INVINCIBLE SPIRIT TO STAND FOR €80,000

Invincible Spirit (Ire), who was this year represented by new Group 1 winners Nazeef (Ire) and Digital Age (Ire), once again leads the stallion roster at the Irish National Stud and will be priced at €80,000 in 2021. The 23-year-old is down from €100,000 this year, with the entire roster at the Kildare nursery taking fee cuts in the midst of a difficult economic climate.

Invincible Spirit’s eight stakes winners in 2020 were led by the aforementioned Nazeef, winner of the G1 Falmouth S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. as well as Royal Ascot’s G2 Duke Of Cambridge S. Digital Age won the GI Turf Classic S. in the U.S., while Make A Challenge (Ire) was among the top sprinters in Ireland.

G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) was introduced at the Irish National Stud last year at €15,000, covering 148 mares, and the highest-rated son of Lope De Vega (Ire) is available this year for €12,500.

The well-bred Group 1 winner Free Eagle (Ire) was this year represented by the high-class Khalifa Sat (Ire), winner of the Listed Cocked Hat S. and second in the G1 Epsom Derby, and the son of High Chaparral (Ire) will stand for €8,000 in 2021.

Group 1 winners Decorated Knight (GB) and National Defense (Ire) will both be represented by their first runners next year, and will stand for €7,500 and €5,000, respectively.

RIVER BOYNE JOINS TARA STUD ROSTER

River Boyne (Ire), a Grade I-winning son of Dandy Man (Ire), will join the roster at Tara Stud in Ireland for 2021. His fee is yet to be confirmed. The 5-year-old started his racing career in Ireland with Gordon Elliott before being transferred to the Californian stable of Jeff Mullins. A winner in each of his racing seasons between the ages of two and five, River Boyne was victorious in nine of his 25 races, including the GI Frank E Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita, where he also won the GII Twilight Derby and GII Mathis Brothers Mile. Tara Stud's Derek Iceton said, "River Boyne has arrived safely and we will be announcing details of his syndication and nomination fee shortly, but I’m thrilled to have secured him after closely following his career since his impressive victory at two years. He has all the qualities that you would wish to see in a stallion: ultra-sound, impressive physique and a great attitude."

CUTTING DOWN SKEPTICISM ON FEES

In this week’s ‘This Side Up,’ Chris McGrath says that many American breeders have expressed some doubt as to how the broad lowering of stud fees will ultimately affect the business. Click or tap here to go straight to TDN America.

The Irish National Stud’s new recruit for 2021 is Equiano (Fr), the sire of two Group 1 winners and 29 stakes performers will stand for €3,000. Rounding out the roster are Elusive Pimpernel (Ire) (€2,500) and Dragon Pulse (Ire) (€2,000). Equiano, Elusive Pimpernel and Dragon Pulse’s fees are all due in advance of covering.

ARQANA AUTUMN BEGINS WITH YEARLINGS

Arqana’s four-day Autumn Sale begins on Saturday with a single session of flat-bred yearlings, with 220 set to be offered after scratches. Following a dark day on Sunday, the sale will pick up on Monday and continue through Wednesday with horses in training, stores and National Hunt-bred yearlings. The single-session National Hunt Breeding Stock Sale will take place immediately following the Autumn Sale on Nov. 19, comprising the jumping stock that was set for the December Breeding Stock Sale.

With France in the midst of its second national lockdown due to the coronavirus, it is remarkable that the sale is happening at all, but Arqana officials have worked with government in recent weeks to agree on protocols including restricting the sale to those attending in a professional capacity and staging the sale in its outdoor main yard walking ring rather than in the indoor pavilion.

Highlights of the yearling catalogue on paper include lot 4, a Dabirsim (Fr) half-sister to Group 3-winning juvenile Evasive’s First (Fr) (Evasive {Fr}); lot 25, a Myboycharlie (Ire) filly from the great family of Miesque and Karakontie (Jpn); lot 33, a colt from the first crop of Recorder (GB) who is a half-brother to stakes winner Mister Hughie (Elusive City); lot 42, a Dream Ahead filly out of stakes winner Chasing Stars (GB) (Observatory) from the family of the excellent producer Modena; a pair of colts out of half-sisters to Classic winner Brametot (GB) (151, by Shalaa {Ire} and lot 156, by Ultra {Ire}); lot 176, an Iffraaj (GB) filly out of multiple stakes winner Personra Grata (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}); and lot 212, an Anodin (Ire) filly out of a half-sister to stakes winners Silver Pond (Fr) (Act One {GB}) and Silver Point (Fr) (Commands {Aus}).

The Aga Khan and Wertheimer et Frere are among the breeders that bring quality drafts to Deauville, and representatives of those include the 97-rated 3-year-old Irishad (Fr) (Raven’s Pass) (lot 393); 3-year-old Vardani (Fr) (Charm Spirit {Ire}), the winner of two of his three starts (lot 394); 4-year-old Flambeur (Mizzen Mast), a stakes winner last year who took his most recent start (lot 427); and 3-year-old Healer (Fr) (Medicean {GB}), a winner on debut and runner-up in a Clairefontaine Class 2 race (lot 428).

Many leading trainers also field drafts, like Andre Fabre with the 102-rated ParisLongchamp stakes winner Arapaho (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) (lot 418) and the listed-winning the Group 3-placed Measure Of Time (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), rated 103 (lot 419).

There are many quality National Hunt offerings and wildcards also on offer. The full catalogue is available here.

CARTIER AWARDS TO BE SHOWN ON SKY SPORTS RACING

With COVID-19 preventing the traditional ceremony from taking place, this year’s Cartier Awards will be broadcast on Sky Sports Racing from 8 p.m. on Nov. 20.

Laurent Feniou, managing director of Cartier UK, said, “In what has proved to be a year in which so many people have faced exceptional challenges, I am delighted for the Cartier Racing Awards to be broadcast on Sky Sports Racing. Despite the cancellation of our traditional dinner and ceremony at The Dorchester, we are thrilled to have the racing public join us to watch the Cartier Racing Awards presentation this year. Thank you very much to Sky Sports Racing for stepping in and generously offering to broadcast the presentation of the Cartier Racing Awards.”

Rob Dakin, head of racing for Sky Sports Racing, said, “We have always been very happy to give the Cartier Racing Awards significant coverage over the years and stepping in to broadcast the presentation of the awards in 2020 was not a hard decision for us to take.

“Sky Sports Racing broadcasts many highlights of the Flat season in Europe, headed by Royal Ascot and our exclusive coverage of French racing. With the Cartier Racing Awards celebrating the very best in European Flat racing, it feels like a very natural partnership.

“I am confident that our innovative broadcast will appeal across the spectrum of racing’s stakeholders and it is great to be able to support Cartier’s longstanding sponsorship of these prestigious awards.”

Karlarina was unsuccessful in her first four starts, including a seventh in Deauville’s Mar. 6 Listed Prix Rose de Mai, and went postward for this second try at black-type level coming back off stamina-test scores at Le Mans on Sept. 25 and Clairefontaine on Oct. 19. The 89-10 chance accepted a tow from Alkuin (Ire) (Maxios {GB}), racing clear of the remainder, after completing the long run to the judge first time. In a smooth rhythm there until stoked up for control fanning widest off the home turn, she stayed on relentlessly under a continued drive inside the final quarter mile to withstand the persistent threat of Sheraz and claim a career high in decisive fashion.

Karlarina, the fifth of seven foals, is one of two winners and becomes the leading performer for G3 Hamburger Stuten-Preis victress Karsabruni (Fr) (Speedmaster {Ger}). Ummalnar, who was on sabbatical after winning three of her first five outings, came back off a 440-day break to finish eighth in Newmarket’s Sept. 25 Listed Rosemary S. and tuned up for this with a third in the Oct. 29 Listed Fleur de Lys S. at Lingfield. Powering to the front after breaking in mid division, she was comfortable on the lead until shaken up passing the two pole and surged clear under mild urging to secure a first stakes rosette by daylight.

“She’s gorgeous to look at, she’s a fine, big filly and has a lovely big stride on her,” said rider Chris Hayes. “I’m very grateful to Mr Haggas for putting me on her. He told me to keep it simple, to get her into a stride and then sit. That left me in front and she seemed to be coasting. At the top of the straight, I thought I had gone steady so I said I’d stretch them along. I gave her two flicks, looked back and I couldn’t believe it because it felt like a piece of work. She’s obviously got plenty of talent and that was very impressive. I don’t know what the plans are, but maybe they might think of something like the [G2] Cape Verdi in Dubai.”

Ummalnar is the sixth of eight foals and one of three scorers produced by a winning half-sister to listed-winning G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot second Vernoy (Forty Niner) out of MGSW GII All Along victress Marble Maiden (GB) (Lead On Time).

LUCKY LILAC LOOKS TO GO BACK-TO-BACK IN QUEEN ELIZABETH II CUP by Alan Carasso

Sunday Racing’s Lucky Lilac (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) looks to become the first horse since the talented Snow Fairy (GB) (Intikhab) in 2010-2011 to register back-to-back victories in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup (2200m), to be staged this year and next at Hanshin Racecourse while Kyoto Racecourse undergoes major renovations.

The daughter of American Grade I winner Lilacs and Lace (Flower Alley) led home a female one-two in the G1 Osaka Hai (2000m) at this track in early April, besting the talented Chrono Genesis (Jpn) (Bago {Fr}), before finishing sixth to that rival in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen over course and distance June 28. Last year’s G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase runner-up has a single appearance since, a sound third to the re-opposing Normcore (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) in the G2 Sapporo Kinen Aug. 23 in the far northern part of Japan. She’ll have to work out a trip from gate 18 with Christophe Lemaire in the saddle.

“After the Takarazuka Kinen, she was in good shape so I decided to race her in the Sapporo Kinen and, despite the long haul to the venue and all, she really tried hard, as she does,” trainer Mikio Matsunaga commented. “She returned to Ritto about a month again and has gotten a lot of work. She looked good this week too.”

Mirco Demuro, who has been aboard Lucky Lilac for all four of her runs this season, has the call atop 2019 G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) victress Loves Only You (Jpn), one of seven daughters of the late Deep Impact (Jpn) in the field of 18. Third, beaten 1 1/2 lengths in this event last year, the bay filly has yet to break through in three starts this term and was fractionally disappointing when only fifth to Salacia (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 Fuchu Himba S. at Tokyo Oct. 17. Centelleo (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) looms an interesting alternative to the three market leaders. Fourth and not beaten far in last year’s QE II, the 5-year-old missed narrowly in the G3 Mermaid S. in June and prepped for this with a runner-up effort to 2019 G1 Japan Cup second-place finisher Curren Bouquetd’or (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 All Comers S. over this trip at Nakayama Sept. 27.

CUTTING DOWN SCEPTICISM ON FEES

by Chris McGrath

Bought yourself a mare in Lexington this week? Good for you. You have kept the faith. In many cases, that will be because you have seen it all before: you've ridden out bumps in the economy, and eked out value from these stoical and enduring creatures by borrowing their impassive engagement with the patient rhythms of Nature. It's a long game, after all, one that will absorb pandemics and presidential cycles like a passing April shower.

But even the longest journey starts with a single step. And many of you will already have had an assignation in mind for your new mare from the moment you first folded down the catalogue page.

As we know, the stallion farms have done their bit to animate a market stricken by anxiety about the current strain on the global economic system. All the big commercial operations have made headline cuts in fees for 2021, and I'm already salivating over some of the value to be identified in our annual winter appraisal of the stallion market.

Some people, however, have muttered their scepticism as to the substance of these gestures. Has there really been a comprehensive remodelling in the base cost of breeding a Thoroughbred? Or have farms merely camouflaged the decline they had invited in overpricing particular types of stallion? Cont. p3

BOOK THREE CONCLUDES AT KEENELAND

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale's two-session Book 3 section concluded with another day of steady trade Friday in Lexington. Bill Betz made the day's highest bid, going to $270,000 late in the day to acquire the racing/broodmare prospect Divine Queen (Divine Park) from the Trackside Farm consignment. The mare was one of four to bring $200,000 or more during the session. While only 292 of the 401 catalogued head went through the ring Friday, 235 sold for a buy-back rate of just 19.52%.

Through the two Book 3 sessions, Keeneland sold 462 head for $26,185,000. The average was $56,677--down just slightly from last year's figure of $57,032--and the median of $42,000 dipped 6.7% from $45,000 a year ago. Cont. p7

Well, I thought that might be worth investigating. Intake by intake, I’ve taken a look at the relative decline, between stallions at different stages of their careers, at 12 leading farms in Kentucky. We know, after all, that few sires ever again command a fee as high as their opening one; and that they will generally take repeated trims until either discarded, or achieving something to suggest a long-term viability.

How much deeper than "normal", then, were the cuts this time round? And where were they concentrated?

This table charts the decline, in each of the past two years, in the aggregate stud fees charged by sires at the same stage of their careers on these 12 farms.

It’s a broad-brush exercise, very soon complicated by stallion traffic in and out of the Bluegrass by the likes of California Chrome (out), Laoban (in) and Daredevil (out and in). But my feeling is that when these farm owners talk about us all being in this together, they could also be addressing their stallions. Because they do, in the round, appear to have led sires young and old out onto the high road to meet the breeders halfway.

If there is divergence in the angle of the knife making these cuts, then it’s not so much between stallions at a different stage as between stallions on different farms. And you won’t find it hard to decide which were in deadly earnest, and which were pretty much making standard business decisions about individual stallions who would have been in trouble anyway.
I suspect that the one and only group of stallions that are being protected, as a class, will turn out to be those making their entrance to the market. These, presumably, are again guaranteed books of grotesque size; certainly a lot of them appear to have been priced that way.

But there's no point comparing their fees with those who started last spring, as every intake varies in commercial appeal: a $150,000 tag for Justify, for instance, helped to elevate the aggregate fee value of those who started at these 12 farms in 2019 at $480,000, compared with $262,500 for those who began earlier this year. The point here is to compare the relative loss of value suffered, by each intake, at the equivalent point of their careers.

And that's certainly instructive in the case of those who entered stud in 2020, whose first foals will be delivered in the new year. Collectively, the sampled farms send these stallions back to market in 2021 at an aggregate fee cost of $220,000, down 16.2% from the $262,500 they collectively charged in their debut season.

This is a major departure from the way studs have sought to maintain values at least until a first crop of weanlings has entered the ring. In 2020, by contrast, the same farms were able to charge $477,500 for sires entering a second season, virtually unchanged from an opening $480,000.

This time around, even the stars have been repriced—most strikingly at Spendthrift. A mare apiece to Omaha Beach, Vino Rosso and Mitole would have cost a total of $100,000 last spring; now you can get to them all for $75,000.

Sires with first-crop yearlings in 2021

The next group, meanwhile, is now reaching the stage—with their first yearlings about to go into the ring--when commercial breeders typically abscond to the next round of cadets, and books start to erode. This year, sires who entered stud in 2018 were charging $270,000 from $247,500, down 8.3%, with five of 13 taking cuts. But the group who entered stud in 2019 will be charging $382,500 from $477,500, down no less than 19.9% on their last set of fees. Only four of 19 stallions in this group have managed to hold their 2020 fees.

Fourth-year (and beyond) stallions

Next we reach a group that tends to cause breeders really to back off, unless their first yearlings have enjoyed a conspicuous market vogue. Because in his fourth year we start to learn whether a stallion’s first juveniles can actually run.

The sires who entered stud in 2017 duly eased their 2020 fees by 10.2%, from $317,500 to $285,000, albeit the majority of farms actually held their nerve and their prices. Those who entered stud in 2018, however, will be taking the equivalent step in the new year at $191,000, down fully 22.8% from $247,500.

Hereafter comparisons become harder. This is the crossroads of every stallion’s career, with the whims of the market now measurable against results on the track. So you’ll have one guy packing his bags for Turkey even as the next turns out to be

The Factor is an example of a sire whose fee has held | Lee Thomas Constitution, upgraded to $40,000 and now $85,000. In terms of aggregate fees, then, the winners will very often redeem the damage done by the losers. For present purposes, the flux is such that it is more instructive to assess those who come out the other side of this winnowing process.

For instance, the handful still on these farms with three crops of runners (entered stud 2015) are certainly sharing the pain. The bare half-dozen still in business will be charging $67,500

The New York State Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund on October 29, 2020 adopted new rules concerning the residency requirements for dams of New York-bred foals, including certain mares that were purchased at public auction on or after November 1, 2019. It is anticipated that these new rules will become final upon publication in the State Register of New York on or about November 18, 2020.

Non-Resident Mares: In order for her foal to be eligible to be registered as a NY-bred, a non-resident mare must FOAL in New York State, remain in the state for a total continuous period of 90 days (including the time before and after foaling) AND be BRED BACK to a registered New York stallion before leaving the state.

For a complete description of these newly adopted rules, CLICK HERE.

Mares purchased from auctions can instantly become “Resident” mares in New York State if they follow these conditions:

1.) Purchase an in-foal mare from public auction for $50k or more

2.) Bring the mare to New York within 15 days of the sale

3.) The 2021 foal is born in New York
   (this foal will be NY-bred eligible)

4.) The mare can leave to be bred out of state

5.) The mare has to return within 120 days of the last cover, stay in NY until 2022, and deliver that foal in NY
   (this foal will be NY-bred eligible)
With exceptions, even stalwarts like Tapit have seen cuts going into 2021, compared with $85,000 in 2020 and $125,000 the year before.

Consolidation, already so difficult because of the commercial infatuation with unproven sires, is becoming harder and harder. Move on a couple of intakes, to those with a fifth crop of runners (entered stud 2013), and it speaks volumes for The Factor, say, that he can hold even a fee he has already outpunched when a studmate as accomplished as Union Rags must take a cut of no less than 50%.

Benchmark sires

And what of those who set the standard; the happy few who, having established their merit and viability, represent the model for those still trying to make a name for themselves? Operating at all levels of the market, from War Front to plucky achievers like Midshipman, they comprise the solid foundation for the whole stallion industry.

Sure enough, after a long bull run in the bloodstock market, these older sires (a total of 35 across our 12 chosen farms) collectively maintained their covering value in 2020 at $2,280,000, up marginally from $2,225,000 the previous year. For 2021, however, despite the odd hike (Into Mischief, Uncle Mo, Speightstown and Munnings) they have slipped 8.2% to $2,041,500.

That’s just about half the percentage loss, then, of those embarking on their second season. Normally, these are the two stable bookends to all the fluctuations in between. But even this lesser erosion implies some exceptional opportunity among the kind of proven sires who can make a mare, who can build a family, pending any return to the mechanical commercial exploitation of unproven sires.

I do see, nowadays, how that kind of thing is primarily driven by breeders; and I no longer blame the farms for loading the books of new stallions when the resulting stock will be given such a brief window of opportunity on the track. At the best of times, farm accountants have a terribly difficult balancing act. And, in reacting to the present crisis, it looks as though that balance extends at least to their collective use of the scythe. Admittedly, you’ll find that the cuts may be a little more jagged on some rosters than others. But the overall result is that there is opportunity across the herd.

So if you do insist on using a newcomer, with such luminous value across the rest of the spectrum, then good luck in your incorrigibility. Because if the overall "supply" did need some kind of correction, then so too, unmistakably, does our demand.

Fifteen horses sold for $200,000 or more during Book 3. During last year’s Book 3 section, 499 head sold for $28,459,200. The book’s top price was $325,000 and there were nine offerings who sold for $200,000 or more.

“It was a lot better than I anticipated,” Summerfield’s Francis Vanlangendonck said of the November market. “For the babies, it’s been really, really good. The weanlings sold much better today than earlier in the week. Yesterday we averaged about 80 showings per weanling for horses we were selling today. The buyers were pretty aggressive. It seems like for these lower-valued weanlings there is a world of people wanting to buy.

With people worried about what the markets were going to be like, there were a lot of scratches. Those well-conformed weanlings that vetted good sold really well. Even some that had issues are starting to sell. I looked at the outs, so by the time we got to the sales ring, I knew where we were. I knew there would be a market, but thought it would be a little timid... when the supply started lowering, I felt we might do OK. Even with the mares I thought they did well. We sold every horse we put through the ring. We had gotten beaten up pretty good in September and October and we were having to sell to make sure we had money for stud fees and to keep going.”

Reiley McDonald of Eaton Sales said there was still demand for the right type of mares and weanlings.

“The mares that are legitimate, there are buyers here for them and Book 3 has still been good,” McDonald said. “There are horses that just have holes in them, they are a little old or the foals don’t vet right, there is no market for those. The weanling buyers are not putting up with any veterinary flaws. That always happens in a tight market. If you jump through the hoops—you’re a nice physical and you’re clean—then you will get as much here as you will for a yearling. There is money out there and people get hungry. Everybody gets shuffled back by the earlier higher-priced horses and get hungry in Books 3 and 4 because the pinhookers make their living reselling the foals.”

The Keeneland November sale continues through Wednesday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Divine Score for Bradley

Bill Betz struck late to secure Divine Queen (Divine Park) (hip 1764) for a session-topping $270,000 Friday at Keeneland, signing for the mare in the name of Avout Bloodstock. Tom Evans’s Trackside Farm consigned the 5-year-old racing or broodmare prospect on behalf of co-owner/breeder and trainer Buff Bradley.

“We bred her, foaled her, raised her and raced her and we just sold her,” said Bradley. “Pretty much like we did [two-time sprint champion] Groupie Doll. We were very excited to race this filly and then sell her as a mare and know she was going to go somewhere good.”

Racing for Bradley and co-breeder Carl Hurst, Divine Queen won the 2019 Open Mind S. and 2018 Dogwood S. She won six of 23 starts for earnings of $339,344.

“She had a lot of class,” Bradley said. “She showed it in the ring, walking up here, she’s just all class. And a very sound race mare. Never once did she have a problem. I think we are very proud of that. We bred a nice, sound racehorse.”

From the same family, Bradley and Hurst bred stakes winner and graded placed Queen’s Award (Medaglia d’Oro), a half-sister to Divine Queen, and also bred and campaigned multiple graded winner The Player (Street Hero), who is out of a half-sister to both mares.

“We have a lot of the family and we have to keep the cash flow going and get ready for the young ones coming along,” Bradley said of the decision to sell the mare.

Of the mare’s session-topping final price, Bradley said, “It was a bit more than what we were thinking, but we’re very happy with it.”

Gottahaveaholiday to Coteau Grove

Bloodstock agent Andrew Cary remained busy buying mares for the account of Keith and Ginger Myers’s Coteau Grove Friday at Keeneland, going to $240,000 to acquire the broodmare prospect Gottahaveaholiday (Harlan’s Holiday). The 6-year-old got a big update when her juvenile half-sister Dayoutoftheoffice (Into Mischief) won the GI Frizette S. and finished second in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies last week.

“The update is just huge,” Cary said after signing the ticket on the mare, who was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency. “That filly ran such an amazing race in the Breeders’ Cup and winning the Frizette. It gives us a nice filly to root for next year.”

Gottahaveaholiday was purchased by Samantha Siegel’s Jay Em Ess Stable for $230,000 at the 2015 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. She finished second six times in 10 starts.

“The mare was gorgeous,” Cary continued. “She was an expensive yearling herself. We will breed her to a really nice stallion and have options moving forward."

As the November sale continued through Book 3, Cary said there was still plenty of competition.

“There are still a lot of top agents and buyers here,” he said. “It’s been that way throughout the sale. You just have to follow them up and some you get and some you don’t. You just hope you land on the right number on some of them. We got outbid on probably 10 horses yesterday. It’s very competitive for these kind of long-term mares. There is a lot of competition for those and it bodes well for the bloodstock industry down the road.”

Cary has signed for 11 mares on behalf of the Louisiana-based Coteau Grove Farms for a total of $3,195,000. His purchases are led by a pair of $500,000 acquisitions: Miss Hot Legs (Verrazano) (hip 66) and Contributing (hip 958).

Nyquist Colt Joins Pinhooking Partnership

Headley Bell purchased a colt by Nyquist for $225,000 and the weanling (hip 1586) is part of a pinhooking partnership he has been busy buying for at the Keeneland November sale.

“I liked that he was an athlete and I liked the family,” Bell said. “And obviously we like Nyquist. It’s hard to ignore the start he has made. We put together a partnership and we are just trying to put some athletes in the bucket and see if we can get lucky.”

The chestnut is out of the unraced Senorita Corredora (El Corredor)--a $150,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase in 2010--and he is a half-brother to multiple stakes-placed Holiday’s Angel (Harlan’s Holiday). Bred by Gary and Anne Smith’s Elm Racing and Mulholland Springs, the weanling was consigned by Mulholland Springs.

“The sire is obviously doing well with the Breeders’ Cup winner [Vequist],” said John Mulholland. “It all fell into place. The colt vetted well and presented himself well, and we had all the right buyers on him. We bred him in partnership with some clients of ours, Gary and Ann Smith of Elm Racing. I actually bought the mare for the Smiths as a yearling and she got a tendon injury and never made it to the races. She was a breeze or two away from running. They have raced all the foals and want to do more racing, perhaps claim some horses or buy some 2-year-olds, and that is why we went ahead and sold the mare and the foal.

Happily, I found another client to buy the mare and keep her on the farm, which makes me happy.

Bell has purchased six weanlings at the Keeneland November sale for the partnership under the name Sycamore. In addition to hip 1586, he purchased a filly by Constitution (hip 1688) for $140,000; a filly by Distorted Humor (hip 1663) for $105,000; a filly by Mendelssohn (hip 1545) for $100,000; a colt by Malibu Moon (hip 408) for $90,000; and a filly by First Samurai (hip 1511) for $70,000.

A We feel like there is potential opportunity, he said. A We = all see. Coming into the sale, we thought it might be somewhat depressed, but I don’t feel that it is at all, to be honest with you.

Weanling-to-yearling pinhookers have come up against plenty of competition from end-users at this week's Keeneland November sale, particularly from Larry Best's OXO Equine, which has purchased eight foals.

“For Larry Best to come into the weanling market as strong as he is, he is obviously very competitive and makes it tough, Bell said. “But listen, we are all trying to do the same thing.”

Practical Joke Weanlings Prove Popular

A pair of weanlings by young Coolmore sire Practical Joke set the pace for foal prices early in Friday’s session of the Keeneland November sale. Brian Graves of Gainesway went to $185,000 to acquire a colt by the Grade I winner (hip 1512) from the Eaton Sales consignment. Bred by Forging Oaks, the pinhooking prospect is a half-brother to multiple graded winner Secret Gypsy (Sea of Secrets).

“I bought Practical Joke as a yearling, so if anybody was going to be inspired to stretch for them a little bit, it’s me,” Graves said. “They’ve all been well-balanced, good movers and athletic. You’ve got to believe in Into Mischief and Practical Joke has a good chance. Hopefully, he will come out with some early runners and we’ll be in good shape.”

Graves purchased Practical Joke for $135,000 at the 2015 Keeneland January sale and resold him for $240,000 at that year’s Keeneland September sale. The stallion, whose first foals are yearlings, won the GI Champagne S., GI H. Allen Jerkens S. and GI Hopeful S.

“I was happy with the price,” Eaton Sales’ Reiley McDonald said of the transaction. “He is a really nice physical horse and those can go for anything above what you’re expecting when they are that good. His sire has been doing well, with one a couple hips before him that also sold well. He was the best horse we had physically.”

Just a few hips before Graves made his purchase, Larry Best’s OXO Equine went to $150,000 to acquire a filly by Practical Joke (hip 1510) from the Brookdale Sales consignment. The chestnut filly is out of the unraced Miss Prytania (Eskendereya), a half-sister to graded winners Medal Count (Dynaformer) and Garden District (Dixie Union). She was bred by J.R. Ward Stables.

Graves agreed the weanling market has been very competitive this week in Lexington.

“I am not shocked,” he said of the strong weanling market. “Everybody saw there were fewer on offer and maybe the nice ones that have come through have been fewer and farther between. The laws of supply and demand take over.”

RACING AT GOLDEN GATE, ZIA PARK TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED DUE TO COVID-19

Live racing at Golden Gate Fields will temporarily be suspended, effective Friday, Nov. 13 through Nov. 20, in response to the COVID-19 outbreak, it was announced.

"Since Oct. 30, there have been 24 confirmed cases linked to the Berkeley stable area," a release from Golden Gate read. "All positive cases are overseen by the Berkeley Public Health Division (BPHD) through their case managers, are required to isolate as per BPHD protocols and are not able to return to Golden Gate Fields until health clearance has been provided by BPHD.

"During the period of temporary closure, track facilities will undergo thorough cleaning and track-wide COVID-19 testing will be performed for all employees and backstretch workers in the stable area. Upon completion of testing all data will be shared with the BPHD."

The 1300 horses stabled onsite will continue to receive the daily care and exercise they require.

It was also announced Friday that, pursuant to new COVID-19 restrictions put in place by New Mexico Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham, Zia Park's current live racing meet has been suspended through Nov. 30. "Effective Monday, Nov. 16, all non-essential businesses, including horse racing, are required to cease in-person activities until the end of the month," a release from Zia Park read.

STUNNING SKY A WORTHY FAVORITE IN MRS. REVERE

Stunning Sky (Declaration of War) managed to snap a seven-length losing streak with a tough-as-nails victory in Keeneland's GIII Pin Oak Valley View S. when last seen Oct. 16 and figures a strong chance to take her current winning skein to two in Saturday's GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill.

Halted for $50,000 by this outstanding claiming outfit out of a second-out victory in the Gulfstream slop last December, Stunning Sky added a first-level allowance over the turf before her dry spell. The bay turned in some strong efforts in defeat during that stretch, including runner-up finishes in the GII Lake Placid S. and Saratoga Oaks ahead of a fourth in what has become a productive renewal of the Dueling Grounds Oaks Sept. 10. Trapped out three deep the trip in the Valley View, Stunning Sky nevertheless kept on gamely and grabbed perfect-trip Princess Grace (Karakontie {Jpn}) on the line despite covering 42 feet (about 4 1/4 lengths) more than the runner-up, according to Trakus.

Princess Grace was having just her third career start in the Valley View and looked well on her way to victory at the eighth pole, only to hang the last little bit. She can improve for that experience and will have her fair share of admirers.

How Ironic (Tonalist) was the winner of an Ellis Park allowance Aug. 7 ahead of an even seventh in the Dueling Grounds Oaks. She and Stunning Sky effectively raced as a team in the Valley View, though she lacked the same finishing kick and checked in third, beaten a length, while covering 18 fewer feet.

Hendy Woods (Uncle Mo) was runner-up to ‘TDN Rising Star’ Sharing (Speightstown) in Churchill’s GIII Edgewood S. on the GI Kentucky Oaks undercard Sept. 4 and exits a sixth in the GI QE II Challenge Cup, won by Harvey’s Lil Goil (American Pharoah), who returned to be a bang-up third in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Turf last weekend. Easy ground would enhance her chances.

RETIRED THOROUGHBREDS AT HOME IN SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITY

As soon as Bev Passerello retired as a riding instructor, she and her husband John sold their home in California, bought an RV and traveled the country. At some point along the way, they ended up in Louisville on the first Saturday in May.

"After I saw the Kentucky Derby for the first time, every trip back and forth across the United States went through Kentucky," Bev said. "John finally said, ‘I give up, it looks like we’re going to move to Kentucky.’"

So they parked their motor home in the Bluegrass State for good, bought a broodmare and got in on a few racing partnerships, and fell in love with the people and Thoroughbreds of Central Kentucky.
Last year, they were looking for a senior living residence where they could receive some assistance but still live independently when they came across Ashton Grove Senior Living in Georgetown.

For Bev, horses were the only thing missing from the picturesque community. When she discovered that half of Ashton Grove’s 80 acres were unoccupied and on part of the old Hill ‘n’ Dale property, an idea began to form.

John and Bev reached out to Michael Blowen, the founder and president of Old Friends.

“We had been associated with Old Friends for quite a while,” John said. “I knew that every once in a while, people offer horses to Michael, and he doesn’t have the room. So we made a phone call to Michael, and he said, ‘Sounds great.’”

The partnership between Ashton Grove and Old Friends quickly formed, and the team got to work with the dream of creating a unique arrangement where retired Thoroughbreds could interact with the residents at the senior living community on 40 acres of land that features eight paddocks and a 12-stall barn.

“We’re so fortunate that we had this barn and all of this land,” said Ashton Grove’s Executive Director Davonna Saeir. “We went ahead and started to fix up some fences so we could get horses out here.”

The plans were brought to a halt this spring due to the pandemic.

“Just after we got started, the Coronavirus set in and the whole thing just sort of started falling apart,” Bev said. “But Davonna and Michael have never given up and have never failed to support us and what we were trying to do.”

Last month, the first seven retired Thoroughbreds finally stepped onto the grounds.

“We wanted to find horses that were really good together and had a gentle nature to them so that they could be around the residents,” said John Bradley, who will serve as manager of the new Old Friends facility, helping to acclimate the senior residents with their new equine neighbors and overseeing the daily care of the Thoroughbred retirees.

The new arrivals include dual Grade I winner Daytona (Ire) {Indian Ridge (Ire)}, 2002 Preakness S. runner-up Magic Weisner (Ameri Valay) and Chilean champion Porfido (Chi) {Mash One (Chi)}.

Blowen was effusive in his praise for the new program.

“It’s all worked out really well,” he said. “The residents all seem to be very supportive. They’re learning about the horses and we’re going to have lunches and parties here.”

Blowen said he plans to have celebrity guest jockeys, trainers, and other industry participants visit to educate residents about horse racing and the Thoroughbred industry in Central Kentucky.

The Passerello’s have been involved in every step of the process as they live on-site in independent living. Bev said that this gives them the opportunity to introduce other residents to the new equine seniors in their community.

“How do I feed a horse? Can I come down in my wheelchair? Will they get to know us? The questions are ongoing,” she said.

“But a lot of them have had to give up their animal companionship. A lot of them have lost loved ones. To have these creatures down here has been very rewarding for them. It’s been a spectacular personal achievement for us to be able to bring these residents down here. It’s just what we dreamed would happen.”

Tom Emerson has been a resident at Ashton Grove for five months and has quickly developed into one of the program’s biggest supporters as he stops by the paddocks daily to distribute carrots.

“It’s been a wonderful experience,” he said. “I grew up in cities and had never been this close to a horse before. I had never fed a horse before and I’m glad he took the carrots and not my fingers. I hope these horses enjoy Ashton Grove as much as I do. When my wife passed away, I was looking for a great group of people for company and I found it. Now I’ve got a great bunch of horses to be with too.”

Ashton Grove’s Saeir said that visiting the horses at Ashton Grove has been rejuvenating for many of the senior residents.

“A lot of times when someone moves into assisted living, they’ve gone through a lot of loss,” she said. “They’ve lost their spouse. They’ve lost their vitality. Oftentimes they’ve lost their ability to drive and do things that really were meaningful to them. But these horses are part of their heritage. It’s just another aspect of true home and comfort that they are able to get by living here.”

Saeir added that as many of the normal community activities have been canceled due to the ongoing pandemic, the ability to be outside and interact with the horses and other residents has been a bright spot for many of Ashton’s Groves members.

“It’s fun to see, because I’m already starting to see some unique friendships start between some of the staff and the residents with some of the horses,” said Bradley. “This is just the beginning. Over time, we figure to have about 30 horses in this facility.”

Already in the first few weeks of operation, Old Friends at Ashton Grove has received inquiries from other senior living communities in Kentucky and beyond.

“There’s been a lot of interest in the concept,” said Bev. “We’re getting a lot of people talking to us now. I think it will become a model, I truly do, because there’s been so much interest.”

John added, “More Thoroughbreds need to be saved, so if this can happen in other places it would be great for the horses and for the senior citizens.”

Standing at just 14.3 hands, the now 11-year-old gelding will be sold by Twombly Performance Horses, a renowned ranch horse operation in the Quarter Horse world that specializes in roping and reining horses. The Twombly family offers two sales a year. Smokey, whose registered name is This Whiz Shines, will be sold as a partnership between the Twombly and Baffert families, with the proceeds to be donated to Old Friends. STUD FEES SET FOR RANCHO SAN MIGUEL

Rancho San Miguel has set 2021 stud fees for its roster of seven stallions, led by the globetrotting Sir Prancealot (Ire), whose fee will remain a California-leading $15,000 for his second season at stud in California. Sir Prancealot, who has sired progeny to win stakes in at least six countries in 2020, will return from Cornerstone Stud in Australia after breeding 105 mares in California in 2020.

The 2021 Rancho San Miguel roster also includes: Curlin to Mischief ($3,500); Danzing Candy ($5,000); Northern Causeway ($2,000); Richard’s Kid ($2,500); Slew’s Tiznow ($3,000); and Tom’s Tribute ($2,000).

TEXAS WINTER MIXED SALE ATTRACTS BETTER THAN 125 HORSES

The Texas Winter Mixed Sale, staged in partnership by the Texas Thoroughbred Association and Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie, has attracted more than 125 entries. The first standalone Texas Winter Mixed Sale since 2011 will take place Sunday, Dec. 6, at 1 p.m. at the sales pavilion located on the Lone Star backstretch.

“Because of increased purses and breeding incentives in Texas, and the overall strength of racing in the Southwest region, we saw the need to bring this sale back,” said Tim Boyce, sales director. “Even though we knew there would be demand from consignors and buyers, we didn’t anticipate this many entries or the interest we’ve already seen from potential buyers. That’s a good sign for how things are growing in this region.”

The sale will kick off with broodmares followed by weanlings, yearlings and horses of racing age. As it was for the Texas Summer Yearling Sale this past August, internet bidding will also be available for the Mixed Sale.

BAFFERT PONY SMOKEY TO SELL; PROCEEDS TO OLD FRIENDS

American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile)’s trusty sidekick during his racing days, a pony named Smokey, will be offered at public auction Saturday, Dec. 5, in Fort Worth, TX. The buckskin Quarter Horse gained fame as he accompanied the Triple Crown winner to engagements around the country in 2015. Smokey was often photographed with Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert or his assistant, Jimmy Barnes, in the saddle.
UPCOMING ONLINE COURSE FOR RACING OFFICIALS ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

The Racing Officials Accreditation Program (ROAP) and the University of Louisville have announced a 16-hour continuing education course to be held live online Monday, Dec. 14 and Tuesday, Dec. 15, 2020. Both sessions begin at 8:00 a.m. ET and finish each day at 5:00 p.m. ET.

Speakers during the live online sessions include: Alex Waldrop, CEO and President of the NTRA; Dr. Will Farmer, Churchill Downs Equine Medical Director; Barbara Borden, Chief State Steward, Kentucky Racing Commission; Hugh Gallaher, Safety Steward, NYRA; et al.

Registration is now open at the UofL Equine Payment Portal, https://louisville.edu/business/payments/equine. The cost is $80 prior to Dec. 8 and increases to $110 afterwards.

2021 CALENDAR CELEBRATES SECRETARIAT'S LAST LIVING SONS AND DAUGHTERS

Continuing a series celebrating Secretariat's legacy through his remaining offspring, a 2021 calendar featuring the last living sons and daughters of the legendary 1973 Triple Crown winner is now available. It's the fourth annual fund-raising calendar in what has become a tradition of generating revenue for equine charities, a group that now includes Bright Futures Farm, Old Friends, and Victory Alliance Ranch.

"It is humbling to see how the racing industry, and Secretariat fans in particular, have embraced this calendar series," said writer/photographer Patricia McQueen, whose creative project is part of her research work on Secretariat as a sire. "The first three calendars have raised more than $14,000 for the designated charities, funds sorely needed to provide homes and special care for horses in need."

The calendars are available for $25 each at www.SecretariatsLegacy.com. Free shipping within the U.S. is included.

$725K UNION RAGS COLTS DEBUTS AT THE BIG A

by Christina Bossinakis

3rd-AQU, $80K, 2yo, 8.5fT, 12:50 p.m. ET
Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, William Freeman and Michael Valdes’s AVIANO (Medaglia d’Oro) debuts for trainer Todd Pletcher, who recorded his 5,000th career victory last weekend and becomes eligible for the Hall of Fame in 2021. Out of graded stakes winner Bryan’s Jewel (Rockport Harbor), the April foal realized a $775,000 final bid from Eclipse at last year’s Fasig-Tipton Select Yearling sale in Saratoga. Bryan’s Jewel, a daughter of $650,000 Fasig-Tipton buy Saphiria (Touch Gold)—trained by Pletcher—is also responsible for a Bodemeister filly ultimately named Empress Sophia, who brought $400,000 at KEESEP in 2017. Stuart Janney III’s Proven Innocent (Blame) kicks off his career for Shug McGaughey. The hombred is out of the prolific Janney mare Meghan’s Joy (A.P. Indy), dam of MGSW and MGISP Ironicus (Distorted Humor), GSW Hunting (Coronado’s Quest), MGSW On Leave (War Front), in addition to graded winners Quiet Harbor (Silver Deputy) and Norumbega (Tiznow). This is the extended family of MGSW Wild Applause (Northern Dancer), dam of Grade I scorer Eastern Echo (Damascus) and graded winners Yell (A.P. Indy), Roar (Forty Niner) and Blare of Trumpets (Fit to Fight). TJCIS PPs

5th-AQU, $80K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 1:45 p.m. ET
DYNAMIC ONE (Union Rags) gets his start for the partnership of Repole, Phipps and St. Elias Stables while under the guidance of Todd Pletcher. A $725,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, the colt was the third highest-priced colt by his sire in 2019. Out of Beat the Drums (Smart Strike), he hails from the family of undefeated Hall of Famer Personal Ensign (Private Account) through her daughter MGISW My Flag (Easy Goer). The Phipps family-bred is a grandson of My Flag’s champion daughter Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat), a half-sister to Miner’s Mark (Mr. Prospector) and Traditionally (Mr. Prospector). TJCIS PPs
IN ORDER OF PURSE:

9th—Churchill Downs, $88,056, Alw (NW3$X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 11-13, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m (off turf), 1:42.72, ft, 1 1/2 lengths.

RAMSEY SOLUTION (g, 4, Real Solution--Dynarhythm, by Dynaformer), last seen finishing fourth in an Oct. 8 Keeneland allowance after a score in the Sept. 9 Tapit S. at Kentucky Downs, was favored at 3-5 in a field depleted when the allowance came off the grass. Under a hard hold, Ramsey Solution showed the way through moderate fractions of :24 and :48.50, letting out a notch around the turn when challenged by Split the Wickets (Gio Ponti). The latter never changed leads and Ramsey Solution held tough to win by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half-brother to Fear the Kitten (Kitten’s Joy), MGSP, $232,505. Sales history: $4,500 RNA Ylg ’17 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: SW, 9-5-1-0, $379,363. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

7th—Aqueduct, $79,540, Alw, 11-13, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:17.20, sy, 4 1/2 lengths.

FULL IMPACT (c, 3, Street Sense--Four Gifts (MGSW, $640,068), by Even the Score) was a front-running winner going six panels at Monmouth Oct. 14 and was installed the 3-2 choice to remain undefeated. Up to prompt 9-2 chance War Tocsin (Violence) through a :22.59 opening quarter, the grey was at the pacesetter’s throat latch following a :46.47 half. Moving into a clear advantage leaving the quarter pole, he left the tiring rival behind and drew off to an easy 4 1/2-length victory over an eager but overmatched Twelth Man (Super Saver). Dam Four Gifts produced a colt by Candy Ride (Arg) in 2019 and was bred back to Bernardini this season. Sales history: $140,000 Ylg ’18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $73,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

8th—Gulfstream West, $37,000, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($62,500), 11-13, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:15.81, wf, neck.

WENT WEST (c, 3, Union Rags--Spectacular Sky (MSW & MGSP, $288,985), by Sky Mesa) was a debut winner for at Parx while under the care of Jason Servis just over a year ago before being narrowly defeated in Gulfstream’s Buffalo Man S. Subsequently transferred to Kelly Breen, the bay finished third in a Monmouth optional claimer in August before coming up a neck short in his latest start at the Oceanport oval Sept. 4. Starting for new connections here, Went West assumed a narrow advantage through a respectable opening quarter in :22.62. Still in front at the top of the lane, he had enough left in the tank to hold off Frosted Grace (Mark Valeski) by a neck at the wire. Graded stakes winner Spectacular Sky is credited with an American Pharoah filly foal and was bred back to Omaha Beach. Sales history: $125,000 Ylg ’18 KEEJAN; $195,000 Ylg ’18 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: SP, 5-3-2-0, $104,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.
IN ORDER OF PURSE:

10th-Churchill Downs, $84,284, Msw, 11-13, 2yo, 6f, 1:10.33, ft, 2 lengths.

GAGETOWN (c, 2, Exaggerator--Betty’s Solutions, by Eltish), sent off at 5-1 for this unveiling, was a close-up fourth as Name Rejected (Munnings), prompted by Rockstar Ro (Gemologist), showed the way through a :21.94 quarter. In tandem with Gun Lap (Runhappy) to his outside approaching the quarter pole, the 5-1 chance cut between the weakening leaders while his fellow firster swung wide turning for home. Getting his nose in front in early stretch, Gagetown did just enough to graduate by two lengths over Gun Lap with Name Rejected third. Gagetown, the 13th winner for his freshman sire (by Curlin), is a half to Include Betty (Include), GISW, $789,780; and Blonde Fog (Divine Park), GISPI, $124,320. Betty’s Solutions also has a 3-year-old filly by Carpe Diem named Mom’s Eye Candy and a colt dropped this season by Always Dreaming. The winner represents the family of Grade I winning My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat). Sales history: $170,000 Wlg ’18 KEENOV; $47,000 RNA Ylg ’19 KEESEP; $120,000 RNA 2yo ’20 OBSAPR. 1st-Aqueduct, $80,000, Msw, 11-13, 2yo, f, 6f (off turf), 1:11.71, sy, 1 1/4 lengths.

HIT THE WOAH (f, 2, Vancouver {Aus}--Christie’s Ready, by More Than Ready), runner-up in her debut at Belmont Oct. 18, was installed the even-money choice to go one better in this off-turf affair. Sixth as Into Vanishing (Into Mischief) led through a :22.65 opening quarter, the dark bay started to pick up the tempo exiting the far turn and improved to fourth as she cut over the inside at the quarter pole. Making up ground while re-routing to the outside of leading Amalfi Princess (Temple City), she took over in the final sixteenth and drew clear of that rival to graduate by 1 1/4 lengths. Into Vanishing was a clear third. A half-sister to Japanese Group 1 scorer Mozu Superflare (Speightstown) and GSW Sacristy (Pulpit), Christie’s Ready produced a Malibu Moon colt this term and was bred back to American Pharoah. Hit the Woah was the most expensive of her sire’s 40 yearlings reported as sold in 2019. Sales history: $150,000 Ylg ’19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $60,000. GATOR SHINING (c, 2, Noble Mission {GB}--Underway, by Giant’s Causeway) debuted Oct. 10 on Santa Anita’s lawn at just a half-furlong longer, spinning four wide into the stretch only to miss by a neck. Second choice at 9-5 here to improve that finish, Gator Shining held at the back of the first flight through a first quarter in :22.11, then got swarmed as the field bunched up coming off the turn. With a half in :44.87, the chestnut kicked it into gear late and prevailed by a head in a four-way blanket finish. Belmont shipper Enough Nonsense (Quality Road) nosed out first time starter Gregory’s Pride (Tamarkuz) for second. The winner’s unplaced dam is a great-granddaughter of 1983 Broodmare of the Year Courty Dee (Never Bend). Her most recent reported foal is a yearling filly by Daredevil. HELLO HOT ROD (c, 2, Mosler—Hello Now, by Tiznow) rallied exactly 14 days prior in his debut for a green-but-good second by a neck over this course at six panels. Back and favored at 2-5, Hello Hot Rod broke straight and true and went right to the front. Under a quiet ride, the dark bay led the field through factions of :22.94 and :46.49, turned back All Threes (Great Notion) in the stretch, and shook clear for a 4 1/4-length triumph. Courtesy of Hello Hot Rod’s victory, freshman sire Mosler (by War Front) records his seventh winner. The winner is a half to Hello Beautiful (Golden Lad), MSW, $257,110. Dam Hello Now’s most recent reported foal is a yearling colt, Surprise Hello, by Golden Years. She has been bred back to Golden Lad for next term. Sales history: $10,000 Ylg ‘19 EASOCT.
