FLORIDA-BOUND INVINCIBLE SPIRIT COLT LEADS ORBY

The session-topping Invincible Spirit colt, bought by Ben McElroy for Stonestreet Stables | Goffs

By Emma Berry

DONCASTER, UK—On a day without the millionaire highlights that we have become accustomed to at the Goffs Orby Sale, trade struggled to keep pace with recent strong renewals of this auction—a factor which had been widely expected in advance and has been seen throughout the 2020 yearling market.

Despite the industry being fuelled largely by dreams, only the foolhardy could dream that this year’s trade would be unaffected by a global pandemic which is not only restricting international travel but also plunging plenty of businesses into precarious situations. To a certain extent, the upper tier of the yearling market remains immune to such outside forces but there was a more workmanlike feel to the first session which progressed at a rate significantly below recent levels.

It must be remembered that in 2019 the Orby was led by a €3 million filly—one of four seven-figure transactions at the sale—but even the presence of that Galileo filly’s three-parts-sister by Sea The Stars (Ire) couldn’t make a difference this year as the daughter of Green Room (Theatrical) was bought in at £775,000.

SERPENTINE SUPPLEMENTED TO ARC

This year’s G1 Investec Derby winner Serpentine (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was supplemented to Sunday’s G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe on Wednesday at a cost of €72,000. He was the lone supplementary entry to the €3-million race.

In his first start since running away with the blue riband at 25-1, Serpentine finished fourth in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris over the Arc course and distance at ParisLongchamp on Sept. 13 behind stablemate and fellow Arc contender Mogul (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). They are part of a five-horse challenge for the Coolmore partners and Aidan O’Brien, with Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) holding sway as the race’s 11-4 second favourite. Mogul’s year-older full-brother Japan (Ire) and last year’s G1 Irish Derby winner Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) complete the Ballydoyle brigade.

With Serpentine supplemented, 16 remain engaged for the Arc. Rain has continued to fall in Paris, with as of Wednesday morning 14.4 millimetres having fallen this week. The going is currently very soft with more rain forecast.

Having topped the Orby in the last two years when her daughters brought a collective €6.2 million, Vimal and Gillian Khosla’s star broodmare, who is already the dam of three Group 1 winners, has already more than played her part and the retention of such a prized filly by her breeders is understandable.

Of course, with the sale’s move from Ireland to England came a change of currency from euros to pounds. Direct comparisons are not being made by Goffs until the end of the sale on Thursday, and the most encouraging statistic to be drawn from the first day of trade is the 81% clearance rate.

“The clearance rate demonstrates a pragmatism and a realism from the vendors and once again we salute them. They’ve read the market well,” said Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby at the close of play on Wednesday.

The 165 yearlings sold throughout the day brought an aggregate of £11,504,000 (the corresponding figure during the same session last year was just over £23-million). The average price was £69,721 and the median £50,000.

Early Start For Campanelle Team

American buyers have increased their investment in European yearlings in recent years and it wasn’t long before their influence was felt at Goffs on Wednesday morning when Ben McElroy went to £420,000 for a son of Invincible Spirit (Ire). Offered by the Irish National Stud as lot 12, the second son of the dual winner Aimhirgin Lass (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) will race for Barbara Banke’s Stonestreet Stables, which enjoyed success at Royal Ascot this year with Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the winner of the G2 Queen Mary S.

“He’s been bought for the same connections as Campanelle and will head to Florida to Stonestreet Stables’ facility before joining Wesley Ward in the spring,” confirmed McElroy.

The mare’s first foal, the once-raced Castlebar (Ire), was sold at last year’s sale for €460,000. Like her son, Aimhirgin Lass was bred by the Irish National Stud and is out of the unraced Nebraas (GB) (Green Desert), whose three black-type performers and eight winners include listed winner Seeharn (Ire), also by Pivotal, and the Group 3 winner Yellow Rosebud (Ire) (Jeremy). Having delivered a filly by Invincible Spirit earlier this year, Aimhirgin Lass is now in foal to the stud’s new recruit, G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Phoenix Of Spain (Ire).

“I know the family pretty well as I was underbidder on Yellow Rosebud,” the agent continued. “And I remember the brother from last year. This is a really nice colt, just the type of horse we are looking for, and we hope he’ll be a Royal Ascot horse.”

McElroy later bought a Bated Breath (GB) colt (lot 54) for £115,000. The son of Boragh Jamal (Ire), a winning Namid (GB) half-sister to G3 Molecomb S winner Whitbarrow (Ire) (Royal Abjar), was offered by Eddie O’Leary of Lynn Lodge Stud, who pinhooked him as a foal for €44,000.
Bold Pinhook Pays Off

Most vendors will say that trade was tough at Doncaster during the opening session of the Orby, but one of the highlights of the day came for Baroda Stud, which sold a Dark Angel (Ire) filly (lot 153) for £400,000 to CBR Bloodstock, bidding through a phone call to Goffs’s Joey Cullen. “I can’t tell you much about the filly’s future, other than that she will be trained in England or Ireland,” said Cullen after seeing off underbidder Michael Donohoe.

Baroda topped the first day of the Arqana September Sale when selling a daughter of Dubawi (Ire) for €620,000, having bought her as a foal for 300,000gns. The Dark Angel filly was also a bold foal pinhook, signed for at the Goffs November Sale by BBA Ireland for €260,000, but she had every right to be sought after even in her weanling days as she is a half-sister to the dual Group 3 winner Jack Naylor (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) by a sire whose popularity rarely wanes.

She also wasn’t the only popular Dark Angel filly in the Baroda draft as lot 67, out of the American Grade III winner Button Down (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), was another to fetch six figures and sold for £120,000 to Peter and Ross Doyle.

Baroda Stud got off the mark well when its first horse through the ring (lot 4), a filly from the first crop of National Stud stallion Aclaim (Ire), sold to breeze-up pinhooker Brendan Holland for £130,000.

Dark Angel was also on the list of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, and Mick Kinane waited until the third-last lot in the ring (lot 241) before making his first purchase of the day at £260,000. The colt, bred and consigned by Guy O’Callaghan’s Grangemore Stud, is a full-brother to one of Dark Angel’s early stars, the G2 Superlative S. winner Birchwood (Ire), who is now standing at Haras de la Huderie in Normandy.

Bar one season, his dam Layla Jamil (Ire) (Exceed And Excel (Aus)) has been mated exclusively with Dark Angel and she also has a filly foal by him this year.

Magic Mehmas

Members of the first-crop of Mehmas (Ire) have wasted no time in showcasing their sire’s promise this season and on the back of their success on the track the Tally-Ho Stud resident was catapulted into the upper echelons of the bloodstock market on Wednesday morning when lot 51 brought the hammer down at £330,000.

Hugo Merry placed the successful bid for the Mehmas filly who is out of Big Boned (Street Sense) and thus a half-sister to German Group 3 winner K Club (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) as well as the listed-placed Back To Brussels (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

Bred by Nicky Hartery, the filly was conceived from a fee of €10,000. Big Boned has a colt foal by Mehmas’s sire Acclamation (GB) and was covered this season by Ten Sovereigns (Ire).

“She’s for a new client and there’s been no decision on a trainer yet,” Merry reported. “She was a fairly obvious pick: she has a lovely pedigree and is by a very successful first-season sire. She just looks like she could be a very fast filly.

“I missed on a few Mehmas yearlings last year as I just thought they were on the small side, but he is not over-big himself and he is getting winners all over the place and we all have to get on board.”

Mehmas is now the sire of 33 first-crop winners, including last Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. winner Supremacy (Ire).

Father And Son Provide Late Highlights

Invincible Spirit was back in demand late on the first day, as was his son Kingman (GB). Mark McStay of Avenue Bloodstock went to £350,000 for lot 221, the Invincible Spirit half-brother to G3 Bengough S. winner Eastern Impact (Ire) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}), who was bred and consigned by Airlie Stud.

He said, “He’s got size, scope and a lot of class and Anthony Rogers just said to me that he thinks he’s one of the best they have ever bred, which is quite a compliment from a high-class farm.

“He’s been bought for an old family friend and existing client. The mare has already bred three stakes horses and of course Invincible Spirit needs no introduction, he just keeps doing it on the racecourse.”

Profitable: the best G1 sprinter by Kingman’s sire — and rated superior to Invincible Spirit himself. His fast-looking yearlings are catching the eye of all the right people: Clive Cox, Karl Burke, Kevin Ryan have all bought one (or more) so far. More selling now.

Juddmonte Farms will have no shortage of Kingman’s offspring in their paddocks but the introduction of some new bloodlines is required from time to time by even major breeding operations and Juddmonte’s Simon Mockridge secured a Kingman filly whose pedigree combines at least three extremely popular stallions. Consigned and bred by Denis Brosnan’s Croom House Stud, lot 228 is out of a Galileo (Ire) half-sister to Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), who is just one of the three group winners produced by the Machiavellian mare Tyranny (GB).

Mockridge, standing with his colleague Barry Mahon, went to £280,000 for the filly whose family also includes recent G1 St Leger runner-up Berkshire Rocco (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}).

Lightning Strikes

The sales ring at Doncaster is where the public had a first glimpse of the Siyouni (Fr) filly who would become known as multiple Group 1 winner Laurens (Fr). Another daughter of the Aga Khan Studs stallion (lot 161) was one of the bestsellers of Wednesday when knocked down to Ted Durcan for £250,000. Durcan could not name the filly’s new owner who now has a lovely future broodmare prospect on his or her hands. The April-foaled daughter of 3-year-old winner Fork Lightning (Storm Cat) was bred by Cabalo Ltd and offered for sale through The Castlebridge Consignment. Her dam is a daughter of G1 Nassau and G1 Sun Chariot S. winner Last Second (Ire) (Alzao), whose 10 winning offspring include the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains winner Aussie Rules (Danehill) and listed winner Approach (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), who is in turn the dam of dual Group 1 winner Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Ribchester was high-class at two and the Champion miler at both three and four. He’s the best by the sire of Wootton Bassett and from the family of Dubai Millennium. No wonder his first yearlings are in such demand.

The filly’s third dam is the celebrated Lanwades foundation mare Alruccaba (GB) and her sale price on Wednesday represents a decent return on the 60,000gns given by Howson & Houldsworth Bloodstock to buy her dam when carrying this filly at the Tattersalls December Sale.

New Bay For New Venture

Dwayne Woods of Brook Stud was in action on Wednesday for his brother Sean, who will soon be training from Newmarket’s Shalfleet Stables, the former base of Jeremy Noseda.

The brothers signed up another two well-credentialed yearlings in Doncaster, headed by a colt from the second crop of New Bay (GB), who has made an impressive start with his first runners this year.

Lot 187 from Ballylinch Stud and the son of G2 Prix de Pomone winner Highlands Queen (Fr) (Mount Nelson (GB)) was sold for £240,000 and will join the Exceed And Excel (Aus) half-brother to treble Group 1 winner and Derby Italiano hero Dylan Mouth (Ire) (Dylan Thomas (Ire)) (lot 92), who brought £170,000 earlier in the session.

“They are both for Sean,” said Woods. “We’ve bought 10 yearlings so far and these two today are two nice colts. The New Bay was probably the pick of the sale for me, and I guess for a lot of other people too as there were plenty of bidders. He’s just a beautiful individual.”

He continued, “We’ll be looking at the horses-in-training sale as well. There are no horses in Shalfleet at present but there will be from November.”

Near the end of the session Shalfleet’s former owner Jeremy Noseda signed for a first-crop son of Caravaggio (lot 236) on behalf of Michael Roy, whose parents Paul and Susan enjoyed great success with the trainer, including with St Leger winner Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo (Ire)).

At £215,000, the half-brother to Chesham S. winner Suits You (Fr) (Youmzain (Ire)) was the most expensive yearling by Caravaggio at Goffs. His nine yearlings sold on Wednesday returned an average of £88,333.

Another Camelot To Australia

The dual Australian Group 1 winner Russian Camelot (Ire) has done a great job in promoting not just his sire Camelot (GB) but also the merits of buying European-bred yearlings to export to...
the Southern Hemisphere, and that is the plan for lot 124, who sold for £160,000 to Alex Elliott.

The agent was working in tandem with Australian syndicator Brad Spicer and was delighted to have been able to buy the son of Camelot from Galbertstown Stables. He said, “Brad is unable to travel but he gave me a list of pedigrees and I looked at the horses for him and really loved this colt. He’s a lovely individual out of a Shamardal mare and obviously Camelot has had a great year.”

The family offers plenty of scope for middle-distance targets in the colt’s future. His winning dam Edwinstowe (Ire) is a daughter of the G1 Prix de l’Opera winner Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef), whose other offspring include Loxley (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), winner of the G2 Prix de Deauville for Godolphin.

The cross of Camelot on Shamardal has already been seen to good effect in Australia via another exported yearling, the listed winner Furrion (GB), who was bought by John Foote at October Book 2 for 60,000gns. The same cross has also produced the Lloyd Williams-owned G1 Irish Derby winner Latrobe (Ire).

Two Fillies For White Birch
Peter Brant’s White Birch Farm bought subsequent dual Grade I winner Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) from the 2016 Orby Sale and, though Brant was absent this year, Demi O’Byrne was in Doncaster to buy two yearlings for the owner on Wednesday. He was another to plump for a yearling by Camelot and signed for lot 143, a filly from the family of G1 Irish St Leger winner Duncan (GB), at £130,000. Bred by O’Connor International Ltd, the daughter of Ethel (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) was bought as a foal for €100,000 and was offered by the Mahon family’s Mountain View Stud.

O’Byrne stayed in play for the following lot through the ring (144), a filly from the first crop of Caravaggio whose half-siblings have realised €260,000 and €220,000 respectively at the Orby Sale in the last three years. Their dam Euphrasia (Ire) (Windsor knot {GB}) won the G3 Blue Wind S and is the dam of 82-rated Goodwood winner Bright Eyed Eagle (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}).

D.J. Stable, West Point Make European Splash
By Kelsey Riley
The New Jersey-based D.J. Stable has been to the top echelons of American racing, having campaigned the likes of Jaywalk (Cross Traffic), the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies winner and Eclipse Award champion filly of 2018.

Jon Green, the general manager of D.J. Stable who runs the show alongside his father Len Green, said he has had his eye on European sales for a few years and on Wednesday D.J. Stable took the plunge, signing for two yearlings early during the opening session of the Goffs Orby sale.

First up was lot 5, a colt from the first crop of Caravaggio out of a daughter of the Group 1-winning Zee Zee Top (GB) (Zafonic), for £80,000. The unraced dam Zee Zee Gee (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) has already produced the stakes-placed Farzeen (GB) (Farhh {GB}), and it is also the family of multiple Group 1 winner Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Classic winners Colorspin and Kayf Tara (GB). Two lots later DJ Stables signed for a No Nay Never filly who is the first foal out of A Bid In Time (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), a half-sister to multiple group-winning sprinter Libranno (GB) (Librettist) (lot 7), for £52,000.

“We struck early, we bought two horses very early in the sale,” Green said. “We feel like there is an opportunity usually early on at sales to strike before everyone is finished their morning coffee. We loved those two horses, a Caravaggio colt and a No Nay Never filly, and we just felt like they were value at their price points and also their points in the sale.”

D.J. Stable campaigns A Thread Of Blue (Hard Spun), who won three stakes races on the grass in the U.S. last year including the GIII Palm Beach S., and Green said the venture into the European yearling market is the stable’s next step in enhancing its turf programme.

“This is really a new twist on what we’re trying to accomplish with our racing operations,” he explained. “When we took a look at where North American racing is trending it looks like there are going to be more opportunities to have turf horses and more opportunities to have distance turf horses.

“A couple years ago we made a very conscious decision to study what was going in Europe, study bloodlines, study racing and people we felt comfortable working with, with the idea that in time we would ultimately buy some of these racehorses.”

The 12 horses purchased by D.J. Stable at Keeneland September included a Galileo (Ire) filly out of G2 Cherry Hinton S. and G3 Albany S. winner Sander Camillo (Dixie Union) (Hip 368) for $285,000 and an American Pharoah son of Group 1 winner and producer Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) (Hip 344) for $100,000.

Green said the ultimate goal is to campaign D.J. Stables’ European purchases in the U.S., but he does not yet know at which point they will travel Stateside. In the meantime, the stable has gotten a jump start on its European racing stable with the private purchase of 2-year-old filly Earth Strike (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), a half-sister to Group 1-winning stayer Order Of St George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who won at first asking at Leopardstown on Aug. 20 before finishing seventh in the Listed Ingabelle S. on Sept. 12.

“She is trained by Joseph O’Brien and will be running in a stake next week at The Curragh,” Green said. “We’ve made a pretty heavy investment into European bloodstock and European bloodlines based on some of the opportunities we feel are going to present themselves in America in the next few years in racing.”

American-based syndicate West Point Thoroughbreds also got its name on the buyers’ sheet on Wednesday, signing for lot 207, a daughter of Kodiak (GB), in conjunction with Peter Doyle for £85,000. West Point’s Terry Finley noted that while the group has been active on the international stage in small ways in years past, shopping at Orby did mark a deviation from the normal business plan. He said West Point saw it as an opportunity to broaden their portfolio while the market may be down.

“We’ve been working on trying to enhance that pipeline from Europe,” Finley said. “I met Peter Doyle probably about eight years ago in South Africa and we’ve stayed in touch and we’ve tried to buy some horses, it just never really all fell into place. But everything has fallen into place now, we’ve been talking all week and I know they were very active. They said earlier today they thought it was a really great buying day.”

“I think the pullback in the market seems to have been a bit more pronounced in Europe and we just thought it was a good opportunity to take advantage of it.”

West Point Thoroughbreds was a part owner of the 2017 GI Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming, and more recent stars have included the likes of Grade I-winning mare Hard Not To Love (Hard Spun) and turf star Decorated Invader (Declaration Of War). “You see more and more of our competitors both in the partnership world and the sole ownership world really diversifying their portfolios, and a big way to do that is with these kinds of horses,” Finley said, adding that the Kodiac filly is likely to join Decorated Invader in the stable of Christophe Clement. “I saw Ben McElroy bought a couple that will be coming back to Florida so she’ll be on that pallet too,” he said. “She’ll go to Eddie Woods and then in all likelihood she’ll go to Christophe Clement and we’ll try to get her to the races at Saratoga next year.”

PHILIPPART DE FOY JOINS NEWMARKET TRAINING RANKS  By Emma Berry

Amid a concerted effort from the French racing authorities to encourage British owners to race their horses in France, one new trainer in Newmarket is flying in the face of this promise of far greater prize-money.
Belgian-born Kevin Philippart de Foy served a long apprenticeship in Chantilly under the wing of Criquette Head and he recently completed a rounded education as assistant trainer to James Fanshawe. During his four years at Fanshawe’s Pegasus Stables, the 29-year-old was bitten by the English racing bug and has decided to set out at his stall at Newmarket’s historic Machell Place Stables, which is about to be vacated by Ed Vaughan.

“I arrived in England thinking I would go back to France to train but I fell in love with British racing. I’ve made some good connections and I like the lifestyle here,” said Philippart de Foy, whose mother, former jockey Brigitte Jacques, trains a small string in Chantilly. “We are always complaining that things aren’t going well but racing in England is in people’s blood. Because of the pandemic people aren’t going racing but usually there are so many people at the racecourse and that is something that doesn’t really happen in France. Yes, the prize-money is better there at the moment but nobody goes racing.”

He continued, “I spoke about it with Criquette, who was like a mother to me when I was in Chantilly, and she really encouraged me to start training here in England. I know prize-money is not great but there is a really good international market to sell horses.”

Before joining Fanshawe, Philippart de Foy, who also rode as an amateur and a professional jockey, had a taste of racing stables in most of the major racing jurisdictions. From Head, he completed a stint on The Curragh with John Oxx and later spent 18 months working in America for Christophe Clement.

“Criquette always said that I should travel so she arranged for me to go to America to work for her former assistant Christophe Clement. The good thing about working for Christophe is you start in Florida, where everyone is together over the winter, but then when the horses go on to Belmont or Keeneland he puts you in charge of a barn and you are almost running a little operation yourself. He comes once a week and spends the day with you and goes through everything. His attention to detail is incredible and you learn so much from him.”

His time in Chantilly with Head has clearly left its mark, not least for the seasons he spent riding her stable star Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), and Philippart de Foy is now in the process of assembling his own team to occupy the boxes of Machell Place adjacent to Warren Hill.

“I was talking with [Jockey Club Estates manager] Nick Patton about different options in Newmarket and then Ed Vaughan announced he would be packing up at the end of the season,” he says. “Colin Murfitt owns Machell Place and he has been very helpful and is sending me a yearling. It’s a great location and a very well designed yard that was built in 1884 but has very modern facilities.”

Despite his mother’s attempts to keep him away from racing, Philippart de Foy has long held an ambition to become a trainer before the age of 30 and, with a decent hands-on education behind him, he is now well on target to do just that. He won’t be alone in the ranks of new trainers for the coming year as his old friend from his days at Clement’s stable, Harry Eustace, is set to take over from his father James just down the road from Machell Place.

“There is a really good camaraderie in Newmarket among the young trainers and assistant trainers,” he adds. “Obviously I have thought a lot about starting up in the current climate with the pandemic continuing, and it is a worry, but I asked the people who are supporting me what their feelings were and their view was that there would be better value for money buying horses at the sales. In an ideal world I would rather have started at a better time but the yard was available and I felt that I have enough support from people who were quite positive about sending horses.”

Philippart de Foy has been recruiting his string since the summer horses-in-training sales and already has some older horses to race through the winter while the yearlings are learning the ropes.

He says, "I have some owner-breeders and I think in the climate you have to do some syndicates and partnerships, so I am starting up a racing club with a mixture of horses in training and some yearlings. If someone rings me and is interested in getting involved I want to be able to offer the full range of ownership options."

DETTORE: “PRESSURE IS LESS THAN LAST YEAR”

Enable (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)) will on Sunday attempt to accomplish what has never been done before in winning a third G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. The man who has been in her saddle the past three years and steered her to all 11 of her Group 1 victories, however, said he is feeling less pressure than he did at her first attempt at the historic feat 12 months ago, when she was second to Waldgeist (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) in the betting markets.

"I have spoken with my colleagues and racing analysts—they say that a heavy track could count against Love, because her low-to-the-ground, fast action is better suited to good ground," Dettori said. “Genuine heavy ground will turn the Arc into a stamina test—that will play to Stradivarius’s strengths—and, on the contrary, the distance may prove a bit long for Persian King, although anything trained by Andre Fabre warrants respect.

“There are other horses which shouldn’t be underestimated, such as Sottsass. He hasn’t had a hard campaign and boasts prior experience in the Arc de Triomphe [third last year].”

GBRI LAUNCH E-MAGAZINE ‘THE BRITISH BRIEFING’

Great British Racing International (GBRI) launched a quarterly e-magazine titled ‘The British Briefing.’ Produced in association with the Thoroughbred Breeders’ Association, National Trainers Federation, Tattersalls, Tattersalls Ascot, Goffs UK and the Federation of Bloodstock Agents, the online publication encapsulates headlines focusing on Britain’s racing and bloodstock industries. To view the Autumn 2020 issue, click here.

"In publishing The British Bulletin, we do not wish to naively imply that the British racing and bloodstock industry has an easy road ahead; we all know that with the UK government’s announcement regarding continued crowd absence for up to six months, possibly more, we face a dauntingly steep uphill climb," said Minty Farquhar, Acting General Manager of GBRI. “Rather, in collating and highlighting our chosen success stories, we offer readers in all corners of the world the chance to take a moment to reflect on the recent achievements of British racing’s professionals and the world-class thoroughbreds to whom they dedicate their lives, no matter how fierce the pandemic."

The Winter 2020 edition will be published at the end of December.

RACING WELFARE JOIN FORCES WITH SLEEPSTATION

Racing Welfare announced the partnership with sleep therapy service, the NHS accredited Sleepstation. The online program, which is designed to help with longer and better quality sleep, is free of charge to anyone in the racing industry.

The online program, which may last up to eight weeks, is a person centered approach where patients would previously only be able to access in leading sleep clinics, known as CBTi (Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Insomnia). The Sleepstation online program provides benefits, including no waiting lists, no need to take time off work, no travel costs involved and no set appointment times.

CIR LAUNCHES ‘STEP ON TRACK’ PROGRAM

Careers in Racing (CIR), the careers marketing arm of the British Horseracing Authority (BHA), announced the launch of a new program designed to introduce young people from Black, Asian and minority ethnic (BAME) backgrounds to the horseracing industry. Step On Track, which has been developed in response to the lack of BAME representation within several areas of British racing, aims to engage young people from ethnic minorities with the sport, as well as highlighting career opportunities. The program will take place during Black History Month in the October half term (Oct. 26–30) and will include talks from inspirational racing figures, activities and the opportunity to go racing as a group at an appropriate point in the future. Upon completion of the course, the candidates will receive ongoing mentoring and guidance, as well as assistance in finding work experience placements within the industry.

The scheme will initially be open for between 6-12 people by way of a pilot, with the aim of increasing participation in future schemes.

Zoe Elliott, Head of Careers Marketing and Recruitment at the BHA said: "The proportion of BAME representation is an area which many sports are considering at present whether that be at participant, executive or leadership level. Racing is committed to striving to be a diverse and fully inclusive industry, but many are aware that young people from ethnic minorities may not have easily available access to learn about the sport of horseracing. We hope that Step On Track will be a positive initial step to showcase racing both as a sport and as an industry to young people who may not have encountered it before, with the longer term aim of growing the scheme to become a permanent part of our wider program of existing careers marketing activity."

BOLTAWAY (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) debuts for Khalid Abdullah and Roger Charlton and is the fourth foal out of the four-time Grade I heroine Proviso (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The February-foaled colt, whose family features the G1 Prince of Wales’s S. hero Byword (GB) (Peintre Celebre), has a smart rival with experience to overcome in Shadwell’s Moktasaab (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), a 500,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 graduate who is an Owen Burrows-trained half-brother to the G1 Prix Jean Romanet and G1 Prix de l’Opera heroine Speedy Boarding (GB) (Shamardal).

The homebred chestnut’s dam is one of five black-type performers, including GSW G1 Dubai World Cup third Cat O’Mountain (Street Cry {Ire}), produced by GIII Honey Bee H. victress Thunder Kitten (Storm Cat). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $6,653.

OPERATIC (IRE) (f, 2, Showcasing {GB}–Dream Dana {Ire}, by Dream Ahead), who made all by seven lengths over this trip at Windsor last time on Sept. 7, was again on the front end from the outset. Tackled approaching the final furlong by First Smile (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), the 6-5 favourite asserted to score by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of the G3 Ballyogan S. and G3 Greenlands S. scorer Lidanna (GB) (Nicholas) and a half to three black-type performers. They include the listed-placed Lidan (Ire) (Soviet Star), producer of three others of that ilk headed by the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye and dual G2 Prix du Gros-Chene heroine Wizz Kid (Ire) (Whipper). The dam’s yearling colt by Kodiac (GB) was purchased by Con Marnane for 46,000 at the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale at the start of September. Sales history: 78,000 Ylg ’19 GOFOR.

SISKANY (GB) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}–Halay {GB}, by Dansili {GB}), fifth on his racecourse bow at this distance at Sandown on Sept. 16, tracked the pace in third. Working hard to gain the lead with 150 yards remaining, the 5-4 favourite saw off Barn Owl (GB) (Frankel {GB}) to prevail by half a length. The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of the G3 Blue Wind S. scorer Galatee (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}). She in turn is responsible for three black-type winners including Dubawi’s Dartmouth (GB), successful in the G2 Hardwicke S. and G2 Yorkshire Cup and runner-up in the G1 Canadian International, and Manatee (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) who took the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly and G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris. MIDNIGHT BISOU RETIRED

Midnight Bisou in the 2019 Personal Ensign | Sarah Andrew

Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute--Divia Delite, by Repent), the reigning Eclipse Award-winning older female and five-time Grade I winner, has been retired from racing, according to Jeffrey Bloom, co-owner and managing partner or Bloom Racing Stable.

“I cannot begin to tell you what this mare has meant to me, my family, and my partners,” said Bloom. “The places she has taken us and the thrills she has given us are immeasurable. And just to be in her presence is to feel what greatness is all about. Her calm, inquisitive demeanor, her fierce determination in a race is unlike any other horse. She is all class. I’m just so grateful I got to be a part of her incredible journey, and I’m extremely excited to watch the next phase of her life, watch her become a mother, and for her babies to hit the track with all of her class and elegance, and continue the Midnight Bisou legacy.”

Bred in Kentucky by Woodford Thoroughbreds, Midnight Bisou was bought back on a bid of $19,000 at the 2016 Keeneland September sale, but improved over the next seven months and was hammered down to Bloom as agent for $80,000 at the OBS April Sale the following spring (under-tack video). Turned over to Bill Spawr in California, Midnight Bisou was sent off at debut odds of 21-1 for Bloom and Allen Racing LLC and was beaten a nose by future Grade I winner Dream Tree (Uncle Mo), to whom she was also beaten a nose in the Desi Arnaz S. in her next start.

STILL PLUGGING AWAY, LEATHERBURY WINS RACE FOR 62ND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

by Bill Finley

Now 87, trainer King Leatherbury likes to tell a joke, the one about his destiny and his family’s burial plot.

"I feel perfectly good and healthy but when I visit my family plot down there, where my whole family has been buried, there’s this little sign. It says, ‘King Leatherbury, coming soon.’"

In the meantime, Leatherbury is not done yet or ready to walk away from a career that has earned him a spot in the Hall of Fame and fifth place on the list of all-time winningest trainers with 6,504 victories. He reached another milestone Friday night at Penn National when winning a $10,000 claimer with Paratycachaca (Jazil). In a streak that began way back in 1959 at Sunshine Park (now Tampa Bay Downs), he has now won a race for 62 straight years. It was his first win in over 10 months.

Midnight Bisou became the queen of the hill in Southern California in 2018, winning the GI Santa Ynez S., the GIII Santa Ysabel S. and the GI Santa Anita Oaks (video) in convincing fashion before heading to Churchill Downs for her next appearance.

The Monomoy Girl Meetings...
On the strength of that form, Midnight Bisou was made the 23-10 favorite for the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks, but she endured a nightmarish trip from a wide draw and did well to be third, beaten just over four lengths by Monomoy Girl (Tapizar). With better and richer options for his filly in the eastern half of the U.S., Bloom elected to transfer Midnight Bisou to trainer Steve Asmussen, who saddled the filly to a towering six-length success in the GII Mother Goose S., with Madaket Stables now part of the ownership group. Clearly second to Monomoy Girl in the GI CCA Oaks, the dark bay was third in the 10-furlong GI Alabama S., then crossed the line a neck second to Monomoy Girl in the GI Cotillion S. (video) before being elevated to the victory. She closed the season with a rallying third to her arch-rival in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff.

The Making of a Champion...
While Monomoy Girl spent the entirety of 2019 on the shelf, Midnight Bisou dominated the division, with seven wins from eight starts. Ultra-game in taking the GI Apple Blossom H. by a nose in April, she was imperious in adding the GI Ogden Phipps S. and GIII Molly Pitcher S. before throwing down with Elate (Medaglia d’Oro) in one of the year’s most thrilling stretch battles in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga (video). Cont. p4

A nose best that day, she romped in the GII Beldame S. before suffering her first defeat of the season in the Distaff. She was nevertheless the runaway winner of the Eclipse, besting her Distaff conqueror Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize) by a wide margin.

Training On at Five...

The morning of the Distaff, Bloom announced that Midnight Bisou would be withdrawn from the Fasig-Tipton November sale and would instead focus on a 5-year-old campaign. Connections selected the inaugural $20-million Saudi Cup for their mare’s seasonal debut, and despite racing far back early, she made eye-catching progress up the rail in the final furlong to finish a close second to Maximum Security (New Year’s Day) (video). In the meantime, Monomoy Girl had made a successful return to action and a much-anticipated rematch loomed in the GII Fleur de Lis S. June 27. But the Brad Cox runner was re-routed for the GII Ruffian S. at Belmont two weeks later and Midnight Bisou took full advantage, rolling home by 8 1/4 lengths. Beaten a neck into second by Vexatious (Giant’s Causeway) in this year’s Personal Ensign Aug. 1, Midnight Bisou was being pointed for this weekend’s GI Juddmonte Spinster S., but she was off following a work at Saratoga this past Monday and was sent to Rood and Riddle in Lexington to be examined by Dr. Larry Bramlage. The renowned vet confirmed Wednesday that Midnight Bisou had sustained a sesamoid fracture in her right front fetlock. Surgery is not indicated and the injury will not impact her future as a broodmare.

Midnight Bisou will be consigned by Elite Sales to this year’s Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Nov. 8.

“I want to thank trainer Steve Asmussen, assistant trainer’s Scott Blasi, Darren Fleming, her main exercise rider Angel Garica, groom Gerardo Morales (Chocolate), and the entire Asmussen team for the devotion and care they provided each and every single day,” Bloom added. “I would also like to thank her regular rider, Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith, who shared a very special bond with her, and was aboard for all five Grade I wins, as well as the other jockeys who were fortunate enough to climb aboard. Finally, a sincere thank you to all of Midnight Bisou’s legion of fans who have been extremely loyal with their support and love for our Champion throughout her career.”

Midnight Bisou was never out of the top three in her 22 career starts at 10 different racetracks, compiling a record of 13-6-3 and bankrolling $7,471,520. She has been sent to WinStar Farm where she will be turned out in the interim.

“That sounds great because it’s so many years. I didn't even realize it had been that many years,” he said. "I saddled my first winner in 1959 and here it is 2020."

But 2020 has been a difficult year for him. Having the sort of stable that struggles to win even one race in a year is something he will never get used to, not when he has won numerous training titles and has won as many as 365 races in a single year.

He understands why: there aren’t many owners willing to hire someone his age.

"I’m 87 years old, for God’s sake. Nobody is going to give me horses," he said.

Up until 2017, Leatherbury didn’t necessarily need a large stable to enjoy success. He was the owner and trainer of Ben’s Cat (Parker’s Storm Cat), the obscurely bred turf sprinter who won 26 stakes races and earned 2,643,782. But when Ben’s Cat was retired after just three starts in 2017, Leatherbury didn’t have anything to fill the void. He won just eight races in 2018, the first time in his career that his win total was in the single digits, and only two in 2019. This year, he is 1 for 19.

"Winning one race in one year is nothing to brag about at all," he said. "Fact is, I am down to four horses and one of them is a young horse who is not ready yet. So I have three horses running and they are all turf horses, which restricts their ability to start because you get a lot of times when it rains and the races come off the turf. That’s the predicament I am in. I’m happy to have won that race, but winning just one race doesn’t mean anything."

When Leatherbury was among the leading trainers in the country in the ’70s, ’80s and ’90s, he had no problem attracting owners. With Leatherbury among the best there was at playing the claiming game, his owners knew that their trainer would win races for them.

"I have had great owners in my career and have great stories about them," he said. "They were wonderful people. They just died off. Generally, the owner is older than the trainer. I had Mr. (Woodrow) Marriott who bred horses and I always got eight to 10 from him. He lived to be 93 years old, but sooner or later you go. I had my own horses for as long as I could. Cont. p7

He continued, "Generally, if you own a horse you lose money. If you don't you are extremely lucky."

He is down to one owner, Norman Lewis.

"Last year as the year was coming to an end, he said, 'King, what is your plan for next year?' meaning whether I was going to retire or not. I said to him that since he was the only owner that I have it all depended on what he was going to do. He stuck it out. He is a breeder. When you train for breeders you don't win as many races as you do when training for claiming outfits. A breeder gets very attached to his horses and has sentimental interest in them. You can't manage them as aggressively. You don't have the ability to drop them and lose them."

Leatherbury doesn't want to retire. Like many other trainers who have spent most of their adult lives doing just one thing, he can't imagine not training horses.

"I don't want to retire because this has been my life," he said. "I love it. If I retired, what else would I do?"

But he understands that if Lewis gets out of the business he could find himself without any horses to train.

"I don't want to retire but I might be forced to if I lose this one owner," he said. "Then I'll just throw the towel in. When it comes that time, I'll have to face the facts."

But he's not ready for that day to arrive. As long as he has horses to train he will keep doing what he's been doing for 62 years and look forward to his next winner.

Asked whether or not the Arc is a two-horse affair as the bettors have surmised, Riley said, "Oh no. It's very much an open race, and the major development this week has been the rain that's falling in Paris. Right now, the course at Longchamp is listed as 'very soft', which is the same as what it was last year when Enable ran second, and there's more rain still forecast to come ... So you have a horse like Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who's been the best stayer in Europe the past couple seasons. I think that the soft going will help his chances a bit. It'll turn the race into a bit more of a stamina contest."

Stradivarius, currently a distant third choice for the bettors behind Enable and Love, is not the only potential upsetter on Riley's radar.

"Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni (Fr)) was third in last year's Arc over this same soft going and ran a very game race there," she said. "He won a Group 1 race [the Prix Ganay] in France earlier this year. His trainer, Jean-Claude Rouget has spoken very highly of him this week coming into it, saying this is the best he's ever had him, and that they've had this as their key target ever since he finished third last year. Another horse that I find a little interesting is Rouget's 'other' horse, the only other 3-year-old filly in the race besides Love, Raabihah (Sea The Stars {Ire}). She was very impressive winning her first two starts this spring, and Jean-Claude, right from that point, was saying, 'This is our Arc filly.'"

The success of fillies and mares has been a consistent theme throughout Arc history. Riley was asked about why they’ve competed so frequently and done so well against males in the race.

“With the weight scale in France this time of year, the 3-year-old fillies get a big weight break for the Arc,” she said. “They carry 121 pounds, which is what Enable carried when she won her first Arc. Three-year-old colts carry 125, older mares 128 and older horses 131 pounds. It’s also down to the fact that, especially at this time of year in Europe, there are fewer opportunities at the Group 1 level for [fillies and mares] over the mile and a quarter to a mile and a half. In both Britain and France, there are only two Group 1 races for fillies and mares from the summer onward.”

Elsewhere on the show, the writers discussed the Horseracing Safety Integrity Act passing the U.S. House of Representatives, broke down the 11-horse GI Preakness S. and reacted to Improbable (City Zip) taking charge in the older male division. Then, in the West Point Thoroughbreds news segment, they analyzed the Kentucky Supreme Court decision that puts the future of historical horse racing machines in doubt and tried to figure out why alternative forms of gaming continue to grow while racing’s handle declines. AUTHENTIC GETS FIRST LOOK AROUND OLD HILLTOP

Overnight rains in greater Baltimore resulted in a muddy main track at Pimlico Race Course, but that did not stop GI Kentucky Derby hero Authentic (Into Mischief) from getting his first feel for the track Wednesday morning as he prepares for Saturday’s GI Preakness S. (video)

Under the watchful eye of seven-time Preakness-winning trainer Bob Baffert, Authentic jogged the wrong way on the outside rail one day after arriving from Churchill Downs.

“He just went out there for a little jog. He looked good,” Baffert said. “Coming off that plane yesterday, he was like a keg of dynamite. He has so much energy, that horse. He’s just so full of himself.”

Baffert finds himself wishing that the Preakness were to be contested two weeks after the Derby, given how well Authentic has taken the race.

“I would have loved to run two weeks later because he was just full of himself two weeks afterward. It’s just giving horses time to freshen up,” said the Hall of Famer. “You have new shooters now. It’s so turned around now. I feel real good about it. I think he’s going to run his race. He hasn’t regressed. He looks great.”

ALL EYES ON UNBEATEN YAUPON IN CHICK LANG

Despite losing the ultra-talented GI SW Volatile (Violence) to an untimely injury in late September, the Hall of Fame Steve Asmussen barn still has another big bullet to fire in the sprint division in the form of the up-and-coming unbeaten sophomore Yaupon (Uncle Mo) in Thursday’s GII Chick Lang S. at Pimlico.

The L. William and Corinne Heiligbrodt colorbearer, a $255,000 OBS June acquisition (:10), made it a perfect three-for-three in front-running fashion while making his stakes debut in Saratoga’s GII Amsterdam S. last time Aug. 29.

The Chick Lang 4-5 morning-line favorite has earned triple digit Beyer Speed Figures in each of his last two starts.

“He’s extremely fast,” Asmussen said. “He’s got an elite amount of speed. We wanted to give him all the maturity we could. We were trying to follow a similar plan with him as we were with [champion sprinter and 2018 Chick Lang winner] Mitole for the Heiligbrodts.”

Yaupon’s main foe of his nine rivals entered may be drawn right to his outside in post 10. Arkaan (Into Mischief), a sharp winner of his first two starts, including a runaway allowance tally at Delaware July 27, cuts back in distance after setting the pace and collecting third behind GI Preakness S. runner and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Pneumatic (Uncle Mo) in Monmouth’s TVG.com Pegasus S. Aug. 15.

Baffert admits that the coronavirus pandemic has cast something over a pall over the Classics, but he’s just happy they’ve taken place at all.

“It would have been horrible if we didn’t have the Derby, the Preakness,” he said. “The Belmont was sort of different, more like the Dwyer. The Derby and the Preakness, at least we got to run them. And we have beautiful weather.

“It doesn’t feel like Preakness, but it will the day of. It’s like the Kentucky Derby,” he continued. “It didn’t feel like Derby that day, but when that gate came open it felt like Derby. That’s the way it is. When that gate comes open it’s going to feel like Preakness. That’s what it’s all about. All you are hoping for is that your horses show up and when they turn for home you’re hoping you have something to root for. That’s it. That’s all you can ask for.” (Click here for an interview with Bob Baffert)

RIDERS UP DOCUMENTARY TAKES LOOK BEHIND SCENERS AT “FIRST SPORTS BUBBLE” by Bill Finley

As the realities of the coronavirus started to spread across California and the country, the team at Santa Anita wasn’t sure how to prepare for what could have quickly escalated into a dire situation for the track and the sport. But what began as a scramble of sorts led to a well-coordinated plan. Racing would successfully return to the historic Southern California track and with an innovative wrinkle. During the racing week, the jockeys were required to live in a bubble in campers situated on track. What might at first have seemed to be an imposition quickly turned into a collegial summer camp for the riders.

“If you have to do something like this, this is the way to do it. I’d like to say life in quarantine is pretty tough, but I’d be lying like crazy,” jockey Mike Smith says.

Santa Anita was shut down by the coronavirus following the Mar. 22 card but returned May 15 and the meet was completed without any serious setbacks. How it did so is the subject of the entertaining documentary from NBC Sports Network “Riders Up. The First Sports Bubble.”

While horse racing has figured out how to operate during a global pandemic, that wasn’t the case when COVID-19 started to upend life as we know it. As “Riders Up” begins, the management team at Santa Anita is considering the worst-case scenarios.

“We started seeing the news day by day get worse and we realized businesses were going to start being put out of business for the time being,” said Stronach Group Executive Director of California Operations Aidan Butler. “Unlike any other business, the racetrack is like a town. Eight hundred people live here. Eighteen hundred horses live here. It’s not like any other business. That was the realization that we could have a real crisis on our hands. A little bit of panic set in across the group here.”

This was a case where panic turned into the mother of invention.

“At that point it was ‘What are we going to do?’” Butler said. “We have to make a decision here. We can start to ask animals to leave here and people to start to get out and try to get it to an amount that was controllable or double down and try to get her open as quick as we could.”

The horses and the backstretch community were the easy part. There was plenty of room to accommodate them and because the horses needed to be cared for, there was never any serious question about allowing the backstretch workers to continue on as normal. The jockeys were the bigger issue. Should they be brought back and then, had some of them tested positive, racing would have likely had to be shut down again. It was decided to house them on track in RV’s that were normally used on movie and television sets that had been closed due to the pandemic.

“We built a small city in a matter of a week,” said Senior Vice President and Assistant General Manager Nate Newby. Santa Anita’s bubble would be the first of its kind in sports, a precursor to what the NBA and the NHL would do with their players once they resumed playing.

“I certainly had concerns,” Smith said. “What’s going to happen? Are we going to be close to everybody? Are we going to be piled into a room all together? Is it going to be a little bit scary?”

Understanding that confinement can be stifling, Santa Anita set out to make things as enjoyable as possible for the jockeys. With Butler and Newby acting as head counselors, there was a 50th birthday party for veteran Aaron Gryder, karaoke, poker, movie night and group dinners. The jockeys, who usually go their separate way after the races are over, bonded.

“It was a great time being with the guys,” jockey Edwin Maldonado said. “Like being in a man cave.”

It worked. By the time the meet ended without further interruption on June 21, over 1,000 COVID-19 tests had been administered to jockeys and essential employees. Not one jockey or racing employee tested positive. Cont. p9

Riders Up will air Friday on NBC Sports Network at 3 p.m. PT and will be shown again Saturday at 9:30 a.m. PT. It was produced by the Hennegan Brothers.

IRAD ORTIZ JR. TESTS POSITIVE FOR COVID

Jockey Irad Ortiz Jr., the leading rider in America, has tested positive for COVID-19, the jockey confirmed in a phone call Wednesday afternoon. The news was first reported by Dave Grening of the Daily Racing Form.

Ortiz, who had been serving two consecutive five-day suspensions for careless riding July 3 and 31 at Belmont and Saratoga, respectively, said that he was asymptomatic. He rode his last race Sept. 16 at Kentucky Downs, and had not ridden in New York since Sept. 7, the last day of the Saratoga meeting.

“I’m feeling good,” said Ortiz. “I had the test on the 28th because I was coming back to ride in New York, and I had to do the protocols, and it came back positive. I’m here in Saratoga,

Ortiz is currently the leading jockey in the country with $14,743,742 in earnings. He has won the Eclipse Award as the nation’s top jockey the past two years.

NYRA’s Director of Communications, Patrick McKenna, said that because Ortiz had tested positive in Saratoga, the protocols that he would be required to follow would be determined by the Saratoga County Department of Health. Those protocols, said McKenna, require Ortiz to “self-isolate for a period of time no shorter than 10 days. Following the completion of the period of isolation, and provided that Ortiz Jr. remains asymptomatic, then he will be evaluated for a potential return to the NYRA jockey colony. The Saratoga County Department of Health retains jurisdiction to address public health matters in the county and, in this case, the discontinuation of quarantine/isolation for individuals who have tested positive for COVID-19 and are pursuing a return to the workplace.”

MEADOWLANDS TEMPORARILY CLOSES DUE TO COVID-19

The Meadowlands Racetrack, a top harness racing venue in New Jersey, temporarily shut down starting Tuesday evening after several employees tested positive for COVID-19. Live racing will take place as scheduled Friday, but without fans. The facility will reopen to fans Saturday at 10 a.m.

The following is part of a statement the track release Tuesday evening:

“The racetrack continues to take an aggressive stance against the spread of COVID-19. Over the past several days the medical team has identified a few individuals that tested positive for COVID-19 that they acquired either in the workplace or at home. Contact tracing is ongoing.

Out of an abundance of caution the entire facility will be shut down for top-to-bottom sanitization. The Meadowlands Racetrack is committed to providing a safe and healthy grandstand for all employees, patrons and fans.”
WANAMAKER’S OCTOBER CATALOGUE LIVE

Wanamaker’s, the online auction house, will offer its fourth auction Thursday, Oct. 8, with the catalogue now live. The catalogue features weanlings, yearlings, racing prospects, and broodmares. In addition to being able to view pictures and videos, prospective buyers may schedule in-person inspections with sellers. Buyers must register to bid.

“As we enter into our fourth-ever auction, we appreciate the continued support from sellers and buyers,” said Wanamaker’s co-founder Jack Carlino. “We were so excited to see Fiya’s performance last weekend for new owner Rob Masiello and we are confident we have some more serious talent in this catalogue as well.”

Fiya (Friesan Fire) topped the second online Wanamaker’s auction at $400,000 in late July and made his first start for his new connections in a Sept. 20 allowance at Belmont, getting a 100 Beyer Speed Figure. Among the entrants in October’s catalogue is Caravel (Mizzen Mast), winner of the Aug. 24 Lady Erie S. at Presque Isle Downs. She is entered in Saturday’s $100,000 Hilltop S. at Pimlico.

The catalogue can be found at Wanamaker’s. Live bidding opens Oct. 8 at 8:00 a.m. ET, with the first listing closing at 5:00 p.m. ET and subsequent listings ending every three minutes.

NEW VOCATIONS LAUNCHES 11TH BREEDERS’ CUP PLEDGE

New Vocations, the largest racehorse adoption charity in the country, has kicked off its 11th annual Breeders’ Cup Pledge in support of Thoroughbred aftercare. The program, which has raised over $650,000 for aftercare, is seeking owners and trainers of Breeders’ Cup contenders to pledge a percentage of their Breeders’ Cup earnings to New Vocations for the rehabilitating, retraining, and rehoming of retired racehorses.

“The need for our services continues to grow each year,” said Anna Ford, New Vocations Thoroughbred Program Director. “This year, in particular, has been very challenging due to the obstacles presented by COVID-19. Over the last decade, we have grown this Pledge into an extremely important fundraiser and we had our most successful year yet in 2019, raising over $130,000. We hope to have another record-breaking year in 2020 and are so grateful for the generous contributions of our donors who have continued to support and value our program. The Pledge is a great way for owners and trainers to give back and support New Vocations’ aftercare efforts.”

In 2019, over 50 Breeders’ Cup contenders had connections who pledged a percentage of their Championship Day earnings. Six were winners of their respective races: Vino Rosso (Curlin), British Idiom (Flashback), Sharing (Speightstown), Covfefe (Into Mischief), Uni (GB) (More Than Ready), and Bricks and Mortar (Giant’s Causeway).

Pledges are open until Thursday, Nov. 5. Please visit New Vocations for more information or contact anna@horseadoption.com or andrea@horseadoption.com.

DRF EN ESPANOL TO OFFER EXPANDED KEENELAND COVERAGE

Keeneland will serve as a presenting sponsor of DRF en Espanol, a Daily Racing Form product that will deliver expanded coverage of Keeneland’s Fall Meet to Spanish-speaking racing fans.

“We are delighted to have the opportunity to reach new audiences and better serve our existing Spanish-speaking fans with our coverage and race analysis through DRF en Espanol,” Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said. “Investing in the future of our sport and the racing community is key to our mission, and we are excited to expand our engagement with both local and international audiences with this new partnership.”

DRF en Espanol will include articles and handicapping selections; analysis videos featuring Keeneland racing; and a “Noon Line” of handicapping analysis for Keeneland races every Thursday through Sunday.

Keeneland’s 17-day Fall Meet opens Friday and runs through Saturday, Oct. 24.

Pounded down late to odds-on to remain unbeaten, the dark bay broke towards the front but was out-sprinted by a few from there to track in midpack. He uncorked an ominous move around the bend and was spun wide into the lane as four or five looked to have a chance at the top of the stretch. He quickly proved to have the most to give, however, and kicked on straight and strong as a green Lookin At Justice gave chase. The winner has a yearling half-sister by Taprize and his dam was bred back to that full-brother Untapable (Tapit) for 2021. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Hungarian Princess dominated state-bred foes including favorite Diamond Solitaire (Majestic Harbor) by seven lengths here Aug. 24, but settled for fourth in a much tougher open allowance here Sept. 15. Well supported in this black-type debut that likely represented some class relief, the bay broke well but was allowed to find her rhythm and settled in third last but in touch. She began to pick off rivals with a sweeping, four-wide bid into the turn, and found no competition in the stretch as she was kept after to keep running while displaying significant greenness. The winner has a foal half-sister by Free Drop Billy and her dam was bred back to Flameaway. Her second dam is MGISW Humble Creek (Humble Eleven). Click for the Equibase.com chart.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

BEER CAN MAN (c, 2, Can the Man--Cheesecake, by Dynaformer) broke through over course and distance last time, and was subsequently flattered when the Wesley Ward trainee he beat that day came back to graduate in a lucrative Kentucky Downs heat. Backed in half of his 6-1 morning line quote, the bay was scrubbed on early to take up a stalking spot out wide. He ranged up to challenge the longshot pacesetter heading for home, and wore that stubborn foe down by midstretch before pulling away late by 1 1/2 lengths. Charles Chrome (California Chrome) got into the exacta. The winner’s dam, who hails from the extended female family of MGISW Student Council (Kingmambo), was bred to Fast Anna for 2021. Sales history: $9,500 RNA Wlg '18 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $40,580. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
