FILLIES’ MILE GLORY FOR PRETTY GORGEOUS

Friday’s G1 bet365 Fillies’ Mile at Newmarket was fought out by two elite TDN Rising Stars, with Pretty Gorgeous (Fr) (Lawman {Fr}) prevailing by half a length over Indigo Girl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) to claim the bragging rights. Runner-up in the Sept. 13 G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh, John Oxley’s Pretty Gorgeous had been forced to miss Sunday’s G1 Prix Marcel Boussac due to the well-documented feed contamination but confidence remained intact as she traded as the 5-2 favourite. Racing well off the honest tempo as Shane Crosse played the waiting game, the bay who had earlier won the G2 Debutante S. cruised into contention two out and was in front soon after chased by a Ballydoyle runner which was at the time believed to be the 50-1 shot Snowfall (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). Able to see off that Rosegreen representative with relative comfort, she was beyond reach as George Strawbridge’s G2 May Hill S. winner Indigo Girl closed late on.

PINATUBO RETIRED TO DALHAM HALL

Last year’s champion 2-year-old Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal--Lava Flow {Ire}, by Dalakhani {Ire}) has been retired from racing and will stand next year at Darley’s Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket.

Pinatubo was rated the best European 2-year-old in a quarter century last year off an unbeaten six-race campaign that culminated with wins in the G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S.–by nine lengths–and the G1 Darley Dewhurst S., and had earlier included scores in Royal Ascot’s Listed Chesham S. and Glorious Goodwood’s G2 Qatar Vintage S. Kicking off his 3-year-old campaign with a third in the G1 Qipco 2000 Guineas and a second in the G1 St James’s Palace S., Pinatubo dropped back down to seven furlongs to win the G1 Prix Jean Prat before finishing second to Persian King (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp.

Pinatubo is a second generation homebred for Godolphin, which campaigned both the sire and dam. Lava Flow won the Listed Prix de la Seine and is herself a daughter of the stakes-winning Mount Elbrus (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), who also wore the Godolphin blue. The third dam, El Jazirah (GB) (Kris {GB}), is a full-sister to the G1 Prix de Diane victress Rafha (GB), so this is the prolific sire-producing family of Invincible Spirit (Ire) and Kodiac (GB) as well as the very promising first-season sire Pride Of Dubai (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}).

It later transpired that the eventual third, who was the same margin behind, was in fact Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and not Snowfall with the number cloths having been mixed up.

“Early on, I wasn’t overly happy and she’s so big she didn’t come down the hill all that great but once I got her balanced and rolling in the last half-furlong it was a case of me getting there too soon,” commented Crosse, who had missed out on G1 St Leger glory last month after a positive COVID-19 test.

Pretty Gorgeous was a rare Rising Star to run at the low-key Irish venue of Bellewstown, but the promise of her five-length defeat of the useful Talacre (Flintshire {GB}) over this trip was there for all to see July 2. Runner-up to Donnacha’s Shale (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Silver Flash S. over the first of three seven-furlong outings when the going was lively at Leopardstown Aug. 6, she turned that form around with ease in the ground when scoring by 2 1/2 lengths in the Debutante at The Curragh Aug. 22 before again coming off second-best to Shale in the Moyglare. “She was very impressive and I’m delighted for everybody at home, for Mr Oxley who was keen to come here and for Justin who bought her,” trainer Joseph O’Brien said. “I thought Shane gave the filly a great ride. He was patient on her and committed when he had to. Shane is a young man, but he is a very good rider—strong and cool in a finish and he doesn’t panic.”

“I was a little bit worried coming here, given that she’d been to France but she was very fresh and in great shape so we thought we’d better take our chance,” he added. “From the first day she worked, she was impressive at home and proved today that she is top-class. The Breeders’ Cup is an option, but it’s more likely she’ll be put away now and trained for a Guineas next Spring. She is a Lawman, so she would not be bred to go very far. I think Lawman’s can get 10 furlongs and I see her more as an eight to 10-furlong filly rather than an Oaks-type filly at this stage.”

John Gosden said of the runner-up, “It was a great run and I’m very happy with her. Her mother won the French St Leger and her sister won a group one over a mile and a half. She will be trained more for a mile and a quarter and middle-distance races. She won’t be trained as a Guineas filly.”

Aidan O’Brien explained the mix-up with his fillies later in the afternoon, telling the Racing Post, “I didn’t see the race live and when I looked at the replay after it was brought to my attention, I could see straight away. I contacted the BHA straight away and let them know what is after happening. We have a team based in England these days because of the coronavirus restrictions, so the problem is the lads that are with the horses at home can’t always go racing with them. I don’t know what to say other than I am so sorry that it happened.”
Pedigree Notes:

Pretty Gorgeous’s listed-placed dam Lady Gorgeous (GB) (Compton Place (GB)), who also produced the Listed Prix Nureyev scorer Alwaab (Fr) (Toronado (Ire)), is kin to the G3 Prix Fille de l’Air third Kartica (GB) (Rainbow Quest) who is in turn the dam of the G1 Coronation S., G1 Prix Rothschild and G2 Duke of Cambridge S. heroine Qemah (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)). The listed-winning second dam Cayman Sunset (Ire) (Night Shift), who was also placed in the GII Canadian H. and GIII All Along Breeders’ Cup S., is from the family of the GII Lexington S. and GIII Everglades H. winner Royal Roberto (Roberto). Lady Gorgeous’s colt by Shalaa (Ire) was purchased by Peter and Ross Doyle Bloodstock for 90,000gns at last year’s Tattersalls December Foal Sale and heads back to that venue to come under the hammer during Tuesday’s session of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2.

HAPPY POWER UP TO CHALLENGE

King Power Racing’s Happy Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who ran fourth in last term’s G1 Sussex S., collected a trio of minor prizes before annexing an Aug. 9 Salisbury conditions heat and lined up for Friday’s G2 Godolphin Stud & Stable Staff Awards Challenge S. at Newmarket returning off a personal best in the Aug. 30 G3 Supreme S. at Goodwood. Stalking the pace in second until coming under pressure approaching the final quarter mile, the 7-2 second choice was ridden to seize control at the foot of the hill and kept on strongly under a late drive to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from the pacesetting Pogo (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}), with Glorious Journey (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) running on from the rear to finish 2 1/4 lengths further back in third.

“I was really disappointed with him at the beginning of the year as I thought I had a really good horse for this year,” admitted Silvestre de Sousa. “He has just taken a long time to get going, but now he is flying and in top form.” Winning trainer Andrew Balding added, “I’m delighted with that. It has just taken him a little bit of time to find his feet, but that is three excellent wins now and he has really got his mojo back. He got stuck in the ground at Haydock first time out and we probably ran him a bit quick back on his third start, but he has come right now and is high class. He was fourth in the Sussex last year and he won a [Listed] Ganton very well so we knew he was a talented horse. We will confirm him for the [G1 British] Champions Sprint on Monday and make a decision later in the week, but it’s a possibility. I think a stiff six on soft ground would be fine for him.”

Pedigree Notes:

Veteran Jim Goldie trainee Euchen Glen (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) has spent the majority of his career in handicap company and went postward for Friday’s rescheduled G3 Betsafe Cumberland Lodge S. at York coming back off a Sept. 5 Haydock handicap win and a fourth in Ayr’s Sept. 19 Listed Doonside Cup. Leading throughout, the 18-1 outsider-of-four turned back hitherto undefeated G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) approaching the final quarter mile and stayed on relentlessly under a continued drive to withstand the late threat of Desert Encounter (IRE) (Halling) by a half-length. Logician, the 1-3 favourite, was not unduly punished once it became obvious his chance had evaporated and coasted home to finish last of the quartet.

“We had a plan, I can’t believe how well it went and I would say that was a masterclass in riding,” said winning rider Jim Goldie. “We thought we’d try to bring the field across to the [stands’ side] rail as it complicates things. It gives the jockeys a decision to make and it worked a treat. Some thought it pie in the sky against a superstar, but Paul [Mulrennan] was up for it and so was I. The horse we beat is probably rated similar to us and it looks like the favourite hasn’t turned up. Our horse is a superstar and Paul gets a great tune out of him. He’s in the Balmoral H. over a mile on Champions Day, he’ll go on the ground so we’ll just see how he is. I don’t think there’s much else.” Reflecting on the performance of Logician, Teddy Grimthorpe added, “The horse pulled up sound and obviously he’ll be checked out when he gets back. From the point of view that he is sound, that’s a bonus, but obviously there must be something to explain it.”

SAFFRON BEACH TAKES THE OH SO SHARP

Having impressed when scoring on debut in a seven-furlong Sept. 26 Newmarket maiden, Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) returned to the same course and distance to enhance her reputation in Friday’s G3 Godolphin Lifetime Care Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket. Settled in second early by Adam Kirby, the 9-4 favourite took over passing the two-furlong pole and asserted for a half-length success from Thank You Next (Ire) (No Nay Never), with Shine For You (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) 1 1/4 lengths away in third. “She’s quite a nice filly and a strong galloper,” the winning rider said. “She’s a filly with a good mind as well, as she was backed up relatively quickly and will be a lovely prospect for next year.” Saffron Beach, whose task was made easier here by the withdrawal of the G2 Rockfel S. second Nazuna (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and the flop of the G3 Weld Park S. runner-up Thinking of You (American Pharoah), could be off to Keeneland with trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam eyeing the Breeders’ Cup. “That was very good and the staff at home have done a wonderful job,” she said. “She is a quick learner and I’d love to have a crack at the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf, if the owners will allow me. We know she is good. I had Annie Skates who was second in the Juvenile Fillies’ race at the Breeders’ Cup and this one is probably a quicker learner than Annie. For what she has done at home, we thought this was a suitable step up in grade.”
Pedigree Notes

Sporting the Ben Sangster silks and owned in partnership with James Wigan, Saffron Beach is out of the Godolphin Polytrack winner Falling Petals (Ire) (Raven’s Pass) who was bought by the China Horse Club at the 2016 Goffs November Sale for €235,000. She is a daughter of the dual stakes-placed Infinite Spirit (Maria’s Mon) who also threw the G3 Criterion S. winner and G1 Middle Park S. third Huntdown (Elusive Quality). His full-sister Continua is the dam of three stakes performers headed by the smart sprinter Cotai Glory (GB) (Exceed and Excel (Aus)), who captured the G3 World Trophy and G3 Molecomb S. and was placed in the G1 Kings Stand S. and GII Nearctic S. A granddaughter of the G3 Matron S. winner and G1 Coronation S. and GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup runner-up Eternal Reve (Diesis (GB)), Falling Petals’s son of Cotai Glory’s sire Exceed and Excel sells on Monday at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2. On a day when things clicked for King Power Racing at Newmarket, Angel Power (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) completed a pattern-race treble for the operation in Friday’s G3 Darley Pride S. Having opened her black-type account with success in the 10 1/2-furlong Listed Prix de Liancourt at ParisLongchamp Sept. 3, the 10-3 favourite looked booked for another upgrade and Silvestre de Sousa was keen to reserve energy early covering her up in mid-division. Taking time to work her way to the front, the bay had the advantage a furlong out and stayed on strongly for a 2 1/2-length defeat of Anna Nerium (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Following on from the afternoon successes of Happy Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Winter Power (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}), Angel Power is unbeaten in three starts since stepping up beyond a mile, having also won a fillies' handicap at York’s Ebor festival Aug. 21.

Pedigree Note:
Angel Power is the first foal out of a half-sister to two more black-type performers by Lope de Vega in the G3 Killavullan S. winner Blue de Vega (Ger), whose career-best was a third placing in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, and last month’s Listed Prix Coronation third Bionic Woman (Ire) who was also fourth in last year’s G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

King Power Racing’s Winter Power (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle (Ire)) has enjoyed a busy juvenile campaign and backed up a first black-type success in Ayr’s Sept. 18 Listed Harry Rosebery S. with a dominant display in Friday’s G3 Newmarket Academy Beacon Project Cornwallis S. at Newmarket. Sharply into stride to assert for an early lead, the 10-1 chance was comfortable on the front end throughout and surged further clear of toiling rivals once shaken up approaching the final furlong to easily register a first pattern-race triumph by an impressive three lengths from Method (Ire) (Mehmas (Ire)).

“She won quite well at Ayr and has bounced back in great form,” commented rider Silvestre de Sousa after claiming the first leg of a treble in the King Power silks. “She has done really well and won very easily. It is good for the boss [Andrew Balding] and King Power Racing. I never get many rides in Group races so when they come I have to make the most of them.”

Pedigree Notes:

Winter Power, whose sire won this contest in 2012, is a half-sister to Listed Land O’Burns Fillies’ S. victress Hay Chewed (Ire) (Camacho (GB)), Listed Two-Year-Old Trophy runner-up Flying Sparkle (Ire) (Fast Company (Ire)) and a yearling filly by Fast Company (Ire). She is also full to a weanling colt. The March-fouled bay shares her second dam Nordic Living (Ire) (Nordico), herself a granddaughter of stakes-winning GIII Santa Monica H. placegetter Bally Knockan (Exclusive Native), with G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. victress Devonshire (Ire) (Fast Company (Ire)) and Hurryupharriet (Ire) (Camacho (GB)). Bally Knockan produced two black-type performers headed by GII Santa Monica H. placegetter GIII Laurel Futurity victor and MGISP sire River Traffic (Irish River (Fr)).

FUTURE CHAMPIONS ON DISPLAY AT NEWMARKET

Following Friday’s G1 Fillies’ Mile victory of Pretty Gorgeous (Fr) (Lawman [Fr]), Joseph O’Brien could be celebrating a notable Newmarket double on Saturday if fellow TDN Rising Star Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany [Ire]) can provide the stable with further glory in the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. Showing an impressive surge of acceleration to upstage the re-opposing Ballydoyle pair Wembley (Ire) (Galileo [Ire]) and St Mark’s Basilica (Fr) (Siyouni [Fr]) in The Curragh’s G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. over this seven-furlong trip Sept. 13, Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez’s bay appears the main threat to the British-trained juveniles in the feature of Future Champions Day.

“Hopefully the ground dries out as much as possible and we’ll see what happens,” Joseph said. “We were delighted with him at the Curragh and he’s been in good form since.”

Richard Hannon holds a strong hand with Michael Pescod’s Chindit (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) looking his strongest chance after his defeat of TDN Rising Star Albasheer (Ire) (Shamardal) in Doncaster’s G2 Champagne S. Sept. 12, but Julie Wood’s Etonian (Ire) (Olympic Glory [Ire]) remains unbeaten and an unknown quantity. His two successes at Sandown include the Aug. 23 G3 Solario S.

Hannon said of the duo, “Both horses are fit and well and good to go. We’ve not managed to win the Dewhurst yet, so let’s hope this is our chance. Chindit’s last bit of work with a couple of older horses was very good for a two-year-old. He seems in very good form. Etonian has done nothing wrong either. It’s a shame we have to run them against each other really, but this is the right race for both horses and the Dewhurst is always the best two-year-old race of the year.”

Jim Crowley has picked Shadwell's supplemented Sept. 19 G2 Mill Reef S. scorer Alkumait (GB) (Showcasing (GB)) over Albasheer and Alkumait's trainer Marcus Tregoning said, "I think he'll stay seven furlongs fine. I suppose seven furlongs in soft ground makes it more of a test, but Showcasing's progeny are versatile. He'll give himself every chance of getting the trip because he settles well, or at least he did at Newbury, and if he settles as well again, I can't see seven being a problem. I think Chindit might be the one to beat. He looked tough at Doncaster, he had to battle but came through it well. It's the right race for us, though, and I'm pleased he's running."

Of Albasheer, trainer Owen Burrows said, "I've been happy with him since Doncaster. He did his last proper piece of work on Saturday and had a breeze midweek. He is inexperienced and this will be different for him. I'd like to think wherever Chindit finishes, we would be bang there with him—whether or not that is good enough to win, time will tell. On his pedigree he should get a mile next year and we will look to go down that route. God-willing he is good enough to be talked as a Guineas horse, but we will learn a lot more on Saturday."

The typically strong Irish challenge is backed up by Jessica Harrington's Sept. 12 G2 Champions Juvenile winner Cadillac (Ire) (Lope de Vega (Ire)), while Jim Bolger has enjoyed five successes here and he saddles a fascinating contender in Poetic Flare (Ire) (Dawn Approach (Ire)). He won his sole start in the first race of the Irish Flat turf season at Naas Mar. 23, but his owner, breeder and trainer is unconcerned about the lengthy absence.

"He hasn't run because he started to grow—he's grown two inches since March and I didn't want to push him," he explained. "That's all settled down now. He's been fine since the beginning of August and we've had an uninterrupted preparation since. I thought it would be good to get him away before the end of the year. I think he'll go on any ground."

Newmarket's pattern-race action kicks off with the G3 Godolphin Flying Start Zeitland S. for juveniles over 10 furlongs and Aidan O'Brien saddles an intriguing contender in Moyglare Stud, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)). Off the mark on debut over an extended mile at Galway Sept. 8, the full-brother to the dual G1 Irish St Leger heroine Search For a Song (Ire) and half-brother to Free Eagle (Ire) has ideal credentials for this stamina test.

"He seems to have come out of his first race well, he was very green the first day and we've been happy with him since," the Ballydoyle handler said. "We always thought he would get much further than a mile, so the step up in trip shouldn't worry him."

Two notably-bred nursery winners in Khalid Abdullah's Sept. 27 Nottingham scorer Fabills (GB) (Frankel (GB)) and Ballylinch Stud and Aquis Farm's Sept. 12 Doncaster winner Lone Eagle (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) offer fascinating opposition from the Ralph Beckett and Martyn Meade stables respectively.

In the G3 Emirates Autumn S. over a mile, there is another leading Ballydoyle contender in the Aug. 6 G3 Tyros S. and Sept. 12 G2 Champions Juvenile S. runner-up Van Gogh (American Pharoah), who enjoyed a confidence-boosting maiden success at The Curragh Sept. 27.

"We think he should benefit from getting his head in front, he's a horse that is maturing and improving every month," Aidan O'Brien commented. In a fascinating line-up, Shadwell's TDN Rising Star Akmaam (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) comes in on the back of his impressive winning debut over seven furlongs at Ascot Sept. 5 while Khalid Abdullah's Maximal (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) bids to build on a novice win over this trip at Sandown Sept. 11. He was previously runner-up to Godolphin's One Ruler (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) at that track Aug. 23 and the latter's trainer Charlie Appleby also saddles the Aug. 15 Listed Washington Singer S. runner-up Dhahabi (Ire) (Frankel (GB)). "One Ruler put up a solid performance [when subsequently third in the Listed Flying Scotsman S.] at Doncaster, when he was slightly unlucky, and we feel that the step up to a mile will see further improvement," he said. "Dhahabi also ran to a nice level at Newbury and has been crying out for a step up in distance. We are hoping that both colts can be very competitive at this level."

Another TDN Rising Star takes to the Suffolk venue in The Niarchos Family's Highest Ground (Ire) (Frankel (GB)), who has not been seen since finishing second in York's G2 Dante S. July 9 but who will be closely followed in the nine-furlong G3 Darley S.

"There's been no major issue, he just needed a bit of time," the owner-breeder's racing manager Alan Cooper explained. "He's in fine fettle. It looks a very competitive race, so hopefully he'll run well. I would imagine this will be his final run of the year, but we haven't really discussed it. We'll see how he performs this weekend and make a plan afterwards."

John Gosden opts to shorten up Qatar Racing and Watership Down Stud's TDN Rising Star Darain (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) following his fifth placing in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York Aug. 19. At Chantilly, the six-furlong G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte sees a clash between Alain Jathiere's impressive Sept. 18 G3 Prix Eclipse scorer Plainchant (Fr) (Gregorian (Ire)), the Wertheimers' Sept. 3 G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Kalahara (GB) (Frankel (GB)) and Tanguy Moreux's Go Athletico (Fr) (Goken (Fr)) who beat the subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero Sealiway (Fr) (Galileo (GB)) in the seven-furlong G3 Prix la Rochette at ParisLongchamp Sept. 6.
Sam Bullard, Darley’s director of stallions, said, “We are absolutely thrilled to welcome a horse as exceptional as Pinatubo to the roster at Dalham Hall Stud. Last year he carried all before him, most notably in the National S. which as we all know was a performance that cannot be matched by any other 2-year-old in the last quarter of a century. We were delighted to see him add a third Group 1 win to his superb record in the Prix Jean Prat and now look forward to him beginning his new career, where we’re confident he can continue Shamardal’s great legacy.”

EUROPEAN NEWS

GOVERNING BODIES DEVELOP HORSE MOVEMENT PROPOSAL

A proposal on cross-border horse movement between EU Member States and Britain once the latter exits the European Union has been sent to Michel Barnier, the European Commission’s head of task force for relations with the United Kingdom; and to Lord Frost, the British Prime Minister’s Europe adviser and chief negotiator of Task Force Europe.

The proposal includes the use of digital passports to facilitate international transport with full traceability and sanitary guarantees as well as immediate access to vaccination and medical records of guaranteed high-health status horses; and zero tariffs, which currently apply but would be extended to include geldings. The digital equine passports can also be adopted for use between EU Member States and A-listed third countries.

The task force is seeking to have its proposals captured in the text of both the Trade Agreement and in the EU Animal Health Law, which comes into force on Apr. 21, 2021. Should a trade agreement with Britain not be reached, the task force is asking the EU to declare an equilibrium of health status for A-listed third countries.

“The equine industry is of crucial importance to the economic, social, sporting and cultural fabric of both the European Union and the United Kingdom, and as representatives from all sectors of that industry, we believe that there are simple solutions that can guarantee a secure future for the European equine industry”, said Ingmar De Vos said, president of the International Horse Sports Confederation, a collaboration between the global governing bodies for equestrian sport and racing. “It is one of the most important animal breeding and production sectors in Europe, larger and with greater economic impact and employment than a number of other European agricultural sectors, with a net worth of over €52-billion per annum, providing 210,000 direct and more than 500,000 indirect jobs.

“Our goal is to reach an agreement that will allow for a continuation of the historical expedited movement of horses for breeding, sale and competition between EU Member States and Britain. While there are some sectors currently under discussion that seem to remain difficult in the negotiations, we believe that there are simple solutions within the equine industry that can be readily included in a Free Trade Agreement. Indeed, they are also workable even in a no deal scenario.

“We are asking the negotiators on both sides of the table to take our proposals on board and incorporate them into the texts of the Trade Agreement, if there is one, and the EU to include them in the incoming EU Animal Health Law, which comes into effect next April. Without agreement on this, we estimate that the industry in Europe could shrink by as much as a third, with a potential €17-billion reduction in economic contribution, and the potential loss of 250,000 jobs in a marketplace already threatened with critical unemployment levels and a significant reduction in foreign direct investment in the European Union as the economic focus shifts to North America and Asia. So failure is not an option.”

SMULLEN TO BE HONORED WITH DUNDAK STAKES RACE

Nine-time Irish Champion Jockey, Pat Smullen, who lost his battle with cancer last month, will be honored at Dundalk Stadium with the inaugural running of the five-furlong G3 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Pat Smullen Mercury S. Oct. 16. The €50,000 event is sponsored by Al Basti Equiworld, a UAE distributor of horse feeds and supplements. Smullen held a long association with the brand as well as a long-standing friendship with the brand’s founder, Malih Al Basti.

“Pat was a terrific horseman and a great friend, said Al Basti. “I hope this race will provide all those who knew him or admired his achievements from afar with an opportunity to reflect on a true racing legend.”

Chief Executive Jim Martin said, “We are delighted that Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai has chosen to honor Pat with a race at Dundalk Stadium where he rode his first winner, Vicosa, for trainer Tom Lacy in June 1993, and his last aboard Anthony McCann’s Togoville in March, 2018. We have enjoyed some great moments with Pat in between and look forward to celebrating his outstanding career with this prestigious event later this month.”

LENA GOEDDE WINS BEST TURNED OUT HORSE CHALLENGE AT ARC SALE

Arqana has awarded Lena Goedde with first prize of €500 for the best turned out horse at last week’s Arc Sale. Goedde looked after Virginia Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) on behalf of Gestut Auenquelle. Laura Delage, who earned €350 as the runner-up, was responsible for Dick Whittington (Fr) (War Command) for Yann Barberot’s Stable, while Lea Winzenrieth came in third, collecting €150 for Hercule Point (Ire) (Network {Fr}).

All horses were inspected at the sale and a jury rated the quality of their presentation according to the following criteria:

- The quality of the presentation - the horse must stand and walk in a straight line with an energetic step.
- The care of the presentation - this criterion concerns both the horse and the person presenting it.

Zaykava, successful when encountering soft ground over this strip in a July 7 debutantes’ contest last time, maintained her unbeaten record with a degree of ease in this black-type bow. Finding a smooth rhythm in second after the initial exchanges, she loomed large on the bridle in the straight and ran on strongly once gaining a narrow advantage passing the eighth pole to earn a career high in style.

“I was unable to trainer her hard last year because she wasn’t ready to stand hard work, but she has now matured and I think she won quite well today,” said winning trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. “I didn’t want to chance running her on fast ground after she won first time. She’s grown since then and I think it has done her a lot of good. She was a little keen early, but Christophe [Soumillon] got her to relax perfectly and she responded well when he asked.”

Royer-Dupre continued, “The G3 Prix de Flore might come too soon, but it’s a possibility if she’s in good form and the G3 Prix Fille de l’Air is another option. She’ll stay in training as a 4-year-old and we’ll target each end of the season because of the ground. With some improvement, she could become a Group 1 filly.”

by Chris McGrath

When Ettore Sottsass was asked which of his many diverse achievements had given him most satisfaction, he gave a shrug. "I don't know," he said. "Life is a permanent project. It's a passage from one thing to another."

The Italian designer and architect transcended disciplines in a fashion not dissimilar to his compatriot Federico Tesio, whose singular genius was as stimulated by his furniture workshop as by his breed-shaping stud farm.

And there's a corresponding breadth of engagement to the man who wrote to the widow of Sottsass, asking permission to honor his memory with a Siyouni (Fr) yearling he had bought at Deauville in 2017. Peter Brant has assembled his stable with the same curator's eye as he has his art collection; and the same quixotic awareness that no masterpiece can ever achieve perfection, can ever fully requite the yearnings that sustain his twin passions.

The success of Sottsass (Fr) in the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on Sunday was certainly a masterpiece, in the technical craft of his trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. And it belongs in the same gallery as Brant's unique achievement in breeding a GI Kentucky Derby winner, Thunder Gulch (Gulch), as well as his sire and dam. Cont. p3

JACKIE'S WARRIOR LOOMS LARGE IN CHAMPAGNE

Undefeated Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) looks to continue his domination of the 2-year-old colt division as the headliner in Belmont's GI Champagne S. Saturday, a "Win and You're In" for the Breeders' Cup. A debut winner at Churchill June 19, the bay scored a decisive win in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 7 and was an impressive victor of the GI Runhappy Hopeful S. at Saratoga Sept. 7, earning a 95 Beyer Speed Figure.

"He handles everything well," said trainer Steve Asmussen's Belmont Park-based assistant trainer Toby Sheets. "Just like his races are, that's how he is. He's done everything very professionally and he's very straightforward. I don't see the mile being an issue at all."

Asmussen also saddles Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow) in this event. Earning his diploma by 5 1/2 lengths at second asking at Ellis Aug. 22, the bay was second in the GII Iroquois S. at Churchill Sept. 5. Cont. p7

Bidding closes on Saturday, October 10 at 4pm EDT.
Already, however, the project has its next passage, with Sottsass now starting a new career at Coolmore.

For just as the work of Renaissance masters has far outlasted the span of any human life—creators, preservers, collectors—so our own humble endeavors, from one generation of horsemen to the next, will endure in the genetic complexion of the breed, as recorded across the centuries in the Stud Book.

Brant is rightly proud that Thunder Gulch, winner of the definitive test in dirt racing, was delivered by a mare imported from Europe. The obvious, reciprocal challenge would now be to breed a dirt champion by his Arc winner.

Asked this week whether that is something he'd like to attempt, someday, Brant gave a chuckle.

"Someday?" he said. "Try, like, three or four months from now. I mean, sure. That doesn't mean I have to be right. I was right once, doesn't mean I'll be right doing it again. But I'm certainly going to try."

With the far-sightedness that has sustained his business empire—not least in adapting to the wild societal changes eroding demand for its original base, newsprint—Brant absolutely grasps the vitality available in dismantling perceived barriers between the transatlantic gene pools. Cont. p4
It's often been done before, after all, not least in the transformative impact of Northern Dancer's speed-carrying dirt blood on European Classic racing.

Brant bought Shoot a Line (GB) (High Line (GB)) after seeing her finish a plucky second to the great Ardross (Ire) in the 1981 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot, over two and a half miles, and had her covered by Northern Dancer's son Storm Bird. The resulting filly, Line of Thunder, was sent to Luca Cumani in Newmarket.

"She was a classic-looking, old Thoroughbred type," Brant recalled. "And what happened is history. I bred her to Gulch, who won the Met Mile twice and the Breeders' Cup Sprint. He could carry his speed, he was third in the Belmont Stakes and ran second to Personal Ensign in the Whitney, but going a mile-and-a-quarter, mile-and-a-half, was really not his thing. He was a very fast, very sturdy horse. And from Line of Thunder he got Thunder Gulch."

On the same basis, Brant made sure that his White Birch Farm recruited staying females from the Weinstock dispersal and also the Wildenstein sale.

"A lot of times you'll go to sales in Kentucky and they'll say: 'That's a grass horse, you don't want that, we want to win dirt races,'" he remarked. "But I believe that staying blood is very important, if you want to win any of those Classic-type races, from a mile up to a mile-and-a-half. You definitely need speed as well, because often they are a product of pace: sometimes no pace, sometimes too great a pace. It's the ability to quicken that is so important.

"But so many stallions had great speed—horses like War Front, maybe a horse like Constitution—and if you breed speed to them you're going to have trouble in those middle-distance races. I believe you need to get some Classic blood in there with it. Yes, a lot of times you'll breed to a stayer, and the progeny goes more towards the female and you're out of luck. But you do need a combination. Especially over two or three generations, you need that classy staying blood somewhere."

Sottsass himself, of course, is by a fast horse in Siyouni (Fr) out of a Galileo (Ire) mare. Up until Sunday, Brant confesses, he had wondered whether the colt's optimal range might fall short of the Arc distance. But the demands of the race on the day—not especially strongly run, perhaps, but calling for unyielding dynamism through heavy ground—actually showcased assets that may combine well with dirt-bred mares; and, someday, give Sottsass some traction as a crossover influence.

As is well known, this is Brant's "second time round" on the Turf. But his ardour for the Arc traces back to his earliest enthusiasm. His heart was first won by weight-carrying New York stalwarts like Kelso and Carry Back, so he knew of the latter's fish-out-of-water bid for the 1962 Arc. What really brings things full circle, however, is that his first personal experience of the race came nine years later, when Paul Mellon—whose aesthetic sensibilities similarly found a common margin between art and the Thoroughbred—became the first American to own the winner.

Though still in his early 20s at the time, Brant was in Paris to produce "L'Amour," a minor cult movie by Andy Warhol and Paul Morrissey. (He collaborated with Warhol on many projects and his publishing stable still includes Interview, a magazine founded by the pioneering artist in 1969.) Finding himself in a cafe one Saturday afternoon, Brant noticed the racing from Longchamp on a television in the corner. He realized that the Arc was the next day, and resolved to head out to the Bois de Boulogne.

So it was that he saw Mill Reef beat the wonderful French filly, Pistol Packer, with Caro (Ire)--subsequently such an important stallion at Spendthrift--fourth.

Europe’s championship race, then, is woven into some of the defining strands of his life: some tracing to those heady years in the vortex of the Beat Generation; others, to the Parisian fashion community that long worshipped his wife, the model Stephanie Seymour.

"'L’Amour’ was a great, low-budget film that did very well, and is still kind of a classic today," Brant said. "And, yes, we had a lot of fun. It was wonderful moment. As a matter of fact, one of the stars in that movie was Karl Lagerfeld, who became the big designer for Chanel. At that time he was working for Chloe, the Paris fashion house, so there were a lot of fashion people in the film."

Not that Brant could ever get Warhol interested in the Turf. His cousin, Joe Allen, who bred War Front, was also friendly with Warhol and commissioned him to do a portrait of his very first racehorse, an exclaimer. And the Wertheimer family asked him to depict Ivanjica, their 1976 Arc winner—a work you will today find in the office of a certain Kentucky farm owner, of similarly rare discernment.

"I’m not sure how thrilled the Wertheimers might have been, at the time, with his Ivanjica," Brant noted wryly. "Andy’s way of doing those portraits was to take a polaroid, and then silk-screen it, and paint over that. Now even the new book about President Carter has Andy’s portrait on the front. He was always way ahead of his time."

Brant has always tried to be one step ahead, too, having seen repeatedly how the establishment eventually adopts the avant-garde. But he rebucks any assumption that Mellon—whose foundation of the Yale Center of British Art accommodated much sporting art of the old school—was merely Anglophile and conservative in his tastes.

"He might have been interested in Stubbs, but that would have been because of his interest in horses," Brant explained. "But he was a great collector, of all periods; all the way through the 20th Century from Cezanne to abstract expressionists like Mark Rothko."

In Mellon, with whom he served on the board of the racing museum in Saratoga, Brant could admire an exemplar of philanthropic capitalism. Like Mellon, of course, Brant has also stabled horses with master horsemen on both sides of the Atlantic; and Sottsass has now made a significant new contribution to the tradition, long associated with Mellon, of Americans embracing European grass racing and its bloodlines. Both on and off the Turf, then, there is a very direct cultural succession between the owners of Mill Reef and Sottsass.

Certainly last weekend was a vivid consummation of Brant’s return to the sport and, while there was a bittersweet element in not being able to travel to Paris, that did not diminish the delirium as he watched the race with his wife at their Connecticut home.

"You know something, I can’t say I would have had any better a time anywhere else," he said. "We were yelling and screaming so much, it felt like the house was shaking. I just couldn’t believe this dream had come true."

Brant says that he never goes into any race with confidence, but Ger Lyons had given him plenty of hope after taking responsibility for the horse, with Rouget confined to France by COVID restrictions, for his prep run in Ireland.

"After that race Ger said: ‘Your horse is going to run terrific in the Arc,’” Brant explained. "The instructions [from Rouget] were to make sure the horse would be tighter for the Arc, and that was the way [jockey Colin] Keane rode. Jean-Claude had really been pointing at the Arc from the beginning of the year. I think that speaks very well of the trainer, and very well of the race. If you really want to win the Arc, you can’t have anything else on your mind. You can’t say, ‘Well, we’ve run well here, let’s go the Arc.’ You can’t go as an afterthought, and if you make a mistake along the road you probably won’t be winning. It’s so gruelling, both in the conditions you might get and the field. That’s why I feel it would be very hard to do better than winning this race."

But there are always new horizons, with horses no less than in art.

"Winning a race, any race, you figure that you are pretty close to achieving some kind of perfection," Brant mused. "But you will always get beat more than you win. It’s a great game, and a fantastic passion for a lot of people: these wonderful, noble animals. Like art, it’s all about that passion. Because that’s what you really need, for it to be fun and for it to be successful.

"Right now, I’m feeling very good that I can take the decision to retire Sottsass in one piece, sound in wind and bone, and not looking like he’s come back from the war. He’s going to stud in the way he deserves." Cont. p7

Breeding, of course, is a long game; and Brant espouses the long view. He urges optimism, even in such disturbed and disturbing times. Yes, he is dismayed to see responsible journalism swamped by the trash-talk of social media, not least from a boyhood friend he can no longer recognize in the Oval Office.

"But I’m very optimistic," Brant insisted. "I hope we will soon be able to look on all this in retrospect. In the meantime, people have to be vigilant: listen to science; wear masks, isolate, trace. But I think we’re going to have learned a lot, especially about leadership, from this whole experience."

If the fate of newsprint is one eloquent measure of a changing world, then so is that of typewriter. The classic machines he designed for Olivetti helped to make the name of Ettore Sottsass. But even as the world changes, genius abides. Sottsass urged that various disciplines were only separated by technique; that all design reflects your ideas about life, about individuals and society. It didn’t matter whether you were making a glass vase or a photograph.

So let’s celebrate the fact that an American, in 2020 as in 1971, has seen through artificial distinctions—between dirt and turf, speed and stamina, Europe and America—and reminded us all of the transferable essence of a great Thoroughbred. The "permanent project," in horses and horsemen alike, is class. And, though our world may constantly be changing, it is surely a better place for the legacy of a man like Mellon; and, likewise, for the one now being cultivated by Peter Brant.

"He came in on Saturday, had a little [three-furlong] blowout [in :39.22] here on Tuesday," Sheets said. "He’s another well-built, big horse. He’s figuring it out a little bit, but he’s been doing really well."

Reinvestment Risk (Upstart) garnered ‘TDN Rising Star’ honors after his 7 3/4-length graduation in his career bow at Saratoga Aug. 1. The bay earned a 90 Beyer that day and repeated that figure when second in the Hopeful last time.

"He’s doing super. I’m looking forward to getting him out another furlong. He’ll have no problem with more distance," trainer Chad Brown said.

The remaining three entries in this juvenile test include: Civil War (Bodemeister), who broke his maiden for a $40,000 tag at Monmouth Sept. 7; Run Casper Run (Ghostzapper), who graduated at second asking when switched to dirt at Colonial Aug. 5; and Ambivalent (Constitution), who is a maiden of four starts, including a third in the GI Best Pal S. and another third last time in the Del Mar Juvenile Turf S. Sept. 7.

TALENTED SOPHOMORES TAKE ON THEIR ELDERS IN JOCKEY CLUB

A pair of ‘TDN Rising Star’ sophomores take on their elders in a five-horse renewal of the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup S. Saturday at Belmont, which is a “Win and You’re In” event for the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic.

Leading the sophomore duo is unbeaten Happy Saver (Super Saver). A dominant debut winner going seven panels at Belmont June 20, the Todd Pletcher pupil dominated a nine-furlong allowance next out at Saratoga July 26. The Wertheimer and Frere homebred made it three-for-three in Laurel’s Federico Tesio S. Sept. 7.

"He just had some baby setbacks," Pletcher said. "We almost had him ready to run here last fall, but we had to give him a break. It just took him a little while to get ready, but he’s certainly made up a lot of ground in a short period of time."

A second out graduate at Fair Grounds Mar. 21, fellow 3-year-old Mystic Guide (Ghostzapper) checked in second in a June 4 allowance at Belmont and was third next out in Saratoga’s GIII Peter Pan S. July 16. The Godolphin homebred rallied to victory last time at the Spa in the GII Jim Dandy S. Sept. 5.

"We were very, very pleased with his Jim Dandy run," said Godolphin’s Jimmy Bell. "He stepped up and found his way to the top level. A little of it was the blinkers and getting him more involved in the race early not giving him too much to do at the end. We’re looking forward to the distance of the Jockey Club Gold Cup."

Topping the contingent of older horses is MGSW Tacitus (Tapit), who has been knocking at the door of a coveted Grade I victory throughout his career. Winner of the GII Tampa Bay Derby and GII Wood Memorial S. last spring, the Juddmonte homebred was third in both the GI Travers S. and last term’s Gold Cup. Fifth in the Saudi Cup in February, the gray was fourth in the GII Oaklawn S. May 2 and dominated by 8 3/4 lengths in the GII Suburban S. at Belmont July 4. He enters off a runner-up effort behind Global Campaign (Curlin) in the GI Woodward H. last time Sept. 5.

"Looking back, I don't think we did anything wrong," said Bill Mott. "The horse that beat him [in the Woodward] just ran a very good race. The only thing we could have tried differently, and I don't know that it would have changed the outcome, was maybe go to that horse [Global Campaign] right away from the gate. I don't know that it would have changed anything. You sure weren't going to take him back more, the only thing would have been going on the attack early."

Rounding out the field are GIII Salvator Mile S. fourth-place finisher Name Changer (Uncle Mo) and Woodward third Prioritize (Tizway).

LOOKING FOR ‘MAGIC’ IN QEII

Newcomer Magic Attitude (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) marked her U.S. debut with an emphatic score in the Sept. 19 GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. and will try to remain undefeated at the highest level in this country in Saturday’s GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. at Keeneland.

A winner of one of three starts in France for trainer Fabrice Chappet and owner Haras du Saubousas, the English-bred returned off an eight-month layoff to take ParisLongchamp’s G3 Prix Vanteaux in May before finishing runner up in the G1 Prix Saint Alary at Chantilly in June. Transferred to trainer Arnaud Delacour following a fifth in the July 5 G1 Prix de Diane, the Lael Stables runner overcame a wide trip to win the 10-furlong Oaks Sept. 19 and will reunite with Javier Castellano, who was aboard for her U.S. unveiling.

Fellow Grade I-winner Red Lark (Ire) (Epaulette {Aus}) also tries to add another top tier tally to her record. Winless in three starts in Ireland last term, the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners runner won her second U.S. start going nine furlongs on the Santa Anita turf in February before finishing off the board in her next two black-type appearances at that Arcadia oval. Second in the Gill Wilshire S. June 20, the Paddy Gallagher trainee was third--beaten a length--in a Del Mar optional claimer July 12 before attaining a career high in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 22.

One of two fillies by Triple Crown hero American Pharoah in the field, Sweet Melania kicked off the season with a wire-to-wire win in Belmont’s one-mile GII Glensdale S. June 20 before getting nipped in the Aug. 28 GII Lake George S. at Saratoga. Trained by Todd Pletcher, the Robert and Lawana Low representative already has registered a win over the surface, having taken last fall’s GII Jessamine S. at Keeneland.

Also, sired by American Pharoah, Harvey’s Lil Goil tries to recapture the form that saw her win the nine-furlong GII Regret S. at Churchill Downs. Third returning to the dirt for the 10-furlong Gl Alabama S. at Saratoga Aug. 15, the Bill Mott pupil just missed by a neck in the Dueling Grounds Oaks over 10 1/2 furlongs at Kentucky Downs Sept. 10. Mott also saddles Belmont Oaks runner-up Antoinette (Hard Spun).

VEQUIST LOOKS TO REPEAT IN FRIZETTE

Vequist (Nyquist) was ultra-impressive when earning her diploma in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 6 and looks to replicate that performance at Belmont Saturday in the GI Frizette S., which grants the winner a spot in the gate for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. Missing by just a nose in her 4 1/2-panel unveiling at Parx July 29, the dark bay graduated in style with a dominant 9 1/2-length success in Saratoga’s Spinaway.

“She has to confirm it; anybody can do it once,” Butch Reid said. “You have to do it a couple of times to really prove you belong at that level. But she jumped from 4 1/2 furlongs to seven-eighths and against Grade I company, so it was impressive, and I really liked the way she handled herself. We got up to Saratoga a couple of days ahead of time and she acted really great in the paddock. The way she acted was what impressed me more than anything else. She handled it like a seasoned, old racehorse.”

Steve Asmussen saddles a filly who also broke her maiden impressively in ‘TDN Rising Star’ Cantata (Medaglia d’Oro). The $950,000 KEESEP purchase stormed home to a dazzling 10 1/4-length victory in her career bow at Saratoga Aug. 16.

“Td's come in and done everything correctly,” said Asmussen assistant Toby Sheets. “She's quite the individual. We’re looking forward to seeing her step up her game a little bit. She’s a racehorse. She does her job and has it down.”

The Hall of Fame conditioner also saddles Joy’s Rocket (Anthony’s Cross) opened her account with a win in the slop at Churchill June 28 and followed suit with a front-running score on synthetic in Woodbine’s My Dear S. Aug. 1. The bay led the way in Saratoga’s grassy Bolton Landing S. 18 days later, but was overtaken late and forced to settle for second to ‘TDN Rising Star’ Toby’s Heart (Jack Milton).

“Td’s also a filly that hasn't done anything wrong. She tries every time,” Sheets said. "I think she deserves a chance."

Undefeated Dayoutoftheoffice (Into Mischief) looks to take her career to the next level here. A decisive debut winner at Gulfstream May 14, the dark bay romped by six lengths in Saratoga’s GII Schuylerville S. July 16.

Todd Pletcher and John Velazquez have teamed up to win three renewals of this event and this year they join forces on Fifth Risk (Outwork). The Paul Pompa colorbearer donned cap and gown at first asking going six panels at the Spa Aug. 23.

Rounding out the field are maiden Get On the Bus (Uncle Mo), who was second in the Aug. 7 GII Sorrento S. and fourth in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 6; and Cilla (California Chrome), who broke her maiden at second asking at Delaware Aug. 13 and was ninth in the grassy Sorority S. Sept. 7.
As has become the custom in New York’s top turf races, Chad Brown offers a three-pronged attack in Saturday’s GI Flower Bowl S., a ‘Win and You’re In’ event for the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Keeneland next month. Leading the fray is dual Grade I-winner Cambier Parc (Medaglia d’Oro), victorious in four graded stakes last season—the GI Queen Elizabeth Cup, GI Del Mar Oaks, GIII Wonder Again S. and GII Herecomesthebride S. Sent off the even-money favorite in her sole start of 2020 in the Sept. 12 GII Canadian S. at Woodbine, the OXO Equine runner finished runner-up behind Rideforthecause (Candy Ride {Arg}). Jockey John Velazquez, aboard for both Grade I wins in 2019, is reunited with the 4-year-old here. Brown is also represented by Nay Lady Nay (Ire) No Nay Never), winner of two of three starts this term, including Monmouth’s nine-furlong GII Matchmaker S. in July. The 4-year-old, who returned to score in Laurel’s All Along S. Sept. 7, will be joined by Irad Ortiz Jr. for the first time Saturday.

Flying high following a victory in last weekend’s G1 Qatar Prix de L’Arc de Triomphe with Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), Peter Brant is represented by the French hero’s half-sister My Sister Nat (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}). Winner of the G3 Bertrand de Tarragon at Longchamp during her sophomore season, the bay was winless in a quartet of starts at four, however, did hit the board in three of them, including a second in Aqueduct’s 11-furlong GIII Long Island S. Nov. 30. Runner-up behind Mean Mary (Scat Daddy) in Belmont’s GII New York S. June 27, the French-bred annexed the 12-furlong GIII Waya S. at the Spa Aug. 8. Most recently, she finished second to Civil Union (War Front) in the Sept. 5 GII Glens Falls S.

SANDS OF ‘SUMMER’

Sophomore fillies take center stage in the GII Sands Point S. at Belmont Saturday and among leading contenders in the eight-furlong event is Waterford Stable’s Speaktomeofsummer (Summer Front). Victorious in last fall’s Chelsey Flower S. at the Big A, she kicked off 2020 with a fourth-place finish in Belmont’s Wonder Again S. in June before realizing a head score in Saratoga’s GII Lake Placid S. July 19. Rank in the early going of the Saratoga Oaks Invitational S. at 9 1/2 furlongs Aug. 16, the Christophe Clement trainee finished fourth behind Antoinette (Hard Spun) and cuts back in this return. Joel Rosario, aboard for her three latest starts, gets the call in the Sands Point.

“The filly is doing great. She’s working well and looks well. I’m excited to see her run,” said Clement. “I think she’s very versatile from a mile to a mile and a quarter. I don’t see the distance as a negative, I think she’s perfectly OK with it.”

Klaravich Stables’ Selflessly (More Than Ready) attempts to add her third graded tally Saturday for trainer Chad Brown. A winner in last season’s 8 1/2-furlong GII Miss Grillo S., she closed out the year with a fifth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Filling that same position in her 2020 return in the GIII Wonder Again S. in June, the Maryland-bred was given some time off before resuming with a nose score in Saratoga’s GIII Lake George S. Aug. 28. Jose Ortiz, winning at 25% at the Belmont meet, accompanies the filly for the first time.

“Selflessly is doing really well coming off a nice win last time out,” said Brown.

Brown is also represented by Tamahere (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), making her U.S. debut following a listed score at La Teste De Buch in France in June. The French-bred will be ridden by Irad Ortiz Jr.

GOT STORMY ‘NOSE’ THE WAY TO THE WIRE IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

Making just her second lifetime appearance in a true one-turn race and trying a distance as short as 5 1/2 furlongs for the first time in career start number 25, the classy Got Stormy (Get Stormy) needed every inch of the Keeneland stretch, but was shoved across the line by Tyler Gaffalione to win Friday’s GII Buffalo Trace Franklin County S.

Got Stormy broke outward at the start, bothering Chalon (Dialed In) to her outside, and settled near the back of the field through the opening exchanges. Not rushed into the race and patiently handled while racing with cover on the turn, the chestnut was steered out to the grandstand side, but had the better part of a six-length deficit to overcome with time ticking away. But the 9-10 favorite sustained her rally into the final furlong and dropped her nose down just ahead of Into Mystic (Into Mischief), whom she defeated into third in their previous head-to-head battle in the GIII Ladies Sprint S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 12. Got Stormy covered her final three-sixteenths of a mile in an other-worldly :16.75. She sprinted her final 110 yards in :5.69. Into Mystic sat a cozy trip inside, pulled out three wide at the entrance to the stretch and proved a luckless loser.

Jakarta (Bustin Stones) made the running and settled for third.

Runner-up to Uni (GB) (More Than Ready) in last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Mile, Got Stormy closed the season victoriously in the GI Matriarch S., but took some time to find form this year. Ridden a bit handier to the pace than she had been in 2019, Got Stormy just missed against males in the GI Kilroe Mile in March, but was no better than fourth in Belmont’s GII Beaugay S. June 3 and in the GII Poker S. July 4. She hinted at a return to her best with a hard-trying second to loose-on-the-lead Halladay (War Front) in defense of her title in the GI Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 22 before successfully dropping back to 6 1/2 furlongs over soft turf last time.
Winning trainer Mark Casse indicated that Mother Nature could have a hand in which Breeders' Cup race Got Stormy ends up in. "[Owner] Gary [Barber] and I will talk about it and if the turf course were to be extremely firm, it would be a decision [between the Mile and the Turf Sprint]. It's all going to depend on weather," the conditioner said.

Pedigree Notes:
Got Stormy is one of two stakes performers for her dam, a half-sister to the Mt. Joy-bred MGSW/MGISP Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) and to Grade II-winning juvenile Overdriven (Dixie Union). Third dam Twin Propeller was a reliable runner for Brian Burns's operation in the Midwest, winning stakes events at the Fair Grounds and at Arlington Park while under the care of the late Gene Cilio. Got Stormy has a 2-year-old half-brother named Got Curly (Super Saver), a yearling half-brother by Mohaymen and a weanling half-brother by Bolt d'Oro. She was covered by Uncle Mo this past breeding season.

SPARKED BY WINNING VINO ROSSO
PLEDGE, BAR NOW HIGHER FOR NEW VOCATIONS BC PLEDGE DRIVE by T.D. Thornton
The bar is set high for the 11th annual New Vocations Breeders' Cup pledge drive. Last year's fundraiser for the nation's largest retired racehorse rehabilitation and placement program netted $130,000 from owners and trainers of Breeders' Cup entrants. The exclamation point on that record amount was provided by Vino Rosso (Curlin) winning the GI Classic, because the colt's two ownership partners--St. Elias Stable and Repole Stable--plus trainer Todd Pletcher, all pledged their support.

Over the last decade New Vocations has raised $650,000 with its annual Breeders' Cup funding drive, which asks the connections of entrants to voluntarily pledge from one-half of 1% to 10% of purse earnings over the two-day championships. This model is unique because it has zero overhead costs, so 100% of the money raised goes straight to aftercare efforts.
Repole, Pletcher, and Viola pledged a percentage of Vino Rosso's Breeders' Cup Classic earnings to New Vocations

But the industry's need for New Vocations' non-profit services grows each year, and re-homing equine athletes got quite a bit more challenging in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic. A click right here will take you straight to the online pledging page.

St. Elias Stable is the racing operation of Vincent Viola, the founder and executive chairman of the electronic trading firm Virtu Financial and former chairman of the New York Mercantile Exchange. He graduated from West Point Academy and served in the U.S. Army Reserves. Viola also owns the NHL's Florida Panthers.

"After meeting the principals at New Vocations, we just felt very, very comfortable that they put the horse before themselves, quite frankly," Viola told TDN. "They'll find the right second career for a horse [according to its] disposition. They go the extra mile, and we've been trying to support them consistently ever since. That pledge is one of the things you can do in our great sport where you know you are providing a substantial return on investment."

"Sometimes it just surprises me how owners are willing to pay $500,000 for a horse but are not willing to make a $10,000 donation to an agency that makes sure their horses eventually get a proper home and the proper care that they truly deserve," Repole continued. "I get disappointed when I hear that owners haven't stepped up."

Pletcher's support for New Vocations as a trainer also goes far back.

"First and foremost, it's paramount that we take care of horses not only during their racing careers, but, just as importantly, after their racing careers are over," Pletcher said. "The Repoles and the Violas understand how important aftercare is. [With Vino Rosso] those are the situations you love to be in. When you get to win a race of the magnitude of the Breeders' Cup Classic, you're more than happy to make those contributions."

Although the concept of aftercare has progressed markedly since the first New Vocations Breeders' Cup pledge drive in 2009, Viola underscored there is still more that needs to be done to help Thoroughbreds on a longer-term arc.

"We have come a good way in a short amount of time with aftercare," Viola said. "But we have to be much, much better than we are. For the sportsmen and women who participate, I consider it a fundamental responsibility to make sure those equine athletes live out a natural life. I won't be satisfied until we're monitoring and watching the natural lifespans of the entire foal crop every year."

Repole is not only a New Vocations donor. He's watched some of his own horses go through and benefit from the program, and he added that the payback in terms of good karma endures long after those Thoroughbreds left his stable.

"It's great to get the updates and photos of where my horses have been," Repole said. "It makes me feel really, really good to know that my horse that won at both Belmont and Gulfstream is now a jumping horse in Pennsylvania for some smiling 13-year-old girl."

"It feels like a win when you get a report like that," Repole continued. "Maybe not like a Breeders' Cup Classic win with Vino Rosso. But a definite, good win that makes you feel really happy--and it didn't come with any anxiety or stress of a big race."

NYRA POSTPONES MONDAY GRADED RACES

With the remnants of Hurricane Delta slated to dump a significant amount of rain in the region, officials at the New York Racing Association elected not to card the GII Hill Prince S. for sophomore turf horses and the GII Knickerbocker S. for older turf males for Monday’s Columbus Day program at Belmont Park. According to a tweet from Daily Racing Form’s David Grening, the Hill Prince will be carded next Saturday, Oct. 17, while the Knickerbocker will take place the following afternoon. Each race carries purse money of $150,000.

COPA BULLRICH STAGES OCTOBER SALE

Argentine sale company Copa Bullrich staged its October sale of 2-year-olds on Oct. 6 and 8, with 16 stud farms offering members of their crops. The live auctions at La Pasión Stud Farm, which were also streamed live, followed a four-day online pre-sale. For the first time since lockdown began, a select group of buyers was welcomed in-person.

Topping trade was La Leyenda’s Orpen filly out of the Group 2-winning Suska (Arg) (Exchange Rate), who brought a price of $50,000.

The top-priced colt was Santa Ines’s Catcher In The Rye (Ire) son of the Orpen mare Magnetic Filly (Arg), who brought $48,500. Magnetic Filly is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Magnetic Eyes (Arg) (Sky Classic). Orpen and Catcher In The Rye accounted for the top five prices at the sale.

VIRTUAL TIEA CEREMONY TO TAKE PLACE NOV. 5

The Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards (TIEA), presented by Godolphin, will be handed out during a virtual ceremony to be held during Breeders’ Cup week, Thursday, Nov. 5.

“We are excited to land on this date for the awards ceremony,” said Katie LaMonica, Director of Charitable Initiatives for Godolphin USA. “It’s such an exciting week in our industry and we wanted our finalists and winners to be a part of it as they are the backbone of our industry and contribute to the overall success of our sport. I would like to thank our partners, who have helped TIEA adapt in this different and difficult year. We look forward to recognizing and rewarding our finalists in a new, engaging way.”

The ceremony will highlight the three finalists in each of the six categories, with a winner in each category announced as part of the event. The Thoroughbred Industry Community Award winner, Maria Cristina Silva of NYTHA, who was selected by the shortlist judging panel Aug. 24, will also be celebrated during the virtual ceremony. To learn more about the finalists in the lead up to the virtual ceremony, please visit TIEA.org.

Jill Byrne will host the virtual ceremony, which will begin at 12 p.m. ET. The event will be streamed at the TDN homepage.

EMERALD DOWNS ANNOUNCES PURSE INCREASE

Officials at Emerald Downs in Auburn, WA, have announced that the purses for all races are to be increased by 10% for the final three weeks of the 2020 racing season, Oct. 14 through Oct. 29.

Through 30 days of live racing, handle is averaging $1,871,799, a 67% increase over last year.

“We have been pleased at the increased betting on our races plus the increased wagering by Washington residents through the advanced deposit companies,” track president Phil Ziegler said.

The purse increase applies to the final seven days of racing this season.
BIG FIELDS FOR VIRGINIA FALL RACES

A total of 94 horses have been entered for the nine races that comprise Saturday’s Virginia Fall Races at Glenwood Park in Middleburg. Owing to COVID-19 restrictions, there will be no fans in attendance, but a live stream may be accessed here. The live stream is sponsored by Brown Advisory, Charleston’s The Post and Courier, Bruton Street-US, and the Virginia Equine Alliance.

With purse money totaling $115,000, the program is anchored by the fourth race on the program, the National Sporting Library and Museum Cup which will be run as a timber race and therefore sees its purse bumped from $15,000 to $25,000. The card also includes three maiden hurdles, a handicap for horses rated 115 and lower, a timber maiden, steeplechase over natural brush and timber fences and a timber race and training-flat contest, each restricted to apprentice jockeys.

Got Stormy (Get Stormy) arrives in the nick of time to land the GIII Bourbon Trace Franklin County S.

REGALLY BRED CURLIN FILLY EARDS ‘RISING STAR’ TAG AT BELMONT

Shadwell Stable’s Malathaat (Curlin), a daughter of Grade I winner Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy), ran to the money and her pedigree with a ‘TDN Rising Star’-worthy debut victory at Belmont. Breezing a half-mile bullet in :49 1/5 (1/10) on Saratoga’s Oklahoma training track Oct. 3, she was hammered down to 4-5 favoritism for this career bow. Running the middle of the bunched up sextet early, the $1.05-million KEESEP buy pushed her way up to contest the pace as the first quarter went in :23 flat. Clocking a half-mile in :47.15, the bay was briefly headed by Caramel Swirl (Union Rags) on the backstretch, but reasserted herself at the top of the lane. Caramel Swirl did her best to stay with her rival, but Malathaat was always going the better of the two and held off the Godolphin homebred by 1 3/4 lengths at the line. It was 11 1/4 lengths back to third-place finisher. The victory marked Hall of Famer John Velazquez’s 2,000 win at Belmont Park.

“New York has been home to me for 30 years and to put up a number like this is big,” Velazquez said. “I’m so thankful for all the opportunities I’ve been given and this moment is very special.”

Barbara Banke’s Stonestreet Stables bred and campaigned 2012 GI Frizette S. heroine and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Dreaming of Julia, who was ridden by Velazquez and trained by Malathaat’s conditioner Todd Pletcher. Dreaming of Julia is the first foal out of two-time Grade I winner Dream Rush (Wild Rush), who also produced MGSw and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Dream Pauline (Tapit) and stakes-winning young sire Atreides (Medaglia d’Oro). Malahaat is the third foal out of Dreaming of Julia, but the first to race. The 10-year-old mare’s recent produce includes a yearling colt by Medaglia d’Oro and a Curlin filly born Apr. 6 of this year. She was bred back to Medaglia d’Oro last spring.

PLETCHER UNVEILS MILLION-DOLLAR BABY

Repole Stable, St. Elias Stable and the Coolmore contingent teamed up at Keeneland September to acquire a $1-million son of Got Lucky (A.P. Indy) named OVERTOOK (Curlin) and he debuts here for that Grade I-winning mare’s conditioner Todd Pletcher. The colt hails from the family of Grade I winners Imagining (Giant’s Causeway), Super Saver (Maria’s Mon), Callback (Street Sense), Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) and Girolamo (A.P. Indy); as well as MGSW & GISP Daydreaming (A.P. Indy).

"He's a well-made horse. He's a good moving well-balanced kind of horse so he wasn't hard to pick out," Pletcher said. "He's a colt that we've seen improve steadily all summer. Obviously, he's bred to be a two-turn horse. Hopefully, he finishes up well and builds off of this."

Also making his first start here is Chiefswood Stables homebred Weyburn (Pioneerof the Nile). The Jimmy Jerkens trainee boasts a string of speedy worked, capped by a best-of-49 half-mile in :47 1/5 at Belmont Oct. 3. A half-brother to GSW Yorkton (Speightstown), he hails from the family of champion Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}); as well as MGSW & GISP Daydreaming (A.P. Indy).

EMBOLDEN | MJC

With his last win 13 months ago in the Jamestown S. at Colonial, Embolden was overdue for a visit to the winner’s circle. He emerged from the early fray in the Punch Line ready for a fight. Ready to Run (Run Away and Hide) was a step quicker and led him by a length through the first fraction in :21.88, but Embolden collared him with a quarter to go. The gray got the half in :44.53, quickly pulling clear by daylight. Lynchburg closed courageously down the lane, but Embolden was too far in front and held by a length in spite of switching to his wrong lead at the wire.

“I’m feeling very ecstatic,” said jockey Trevor McCarthy, who won three stakes on the card. “To win the third stake of the day with Embolden, he’s been one of my favorites since I broke his maiden at Colonial. I was happy to see him back sprinting today. It was a big field so I wanted to get out as quick as I could and get position. I knew [Ready to Run] would be great speed from the rail so I wanted to lay second and stalk and get him in a good rhythm. It was a pretty hot pace but I wasn’t too worried. He gave me his kick turning for home and I was very happy with him.”

Embolden now has three wins and a second from four starts at the Punch Line distance, including a 10-length maiden score and the Jamestown win, but hasn’t done too badly when stretched out from six furlongs to a mile either, with placings in the GIII Futurity S., Atlantic Beach S., Edward P. Evans S., and Remington Springboard Mile S. The only off-the-board finishes of his career came in his last two outings—a fourth in the Aug. 29 GIII Saranac S. and a 10th in the Sept. 16 GIII Franklin-Simpson S.

Margins: NK, 1, 1. Odds: 0.05, 63.20, 6.50.

With Beyer Speed Figures up to 97, Largent has never been worse than second in seven previous starts. The bay was coming off a second in the Sept. 7 Lure S. over this distance at the Spa, which had followed a win at a mile in the Edward P. Evans S. at Colonial Downs July 29. The consistent gelding has never competed on the dirt and has raced exclusively at distances of eight furlongs to 1 1/16 miles.

Sent as the prohibitive chalk in the Bert Allen, Largent broke sharply but settled into an inside tracking spot. Patient behind fractions of :23.58 and :47.94, he looked boxed in on the turn before bursting through a hole on the rail and hooking up with Tolaga Bay down the stretch. The two eyeballed each other before Largent edged in front by a neck.

“I just sat chilly and tried not to panic on him,” said winning rider Trevor McCarthy. “He was the best horse in the race. That day at Colonial he seemed like he could really shoot through a seam when there was one, so I just tried not to really get pressured and get panicked and take it as the race came up. He likes to fight, this horse. I have to give a huge credit to [Tolaga Bay] who really put up a good race. He does everything you want him to. I’m just really happy.”

Largent is the last foal out of his dam, who died in 2018. She was out of the MGISW Life at the Top (Seattle Slew), who, in addition to having a stellar race record, also produced European GSW & GISP Elizabeth Bay (Mr. Prospector), and was a half-sister to champion and GI Kentucky Derby winner Bold Forbes (Irish Castle). With Virginia Beach won on debut at Laurel Jan. 31 and was fourth in an allowance there Mar. 7. Fifth in a Delaware allowance Sept. 12, she was the second choice in this black-type bow. Seizing the early advantage, the bay zipped through a first quarter in :23.17. Confronted by the field approaching the turn, she kicked away in the lane and outlasted another assault from Tea in China to score. Cont. p5

A first-out, determined head winner July 30 at Delaware, Kenny Had a Notion didn’t fare as well when seen again in the Sept. 26 First State Dash S. even after working three straight bullets over Laurel’s main track. He caught a sloppy Delaware surface that day, got bumped, and threw in the towel to finish sixth. Redemption was sweet when switched to the turf for an impressive win in the Jamestown S.

Given a 10-1 chance in this seasonal bow, the homebred was off a step slow and raced off the fence in mid-pack early, keeping close tabs on the pacesetter through respectable early fractions. Tipping three wide to launch a bid turning for home, the chestnut unraveled his big stride in the lane, collaring Adare (Medaglia d'Oro) by a neck at the line. TELEPHONE TALKER (c, 3, Wicked Strong--Kathern’s Kitten, by Kitten’s Joy) began his career a year ago at Keeneland for Chad Brown and has since raced in three states from 6 1/2 to nine furlongs, on both dirt and turf, and has never finished worse than third. However, that initial win still eluded Telephone Talker in his first start Sept. 15 since coming off a seven-month layoff and being switched to the Mike Maker barn, but it was a different story Friday. Breaking from the inside, the 3-1 shot was shuffled back to third-from-last, but hung onto the rail and saved ground. Edging up throughout, the bay was tipped out around horses at the three-sixteenths pole and switched to his wrong lead down the lane, but prevailed with a relentless drive to the catch Winters Back (Summer Front) by three-quarters of a length. Telephone Talker is a half to Artemus Bridge (Verrazano), SP, $188,820. Kathern’s Kitten also has a yearling colt by Flintshire (GB) who was a $12,000 RNA at Keeneland September. She was bred to Lord Nelson for next term. Lifetime Record: 6-1-3-2, $95,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

6th-Santa Anita, $56,500, Msw, 10-9, 3yo/up, 1 1/8mT, 1:47.11, fm, nose.

COMRADERY (IRE) (c, 3, Camacho (GB)--Shamardyh (Ire), by Shamardal), runner-up in a single start overseas in a seven-furlong test on Dundalk’s synthetic surface in January, finished third in his U.S. bow while routing 8 1/2 furlongs over the Del Mar turf July 27. A neck back in second going a mile at the seaside oval Aug. 22, he was installed the 6-5 choice to break through with the added yardage here. At the back through honest initial splits, the Irish-bred began to pick off horses entering the far turn and was five wide turning for home. Prompted by Umberto Rispoli through the lane, the bay took over in the final jumps and was a nose ahead of Frasard (GB) (Casamento (Ire)) at the wire. This is the family of champion juvenile filly It’s In The Air (Mr. Prospector). Sales history: €40,000 Ylg ’18 TIRSEP. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, $52,535. DONT FLOAT THE ICE (f, 2, Can the Man--Stellar Strength, by Gone West), let go at 11-1 in this unveiling, shot from the gate as if released from a canon and blazed through a :21.58 first quarter. Still under a hand ride entering the turn, the dark bay cruised clear of the field with ease to win as she pleased by 5 1/2 lengths. Driving Wind (Big Blue Kitten) was best of the rest in second. The winner’s dam produced a Treasure Beach (GB) filly in 2019 and an Uncaptured colt in 2020. She was bred back to Fast Anna. Sales history: $37,000 2yo ’20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,600. ZERTZ (c, 2, Super Saver--Capar Girl (SW, $180,455), by Munnings), sent off the 2-5 choice in this unveiling, was sent straight to the front, clicking off early splits of :22.48 and :46.75. Wide turning for home, the bay maintained the tempo from there, graduating by 2 1/2 lengths over Middle Earth (Orb). Sales history: $57,000 RNA Wlg ’18 KEENOV; $32,000 RNA Ylg ’19 KEESEP; $60,000 2yo ’20 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $16,260. SATONO APOLLON (JPN) (c, 2, Into Mischief--Final Decision, by Super Saver) debuted as a 5-1 chance over this track and distance July 25 and gave an excellent account of himself, finishing two lengths second behind a winner that has since doubled up (video, gate 3). The April foal is out of a half-sister to champion Informed Decision (Monarchos), who was purchased with this foal in utero for $425K at Fasig-Tipton November in 2017. Satono Apollon, an 80-million ($737,600) acquisition at last year's JRHA Select Sale, has a yearling half-sister by Heart Cry (Jpn) and a weanling half-sister by Lord Kanaloa (Jpn).

A $200K Keeneland September yearling turned $700K OBS April breezer, the dark bay is kin to Good Magic's yearling full-brother, who fetched $800K at KEESEP last month. A half-brother to turf MGSW Isabella Sings (Eskendereya), MSW & GSP Alaura Michelle (Arch) and SW Tobacco Road (Quality Road), Harry Barows was bought back on a bid of $275K at KEESEP in 2018, then realized $425K at OBSAPR last spring.
