KEENELAND SEPTEMBER SALE KICKS OFF MONDAY

By Christie DeBernardis

LEXINGTON, KY—The Keeneland September Yearling Sale starts its 11-day run Monday with the first of two Book 1 sessions, beginning at 1 p.m. The five-book catalogue offers a total of 4,032 yearlings by a variety of stallions, such as Triple Crown heroes American Pharoah and Justify; the red-hot Into Mischief; perennial leading sire Tapit; stalwarts like Medaglia d'Oro, War Front and Candy Ride (Arg); and top freshman sire Gun Runner.

“I think when you get this volume of horses and there are a lot of really nice horses, there is opportunity for the buyers,” said Taylor Made’s Mark Taylor. “I think buyers need to realize there are opportunities to find really good horses at good prices from Book 1 all the way to the end of the sale. There is quality from start to finish, maybe even more now than in recent memory.”

The barns were buzzing with activity over the weekend as buyers made their way through Book 1 and 2 offerings. Todd Pletcher, Steve Asmussen, Bob Baffert and Jonathan Thomas were among the trainers seen inspecting yearlings. Of course, bloodstock agents could be seen left and right, such as Steve Young, Jacob West, Donato Lanni, Kerri Radcliffe, Justin Casse, China Horse Club’s Michael Wallace and Mike Ryan. The teams from Coolmore, WinStar, Spendthrift and Summer Wind Farm were spotted on the grounds checking on their offerings as well as shopping for new stock. Pinhookers were also out in full force, such as Niall Brennan, Steve Venosa, Ciaran Dunne, Lynne Boutte, Randy Hartley and Brandon and Ali Rice. Cont. p3

PIN OAK STUD DISPERSAL DRAWS A CROWD

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - A large group of interested parties turned out at Fasig-Tipton as an offering of 23 mares and foals from the dispersal of Josephine Abercrombie’s historic Pin Oak Stud went through the sales ring Sunday evening at Newtown Paddocks. Bloodstock agent Lincoln Collins, bidding on behalf of John and Susan Sykes's Woodford Thoroughbreds, made the evening’s highest bid when going to $650,000 to acquire multiple graded stakes winner Don’t Leave Me (Lemon Drop Kid) (hip 18). The 9-year-old mare sold in foal to 2020 Horse of the Year Authentic.

The 23 head, which were offered without reserve, sold for a gross of $3,999,000. The average was $173,870 and the median was $130,000.

BARBER, BLUM, DRUMETTE AMONG TOBA AWARD WINNERS

Gary Barber was named 2020 National Owner of the Year, Peter Blum National Trainer of the Year and Drumette Broodmare of the Year at the 36th annual National Awards Dinner at Hill ‘n’ Dale at Xalapa Saturday evening.
“We are very optimistic. The traffic is very good,” said Tony Lacy, Keeneland’s Vice President of Sales. “The reception of the quality of horses has been excellent. There is a good, diverse group of horses for a varied marketplace, whether it is domestic or international. It is great to see so many international participants here, even in a challenging travel year. Credit applications are coming in at a higher rate than in recent years. I think the outlook is quite promising. We always have to be cautious about what the market will be at the end of the day, but, quite honestly, at this point the indicators are very good.”

The yearling market was strong all the way through at the three previous major yearling sales this year—Fasig Tipton’s July, Saratoga Select and New York-Bred sales—and sellers are confident that trend will continue at Keeneland.

“The first three sales of the year are really three domestic sales,” said Denali Stud’s Conrad Bandoroff. “The domestic market has been very strong with a lot of diverse competition across the board. There has been a strong level of interest and activity in the middle market as well as the top. That will carry over. I know Keeneland has been working very hard to ensure that all of the international buyers and agents will be able to come in and be here for the sale. You have to expect we will have a strong market in September and see more of what we have seen in the first three yearling sales.”

The Keeneland team worked diligently with local and national government agencies last year to bring international buyers in for the sale despite travel restrictions and bans across the globe. The sales company brought in as many foreign buyers as possible and others relied on their U.S.-based teams or took advantage of the phone or online bidding.

Lacy said this year it was even more difficult to acquire travel waivers for European buyers. However, Japanese agents had no issue entering the U.S. as their country only requires a negative COVID-19 test for travel back and forth to America, according to Lacy.

“We’ve got a number of buyers here from England and Ireland and some from France,” Lacy said. “We’ve had to go through different procedures this year. Last year, we worked with the Department of Homeland Security and this year we had to go through the State Department. Waivers had to be processed. Unfortunately, with Afghanistan, the State Department has been overloaded and it has pushed some of our applicants further down the line. But, we have been persistent and had a lot of help from our local representatives in [Washington] D.C. We have been able to get a number of people in [to the U.S.] and some of the waivers from last year were still current, so buyers were able to travel on those as well. We would love to have gotten more people in, but under present circumstances, it has been very restrictive. It was a lot more difficult this year than last year. But, we’ve got a good number of people here, which is very positive.”

In 2020, Keeneland put a number of protocols in place to protect against the spread of COVID-19. Only buyers and sellers were allowed to attend and had to submit a recent negative COVID-19 test to be approved for a pass. Capacity inside the pavilion was limited to 40% and all attendees were required to wear face masks on the grounds. The auction house also added online and phone bidding and an additional bidding spot in the back show ring. With the rise of vaccinations, the protocols will not be quite as strict this year, but Keeneland is still doing its best to provide a safe environment for all those in attendance.

“The bidding in the back show ring was last year and we don’t have it this year,” Lacy said. “We are encouraging people to go into the pavilion more. There have been less people in the pavilion over the past few years and there is plenty of room for spacing in there. It is a more comfortable environment with less chance of congregating. I think out in the back ring can certainly be a congested area at times. We also have internet and phone bidding, so there are a lot of different ways people can partake in the sale.”

The 2020 September Sale went on as scheduled despite many of the year’s previous auctions being canceled or postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It ran back-to-back with the Fasig-Tipton Select Yearling Showcase, which was a combination of that auction house’s July, Saratoga and New York-Bred Sales held across town.

After a record-setting 2019 renewal of KEESEP, the economic and travel impacts of the virus were seen at the 2020 auction, but it still held its own. A total of 2,481 yearlings grossed $248,978,700 with 15 of them bringing seven figures. The average was $100,354 and the median was $37,000. The sale was topped by a $2-million Tapit colt out of GISW Tara’s Tango (Unbridled's Song).

“I would certainly expect it to be more of a normal year,” said Lacy. “Again, 2019 was a very strong year, so I think it would be unfair to compare 2020 completely with 2019. But, in comparison to last year, I think it will be a more stable year in 2021, especially in Books 1 and 2. I feel there is more activity. People are learning to live with COVID in certain ways. We have tried to create a lot of spaces around the grounds where people can social distance. We have created an environment that allows people to be as safe as possible and remain as close to normal as possible.”

Keeneland has continued to adjust the sale format over the years. In 2019, Book 1 was three days and it was cut down to two for 2020. It will be two days once again for 2021, but with a new feature. Any horse that RNAs during the first session can be sent back through the ring again at the conclusion of day two’s 200-horse session. A total of 399 horses are catalogued in Book 1, which will be followed by a two-day Book 2 comprised of 698 yearlings. The lone dark day of the auction follows Book 2 on Friday, Sept. 17. Book 3 picks up Sept. 18 and the sale runs straight through Sept. 24.

A We wanted a consistent format,” Lacy said. “That is one thing that everybody wants. We originally wanted a three-day Book 1 this year, but as the entries came in it became more apparent that we were better suited to having a two-day Book 1 and a two-day Book 2. So, we had to pivot. With the cooperation of the CBA and a lot of our breeders and clients, we were able to make a two-day Book 1 very viable. You want it to be representative of Book 1 horses and have good, solid quality with plenty of diversity.”

He continued, “Having been able to have almost 1,100 horses on the grounds at one time, it gives buyers the opportunity to inspect a large number of horses over four days. With the new format, they are able to get two days of showing for Book 3. You have a lot of good Book 3 horses as well, and this way they are not getting overlooked or rushed. It worked out logistically quite well and was well received by both buyers and sellers. Being able to showcase each individual in the proper manner is very important. If this format works well, it may be something we consider in the future.”

“We were very pleased by the reception,” said Craig Bandoroff, whose Denali Stud handled the consignment. “We started showing Saturday morning and they were here at 7:45. We had 23 horses show 1,056 times. Broodmares don't do that. Foals do that. We were hoping that the community would appreciate the quality of the offerings and the quality of Mrs. Abercrombie and Clifford [Barry]’s lifetime work. And they did.”

Barry, who has served as Abercrombie's farm manager for over 30 years, agreed the evening was bittersweet. “This has been Mrs. Abercrombie’s baby for 60-plus years,” Barry said at the close of the auction Sunday. “It's kind of nice to come in here tonight and showcase the last part of it and make something happen and make a legacy. There are some mares in here that she’s had for three and four generations. I'm very, very proud for her and a I have a debt of gratitude myself. I've been on pretty much a magic carpet ride for 35 years. I'm very proud of my staff. It came together very quickly. It was a pretty tough day when we told them what we were going to do. Friday was a tougher day putting those mares on the trailer. I won’t deny it.”
Among the crowd at Newtown Paddocks Sunday were two of Abercrombie's longtime trainers, Graham Motion and Mike Stidham, as well as industry participants like Gabriel Duignan, Adrian Regan, Doug Arnold, Peter O'Callaghan, Chris Baccari, Terry Gabriel, John Greathouse, John Dowd, Mike Akers, Tami Bobo, Archie St. George, and Marette Farrell, many of whom had spent the day shopping and selling across town ahead of Monday's first session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Both Barry and Bandoroff gave credit to Fasig-Tipton for putting together an unorthodox bloodstock sale.
"I want to take my hat off to Fasig-Tipton," Bandoroff said. "It was their idea to do this. I was somewhat skeptical—it was out of the box, but Boyd [Browning] and Bayne [Welker] and Clifford said we could do it. And this sales company is unbelievable. They try hard and the answer is never no. The answer might be let me think about it, but it's always yes."

Welker added, "We thought all along that we could do a stand-up sale to shine the light on the achievements of Mrs. Abercrombie and Pin Oak and what it’s done over the years. We thought the consignment and the horses would take care of themselves. And they certainly did."

Collins Takes Her Home
Don't Leave Me, winner of the GIII Ontario Colleen S. and GIII Bourbonette Oaks, proved the most popular of Sunday's 23 offerings. She is out of GI Selene S. winner See How She Runs (Maria's Mon). Her first foal I'm So Sorry (Uncle Mo), a $42,000 Keeneland September yearling last year, was second on debut at Saratoga Aug. 5 for trainer Brian Lynch.

“She’s a lovely mare, it’s the right pedigree, we like the [covering] sire,” Collins said of the 9-year-old’s appeal. “As a commercial operation you have to consider that a lot of times these first-season stallions will be very popular. We have had a general upgrading program. She fit into it and Mr. Sykes was prepared to give it a go.”

Of the mare’s final price tag, Collins added, “Mrs. Abercrombie is a great breeder and she’s bred all kinds of good horses. You don’t argue with people like her and Clifford Barry. When they’ve got a good one, you’ve got to pay up for it. It was richly deserved.”

Don’t Leave Me had originally been scheduled to go through the ring before her weanling filly by Medaglia d’Oro, but after a last-minute change she followed after that dark bay youngster. Collins was underbidder on the weanling after Denali’s Conrad Bandoroff signed for the filly at $370,000 on behalf of Rigney Racing.

“I was underbidder on the weanling,” Collins confirmed. “She was full of class, a beautiful mover. I hope it will end up as a beautiful yearling. If we had bought her for the client we were bidding for, that would have been to race. Inevitably if you love a foal that much, you've got to like the mare as well. In some respects, I wish that the Bandoroffs hadn't switched the order.”

Conrad Bandoroff said options for the session's top-priced weanling were up in the air.

“She is a lovely filly,” Bandoroff said. “We loved her when we saw her at the farm. She's a beautiful filly who presents you with a lot of options. There is a good chance she could end up at [Denali's] Barn 7a at Saratoga, but we will take it day by day. For now she will go back to Denali. We are thrilled to have her at the farm.”

As Bandoroff described plans for the weanling, Barry, standing nearby, jumped in to add, “I'll raise her if you want.” Bandoroff smiled and said, “I might have to take him up on that.”

Bloodstock agent Clark Shepherd, bidding on behalf of Larry Hirsch, topped early returns at the Pin Oak dispersal when purchasing the 7-year-old mare Point System (Broken Vow) (hip 5) for $420,000. The stakes winner, in foal to champion Improbable, is a daughter of graded stakes winner Brownie Points (Forest Wildcat) and a half-sister to multiple graded winner Synchrony (Tapit) and graded stakes winner Chocolate Kisses (Candy Ride {Arg}), as well as to the dam of multiple graded-placed 'TDN Rising Star' Dream Shake (Twirling Candy).

“We will foal her out and we will see,” Shepherd said of plans for the mare. “Obviously we will have different plans if it's a colt or a filly. If it's a filly, you'd want to keep that family around. And if it's a colt, we will see how he develops and it could be 100% a commercial play. That's the plan as of right now.”

Hirsch, of Highlander Training Center, has a small broodmare band primarily focused on racing, according to Shepherd.

“He keeps some fillies that he races, but there is no scheme of building a big commercial broodmare band," Shepherd said. “Our focus is on racing and if we can breed great racehorses, and in particular hopefully fillies, that would be the big picture.”

Of the dispersal dynamic, Shepherd said, “You come across good horses from great families all the time, but these were all centrally located in one spot. Dispersals tend to take on a certain mystery within themselves. And sometimes you overpay, but I think she was well worth that kind of money.”

Graded stakes winner Gold Medal Dancer (Medaglia d’Oro) (hip 23), in foal to Munnings, was the night's third-priciest offering when selling for $400,000 to Eaton Sales.
DEBATE OVER TERM 'PED' DEVOLVES INTO THEATER OF ABSURD

Coady Photo

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

When former pharmacist Scott Mangini was sentenced to 18 months in prison last Friday for his admitted role in the federal doping case, it provided another piece to the puzzle in terms of how other offenders might later get sentenced for their roles in the same alleged conspiracy.

Specifically, almost everyone in the Thoroughbred industry wants to know what will happen to the highest-profile defendants at the very end of the supply chain: The barred trainer Jorge Navarro, who has already pled guilty to one felony count in the conspiracy and faces a maximum prison term of five years; plus the similarly ruled-off trainer Jason Servis, who is still fighting his charges even though the feds allegedly have him recorded on wiretapped phone conversations repeatedly discussing his administration of performance-enhancing drugs (PEDs) to horses.

Theoretically, the end-user defendants who put needles into horseflesh should be the ones who get penalized the harshest.

Here’s the sentencing hierarchy so far: Mangini’s 1 1/2 years behind bars matched the sentence handed down in March by the same judge to Scott Robinson, who pled guilty to charges related to marketing and selling the illicit pharmaceuticals that Mangini (and others) created.

Sarah Izhaki, considered a bit player for selling misbranded versions of Epogen on a much smaller scale, has already been sentenced to the time she had served plus three years of supervised release. But Izhaki had extenuating health circumstances that affected her relatively lenient penalty, which was described by the judge as a “one-off” sentence that other defendants should not expect to receive.

The sentencing stakes could be raised a little bit higher for the next two defendants on the court calendar. One is Michael Kegley Jr., an independent contractor for the Kentucky-based company MediVet Equine, who pled guilty to one count of drug adulteration and misbranding. Kristian Rhein, a suspended veterinarian formerly based at Belmont Park, pled guilty to a similar felony charge “for use in the covert doping of Thoroughbreds.”

But beyond the issue of jail time, the back-and-forth sparring between federal prosecutors and the defense at Mangini’s Sept. 10 sentencing hearing revealed another bizarre aspect of the alleged conspiracy: Even after pleading guilty back in April, Mangini still claimed—right up until the moments before his sentencing—that he had neither created nor sold PEDs.

United States District Judge J. Paul Oetken at one point termed those contentions "semantic issues" that were not really material to Mangini’s sentencing. But as federal prosecutors put it when filing pre-sentencing documents that addressed this issue, Mangini’s "continued refusal to contend with the basic facts of his offense speaks poorly of this defendant’s character and to the continued danger posed by a man who refuses to acknowledge the core of his wrongdoing."

Mangini’s reasoning went something like this: Yes, he committed a felony by conspiring to distribute adulterated and misbranded drugs. But allegedly, the overwhelming portion of the online businesses that he was involved in simply sold knock-off versions of therapeutic products that were not approved by the Food and Drug Administration.

Mangini had argued that many of the buyers of the drugs he created were pet owners and veterinary clinics that just wanted cheaper versions of regulated pharmaceuticals, like omeprazole paste to reduce gastric acid, which he claimed was the primary focus of his e-commerce websites.

Mangini’s attorney, Bill Harrington, argued on Friday that out of the 27,600+ product sales that the prosecution had presented as evidence, only a "tiny sliver" under 1% could possibly be considered PEDs, and even then only under very narrow circumstances.

Harrington said it was important for the court documentation in his client’s case to reflect that Mangini did not “flood the supply side of the market” with PEDs as prosecutors have written in some press releases, because such allegedly false assertions will harm Mangini’s reputation forever and "make the case sound more grave than it is."

Harrington told the judge that "the U.S. Attorney's office is trying to say this is a crime where Mr. Mangini was corrupting the horse racing industry. And they don't have the evidence of that. The drugs don't support that."

United States Attorney Andrew Adams begged to differ, and he confidently swatted aside any attempts to characterize Mangini’s conduct as not involving the doping of racehorses.

"Mr. Mangini's position that none of these drugs were designed, marketed, intended to be PEDs is just ludicrous," Adams said in court. "It's belied by the marketing materials. It's belied by the materials that were components of the drugs themselves. And it's belied by the methods by which these drugs were being sold, and the people to whom they were being marketed."

The feds came armed with plenty of evidence. First, consider the names of the two chief websites Mangini was involved with: One was called racehorsemeds.com. The other was named horseprerace.com.

One product called White Lightning was described as something that would "increase stamina and performance in racehorses, greyhounds, and camels."

Another named Ice Explosion--described on the website as "one of our top selling products"--was advertised as a substance that "works to improve both sprint and endurance performance and reduce the perception of pain."

Many of these products were stamped "WILL NOT TEST." And some were instructed to be administered "4-6 hours prior to event," according to the inventory list provided by the feds.

"The point of this operation was to assist people in getting an illegal edge in horse racing," Adams said. "To find otherwise would ask the court to ignore essentially everything that was ever written, both in the [product] formulas and in the marketing materials for both websites that Mr. Mangini was a part of."

The prosecutor continued: "The recommended dosages on [the websites], they're all aimed at horses. If you were to take what is on the website as the recommended dosage and applied it to a dog, you'd be seriously endangering the dog. The idea that this is therapeutic, [that] it could be for your house pet, is again, completely absurd. These were aimed at horses, aimed at racing horses, and aimed to do exactly what the marketing materials said they were aimed to do: To make your racehorse run faster."

Mangini's contention, according to one pre-sentencing court filing, was that such products were allegedly "dietary supplements that contain different combinations of vitamins, amino acids, electrolytes, and minerals. Some dietary supplements say they 'will not test' because their ingredients are not prohibited by varied racing rules."

With specific reference to the blood builders, Harrington held his ground in Mangini’s defense.

"We dispute that any of those are PEDs," Harrington said. "The only basis for saying that they’re PEDs is the way they were advertised."

So essentially, Mangini’s attorney was saying that the websites were only engaging in hyperbole that is reflective of a society in which consumers aren’t supposed to take claims of alleged performance enhancement at face value. Harrington made the analogy that human athletes who go to the mall to purchase gaudily advertised dietary supplements at a store like GNC know there's really nothing illicit in them.

"My argument is that even those non-injectable dietary supplements sold to people by GNC are advertised the same way," Harrington said. "We all agree those are not PEDs. Yet they use the same language--‘explode,’ ‘enhancement.’"

Adams didn’t buy that line of reasoning.

"There’s no dietary supplement that comes with a syringe," Adams said, noting that many of Mangini’s products did.

"The court should not accept the facile argument that dietary supplements sold to people by GNC are advertised the same way," Harrington said. "We all agree those are not PEDs. Yet they use the same language--‘explode,’ ‘enhancement.’"

Adams didn’t buy that line of reasoning.

Yet in the end, Oetken did end up making a concession to Mangini’s semantics argument.

The judge ordered that Mangini’s sentencing documentation be amended to strike references to PEDs, instead replacing that descriptor with the phrase, "animal drugs, including drugs that may enhance animals’ performance or horses’ performance."

KENTUCKY DOWNS CLOSES WITH RECORD HANDLE; ROSARIO DOMINATES RIDER STANDINGS

The FanDuel Meet at Kentucky Downs wrapped up Sunday with a nearly 24% rise in handle from the same period last year. A total of $74,088,532 was wagered via all-sources handle, up $14,260,088 (or 23.8%) from last year’s total of $59,828,444, which was also a record at the time. Sunday’s card of 10 races saw a handle of $13,899,277, third-highest at the all-turf track. Saturday's wagering of $20,849,967 on 11 races set a new mark for one day of racing at Kentucky Downs.

The big story of the six-day meet was jockey Joel Rosario’s dominance over his fellow riders. He ran away with the leading jockey title, winning five races on the first day’s 11-race card (Sept. 5). He won another five on Sept. 6, added just one on Sept. 8, two on Sept. 9, and none on Sept. 11, but finished strong with four on closing day. That gave him 17 wins, good for an astounding 26.5% of all the races at the meet.

Steve Asmussen, Brendan Walsh, and Michael Maker finished in a three-way tie for leading trainer, while Godolphin Stables captured the leading owner title.

Uncharacteristic continued his steep upward trajectory Sunday night from C$8,000 claimer to graded winner. Claimed from Glen Todd and his North American Thoroughbred Horse Company when breaking his maiden at second asking last September going 3 1/2 furlongs at Hastings, the grey was waived when running out of condition against N3L types back at the same venue this May. He stretched out to be second in an allowance there July 12, and bested former Bob Baffert trainee Myopic to take the Manitoba Derby at Assiniboia Aug. 2.

Away well as the more fancied Myopic stumbled at the start, Uncharacteristic settled into a pocket spot as his familiar foe prompted the pace. He came off the inside to tackle Myopic and pacesetter Smart Play at the top of the lane, and wore them down despite swapping leads and with jockey Alexander Marti standing straight up to celebrate in the final jump or two.

Pedigree Notes:
Uncharacteristic is one of three black-type winners and the first to make the grade for British Columbia-based Texas Wildcatter (Monarchos), who missed by a nose in the 2008 GIII Gotham S. for Todd Pletcher before later finishing second in that year’s running of the Canadian Derby.
Frosted: five Graded Stakes horses in 2021 – more than any other second-crop sire. In fact, no stallion standing for less than $85k can top five two- or three-year-old Graded Stakes horses this year.

Distance-loving Family Way got the first stakes win of her career in the Kentucky Downs Ladies Marathon S. Sunday. She broke smoothly and was immediately up in the early fray before stepping back to settle along the inside just behind two dueling frontrunners. Fractions were slow--:25.48 and :50.36--as Family Way held stubbornly to her position. Eager to go, the dark gray subtlety shifted out a few paths, then engaged for the lead. It was a three-way battle to the wire with Family Way holding a neck in front of English G3 winner La Lune, who was a nose in front of Go Big Blue Nation.

“She has been a little bit temperamental, but not too bad,” said trainer Brendan Walsh. “It’s a tribute to my team that they have done a great job on her because she was a little bit of a project from the get-go.” Cont. p2
“But we’ve got her turned around and I think she showed that today,” Walsh continued. “It’s great to win this with her because she belongs to a bunch of friends of mine, who bought her last year in France.”

Family Way began her career last year in France while trained by Henri-Alex Pantall and secured two wins from six starts from August to November. Shipped stateside, she reappeared for Walsh at Keeneland in April, finishing second in an allowance before an optional allowance win at Churchill in May. She faltered in the GII Modesty S. at Arlington, but was a decent third at Ellis against males last out in the KY Downs TVG Preview Turf Cup S.

The winner’s dam is a half-sister to Irish champion, MG1SW, and hot young sire Caravaggio (Scat Daddy), as well as to GSW My Jen (Fusaichi Pegasus). Family Way is Susie’s Baby’s first foal. The mare also has 2-year-old filly Segabo Lake (Tapit), who finished off the board in her first start, a Saratoga maiden special weight Sept. 3, for Diamond Creek Racing and Philip Antonacci. She has a yearling filly by Justify, a 2021 filly by Uncle Mo, and was bred back to Constitution. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Last seen finishing third in the GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 23, Tobys Heart notched a third black-type win of her own in the Music City S. She had previously won the TVG Limestone Turf Sprint S. at Keeneland in April and the Bolton Landing S. at Saratoga last summer, as well as finished runner-up in Churchill’s Tepin S. in June.

Third from last through a :21.99 first quarter in the Music City, Tobys Heart inch ed up stealthily and had secured the seventh spot on the rail by the :44.93 half. She found a huge hole on the inside coming into the stretch and rider Joel Rosario exploited it, with Tobys Heart taking off once clear. In little more than a hand ride, the dark bay won well in hand while 2 3/4 lengths the best. It was Rosario’s fourth win of the day.

“It was perfect,” said Rosario. “The horse ran really well there; I was just waiting to see if something would open up for her. They just decided to stay off the rail, and she just outran them when she was clear. I listened to what [trainer] Brian [Lynch] had to say. It looked like we were in a real good spot, with a little speed in front of us. She was handling the grass nicely and came home with a strong run.”

Pick of the Pack is out of GSW Cat Attack and is a half to GSW Great Attack (Greatness). Her most recent foals include 2-year-old colt Principality (Commissioner), who sold for $26,000 to Kara Toye at the WTBOA sale. The mare also has a yearling filly by Commissioner, a 2021 filly by Astern (Aus), and was bred back to Tobys Heart’s sire for 2022. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Koala Princess backed up a dominant first-out win with a convincing score in Sunday's Ainsworth S. for juvenile fillies at Kentucky Downs.

Showing good speed going 5 1/2 furlongs on the Monmouth turf Aug. 21, the homebred crushed her competition with a facile 8 1/4-length romp, and was made the distant third choice stretching out here as the money poured in on even-money Lady Danae (Klimt). Running in eighth behind a :21.87 quarter, the dark bay moved up along the rail midway around the turn before getting shuffled back a bit off heels. Sticking to the inside in the lane, she drew alongside the leaders a furlong from home, took over passing the sixteenth pole and kicked clear to a sharp success. Mystic Eyes was second.

"I was very happy with Koala Princess," said winning trainer Arnaud Delacour. "We were a little worried about the timing. She ran three weeks ago. We had to ship, but obviously she handled everything fine. We had a great ride by Joel [Rosario]; he didn't panic. He just sat there and she came with her run, so it was exciting."

"She broke fine. There were a couple there that looked like they were in a hurry a little bit," said Rosario. "We got to the turn and found myself in a good spot with the speed they were going. I just tried to stay there for a little while. She was handling everything inside there nice, and so I tried to stay there and look for the clear path."

Now the 209th stakes winner for More Than Ready, Koala Princess is out of a three-time winner who was bred to McKinzie this spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

GRADED STAKES WINNER #48

IN GOOD SPIRITS wins the Grade 3 $600,000 Mint Ladies Sprint Stakes at Kentucky Downs.

Four days earlier, Kentucky Ghost ran second in the $400,000 TVG Stakes also at Kentucky Downs, while Our Flash Drive landed her second consecutive Graded Stakes win in the Ontario Colleen S. (G3), less than two and a half weeks earlier.

Congratulations to Owner Bal Mar Equine, LLC, Breeder Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC, and Trainer Albert Stall, Jr.

SOCIAL CHATTER (f, 3, Twirling Candy--Rock Wall {Ire}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}) just missed when closing to be second by a neck at just under 16-1 debuting in a Churchill turf sprint June 19 and, after running third in an Ellis off-the-turfer July 18, graduated when returning to the lawn Aug. 21 at the Pea Patch. Sent off at 22-5 here, the $130,000 Keeneland September pickup broke a bit awkwardly and traveled in sixth behind fractions of :22.82 and :47.21, was stuck in traffic until mid-stretch, then found room in the three path and surged late to get up by three-quarters of a length. Miner's Queen (Bernardini) won a photo for the place. Sales History: $70,000 RNA Ylg '19 KEEJAN; $130,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $143,180. DRESSED (f, 2, More Than Ready--Almada, by Lonhro {Aus}) debuted with a second going five panels on the Arlington lawn Aug 1, then won by more than five lengths when switched to 1 1/16 miles and Arlington's all-weather track Aug. 19. She made it two in a row Sunday while co-favored at 4-1. Slow into stride and last out of the gate, Dressed had moved up to settle midpack on the inside through a first quarter in :22.18. She inched up on the rail, solidly in sixth at the :46.78 half. The dark bay tipped out about three wide and suddenly stormed to the front, pulling away with authority and with her ears pricked in nothing more than a hand ride. My Dawn (Goldencents) was 3 1/4 lengths back in second. Dressed is the first foal out of Almada, who has a 2021 colt by Hard Spun and was bred back to Improbable. Almada is a granddaughter of French champion and MG1SW Aquarelliste (Fr) (Danehill). Sales History: $130,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $111,480. Cont. p6

DECIDING VOTE (f, 4, Mr Speaker--Sheppard's Pie, by Include) was making just her third start of 2021 after last seen finishing a nose behind eventual Virginia Oaks placer Gold for Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in a Colonial Downs allowance at this distance July 19. The even-money choice to get her picture taken here, Deciding Vote was parked well behind the first flight through fractions of :23.04 and :47.08. Tipped out on the turn, the dark bay burst into contention, stuck stubbornly to her wrong lead until the final furlong, and went by L'Indiscret (War Front) with a flourish to win by 1 3/4 lengths. A half to Inclusive (Sky Mesa), MSP, $142,775; Deciding Vote is a granddaughter of GSW Last Approach (Far Out East). Sheppard's Pie has not produced a foal since 2018 but was bred to Omaha Beach for next term. Lifetime Record: 9-2-2-1, $92,080.

DOWAGIAC CHIEF (c, 2, Cairo Prince--Jahwhol, by Eskendereya) debuted June 26 at Churchill in the same race that eventual GI Hopeful S. winner Gunite (Gun Runner) broke his maiden. Two route tries at Saratoga yielded no results, but the bay was reinvigorated here, dueling for the lead from the inside through fractions of :22.91 and :47.19. The 6-1 shot began edging clear down the long stretch, saving just enough to hold off a gaining Let My People Go (Pioneerof the Nile) by a half-length at the wire. From the extended family of 2011 GI Hopeful S. winner Currency Swap (High Cotton) and GSW Chanteline (Majesticperfection), Dowagiac Chief’s dam delivered a dead foal this year and has been bred back to American Freedom.

5th-Woodbine, C$93,444, Msw, 9-12, 2yo, 5 1/2f (AWT), 1:03.82, ft, neck.

VICTORIOUS WAVE (g, 2, Stormy Atlantic--Victoire, by Congrats) showed a modest worktab for this debut and was dismissed at over 19-1. Taking control early, the homebred showed the way through a :22.56 quarter, shook off Mentoring (Value Plus) into the final eighth and held off a late re-bid from that foe to prevail by a neck. New JOB OPENINGS
A listing of career opportunities in the Thoroughbred industry

The Royal Saint Lucia Turf Club (RSLTC) was formed to create and manage Saint Lucia’s emerging thoroughbred industry. It has a directive to help provide Saint Lucians with opportunities to participate in and work in thoroughbred racing as well as to promote the very best virtues of the sport. It commenced racing in December 2019 and is building an attractive and entertaining racing brand headlined by the feature CECF Saint Lucia which is held annually on National Day (13th December). RSLTC is an equal opportunity employer with a progressive mindset.

TRAINER

Requirements:
- Qualified licenced trainer with minimum 5 years’ experience in thoroughbred horse training;
- Experience in officialising race days;
- Ability to manage people, coordinate and to foster young staff;
- Ability to adapt to new challenges;
- Fluent in English (written and oral);
- Effective professional and interpersonal communication skills;

Job Scope:
- Manage and oversee a team of staff to meet the requirements of a professional racing stable;
- Manage and oversee a team of thoroughbred racehorses for racing competitions;
- Discusses horse progress with Racing Secretary to plan for the racing schedule;
- Prepare regular reports of horses’ progress for the Club and horse owners;
- Ensure the daily operations in the Stables are efficient, effective and safe.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their applications (CV & a letter of intent) not later than Monday, 20th September 2021 to: recruiters@desertstargroup.com

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only short-listed candidates will be considered for an interview.

The successful applicant will be provided with remuneration commensurate with experience.

TEONA USURPS SNOWFALL IN PARIS

One of the also rans when Coolmore’s Snowfall (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) posted her 16-length rout in the G1 Epsom Oaks, Ali Saeed’s 3-year-old filly Teona (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) enjoyed a confidence-boosting score in last month’s Listed August S. at Windsor and the 18-1 chance caused a major upset to down the reopposing 1-5 favourite in Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille at ParisLongchamp.

The 280,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling raced in third for most of this 12-furlong contest as Snowfall’s stablemate La Joconde (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) set the tempo under Hollie Doyle. Coming under pressure soon after turning for home, she was ridden to gain a narrow advantage approaching the final furlong and stayed on strongly as Snowfall failed to deliver with her usual gusto. At the line, the winning margin was 1 1/2 lengths with the rallying pacesetter La Joconde keeping on resolutely to finish a half-length adrift in third.

“It was a very strong race today, but we’ve always believed this filly to be high class and we’re very happy she won,” commented trainer Roger Varian. “The first half of the season didn’t really work out for her, so we gave her a break and she’s done well since. She’s matured, she’s been excellent in training at home and we were confident of a good performance and hopeful of a win. She ran at York in the [G3] Musidora over 10 furlongs, but was very fresh that day. She wasn’t that well behaved, but still ran a good race behind Snowfall.” Cont. p2

KEENELAND COLT A FIRST FOR WOOTTON BASSETT

By Kelsey Riley

Since Wootton Bassett’s sale to Coolmore was announced just over a year ago, the son of Iffraaj has continued to go from strength to strength. This Wednesday will mark another milestone for the former French champion 2-year-old when his first yearling at a North American sale goes through the ring at Keeneland September.

Conceived in France and shipped in utero to Kentucky by breeder Bonne Chance Farm, hip 688 was foaled last February at his owner’s farm in Versailles. He is the third foal out of Eldacar (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}), twice a winner for trainer Mikel Delzangles and a full-sister to the G2 Prix de Pomone and G2 Prix Royallieu runner-up Miss Crissy (Ire) from the family of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud victor Shaka (GB) and G3 Prix de Psyche scorer Serisia (Fr) and her Australian Group 1-winning son Contributer (Ire). He added, “She then went to the [G1 Epsom] Oaks where the ground was heavy and had a hard race, which took a lot out of her. She didn’t enjoy it and is a filly who likes a sound surface. She’s a big-framed filly, we had to give her time and I’d like to thank owner Ali Saeed for being very patient.”

Next month’s Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe looms large on the horizon and Varian will take his time before confirming connections’ plans. “We’ll see how she is in her training at home over the next one or two weeks,” he added. “The Arc is under consideration, of course, and we’d like the sun to keep shining, but it’s very important to see what her condition is beforehand. We’ll speak with the owner and see what he wants to do.”

Bemoaning a perceived lack of urgency on the front end, rider Frankie Dettori sought to explain the first reversal of Snowfall’s sophomore campaign and said, “I found myself too far from the front end and I think the pacemaker [La Joconde] didn’t go fast enough. The race turned into a sprint and the winner kicked on first. The other filly has more speed than Snowfall and that’s what made the difference.”

Pedigree Notes

Teona, who becomes the 16th top-level winner for her sire, is the second runner and second pattern-race winner out of the smart Ambivalent (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}). Ambivalent’s five victories include G1 Pretty Polly S. and G2 Middleton S. wins. She also ran third in the G1 Coronation Cup and G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and her first produce is G2 Prix Hocquart victor Al Hilalee (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Ambivalent is the leading performer out of Listed Aphrodite S. runner-up Darrery (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), herself the second dam of G1 Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp hero Total Gallery (Ire) (Namid {GB}). G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille Cont.
Teona’s third dam Flamenco (Dance Spell) annexed the G3 Waterford Candelabra S. and is kin to Listed White Rose S. victrix and stakes producer Portio (Riva Ridge). The March-foaled bay, who hails from the family of Listed Debonair S. victor and leading sire Claim (Mr. Prospector), is full to a weanling colt and half to a 2-year-old colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire) and a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire).

NO STOPPING NATIVE TRAIL IN THE NATIONAL
Putting the seal on a stellar weekend for Godolphin’s Charlie Appleby stable, Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream [GB]) brushed aside TDN Rising Star Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia [GB]) for an emphatic 3 1/2-length success in Sunday’s G1 Goffs Vincent O’Brien National S. at The Curragh.
Like the operation’s past winners Dubawi (Ire) and his son Quorto (Ire) coming off a win in the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket July 10, the 7-2 second favourite was notably green throughout with William Buick needing to cajole him into action as early as the four-furlong marker. Cont. p4

Picking up the 8-13 favourite instantly once the whip was applied, the imposing bay readily asserted from the furlong pole to race to the top of the juvenile division, with the long-time leader Ebro River (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) losing a private battle with Point Lonsdale by half a length in third.

“This is a hugely exciting race and a very important one that I’ve been fortunate enough to ride some great 2-year-olds in and this fellow is no different,” Buick said. “I was confident—he’s still learning on the job, but he answered every call and I really like what he did in the last 100 yards. He felt like a very good horse—it was a good renewal of the race and the pace was on, so there is every indication that it was a good race. He’s a fine big horse and even physically, there is improvement left in him and there is something to work on. Next year he should get a mile no problem.”

Native Trail was introduced over this trip at Sandown June 11 and proved an instant hit when scoring by four lengths, which put him in the frame for the Superlative that Appleby has come to target with his best. Needing time to organise on that occasion, he finished with a flourish to deny Masekela (Ire) (El Kabeir) and that form had since grown in stature with the runner-up denying Saturday’s G2 Champagne S. winner Bayside Boy (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) at Newbury. Nevertheless, the relentless momentum behind Point Lonsdale was again impossible to ignore and Ballydoyle’s leading juvenile was backed fearlessly once more. Getting a lead this time as the G1 Phoenix S. hero Ebro River took no prisoners, the full-brother to Broome (Ire) had to work hard to subdue the Hugo Palmer representative but just as he managed to do so his real threat was unwinding out wide and was quickly gone. Cont. p5

Appleby had won this with the aforementioned Quorto and Pinatubo (IRE) (Shamardal), while another son of Dubawi in Master of the Seas (IRE) was fourth 12 months ago having looked the winner a furlong from home. Native Trail looks every bit in their league on this evidence.

“We took Native Trail for a racecourse gallop a couple of weeks ago and if you’d asked me then if we would be winning a National S., I might have sat on the fence slightly,” he said. “Full credit to the team at home. We definitely felt the horse had come forward for that gallop and we put a cross noseband on him to help him concentrate. William said Native Trail is still very green and it felt like he was going down to the start on a maiden. He gave the horse a shove early doors to get the revs up, but I knew with two furlongs to go the one thing Native Trail was going to do was gallop out strongly. We will see how he comes out of this and discuss things, but I would say that we might give him one more start this year in the [G1] Dewhurst Stakes [at Newmarket Oct. 9].”

Pedigree Notes

Native Trail, who was a 210,000gns Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up purchase, is the second live foal and first runner out of the unraced Juddmonte cast-off Needleleaf (GB) (Observatory) who was bought by the MAB Agency for a mere 60,000gns at the 2015 Tattersalls December Mares Sale. She is a full-sister to the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup heroine African Rose (GB) and the G3 Prix d’Aumale winner and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac runner-up Helleborine (GB), who proved to be important broodmares for Juddmonte. African Rose was responsible for the G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Fair Eva (GB) (Frankel {GB}), while Helleborine produced the high-class G2 Coventry S. winner and exciting young sire Calyx (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

The second dam New Orchid (Quest For Fame {GB}), who was third in the G3 Lancashire Oaks, is a daughter of Musicanti (Nijinsky II) who also produced the G1 Dewhurst S. hero and sire Distant Music from a mating with Observatory’s sire Distant View. Musicanti is kin to the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, GI Washington D.C. International and GI Suburban H.-winning champion Vanlandingham (Cox’s Ridge) and to the dams of the GII Keeneland Turf Mile and G2 Prix Eugene Adam-winner sire Kirkwall (GB) (Selkirk) and to the GI American Oaks heroine Funny Moon (Malibu Moon). From the family of the GI Belmont S. hero and sire Temperence Hill, Needleleaf’s yearling filly by Kingman (GB) was snapped up by Godolphin for €950,000 at the Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale last month. She also has a filly foal by Siyouni (Fr).

DISCOVERIES HAS THE ANSWER IN THE MOYGLARE

The Curragh’s G2 Debutante S. is always a key pointer to the course-and-distance G1 Moyglare Stud S. and Sunday proved no exception as the one-two-three again filled those places headed by the Niarchos Family’s Discoveries (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}).

Only third to Agartha (Ire) (Caravaggio) in that seven-furlong precedent Aug. 21, the Jessica Harrington trainee has abundant room for improvement within as a full-sister to Alpha Centauri (Ire) and half to Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea the Moon {Ger}) and was able to turn that around on this slicker surface. Sent up to track Agartha closely from the outset, Shane Foley never allowed that leader more than 1 1/2 lengths margin and when the pressure was applied the 17-2 shot overhauled her passing the furlong pole en route to a 3/4-of-a-length success. There was a further two lengths back to the Debutante runner-up Sunset Shiraz (Ire) (Time Test {GB}) in third, with the well-supported 85-40 favourite Cairde Go Deo (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) dropping out to finish sixth. Harrington, whose No Speak Alexander (Ire) (Shalaa {Ire}) kicked off a Saturday Leopardstown treble for the stable in the G1 Matron S., was not surprised by the turnaround. “The ground was soft for the Debutante and we knew that like her sister she will only go on quick,” she explained. “This is lovely fast ground with lots of grass and that made the difference, plus maybe the three weeks in between which allowed her to strengthen up and come forward. We thought she’d improve with better ground and she’d done a good bit of work earlier in the week.”

Discoveries followed a debut fourth in a Leopardstown maiden over this trip June 3 with a short-head defeat of Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Ballydoyle’s full-sister to the Classic heroines Minding (Ire) and Empress Josephine (Ire), at this venue June 25. Showing steady progression with each outing, she was in front of the country’s leading fillies to have raced so far here and for now has the bragging rights having taken this “Win-and-You’re-In” qualifier for the Breeders’ Cup. Her trainer admits she has no firm schedule for the remainder of 2021. “I don’t know where we go, as today was the plan,” she said. “She’s a lovely, lovely filly and is completely different to Alpha Centauri, who was a big grey filly. This filly was not as big, but she has done a lot of growing,” Harrington added. “She has a lovely temperament and is not as feisty as Alpha. Alpine Star looked completely different again. She was long and low, not very big. This is what we work towards and to have two Group 1 winners this weekend is amazing. She will definitely step up to a mile in time. We never got the chance to step Alpha Centauri beyond a mile, but we might have done had she not been injured.” Cont. p8

Discoveries is already ahead of Alpha Centauri at this juncture of their careers, with that G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Coronation S., G1 Falmouth S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois heroine finishing only fifth in this four years ago. While Alpine Star took the Debutante as a 2-year-old, she missed this race with her next race after that being the G1 Coronation S. which she duly won before finishing second in the Jacques le Marois, the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix de l’Opera. The dam Alpha Lupi (Ire) (Rahy), whose son Tenth Star (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) was the Listed Golden Fleece S. scorer who was also placed in the G2 Royal Lodge S. and G3 Tyros S., is a daughter of another Jacques le Marois heroine in East of the Moon (Private Account). She also completed the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches-G1 Prix de Diane double and is a daughter of the Niarchos luminary Miesque (Nureyev). This is the esteemed family of Kingmambo, another Moyglare Stud S. heroine in Rumplestiltskin (Ire) (Danehill), Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Study of Man (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein). Alpha Lupi’s yearling is a full-brother to Discoveries and Alpha Centauri, while she also has a colt foal by Magna Grecia (Ire).

SONNYBOYLISTON ON TOP IN THE IRISH LEGER

Underlining the strength of York’s revamped Ebor H., the Kildare Racing Club’s Sonnyboyliston (Ire) (Power {GB}) bounced out of his success in that prestigious affair to bring up a notable double in Sunday’s G1 Comer Group International Irish St Leger at The Curragh.

With the dual winner Search For a Song (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) unable to make an impact this time, the Johnny Murtagh-trained 4-year-old had the Joseph O’Brien pair Twilight Payment (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Baron Samedi (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) to contend with and proved toughest to carry off the prize. Settled fifth off the gruelling pace which strung the field out, the 4-1 second favourite mastered Twilight Payment approaching the furlong pole and battled to a 3/4-of-a-length verdict over that rival, with Baron Samedi 1 1/2 lengths away in third.

“I couldn’t have asked it to go any better, we jumped and he got a lovely tow into the race,” Coen said. “They turned it into a real staying race and this lad keeps improving and keeps finding a way to win. This is my first proper year as number one jockey to Johnny and we’ve had a few good spins in England, but I really wanted to get this Group 1 winner. For it to be a Classic and for Johnny is unbelievable.”

It was on this card 12 months ago that Sonnyboyliston burst onto the scene with a 4 1/4-length success in the 10-furlong “Northfields” H., where the subsequent G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup hero Helvic Dream (Ire) (Power {GB}) was back in third. That followed a narrow verdict over Thundering Nights (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) over the same course and distance in July and the eventual exploits of that filly now show that performance in a positive light. G1 Comer Group International Irish St Leger Cont.

Starting this term with third placings behind the Ballydoyle duo Broome (Ire) (Australia (GB)) and Japan (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) in the Listed Devoy S. at Naas Mar. 28 and the May 6 G3 Ormonde S. at Chester respectively, the chestnut took Limerick’s Listed Martin Molony S. over 12 1/2 furlongs June 18 before finishing sixth over the Ebor track and trip in the July 10 G3 Silver Cup.

Coming out on top in his battle with the talented Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)), who has also come out to score subsequently in dramatic style in a conditions race at Salisbury, Sonnyboyliston had every bit of resilience tested here with the G2 Curragh Cup winner Amhran Na Bhfiann (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) storming off in front. Twilight Payment attacked first in the straight and at first glance he looked to be travelling sweeter than the Murtagh stalwart in behind, but as soon as it became a true grind the winner came into his own to give the best time performance of the day. Search For a Song, who was sent off the 10-3 favourite, flattered briefly in the straight but was unable to get involved in the fight and ended up sixth.

Murtagh was keen to deflect praise afterwards. “I’m just a front man to a lot of people who do a lot of hard work,” he said.

“I’m so proud of everybody behind the scenes and my family also. It means a lot to win a Classic on your local track. This horse never disappoints and I thought he did very well to win today. It looked like a proper race and he had a good position all the way. He comes off the bridle, but I thought from two furlongs out Ben looked confident on him. He got into a battle, but he never lacks in a battle. I can’t say enough about the horse and enough about Liam Clarke and the Kildare Racing Club. They have been great supporters of mine from the word go. It would take a fair offer to take him away from the owners now, but the Melbourne Cup is worth €2.5million.” Cont. p11

He added, "It mightn't be for him this year, but he's only four and could end up down there for us sometime yet."

   FLYING FIVE GLORY FOR ROMANTIC PROPOSAL

   Eddie Lynam has done more than most to revive the Irish sprinting scene from the doldrums and he was in the limelight again at the end of Sunday’s G1 Derrinstown Stud Flying Five S. at The Curragh with the mare Romantic Proposal (Ire) (Raven's Pass).

   Sent off at 16-1 with just a win in this track’s Listed Dubai Duty Free Dash S. to recommend her in a deep renewal, Clipper Logistics’ 5-year-old was held up early by Chris Hayes towards the stand's rail before being switched to track the accomplished Dragon Symbol (GB) (Cable Bay (Ire)) and Glass Slippers (GB) (Dream Ahead) three lanes wide. Always travelling with menace, she split those English raiders in the last 75 yards and asserted to beat her compatriot A Case of You (Ire) (Hot Streak (Ire)) by half a length, with a neck back to last year’s winner Glass Slippers in third, in this "Win and You’re In" contest for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar in November.

“I thought if the rain got into the ground, she had a chance and I quietly fancied her,” Hayes said. “When you’re riding for Eddie Lynam in a sprint you are always going to have some sort of chance. When I rode earlier, I knew the ground was juicy and I knew they would go hard and that she would stay. I wanted to ride her cool knowing that she’ll come home and I thought she could be in the first three.”

Something of a slow-burner, Romantic Proposal enjoyed her first big day when winning the valuable Scurry H. over an extended six furlongs here last July before finishing fourth in the Listed Curragh Sprint S. and G3 Renaissance S. over six back at this venue. Having started out over a mile as a 3-year-old, she was asked to drop to this trip on her 2021 bow and managed a third in the Listed Sole Power Sprint S. at Naas May 16 before returning here to be runner-up in the June 2 G3 Ballyogan S. reverting to six. Finally making it count in the Dash also over six on the Irish Derby undercard June 26, the bay was adrift of Mooneista (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) and Gustavus Weston (Ire) (Equiano {Fr}) when third in the G2 Sapphire S. over this course and distance last time July 17.

Hayes, who rode the 2015 Flying Five winner Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) for this stable, timed this to perfection but was not inclined to self-praise after the event. “There’s no point in hiding it, I could have been better on her the last day,” he said. “I rode her with too much confidence on ground which was quick the last day and I met a wall of horses and had to switch. Today was different, but Eddie said to leave her go forward and she loved it. I still got there too soon. She had been trained for today–Eddie specifically put her away for it and it felt like slow motion for me. I was always confident I was going to get them and I knew she would quicken through that gap on this ground.”

Lynam began the turnaround for the Irish sprinters with Sole Power following a lengthy period of seeing the category’s major prizes carried off to Britain. Cont. p13
He commented, “Steve Parkin and Joe Foley let me do what I want and are very easy to train for. My daughter Amy bought her as a foal and bought Soffia as a foal, so you won’t see me down to buy many at the sales in future! I always believe an improving filly like her was capable of running a big race and she did everything great. It’s six years since I had a Group 1 winner--I had gone 30 years without having one and didn’t know what they were like, but when you get a bit of a taste for it you want more."

“A Case of You was finding his form again for trainer Adrian McGuinness, who said of the runner-up, “He’d been working very well--things went a little wrong in the summer and when I saw a bit of ease in the ground I was happy. He got a peach of a ride and it’s my first runner in a Group 1 in Ireland. He’s onwards and upwards for him and he has loads of opportunities and can travel. I knew he’d stay very well and he’s going to improve again. He’s not entered in the Abbaye, which is disappointing, but after this I could supplement him.”

Pedigree Notes
Romantic Proposal is out of Playwithmyheart (GB) (Diktat {GB}), who is kin to the G1 Prix de la Foret hero Toyasmine (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and the G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Coral Mist (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}). Toyasmine’s full-sister What a Treasure (Ire) produced the Listed Yeats S. scorer and G1 Futurity Trophy third Western Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and the Listed Fairway S. winner Hoarding (Elusive Quality), while the third dam River Jig (Irish River {Fr}) is responsible for the G1 Buena Vista H. heroine Dance Parade. She is in turn the dam of the G1 St Leger and G1 Gold Cup hero Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Playwithmyheart’s unraced 3-year-old colt by Mastercraftsman (Ire) is named White Marlin (Ire).
La Petite Coco catches Love on the line | Racingfotos.com

LA PETITE COCO PREVAILS IN BLANDFORD THRILLER

It was a case up heads up, heads down at the close of the G2 Moyglare “Jewels” Blandford S. at The Curragh on Sunday with the 3-year-old La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler of the World {Ire}) enjoying the rub of the green to shade it from Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

On a weekend replete with close finishes, Team Valor’s 16-5 shot needed all of the 10 furlongs to reel in Ballydoyle’s G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Oaks heroine but there was just enough yardage to overhaul that 6-5 favourite and score by a short head. In what amounted to a Group 1 in all but name, there were three lengths back to the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Thundering Nights (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}).

“She is a hardy filly, I got a lovely thread through, followed Ryan every step of the way,” Lee said of the impressive Aug. 7 G3 Give Thanks S. winner. “Ryan had me flat out, but I knew she wouldn’t give up. We thought a lot of her, she was impressive in Cork the last day and she backed it up nicely in what I thought was a high-quality field.”

La Petite Coco’s first start for this stable resulted in a 4 1/4-length defeat of the subsequent G1 Irish 1000 Guineas fourth Belle Image (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) over a mile at Killarney May 11, with her next outing being a second to Ballydoyle’s Willow (Ire) (American Pharoah) in the 10-furlong Listed Naas Oaks Trial June 23. Back at Killarney for a conditions event over 11 furlongs July 12, the bay sprung forth from that confidence boost to win by 5 1/2 lengths in Cork’s Give Thanks last time. Held up early behind the leaders, she was the only member of the field able to live with Love inside the final two furlongs and made the weight-for-age and that rival’s Group 1 penalty count in the finial stride.

“I had mapped out a plan and wasn’t going to waver, as this looked a lovely next step but I hadn’t factored in Love coming here,” trainer Paddy Twomey explained. “We had taken all the baby steps we could to try and educate her, as she does what she has to do at home and I felt she was green and needed racing experience. She had a great time going around Killarney and beat good opposition well there which set her up for Cork. She is versatile enough ground-wise, but handles heavy ground better than others and a mile and a half is her thing, so there were a couple of unknowns there. Team Valor like racing, so I’d imagine she’ll travel next year and they intend to have great fun with her. The [Oct. 16 G1 QICPO Champions] Fillies and Mares at Ascot has been the plan and anything after that, we’ll see—it depends how she takes it.”

Pedigree Notes
The first runner from three live foals out of the unraced La Petite Virginia (Ger) (Konigstiger {Ger}), La Petite Coco is connected to some big names in German racing history. One of the dam’s half-brothers is the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Lavirco (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}), himself a full-sibling of the G2 Deutsches St Leger winner Laveron (Ger) who was also third in the domestic Derby. La Petite Virginia is out of La Virginia (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}), who is also the second dam of the G3 Badener Stutenpreis winner and G1 Premio Lydia Tesio runner-up Lacy (Ger) (Authorized {Ire}) and the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten winner Langtang (Ger) (Campanologist).

La Virginia is a full-sister to the Group 3-winning La Colorada (Ger), who produced the triple Group 1-winning champion and leading sire Lomitas (GB), with this being the dam line of Gestut Fahrhof’s blue hen Love In (GB) whose descendants include another Deutsches Derby hero in Lagunas (GB) and the leading sire Lord of England (Ger). La Petite Virginia also has a yearling filly by Ivawood (Ire).

THE NAME’S BOND, DEEP BOND
It’s been quite a while since El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo), Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) and Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) strutted their stuff around the Bois de Boulogne and Japan has a new globetrotter to laud after Shinji Maeda’s Deep Bond (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) rolled back the years and made all to win Sunday’s G2 Qatar Prix Foy at ParisLongchamp.

Last year’s G2 Kyoto Shimbun Hai winner and this year’s G2 Hanshin Daishoten winner, who ran second in May’s G1 Tenno Sho in his most recent start, was the sharpest of six into stride and seized an immediate lead in the 12-furlong Arc trial won by El Condor Pasa and twice by Orfevre in the past. Holding sway with an uncontested lead throughout, he was rowed along to shake off his closest pursuer Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) in early straight and maintained a high tempo under continued urging inside the final quarter mile to comfortably hold that chaperone by 1 1/2 lengths. Jean-Claude Seroul’s 7-5 favourite Skalleti (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) employed his usual hold-up tactics in rear, but was unable to land a blow on the protagonists and finished a well-beaten fourth.

“He’s quite a big horse and weighs approximately 500 kilograms, but he is light on his feet and has a very smooth action,” explained winning trainer Ryuji Okubo. When he races in Japan, he usually comes from behind because there is more rhythm to the races there.” Cont. p16

He added, “We wanted to make the running today to make sure he was in the optimum rhythm and the jockey [Cristian Demuro] managed that perfectly well. He had not raced for over four months, so I imagine there is plenty of room for improvement and he will most definitely come on for the run.”

Looking ahead to future options and with a chance to shine where the aforementioned trio stuttered, the trainer added, “We will give him an easy time next week and we will then have two weeks to build him up to the Arc. He’ll be a vastly improved horse by then and we’ll be very proud to run him in that race. I’ll be staying in France for the next three weeks to oversee his preparations.”

BUBBLE GIFT TAKES THE NIEL ON THE NOD

Zak Bloodstock’s G2 Prix Hocquart victor Bubble Gift (Fr) (Nathanial (Ire)), last seen finishing sixth to Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) in ParisLongchamp’s July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris, was yet another weekend winner subjected to the rigours of a stewards’ enquiry and doubled his pattern-race tally after an inquest into Sunday’s G2 Prix Niel back at the Bois de Boulogne venue. The 22-5 chance, who also posted a runner-up finish in Chantilly’s June 20 G3 Prix du Lys in his penultimate start, was the last of five into stride and employed patient tactics from the outset of this 12-furlong Arc trial. Bustled along in early straight, he made continued headway into second entering the final furlong and stayed on relentlessly under a late drive to oust familiar foe Baby Rider (Fr) (Gleneagles (Ire)) by a nose on the line.

“That was close and I thought he’d finished second, so it was a nice surprise when the result was announced,” said winning trainer Mikel Delzangles. “He was in very good condition leading up to this comeback and I expected him to run a really good race. He’s in the [Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe back over this course and distance], but it will probably be an extremely tough race. We’ll not make any decision just yet and I’ll go home and discuss plans with the owners.”

Pascal Bary was similarly non-committal on the plans for runner-up Baby Rider and added, “It’s tough to lose it on the line, but he ran a great race. He’s in the Arc and I shall talk to the owner before coming to a final decision.”

Pedigree Notes

Bubble Gift is the last known foal bred from Bubble Back (Fr) (Grand Lodge), whose five winners include G3 Darley S.-winning G1 Prix du Jockey Club second Bubble Chic (Fr) (Chichicastenango (Fr)), last week’s G3 Prix Gladiateur victor Bubble Smart (GB) (Intello (Ger)) and Listed Prix Charles Laffitte second Queen Bubble (Ire) (Layman). Queen Bubble is the dam of Listed Prix Delahante and Listed La Coupe de Marseille scorer King Bubble (Ire) (Kendargent (Fr)). Bubble Back is a half-sister to Listed Prix Maurice Caillault victrix Anacarde (Fr) (Anabaa Blue (GB)) and is a granddaughter of Rive du Sud (Nureyev), herself the dam of G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Comillas (Fr) (Kaldoun (Fr)) and the second dam of G1 Prix Jean Prat hero Rouvres (Fr) (Anabaa) and GII Jaipur S. victor Right One (Fr) (Anabaa). Bubble Gift’s stakes-winning fourth dam Riviere Doree (Secretariat) is a daughter of MG1SW G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches heroine Riverqueen (Fr) (Luthier (Fr)).

PARIS FEELS THE BERN

Carlos and Yann Lerner trainee Berneuil (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) had failed to snag the elusive first black-type success his record craved, finishing in the money in all bar one of 10 prior starts, and positioned himself among the leading contenders for next month’s Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l’Abbaye with an impressive display of sprinting in Sunday’s G3 Qatar Prix du Petit Couvert at ParisLongchamp.

The 4-year-old gelding’s catalogue of near misses includes a trio of seconds in this term’s G3 Prix de Saint-Georges, G2 Prix du Gros-Chene and last time in Chantilly’s June 25 Listed Prix Hampton. Jockey Christophe Soumillon was almost launched over the eventual winner’s head following a sharp getaway in the five-furlong dash and the partnership settled under some cover in the bunch through halfway. Powering forward on the bridle inside the quarter-mile marker, the 19-10 favourite was shaken up to seize control passing the furlong pole and surged clear in style to easily outpoint Collinsbay (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}) by 3 1/2 lengths for a career high.

“He’s such a brave horse, he’s so consistent and he definitely deserved that,” beamed co-trainer Yann Lerner. “We decided to give him a break after his last race in June, to freshen him up and to target this race as a prep for the Abbaye. Many consider him to be a soft-ground horse, but I’m convinced he’s better on fast ground and the winning time bears that out. We shall, of course, come back for the Abbaye and hope the ground remains fast for just a few more weeks.”

Pedigree Notes

Berneuil becomes his sire’s 48th pattern-race winner and the first bred from Derivatives (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), who is a winning daughter of G1 Nassau S. heroine Favourable Terms (GB) (Selkirk). His third dam, Listed Rosemary H. and Listed October S. victrix Fatefully (Private Account), is the dam of Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon victor Modern History (Ire) (Shamardal) and kin to GII Dance Smartly S.-winning Canadian champion Points of Grace (Point Given). Points of Grace, in turn, is the dam of GI Natalma S.-winning Canadian champion Victory To Victory (Exchange Rate) with this also being the family of GI Santa Monica H. winner Devil’s Orchid (Devil’s Bag).

SAGAMIYRA’S GOT STYLE

His Highness The Aga Khan’s 4-year-old filly Sagamiyra (Fr) (Sea The Moon (Ger)) was narrowly denied when falling a head shy of G1 1000 Guineas heroine Mother Earth (Ire) (Zoffany (Ire)) in last month’s G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville.

This term’s Listed Prix Maurice Zilber victrix also ran second in Chantilly’s June 20 G2 Prix Bertrand de Breuil in her last-but-one start and bounced back with a stylish victory in Sunday’s G3 Qatar Prix du Pin traversing ParisLongchamp’s seven-furlong chute. Swiftly into stride and positioned in a handy fourth from flagfall, the 11-5 pick was nudge into second approaching the final furlong and kept on powerfully under late rousting to easily assert by a length from Axalvai (Fr) (Goken (Fr)). Speak of the Devil (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) was best of the remainder and a short neck back in third. Godolphin’s G3 Prix Paul de Moussas winner Erasmo (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) was squeezed for room when attempting to close inside the final furlong and unshipped rider Mickael Barzalona, who escaped relatively unscathed.

“She’s an amazing little filly, who never runs a bad race and she hasn’t stopped improving since last year,” said trainer Mikel Delzangles after welcoming in his second high-profile winner on the card. “She was the logical favourite for the race and obliged in great style. She is very versatile and can be ridden from anywhere in a race. We will now come back [over course and distance] for the [Oct. 3 G1] Prix de la Foret.”

Pedigree Notes

Sagamiyra, kin to a 2-year-old colt by Dariyan (Fr), becomes the ninth group-race winner for her sire (by Sea the Stars (Ire)) and the first for Saghaniya (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar (Ire)).

Saghaniya is out of Saga d’Ouilly (Fr) (Linamix (Fr)), who also produced Listed Derby du Midi victor Sagarooi (Fr) (King’s Best) and Listed Prix Aymeri de Maulaeon scorer Sageateur (Fr) (Literato (Fr)). Saga d’Ouilly is a full-sister to G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe-winning sire Sagamix (Fr) and G2 Prix de Malleret victrix Sage et Jolie (Fr), herself the dam of G1 Prix d’Ispahan-winning sire Sageburg (Fr) (Johannesburg). Sagamiyra’s third dam, G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Saganeca (Sagace (Fr)), is also responsible for G1 Grand Criterium victor and G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe placegetter Sagacity (Fr) (Highest Honor (Fr)) and Listed Pontefract Castle S. runner-up Shastye (Ire) (Danehill). Shastye has of five stakes winners of her own headed by G1 International S. and G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Japan (GB) (Galileo (Ire)) and his G1 Grand Prix de Paris-winning full-brother Mogul (GB).

The transatlantic intentions of Brazilian billionaire Gilberto Sayao Da Silva were rather plainly spelled out when Da Silva purchased the former Regis Farm in Versailles in 2015 and renamed it “Bonne Chance”—good luck in French. Da Silva had established Stud Rio Dois Irmãos (Stud RDI) in 2008 to race horses in Brazil and Argentina, and had begun to collect a few horses in France with the intention to establish a stud there. When the opportunity to purchase Regis Farm came along, however, the focus was turned in that direction and much of the stock acquired in France—including Eldacar—was rerouted to Kentucky, with a few fillies and mares remaining in France.

In the meantime, the folks at Bonne Chance had made a very shrewd decision when taking a share in a Group 1-winning 2-year-old called Wootton Bassett when he was syndicated at Haras d’Etreham.

“When they bought Wootton Bassett they asked us to be part of the syndicate and we were glad to do it,” explained Bonne Chance Chief Executive Officer Alberto Figueiredo. “You have to take a shot and when you jump on a horse you have to support him and keep your fingers crossed because no one knows who will be the next superstar. So we kept sending him mares and supporting him and hoped for the best.”

Among those mares was Eldacar, who produced as her first foal the current 3-year-old filly Sunny Morning (Fr) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) who was sold for €190,000 at Arqana August and placed in June for Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard and trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. Eldacar’s second foal, the 2-year-old filly Macadamia (Fr) (Wootton Bassett), was retained by Bonne Chance and was exported to the U.S. to race after Eldacar sadly died last year. Macadamia made her first start at Kentucky Downs on Saturday for trainer Paulo Lobo and finished eighth after racing in contention on the rail.

Despite following the sire’s results closely, Bonne Chance’s Bloodstock and Office Manager Leah Alessandroni said she had never seen a Wootton Bassett in the flesh until Eldacar’s colt came along, but she said he gave her a very favourable first impression of what the sire throws.

“I’d seen pictures of the stallion and I’d talked to Alberto about him and some other people that were familiar with the stallion,” she said. “But I didn’t know what to expect until this horse was born. He’s a big, strong horse. Looking at him and looking at the stallion I think there are a lot of similarities there. We imported his full-sister and she’s also a quality horse but a lot smaller and more feminine. But we like her a lot and she’s training well. I think anyone who is looking for a big, strong, quality horse is going to have to like this colt. I really can’t pick him apart. He’s a solid individual, big and strong and he’s done everything right since day one.”

While Wootton Bassett has had just 11 runners in the U.S., they have proven adept to the American turf; Audayra is his headline act this side of the Atlantic, having won last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf. Tamahere (Fr) won the GI Sands Point S. at Belmont Park last fall after being imported by Madaket Stables and partners, and Qatar Racing’s Guildsman (Fr) took the Gill Franklin-Simpson S. at Kentucky Downs last summer, the same race that operation won this past Saturday with The Lir Jet (Ire) (Prince Of Lir (Ire)). Three-year-old colt Wootton Asset (Fr) was the latest to advertise his sire locally when winning the GIII Virginia Derby on Aug. 31 for Madaket and trainer Graham Motion.

“I’m just excited for people to see him,” said Alessandroni of Bonne Chance’s colt. “In following the sire because of our share in him, we’ve all become such huge fans of him and we’re so excited to be able to offer the first North American-bred and sale yearling by him. I think he’s a really great representation and I’m really excited for people to see him.”

Bonne Chance’s Wootton Bassett colt will be offered on Wednesday during the first session of Book 2 from the Gainesway consignment.

Bonne Chance has 10 homebreds in Keeneland September, and also among those is a Lope De Vega (Ire) colt selling as part of the Hidden Brook consignment during the second session of Book 1 on Tuesday. His dam Diavola (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade (Ire)) was bought as a yearling by Stud RDI for 65,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1, and won over a mile and a half on the turf for Mikel Delzangles. Cont. p21 ever since he was a foal. It’s been great to see him continue to show himself off in America, and indeed its Keeneland offerings also include a Medaglia d’Oro son of an Argentine Group 1 winner and an Into Mischief colt out of a Galileo (Ire) mare. These are members of Bonne Chance’s biggest crop to date of 18 foals.

“We actually celebrate our six year anniversary on Sept. 15,” Alessandroni said. “We had three mares when the owner bought the farm and through a combination of buying horses and bringing horses from his other operations we’ve built ourselves up to between 20 and 30 broodmares, and that’s probably where we’re always going to stay. We’re selling 10 here at Keeneland, we’ll have a few selling in October and we’ll keep some nice fillies to race.

“We’re really excited about this year’s group; we think it’s a really great representation of our programme. We have a colt in Book 1 by Medaglia d’Oro and the mare was bred in Argentina. She’s by Harlan’s Holiday but she also raced in France and South America and the U.S., and now she’s here breeding for us. This group of yearlings is a really great representation of our entire programme and the international appeal we have really worked hard to bring together.”

After producing the unraced Intello (Ger) filly Jessamine (Fr) as her first foal, Diavola was sent to Wootton Bassett in 2017 and produced the filly Rapid Achiever (Fr). Bought by John Foote for €130,000 at Arqana’s October yearling sale in 2019, Rapid Achiever has won her first two starts Down Under for trainers Ciaron Maher and David Eustace since the Keeneland catalogue was published. Rapid Achiever was just the second runner in Australasia for Wootton Bassett after Richard Hannon’s Beat Le Bon (Fr), who was sent down for the 2019 Golden Eagle, and an unbeaten debut winner will be welcome news to the breeders signed on to use the sire during his first season at Coolmore Australia.

Bonne Chance’s Lope De Vega colt is from the excellent Aga Khan family of Darshaan (GB), Dar Re Mi (GB), etc., and Alessandroni said, “This guy is a really quality horse. He has the plain Lope De Vega head, but that’s the only plain thing about him. He has a lot of presence and he’s a really great mover. All around he’s one of my top choices this year of our group. I can’t pick him apart. He’s really one of my favourites and has been ever since he was a foal. It’s been great to see him continue to improve and step up and he looks like he’s showing himself off here.”

From 42 runners in America, Lope De Vega has supplied three stakes winners including Newspaperofrecord (Ire) and Aunt Pearl (Ire), back to back winners of the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies’ Turf, and Grade III winner Capla Temptress (Ire). In addition to being one of Europe’s elite sires, Lope De Vega has also been very successful in Australia, where his 15 stakes winners include Group 1-winning sprinters Santa Ana Lane (Aus), Vega Magic (Aus), Gytrash (Aus) and Vega One (Aus). Bonne Chance’s colt is one of three by Lope De Vega at Keeneland; Bedouin Bloodstock offers a half-sister to Breeders’ Cup winner and sire Bobby’s Kitten as hip 303 on Tuesday, and a half-sister to triple Grade I winner Miss Temple City (Temple City) as hip 717 on Wednesday. Both were bred by SF Bloodstock.

“Lope De Vega has done a lot in this country and has been represented by some really nice horses,” Alessandroni said. “There are a handful of them every year that you see in the sale and they sell fine, but I think he’s a horse people should feel comfortable with. He’s proven himself on an international level as well as a domestic level, so I think he’s a horse that anybody that wants to win big races is going to at least want to look at.”

Bonne Chance is certainly riding momentum into Keeneland September, having won stakes races with imported homebreds In Love (Brz) (Agnes Gold {Jpn}) and Imperador (Arg) (Treasure Beach {GB}) over the past week. Those horses alone show that Bonne Chance is not afraid to roll the dice on international horses in America, and indeed its Keeneland offerings also include a Medaglia d’Oro son of an Argentine Group 1 winner and an Into Mischief colt out of a Galileo (Ire) mare. These are members of Bonne Chance’s biggest crop to date of 18 foals.

“We actually celebrate our six year anniversary on Sept. 15,” Alessandroni said. “We had three mares when the owner bought the farm and through a combination of buying horses and bringing horses from his other operations we’ve built ourselves up to between 20 and 30 broodmares, and that’s probably where we’re always going to stay. We’re selling 10 here at Keeneland, we’ll have a few selling in October and we’ll keep some nice fillies to race.

“We’re really excited about this year’s group; we think it’s a really great representation of our programme. We have a colt in Book 1 by Medaglia d’Oro and the mare was bred in Argentina.
