

RECORD-BREAKING REBOUND AT DONCASTER

The joint sale-topping colt by Twilight Son. Also achieving £210,000 was a son of Galileo Gold. Both were sold by Tally Ho Stud | Goffs UK

DONCASTER, UK--Look, we all know to refrain from any bold pronouncements in such an uncertain world. But the same market that was last year first to be broadsided by the pandemic has now made consecutive statements: first one of cautious optimism and now, remarkably, one of record-breaking confidence. For if we left Newmarket last week reminding ourselves that a single swallow does not a summer make, then flight after flight seemed to fill the air at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale.

Whatever the ups and downs that inevitably still await, make no mistake. This was a huge day not just for the breeze-up sector, not just for the auction house, but for the whole bloodstock industry in Europe. Even in the absence of important recent investors, the prospect of a return to the racetrack appears to have opened the sluice gates on pent-up demand for one of the great joys of the life we all want to retrieve: the Thoroughbred racehorse.

Of course, there has never in history been a horse sale where every single vendor skipped away like Morecambe and Wise at the end of the show, and there were duly one or two consignors still grumbling about their fortunes.

PALACE PIER THE STAR TURN AT SANDOWN

Arguably the most exciting older horse in training in Europe sets out on his keenly-anticipated 4-year-old campaign on Friday, as 'TDN Rising Star' Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}) takes in the G2 Sandown Mile. Escaping a penalty with his brace of Group 1 wins in the St James's Palace S. and Prix Jacques le Marois coming before the end of August, Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's still-unexposed bay had excuses when bogged down in Ascot's testing conditions but still managed a respectable third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. on Champions Day. Thady Gosden said, "The plan was to go straight to the [G1] Lockinge, but we have decided to give Palace Pier a run at Sandown as he seems quite fresh at home. He lost a shoe coming out of the gate at Ascot on Champions Day. Although he had won on soft ground, the ground at Ascot was bottomless and it was a bit too deep. It was real specialist ground."

As prospectors and vendors basked in glorious spring sunshine, however, only the deserted benches around the sales ring told of the lingering impact of Covid. For if obliged to keep their distance indoors, then bidders were found themselves frantically congested in terms of competition.

Comparisons with the auction salvaged here last July (amalgamated with Arqana) would be pretty pointless, but the fact is that this sale outpunched even the buoyant returns of the preceding couple of years, when the sector overall had been riding a sustained bull run.

Perhaps most heartening of all, as at the Tattersalls Craven Sale which last week opened the European calendar, was the median. There really was a solid spread of business, and those perennial complaints about the soft centre of the market were silenced here. A median of £34,000 compared with £26,000 in 2019, and £25,500 the year before. The £48,590 average, equally, exceeded £45,750 two years ago and £40,058 in 2018. And if it's the home run you're after, then the 15 six-figure sales notched on Thursday compared with 11 in 2019 and 13 the year before. Overall business of £6,219,500 represented a 22% gain on 2019 while the clearance rate, as has become commonplace in the Covid economy, was again very purposeful at 89%.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent was rightly ecstatic. "This is an incredible business and today has been an amazing day," he said. "To have the ability to hold the sale on its original date and at its intended location was the first success. To then smash all records is something that we couldn't have envisaged in the lead-up to this sale, and the results are very positive for the industry and for our loyal vendors who really backed us with some very nice horses.

"This sale has a brilliant record on the track and has produced five Royal Ascot winners since 2016, a fact that was not lost on buyers at any point today. We would like to extend a sincere thank you to everyone who purchased today, and we are sure that we will see many of them at Royal Ascot in eight weeks' time. In 2016, we saw two colts who shared the sale topping price--Prince Of Lir (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Ardad (Ire) (Kodiac {GB})--who went on to win the G2 Norfolk S. and Listed Windsor Castle S. that year.

"We hope that that is a good omen for this sale and we would also like to extend a big thank you to our vendors, who provided us with a catalogue of real depth to market to our international audience, whilst we would also like to thank Doncaster Racecourse who produced superb ground to show our breeders to maximum effect."

Tally Ho Splits Top Lots

Horses run no faster or slower because of their price, as we know, and the petrified 2020 market here duly produced a £28,000 winner of the G3 Molecomb S. And it was the man responsible for that coup, Michael O'Callaghan, who for a long time topped proceedings here with the £210,000 he gave for lot 118, a colt by Twilight Son (GB) presented by Tally Ho Stud.

But the consignors, who had a remarkable day even by their standards, had an equivalent trick up their sleeves with the very last animal into the ring: a son of Galileo Gold (GB) who joined his draft companion at the head of the day's business with a £210,000 docket signed by Armando Duarte.

Both were apt measures of the Tally Ho genius. The Twilight Son colt was picked up for just €28,000 from Olive O'Connor Bloodstock as a short yearling at the Goffs February Sale of 2020. If you think about everything that has happened since, this really was a "touch" that seemed to bring things full circle. "He was my pick of the sale, by a long way," said Michael O'Callaghan, who credited namesake Roger for his endorsement of the colt. "He's from a great hotel that we've been extremely lucky with. I saw him at home three weeks ago, loved him, and he couldn't have come more highly recommended. He took the preliminaries so well, he walked round the parade ring like an old handicapper. Though hopefully that's the last time he looks like one of those."

The Curragh trainer, back on a happy hunting ground, laid out over £500,000 for six purchases in all, including a £140,000 Footstepsinthesand (GB) colt presented as lot 151 by Woodtown House Stud. He had failed to meet his reserve at €29,000 at Goffs only last autumn. "He's a lovely horse, I saw him at the Curragh three weeks ago and have been admiring him since the online sale at Goffs," O'Callaghan said. "I probably should have bought him then. But he did an excellent breeze here."

Duarte, for his part, had saved his best until last. His purchase will be staying in England, but no more could be disclosed at this point. Though he conceded that Galileo Gold has achieved limited commercial traction, this lad belongs to his first crop and he clearly retains every right to make himself fashionable where it counts.

"And the mare has produced quite a good stakes horse," he noted, referring to Acklam Express (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), who had actually supplied a Group 1 update when placed in the Al Quoz Sprint since the publication of the catalogue. "He breezed very well, looks ready to run, and fits the bill as one that might have Ascot potential."

Through the card Tally Ho sold 15 animals for £985,000 at an average £65,667.

McGivern Deserves Pinhook Of The Day

It's not hard to see where the Kodiak (GB) filly who came here from Derryconnor Stud might have found the resources to punch above her wait. Consignor Katie McGivern has been in the wars this spring but her fighting spirit evidently rubbed off on lot 154, who she bought for just £13,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Yearling Sale and turned into the fastest of all the breezers clocked here on Tuesday. That earned her a £180,000 docket signed by Oliver St. Lawrence on behalf of KHK Racing.

"I'm speechless, even though I can't stop talking," said McGivern with an excited laugh. "I couldn't believe it when they kept going after £100,000. This is a life-changing result. I had no-one call and ask me for a half, so I actually own her outright. We're desperate for a straight gallop, so I suppose it'll have to go towards that.

"I love a Kodiak filly anyway and the first dam was two-for-two, one rated 90 and one rated 80, so she was a no-brainer if nobody wanted her on looks. She was a little small, and I had her vetted--which I never do--just to know that it was only her size that would be against her. Her homework has always been very good and consistent, but you still need luck on the day, you need them to keep straight and so on, and the rider did a great job."

She may be indebted to the wit of auctioneer Nick Nugent for goading an extra bid or two as the impetus began to slow. "Come on," he chided from the rostrum. "Do you want to be Neil Armstrong or Buzz Aldrin?"

Mission control will now be the yard of Robert Cowell, whose brief was intimidatingly simple. "A fast, sharp Ascot 2-year-old," St Lawrence said. "Katie says five or six furlongs, so we have a choice between the Queen Mary and the Albany. She's not the biggest but she's built like the proverbial brick 'outhouse', looks like a colt, and Robert loved her the moment he saw her. Times are important but I couldn't care whether they're first or 20th, you're only talking hundredths and what counts is that they look the business when they're doing it."

Nay, Not Too Bad

An opening bid of £150,000 appeared to suggest that all the pre-sale talk about lot 74, a No Nay Never colt presented by Willie Browne, was going to be matched by ringside deeds. In the event, then, Browne permitted himself mild disappointment when Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock was able to secure an animal he prized so highly for 'just' £200,000.

"A little bit of an anti-climax, with all the action I had on him," admitted the Mocklershill maestro, who presented the colt for breeders Meadowcourt Stud. "In a real strong market maybe he could have made a bit more. Listen, it's a fine price, but he's potentially very good. I haven't had one as good for a couple of years. Hopefully he's the real deal: he has lots of speed, but he'll stay too."

If he's right, then what kind of bargain did Paul Nataf strike when acquiring the dam, an unraced daughter of Mastercraftsman (Ire), for just €11,000 through Baroda Stud at Goffs last November? Besides this colt she has just a yearling filly by Gleneagles (Ire), and she was sold with a Ten Sovereigns (Ire) cover.

"He's for a new owner who asked for one good colt out of the breeze-ups," explained Brown, before putting in a call to John Gosden. "I thought he did a phenomenal breeze. There are some nice horses here, very forward, and for me he was the pick. Because while I think he can be a good summer 2-year-old, he has plenty of scope and I think he can train on as well. To be fair to Willie, he saw me drooling over the horse on Monday and he was very high on him."

Cowell Sticking To Royal Formula

Robert Cowell is hoping that history will repeat itself after giving £170,000 for a Kodiak colt consigned as lot 52 by Bانشa House Stables. That is precisely what he did here five years ago, virtually to the day, and two months later he had won the G2 Norfolk S. with Prince Of Lir (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}).

The Newmarket trainer signed for the colt in the company of Tim Palin of Middleham Park, who will race him in partnership with another client, Tom Morley. Whether or not he can emulate Prince Of Lir at Ascot, the hope is that he will prove a longer-term project.

"Ascot is the dream, but it's not the be-all and end-all,"

Cowell said. "He has plenty of size and substance. He's not just a little 2-year-old, I hope he would have a lot more to him than that."

Exciting RIBCHESTER filly Ruthin makes a winning debut at Keeneland. The 350,000gns yearling is a Royal Ascot prospect for trainer Wesley Ward — who introduced Royal Ascot and Morny winners No Nay Never and Lady Aurelia at this meet.

Still time to book your mare.

"We were looking for a nice fast horse that can hopefully repeat the kind of success we had with Prince Of Lir. We know he comes from a very good outfit, and he's a lovely specimen, with a good walk on him, and a great action. So all the stars aligned."

It's certainly a brisk pedigree. The dam, a daughter of sale graduate Dream Ahead, has made a good start with her only runner to date being Operatic (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}), a dual winner at two last year; while the second dam is dual Group-winning sprinter Lidanna (GB) (Nicholas)--who holds down the same spot in the pedigree of G1 Prix de l'Abbaye winner Wizz Kid (Ire) (Whipper).

Con Marnane was delighted by the dividend on his £46,000 investment in the same ring last September.

"Over the moon," the Bansha House consignor said. "We bought him off Plantation Stud and he's turned into a gorgeous horse, and it's a proper page. The sister is very talented, she was impressive in her two wins and the ground was very heavy when she was well beaten in the listed race at Newmarket after that. She could still be a very nice filly this year."

As one of the stalwarts of the sector, Marnane was relieved by the buoyancy of trade, having candidly drawn in his horns in restocking.

"We're way down [in numbers]," he said. "We were just too scared and said we would only buy really nice yearlings. And thank God we did. I must thank our regular customers, because it's them that are coming back to us again and again. England is going to be back to normal way before other countries, so it's a pleasure to be here. In Ireland we've hardly sharpened the needles yet."

Dance Continues Comeback Spree

The same family produced a good yield on lot 96, a May colt by New Bay (GB) who made £120,000 for Gaybrook Lodge Stud having been found by M.C. Bloodstock in Book 1 at Tattersalls last October for just 40,000gns. He's a half-brother to Wizz Kid, whose relationship to Robert Cowell's new Kodiak is noted above, and joins the team of breeze-up recruits being dynamically assembled by Manor House Stud.

That historic Middleham farm, freshly acquired for the revamped John Dance operation, was the top buyer at the Craven Sale last week with eight lots for an aggregate 1,035,000gns. The Classic quality of this colt's sire obviously balances out the family speed and the purchasing strategy duly looked consistent with the £140,000 acquisition of lot 76, who was certainly not a standardised, sharp-and-early type off the "Donny" conveyor belt.

This was a colt by Kingman (GB) out of a sister to Group 1 winner Jan Vermeer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), therefore a half-sister to another Ballydoyle high achiever in Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). He was pinhooked by Mags O'Toole out of Book 2 last October for 87,000gns.

"He was just very young-looking," explained Oak Tree's Norman Williamson. "But he's a May foal and it's very hard to get your hands on a Kingman. He took his prep extremely well. He'll be a horse for later, maybe you'd see him September time, but to me he has a big future: we can all see how well-bred he is, and he's a tall, beautiful horse that should grow into something special."

Manor House Stud ended the day with half a dozen new recruits at an aggregate £690,000, and the others did fit the traditional profile for this sale: a £120,000 Kodiak (GB) filly consigned by Powerstown Stud as lot 140, great work on a £33,000 punt here last year; a £100,000 Dark Angel colt from Malcolm Bastard, lot 166, found at the Orby for £45,000 by Richard Ryan; and, within the space of five minutes, £120,000 and £90,000 for two sons of the ubiquitous Mehmas (Ire) respectively consigned as Lots 124 and 126.

Mehmas is a prolific young stallion in every sense, duly the most represented in the catalogue with 17 entries. The market's pick at £150,000 turned out to be lot 41, the first foal of a Shamardal half-sister to Signoff (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), a dual group winner in Australia, the pair out of another group winner in Circle Of Gold (Ire) (Royal Academy). This is the family of G1 St Leger winner Rule Of Law (Kingmambo), and Tom Goff duly hopes that this filly, presented by Glending Stables, will have more in her favour than the trademark precocity of her sire.

"She's from an extremely good farm," the Blandford agent stressed. "And I thought her the best filly here by a country mile."

"She did a lovely breeze and I'd be very hopeful that besides having the class and speed to be a good 2-year-old, she would also have the scope and quality to go on next year. So I hope she won't just be one of those one-hit wonders, while I also hope she can be precocious enough too. The sire's obviously on fire, and she's out of a Shamardal mare, and goes back to a lovely Robert Sangster family."

Goff could be no more specific of her destination than to say that she would be trained in Newmarket.

Roderick Kavanagh, her delighted consignor, has expanded to a draft of 14 breezers in his fifth year since inaugurating the Glending wing of his family's Kildaragh Stud. "She had great motion," he said of a filly recruited via the Sportsman's Sale here for £25,000, signed for by Peter and Ross Doyle. "And she has been a joy ever since, straightforward all the way through. The Shamardal mare has been a great help and, though you dream of it, this was beyond all expectation."

Collins Glad To Take The Blame

Pinhooking from the American market continues to yield great results for those of sufficient enterprise and this was an especially good day for Johnny Collins of Brown Island Stables. He pulled off one of the touches of the day with a colt by Blame signed for by Chad Schumer at Keeneland last September for just $14,000. Here he realised £175,000 from Rabbah Bloodstock, who had earlier given £78,000 for a filly (lot 90) by the same sire in the same draft. Rabbah have proved a conspicuous inconvenience to anyone trying for nice American types at both the breeze-up sales in Europe so far.

"This was the last horse into the ring in Book 3," Collins remembered of lot 172. "Travel was obviously difficult last year, but maybe that meant there weren't quite as many people going. But I've been going a long time and could hardly miss it, could I? I have sold two G2 Norfolk winners from America, Bapak Chinta (Speightstown) and South Central (Forest Camp). This was a nice square horse when I bought him and he's a nice square horse now."

One of the best judges in the business had marked out the Jimmy Creed colt in the same draft as his pick, and Edgar Byrne was of like mind in giving $135,000 for lot 158, a $30,000 yearling at Keeneland. The colt will be joining Soren Jensen in Denmark.

"I've waited all day for him, so on a nice sunny day I've been walking my box," said Byrne. "He's an extremely nice horse that came highly recommended by Johnny. They will have the dirt option out there if they need it, because Malmo is only down the road, but he obviously breezed very well on the turf here."

Another transatlantic success, albeit in a much lower register, was a colt from the fourth crop of Carpe Diem picked up by Jim McCartan of Gaybrook Lodge for just $3,000 at Fasig-Tipton in Lexington last October. True, this was scarcely in the league of McCartan's legendary coup with Willie Browne at Arqana four years ago, when a $15,000 Street Sense colt evolved into a €1.4-million juvenile. But $52,000 from David Redvers for lot 21 still represented a fine percentage yield.

"It cost more to get him home than to buy him," McCartan said. "I bought him at the end-of-year sale there and he was just a little bit backward, he needed to furnish a little. But he took his preparation very well and developed all the way through and turned out a very nice horse who could gallop well."

Bringing American pedigrees into a notoriously parochial market has its obvious dangers, but the devotion of so many prospectors to breeze data means that the way the model functions can redeem any uncertainty even about dirt stallions. But then Carpe Diem is the only son of Giant's Causeway to have won a Grade I on dirt, and damsire More Than Ready resembles that legend in having established his versatility in different racing environments.

"He was a very good individual, to be fair, with a lot of More Than Ready about him-and I've been lucky with that horse," McCartan said. "Most of the time you do need a [familiar] sire but there are an awful lot of horses to choose from, 4,000 or so at Keeneland, and if you're prepared to work hard you might come across one or two."

Thady Gosden continued, “He has been working nicely and he appears to be enjoying himself and he seems to have improved from three to four. I’m sure there will be some nice 3-year-old milers emerge, but hopefully he can be among the best of the older ones.”

On the face of it, Shadwell’s Khuzaam (Kitten’s Joy) appears the most likely to cause an upset, having powered to a five-length success in the Apr. 2 All-Weather Mile Championships Conditions S. on Lingfield’s Polytrack. Angus Gold is aware of the task in hand, however. “He won very well the other day. We gelded him at the end of last year and it seems to have helped him from what we’ve seen so far this year, but obviously we’re going up a grade now and we’re back on the grass against a proper Group 1 horse, so it’ll tell us a bit more about him and whether we’re in the right league or not.”

Adding ballast to a small but select assembly is King Power Racing’s G3 Supreme S. and G2 Challenge S. winner Happy Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who is back up in trip having raced exclusively over shorter last term.

High Quality Gordon Richards

Friday’s card also features the G3 Gordon Richards S., where two more ‘TDN Rising Stars’, Highest Ground (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Waldkonig (GB) (Kingman {GB}), renew rivalry having been separated by 2 1/2 lengths when first and second in that order in an extended 10-furlong novice at Haydock last June. The Niarchos Family’s Highest Ground, who was subsequently second to Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s Thunderous (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) in a weak-looking edition of the G2 Dante S. at York in July and a poor 10th in the nine-furlong G3 Darley S. at Newmarket in October, lacks the race-sharpness of Waldkonig who has won a handicap at Pontefract on Apr. 6.

Alan Cooper said of Highest Ground, “It’s very exciting to get him back on the track. He’s wintered very well and has been pleasing Sir Michael and Ryan. We felt he didn’t handle the soft ground at all at Newmarket the last time he ran. The weather forecast is good, so we should have perfect ground on Friday. It’s his first run for a long time and we’ll see what happens. Hopefully he’ll run a very good race. He’s a lightly-raced horse who missed part of last year. It’s a very nice race to start off the season in, so let’s hope it’s a nice introduction to get his season going.”

Thady Gosden is hoping for a bold show from Waldkonig, who has big shoes to fill as a half-brother to Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). “It was good to get him off to a good start this season at Pontefract, as it can be a difficult track to handle,” he said. “It was good to get his career back on track and give him some confidence. We have always thought plenty of him, as he is a half-brother to an Arc winner by Kingman, so he has got the right sort of pedigree and hopefully things will start coming right on track for him. He was always a horse we hoped would improve from three to four, but at the same time it was a bit of a frustrating season last year as things didn’t go to plan.”

WE HAVE ALWAYS THOUGHT PLENTY OF HIM. HE HAS GOT THE RIGHT SORT OF PEDIGREE AND HOPEFULLY THINGS WILL START COMING RIGHT ON THE TRACK FOR HIM.

Thady Gosden on Waldkonig

In a race for lightly-raced 4-year-olds who did not enjoy a full Classic campaign for various reasons, Charlie Johnston is hoping that Thunderous can defy a lengthy lay-off having been sidelined since the Dante. “Obviously he’s a horse who still has a huge amount of potential and we’ve only managed to get to the track with him five times in his first two seasons, so we’re just pleased to be back and looking forward to it really,” he said. “We’re 100% happy in terms of the injuries--there are no concerns there whatsoever. He’s been back in full work since before Christmas and I would fully expect him to improve for the run. He’s not run any further than the Dante trip at this stage, so we thought this ticks a lot of boxes as a comeback race and then we can learn a bit from this and hopefully build and go forward to even bigger and better things down the line.”

Shadwell's G3 Geoffrey Freer S. winner Hukum (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) has the form edge over them all, having contested a genuine top-class race when fifth in Doncaster's G1 St Leger when last seen in September. “Everyone's been very happy with him at home and it's time to get started with him and see where we are,” Angus Gold commented. “The decision last year was always based on ‘was he going to stay?’ and he looked like he was certainly going to be a mile-and-a-half horse. We knew he had the class for that and it was just a question of whether he could stay further. I think now is the right place to start him back, with a view to the fact that we've got Ascot coming up, so let's see if we're on the right lines. I saw him last week and he looks fantastic.”

Classic Credentials On The Line

Completing the trio of pattern races on the card is the G3 Classic Trial, where Charlie Appleby looks to extend Godolphin's seam of success with the middle-distance colts courtesy of Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). Reappearing for the first time after winning Newbury's Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S. over a mile in September, Yibir is a full-brother to the top-class Wild Illusion (GB) while his impressive Nottingham maiden-winning stablemate is a son of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Anna Salai (Dubawi {Ire}). “His preparation has gone well and we feel he's hopefully one of our nicer middle distance horses, so we're expecting a nice run from him,” the trainer said of Yibir, while of Adayar he added, “It was a very pleasing victory at Nottingham on his second start and he's done well through the winter. He's drawn down in stall one, which isn't ideal, but it all depends on the pace angles really. We're hopeful that they're two nice middle-distance horses that can start their 3-year-old careers off and we'll see where we're pitching them in the first half of the season after Friday.”

Godolphin have a third string to their bow in the John and Thady Gosden-trained Trawlerman (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}) who was impressive when winning the 12-furlong “High-Rise” Maiden S. by 8 1/2 lengths at Pontefract on Apr. 6, while

Ballylinch Stud and Aquis Farm's G3 Zetland S. scorer Lone Eagle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Julie Wood's G3 Solario S. winner Etonian (Ire) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) add intrigue, as does Ballydoyle's Cork median auction winner Sir Lucan (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) who is a full-brother to Sir Dragonet (Ire) and the unbeaten Belloccio (Fr) (Belardo {Ire}). Having dealt with the subsequent G3 Prix de la Grotte winner Cirona (GB) (Maxios {GB}) in the Listed Criterium du Languedoc over a mile at Toulouse in November, the David Menuisier trainee fully deserves his place in this hot line-up.

“He's in good form--obviously that will be his first run of the season, so he's likely to need it like the rest of my horses but physically and mentally he's in a good place,” Menuisier said. “He's unbeaten in two starts and both races have worked out really well, so we're really hopeful that he can show a very good level of ability and let's hope that Friday will be a stepping stone to something better down the line.” Also on the card is the Esher Cup H. over a mile with an unexposed Gosden-trained colt in the Coolmore-owned Kempton novice winner Rifleman (Ire) (The Gurkha {Ire}) and the closing two races over the Gordon Richards and Classic Trial trip over nearly 10 furlongs.

Spotlight On Chiasma

Finishing off a fascinating fixture is the bet365.com Handicap, which was won by the subsequent G1 Irish Derby hero Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling) in 2015, while the bet365 Fillies' Novice S. has hosted more than one ‘TDN Rising Star’ down the years including the 2008 winner Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). In that, the Gosdens launch Juddmonte's Chiasma (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a full-sister to Frankel (GB) and Noble Mission (GB) who takes on Godolphin's Lingfield novice winner Nash Nasha (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a Charlie Appleby-trained daughter of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Just the Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}).

Juddmonte's racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe spoke to the Racing Post of Chiasma, “Indications are she could be suited by this trip, possibly even a mile and a half. She's been very straightforward this spring, but it remains to be seen what sort of talent she has. The weight of expectation with a horse like her will always be enormous and she has a lot to live up to, to say the least, but she needs to be given every chance.”

“Prince Khalid’s family have the same sporting instinct as their father had and these horses are bred to race. You find out how good they are only on the racecourse; breeding operations need to know the level of ability. We’re looking forward to it and everyone at Juddmonte will be watching, plus a whole load more people besides.”

FRANKEL’S SISTER UNVEILED AT SANDOWN

4.10 Sandown, Novice, £8,050, 3yo, f, 9f 209yT
CHIASMA (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) is the seventh foal out of Kind (Ire) (Danehill), making her a full-sister to the remarkable Frankel (GB) and to his G1 Champion S.-winning sibling Noble Mission (GB), as well as a half to the smart duo Bullet Train (GB) (Sadler’s Wells) and Joyeuse (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Reportedly shaping as a true middle-distance type at John and Thady Gosden’s Clarehaven Stables, the February-foaled bay has the guidance of Frankie Dettori as she encounters Godolphin’s Lingfield novice winner Nash Nasha (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a Charlie Appleby-trained daughter of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Just the Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) who cost €1-million as a foal at the 2018 Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale. This is a race which John Gosden has targeted with some of his better fillies in recent times, with Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) a ‘TDN Rising Star’ for the trainer in 2008.

Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) is perfectly drawn for his get-back, run-on style that has seen him greet the judge on no fewer than 13 straight occasions, including the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile and G1 Stewards' Cup in his two most recent trips at the 1600 metres. He faces just five others in the G1 FWD Champions Mile (HKJC form), chief among them Southern Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}), who took down the colours of Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road to Rock {Aus}) 12 months ago.

"It's only a small field and with luck in running, I believe Southern Legend can run very well again," jockey Karis Teetan said at the draw. "He always gives his best."

Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) returns to the scene of his 21-1 upset of the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint last December, and if anything, faces a weaker field on paper. Whereas he drew widest of the 14 in the Sprint, he has a cosier alley and Sunday will take all the beating in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (HKJC form) with Joao Moreira taking the ride.

"Just after he won the Hong Kong Sprint last December, we decided to come to Hong Kong in April," trainer Takayuki Yasuda said. "After the Chairman's Sprint Prize, Danon Smash will take a rest. The next target would be the [G1] Sprinters S. then after that, I want to come to Hong Kong again for the international races."

A four-pronged Japanese attack on the G1 FWD QE II Cup (HKJC form)--won by Japanese raiders in three of the last nine runnings--could be reduced to three, as 2019 G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase (2400mT) hero Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) was found to be lame Thursday morning and is subject to subsequent examination. Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) could go favoured off her tough third to Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic (2410mT) last month and will have every chance from gate five. Her toughest competition could come in the form of Japanese Fillies Triple Crown winner Daring Tact (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}), gate 1), while defending champ and reigning Horse of the Year Exultant (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), gate 2) is also in the mix on his best.

ADMIRE MARS SET TO SHUTTLE TO ARROWFIELD

Admire Mars | Horsephotos

Arrowfield Stud will resume shuttling stallions from Japan after a one-year hiatus, with the returning Maurice (Jpn) to be joined by triple Group 1 winner and Champion 2-year-old Admire Mars (Jpn) on its 2021 roster.

The COVID-19 pandemic, and associated quarantine complications, meant for the first time in five years Arrowfield did not feature a Japanese-bred stallion on its roster in 2020, but it has re-committed to shuttling stallions from the Asian racing powerhouse, with Admire Mars the newest name on the list.

The son of Daiwa Major (Jpn), who won a G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. as a 2-year-old and then the G1 NHK Mile Cup and G1 Hong Kong Mile as a 3-year-old, will stand for $22,000 (inc GST).

He will be joined on the plane from Japan by another Hong Kong Mile winner in the superstar Maurice, who has already served three seasons at Arrowfield in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

Having produced five winners from his first crop, including the stakes-placed pair Maurice's Medad and Mazu, Maurice's fee jumps to $44,000 (inc GST).

The only other change on the Arrowfield Stud pricing is Shalaa (Ire), whose brilliant first-crop season has also featured five winners, highlighted by R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic winner Shaquero. The son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) also jumps to $44,000 (inc GST) in what will be his fifth season in Australia.

The addition of Admire Mars, unbeaten as a 2-year-old before adding further successes later in his career, is the most intriguing with Arrowfield Chairman John Messara telling TDN AusNZ, that he was the right profile of new stallion for the Australian market.

"Coming out of Japan, I think they are the ones you want because they are liable to produce horses that will be able to stay a bit, but they are also likely to be horses that can be precocious enough to suit the local conditions. They are the sort of horses we are looking to get, if we can get our hands on one that is dominant and he was a very dominant 2-year-old," he said.

Bred by Northern Farm, Admire Mars is the best-performed son of Shadai Stallion Station-based Daiwa Major (Jpn), who has produced 37 stakes winners and is in turn a son of the great Sunday Silence (USA).

He is out of a quality European family, with his dam, Via Medici (Ire) (Medicean {GB}), a Group 3 winner in France, who has also produced Listed-winning pair Via Firenze (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Via Pisa (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}).

Trained by Yasuo Tomomichi, Admire Mars started his career out with back-to-back wins over 1600 metres at Chukyo before winning the G2 Daily Ha Nisai S., at Kyoto and then completing his unbeaten season with a 2l win in the Futurity S. to claim honours as Japan's Champion 2-year-old colt.

After finishing second in the G2 Tokinominoru Kinen and fourth in the G1 Satsuki Sho, he returned to his favoured distance of 1600 metres to re-assert his dominance in the NHK Mile Cup. He then took his profile to a global level when he proved too strong for Waikuku (Ire) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) and Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) in the G1 Hong Kong Mile in 2019.

It was to prove Admire Mars' last win, with his final run coming when third in the same Hong Kong race in December last year, beaten by Hong Kong star Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro {USA}).

He is currently serving his first book of mares at Shadai Stallion Station at a fee of ¥3 million (AU$35,856).

Pedigree and performance

Messara said Japanese horses with an international profile such as Admire Mars and Maurice, who was a three-time Group 1 winner in Hong Kong, were very suited to the Australian market as stallions.

"Every time these Japanese horses have travelled overseas and they are a competitive animal, they have succeeded, whether here or in Hong Kong or in Europe. People respect them now and they are the level of horses we aim to bring out. Maurice and Admire Mars, those horses have been top rank over there," he said. "We were very keen to get the Japanese stallions back. They provide an outcross and they are fundamentally very tough animals. We feel Australians are beginning to warm to them. You can see that through the sale results at Easter, where a lot of Japanese-bred horses sold very well. The market here is really beginning to respect that Japanese form, especially when you have extraordinary horses such as Maurice."

Messara said he felt Admire Mars should appeal to breeders at that $22,000 pricepoint.

"We will see how he goes but he's at a very commercial price at $22,000. When you look at the list at what else is at his price and what this guy has done, it's pretty good value," he said.

"He's totally free of both Danehill and Danzig, so he's a really good chance. We are going to support him pretty strongly ourselves as well."

Steady for Snitzel

Reigning four-time Australian Champion Sire, Snitzel, heads the Arrowfield Stud roster at $165,000 (inc GST), the same price as he was in 2020.

"We've kept Snitzel where he is, even though perhaps on paper, he may look to be a bit cheap when compared to some of his counterparts at that level."

"We are happy to leave him where he is, he has his customers and he will fill very nicely at that level," Messara said.

The fees for Dundee (NZ), The Autumn Sun, Castelvechio, Pariah and Showtime also remain at their 2020 levels, with Messara saying Arrowfield did not want to get caught up in the hype of the yearling market in 2021 when it came to pricing its stallions.

"We don't want to get too carried away with what is happening in the marketplace. We feel we are in a bit of a bubble at the moment and we'd like to play it 'steady as he goes'. We always take the long-term view on these things," he said.

OBS SPRING SALE TICKS ALONG THURSDAY

Session-topping Hip 830 in the ring | Judit Seipert

by Jessica Martini & Christie DeBernardis

OCALA, FL - While there weren't the seven-figure fireworks of its second session, action remained brisk during the third session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training Thursday.

"There was still plenty of activity," OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski said at the conclusion of business Thursday afternoon. "Maybe there was a natural ebb and flow of horses in the catalogue, but there were still a lot of horses who sold well today."

With a handful of high-priced pinhooks, de Meric Sales was the session's leading consignor with 12 sold for $2,368,000, including the day's top-priced offering, a filly by Curlin purchased by Pete Bradley for $670,000.

Through three of four sessions, 540 horses have sold for $54,310,000. The cumulative average is $100,574 and the median is $50,000. With 98 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate was just 15.4%.

At last year's pandemic-delayed Spring sale, 475 horses sold through the auction's first three days for a gross of $40,350,500. The average was $84,948 and the median was $49,000.

At this point in the pre-pandemic 2019 auction, 519 horses had sold for $56,217,000 for an average of $108,318 and a median of $65,000.

OCALA, FL--There's been a palpable good feeling all week at OBS for the auction house's marquee Spring 2-Year-Old Sale, and you need look no further than the full parking lot to explain why. Business is booming, but perhaps equally responsible for the positive vibes is the easing of coronavirus restrictions as the country rapidly becomes vaccinated, which means old friends seeing and hugging each other for the first time in a long time. Wednesday morning, Joe Bianca and Jon Green talked about that and much more with four consignors and buyers in the first on-scene episode of TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland.

“There was action at all levels,” Wojciechowski said of Thursday’s session. “Somebody asked me earlier in the week about the lack of Korean buyers here because of the changes in what their government allows them to purchase. I said that I felt like we had the capability of picking up that slack domestically and it has certainly borne out that way.”

Consignors and buyers alike have been impressed by the strength of the market in Ocala this week.

“It is a fantastic sale.” consignor Eddie Woods said. “I think there is more money here than there are horses to be bought. There is all kinds of money for the good horses.”

After signing the ticket on the session-topper, Bradley echoed those sentiments.

“There is tremendous depth to the market,” Bradley said. “Ciaran [Dunne] said it the other day. Even the lower end of this market is more than surviving. There are people there for $30,000 and $50,000 horses. Which we really need to see. This is as strong as I’ve seen this market, especially given what this world has come through. It is still awash in money. There is a lot of money out there. And this sale has been great for the guys who pinhooked this year. It took a lot of guts to pinhook this year. People in the horse business have guts and short memories. And that always helps in this game.”

The Spring sale concludes with a final session Friday with bidding beginning at 10:30 a.m.

“I think it will be a good day,” Wojciechowski said. “People who have maybe been unable to buy anything for the last three days might have a sense of urgency and there are still some really good horses tomorrow. I expect it will be a good day.”

Bradley Splurges for Curlin Filly

Bloodstock agent Pete Bradley helped contribute to a big day for the de Meric Sales consignment when he purchased a filly by Curlin (hip 830) for $670,000 at OBS Thursday. The bay juvenile, purchased by the de Merics for $200,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale, is out of graded winner Funny Proposition (Medaglia d’Oro). She worked a furlong in :10 1/5 during last week’s under-tack preview.

“I bought her for a partnership,” Bradley said after signing the ticket on the filly. “She put in one of the best works of the day. And a Curlin--what do you say? And a Curlin filly--what do you say twice? She wasn’t cheap, in this market though where horses are bringing $500,000 and $600,000 with little or no pedigree--that’s not a slight, that’s just what it is--that’s what I thought we would have to pay for her. And I got lucky and I got her.” @JessMartiniTDN

Brother to Top Oaks Contender Proves Popular

Hip 644 | Christie DeBernardis

Hip 644 has gotten a big update since the de Merics purchased him for $100,000 at Keeneland September with his full-sister Search Results (Flatter) opening her account with a trio of wins, including the Gill Gazelle S. Now one of the leading GI Kentucky Oaks contenders, she made her brother a coveted prize in Ocala and it was Lauren Carlisle who won out after a vigorous round of bidding early in Thursday's session, taking the chestnut home for $625,000.

"He is a beautiful homebred for Machmer Hall, great partners and friends of ours," Tristan de Meric said. "They raise a horse beautifully. Obviously, the update with Search Results going to the Oaks and being one of the favorites, couldn't have had better timing. This horse did a lot of it on his own, but the update didn't hurt at all. We have high expectations for him. He should have a bright future. He was an awesome student. He wants to run. He is everything we love about Thoroughbreds."

Carlisle was acting on behalf of an undisclosed client, but said the colt would be trained by Tom Amoss. MyRacehorse, who has been quite active at this sale, signed on as a partner.

"We are super pumped about [Search Results]," said Carlisle. "Hopefully, in a week, she might have a really big update. We thought the colt was an outstanding physical. He had a good video [:10 1/5]. There wasn't anything to not like about him."

Hip 644 was bred by Sandy Willwerth and Carrie and Craig Brogden's Machmer Hall, which also bred his GSP dam Co Cola (Candy Ride {Arg}) and his undefeated full-sister, who was purchased by Mike Ryan for $310,000 at Keeneland September. Co Cola produced a Nyquist colt this year and was bred back to Flatter.

"Every time he breezed it was even better," said Carrie Brogden, standing with her mother, Sandy Willwerth. Cont. p5

“Then we got lucky with Search Results. She was actually a day topper [at KEESEP]. We had the mare catalogued to sell in foal, but after [Search Results] was a day topper, we scratched the mare. We actually bred [Co Cola], sold her and she became a graded stakes horse. When she was done racing, Chris Brothers called me privately and we bought her back as a broodmare prospect, so it is circular for us.”

The horsewoman continued, “I love the fact it is women, Valery [de Meric] and I and my mom and Lauren. These women are making their voices heard. Twenty years ago when I moved to Kentucky, you didn't see that. Now things have changed. It was completely Valery's decision to buy that Flatter colt off of us and I encouraged her. We have one of our good luck partners Gus King in on the horse and it is just a dream.”

The de Merics and Brogdens enjoyed more success during Thursday's session, with their Curlin half-brother to champion Drefong (Gio Ponti) (Hip 744) bringing $425,000 from Mike Ryan and a Curlin filly (Hip 830) summoning $670,000 from Pete Bradley.

“I can't say enough about our relationship with the de Merics,” Brogden said. “We trust in each other. We have done so well with our homebreds and they allow us to retain pieces.”

Van Leer Perseveres for One of the Last Pioneers

It was a match race to the wire for Hip 786, but it was Gayle Van Leer who crossed the line first to take home a colt from the last full crop of Pioneerof the Nile for $575,000 on behalf of Kretz Racing. The colt will join the barn of California-based conditioner George Papaprodromou.

“These kinds of horses are so difficult to buy,” Van Leer said. “We have been trying all week, so it is nice to get something we really wanted. That was the horse we targeted from the very beginning, but it's been very tough to buy at the top end, so we are very glad to be able to get him.”

She continued, “I loved his balance. He is just put together so nicely and has a lovely stride to him. He is just a solid type that we think can be a two-turn horse.”

The dark bay colt breezed in a sharp :20 4/5 for Eddie Woods during last week's breeze show.

“I knew he would sell really well, but you never know what they can bring,” Woods said. “You need a duel like the one that just happened to make it happen for you. We had a lot of good people on him and rightly so because he is a really nice horse.”

Hip 786 is the second foal out of Fancy Day (Ire) (Shamardal), who is a daughter of GSW Tizdubai (Cee's Tizzy). A $145,000 RNA at Keeneland September, he was bred by WinStar and is from the last full crop of their top stallion Pioneerof the Nile, who died in March of 2019 after breeding just a few mares.

First Pinhook a Score for Eisaman

While parents Barry and Shari Eisaman have gone from strength to strength--led by the $850,000 homebred colt by Gun Runner Tuesday--this week in Ocala, it was their 22-year-old daughter Kristina who got into the action late in Thursday's third session of the Spring sale. The younger Eisaman celebrated her acceptance into vet school by selling a colt by Klimt (Hip 902) for $310,000. She had purchased the juvenile, her first-ever pinhook attempt, for $25,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

Eisaman said she always planned to follow in the veterinary footsteps of her father, but it wasn't until recently that she decided to also make the family's Ocala operation part of her future.

“I always knew I wanted to do veterinary medicine, but it wasn't until I got older and was in college that I realized that pinhooking was what I wanted to do and I started getting more interested in what my parents do,” Eisaman said Thursday afternoon. “I always knew I wanted to do something with horses, but it wasn't until this past year that I knew this is what I wanted to do.”

Kristina Eisaman | Jessica Martini

Her decision was helped along by the pandemic, which last spring interrupted her studies at the University of Florida.

“I kind of think COVID had a lot to do with it, because I never would have come home,” Eisaman said. “I would never have come back to the farm and I would never have started working with my dad. So it's a blessing in disguise. I found what I want to do and I've found my passion. I am so thankful for that.”

With her newfound direction, Eisaman headed to Lexington with her parents last September.

“I had just gotten off the plane [in Lexington] and I was standing there with my parents,” Eisaman recalled. “And my mom said, ‘We are just looking at what catches our eye.’ And this chestnut colt came in and I said, ‘Hey, mom. Look at this.’ We looked further into him and decided let’s go for him. And we did.”

Eisaman signed her first ticket on the colt from the first crop of GI Del Mar Futurity winner Klimt last fall and watched him blossom into his 2-year-old form which saw him work a furlong at last week’s under-tack show in :10 flat. The colt was purchased Thursday by Kaleem Shah, who also campaigned his sire.

“He has changed a lot,” Eisaman said of the juvenile. “He’s always been very mature, but he’s gotten bigger and he’s so built. He always comes out and does the right thing. He knows what he supposed to do and he’s very businesslike. But he’s aggressive. At the breeze show, they could barely pull him up after he galloped out. He is all business. And I really like that about him. He loves to train, which I think is very important. He’s very competitive. The more he trains, the more it seems like that is what he wants to do. He has the right mentality.”

The colt was popular at the barn all week, but Eisaman said she tried to temper her expectations.

“I knew he was looked at a lot and I knew that he was probably going to go for six figures, but I didn’t want to get my hopes up too much,” she said. “But everybody kept saying, ‘You’re going to get into vet school this week and then you’re going to pay for vet school this week.’ Once it hit $120,000, I thought, ‘That pays for my vet school.’ I was kind of in shock, though. I was just watching as the numbers ticked up.”

In addition to vet school, Eisaman is hoping to invest in additional yearlings this coming fall, but she is going into the business with her eyes wide open.

“It’s a hard lifestyle,” she said. “And I am aware of that and I am not going into it blindly. I am aware that it’s challenging and I am looking forward to that challenge.” @JessMartiniTDN

Ramirez Scores with Shackelford Colt

Omar Ramirez, who spent the last 12 years learning the trade with the Gladwells’ Top Line Sales, is consigning under his own name at just his second auction, but scored a pinhooking coup with the sale of a colt by Shackelford (Hip 747) for $285,000 to GMP Stables LLC/Anthony Melfi Thursday in Ocala. Ramirez had purchased the colt with a client for $35,000 at last year’s Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearlings Sale.

“I bought him for me and my client at the Maryland sale. That was my first time at that sale,” Ramirez said while celebrating his biggest result to date. “He had a beautiful conformation and he had a beautiful walk. His mind was so good, the same with him here. He was a classy horse. I said to my client, ‘We need to get him.’ I thought he might go for more, so I was very happy to get him for $35,000.”

The chestnut colt is out of Elusive Tara (Elusive Quality), a half-sister to graded winner Big Bend (Union Rags) and multiple graded placed Miss Chatelaine (Pulpit). He worked a furlong in :10 flat during last week’s under-tack show.

“I knew coming into this sale he was going to be one of my big horses,” Ramirez said. “I didn’t know how good he was going to work with the weather and he worked late in the afternoon. But he did everything right.”

Ramirez offered a pair of fillies in his first consignment at the OBS March sale and sold a daughter of Uncaptured for $65,000.

His eight-horse April consignment is stabled in Barn 13, just across from the Top Line consignment in Barn 14.

“I had been working for Top Line for 12 years,” Ramirez said. “They taught me a lot. They are like my family, so I love them and they’ve been supporting me so much. I told them this winter that I wanted to do this venture and they said ok. That’s why I’m next to them.”

While Ramirez made his first trip to the Midlantic Yearling sale last fall, it likely isn’t his last visit to the Timonium auction.

Joining the set, posted up at the tiki bar near the walking ring, were Green Group Guests of the Week Barry "Doc" Eisaman, Randy Miles, Nick de Meric and Terry Finley, all of whom exuded the optimism felt from economic and personal standpoints on the grounds compared to last year's delayed, angst-filled sale.

"The weight is just lifted off our back," said Miles, whose six-horse consignment includes Hip 1099, an Into Mischief filly expected to bring a large return on the sale's final day after breezing a furlong in :9 4/5. "We had no idea what was going to happen last year. We were trying to sell horses privately because we didn't know what the market was going to be like. And a big part of this business is not about the money, it's about all of our friends. It's just so nice to be out here for this two-week period and all of our friends are here. It's like a big party. Everybody is in a great mood, and it's just refreshing. If we can get the racetracks back to this, it'll be so much fun. The financial stuff always takes care of itself. But the people are what makes it fun."

Nick de Meric's de Meric Sales has come to OBS typically loaded with promising juveniles, which bore out later Wednesday in the ring when a Quality Road colt (hip 381, :10 flat breeze) from his shedrow hammered to Speedway Stable for a thus-far sale-topping $1.5 million.

"As we all know, if this business teaches you nothing else it teaches you to be humble, but we do have a couple of potential stars," de Meric said. "We have a fabulous Quality Road, we have a couple of Into Mischiefs that we think an awful lot of. Curlin, Candy Ride, we've got some names represented in the consignment and the horses performed well and vetted well after their performance, and people seem to be lining up well in a few spots."

de Meric also commented on the good feeling around the grounds, saying, "I think the atmosphere is diametrically opposed to last year. People have been on lockdown so long and had restricted travel so long, they're just ready to come out and play. And what better place to play than a 2-year-old sale? There is definitely a feeling of optimism in the air."

The proximity to next Saturday's GI Kentucky Derby, also back on its normal calendar spot this year, also helped that optimism. West Point Thoroughbreds' CEO Finley bought a pair of babies Tuesday and spoke about the motivation of the impending Derby to find the next star. Cont. p11

Nick de Meric | Photos by Z

“You look at the top 25 horses that are in contention for the Derby and they don't all come from day one in September, they don't all cost $600,000,” he said. “They come from all over the spectrum. So I think that's what keeps everybody [motivated]. The fact that you can come here and get a great athlete to take a shot with to try to get to the big races.”

Eisaman was this week's Minnesota Racehorse Engagement Project Story of the Week after he and wife Shari's Eisaman Equine sold a homebred colt by Gun Runner (Hip 118, :10 flat breeze) for an easily session-topping $850,000 to Michael Lund Petersen in Tuesday's sale opener.

“My wife is the brains behind the management of our mares and it's extremely rewarding for her,” he said. “She picked Gun Runner, she helped select that mare, so to have one we raised from a little puppy to yesterday was very good. Every year when we leave the farm and go into the sale, there are young horses who are doing everything quite well and he was one of them. But you can never really predict at that point that he'd catch on with the right buyers and be that successful. After he got here, trained here, the breeze show happened and he galloped out so well, showed so much poise, you begin to evolve into understanding this, but our expectations were never in the range that he brought [Tuesday]. So it was a good day for us, our family, my wife and our broodmares.”

Elsewhere on the show, Bianca and Green reacted to the outstanding battle in the GI Apple Blossom H., talked about the reversal of disqualifications for Bob Baffert trainees Charlatan (Speightstown) and Gamine (Into Mischief) and, in the West Point Thoroughbreds news segment, broke down the implications of New Jersey's strict new whip rules. BREEDERS ROBERTSON, GONZALEZ ELEVATE DIALED IN'S PROFILE

Somewhere on the grounds of OBS on Tuesday, the two unacquainted men who bred Dialed In's (Mineshaft) only two Grade I winners to date--GI Kentucky Derby-bound Get Her Number and Super Stock--quite likely passed each other unaware of the other in that random way of the universe that plays with degrees of separation.

I assume this because I was on the phone with Phil Robertson, who co-bred Get Her Number with his wife Brenda, when Pedro “Pete” Gonzalez, the co-breeder of Super Stock with his grandson P.J. Gonzalez, phoned me. Cont. p12

I was finishing up my call with Robertson, who was three hips away from selling a 2-year-old, and immediately returned the Gonzalez call when I hung up with Robertson.

The first thing I noticed when Gonzalez started speaking was a distinct background voice that had also been present in my call with Robertson. For all I know, they could have been standing within feet of each other when speaking to me about why they sent their respective mares to Darby Dan's Dialed In in 2017.

Of course, there was every reason to send a mare to Dialed In that spring because the stallion, who'd stood his first four seasons for $7,500, had dramatically defeated Lane's End's Union Rags (Dixie Union) for the champion freshman sire title on the last day of the year, in the very same race at that--the $100,000 Gin Talking S. at Laurel. Dialed In's Ms Locust Point won the race, earning $60,000, while Union Rags's daughter Aiden's Rag Doll finished fifth. The margin separating the two stallions had been only $35,194 before the race. It was a victory for David versus Goliath, because Union Rags had been syndicated for more than $12 million and stood for a $35,000 fee.

Breeders came in droves to Dialed In in 2017 despite the doubling of his fee to $15,000, and among the 231 mares bred to the stallion that year were Robertson's homebred Bernstein (Storm Cat) mare Fancier, the dam of Get Her Number, and Gonzalez's homebred Super Girlie, the daughter of Closing Argument (Successful Appeal) who produced Super Stock.

Robertson and Gonzalez are small breeders with a lot in common--the former owns 15 mares while the latter has seven--and both have small farms, Robertson's in Versailles, Gonzalez's in Ocala. Robertson is retired from the construction business and shuttles between his lake home in Granbury, Texas, and the Kentucky farm, while Gonzalez, who's also retired from the construction business, drives back and forth from his base in Miami to Ocala to check on his stock. Both men are passionate about breeding and are also exceedingly polite, and if they'd bumped into each other at OBS, I have no doubt that they'd have had a heck of a conversation about horses, construction, and the thrill of having bred a horse slated for the Derby, by the same stallion as it turns out.

Dialed In

With two potential Derby starters, Dialed In joins Into Mischief, the hottest and most expensive sire in the country at a fee of $225,000, as the only two stallions with multiple runners intended for the Classic at this writing. However, Dialed In's two colts are Grade I winners whereas Into Mischief's three--Mandaloun, Highly Motivated, and Soup and Sandwich--have only one Grade II win amongst them in graded company.

Dialed In | Matt Goins

This is a terrifically complimentary comparison for the Darby Dan horse, who started as the favorite in the 2011 Derby after winning the GI Florida Derby, a fixture that's turning out to be the premier sire-making race in the country with such alumni as Nyquist (Uncle Mo), Constitution (Tapit), Quality Road (Elusive Quality), Scat Daddy (Johannesburg), Empire Maker (Unbridled), and Harlan's Holiday (Harlan) in the recent past.

Altogether, Dialed In won three of seven starts and earned $941,936. He'd been bred by the partnership of W.S. Farish, Madeleine Pickens (previously married to Allen Paulson), and Skara Glen Stables, and he was purchased for $475,000 as a yearling at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga by Robert LaPenta's Whitehorse Stable, which has a penchant for A.P. Indy-line horses. Dialed In is from the immediate family of Paulson's champion filly Eliza (his second dam) and GI Santa Anita Derby winner Dinard, and he was trained by Nick Zito in a come-from-behind style that's frequently associated with the best of Zito runners. It's not, however, the preferred front-running style that's popular with breeders and stud farms, and after Dialed In's eighth-place finish in the Derby and only two more combined starts after that in 2011 and 2012, the horse was somewhat forgotten and wasn't among the most sought-after stallion prospects for 2013, allowing Doug Cauthen and Darby Dan's Robert Hammond to secure him for stud duty to stand at John Phillips's historic nursery at a fee of $7,500.

A good-looking stallion standing 16.1 hands with plenty of substance to him, Dialed In has since defied the odds, much like Into Mischief in his early years when his stud fee once touched $7,500 before his first-crop runners took off. Dialed In started off hot, too, getting multiple Grade II winner and Grade I-placed Gunnevera, who's earned $5.5 million, and five other black-type winners from his first crop. By the time Robertson and Gonzalez had contracted to send their mares to the stallion In in the spring of 2017, Gunnevera was well on the Classics trail.

He finished seventh in the Derby but subsequently showed he handled a mile and a quarter when placing in the GI Travers S., the Breeders' Cup Classic, and the Dubai World Cup, a good sign for Get Her Number and Super Stock in the Derby.

Super Stock as a yearling | Taylor Made

Gunnevera is one of 15 black-type winners for his sire through five crops (not including 2-year-olds of 2021), and his accomplishments from two to five helped Dialed In win the freshman sire championship and see a bump in his fee from $15,000 in 2017 to $25,000 in 2018 and 2019. However, by 2020 the stallion was down to $20,000, and this year he's serving mares for $15,000, which illustrates the difficulties stallions face with their second, third, and fourth crops as mare books get watered down after the first year at stud. This is particularly acute for horses standing for cheaper fees. Note that to date Dialed In has only three black-type winners from his second crop and just one from his third crop.

During these lean years, Dialed In nevertheless showed he could get quality runners, even if they weren't black-type winners. For instance, the 4-year-old Finnick the Fierce placed in a Grade II race at two and last year was third in the GI Arkansas Derby, the same race that Super Stock won two weeks ago for Steve Asmussen with Get Her Number a fast-closing fourth. Last year, Get Her Number, trained by Peter Miller, won the GI American Pharoah S. at Santa Anita, becoming his sire's first top-level winner.

Grade I Breeders

Phil and Brenda Robertson have raced some good horses, including graded winners Reigning Court and Savorthetime with Asmussen, and they've bred some others, such as Group 2 winner Sander Camillo, a Dixie Union filly they'd sold as a yearling for $160,000 in 2005 that later sold to Godolphin as a broodmare prospect for the equivalent of $6.9 million at Tattersalls in 2007.

Phil Robertson didn't want to sell Get Her Number, which he did last year with Ciaran Dunne's Wavertree at OBS April for $45,000 to trainer Peter Miller. "He was always a good-looking colt. The sale was postponed to June last year with Covid," Robertson said, "and with Covid and how uncertain things were with the economy, I just figured it was the right thing to do financially."

Get Her Number | Benoit

The colt's dam, Fancier, had been bred and raised by the Robertsons and was a winner of three races from 10 starts, but "she was a mare that was hard to get pregnant. She wouldn't cycle right." Her second dam was the Group 1-placed Irish River (Fr) mare Shy Princess, a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Opening Verse, and though her extended family was deep, her immediate family was light and her foals catalogued with two "blank dams," a commercial kiss of death. On the advice of his veterinarian, Robertson had sold her in foal to Astern for $1,300 at Keeneland November the year before her son won his Grade I race.

Robertson said he'd sent the mare to Dialed In because "she was a tall, lighter mare with a lot of leg, and he was shorter and stockier. He had more substance, and she needed that."

Pete Gonzalez sent his homebred mare Super Girlie, the dam of Super Stock and a winner of seven races from 39 starts and $121,728, to Dialed In mainly for pedigree reasons. "My mare mixes well with A.P. Indy and Storm Cat, which is how Dialed In is bred, and he has Mr. Prospector in the pedigree, and she's got Mr. Prospector, and I wanted to inbreed to Mr. Prospector. I love speed, and with A.P. Indy there is distance, but I wanted to get more speed for distance."

Gonzalez and his grandson also bred Super Stock's Grade I-placed half-sister Boujie Girl (Flashback), who Peter Miller purchased from the OBS April sale for $65,000 three years ago.

Earlier, in 2012, Miller had purchased the GI La Brea S. winner Heir Kitty (Wildcat Heir) from OBS April for $32,000, and Heir Kitty was produced from a half-sister to Super Girlie and was also bred by Pete Gonzalez, in partnership with Jorge Herrera.

Gonzalez sold Super Stock as a yearling at Keeneland September through Taylor Made for $70,000 to Keith Asmussen and Erv Woolsey. "He was a really nice yearling. My farm manager in Ocala, Ivan Gardea, prepped him early, and then I sent the colt to Ramiro Salazar at Phoenix Farm in Midway to get him ready for the sale. We thought he'd bring more," Gonzalez said.

Super Girlie, who is based at Salazar's Phoenix Farm, has a yearling by Mendelsohn (Scat Daddy) and is in foal to Authentic (Into Mischief).

Gonzalez, a Cuban-American, has been breeding horses for 25 years and attributes his success to his wife, Georgelina. "I thank her for it all, and for always supporting me," he said. "You know, when Super Stock won the Arkansas Derby, I became the first Cuban-American to breed the winner of that race. How do I know? I did the research."

If Super Stock wins the Kentucky Derby, Gonzalez will have more research to do. If Get Her Number upsets the Classic, the Robertsons will get just compensation in historical prestige for culling his dam. And if either wins, Dialed In's profile will be elevated to a whole new level than the high plane it's on now, thanks to Robertson and Gonzalez.

JUNE NOW BEST GUESS FOR LAUREL'S MAIN TRACK TO BE FIXED

by T.D. Thornton

Mounting problems that have forced the closure of the main dirt track at Laurel Park are now tentatively anticipated to be fixed by the start of June. But difficulties related to the sourcing and testing of materials for the base and cushion are keeping the Maryland Jockey Club (MJC) from setting an exact timetable for the return of racing and training at its primary venue.

On Thursday, the Maryland Racing Commission (MRC) met at Laurel for the board's first in-person monthly meeting since the onset of the pandemic. But Laurel's scheduled racing for Apr. 22 had already been moved 28 miles north on an emergency basis to the MJC's sister track, Pimlico Race Course, which was pressed into action two weeks prior to its scheduled opening because the situation at the torn-up Laurel track has escalated into a "million or multi-million dollar project" that has no simple fix.

That time frame and the cost estimate were provided to the commission by Steve Koch, the senior vice president of racing for The Stronach Group (TSG), which owns the MJC and both tracks.

Commission members expressed frustration at how the main track problems got so out of hand so quickly, and they grilled Koch and TSG for not having the foresight to identify and remedy the difficulties earlier.

"I think it's an accumulation of bad decisions over time and not putting the money in the track to get us from 'We have no issues' three weeks ago until today, where we're shutting the whole thing down and tearing it up," said commissioner Konrad Wayson.

Koch acknowledged the work is extensive and disruptive to Maryland racing, and he articulated that TSG is in a spare-no-expense mode to make sure Laurel's track is deemed safe.

"We are looking at a total cushion replacement of the main track and some significant work on the base to restore its consistency," Koch said. "It is not news that we've made base repairs to this track since the day is was installed. This problem that brought us here today is all about the cushion. Now that we have the base exposed, it would be perhaps a mistake to cover that back up" without shoring up the base.

Racing at Laurel | Maryland Jockey Club

"I hesitate to put a firm timeline on this for the moment," Koch said, although he added that "I would not anticipate this running past the end of the current Pimlico meet."

Pimlico is scheduled to race through May 31. Laurel's summer meet is supposed to start June 4.

Koch gave a recap of how the problems progressed, citing adverse winter weather as a starting point.

As the maintenance crew began adding in more material with the coming of spring to keep the cushion four inches deep, "it reached a point a couple of weeks ago where we were observing the track had lost a lot of its binding qualities, and we weren't able to maintain a sufficient hardening," he said.

It then became difficult for the MJC to source the proper cushion materials, because management has "very tight specifications" in terms of composition. Some truckloads had to be sent back because the material didn't pass quality-control checks, Koch said.

That material shortage led to last week's TSG decision to halt racing and training at Laurel to avoid "unnecessary risks." Horses stabled there have had to be shipped to Pimlico for timed workouts, Koch said.

The only fortuitous thing about the switch, Koch said, is that Pimlico was getting race-ready for its upcoming GI Preakness S. meet anyway.

Once Laurel's base was exposed, the TSG team evaluated it more closely and decided that because of its extensive history of piecemeal repairs, it seemed "less than ideal to be laying brand new, very expensive cushion" onto a substandard base, Koch said.

Koch explained there is now an active project in the backstretch chute that consists of three test strips of various base compositions, "and we are undertaking a scientific exercise" to figure out which one will work best.

"These are very scarce, very technically specified [base] materials, and in fact they're much more scarce than the cushion materials," Koch said.

One of the biggest cost factors is the expense of trucking in the materials. Koch said product from the closest quarry to Laurel have not worked. Materials from a different regional quarry that the MJC has used in the past are no longer satisfactory. Now management is looking to source base material from as far away as New York, which figures to be very expensive.

"We will continue to subscribe to the Racing Surfaces Testing Laboratory top-to-bottom quality control program," Koch said. "What we cannot do is control every aspect of winter racing and winter weather, and we cannot control the fact that sourcing stone from quarries all over the eastern half of the United States requires a significant shopping and laboratory exercise."

Koch added that Charles Town Races, which is about 75 miles to the west, is also in the midst of an unexpected post-winter track resurfacing project that has caused a stoppage in racing.

Commissioner Michael Algeo told Koch he didn't agree with that comparison or putting the blame on a winter transition, which happens every year.

"I don't know what they're doing at Charles Town. I don't really care what they're doing at Charles Town. I'm interested in what happened at Laurel," Algeo said.

"I'm not a horseman, but I don't recall this being a particularly bad winter, either by cold, snow, rain. I mean it was winter. This is what we get in Maryland."

Other commissioners suggested that the MJC's management is overextended right now: First the pandemic. Then this year the combination of the Laurel turf course needing restoration, the equineherpes virus quarantine, and the Laurel main track problems. All of this while getting ready for the Preakness at Pimlico.

"I would not agree that we are spread thin," Koch replied, noting that TSG is treating Maryland as an all-hands-on-deck situation right now, requiring TSG executives to be flown in from other properties and the hiring of outside track maintenance and safety consultants.

Another commissioner questioned the wisdom of even putting in a new dirt track at all considering TSG has been floating the idea of putting in a synthetic surface at Laurel in the near future.

"The economics are not desirable," Koch agreed. "But you can't shortcut and expect to have a safe and viable racetrack."

Koch explained that once testing is complete and enough materials have been obtained, work will commence in two phases, starting with the inside 50 feet of the main track followed by the outer 50 feet.

"What that allows us to do is get the horses back on the inside of the track sooner," Koch said. "And that's an excellent feedback loop because then the horses can tell us in real time [how the renovated part is] performing. That will be really critical to the project's success."

CHURCHILL ABANDONS $300M ON-TRACK HOTEL PROJECT

by T.D. Thornton

The gaming corporation that owns Churchill Downs Racetrack is abandoning plans to build a $300 million hotel and historical horse race (HHR) gaming facility on the first turn of the track.

Instead, Churchill Downs Inc. (CDI) will focus on a three-phase expansion of its Louisville-area properties, with expected completion dates for each project dovetailing with the runnings of the next three GI Kentucky Derbies.

Bill Carstanjen, CDI's chief executive officer, said during a Thursday earnings conference call that he was not at liberty to divulge details about the new projects because the design, due diligence, and cost estimates for them are not yet complete. But he did emphasize that the "the third and most transformative" phase is scheduled to be finished in time for the 150th running of the Derby in 2024.

"We may decide to build a hotel at the racetrack in the future, but now is not the right time," Carstanjen said. Cont. p16

"We think we have excellent alternative projects that offer better returns on our capital over shorter periods, both at the racetrack and at Derby City Gaming."

CDI had unveiled plans for the on-track hotel with great fanfare in late 2019, stating that, "The development will transform the first turn of the 190-acre facility and provide guests opportunity for never-before imagined Kentucky Derby experiences."

The hotel project was to include seven stories, a party deck to watch racing, a penthouse banquet room, a ballroom, a VIP lounge, 5,500 new reserved seating options for Derby week, and a 900-machine "state-of-the-art" HHR gaming floor.

Construction started on the hotel in early 2020, but was halted by April when the pandemic hit.

"I don't think it comes as any surprise to people out there, there's a lot more risk in a project like that just because of the disruption of travel and movement around the country," Carstanjen said during the Apr. 22 call. "We think there are just better projects for us to do, a higher return, [a] lower risk, particularly in the current environment. So, we reordered and reimagined what we want to do."

Carstanjen repeatedly deferred discussing details when pressed by investors and analysts on the call. He said that he would offer a complete summary of the project's first phase by the time of the next quarterly earnings call, plus a look at some of the plans for 2023-24 phases at that time.

Churchill Downs | Coady

"We are excited about what is to come at Churchill Downs Racetrack over the next three years, but we are not ready to share our detailed plans today," Carstanjen said. "We are also evaluating options to expand Derby City Gaming. We continue to be very pleased with the growth of this entertainment venue, and believe that an expansion with additional floor capacity and other amenities will enhance the long-term growth of this asset."

When asked directly if CDI would consider putting HHR machines at the track itself, Carstanjen replied, "We always have the right to put [HHR] facilities at the racetrack. But as the crow flies, the racetrack is within five miles of Derby City Gaming...I'm not discounting that for the future as events unfold. But, we have something in Derby City Gaming that just flat-out works...So our predisposition is to look hard at more investment there."

CDI is also considering building an annex HHR facility tied to Churchill Downs, which by state regulation must be within 60 miles of the racetrack. Last year, the gaming corporation opened an annex 12 miles away from its property at Turfway Park.

"We believe the market will support a satellite facility that does not materially cannibalize Derby City Gaming," Carstanjen said.

"We are excited and confident about all of these projects, and view them as likely to deliver strong returns with only modest risk," Carstanjen said. "This is another irony of the pandemic. We stopped our Louisville projects in light of the uncertainty. But, we have learned so much with the passage of the subsequent time, and we will emerge with projects that we will monetize better and quicker."

Carstanjen did not address CDI's controversial planned sale of Arlington International Racecourse near Chicago during his prepared remarks, but he was asked about it during the Q&A portion of the call.

"With respect to the Arlington Park land sale, a preliminary bid date has been set, and as those bids come in in the second quarter, we'll evaluate them and figure out next steps," Carstanjen said.

"The ultimate conclusion of that process is something I can't responsibly predict for you because we'll have to see the nature of the bids," Carstanjen said. "There is a process. The process is underway...All good on that front. It's just this is what it takes to run a complex process to sell a big piece of land with a lot of value like that one."

As for whether CDI would seek to transfer its Arlington license to another part of Illinois, he said the corporation would take a wait-and-see approach to determine, "whether there's opportunities to move the racetrack elsewhere in the state as well."

CHURCHILL PURSES GET $3.1M BOOST

FROM HHR REVENUE

Before the first race is run Saturday on Opening Night of its 38-day Spring Meet, Churchill Downs Racetrack announced that purses will be raised an additional $3.1 million thanks to revenue from the historical racing machines at Derby City Gaming.

Total purses offered in the first condition book for horsemen, which covers 190 races over 19 dates through Thursday, May 27, have grown to $22,822,100 for a daily average of $1,201,163. That represents a 5.9% increase from the previously published $21,544,000.

Maiden special weight races are now worth $115,000 during Kentucky Derby Week and $100,000 post-Derby, which is up from the previously published $106,000 and $91,000, respectively. Kentucky Derby Week allowance races will range from $118,000 to $125,000 and $102,000 to $109,000 after Derby. They were $109,000 to $116,000 and $93,000 to $100,000, respectively.

Additionally, the purses for 25 stakes races were boosted. A trio of stakes received $50,000 increases: the $150,000 Audubon for 3-year-olds at 1 1/8 miles on turf May 29; $300,000 GII Fleur de Lis for fillies and mares at 1 1/8 miles June 26; and $300,000 GII Wise Dan for 4-year-olds and up at 1 1/16 miles on turf June 26. Fourteen stakes originally worth $125,000 were boosted $25,000 to $150,000 and eight overnight stakes races received $10,000 increases.

The 40-race Spring Meet stakes schedule now totals $14.02 million.

The growth has been driven by handle on historical racing machines at Derby City Gaming, which is located at 4520 Poplar Level Road.

“Over the last 10 years, historical horse racing has allowed our equine industry to flourish, increasing purses and creating a more competitive racing circuit,” said Churchill Downs Racetrack President Mike Anderson. “It has led to new jobs, economic growth and tourism.”

NYRA ANNOUNCES JOCKEY PROTOCOLS FOR BELMONT MEET Edited Press Release

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) announced COVID-19 health and safety protocols for jockeys competing at the 48-day Belmont Park spring/summer meet. The meet runs Thursday, Apr. 22 through Sunday, July 11.

As has been the case at NYRA since Apr. 1, all jockeys who have been fully vaccinated will not be required to undergo COVID-19 testing in order to compete at Belmont. Vaccinated jockeys traveling to ride at Belmont, as well as members of the NYRA jockey colony who travel outside of New York State, will continue to be provided isolated jockey quarters at Belmont.

According to current Centers for Disease Control (CDC) guidance, individuals are considered fully vaccinated 14 days or more after receiving the second dose in a two-dose series (Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna), or 14 days or more after they have received a single-dose vaccine (Johnson & Johnson/Janssen). NYRA will adhere to the current CDC guidance regarding COVID-19 vaccination standards.

As has been the case since Apr. 1, all jockeys who have been fully vaccinated to CDC guidelines will be permitted to enter the Belmont barn area for morning training. Jockeys who have not been fully vaccinated will not be permitted in the barn areas but can continue to meet horses in the Belmont Park paddock and utilize the main track. NYRA will permit out-of-town jockeys to compete at Belmont Park during the 2021 spring/summer meet. Jockeys who have not been fully vaccinated must provide a negative COVID-19 PCR test taken in New York State within 48 hours of the day they intend to compete at Belmont. Out-of-town jockeys will be provided isolated jockey quarters at Belmont.

In accordance with current CDC guidelines, jockeys who have traveled internationally will be required to quarantine for seven days upon their return. Four days after arrival in the United States, the jockey must be tested for COVID-19. Upon receipt of a negative COVID-19 PCR test, and completion of the seven-day quarantine, the jockey may compete at Belmont. All jockeys who have traveled internationally will be provided isolated jockey quarters.

In addition to race day safety protocols, which include standard health screening and temperature checks, the jockey quarters at Belmont have been substantially altered to provide maximum social distancing and reduce density. All areas accessed by jockeys during the regular course of a race day are closed to outside personnel, including credentialed media, and are cleaned and disinfected throughout the day.

Owners licensed by the New York State Gaming Commission will continue to be permitted to attend live racing on the day their horse is entered to run. A limited number of licensed owners will be permitted within the barn area at Belmont during the 2021 spring/summer meet. In order to secure access to the barn area, owners must provide NYRA with proof of completed vaccination or a negative COVID-19 test result taken within five days of the request.

FINALISTS ANNOUNCED FOR DR. TONY RYAN BOOK AWARD

A trio of finalists have been announced for the 15th annual Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award. The three finalists are Diane Crump, A Horse-Racing Pioneer's Life in the Saddle, by Mark Sharger; Good Things Come, by Linda Shantz; and Sylvia Rideoutt Bishop, Had a Way With Horses, by Vicki Moon.

"This was the year of debut authors, including the fiction finalist [Vicki Moon]," said judge Kay Coyte, a former Washington Post and racing publications editor. "Part of the mission of the Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award is to encourage new writers to cover the sport he so loved. To have this many in 2020 would have delighted him."

The award, founded by the late Dr. Ryan in 2006, has annually honored the best in longform writing about a topic or tale related to horse racing. Its $10,000 winner's prize remains among the largest in the literary world, matching that of the prestigious National Book Award. In addition to the $10,000 winner's prize, two additional finalists receive checks for $1,000, while all three take home Tipperary crystal statuettes of the farm's iconic stone tower.

Due to pandemic precautions, for the second straight year the winner's announcement will be announced via Zoom conference, scheduled for May 10 at 5 p.m.

Kentucky Derby steward finally tells all about controversial Maximum Security case

Barbara Borden hesitated before she pushed the button. Before sending the signal formally disqualifying Maximum Security from the 2019 Kentucky Derby, the state's chief steward spun her red swivel chair around to face her fellow officials. She looked at Brooks "Butch" Becraft and Tyler Picklesimer in the seventh-floor stewards room at Churchill Downs, reminded them there was no turning back, and asked, "Are we sure we want to do this?"

'RUTH'-LIKE PERFORMANCE: RIBCHESTER 2YO FILLY A 'RISING STAR' FOR WARD

Ruthin | Coady

Ruthin (GB) (f, 2, Ribchester {Ire}--Selinka {GB}, by Selkirk), a 350,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase, kicked off her career with a 'TDN Rising Star' performance sprinting on the Keeneland lawn for Wesley Ward Thursday.

The rail-drawn, 3-5 favorite shot out to the front and sped through an opening quarter in :21.91. She let it out a notch approaching the top of the lane, and, despite racing greenly on her left lead for most of the stretch, was geared down late en route to a flashy, six-length victory over Artos (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). The final time for 5 1/2 furlongs over the "good" going was 1:04.95.

Freshman sire Ribchester, the European champion miler in 2016 and 2017, stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud. Ruthin is his first winner and was his priciest, first-crop yearling to switch hands in 2020.

Ruthin, a daughter of two-time stakes winner in England Selinka, is a half-sister to Hit The Bid (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), MGSW-Ire, GSP-UAE, GSP-Eng, $410,031. Selinka brought 100,000gns from John and Jake Warren in foal to Showcasing (GB) at the 2015 TATDEC sale. She is also represented by a 2021 Land Force (Ire) colt. This is the extended female family of G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest winner Bold Edge (GB).

MAXWELL ESQUIRE (c, 4, Discreet Cat--Momma's Image, by Marquetry) reeled off a stretch of three wins from four starts last term, headed by a strong allowance victory going six furlongs over the Belmont lawn Oct. 16. He was last seen finishing fifth in the Aqueduct Turf Sprint Championship S. Nov. 28. Favored at 1-2 off the bench here, he trailed the field of six and was forced to check on the far turn as Fast Getaway (Into Mischief) suddenly shied nearing the five-sixteenths and subsequently lost rider Jose Ortiz. Maxwell Esquire, meanwhile, recovered nicely, was tipped out as they straightened for home and came flying home on the outside to get up by 3/4 of a length over Quarky (The Factor). Maxwell Esquire, from the family of GISW Discreet Marq (Discreet Cat), is a half to Memories of Peter (Disco Rico), SP, $311,368; and Image of Noon (Disco Rico), MSP, $200,152. PRINCIPLED STAND (GB) (c, 4, Kingman {GB}--Toujours L'Amour {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Authorized {Ire}) was crushed down to 1-5 here after debuting with a 7 1/4-length tally over the Tampa lawn Jan. 8. He was sent to the front by Irad Ortiz, Jr., led comfortably through fractions of :25.65 and :51.20, kicked for home as the one to catch and held safely by a neck over Red Storm Risen (Stormy Atlantic). These same connections have also teamed up on Kingman's GI Hollywood Derby winner Domestic Spending (GB); GII Pilgrim S. runner-up Public Sector (GB); and GIII Saranac S. second and GII Bernard Baruch H. third Good Governance (GB). AUNT KAT (f, 4, Uncle Mo--Carolyn's Cat {MGSW, $307,415}, by Forestry) was no factor in a pair of starts going a route of ground in December and January, respectively, but cut back to this distance to blow the doors off a field of Aqueduct maidens by 9 3/4 lengths Mar. 13, earning a lofty 95 Beyer Speed Figure. Soon in front for Junior Alvarado, the $410,000 KEESEP yearling skipped over the ground under a long hold, responded when asked to kick in upper stretch and pulled readily clear to take it by 5 3/4 impressive lengths as the 1.45-1 favorite. The winner's dam, a $650,000 FTSAUG yearling, was a two-time graded winner on this circuit for Kieran McLaughlin and Mr. & Mrs. William Warren and has gone on to produce 'TDN Rising Star' Mufajaah (Tapit), GSW, $267,140. Aunt Kat, whose MGSP second dam Cassowary (Cormorant) dropped MGSW Meadow Flight (Meadowlake) and MSW & GISP North Lake Jane (Meadowlake), is bred on the exact same cross and champion, GI Kentucky Derby winner and promising young sire Nyquist. Carolyn's Cat is also the dam of the 3-year-old filly Queen of Arendell (Frosted), the 2-year-old colt Bad Sneakers (Gun Runner) and a filly by Tapit foaled Apr. 7. The 'TDN Rising Star' made two unplaced appearances for Rusty Arnold in 2020 and was back under the care of George Weaver for this stakes-quality allowance, having most recently finished fifth in last year's GII Distaff Turf Mile Sept. 5. Away in second to chase pacesetter 'Rising Star' Winter Sunset (Tapit), the 7-5 chalk raced under a tight hold from between horses through the middle stages, loomed into it without being asked approaching the final furlong and kicked on smartly to take it by a measured three-parts of a length. SUNDIAL (f, 3, Dialed In--Ellie's Moment {SW & MGSP, $291,241}, by Kris S.) made a pair of two-turn starts over the Turfway Tapeta, finishing fourth on debut Jan. 29 before improving to be a close second Feb. 26. The homebred couldn't quite overcome a three-wide trip when runner-up making her first dirt try Mar. 28 and was well-backed to break through here. A pace-pressing second through six furlongs in 1:13.44, Sundial hit the front in upper stretch and was ridden out to graduate by three lengths over Martique Miss (Lea). The 9-1 chance was fifth through a half mile in :50.52 in this one, challenged while parked three wide on the far turn and battled gamely between horses in the stretch to secure a half-length decision over Lisheen (Into Mischief). U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Saturday running at Tokyo Racecourse. Group 1 racing in Japan resumes next weekend with the two-mile Tenno Sho (Spring) at Hanshin:

Saturday, April 24, 2021

6th-TOK, ¥13,830,000 ($128k), Allowance, 3yo, 1600m

ANNUNCIATION (c, 3, Union Rags--Acquant, by Giant's Causeway) made up a ton of ground after missing the break over this track and trip Oct. 31 and graduated by a widening 3 1/2 lengths (video, gate 3). The $230K Keeneland September yearling just failed by a neck after a similarly slow dispatch in a course-and-distance allowance Jan. 30 and should be a warm item to make amends here. Annunciation is out of a winning daughter of MGSW Social Queen (Dynaformer), the dam of GISW Force the Pass (Speightstown). Christophe Lemaire has ridden Annunciation in his first two starts and retains the call from gate two Saturday. B-Colts Neck Stables LLC (KY)

12th-TOK, ¥21,000,000 ($194k), Allowance, 4yo/up, 1400m

LECCE BAROQUE (f, 4, Uncle Mo--My Fast One, by Elusive Quality) won her first two career outings over course and distance by 19 lengths combined--both times as the heavy favorite (video, gate 10)--and most recently bounced back to something approaching her best with a second-place finish over 1200 meters at Nakayama Dec. 26. A $410K KEESEP yearling turned $525K OBS March breezer, Lecce Baroque is out of a half-sister to SW No Mo Dough (Uncle Mo) and SP Terrific Storm (Storm Cat). Lemaire will have to work out a trip from the outermost stall in the field of 16. B-MMM Stables (KY)
