‘BEAUTIFUL, ELEGANT’ DAUGHTER OF SHASTYE SET FOR BOOK 1

Mogul is the latest Group 1 winner out of the excellent producer Shastye | Scoop Dyga

By Kelsey Riley

When one has a filly like the Galileo (Ire) daughter of Shastye (Ire) (Danehill), Julian Dollar admits, “you don’t look at those sorts of horses particularly objectively.” And to be fair, that assessment likely doesn’t just apply to the Newsells Park Stud general manager. Such a force has Shastye been in the Tattersalls October Book 1 ring and on the racecourse over the past 10 years that plenty of shoppers are likely to get a bit starry-eyed.

Lot 436 at next week’s renewal of Book 1 is the sixth filly out of Shastye and is a full-sister to Secret Gesture (GB), the G2 Middleton S. winner and triple Oaks runner-up who was disqualified from a first-place finish in the 2015 G1 Beverly D. S.; last year’s G1 Juddmonte International winner Japan (GB); last month’s G1 Grand Prix de Paris scorer Mogul (GB); and Group 3 winner Sir Isaac Newton (GB). Secret Gesture was a 230,000gns yearling who later sold to Godolphin as a broodmare for $3.5-million, while Japan, Mogul and Sir Issac Newton cost 1.3-million gns, 3.4-million gns and 3.6-million gns in the Tattersalls ring, all bought by the Coolmore partners. Shastye had another Galileo filly, Secret Gaze (GB), sell for 1.35-million gns at Book 1 in 2016.

HUNDRED-YEAR HISTORY OF ‘THE ARC’
by Tom Frary

Nothing sacred just appears out of the wilderness; it is always the outcome of an evolutionary process with many layers of development. In racing, France and arguably Europe’s self-proclaimed ‘monument’, the Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe, emerged from a lengthy spell of planning and forethought into how the country could showcase its own talent in direct competition with its neighbours. With the hippodrome at Longchamp superseding the worn-out Champ de Mars circuit in 1857, the Societe d’Encouragement pour l’Amelioration des Races de Chevaux en France looked to provide some prizes to fit the new order. First up was the 1863 launch of the Grand Prix de Paris, serving as the Bois de Boulogne’s testing ground for the vainqueurs of the English Derby and the Prix du Jockey Club. Then, 30 years on, followed the Prix du Conseil Municipal which pitched the 3-year-olds against their elders.

It was from that mile-and-a-half contest that the ‘Arc’ as we know it now came to be. In 1920, with the people of Europe turning back to the great irrelevances that the devastation of the First World War had temporarily shelved, the Societe initiated the perfect weight-for-age examination.

Dollar confirmed that the latest filly’s looks and attitude match her pedigree.

“We’ve loved her since day one and she’s a bit of a favorite,” Dollar said. “Not only because of her pedigree but also because she is just a lovely filly and she has that wonderful temperament. I described her the other day as serene and I think that is a good description of her. She’s a beautiful, elegant filly, she’s got a huge walk, but it’s the way she conducts herself, really. She’s very much the boss in the paddock and always has been.

“And yet when she’s with people she’s like a 14-year-old pony. She just loves people and is a sweet filly to deal with. But when it comes to business she knows what she’s about. She’s just got that air about her. She’s a bit special I think and a bit of a collector’s item.

When it comes to business she knows what she’s about. She’s just got that air about her. She’s a bit special and a bit of a collector’s item.

Julian Dollar on Shastye’s Galileo filly

While Shastye’s filly will likely feature as one of the stars of the sale when she strolls into the ring midway through day three of the sale on Oct. 8, she is far from the only “collector’s item” in the Book 1 draft of Newsells, which has been leading vendor at the sale last past two years. Shastye’s filly is one of two Galileos Newells will offer, the other being a colt (lot 454) who is the first foal out of the G3 Prix Imprudence winner and multiple Group 1-placed sprinter/miler Spectre (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}).

“He’s got a really good step to him,” Dollar said. “He’s a very attractive, neat horse with a good step and a good walker. He’s a very encouraging first foal for the mare.”

Newsells offers two colts by Galileo’s best son Frankel (GB) out of Oasis Dream (GB) mares on day one of the sale: lot 62, a colt out of Enable (GB)’s unraced half-sister Birdwood (GB), and lot 36, “a real class horse” out of As Good As Gold (Ire), a half-sister to former Frankel standout Eminent (Ire).
Dollar recalled having to buy Birdwood twice—“once when she was good value, and once when she wasn’t when our partners wanted to sell.” The former was for 150,000gns as a 3-year-old from the Juddmonte consignment at Tattersalls December in 2016 before Enable had raced. The second was for 1.1-million gns two months after Enable won her first Arc in 2017.

“He’s a very nice horse,” Dollar said of Birdwood’s colt.

“A Strong, well-made with a good step to him. And of course, what a lovely pedigree.”

Dollar said As Good As Gold’s colt resembles his sire in his athleticism.

“I remember watching his father walk and he had that amazing movement, moved a bit like a panther,” he said. “And this horse has got a great step to him. He’s a very nice horse.”

An elite yearling draft would hardly be complete without representation from Dubawi (Ire), and Newsells has two colts to offer by Darley’s kingpin: lot 356, a half-brother to G1 Oaks winner Qualify (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), and lot 112, a son of the Arc winner Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) offered on behalf of breeder Teruya Yoshida.

“This is a really nice horse,” Dollar said of lot 356, who is out of the Galileo mare Perihelion (Ire). “He’s always been a lovely individual since the day he was born. Sadly we no longer have the mum, she passed away soon after he was born. But he’s a nice colt. He’s quite typical of Dubawi but he’s got a lot of quality.”

Lot 112 is just the second of Danedream’s foal to see a sales ring; the first was this colt’s full-brother who made 1.5-million gns from Shadwell in 2017 and has won three times. The mare’s next foal, a Frankel (GB) filly, sadly died before making the races but Dollar reported that Danedream’s current 2-year-old Online Dream (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is training well in Japan.
Newsells has thrown plenty of support behind leading French sire Siyouni (Fr) with three yearlings in the draft including fillies out of Grade III winner Ceisteach (Ire) (New Approach (Ire)) (lot 84), who Newsells bought for $700,000 in 2015, and Queen Philippa (Henrythenavigator) (lot 380), a full-sister to Group 1 winner Pedro The Great and a half to Footstepsinthesand (GB) and to the dam of Classic winner Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

Dollar said of the daughter of Ceisteach, “she’s a beautiful filly. She’s very, very nice. I really rate her. She’s just beautifully balanced, has a great step and real quality. I’m excited about this mare, she’s producing some lovely stock.”

Dollar described Queen Philippa’s filly as “a real strong, precocious type.”

“I would be disappointed if she wasn’t winning races by this time next year,” he said. “She looks the type that isn’t going to take long; she’s very well put together, very balanced and precocious-looking, which is not necessarily what we normally produce, but I’m happy to see something like that.”

Another in the draft to fit that bill is a Kodiac (GB) colt out of G1 Prix de l’Opera winner Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}) (lot 250), a half-brother to the triple stakes-winning 2-year-old Berkshire (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}).

“He is just a real monster of a 2-year-old [type],” Dollar said.

Some might say I wouldn’t know what a 2-year-old looked like, and they might be justified in that, but even a blind man can see that this is a 2-year-old type. He’s strong, he’s got a great step, he’s well put together and he just means business.”

Of quite the opposite profile are a pair of colts by Sea The Stars (Ire): lot 518, a son of the Newsells foundation mare Waldmark (Ger), and lot 366, a half-brother to the G1 Premio Roma GBI Racing winner Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {Ire}) from a family that has been nurtured by Newsells’s German sister stud Gestut Fahrhof.

“A bit of a personal favourite is the Sea The Stars colt out of Waldmark,” Dollar admitted. “Waldmark and this whole family mean an awful lot to Newsells because Waldmark was one of the first horses that the late Mr. Jacobs bought in 2000. And he bought her as a filly foal, raised her at Newsells when he just bought the farm, sent her to train with Michael Stoute and she was second in the Falmouth S. She’s bred a number of good horses, not least of course Masked Marvel who won the Leger and was a very good horse for Bjorn Nielsen and John Gosden. The very next year we had Waldlerche who turned out to be a group winner for Andre Fabre and subsequently, of course, bred Waldgeist as her first foal.

“She means a lot to us, Waldmark, and she had five years where we were unable to get a live foal out of her. We were all set to throw in the towel but between our vet here and the encouragement and support of a vet in Ireland, we got her going. She’s got a Frankel filly that’s a 3-year-old with John Gosden at the moment who’s only had the one start; she had a little setback recently, but she’s a filly we want to carry on with. And now this nice Sea The Stars colt and he’s an absolute belter.”
Newsells also offers a grandson of Waldmark in lot 519, a Le Havre (Ire) colt out of the German listed-winning Waldnah (GB) (New Approach {Ire}).

“If you’re looking for a horse that when you look at the pedigree and look at the horse you say, ‘this is bred to win the Derby’, this horse looks every inch a horse that's bred to win the Derby,” Dollar said. “I know Le Havre, from a colts’ point of view, is not always the most commercial, but he’s such a taking horse, this horse, that's why we decided to put him in Book 1. He’s a proper Book 1 horse for me and deserves lots of respect.”

Among three Lope De Vegas in the draft is a son of the G1 Irish Oaks winner Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) (lot 188) offered as part of the Waddesdon Stud dispersal. Also offered on behalf of the late Lady Rothschild is a No Nay Never half-brother to G3 Bengough S. winner Mince (GB) (Medicean {GB}) (lot 468) who Dollar said is “a real monster. He is just so impressive to look at, you just take a deep breath and go ‘wow.’”

Newsells offers a Fastnet Rock (Aus) filly (lot 279) on behalf of Manfred Ostermann of Gestut Ittlingen that Dollar described as a “real Oaks filly.”

The only unproven sire represented in the Newsells draft is Ulysees (Ire) via lot 8.

“This horse has got a great step and a great mind, which I think is just so important with these horses,” Dollar said of the relative of the recent G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis winner Royal Crusade (GB). “He looks very solid, I really like him.”

Reflecting on his expectations of the market with the season’s first few yearling sales in the book on both sides of the Atlantic, Dollar said, “I thought earlier in the year that best-case scenario we would be down 20%, and worst-case scenario is 50%. I suspect we're going to be somewhere in the middle, as a whole. I think it’s hard to be overly optimistic, given the circumstances.”

Dollar continued, “You’ve got to think to yourself, ‘who is going to want to spend lots of money on buying horses to go racing with while this virus is still plaguing us?’ But at the same time I hope that we all come together, and I think we have to a degree this spring and summer, come together and supported each other and just tried to get racing back on its feet. Dollar said he rates the Newsells draft as one of the best that the stud has offered, and that the sale as a whole will offer opportunities looking for those to invest in blueblooded stock while the market is down. “You’re going to be able to buy into some beautiful pedigrees at prices that, if you looked at what people were spending in the last couple of years at the December sales for mares, are going to look like serious bargains,” he said. “I certainly know from our point of view that when we invested in mares about 10 years ago [during the last major economic crash] we were buying at a level that we thought was value and that’s been borne out subsequently. Certainly the last few years buying broodmare prospects it’s been eye-watering the sort of money we’ve had to spend. So I think there is a great opportunity for buyers who are brave this year, who can see beyond the next six, maybe 12 months.”

“Ultimately, there’s not very much we can do about [the market],” Dollar added. “It’s just a question of preparing these horses as well as we can and taking them to the sales, hoping that people like them and trying to sell them. But we’ll be very realistic. We will be reducing our reserves significantly in order to get the market ticking over and we’ll take our medicines like everybody else has had to do.”

The first Sunday in October was picked as the date and the title decided after a debate to honour the allied forces’ 1919 march beneath the capital’s Arc de Triomphe. With 150,000 French francs to the winner, the inaugural running saw Comrade, a British-bred colt trained by the Brit Peter Gilpin at Newmarket’s Clarehaven Stables, take the spoils in the colours of Haras de Saint Pair du Mont lynchpin Count Evremond de Saint-Alary. Gilpin, who was the handler of the immortal Pretty Polly, also held a share in the 3-year-old with Count Evremond, who had reached prominence as the owner of the famed Omnium II.

Unfortunately, the formative years of the race were framed by the unresolved crisis beyond the Treaty of Versailles and lasted less than two decades in peacetime. The 1939 version had been due to be run a month after the outbreak of an even deadlier confrontation which would ravage the globe.
In those 19 years that the Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe took root, there were three dual winners in Ksar (Fr), Motrico (Fr) and Corrida (Fr), and only five others have subsequently matched that feat. Ksar, who emerged victorious in 1921 and 1922, was bred by Count Evremond, but raced for the widow of the recently-deceased Edmond Blanc, the founder of Saint-Cloud racecourse. Motrico had been retired after his first success in 1930, but after failing at stud was able to revisit the hallowed winner’s enclosure two years later under one of the Arc’s genuine icons Charles Semblat. He was the race’s leading jockey with three wins from 1927-1932 before launching his training career.

In 1925, there was the first of three disqualifications in the race’s history as Cadum (Fr) was rightly demoted from first to second and the race awarded to Priori (Fr) who had been stopped in his tracks by the cynical manoeuvre of the former’s rider. In 1926 Biribi (Fr) was one of the race’s most impressive early winners before siring the luminary Le Pacha (Fr) who emulated his achievement in the 1941 edition. In between, the 1934 edition was and still remains one of the finest vintage. Edouard de Rothschild’s esteemed racing operation enjoyed its first taste of glory in the contest via Brantome (Fr), a real star of his era as an unbeaten juvenile and 3-year-old whose achievements included the French Triple Crown of Poule d’Essai des Poulains, Prix Lupin and Prix Royal-Oak. So revered in his home nation, he was the subject of a short film, entitled “Brantome: Invincible Horse” which was viewed by cinema-goers in the mid-30s, and upon his demise newspaper headlines announced that “Brantome de Rothschild is dead.”

Funded for the first time by a state lottery in 1936, another legendary French racing figure came to the fore a year later as Marcel Boussac enjoyed glory with the sensational mare Corrida (Fr), who followed up in 1937. In so doing, she went one better than the high-class Semblat-ridden 1931 heroine Pearl Cap (Fr), who at the time was the first of her sex to win the race. There was no Arc between 1939 and 1941, but from 1942 to 1949 the renowned textile manufacturer Boussac collected another four renewals to become the winningmost owner in its history prior to the emergence of Khalid Abdullah. His six included the highly successful sire Djebel (Fr)—one of four winners trained by Semblat—and his daughter Coronation (Fr) who took the 1949 edition, which had been boosted to 25 million francs as the most valuable race of its kind. In any other timeframe, success of this nature would have induced only celebration for the owner-breeder. But as it spanned the cataclysm of World War II, a dark side was inevitable and in 1944 his beloved Corrida was taken from his stud during the battle of the Falaise Gap. In 1948, Sir Sultan Mahomed Shah, Aga Khan III, enjoyed the first of his family’s many triumphs in the race with Migoli (Ire), who provided Charlie Smirke with his only winner on the first horse to dip under 2:32.00. Between 1950 and 1951 the race’s fourth dual winner appeared in the shape of Francois Dupre’s Tantieme (Fr) from the Francois Mathet stable. These were turbulent times, with his first win set against the backdrop of a kidnapping of a head lad during a stable lads’ strike, but the Haras d’Ouilly-bred rose above it all to carve his own niche in the folklore of the contest. A year later, the colt Nuccio (Ity), who had followed him home in 1951, brilliantly captured a second Arc for Aga Khan III. In 1955 Mario Incisa Rocchetta’s revered Ribot (GB) entered stage right and became one of the greatest to have graced the Arc in the process. Another to record two victories, his last was his finest as he provided Frankel (GB) with the original template. Winning by a long-looking official margin of six lengths from a field that included the following year’s winner Oroso (Fr), the 16-race unbeaten Italian sensation created by Federico Tesio sealed his claim to immortality by siring the 1962 and 1964 Arc winners Molvedo (Ity) and Prince Royal (GB).

While British, French and Italian interests had shone in the Arc, it took until 1958 for Ireland to emerge on the honour roll, and how fitting that the late great Dr Vincent O’Brien commanded the breakthrough feat. His stable star Ballymoss (GB), who had been in the shadow of the wonderful Crepello (GB) during the early part of his Classic campaign, came to prominence thereafter and, at four, defied testing ground to provide American owner John McShain and jockey Scobie Breasley with the ultimate racing high. A year later, there was a dead-heat between Midnight Sun (Fr) and Saint Crespin (GB), with the former disqualified by the stewards due to interference.

During the 1960s, the race witnessed the emergence of the Head family with 19-year-old Freddy riding the 1966 winner Bon Mot (Fr) for his grandfather William and leading home his father Alec’s Sigebert (Fr) in the process. The decade also served up some of the contest’s finest equine performers in Guy de Rothschild’s Exbury (Fr) and Wilma Franklyn’s Vaguely Noble (Ire), with the latter, who was already accustomed to headline-making throughout his lifetime, being a brilliant winner of a stellar line-up including Sir Ivor. Trained by Etienne Pollet, he would have laid claim to being that handler’s best had it not been for the earlier emergence in the middle of the decade of the horse that many, including Lester Piggott, consider to be the greatest.
Sea-Bird (Fr), who was owned and bred by Jean Ternynck, took 1965 by storm and sauntered to glory in the Derby from the high-class Meadow Court (Ire). That peer was back in opposition at Longchamp, along with the Preakness hero Tom Rolfe and the Prix du Jockey Club winner Reliance (Fr), but the chestnut glided by them with Pat Glennon’s only concern being to keep him on as true a line as possible en route to a six-length destruction. He became the first Derby winner to claim this prize, no mean feat considering that five years later the magnificent Triple Crown hero Nijinsky dramatically failed to emulate his achievement.

Twelve months on from the eclipse of Charles Engelhard’s Ballydoyle legend, Kingsclere’s prolifically brilliant Mill Reef successfully flew the Epsom standard as he put the high-class Pistol Packer and co to the sword in track-record time. Amazingly, it was not until 1995 that the Derby-Arc double was completed once again by Lammtarra, who took his career record to four from four under first-time winner Frankie Dettori. In 1974, the Wildenstein silks emerged with the outstanding filly Allez France, whose rider Yves Saint-Martin was on novacaine having broken a bone near his hip 10 days previously. A year later, Star Appeal (Ire) gave Germany a first winner followed by Jacques Wertheimer’s Ivanjica—another success for the Heads—while in 1977 and ‘78 Vincent O’Brien delivered Robert Sangster’s Alleged to glory. In the latter, it was against the odds with the colt having to be brought back to full health from a debilitating virus. Fillies reigned supreme for a five-year spell thereafter, with the 1979 heroine Three Troikas (Fr) subduing Troy (GB) to become the first to be owned, trained and ridden by members of the Head family. Whereas she was under the care of Criquette, who remains the sole female trainer to win the Arc, the 1981 winner Gold River (Fr) was another to hail from her father Alec’s stable. She was rejected by Freddy and ridden by Gary Moore, who became the first to emulate his father in riding an Arc winner, with George Moore having steered the aforementioned Alec Head-trained Saint Crespin for Prince Aly Khan in 1959. In 1982, the current Aga Khan was celebrating his first Arc winner as the filly Akiyda (GB) got to the post just ahead of the great stayer Ardross (Ire) in the last renewal linked to a national lottery sweepstake. That was the closest that Ardross’s trainer Sir Henry Cecil got to winning the elusive prize.

In the mid-80s, the Arc witnessed a seachange which came in colours green, pink and white. Khalid Abdullah, who had been introduced to racing on a visit to Longchamp in 1956, was able to celebrate the first of his record-equalling six winners 29 years later. It had to arrive via a stewards’ verdict, however, as Rainbow Quest was handed the race after a tussle with the previous year’s hero Sagace (Fr). There was controversy in this decision, which was unsuccessfully appealed against by Sagace’s owner Daniel Wildenstein, but 12 months on Abdullah’s now world-famous silks were first past the post with no hint of ambiguity.

On that overcast afternoon in 1986, one of the race’s cherished ones thrust out of the autumn gloom like a ray of brilliant light. Already rightly heralded as one of the all-time greats having collected the 2000 Guineas, Eclipse and King George with rarely-seen panache, Dancing Brave (GB) was electric in Paris as he ran by Bering (GB) and a field stacked with talent. Stunning on the finest of his big days, he created one of the race’s everlasting spectacles as Pat Eddery delivered him to hijack the race with that late swoop. A year later, the much-missed Eddery made history by becoming the first of his profession to win three on the bounce as he produced the impressive Tremopolino to get French racing legend Andre Fabre off the mark in emphatic fashion.

In the early and late part of the 1990s, a pair of John Hammond giants came through in Suave Dancer and Montjeu (Ire), the former exacting revenge on his disappointing Irish Derby conqueror Generous (Ire) in 1991, and Montjeu adding to his success in that Curragh Classic eight years later. Sporting the Michael Tabor silks, which at the time were becoming increasingly familiar on the European racing scene, Montjeu cut down the high-class Japanese runner El Condor Pasa with a tremendous home-straight effort. One of the best Arc winners, he provided Mick Kinane with the middle part of a treble of winners each 10 years apart culminating in that of the magnificent Sea the Stars (Ire). From 1996 to ‘98, the stylish ‘Papillon’ Olivier Peslier emulated Eddery by winning three straight Arcs and the first two sit high in the race’s echelons.
While Helissio (Fr) pummeled his rivals into submission from the front, the Wildenstein runner Peintre Celebre scythed down his opponents in dramatic fashion to set a new track record.

As Godolphin turned up the heat on the competition from the mid-90s, so their time for celebration here became more of a foregone conclusion with each passing year. It was not long before the royal blue team was in command and the first of its consecutive successes in 2001 and ’02 came via the brilliant Sakhee. His six-length victory equalled the records of Ribot and Sea-Bird and was all the more impressive as he gave all the allowances to the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Aquarelliste (Fr). From 2003 to ’05 the list was made up of a triumvirate of 3-year-old colts trained in France and there is little between the outstanding Dalakhani (Ire), Bago (Fr) and Hurricane Run (Ire). In 2006, the main talking point was the unexpected defeat of the deservedly-vaunted Deep Impact (Jpn) as Japan’s hurt continued with Fabre again holding sway with Rail Link (GB).

Aidan O’Brien first tasted glory in 2007 with the doughty Dylan Thomas (Ire) as the troubled genius Kieren Fallon prevailed prior to a spell of personal turmoil. That came nine years before the O’Brien-trained Found (Ire) was to lead home a remarkable one-two-three for her stable in the race rerouted to Chantilly as Longchamp underwent its renovation. Highly unlikely ever to be repeated, this feat of training was capped by the winner clocking the Arc’s official fastest time, albeit at that different venue. Found was the eighth of her sex to win since the scintillating Aga Khan homebred Zarkava (Ire) dominated the colts in 2008, in turn ending a 15-year wait since the future blue hen broodmare Urban Sea scored in 1993. In 2011 the Peter Schiergen-trained 3-year-old filly Danedream (Ger) scored by five lengths in the fastest Arc run at Longchamp, while soon after Criquette Head-Maarek turned up another family jewel in Treve (Fr). She was as impressive as any recent winner on the second of her two triumphs in 2014 and duly occupied exalted territory as a result. Frankie Dettori was denied the ride on Treve with Head-Maarek favouring Thierry Jarnet, but that bitter disappointment proved merely the rainburst before the sun for the legendary Italian rider.

Workforce (GB) to complete the Derby-Arc double in a five-year period. In 2017, Khalid Abdullah’s Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {GB}) emerged from the 1920 hero Comrade’s base in Newmarket to bring up the first of two further wins for Dettori and for her owner-breeder. Fittingly, she strives for history both for herself and connections on the centenary of the triumph of that bygone performer, having lost out on her bid for an unprecedented third Arc in 2019. There will be a perfect symmetry if she bookends the 100-year period for Clarehaven with a glorious swansong on Sunday, in the nonpareil of racing titles, the autumn’s truth.

A BRIDGE TOO FAST

Stephanie Nigge trainee Normandy Bridge (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) annexed a Sept. 3 ParisLongchamp newcomers’ event going one mile in his only prior start and maintained his prefect tally with a game success tackling the same distance in Friday’s G3 Prix Thomas Bryon Jockey Club de Turquie at Saint-Cloud. The 32-5 chance was settled several lengths off the pace at the tail of the five-runner field as Godolphin’s Naval Crown (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) established a substantial advantage by halfway. Sent wide off the home turn to plough a lone furrow underneath the stands’ side fence in the straight, he came under pressure approaching the quarter-mile marker as Naval Crown wilted in front and kept on relentlessly under continued rousting in the latter stages to oust Homeryan (Fr) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) by 3/4-of-a-length in the final stride for a career high on black-type bow. Naval Crown kept on gamely once headed to finish another four lengths back in third, himself clear of the remainder.
“It was [jockey] Theo Bachelot’s idea to go wide even though it was the first race of the day,” remarked trainer Stephanie Nigge. “Theo had walked the course and said it was much better ground [on the stands’ side]. My idea was more to have a conventional approach and I told him to ride him gently, but that if he decided to go wide he better be right. He was right and I am delighted for the owner, who has supported me from day one, and for my staff. He is definitely a nice horse for next year so let’s see how he comes out of this one before deciding if we run him again in the [Oct. 24 G1] Criterium International over this course and distance.”

Pedigree Notes
Normandy Bridge, the latest of 12 foals and one of 11 winners produced by G3 Fille de l’Air victress Aiglonne (Silver Hawk), hails from a family featuring G1SW sires White Muzzle (GB) (Dancing Brave) and Almutawakel (GB) (Machiavellian). His dam Aiglonne, kin to the dam of G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Germance (Silver Hawk), is out of stakes-winning G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere second Majestic Role (Fr) (Theatrical {Ire}). The April-foaled dark bay is a half-brother to G1 Prix d’Ispahan winner Mekhtaal (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), G2 Prix Hocquart scorer Democrat (GB) (Dalakhan {Ire}), dual Grade III victress Aigue Marine (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the stakes-placed duo Apophis (Ire) (Rainbow Quest) and Crosswind (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}).

Also in the cast is the one-two-three from the July 10 G1 Falmouth S. in Nazeef (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Billesdon Brook (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and Terebellum (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). Shadwell’s homebred came out on top in that July Course encounter, but after two defeats over 10 furlongs in the July 30 G1 Nassau S. and Aug. 23 G1 Prix Jean Romanet, she has to bounce back while Billesdon Brook possibly has to step up on her defeat of Veracious (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in this 12 months ago. Trainer Richard Hannon said, “Billesdon Brook loves it at Newmarket. She seems to run 10 pounds better there than she does on any other track. We didn’t think she would win the 1000 Guineas, which she did, and we didn’t think she would win the Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot Stakes last year, and she did. I see no reason why she shouldn’t run a massive race. She comes alive at Newmarket—the straight mile seems to suit her a lot more than a round mile—and she is working super at home.”

Longchamp Warms Up With Group 1 Double

Paris Longchamp’s Saturday card now has the G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu and G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran as its dual focus, with the former in its second year as an upgraded top-level contest for staying fillies and mares. Robbed of the likely favourite Enbihaar (Ire) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}) through injury, the 14-furlong feature could prove an ideal opportunity for Scott Heider’s first success in this grade in Europe with the progressive 3-year-old Pista (American Pharoah). Coming off a win in the G2 Park Hill Fillies’ S. at Doncaster on Sept. 10, the Joseph O’Brien-trained bay handled soft ground when getting off the mark at Galway on Aug. 2 but whether she will handle it as well as Waverley Racing’s proven mudlark Manuela de Vega (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) remains to be seen. Emphatic in such conditions in Haydock’s G3 Pinnacle S. on June 7 and G2 Lancashire Oaks on July 5, she was found out last time when a well-beaten fourth as the ground proved too dry in the Aug. 20 G1 Yorkshire Oaks.

The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre currently hold the record of eight successes apiece in this race when it was staged as a Group 3 and Group 2 and Ebaiyra (Distorted Humor) has sound claims of adding to that tally following her success in soft ground in Deauville’s G2 Prix du Pomone over 12 1/2 furlongs on Aug. 23.

In the 2 1/2-mile Cadran, George Strawbridge’s 2018 hero Call the Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}) bids for compensation for his strong-finishing second to Holdthasigreen (Fr) (Hold That Tiger) when given too much to do last year. Unlucky not to be unbeaten in 2020, the homebred enjoyed the perfect prep when successful in the 15-furlong G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville on Aug. 23 and sets a lofty standard. One that could reach the heights is the Tony Mullins-trained Princess Zoe (Ger) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}), who made it four straight wins in Galway’s Listed Oyster S. over 12 furlongs on heavy ground on Sept. 8 and the runner-up Barrington Court (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) has since franked the form when third in the G3 Loughbrown S. “I certainly never expected to be in a Group 1 with her, but when we started training her I knew we had a very good handicapper,” Mullins said. “Admittedly it was a much lower-grade race, but the evidence from Galway was that she was only starting to open up over two-miles-one and it is a savage hill there. From that we are confident she’ll stay, but you can never be sure until you dip your toe in the water.”

Also lurking is a lightly-raced, unexposed filly in the line-up who could be a threat in the Francis-Henri Graffard-trained Think of Me (Ger) (So You Think {NZ}). Successful in the 14-furlong Listed Prix Gold River at Deauville on May 21, in which Friday’s listed scorer Amarena (Fr) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) was third, Clear Light SAS’s bargain buy was an eye-catching second to Longchamp specialist Called To the Bar (Ire) (Henrythenavigator) in the Sept. 6 G3 Prix Gladiateur.

Ebaiyra is a Group 2 winner on soft ground | Scoop Dyga
ParisLongchamp’s supporting races include the G2 Qatar Prix Dollar over an extended 11 furlongs, where Jean-Claude Seroul’s defending champion and triple group winner Skalleti (Fr) (Kendargent (Fr)) bids to book his ticket to Ascot’s G1 Champion S. He faces Coolmore’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Ocean Atlantique (American Pharoah), who beat the smart filly Irska (Fr) (Hunter’s Light (Ire)) by five lengths in the 10-furlong Listed Prix de Suresnes at Deauville on May 31 before finishing a disappointing 10th in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly on July 5. Also in the mix is Haras de Saint Pair’s highly-regarded Sept. 6 G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte winner Glycon (Fr) (Le Havre (Ire)), while the G2 Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein sees the return of Al Asayl France’s 2019 winner The Revenant (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)).

Off the track since his subsequent second in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot in October, the 5-year-old has ground conditions to suit as he starts back.

“He was very impressive last year. He’s a fantastic horse, but this season has been difficult as we knew he wasn’t going to have his ground,” The Revenant’s trainer Francis-Henri Graffard commented. “I feel he’s in the same form as last year. He’s worked really well, he will love the ground and I’m happy with his condition. Will he need the race? I don’t think so, but we’ll see on Saturday. He’s such a nice horse. We’ll see if he goes back to Ascot. We are running with a very fresh horse this year.”

Logician Comeback Continues At Ascot

At Ascot, Khalid Abdullah’s 2019 G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) kicks off a huge weekend for the operation in the G3 Tote.co.uk Cumberland Lodge S. as he continues on the road back from an attack of peritonitis during the winter. Still unbeaten and full of enthusiasm based on his easy return success in a non-event two-runner affair at Doncaster on Sept. 10, the grey has last year’s impressive winner Morando (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) to aim at in this 12-furlong contest which will tell connections a lot more about his current standard. “This weekend is why we are in the game, for these great moments,” Teddy Grimthorpe said. “We have an unbeaten Classic winner running on Saturday and a great racemare going for a third Arc on Sunday, it doesn’t get much bigger than that. For everyone, from Prince Khalid downwards at Juddmonte, it’s exciting and this is what it is all about. If you didn’t get nervous you clearly don’t care.”

Of Logician, who will be racing on the deepest ground he has yet to encounter after persistent rain blighted the venue on Friday, the operation’s racing manager added, “Given how serious his illness was over the winter, we were delighted with how Doncaster went in every way and everyone has been very pleased with him since. All his work at home suggests he’s in very good form—it’s encouraging. We always thought he would handle soft ground. If it gets extreme, what I call specialist areas, then that is an unknown, but I think he’d certainly handle it soft. His dam, Scuffle, never ran on anything like it’s going to be, but his dad, Frankel, of course won a Champion S. on bottomless ground on Champions Day so there is some encouragement. This looks a nice race for him, a Group 3 without a penalty, but like all these things the reality is never quite what you imagine. He’s going into the race in good form, we’re all happy with him and have been since Doncaster. Of course there is some trepidation, mainly because of the infection he had over the winter, but hopefully he’s over it.”

Elsewhere on Ascot’s fixture, last year’s G3 John Guest Racing Bengough S. winner Cape Byron (GB) (Shamardai) makes his belated seasonal bow in the same race for the Roger Varian stable who also runs Sheikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa’s G2 Rockfel S. and G3 Albany S. winner Daalyeh (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) in the Listed John Guest Racing British EBF S., or October S. Second to Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh in September and to Sharing (Speightstown) in the G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies’ Turf, she makes her belated comeback under David Egan who said, “We’ve not seen her on track this year as she had a little setback, but I’m sure she will be spot-on for Saturday and I’m hoping she can get back to her best. She has obviously got the form in the book, having been second in the Breeders’ Cup and being a Royal Ascot winner, so she is the one to beat. They’ve done plenty of work with her and Roger feels she is fit and ready to go and make her mark for the year. She is back at seven furlongs having run over a mile at the Breeders’ Cup, but she won the Rockfel over seven and the Albany over six, so she is not short of speed. I think an Ascot seven is well within her capabilities. I wouldn’t want it bottomless for her, but anything would be fine as long as it is not exaggerated.”

At Tipperary, the Niarchos Family’s Albigna (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) takes another class drop in the G3 Coolmore U S Navy Flag Concorde S. over an extended seven-furlong trip. Successful in the G1 Prix Maurice de Binn (Fr) on Saturday last year, the homebred has yet to hit full stride this term but shaped as if a return to her best was imminent when fifth in the Matron last time. There is also pattern-race action at Hoppegarten, with the G1 Longines 130th Grosser Preis von Berlin over a mile and a half somewhat overshadowed on this particular day of action despite its status. Traditionally one of Europe’s weaker top-level contests, Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum’s consistent Communiqué (Ire) (Casamento {Ire}) tries again having finished runner-up to Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}) in the Sept. 13 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, where the re-opposing Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) was third.

Torquator Tasso was second to Sunday’s Arc protagonist In Swoop (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg on July 12 and is one of a trio who line up here having won the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, where the re-opposing Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) was third. Marcel Boussac on this weekend last year, the homebred has yet to hit full stride this term but shaped as if a return to her best was imminent when fifth in the Matron last time. There is also pattern-race action at Hoppegarten, with the G1 Longines 130th Grosser Preis von Berlin over a mile and a half somewhat overshadowed on this particular day of action despite its status. Traditionally one of Europe’s weaker top-level contests, Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum’s consistent Communiqué (Ire) (Casamento {Ire}) tries again having finished runner-up to Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}) in the Sept. 13 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, where the re-opposing Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) was third.

Torquator Tasso was second to Sunday’s Arc protagonist In Swoop (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg on July 12 and is one of a trio who line up here having contested that Classic alongside Grocer Jack (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Kaspar (Ger) (Pivotal {GB}) and Dicaprio (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). Only fifth and below-par when fifth as favourite for the Derby, Stall Wasserfreunde’s triple group scorer Wonderful Moon (Ger) (Sea the Moon {Ger}) returns from his break in the supporting 10-furlong G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit.
PATTERN PERFORMERS APLENTY IN ARC SALE

Following an action-packed card at ParisLongchamp on Saturday, proceedings will move just a short jaunt down the road to Saint-Cloud Racecourse, where Arqana stages its annual Arc Sale of horses-in-training. The sale that has become a source of future quality performers for buyers from all over the globe will see 21 offerings go under the hammer on Saturday evening, with buyers even having a chance to secure a runner for Sunday’s G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. That is outsider Chachnak (Fr) (Kingman (GB)) (lot 21), who has won twice at Group 3 level this season in the Prix de Guiche and the Prix du Prince d’Orange.

A pair of quality fillies with German form are on offer: this season’s G2 Diana-Trial scorer Kalifornia Queen (Ger) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) (lot 11) and Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow (GB)) (lot 24), who took the G3 Mehl-Mulhens-Trophy in July prior to placing in the G1 Preis der Diana and G2 T. von Zastrow Stutenpreis. Others of note include this season’s dual Group 3-placed 2-year-old filly Coeursamba (Fr) (The Wow Signal (Ire)) (lot 13) and G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches third Mageva (GB) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) (lot 14), as well as the 2020 G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil victor and G2 Prix du Muguet second Pretreville (Fr) (Acclamation (GB)) (lot 17). The sale begins at 6:30 p.m.

O’BRIEN ARC RUNNERS TESTED AFTER POSSIBLE FEED CONTAMINATION

A handful of positive tests for the prohibited substance Zilpaterol in France has led to an investigation of the products of equine nutrition company GAIN after it was found that all five affected horses had been fed the company’s products. Testing of GAIN products subsequently returned positive results for Zilpaterol. Zilpaterol is a synthetic substance used to promote weight gain in cattle.

The products in question as stated by France Galop are racehorse cubes, racehorse mix and opti-care balancer. GAIN has advised customers to cease feeding its products while an investigation is undertaken.

A statement from GAIN said that Zilpaterol “has never formed part of any formulation in any of our animal nutrition ranges.” Martin Ryan, Head of GAIN Equine, said, “We apologise sincerely to our valued customers for the inconvenience caused by this incident and we are committed to promptly keeping you fully informed. A thorough investigation and trace back of all feed ingredient sources is underway as a matter of urgency to determine how this external contaminant could have found its way into some batches of our equine product.”

Trainer Aidan O’Brien told Racing Post on Friday evening that he feeds GAIN, but that all of his horses had been switched to a different brand of feed on Thursday evening immediately after he had received the news. O’Brien has sent blood and urine samples from all his runners in France this weekend to be analysed and is hoping to receive results by Saturday evening.
"They say after a day and a half or two days, the substance should be gone out of the horse's system," O'Brien told Racing Post. "So, if, when we get the results, there is a trace of the substance in it, we'll have to see how much is there and then make a decision, after changing the feed for two days, whether we should run on Sunday or not. The experts are telling us that it should be clear by then, so we'll just have to see."

O'Brien said he plans to go ahead with his two runners at ParisLongchamp on Saturday, Mythical (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) and Passion (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

“While its clearance rate reads well in the current climate, and there were some notable pinhooking successes, there was little else to cheer about at Goffs Orby, which felt the pinch of a troubled economy and global pandemic. These factors no doubt contributed to less participation by big international players and even large domestic spenders than is typically seen at this sale, which had in the last few years enjoyed notable growth. There were also plenty of challenges presented by the fact that the sale was forced to move from its traditional home in Kildare to Doncaster.”

Berkshire Rocco collected minor prizes in each of his five latest starts, all at stakes level, finishing a neck shy of glory in the Sept. 12 G1 St Leger at Doncaster last time, and stepped forward to claim a first black-type triumph in this four-runner marathon. Dictating at a moderate pace with ears pricked until well beyond halfway, the 1-2 choice was scrubbed along passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on resolutely under forceful urging in the closing stages to hold the persistent threat of Albaflora in game fashion.

“He ran fantastically [in the G2 Queen’s Vase] at Royal Ascot, when he was second to Santiago, and he was second in the Leger on his last start,” said winning rider Oisin Murphy. “He is a really tough horse and I’m delighted he got his head in front. I would never question his attitude as he always tries hard, but he has been on the go since the Spring and has danced every dance. He was possibly not up to his rating today, but won and that’s what matters.”

Conditioner Andrew Balding added, “He has been the bridesmaid in a couple of big races this year and we were taking a bit of a chance, but we thought it would be nice to get his head in front and finish the year on a bit of a high. He probably wants better ground than that, so has done well in the circumstances. I think he will be very effective over a strongly run mile-and-a-half as I don’t think he is an out-and-out stayer. He could possibly be a [Royal Ascot G2] Hardwicke-type, but there are so many good options for horses like that. We will give him a nice, long break now and look forward to having a lot of fun next year with him.”

Berkshire Rocco is one of two individual scorers from as many runners out of a half-sister to G3 Bengough S. victor Projection (GB) (Acclamation {GB}). The February-foaled chestnut is a half-brother to MSW G2 Premio Lydia Tesio placegetter Elisa Again (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), the hitherto unraced 2-year-old Malandro (Ire) (Literato {Fr}), a yearling filly by Time Test (GB) that made £100,000 at Goffs Orby on Thursday and a weanling filly by Le Havre (Ire). His GII Lake Placid H.-winning second dam Spotlight (GB) (Dr Fong) is a daughter of G3 Prix de la Nonette victress Dust Dancer (GB) (Suave Dancer), whose descendants also include G1 Phoenix S.-winning sire Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). MGWS G1 Irish Derby runner-up Rostropovich (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), G3 Anglesey S. winner Wilshire Boulevard (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and G2 Oaks d’Italia second Counterclaim (GB) (Pivotal {GB}).

Solid and consistent at this trip and this level, Frenetic already boasted an admirable record having won the Listed First Flier S. at The Curragh June 27 and the Aug. 14 Listed Curragh S. and been second in the G2 Balanchine S. over six also at that venue July 19. Only eighth when tried in the G2 Flying Childers S. back at this trip on faster ground at Doncaster Sept. 11, the bay rebounded back on home soil, breaking with alacrity from her wide draw to track the leader Giselles Thunder and work her way past that rival in the last 50 yards of a filly-dominated contest.
“She’s very fast and is probably the fastest two-year-old over five that’s run in the country so far,” Shane Lyons said. “You can wipe out the last day when she had to travel over to Doncaster. There was wind in her face and it was a horrible day. She was buzzy with William [Buick] and he said she did too much early doors, but today she was nice and relaxed. I said to Colin beforehand that she was nice and quiet today and that’s the way to have her and we’ll be able to ride her today. To do that from [stall] 15, to get over, was a tough ask. There is still a bit of improvement in her, as she was green in the last 150 yards, wandering about. She’s in the Mercury but Ger will speak to Ed Sackville, racing manager for the owners, to see if we will stop now and train her for next year.”

Frenetic is the last known foal out of the dam, whose first was the Paradise Creek S. winner and GI National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. third Handsome (Street Boss). The second dam is the GIII Mint Julep H. winner Kiss the Devil (Kris S), whose daughter Kiss Moon (Malibu Moon) emulated her dam’s achievement in winning the Mint Julep herself. Kiss the Devil is kin to Stylish Manner (Touch Gold), who produced three stakes performers headed by the GIII Affirmed H. winner and GI Haskell Invitational S. runner-up Nonios (Pleasantly Perfect). This is also the family of the G2 Lowther S. and G3 Princess Margaret Juddmonte S. scorer and G1 Cheveley Park S. third Besharah (Ire) by the winner’s sire Kodiak.

Off the mark at the third attempt over six furlongs here Sept. 18, Zaffy’s Pride was stepping up in trip here but proved up to the task to upstage the colts for a first black-type win. Restrainted early towards the rear of mid-division, the bay moved forward quickly in early straight and after taking over a furlong from home dug in gamely to hold Magnanimous. “She was good there today and that was a big improvement on her previous runs,” her rider said. “I know she won the last day, but obviously going seven furlongs has brought out the best in her. We thought she had enough pace for the five-and-a-bit in Navan, but obviously she won over six the last day and seven today so the trip has brought out the best in her.” The listed-placed dam, whose yearling colt is by Champs Elysees (GB), is a full-sister to the listed scorer and G3 Princess Elizabeth S.-placed Zayn Zen (GB) from the family of the great Oh So Sharp (Ire).

Gestut Schlenderhan’s homebred Alson, who spanked his sole rival Armory (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) by 20 lengths for Jean-Pierre Carvalho in last term’s G1 Critérium International, returned from a brief spell on the sideline to resume winning ways in this easier spot. He had hit the board in Deauville’s staging of this year’s June 1 G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains on sophomore bow, but finished a lowly 10th of 11 on his return to the Normandy venue in the July 12 G1 Prix Jean Prat last time. Employing patient tactics stalking all four opponents until turning for home here, the 3-5 favourite was sent wide with three for company into the straight and kept on strongly under mild coaxing once gaining an edge passing the eighth pole to outpoint Real Force by an ultimately comfortable three lengths for a third pattern-race score.

Group 1 winner Alson returns to the winner’s enclosure | Scoop Dyga

“After an extended break, this was the perfect spot for a Group 1 winner to return to racing and he has lived up to expectations,” said winning rider Pierre-Charles Boudot. “He won well and this will help him improve his condition and boost his confidence. There is no doubt that he will go on to better things from here.”

Alson, one of two scorers for dual winner Assisi (Ger) (Galileo (Ire)) and the leading representative for his sire (by Big Shuffle), is kin to G2 German 2000 Guineas and G2 Oettingen-Rennen hero Ancient Spirit (Ger) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)), the hitherto untried 2-year-old colt Agnelli (Ire) (Guiliani (Ire)) and a weanling filly by Zarak (Fr). The homebred bay’s unbeaten G1 Preis der Diana-winning second dam Amarette (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)) produced two stakes performers and is herself a full-sister to G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Arras (Ger) and a half to the stakes-winning dam of G1 Melbourne Cup and G1 H E Tancred S. hero Almandin (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)) and G2 Gerling-Preis victor Atempo (Ger) (Monsun (Ger)).

Progressive when taking this 12 months ago, In Front was placed in the bizarre situation of having to carry 82.2 kilos on his return in 2020 but continued the winning trend nonetheless in a 12-furlong conditions race at La Roche Posay on Aug. 23. Using that as a springboard to further black-type success in the Listed Prix Dirickx, or Grand Prix de la Ville de Craon, over that trip Sept. 7, the bay ploughed through this testing ground to register back-to-back wins in this prize and earn a tilt at the top. Settled third early by Julien Auge, he was sent to the front as the field made the inevitable crossing to the stand’s-side hedge and was clear when possibly idling late. “He’s such a consistent horse and I feel he’s still improving this year,” trainer Christophe Lotoux said. “With the sanitary conditions, it’s been difficult for me to find him races and I had to run him at La Roche Posay--I just hoped I didn’t hurt him, but I had no other choice. For a long time, Julien [Auge] has been telling me he is a horse with all the makings of a top-class stayer and I feel that now he’s ready to be tried at a higher level. We have nothing to lose, so if he is well we’ll go for the [G1 Prix] Royal-Oak [ParisLongchamp Oct. 25].”

In Front is out of an unraced half-sister to the G1 Vincent O’Brien National S. runner-up Chabal (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) who has already produced the G3 Prix Noailles third More Than a Dream (Ire) (Halling). The unraced second dam Vagary (Ire) (Zafonic) is a daughter of the listed-placed Vadsagreya (Fr) (Linamix (Fr)) and therefore is a half to the Listed Chesham S. runner-up Global Genius (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) from the family of the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile-winning sire Val Royal (Fr) (Royal Academy) and the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner Vahorimix (Fr) (Linnamix (Fr)). Coming straight from a Dusseldorf debut success to take the Listed Prix de la Seine for the Henk Grewe stable at ParisLongchamp last May, Amarena was tried in Chantilly’s G1 Prix de Diane by his new handler Satoshi Kobayashi the following month but was not up to the task and finished 15th before disappearing for 11 months. Upon her return, the bay was in training with Pascal Bary and started off strong with a third to Think of Me (Ger) (So You Think {NZ}) in the 14-furlong Listed Prix Gold River at Deauville on May 21. Fourth in the 11-furlong G2 Prix Corrida at Lyon Parilly on June 6, she was emerging here from another sojourn away from the track but was in dynamic mood as she spreadeagled her rivals in desperate conditions. Tracking the ultimately-disappointing Simona (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in second throughout the early stages, she was sent past that floundering opponent at the top of the straight and drew away with relish. “She’s a nice filly and had run some nice races in the past, but is a bit delicate and can’t run too often,” Bary said. “She is ground-dependant and I thought she was in control throughout here and won easily. I’m not surprised and she should be spot-on for the [G3] Prix de Flore here in three weeks’ time.”

The dam has also produced Acadius (Ger) (Lord of England {Ger}) who was successful in the Listed Oppenheim-Rennen and third in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas). From the family of the multiple group-winning miler Alianthus (Ger) (Hernando {Fr}) and the GI Just a Game and GI First Lady heroine a Raving Beauty (Ger) (Mastcrskman {Ire}), she has the unraced 2-year-old colt Sweet Rebellion (Fr) (Rio de la Plata).

GRAN ALEGRIA TRIES FOR THIRD GROUP 1 IN SPRINTERS

Prix Alegria (Jpn) | JRA

One of two Group 1 sprints on the Japan Racing Association calendar, the 1,200-meter G1 Sprinters S. draws a full field of 16 for Sunday’s 54th renewal. Heading the morning line at 2-1 is dual Group 1- winning Gran Alegria (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), out of Tapitsfly (Tapit), a two-time Grade I winner on the turf in the United States.
Victorious in last season’s G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas and G2 Hanshin Cup, the filly finished runner-up in the 1,200-meter G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen over soft ground at Chukyo in March before returning to best champion Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) in the G1 Yasuda Kinen over 1,600 meters at Tokyo Racecourse June 7.

“She ran a strong race in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen, which was her first time at the trip,” explained assistant trainer Masaru Oehara. “In the Yasuda Kinen, she put in a good late spurt from the fourth corner, so in both races she ran very well. She’s had a summer break and has come back to the stable looking bigger and stronger.”

Gran Alegria, who will be making her first start at Nakayama, will be accompanied by Christophe Lemaire, who has a 25% strike rate at the oval.

Attempting to record his first win at the Group 1 level, Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) has shown consistency this season, winning on three occasions and finishing in the top three in five starts. Additionally, six of his nine career wins have come over the Sprinters’ distance of 1,200 meters.

Third in this test last year, he kicked off 2020 with a win over this course in the 1,200-meter G3 Yukun Fuji Sho Ocean S. Mar. 7 before a flat 10th in the Takamatsunomiya later that month. Back in the winner’s circle following Tokyo’s G2 Keio Hai Spring Cup May 16, the 5-year-old was eighth in the Yasuda Kinen before rebounding to score in the Sept. 13 Sankei Sho Centaur S. over 1,200 meters at Chukyo.

“He drew an outside gate last time [in the Centaur S.], but by the third corner had got himself into a good position and went on to win well,” said trainer Takayuki Yasuda, who has won the race three times. “I feel he’ll come on quite a bit for that run.”

PREAKNESS CAPS UNCONVENTIONAL TRIPLE CROWN

All of 2020 has been unconventional to say the least and the Triple Crown series is no exception. Instead of starting with the GI Kentucky Derby on the First Saturday in May, the highlight of the 3-year-old season kicked off in mid-June with a shortened GI Belmont S., which is traditionally the final leg of the series. It was 11 weeks before the Run for the Roses on the First Saturday in September and now, another four weeks later, the Triple Crown road comes to an end in Baltimore Saturday with the GI Preakness S., which is a Breeders’ Cup “Win and You’re In.”

The connections of Belmont hero and Derby runner-up Tiz the Law (Constitution) opted to skip this Classic event and train up to the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, which means favoritism will sit squarely on the shoulders of Derby victor Authentic (Into Mischief). Opening his account with a trio of victories, two of which were graded, the Bob Baffert trainee suffered his only loss when second to the recently retired Honor A. P. (Honor Code) in the GI Santa Anita Derby June 6. Taking the GI Haskell Invitational S. by a nose July 18, the bay went wire-to-wire in the Derby, scoring a gritty victory over favored Tiz the Law.

“He would have been ready to roll in two weeks,” said Baffert, who is the winning trainer in Preakness history. “I feel pressure now because I never lost a Preakness with a horse I won the Derby with. Now the pressure’s on me.” Cont. p3

MCPEEK WORKS MORE ALCIBIADES MAGIC

One day before saddling $35,000 bargain buy Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) to take on the boys in the GI Preakness S., trainer Ken McPeek was represented by the one-two finishers in Keeneland’s GI Darley Alcibiades S. Friday. New York-bred Simply Ravishing (Laoban), just a $50,000 Fasig-Tipton October yearling herself, dominated her competition on the front end and ran up the score to 6 1/4 lengths. ‘TDN Rising Stars’ Crazy Beautiful (Liam’s Map) and Travel Column (Frosted) fought it out for second and third. This was McPeek’s fifth win in the Alcibiades, which carried with it an automatic berth into the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies over the same track and trip in five weeks. Simply Ravishing belying 14-1 odds to take her turf debut in an open Saratoga maiden special weight Aug. 2, and doubled up when much the best in the rained-off P.G. Johnson S. over seven panels there Sept. 3. She was the 2-1 favorite Friday off a standout 81 Beyer Speed Figure. Cont. p9

His stablemate Thousand Words (Pioneerof the Nile) was a late scratch from the Run for the Roses after rearing and flipping over in the paddock, but gets a chance at redemption here. Also kicking off his career with a trio of wins, including two graded events, the $1-million KEESEP buy was off the board in the GII San Felipe S. and Oaklawn S. this spring. Given a brief freshener following that Apr. 11 test, the bay was second when he returned in the GII Los Alamitos Derby July 4 and was back to winning ways in the Shared Belief S. Aug. 1 at Del Mar. Baffert puts blinkers on the colt for this return to Grade I company.

Art Collector (Bernardini) was a late defection from the Derby due to a minor hoof issue. The homebred has been a perfect four-for-four since transferring to Tom Drury, starting with a pair of optional claimer scores at Churchill Downs. A decisive winner of the GII Toyota Blue Grass S. July 11, the bay wired the Ellis Park Derby last time Aug. 9.

“The Derby was disappointing because he was training so well leading up to it, but, gosh, I feel like he’s doing equally as well right now,” Drury said. “We’re ready to take our best shot.”

Blue Grass runner-up Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) takes another crack at the boys in this event. Capturing the GIII Fantasy S. and GII Santa Anita Oaks prior to the Blue Grass, the chestnut filly scored a decisive victory in Saratoga’s GI Alabama S. Aug. 15 and came in second to upsetter Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil) in the GI Kentucky Oaks Sept. 4.

“I don’t know if we have to differentiate genders. In Europe, fillies run against colts all the time. I don’t think Enable has run straight fillies [more than a few times] in several years,” trainer Kenny McPeek said. “Here it seems to be more of a big deal, but for the most part when you bring a good one into the game, it doesn’t matter.”

THOUSAND WORDS BACKED UP BY FAMILY

DEEDS by Chris McGrath

The adage reckons a picture to be worth 1,000 words. Of course, as has been remarked, that means 1,001 words must be worth more than a picture. (On which wiseguy basis, I will generously trade this column for that Rembrandt in your loft.) But then it might take something closer to 1,000 pages to record everything the owners of Thousand Words (Pioneerof the Nile) have experienced over the past year.

This colt gave a literal quality to their topsy-turvy fortunes when rearing and toppling in the Derby preliminaries, sending Bob Baffert’s lieutenant Jimmy Barnes to hospital and himself back to the barn in mild disgrace. For the Albaugh family, the sudden deflation must have taken them back to the numbing split-second when Dennis’ Moment (Tiznow), stumbling out of the gate, threw away a juvenile championship at the Breeders’ Cup last fall.

Yet between those dispiriting bookends, their stable has been achieving some quite remarkable things—so much so, in fact, that success for Thousand Words in the GI Preakness S. would perhaps put Dennis Albaugh in contention for an Eclipse Award of his own. Cont. p5

Last month, in the space of three days, Dale Romans saddled two Ellis Park debut winners to follow up in graded stakes at Churchill: Sittin On Go (Brody's Cause) in the GIII Iroquois S.; and Girl Daddy (Uncle Mo) in the GIII Pocahontas S. In the process, each earned the first 10 starting points for the 2021 Derby and Oaks, respectively.

By the time those gates are secured and opened, perhaps, we might finally be restored to those simple indulgences past that now seem so decadent; measurable, as well as anything, by the notion of a crowded infield on the first Saturday in May. But if the whole of society can't get ahead of itself, right now, then certainly nor can those whose aspirations are contingent on a conveyance as unpredictable as the Thoroughbred.

The way Not This Time has started at Taylor Made, we could be looking at one of the most exciting young stallions of recent times. I can't resist repeating that I've been in his corner throughout, annually banging the drum in our midwinter stallion survey. Cont. p6

And he has overcome even that ruinous disadvantage to set a searing pace in the freshman’s championship. His 13 scorers from just 27 starters to date are headed by the brilliant Princess Noor, at $1.35 million the most expensive 2-year-old by a rookie ever sold at OBS.

While there’s plenty of Nerud-Tartan dash in his family (two of Ta Wee’s five named foals put her 2x3 behind his second dam), the beauty about Not This Time is that he is so eligible to consolidate this early promise—in terms both of build and pedigree, as a Giant’s Causeway half-brother to Liam’s Map.

In his own track career Not This Time had already introduced the Albaughs to the rough with the smooth: he won an Ellis Park maiden and the Iroquois, just like Sittin On Go, but then narrowly failed to run down Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile) at the Breeders’ Cup (ceding first run, the pair seven lengths clear) before being forced into premature retirement by injury.

He’s out of the family’s foundation investment, Miss Macy Sue (Trippi), a $42,000 2-year-old who became a graded stakes sprinter. Mr. Albaugh bought out his racing partner and resolved to give the young mare every chance with her first covers: A.P. Indy, Unbridled’s Song, Medaglia d’Oro, Giant’s Causeway. And that’s what I love about this operation: they came into the business with no pretensions, from Iowa, but bank on old-fashioned quality in a way that reproves many a Bluegrass horseman who cheapens the breed in slavish pursuit of fashion.

Now it turns out that you can have the best of both worlds. The Albaughs appear to have produced a legitimate commercial heir to Giant’s Causeway; and, in the sire of Sittin On Go, may yet give us a second.

Brody's Cause, similarly, would succeed for the best of reasons: he was bought as a yearling as the son of a proven stallion, from a regal family. Go back to his fifth dam, in fact, and you'll find a Bold Ruler half-sister to Somethingroyal.

He stands at Spendthrift--the family's partner, incidentally, in pushing a seven-figure boat out for Thousand Words as a yearling--and the Albaughs supported him at market by giving $65,000 for his very first foal, a January 11 colt bred by and delivered at Wynnstay Farm, as a weanling at the Keeneland November Sale. Returning him to the same ring last September, they set a reserve at the same price, only for bidding to stall at $62,000. That's how Sittin On Go is still in their stable; that's how these ups and downs can even out.

Let's not forget that Thousand Words had soured in the spring and would not have lined up for a May Derby, either. Turning him round to beat poor old Honor A. P. (Honor Code) in their Derby prep has been an achievement commensurate with the Preakness record beckoning Baffert. But Romans, the family's principal trainer, may yet prove equal to an equivalent challenge with Dennis' Moment, who returned to the worktab just this week.

That colt, remember, is by Tiznow—who shared one of the great Breeders’ Cup duels with Giant's Causeway. Proper stallions, these, as favored by proper horsemen. Between Romans, bloodstock agent Barry Berkelhammer, and Albaugh's son-in-law and racing manager Jason Loutsch, this is an exemplary crew. And if Mr. Albaugh is already building a legacy, that's because his team are using durable, high-caliber materials: proven stallions, deep families, speed that will stretch through a second turn.

So there's one picture that really would be worth a Thousand Words—and that's one that shows him draped in a blanket of Black-Eyed Susans.

Ed DeRosa of Brisnet.com takes on TDN's Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato as they handicap Triple Crown prep races plus the big three races themselves. The three will make $100 Win/Place bets in the preps and $200 Win/Place bets in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont. Highest bankroll at the end wins.

DeRosa - Bankroll: $5480 - GI Kentucky Derby Result - Max Player rallied for fifth.

GI Preakness S. - I wanted to bet Art Collector in the Kentucky Derby, so why not in the Preakness against arguably a softer group with the defections of Tiz the Law and Honor A. P.? Art Collector would have been half the price as Authentic in the Derby, but now we get twice the price since Authentic won the race Art Collector wasn't in. I'm not up on all that newfangled math my kids take, but I still know logic, and it's telling me to bet my lungs on Art Collector. I don't give a lot of wagering advice in this spot, but mine would be to save whatever it is you plan to bet across all the great racing this weekend and put it all on the nose of Art Collector. Best bet of the Triple Crown Throwdown series right here in the Preakness. Selection: #3 Art Collector (5-2).

Sherack - Bankroll: $4110 - GI Kentucky Derby Result - Honor A. P. was up against it from the moment they sprung the latch and was along for fourth after an impossible trip.

GI Preakness S. - Pneumatic finally posted the breakthrough victory I was waiting for in the TVG.com Pegasus S. at Monmouth, and if his subsequent training at Saratoga is any indication, he may have another leap forward coming here.

He’s tactical enough to work out the right trip in a race that appears to have plenty of speed signed on as well. Selection: #10 Pneumatic (20-1).

DiDonato - Bankroll: $5840 - GI Kentucky Derby Result - Tiz the Law (+$340) settled for second best on the day. Not sure that’s his favorite track, and it’s tough to dance every dance even when the order and spacing are different.

GI Preakness S. - This seems like a good spot to take a chance with a longshot. Authentic’s last effort almost certainly wins this too, but it wouldn’t be surprising if he turned out to be a little bit over the top here. His pre-Derby worktab suggests he was 100% cranked for last time, and while his two breezes for this were fast, he’s not going to work out the same trip here. There’s plenty of other pace, which is part of the reason I’ll also oppose Art Collector, who I wasn’t totally sold on before his late Derby defection. He can win, but he’s another who’s probably not going to get the same perfect trip he’s enjoyed in recent outings. Max Player is the one I’ll try. His Derby run was sneaky good—he traveled on the dead rail for a good chunk of the race, and made a legitimate stretch run. One of these days he’s going to get the meltdown he needs. Maybe it’ll be Saturday. Selection: #8 Max Player (15-1).

Away on top from her outside draw, Simply Ravishing worked her way to the lead and rail and doled out splits of :24.43, :48.59 and 1:12.94 with Crazy Beautiful in nearest pursuit. She spun for home still well within herself, and ran up the score with bounding strides to emerge as the main challenger to West Coast-based divisional leader and ‘Rising Star’ Princess Noor (Not This Time).

McPeek will need one more win in the Alcibiades to tie Lukas. “I don’t think we know how good she is,” his assistant Alan Shell said. “She’s won on turf, dirt, going short, going long. It’s just real exciting. We’re just so thankful we have owners like Mr. [Harold] Lerner and Jack Cohen and Magdalena Racing that are behind us. They made a commitment when they bought this filly. They buy the best horses. Kenny did a great job picking her out. It’s all a team effort.”

Pedigree Notes:

Simply Ravishing, who became the first stakes winner for freshman sire Laoban when she captured the P. G. Johnson S. at Saratoga Sept. 3, upped the ante considerably with the New York stallion’s first Grade I win as a sire in the Darley Alcibiades. The stallion son of Uncle Mo has one other black-type horse from his four winners to date in GII Adirondack S. third-place finisher Ava’s Grace. Uncle Mo has gotten off to a stellar start as a sire of sires, with other freshman sires Nyquist and Outwork making a big splash in the division. Simply Ravishing is the only foal to race out of the More Than Ready mare Four Wishes, who was bred to Speightster for 2021. Simply Ravishing contributes the first black-type in three generations to her dam’s side, with only her granddam’s half-sister Valid Affect (Valid Appeal) marking up the page with a black-type win and a graded placing, both in 1997. The super versatile Diamond Oops stamped his ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint while becoming racing’s newest millionaire. A winner of last June’s GIII Smile Sprint at Gulfstream, the bay was second in Saratoga’s GI Alfréd G. Vanderbilt H. that July at 29-1. He came close again when stretching out on the local lawn for the GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. some 12 months ago, but was eighth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile in November. Diamond Oops returned to winning ways in Gulfstream’s seven-panel GII Mr. Prospector S. Dec. 21, and padded the bankroll a bit more with a fourth-place run in the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational S. Presented by Runhappy in January. He resurfaced to be second in a one-turn-mile Gulfstream handicap June 13, and was last seen taking the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. on the GI Kentucky Oaks undercard Sept. 4.

Finding a good spot early drafting behind pacesetter No Parole (Violence) along the fence in third, Diamond Oops was hard ridden to keep up heading for home as longshot Empire of Gold took it to the frontrunner through a :44.73 half. Empire of Gold took over in midstretch and briefly looked home free, but Diamond Oops kept on coming and collared him late to ultimately win comfortably.

“It’s remarkable,” Florent Geroux, who rode Diamond Oops for the first time last out, said of his mount’s versatility. “He’s a tremendous horse, and he can even run longer if you ask him. He runs on any surface. It’s rare to run as good as he did last time on the turf at and now winning a major prep for the Breeders’ Cup Sprint.”
Andie Biancone, assistant to her father, trainer Patrick Biancone, added: “I have my full faith in him. Any time he hits that quarter pole and there’s a horse in front of him, I know he’s going to catch him. He has the biggest heart; that’s the real reason he’s so good on both surfaces is he has a heart that can overcome anything.”

As for what race Diamond Oops would likely wind up in next month, Biancone said: “Knowing Patrick, he’ll probably wake up a week out and make a decision based on whatever he’s feeling. Maybe he’ll flip a coin. We’ll see.”

Pedigree Notes:
The Coolmore sire Lookin At Lucky has been quietly amassing a top-caliber record as a stallion: in addition to Diamond Oops, he has 35 other graded winners and 57 other black-type winners, including Eclipse champion and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic victor Accelerate, Chilean champion and U.S. G1SW Wow Cat (Chi), and GI Kentucky Derby winner Country House. The Smart Strike stallion has a number of runners inbred to Mr. Prospector, as is Diamond Oops, although he has no other black-type winners out of mares by Whywhywhy, a G1SW in the U.S. who spent much of his stud career in Korea before he passed away in 2017. His daughters have produced a total of five stakes winners to date.
The late Patriotic Viva, winner of the listed Serena’s Song S. at Monmouth in 2010, also produced black-type winner Patriotic Diamond (Hat Trick {Jpn}). Her last foal is Viva La Red (Texas Red), an unraced 2-year-old filly who worked a bullet four furlongs in :48.45 (1/7) at Palm Meadows Sept. 4.

Claimed off his breeder for $30,000 just over a year ago, Harpers First Ride galloped them along at a solid clip in Friday’s GIII Pimlico Special S. on Preakness eve at Old Hilltop and refused to allow odds-on Owendale past en route to a mild upset.

Ridden for speed by Angel Cruz in a scratched-down field of seven, Harpers First Ride was able to clear his rivals and was guided down onto the fence, but John Velazquez, aboard Owendale for the first time, took up a pace-pressing position to his outside. Harpers First Ride was showing no signs of quit as Velazquez upped the ante with fully 3 1/2 furlongs to travel, allowing Owendale to creep closer still on the turn. More or less on even terms off the home corner, Harpers First Ride repelled Owendale entering the final furlong and was ridden out to score, with Cruz punching the air in celebration.

A reliable allowance horse since the claim, Harpers First Ride returned from a freshening to take a one-mile Laurel allowance June 6 and followed up over that track and trip July 3. Fifth to ‘TDN Rising Star’ Global Campaign (Curlin) in the GIII Monmouth Cup 15 days later, he finished well for second in a Parx allowance Aug. 12 and was exiting a first black-type success in the Deputed Testimony S. at Laurel Sept. 5.

Pedigree Notes:
The fourth graded winner for his sire, Harpers First Ride is out of an unraced half-sister to Sneaky Quiet (Seeking the Gold), a dual stakes winner and third to Gal in a Ruckus (Bold Ruckus) in the 1995 GI Kentucky Oaks. Polyester was sold for $90,000 in foal to Quality Road at the 2018 Keeneland January sale and produced a filly that March. That as-yet-unnamed horse breezed three furlongs in :36.60 at Keeneland Sept. 26. Polyester is the dam of a yearling colt by Practical Joke and a colt foal by Bolt d’Oro.

CHANCES GALORE IN DEEP SHADWELL MILE

Last-out Grade I winner Halladay (War Front) is favored on the morning line for Saturday’s GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. at Keeneland, but there are strong contenders up and down the lineup of the 11-horse “Win and You’re In” qualifier for the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile.

Dual stakes placed last fall as a sophomore, the Harrell Ventures runner captured the Tropical Park Derby at Gulfstream to close his season before running fourth in the GIII Tampa Bay S. Feb. 8. Scoring victories with triple-digit Beyers in an optional claimer and the Sunshine Forever S. this spring in Hallandale, he settled for fourth when taken off the lead in the GII Bernard Baruch H., then reverted to his previous tactics and went wire to wire in the GI Fourstardave H. Aug. 22 at Saratoga. Cont. p14

Chad Brown, who failed to crack the superfecta with a quartet of challengers in the Fourstardave, is back with another foursome here. ‘TDN Rising Star’ Analyze It (Point of Entry) leads the charge in his second start off a long layoff. Winning his first three outings by a combined 15 3/4 lengths, the bay then finished second by a neck in the GII Pennine Ridge S., by a head in the GI Belmont Derby Invitational S. and again by a neck in the GI Secretariat S. Fourth as the chalk in this event two falls ago, he went to the bench after a third in the 2018 GI Breeders’ Cup Mile and returned after over 22 months off to take the GII Red Bank S. last out Sept. 5 at Monmouth.

Lightly-raced Flavius (War Front) dons the Juddmonte colors for Brown. Two-for-three in Ireland for Dermot Weld, he was fourth in his first two Stateside starts before running third with late traffic trouble in the First Defence S. June 7 at Belmont. The homebred put it all together with a late-running triumph in the Tourist Mile S. last out Sept. 7, earning a career-high 105 Beyer. Rounding out the Brown contingent are MGISW Raging Bull (Dark Angel {Ire}), who removes blinkers following a mild fifth in the Fourstardave, and Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a Group 1 winner in Great Britain who is winless so far in five North American starts.

Longshot contenders include Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed), Born Great (Scat Daddy) and Ivar (Brz) (Agnes Gold {Jpn}). Casa Creed, last year's GII Hall of Fame S. winner, ran two sneaky-good races to start his 4-year-old campaign and closed well to be third in the slow-paced Fourstardave, and Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a Group 1 winner in Great Britain who is winless so far in five North American starts.

BC JUVENILE BERTH ON THE LINE IN BREEDERS’ FUTURITY

A field of nine, including several impressive debut winners, are set to line up in Saturday’s GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity S. at Keeneland, a ‘Win and You’re In’ for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile.

Founder (Upstart) was green, but awfully good at first asking, graduating by a neck over his Chad Brown-trained stablemate and next out winner Highly Motivated (Into Mischief) in the Saratoga mud going six furlongs Aug. 29. He brought $600,000 from Jeff Drown and Don Rachel after breezing a quarter in 1:21 flat at OBS March.

Godolphin homebred Essential Quality (Tapit), from the same female family as champion Folklore (Tiznow), received the ‘TDN Rising Star’ designation after overcoming some mid-stretch traffic trouble en route to an eye-catching debut win going six furlongs on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard at Churchill Downs Sept. 5. The gray is trained by Brad Cox.

Drawn widest of all in post nine is King Fury (Curlin) is the lone runner in the field with a win at the Breeders’ Futurity distance of 1 1/16 miles. The first and only foal out of the late Grade I winner and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Taris (Flatter) made a good-looking wide move on the far turn to win his debut going away at two turns beneath the Twin Spires Sept. 3.

Upstriker (Upstart) earned the field’s top Beyer Speed Figure of 81 in a five-length debut tally going 6 1/2 furlongs at Ellis Aug. 30, while Calibrate (Distorted Humor) battled throughout and won going away on debut at that same distance at Saratoga Aug. 15. The latter has worked a trio of bullets at Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen’s Saratoga base since.

NEWSPAPEROFRECORD, BEAU RECALL REMATCH IN FIRST LADY

 Appearing well on her way to a divisional championship, Klaravich Stables’ Newspaperofrecord (Ire) hit a roadblock named Beau Recall (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) last time out, and the two will face off once more in a six-horse renewal of Saturday’s GI First Lady S. at Keeneland, a Breeders’ Cup “Win and You’re In” qualifier for the Filly & Mare Turf.

Runner-up for a champion juvenile filly Eclipse Award after a dominant 2018 campaign that culminated in a 6 3/4-length GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf romp, Newspaperofrecord had a lost 3-year-old campaign, running second as a prohibitive favorite in the GII Edgewood S. and GIII Wonder Again S. before a disastrous last-place run in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S.
Returning after 11 months on the shelf, the 'TDN Rising Star' looked like her old self with a four-length score in the GII Intercontinental S. and three-length success in the GIJust A Game S. at Belmont. Left alone on the lead at 1-2 in the GII Longines Churchill Distaff Turf Mile S. Sept. 5, she was overhauled late with no visible excuse.

The bay faces other speed in here, which could set up Beau Recall for a long overdue Grade I victory. Placing in the GI Del Mar Oaks as a 3-year-old, she added runner-up finishes in the Just A Game and GI Rodeo Drive S. last season and was second to Newspaperofrecord in this year's Just A Game. Fifth at 6-5 in the GII Yellow Ribbon H. Aug. 8 at Del Mar, she bounced back with an 8-1 upset in the Distaff Turf Mile, her fourth Grade II success.

It's now or never for champion Uni (GB) (More Than Ready) to get her 6-year-old campaign on track. Annexing the GI Matriarch S. to close out 2018, the chestnut went three-for-four last year, including a score in this race and a fast-finishing triumph over males in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile to wrap up her champion turf female title in a loaded year for the division. This year though, she ran an even third in the Just A Game at even-money and never made any impact in an uncharacteristically dull seventh in the GI Fourstardave H. Aug. 22 at Saratoga.

AGELESS CHANNEL MAKER BACK AT BELMONT IN JOE HIRSCH

Seemingly written off last time out as a declining 8-year-old gelding, Channel Maker (English Channel) caught everyone napping with a dominant wire-to-wire score in the GI Sword Dancer S. over soft turf. Saturday, the chestnut will return to the scene of his previous two Grade I triumphs in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. at Belmont.

Capturing the 2018 Turf Classic in similar fashion--wire to wire--Channel Maker was out of the trifecta in his next three tries, but rebounded with a determined victory in the local GI Man O' War S. last May. Just missing by a half-length four starts later in the 2019 renewal of this event, he was no better than fourth in six subsequent outings, but got beaten just a length at 23-1 in the GI Manhattan S. here July 4. Elevated to third via disqualification after getting steadied late in the GII Bowling Green S. Aug. 1 at the Spa, he blitzed to the lead and never looked back in a 5 3/4-length conquest of the Sword Dancer at 8-1 Aug. 29.

Given a slight nod on the morning line at 2-1 is Rockemperor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). A fast-closing third in the local GI Belmont Derby in his U.S. debut last July after being brought over from France, the bay has come close, but is still winless in six Stateside starts. Sixth in the Saratoga Derby in his 3-year-old finale, he was third in the GII Muniz Memorial Classic S. at Fair Grounds and GII Charlie Whittingham S. before finishing a neck short of stablemate Instilled Regard (Arch) when second in the Manhattan. He closed mildly to be third last out in the GI Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic S. Sept. 5 at Churchill.

A pair of horses making their respective North American debuts add spice to the lineup. Master Piece (Chi) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) took five tries to break his maiden in his native land, but reeled off four straight victories once he did, culminating with a score in the G2 Gran Clasico Coronacion. Third in the G1 El Derby Feb. 2 at Valparaiso, the gray was last seen finishing 14th in the G1 Gran Premio Latinoamericano Mar. 14 at San Isidro in Argentina.

Laccario (Ger) (Scalo {GB}) ships across the Atlantic for three-time German champion trainer Andreas Wohler. Second by a head on debut, the dark bay scored four straight successes, punctuating the streak with a triumph in the G1 IDEE Deutsches Derby last July at Hamburg. A well-beaten third in Baden-Baden’s G1 Longines Grosser Preis von Baden, he bounced back as a nose runner-up in the G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit at Hoppegarten before checking in seventh making his 4-year-old debut over yielding turf in the G1 Preis von Europa Aug. 15 at Cologne.

SARATOGA DERBY TOP THREE MEET AGAIN IN OPEN BELMONT DERBY

The first three across the wire in a blanket finish in the Saratoga Derby Invitational S. last month will reconvene along with some interesting new shooters in Saturday’s G1 Belmont Derby Invitational S. at Big Sandy, a “Win and You’re In” qualifier for the Breeders’ Cup Turf.

Narrowly victorious at the Spa was Klaravich Stables’ Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman {GB}), given slight morning-line favoritism here at 5-2.

Bought for 300,000 guineas at Tattersalls October in 2018, the gelding graduated on debut at even-money Feb. 12 at Tampa and repeated with a fast finish in a mile allowance here June 7. Left with too much to do when third in the GII Hall of Fame S. July 18 at the Spa, he showed tactical speed for the first time in the Saratoga Derby and ground out a head victory.

Just missing was runner-up Gufo (Declaration of War). Graduating at second asking Dec. 29 at Gulfstream, the chestnut scored last-to-first victories in an optional claimer and the English Channel S. there Mar. 27 and May 2, respectively before making it three in a row with a half-length success in the GII Kent S. July 4 at Delaware.

Wertheimer et Frere’s No Word (Silent Name {Jpn}) was a debut winner last summer at Saratoga and finished fifth as the favorite in the GII Pilgrim S. in his juvenile finale. Third in a pair of tries this summer, the dark bay narrowly annexed a local optional claiming July 9 before running third at 18-1 in the Saratoga Derby.

Two last-out stakes winners add to the fray. Moon Over Miami (Malibu Moon), who was briefly on the GI Kentucky Derby trail earlier this year, scored a Churchill allowance victory on grass June 20 before running fourth at 14-1 in the Hall of Fame and drawing in off the also-eligible list to take the Gun Runner Dueling Grounds Derby Sept. 10 at Kentucky Downs.

Godolphin’s Pixelate (City Zip), second or third in five straight stakes tries as a 3-year-old—including a runner-up finish to Gufo in the Kent—surged late to get up by a head in the GI Del Mar Derby Sept. 6.

Rounding out the major contenders is Venezuelan Hug (Constitution). Claimed from Orlyana Farm and Alexis Delgado when running third in a $40,000 maiden claimer Mar. 25 at Gulfstream, the gray dominated Florida-bred maiden special weight rivals next out Apr. 25 and repeated in a starter optional claimer May 30. Not quite ready for prime time when last of six in the GII Pennine Ridge S. here June 20, he bounced back with a sharp allowance success Aug. 9 at Saratoga and shows a pair of bullet half-mile works over Saratoga’s Oklahoma turf for Danny Gargan in this return to stakes company.
BONNY SOUTH LOOMS LARGE IN BLACK-EYED SUSAN

After bypassing the GI Kentucky Oaks, Juddmonte homebred Bonny South (Munnings) is the clear-cut filly to beat in Saturday’s GI George E. Mitchell Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico.

The chestnut broke through with a last-to-first upset in the GI Twinspires.com Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 21, then was a well-beaten fourth in the GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland July 11.

She bounced back with a good second behind the GI Preakness S.-bound Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil) in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga last time Aug. 15.

“The biggest thing with her not running in the Kentucky Oaks was coming back in 20 days, the quality of the race,” said trainer Brad Cox, who saddled Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil) to a 15-1 upset in the Kentucky Oaks. “It was a very, very good race. Ultimately, they made the decision to not run. The timing wasn’t quite there.”

Cox continued, “Since the Alabama, she’s done really, really well. She’s still somewhat lightly raced, only run six times in her life. I think we have yet to see the best of her. Hopefully, she’ll take a step forward.”

Florent Geroux has the mount aboard the 7-5 morning-line favorite.

Perfect Alibi (Sky Mesa), winner of the GI Spinaway S. and a respectable fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, looks for her first win at three. She adds blinkers following a third-place finish in Laurel’s Weber City Miss S. Sept. 7.

Project Whiskey (Tapizar), a 38-1 winner of the GIII Delaware Oaks and runner-up behind Hopeful Growth (Tapiture) in the GIII Monmouth Oaks Aug. 1, was a disappointing ninth in the Weber City last time. Hopeful Growth, meanwhile, returned with a sixth-place finish in the Kentucky Oaks.

Mizzen Beau (Mizzen Mast) returns to dirt following a front-running upset in Woodbine’s Bison City S. Sept. 12. She was a well-beaten second behind Shedaresthedevil in an optional claimer at Churchill back in June in her most recent attempt on dirt.

STREAKING ‘SNEAKING’ TO BEAT IN TCA

KMN Racing’s Sneaking Out (Indian Evening), winner of back-to-back graded stakes on the west coast, will try to punch her ticket to the Breeders’ Cup in Saturday’s GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland, a "Win and You’re In" qualifier for the Filly & Mare Sprint.

Winning three of four to start her career, the California-bred was disqualified out of a score in the Angel’s Flight S. last spring and finished a narrow second in both the GI summertime Oaks and state-bred Fleet Treat S. Last but one in the GIII Torrey Pines S., the bay was benched for over eight months, returning with a neck allowance triumph Apr. 25 at Oaklawn. Fifth in the GIII Winning Colors S. May 30 at Churchill, the homebred returned home to the Golden State to annex the GII Great Lady M. S. July 4 at Los Alamitos and GIII Rancho Bernardo H. Aug. 21 at Del Mar.

Speedball Lady’s Island (Greatness) figures to go as fast as she can for as far as she can. Last winter’s GIII Sugar Swirl S. romper, the 6-year-old added victories in the Minaret S. and Florida-bred Musical Romance S. this season. Shipped up to Saratoga by Danny Gargan last out, the dark bay set a blistering pace of :21.64 and :43.81 in the GII Honorable Miss H. before settling for second behind MGISW Come Dancing (Malibu Moon).

Tom Durant's Dos Vinos (Twirling Candy), a winner of three of five in her young career, gets the acid test after a pair of allowance triumphs May 24 at Churchill and over track and trip July 9.

CODE OF HONOR MEETS COMPLEXITY IN KELSO

W.S. Farish's multiple Grade I winner Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) will meet surging 'TDN Rising Star' Complexity (Maclean's Music) for the first time since their juvenile season over a flat mile in the GII Kelso S. Saturday at Belmont.

Second to Complexity at 14-1 in the GI Champagne S. here two falls ago, Code of Honor captured the GII Xpressbet Fountain of Youth S. two starts later and was runner-up via disqualification in the GI Kentucky Derby two starts after that. Dominating the GIII Dwyer S. over track and trip, he scored victories in the GI Runhappy Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup before fizzling out when seventh in the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic. Annexing the GIII Westchester S. in his seasonal debut here June 6, the chestnut was third in the GI Runhappy Metropolitan H. before running an even fourth in the GI Whitney S. last out Aug. 1 at Saratoga.

Endorsed (Medaglia d'Oro) battled Code of Honor to within a half-length as a runner-up in the Westchester, but made no impact when seventh in the Met Mile and finished second at 3-5 in the Alydar S. last out Aug. 9 at the Spa.

KINGMAN COLT LOOKS TOUGH IN PILGRIM

Klaravich Stables' Public Sector (GB) (Kingman {GB}) will try to build off an impressive debut victory at Saratoga with a graded stakes success as a likely favorite in Saturday's GII Pilgrim S. for juvenile males on the Belmont turf.

Bought for 170,000 guineas as a Tattersalls October yearling, the bay was unveiled as a 2-1 favorite Aug. 15 at the Spa and rallied from seventh to win going away by two lengths, clocking his final five-sixteenths in a sharp :28.80. He has drilled five times since then for Chad Brown, most recently going five furlongs around dogs on the local turf in 1:01 2/5 (3/11) Sept. 27.

The two most likely upsetters appear to be Larry and Jennifer Goichman's Shawdys广大群众 (Summer Front) and Mike Rutherford's American Monarch (American Pharaoh). The former, a first-out victor Aug. 15 at Saratoga, shipped to Kentucky Downs for the Sept. 7 More Than Ready Juvenile S. and closed to be fourth, beaten just a length on the wire. The latter, another debut scorer in upstate New York Aug. 8, returns on just 13 days' rest after running fourth in the GI Summer S. at Woodbine.

INTO MISCHIEF FILLY GETS THE ‘CALL’ IN MISS PREAKNESS

Mundaye Call (Into Mischief), an eye-catching winner in track-record time of the Runhappy Audubon Oaks at Ellis Park Aug. 9, seeks her first graded score in Saturday’s GIII Miss Preakness S. at Pimlico.

After recording a field-best 100 Beyer Speed Figure in that front-running, 7 1/4-length decision, the OXO Equine colorbearer got caught up in a torrid pace in Churchill’s GII Eight Belles S. Sept. 4 and tired to fourth.

The 7-5 morning-line favorite takes on a pair of ‘TDN Rising Stars’ here, including the field’s lone Grade I winner Wicked Whisper (Liam’s Map).

A close second behind Fly On Angel (Palace Malice) in the GIII Charles Town Oaks Aug. 28, Wicked Whisper looks for her first win since capturing Belmont’s GI Frizette S. last October.

‘Rising Star’ Ain’t No Elmers (Goldencents), a sharp winner of her first two attempts at Fair Grounds earlier this term, ended a three-race losing streak with an optional claiming score at Churchill Downs Sept. 2. She is a perfect three-for-three at the six-furlong distance of the Miss Preakness.

TIZ THE LAW FIRES BULLET AT BIG SANDY

Sackatoga Stable’s top sophomore Tiz the Law (Constitution) breezed a speedy, best-of-six five furlongs in :57.87 at Belmont Park Friday morning under regular breeze rider Heather Smullen.

"I didn’t want to see him go that fast, but he came out of the work well," trainer Barclay Tagg said. "He scoped well and everything is going good with him."

PERFECT HAPPINESS TOPS KEENELAND DIGITAL SALE

Three-year-old filly Perfect Happiness (Majesticperfection--Divine Happiness, by Divine Park), a blowout allowance winner with an 86 Beyer Speed Figure at Ellis Aug. 2, brought $200,000 from Flurry Racing Stables as a racing or broodmare prospect at Keeneland’s October Digital Sale Thursday.

The Brereton C. Jones homebred, a runaway maiden winner at Oaklawn in January, finished second for trainer Larry Jones in her two most recent trips to the post in optional claimers at Churchill Downs. Cont. p20

She previously RNA’d for $22,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall yearling. Consigned by Jones’s Airdrie Stud as hip 5007, the bay is out of a half-sister to MSW and stakes producer Spring Rush (Wild Rush).

Buyer Staton Flurry has had previous success purchasing horses of racing age at Keeneland—he paid $280,000 for recent GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil) at last year’s Keeneland November sale. Perfect Happiness will join the Brad Cox barn already occupied by Sunday’s GI Juddmonte Spinster S. entrant Shedaresthedevil.

The digital sale’s top yearling was a $10,000 Klimt colt (hip 1350) consigned by Hunter Valley Farm, Agent XIV and purchased by Dale Desruisseaux.

Seven total sellers grossed $243,000, while another 53 offerings failed to meet their reserves.

ANGEL MONTANO, LONGTIME KENTUCKY TRAINER, DIES ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

by T.D. Thornton

Angel O. Montano Sr., a longtime Kentucky-based trainer, died Oct. 1. The Churchill Downs publicity department confirmed the death, noting in a Twitter posting that his passing coincided with the date of his 80th birthday.

Daily Racing Form reported the cause of death as numerous health issues complicated by a recent hospitalization for COVID-19.

According to a 2010 profile in the Evansville Courier & Press, Montano arrived in Louisville at age 17, taking a three-day bus ride from his native Mexico City after his contract as a jockey was purchased by a Kentucky-based owner. But he was hurt in a spill while galloping a horse in the morning and never rode in a race.

Montano rose through the ranks on the backstretch and in 1961 started training on his own, earning a reputation for being able to bring out the best in cheaper horses. He was admired and respected by backside employees and horse owners alike for treating his animals and other people with dignity and respect.

Despite keeping relatively small stables, over the decades Montano won three seasonal training titles at Churchill Downs, five at old Miles Park in Louisville, four at old Latonia (now Turfway Park), and four at Ellis Park, according to the Courier & Press feature story.

On the 1995 GI Kentucky Derby undercard, the Montano-trained Goldseeker Bud, a 20-1 long shot, upset the previous year’s Derby champ, Go For Gin, in the GIII Churchill Downs H. It was the only graded-stakes score of Montano’s nearly 60-year career.

"I can’t ask for any better," Montano told the Courier & Press in 2010."I’ve got my wife and seven kids, who all graduated from college and are doing great. And I’ve got my horses and friends. The racetrack has been good to me. The horse business can be good to me. It’s been a good life."

Montano’s wife of 58 years, Patricia, also known as "Mom Pat," predeceased him in 2018.

Visitation hours are Oct. 7 from 2-8 p.m. at Ratterman Brothers Funeral Home, 12900 Shelbyville Road in Louisville (this is the East Louisville location; please note there are two Rattermans locations in the city). A funeral service will be held Oct. 8 at 10 a.m., with details to be posted here.

Montano’s family is asking for memorial gifts in his honor to be donated to the Backside Learning Center at Churchill Downs.

BEAU GREELY DIES AT 49

Christopher Beau Greely, a fourth-generation trainer with deep Kentucky ties, passed away Sept. 30 in Redondo Beach, Calif., after a short illness. He was 49.

A Kentucky native, Greely, who went by his middle name, had long-time roots in the horse business. With his brother, John J. Greely IV, who passed away earlier this year at 54, Greely founded Wintergreen Stallion Station. His father, John “Bud” Greely III, owned Wintergreen Farm near Midway, Ky. Their uncle, Bill Greely, was president of Keeneland from 1986-2000.

Greely worked for Criquette Head in France and Richard Mandella in California before going out on his own in 1997. Among his more successful runners were MGISW Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), whom he also bred and owned in partnership, MGISW Manndar (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), G1SW Sligo Bay (Ire)
Greely is survived by his father, the aforementioned Bud, and his mother, Ann Evans Greely; as well as three children, Christopher Beau Greely II, Jacqueline Greely, and Margaux Greely; his sisters Shannon Totty and Laura Whitworth; the mother of his children, Heidi Marsh; a special friend, Tracy Stephenson; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Due to ongoing COVID-19 protocols, the burial at Calvary Cemetery in Lexington will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made to the Lexington location of God’s Food Pantry at 1685 Jaggie Fox Way.

FLORIDA RACING PREPARES TO SAY GOODBYE TO CALDER by Bill Finley

Saturday’s opening day at the meet rebranded as Gulfstream Park West will truly mark the beginning of an end. Barring an 11th hour reprieve from the courts, the 40-day season will be the last ever run at Calder Race Course, the meat-and-potatoes South Florida track that has been operating since 1971.

Since 2014, the racing operation has been leased by Calder’s owner, Churchill Downs Inc., to Gulfstream Park’s owners, The Stronach Group, which renamed the track Gulfstream Park West. That lease expires at the end of the year and TSG is in the process of putting together a 2021 racing schedule that does not include a Gulfstream Park West/Calder meet.

Calder opened May 6, 1971 with 16,263 fans in attendance and the handle was $712,931. The New York Times reported that the meet "got off to a flying start" and that there were so many people looking to get into the track that they had to close the gates and turn some would-be patrons away.

Calder bridged the gap between the winter and early spring meets that were held at Gulfstream and at Hialeah and ushered in an era of year-round racing in South Florida. While Calder was never as glamorous as the other tracks in the area, it satisfied a need and was a starting point for many successful jockeys, trainers and horses. In 2000, Calder inaugurated the "Summit of Speed" program, which featured several major stakes races, all of them sprints.

"Calder was a workingman’s racetrack and a lot of fine horses came from there that competed on all levels, whether it was Spend a Buck to a horse I had, Three Ring, who went on to win all sorts of graded stakes races," said veteran trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. "My father was the second one through the backstretch gates when it first opened. A lot of people did great there and Calder launched the career of a lot of horsemen. Calder was a great place for me and my family. It gave us a lot of stability and it gave me time to be with my family. I am going to sorely miss it."

In May, 2019, Churchill opened a jai alai fronton, which is far less costly to operate than a racetrack, on the grounds. Four months later, a Florida Court upheld a decision by the state’s Department of Business and Professional Regulation’s Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering that allowed Calder to tie its casino permit to jai alai. Horse racing was no longer needed.

"I feel that Churchill Downs didn’t do its best for horse racing," trainer David Fawkes said. "They’ve done the same thing in Chicago with Arlington and to Hollywood Park. It’s sad because we all got on board to help them get their casino and once they got what they wanted, they were done with us."

The Florida HBPA and other industry groups have continued the battle in the courts, hoping to reverse the decision that approved the casino-jai alai marriage. But Gulfstream management is proceeding as if racing will no longer continue at Calder after the meet ends Nov. 28.

"It’s the end of an era," said Bill Badgett, the executive director of Florida Racing Operations for The Stronach Group.

Though overshadowed by Gulfstream, the abbreviated Calder meets served a purpose. It is difficult for any track to operate year-round, especially one that relies so heavily on turf racing, like Gulfstream does. The two months when racing was conducted at Calder were used to give Gulfstream a break and to prepare the turf course for the Championship Meet.

Badgett said that the plan is to operate Gulfstream year-round in 2021, but said that not all the Calder dates will be made up.

"We’re in the process right now of creating the calendar for 2021," Badgett said. "Most likely, we will lose about 20 days out of the 40. The two months when we race over there is the time we get things ready here for the championship meet, with the turf. It could be that in November we possibly could race over the Breeders’ Cup days and take the rest of the month off and then get ready for the Championship Meet. That would give us almost three weeks off for the turf course. Maybe in October we’ll only run three days a week. We will try to run a few less turf races during October. It looks like we have a pretty good plan we’re going to be putting into place. To lose just 20 days, that doesn’t hurt you that much in the long run."

The other issue is stabling. Badgett said that there are 450 horses currently stabled at Calder. Gulfstream has reached an agreement whereby the horses can stay at Calder until Apr. 1. By that time, he said, an expansion project will have been completed at Palm Meadows to house the Calder horses and the backstretch workers who care for those horses.

Badgett is a former trainer who raced some at Calder before he went into racetrack management. Like so many others in South Florida racing, he has a soft spot for old Calder Race Course.

"When they tore the grandstand down, that’s when everybody said that it was the beginning of the end," he said. "It used to be a lot of fun to race there and they had great racing. I even remember running on Christmas Day there. But the game has changed and those days are long gone. It’s sad."

2021 NATIONAL HORSEPLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP MOVED FROM FEBRUARY TO AUGUST

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) has rescheduled the upcoming 2021 National Horseplayers Championship (NHC), originally slated for Feb. 12-14, to Aug. 27-29 due to the ongoing impacts of COVID-19. The NHC, a culmination of a year-long series of tournaments of which the winner is honored at the Eclipse Awards, will be held at Bally’s Las Vegas.

“With the support of our partners at Bally’s and Caesars Entertainment, we have secured dates that provide us with a great opportunity to host a world-class event in the safest possible environment for our participants, guests and employees,” said the NTRA’s chief operating officer Keith Chamblin.

According to the NTRA, the 2021 date change will not impact the current 2020-21 NHC Tour, which concludes Jan. 23. The 2022 NHC will be scheduled for its usual February dates.

OLD FRIENDS JOINS FORCES WITH SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITY

Old Friends, the non-profit organization that cares for over 200 retired racehorses near Georgetown, Ky., has formed a unique arrangement with Georgetown’s new Ashton Grove Senior Living Community, which is located a few miles from the Old Friends property. Equine retirees from Old Friends will live at Ashton Grove, which is positioned on approximately 40 acres of former Hill ‘n’ Dale Farm land. Ashton Grove has eight fenced paddocks, a 12-stall barn, and run-in sheds under construction. Old Friends hosted a grand opening of the new location Friday.
"This is a dream come true," said Old Friends founder and president Michael Blowen. "Retired horses. Retired people. A match made in heaven."

The new partnership will combine Thoroughbred retirement with a senior retirement community. Old Friends has already moved seven horses to the new location, with more to follow in time. Eventually, when pandemic protocols ease, Ashton Grove will be open to a small number of visitors by appointment only.

The Old Friends residents currently at Ashton Grove are MGISW Daytona (Ire) (Indian Ridge [Ire]), GI Preakness S. runner-up and GSW Magic Weisner (Ameri Valay), Chilean champion and MGSP-US Porfido (Chi) (Mash One [Chi]), MSW and MGSP Secret Getaway (Skip Away), and GISP Massone (Menifee), as well as hard-knocking winners Ireland’s Eye (Cowtown Cat) and Bo’s a Ten (Patton).

"Ashton Grove is excited and honored to have Old Friends horses in our backyard," said the senior living community’s executive director, Davonna Saeir. "I am so happy that our beautiful property will provide a sanctuary for these majestic creatures, and I know their presence will give our residents great joy. Having these retired thoroughbreds at Ashton Grove is a win-win, and we are grateful for our partnership with Old Friends."

RACING’S BIGGEST HOPE: EMBRACING FIXED ODDS BETTING
by Thoroughbred Idea Foundation
Have you noticed the explosion of sports betting legalization around America?

As it stands now, horse racing is offered almost exclusively as a pari-mutuel wagering option, which often renders impossible the co-location of racing with other fixed odds sports bets. Be it Draft Kings, FanDuel, the new Barstool Sportsbook through Penn National Gaming, or any other provider in the growing number of states legalizing sports betting--racing is not amidst those offerings.

That puts U.S. racing at a monumental disadvantage.

In February 2019, the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation published "Horse Racing and 'Legal' Sports Betting," a white paper which suggested racing's greatest opportunity for growth through increased wagering participation will come from offering fixed odds betting on racing. That is, essentially, a sports betting-like product--with fixed prices, locked-in at the time of the bet on everything from the race itself, to props, futures, or other unique outcomes tied to the race.

"Probably our most fundamental problem, nationwide, is that racing is trying to survive a nearly two decade-long decline in handle, amidst what is the most competitive legal wagering marketplace in American history, all with a product that, mostly by design of its own industry, is increasingly uncompetitive," TIF Executive Director Patrick Cummings said this week.

Racing needs to present its product adjacent to, not separate from, that which represents the greatest growth spurt in the history of legal, American betting.

"And make no mistake, we need to get our pari-mutuel betting product re-organized, with a relentless focus on improving pricing and finding ways to increase wagering churn. Either we get serious about this as an industry or things get worse. It should be an easy choice."

With the growth experienced in sports betting and sports betting legalization over these last 20 months since our original publication, we invite you to go back and review our original thoughts and consider the possibilities for American racing.

After shutout loss in Supreme Court, racing commission accused of 'lax oversight'

The understanding among HHR operators is that they have a 20-day window (until Oct. 14) to file a petition for reconsideration before the Supreme Court ruling could become final. No such petition had been filed as of Thursday afternoon. Tim Sullivan, Louisville Courier-Journal

Nourish Lexington is Keeneland’s featured fall meet charity. Although Keeneland currently remains closed to spectators due to ongoing coronavirus concerns, Keeneland at Home fans and Keeneland Watch Party attendees will also have the opportunity to support Nourish Lexington, which was launched in April.

In addition, Keeneland will support the community in the barn area every Wednesday and Sunday of the meet with Nourish the Backstretch, an extension of Nourish Lexington.

“While this Fall Meet will certainly feel different, Keeneland’s steadfast commitment to supporting our community and our industry remains unchanged,” Keeneland president and CEO Bill Thomason said. “We are excited to use the season to amplify the good works of our community and industry partners and also raise much-needed funds for worthwhile causes.”

Click to learn more about Nourish Lexington and to donate to the effort.

During the Fall Meet, which opened Friday and runs through Oct. 24, Keeneland will continue to support and raise funds for Nourish Lexington, which uses the skills and resources of food service and hospitality employees displaced by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic to provide nutritious meals for people in need.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
3rd-Keeneland, $72,696, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($62,500), 10-2, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:22.40, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.
RISKY MANDATE (f, 4, Strong Mandate--Paying Off {SW, $192,380}, by Malibu Moon), cutting back to one turn after a pair of route tries this summer, shot out to the front from her rail draw, cruised through fractions of :22.53 and :45.39, and turned for home in complete command. Club Car (Malibu Moon) attempted to make a race out of it in the stretch, but couldn’t reel in the 1-2 favorite, who stayed on to score by 2 3/4 lengths.

Risky Mandate, a sharp winner of her first two starts last term, concluded her 3-year-old campaign with a third-place finish in Saratoga’s GII Prioress S. Third in the Shine Again S. going this same distance at the Spa July 17, she followed a runner-up finish as the 4-5 favorite in an optional claimer going 1 1/8 miles there Aug. 13 with a well-beaten eighth after showing speed in Churchill’s GII La Troienne S. last time Sept. 4.

The winner is a half to Joint Custody (Outflanker), MSW, $274,530. Paying Off had a colt by Hard Spun in 2019; she was bred to Candy Ride (Arg) for 2021. Lifetime Record: GSP, 8-3-2-2, $227,804. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O/B-Ghost Hollow Farm (KY); T-Thomas M. Amoss.

6th-Keeneland, $71,000, Alw (NW2L)/Opt. Clm ($75,000), 10-2, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:39.16, ft, nose.

LADY LILLY (f, 2, Nyquist—Miss Inclined {MSP, $184,451}, by Pulpit), one of eight winners for her freshman sire (by Uncle Mo), graduated on debut Aug. 2 at the Spa and reappeared at the same venue Sept. 6 with a third-place finish in the G1 Spinaway S. Stretching out another furlong here, she secured a stalking spot in third through a quarter in :22.81 and a half in :46.85. She inched up on the turn and emerged from between horses in front with her ears pricked. Lady Lilly idled just a bit as Dash to the Top (Violence) collared her late in the short stretch while the two hit the wire together. The photo showed Lady Lilly kept her nose in front for the win at 2.70-1. The winner is a half to Hollis (Street Sense), SW, $202,642; and to a yearling colt by Will Take Charge that sold for $20,000 as a Keeneland January short yearling. Miss Inclined, who is a half-sister to MGSW Rush Bay (Cozzene) and hails from the family of late ’90s popular millionaire GSW & GISP Chorwon (Cozzene), delivered a filly by Liam’s Map this year and was bred back to Clearly Now. Sales History: $280,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: GSP, 2-2-0-1, $112,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O-Phoenix Thoroughbred, LTD; B-Mueller Thoroughbred Stable, Ltd. (KY); T-Thomas M. Amoss.

7th-Keeneland, $71,000, Alw, 10-2, (NW1X), 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8mT, 1:49.92, gd, 3/4 length.

LUCY MONEY (f, 3, Lookin At Lucky—Flagrant, by Rahy) took a half-dozen starts to break her maiden, doing so at Laurel July 4, ahead of a runner-up effort at Colonial July 28 and a solid third to Micheline (Bernardini) in the Dueling Grounds Oaks Sept. 10. The 17-10 favorite with a return to allowance company, Luck Money settled in the second half of the field and improved her position by a couple of spots entering three-eighths of a mile. Asked to sprint nearing the stretch by Joel Rosario, she rolled up four off the fence to take control inside the furlong marker and inched away to best a troubled Quiet Dignity (Kitten’s Joy) by 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half to Street Move (Street Cry {Ire}), GSP, $118,016; and Furthest Land (Smart Strike), GISW, $917,707. Fragrant is a half-sister to this owner-breeder’s MGSW/MG1/ISP Dynever (Dynaformer) and to former ‘TDN Rising Star’ Funfair (More Than Ready), the dam of last year’s GII Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint hero Four Wheel Drive (American Pharoah). Fragrant is the dam of the yearling colt Ludo (Lookin At Lucky) and was most recently bred to Midshipman. Lifetime Record: SP, 9-2-3-4, $180,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O/B-Catherine M Wills (KY); T-Arnaud Delacour.

4th-Keeneland, $69,530, Alw, 10-2, (NW1X), 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8mT, 1:49.97, gd, 1 1/4 lengths.

BLAME DEBBIE (f, 3, Blame—Jadwa, by Invasor {Arg}), a maiden winner over the Keeneland dirt at second asking for Tom Proctor last fall, was third with Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners being added to the ownership line while making her first start for Graham Motion in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct Dec. 7. A close third over the Belmont lawn in an allowance June 21, then sixth after setting the pace in the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga July 19, she controversially had her number taken down to third after drifting in late en route to a dominant allowance tally at Kentucky Downs going 1 5/16 miles last time Sept. 9.

Favored at 7-5 here, Blame Debbie raced in sixth through fractions of :23.13 and :48.26. All dressed up with nowhere to go as they bunched up at the top of the stretch, she was tipped out to the four path and into the clear by Joel Rosario shortly thereafter and ran to daylight to score by 1 1/4 lengths over Prairie Wings (Tapit).

The winner’s dam is also represented by the unraced 2-year-old colt Bermondsey (Gemologist). She was bred to Nyquist for 2021. Blame Debbie’s third dam is MG1SW Sierra Madre (Fr) (Baillamont), who produced European champion Aljabr (Storm Cat). Sales history: $65,000 RNA Ylg ‘18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: GSP, 9-2-1-3, $140,920. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O-Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Michael P. Cloonan & Timothy C. Thornton; B-Tim Thornton & Tony Holmes (KY); T-Graham Motion.

EVER DANGEROUS (c, 3, Kitten’s Joy--The Rahy Angel, by Rahy), a debut winner over the Gulfstream lawn Apr. 2, was off the board in his next three attempts, including a fifth-place finish in the GI National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga most recently July 18. The 11-1 chance shot out to the front from his rail draw and never looked back, scoring by 1 1/2 lengths over favored Basquiat (American Pharoah). The winner’s dam is also responsible for an unnamed 2-year-old colt by Air Force Blue, an English Channel yearling colt and a filly by that sire of this year. She was bred to Bolt d’Oro for 2021. Sales history: $135,000 Ylg ‘18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $69,260. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

$192,984), by Not Bourbon), second-best behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ and GI Darley Alcibiades S. third Travel Column (Frosted) after racing on a fast pace at Churchill Sept. 4, was favored at 6-5 to go one better here. She lunged outward at the start and vied for the lead while five deep. The bay ranged up under confident handling three wide approaching the quarter pole, began to shake clear in the stretch and held Sun Path (Munnings) safe by 1 1/4 lengths. Off We Go is the seventh winner for her freshman sire (by War Front). Conquest Strate Up, from the extended female family of two-time Horse of the Year and leading sire Curlin, had a filly by Practical Joke in 2019 and a colt by by Mendelssohn this year. She was bred back to Hard Spun for 2021. Sales history: $75,000 Ylg ’19 FTKOCT; $150,000 2yo ’20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $61,400. ROYAL PRINCE (c, 2, Cairo Prince--Rose and Shine (MSW, $399,829), by Mr. Sekiguchi), a half-brother to last year’s champion 2-year-old filly and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies winner British Idiom (Flashback), got the first official win of his career in spite of finishing first in a Sept. 7 Kentucky Downs maiden that was declared a no contest after the gate opened before the entire field was loaded. He’d also finished second at Ellis Aug. 8 in his debut after ducking in at the start. The third time was a charm as he broke well, secured the rail, and settled comfortably in midpack at 3-2. After a quarter in :22.66, he angled to the outside of Sky Temple (Temple City), and stayed put as a half went in :47.68, then began edging up on the turn. The gray got a clear shot at the leaders in the stretch, where he powered to the front and held sway to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Sky Temple, at 53-1, got up for second. Royal Prince is a half to the aforementioned British Idiom, Ch. 2-year-old Filly, MGISW, $1,442,139; and to a filly by Jimmy Creed who hammered for $500,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling sale last month. Rose and Shine lost her 2020 foal and has been bred to Tapit for 2021. Sales History: $70,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $50,600. FARSIGHTED (f, 2, Bernardini--Elusive Fate (GSP, $231,258), by Elusive Quality) showed some late interest rallying from the back into a hot pace to collect fourth on debut at 27-1 at Churchill Sept. 4. Drawn widest of all in post 10, the 3-1 chance jumped well beneath Julien Leparoux and vied for early command as they stacked up four across the track. Traveling nicely three deep approaching the quarter pole, she took off with authority in the stretch and had seven impressive lengths over 40-1, first-time starter Silk and Sugar (Cairo Prince) on the line. Elusive Fate’s most recent produce is a Bernardini filly of 2019. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $46,850. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

STARFRONT (f, 3, Malibu Moon--Comic Marvel, by Distorted Humor) proved well worth the wait, debuting with a sharp performance here. The 2-1 chance wasn’t off to the sharpest of beginnings brushing the starting gate, but was hustled to the front to grab the early advantage nonetheless. She led comfortably through fractions of :22.53 and :45.97, and ran her five rivals off their heels in the stretch to earn her diploma by 4 3/4 lengths. Favored Back Channel (Liam’s Map) was second. Progeny in the pipeline for Comic Marvel include: the unraced 2-year-old filly Rubinette (Tapit); a yearling colt by American Pharoah; and a colt by Quality Road of this year. The half-sister to talented G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix du Moulin heroine Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat) was bred to Tapit for 2021. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $34,650. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

3rd-Santa Anita, $55,000, Msw, 10-2, 2yo, 1m, 1:38, ft, neck. HOT ROD CHARLIE (c, 2, Oxbow--Indian Miss, by Indian Charlie), a half-brother to last year’s GI Breeders Cup Sprint and Eclipse Award winner Mitole (Eskendereya), Ch. Male Sprinter, MGISW, $3,104,910, had gone favored in each of his three starts to date, including when third to last weekend’s GI American Pharoah S. upsetter Get Her Number (Dialed In) in a Del Mar turf sprint Aug. 1. Adding blinkers and returning to dirt off a fifth going two turns over the Jimmy Durante turf course Sept. 7, the 3-1 second choice stalked odds-on Parnelli (Quality Road) through pedestrian splits, poked a head in front a furlong from home and outdueled the chalk to win by a head. It was a gap of 16 1/2 lengths to Bolu (Cinco Charlie) in third. Indian Miss, a half-sister to GSW Live Lively (Medaglia d’Oro), is the dam of a yearling Into Mischief filly and returned to the boom sire this past breeding season. 7th-Belmont, $51,000, (R), Msw, 10-2, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.80, ft, 1 1/2 lengths. MALIBU LUNA (f, 2, Orb--Super Flash, by Afleet Alex), a $17,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, got it done at third asking in this spot reserved for horses that sold or RNA’d for $45,000 or less in their most recent sale. A respectable fourth on debut at 22-1 Aug. 2, she was second as the 4-5 chalk in a similar spot to this 11 days later at Saratoga. Outprinted in fifth through fractions of :22.83 and :46.62 here, the 9-5 favorite began to launch approaching the quarter pole, came into the stretch five wide and kicked home to reel in the pacemaking Lutescoot N Boogie (Midnight Lute) by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner’s dam had colts by Chitu in 2019 and 2020 and was bred back to Valiant Minister. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $44,370. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.
