FASIG-TIPTON

MIDLANTIC SALE ‘A WIN’

by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - With action building throughout the day, the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale concluded with a bevy of six-figure transactions Tuesday and statistics nearly on par with the 2019 auction in Timonium.

“Overall, it was a very, very solid sale statistically,” Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. said at the close of business Tuesday evening. “The average is virtually identical to last year and the median is identical to last year. The RNA rate overall is just slightly over 20%. The gross is up significantly because of the bigger catalogue. Under the circumstances with COVID-19 and its impact on 2020, we’d have to say the sale was a tremendous success in terms of being able to accomplish similar results to last year and it was a pretty good year last year. We have been able to maintain the status quo, which I think is a win in the world we are living in right now.”

In all, 379 yearlings grossed $9,161,200 during the two-day auction for an average of $24,172 and a median of $14,000. With 105 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 21.7%.

The 2020 auction opened with an offering of New York-breds, leading to a larger catalogue than the 2019 sale which saw 300 yearlings gross $7,275,900. The 2019 average was $24,253 and the median was $14,000. The buy-back rate was 23.3%.

KEENELAND CATALOGS 3,777 HORSES FOR NOVEMBER BREEDING STOCK SALE

Keeneland has cataloged 3,777 horses for the 2020 November Breeding Stock Sale, which opens Monday, Nov. 9, two days after Keeneland hosts the Breeders’ Cup World Championships for the second time. Buyers will be able to participate in the auction remotely through online and telephone bidding options successfully introduced at the September Yearling Sale, while the new bidding location at the Show Barn next to the Sales Pavilion again will be available to allow for proper social distancing. Keeneland’s COVID-19 protocols for the November Sale will be similar to those used for the September Sale.

For the November Sale, a total of 1,832 broodmares and broodmare prospects, 1,404 weanlings, 531 horses of racing age and 10 stallions have been cataloged. Keeneland will continue to accept supplemental entries for the premier Book 1 and for the horses of racing age segment of the sale.

GI Juddmonte Spinster S. winner Valiance (Tapit) will be offered at the Nov. 8 Fasig-Tipton November Sale after an anticipated start in the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Distaff Nov. 7.

A nominating committee--responsible for selecting members of the board of directors of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA), as well as members of its Anti-doping and Medication Control and Racetrack Safety committees--has been formed through the efforts of leading Thoroughbred industry stakeholders.

The first foals from versatile Grade I winner Catholic Boy will be arriving in just a few months. Walker Hancock and trainer Jonathan Thomas speak on the son of More than Ready.
A colt by Gun Runner attracted the 2020 auction’s highest bid when selling Tuesday for $270,000 to Danzel Brendemuehl and Robert Lambe. The yearling was consigned by Becky Davis.
“T think it’s like a lot of the sales recently,” Davis said of the market in Timonium. “The really top horses are going to bring the prices and the middle horses are going to suffer. I have some middle horses that suffered, but I have also been pleasantly surprised with a couple of the prices, too. I had some that didn’t get a whole lot of action who sold well to local people and then these couple of strong Kentucky sires got everyone on them.”
Three horses sold for over $200,000 and 11 brought six figures over the two 2020 sessions.
The top price at the 2019 Midlantic sale was $190,000 and that colt was one of 11 to bring six figures at the two-day auction.
“The market is still not easy. When there is a median of $14,000, nobody who sells a horse for $14,000 or less is making any money, we all know that,” Browning said. “But it’s not significantly different, if much different at all, from this marketplace last year.”
Browning said the middle market seems to have been less affected by the polarization in sales results.
“The later books at Keeneland seemed to have a little more feel of 2019 than the earlier books,” Browning said. “And we have seen it in some of the other regional markets that have held up reasonably well. There is still polarization, but the gap because of the polarization and the diminishing of a few major buyers is certainly a lot less when the top is $250,000 or $300,000. But all in all, we were very encouraged with the results. It was something to continue to build on in this marketplace, for both the yearling and 2-year-old sales, and for the overall marketplace.”

Gun Runner Colt to Brendemuehl, Lambe
A colt from the first crop of champion Gun Runner will be targeted at next year’s Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream sale after Danzel Brendemuehl, bidding out back alongside Robert Lambe, signed the ticket at $270,000 to acquire the chestnut yearling (hip 371) Tuesday in Timonium.
“We saw him yesterday early and as soon as we saw him, we knew we wanted him,” Brendemuehl said. “We knew we were going to have to stretch.”
The yearling is out of Stormy Tak (Stormy Atlantic), a daughter of multiple Grade I-winner Lady Tak (Mutakddim) and a half-sister to the dam of this year’s GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. winner Volatile (Violence). He was consigned by Becky Davis on behalf of breeder Jon Marshall, who purchased Stormy Tak for $90,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton February sale.
ALL EYES ON KEENELAND

This November, the entire world will look toward the celebrated grounds of Keeneland. Home of the 2020 Breeders' Cup World Championships, Keeneland is the epicenter of racing and sales this fall. The Keeneland November Sale is poised to deliver extraordinary opportunity, showcasing outstanding depth of offerings and rare jewels of the highest class and quality.
“We are extremely happy with that result,” said Davis. “We didn’t have a reserve. This is a new client for me, so it’s nice to have a new client do that well. We were hoping to get around $50,000, but Gun Runner has jumped up and there was a lot of hype about him. He’s a super athletic horse, so he caught a lot of attention. He really got on everybody’s short list because of the way he was showing himself.”

Of the yearling’s appeal, Brendemuehl said, “He looks fast and he’s a Gun Runner. We loved him and all day we’ve been waiting for him. We were going to buy the Nyquist (hip 21) privately when he was bought back [Monday], but we knew we had to wait for this one. We saved our bullets. He’ll go to the Miami sale and we’ll see what happens.”

Lambe and Brendemuehl teamed up for pinhooking success in Timonium in June when selling a colt by Not This Time for $650,000 at the Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale. They had partnered to acquire the colt for $40,000 at the Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale in 2019.

Through Davis’s consignment, Marshall offered a filly by Gun Runner later in Tuesday’s session, but the Pennsylvania-based breeder bought the filly (hip 553) back on a final bid of $250,000.

Beaver Gets His Flatter Colt

Nick Beaver of Bell Gable Stables came to the Midlantic Fall sale with his eye on one horse and the Maryland breeder came away with the colt, a son of Flatter, for $250,000 Tuesday in Timonium.

“We came specifically for this horse and he’s the only one we bid on,” Beaver said after signing the ticket on hip 451. “I think he was the best horse in the sale.”

Cont. p5
The yearling, bred by Richard Golden’s Sycamore Hall Thoroughbreds, is out of Apple Cider (More Than Ready). Out of multiple graded winner Who Did It and Run (Polish Numbers), the mare is a half-sister to multiple stakes winner and graded placed Giant Run (Giant’s Causeway). The colt was consigned by Northview Stallion Station.

“My wife [Delora] and I have had our eye on him for a couple of weeks now,” Beaver said of the yearling. “We know the guys at Northview very well. We live in Chesapeake City, we actually live right next door to Northview Stallions, so we are one big family.”

Of the yearling’s final price, Beaver said, “I wasn’t surprised, especially after seeing how many people had looked at him. He was showing well back there.”

The yearling’s half-sister by Twirling Candy was purchased by bloodstock agent Dennis O’Neill for $270,000 at this year’s Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale.

Bell Gable Stable has about 19 horses in training, as well as six broodmares. Plans for the operation’s newest acquisition are still to be determined.

“We are going to send him to Delaware initially to get him Delaware-certified,” Beaver said. “We’ll keep him in the Midatlantic and from there, we’re not sure yet. Obviously he is Maryland-bred, but not Maryland-sired, so he has a lot of different things we can do with him.”

Repole, Viola Team for Street Sense Colt

High-power New York owners Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola, very active at the Kentucky yearling sales last month, continued their fall buying spree when bloodstock agent Jacob West signed the ticket at $240,000 to acquire a colt by Street Sense (hip 383) for the partnership Tuesday at Fasig-Tipton.

“It was quite a team effort picking him out,” West said. “[Repole bloodstock advisors] Eddie Rosen and Jim Martin and [Viola’s St Elias advisor] Rory Babich, we all loved him. Mike and Vinnie got behind us and let us do our job and we secured what we think is a beautiful-looking colt. He has a Classic pedigree and that’s what they are looking for.”

Bred by the late Robert Manfuso and Katherine Voss and consigned by Voss’s Chanceland Farm, the bay colt is out of Tanca (Polish Numbers) and is a half-brother to stakes winners Cordmaker (Curlin), Las Setas (Seville-Ger) and Corvus (Dance with Ravens).

West has been walking the Midlantic sales grounds for the last few days, but was making his first purchase when signing for hip 383.

“We traveled all the way to Maryland to buy him,” West said. “This is the first one I bought. We bid on some New York-breds earlier and in fairness they were pretty strong. We had numbers in our mind and they went past those numbers. So we saved our pennies for this one.”

Repole and Viola partnered to purchase 15 yearlings for $6,380,000 at the Keeneland September sale and a further two at the Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase.

“They are taking advantage of a market that might be a little bit soft,” West said. “They and their families are diehard fans of the game and they want to be supportive of the game. We got outbid on more horses than we bought in September, so they supported the market tremendously and we bid on a couple earlier in this sale and got outrun. They are good supporters of the game.”

Crow Makes Most of Maryland Trip

During the early weeks of October in recent years, Liz Crow has been shopping at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, but with travel restrictions in place due to the global pandemic, the bloodstock agent skipped the English trip and was busy buying in Timonium this week instead. Crow made her highest purchase of the two-day Midlantic Fall Yearling Sale going to $135,000 to acquire a filly by Declaration of War (hip 265) from the Paramount Sales consignment Tuesday.

“She will go to the races,” Crow said of the yearling. “I don’t know where yet, but Paul Sharp is going to break her. I thought she was a really pretty filly with a nice page. There aren’t a lot like that here. I thought she stood out.”

Bred in Pennsylvania by Equivine Farm, the dark bay filly is out of Newstouse (Unbridled’s Song) and is a half-sister to multiple stakes winner Newstome (Goldencents). Crow signed the ticket on five yearlings at the two-day Midlantic auction for a total of $310,000.

“I am usually at Tattersalls and I’m really sad not to be there, but I thought with the quarantine situation with COVID it would just be too hard to get over there,” Crow explained. “So, I am here instead. There are some nice horses here and we are getting some stuff bought for some clients to race regionally.”

Of the market in Maryland, Crow added, “It’s competitive for the right horses. There are definitely some bargain opportunities here, but I think the really nice horses are bringing plenty of money.”

The November Sale catalog is online on Keeneland.com. Print catalogs will be mailed Oct. 19. The November Sale will span 10 sessions, two fewer than in 2019. Book 1 will be sold Monday, Nov. 9 beginning at noon ET. A total of 244 horses are cataloged. All remaining sessions begin at 10 a.m., with Books 2-6 being offered Tuesday, Nov. 10 through Wednesday, Nov. 18. Horses of racing age highlight sessions on Monday, Nov. 16 and Tuesday, Nov. 17. They represent such leading consignors as ELiTE, Lane’s End, Paramount Sales, Taylor Made Sales Agency and WinStar Farm. Keeneland will livestream the entire November Sale at www.keeneland.com.

“The November Sale is a globally important source of premium bloodstock, and the Breeders’ Cup at Keeneland immediately beforehand will only heighten the excitement surrounding the sale,” Keeneland President-Elect and Interim Head of Sales Shannon Arvin said. “This year’s catalog features a number of unique offerings, led by stakes-winning fillies, among them ones scheduled to compete in the Breeders’ Cup, and stakes-producing mares in foal to leading sires. Weanlings are another important segment of the November Sale, and we are especially excited to see members of the first crop of foals by undefeated 2018 Triple Crown winner Justify. Meanwhile, the portion of the sale dedicated to horses of racing age has proven very popular with trainers.”

HERE’S WHY I PLEDGED

credit: Sarah Andrew

“First and foremost, it’s paramount that we take care of horses not only during their racing careers, but, just as importantly, after their racing careers are over. It’s comforting as a trainer and for my owners to know that once these horses’ racing careers are finished, they have a happy and healthy life.”

SPINSTER WINNER VALIANCE TO FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER

Sunday’s GI Juddmonte Spinster S. winner Valiance (Tapit–Last Full Measure, by Empire Maker) will be offered at the Nov. 8 Fasig-Tipton November Sale after an anticipated start in the GI Longines Breeders’ Cup Distaff Nov. 7. She will go through the ring as a racing or broodmare prospect consigned by Meg Levy’s Bluewater Sales. A Todd Pletcher trainee for the partnership of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Martin S. Schwartz and CHC Inc., Valiance is riding a three-race win streak into the Breeders’ Cup. She came into the Spinster off a score in Monmouth’s Eatontown S. Aug. 29, which had followed an allowance/optional claimer win on the turf at Colonial Downs July 28. She also won the Open Mind S. on the Monmouth turf last year as a 3-year-old. Valiance goes into the Breeders’ Cup with an 8-6-0-0 record and earnings of $469,575.

“IT is always exciting to offer fillies in top current form,” said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. “A daughter of Tapit with a fantastic pedigree will be highly desirable to the sport’s leading buyers and owners.”

Valiance is out of the GI Madison S. winner Last Full Measure, who hammered to China Horse Club for $1.5 million while in foal to War Front at the 2014 Keeneland November sale. Valiance’s granddam, Lazy Slusan (Slewvescent), was a dual Grade I winner in 2001. The Spinster winner previously sold for $650,000 as a yearling at the 2017 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale to Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Marty Schwartz.

“She’s been a joy to be associated with, taking us to the top of the mountain,” said Eclipse Thoroughbred’s Aron Wellman. “Valiance is regally bred, a gorgeous physical, and she’s a top-shelf performer on dirt and turf. We are hoping for another positive result in the Breeders’ Cup Distaff and to then showcase her at the historic Newtown Paddocks.”

TDN RISING STAR AUNT PEARL HIGHLIGHTS

Jessamine

TDN Rising Star Aunt Pearl (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) leapfrogs over her conditions and takes on graded company for the first time in Wednesday’s GII JP Morgan Chase Jessamine S. at Keeneland, a ‘Win and You’re In’ event for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Sent straight to the front in her unveiling going a mile at Churchill Downs Sept. 1, the Irish-bred was never headed, scoring by an emphatic five lengths.

The 280,000gns TATOCT was part of a European venture put together by BSW/Crow Bloodstock's Brad Weisbord and Liz Crow. She was one of nine fillies purchased for this group of five American owners, Michael Dubb, Madaket Stables LLC, Peter Deutsch, Michael E. Kisber and The Elkstone Group.

Standing in her way is undefeated Spanish Loveaffair (Karakontie {Jpn}), the sole black-type winner in the 11-horse field of 2-year-old fillies. Airing by 11 lengths in her career bow while negotiating eight furlongs at Gulfstream July 23, the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Michael Hernon and Gary Barber-owned filly made it two straight with a 1 1/4-length score in the Sharp Susan S. over that course and distance Aug. 29.

Also lining up will be undefeated first-out winners Batyah (Pioneerof the Nile), Momentous Miss (Kantahros), Ingrassia (Medaglia d’Oro), Arm Candy (Twirling Candy), Navratilova (Medaglia d’Oro) and Gambling Cat (Kitten’s Joy).

NOMINATING COMMITTEE FORMED TO SELECT HISA BOARD MEMBERS

A nominating committee—responsible for selecting members of the board of directors of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA), as well as members of its Anti-doping and Medication Control and Racetrack Safety committees—has been formed through the efforts of leading Thoroughbred industry stakeholders, including Breeders’ Cup, Churchill Downs Incorporated, Keeneland Association, and The Jockey Club. HISA will be an independent, non-governmental regulatory body, run by an independent board, responsible for improving current regulations and bringing a new level of transparency to Thoroughbred racing. The nominating committee is made up of seven independent members, many from outside of racing. Len Coleman, the former president of baseball’s National League, and Dr. Nancy Cox, the vice president for Land Grant Engagement and the dean of the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment at the University of Kentucky, will serve as co-chairs. The other members include Katrina Adams, the immediate past president of the United States Tennis Association; Dr. Jerry Black, a visiting professor at Texas Tech School of Veterinary Medicine and an emeritus professor and Wagonhound Land and Livestock chair in Equine Sciences at Colorado State University, as well as the former president of the American Association of Equine Practitioners and former chair of the board of trustees of the American Horse Council; Gen. Joseph Dunford, the former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the nation’s highest-ranking military officer, and the former principal military advisor to the president, Secretary of Defense, and National Security Council; Frank Keating, the former governor of Oklahoma; and Ken Schanzer, retired president and former chief operating officer of NBC Sports. The seven nominating committee members will develop a list of candidates to comprise HISA’s board and its standing committees.

Eventually, nine members will be selected for the HISA board of directors, five of whom will be selected from outside the equine industry. Four members will be selected as representatives of various equine constituencies. The Anti-Doping and Medication Control standing committee and the Racetrack Safety standing committee will each be comprised of seven members. For both committees, the majority of the members will be independent and selected from outside the equine industry. A minority will be industry members.

“The HISA will ensure that Thoroughbred racing is conducted with the highest integrity and safety standards under the aegis of the bill’s established authority,” stated Co-Chair Coleman. “With this goal in mind, the aggregate expertise of the board of the authority and its standing committees must span a wide range of areas from equine health and track management to regulation and lab testing standards.”

“The nominating committee recognizes our responsibility to select the most qualified and dedicated individuals to comprise the board of the authority and its standing committees,” said Co-Chair Cox. “We are committed to this critical task and to the betterment of racing.”

The HISA, introduced by Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) and U.S. Senators Kirsten Gillibrand (D-NY), Martha McSally (R-AZ), and Dianne Feinstein (D-CA) in September, will focus on the integrity of Thoroughbred racing and the safety of horses and jockeys by requiring national, uniform safety standards. Identical legislation was introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives by U.S. Congressmen Andy Barr (KY-06) and Paul Tonko (NY-20). It was passed in the House Sept. 29.
MORE KY OUTFITS TO WINTER AT TURFWAY DESPITE MUTED PURSE PROJECTIONS

by T.D. Thornton

Turfway Park, currently in the midst of being demolished and rebuilt under new corporate ownership, is projecting 2,400 applications for 900 stalls for the upcoming 52-date combined holiday, winter, and spring meets that will open Dec. 2.

But even though a larger-than-usual number of Kentucky racing outfits are expected to remain at Turfway for the winter instead of shipping out to warmer-climate race meets, track officials told members of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund (KTDF) advisory committee during an Oct. 6 video meeting that purse expectations should be tempered because of decreased earnings projections, the COVID-19 pandemic, and ongoing construction work that will leave the facility without a grandstand for the entirety of its winter/spring racing season that runs through March.

It was one year ago this week that Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), announced its agreement to buy Turfway and invest $200 million in acquisitions and reconstruction costs that include a new Tapeta synthetic racing surface, a new grandstand and clubhouse, and an off-site wagering facility 12 miles to the northeast in Newport that will house simulcasting and historical horse racing (HHR) gaming machines.

Tom Minneci, the senior director of finance at CDI, told the KTDF board Tuesday that "we're trying to get as close as we can to what we offered last year" in daily average purses at Turfway.

That would put the baseline maiden special weight purses in the ballpark of $46,000-$48,000 per race.

However, Bill Landes III, the chairman of the KTDF advisory committee, who represents the Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (KTOB) on the board, cautioned to journalists reporting on the meeting: "I don't know how actively I would report on that number" until more precise financial figures and a condition book are provided by CDI and Turfway officials.

J. David Richardson, who also represents the KTOB on the KTDF advisory committee, noted that "if you just listen to the rumble...there's a big feeling that this is going to be a lot different than last year," with numerous outfits making plans to stay in Kentucky for the winter.

But, Richardson added, "I think there are some people whose expectations may be a little out of line with reality" considering all of the unknowns in the purse equation.

Minneci explained, "We are projecting lower earnings this year because of the funding [that Turfway received] last year from [CDI-owned] Derby City Gaming. But we will get funding from the new facility there in Newport. So the projected daily earnings are just under $41,000. Last year, with the funding from Derby City Gaming, the daily earnings were just north of $64,000."

Turfway's current balance of KTDF funding is zero, Minneci said. The track requested between $1.9 and $2.4 million from the KTDF, and the board unanimously approved that request to be recommended to the full Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) for final approval at its Oct. 20 meeting.

The KTDF is funded by three-quarters of 1% of all money wagered on both live Thoroughbred races and HHR gaming, plus 2% of all money wagered on Thoroughbred races via inter-track wagering and whole-card simulcasting.

The KTDF board on Tuesday did not address last week's Kentucky State Supreme Court opinion regarding the apparent illegality of HHR that got remanded back to a lower court. HHR in Kentucky raked in $2.2 billion in revenues during the most recent fiscal year, and that form of gaming contributes tens of millions of dollars annually to purses.

Nevertheless, Turfway general manager Chip Bach said his track is forging ahead with plans for the upcoming racing season. He outlined the timing of operations and disclosed a few tweaks that are in the pipeline to try and improve both the product and the amenities.

Turfway's stabling opens Nov. 1, with training starting Nov. 3. The December "holiday" meet will consist of 13 programs, and Bach said Turfway has a request pending with the KHRC to switch its schedule from night racing on Wednesdays-Saturdays to nights on just Thursdays and Fridays and afternoons on Saturdays and Sundays.

The 39-date 2021 winter/spring meet picks up in January and will run through March (dates to be approved).

"Obviously, we will not have a grandstand," Bach said. "We will have space for wagering...for the owners and trainers that come to see their horses run. But we will not have any public space available. And at the present, we're working on those temporary structures and systems to conduct a live race meet, [like] judges' booths [and] photo-finish" facilities.

Bach added that, "We will be open at Newport Racing and Gaming, so we will have a [place to generate the] live handle" that helps to fund the KTDF.

"The Tapeta is in and ready to go," Bach said. "There are a couple of things our maintenance team has to do in terms of turning it over every couple of weeks, but it's ready to go right now. It's beautiful. We're excited. The Polytrack, of course, was worn out, and we're really excited to see how this performs."

Turfway, despite its name, has never had a turf course. But CDI has designed plans to add an inner, seven-furlong dirt track at a later date if the gaming corporation wants to.

"As the new facility is being built, we are taking into consideration the ability to put a dirt track on the inside [of the Tapeta track]," Bach said. "I do not believe that is being contemplated for the first full year that we are open, but we will have the ability to create that dirt track. The lighting and all the electrical work is being designed to not only support the Tapeta one-mile track, but also a seven-eighths dirt track should we move forward with it."

Marty Maline, the executive director of the Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association, said most outfits are looking forward to wintering at Turfway, although he added that some long-time stables from Ohio that have traditionally supported winter racing in Kentucky could be out of luck in terms of getting stalls.

"There's a lot of excitement. A lot of people are deciding either to keep a string here or [stay] exclusively here," Maline said. "I know some of those Belterra guys who have been there through thick and thin will probably be jettisoned off, I would imagine, because there are some very strong outfits that are contemplating staying all winter."

Also at Tuesday's KTDF board meeting, Minneci told the board that Churchill Downs is "hoping to have spectators here at the track, depending what happens with COVID-19 and positivity rates" during its 24-date, Oct. 25-Nov. 29 meet. Ben Huffman, the director of racing at Churchill, said, "I'm really close to finalizing the condition book, probably by [Tuesday] evening or [Wednesday]. We're trying to get the MSW [purse] here for the fall meet somewhere between $80,000 and $85,000."

The board unanimously approved $3 to $3.5 million in KTDF funding for Churchill's fall meet, pending the subsequent finalization by the KHRC.
Rosie Napravnik will be among the riders featured | Reed Palmer

Armstrong continued, "These female jockeys fought so hard to not only raise the glass ceiling in their sport but to break through it. We are proud to tell their stories."

The “Right to Ride” exhibit runs through August 2021. A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held Oct. 16 at 12 p.m. ET in front of the exhibit, with legendary female jockeys on hand to help celebrate. For more information, visit DerbyMuseum.org.

ENTRIES OPEN FOR NEW VOCATIONS VIRTUAL HORSE SHOW

With its annual in-person charity horse show cancelled due to COVID-19, New Vocations opened entries for its first All-Thoroughbred Virtual Horse Show Tuesday. Exhibitors from all over the country can compete by filming their rides at any location and uploading the videos for judging in the virtual show.

“This has definitely been a challenging year with all of our live events being cancelled, so we are excited to be able to launch the New Vocations All-Thoroughbred Virtual Horse Show,” said New Vocations Thoroughbred Program Director Anna Ford. “We were very fortunate that the majority of our annual horse show sponsors graciously agreed to carry over to the virtual show. This kind gesture allows us to move forward with raising much-needed funds for our racehorse aftercare efforts while providing a way for Thoroughbreds to compete in many different disciplines.”

For more information, including classes available, closing dates, and results, visit New Vocations.

MAKER WINS PREAKNESS WEEKEND TRAINER BONUS

Mike Maker edged defending champion Brad Cox and two-time winner Steve Asmussen to claim the top prize in the Maryland Jockey Club’s $100,000 Sentient Jet Trainer Bonus offered to horsemen for their participation in stakes races over Preakness weekend, Oct. 1-3, at Pimlico Race Course.

Maker led the way with 43 points, three more than Cox and Asmussen, to earn a $50,000 bonus. Maker registered wins with 2-year-old colt Catman (Kitten’s Joy) in the Laurel Futurity S. and 3-year-old filly Evil Lyn (Wicked Strong) in the S. He also ran second and third with Somelikeithotbrown (Big Brown) and Hembree (Proud Citizen) in the GII Dinner Party S., and third in the GIII Chick Lang S. with Relentless Dancer (Midshipman).

Cox and Asmussen tied for second with 40 points apiece, each taking home $18,500, Graham Motion came in fourth with 37 points, earning a $7,000 bonus, and Claudio Gonzalez rounded out the top five with 29 points, good for a $4,000 bonus.

EQUINE ANALYSIS SYSTEMS PROMOTES RACHEL MARTELL TO OPERATIONS MANAGER

Equine Analysis Systems has promoted Rachel Martell to Operations Manager. In the role, Martell will help maximize day-to-day efficiency in all aspects of operations and improve organizational processes. A familiar face to many consignors and farm managers in the industry, she will continue in her managerial roles in the technical department and maintain a presence at the major sales.

APP UPDATE

For those subscribers who have been having problems opening the TDN in the app, there is now an update in the App Store. Please update your app, which will fix the bug.
“Rachel joined our team in 2015 and has grown to exceed all reasonable expectations,” said Equine Analysis President and Founder Dr. David Lambert. “Her ambition and undeniable work ethic are valued assets to us all at Equine Analysis.”

Originally from Cleveland, OH, Martell grew up surrounded by sport horses. She moved to Lexington, KY to attend the University of Kentucky and took an internship position with Equine Analysis, assisting with both technical and office tasks. Upon graduation, she earned a full-time position with the company as a veterinary assistant. She was promoted to Senior Technician in 2019, helping coordinate farm visits, training new staff, and streamlining technical procedures.

TEMECULA FALL SERIES FEES WAIVED FOR OTTBS

Nilforushan Equisport Events (NEE) has waived the entry fee for off-the-track Thoroughbreds (OTTB) at the Temecula Valley National Fall Series. Held at Galway Downs in Temecula, California, the inaugural event will feature two back-to-back weeks in multiple rings from Nov. 11-15 and Nov. 18-22. To be eligible, OTTBs must be tattooed, and young horses must be six years old or younger. Entry fees up to eight classes will be waived. Entries may be submitted www.showgroundslive.com and www.equestrianconnect.com.

View the prize list and class schedules here.

In addition to the hunter and jumper competition, the horse show will also be the host of the 2020 CPHA Foundation West Coast Equestrians (WCE) Medal Final, which will take place during the first week of the Temecula Valley National Fall Series.

WEDNESDAY’S RACING INSIGHTS:
By Christie DeBernardis
Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

PRICEY NOT THIS TIME DEBUTS AT DELAWARE
7th-DEL, $40K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 4:15p.m.
Sonata Stable’s ARZAK (Not This Time) makes his career bow in this spot for Mike Trombetta. They purchased the chestnut for $575,000 at the delayed OBS April Sale after he breezed in :10 flat. His dam Delightful Melody (Tapit) is a daughter of MGSW & MGISP Bending Strings (American Chance).

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
1--THIN WHITE DUKE, 121, g, 2, by Dominus
1st Dam: Aberdeen Alley, by Distorted Humor
2nd Dam: Silly Miss, by Pine Bluff

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

7th-Parx Racing, $41,250, Msw, 10-6, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.37, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.

AEGEAN SEA (f, 2, Strong Mandate--Santorini Moon, by Malibu Moon) finished fourth on debut here July 29 and was second next out in state-bred company at this venue Sept. 7. Installed as the 3-1 favorite, the bay pressed from second through a quick first quarter. Overtaking her foe on the backstretch run, the bay rolled clear in the lane to graduate by 4 1/2 lengths over Excitable Lady (Uncle Lino). Santorini Moon had a Midnight Lute colt in 2020 and was bred back to Tarpy's Surprise. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $36,400. [Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.]

O-Ten Strike Racing; B-Marshall Gramm & Clay Sanders (PA); T-Juan Carlos Guerrero.

T D DANCE (c, 2, Can the Man--Sheza Sweet Lemon, by Lemon Drop Kid), given a 5-2 chance in this career bow, broke alertly from the far outside post in this 11-horse affair and kept tabs on a loose leader from second through a :23.97 opening quarter. Sitting on the pacesetter's tail as he slowed down the half to :49.59, T D Dance swept to the front in mid-stretch and extended clear to score by two lengths over Big Blue (Big Blue Kitten). The winner is a half to Kid Perfect (Majesticperfection), GSP, $222,905. Sales history: $27,000 Ylg '19 FTKJUL; $75,000 2yo '20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $18,600. KINGMAN BROTHER TO GALILEO GOLD LEADS BOOK 1 OPENER

Lot 174, the Kingman half-brother to Galileo Gold bought for 2.7-million gns | Tattersals

By Emma Berry and Alayna Cullen

NEWMARKET, UK—Any doubts as to the participation of some of the leading buyers at Tattersalls’s flagship October Sale were largely dispelled as Book 1 got underway on Tuesday with four seven-figure lots and the most expensive yearling sold in Europe or North America this year. That honour went to the sole, emotional offering from Colin Murfitt’s local Pantile Stud (lot 174) in the Kingman (GB) half-brother to 2000 Guineas and G1 St James’s Palace winner Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}), who sold for 2.7-million gns to Oliver St Lawrence acting on behalf of Fawzi Nass and Bahraini interests. The Kingman colt will be trained by Roger Varian.

“He didn’t put a foot wrong from the moment he was born,” said Bo Hicks-Little, stud manager for breeder Colin Murfitt’s Pantile Stud. “He’s just been a superstar and he’s so straightforward. He’s not just a great specimen physically but mentally he’s so professional. He’s been very easy to look after. To me he’s just ‘Goofy’, it was a Disney naming theme that year. I’m going to go back to the stable to see him now.”

The colt’s dam Galicuix (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), a half-sister to G1 King’s Stand S. winner Goldream (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), had herself been bought by Murfitt from the same ring back in 2013 for just 8,000gns. Cont. p2

ARC HERO SOTTSASS RETIRED TO COOLMORE STUD

2020 G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}–Starlet’s Sister {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) has been retired and will take up stallion duties at Coolmore Stud in Ireland, owner Peter Brant announced on Tuesday. A colourbearer for Brant’s White Birch Farm initially, with Coolmore buying a 50% interest this year, the 2019 French highweight’s fee will be announced later.

“A world champion at three and now an Arc winner at four, I have decided to retire Sottsass after what he has achieved,” said Brant. “He has retired sound and right at the top of his game—this is important to me. I am looking forward to breeding some of my best mares to him. Coolmore purchased 50% of him earlier in the year and he will stand there for 2021.” Cont. p9

A non-winner herself, she hit the bullseye with her first foal, Galileo Gold, and has produced five winners from her five runners to date. She did not produce a foal in 2020 but is back in foal to Too Darn Hot (GB). The Kingman colt was consigned for Pantile Stud by Houghton Bloodstock.

In what felt a strong market throughout the first session of Book 1, figures did predictably take a dip from last year’s buoyant trade but Sheikh Mohammed’s bullish return to the yearling sales accounted for approximately a quarter of the day’s turnover of 27,250,000gns, which was down by 22% on 2019. The clearance rate held up respectably for an elite sale at 73%—or 124 sold from 158 yearlings offered. The average was down 14% at 223,790gns and the median fell by 33% to 120,000gns.

Anthony Stroud signed for eight lots on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed for a total of 7.22 million gns, including three of the four seven-figure lots of the session.

Attraction (GB)’s five yearlings to have been offered at the Tattersalls October Sale to date have sold for a total of 4,685,000gns.

Frankel (GB) had nine yearlings sell through the first session for an average of 590,000gns.

Mike Ryan purchased five yearlings (four fillies & one colt) totaling 970,000gns. Lot 19 Frankel filly, Lot 38 Frankel filly, Lot 84 Siyouni filly, Lot 86 Dark Angel filly, Lot 155 Almanzor colt.

Highland Reel (Ire) achieved the highest price for a first-season sire when the half-brother to Palace Pier (GB) sold for 320,000gns. Another son of Galileo (Ire), Churchill (Ire), was the leading first-season sire on day one by average with three or more sold, with seven sold at an average price of 100,286gns. Cont. p3
Floors Stud The Main Attraction

The name Godolphin appeared alongside three lots at Arqana’s Select Sale last month and was absent entirely from the Goffs Orby Sale, Keeneland September and Fasig-Tipton’s Selected Yearlings Showcase but Sheikh Mohammed returned with intent to Tattersalls October Book 1, with Anthony Stroud signing for eight lots on his behalf for a total of 7.22 million gns, including three of the four seven-figure lots of the session.

Two of those yearlings hailed from Floors Stud, whose star broodmare Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) was upstaged only by her own daughter when the Dubawi (Ire) colt out of Grade III-placed Cushion (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) elicited a duel between his co-breeder Coolmore and Anthony Stroud. With both interested parties based outside the ring, MV Magnier made his last play at 2-millions gns before the hammer came down on lot 109 in Stroud’s favour at 2.1-million gns.

Earlier in the session, Stroud had outbid Andrew Balding for Attraction’s colt by Frankel (GB), who was the first yearling of the week to breach the million mark at 1.1-million gns. Sold as lot 41, the colt is a full-brother to Elarqam (GB) and half-brother to dual winner Maydanny (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), each of whom also sold for seven-figure sums to Shadwell as yearlings in the same ring.

“I wish Guy was here,” said Floors Stud owner Virginia, Duchess of Roxburghe, of her late husband Guy Innes-Ker, the 10th Duke of Roxburghe, who died in August 2019. He has been succeeded in the dukedom by his son Charles, while younger son George now assists his mother in the running of the stud.

Everyone knows the story of Attraction and we are very emotionally attached to her. This is really my husband’s legacy. He adored the Dubawi colt as a foal so I hope he’s watching from upstairs."

Attraction was famously the filly who was too crooked to go to the yearling sales herself but she was a star on the track for the Duke of Roxburghe and Mark Johnston, winning the 1000 Guineas in Britain and Ireland as well as the G1 Coronation S., G1 Sun Chariot S. and G1 Matron S. Returned to her birthplace near Kelso she has continued to repay her breeder handsomely, both in the sales ring and on the racecourse, via her eight winning offspring, which include Bearstone Stud stallion Fountain Of Youth (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and G2 York S. winner Elarqam, a 1.6-million gns yearling in 2016.

Cushion, who won twice for John Gosden and was twice Grade 3-placed in America after being transferred to Christophe Clement, raced in partnership for the Duke of Roxburghe and Sue Magnier.

“My son George runs the stud with me, but he has a new job and was not allowed to be here today, which is a real shame,” said the Duchess of Roxburghe. “Ed [Sackville] has been a fantastic support and with Simon Marsh, too, and all the team at Floors has been amazing. Chris [Gillon, stud manager] deserves a special mention. He has produced the horses to perfection, every single one of them. I was so pleased it was him leading up the colt today.”

She continued, “I am thrilled for my late husband who did nothing but dream of Attraction and she has really done us proud. They were two really lovely horses, and they have been since they were foals. My husband always thought they were two of the best he had ever produced and he has been proved right. We wish Anthony Stroud and the team all the success.”

Chris Gillon has managed Floors Stud in the Scottish Borders for eight years and commented after the sale of Attraction’s colt, “It’s absolutely brilliant. We loved him as a foal and he came perfect all the way through his prep. He got down here and everything went so well. Just to see him go through the ring and do that, it’s the icing on the cake.”

He continued, “The late duke saw him as a foal and he loved him and thought he was the best yet that Attraction had produced, but for the colt to come here and do exactly that, the duke will be up there smiling, that’s for sure.” Cont. p4
Golden Touch For Norelands

Harry McCalmont’s decision to buy Fleche d’Or (GB) (Dubai Destination) from her breeder Anthony Oppenheimer has proved to be an incredibly wise one. It wasn’t long before her champion son Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) had improved the pedigree immensely and, though he was famously unsold as a yearling, the mare’s subsequent offspring have been understandably in demand. Last year, her colt by Frankel was the second-top lot of Book 1 when sold to Godolphin for 3.1-million gns. Now named Dhahabi (Ire), he won on debut for Charlie Appleby at Newmarket and has since been listed-placed. This time around the only thing that changed was the price, as Stroud outbid Oliver St Lawrence at 2-million gns to sign for his full-sister (lot 162).

“Once she finishes racing she will be a lovely addition to the broodmare band,” Stroud said. “These sort of fillies rarely come on the market.”

For Norelands Stud manager Matt Gilsenan the result was bittersweet. He said, “I’m slightly disappointed to be honest, as we’d have loved to race her but at that level, in this market and at these times you have to be realistic. It’s very important to the farm to keep everything going. The mare has been absolutely amazing and this filly has been bombproof. She had over 120 shows and a lot of vetting and everyone loved her.”

McCalmont added that Fleche d’Or has a Sea The Stars filly at foot. “I promise she is not coming here next year,” he said. “The mare is back in foal to Kingman.”

McCalmont added, “We’re very pleased to see Sheikh Mohammed here. He saw the filly the other day and I’m very glad he bought her.”

Oakgrove Strikes Again With Dubawi

The cross of Dubawi and Galileo has worked notably well through Group 1 winners Ghaiyyath (Ire) and Night Of Thunder (Ire) and the top lot of the day wasn't the only yearling bred this way to be signed for by Anthony Stroud. Oakgrove Stud's Dubawi (Ire) filly out of the G3 Prix de Psyche winner Be My Gal (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), offered as lot 53 by her breeder John Deer, was another to be added to the list at 525,000gns.

Oakgrove Stud manager David Hilton said, “I think it’s a very strong price in what has been a tricky year for everybody. We’re delighted she has been bought by a great judge and thank you to Sheikh Mohammed. She was probably bigger than you would expect for a typical Dubawi but everything was in proportion and she has a bombproof temperament.”

Oakgrove Stud is responsible for breeding one of Dubawi’s best sons, the treble Group 1 winner Al Kazeem (GB), who has returned to stand at his birthplace and is responsible for Group 1 winner Aspetar (Fr) as well as Deer’s Listed Denford Stud S. winner Saint Lawrence (GB).

Stroud’s busy start to the day also included the purchase of lot 36, from Newsells Park Stud, at 480,000gns. A close relation to G2 Prix Guillaume d’Ornano winner Eminent (Ire), the son of Frankel is out of the young Oasis Dream (GB) mare As Good As Gold from the family which includes Group 1-winning Sadler’s Wells sisters Yesterday (Ire) and Quarter Moon (Ire).

Another Sea The Stars For Miss Yoda Team

Georg Von Opel’s Westerberg operation has been a new name on the buyers’ bench in recent yearling seasons and the owner’s outlay on well-bred fillies with a long-term intent of establishing a broodmare band was rewarded this season with the victory of Miss Yoda (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the G1 Preis der Diana in Von Opel’s native country. Cont. p7

Tom Goff of Blandford Bloodstock, who bought Miss Yoda at the BBAG Yearling Sale, was with Von Opel and the filly’s trainer John Gosden when he signed for another daughter of the Aga Khan Studs stallion.

The filly in question was lot 124, consigned by Camas Park Stud, whose 500,000gns price tag was a significant profit on her foal price of 220,000gns last December when sold by her co-breeder Tinnakill House. Out of the Group 2-winning Acetanango (Ger) mare Diamond Tango (Fr), she is a half-sister to the hardy G2 Doncaster Cup winner Desert Skyline (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and three other black-type performers.

The filly’s sale came two lots after another good result for Camas Park Stud which sold a sister to champion stayer Capri (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for 850,000gns to Jamie McCalmont.

“We bought her for an associated client of ours. She is a really classy filly, a bit immature at the moment but will develop into a beautiful racehorse. She has plenty of residual value as well,” said Kelsey Lupo, who signed the docket for lot 122 on McCalmont’s behalf. “She’s a very nice physical, Galileo is the best stallion in the world and a very good broodmare sire. It was a no-brainer.”

Bred by Camas Park and Lynch Bages from the Anabaa mare Dialafara (Fr), the filly is also a sister to G3 Loughbrown S. winner Cypress Creek (Ire) and to Passion (Ire), who was third in this year’s G1 Irish Oaks.

McCalmont Bloodstock also signed for the leading lot for Coolmore’s first-season sire Highland Reel (Ire), who could hardly have had a more eye-catching Tattersalls yearling debut than the half-brother to Group 1-winning miler Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman (GB)). Offered by Highclere Stud as lot 55, the colt was bred in partnership with Floors Stud and is a son of the unraced Nayef mare Beach Frolic (GB), a half-sister to Group 2 winners Bonfire (GB) (Manduro {Ger}) and Joyviality (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). He was sold for 320,000gns.

Another relative of a recent Group 1 winner to register a good result for Highclere Stud was lot 148, the Zoffany (Ire) half-sister to G1 Commonwealth Cup winner Golden Horde (Ire) (Lethal Force {Ire}). She was bought by MV Magnier for 580,000gns and is also a half to the Listed Pipalong S. victress Exhort (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}).

Frankel In Demand

It was a good day in the ring for Frankel (GB) with another highlight aside from the two millionaire yearlings being the sale of lot 66 from Fittocks Stud to Juddmonte Farms for 450,000gns. Bred on the same cross as Frankel’s leading son Cracksman (GB), the colt is the second foal of Blue Waltz (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), a half-sister to the treble Group/Grade 3 winner Fantasia (GB) (Sadler’s Wells), who has in turn produced this season’s G3 Classic Trial winner Berlin Tango (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

As such a prominent owner-breeder, Juddmonte Farms is a rare name on the buyers’ sheet at yearling sales but its most high-profile purchase of recent years was Arrogate (Unbridled’s Song), the four-time Grade I winner who sadly died earlier this year after three seasons at stud in America, while stud director Simon Mockridge signed for a Kingman (GB) filly at £280,000 at last week’s Goffs Orby Sale.

Frankel had nine yearlings sold through the first session of Book 1 for an average of 590,000gns.

American Presence Well Received

From as early as the second lot in the ring, it was clear that there would again be a strong American influence in Book 1.

Fresh from winning the Arc on Sunday, Peter Brant’s White Birch Farm was represented on the buyers’ sheet via Demi O’Byrne, who signed for Hillwood Stud’s Lope De Vega (Ire) filly out of the listed-placed Yarrow (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) (lot 2) at 220,000gns.

Later in the session, Brant also secured a full-sister to the G3 Prix du Lys winner Volkan Star (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) (lot 89) for 350,000gns. The filly had previously been bought by Yeomanstown Stud for €200,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale and was one of the most profitable pinhooks of the day.

Proven sires were generally the order of the day for Mike Ryan, whose previous Tattersalls October purchases include the Grade I winners Newspaperofrecord (GB) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) and Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)). He signed for four fillies during the first session, including Newells Park Stud’s Siyouni (Fr) daughter of GIII Robert G Dick Memorial S winner Ceisteach (Ire) (New Approach (GB)) (lot 84) at 250,000gns. The quartet was completed by a daughter of Dark Angel (lot 86) and two Frankel fillies (19 and 38). Late in the session, Ryan added a first-crop son of Almanzor (Fr) (lot 155) to the list at 150,000gns.

Ben McElroy had been active at last week’s Goffs Orby Sale for Stonestreet Stables and he signed for four lots at Tattersalls on Tuesday, including lot 22, a colt by Iffraaj (GB) for 250,000gns. The son of the unraced Dansili (GB) half-sister to Group/Grade 1 winners Power (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) and Curvy (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) was a successful pinhook for Luke Barry’s Manister House Stud, who bought him as a foal for 110,000gns from Barronstown Stud.

Barronstown Stud bred this colt and Luke Barry’s Manister House Stud bought him for 110,000gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale last year. He is out of Amjaad (GB) (Dansili (GB)), an unraced half-sister to Grade/Group 1 winners Curvy (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) and Power (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)).

“He was an outstanding horse, if you watch his video or saw him in the flesh,” said Barry. “We bought an outstanding foal and he came back an outstanding horse. In this market anyone is delighted to get profit, but this individual sold himself. When they walk like he does; he looks very forward and is a big forward horse and one to kick on with. We had a lot of interest, he sold himself.”

89  f  Sea The Stars (Ire)  Chicago Dancer (Ire)  350,000

This filly’s full-brother was one of the pinhooks of the 2018 edition of this sale, having been flipped from a €330,000 foal to a 1-million gns yearling. Now named Volkan Star, he won this year’s G3 Prix du Lys for Godolphin. That no doubt helped boost the prospects of his full-sister, who was herself a €200,000 foal, like her brother from the Goffs November Foal Sale. The mare had an Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt this year and was bred back to that Irish National Stud sire.

90  f  Caravaggio  Chicago Girl (Ire)  120,000

This third foal out of the G3 C L Weld Park S. second Chicago Girl (Ire) (Azamour (Ire)) was a €48,000 find by JS Bloodstock at last year’s Goffs November Foal Sale.

Bred by Ecurie des Monceaux in France, the chestnut was knocked down for €340,000 at the 2017 Arqana August Yearling Sale on the bid of Michel Zerolo’s Oceanic Bloodstock for Brant. Put into training with Jean-Claude Rouget, Sottsass broke his maiden at second asking at Clairefontaine and captured the Listed Prix de Suresnes in his second run at three. In only his fifth career start, Sottsass defeated that year’s G1 French Guineas hero Persian King (Ire) (Kingman (GB)) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, setting a new race record last June. The chestnut added a win in the G2 Prix Niel that September, and was a very good third in the 2019 Arc. Cont. p10

Lot: 174 B Colt Kingman (GB) / Galicuix (GB) Consignor: Houghton Bloodstock Purchaser: Oliver St Lawrence Bloodstock Price: 2,700,000 gns

Besides his swansong at ParisLongchamp in 2020, Sottsass also captured the G1 Prix Ganay this term and was a close second in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron. He retires with a mark of 12-6-1-1 and $3,900,437 in earnings.

“Back in 1971, I was working on a film in Paris and was lucky enough to witness Mill Reef win his Arc,” Brant added. “I think it is the ultimate race to win and I couldn’t be more thrilled to have fulfilled a lifelong dream. Sottsass has an incredible turn of foot as he showed when readily disposing of Persian King in the Prix du Jockey Club. He smashed the race record time and knocked nearly a second off the 1m 2 1/2f track record at Chantilly previously held by dual Arc winner Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}). We were concerned that the testing conditions on Sunday might blunt his speed but he overcame them and showed his true greatness.

“Being a half-brother to Sistercharlie who had run second for us in the Prix de Diane, Sottsass was always going to be of interest to us as a yearling and we were delighted when the individual matched up to his pedigree. Being by France’s leading sire Siyouni and out of a daughter of Galileo only added to his appeal. The rest as they say is history as Sistercharlie has gone on to win seven Grade I races in the USA for Chad Brown and Sottsass has proved himself the ultimate champion.

“Jean-Claude Rouget has done a masterful job with Sottsass and it gave me great pleasure to share in his first Arc success.”

Said Rouget, “He’s a good looking horse with a good temperament, a classy horse and goes to stud in the best way after a great win in the Arc. The decision has been made now as they want to protect him for a stallion career and I think it was best not to go to the Breeders’ Cup as the track would have been too sharp for him. He is quite a big horse with a big action. It would have been a risk.”

Added the trainer of the colt’s early career, “I go slowly with my horses. He was promising after he had a bad trip first time out. He won his second race easily. He had a bad race first time out at three and, after he won his listed race easily, he won the Prix du Jockey Club. The Arc was the target this year. It was not easy with COVID-19 to do good planning, but we do it and we did well. I am very happy for him not to run again. He was a very courageous horse.”

The third consecutive group winner and third foal out of Starlet’s Sister, Sottsass follows on the hooves of Eclipse Champion Turf Female Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), who counts a GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf laurel amongst her seven Grade I wins and played bridesmaid in the 2017 G1 Prix de Diane. Cont. p11
Rounding out the trio of GSWs for Starlet’s Sister is My Sister Nat (Fr) (Acclamation (GB)), a GSW in both France and America, who also races for Brant. Sottsass is a half-brother to the 2020 Arqana Deauville Select Yearling Sale topper, a €2,500,000 filly by Dubawi (Ire) purchased by Oliver St Lawrence, as well as €400,000 Arqana August yearling Radiant Child (Ire) (Charm Spirit (Ire)) who is three and a Fastnet Rock (Aus) juvenile colt who went for €700,000 to David Redvers at the same sale in 2019.

Out of GI Del Mar Oaks third Premiere Creation (Fr) (Green Tune), Starlet’s Sister is a full-sister to G3 Prix Cleopatre heroine Leo’s Starlet (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) and a half-sister to SW and MG1SP Anabaa’s Creation (Ire) (Anabaa). Farther back in the pedigree are champions Noalcoholic (Fr) (Nonoalco) and Leonnatus Anteas (Stormy Atlantic).

FANCY BLUE RETIRED TO STUD AFTER TENDON INJURY

Classic heroine Fancy Blue (Ire) (Deep Impact (Jpn)–Chenchikova (Ire), by Sadler’s Wells) has been retired, according to a tweet from Paul Smith, son of co-owner Derrick Smith. Bred by Coolmore, the bay raced for a Coolmore partnership.

“Fancy Blue retires,” Derrick’s son Paul Smith tweeted of the 3-year-old who sustained a tendon injury in training. “Thank you to Donnacha O’Brien and all connected with her.”

A winner of a Naas maiden last September and of the Listed Staffordstown Stud S. a month later for Aidan O’Brien at two, Fancy Blue was moved to the newly opened yard of O’Brien’s son Donnacha, where she ran second in the June 13 G1 Tattersalls Irish 1000 Guineas first out at three. She then earned her first Group 1 crown with a score in Chantilly’s July 5 G1 Prix de Diane, the first Group 1/Classic for her young trainer and doubled up with another victory in the G1 Qatar Nassau S. on July 30. Her final run was a third in the G1 Coolmore America “Justify” Matron S. at Leopardstown on Sept. 12. She was due to compete in the G1 Prix de l’Opera before she was withdrawn due to contaminated feed. Her record stands at 6-4-1-1 and $693,376 in earnings.

The third black-type winner from her winning dam, Fancy Blue is a half-sister to SW and G1 Dewhurst S. third Smuggler’s Cove (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) and French MSW and G3 Prix de Lutece third Casterton (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)). Her dam is a full-sister to worldbeater and successful sire High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) and GSW & GI Secretariat S. second Black Bear Island (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), as well as a half-sister to the dam of Irish highweight Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) and David Livingston (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)), both MGSWs & Group 1 placed.

LOGICIAN RETURNS IN RESCHEDULED CUMBERLAND LODGE

Juddmonte’s undefeated 2019 G1 St Leger winner Logician (GB) (Frankel (GB)) will step forward in the Oct. 9 G3 Cumberland Lodge S. at York. Originally slated for Oct. 3, the Cumberland Lodge was part of Ascot’s cancelled card. The John Gosden trainee already sports a win over the course in the G2 Great Voltigeur S., and he was last in action in a Sept. 10 conditions race at Doncaster. Over the winter and for most of 2020, he had been recovering from a life-threatening infection.

“I hope he’ll be going to York,” confirmed Prince Abdullah’s racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe. “We obviously wanted to run at Ascot and now the race has been rescheduled, that remains the plan. He’s in good form.”

GOFFS ON TRACK TO HOST REST OF 2020 SALES AT KILDARE

The trio of remaining sales at Goffs in 2020—the Autumn Sale (Nov. 4-5), November Sale (Nov. 15-22) and December National Hunt Sale (Dec. 9-10)—are all on schedule to remain at Kildare Paddocks in Ireland, the sales company announced on Tuesday. The COVID-19 pandemic has seen several sales move to the Goffs UK complex at Doncaster, including the Orby Sale held at the end of last month. Ireland returned to level three restrictions due to an increase in coronavirus cases on Monday.

“Goffs’ purpose is to provide the best marketplace for Irish breeders, in Ireland, and I wish to reassure vendors and buyers that our commitment to creating the best possible conditions for successful sales remains as strong as ever whilst we prioritise the safety and well-being of all clients and staff,” said Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby in a statement. Cont. p12

UNITED APPROACH TO LEVY REFORM AGREED UPON BY BHA/INDUSTRY

A united approach regarding Levy reform has been agreed upon by the British Horseracing Authority and other industry leaders. Involved parties, among them racecourses, horsemen and the BHA met at the BHA Members Committee meeting last week and agreed upon the creation of a new steering group with regards to Levy reform which would analyse all the options available as the COVID-19 pandemic continues alongside the economic downturn. Joe Saumarez-Smith will chair the new group which meets this week. The group will work alongside the BHA’s Public Affairs team. Other group members include Nevin Truesdale and Martin Crudace, from the Jockey Club and ARC, and Charlie Parker and Philip Freedman, present and past Chairs of The Horsemen’s Group. Will Lambe and Richard Wayman will be the BHA Executive’s representatives.

“IAm pleased that industry leaders have agreed on a united approach to government and the support this has had from trainers, breeders and racecourse groups,” said BHA Chairwoman Annamarie Phelps. "Now more than ever, racing needs to talk with one voice to government.

"Both I and other BHA Board colleagues have been having constructive conversations with industry colleagues over the past few weeks. As a governing body, it is vital we listen to the views of those whose livelihoods are dependent on a prosperous and sustainable industry.

"The Prime Minister promised that the Chancellor would prepare a package of support for sport. We have sent government at their request a new assessment of the impact of COVID on the finances of racing, including the potential mitigating impact of reform to the Levy, and making clear that the return of the public to racecourses is essential. Further proposals on the Levy are now being developed, supported by Nick Rust and his team.

"It is vital that we work through the appropriate channels, recognising racing’s close relationship with the betting industry. Pursuing alternative routes risks dividing racing into competing factions."

Added Joe Saumarez-Smith, “There have already been extensive discussions recently about the various options for reforming the Levy. The Levy Steering Group has the full support of the representative bodies in racing and will now draw on the expertise of stakeholders across the industry, who will work with me and the BHA executive team to try and reach a united view of the industry on this crucial area of funding of the sport.”

DAUGHTER OF SEA THE STARS ADDED TO ARQANA OCTOBER

A yearling filly by Sea The Stars (Ire) is a late addition to the Arqana October Yearling Sale Part I on Oct. 19-23. Offered by Haras d’Etreham as lot 110bis, she is out of Scandinavian champion Matauri Pearl (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), herself a full-sister to MGSW & MG1SP Wekeela (Fr) (Hurricane Run {Ire}). In the extended family is MG1SW and star sire Monsun (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}), as well as dual Classic hero Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman {Fr}). The five-day sale will see 785 yearlings go under the hammer at Deauville.

GOFFS UK AUTUMN SALE CATALOGUERELEASED

The one-day Goffs UK Autumn Sale catalogue is now online. Set to begin at 10 a.m. at Doncaster on Oct. 22, the sale will be split into three portions: the Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale (lots 1-195), the Silver Yearling Sale (lots 196-254) and finally the Autumn Yearling Sale (lots 255-308). Cont. p13
Jumpers primarily feature in the Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale, but there are a few Flat performers sprinkled in like the 89-rated two-time winner Confide (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) (lot 49) from Lodge Farm Stud. The Silver and Autumn Yearling Sales offer 113 yearlings between them by the likes of Bated Breath (GB), Belardo (Ire), Due Diligence, Havana Gold (Ire), Pride of Dubai (Aus) and Twilight Son (GB) to name a few.

“This year hosts a different format compared to the traditional Autumn Sale with a notable addition, the Silver Yearling Sale, and a significant absence in the full Point-to-Point/Form Horse Session,” said Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent. “The inclusion of the Silver Sale will give buyers access to more commercial yearlings and both yearling sales have proven their ability to produce Group 1 horses with the likes of Quiet Reflection and Mabs Cross coming from their ranks.

“The shifting of the sale’s Point-to-Point/Form Horse Session away from this date, to a stand alone sale two weeks later on Friday, 6, Nov., means we can offer point-to-point handlers and buyers a dedicated P2P Sale. That being said, this sale has some smart performers catalogued and we look forward to welcoming everyone back to Doncaster in just over two weeks.”

GAIN PROVIDES UPDATE ON CONTAMINANT INVESTIGATION

After a weekend of intensive testing of GAIN’s equine feed ranges, batches and individual ingredients, progress has been made in the investigation into the presence of Zilpaterol in the contaminated feeds, the company announced late on Monday evening. The synthetic beta-agonist Zilpaterol, approved for use as a performance-enhancer in some beef production systems outside the EU, was found in some positive tests on horses that had consumed GAIN products in France last week. GAIN stressed that Zilpaterol has never formed part of any formulation in any GAIN animal nutrition ranges. They supply a large amount of trainers in Britain and Ireland.

GAIN said in a statement, “We have made significant progress in our investigation and are working closely with the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine (DAFM), who are the regulatory body responsible for the feed sector in Ireland. Following consultation with DAFM, we have recommenced equine feed production and will be in contact with our customers regarding resumption of feed supply.

“We continue to ask our equine customers to refrain from feeding their current stock of GAIN Equine products to their animals. We again apologise sincerely to our valued customers for the inconvenience caused by this incident and we are committed to promptly keeping you fully informed.”

France Galop tested all of the O’Brien Arc weekend runners on Friday, as they had also utilised GAIN products, with Aidan, Joseph and Donnach O’Brien eventually withdrawing all of their horses entered on Arc Sunday when those tests came back positive. Down Under, Racing Victoria has also conducted tests for Zilpaterol on Aidan and Joseph O’Brien’s horses. The results are pending.

The British Horseracing Authority issued advice to trainers who have used GAIN’s equine feed ranges on Tuesday. An elective testing system—carried out by the BHA’s analytical laboratory, LGC—has been set up by the BHA.

“We anticipate that the sample analysis may take up to three working days to complete, though every effort will be made, within reason and depending on the volume of tests, to return results in time for any races in which horses are entered,” a spokesperson for the BHA told the Irish Field.

DELOITTE PRINCIPALS DELIVER IFHA KEYNOTE

The virtual International Conference of Horseracing Authorities continued on Tuesday with the delivery of the keynote address by Pete Giorgio and Alan Switzer from Deloitte. Giorgio leads Deloitte’s U.S. sports practice and has co-authored a pair of reports concerning sports in the pandemic: Games without fans: how sports organizations can thrive now, and in the long term; and COVID-19 Outlooks for the Sports Industry.

Switzer is a director in the company’s sports business group and has worked extensively in horse racing for over 15 years. Giorgio and Switzer discussed via video presentation Deloitte’s insights on the impact of COVID-19 on the global sports landscape, as well as ways in which sports organizations can adjust to the new landscape and how that advice can be tailored to racing organizations.

HARRON WINS RACE TO LOCK IN LIBERTINI

By Paul Vettise

An intense few days of negotiations ended successfully for high-profile bloodstock identity James Harron on Tuesday evening when he locked in Libertini (I Am Invincible) to represent him in the $15-million The Everest.

The Sydney-based Harron and Chris Waller Racing were the only two slotholders not to have made a move prior to Saturday’s Randwick meeting and Libertini’s scorching resuming win in the G2 Premiere S. set them head-to-head.

Harron emerged victorious following negotiations with the mare’s breeder and co-owner Gerry Harvey and his racing partner John Singleton and Harvey’s Racing and Bloodstock Manager Luke McDonald.

“We’re really excited to get her and it’s been an anxious few days waiting in the wings and going through the process,” Harron said. “She was the one we wanted and we’ve been waiting for that one horse to stand out nice and close to the race for us.”

The Anthony Cummings-trained Libertini did just that on Saturday when she burst into calculations with her scintillating win in the G2 Premiere S. at Randwick.

“If she can repeat what she did on Saturday she is going to take a lot of beating. By all reports she’s come through it super and she’s nice and fresh so it’s pretty exciting.”

Libertini has been a late mover into contention for The Everest, although her talent was on display early in her career. She won the Listed Woodlands S. as a 2-year-old and the G2 Silver Shadow S. and G2 Furious S. last season before running third in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. She had two more starts when fourth in the G1 Light Fingers S. and unplaced in the G1 Newmarket before she was turned out.

“She went missing for a prep and had three months off and Strawberry Hills spelled her and did a fantastic job on her conditioning and her feet and she’s come back extraordinarily well,” McDonald said. “They have done a great job to get her feet perfect and she’s in fantastic order and Anthony has done a great job as well.”

Blaze of Glory

Libertini returned in a blaze of glory in the Premiere to account for Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt), who has been heavily fancied in the market for The Everest for some time.

“You’ve got to have a really open mind and watch the lead-up races and watch the trials and let it unfold in front of you,” Harron said. “We have seen some interesting results over the last few years and it’s not always as predictable as what it looks like a few months out from the race.

“We saw Yes Yes Yes, the late entry last year, picked nine days out from the race, and he won over others that were in form that got picked up earlier on. If you miss out early it may look a bit skinny, but fortunately we were able to get Libertini and hopefully we can get a result. There’s all the talk and the hype and it’s a matter of getting closer to the grand final and sorting the wheat from the chaff.

“Libertini was really solid first-up and she didn’t have a tough run. She went through the line beautifully so I’m not surprised she’s come through the run so well.”
Regan Bayliss, who recently moved to Sydney to link up with Cummings, rode Libertini in the Premiere S. and a decision on The Everest rider has yet to be made.

“Look, I’ll leave that up to Anthony and Gerry, but I would imagine nothing changes and Regan rode her super, but that will be their call,” Harron said.
