THIS SIDE UP: YOUNG GUNS SEEK JUVENILE MOMENTUM

by Chris McGrath

You can’t really resent someone hoarding the ammunition, if he only needs it because he's being forced to play Russian roulette. That’s pretty much how things are for all those new, unproven stallions who corral such huge books of mares. Yes, I remain ever aggrieved on behalf of those quiet achievers who never get commercial traction, despite results that will almost invariably prove beyond their emerging rivals. But I do feel increasing sympathy for the young guns, because their margin for error is zero. They have to land running, or they can pack their bags. Only rarely can a horse persuade the market to repent, like Daredevil. His export to Turkey last year, certainly, was a good deal more typical than his recent repatriation. After entertaining 376 mares across three seasons, he had found himself reduced to 21 as breeders moved on to the next parade of clean-cut cadets.

Such is the ruthlessly narrow window of opportunity. While allowances may be made for the two-turn type--whose clientele tend to be in less of a hurry and may even, glory be, include end-users--any of us can already look down the current freshmen’s table and speculate which may be first to Louisiana, and which to Korea. BAFFERT’S LAWYER: DRAPE’S ‘FALSE’ STORY ‘DEBUNKED’

Bob Baffert’s attorney issued a statement Tuesday saying that New York Times reporter Joe Drape’s reporting in 2019 on Justify’s scopolamine positive was a “false story and narrative” which “were definitively debunked” in last week’s California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) hearing on the matter.

The statement from attorney W. Craig Robertson III reads, in full: “On Sept. 11, 2019, Joe Drape of the New York Times published an article concerning trainer Bob Baffert and Triple Crown-winning horse Justify. The article strongly and inaccurately suggested that Mr. Baffert had intentionally doped Justify with scopolamine in the 2018 Santa Anita Derby, and falsely stated that scopolamine was a performance-enhancing substance. VERONIQUE A TIMELY PURCHASE FOR HOLMES

Marula Park Stud’s Tony Holmes has enjoyed sales success with mares he has purchased in partnership in the past, but next week the native New Zealander and a 22-year veteran of the farm may have success on the next level when Veronique (Mizzen Mast) (hip 244D) passes through the ring during Monday’s first session of the Keeneland November Sale.

CHEERING FOR HOPE FROM HOUSTON

Nearly a thousand miles from Keeneland, a Houston, Texas, watch party featuring Camp Hope (Summer Front), a contender in Saturday’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, will cheer on the colt who is named after the residential program that provides support to combat veterans.

BLENDED CITIZEN RETIRED

Sayjay Racing LLC’s, Greg Hall and Brooke Hubbard’s multiple graded-stakes winner Blended Citizen (Proud Citizen–Langara Lass, by Langfuhr) has been retired from racing and will be offered at the upcoming Keeneland November Sale.

The juvenile program at the Breeders’ Cup on Friday serves as a real "windsock" for those latest stallions trying to get airborne. Needless to say, we also have several established names defending their patriarchal status through the likes of Essential Quality (Tapit). But the annual distribution of the mare pool is such that the most precocious animals in any crop—typically out of more commercial dams—tend to represent the new blood.

Sure enough, Not This Time looks to seal his flying start with an unbeaten favorite, Princess Noor, in the GI Juvenile Fillies. In the same race, others near the top of the freshmen’s league are represented by Simply Ravishing (Laoban) and Vequist (Nyquist).

Success for Vequist would show how tightly these cycles turn: Nyquist himself, in sealing his championship at the Breeders’ Cup, belonged to the first crop of Uncle Mo—who duly gained an eponymous momentum he has maintained ever since.

Nyquist also fields Gretzky the Great in the GI Juvenile Turf (presented by Coolmore America), where Outwork has the chance to consolidate his own strong start through Outadore. And in the GI Juvenile (presented by Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance) itself, a whole bunch of freshmen take a hand: Not This Time again, plus one apiece for Upstart, Frosted and Brody’s Cause; and a couple of longshots for Laoban.

Even getting this far, mind, is only a start. Plenty of stallions have faltered after producing one or two headliners early in their careers. The challenge, then, is to consolidate after the same fashion as Maclean's Music, who gained his first-crop foothold through the GI Preakness success of Cloud Computing but has now, crucially, built on that with two Breeders' Cup favorites: Complexity, in the GI Big Ass Fans Dirt Mile; and Jackie's Warrior, here in the Juvenile.

Complexity has regrouped splendidly after bombing in the 2018 Juvenile, having pitched up (just like Jackie's Warrior) as a dazzling GI Champagne winner. Jackie's Warrior's forte, unsurprisingly in a barn full of speedballs, appears to be "pouring it on". Whether he can stretch again remains to be seen: for the one-turn mile at Belmont, he tempered his opening fractions to 23.12 and 46.54, having blazed 22.56 and 44.83 in the GI Runhappy Hopeful S. and 22.06 and 44.85 over six on his previous start. The handicappers who think money grows on speed figure trees will seek no farther.

But if Maclean's Music is a model for the rookies—in his own freshman campaign, 20 winners from just 40 starters conceived at $6,500 earned him 181 mares (including the dam of Jackie's Warrior) at $25,000 the following spring—then he is still gazing upwards at venerable Classic influences like Tapit and the late Empire Maker. Both have aristocratic sons menacing Jackie's Warrior, but whereas Essential Quality—his family newly decorated by Japanese champ Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn))—is a Grade I winner over the track, Classier arrives here very raw. The single consolation, when Empire Maker died at the start of the year, was that he had long secured his legacy, with grandsons at stud including American Pharoah, Cairo Prince, Classic Empire, Midnight Storm and Always Dreaming. True, their respective sires had left the stage: Pioneerof the Nile predeceased Empire Maker, while Bodemeister was one of those posted to Turkey after failing to build on his breakout.
With another couple of crops in the pipeline, however, Empire Maker may yet add one or two direct heirs.

As a $775,000 Keeneland September yearling, Classier was certainly priced to be a stallion—and his powerful ownership group could not have asked for a better start. They will be making no assumptions, however, after what happened with another son of Empire Maker in this race last year.

The implosion of Eight Rings opened the door to Storm the Court (Court Vision), whose shock success was by no means an outlier in a race that has also given us the likes of Action This Day (Kris S.), Wilko (Awesome Again), Vale of York (Ire) (Invincible Spirit [Ire]) and Anees (Unbridled). In that tradition, I offer you Rombauer (Twirling Candy).

Certainly his sire sets an exemplary pattern to the young guns, having dropped from $15,000 to $10,000 when his first runners appeared before earning gradual increments to $40,000. In the present market, moreover, for Twirling Candy to hold that fee for 2021 in effect represents another hike. And the diversity of his best stock, from dirt dashers (like GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint candidate Collusion Illusion) to turf routers, puts him in a strong position in the race eventually to succeed Candy Ride (Arg).

Actually his sire’s flexibility almost put Rombauer off the scent, as he started his career on grass. But then the excellent Michael McCarthy switched John and Diane Frankin’s homebred to the main track for the GI American Pharoah S. The result was a really auspicious two-turn dirt reconnaissance. Detached early, while appearing perfectly at ease, he circled the field with a powerful move and closed to within a length of the winner, who had been handy throughout, clearing away all the while from Classier’s odds-on barnmate Spielberg (Union Rags).

Rombauer has royal Californian blood: his second dam is Ultrafleeting, who gave us not only Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint winner California Flag (Avenue of Flags) but also his sister Cambiocorsa, "queen of the hill" at Santa Anita and granddam of Roaring Lion (Kitten’s Joy).

This winter brings us the poignant, fleeting opportunity to buy the only weanlings by Roaring Lion, whose story reminds us how unpredictable are the paths ahead of even the most wonderful young horses. Safe travels to all, then. All the rest is gravy.

The statement continued, "Mr. Drape similarly implied that the California Horse Racing Board, which had investigated the facts surrounding Justify and determined that there had been no wrongdoing, was corrupt and covering up for Mr. Baffert’s alleged misconduct.

“Last week, Mr. Drape’s false story and narrative were definitively debunked. In a public hearing on the Justify case, the California Horse Racing Board, which now consists of members that are entirely different from the allegedly ‘corrupt’ ones in place in 2018, stipulated that the presence of scopolamine in Justify: (1) was the result of environmental contamination, specifically that Justify was inadvertently exposed to hay containing a naturally growing plant called jimsonweed, which contains scopolamine; and (2) there was no performance-enhancing effect on Justify in the Santa Anita Derby. Thus, it has now been conclusively and legally established that the entire premise of the (2019) New York Times story on Justify was false.

“Mr. Drape’s coverage of Mr. Baffert continues to be inaccurate in other significant respects. For example, recently he has repeatedly accused Mr. Baffert of medication violations in Arkansas and Kentucky involving “banned” substances when, in fact, each of those cases involve lawful, therapeutic medications. These representations are similarly false and must be corrected.”

On Oct. 22, Drape wrote that Gamine had tested positive for a “banned substance” in the Times. Robertson responded at the time, “Betamethasone is a legal, commonly used anti-inflammatory medication. It is not a ‘banned substance.’”

Robertson’s Tuesday email to the media said that Baffert would be issuing his own statement Wednesday.
In August, the CHRB announced that the win by Justify in the 2018 running of the GI Santa Anita Derby would come under official administrative scrutiny by the organization, but that Baffert, the trainer of the eventual undefeated Triple Crown winner, would not have a CHRB complaint lodged against him “due to substantial evidence that the scopolamine resulted from environmental contamination from jimsonweed.” The CHRB has yet to issue a ruling following last week’s scopolamine hearing.

A now-controversial 2018 commission vote to exonerate Justify and Baffert was not publicly disclosed, and took place privately after a detailed investigation that substantiated the environmental contamination by jimsonweed. In roughly the same timeframe in 2018, the CHRB received positive post-race tests for scopolamine on five other horses from other barns, and the CHRB eventually treated them all as unintentional jimsonweed contaminations from ingesting tainted hay.

“This case was correctly decided by the CHRB in 2018. It was a final and binding decision. And nothing has changed since then, and you all should simply affirm that decision so that we can put this matter to bed once and for all,” said Robertson at last week’s hearing. “When that investigation was complete, there were two things that were clear, undisputed and undeniable. Number one, that this was a case of innocent environmental contamination from hay and it was not a case of any intentional administration of any drug or medication. And number two, that the trace levels of scopolamine...had no effect on the performance of these horses and no effect on the races.”

Drape revealed the scopolamine positive in a New York Times article Sept. 11, 2019, in which he wrote, “Justify should not have run in the Derby, if the sport’s rules were followed” and suggested that the investigation had not been detailed at all.

“It decided, with little evidence,” he wrote, “that the positive test could have been a result of Justify's eating contaminated food. The board voted unanimously to dismiss the case. In October, it changed the penalty for a scopolamine violation to the lesser penalty of a fine and possible suspension.”

Testimony at last Thursday’s hearing indicated that change in classification of scopolamine was already in the works long before Justify’s positive.

In the story on the hearing, the TDN’s T.D. Thornton wrote, “The CHRB, by its own regulation, follows the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI) Uniform Classification Guidelines for Foreign Substances and Recommended Penalties when establishing model rules for drugs. The ARCI once classified scopolamine as a Class 3 drug (lower-number classifications are more severe). But in December 2016, the ARCI reclassified it to a lesser Class 4 offense.

Arthur testified that the CHRB fully intended to follow the ARCI’s model rule that reclassified scopolamine (and other drugs that also changed classes). But since California’s Office of Administrative Law doesn’t allow the CHRB to change rules by automatically referencing another authority’s code, the racing agency has to go through a drawn-out process to make even minute changes such as drug reclassifications. So because of this bureaucratic backlog, scopolamine in 2018 was still technically Class 3 in California, even though Arthur and the CHRB considered it to match the ARCI’s newer Class 4 downgrade.

“Arthur explained how as the equine medical director, he has regulatory leeway to take into consideration mitigating circumstances, and that’s what he did when recommending no initial penalties for the scopolamine positives.”

“It is inherently unfair to hold somebody to a classification that is outdated because of regulatory inefficiency,” Arthur said at the hearing.

Darrell Vienna, legal representative of owner Mick Ruis, offered a response to Craig Robertson’s statement. Vienna’s TDN ‘Letter to the Editor’ can be found on p13.

VERONIQUE A TIMELY PURCHASE FOR HOLMES by Jessica Martini

Tony Holmes has enjoyed sales success with mares he has purchased in partnership with employees of his Marula Park Stud in the past, but next week the native New Zealander and a 22-year veteran of the farm may have success on the next level when they send Veronique (Mizzen Mast) (hip 244D) through the ring during Monday’s first session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Holmes purchased the mare, in foal to Mastery, privately after she RNA’d for $22,000 at last year’s Keeneland November sale. It was 10 months later that her son Nashville (Speightstown) made a smashing debut at Saratoga (video), earning the ‘TDN Rising Star’ designation. When the 3-year-old colt romped home by an effortless looking 9 3/4 lengths in a Keeneland allowance (video) Oct. 10, Holmes and his partner decided to supplement the mare to the November sale.

“There is a really nice man who has worked for us for 22 years and I was looking for a mare for us to own together,” Holmes explained of Veronique’s purchase last fall. “I financed the mare and that was the whole objective. He’s been the backbone of our operation and he’s a really nice guy. The plan was to sell babies out of this mare for an income. But things have swung around in our favor, so you’ve got to take them when they do that.”
SELLING AT FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER, MOTHER MOTHER IS ALL CLASS

Mother Mother (Pioneerof the Nile) began her career with a 6 1/2-length maiden win and then finished second in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. behind Bellaftina (Quality Road), who would go on to win three Grade I stakes. It was an auspicious start to her career and a sign of more to come.

Now 4, Mother Mother has competed against the best in her class throughout her career and rarely disappointed. She has placed in seven graded stakes, including three Grade Is. There are also a pair of stakes wins on her record, in the Kalookan Queen S. and the Rags to Riches S. A versatile filly, she has won going six furlongs and ran one of the best races of her life when third, beaten just a neck at a mile-and-a-sixteenth in the GI Starlet S.

While Nashville hadn’t made it to the races yet, the colt had made a good impression in the sales ring where he sold for $460,000 to WinStar Farm and China Horse Club at the 2018 Keeneland September sale.

“Obviously, her babies had sold well and I knew that, at that time, Nashville was having a spell,” Holmes said of the mare’s appeal. “I had heard that he had ability and I knew he was at WinStar and having a spell there. I knew there was still hope.”

Nashville was pre-entered in both the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint and GI Breeders’ Cup Big Ass Dirt Mile, but it was announced Monday he would instead target Saturday’s Perryville S. on the championship undercard.

Holmes said Nashville’s impressive victories, and more importantly his potential successes, will likely take his dam’s popularity to the next level in the sales ring.

A top-notch performer at 2, 3, and 4, she has placed in black-type races from 6.5 to 8.5 furlongs, and will be offered as hip 193 from the Gainesway consignment.

“She has such a good mind and was so tough in all her races,” said co-owner Hannah Mathiesen. “She showed up in a lot of big spots and ran her race every time. She is big, very attractive scopey filly and it looks like she will make a good broodmare or racehorse, whoever someone wants to do with her.”

Mother Mother is among the more accomplished daughters of Pioneerof the Nile, the sire of Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, as well as Eclipse Award winner Classic Empire and Grade I winner Midnight Storm. Her dam is Mother (Lion Hearted), who has also produced Commanding Curve (Master Command), and her half-brother’s accomplishments include a second-place finish in the 2014 GI Kentucky Derby, where he was beaten just 1 3/4 lengths by California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit).

“I think it’s huge,” he said of Nashville’s promise. “I’ve had mares before and sometimes they win a nice race, but with him, it’s just the way he’s done it. And then Elliott Walden said he’s one of the fastest horses WinStar Farm has ever had. I’ve been in the position before, but not with a horse with this much talent.”

Veronique’s page received another update last week when her 2-year-old Market Cap (Candy Ride {Arg}) graduated by seven lengths at Laurel Park Oct. 30 (video). The 9-year-old Veronique will sell Monday in foal to GI Pacific Classic winner Collected (City Zip).

“He was a horse who had won nearly $3 million, he was a good-looking horse that [Bob] Baffert trained,” Holmes said of the choice of matings.

“I thought he was attractive at that price with his looks and his race record.”

Veronique’s weanling filly (hip 885) by Mastery will sell during Wednesday’s third session of the auction.

“She’s beautiful,” Holmes said of the weanling. “The man that works for us—he obviously owns half of her too—and we have four weanlings in the sale, but she gets the most grooming. Put it that way.”

The unraced Veronique is out of Styler (Holy Bull), a full-sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner Giacomo, and she is a half-sister to stakes winner Almond Roca (Speightstown) and graded-placed Calistoga (Speightstown). The mare will be consigned to the November sale by Paramount Sales. Holmes purchased Crystal Shard (Mr. Prospector) for $23,000 at the 2010 Keeneland November sale, also on behalf of a partnership of his farm workers. Her yearling colt at that time would go on to be GI Wood Memorial S. winner Gemologist (Tiznow). The mare was sold privately at a hefty profit. Asked what another success would mean for his longtime employee, Holmes laughed and said, “I hope he shows up the next day. There was another time there we bought a mare together and it was the dam of Gemologist. So he’s been on a bit of a home run, but after he sold that mare, the next night he was out there working overtime. But it could be a real life changer for him. They are nice people. So, hopefully. Could be.”

The Keeneland November sale opens with a single Book 1 sessions beginning at noon Monday. The auction continues through Nov. 18 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

CHEERING FOR HOPE FROM HOUSTON

by Katie Ritz

Nearly a thousand miles from Keeneland Race Course, a watch party in Houston, Texas, is sure to be cheering just as emphatically as if they were in the grandstand.

Residents of Camp Hope, a facility that provides support and mentoring to combat veterans suffering from the effects of Post-Traumatic Stress, will tune in on Friday to watch a juvenile colt named after the residential program. If Camp Hope (Summer Front) ends up in the winner’s circle for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, his earnings will go back to the facility he represents.

Camp Hope heads into the Breeders’ Cup coming off just one career start, but a flashy four-length winning one on Oct. 25 at Churchill Downs. The son of Summer Front is campaigned by Walking L Thoroughbreds, a company owned by Scott Leeds and his wife, Dana.

Leeds stopped in at the Camp Hope facility early this week to make sure the residents would be watching the races this weekend. “When I walked in, everybody knew who I was and they started saying how much they were looking forward to it,” Leeds said.
Camp Hope (Summer Front) is slated for Friday’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile | Coady

“They’d seen the race from Churchill and were pretty excited. They were asking if horses normally win in their first race and I had to explain to them that I’ve had horses that didn’t win the first 14 times they raced.”

Leeds has hardly had bad luck as an owner in Thoroughbred racing. When he retired from the oil and gas business five years ago, he decided horse racing might be an interesting new venture. He got connected with Kenny McPeek, and was quickly hooked.

“We started out with some small shares in a few horses he had bought,” Leeds recalled. “Before any of them ever ran I was already in so deep that we went to the sales in the summer of 2015 and started buying horses ourselves.”

Since then, they’ve already had several top stakes contenders including Cairo Cat (Cairo Prince), who won the Gill Iroquois S. two years ago but was held back from a Breeders’ Cup start due to an injury, as well as Envoutante (Uncle Mo), one of McPeek’s top fillies this year who most recently claimed the GIII Remington Park Oaks.

Camp Hope is not the only Walking L horse that races for a cause. It all started with a colt they named Fighting Seabee (Summer Front) in honor of Leeds’s great-grandfather who was a Navy Seabee in World War II. When the colt ran undefeated in his first two starts, including a win in last year’s Gill With Anticipation S., Leeds and his wife decided to share Fighting Seabee’s earnings with the Seabee Historical Foundation, the PTSD Foundation of America and Camp Hope.

“We’ve been supporting the PTSD Foundation of America for a few years,” Leeds said. “Their mission is to support veterans who suffer from PTSD with an expectation that if they can provide peer-to-peer support and temporary housing at Camp Hope, the lives of these folks who come back from the service and have a hard time transitioning will be impacted.”

According to their website, Camp Hope offers a minimum of a six-month program. Residents attend group counseling sessions, as well as individual mentoring sessions with a certified combat trauma mentor. Veterans will also receive vocational preparation, workforce development and job training.

“One of the statistics that knocked us over was that 22 veterans a day, on average, commit suicide in the United States,” Leeds said. “That’s one every hour and six minutes. Their mission is to stop one. If they can make one less veteran make that decision and help them cope with PTSD, the mission is successful. The groups have been so supportive and grateful for what Fighting Seabees has done. We made great racing fans out of the folks at the foundation and at Camp Hope.”

There will be much for the new fans to cheer for on Friday as Fighting Seabees will run in the ‘Future Stars Friday’ undercard in the Bryan Station S. hours before Camp Hope is set to make his second career start. Camp Hope came to be purchased by Walking L in large part from Fighting Seabees’ early success. Leeds purchased Camp Hope, a son of Summer Front, at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton July Sale just three days after Fighting Seabee became the second winner for the Airdrie stallion.

“We had actually already bought three horses and it was getting pretty late in the day,” Leeds recalled. “We were talking about where we were going to eat dinner that night when Bret Jones called Kenny and suggested we come look at a horse he was going to take through the ring in a few minutes. So we went back and ended up liking him a lot.”

When McPeek chose to enter Camp Hope in a 1 1/16-mile maiden race, Leeds said he had been excited to see the juvenile take on two turns.

“We thought he would end up being pretty strong first-time out,” he said. “But you also expect a horse would get tired going two turns in his first start so you don’t really expect to win. Coming down the backside, I saw where he was positioned and I saw the time was slow and could tell Brian had him pretty well in hand. Then I had a feeling we were in for a big performance.”

After Camp Hope's easy four-length victory, the team sat down to discuss where to go from there.

“There wasn’t much to think about,” Leeds said. “Kenny and I both felt strongly that with no Lasix, coming back in 12 days really wasn’t that much of a stretch. The horse didn’t get asked for a lot and he galloped out even further than he won by. Brian [Hernandez Jr., jockey] said they were on cruise. We pre-entered with the expectation that if he didn’t bounce back as quickly or if there were any issues, we would obviously scratch. But he’s done everything above and beyond what we’ve expected and I think it’s going to work out great.”

While McPeek is still winless at the Breeders’ Cup, he couldn’t be coming in with a hotter hand this year with four other contenders including GI Preakness S. heroine Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil).

Leeds said that he and his wife will be making the trip from Texas to Lexington on Wednesday, and that they will be on-site for the rest of the week sporting their Camp Hope gear.

“We told them we’re going to look for every opportunity to spread the word,” he said.

And while Leeds would certainly be thrilled with their first Breeders’ Cup wins, there’s no doubt he would be even more excited for the rest of their connections.

“We’re very fortunate and we feel like we’ve already outdone the expectations we set for ourselves,” he said. “If we run good, that’s our goal—to show that this horse has a really bright future going into his 3-year-old campaign. But if we happen to win, we’re just going to be over-the-moon excited for the horse, for Kenny, and then for Camp Hope. Being able to write the check to those people would truly be special.”

PEGASUS WORLD CUP TO OFFER BREEDERS’ CUP WINNERS COMPLIMENTARY TRAVEL

North American-based winners of this weekend's Breeders' Cup World Championships will be offered complimentary equine travel to Gulfstream Park to compete in the Pegasus World Cup Championship Invitational series.

The $3-million GI Pegasus World Cup for 4-year-olds and up and the $1-million GI Pegasus World Cup Turf for 4-year-olds and up will be contested Saturday, Jan. 23.

 Winners of the Pegasus World Cup and Pegasus World Cup Turf will also have guaranteed spots in the starting gate for the Saudi Cup Feb 20.

Pegasus World Cup Day will feature a total of seven stakes, all graded, worth $4.8 million.

BLENDED CITIZEN RETIRED

Sayjay Racing LLC's, Greg Hall and Brooke Hubbard's multiple graded stakes winner Blended Citizen (Proud Citizen--Langara Lass, by Langfuhr) has been retired from racing.

Bred by Ray Hanson, Blended Citizen is out of the multiple stakes-winning Langfuhr mare Langara Lass. The $85,000 OBS March graduate is a half-brother to the stakes-winning millionaire Lookin At Lee (Lookin At Lucky), runner-up in the 2017 GI Kentucky Derby.

Blended Citizen's resume includes wins in the 2018 GIII Peter Pan S. and GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks and also a win in this year's GIII Louisiana S. via disqualification. He retires with a record of 22-5-1-2 and earnings of $558,230.

A stud deal is pending for Blended Citizen. He's catalogued as a stallion prospect in the upcoming Keeneland November auction with South Point Sales.

LOOKIN AT LEE TO STAND IN NEW YORK

Lookin At Lee (Lookin At Lucky--Langara Lass, by Langfuhr), a two-time stakes winner and runner-up in the 2017 GI Kentucky Derby, has been retired from racing and will stand his first season at stud in 2021 under the management of Irish Hill & Dutchess Views Stallions LLC in Saratoga, New York. Lookin At Lee will stand his initial season for $6,500 LFSN.

The $70,000 KEESEP yearling graduate, owned by L and N Racing LLC and trained by Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen, posted a record of 35-4-6-4 and career earnings of $1,343,188. His resume also includes a runner-up finish in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and a third-place finish in the GI Arkansas Derby. He was bred in Kentucky by Ray Hanson.
"Lookin At Lee was a precocious 2-year old with an excellent disposition that brought his connections on a thrilling journey through the Triple Crown races," Asmussen said. "I'm looking forward to seeing his foals."

Lookin At Lee, bred on the similar Mr. Prospector/Danzig line as Distorted Humor, is out of the graded stakes-placed Langfuhr mare Langara Lass. He is a half-brother to MGSW Blended Citizen (Proud Citizen) and GISP Battlefield Angel (Proud Citizen), dam of 2020 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint entrant Manny Wah (Will Take Charge).

CORRECTION:

In Tuesday’s TDN, it was incorrectly reported that new 2021 Crestwood Farm sire Yorkton (Speightstown--Sunday Affair, by A.P. Indy) was trained by Graham Motion—who did have the horse for his final three starts—but the multiple graded stakes winner was trained by Stuart Simon for the majority of his career. In addition, Yorkton’s U.S. record was inadvertently omitted. His overall record in both the U.S. and Canada included 30 starts with seven wins, an additional seven placings, and earnings of $546,332.

Chiefswood Stables Limited’s Robert Krembil said, “Yorkton comes from an elite family of Grade I winners, champions and sires. Yorkton showed superior athleticism and brilliant speed during his racing career, winning at distances from three quarters to a mile. Chiefswood Stables is committing a significant number of our well-bred broodmares to Yorkton and look forward to giving him every chance to succeed.”

TDN regrets the error.
DARRELL VIENNA

I read with interest the article “Baffert’s Lawyer: Drape’s ‘False’ Story ‘Debunked’” published today on your website. Although I represent Mick Ruis, the following comments set forth facts that cannot be disputed and address a number of the patently false or clearly misleading representations contained in that article.

JUSTIFY’S OFFICIAL SAMPLE AND SPLIT SAMPLE CONFIRMED THE PRESENCE OF SCOPOLAMINE.

The prohibited substance, scopolamine, was detected in the official test sample collected from Justify following the running of the 2018 Santa Anita Derby. Split sample testing, requested by Justify’s trainer, Bob Baffert, confirmed the presence of scopolamine.

SCOPOLAMINE WAS A CLASS 3, PENALTY B SUBSTANCE IN 2018.

At the time of the running of the 2018 Santa Anita Derby, California Horse Racing Board (“CHRB”) Classification of Foreign Substances categorized scopolamine as a Class 3, Penalty B substance. It has been argued that the CHRB Classification of Foreign Substances must follow the ARCI guidelines. That is patently false as the CHRB Classification is not subordinate to ARCI guidelines. While the CHRB Classification is generally based on ARCI guidelines, specific incorporation of ARCI Guidelines must be adopted in accordance with California law as set forth in California’s Administrative Procedures Act (“APA”). The APA is designed to provide the public with a meaningful opportunity to participate in the adoption of state regulations and to ensure that regulations are clear, necessary and legally valid. Consequently, ARCI guidelines are not incorporated in CHRB guidelines unless they are specifically adopted in conformance with the APA process. Hence, any claim that scopolamine was classified as a CHRB category 4, penalty class C substance at the time of Justify’s participation in the 2018 Santa Anita Derby is false.

A FINDING BY THE BOARD OF STEWARDS THAT JUSTIFY’S POST-RACE SAMPLES CONTAINED SCOPOLAMINE MUST RESULT IN DISQUALIFICATION.

CHRB Rule 1859.5 provides that a finding by the Board of Stewards that the official sample and the split sample contain as a category 1 through 3 substance as classified by CHRB Classification of Foreign Substances requires that the horse must be disqualified and the purse, award, prize, or record must be forfeited regardless of culpability for the condition of the horse.

THE CHRB’S ADOPTION OF THE ARCI GUIDELINE REGARDING SCOPOLAMINE WAS NOT PROPOSED BEFORE THE 2018 SANTA ANITA DERBY.

There is no record of any CHRB attempt to adopt a change in its classification of Scopolamine from Class 3 to Class 4 until after the August 2018 closed session when CHRB chose not to pursue an enforcement action against Bob Baffert related to the 2018 Santa Anita Derby. Any statement that the belated adoption of the change was due to clerical error, regulatory inefficiency, or administrative backlog is not true.

CHRB RULES ARE BASED UPON THE PRESENCE OF A DRUG, NOT THE EFFECT OF THE DRUG.

It has also been argued that scopolamine has no performance enhancing effect. CHRB regulation do not address, much less, require a finding of performance enhancement. Disqualification under CHRB rules is based upon the presence, not the potential effect, of a prohibited substance.

THE CHRB’S PRIOR ACTION REGARDING BOB BAFFERT DID NOT ADDRESS PURSE DISQUALIFICATION.

In August, 2018, the CHRB, in executive session, opted not to engage in an enforcement action against Bob Baffert. Neither at that time, nor at any time thereafter until the recent CHRB hearing, did the CHRB even consider the issue of Purse Disqualification. Then CHRB Chairman Chuck Winner has repeatedly stated in relation to that 2018 executive session that “...the issue of purse redistribution was not considered.” Any argument that the issue of purse disqualification was dismissed in that aforementioned executive session is unfounded.

ONLY TWO HORSES, JUSTIFY AND HOPPERTUNITY EXCEEDED THE LABORATORY THRESHOLD FOR SCOPOLAMINE.

Claims that 5 other horses tested positive for scopolamine around the time that Justify and Hoppertunity tested positive are false. The CHRB Official Laboratory is only alleged to have found traces of scopolamine and/or atropine in the five other horses. The levels found in these five horses was below the laboratory threshold required for a certificate of analysis to be issued; consequently, the samples from these five horses were never reported as positives and any suggestion otherwise is baseless.

In sum, the statements in the article attributed to Mr. Robertson fail to address the fact that scopolamine was Class 3, Penalty B substance at the time and that a Purse Disqualification hearing which had not been previously conducted is required.

Sincerely,
Darrell Vienna
NYRA AND TVG TO DONATE $410,000 TO SUPPORT COVID-19 RELIEF

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) and TVG have announced a series of COVID-19 relief donations for a broad spectrum of non-profit organizations working to support the Thoroughbred racing community during the COVID-19 pandemic. The $410,000 in charitable contributions will be distributed to seven non-profit organizations including the New York Chapter of the Race Track Chaplaincy of America (NYRTCA), the Backstretch Employee Service Team (B.E.S.T), the Belmont Child Care Association (BCCA), the Racing Medication & Testing Consortium (RMTC), the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program (RTIP), the Permanently Disabled Jockey Fund (PDJF) and the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA).

"The racing industry has rallied in incredible ways in response to the uncertainty caused by the COVID-19 pandemic," said Kip Levin, CEO of TVG. "The entire TVG team is grateful that our partnership with NYRA will benefit these great organizations who do so much every day to help those in need."

NYRA and TVG created the relief fund in the spring of 2020 to proactively respond to the myriad challenges brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic, including the 54-day suspension of live racing in New York, the closure of casinos across the state and the continued lack of on-track attendance at all racetracks in New York.

"These organizations are all longtime partners of NYRA who have performed outstanding and oftentimes heroic work throughout the pandemic," said NYRA President and CEO David O'Rourke. "Our thanks to TVG for recognizing the importance of the services they provide to the men and women who sustain the sport here in New York."

As a result of the success of the joint effort between NYRA and TVG, the NYRTCA, B.E.S.T and the BCCA, whose work is devoted to the overall health and well-being of New York’s backstretch community, will each receive donations of $100,000.

In addition, $30,000 each will be donated to the RMTC and the RTIP with $25,000 going to both the PDJF and the TAA.

In early March, NYRA established the COVID-19 Preparedness and Response Plan Committee, comprised of key NYRA staff members as well as representatives from the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association (NYTHA), B.E.S.T, and the NYRTCA. Working together, the committee developed and implemented health and safety protocols aligning with the most updated guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and the New York State Department of Health.

Representatives of B.E.S.T, NYRTCA and BCCA set up food banks, distributed masks, provided up-to-date communications on health care, worked as translators and collected and even distributed gift cards for groceries for the hundreds of Belmont-based backstretch workers and their families. They also created more virtual learning opportunities and at-home instruction for the children of backstretch workers enrolled in Anna House, the childcare and early education facility at Belmont Park, along with performing hundreds of other tasks that will never be recorded.

SARATOGA WARHORSE LAUNCHES MILITARY ARMED FORCES AND RACEHORSES PROGRAM

Saratoga WarHorse, a not-for-profit organization which uses retired Thoroughbred racehorses to work with service members and veterans with Post-Traumatic Stress, will now use its program to aid individuals mobilized during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Military Armed Forces and Racehorses Program is designed to assist service members and veterans during the immediate aftermath of trauma and prevent the negative consequences of Post-Traumatic Stress. The program, which will formally launch this December, is currently accepting participants and is available to service members who were mobilized during the pandemic at no cost.

Since April, more than 50,000 troops across all 50 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands have been activated domestically to assist in their state's response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Additionally, approximately 25,000 retired and former U.S. Army medical personnel have volunteered their service.

"Tens of thousands of military troops were called upon to fight this invisible enemy," said U.S. Army veteran and Saratoga WarHorse Foundation Chief Executive Officer Allison Cherkosly, Ph.D. "Serving in an uncertain environment--unsure whether or not the person you’re trying to help will infect you--is stressful and traumatic. Our Military FAR Program will help spare a lot of service members and their families from the suffering caused by Post-Traumatic Stress by providing early intervention shortly after enduring trauma. With this program, we have the opportunity to make a major contribution to the field of veteran care. Instead of trying to reverse the devastating consequences of Post-Traumatic Stress, we could actually prevent it."

WOODBINE RELEASES ANNUAL CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY REPORT

Woodbine Entertainment has released its 2019-20 Corporate Responsibility Report that summarizes the company’s recent achievements during the April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020 fiscal year. While the report focuses on this period, it also includes information on how Woodbine’s operations were impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Titled Breaking New Ground, the 2019-20 Woodbine Corporate Responsibility Report focuses on the company's commitment to the communities in which it operates, philanthropy, industry leadership, property development and sustaining the horse racing industry.

“While this year has been extremely difficult for so many, including those in horse racing, we have been highly focused on strengthening our foundation to prepare us for a future of prosperity across the industry,” said Jim Lawson, CEO, Woodbine Entertainment. “Through this preparation, and despite the ongoing uncertainty caused by the global pandemic, we are optimistic about our future based on the quality of our racing, strength of our brand and efficient management of our operation.”

The report highlights contributions to three broad areas that encapsulates Woodbine’s charitable initiatives including Supporting Community Health, For the Love of Horses, and Our Footprint. Additionally, the report provides an update on the status of key endeavours such as industry leadership, optimal land development, world-class racing, people and culture, and more.

“Every year, we work to build relationships,” said Zenia Wadhwani, Woodbine’s Director, Community Relations and Corporate Affairs. “To be a good neighbour and give with the intent of making an impact in the lives of individuals, families and communities. To bring our employees together and foster the value of caring for each other and those around us. To make decisions that will be good for the environment and to be a better corporate citizen. Each year, we aim to improve upon what we have accomplished the previous year. This report is a glimpse into how we do that.”
BIG DAY AT THE ‘OFFICE’ FOR HAMM FRIDAY

by Brian DiDonato

With more than 1,300 wins and $30 million in career earnings, a training center in Florida and a breeding operation in Ohio, Tim Hamm has already done plenty to prove his skills as a horseman and businessman. But on Friday, he’ll get a chance to showcase his program on the biggest stage when he sends out unbeaten and more or less untested Dayoutoftheoffice (Into Mischief) to take on the household barns in the GI Juvenile Fillies. It will be his first runner, as a trainer at least, in the World Championships.

Like many conditioners, the Ohio native grew up around horses—he had experience with Saddlebreds and Standardbreds, and his parents owned an Arabian farm. His father, who worked for General Motors, trained horses off the family’s farm and shipped them in to race at Mountaineer.

Hamm attended Youngstown State and earned a bachelor’s degree in business before immediately starting his own construction company upon graduation. Business must have been pretty good, as a few years into his construction career, Hamm ventured down to Ocala to shop the 1994 OBS April sale.

He purchased a Pennsylvania-bred filly by Proof for $13,500 and, after someone explained to him what her state-bred status meant, Hamm pointed his purchase towards a debut at Philadelphia Park that July. Named Willowy Proof, Hamm’s filly romped by 9 1/4 lengths in that initial outing.

“I was coming off the track, and the breeder approached me and asked if she was for sale. I said ‘No, I’m just kind of fiddling around here,’” Hamm recalled. “But they offered me $100,000. At that time, I didn’t realize that when they ran big you could make some money selling them. So, that spurred the thought that maybe I could make a business out of this. It was either beginner’s luck or not that hard--now I know it was beginner’s luck.”

Hamm went back to Ocala the following year and purchased four more horses, who he says all became stakes winners. He also bought a farm in nearby Williston around that time, and while he’s added and subtracted to that property over the years, the majority of Hamm’s runners since 1995 have gotten their start at that facility.

Hamm also preps some babies at his farm for the 2-year-old sales, and has sold under his Blazing Meadows Farm banner the likes of champion Wait a While ($50,000 KEESEP ’04 to $260,000 OBSFEB ’05) and Grade I-winning juvenile Sky Diva ($100,000 KEESEP ’07 to $250,000 FTFFEB ’08).

He’s been to the Breeders’ Cup before as an owner with flashy Ohio-bred Too Much Bling, who he sent out to a 19 1/2-length maiden-breaking score at Thistledown in 2005. Stonerside Stable subsequently purchased a majority interest in the colt and turned him over to Bob Baffert, for whom he took a trio of graded stakes before finishing sixth in the 2006 GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint.

Hamm said he typically breaks a crop of 40 to 50 on his farm, but had 75 last year and will have around 80 2-year-olds of 2021. Cont. p2
A significant part of his business comes from partnering with large commercial breeders. He has a close relationship with WinStar Farm, co-breeding and campaigning Ohio-breds together and standing the stallion National Flag at Blazing Meadows Ohio as WinBlaze. Hamm has also teamed up in recent years with the likes of Three Chimneys Farm, for whom his brother Tom is Director of Stallion Seasons, and Breeders’ Cup chairman Fred Hertrich III and John Fielding. Three Chimneys and Blazing Meadows race last year’s two-time Woodbine stakes winner Fast Scene (Fast Anna) together.

“They’re on an individual basis—some of them are on deals, some we partner on and some are from conception,” Hamm said when asked about the structure of his partnerships. “Most of the WinStar horses are ones we’re breeding together. Each horse is different, how it’s structured. Historically, what we started doing years ago, if they had one they really liked but maybe the sire wasn’t that hot or maybe there was a blip on the X-rays that might not hurt them to race but would hurt them at a yearling sale; or maybe their conformation wasn’t up to what would pass at a yearling sale to really get much, we took a lot of those [on deals] and we still do some of those.”

Hamm’s first time working with Dayoutoftheoffice’s breeder and co-owner, Anthony Manganaro, Ignacio Patino and David Pope’s Siena Farm, came in 2015 with eventual 2016 My Dear S. heroine Velvet Mood (Lonhro {Aus}).

“In our first experience with Siena, they gave me a Lonhro filly who was really crooked, not real big, but I took her and they called me a week later and said, ‘You know, we feel like we’re not giving you much of a shot with that filly. If you’re going to invest this time and money, we’re going to throw in this Ghostzapper colt—a more attractive horse,’” Hamm said. “It ended up that the Lonhro filly won her first three, including a stake at Woodbine and we sold her for pretty good money. The colt turned out to be a dud, but that’s how we got started with Siena.” Cont. p3

Dayoutoftheoffice got an early start to her career when she scored by 4 3/4 lengths at Gulfstream May 14. She was dismissed at almost 20-1 in Saratoga’s Gill Schuylerville S. two months later, but leapt forward again to air by six lengths.

“Dayoutoftheoffice was a runner. There were three fillies who really stood out in our crop, and sure enough all three ended up really being runners. We always thought she was the best of the three based on the fact that she had a lot of size and scope along with being very athletic. The other two were [eventual Ohio-bred multiple stakes winners] Alexandria (Constitution) and Esplanade (Daredevil). Esplanade was second in the GI Spinaway S. to the filly who was second in the Frizette, and Alexandria was third in the Gill Pocahontas S. You can identify them pretty early, but what you can’t control is injury and sickness and all that.”

With the Breeders’ Cup circled on the calendar for quite some time now, Hamm has kept Dayoutoftheoffice’s races well spaced out. She didn’t make a start between the July 16 Schuylerville and Oct. 10 GI Frizette S. at Belmont, while posting seven drills between Thistledown and Belterra Park in the interim.

“When you start these horses in May—and she’d been in training since at least Oct. 1 [of 2019]—we’d done a lot of 2-year-olds over the years and if you just drill them and drill them and don’t give them a little break, I just don’t see them lasting,” Hamm said. “We knew we had a horse who could possibly make the Breeders’ Cup, so we tried to space it so that would be a viable option if she proved to have the ability. We were slightly worried she would be short for the Frizette—she hadn’t run in 80-something days—but her last two works heading into the Frizette were pretty good. We thought she had a heck of a chance to be tight enough, and if we came out of there, we’d have a really fresh and good horse going into the Breeders’ Cup.” Cont. p4
Dayoutoftheoffice proved plenty fit for the next step, and bested GI Spinaway S. romper Vequist (Nyquist) by two lengths at Belmont with a chasm of 10 1/4 lengths back to third.

“I thought it was outstanding,” said Hamm. “Watching the race, it looked like she was in control of it the whole time. She never made me question if she was going to get it done. She just looked in command from the start.”

Dayoutoftheoffice is one of four unbeaten fillies set to square off in the Juvenile, along with pricey three-for-three Baffert trainee and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Princess Noor (Not This Time) expected to go favored; Ken McPeek-conditioned Simply Ravishing (Laoban) coming off a 6 1/4-length score in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. that was so impressive it played a major role in bringing her freshman sire from New York to Kentucky for 2021; and $500,000 yearling and ‘Rising Star’ Girl Daddy (Uncle Mo), last seen taking the Sept. 3 GIII Pocahontas S. by daylight for Dale Romans and the Albaugh Family Stable.

Dayoutoftheoffice owns a best last-out Beyer Speed Figure of 95, with Vequist having earned a 91 for her Frizette second. Princess Noor, meanwhile, only has a 79 Beyer top, Simply Ravishing an 89 and Girl Daddy an 82. But Dayoutoftheoffice seems to have garnered significantly less hype than either Princess Noor or Simply Ravishing.

“It’s big for our whole operation—we’ve got the training center in Ocala, the breeding farm in Ohio. The thing that means the most to us is that it lets you know that you can get there,” Hamm said. “We hope that gets contagious. Sometimes the hardest thing is getting there, and sometimes you never get back there. We’re hoping that this won’t be the last time, and you realize it’s not an impossible dream you’re chasing—that it’s attainable. We’re hoping that our people kind of all buy in a little harder and stay on board, and it’s the same with our clients. It shows our clients that if we’ve got the right horse, we can get there. And hopefully it’ll allow us to keep building stronger relationships with them.”

Of the 14 races in this weekend’s World Championships, it is the Juvenile that has the shortest-priced favorite, and indeed all eyes will be on Kirk and Judy Robison’s brilliant and undefeated Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music). Made a 7-5 morning-line favorite for the 1 1/16-mile test, the colt is clearly the horse to beat, but he likely cannot afford to take a step backwards against a talented cast in his two-turn debut.

Victorious first out going five furlongs at Churchill June 19, the $95,000 Keeneland September bargain blitzed through fast fractions and kept going for a three-length win in a strong renewal of the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 7. Again he found no equals, pace or otherwise in a geared-down 2 1/4-length conquest of the GI Runhappy Hopeful S. a month later, and passed his first route test with a dominant, wire-to-wire 5 1/2-length victory in the one-mile GI Champagne S. Oct. 10 at Belmont. For that effort, he earned a gaudy 100 Beyer, easily the highest figure recorded by a 2-year-old thus far in 2020.

While he has been unquestionably the best juvenile in America this season and will be a deserving favorite, there are a few potential pitfalls for Jackie’s Warrior.

The first comes from his pedigree. Maclean’s Music can get a router—see 2017 GI Preakness S. hero Cloud Computing—but his progeny are generally better one-turn types, and dam Unicorn Girl never traveled further than seven furlongs in 54 career starts, though she is out of son of A.P. Indy and MGSP router A.P. Five Hundred. Cont. p6
That pedigree question mark might be answered in the negative if Jackie’s Warrior is forced through a fast pace. While he’s been quicker than everyone he’s lined up against through four starts, he was left on an easy lead in his only route try and faces potential speed to his outside in Classier (Empire Maker), Dreamer’s Disease (Laoban) and Next (Not This Time).

Likely to be the second choice is Essential Quality (Tapit), the newest hope for an elusive GI Kentucky Derby win for Godolphin. Unveiled as a 19-10 chalk over six furlongs on this year’s Derby undercard Sept. 5, the homebred blew away his rivals from off the pace to earn ‘TDN Rising Star’ honors.

Stretched out over track and trip in the GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity Oct. 3, he pressed the pace and scooted clear in the lane for a convincing 3 1/4-length score. Though like the rest of his field, he has a figure deficit to make up on Jackie’s Warrior, the gray goes out for one of the hottest trainers in America in Brad Cox and his versatility could pay off if the pace melts down.

Klaravich Stables’ Reinvestment Risk (Upstart) looked like the best 2-year-old to debut at Saratoga this summer when running away to a devastating and easy 7 3/4-length graduation Aug. 1, earning a 90 Beyer and his own ‘Rising Star’ badge. Then he ran into Jackie’s Warrior. Unable to keep up with his foe early in either the Hopeful or Champagne, the $280,000 OBS March buy settled for a well-beaten second in both tries. He also stands to benefit if the pace falls apart, as he likely is a better one-run horse and was forced to do the chasing in his last two. If someone else takes the initiative and softens Jackie’s Warrior up this time, he figures to get the jump on deep closers in this short-stretch event.

A pair of last-out stakes winners are among those closers who could factor if things get hot up front. Albaugh Family Stables’ Sittin On Go (Brody’s Cause) debuted with a sharp 4 1/4-length tally going five furlongs at Ellis Aug. 16, getting just a 54 Beyer but clocking his final furlong in :11.64. The chestnut showed that late kick was no illusion next out, rallying from ninth to upset the GIII Iroquois S. going away at 24-1 Sept. 5 at Churchill. King Fury (Curlin) returns on just 12 days’ rest for Ken McPeek and can clearly get the trip. Debuting over 1 1/16 miles Sept. 3 in Louisville, he overcame a wide journey and kicked away late to a 2 3/4-length triumph. Then, after an unsuccessful try in the Breeders’ Futurity, the $950,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga buy closed into a slow pace to take the Street Sense S. back at Churchill Oct. 25.

Wild Card...

Without a doubt, the wild card in this race is Classier, who also turns around quickly. Somewhat chilly on the board when unveiled for “The Avengers” at 7-2 over 6 1/2 furlongs 13 days ago at Santa Anita, the $775,000 Keeneland September grad broke a step slowly from the rail, but quickly assumed command and was never challenged from there, cruising around the track to a facile four-length win and a ‘Rising Star’ distinction. The short rest and huge class hike likely will make this too much, too soon for Classier, but he has a two-turn pedigree and is undeniably talented. --Joe Bianca

Fasig-Tipton: Sunday, Nov. 8
Keeneland: Monday, Nov. 9 – Sat., Nov. 21.
It may have the smallest field of the 14 World Championship races this year, but it is undeniably mighty. With four undefeated graded winners in the seven-horse field--three of them Grade I victresses--the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies will undoubtedly serve as a coronation in a division with a dizzying array of stars this year.

Six of the seven entrants broke their maiden on debut, with four getting the ‘TDN Rising Star’ designation. The one who didn’t win first out was a nose second before promptly taking a Grade I to don cap and gown in her next start. All seven went straight from maiden special weight into stakes company, with every single one winning their first black-type attempt. With 21 starts between the seven fillies, there have been 16 wins by a combined 81 3/4 lengths--or an average of just over five lengths--and four seconds.

In made-for-Breeders’ Cup stories, two of the fillies race for partnerships that include their breeders, three were six-figure yearling purchases, and one was a $1.35 million 2-year-old--the only seven-figure horse of her crop to compete in this year’s Breeders’ Cup--and yet the favorite may end up being a filly whose dam was purchased for just $500 after she’d been abandoned with an unpaid boarding bill at a Kentucky farm.

If there’s any knock against the star-studded field, it might be that only two have Beyer Speed Figures in the 90s. However, all seven sport visually impressive open-daylight wins.

The top undefeated three are hard to separate. ‘TDN Rising Star’ Princess Noor (Not This Time)--the seven-figure 2-year-old--has been nothing short of sensational in California. She’s won her three starts by a combined 17 1/4 lengths, is from a barn that churns out wins as a matter of course, and won the Sept. 26 GII Chandelier S. at this distance in a romp 20 days after a score in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. However, her highest Beyer is a 79, and she will face Simply Ravishing (Laoban), who won the Oct. 20 GI Darley Alcibiades S., also at this distance and equally impressively. Simply Ravishing is the filly out of the $500 mare, but she doesn’t know that and has looked like a million bucks training voraciously over the Keeneland surface this week. She has a race over the surface and her 89 Beyer is more in line with the historically average 91 Beyer it takes to win the Juvenile Fillies.

Dayoutoftheoffice (Into Mischief) might not be as flashy as the top two, but she has done absolutely nothing wrong. Also undefeated, she has the highest Beyer in the field, a 95 in her most recent start in the Oct. 10 GI Frizette S. She’s also fresh with a three-month gap between her GIII Schuylerville S. and Frizette wins. Trainer Timothy Hamm remarked earlier in the week he’d been waiting all year for the two turns of the Breeders’ Cup for her. Cont. p8
Vequist (Nyquist) finished two lengths behind Dayoutoftheoffice in the Frizette, but she’d already gotten her Grade I when breaking her maiden in the Spinaway S. Sept. 6, and her Frizette Beyer of 91 still tops the rest of the field.
‘TDN Rising Star’ Girl Daddy (Uncle Mo) is the fourth undefeated filly in this field and, although this will be her first Grade I attempt, she was ultra-impressive in Churchill’s Sept. 3
GIII Pocahontas S. The $500,000 buy has been working fantastically, posting an Oct. 9 bullet of five panels in :59 3/5

Wild Cards...
The Juvenile Fillies field is so strong it’s impossible to count out the two 20-1 morning line entrants: ‘TDN Rising Star’ Thoughtfully (Tapit), a $950,000 yearling purchase who had the lone off-the-board finish in the field last out in the Alcibiades behind Simply Ravishing, but captured the GII Adirondack S. in August; and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Crazy Beautiful (Liam’s Map), who has found some trouble in her races, but still has two wins and two graded placings.

In a significant pedigree note, the field might look drastically different without the late Indian Charlie, as no fewer than five of the Juvenile Fillies entrants have him in their pedigree. Girl
Daddy is by his son, Uncle Mo, while Simply Ravishing and Vequist are both by freshman sires by Uncle Mo. In addition, both Dayoutoftheoffice and Crazy Beautiful are out of mares by Indian Charlie. There is some precedent: Indian Charlie’s Indian Blessing won this race in 2007. --Jill Williams

Stable’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Mutasaabeq (Into Mischief) owns an impressive win over the course. A sharp debut victor over 5 1/2 furlongs of Saratoga’s main track Aug. 8, the $350,000 KEENOV weanling was a distant third behind heavy GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile favorite Jackie’s Warrior (Maclean’s Music) in the Sept. 7 GI Runhappy Hopeful S. at Saratoga. Switched to the turf and stretched out for the local GII Bourbon S. Oct. 4, he blew past his competition in last-to-first fashion with longshot Abarta (Into Mischief) completing the exacta. Despite the visually impressive nature of that effort, however, the table was set for Mutasaabeq with swift early splits and the 75 Beyer Speed Figure he earned wasn’t particularly strong.

Gretzky the Great (Nyquist) skates in on a three-race win streak north of the border. The Mark Casse pupil pressed and pounced his way to a convincing 3 1/4-length success in Woodbine’s GI Summer S. Sept. 20. His sire annexed the 2015 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile over the local main track.

Fire At Will (Declaration of War) will look to post his second-consecutive upset, having stolen Belmont’s GII Pilgrim S. Oct. 3 on the front end at 13-1.
Public Sector (GB) (Kingman {GB}), representing the same Chad Brown barn that saddled last year’s Juvenile Turf winner Structor (Palace Malice), couldn’t overcome a glacial pace and settled for second at odds-on.

European-trained runners have won eight of the prior 13 renewals of this race, with trainer Aidan O’Brien, jockey Ryan Moore and the powerful Magnier, Tabor and Smith Coolmore partners each boasting a record four victories. O’Brien and Moore teamed up to take the 2015 running for John Magnier’s mother Evie Stockwell with Hit It a Bomb, a son of War Front out of a Group-winning Sadler’s Wells mare. This year they’ll send out Battleground (War Front), the first foal out of 2015 GI Breeders’ Cup Turf heroine Found (by Sadler’s Wells’s great son Galileo {Ire}). Battleground has been off since a two-length win in the July 28 G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood.

New Mandate (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) has won his last three, and showed an impressive last-to-first kick in the G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. at Newmarket Sept. 26. Sealiway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) demolished four foes in Parislongchamp’s G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere Oct. 4, but he seemed to relish very heavy ground that day that he won’t get here. Go Athletico (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) defeated Sealiway in the seven-panel G3 Prix la Rochette Sept. 6, and most recently finished second in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte over six furlongs of wet turf at Chantilly Oct. 10.

Wild Card...

While it’s fairly common to see stretching out European invaders in this race, it’s a bit more rare for Stateside runners to go sprint to route here. Outadore (Outwork) won first up over 5 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga July 16, and most recently annexed the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Turf Sprint Sept. 12 over soft ground and 6 1/2 panels that probably plays longer considering an uphill finish. Trainer Wesley Ward did win the 2014 running of the Juvenile Turf with Hootenany (Quality Road), who was stretching out from six furlongs. --Brian DiDonato

Jessica Harrington pupil Cadillac (Ire), by 2018 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine Newspaperofrecord (Ire)’s sire Lope de Vega (Ire), dominated Leopardstown’s G2 Champions Juvenile S. two back Sept. 12 over Ballydoyle’s recent G1 Criterium International winner Van Gogh (American Pharoah). He never appeared particularly comfortable chasing in between horses and checking in a one-paced fifth in the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. over soft Newmarket ground Oct. 10.
BREEDERS' CUP JUVENILE FILLIES TURF

With a full and exceptionally talented field from both sides of the pond signed on, the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf S. looks primed to be a very contentious event. Stonestreet Stables’ Campanelle (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) is unbeaten in America and Europe for Wesley Ward, who is known for his globe-trotting success, especially with turf juveniles. A debut winner sprinting on turf at Gulfstream May 31, the bay captured the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and won the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville last time Aug. 23. She displays a steady series of works on the Keeneland lawn since. Ward also saddles GIII Matron S. heroine Royal Approval (Tiznow) in this event.

Another top U.S.-based and raced contender is undefeated TDN Rising Star Aunt Pearl (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). Graduating by five lengths in front-running fashion going a mile at Churchill Downs Sept. 1, the bay captured Keeneland’s GII JPMorgan Chase Jessamine S. Oct. 7.

Plum Ali (First Samurai) has won all three of her career starts. Following her debut win at Saratoga July 23 with a in the Juvenile Fillies S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 7, the chestnut took the GII Miss Grillo S. at Belmont Oct. 4.

Hailing from the West Coast is another juvenile with a perfect record in Madone (Vancouver {Aus}). Capturing her career bow at Del Mar July 31, the dark bay won the Juvenile Fillies Turf S. there next out Sept. 6 and rallied to victory in the Surfer Girl S. last time at Santa Anita Oct. 4.

Miss Amulet (Ire) (Sir Prancealot (Ire)) is one of the top runners from the European contingent. Capturing the Marwell S. Aug. 3, the gray took the G2 Lowther S. Aug. 20 and was a close second in the G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park S. Sept. 26.

Wild Card...

Graham Motion won this event last year with Sharing (Speightstown) and he saddles another chestnut filly with a live chance in Alda (Munnings). The Wertheimer and Frere homebred graduated at second asking at Belmont July 9 and captured the Catch a Glimpse S. at Woodbine next out Aug. 23. She came up just 3/4 of a length short in that venue’s GI Natalma S. Sept. 20, earning a 78 Beyer Speed Figure, which is just a few ticks off some of her unbeaten American rivals. Alda’s late-closing style might benefit her here with fleet-footed fillies like Aunt Pearl and Campanelle likely to be off and running from the get-go. — Christie DeBernardis

BREEDERS’ CUP JUVENILE TURF SPRINT

With four chances at back-to-back renewals of the newest Breeders’ Cup event (and three more on the also-eligible list), this year’s GII Juvenile Turf Sprint likely goes through the Wesley Ward barn. Ward’s best chance, however, Randall Lowe homebred Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), was done no favors at Monday’s draw and will be marooned in the 14 hole. The 8-5 morning line choice was buzzed about all the way back in mid-April, but he settled for second in his main-track unveiling at Gulfstream Apr. 17, and again against dramatically tougher when reeled in late by GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Presented by Coolmore America longshot The Lir Jet (Ire) (Prince of Lir (Ire)) in Royal Ascot’s G2 Norfolk S. June 19. The imposing bay put it all together when dominating Saratoga’s Skidmore S. Aug. 21, earning a 92 Beyer Speed Figure, but hasn’t made an afternoon appearance since. He tuned up for this with a 1:05.20 (2/4) local work over the course last Saturday in company with After Five (The Factor) in which his rider had his feet in the dashboard throughout (XBTV Video). Golden Pal will look to avenge his talented dam Lady Shipman (Midshipman’s) neck second in the 2015 GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint here.

Golden Pal | Sarah Andrew

After Five, who will carry the same Breeze Easy LLC yellow and blue and last year’s winner Four Wheel Drive (American Pharoah), was out-nosed in his Sept. 10 debut at Kentucky Downs, and again checked in second after turn traffic left him with two much to do in the stretch of the GIII Futurity S. at Belmont Oct. 11. Filly Amanzi Yimpilo (Ire) (No Nay Never) pressed and held on over the boys in Santa Anita’s Sept. 26 Speakeasy S., while Soaring Free S. runner-up Into the Sunrise (Into Mischief) cuts back off a fourth-place run in the Oct. 4 GII Bourbon S.
Mighty Gurkha (Ire) walks the Keeneland backside at sunrise. The rail-drawn colt will be ridden by ascendant Hollie Doyle

Breeders’ Cup/Eclipse Sportswire

Wild Cards...

A trio of youngsters invade from Europe and are each pegged at 20-1 on the morning line. Three-for-five Ubettablueveit (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) bounced back from a distant last-place finish in the Aug. 21 G2 Gimcrack S. to score an off-pace victory by a nose at long odds in the Sept. 11 G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster. He’ll be trainer Nigel Tinkler’s first Breeders’ Cup runner. Mighty Gurkha (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}) sports in-and-out form that saw him narrowly annex the G3 Sirenia S. on Kempton all-weather Sept. 5 before finishing 10th as the favorite in a Newmarket auction stakes Oct. 3. The Coolmore contingent’s Lipizzaner (Uncle Mo) wheels back on short rest, having bested give rivals in the Doncaster S. Oct. 24 over six panels of heavy ground. Trainer Aidan O’Brien did take the precursor to this race in 2017 with a horse coming back similarly quickly, and he finished third in the inaugural Breeders’ Cup running two years ago.

Dear Darby Dan,

I just wanted to let Mr. Chuck Fipke know that my 2YO filly QUINTA NOTA (Tale of Ekati - Belle Soul, by Perfect Soul), bred by Mr. Fipke, just won a G1 stakes in Peru (the G1 Clásico Enrique Ayulo Pardo over 1 ¼ miles) in her second start, remaining undefeated. She will probably run in the G1 Peruvian Derby (1 ½ miles) in four weeks. I wanted to share with him my happiness and thank him for breeding such a nice filly!

Best regards,

Francisco Moreyra

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
5th-Parx Racing, $34,750, (S), Msw, 11-3, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:19.33, ft, 2 lengths.

JUST A THOUGHT (g, 2, Uncle Lino--Schuylkilla, by With Distinction) rallied to be fourth in his unveiling against fellow PA-breds here Oct. 7 and was hammered down to 4-5 favoritism to improve here. Hustling up to take immediate command, the dark bay clicked off respectable splits and kept on finding in the lane for a two-length graduation over Beren (Weigelia). He is the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Uncle Mo). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $22,440. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Sponsor a Family for Christmas

The NY Race Track Chaplaincy is once again offering the opportunity to our supporters to participate in our Sponsor-A-Family Program. Our Program provides food and gifts to the neediest of our backstretch families during the Christmas season.

This year has been such a challenging one for us all and particularly for those we serve. Our goal is to provide sponsorships for every one of our families in need, which is something we have never been able to accomplish before so please, spread the word among your friends and help us to bless our families this year.

Family Sponsorships can be shared! Groups are encouraged to sponsor large families together.

How It Works

1. Click HERE to send an email, and write "Sponsor a Family" in the subject line. Let us know if you have a preference for the number of members in the family you would like to sponsor, or indicate any questions.

2. We will write back with the details of your family, including the total number of family members, gender of each child, ages and sizes.

3. Go Shopping! Purchase gifts for each child or members of the family as well as a grocery store gift card for their holiday meal.

4. Please wrap all gifts and clearly mark each gift according to each family member.

5. Place all Items into a large box or bag that is clearly marked with the family last name and assigned number. If there are large items that cannot fit into the family box (bike, comforter, etc) clearly mark the item with a tag. This ensures all of your gifts are delivered to your assigned family.

6. Please deliver your gifts to our Belmont Park office, Gate 6, by December 11th. Our office is open Monday- Friday, 10AM - 4PM.

Not a Shopper? No worries!

SISKIN A TRANSATLANTIC JUDDMONTE MASTERPIECE

By Kelsey Riley

LEXINGTON, KY—In the 36-year history of the Breeders' Cup, few owners have been so intertwined with the event as has Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte Farms been. The operation's 80 starters at the meeting are bettered only by Godolphin and the Coolmore partners, while its seven winners and over $16-million in prizemoney at the Breeders' Cup is only slightly inferior to the record accrued by Coolmore.

Juddmonte and the Breeders' Cup, in fact, have nearly come of age together. At the time that the inaugural Breeders' Cup was staged at Hollywood Park in 1984, Prince Khalid had owned racehorses less than five years. The Saudi Royal had his first runner at the second Breeders' Cup at Aqueduct in 1985, when Queen Anne, Sussex S. and Prix du Moulin winner Rousillon contested the Mile, but it wasn't to be that day for the favourite, who settled for ninth after a luckless trip. Rousillon went on to gain further acclaim as the sire of Vintage Crop, the first Northern Hemisphere-trained horse to win the G1 Melbourne Cup in 1993.

Though that maiden voyage didn't pan out as hoped, Prince Khalid was not deterred and tripled down on the 1986 Cup at Santa Anita, lending the event some serious star power in the form of Dancing Brave.

TWILIGHT PAYMENT MAKES ALL IN THE CUP

By Emma Berry

The G1 Lexus Melbourne Cup went to Joseph O'Brien for the second time in four years as the Jim Bolger-bred Twilight Payment (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) gave owner Lloyd Williams his seventh victory in Australia's storied race under a bold front-running ride from Jye McNeil. It was a clean sweep of the top three places for European raiders and, in an echo of 2017 when Rekindling (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) held off Johannes Vermeer (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), O'Brien's father Aidan had to settle for second best when Irish Derby runner-up Tiger Moth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) ran home strongly to be runner-up on just the fifth start of his life. Finishing strongest of all, however, was the Charlie Fellowes-trained Prince Of Arran (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}), who claimed a spot in the Melbourne Cup top three for the third year in a row.

Still regarded as one of the best Prince Khalid has ever raced on either side of the Atlantic, Dancing Brave came into the Breeders' Cup Turf off wins in the 2000 Guineas, Eclipse S., King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. and the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Struck in the eye by a clod of turf in-running, Dancing Brave checked in fourth.

It is remarkable, in hindsight, that it took Juddmonte 16 years and 24 starters to break its Breeders’ Cup duck, but it did so at last at Belmont Park in 2001 when the G1 Coronation S. winner Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill) ran away with the Filly & Mare Turf by 5 1/2 lengths for Andre Fabre and Olivier Peslier. Juddmonte repeated the dose in the same race four years later with Banks Hill’s full-sister Intercontinental (GB), remarkably back at Belmont Park.

Intercontinental’s foundations had been laid by Fabre, but by that stage she had been transferred to Prince Khalid’s beloved Bobby Frankel.

Juddmonte’s Ventura (Chester House) provided Frankel with one of his last major wins in the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint of 2008; the legendary trainer died of cancer just over a year later aged 68. And while Frankel’s famous equine personification—so meticulously chosen by Prince Khalid—was never himself given the chance to contest the meeting at which his namesake won six races, Juddmonte did grace the 2018 edition of the Breeders’ Cup with another of its true legends: the 11-time Group 1 winner Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), who at Churchill Downs became the first horse to win the Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe and the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf (or any Breeders’ Cup race, for that matter) in the same year.
Add to that a GI Breeders’ Cup Mile win by Expert Eye (GB) (Acclamation (GB)) on the same card, and it was the kind of day that had been years in the making for Juddmonte at the meeting that it had perennially thrown so much support behind; in the interim between Ventura and Enable, Prince Khalid sent out six-time Group 1 winner Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) to take the 2009 Filly & Mare Turf—she was, incidentally, trained by Frankel's late conditioner Sir Henry Cecil—and its great American champion Arrogate to win the 2016 GI Classic.

After sitting out the 2019 Breeders’ Cup at Santa Anita, Team Juddmonte returns in 2020 with the formidable duo of Siskin (First Defence) for the Mile and Tacitus (Tapit) for the Classic. Though the pair, both homebreds, are trained an ocean apart, they have much more in common than simply their pink and turquoise silks; they are both descendants of Silver Star (GB) (Zafonic), a Juddmonte homebred out of Monroe (Sir Ivor), a foundation mare for Khalid Abdullah who was part of the very first batch of fillies he accrued in the late 1970s and a daughter of the excellent producer Best In Show.

Silver Star is the second dam of Siskin and the third dam of Tacitus. While Silver Star’s branch of the Monroe line includes her G1 Dewhurst S.-winning sire son Xaar (GB) and Tacitus’s five-time Grade I-winning dam Close Hatches (by Siskin’s sire First Defence), Monroe has had a far-reaching impact in other directions, too, with other descendants including sire brothers Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) and Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}), and last year’s G1 St Leger winner Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

Rising Tornado and Bird Flown (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) were born six years apart and on different continents, but both ended up in the yard of Andre Fabre.

Each managed one win in her relatively brief career, but their pedigrees meant that they were given a chance in the elite Juddmonte broodmare population. More specifically, they were both expatriated back to Juddmonte's American satellite to patronize resident sire First Defence, a Grade I-winning sprinter by Unbridled's Song out of Honest Lady (Seattle Slew), a Grade I-winning daughter of another iconic Juddmonte producer, Toussaud (El Gran Senor). Completely unsurprisingly, it turned out that the team at Juddmonte knew just what they were doing: Rising Toronado’s first foal was Close Hatches and she produced two other winners by First Defence including the listed winner and GI Kentucky Oaks third Lockdown before First Defence was sold to stand in Saudi Arabia.

Bird Flown, meanwhile, visited First Defence in his final two seasons in Kentucky, the second mating producing Siskin. He has proven an embodiment of the potency of the Juddmonte blood on both sides of the Atlantic being by a sire from the third generation of a family flawlessly cultivated in Kentucky and out of a mare that brings together two of the farm’s European foundation mares in Monroe and Bahamian. The mould was somewhat broken with Siskin when he was entrusted to Ger Lyons, and that rising Irish trainer has held up his end of the bargain with aplomb, sending the colt through an unbeaten, Group 1-winning juvenile campaign and onto Classic success at three. A win at Keeneland on Saturday would place him in rarefied air, indeed.

The stories continue to be written, too, for Bird Flown and Rising Tornado. The former provided Juddmonte’s six-time Group 1 winner Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}) with his first winner in September in Talacre—she, too, is in the care of Ger Lyons. Rising Tornado has a yearling colt from the first of just three crops by Arrogate, and after failing to produce a live foal this season was covered by Quality Road.

In front of deserted stands at Flemington, Twilight Payment was instantly prominent from stall 12, and by the time the field passed the post for the first time he had taken up the running with Tiger Moth tucked in his wake. Given an easy lead, the 7-year-old was joined by the long-striding Finche (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the back stretch and the pair started to draw farther clear on the home turn as a stacked chasing pack jostled for position. With Finche weakening in the straight, Twilight Payment maintained his authority as Tiger Moth laid down his own challenge followed by the Cox Plate winner Sir Dragonet (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and eventual fourth-place finisher The Chosen One (NZ) (Savabeel {NZ}).

Only Prince Of Arran, trapped behind a wall of horses turning into the straight, made any real late headway with his thrusting late charge to finish less than a length off the winner, a performance which must have been as heartening as it was frustrating for his connections.

While 3-year-old Tiger Moth justified his huge support going into the race to hold on for second, there was a dreadful postscript to the 160th Melbourne Cup as his stablemate and last year’s G1 Derby winner Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) fractured his fetlock less than two furlongs from home and was subsequently euthanised.

Speaking live on At The Races from Ireland, the former Irish champion jockey Joseph O’Brien was quick to praise Jye McNeil, who made his first ride in the Melbourne Cup a winning one. He said, "Jye gave the horse a fantastic ride and all credit goes to Mark Power and to Sean Corby, who looks after Twilight Payment, and the team of lads we have had down in Australia for the last month or so. This is the icing on the cake for them."

Bred and originally trained by Jim Bolger, Twilight Payment won his first five races in the colours of Jackie Bolger and joined O’Brien’s team last July after being bought by Lloyd and Nick Williams. He made his first trip to Australia shortly after that and finished 11th in last year’s race. During a fruitful summer of 2020, he won the G2 Curragh Cup for the second year running and, fittingly, the G3 Vintage Crop S.

O’Brien continued, "This was the first year I’ve had a full preparation with him—he came to us halfway through last season—and his form was good all through the summer. He ran a couple of huge races at The Curragh. I thought he might have been given a little bit more pressure for the lead, but the horse has incredible heart and he just kept running all the way to the line. He has an incredible will to win."

The 27-year-old trainer landed his first Melbourne Cup in 2017 in his second season of training. He subsequently won the G1 Irish Derby with Latrobe (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), who is also owned by the Williams team, and recorded a first success at last year's Breeders' Cup with Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}). This season he also claimed his first British Classic success when Galileo Chrome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) won the St Leger.

He added, "I can't thank Lloyd and Nick Williams enough for everything they do for me. It's a fantastic result for them also. I'm hugely privileged to train for the people I train for and to have the horses that I have. It's a tough game, as everybody knows, and there's a fine line between the top and the bottom." Jye McNeil said that his Melbourne Cup debut left him "overwhelmed with emotion." The 25-year-old added, "Joseph wanted me to be a step ahead of the field and really get them chasing. I encouraged [Twilight Payment] to go forward, that was the plan. Then he just found such a lovely tempo at the top. It was just a matter of amping the rhythm up at just the right stage and I'm glad it all worked out."

The travel and quarantine restrictions that have added extra complications to international racing this year meant that Charlie Fellowes was also watching from afar at his home in Newmarket. As ever, he was full of praise for his stable star Prince Of Arran. He said, "The last two years I've felt that we've been beaten absolutely fair and square so you can only come away feeling proud of what the horse has achieved. This year, not taking anything away from the winner or the second, but I just feel that the trip we had, especially coming round the bend, being pushed wide and not getting quite the clearest run in the world, maybe he might just have got there, but it's unfair to say that. I just felt that this was possibly his year."

Fellowes continued, "He's done so well and he's the most incredible horse. I'm incredibly lucky to have a horse like him and I will never have one like him ever again. He looks after himself and always has done, which is I guess why he's running at such a high level still at the age of seven. He just needs to look after himself for a year or two more and maybe we'll go out there again next year. He's a really intelligent horse and he's always very interested in what's going on around him, but he's also a cool customer and very relaxed. I think the hotter conditions and the faster track played to his favour today because he loves those conditions and he handles them better than a lot of other horses do. He's a wonderful horse and the key now is to make sure we enjoy him and that he's able to race but that we don't put the horse's well being at risk. That's the important thing."

Pedigree Notes

Twilight Payment was the second foal of the Oasis Dream (GB) mare Dream On Buddy (Ire), who won twice over a mile on the all-weather for the late John Hills and is a half-sister to the Jim Bolger-trained dual Group 2 winner and Irish Oaks runner-up Banimpire (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). The siblings were bred by Pat O'Kelly's Kilcarn Stud. At the end of Banimpire's Classic season of 2011, Bolger bought her year-older half-sister for 240,000gns.

Now a seven-time winner, Twilight Payment is her sole winner but his half-sister Bandiuic Eile (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) earned black type when second in the G2 Debutante S. behind Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy) in 2018. Now in foal for the first time to Profitable (Ire), Banduiic Eile is entered as lot 1618 in the Tattersalls December Mares' Sale.

Twilight Payment's grandam My Renee (Kris S) was a dual listed winner and is herself a grand-daughter of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Detroit (Fr) (Riverman), who in turn produced fellow Arc winner Carnegie (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

A third Group 1 winner for Bolger as breeder within a fortnight following the victories of juveniles Mac Swiney (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) and Gear Up (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), Twilight Payment was the second Melbourne Cup winner for the former Bolger trainee Teofilo, who is also the sire of Godolphin's 2018 winner Cross Counter (Ire).

LIR CAN FLY, BUT CAN HE GO THE MILE?

By Kelsey Riley

LEXINGTON, KY--Tuesday brought about another bright but cool morning in Lexington, and the European Breeders’ Cup contingent—all bar the Ballydoyle brigade, which touched down in Lexington late on Monday evening and will be ensconced in quarantine until Thursday—had another opportunity to stretch their legs at Keeneland. The English and Irish Guineas winners Kameko (Kitten’s Joy) and Siskin (First Defence) were among those who took to the training track for the second straight day, with Kameko once again catching the eye in a light gallop just as dawn broke.

Siskin once again displayed his well being by throwing in a periodic hop and swivelling his head to take in all the sights as he went about his work, but the Ger Lyons trainee looked a picture of good health and appears to have taken his travels well.

Five Europeans—GI Juvenile Turf Sprint entrant Ubettabelleiuev (GB) (Kodiac (GB)) in addition to the fillies Audarya (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)), Glass Slippers (GB) (Dream Ahead), Miss Amulet (Ire) (Sir Prancealot (Ire)) and One Master (GB) (Fastnet Rock (Aus))—tested the Keeneland turf course for the first time on Tuesday.

G1 Prince of Wales’s S. winner Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) was a standout among the John Gosden trio as he took to the training track alongside stablemates Terebellum (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) and Mehdasih (GB) (Frankel (GB)), and the GI Turf contender traveled enthusiastically on the bridle without being overeager through an easy gallop. Trainer Ralph Beckett, having arrived in Lexington on Monday night, was aboard a pony to oversee his GI Juvenile Turf runners New Mandate (Ire) (New Bay (GB)) and Devilwala (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)). The G2 Royal Lodge S. winner New Mandate galloped freely ahead of his barnmate Devilwala, who was fourth in the G1 Dewhurst S. last out. Both horses are campaigned by owners relatively new to the game: Marc Chan bought New Mandate from a partnership headed by Beckett and Alex Elliott after a handicap win at Sandown in August, while Devilwala is among a talented bunch of 2-year-olds for Kia Joorabchian’s Amo Racing.

New Mandate landed in gate two for Friday’s Juvenile Turf at Monday evening’s post position draw and Devilwala in 13, the only horse to the inside of Qatar Racing’s The Lir Jet (Ire) (Prince of Lir (Ire)).

The Lir Jet’s trainer Michael Bell was on hand to supervise his first Breeders’ Cup starter on Tuesday, having landed the evening before, and he was philosophical about the draw. “The draw could have been kinder, but people seem to say you’re better off drawn wide than out low. Time will tell,” he said. “I watched the [2015 Juvenile Turf] when Hit It A Bomb won here, and he won from post 14 and had a great ride from Ryan Moore, so we hope Oisin [Murphy] can do the same.”

The Lir Jet skipped over the training track for the second straight morning on Tuesday, and Bell said he is pleased with how the colt has taken his journey. “He seems very happy in himself and he’s eating well, which is the most important thing when they’ve traveled, because it can be a bit disruptive for them,” the trainer said. “But he looks in very good form when he’s out on the track in the morning. We’ve kept him on the training track just to keep a lid on him but he couldn’t have traveled better.

It was somewhat serendipitous circumstances that saw The Lir Jet land in Bell’s yard earlier this year; the colt was bought privately by Bell’s son Nick from pinhooker Robson Aguiar after the breeze-up sales were delayed in the spring. Sheikh Fahad came calling after The Lir Jet set a five-furlong track record when winning at Yarmouth on debut two days after racing in Britain resumed on June 3, and the colt carried Qatar Racing’s colours when beating Wesley Ward’s Golden Pal (Uncle Mo) in the G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot. The Lir Jet, from the first crop of Ballyhane Stud’s fellow Norfolk winner Prince of Lir, was somewhat unlucky to be beaten when second in the G2 Prix Robert Papin on July 19 and the G1 Phoenix S. on Aug. 9, and according to Bell didn’t quite handle the Newmarket dip when fifth in the G1 Middle Park S. on Sept. 26. He steps up to a mile for the first time on Friday.

“He was a bit unlucky in the photograph in the Papin when it was heads up, heads down; the dice didn’t roll the right way for him because he was in front just before and just after the line,” Bell said. “He ran in Ireland in the Phoenix S. and stayed on very well but got slightly hampered and finished off very well over six furlongs. He ran at Newmarket and was a bit unbalanced coming down the hill, so this flatter track will suit him better. But he finished off his race very well over six, so we’re hopeful he’ll get the mile.”

“It would be a fantastic achievement,” Bell said of a potential Breeders’ Cup win. “It’s not going to be easy; we’re under no pretensions that he’s a warm-order favourite. We’re taking a punt at the trip, but if he does stay he’ll be in the mix because he has the class and he can certainly run to a higher rating over a mile if he stays. But we’ll only find that out on Friday.”

ARQANA GETS GREEN LIGHT FOR AUTUMN SALE

Arqana has reached an agreement with local authorities that will allow its Autumn Sale to take place on its original dates later this month despite the national lockdown in France. Access to the sales complex will be restricted to those attending in a professional capacity, and the sale will take place entirely outdoors in the ring in the main yard.

Inspections will begin on Nov. 13 and the sale will begin the following day with a flat-bred yearling session. After a day’s break, horses in training will be sold on Nov. 16, stores on Nov. 17, National Hunt-bred yearlings on Nov. 18 and National Hunt foals, fillies and broodmares on Nov. 19.

DAUGHTER OF MAGNIFICENT STYLE
DEBUTS AT NOTTINGHAM

1.10 Nottingham, Mdn, £6,300, 2yo, f, 8f 75yT
John Gosden is somewhat familiar with the progeny of storied matriarch Magnificient Style (Silver Hawk), having moulded six off the production line, and the Clarehaven conditioner is set to unleash a seventh when Nat Rothschild’s SILVER HORN (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) contests this extended one-mile heat. The May foaled bay, opposed by eight here, is the latest of 15 foals and a half-sister to MG1SW sire Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), G1 Irish Oaks heroine Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), G1 Fillies’ Mile victress Playful Act (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), et al.

1.40 Nottingham, Mdn, £6,300, 2yo, 8f 75yT
King Power Racing’s 260,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling FANTASTIC FOX (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is a half-brother to this term’s G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Dream of Dreams (Ire) (Ahead) and opens up for the Roger Varian stable in a heat won last year by subsequent G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}). His rivals include fellow newcomer Stiletto (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is a John Gosden-trained son of G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Coronation Cup third High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}).

Control Tower was winless in three outings, including a third in Vichy’s July 24 Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange, since landing her lone juvenile start at Fontainebleau last year and went postward for this deep-mud test returning off an Oct. 3 conditions tally at Angers. Shuffled back from sixth to race with one behind in 10th at halfway, she endured a troubled passage when attempting to claim the stands’ side rail in the straight and quickened smartly once finding a clear route inside the final furlong to deny Tres Valentine in the dying strides for a career high.

Control Tower is one of two scorers and the leading performer out of a half-sister to Listed Prix de Pontarme and Listed Prix Turenne placegetter Corsen (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Her second dam Dream Play (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}), who hit the board in both the G2 Prix de Malleret and G3 Prix de Flore, is kin to G1 Oaks d’Italia victress Valley of Gold (Fr) (Shirley Heights {GB}) and G1SP sire Dublin (Ire) (Carson City). Valley of Gold produced three black-type performers headed by G3 Gordon S. winner Cap O’Rushes (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) and G3 Joel S. victor Splendid Era (UAE) (Green Desert). Control Tower’s fourth dam is G1 Kentucky Oaks, G1 Delaware Oaks and G1 Alabama S. heroine White Star Line (Northern Dancer).

Galova registered her solitary success, from a 13 career starts, at Lyon La Soie last year and had competed at black-type level in each of her eight most recent outings. She hit the board in La Teste de Buch’s Sept. 4 Listed Prix Occitanie and Compiegne’s Oct. 9 Listed Prix Charles Laffitte and set out to make all after breaking on the lead here. Towing the field wide into the straight, the eventual winner came under pressure when threatened on all sides soon after passing the two pole and was driven out in the latter stages to secure a first stakes triumph in game fashion.

Galova is the latest of four foals and one of two scorers out of a half-sister to G1 Deutsches Derby-winning sire Nicaron (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) and G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit runner-up Nicola (Ger) (Nebos {Ger}), herself the dam of G2 Herbert Power S. victor Big Memory (Fr) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}).

Descendants of the homebred chestnut’s second dam Nicol’s Girl (GB) (Dunbeath) also include G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) placegetter Nicea (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) and MGSP dual stakes winner Nicolosio (Ire) (Peintre Celebre).

1st-Saint-Cloud, €22,000, Mdn, 11-3, unraced 2yo, c/g, 7 1/2fT, 1:51.34, vhy.

MIDTOWN (GB) (c, 2, Dubawi (Ire)--First City (GB) (GSW-UAE & G1SP-Eng, $388,814), by Diktat (GB)) settled behind a sedate pace in fifth through halfway. Making headway off the home turn to launch his bid at the quarter-mile marker, the 7-10 pick pounced for control with 350 metres remaining and powered clear under mild rousting in the closing stages to easily outpoint Crowdfunding (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) by an impressive nine lengths.

He is the latest of four foals and becomes the second scorer for GSW G1 Falmouth S. third First City (GB) (Diktat {GB}), herself a half-sister to G2 Royal Lodge S. placegetter Sea Fox (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). The February-foaled chestnut is a full-brother to G3 Nad Al Sheba Turf Sprint third Laieth (GB). Sales history: 210,000gns Ylg ’19 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €11,000. 1ST-TIME STARTER. O-Godolphin; B-Rabbah Bloodstock Ltd (GB); T-Andre Fabre.

2nd-Saint-Cloud, €22,000, Mdn, 11-3, unraced 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT, 1:50.12, vhy.
ES LA VIDA (GER) (f, 2, Soldier Hollow (GB)--Exotic Rose (Ger), by Manduro (Ger)) employed patient tactics in rear for most of this unveiling. Easing by rivals on the home turn to go fourth at the top of the straight, the 19-5 third choice was shaken up to lead approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under whipless cajoling to easily hold the late bid of Belle Evasion (Fr) (Evasive {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths.

She is the third of four foals and second scorer produced by a half-sister to G3 Frankfurter Meile victor Enzio (Ger) (Next Desert [Ire]). The March-foaled bay is full to a yearling filly and this term’s Listed Prix La Camargo victress and G3 Prix Vanteaux runner-up Emoji (Ger). Sales history: €3,000 RNA Ylg ‘19 BBAGO. APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR RACING INDUSTRY COURSE

Applications are open for the British Racing School’s Racing Industry Course, which runs from Jan. 25 through Jan. 29 in Newmarket. The course provides an overview of all facets of the racing industry from the history of the sport to promotion and its contribution to the British economy. Leading trainers and jockeys will give their views while a number of the sport’s administrators detail the day-to-day running of Thoroughbred racing and breeding.

Duncan Gregory, operations director at the British Racing School said, “this is an outstanding opportunity to learn about the intricacies of the racing industry and to explore the many issues it faces, both here and abroad. The course attracts a host of top speakers and feedback from delegates is invariably outstanding. Places are limited so be sure to reserve yours.”
