely. He's a big, strong horse and will have no bother getting a mile-and-a-half."

Pedigree Notes

Nobel Prize becomes his dam's fourth pattern-race winner out of G2 South Australian Oaks runner-up Hveger (Aus) (Danehill). She has enjoyed considerable success with Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), headed by MG1SW globetrotter Highland Reel (Ire), last year's G1 Caulfield S. victor Cape of Good Hope (Ire) and MGSW G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Derby placegetter Idaho (Ire).

Hveger is also the dam of G1 VRC Oaks and G1 Storm Queen S. runner-up Valdemoro (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). The May-foaled bay's second dam is G1 Australian Oaks heroine Circles of Gold (Aus) (Marscay {Aus}), who also produced MG1SW sires Elvstroem (Aus) (Danehill) and Haradasun (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus). Circles of Gold is herself the leading performer out Olympic Aim (Zamazaan {Fr}), whose descendants include MG1SW sire Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) and G1 Schweppes Thousand Guineas heroine Amicus (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

VIRGINIA JOY STRIKES AT HAMBURG

Sunday's G3 Mehl-Mulhens-Trophy at Hamburg offered some pre-Derby drama with Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) and Zamrud (Ger) (Samum {Ger}) coming up both rails wide apart, but at the line it was Gestut Auenquelle's homebred Virginia Joy who had prevailed. Having just missed out on black-type when fourth behind Alson (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) in Baden-Baden's G3 Zukunftsrennen in August and in the G2 Diana-Trial at Hoppegarten on May 31, the 23-10 second favourite was anchored towards the rear by Adrie de Vries. Delivered up the far rail in the straight, the bay may have been marginally in front with half a furlong to race and had a head margin to spare over the stand's-side leader Zamrud at the line, with four lengths back to For Pleasure (Ger) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}) in third.

Pedigree Notes

Virginia Joy, who becomes the seventh individual black-type winner for her sire in 2020, is the first foal out of Virginia Sun (Ger) (Doyen {Ire}) who landed the G3 Deutsches St Leger. The second dam is the listed-placed Valdina (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) who produced another G3 Deutsches St Leger winner in the leading stayer Valdino (Ger) (Black Sam Bellamy {Ire}). Virginia Sun's unraced 2-year-old Virginia Storm (Ger) and yearling are a full-brother and full-sister to Virginia Joy respectively.

SHINE ON

Fresh from victory in last month's Listed Prix Urban Sea going 10 furlongs at Le Lion d'Angers, Godolphin's homebred Half Light (Ire) (Shamardal) was not inconvenienced by a return to the one-mile trip of Sunday's G3 Sparkasse Holstein-Cup (Hamburger Stutenmeile) at Hamburg and overpowered a field featuring G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine Lancade (GB) Areion {Ger}) to claim a career high. The chestnut had already delivered over the distance, at Vichy in her penultimate start, and settled along the fence in a midfield sixth after an alert getaway in this pattern-race bow.

Improving one spot rounding the home turn, the well-backed 19-10 favourite was committed to a far-rail route passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on strongly under continued rousting once there to subdue the pacesetting Song of Life (GB) (Poet's Voice {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths nearing the line.

Pedigree Notes

Half Light, half-sister to a 2-year-old colt by Ampere (Fr), is the lone black-type winner out an unraced daughter of G3 Prix de Flore victress Allez Les Trois (Riverman), whose trio of stakes scorers is headed by G1 Prix du Jockey Club-winning sire Anabaa Blue (GB) (Anabaa). Allez Trois is also the ancestress of this year's G1 Irish Derby hero Santiago (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), MG1SW sire Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef) and last year's G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Motamarris (Ire) (Le Havre {Ire}). She is also kin to G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe-winning matriarch Urban Sea (Miswaki) and G1 2000 Guineas-winning sire King's Best (Kingmambo), with this being the damline of blue hen Allegretta (GB) (Lombard {Ger}).

Coming back from an absence when scoring by 7 1/2 lengths in a novice contest over this trip at Newmarket on June 14, Althiqa proved she was up to this standard when 3/4-of-a-length third in a competitive renewal of the Listed Eternal Fillies' S. also at this distance at Haydock on June 25. Keen early before finding a perfect lead, the grey was committed approaching the two-furlong marker and showed grit to ward off My Love's Passion for a first black-type success. "She had a setback last year, so I had to slow up on her," Charlie Appleby explained as he greeted the first of his three winners on the card. "She is not much of a horse physically, but has a big heart and is a fighter."

Althiqa, who had made a winning debut over five furlongs at Thirsk last May, is the first foal out of the speedy Listed Boadicea Fillies S. scorer Mistrusting, whose 2-year-old colt Magical Land (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) has twice finished runner-up for this stable this term. The dam, who also has a yearling full-sister to the winner, is a daughter of Misheer (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who captured the G2 Cherry Hinton S. and was runner-up in the G1 Cheveley Park S.

Deauville's Sunday card was a who's who of last year's movers and shakers and another to join the party was the 2019 G1 Coronation S. heroine Watch Me as she made a success of her own comeback. Since her day in the sun at Royal Ascot, the chestnut had proved that to be no aberration with a fourth in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois here in August and an unlucky third in the G1 Prix de l'Opera tackling 10 furlongs at ParisLongchamp on Arc day. Restrained behind the leaders by Pierre-Charles Boudot, she was set alight heading to the two-furlong pole and the response was instantaneous as she stamped her class on proceedings.

"Earlier in the year, she had a little setback after some time at the farm and then with the lockdown, I decided to take my time and let her come to herself," trainer Francis-Henri Graffard explained. "I saw this race and thought it would be the perfect prep for the [G1 Prix] Rothschild. She travelled very well and quickened nicely. Pierre-Charles did well to make her work to the line, because if you want her to be ready for a race like the Rothschild she had to do work."

Watch Me's dam Watchful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is a half-sister to the group and graded stakes-placed Rabi (Ire) (Alzao) and the G3 Coventry S.-placed Kawagino (Ire) (Perugino). The third dam Sharaya (Youth) took the G1 Prix Vermeille and is also the ancestress of the G1 Nunthorpe S. runner-up Hamish McGonagall (GB) (Namid {GB}). Also related to the G1 Irish Oaks heroine Shawanda (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}), Watchful also has an as yet unraced 3-year-old colt by Elvstroem (Aus) named Watchmen (Fr), a 2-year-old colt by the same sire named Watch Him (Fr) and a yearling colt again by Elvstroem.

Looming large throughout, the 13-5 second choice was sent forward inside the final quarter mile and lengthened clear in stylish fashion to easily account for Central Park West (Fr)

Sent to the front passing the furlong marker, the 4-5 favourite stayed on strongly to secure a 3 1/2-length verdict over Madouss (Fr) (Myboycharlie {Ire}). The dual listed-placed dam hails from the family of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains-winning champion L'Emigrant (The Minstrel) and the G2 Great Voltigeur S.-winning sire Zalazl (Roberto). Dickiedooda graduated in her June 13 debut, contesting a five-furlong Curragh maiden, and was just under eight lengths off the winner Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) when 10th of 18 in Royal Ascot's June 20 G2 Queen Mary S. over the same trip last time. Prominent in second after a sharp getaway in this straight dash, she inched to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was driven out in the closing stages to deny old foe Grammata (Ire) (Twilight Son {GB}), who she has met in all three starts, for a career high.

"I thought she would confirm [debut] form with Grammata as the ground was very dead at [Royal] Ascot and the quicker the ground the better for her," explained winning rider Shane Foley. "She has improved even from Ascot and has grown. She is an exciting fast filly, she's by a very good stallion and I think getting six furlongs will be no problem in time. The syndicate has had a lot of luck this year so far and this is an important win for them."

Dickiedooda, half to a yearling by Divine Prophet (Aus), marks the lone scorer from three runners for So Dandy (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), herself a winning half-sister to four black-type performers headed by Listed Prix Herod victor Power Elite (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) and Listed Coolmore Stud Baden-Baden Cup victrix La Sylvia (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Last to come under pressure after halfway, the 5-4 chalk was shaken up for outright control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and driven out in the closing stages to assert by 1 1/4 lengths from Dense Star (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). "He had the form in the book, he had plenty of experience and was entitled to do that," said winning rider Kevin Manning. "It is lovely ground and you'd be very happy with the way he did it." DEEP FIELD SETS NEW AUSTRALIAN RECORD

Deep Field | Newgate Farm

by Paul Vettise

The ability to upgrade mares is one of the attributes Newgate Managing Director Henry Field most admires about the farm's record-breaking stallion Deep Field, who has set a new Australian mark as a second-season sire.

Deep Field drew equal on Saturday with his own sire Northern Meteor's record of 80 individual winners in a season when Deep Mirror was successful at Moe, then at Hawkesbury a day later, he stood on his own.

The aptly-named Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly Hit The High Note secured Deep Field's place as the country's most prolific second-season sire of winners when the 3-year-old raced to victory over 1800 metres becoming winner 81.

"It's hugely satisfying and we worked very hard to get the horse going and he started at a fee of $20,000 so he did have great quantity, but not necessarily quality," Field said. "He is a very dominant stallion and if you buy a good-looking Deep Field at the sales they will definitely have a level of ability to go with it, he just gets runners.

"He's done a wonderful job and as a non-Group 1-winning stallion he didn't get the cream of the mares. He has upgraded his mares very consistently.

"We are really proud and he now has the most winners for a second-crop sire in history. It is a wonderful achievement and he's also had a significant number of stakes horses, which is basically on par with his old man at the same stage of their careers."

Trained by John, Michael and Wayne Hawkes, Deep Field was unbeaten in his first five starts, culminating with victory in the G2 VRC Tab.com.au S. before he finished third in the G1 Lightning S. and another placing followed in the G3 Maurice McCarten S. before retirement.

"I loved the horse's pedigree and also to be fair to the Hawkes team they were massively bullish about the horse. He didn't win a Group 1, but I truly believe the horse had elite talent and they had massive confidence in him," Field said.

A $440,000 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale graduate, Deep Field is a son of the stakes-winner Listen Here (Elusive Quality {USA}), who also produced the G1 Caulfield Guineas winner and sire Shooting To Win.

The dam is a half-sister to the G1 Waikato International S. winner Emerald Dream (Danehill {USA}) and the family of the G1 Manawatu Sires' Produce S. winner Luna Rossa (Written Tycoon) and the G3 Proud Miss S. winner She's So High (I Am Invincible).

"We paid a lot money for the horse as a Group 2 winner, but it has been repaid in spades," Field said.

As Deep Field's progeny have made such an impression on racetracks across Australia – he has also produced winners in Hong Kong, New Zealand and South Africa – he has attracted better quality books.

Bruce Slade and Henry Field | Bronwen Healy

"The mares he bred last year at $40,000 and the mares he will breed this year at $50,000 are obviously of a far higher standard than what he covered in the first seasons," Field said. "I think he will follow an upward spiral with his stud career and if you breed to Deep Field you get a terrific sales horse.

"If you're breeding to sell he throws a lovely article and if you're breeding to race the odds of you getting a good winner by him are in your favour - he throws runner after runner, after runner."

Deep Field's sale ring popularity is highlighted by the fact that 56 of his third crop sold through the ring this year at an average of $152,623 and a median of $135,000. That median was the best of any stallion of his class and is comparable with some of the country's best young stallions, such as Pierro at $150,000.

Perfect demeanour

Deep Field also possessed the ideal temperament to continue to succeed.

"He's very quiet and loves his job. He's a studmaster's dream," Field said. "He's definitely cemented his place on our roster for the long term and I am very confident that his stocks will only continue to rise."

Deep Field has so far produced 16 individual stakes performers with the G2 Roman Consul S. and G3 Pago Pago S. winner Cosmic Force, who now stands alongside him at Newgate, his leading representative.

Daughter Xilong is also a Group 2 winner of the Euclase S. and third in the G1 Surround S. while Dig Deep won the G2 Karrakatta Plate.

Deep Field's son Cosmic Force will become the first of his progeny to retire to stud when he serves his first season at Newgate in 2020.

In Hong Kong, Deep Field is also making a splash. Sky Field became his latest impressive winner when demolishing his rivals at Sha Tin on Sunday night for Joao Moreira and Caspar Fownes. It was the third start in Hong Kong for the 3-year-old who was purchased from the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale for NZ$175,000.

Earlier in the month, the stallion had a winning double at Sha Tin with the Frankie Lor-trained Winning Dreamer making it two wins in a row, while stablemate True Legend also posted his second win on the same card. Winning Dreamer was a NZ$300,000 New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale purchase, while True Legend was a $530,000 Inglis Easter graduate from the draft of Segenhoe Stud.

BIDDING BACK IN THE BLUEGRASS: F-T HORSES OF RACING AGE SALE MONDAY

by Jessica Martini

The Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale, which has steadily built momentum through its first seven years, comes smack up against the swirling uncertainty of a global pandemic when it returns for its eighth renewal at the company's Newtown Paddocks Monday afternoon. The catalogue for the one-session auction, bolstered by the late addition of recent stakes winners, includes 182 offerings. Bidding begins at 4 p.m.

Consignors seemed eager to get back to business ahead of the auction, but were cautious about expectations.

"This sale is getting more popular every year and I think you are seeing some better horses sold in it, but it's hard to say what this year will bring," admitted Claiborne Farm's Walker Hancock. "I don't know who will be able to show up, but I know Fasig is going to provide the buyers with all the opportunities they can, whether it's online bidding or phone bidding. We are doing videos for all of our horses, so even if you can't make it to the sales grounds, hopefully you'll be able to view them online and we'll be able to provide any information the buyers may be looking for if they can't be here in person."

Fasig-Tipton debuted its online bidding platform during the recent Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale and will again offer out-of-town buyers the chance to bid online Monday. Cont. p3

THE RACE EVERYONE WANTS TO SEE, MIDNIGHT BISOU VS. MONOMOY GIRL

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

The running of the GII Ruffian S. Saturday at Belmont lacked the sizzle that was part of the narrative for several other major races over the weekend, but that wasn't the fault of Monomoy Girl (Tapizar). She did exactly what was asked of her. She showed up and beat four overmatched horses in an effort that was more perfunctory than impressive.

"This was a nice race for her to come back into stakes competition and now we can tackle some bigger races and a tougher field, too," jockey Florent Geroux said.

Exactly.

With Monomoy Girl coming back off an 18-month layoff, trainer Brad Cox was in no hurry to throw her to the wolves. He started her off in an allowance race at Churchill Downs and then in the one-mile, one-turn Ruffian, a race that didn't figure to include a stellar group of opponents for the 2018 Eclipse Award winner. Cont. p4

PLENTY OF OPTIONS FOR EXCITING DEBUT WINNER SALOW

Perspective buyers will have a slew of options with the 3-year-old Salow (Distorted Humor), who charged home to an impressive 2 3/4-length debut victory going one mile over the turf at Gulfstream Park just over a week ago for trainer Wesley Ward. The handsome chestnut will be offered as hip 172 through the Elite consignment at the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale Monday in Lexington.

"He earned an 81 Beyer and a 14 Rag in his debut," said Elite's Brad Weisbord. "Visually, he showed just an electrifying turn of foot in the race. It was enough to get excited about. Debuting long on turf, you'd always think a horse will go forward and is not far off from stakes company."

Salow | Lauren King

The son of Distorted Humor is out of graded stakes winner Eve Giselle (Five Star Day) and is a half-brother to stakes placed I'm Patriotic (To Honor and Serve).

"He's an exciting young, lightly raced prospect who will fit all racing stables," Weisbord said. "He can fit East Coast or West Coast because there are plenty of turf options. And obviously his one race was on the turf, but he does have dirt breeding. So he can really go to one of 10 different tracks that are running right now. He has all his conditions which generally fit buyers very well. He is eligible for the 'Ship and Win' at Del Mar and every track has the allowance race and some even have it restricted to 3-year-olds. He has a lot of different options. And he's going to be sold."

Hancock agreed the horses of racing age sales were a natural fit for online shopping.

"Yearlings, weanlings and mares are a little different," he said. "With horses of racing age, you can just go and watch the races. As long as they vet, which you can get your vet to look at those online, you're buying off results and have more information than when you are just looking for potential."

The Horses of Racing Age sale has, since its inception, been conducted in tandem with Fasig-Tipton's July Yearling Sale. With the yearling auction cancelled this year and travel restrictions still in place in many locales, activity at the sales barns will be predictably down.

While there may be fewer people at the barns, that won't necessarily be a factor in the sale's final results, according to Mark Taylor of Taylor Made Sales Agency.

"With these racehorses, it's easier to do your due diligence without physically being here," Taylor said. "You can have the horse vetted, you can look at their PPs, you can watch the videos of their races and you can make a buying decision very easily and you don't have to physically be here. So I think the traffic is going to be way down from a typical year, but I think at the end of the day, people are going to be here to buy racehorses."

Last year's July sale was topped by Jalen Journey (With Distinction), who sold for $510,000 and only weeks later finished third in the GI Bing Crosby S. That sort of ready-to-run offering is what appeals to many shoppers at the horses of racing age sale, according to Gainesway's Michael Hernon.

"I think we are operating in an uncertain time obviously, but people want the ready-made article," Hernon said. "They don't want to wait. And the racehorse sale provides a lot of opportunity for immediate results. Horses are ready to run who have established form and can run in the new buyer's colors in a matter of weeks. There is strong demand for current racehorses who can proceed to their next race without delay."

The Black Album (Fr) (Wooten Bassett {GB}), consigned by Bluewater Sales, was added to the catalogue following his win in the July 8 Jonathan B. Schuster Memorial S. Liam's Pride (Liam's Map) was the final horse added to Monday's auction following his win in Friday's Gold Fever S. at Belmont Park. He will be consigned by Elite Sales.

With racing virtually shut down for months this spring and opportunities still limited, the demand for horses will likely be down, according to Elite's Brad Weisbord. Cont. p4

"I think it's going to be a very tough year," Weisbord said. "There are not as many racetracks that are open, so you have more horses in a smaller spot. You have owners who were hemorrhaging all through the COVID crisis with no racing, so they probably have too many horses on their hands. I think it's going to be a very hard year to attract a huge buying pool.

He continued, "We have seen decreases across the board in the 2-year-old sales, somewhere in the 20-35% range, and I think by the time scratches hit and RNAs hit, I think this sale is going to be down, especially on average. It's a very tough environment to recruit a horse, it's a very tough environment to get a buyer excited about a horse. And I expect us to suffer through it for 2020. It's a bad year for virtually everybody unless you are selling cleaning supplies. But we'll get through it."

A total of 95 horses sold at last year's July sale for a gross of $6,548,500. The average was $68,932 and the median was $45,000.

But the time has come for Cox to get more aggressive and point for a race that will be a truer test.

There are a lot of good storylines out there this year. How far can Tiz the Law (Constitution) go in the strangest Triple Crown ever? What will Maximum Security (New Year's Day) look like when he comes back for new trainer Bob Baffert? At age seven, will Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike) continue to thrive for trainer Al Stall, Jr. and be named Horse of the Year?

But nothing would compare to a rematch between Monomoy Girl and Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute). It's enough that it would be a showdown between two superstar mares, but it's the intrigue, uncertainties and twists that would make this such an exciting, unpredictable "good-for-the game" race.

The story of the rivalry between the two begins in the 2018 GI Kentucky Oaks. Monomoy Girl won that day and Midnight Bisou was third. She beat her again in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. In the GI Cotillion S. at Parx, Monomoy Girl crossed the wire in front, but was disqualified for bothering Midnight Bisou, who was placed first. Monomoy Girl was first in the 2018 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and Midnight Bisou was third, making it a perfect four-for-four in terms of which filly crossed the wire ahead of the other.

With Monomoy Girl sidelined throughout 2019, Midnight Bisou flourished. She went seven for eight last year and was named champion older filly or mare. She's been every bit as good, if not better, this year, finishing second when going against males in the $20-million Saudi Cup and then returning with a flourish, an 8 1/4-length winner in the GII Fleur de Lis S. at Churchill. She's scheduled to go next in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga Aug. 1.

Monomoy Girl | Sarah Andrew

That's what we know. What we don't know is who the better horse is today, Midnight Bisou or Monomoy Girl? It could be that Midnight Bisou took full advantage of Monomoy Girl's absence and would not have done nearly as well if her rival were standing in her way. Or has Midnight Bisou improved so much that she is now the better horse of the two?

The only way to find out is for them to meet on the racetrack.

The most likely spot for that to happen would ordinarily be in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but there's no certainty both will be there because Midnight Bisou's connections have said their horse may run in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. There is still the possibility, however, that both could land in the same prep for the Breeders' Cup, perhaps in the GII Beldame S. at Belmont or, more likely, the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland.

More often than not, the stars don't align when it comes to getting star horses into the gate to face one another. Rachel Alexandra never did face Zenyatta. But this one might be different. The ownership groups behind both horses have already shown that they are game for anything. Midnight Bisou was slated to be retired at the end of last year, but came back for another season, which has included an adventurous trip to Saudi Arabia. The Monomoy Girl camp endured 18 months away from the races and brought their horse back when many would have retired her. Neither one is afraid of a challenge or will duck anyone.

Whether it's in the Breeders' Cup or in a fall prep, they very well could face one another.

Should they meet, I would back Monomoy Girl. Until Midnight Bisou proves she can beat her, I can't get past those four races in 2018 and Monomoy Girl looks like the time away has done nothing to diminish her skills. But the fun won't be in being right or wrong, but in seeing two of the best of their generation proving their superiority on the racetrack. Fingers crossed that it happens.

Midnight Bisou | Coady

Kudos to Swiss Skydiver and Her Team

Trainer Kenny McPeek and owner Peter Callahan could have gone the safe route and run Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) against fillies in the GI Central Bank Ashland S., a race she likely would have won. Instead, they decided to run their filly against boys in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S.

In the end, it may have cost them a Grade I win and the winner's share of a $400,000 purse, but they need not look back or have any regrets. They are a rare pair that figured out that sometimes it's worth giving your horse the ultimate test and trying to make history. Had Swiss Skydiver run seventh, they might have looked foolish. But she put in a valiant effort and finished second behind a quickly rising star in Art Collector (Bernardini). In defeat, she earned more respect and admiration than she possibly could have achieved by beating fillies for a fourth straight time in the Ashland.

Swiss Skydriver earned enough points to run in the GI Kentucky Derby, but McPeek said the GI Kentucky Oaks is now the plan. That's the right choice. If she couldn't win the Blue Grass, she's not a Derby winner. What she is is an outstanding filly who put in a valiant effort for an owner and trainer who made this a Blue Grass to remember.

Keeneland Sheds Light on Late Odds Drops

There was another race last week where the odds plummeted on a horse at the very last second and, of course, the horse won. This time it happened at Keeneland. In the sixth race Friday, the odds on Early Mischief (Into Mischief) dropped from 10-1 to 5-1, which didn't show up until the race was underway.

Someone at Keeneland understood how bad this must have looked. These odds drops are the result of the computer/rebate players pounding the pools at the very last second, betting so much that they can cause massive odds shifts. There's nothing illegal about this, but every time it happens, it leaves a bad taste in everyone's mouth and leads some to believe the game is rigged. It's a serious problem.

Keeneland decided to inform the public of exactly what happened. They investigated and then issued a statement, revealing that $16,000 was bet to win was made on Early Mischief in the last betting cycle. That same cycle accounted for 26% of the win pool.

That doesn't solve a problem that is not going to go away, but Keeneland did everything it could to be transparent and let the wagering public know that it had their backs. Other tracks need to follow Keeneland's lead.

PRAT LATEST CALIFORNIA JOCKEY TO TEST POSITIVE FOR CORONAVIRUS by Bill Finley

According to his agent, Derek Lawson, top California rider Flavien Prat has tested positive for the coronavirus.

Because he left California to ride Saturday at Keeneland, Prat was required to take a test Sunday before being allowed to ride at Del Mar. The test results were positive and Prat had to take off all his mounts. "These athletes, they know their bodies," Lawson said. "When I picked him up at the airport, he said, 'I think I have it.'" Lawson said that Prat is feeling fine and will return to his home in the Los Angeles area to wait out the quarantine period.

Along with Victor Espinoza, Martin Garcia and Luis Saez, Prat becomes the fourth jockey who rode on the July 4 card at Los Alamitos to test positive. For Saez, it cost him the mount on Maximum Security (New Year's Day) in Saturday's GII San Diego H. He will be replaced by Abel Cedillo, but trainer Bob Baffert told the Daily Racing Form that Saez will regain the mount once his quarantine period is over.

Prat, who was the leading rider at the 2019 summer meet at Del Mar, will also lose several important mounts and Lawson was quick to blame Los Alamitos for his predicament.

"All of this transpired at Los Alamitos," Lawson said. "They were so careful at Santa Anita and then at Los Alamitos it was like the wild, wild west. They let everything get out of hand. We only went over there to ride Bellafina and for Baffert. They didn't do anything. It was like, 'Come on in, everyone is welcome.' After how well everything went at Santa Anita, what a shame."

LAOBAN COLT EARNS FURLONG BULLET AT OBS UNDER-TACK FINALE by Jessica Martini

A colt by Laoban worked the co-fastest furlong of the week Sunday during the sixth and final session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's July 2-Year-Olds and Horses of Racing Age Sale under-tack show. The session, originally scheduled for Saturday, was delayed a day after lightning damaged the track's timing equipment.

From the first crop of GII Jim Dandy S. winner Laoban (Uncle Mo), hip 983 was the second juvenile to work the furlong in :9 4/5 during the under-tack show. Out of One Look (Henny Hughes), the bay is consigned by Jesse Hoppel's Coastal Equine.

"This track has played really weird all week," Hoppel said. "But the way he prepped, we thought he'd be a :10 flat type horse. If you think they are in one spot, you get lucky and they go a little bit faster and, if you have some bad luck, sometimes they go a little bit slower. But he was really spot on today. He did really good."

A full 27 juveniles worked the furlong in :10 flat during the week. Hip 983 and hip 640, a daughter of Not This Time, were the only of the week to work in under :10.

"I think it will highlight him for sure," Hoppel said of the bullet. "But if the horse made a good video--which I think he did, he's got a really good way of moving--then he will be just fine. I don't think you have to necessarily be the bullet to sell a horse well. As long as the horse has good action and they go fast the right way, that's the thing, they have to go fast the right way. Sometimes you get a horse that goes really fast and they look like something is about to fly off. And that's no good. But I think he did it the right way, so they'll appreciate it."

Hoppel is consigning the colt on behalf of a group of friends who partnered to buy the youngster for $3,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale. Luis Franco signed the ticket in Lexington last fall.

"He is a robust, strong, aggressive colt," Hoppel said of the juvenile. "He is a horse that doesn't not show up. Some of these colts, sometimes they get a little lazy or they start thinking about other things. He's a very game individual."

Hoppel sent out 11 juveniles to work during the week at OBS--including the bullet quarter-mile worker on the first day of the under-tack show--and the consignor said the track shifted from session to session as conditions went from hotter to cooler temperatures and was hit by several major rainstorms.

"I think the biggest part of the track is that it's heat sensitive," Hoppel said. "And dealing with July in the state of Florida, heat is an issue. That track gets to be a softer, slower playing track the more heat that is on it. When it is cold, the track is hard and fast. So this week, we had rain, we had heat, it just depends on was it a cold rain that cooled the track off or not. We had some days that were faster than other days. I had enough horses here that I had a good sampling throughout the week and I know where these horses are amongst themselves. So I know some days were different than other days. And those good agents, they know this track plays different day to day, so they will measure these horses on a per-day basis."

A filly by Bahamian Squall (hip 1030) turned in Sunday's fastest quarter-mile work when covering the distance in :20 3/5. Consigned by McKathan Brothers Sales, the dark bay filly was supplemented to the July Sale. She is out of Up for Grabs (First Samurai) and was purchased by Fernando Velasquez for $1,000 at last year's OBS October Yearling Sale.

A colt from the first crop of multiple graded stakes winner Protonico (Giant's Causeway) equaled the fastest three-furlong work of the week when covering the distance in :33 flat Sunday for Whitman Sales. Out of Mongolian Changa (Brilliant Speed), the dark bay was purchased by Christy Whitman for $1,000 at the OBS Winter Sale.

The once-raced 3-year-old filly Chambers Creek (Goldencents) (hip 992), consigned by Bobby Dodd, also worked in :33 flat Sunday.

The July sale will be held Tuesday through Thursday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

OPTIONS OPEN FOR ART COLLECTOR

Bruce Lunsford's GII Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Art Collector (Bernardini) returned to trainer Tom Drury's Skylight Training Center base in Goshen, Kentucky Saturday night and options for the colt's next start are still open.

"I am going to get with Bruce in the next couple of days and figure out what we will do," Drury said. "Art Collector will stay at Skylight for a little while because it is quieter there and then like we have done before, two weeks or so before he runs we will bring him back to Churchill."

With the Blue Grass victory, Art Collector picked up 100 qualifying points toward the Sept. 5 GI Kentucky Derby, good for fourth place on the Derby leader board with only six points races remaining.

"If we do anything [before the Derby], it likely would be Ellis [the Ellis Park Derby Aug. 9]," Drury said.

Art Collector gave Drury his first graded stakes victory with his authoritative score at Keeneland Saturday, but the trainer didn't have much time to celebrate.

"It was a pretty special day," Drury said Sunday morning. "You know how we horse trainers are. I had to get him back to Skylight last night and I had to be at Churchill Downs at 5:30 [this morning] for the first set. I wound up having a frozen pizza and a cold beer."

Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Madaket Stables' Speech (Mr Speaker), along with stablemate and Blue Grass third-place finisher Rushie (Liam's Map), is scheduled to ship back to California Monday following her victory in Saturday's GI Central Bank Ashland S.

"Justin Curran was deputizing on my behalf and was very pleased with them this morning," trainer Mike McCarthy said of the duo via text Sunday. "Most likely both will have a few works here at Del Mar before deciding on a Churchill Downs arrival date."

Rushie is not Triple Crown nominated, and plans are uncertain for the colt, who has picked up 40 Kentucky Derby qualifying points for the Run for the Roses.

"Nothing is set in stone for Rushie," McCarthy said. "There are plenty of options."

Zulu Alpha continued his bang-up 2020 season with a late-running victory in the GII Elkhorn S. at Keeneland Sunday. It was the third graded victory of the weekend for jockey Tyler Gaffalione, who won the GI Maker's Mark Mile S. aboard War of Will (War Front) and the GIII Shakertown S. aboard Leinster (Majestic Warrior), and earned the leading rider title at Keeneland's abbreviated summer meet. Zulu Alpha settled well off the pace as longshot Postulation set pedestrian splits up front. The pacesetter scampered clear in upper stretch, but Zulu Alpha angled to the center of the course and closed relentlessly to reel in the longshot late and win going away.

"He's as easy as they come," Gaffalione said after the win. "He just drops his head and you let him do his thing. He knows where the wire is. He's got some turn of foot. He's just keeps getting better and better throughout the year. All credit goes to [trainer] Mike [Maker] and his team. I'm just blessed to be part of it."

Claimed for $80,000 in 2018, Zulu Alpha paid immediate dividends when he captured the GIII Sycamore S. in his first start for new owner Michael Hui. The gelding won three more graded races in 2019 and was a narrowly beaten second in the GI United Nations S., but the best was yet to come. He opened 2020 with a late-charging two-length victory in the GI Pegaus World Cup Invitational S. at Gulfstream in January. He added the Feb. 29 GII Mac Diarmida S. and was making his first start since a runner-up effort in the Mar. 28 GII Pan American S.

Miker admitted the Elkhorn's marathon distance and Zulu Alpha's layoff were concerns Sunday.

"After Gulfstream, we sent him to the farm again," Maker said. "We got delayed with the virus. Going a mile and a half, you're always a little bit concerned. But even I can't mess this one up."

Pedigree Notes:

Zulu Alpha's second dam is graded stakes winner Winglet, who produced champion 3-year-old filly Ajina (Strawberry Road {Aus}) as well as Kobla (Strawberry Road {Aus}), dam of multiple Grade I-winning sire Quality Road. Calumet Farm purchased Zori, with Zula Alpha in utero, for $120,000 at the 2012 Keeneland November Sale.

Field Pass got his nose in front on the line in a thrilling finish to the GIII Kentucky Utilities Transylvania S. on Sunday's closing-day card at Keeneland. It was the second win on the card for Kirk Wycoff's Three Diamonds Farm, which took the fifth race allowance with Empire of War (Declaration of War). The gray colt broke from the inside and settled just off the pace while racing along the rail under a snug hold. Behind a wall of horses leaving the backstretch and in tight between foes turning for home, he tipped out four wide at the top of the lane and closed resolutely to best a gritty Street Ready rallying along the rail. Fancy Liquor was just a neck back in third after battling in between the top two.

Second in last year's GIII With Anticipation S. at Saratoga, Field Pass opened 2020 with a win in the Feb. 1 Dania Beach S. He moved to the synthetics to capture the Mar. 14 GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks S. at Turfway. Back on the turf, he was a late-closing third in the May 23 War Chant S. at Churchill and was coming off a front-running score in the June 20 Audubon S. in Louisville.

Pedigree Notes:

Field Pass is one of only two named foals out of his dam, a pure sprinter whose eight career wins were all at five furlongs.

Lemon Drop Kid's 46 graded winners have come on every surface and have included GI Kentucky Oaks winner Lemons Forever. Damsire Runaway Groom, who, like Lemon Drop Kid, won the GI Travers S., counts 61 stakes winners among his daughters' foals.

KEENELAND MEET GENERATES $63M IN HANDLE

All-sources wagering during Keeneland's five-day summer meeting, which concluded Sunday, totaled $63,299,331, with average daily all-sources handle reaching $12,659,866. Wagering was boosted by a single-day all-sources handle for Saturday's 10-race Toyota Blue Grass card of $23,834,972, second only to the record $25,809,200 set for last year's 11-race Blue Grass Day card. The All-Stakes Pick Five Saturday handled $1,395,051, well above the former record of $1,079,197 set on Blue Grass Day last year.

Keeneland's first-ever summer meet was created after the track's traditional 16-day spring meet was cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic. It was conducted without fans and with a limited number of owners in attendance.

"Horsemen and fans alike highly anticipated the Summer Meet, and their expectations were exceeded by the breathtaking level of racing we enjoyed here this week," Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "I can't express how much we missed our fans at Keeneland, and we thank them for their strong support from afar. This pandemic created a number of operational and logistical challenges for us to make this season a reality. I am so proud of the collaboration between state and local health officials, our horsemen, our corporate partners and our Keeneland team, all of whom worked tirelessly to create a safe environment on track and deliver such incredible racing."

FIFTH STRAIGHT BELMONT TITLE FOR BROWN

Chad Brown notched 23 wins to finish as the leading trainer at the Belmont spring/summer meet for the fifth consecutive time and jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. posted 34 victories to lead all riders as the 25-day meet concluded Sunday at Belmont Park. Klaravich Stables led all owners with 13 wins, outpacing second-place finisher Michael Dubb, who had seven victories.

Ortiz was the leading rider for the second time in the last three Belmont spring/summer meets, compiling a 34-23-13 record in 128 mounts, winning at more than a 26% clip.

Live racing shifts to upstate New York when the 40-day Saratoga meet opens July 16.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

by Andrea Branchini

Saturday's GIII Appalachian S. winner Enola Gay and her dam Dakota Queen carry names of World War II flying machines (with parallel connections to family females). Enola Gay is the world-famous nickname of the B-29 aircraft that dropped the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima in August 1945 (mother of the pilot, Paul Tibbets, was Enola Gay Tibbets), while Dakota Queen was the Italy-based B-24 bomber valiantly captained by George McGovern in WWII; he made a dangerous emergency landing, saving his crew aboard the badly damaged plane, which was named after his wife Eleanor. Both Tibbets and McGovern were Dakotans. George McGovern was a long-serving senator for South Dakota and unsuccessful presidential candidate against Richard Nixon in 1972. Time is so kind to significant names.

Civil Union, the lightest-raced horse in Sunday's River Memories S. at Belmont, stepped up to become the last stakes winner of the meet.

Rallying to a first-out victory for Chad Brown two summers ago, the homebred failed to build on that effort in two subsequent tries and was third when debuting for this barn Jan. 30. Annexing a 10-furlong local allowance June 21, she was made the fourth favorite in this marathon test and stalked the pace from the outside in third through pokey fractions of :24.52, :50.07 and 1:16.80. Drawing alongside the pacesetter three furlongs from home, the bay went on with it passing the eighth pole and stoutly repelled the bid of favored Olympic Games from there to score.

"I knew I would have enough horse down the lane," said winning rider Jose Ortiz. "When I asked her the first time, she moved beautifully. She's a very big filly, so I knew the distance wasn't going to be a problem for her."

"Ortiz said that he had plenty of horse and was going nice and relaxed the whole way," confirmed trainer Shug McGaughey. "He had her in perfect position behind that slow pace. I think Jose made a big difference there. I think he rode a perfect race."

The second black-type winner and fourth black-type performer already out of her 13-year-old dam, Civil Union has a juvenile full-brother named Battle of Britain and another full-brother from this season. Photograph is a half-sister to G1SW Lines of Battle (War Front) and GISW War Flag (War Front). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Another Miracle took last August's Skidmore S. at Saratoga in his first turf attempt, and was fifth in Belmont's GIII Futurity S. before outrunning 19-1 odds to be third in the GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint Nov. 1. He was fifth at odds-on in Tampa's Inaugural S. on the dirt Dec. 7, and was subsequently transferred from the barn of now-retired Gary Contessa to Joe Orseno. Seventh after a rough beginning in the Mar. 21 Texas Glitter S. at Gulfstream, the dark bay showed a spread-out series of drills in Hallandale prepping for this return and was sporting blinkers for the first time here.

Jumping out well from the inside gate, Another Miracle sat within striking distance of a contested pace. He inched closer and made an inside-to-out move at the head of the lane, and kicked home resolutely over the top to take over late and beat Louisiana-by-way-of-Delaware invader Jack the Umpire to the line.

"His first race of the year, he had only come to me 13 days before that," Orseno noted. "Gary Contessa, who had him as a 2-year-old, sent him to me in great shape and he was ready to run. He just didn't get the best trip that day. He broke poorly and then started to run and make the same kind of run he was making today, but he got caught in a couple of switches and had to be stopped and steadied. It was a better race than it looked like on paper. We thought about trying a race last week at Gulfstream, but decided this was a better spot. I loved where he was sitting in this race. I don't think he's the kind of horse who wants to be in front. He prefers coming off the pace. I put blinkers on him today just to keep him a little more focused, not to put any speed in him. All I told [rider] Paco [Lopez] was 'Break good and he will run good.'"

The winner's dam, who won the 2008 Princess Elizabeth S. at Woodbine, was acquired by a group that includes the Green family's D.J. Stables for $160,000 in foal to Curlin at the 2015 Keeneland November sale. She produced a Flatter filly in 2019 and a Curlin filly this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Claimed by these connections for $62,500 last February, Cordiality defended her title in the2019 Fran's Valentine S. for Cal-breds that May at Santa Anita, but went missing until this year's Fran's Valentine, held June 6, finishing fifth behind Super Patriot. Zipping right out to a clear lead this time over a course and distance she'd already won over, the hard knocker posted splits of :23.17, :47.08 and 1:10.42 and always looked like a winner as Super Patriot flew home late to cut the margin.

"Cordiality was much fitter today and she loves Del Mar," said winning trainer Tim Yakteen. "This was a prep for the [Aug. 15] Solana Beach S.--that's what we're looking at next. She's always been a super honest horse and I loved her even before we claimed her. Her start date this year was delayed almost 60 days by the COVID situation when racing was shut down. Starting her career in $25,000 maiden-claiming company here Jan. 20, Tournesol finished full of run to graduate by a neck before finishing third in the local Mrs. Presidentress S. Feb. 17. Finishing last--later elevated one spot via disqualification--after clipping heels in a starter optional claimer Mar. 22, she annexed a similar spot when last seen May 3.

Off as the third choice in this outing, the bargain-basement Keeneland September buy dropped back to run second-last along the fence behind a :24.23 quarter and caboosed the field past a :48.07 half. Swinging into the five path and carried out even further while steadying a bit at the top of the lane, the chestnut appeared to face too big of a deficit to catch tripped-out favorite Yesterdayoncemore as late as the sixteenth pole, but charged furiously to just get up late. The chalk was well clear for second money.

"At the top of the stretch, when Yesterdayoncemore opened up, I said, 'We're going to finish a good second,'" winning trainer Saffie Joseph said. "I told Edgard [Zayas] that the distance was really going to help her. She really has a turn of foot, but I didn't think she was going to get her. She really had to kick in and she did."

The winner is the fourth black-type scorer for Gainesway's Karakontie, moving him into a three-way tie for third among second-crop sires. Tournesol's second dam is a half-sister to European champion and 2003 GI Breeders' Cup Mile heroine Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}). She is the first foal out of a dam who sold for $200,000 with her full-sister in utero to Sean Fitzhenry at Fasig-Tipton November last fall. Magic of Reality has a juvenile Kantharos filly named If You Wish and produced that aforementioned Karakontie foal, a filly, Feb. 10. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

EMPIRE OF WAR (c, 4, Declaration of War--Shehadmefromhello, by Empire Maker) scored in his first two turf tries as a juvenile, the latter of which came in the Awad S. at Belmont, but had gone winless in eight starts since and was last seen running fifth in a Gulfstream optional claimer Mar. 28. Made the 23-10 favorite here, the homebred settled in fifth behind a runoff leader through splits of :23.30 and :46.40. Overhauling the tiring pacesetter past the sixteenth pole in tandem with Morocco (Pioneerof the Nile), Empire of War dug in to edge that foe by a half-length. Feb. 15 at Tampa. Returning as a lukewarm 3-2 favorite here, the homebred tracked from second through a :22.88 quarter, surged past the pacesetter a furlong from home and outdueled Fair Regis (Bustin Stones) to prevail by a half-length. READY TO REPEAT (g, 2, More Than Ready--Christine Daae {SP, $120,590}, by Giant's Causeway) earned a solid 70 Beyer Speed Figure for a close second-place finish over the Tapeta June 14, and blasted away from the gate here to post splits of :21.37 and :43.95 en route to a 1 3/4-length success at 5-2. Mark Casse-trained firsters Gretzky the Great (Nyquist) and Master Spy (Silent Name {Jpn}) completed the exacta and trifecta, respectively. HEAVENLY CURLIN (f, 3, Curlin--Taste Of Heaven {Aus}, by Encosta de Lago {Aus}), out of a half-sister to important stallion Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) from an extremely potent and highly coveted Australian family, was 10th in her turfy debut at Gulfstream Dec. 7. She stepped forward to be third going a mile on the Big A main track Feb. 16, and was 7-1 this time trying her third surface in as many starts. Away well from the rail, the bay hugged the fence while off the pace in third last. Hard ridden and seemingly up and down until midway around the second bend, Heavenly Curlin began to rev up at the top of the lane as she worked her way out into the clear. She got her feet under her and straightened up in midstretch, and leveled off smartly from there to draw off by 1 3/4 lengths. Stablemate Second Grace (Summer Front) was second best. The winner, whose dam was acquired for A$1.5-million by Craig Bernick and John Sikura's Elevage at the 2014 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale, has a 2-year-old Medaglia d'Oro half-brother who was sent to Japan after fetching $400,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. PIONEER MAN (c, 4, Pioneerof the Nile--Causeway Lady, by Giant's Causeway) debuted a winner on turf here last July and repeated over track and trip Sept. 22. Fourth as the favorite in a local optional claimer Nov. 10, he was last seen running sixth in the Gio Ponti S. at Aqueduct 19 days later. Off as the 3-1 second choice here, the homebred broke outwardly but forwardly before tracking from the pocket through fractions of :24.53 and :48.85. Switching four deep at the head of the lane, he was late to switch leads, but surged to the fore in the final sixteenth to triumph by three-quarters of a length. Magic Tapit (Tapit) won a tight photo for second. The winner's second dam is five-time GSW Mystic Lady (Thunder Gulch). Her dam is responsible for a juvenile American Pharoah colt named American Diamond and produced a filly by Cairo Prince this term. MARKET RUMOR (f, 3, Afleet Alex--Taylor Street, by Street Sense)'s best prior finish came when she completed the exacta at 26-1 in the Gulfstream slop second out Apr. 26. Most recently, she was fourth when stretched to a one-turn Churchill mile June 20--re-opposing Heavenly Sis (Hard Spun) was second that day. Given a 5-2 chance, the bay scraped paint around the first bend and sat in third tracking a pair of dueling leaders down the backside. She made a quick move around the second bend with the first finish line in play, and couldn't be caught from there as she streaked to a 5 3/4-length graduation over Heavenly Sis. The winner is out of a full-sister to these connections' GSW Thatcher Street. She has a 2-year-old half-sister by Hard Spun and a yearling half-sister by Carpe Diem. Quickly in front and clear, the homebred posted splits of :22.68 and :46.63 and never found a challenger despite struggling with his lead changes. Away a beat slowly, the $17,000 OBS March buy settled in eighth behind a sharp :21.96 quarter, started to advance four wide passing the five-sixteenths pole and swept to the fore inside the furlong marker en route to a 1 3/4-length upset. Away well from the rail, the bay was out-footed by all but one as a pair of runners sped away to duel. Still left with tons to do at the top of the lane, he kept plugging away down the center of the track and swept to the front late to prevail by a widening 2 1/4 lengths.
