POWER-PACKED PREMIER SALE KICKS OFF

The Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale begins on Tuesday | Goffs UK

By Kelsey Riley

The opening hour of last week’s Yorkshire Oaks card was about as good as it gets for a sales firm just days out from its flagship stand. Thirty-five minutes before Goffs UK was firmly in the spotlight with the running of its time-honoured Premier Yearling S., Premier Yearling Sale graduate Zain Claudette (Ire) (No Nay Never) provided a welcome introduction with victory in the G2 Lowther S. Bought for what now feels like a staggering bargain (£20,000) last summer, Zain Claudette has won three of her first four starts including two group races and has compiled earnings of £123,411 for owner Saeed H Al Tayer and trainer Ismail Mohammed.

Ever Given (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) cost the Dandy Boys £40,000 last September, but he proved that was money well spent when taking home the lion’s share of the £200,000 purse of the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale S., pushing his account to £118,897.

The latest renewal of the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale begins on Tuesday and concludes on Wednesday, with 400 yearlings set to go under the hammer. The Silver Yearling Sale will immediately follow the Premier on Wednesday, with 90 commercial yearlings set to sell.

Michael Owen has been a staunch supporter of the Premier Sale in recent years, and in the aftermath of his syndicate the Dandy Boys winning the Goffs UK Premier Yearling S. with Ever Given, Owen confirmed he would be back shopping this week.

DONWORTH JOINS THE CHANTILLY TRAINING RANKS By Emma Berry

Among the current top 10 trainers in France are two graduates of the Godolphin Flying Start course: Francis Graffard and Jerome Reynier. These are big footsteps in which to follow for the latest former Flying Start student to try his hand at training, and what sets Tim Donworth apart is that France is not his native country.

He was, however, born to a life with horses. The 27-year-old grew up on Round Hill Stud in Co Limerick, which is owned by his parents Bobby and Honora and has also been the birthplace of plenty of decent Thoroughbreds down the years, including dual Group 1 winner Rizeena (Ire) and the stallions Puissance De Lune (Ire) and Bow Creek (Ire).

“I’d be nowhere only for Round Hill, but I never really wanted to be a breeder,” says the Irishman, who will be up and running as a trainer in Chantilly from the start of September.” Cont. p4

And he comes armed with a £34,007 voucher, thanks to the new ‘Premier Prizes’ incentives attached to the race for the first time this year. The Premier Prizes include a voucher for a ‘free horse’ for the race’s winning owner—a voucher of value equal to the average of the prior year’s Premier sale—plus a day of hospitality at York Racecourse, and a free six-month rental of a horse box for the winning trainer, in this case Tom Dascombe.

“When we are talking about ways to improve racing, ultimately it all comes down to owners,” said Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent. “The Goffs UK Premier Yearling S. is often targeted by the leading syndicates. Happy Romance won the race last year and the owners of Happy Romance were first-time owners, and it was a great story. So we thought, ‘how do we add a bit more to that race to try to incentivize ownership?’ We felt this was a way to bring people back in and hopefully help those syndicates. Not only does [the race winner] have a good 2-year-old, they now also have the chance to buy another one for the following year.”

Kent said he hopes the added incentives now attached to the sale race will encourage buyers to have an extra bid or two.

“Hopefully it causes people to think a bit differently,” he said. “The race has been very popular, and some good horses have won it: the likes of Acclamation, Dark Angel and Wootton Bassett are the headline horses for it. Hopefully it has something for everyone and gets people thinking a bit differently.”

The Goffs UK Premier Yearling S., of course, is just one reason for buyers to shop the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale: others include the numerous Royal Ascot 2-year-olds, Group 1-winning sprinters and Classic winners, like the six-time Group 1 winner Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), to have emanated from the sale’s ranks. This year has proven another very fruitful one for Premier graduates on the track, its star graduates in addition to the aforementioned Zain Claudette including Dream Of Dreams (Ire) (Dream Ahead), the popular winner of the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. after twice finishing second in the race; Happy Romance (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), last year’s sale race winner who has won a pair of Group 3 sprints since; Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}), last year’s G2 Prix du Calvados winner who was third in the G1 1000 Guineas; Mystery Angel (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), the Listed Pretty Polly S. winner who was second in the G1 Oaks and, like Fev Rover, was bought here by Nick Bradley; and multiple group-winning 3-year-old sprinter and Royal Ascot victor Rohaan (Ire) (Mayson {GB}). Supremacy (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) also won last autumn’s G1 Middle Park S. From last year’s sale, there are currently more than 50 individual 2-year-old winners.

“It’s been another good year on the racetrack and that’s what this sale is all about,” Kent said. “It’s less about the pedigree and more about the type of the horse. Buyers want to get there and see a ready-made racehorse. That’s what people expect when they come to us and that’s certainly what plays out on the racecourse. We’ve had a very good year, we’ve had some good winners and good runners and hopefully there is more of the same to come. People come to Doncaster expecting to see a certain type of horse and we’re confident those in are play.”

While, as Kent alluded to, there will be numerous star graduates to come from the sale that may not have lit up the catalogue page, there are nonetheless plenty of pedigrees in the book that fit the advertisement of fast, powerful racehorses. Those include lot 40, a Dark Angel (Ire) half-brother to G2 Coventry S. winner Rajasinghe (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}); lot 57, a Kodiad (GB) half-brother to G3 Superior Mile scorer Balty Boys (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}); lot 88, a Hot Streak (Ire) half-sister to champion 3-year-old sprinter Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}); lot 125, a Showcasing (GB) son of the listed winner Fig Roll (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}), already a stakes producer thanks to the G3 Prix d’Arenberg scorer Al Raya (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}); and lot 291, a full-brother to G2 Duchess of Cambridge and G3 Albany S. winner and G1 Cheveley Park S. second Illuminate (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}).

Describing the typical Donny yearling, Kent said, “It’s going to be a 2-year-old, and it has to have a good walk; that’s one thing people really want to see in a Doncaster yearling. It’s got to be an athlete and it’s got to be ready to go. It’s got to show a bit of speed and it’s likely to be running over sprint distances as a 2-year-old and may progress up to a mile as a 3-year-old, but really a mile is the maximum capacity for the sort of thing we’re selling. They have to have a toughness and determination about them that means you can get the tack on them and get on with them and get running. They’re not just whiz-bang 2-year-olds, but they’re 2-year-olds that can give you a shot at Ascot and those big 2-year-old meetings and train on. Something like a Guineas horse would be what we’d like to aspire to in the future.”

There are yearlings catalogued, too, that fit that Classic profile, like lot 74, the Kingman (GB) filly out of G3 Nell Gwyn S. winner and G1 1000 Guineas third Daban (Ire) (Acclamation {GB});

lot 101, a Kingman (GB) colt out of G2 Kilboy Estate S. second Earring (Dansili {GB}), whose own dam Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) won the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup and was second in the 1000 and Irish 1000 Guineas, the G1 Fillies’ Mile and G1 Matron S.; lot 102, an Invincible Spirit (Ire) grandson of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Mehtaaah; and lot 169, a Lope De Vega (Ire) colt whose dam is a half-sister to G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. victress Persuasive (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

Premier graduates are going on to success not only on the racecourse, but also in the breeding barn. Acclamation and his son Dark Angel, as well as Wootton Bassett, have been excellent ambassadors for the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale as sale race winners that have gone on to success at stud. Those looking to follow in their footsteps include Group 1-winning Premier graduates Advertise (GB), Golden Horde (GB) and Harry Angel (Ire). Champion sprinter Harry Angel, a son of Dark Angel, has five first-crop yearlings catalogued to this year’s Premier sale.

“It’s great to see them come full circle like that, to see a graduate of the sale’s progeny coming through,” Kent said. “We’ve seen some lovely horses by Harry Angel, I’ve seen a couple lovely yearlings by him and I know my colleagues have done the same. He’s an exciting one; he was a brilliant racehorse. Clive Cox did a wonderful job with him and hopefully he can continue that line going forward.” Cont. p4

He added, “If you look at what Acclamation has done, he’s been a phenomenal stallion. Dark Angel has re-written the history books in many ways and to be honest, there aren’t that many stallions in the world that are hotter than Wootton Bassett after his move from France to Ireland. It gives the whole team an immense amount of personal satisfaction that a horse that won our sales race can go on to win a Group 1 in France and has now been bought by one of the leading stallion operations in the world and has been given the very best chance at stud.”

The European yearling sale caravan rolls into its second sale of the season with vibes positive after the Arqana August Yearling Sale 10 days ago, and Kent’s enthusiasm is palpable heading into Goffs UK’s headline sale.

“It’s the physical that really will get people going when they get here,” he said. “Whatever you see on the page, we think it will be even better in real life, and that’s what is exciting us. We’ve seen videos and photographs of these horses and seen how they’ve improved since we saw them however many months ago. All of the nominations team have horses they think will top the sale, and we’re having a bit of fun between us, telling each other that we’re going to do better than our colleagues. It’s great that we all have horses we’re really excited about. They’re a great bunch of physicals and these horses do what it says on the tin. It’s athletic racehorses we’re looking for and we think we’ve chosen almost 500 horses that fit that mould over two days and we’re excited to show them to purchasers at Doncaster.”

Donworth continues, "I knew I could never be as good as my mum and dad at it, so I wanted to do my own thing and make my own name. When I got it out of my head that I was going to be a jockey, I always wanted to train. I always knew Ireland would be very hard as it’s dominated by a couple of stables and it’s just highly competitive. Training in France is, I suppose, a good example of how you just don’t know where life is going to take you."

A former point-to-point rider, Donworth’s initial major racing foray outside Ireland was to the Newmarket stable of William Haggas, where he was pupil assistant alongside Michael Kent Jr, who is now training in partnership back home in Australia with Mick Price.

While there he was lured to apply for the Flying Start apprenticeship and, having been accepted, he later completed a placement with another former Flying Starter-turned-trainer, Tom Morley. On completion of his course, Donworth was initially offered a job back in the United States assisting French ex-pat Christophe Clement, but fate intervened in the form of Clement’s elder brother Nicolas, the doyen of the Chantilly training fraternity, who poached him to be his own assistant.

"Christophe had said he didn’t need me until the spring when New York, Florida, and Keeneland are all in operation at the one time," Donworth explains. "So I was very keen to do it, but I had four months without anything to do. Christophe organised for me to go to Chantilly for some more experience and then I guess after four or five months, Nicolas took it upon himself to try and nick me. So I never went back."

One brother’s loss then was another’s gain, but Donworth clearly appreciated learning not just from one of the masters of the French scene, but also the chance to try to master the French language. In Chantilly, one can get by on a bit of Franglaise, but it was a different story when the Irishman headed south-west to broaden his experience with Jean-Claude Rouget in Pau.

"I couldn’t speak French when I arrived. So it was a massive challenge and I love a challenge," says Donworth. "I decided to stay and then when I went to Pau, I found I was speaking French all day every day because nobody spoke English, and with Mr. Rouget I only ever had a relationship in French. So it got good thankfully, and now it’s a sufficient level to run a business in the country."

The aspiring trainer’s year-long stint with Rouget was split between Pau and Deauville, and it is in the latter where Donworth has been hard at work recently, attempting to recruit youngsters to his stable from the yearling sales. For his solo business venture, he has returned to familiar territory in Chantilly and will be renting a portion of Clement’s yard.

"I will have around 20 boxes to start with and hopefully with the room to expand as well," he says. "I have 10 horses ready to come in and then I will probably have another three or four yearlings. I claimed a horse about two or three weeks ago that will run in October. I have another owner that is very into claimers, so I was lucky to find him." Cont. p6

He adds, "Then I have a 2-year-old for someone else that will be running straight away. I'm very lucky in that I had a background involved in breeding. So I was always going to sales, always meeting people."

Donworth will of course be able to rely on some support from his parents, who were at the Arqana sale on the lookout for yearlings with French premiums, and he has also been sent a horse by long-term family friend Kirsten Rausing, who is currently enjoying a tremendous season with her homebred runners.

"She's a brilliant woman. She's been a massive support and always been good for advice my whole life," says Donworth of the owner of Lanwades Stud.

He is also appreciative of the support shown to him by his former boss, with whom he will be involved in a new Franco-Irish racing club.

He adds, "Nicolas is head of the Trainers' Federation for a reason, because he's always been a man to get things done. He's a very well-respected trainer who won an Arc when he was probably younger than me. He knows what he's doing and he's always had a very good reputation for helping young people, just like Christophe in the States. Between Nicolas and Christophe, they've had some top-class people pass through their hands, so I guess I'm lucky to be part of that Clement family fraternity."

Donworth continues, "I was his assistant for two years and I don't want people to be confused and think that we are training together. We're very separate operations, but at the same time, Nicolas has been a bit of a role model for me. So I'm delighted to be in his yard, delighted to have him there for advice if I ever needed it." Cont. p7

He says, "Nicolas is setting up a racing club and he's been very kind to say he's going to give me half of the horses. I think the plan is to buy four to six horses. For an owner buying into it, it’s a good mixture because you have someone with an awful lot of experience. Then you have a young guy who's very ambitious. I want to take over the world, whether I can do it or not, nobody knows, but we'll give it a go."

Donworth may have long-term plans for world domination but he is keeping his immediate expectations in check as he prepares to send out his first runners.

He says, "I think when you start in September, the goal is next year, really, but it would be lovely just to have a couple of runners this year, and if I could win a race or two before Christmas, brilliant."

FALL PLANS REVEALED FOR SHADWELL STARS

Shadwell group winners Raabihah (Sea The Stars (Ire)) and Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) are targetting the Oct. 3 G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and Sept. 5 G1 Prix du Moulin, respectively, Shadwell Racing Manager Angus Gold revealed on Monday.

A 4-year-old filly, Raabihah was fifth in the 2020 Arc after taking the G3 Prix de Psyche last August and running second in the Sept. 13 G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille. Prior to her victory in Sunday’s G2 Prix de Pomone, the chestnut was second thrice as the favourite in the May 2 G3 Prix Allez France Longines, the May 26 G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud and in the Listed Prix du Pays d'Auge at Clairefontaine on Aug. 1. She is also a possible for the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille on Sept. 12.

"I'd love to think we can have another crack at the Arc--that was the reason she was kept in training," said Gold. "She got beat a couple of times earlier this season."

He said, “But as (trainer) Jean-Claude (Rouget) said to me yesterday, sometimes with these fillies who have a relatively hard time at three—she was racing at the top table—it can just take them a while to get back to that level.

“We gave her a break at the stud, and it’s just taken her three runs to get back up to speed. The distance yesterday is exactly what she should be running over on pedigree.

“It was great to get her back on track, and I don’t see any reason why she wouldn’t go for the Arc. Jean-Claude just wants to see how she comes out of it first before deciding whether she runs in the Vermeille first or not.”

Undefeated G3 Bonhams Thoroughbred S. hero Baaeed is in good form for trainer William Haggas. A half-brother to triple Group 3 winner Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), the colt won a maiden at Leicester on June 7 and doubled up in a Newmarket novice on June 19. Given a first taste of stakes company on July 8, he captured the Listed Sir Henry Cecil S. over a mile at HQ by four lengths. His winning margin in the Bonhams Thoroughbred S. was 6 ½ lengths, also at a mile at Goodwood.

“At the moment we are probably going to the Prix du Moulin, that was the latest from the last conversation I had with Sheikha Hissa and William Haggas,” Gold said of Baaeed. “So the number one plan is to go to the Moulin if all is well.

“Obviously before the horse had run it would have been a silly thing to say this is what he would do, but he was a well-bred horse going into it. It just took him a bit of time to come to himself.

“What probably has surprised me is the speed he’s shown—maybe it’s just class. Before he’d ever ran I’d have thought he was probably going to be a mile-and-a-quarter to mile-and-a-half horse, so to see him doing all this over a mile is hugely encouraging.

“It’s a not problem to have but he’s showing too much speed, if that makes sense. He’s a very exciting horse so we’ll see if he can take the next step up.”

2022 WHITE TURF PROGRAMME ANNOUNCED

After the 114th General Assembly of the St Moritz Racing Club at Badrutt’s Palace Hotel in St. Moritz last week, the 2022 White Turf dates were announced.

Racing will be held over three White Turf Race Days—on Feb. 6, 13 and 20, and the White Turf site will be open to the public throughout that three-week period around race Sundays. There will also be free White Turf Family Days on the three Saturdays adjacent to the race days—Feb. 5, 12, and 19, where kids will be allowed to practice their skijoring and there will be other family-oriented activities on offer. In addition, on weekdays from Jan. 31 to Feb 4, Feb. 7 to 11 and Feb. 14-18, the White Turf Experience Days will be open to the public at the White Turf site. Linked with the municipality of St. Moritz, these “Amusements on the Lake”, which debuted in 2021, will provide opportunities for skijoring, ice skating, cross-country skiing and hiking on the lake. Great Racing Welfare Cycle Challenge Raises £100K

Notable racing charity Racing Welfare received a financial boost during the past week as cyclists and runners earned in excess of £100,000 through donations for The Great Racing Welfare Cycle Challenge and in part from participants in the Vitality Big Half Marathon.

The GRWCC, a 500-mile journey by bike from Carlisle Racecourse to Newton Abbot Racecourse, was completed by 26 cyclists over five days, while four runners in London completed the Vitality Big Half Marathon. The team of cyclists hailed from all corners of the racing industry, and included trainers, stable staff, a clerk of the course, a racing presenter, former jockeys and even two of Racing Welfare’s own staff members. Trainer Henry Daly and his wife Clarissa took part in the half-marathon, and showed their support for Racing Welfare after the charity had assisted traveling head person Helen Brisland following a life-changing accident on the gallops in 2018. Other runners included Annamarie Phelps, Lauren Hilton and Eamonn O’Donovan.

Chief Executive Dawn Goodfellow said, “It has been a phenomenal week for Racing Welfare on the fundraising front.”

The Bloodstock South Africa August 2-Year-Old Sale saw increases in both average and median during a positive two days of selling at the TBA Sales Complex in Johannesburg on Friday and Saturday. Of the 316 2-year-olds catalogued, 280 sold from 299 offered (93.6%) and they grossed R39,540,000 ($2,603,631/€1,898,177/£2,219,487). The average improved 15.3% to R141,750 ($9,328/€6,801/£7,952) and the median also rose to R90,000 ($5,922/€4,318/£5,049) (+28.5%).

Topping Saturday’s proceedings was a colt by Dynasty (SAf) (lot 224) for R1,200,000 ($78,983/€57,590/£67,322), which equaled the record price set in November of 2020. Consigned by Wilgerbosdrift, the son of triple graded winner and four-time Grade 1-placed Welwitschia (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was purchased by Form Bloodstock. He is already a full-brother to G2 Golden Slipper hero Desert Miracle (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) and a half to G1 Summer Cup third Tree Tumbo (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}).

Second highest on the day was lot 291, a filly by What A Winter (SAf) from the Mauritzfontein draft. Out of the placed Dame Eleanor (Aus) (New Approach {Ire}), she was knocked down for R850,000 ($55,964/€40,803/£47,694) to Sandy Arundel acting on behalf of fellow KZN trainer Wendy Whitehead.

“The two days of the 2021 BSA National August 2yo Sale will go down as a vote of confidence in the future of SA racing by a broad spectrum of buyers,” said BSA CEO Michael Holmes.

“For many, the bidding proved more competitive than may have been anticipated, with a diverse range of quality 2-year-olds from a wide range of stallions in great demand. The proof of the pudding is in the numbers, and we are appreciative of a great team effort that incorporated the vendors, buyers, underbidders and all the support teams.”

Pencarrow has breeding interests in a number of New Zealand-based stallions including Eminent (Ire), Darci Brahma (NZ), Super Seth, Ocean Park (NZ), Sweynesse and newcomers King Of Comedy (Ire) and Hello Youmzain (Fr).

“The way Frankel has been performing, Eminent has gained a lot more interest in the last season or so. He leaves really athletic foals and he’s a great mover himself,” Casey said.

“Obviously, Peter raced him and we’re hoping for good things. We’ve retained an ownership stake in the horse and looking forward to his career developing.”

Eminent retired to Brighthill Farm after a successful career from Martyn Meade’s Newmarket stable and later for expatriate New Zealander Sir Mark Todd.

He won the G2 Deauville Prix Guillaume d’Ornano and the G3 Newmarket Craven S. and was Group 1-placed in Ranvet S., the Irish Champion S. and fourth in the English Derby.

Eminent will serve a quartet of Pencarrow mares including Pink Bubbles (NZ) (Pins), who is on a return visit and is from the family of the multiple Group 1 winner, successful sire and Pencarrow graduate Darci Brahma.

Support for Newcomers

Pencarrow is always keen to back quality young stallions and international Group 1 winners Circus Maximus (Ire) and Hello Youmzain are two examples.

“We haven’t seen either of them yet, but we will be soon and we are going to support them as the country needs them, they are very well-credentialled horses,” Casey said.

Shuttle stallion Circus Maximus will be used by Vela’s operation Coolmore

Sir Peter Vela’s Eminent raced in the Northern Hemisphere before embarking on a stud career in New Zealand | Brighthill Farm

by Paul Vettise

Pencarrow Stud Principal Sir Peter Vela is very much hands-on when it comes to confirming mating plans with Leon Casey, his long-time manager of the 300-hectare Cambridge nursery.

Sir Peter spends a lot of his time in Europe and therefore has valuable insights from that part of the world on both shuttle stallions and foreign-bred sires permanently based in Australasia and their suitability for members of Pencarrow’s broodmare band.

More than 50 mares are currently at the Cambridge farm and are complemented by dry mares in Australia that are divided between Bhima Thoroughbreds, Coolmore, Erinvale Thoroughbreds and Lincoln Farm.

“Peter and myself work in together and normally we would go and see every new horse in Australia, but we haven’t been able to do that for the last two years. We have had to rely on other people to look at them for us,” Casey told TDN AusNZ.

“Clearly, Peter has got a real passion for pedigrees and a vast international knowledge of racing. Generally, he has first-hand experience with a lot of the shuttle stallions.

“We pool all our resources to do the matings and usually start when stallions are being retired and announced, anywhere from Easter on, so we put three months of work into it to get to this stage.”
“Circus Maximus was such a good miler and we think that will suit a lot of our families with that Galileo blood and Hello Youmzain was another outstanding horse who we really like.”

Half-a-dozen mares will be served by Circus Maximus at Windsor Park Stud, including the G2 Travis S. and G1 Waikato International S. runner-up Dolmabache (NZ) (Redoute’s Choice). Also from Darci Brahma’s family, Dolmabache has recently foaled a Written Tycoon colt.

Three mares will visit Hello Youmzain at Cambridge Stud including Barbadine (USA) (Charm Spirit {Ire}), who is in foal to Exceed And Excel and the dam of the G3 Eulogy S. winner Lilikoi (NZ) (Charm Spirit {Ire}).

Champion Sire Savabeel is again the choice of stallion for Scintillula (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who won the G3 Meld S. and was second in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. It is a proven mating with her son Butter Chicken (NZ) a winner and runner-up in the G2 Autumn Classic.

“Scintillula has made a great start at stud and is a valuable mare. She’s one of two we’ve got going to Savabeel, the other is Sleeping Beauty,” Casey said.

Sleeping Beauty (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle [Ire]) won 10 races including the G3 Rotorua S. and her first foal by Ifraaj (GB) arrived last year and she is due to foal to Super Seth.

“We bought Scintillula and raced her here and we bred and raced Sleeping Beauty. We’ve got quite a few stakes-winning mares that we raced ourselves in the broodmare group, including the likes of Cote D’Or and Rasa Lila,” Casey said.

“They are another generation of mares coming through and we’re obviously striving for a good mix of proven horses for them and also some of the exciting new ones.”

Listed Matamata Cup winner Cote D’Ore (NZ) (Makfi {GB}), a half-sister to Dolmabache, will be on a return visit to Super Seth while G2 Travis S. winner Rasa Lila (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}) is due to foal to Super Seth.

“Rasa Lila’s going to be quite late and she will have had four foals in a row and depending on how and when she does foal, we might leave her empty and start again earlier next year, perhaps in Australia,” Casey said.

Farnan a Favourite

Former Champion 2-Year-Old Farnan, who stands his first season at Kia Ora Stud, is an ideal match for Pencarrow mares Liilikoi (NZ) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) and Darci Brahma’s half-sister Echezeaux (NZ) (Encosta De Lago), according to Casey.

“A couple of interesting ones we’ve got over at Bhima Thoroughbreds are Liilikoi, one we bred and raced, and Echezeaux, who won four for us,” he said.

“Echezeaux has made a great start and she leaves a very good type. Redoute’s Choice has gone so well across that family so we’re keen to get her back to that line.”

While Redoute’s Choice’s grandson Farnan was a precocious talent, Casey is hoping the Pencarrow matings can produce progeny capable of starring beyond sprint distances.

“Obviously, Farnan will provide natural speed, but we are hoping he will be versatile to breed a horse that might go over a little bit of ground,” he said.

Choice Matings

In similar vein, Skywards (NZ) (O’Reilly {NZ}) and Wild Seas (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}) are considered to be exemplary choices to visit Redoute’s Choice’s son King’s Legacy while Pencarrow will also be sending a valued member of the broodmare band to newcomer Ole Kirk.

“Empyrean is Ethereal’s last daughter so she is a pretty important mare to us. She’s got one really nice colt by Rubick on the ground and we like the fact that Ole Kirk was effective up to a mile and not an out and out speed horse,” Casey said.

“It looks a very good mating for Empyrean and we have high hopes for her.”

Guiseppina (NZ) (Johar {USA}) is currently at home, but the G1 Telegraph H. heroine will be heading back to Australia for her next mating after she was served last year by Snitzel.

“She will foal here and then we’ll work out how we get her over there. She’s a Group 1 winner and so is Insouciant, who will go to Dundee,” Casey said. “She’s got a beautiful Dundee filly on the ground so that encouraged us to repeat that mating.

“We have probably been a little bit more conservative with what we are spending this year outside of New Zealand. We are just trying to get a good mix of proven horses and the younger ones.”

ROB MASIELLO ON HIGHS AND LOWS OF RACING

by Katie Ritz

Rob Masiello has been coming up to Saratoga since he was in the seventh grade.

It all started when he went to “nerd camp” at Skidmore College one summer. He was miserable there, missing his usual summer vacation spent playing baseball with his friends. His parents came to visit and told him they would take him home if it was what he really wanted, but first they wanted to go to the track. “We had a great time and I ended up staying,” Masiello recalled. “Then it sort of became a tradition for us to come up every year. Now even to this day when I walk into the track, I always think of being a kid here with my parents and I’m sure a lot of people probably have a similar experience. It’s certainly a special place.”

Fast forward to 2005, two years after he graduated from Johns Hopkins with a degree in Economics, when Masiello got involved as an owner with West Point Thoroughbreds. “When I started I had the smallest piece of the smallest horse, but I enjoyed it,” he said. “The cool thing about being with West Point, or any partnership I think, is that you buy into a piece of one horse but you learn about an entire stable. So if you’re smart about it, you get to see what’s going on with 50 or 60 different horses at any given time and it really gives you perspective on what a stable looks like and what the ups and downs can be.” Cont. p3

TURF PARADISE RACE DATES APPROVED, BUT DOUBTS REMAIN OVER MEET

by Dan Ross

In a special meeting Monday morning, the Arizona Racing Commission formally approved the proposed 2021-2022 race dates for Turf Paradise—Nov. 5 through May 7—but hard practical questions remain over what participation at that meet could look like due to an ongoing standoff between the Arizona horsemen and Turf Paradise management.

As a result of welfare concerns springing from a 2020-2021 Turf Paradise race meet marred by a high number of equine fatalities, the Arizona Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA) have stated they will not sign any meet contract until a list of track safety upgrades and other facility management-related requests have been satisfied. Rob Masiello On Racing’s Highs and Lows cont. from p1

Over the years, Masiello has been a West Point partner on graded stakes winners Freedom Child (Malibu Moon), Twilight Eclipse (Purim), Ring Weekend (Tapit) and--the one he now thinks of as his all-time favorite--dual Grade II winner and Grade I producer Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union).

“She was my first good horse,” he said. “I knew it at the time, but I also didn’t know just how special the run she had was when she won five straight races ending in the GII Davona Dale S. and the GII Bonnie Miss S. To see what she has gone on to do as a broodmare has just been incredible.”

In recent years Masiello, an equity trader for Chimera Securities, has had success in developing his own racing stable. While he remains a loyal West Point partner, he said he is enjoying the challenges that going solo has presented.

“It’s been a lot of fun and it’s a lot harder,” he admitted. “It’s a different skill set because with West Point, they’re basically buying the horses they want even if they’re seven-figure horses. I can’t really do that on my own, but it’s kind of fun this way too because you really have to think about your budget and what you’re trying to achieve. It’s a little bit more strategic thinking.”

Earlier this month, he made it to the winner’s circle with a 5-year-old mare he bred and now races in partnership with trainer Tom Albertrani. Itsakeyper (Brilliant Speed) got her first win against allowance company at Saratoga on Aug. 12.

“Tom and I actually claimed her dam, Finders Key (Discreet Cat),” Masiello explained. “She was a horse Tommy trained for Godolphin who got claimed away, but he had always wanted to try her on turf. The funny story with her is we claim her and then go with Twilight Eclipse to Dubai [for the 2014 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic].” Cont. p4
“Tommy lived in Dubai for several years and trained there so bringing a horse over to Dubai was special for him, but all he wanted to do on that trip was talk to me about Finders Key,” Masiello continued. “At a certain point I was like, ‘Tom, what are we talking about right now?’ We were there with Twilight Eclipse and all he wanted to talk about was the $25,000 claimer we had.”

Finders Key made her first start on turf for the duo a winning one, but an injury forced her to retire soon after. Masiello and Albertrani sent her to another Albertrani trainee in GISW Brilliant Speed.

That first foal, Itsakeyper, didn’t break her maiden until May of her 3-year-old year, but Masiello said their homebred is just now reaching top form.

“She has always trained well, but she’s gotten better and better as this year has gone on. Tom was really happy with her coming into the race [on Aug. 12] and it’s special because he trained the mare and Brilliant Speed, so it’s the whole all-in-the-family thing. Dylan Davis gave her a perfect trip. A lot of times you come up here and nothing works out, but everything that day just worked out perfectly.”

On the flip side, Masiello knows all too well how things in this sport can go from perfect to disastrous in the blink of an eye.

On July 31, Fiya (Friesan Fire), a $400,000 purchase for Masiello that had gone on to win four of his next five starts for his new owner, was training at Saratoga in preparation for the GIII Troy S. when he suffered a catastrophic injury and was subsequently euthanized.

Reflecting on the loss, Masiello said he thinks of Fiya as the horse that got his racing stable off the ground.

“I remember the morning of his first race, I was walking around Battery Park City where I live and I had really not been doing well as an owner on my own,” Masiello recalled. “I looked on the NYRA website and I was winning at two or three percent and I didn’t know if I could handle another horse that didn’t work out.”

But Fiya did win that first race for his new owner by over three lengths and would go on to claim the Maryland Million Turf Sprint H. and the Claiming Crown Canterbury S. later that year. Trained by Tom Albertrani, he was 11th this spring in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S., but came back with a victory in his last start in an allowance at Belmont.

“He was a very talented horse,” Masiello said. “Every race he ran in was a special experience for me. Even the one race he lost was awesome, too, because I took my dad and my uncle out to the Kentucky Derby when he ran in the Turf Sprint on Oaks Day. I’m incredibly grateful for that.”

Masiello said this was the first horse he and Albertrani have had suffer a catastrophic injury together and spoke on the struggles he has worked through since the accident.

“It was very difficult. He was a very special horse for me. There’s no question in my mind that my stable before I owned him and after I owned him are two different stables. Everything started clicking after I bought him. From an ownership side of it, it’s tough losing him, but having to put him down is really what’s been the struggle over the last couple of weeks.” Cont. p5
Rob Masiello and Joe Migliore celebrate a new purchase at the Fasig-Tipton Sale

Masiello is using this tragedy to throw his efforts into his position as a New York Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association board member.

“One of the things I’ve tried to do as a NYTHA board member is look at the bigger picture and how we do as an industry to focus on getting those numbers lower over time,” he noted. “I think it’s important as an industry that we keep going with what are the best practices we can do to make sure these sort of things are really just freak accidents and not something that’s systemic.”

Masiello said he has taken several lessons away from his experiences, both good and bad, with Fiya.

“He changed where I was as an owner,” he explained. “People think that just because you spend ‘x’ amount of dollars, you’re going to get a good horse. That’s not how it works at all; I can verify that quite substantially. I think the one thing I learned from him is that I’m not afraid to fail. When you’re spending a lot of money on a turf sprinter, you’re a little exposed. If that horse doesn’t work out, people are going to mock you a little bit, but that’s part of the game and it’s part of sports. I think as an owner, you have to say, ‘I accept that I’m going to fail sometimes and I’m not afraid to come back and do it again.’”

Masiello is an outspoken advocate for an owner’s responsibility in improving the sport by making the game cleaner.

“I’m not going to sit here and pretend that I know exactly every single medication that every single horse I own gets,” he explained. “It’s not my expertise and it would be taking me away from things I really am productive at for me to have a million questions. But what I can do as an owner is say to my trainers, ‘I’m with you and I’m not going to pull horses if we’re winning at less that 10%; I want to run a clean, honest stable.”’

He continued, “I’m up here to have fun. I want to win and be competitive, but there’s a right way to win and a wrong way to win and I don’t want to be caught up in any of this stuff that unfortunately a lot of people in the industry are in. I think it’s as simple as telling my trainers that I’m there for them through the good times and the bad times and that we’re in this together for the long term. That has always been my perspective as an owner and I think it’s important to get that message out.”

One key relationship that has already fostered many trips to the winner’s circle for Masiello is his friendship with Joe Migliore. The up-and-coming young bloodstock agent had a hand in the purchase of Fiya last year and has since picked out several promising horses for Masiello.

Masiello compared his friendship with Migliore to that of one of his mentors, Terry Finley, with trainers Dale Romans and Dallas Stewart.

“They all came up together and built something together and to this day, Terry sends a lot of horses to both Dale and Dallas. Terry has so many good relationships in the industry, but the relationship he has with those two is special. I feel like Joe and I kind of have the same thing now where we’ve been through it together—the highs and lows, the horse that didn’t work out and the horse that did work out. It’s so much more fun when you’re doing it with people you love and respect and I think that’s what we have together.”

As Masiello continues to up his game in the sport, he already has an image in mind of the owner he hopes to be seen as based on a few industry members he has looked up to over the years.

“I happen to have a box right next to [LRE Racing’s] Lee Einsidler,” he said. “You see him floating around the boxes up here and he’s just so happy and supportive of people. He was the first person to text me last week when I won. I also see that a lot from Tom Bellhouse, who works for West Point. He’s always a guy that comes off to me as someone that is always so happy to see other people do well. We’re all a big family in this industry and I hope people know that I like seeing good people do well. I think that’s something I’ve learned a bit from Lee and Tommy.”

“The biggest thing I think I want to be thought of as an owner is that I’m just happy to be here,” he explained. “I’m competitive. I want to win. But I also know the struggle we’re all going through as owners because it’s a tough game. I just like being up here and I like being happy for people.”
The other 24 demands in the letter include upgrades and repairs to the backstretch, grandstand and clubhouse, along with a different track veterinarian.

The HBPA takes issue with current Turf Paradise veterinarian, Dr. Verlin Jones. “HBPA will pay 50% as long as it is not Dr. Jones,” the letter states.

To help substantiate their requests, the Arizona HBPA have shared at the last monthly commission meeting Aug. 12 and on social media a variety of pictures of Turf Paradise in various states of disrepair.

In a further ratcheting up of tensions, subsequent to that last meeting--during which Turf Paradise owner, Jerry Simms, stated that the facility could operate this fall “without a contract” with the horsemen--Turf Paradise management issued a proposed stall application, parts of which the Arizona HBPA have taken exception to.

The proposed agreement gives Turf Paradise “the right to end the meet at any time.”

This contradicts one of the HBPA’s 25 requests--namely, that the meet be run in its entirety, “unless the commission rules it is not safe to run. We can use the same language as the last agreement.”

Another sticking point for the horsemen concerns new language in the proposed agreement which places the onus of safety and risk squarely onto the trainer’s shoulders.

The agreement states: “Applicant agrees that neither Turf Paradise, nor its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be liable for any loss, damage, death or injury of any kind to Applicant or to Applicant’s employees, agents, invitees, exercise riders, jockeys or any member of their respective families, property or animals, regardless of whether such injury, loss, death or damage is caused by a condition of the facilities at Turf Paradise and/or any negligent act or omission of Turf Paradise, its directors, officers, employees and agents from any other cause.

“Applicant hereto specifically and knowingly assumes all risks of such injury, loss, death or damage, fully and completely.”

Last week, Simms issued a letter responding to the HBPA’s concerns about certain language in the stall application.

The reason Turf Paradise has demanded it retains the right to end the meet at any time is “because of the threat by the AZHBPA to end Turf’s ability to simulcast races from other tracks Sept. 23. The line was added to protect the track from a very real threat that would have brought an end to racing,” Simms writes.

In that same letter, Simms also claims that the language concerning liability is taken verbatim from Canterbury Park’s stall application.

“It’s not a problem for Turf Paradise’s trainers to agree to and sign a stall application with this language in Minnesota but it’s somehow a violation of those same trainers’ rights here in Arizona,” Simms writes.

According to Bob Hutton, AZHBPA president, he has asked to meet with the Arizona Department of Gaming’s director, Ted Vogt, and Racing Division director, Rudy Casillas, prior to any sit-down negotiations with Turf Paradise.

“I want to make sure that if we have something in writing with Turf Paradise that they’re going to regulate them,” Hutton said, of the department of gaming.

TDN reached out to the department for a response but did not hear back before deadline.

Those attempting to bring together both sides are staking out a position from the fence.

“Obviously it is a facility that needs to have some money put into it,” said Goree, of Turf Paradise. “We can’t keep coming back every year making a big to-do--it needs to come up with a long-term plan for our survival.”

At the same time, Goree takes issue with a one-sided levelling of blame, using his experience in greyhound racing as a point of comparison.

“The kennels always blame the track, and the track blame the kennels. There’s blame between both of them,” said Goree. “The kennels sometimes would be running dogs they shouldn’t have been running. They were running dogs that should have been in adoption.”

And using the fate of greyhound industry in places like Florida—the state last year voted to successfully ban the sport—Goree warned that the very public and acrimonious nature of these negotiations weigh heavily on an industry already under intense public scrutiny for its equine safety record.

“People who want to end racing see this and they will use it,” he said. “Public perception is going to kill us.”

KHC AND UK PARTNER FOR STATEWIDE EQUINE SURVEY

The Kentucky Horse Council (KHC) and the University of Kentucky (UK) have joined together to launch a statewide survey in 2022, designed to establish the number of horses in Kentucky and to determine the impact of horses in the Commonwealth. Kentucky has a unique cluster of private and commercial horse farms and operations, with hundreds of horse-related businesses which include everything from transportation to equine health services to tourism. These ancillary businesses create an advantage for Kentucky’s equine industry and are integral to Kentucky’s economy.

The last survey completed in 2012 was the first done since 1977. The 2022 study, which will provide information on a county-by-county basis, will be a collaborative effort between the KHC, UK, and the USDA National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS). The survey aims to provide data for disease surveillance, keep policy makers informed and engaged proactively, inform workforce development, and identify emerging markets on which businesses can capitalize.

“Data obtained from this study are important for the sustained strength and continued growth of Kentucky’s equine industry,” said Dr. Jill Stowe, a UK professor and an equine industry economist. “Decision makers such as entrepreneurs and business owners, equine health providers, and policy makers can utilize this data to make sound, well-informed decisions on important issues facing the industry.”

Click to participate in the 2022 Kentucky Equine Survey. Questions can be directed to equine@uky.edu. Information about the 2012 Kentucky Equine Survey can be found here.

Once complete, results will be available free of charge on the KHC website in county-level fact sheets as well as in a statewide report.

INDIANA GRAND MOVES FIRST POST TO 10 A.M. WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY DUE TO EXTREME HEAT
Due to forecasted extreme heat Wednesday, Aug. 25 and Thursday, Aug. 26, Indiana Grand has changed post times for each of those days. Racing will now begin at 10 a.m. to accommodate the participants scheduled to race.

“The forecasted temperatures are the most extreme we have seen in Shelbyville in decades,” said Eric Halstrom, Vice President and General Manager of Racing. “Keeping in mind that the health of our staff and equine athletes always comes first, we have decided to move our post times so we can avoid the highest temperatures. This decision isn’t made with business interests in mind but for the safety of all participants while giving our loyal horsemens the opportunity to race.”

The program Wednesday, Aug. 25 includes 11 races. The final race will have an estimated post time of approximately 2:50 p.m. The program Thursday, Aug. 26 includes nine races with the final race of the day slated for 1:50 p.m.

Training hours for both days have also been moved to accommodate the early post. Training will now be held from 6-9 a.m.

Don't Call Me Mary had the superior finishing kick and dealt Chub Wagon her first career defeat in Monday’s Dr. Teresa Garofalo S. at rainy Parx.

The odds-on pop was able to make the lead, but had to work to do it through an opening quarter in :21.69 as Don’t Call Me Mary chased at first from between horses and then clearly second on the turn. Hand-ridden into the lane by Jomar Torres after a half in a strong :44.65, Chub Wagon retained the call, but was there for the taking and Don’t Call Me Mary took over a sixteenth from home before inching clear to cause the upset.

A two-time winner while under the care of Phil Aristone last season, Don’t Call Me Mary won allowance races at Gulfstream Mar. 28 and at Belmont June 11 ahead of a well-beaten sixth when last seen in Saratoga’s GII Honorable Miss H. July 28. The bay was stretching back out off a neck success over older PA-bred allowance types over seven furlongs July 27 and entered the conversation for a start in the GI Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 25 with a convincing first stakes tally Monday.

Given a positive ride from gate one, I Am Redeemed hugged the rail into and around the first turn and settled in third spot for the run down the backstretch. Asked for some speed to take advantage of an opening at the fence fully 4 1/2 furlongs from home, I Am Redeemed was hard-ridden into the final quarter of a mile, but nevertheless found more and strode clear late in a tough effort.

I Am Redeemed has a yearling half-sister by Uncle Lino, a foal half-brother by that son of Uncle Mo and his dam made a return visit to him in 2021 as well. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Odds: 3.60, 14.00, 3.20. Also Ran: Someday Jones, Wait for It, Koan, Hockey Puck, Slam Bang. Scratched: Beren.

Redeemed defeated older state-bred maidens by three lengths at first asking May 17 before finishing second to next-out GII Dwyer S. runner-up Ridin With Biden (Constitution) in a one-mile local allowance June 7. The bay was stretching back out off a neck success over older PA-bred allowance types over seven furlongs July 27 and entered the conversation for a start in the GI Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 25 with a convincing first stakes tally Monday.

SEEKING THE PEARL S., $100,000, Colonial Downs, 8-23, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:20.61, ft.

2--Never Enough Time, 124, m, 5, Munnings--What Time It Is, by Partner's Hero. O/B-R Larry Johnson (MD); T-Michael J Trombetta. $20,000.

3--Frank's Rockette, 124, f, 4, Into Mischief--Rocket Twentyone, by Indian Charlie. O-Frank Fletcher Racing Operations Inc; B-Frank Fletcher (KY); T-William I Mott. $11,000.

Margins: NK, HD, 1HF. Odds: 6.40, 6.00, 0.50.

Also Ran: Heiressall, Tipsy Gal, Finding Fame, Milenita. Scratched: Kiss the Girl.

Frank’s Rockette became the second short-odds favorite from the Bill Mott barn to go down to defeat as she could only manage third to the progressive Cheetara in Monday’s Seeking the Pearl S. at Colonial. Earlier on the program, Paris Lights was third in the Love Sign S.

Well-held while part of the early pace, Cheetara took command outright after a quarter in :22.47. Traveling comfortably through a half-mile split that was posted in :44.28, Cheetara came under a ride outside the eighth pole and looked in some trouble down towards the inside, but boxed on tenaciously and held on to score by a narrow margin. Frank’s Rockette was slow out of the machine, lingered towards the tail of the field for a good portion of the race and her mid-track rally fell just short.

A three-time winner in eight Chilean starts, including a Group 2 over 10 furlongs, Cheetara made a strong impression on her U.S. debut in a six-furlong allowance at this track July 26, running on gamely to miss by a neck in second.

Cheetara is the first North American stakes winner for Daddy Long Legs, whose first American-bred 2-year-olds arrive next season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

AZUL COAST (c, 4, Super Saver--Sky Treasure (GSW-Can, SW-US, $492,426), by Sky Mesa), second to stablemate and future Horse of the Year Authentic (Into Mischief) in the GIII Sham S. and winner of the El Camino Real Derby, last term, returned from a 10-month absence to be a sound third in a one-mile allowance here July 23. Favoured at 11-5 to show the needed improvement, the bay colt stalked the pace outside of GSP tag horse Zestful (Ghostzapper) for the opening three-quarters of a mile, poked his head in front a furlong from home was brave in maintaining that margin at the wire. The runner-up was claimed by Peter Miller. Cont. p3

The winner's dam was purchased by SF Bloodstock for $360,000 with Azul Coast in utero at Keeneland November in 2016 and was exported to Australia in 2017. The mare's first Southern Hemisphere-bred produce is the newly turned 3-year-old filly Williams Bay (Aus) (Capitalist (Aus)), an A$130,000 Inglis Classic Yearling purchase by Craig Bernick who has placed twice from five career starts for Richard and Michael Freedman. Nick Turnbull purchased the mare's 2019 foal, a full-sister to Williams Bay named Kiko (Aus), for A$720,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast sale this past January and Sky Treasure dropped an Exceed and Excel (Aus) filly in 2020. FOURTEENIGHTYFOUR (c, 2, Straight Fire--It's High Time {SW, $234,040}, by Gone Astray) returned over $106 to those who believed, romping by nine lengths at first asking in a five-furlong maiden July 5 and was well-backed to make it two on the trot Monday. The 13-10 second favorite won the break and set a good pace just in advance of A Dangerous Guy (Violence). Easily putting pay to that rival in upper stretch, he was comfortably clear into the final furlong and reported home a six-length winner. Fourteeneightyfour is the first foal from his dam, who produced a colt by Copper Bullet this year before being bred to Gift Box. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $46,800. JOYRUNNER (f, 2, Gun Runner--Joy (MSW, $250,544), by Pure Prize) passed five of her eight rivals in the final furlong to annex her July 8 debut going a sloppy 5 1/2 furlongs and was the 11-10 chalk to put them back-to-back. The McIngvale colorbearer hopped a bit at the break, but was patiently handled and raced three wide into the turn. Roused to the front nearing the quarter pole, the Maryland-bred drifted out off the home corner and raced a bit greenly inside the final furlong, but ran out a facile 8 1/4-length winner.

Inbred 4x3 to Storm Cat, Joyrunner is out of a multiple stakes-winning half-sister to MSW O Dionysus (Bodemeister) and hails from the deeper female family of champion Safely Kept. SECOND ROW CENTER (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Just Wicked {GSW, $208,460}, by Tapit) faced tougher in a pair of dirt starts to kick off her career, finishing an even fifth going Churchill's one-turn mile June 12 ahead of a fourth in a rained-off affair going eight panels at Ellis July 1. The 8-5 second-elect with a switch to the grass here, the half-sister to recent GII Adirondack S. winner Wicked Halo (Gun Runner), $144,650, disputed the pace from the inside, shook loose entering the stretch and kept on to score by three lengths from Lemon's Medaglia (Medaglia d'Oro--Lemons Forever). Second Row Center, a $435,000 KEESSEP grad, is the first foal out of her Adirondack-winning dam, who is a half-sister to GSW My Miss Lilly (Tapit). Just Wicked has a yearling colt and filly foal by Gun Runner and unsurprisingly was mated to him again this term. Sales history: $435,000 Vlg '19 KEESSEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $35,550. HUSBAND MATERIAL (c, 2, American Pharoah--Haysee, by Orientate) was a distant third on Pimlico sprint debut July 31, but was the 9-10 chalk facing just two rivals here. Immediately in charge, Husband Material raced on a tight rein while controlling an easy pace for the opening half-mile, was asked to win his race five-sixteens from home and left them in the dust from there. A half-brother to Uncle Lino (Uncle Mo), SW & GISP, $316,160, Husband Material is out of a daughter of the outstanding stakes-placed producer Oatsee (Unbridled), whose notable offspring include GI Preakness S. hero Shackleford (Forestry), GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate), MGSSWs Baghdaria (Royal Academy) and Afleeting Lady (Afleet Alex) and SW & GSP Stephanoatsee (A.P. Indy). Haysee aborted to Arrogate in 2020, but foaled a Candy Ride (Arg) colt this year and was bred back to Street Sense. Sales history: $195,000 RNA 2yo '21 OBSMAR. 4th-Indiana Grand, $34,000, Msw, 8-23, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05.57, ft, 7 lengths.

SEA LEVEL (f, 2, Exaggerator--Miss Kekoa, by Exchange Rate) jumped as the 19-10 second favorite and disputed the early pace outside of 8-5 Optionality (Gun Runner). Getting clearly the better of the duel leaving the quarter pole, the Butzow homebred pulled readily clear as Optionality called it a day and had seven lengths on joint-secon pick Waters of Merom (Connect), who finished willingly, then galloped out past the winner on the turn. Miss Kekoa is the dam of a colt by Yoshida (Jpn) and was covered by Instilled Regard this year. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart. 9th-Indiana Grand, $34,000, Msw, 8-23, 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT, 1:31.57, fm, 1 1/4 lengths.

BRIT’S WIT (g, 2, English Channel--Secret Humor, by Yes It’s True), let go at 14-1 for a barn with good first-out stats, was void of any serious speed and raced third-last into the backstretch, spotting the front-running a double-digit head start. The bay made good progress to tack on to the main body of the field at the midpoint of the turn and pinched plenty of ground while full of horse entering stretch. In need only of somewhere to run approaching the final furlong, Brit’s Wit charged through right at the fence and kicked home a good-looking 1 1/4-length winner. Secret Humor, a half-sister to GSW Kazoo (Tabasco Cat) and GSP Lemon Cream Pie (Lemon Drop Kid), visited Smart Strike’s paternal grandson Global Campaign (Curlin) this year. RUN TO DAYLIGHT (g, 2, Runhappy--Daylight’s Coming, by Stormy Atlantic), a West Virginia-bred in name only, was made the 7-10 favorite at first asking, jumped straight into the lead and never looked back, scoring by an easy 3 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half-brother to Twirling Owen (Twirling Candy), SW, $128,665, and has a yearling half-sister by Always Dreaming and a colt foal by Liam’s Map. Daylight’s Coming most recently visited Tom’s d’Etat. Sales history: $115,000 Ylg ’20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $17,586. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. READY TO MARCH (c, 2, Tom’s Ready--March On, by War Front) became the first winner for his first-crop sire (by More Than Ready) with a handy debut success. Engaged in a pace battle with favored Disengage (Courageous Cat) more or less from the opening bell, the 23-10 second pick matched motors with that rival from the fence, began to get the better of it nearing the midstretch marker and went on to score by 1 3/4 lengths. One of a reported 12 foals from the first crop of GII Woody Stephens S. winner Tom’s Ready, Ready To March has a yearling half-sister by Mor Spirit, a foal half-brother by that stallion and his dam was most recently covered by Believe In Royalty. AIR SAGE (c, 3, Point of Entry--Nokaze, by Empire Maker) contributed to yet another excellent weekend for his sire with a second consecutive allowance success. The 7-2 second favorite exiting a victory over 2000 meters at Hakodate 13 days prior, Air Sage tugged jockey Kenichi Ikezoe to the front at the entrance to the first turn and switched off nicely on the lead. Allowed to lob them along through an opening six furlongs in 1:14.9, Air Sage was asked to extend a bit rounding the final turn, was put to an all-out drive in upper stretch and dropped his nose down on the wire narrowly first. “Taking the lead from the start was not my initial plan, but he relaxed nicely,” said Ikezoe. “He has a big stride and plenty of room for improvement.” A half-brother to Air Almas (Majestic Warrior), GSW-Jpn, $1,644,458, Air Sage is under consideration for the G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger) going a mile and seven furlongs at Hanshin Oct. 24 according to a social media post from Winchester Farm’s Dr. Naoya Yoshida. Point of Entry was also represented over the weekend by GIII Singspiel S. hero Corelli and Queen’s Plate runner-up Riptide Rock. Nokaze has a yearling colt by Goldencents, missed to Blame for 2021 and was most recently covered by Gun Runner. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $271,909. VIDEO

JASPER KRONE (c, 2, Frosted--Fancy Kitten {SP}, by Kitten’s Joy) became his sire's first Japanese starter and winner with a front-running debut display. Despite tossing his head at the break, the 7-5 favorite made a fairly comfortable lead for Mirco Demuro with some pressure to his outside. Shaken up at the 400-meter pole, Jasper Krone kicked on gamely to open a clear lead and reported home a 1 3/4-length winner despite switching his leads back and forth in the final furlong. A $25,000 Keeneland September yearling, Jasper Krone fetched $90,000 from this trainer after breezing an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5 at OBS March. Hailing from the extended female family of Jump Start and Mastery, Jasper Krone is kin to a yearling filly by the latter stallion that is cataloged as hip 2707 at next month's Keeneland September sale.
