BUSINESSLIKE BOOK 3 OPENER AT KEENELAND FRIDAY

Hip 1614 | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale opened its two-session Book 3 with a day of solid trade Friday in Lexington, with bloodstock agent Mike Ryan making the day's highest bid of $625,000 to acquire a colt by red-hot sire Into Mischief (hip 1614).

In all, 200 yearlings grossed $21,803,500 during the session for an average of $109,018 and a median of $85,000. With 134 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate remained elevated at 40.12%. The auction's cumulative buy-back rate stands at 39.72%.

Last year's first Book 3 session produced a $1-millon topper and 10 lots brought $500,000 or over. Friday's top lot was the only to top that mark. In all, 234 yearlings sold in the 2019 auction's fifth session for a total of $44,726,000. The average was $191,137 and the median was $160,000.

"We were shopping all day, and it's the same story," Ryan said. "If you have what the buyers want, you'll be rewarded. It's simple, but it's unfortunate because there are a lot of nice horses that are probably not bringing what they are worth. It's really selective. If you don't meet the criteria, it's a long road. But the top tier is very solid and there is not much drop off in the top horses." Cont. p3

NOVEMBER AUCTION ANTICIPATED FOR ZAYAT HORSES UNDER RECEIVERSHIP

by T. D. Thornton

Attorneys representing MGG Investment Group, LP, which is the plaintiff in a $24.5-million Kentucky civil lawsuit alleging fraud and loan defaults against Ahmed Zayat and his family's Zayat Stables, LLC, disclosed in a legal document filed Sept. 18 that the court-appointed receiver in that case intends to hold a November auction to sell off horses that are being held as collateral against the unpaid debts.

News about this anticipated November auction was made public in the form of a letter dated Friday and filed in United States Bankruptcy Court, District of New Jersey (Newark) by MGG's counsel. Cont. p12

Tommy and Wyndee Eastham's Legacy Bloodstock sold Friday's top-priced filly, a daughter of Into Mischief (hip 1253) who sold for $400,000 to Joey Platts.

"The penalties are still high for any vetting, but if you are able to check all the boxes, we've had a good experience and people have wanted the ones who have gone through and checked all the boxes," Tommy Eastham said. "But it's still a tight market. Yesterday at the barns, we probably were as busy as we have been in a couple of years, even compared to '19, which was a huge year. But now they are putting a budget on the horses, so even if you have nine or 10 scopes, you still need to be careful just because there is a ceiling. But I think there is a fair market."

Sweetwater Trading Co.'s Kim Lloyd made two purchases during Friday's session and three overall at the auction so far.

"I think the market is surprisingly good for the high-end horses," Lloyd said. "Horses with great physicals are selling well today, which I expected, but they are selling for more money than I expected. On the other side of that, the horses that don't meet all of the expectations of the buyers are not selling well, if they sell. So, it's still a good market considering our circumstances. Both Fasig and Keeneland have done a great job and everyone should be grateful for their efforts."

The Keeneland September sale continues through next Friday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Into Mischief Provides Late Fireworks Again

Mike Ryan | Keeneland

For the second day in a row, a Keeneland session was topped by a late-selling son of Into Mischief bred by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings as bloodstock agent Mike Ryan made a final bid of $625,000 to acquire hip 1614 on behalf of an undisclosed client in the closing stages of Friday's fifth session of the September sale. Consigned by the Vanlangendonck's Summerfield, the bay colt is out of graded placed True Romance (Yes It's True).

"He was an exceptional colt, by an exceptional sire, and bred by an exceptional breeder," Ryan summed up the yearling's appeal. "All the way across the board. He was as good an Into Mischief as you could ever want to lay eyes on. Those good Into Mischiefs, you've got to reach for them. And he was exceptional."

Of the yearling's placement in Book 3, Ryan said, "I think he was well-placed because he stood out, but he would have been a standout physical in any book. Into Mischief is an extraordinary stallion. We haven't seen anything like him in quite some time."

Barbara Banke's Stonestreet operation purchased True Romance, with this Into Mischief colt in utero, for $350,000 at the 2018 Keeneland November sale. True Romance died in 2019 and this is her only foal.

"He was a colt that just oozed power, speed and stamina and he just happens to be by a sire that really provides that," said Summerfield's Andrew Vanlangendonck. "It's another Stonestreet-bred and raised horse. With their program, they just keep pushing out one right after the other. And we're very pleased and happy they provided us with these horses."

During Thursday's session, Peter Leidel made a final phone bid

Upstart Colt a Long-Running Success Story for Machmer Hall

Carrie Brogden | Keeneland

A colt by freshman sire Upstart shot to the top of the leader board midway through Friday's fifth session of the Keeneland September sale when bringing a final bid of $410,000 from bloodstock agent Liz Crow. The dark bay yearling (hip 1467) was bred and consigned by Machmer Hall and the Brogdens' operation traces its involvement with the family back three generations. He is the first foal out of Miss Baby Betty (Warrior's Reward), whose unraced dam Baby Betty (El Corredor) produced graded winner Sweet Whiskey (Old Fashioned).

Baby Betty, named after Carrie Brogden's grandmother, briefly left the Machmer Hall band, but was purchased back again for $40,000 at the 2018 Keeneland November sale under the name Machmer Hall - Coming Home.

"We sold Baby Betty when Sweet Whiskey became a graded stakes winner for $400,000 [in 2014] and then when she came back, we bought her back," Brogden explained. "That's where 'Coming Home' came from."

Brogden's mother Sandy Fubini added, "My mom's been gone a long time, but she was such a special woman. Her maiden name was Machmer and my grandfather had Machmer Hall named after him, so the whole farm goes back to them."

From his first crop to race, Airdrie Stud's Upstart has been represented by 10 winners to date, including GI Runhappy Hopeful S. runner-up and 'TDN Rising Star' Reinvestment Risk.

"When Airdrie called me about standing Upstart at stud, I begged and pleaded for a share, so they let us buy a share in him," Brogden said. "And this mare was bred on that share. I just think Upstart has it all. Every single one I've had has had tremendous brains, they have bone, they have soundness."

Brogden knew she had something special with her Upstart colt early on.

"He has been like this from the beginning," Brogden said of the yearling. "I've been telling the guys at Airdrie the whole time, 'I have a special Upstart, I have a special Upstart.' Last night I texted when we knew how he was going down and I said, 'Now I know I have a special Upstart.'"

Platts Gets His Into Mischief

Hip 1253 | Keeneland

Joey Platts came to Keeneland with an eye towards buying a yearling filly by Into Mischief and, while the competition was fierce in Books 1 and 2, the Wyoming native was able to add a youngster by the in-demand Spendthrift stallion early in Friday's first Book 3 session. Platts, bidding in the back show ring alongside trainer Phil D'Amato, paid $400,000 to acquire hip 1253.

"It seems like every time I watch TVG there are three or four Into Mischiefs that win all over the country," Platts said. "I've got one now [Mischiefs Model] that ran the other day at Laurel first out and ran second. That's what I came here looking for, an Into Mischief. We finally got a decent one, we hope."

Of the filly's final price, Platts said, "It was a bargain compared to the prior three or four days of the sale. I've been here since day one. The ones I liked were hard to buy. I was on the two that went for over a million."

The bay filly was consigned by Legacy Bloodstock on behalf of her breeder, Spendthrift Farm. B. Wayne Hughes's operation purchased her dam, group-placed Ameristralia (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), for $370,800 at the 2014 Inglis Easter Sale. The mare's first foal, a colt by Malibu Moon, sold to trainer John Kimmel for $300,000 at this year's OBS March sale.

"We just liked her, looks like she is going to have some decent scope to her," Platts said of the individual. "She's a later foal [Apr. 28], so she still has some growing to go. She looked the part, looks like she's got some athletic ability."

Earlier in the sale, Platts purchased a filly by Empire Maker (hip 498) for $210,000 and he partnered with Slam Dunk Racing on a Frosted filly (hip 376) for $100,000.

With his racing stable now stocked with yearlings, Platts still wasn't done shopping at Keeneland.

"I have to find three with Becky Thomas to pinhook," Platts said. "I've got my racing side taken care of, now I'm going to the pinhook side."

The oil and gas industry executive enjoyed success in that arena with Thomas this year when selling a son of Ghostzapper for $750,000 at the OBS Spring Sale. The colt had been purchased at Keeneland September last year for $250,000.

Bloodstock agent Donato Lanni continued his shopping spree for the SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership, going to $400,000 to acquire a colt by Uncle Mo from the Darby Dan Farm consignment. The yearling was bred by John Oxley, who purchased his dam 'TDN Rising Star' Delightful Mary (Limehouse) for $500,000 as an OBS April juvenile in 2010. Graded stakes-winning Delightful Mary was third in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and was named Canada's champion 2-year-old filly.

"He was a cool dude, super chill and classy," Lanni said of the colt, who he said reminded him of GIII Los Alamitos Derby winner Uncle Chuck (Uncle Mo). "He's a neat horse and we were happy to have him."

The SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership has loaded up on potential stallion prospects this week in Lexington. Through five sessions, the group has purchased 26 yearlings for $10,740,000.

Asked if the absence of major foreign buyers had enabled the partnership to be more active on the results sheets, Lanni said, "Definitely. When you drive up to Keeneland and you don't see those big jumbo jets on the runway across the street, you know you have a shot at buying what you want. We were fortunate that we were able to buy a lot of nice colts for the group."

VETERAN HORSEMAN BEAU LANE STILL PURSUING A DREAM

by Katie Ritz

78-year old horseman Beau Lane at last year's Keeneland September Sale | Keeneland

Beau Lane has been in the horse business for half a century. He came to Lexington 23 years ago with six broodmares in tow and $50 in his pocket. Not long after, three of those mares became stakes producers--a harbinger of things to come.

Since then, the veteran horseman has grown his band of breeding stock and now has 30 broodmares at his Woodline Farm near Paris.

While he's never been able to sign tickets on million-dollar broodmares, he said he doesn't find it necessary.

"I usually don't spend over $40,000 for a mare. I don't think you have to," Lane said. "I've never been able to afford those $500,000 mares, but I've had to compete with them. I see the advantage of buying a hard-knocking race mare."

This year, Beau Lane Bloodstock offered six yearlings for Book 1 at Keeneland September. While none approached the coveted seven-figure mark, for Lane it was a successful two days of sale.

His first yearling to go through the ring, a colt by Flatter bred by Lane in partnership, brought $330,000 from Ben Glass, on behalf of Gary and Mary West.

"This colt was about as nice of a Flatter that you're ever going to see," he said. "He had a way of moving that would catch your attention. A lot of people looked at him because they knew the family."

The colt is out of the Smart Strike mare Abraqat, a daughter of dual Grade I winner Spun Sugar (Awesome Again). Lane picked up the mare in foal to Albertus Maximus at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale for $55,000.

"I thought she was a beautiful mare and I love the way she's bred," he recalled. "I thought she would bring more than she did."

The mare had gone through the ring during the 11th of 13 sessions of the sale. Lane said he had not been planning on bidding that day.

While recounting the purchase, Lane nodded toward the back walking ring at Keeneland and said, "If you just wait up there until you see 'that one,' it doesn't have to be the first day, the second day, or even the first week, but when you see that one walk up and you get that feeling, go for it. They're the ones that will make you money."

Hip 29 was easily the most expensive of the mare's three foals Lane has led over to the sales thus far. The Albertus Maximus filly Abraqat was carrying at the time of her purchase made $20,000 here two years ago, while the mare's colt by Carpe Diem fetched $65,000 last September.

During the second day of Book 1 this year, a yearling filly by First Samurai out of the unraced Unbridled's Song mare Team Hansen sold for $250,000.

Lane purchased Team Hansen in 2014 at the Keeneland November Sale for $75,000. Two years ago, her Into Mischief filly brought $600,000, the highest-priced yearling Lane has ever sold, and last year, her Awesome Again filly brought $185,000.

Of this year's First Samurai yearling purchased by Frankie Brothers as agent for Bruce Lunsford, Lane said, "Frankie trained First Samurai [for Lunsford and Lansdon Robbins III] and when we pulled her out he said, 'Woah, she looks just like the old man.' She was the real deal--a lot of presence, a lot of class. We knew she was going to be one of the top-selling First Samurai yearlings."

The filly was the only representative for her sire in the first two books of the sale.

Lane said he prefers to match his mares to stallions that will complement the mare best, rather than always breeding to the traditional commercial sire.

"I spend a lot of time on it. I try to take a young mare to a proven horse when I can, but I will sometimes do the opposite if the pedigree fits," he explained. "My son-in-law is always telling me I need to breed to more freshman sires because that's where the market is. I will do that, but I have to see the types match and have the pedigree come together. If you can get on a stallion's train, like Into Mischief, like Constitution, they will take you far and fast."

On finding the right mares for his program, Lane said he relies on advice he received years ago from the late Marvin "Junior" Little of Newstead Farm in Virginia.

"Junior told me many years ago, 'Beau, you can buy mares that aren't stakes producers, but you've got to have a great family.' So all the mares in our operation are from great families," he said.

A Virginia-bred himself, Lane got his start in the horse world with show horses.

"I once had the national champion Appaloosa stallion," he recalled. "I got started breeding Appaloosas and Quarter Horses. But then I found the best Quarter Horses I had were out of Thoroughbred mares. I just kept looking for better and better horses, and I think somebody that does that will end up with a Thoroughbred. The business has been awfully good to me. I've been very blessed that I've been around good horses and good people."

For Lane, his greatest pride comes when people seek out horses from his consignment.

"We had a lady come by the other day shopping through Book 2 and she asked what we had," he said. "When I told her we didn't have anything, she said, 'That's a shame. I'd rather buy a horse from you than anybody because you raise good horses.' So that always makes you feel good. We really take pride in the horses we raise. We try to be straight with people and we'll tell them anything we know. We want to represent a good horse," Lane added.

Beau Lane and wife Gail at their consignment at Keeneland | Katie Ritz

The Beau Lane Bloodstock consignment is a family affair. His daughter J.B. Orem can be found at the end of a shank throughout the day, while Lane's wife Gail and son-in-law Michael assist with the many tasks of running the consignment. Before long, the next generation will be lending a hand.

"I have a grandson learning the business and I'm trying to keep him in it," Lane said with a proud smile. "I feel there's no better business in the world than the horse business."

Even in the current climate, Lane said he has confidence in the horsemen and women that make up the industry.

"The way the market is going now, I think it's going to correct itself if we don't make it more difficult," he said. "There are a lot of young people coming in that are very intelligent. I see a lot of people that started 15 or 20 years ago that have really sharpened their tools and have gotten really good at what they do. I'm tickled to death for them."

He cautioned that the industry needs to do better in supporting the underdogs of the business.

"There's a lot of really good horsemen that feed this industry," he noted. "From what I can see, we have a tendency to make it harder for them. They have a right to enjoy this just as much as anybody because they work just as hard. To me, money should not qualify you to have a good horse."

Lane has raised several graded stakes contenders, including dual GISW Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway) and this year's talented undefeated juvenile Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music). But he's still searching to find a top-class horse to race under his own banner. Luckily, he has a few prospects in the pipeline.

When his Gun Runner colt out of the Grade II-placed Blip n'Th Bye (Tale of Ekati) did not meet his reserve and was led out unsold at $435,000 during Book 1, Lane said he was a bit relieved.

“I’ve had that family for four generations and I liked him so much from the time he was born. I really didn’t want to sell him so I put a high reserve on him,” he admitted. “We came within $5,000 of our reserve. But he’s one of the very nicest horses I’ve raised in the last 25 years. I don’t think I’m going to wait for the next one, so I want to keep him and race him.”

The 78-year-old horseman said he finds no place for himself in an “old folks home” until he has reached his ultimate goal.

“I came from a little red-clay farm in southern Virginia. I had a dream. I wanted to raise a really great horse. I’ve raised a lot of really good horses, but I still haven’t raised that great horse yet. I’m running out of time, but I’m getting closer.”

That letter pertains to a separate court proceeding initiated Sept. 14 by three other creditors who are attempting to force an "involuntary bankruptcy" petition against Zayat Stables. If the forced bankruptcy moves forward, it could keep MGG (and other creditors who are not part of either court action) from collecting on debts that MGG claims are backed by its own "first priority perfected security interest in all of Zayat Stables' personal property, equine collateral, accounts and proceeds."

Complicating matters further, Zayat himself (as an individual, not as his racing stable) filed for Chapter 7 protection Sept. 8 in a federal bankruptcy court in New Jersey, claiming to be $19 million in debt. And within that filing, the insolvent 2015 Triple Crown-winning breeder and owner disclosed that he is a party to three other active lawsuits involving money woes.

So right now the tangled financial mess involves numerous creditors jockeying for position to secure spots in a disputed pecking order that could determine which might be first to recoup proceeds from the Zayat horses held in the Kentucky receivership.

That's important, because the federal court with jurisdiction in Zayat's personal bankruptcy has already notified the 132 non-priority, unsecured-claim creditors in that case that "no property appears to be available to pay creditors." So reaping proceeds from the sale of Zayat Stables' horses appears to be the only means for some of the creditors to get paid.

The Sept. 18 letter from MGG's attorneys was an attempt to slow down the process in the forced bankruptcy attempt. The day before, the three petitioning creditors in that involuntary bankruptcy case (Zayat's former financial advisor is one of the parties) filed an Application for Order Shortening Time, in which they requested that an expedited hearing be set for Sept. 22.

"We are writing to request that any hearing on the Motion be scheduled for no earlier than Sept. 29 as the Petitioning Creditors have not presented any emergent circumstances that would require a hearing to be held as quickly as Sept. 22," the MGG counsel wrote.

"The underlying premise of the Motion appears to be the Petitioning Creditors' dissatisfaction with a Kentucky State Court receivership proceeding commenced by MGG on January 22, 2020, in the Fayette Circuit Court, in which Elizabeth Z. Woodward has been appointed receiver. The Receivership proceeding, which has been pending for almost eight months, has been heavily contested by Zayat Stables, which has not only failed in its efforts to date to get the Receivership dismissed, but has suffered the entry of judgment against it in the amount of $24,534,166.13.

"Substantially all of the 'issues' raised by the Petitioning Creditors in support of their Motion have already been advanced in the Receivership by Zayat Stables, to no avail.

“The Receiver and her retained professionals have, under contentious circumstances, made substantial progress in monetizing Zayat Stables' assets in a manner typical for the liquidation of equine collateral and consistent with accepted industry practices."

The letter continued: "We are informed that the Receiver does not anticipate selling any of the horses or other components of MGG's Collateral until a scheduled auction in November 2020, to be conducted by a recognized Thoroughbred auction house, such as Keeneland; nor will any of the proceeds of the MGG Collateral being held or to be collected by the Receiver be disbursed other than for the ordinary course care and maintenance of the Zayat Stables' horses.

"Notwithstanding that MGG has a first priority security interest in all of the assets that the Receiver is charged with liquidating,

CASSE HAS THREE CHANCES TO WIN THIRD WOODBINE MILE

War of Will | Coady

Mark Casse has a strong chance to take home his third GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile with a trio of contenders set to line up for Saturday's "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

Gary Barber's War of Will (War Front) tries to secure a Grade I double here off a win in Keeneland's GI Maker's Mark Mile S. July 10. Winner of the GIII LeComte S., GII Risen Star S. and GI Preakness S. last season, the bay capped his sophomore term with a ninth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 2. Returned to the turf for the first time since his 2-year-old campaign, he finished fifth in the GI Shoemaker Mile May 25, but was disqualified and placed fifth for interference. War of Will made amends last time, getting up in time for a nose success in the Maker's Mark Mile.

"He's coming off that nice win in the Maker's Mark Mile and he's trained as good as I've ever seen him train since that race," Casse told the Woodbine notes team. "We're expecting him to run well."

His stablemate March to the Arch (Arch) enters off a victory in the course-and-distance GII King Edward S. Aug. 15. Victor of the GII Wise Dan S. last year, the Live Oak homebred kicked off this term with a win in the Sunshine Millions Turf in January and was third in both the GIII Tampa Bay S. and GIII Appleton S. over the winter. Tenth in the Shoemaker Mile, he was sixth when attempting a title defense in the Wise Dan June 20 prior to his score at this oval last time.

Rounding out the Casse trio is Barber's Olympic Runner (Gio Ponti). A stakes winner on the local synthetic, the gelding was second to local legend Pink Lloyd (Old Forester) in both the GIII Bold Venture S. Aug. 15 and GIII Vigil S. Sept. 5.

A talented member of the fairer sex, Starship Jubilee (Indy Wind) takes on the boys in this event. She won her first four races of the season in the Sunshine Millions F/M Turf Jan. 18, GIII Suwanee River S. Feb. 8, GII Hillsborough S. Mar. 7 and GII Ballston Spa S. July 25. The bay enters off a fourth-place finish in the GI Diana S. at Saratoga Aug. 23.

Another interesting contender here is the sophomore colt Shirl's Speight (Speightstown). Tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star' off his eight-length graduation sprinting on turf here July 4, the Fipke homebred was a decisive winner when stretched to two turns on the synthetic in the GIII Marine S. July 25. Originally scheduled to make his next start in the Sept. 5 GI Kentucky Derby, the bay was withdrawn from contention after developing a cough the weekend before the race. The day the scratch was announced, his connections had named the Oct. 3 GI Preakness S. as his next target, but he shows up here back on turf and taking on his elders instead.

"This [Mile] is still a big step, but it's better than the alternative," said trainer Roger Attfield. "There was the dirt, the ship, I couldn't send help with him [due to COVID-19 restrictions]."

ANTOINETTE HEADLINES BELMONT OAKS

Antoinette | Sarah Andrew

Godolphin's Antoinette (Hard Spun) tops a five-horse field in this year's renewal of the GI Belmont Oaks Saturday. Winner of an off-the-turf version of the Tepin S. last year, the bay was third in both the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 21 and the Gardenia S. at Oaklawn May 1. Third again in what is traditionally the local prep for this event, the GIII Wonder Again S. June 20, she completed the trifecta in the GI CCA Oaks July 18. Antoinette returned to the winner's circle last time with a front-running victory in the Saratoga Oaks Aug. 16.

A pair of European invaders will take their shot at the likely favorite in Magic Attitude (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Neige Blanche (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}). Victorious in the G3 Prix Vanteaux in May, she was privately purchased by Roy and Gretchen Jackson's Lael Stables and was second in her first start for them in the G1 Prix Saint Alary June 14. Magic Attitude was fifth in her final European start in the G1 Prix de Diane July 5 for trainer Fabrice Chappet and was transferred to Arnaud Delacour. She receives Lasix in this first start for her new barn.

Winning two of her three starts as a juvenile in France last year, Neige Blanche was fourth in her sophomore bow Feb. 22 and was third in the Prix Caravelle May 11. She captured the G3 Prix Cleopatre June 6, after which she was privately purchased by these connections and sent stateside to Leonard Powell.

Rounding out the field are Setting the Mood (Lea), most recently a head second going 1 3/8 miles at Saratoga Aug. 26; and Key Biscayne (Brethren), who was third in the Saratoga Oaks.

MR. BIG NEWS TUNES UP FOR PREAKNESS

Mr. Big News in the post parade for the Oaklawn S. | Coady

Third-place GI Kentucky Derby finisher Mr. Big News (Giant's Causeway) geared up for Pimlico's Oct. 3 GI Preakness S. with a half-mile breeze in :48 4/5 (22/76) Friday at Churchill Downs. Regular exercise rider Tony Quinones was in irons.

"He was very sharp this morning," said trainer Bret Calhoun. "I know it was cool. He went a little quicker than we wanted, but did it very easy, well within himself. He was full of energy, kind of what we wanted to see. It was what we wanted or better."

Mr. Big News earned a free entry in the Preakness with his win in the Apr. 11 Oaklawn S. Calhoun said his charge will work again Saturday, Sept. 26, which will be his final breeze before the Preakness. If it goes smoothly, Mr. Big News will head to Baltimore for the 1 3/16-mile Classic.

"He's a fit horse; he doesn't need a lot," Calhoun said of next week's work. "I'm not looking for fitness. Just maintain what we've got and hold his edge."

Owner Chester Thomas and Calhoun said the strong finish by Mr. Big News at the end of the Derby helped determine their colt's Preakness path.

"The free ride in the Preakness was there," said Calhoun, "but he needed to prove that he belonged with that group of horses."

AZHBPA TO TURF PARADISE RACING PROPOSAL: WE'VE CONDITIONS TOO

by Dan Ross

The Turf Paradise grandstand | Coady

The Arizona Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA) would be amenable to Turf Paradise's latest proposal to conduct a live 2020-21 race meet as long as certain conditions of their own are met, according to a letter written by AZHBPA president Bob Hutton dated Friday and obtained by the TDN.

"Because we are the heart and soul of horse racing in Arizona, we offer you all we have to help make Turf Paradise the venue for racing it can be and once was," Hutton wrote, pointing to the horsemen's horses, approval rights for signals and purse money. However, "there are conditions," he added, arguing that the condition of the facility and grounds "gives us pause as to the genuineness of your proposal."

The letter is in response to a missive Turf Paradise sent to the horsemen Thursday, detailing a proposed live meet next year that will run Jan. 2 through May 1.

For that proposed meet to go ahead, however, Turf Paradise management listed in the letter a number of caveats, namely that $2.1 million of disputed purse account monies be returned to Turf Paradise, and that the Arizona horsemen form a new representative organization or for the current AZHBPA board members and their executive director to resign.

These purse account funds have been the latest bone of contention in a long-running dispute between Arizona horsemen and management of Turf Paradise. Track general manager Vince Francia previously told the TDN that these funds contractually belong to Turf Paradise for the horsemen that race there.

The horsemen, however, argue that they ultimately wield control over the purse account, as per a prior arbitrated settlement. Indeed, earlier this week a widely circulated email stated that the AZHBPA has secured a good chunk of this money and placed it into a trust to pay purses if and when racing resumes elsewhere.

Francia told the TDN that he has advised facility owner Jerry Simms that the AZHBPA's written rebuttal is an "olive branch" to conduct negotiations, and that all conditions are on the table.

The main conditions outlined in the AZHBPA's Friday response are as follows:

"The first condition is that you, Mr. Simms [Turf Paradise owner], respect the Horsemen's choice of representation and refrain from your attempt to tell us, the Horsemen, who we can have as our representatives. Respect us, our choices, our leadership, our solidarity, and our industry.

"Here is the second condition: Honor the arbitration agreement and allow the AHBPA control of the horsemen's purse account, (with the understanding that it will be used for purses during Turf Paradise's live meet). Additionally, reimburse AHBPA purse money from March 2020, when you killed the contract, to present, what the state law requires: 50% of the OTB revenue, when a contract is not in place.

"This takes us to the third condition: The track must be safe for the horses and people. Right now, the main track, the turf track and the training track are not fit to run on. The backside is full of trenches, power boxes with wires exposed, and the roads and bridle path are in terrible condition. The barns are, as always, dilapidated. And the clubhouse is uninhabitable. No doubt, to meet this condition, a safety inspection will be required.

"If you meet these conditions, we will fully engage in arriving at a new contract. Suffice to say, efforts have been made to resolve our differences, but when you remove the AHBPA from our mutual account so that we, the Horsemen, cannot access our own purse funds, that should have been the end of our efforts to revitalize racing at our venue. Yet, here we are, offering to race again. Join us by respecting our choices and the laws that govern our industry. Then, both being reasonable, we can enter into a new contract."

The AZHBPA's latest overture, said Francia, is a "positive" one. "Mr. Hutton is offering an olive branch to discuss everything, including the two terms that we put forth. Something we both want is to have live racing reactivated here the day after New Year," he said.

"I hope there's resolution for both of our sides," Francia added, "because it effects the livelihood of thousands of people in an industry that has a very ingrained attachment to this state. There's 65 years of memories here."

Francia also struck a more personal note. "When all this is said and done, I grieve the loss of friendship with Bob Hutton. We were good friends, we enjoyed each other's company," he said. "But that friendship has unfortunately been lost. And I understand."

MOUNTAINEER ADDS 12 DATES; CHARLES TOWN CUTS 10 by T.D. Thornton

Charles Town | Coady

Mountaineer Park will be adding 12 dates to its current race meet while Charles Town will drop 10 programs. Both moves were approved Sept. 17 via telephonic meeting of the West Virginia Racing Commission (WVRC).

"The action that causes this was the cancellation of the West Virginia Derby card," WVRC executive director Joe Moore explained to commissioners prior to the 3-0 approval vote for the Mountaineer increase, which will tack on the dozen programs between Dec. 6 and 23.

"Now the $500,000 approved for the West Virginia Derby cannot be used for any other race other than that race as described by statute," Moore said. "But the remainder of races that were also cancelled on that card is what's funding these additional 12 days of live racing at Mountaineer Park."

On the Charles Town 10-date cut, Moore cited "declining gaming revenue both on the lottery side and the racing side that funds the purse funds." He added that the Charles Town Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association submitted a letter supporting the reduction.

Erich Zimny, Charles Town's vice president of racing operations, told the WVRC that depending on the level of the purse account, it is possible that his track would later ask for those dates to be added back in before 2020 comes to a close.

"It's possible," Zimny said, citing the relatively tight horse population as one of several other contributing factors. "Everything's on the table depending on how much money's in there, as you guys know. If it's in there, we'll pay it out."

Chairman Ken Lowe and commissioner J.B. Akers voted in favor of the dates reduction. Commissioner Tony Figaretti cast the lone dissenting vote in the 2-1 decision.

"I'm against this, because every time we turn around, between Charles Town and Mountaineer, it's cut into us," Figaretti said. "They keep losing dates and losing dates. We can't make any money off cutting dates. So I'm 100% against that."

REWARD POSTED IN GREEN MOUNTAIN PARK ARSON INVESTIGATION by T.D. Thornton

The Vermont Arson Tip Award Program is offering a $5,000 reward for information that will lead to the arrest of anyone involved in the suspicious fire that consumed the Green Mountain Park grandstand in the overnight hours of Sept. 16-17.

The former track, located in the southern Vermont town of Pownal near the borders of Massachusetts and New York, last ran a Thoroughbred meet in 1976 and had been closed for racing since 1991 after converting to a greyhound configuration. The building was abandoned and no one was hurt in the blaze, which had to be quelled by 10 fire departments using 20 trucks.

A report issued late Thursday afternoon by the Vermont State Police Fire and Explosion Investigation Unit noted that the fire within the grandstand was not the first in recent months, and that partiers and/or vandals trespassing on the grounds were believed to have been involved.

The report stated that "the building was the scene of several other small fires over the summer which had been put out by the fire department as well as numerous events of vandalism and littering throughout the property. These were deemed to be young adults hanging out in the area and entering the building to vandalize the structure, skateboard, and even more recently, ATV riders were noted inside the structure driving around.

"The fire progression was extensive and it was decided by the fire chief to only fight the fire from the exterior to prevent injury or possible death by any internal firefighting efforts by fire personnel," the report continued. "Based upon the examination of the exterior and noting several areas of collapse in the roof and the damage to heavy support columns to the three-story steel and concrete building it was deemed too dangerous to conduct an internal examination."

The report stated there was no electricity powering the structure. The Berkshire Eagle further reported that the grandstand, which was once fairly secure and monitored by video surveillance, "has sustained water and other damage from roof leaks and a flood that overflowed the nearby Hoosic River and entered the lower sections."

Stephen Soler, managing member of Green Mountain Race Track, LLC, which owns the property, told the Eagle that "a significant amount" had been spent this year to re-secure the building. He said the fire should be considered arson "since they had to tear down boards to get in there."

As recently as April, the Eagle reported, Pownal town officials had been concerned about "reports of youth and others entering the grandstand for parties or other reasons and sometimes starting campfires on the cement floors."

The Eagle quoted a Pownal zoning official who said the town determined in the spring that "it did not have legal authority to force the owners to demolish the grandstand building, which has been informally estimated to cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. But officials will likely reconsider Pownal's options in light of the fire damage."

Green Mountain first hosted Thoroughbreds in 1963 and added Standardbred racing a year later. In 1968, the track was the first on the East Coast to host Sunday racing, drawing busloads of horseplayers from as far away as Philadelphia. Greyhound racing took over in 1976. With the occasional exception of non-pari-mutuel harness racing at several county fairs, there has been no racing of any kind in Vermont since then.

OWNERS PERMITTED TO ATTEND RACES AT SANTA ANITA

Starting on opening day Friday, Sept. 25, licensed owners with a horse entered may attend the races at Santa Anita. Due to COVID-19, space is limited to two licensed owners per horse.

Owners wishing to attend should email Mary Forney, Executive Director of TOC (mforney@toconline.com) to be put on a reservation list each day. Reservations can be made up until 24 hours before race day. For more information, contact her at (626) 826-3782.

The quickest and safest way to access Santa Anita Park is to apply for a Virtual Badge before you arrive at the track. Once your badge is approved remotely, enter through Gate 8 and show your badge to the Association Gate attendant. After you park in the Owner/Trainer lot, go straight to the temperature check and wristband tent to receive your complimentary box. For instructions on accessing the Virtual Badge, click here.

Owners must adhere to the following safety protocols while at Santa Anita Park:

-Masks must be worn at all times unless you are eating or drinking in your box.

-Maintain a social distance of six feet from others.

-Stay on pathways and within the box and apron area.

Licensed owners may come see their horses work between 5:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. at Clocker's Corner.

JOCKEY CLUB UPDATES RULES RELATING TO DIGITAL CERTIFICATES

The Jockey Club has updated the Principal Rules and Requirements of The American Stud Book following approval by the board of stewards of The Jockey Club.

While the changes apply to various parts of the rule book, the more noteworthy changes were made to support the Registry's operations and customers' interactions with the Registry in connection with the increased use of digital certificates of foal registration, which started with the 2018 foal crop. The glossary of terms was expanded to include Certificate Manager and rules 2, 7, and 21 include new references to Digital Certificates or Certificate Managers.

"The updated rule book accounts for recent modernizations to the Registry that streamline processes and enhance customer convenience," said Matt Iuliano, executive vice president and executive director of The Jockey Club. "We recommend that owners and breeders consult registry.jockeyclub.com to find the most current rules in full."

MAGEE APPOINTED CHAIR OF WOODBINE ENTERTAINMENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Christine Magee has been appointed the chair of Woodbine Entertainment's Board of Directors, effective immediately.

"We are thrilled to have someone with Christine's business acumen, experience and leadership be the Chair of our Board of Directors while we continue to grow the sport of horse racing, support and sustain the entire industry in this province, and fulfill our vision of being the top horse racing destination in North America," said Jim Lawson, CEO, Woodbine Entertainment. "As we continue to advance our plans to diversify our business model to sustain the horse racing industry for decades to come, Christine's knowledge, experience and leadership will be invaluable to our efforts."

Magee, who has been on Woodbine Entertainment's Board of Directors since 2015, is the Chair of Sleep Country, the company she co-founded in 1994 and served as its President until 2014. The resident of Oakville, Ontario is also the Chair of the Talent Fund Advisory Council and serves on the Board of Directors of TELUS, Metro Inc., Trillium Health Partners and Plan International Canada, and is a Member of the Morrissette Entrepreneurship Advisory Board of University Western Ontario.

On July 1, 2015, Magee was appointed as a member of the Order of Canada in recognition of her significant contributions to the Canadian business community.

"It's an absolute honour and privilege to step into this role for an organization that has such a rich history and bright future," said Magee. "It's also humbling as I have come to appreciate how important Woodbine Entertainment is to an entire industry that is the way of life for so many Ontarians and a passion for horse racing fans throughout the world."

Magee replaces Clay Horner who is retiring from the organization following a successful tenure as Chair of Woodbine Entertainment since 2015 and a Director since 2002. Long-time board member John Fielding also announced he is retiring from the organization as Director and Chair of the Standardbred Racing Committee. Current Woodbine Entertainment Director and former President of Western Fair District Hugh Mitchell has been appointed to Chair of the Standardbred Racing Committee.

KEENELAND AND TCA TEAM ON SALES INITIATIVE TO ASSIST ESSENTIAL WORKERS

Keeneland and Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) have launched an initiative to provide September Yearling and November Breeding Stock Sales buyers the opportunity to make a voluntary contribution to TCA to assist our industry's backstretch and farm workers. The voluntary donation will be included in the buyer's invoice and equate to .05% of the hammer price of their purchase.

"This partnership with TCA reflects Keeneland's mission to support worthy causes, and during this time of great need it's even more important that we take care of our front-line heroes," Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "Keeneland is grateful for the tremendous work done by the TCA, and we are pleased to include this donation opportunity on our buyer forms this fall alongside the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance and National Thoroughbred Racing Association."

TAPIT FIRSTER ROLLS TO 'RISING STAR'-DOM BENEATH THE TWIN SPIRES

Stayin' Out Late | Coady

Three Chimneys Farm and Harrell Ventures LLC's Stayin' Out Late (Tapit) was sent off at a chilly-on-the-board 21-5 in Friday's seventh race at Churchill Downs, but the well-bred chestnut turned the 6 1/2-furlong affair into a procession, galloping away to score by 7 3/4 lengths.

Away without incident from the inside gate, the son of GSW Graeme Six (Graeme Hall) made the lead with a minimum of fuss and was allowed a soft time of it up front, covering the opening quarter in :23.66 and the half in a route-like :47.80. Shaken up leaving the quarter pole, he turned on the afterburners in the final furlong and won clear. Cousin Larry (Cairo Prince--Pacific Spell) just earned second ahead of Inspector Frost (Frosted--Folk), the 21-10 chalk, who rushed up after missing the break and looked full of run turning for home, only to flatten late.

Stayin' Out Late is a full-brother to Delightful Joy, GSW, $179,200, whose debuting daughter Zainalarab (War Front) graduated Friday at Belmont Park. He is also a half-brother to to Seymourdini (Bernardini), SW, $242,027, a $900,000 OBS April Breezer; and to Cali Star (Street Cry {Ire}), GSW, $348,080. Graeme Six, winner of the GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill during her racing days, was purchased by the partnership of Gainesway and Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for $950,000 in foal to the late Pioneerof the Nile at Keeneland November in 2016. She foaled a full-brother to Stayin' Out Late in 2019 and a full-sister this term. She was bred to Curlin during the most recent breeding season, but did not conceive. Stayin' Out Late is bred on the same cross over Deputy Minister that has been responsible for the aforementioned Frosted and fellow Grade I winner Tapizar.

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: WELL-BRED CURLIN COLT DEBUTS IN NY By Christie DeBernardis

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

6th-BEL, $63K, Msw, 2yo, 1m, 3:36 p.m.

St. Elias Stable homebred KNOWN AGENDA (Curlin) makes his career bow in this spot for Todd Pletcher. The chestnut is out of GISW Byrama (GB) (Byron {GB}), who is a half-sister to GSW Klammer (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). He enters off a pair of bullet works, most recently covering a half-mile in a best-of-29 :48 2/5 on Saratoga's Oklahoma training track Sept. 14. His entry-mate Likeable (Frosted) makes his second attempt after missing by a head in an off-the-turf event at the Spa Aug. 22. Out of SW Dashing Debby (Medaglia d'Oro), the $350,000 KEESEP purchase is a half to SW & MGISP Dawn the Destroyer (Speightstown) and MSW Bronze Star (Tapit). Also making his second start here is $900,000 KEESEP purchase Engrave (Flatter), who completed the exacta in his Saratoga unveiling Aug. 15. He is a half-brother to MGISW Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid). Their dam is a half to MGSW Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot) and a full to MGSW & GISP Allamerican Bertie (Quiet American). TJCIS PPs Margins: 1 3/4, 12HF, HD. Odds: 4.10, 1.75, 1.20.

Also Ran: Counter Offer, Petit Fils (Fr).

The early pari-mutuel action was on Danny California and he managed to retain his recent purple patch of form for a first stakes success in Friday's Miner's Mark S. at Belmont Park.

Ridden for speed by Manny Franco, Danny California lobbed them along up front and covered half the trip in 1:17.23 while tracked along by second favorite You're To Blame. The cadence quickened some on the second turn and it appeared that the latter had dead aim in upper stretch. But Danny California swatted away that bid and was going away at the wire. Favored Rocketry was never truly a threat and finished a distant third.

Third in a pair of state-bred allowance tests at this track in June and July, Danny California dusted a restricted field by seven lengths at Saratoga July 29 and was exiting a 1 1/2-length victory over open company at the Spa Aug. 27.

The 36th black-type winner for his sire, Danny California is a half-brother to a 2-year-old filly by Gio Ponti. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Heart Full of Soul defeated four fellow females to graduate by 3 3/4 lengths at first asking going five furlongs here Aug. 5 and was the second wagering selection facing the boys in a race in which fillies have held their own.

Sent straight into the lead by Francisco Arrieta, the Maryland-bred skipped along comfortably, but looked in some trouble as Strong Rules came to tackle to her outside. A bit wide into the stretch, Heart Full of Soul stiff-armed that bid with a little more than a furlong to travel and came away to a comfortable score. The winner was following in the hoofprints of the Mac Robertson-trained Amy's Challenge (Artie Schiller), who defeated the talented Mr. Jagermeister (Atta Boy Roy) in this race in 2017.

The 25th stakes winner for her sire, Heart Full of Soul has a yearling half-brother by Holy Boss and her dam produced a filly by Irish War Cry after selling for $1,700 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Mixed Sale. Heart Seeker was most recently bred to Speightstown's West Virginia-based half-brother Fiber Sonde (Unbridled's Song). Click for the Equibase.com chart.

BLIND AMBITION (h, 6, Tapit--Starfish Bay {MSW, $241,831}, by Elusive Quality), a dual stakes winner and twice graded-placed on turf, was looking for his first win since taking a course-and-distance allowance last September and was adding blinkers off a sixth in the Sept. 5 GIII Vigil S., his first career start on synthetic. The 9-5 chalk landed in centerfield and was pulled out into the clear while improving nearing the straight. He gained readily to wrest command approaching the eighth pole and proved too classy in scoring by 1 3/4 lengths. Allowed to sit the box-seat trip as Exact made the running in advance of the blinkered Jade Empress (Shanghai Bobby), Zainalarab was pulled off the fence in upper stretch by Javier Castellano, drew alongside the pacesetter with a sixteenth of a mile to travel and inched clear to take it by 1 1/2 lengths as the 11-10 favorite. The winner has a Medaglia d'Oro half-sister who was consigned to, but withdrawn from the opening day of this year's KEESEP sale this past Sunday, as well as a foal half-sister by American Pharoah. Delightful Joy, the 2015 GIII Monmouth Oaks winner, was a $700,000 purchase out of the 2017 Keeneland January Sale, and was most recently covered by Curlin. ALOHA UPDATE BOOSTS COLLEGELANDS DRAFT

Lot 4, the Mastercraftsman half-brother to Aloha Star | Tattersalls Ireland

By Alayna Cullen

The sales that take place throughout a normal year are usually a good marker to set your calendar by. But in a year where nothing has been normal, the calendar has well and truly been flung from the window along with the familiarity of set venues.

While most things have changed some have stayed the same, one of those being the friendly and warm chat you are guaranteed to have with Ciara Lyons of Collegelands Stud.

Collegelands Stud was set up by Austin and Ciara Lyons in 1996 primarily to house their own broodmare band which consists of between five to 10 mares. While the stud is a labour of love for the husband and wife team the consignments that can be found at foal and yearling sales are made up of horses representing themselves, friends and family.

"We're a group of friends and relations and there's a good mix of us," says Ciara. "We come together and enjoy the craic and everybody has a bit of an input at sales time. As regards to home, it's just myself and Austin apart from the boarders in the springtime. When we have yearlings, and when friends and relations have kept yearlings too, that's when the consignment comes back on board for the yearling sales."

PLAINCHANT BEST IN THE ECLIPSE

Back in her comfort zone after a latest second in the seven-furlong G2 Prix du Calvados at Deauville on Aug. 22, Alain Jathiere, Maurizio Guarnieri and Sauro-Andrea Fiordelli's Plainchant (Fr) (Gregorian {Ire}) was in dominating mood in Friday's G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly. Blazing the trail from the outset with the emphasis on speed over a furlong shorter, the bay strained the arms of Valentin Seguy throughout and by halfway had all rivals covered. Clear in the closing stages, the 13-5 second favourite was eased late to record an impressive five-length success from the 23-10 favourite Legal Attack (GB) (Shalaa {Ire}). "She is loaded with speed and a very good filly," trainer Maurizio Guarnieri said. "I knew I had something good after her maiden and she has gone from strength to strength. She is better back at this six and at halfway I knew she'd win. She will not go further than seven this year and we'll take our time to find a suitable race."

At the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale Collegelands will offer five yearlings in total with four of those in Part I. Heading the draft is lot 4, a Mastercraftsman (Ire) half-brother to Group 2 winner Aloha Star (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) who since the catalogue was printed has finished third in the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. "He's a lovely colt, good walking with a great attitude about him," Lyons remarks. "He belongs to a very good friend of ours, Patrick Beirne. He bought the mare, Zain Art (Ire) (Excellent Art {GB}), in 2016 and looking at the page there's an abundance of 2-year-olds the whole way down."

The second lot of the draft (lot 206) is a Zoffany (Ire) filly who comes from a strong black-type family that includes Volkan Star (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) a Group 3 winner this year in France. This is the first foal for the mare Jowana (Ire) (Dutch Art {GB}) and on the choice of Zoffany for her first cover Lyons says, "We thought he was commercial for us at the time. He is a good-looking horse and he's underrated as a sire."

Zoffany recently sired G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. winner Thunder Moon (Ire) and has over the years sired many classy 2-year-olds. Of the yearling filly Lyons says, "she's a smart-walking filly and she looks a sprinter. She's built like a bull."

Rounding off the draft for Part I are yearlings by first-crop sires El Kabeir and Cotai Glory (GB). Lot 255 is by the latter and Lyons says she is content with how they are going in the ring so far.

"The Cotai Glorys are selling quite well. The mare, Madam Macie (Ire), was rated 98 herself," she says. "By all accounts, from the Cotai Glorys I've seen and from what other people tell me, they're very nice types." Cotai Glory stands at Tally-Ho Stud alongside current leading first-season sire Mehmas (GB), who Lyons has a yearling by in Part II of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale as lot 556. Of El Kabeir, Lyons recalls her first impression of the stallion. "We saw him at Yeomanstown and loved him, absolutely loved him, and just thought we have to use him," she says. "He just seemed to be the right type of horse for Tinder (Ire). She had a rating of 96 and as a 2-year-old she was placed in a Group 3." The yearling himself (lot 418) "seems to be a stronger, heavy type. He has a lot of neck and he has a lot of quality about him," Lyons adds.

Although a regular on the Irish sales circuit, Collegelands Stud has never had a consignment in England so when the news came that the sales were moving across the sea Lyons could be forgiven for having some trepidation about the move. "It's a bit scary, you know," she says. "We're going into the unknown hoping that we will get sold over there. I think, so far, the clearance rate has been very good [at the other yearling sales] and if we're realistic about the horse's price and not living in dream world, we should be okay."

Plainchant had got off the mark at the expense of the subsequent G3 Prix d'Arenberg scorer Kalahara (GB) (Frankel {GB}) over this trip at La Teste de Buch on June 3 and in hindsight was hugely underestimated and overpriced when beating Stardevote at odds of 16-1 in the Listed Criterium du Bequet over that course and distance on July 26. Headed late on by Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) when attempting to make all in the Calvados, she still finished in front of the subsequent G3 Prix d'Aumale winner King's Harlequin (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and the Listed Ingabelle S. runner-up No Speak Alexander (Ire) (Shalaa {Ire}) over a distance that probably stretches her to the limit.

Pedigree Notes

The dam Nadinska (GB) (Doyen {Ire}), who also has the yearling filly Alice Blue (Fr) (Reliable Man {GB}), is a half to three black-type performers headed by the G2 Prix de Sandringham winner and G1 Sun Chariot S. third Laugh out Loud (GB) (Clodovil {Ire}) who in turn produced the GII San Marcos S. and G3 Gallinule S. scorer Platinum Warrior (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Nadinska's other half-siblings include the stouter-staying pair of the Listed Pinnacle S. and Listed Chalice S. winner Suzi's Decision (GB) (Act One {GB}) and Baghdad (Fr) (Frankel {GB}) who was third in the Glorious S.

The March-foaled bay had bagged an Aug. 8 one-mile conditions heat at Vichy in her penultimate start and went postward for this pattern-race debut returning off a second in ParisLongchamp's Sept. 3 Listed Prix de la Cochere, both races down at the one-mile trip. Observing all six opponents from rear until improving one spot at halfway, the 91-10 chance made continued headway in the straight to challenge at the quarter-mile marker and quickened smartly under mild urging from there to deny the late rally of Thalyia (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) by a half length for a career high.

"She is a nice filly, who has improved with time and, now at four, is beginning to show her best," said Godolphin's Lisa Jane Graffard. "She has no major entries, but we have the possibility to supplement in races like the [G1] Prix de l'] Opera, the [G1] Sun Chariot or possibly go to the United States or Canada."

Pedigree Notes

Fonthill Abbey is the second of five foals and lone scorer produced by an unraced half-sister to MG1SW sire Teofilo (Ire), dual Meydan Group 2 winner Poetic Charm (GB) (Dubawi Ire}) and G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial victress Bean Feasa (GB) (Dubawi Ire}). She is a half-sister to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old colt Dufino (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) and a weanling filly by Le Havre (Ire). MILL REEF TAKES CENTRE STAGE

Rhythm Master | Scoop Dyga

Newbury's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef S. has been won by the sprinting luminaries Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Ribchester (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) in recent times and Saturday's renewal has some potential class acts lurking in the line-up for the six-furlong feature. Setting the standard is John Dance's Rhythm Master (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) following his third placing in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville on Aug. 23, but he has several unexposed rivals placing a target on him and will have to be every bit as good as he looked there to ward them off.

They include King Power Racing's highly-regarded four-length Sept. 3 Newcastle novice scorer Fivethousandtoone (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) from the Andrew Balding stable having its finest year to date. He was beaten 3/4 of a length on debut by Bahrain Pride (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) at Windsor on Aug. 17 and that rival re-opposes having subsequently doubled his tally a fortnight later in the Listed Ripon Champion Two Yrs Old Trophy. Shaikh Nasser Al Khalifa's Line of Departure (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) beat the solid group performer Yazaman (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) comfortably in Doncaster's Weatherbys Racing Bank £200,000 2-Y-O S. over 6 1/2 furlongs on Sept. 10 and could be open to further progress as a half-brother to Golden Horde (Ire) (Lethal Force {Ire}).

John Dance said, "We've been delighted with Rhythm Master and I'm very much looking forward to the race on Saturday. He was very green [at Deauville], particularly in the preliminaries. I don't think he could believe he could see thousands of people, as there was obviously no crowd at Haydock--it was very much like the first day at school for him. I think the soft ground was a bit of a shock as well, so for him to run as well as he did was very encouraging and also left the impression that there's hopefully more to come."

Ed Crisford said of Bahrain Pride, "This has been the plan for him since Ripon. He's in great form and deserves a crack at a Group 2. It does look a very strong race, but our fellow has done nothing wrong, I think he's improving with racing and he deserves a crack at a higher grade now." Andrew Balding has yet to win the race named after his father's great and commented, "Fivethousandtoone won well at Newcastle and took the step forward we hoped he would after finishing second at Windsor. He is a horse that I think a lot of, but this is a competitive race in a much tougher grade. He has looked very good at home and his work has been impressive. Hopefully he can step forward again."

At Ayr, where the QTS Ayr Gold Cup takes precedence as one of the leading sprint handicaps of the season, the Listed Jordan Electrics Doonside Cup sees Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum's Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) enjoy a class drop following a break having last been seen finishing runner-up in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot on June 17. The Mar. 21 G1 Ranvet S. and Apr. 11 G1 Queen Elizabeth S. winner encounters another top-level performer in need of a confidence boost in last year's G1 Queen Anne S. hero Lord Glitters (Fr) (Whipper). Addeybb's rider Tom Marquand is keen to renew his partnership with the 6-year-old and said, "He's a cracking animal. Hopefully the ground doesn't dry out too much. He certainly looks in good order at home. It's probably a different path to Champions Day, but it's perfect for him. He should have his conditions. A mile and a quarter on a galloping track, that's what he wants. It was a well-spotted race by William [Haggas], perfect timing. Hopefully it will set him up nicely for the big day. He's got the penalty, but he's a dual Group 1 winner and hopefully he can overcome that."

EUROPEAN NEWS

PAT SMULLEN LAID TO REST

In St Peter's Church, which was bedecked with flowers from the garden at Moyglare Stud, Pat Smullen was laid to rest on Friday near his home in Rhode. The family service, restricted in numbers because of Covid-19 protocols, was streamed via Zoom and was joined by 700 mourners from around the world, including many of the multiple Irish champion jockey's friends from the weighing-room. Paying tribute to her husband during the service, Frances Crowley referred to the fact that his death came exactly a year after the Pat Smullen Champions Race, which helped to raise more than €2.5 million for Cancer Trials Ireland during Irish Champions Weekend.

Flags at half-mast at The Curragh in honour of Pat Smullen | INPHO-Tommy Dickson

"I think that symbolises exactly what it meant to him," she said.

Smullen, 43, was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in March 2018 and died in St Vincent's Hospital in Dublin on Tuesday evening. As he was brought home to Co Offaly on Wednesday, the hearse passed by The Curragh, where the flags flew at half-mast at the racecourse which had been the scene of some his greatest triumphs, including two Irish Derby victories aboard Harzand (Ire) and Grey Swallow (Ire). Harzand's saddle cloths from the Derby and Irish Derby were draped across his coffin.

In her composed address, which acknowledged the loss felt by her husband's legion of family and friends, Crowley offered encouragement to others facing a similar struggle with illness.

She said, "I have a message to you from Pat: keep going, don't lose heart, please don't let this knock you back."

Crowley's moving tribute ended with her own message to her husband, "We know you did your best in everything you did, Pat. You always did your best. Always."

CAMPANELLE STRAIGHT TO BREEDERS' CUP

Undefeated Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) will head straight to the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Keeneland after connections decided to forego next weekend's G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket. Campaigned by Stonestreet Stables, the Wesley Ward-trained filly broke her maiden at Gulfstream Park on May 31 before taking the G2 Queen Mary S. during the Royal meeting at Ascot on June 20. In her latest start at Deauville on Aug. 23, she gave her trainer his third victory in the G1 Darley Prix Morny.

"We took her out of the Cheveley Park," confirmed Ward. "I just felt I'd like to keep her under my thumb a little bit before going to the Breeders' Cup." Cont. p7

Campanelle | Scoop Dyga

"I think this filly could be something really special and I don't want to ship her over and back again before the Breeders' Cup. By keeping her [in America], we have a good couple of months to make sure she's at her very best."

In regards to her campaign thus far, Ward added, "She's done everything we've asked of her--she's three for three. We were struggling to find a turf maiden for her, eventually we did at Gulfstream and it was only 20 days between that race and the Queen Mary. With the shipping as well, I would never usually run them back that quick, so for her to go and win at Royal Ascot showed she's a super good filly. And then she won much more impressively at Deauville after a good spacing since Ascot.

Also targeting Breeders' Cup day for Ward is Ranlo Investments LLC's Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), a narrow second in the June 19 G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot. Originally targeting the G1 Nunthorpe at York, the colt's connections opted to keep him in the U.S., where he won Saratoga's Skidmore S. on Aug. 21. The GI Juvenile Turf Sprint is his Breeders' Cup target.

"It was a shame we couldn't come over for York, but he's a super quick horse, as he showed in his last race at Saratoga," Ward said. "The Breeders' Cup race for him is over five and a half [furlongs]. He'd prefer five as he has so much speed, but it's his home track and I still think he's going to be tough."

THREE WILDCARDS ADDED TO ARC SALE

Three 3-year-olds have been added as wildcards to the Oct. 3 Arqana Arc Sale at Saint-Cloud Racecourse.

Gestut Auenquelle homebred Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) is among the best of her generation in Germany, having won the G3 Mehl-Mulhens-Trophy in July before placing in both the G1 Preis der Diana and G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis. She will be offered as lot 24.

Yann Barberot offers his 3-year-old colt Step By Step (Fr) (Sidestep {Aus}) (lot 25), a listed winner in June going 2400 metres and most recently second in the G3 Prix de Lutece going a mile and seven on Sept. 3. He holds an entry in the G2 Prix Chaudenay.

The Aga Khan's Irshad (Fr) (Raven's Pass) (lot 26) has yet to pick up black-type, but he was fourth in the G3 Prix de Guiche and most recently second over 2000 metres for trainer Mikel Delzangles.

FLAT BREEDERS HONOURED AT VIRTUAL EVENT

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association gave out 10 awards during a virtual edition of its Flat Breeders' Awards Evening on Thursday. Godolphin won four: the Queen's Silver Cup for leading British-based breeder by prize money; the BBA Silver Cigar Box for leading British-based stallion by prize money (Dubawi {Ire}); the Barleythrope Stud Silver Cup for leading British-based stallion by individual winners (Dubawi); and the inaugural British European Breeders' Fund Stallion Special Merit Award for Night Of Thunder (Ire).

European Breeders' Fund Marketing Communications Manager Rachael Gowland said, "Night Of Thunder stood in Great Britain for two seasons and a significant portion of his winners and stakes horses have been in Great Britain. As a mid-price-range stallion, he caught breeders' attention with a significant winners to runners percentage driven by talented offspring rather than sheer weight of numbers in 2019. The award is in its infancy and still developing but ultimately its purpose is to help showcase high-achieving stallions irrespective of book size and nomination fee."

Dubawi earned two TBA awards | Amy Lynam

Cable Bay was awarded the Tattersalls Silver Salver as leading first-crop sire in 2019 by prizemoney; Dar Re Mi recorded back-to-back wins as Broodmare of the Year; Newsells Park Stud was Flat Breeder of the Year; Mick and Fiona Denniff received the TBA Silver Salver for Special Merit; and Bearstone Stud the Small Flat Breeder of the Year award. Jacques Prinsloo of Whitsbury Manor Stud received the Stud Employee Award.

TBA Chairman Julian Richmond-Watson said, "Although we have been unable to host our usual event, we are delighted to be able to recognise the achievements of British breeders from the 2019 flat racing season. My congratulations go to all of the nominees, winners and their supporting teams who have demonstrated such dedication to our industry. I would also like to thank all of our event supporters and sponsors this year for continuing their contribution to the British breeding industry."

Weatherbys Chairmain Johnny Weatherby said, "We are absolutely delighted to support the TBA's Flat Breeders' Awards, and as a small breeder myself I am fully aware of the challenges that we all face, particularly in the current climate, and I whole heartedly congratulate this evening's winners."

AU-DELA DES PISTES TO BENEFIT ON ARC WEEKEND

Au-dela des Pistes, France's re-training and re-homing organization, will benefit from a pair of initiatives on Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe weekend Oct. 3 and 4.

Modeled after the Breeders' Cup Pledge, owners, trainers, breeders and jockeys associated with runners on Arc weekend can opt to donate a percentage of their earnings over the two days to the charity.

Additionally, all ticket sales for the Sunday program will be donated to Au-dela des Pistes. The crowd is limited to 5,000 racing professionals and their guests.

HALF TO MASAR INTRODUCED AT NEWMARKET

Sayyida, a half-sister to G1SW Masar (pictured) debuts at Newmarket on Saturday | Breeders' Cup Eclipse Sportswire

2.00 Gowran Park, Mdn, €15,500, 2yo, f, 8fT
EYLARA (IRE) (Gleneagles {Ire}) takes the eye at the end of an emotional week for the Dermot Weld stable, being a half-sister to the talented Eziyra (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) who was one of the last pattern-race winners ridden by Pat Smullen in the 2017 G3 KPMG Enterprise S. Also placed in the G1 Irish and Yorkshire Oaks and the G1 Hong Kong Vase, she hails from the excellent Aga Khan family of Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}).

2.05 Newmarket, Novice, £8,000, 2yo, f, 8fT
SAYYIDA (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) debuts for the Godolphin-Charlie Appleby axis and is a fascinating prospect as a half-sister to the G1 Epsom Derby hero Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}). The February-foaled daughter of the G2 UAE Derby heroine Khawlah (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) has a significant benchmark to be measured against in Khalid Abdullah's likely hot favourite Monsoon Moon (GB) (Kingman {GB}), the John Gosden-trained half-sister to the yard's G1 St Leger winner Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) who was such a promising third on debut behind 'TDN Rising Star' Love Is You (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) at Ascot earlier this month.

2.35 Saint-Cloud, Mdn, €22,000, unraced 2yo, c/g, 8fT
Ecki Sauren's DJANGO UNCHAINED (FR) (Pastorius {Ger}) is yet another representative of trainer Henk Grewe's regular Tours de France and faces one dozen fellow newcomers in this one-mile test. RIFLEMAN (IRE) (The Gurkha {Ire}) debuts for the Magnier/Tabor/Smith combination and the John Gosden stable and is the 15th foal produced by the $2million G3 King George S. winner Dietrich (Storm Cat), with the previous best being the G1 Racing Post Trophy runner-up Aloft (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Among his rivals is Godfrey Wilson's unraced homebred Run To Freedom (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}), a half-brother to the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Diamond Jubilee-winning sire Twilight Son (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) and group scorer Music Master (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) trained by their handler Henry Candy.

Off for 12 months following her unplaced effort in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S., Exceptional made an instant impact on her return when scoring by 5 1/2 lengths in a six-furlong handicap at Pontefract on June 10 before placing in two others at Newmarket on June 19 and July 9. Only fourth when favourite for the Listed Flying Fillies' S. also over six back at Pontefract on Aug. 14, the bay enjoyed an ideal lead racing up the centre and swamped Dandy's Beano with half a furlong remaining as Last Empire stayed on. The winner is a full-sister to Don't Touch who captured this meeting's featured Ayr Gold Cup prior to winning the Listed Cathedral S. The second dam is the G1 Coronation S. heroine Exclusive (GB) (Polar Falcon), whose daughter Echelon (GB) (Danehill) took the G1 Matron S. before producing the G1 Falmouth S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. winner Integral (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). From the family of Entrepreneur (GB), the dam's 2-year-old is an unraced full-brother to the winner.

Winter Power, who was successful in a Sept. 1 Ripon novice heat before trailing all nine rivals home in Doncaster's Sept. 11 G2 Champagne S. last time, stepped forward to earn a first black-type success here. Handily placed in a share of fifth through halfway, she joined the front rank soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final eighth to assert superiority in ultimately comfortable fashion.

"Winter Power is a very good filly, she's always had a lot of speed and loved the [good-to-soft] ground," said winning trainer Tim Easterby. "It was a hot race at Doncaster last week and she's got such a fantastic attitude that you can back her up and run her quick. She's very fast and is in the [Listed] Two-Year-Old Trophy [over six furlongs] at Redcar, but may not go there and instead stick to five furlongs."

Winter Power, full-sister to a weanling colt, is a half to Listed Land O'Burns Fillies' S. victress Hay Chewed (Ire) (Camacho {GB}), Listed Two-Year-Old Trophy runner-up Flying Sparkle (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) and a yearling filly by Fast Company (Ire). She shares her second dam Nordic Living (Ire) (Nordico), herself a granddaughter of stakes-winning GIII Santa Monica H. third Bally Knockan (Exclusive Native), with G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. victress Devonshire (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) and Hurryupharriet (Ire) (Camacho {GB}), who won this contest in 2013. Bally Knockan's produced two black-type performers headed by GIII Laurel Futurity victor and MGISP sire River Traffic (Irish River {Fr}).

Successful in the G2 Hungerford S. over this course and distance 13 months previously, Glorious Journey needed a shot of confidence following his latest well-beaten fifth in that contest on Aug. 15 and was able to get that here.

Always travelling with purpose tracking the early pace, the bay was committed with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was in command from there. Also successful in the G3 Prix la Rochette and G3 Prix Daphnis and the G2 Al Fahidi Fort on Jan. 23, the winner is a son of the G1 Coronation S. heroine Fallen For You (GB) (Dansili {GB}), whose 2-year-old filly Love Is You (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) earned 'TDN Rising Star' status at Ascot earlier this month.

Fallen For You is out of Fallen Star (GB) (Brief Truce), who captured the Listed Silver Trophy and was runner-up in the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani before producing the Listed Heron S. winner Fallen Idol (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). She is also the ancestress of the G3 Prix de Flore winner Loving Things (GB) by Pivotal and is kin to the G1 Lockinge S. hero Fly To the Stars (GB) (Bluebird) and National Day (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) who produced the G2 German 2000 Guineas scorer Peace At Last (Ire) (Oasis Dream {Ire}). Fallen For You's unraced 3-year-old colt Turquoise Kingdom (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was sold for 500,000gns at the Tattersalls October Book 1 Sale, while she also has a foal full-sister to Love Is You.

LUCID DREAMER (GB) (f, 2, Dansili {GB}--Sleep Walk {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), who beat the useful Last Sunset (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) on debut at Kempton on Aug. 12 before refusing to enter the stalls in the Yarmouth novice won by the subsequent G2 May Hill S. winner Indigo Girl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), swerved left this time exiting the gates before over-racing behind her two rivals. Brushing them both aside quickly when given the command 1 1/2 out, the 10-11 favourite was green in front but in total command en route to a 2 3/4-length defeat of Teodolina (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). "The fact that last time she didn't end up having to give seven pounds to the May Hill winner is a good thing, but she got herself in a muddle at the start again and was a bit keen early on," commented trainer Roger Charlton, who has won this three years in a row and whose Quadrilateral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was a nine-length winner of this 12 months ago before taking the G1 Fillies' Mile. "Once she got going, Jason [Watson] had a job pulling her up. She was a little bit on her toes today and wasn't easy walking out, so there's obviously a little bit of fire in there somewhere. I trained her mother who won three in a row and then went a bit moody on us. Logician is her uncle and he's done very well and is also grey. Quadrilateral was immensely impressive last year and it's hard to know what this is worth, so I don't think there are any comparisons really but she can but win. I suspect we'll head for a group race somewhere and she's a fast-ground filly, so we'll see where we go." The dam, whose yearling filly is by Caravaggio and who also has a filly foal by No Nay Never, is a half-sister to the aforementioned G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and to the multiple graded-stakes winner and GI E. P. Taylor S. runner-up Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), as well as to the 2-year-old filly Monsoon Moon (GB) (Kingman {GB}) who was third on debut at Ascot earlier this month and runs in Saturday's opener at Newmarket. This is also the family of two of Roger Charlton's finest in the sires Cityscape (GB) and Bated Breath (GB) and of this year's G1 King's Stand S. runner-up Equilateral (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) who is also in action on Saturday in the G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy at this venue. YIBIR (GB) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Rumh {Ger} {SW-Eng}, by Monsun {Ger}), who was off the mark in a seven-furlong maiden at Sandown last time on Aug. 2, was well-supported into 5-2 second favouritism for this 40th running of the Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S. won by Henbit, Shergar (GB), Rainbow Quest, Unfuwain, King's Theatre (Ire) and Nayef. In front of one other away from the remaining trio and in the lead overall, the bay was always travelling best and held a comfortable length margin over Megallan (GB) (Kingman {GB}) at the line. "He is a big horse, but he has done nothing wrong and is learning on the job. Today he has come forward again," jockey William Buick said. "It was nice ground here today and stepping up to a mile has suited him. He is the type of horse, looking at him, that whatever he does this year, he will do better next year. It was a small field and there was no real plan to make the running. I just went with how the horse felt and he was comfortable doing what he was doing." Cont. p13

Buick added, "The early fractions were slow so he was always going to finish his race well, but I like the way he responded."

Front-running paid off for the dam, who registered her most impressive winning performance at this track when taking the Listed Ballymacoll Stud Lord Weinstock Memorial S. by six lengths. Her first prominent racer was Really Special (GB) (Shamardal) who captured the Listed Montrose Fillies S., SW-Eng & SP-UAE, $108,180, while her first mating with Dubawi brought about Wild Illusion (GB) whose winning exploits included the G1 Nassau S., G1 Prix de l'Opera and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac while she was also placed in the G1 Epsom Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, G1SW-Eng, MG1SW-Fr, GISP-U.S., $1,590,217. Also responsible for Ceratonia (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who was second in the G3 Prix d'Aumale, she is a daughter of the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Royal Dubai (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}) whose half-siblings include the GI Beverly D. S. heroine Royal Highness (Ger) by Rumh's sire Monsun and the triple group-winning sire Free Port Lux (GB) by Ceratonia's sire Oasis Dream. MOVING LIGHT (IRE) (c, 3, Night of Thunder {Ire}--North East Bay, by Prospect Bay), who impressed on his winning 10-furlong debut at Leicester on July 17, was the 4-11 favourite to follow up and raced towards the rear throughout the early stages. Making a wide move approaching the straight, the chestnut took control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and drew away for a facile 3 3/4-length success from Fiesta de Vega (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). "He was sluggish out of the stalls and I had to come up from behind horses, but he's an absolute dream to ride," jockey Callum Shepherd said. "He is so switched off and asleep through the race, but finds loads when you ask him and really expressed himself when he let himself down there to put the race to bed. He had a look in the last furlong and is really smart--he's just such a lovely horse, so kind and relaxed and he really wants to please. He could be the best I've ridden." The winner is a half-brother to the G1 Dubai World Cup and G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 winner Prince Bishop (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who also captured the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris, G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange and two renewals of the G3 September S., Hwt. Older Horse-UAE at 9 1/2-11f, MG1SW-UAE, MGSW-Fr, MGSW-Eng, $7,061,632. Shaken up to close approaching the final quarter mile, the 4-1 chance quickened to the fore with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was ridden out to hold the late rally of Twilight Calls (GB) (Twilight Son {GB}) by a head. Kin to a yearling colt by Churchill (Ire) and a weanling colt by Lope de Vega (Ire), he is the third of five foals and first scorer produced by G3 Princess Margaret S. and G3 Fred Darling S. victress Maureen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), herself the leading performer out of a half-sister to G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner Spinola (Fr) (Spinning World) and G3 Silver Trophy victor Shot To Fame (Quest For Fame {GB}). FARNAN SET FOR THE EVEREST CHALLENGE

Farnan | TDNAusNZ

by Paul Vettise

Top colt Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) will be given the opportunity to create racing history with confirmation he will race in the slot held by part-owner Aquis in next month's $15 million The Everest.

Farnan produced a commanding performance to claim last season's G1 Golden Slipper S. at Randwick where Oct. 17 he will attempt to become the first winner of the 2-year-old feature to add The Everest to his record.

Last year's winner Yes Yes Yes, now resident at Coolmore, was unplaced in the Golden Slipper before he added his name to the roll of honour alongside Redzel (Snitzel), successful in the first two editions of the race in 2017 and 2018.

Farnan will represent Aquis, Phoenix Thoroughbreds and Kia Ora Stud, who bought into the colt last month with part of the arrangement giving the Hunter Valley operation future standing rights.

"He won the Slipper for us so he'll always have a special place in our hearts," Aquis Managing Director Shane McGrath said. "It's thrilling to have him represent us in The Everest and I can't wait to see what he can do."

With plans now in place for the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Farnan to take on the older horses in The Everest, his racing immediate program has been changed.

"He'll sidestep the G1 Golden Rose S. and we'll aim up for The Everest and, hopefully, he'll be there when the whips are cracking," McGrath said. "The 1200 metres at Randwick will be perfect for him.

"We know it will be a high-speed race, which he relishes and he'll get the weight relief so it's exciting for the colt and the connections and everyone else involved.

"The ownership group shares the confidence of Gai and Adrian that Farnan will prove himself one of the fastest 3-year-olds of this season and deserves his place in this year's Everest field."

Farnan was a $550,000 graduate of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, where he was offered by Vinery Stud on behalf of Phoenix, who remained in the ownership with Aquis to race the colt through his lucrative 2-year-old season.

He was a debut winner at Canberra before a following success in the R. Listed Magic Millions Wyong 2-Year-Old Classic.
He returned from a break to land the G2 Silver Slipper S. and the G2 Todman S. before triumphantly ending his preparation in the Golden Slipper.

"It is a huge thrill for the stable that last year's Slipper winner Farnan will be aimed toward the world's richest race on turf. We are confident Farnan will do an outstanding job for his racing partners," Bott said.

Farnan was a dominant favourite when he resumed in last Saturday's G2 Run To The Rose S., but after haring off in front he petered out to finish fifth.

Water Under the Bridge

Shane McGrath

"He knew he had been around, but he's come on well and there's a lot of water to go under the bridge before we get to The Everest and we've put a line through that and have moved on," McGrath said.

"We're thrilled to have the support of Kia Ora and obviously Phoenix and proud to have him represent all of us."

Jockey Hugh Bowman was this week suspended for 20 days for what stewards considered a misjudged ride in the Run To The Rose with his penalty to start after Saturday week's Golden Rose meeting and Bowman will return on Everest day Oct. 17.

Bowman has confirmed he will lodge an appeal against the ruling, but whatever the outcome, the hunt will be on for a new jockey for Farnan in The Everest as the colt will only carry 53kg.

"We'll leave that to Gai and Adrian. They know the horse better than anyone and I'm sure every lightweight jockey in the country will be ringing for the ride," McGrath said.
