GALILEO, FRANKEL FOALS HIGHLIGHT GOFFS NOVEMBER FOAL SALE

A Galileo filly out of Nickname (pictured) topped Goffs Orby at €1.5-million. Her full-sister will be offered at the Goffs November Foal Sale | Goffs

Progeny of the late champion sire Galileo (Ire) and his heir apparent Frankel (GB) are among the standout offerings in the Goffs November Foal Sale, for which the catalogue was released on Thursday.

The Goffs November Foal Sale will take place at Kildare Paddocks from Nov. 15 to 18, with 1,015 foals spread across the four days. The format of the sale will be a rising tide of quality from Monday through Wednesday. Trade will return to Monday's more modest levels for Thursday.

The three Galileo foals catalogued for Goffs November are thus far the only progeny of the perennial champion sire catalogued for a European breeding stock sale, and they are a filly out of American Grade I winner Nickname (Scat Daddy) (lot 624), whose full-sister topped this year's Goffs Orby Sale when bought by MV Magnier for €1.5-million; a filly who is the first foal out of G2 Queen Mary S. winner Signora Cabello (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) (lot 665); and a colt out of the G3 Albany S. third Take Me With You (Scat Daddy) (lot 689), whose full-sister was bought by Newtown Anner Stud for €360,000 at Orby.

LOPE Y FERNANDEZ RETIRED TO THE NATIONAL STUD

Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}–Black Dahlia {GB}, by Dansili {GB}), a Group 3-winning 2-year-old who was five times Group 1-placed throughout his career, has been retired from racing and will enter stud at the National Stud in 2022. The Coolmore partners will retain part ownership alongside new owners The National Stud, Whitsbury Manor Stud and Nick Bradley Racing.

Bred by SF Bloodstock, Lope Y Fernandez was bought by MV Magnier for €900,000 at Arqana's August Yearling Sale in 2018. A debut winner at The Curragh in June of his 2-year-old campaign, Lope Y Fernandez finished second and third, respectively, behind Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) in the Listed Chesham S. the G2 Vintage S. before returning to The Curragh to take the G3 Round Tower S.

Blue Point (Ire) has a granddaughter of Irish champion 2-year-old filly and stakes producer Damson (Ire) (lot 586); Too Darn Hot (GB) has a half-sister to the listed-winning and Group 1-placed Olendon (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) (lot 690); and the German-based Best Solution (Ire) is represented by a half-brother to black-type winners Morando (Fr) and Speak Of The Devil (Fr) (lot 613).

The Goffs November Foal Sale has developed a reputation as a happy hunting ground for both end users and pinhookers. Ghaiyyath (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the world's highest-rated horse of 2020, was a Goffs November Foal graduate, and the likes of Alcohol Free (Ire), Blowout (GB) and Romantic Proposal (Ire) have continued to fly the flag in 2021. Last month's G1 Flying Five S. winner Romantic Proposal was successfully pinhooked at the Orby Sale, while Grade I winner and young sire River Boyne was also a productive pinhook to emanate from Goffs November. This year's Orby Sale included numerous successful pinhooks from the November Sale, headed by a half-brother to the aforementioned Lucky Vega who turned €300,000 into €630,000. Other good results included a €70,000 foal that sold for €270,000, a €30,000 foal that went for €150,000, and a €75,000 foal that sold for €225,000.

"As the premier European foal sale, Goffs is proud to present the very cream of the Irish crop at this year's November Sale," said Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby. "The 1015-strong November Foal catalogue is sure to draw every major buyer to Kildare Paddocks next month in search of their next Group 1 winner or pinhooking triumph. Our message to vendors this year was to stay close and go far by selling in Ireland at Goffs, and we are thrilled and supremely grateful that so many are sending their best foals to the November Sale once again."

Third in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, Lope Y Fernandez would go on to place in the G1 Prix Jean Prat, G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and GI Breeders' Cup Mile at three. He won the Listed Heritage S. this year at four and picked up another top-level placing when second to Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in the G1 Queen Anne S.

"Lope Y Fernandez was a lovely, easy moving horse with loads of speed," said trainer Aidan O'Brien. "He was probably very comfortable with anything from six furlongs to one mile. He's a great mover, has a great walk and a lovely mind."

Out of the listed-placed Black Dahlia, Lope Y Fernandez is a half-brother to the G2 Vintage S. and G2 Kronimus Oettingen Rennen scorer Dark Vision (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

Tim Lane, managing director of The National Stud, said, “Lope Y Fernandez is a hugely exciting addition to our stallion roster at The National Stud. He is an exceptionally good-looking individual and has a standout pedigree. I am a big fan of Lope De Vega and we are delighted to be standing his first son in the UK.”

Lope Y Fernandez’s fee will be announced at a later date, and a limited number of breeding rights will be available.

ZARAK FILLY LEADS THE WAY AT ARQANA

By Emma Berry

DEAUVILLE, France--Zarak (Fr), the Aga Khan Studs' beautifully bred son of Dubawi (Ire) and Arc heroine Zarkava (Fr), has made a promising start with his first 2-year-old runners this season and currently has 11 winners to his name from 26 runners. At the weekend he was represented by his first stakes winner when the Gestut Haus Zoppenbroich homebred Lizaid (Ger) took the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin for Peter Schiergen at Baden-Baden, while another recent winner, Zagrey (Fr), gave an important update to the filly who topped trade as Part III of the Arqana October Yearling Sale got underway on Thursday.

Lot 568, the Zarak filly from Haras de Castillon out of Grey Anatomy (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}), was bought for €95,000 by Anne-Sophie Yoh Benet of YOHEA, having received a boost to her page by the victory of her full-brother on Oct. 11 at Amiens. She is also a half-sister to the treble winner and Group 1-placed Graignes (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}).

"She is a beautiful, well-bred filly, and she really had something special," said Yoh Benet. "I bought her for a new client for whom I bought several broodmares last year and who wanted to invest in yearlings. We have bought five in total, they will stay in France and we will decide on the trainer according to the profiles of the fillies."

At a drenched Deauville racecourse on Thursday, the Al Shaqab juvenile Welwal (GB) continued his upwardly mobile progression with his second victory in three starts, and a yearling by his sire Shalaa (Ire) was the leading colt of the day when bought by John Hammond and Federico Barberini for €43,000. Offered as lot 609 as one of a smart draft from Guillaume and Camille Vitse's Normandie Breeding, he is a son of the 2-year-old listed winner Luna Royale (Fr) (Royal Applause {GB}).

Lope Y Fernandez is a Group 3 winner and was placed in five Group 1s | Healy Racing

A smaller fourth session of the sale saw 76 yearlings sold--or 83.5%--at an average of €16,007 (+15%) and median of €14,0000. The day's aggregate of €1,216,500 pushed the tally for the sale as a whole past €26 million, which is already up by 50% on 2021 with one session of around 100 yearlings to sell on Friday from 11 a.m.

NIARCHOS FAMILY TO RECEIVE INTERNATIONAL AWARD OF MERIT

The Niarchos Family will be honoured with the Longines and IFHA International Award of Merit for 2021. The award recognises distinguished horsemen and horsewomen for lifelong contributions to Thoroughbred racing, with previous winners including the Magnier Family and Aidan O'Brien; the Romanet Family, Jim Bolger, Alec Head and Seth Hancock.

The late Stavros Niarchos, a Greek naval officer in World War II who made his fortune in the shipping business, first became involved with Thoroughbred racing in the 1950s before taking a break and returning with a major commitment in the 1970s. The Niarchos Family has bred and/or raced 125 Grade and Group 1 winners around the globe.

Maria Niarchos-Gouaze and Electra Niarchos | Scoop Dyga

One of the Niarchos Family's first notable horses was Nureyev, who they purchased at the 1978 Keeneland July Sale. Nureyev went on to be a highly influential sire, and among his best progeny was the Niarchos Family's homebred Miesque, a champion in England, the U.S. and France, a dual GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner, Hall of Famer and influential broodmare, her progeny perhaps highlighted by the Group 1-winning sire Kingmambo. Miesque's influence is still felt today through numerous branches, including the one that has produced Group 1-winning sisters Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and Discoveries (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) for the Niarchos Family.

Stavros Niarchos was leading owner in France in 1983 and 1984, and leading breeder in 1989, 1993 and 1994. Niarchos died in 1996, at which point his daughter Maria Niarchos-Gouaze took over the family's Thoroughbred business.

The Niarchos Family has been strong supporters of the Breeders' Cup since the meeting's inception and has won seven Breeders' Cup races with six homebreds: Miesque, Spinning

Other prominent horses raced by the Niarchos Family include Bago (Fr), Divine Proportions, Light Shift, Ulysses (Ire), Alpha Centauri (Ire), Study Of Man (Jpn) and Circus Maximus (Ire). They also bred War Of Will, the 2019 GI Preakness S. winner.

POINTERS LEAD GOFFS UK AUTUMN SALE

Point-to-pointers proved popular during the one-day Goffs UK Autumn Sale on Thursday, with trade topped by Music Drive (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) (lot 129). Offered by Colin Bowe's Milestone Stables, the 4-year-old Music Drive won a point-to-point at Monksgrange on Sept. 26, and was picked up by Aidan O'Ryan and Gordon Elliott for £90,000. At the close of trade, 113 horses sold (66%) from 170 offered for an aggregate of £1,014,800 that was up 29% on last year. The average jumped 83% to £8,981, while the median climbed 67% to £5,000.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, "It is always difficult to make direct comparisons between horses in training sales as any trade will be determined by the strength of the catalogue and the quality of the horses on offer. With that in mind, we were delighted with the strength of the sale and, as ever, we are indebted to all the vendors who put their trust in the Goffs UK team. We would obviously wish all buyers the best of luck with their new purchases, and we look forward to welcoming everyone back to Doncaster for the final time this year on Friday, Dec. 3."

Moulin heroine Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) racing for the Jean-Claude Rouget stable, the April-foaled bay was patiently ridden by Christophe Soumillon towards the rear early. Making smooth headway in the straight, the 41-10 second favourite was shaken up to challenge at the furlong marker and did it all under mild handling in the closing stages to score stress-free by 3/4-of-a-length from Lev (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). That Pia and Joakim Brandt-trained half-sister to the G3 Prix Sigy-winning sire Fas (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in turn had 1 1/2 lengths to spare over Etatique (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in third as the conditions took their toll on most.

Erevann is the second of three foals and first scorer out of the high-class miler, who is a half-sister to the Listed Dusseldorf Preis winner Elennga (Fr) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and to the dam of the dual listed-placed Ebony (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). A daughter of the G3 Prix Vanteaux runner-up Elva (Ire) (King's Best), her filly foal is by Kitten's Joy.

Flying Start For Donworth With Trio Of Juvenile Winners By Emma Berry

DEAUVILLE, France--Back at Arqana's yearling sale in August, Tim Donworth had just left the employment of Jean-Claude Rouget with a view to setting out his own stall from Sept. 1. The racing gods have smiled kindly in the meantime, and the 27-year-old is now almost eight weeks into his training career with three winners and a second from just five starters.

Those three victories have all come during this week's sale at Arqana, starting on Sunday at Le Mans with Cotai Hero (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) and, like buses, the second winner coming along almost immediately the next day at Clairefontaine when She's Evaporust (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) struck in the trainer's own colours.

Perhaps most importantly, however, was Donworth's third 2-year-old winner, Allada (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), on Thursday. The homebred filly of family friend Kirsten Rausing looked extremely polished on debut to win convincingly over the heavy turf at Deauville in a newcomers' maiden and already has her trainer dreaming of next season.

"To have my mum and dad and everyone close to me here is very special," said Donworth after greeting Allada in the winner's enclosure in heavy rain with his parents Bobby and Honora Donworth of Round Hill Stud and a group of friends. The filly has also contributed to a record year for Rausing as the 13th juvenile winner this season to have been bred at her Lanwades Stud.

"It is the most wonderful thing to have a winner for Kirsten in her colours," Donworth continued. "She gave me so much confidence and sent me a lovely filly, and I'm just so happy that I could prepare her and have her right for the day. She's a beautiful filly but I didn't want to dream of winning again, especially in Deauville, but we knew she was good and she is going to be my filly for next year now. I'm so delighted for Kirsten and I am so lucky have such a good team, including Jason who rides her at home."

Allada will not be the only representative of her sire at Donworth's Chantilly yard, which he rents from his former boss Nicolas Clement. On Monday at Arqana he bought a Sea The Moon filly from the Wildenstein family of Arc winner Peintre Celebre for €62,000 from Haras de Beaufay, and he has another filly on the way from the Tattersalls October Sale for new American owners in the stable.

He continued, "I am very happy to say I have a nice Sea The Moon from Book 1 for LNJ Foxwoods, so I'm lucky to have a nice team of Sea The Moons for next year and we have some nice yearlings coming. I have about 10 to come in so far so we should have a team of about 20 horses for next year."

ROSEMONT DIGS DEEP TO SECURE JOYOUS LEGEND

Anthony Mithen of Rosemont Stud | Bronwen Healy

by Bren O'Brien

Beautifully bred filly Joyous Legend (Snitzel) has become the latest $1 million-plus graduate from the Inglis Digital platform, with Rosemont Stud paying $1.025 million for the daughter of eight-time Group 1 winner More Joyous (NZ) (More Than Ready {USA}).

Victorian-based Rosemont Stud has been a major player in the broodmare market in 2021 and further added to the top-end of its enviable band with Joyous Legend, who had originally been purchased by Bon Ho's Legend Racing for $800,000 as a yearling.

She has won one of her six starts for Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou and placed in a G2 Percy Sykes S. but her racing career may not be yet over, with Rosemont principal Anthony Mithen saying a decision on her future will be made once they get Joyous Legend back to the farm.

“There’s no hard and fast decision made there, our intelligence says she still has racing life in her but our team will go over her when she gets here and we’ll look at the racing schedule in the autumn and just see what we think is best, to race her on or to find a stallion for her straight away," Mithen said. “It’s all happened very quickly, the filly only popped up online a few days ago but that’s the nature of these online sales, you need to be quick on your feet and adapt when the time calls.

“Obviously, in these COVID times we were unable to get to physically inspect the filly but we took advice from the Inglis team and took advice from Andrew Williams and we’re absolutely thrilled to have secured her."

More Joyous, a Strawberry Hill Stud-bred granddaughter of blue hen Denise's Joy (Seventh Hussar {Fr}), was an out-and-out star on the track, winning 21 of her 31 starts for Gai Waterhouse, eight of them at the elite level, including a Doncaster H., and Queen Elizabeth S.

All four of her foals to the track have been winners, with Joyous Legend her only stakes performer out of that quartet. She is also the only one which has been offered for public sale.

Big result for Bon Ho

Hong Kong-based Bon Ho, who opted to move the filly on, said he was delighted with the outcome of the auction.

“Inglis is the experts at dealing with online sales, we’ve seen that again the past few months with some big results,’’ Ho said. “It was only Saturday just gone that I first spoke to Jonathan (D’Arcy) about the idea of doing this and now, five days later, the mare has sold for more than $1 million so it’s been very quick, very efficient and very well done.

“It’s a very good price, I’m so very happy with the price. The expectation was in the range of $700,000-$800,000 so this price is quite a fair bit above my expectation."

Inglis’ General Manager of Bloodstock Operations and International Development Jonathan D’Arcy was also very pleased with the outcome.

"From the moment we announced her sale, there was a huge amount of interest in her and understandably so given the multitude of options available to a filly with her profile," D'Arcy said. "It is very satisfying to see the confidence that the market has in our Digital platform and the trade that it is generating is nothing short of incredible.

"We are very grateful to Mr Ho for the opportunity to sell a filly with such credentials and of course wish Nigel, Anthony, Ryan and the team at Rosemont every success with her."

Another seven-figure success story

Joyous Legend becomes the third seven-figure broodmare sold through the Inglis Digital platform in the past four months, following up from Funstar (Adelaide {Ire}), who secured $2.7 million in July and Every Rose (Choisir), who was purchased for $1.3 million last month. 2021 has been breakout year for the digital market, with broodmares in particularly faring well.

Champion mare Avantage (Fastnet Rock) sold for a world record NZ$4.1 million on Gavelhouse Plus last month.

Those who missed out on Joyous Legend only have to wait a week to get another chance to access that family with Sunday Legend, an unraced 3-year-old sister to More Joyous, offered as a racing and breeding prospect by Legend Racing as part of the October (Late) Sale, which will open Friday and close next Wednesday.

That Sale will also feature 11 lots from Godolphin featuring a stakes winner, multiple stakes performers, city winners and lightly raced gallopers.

CLAIBORNE 2022 FEES LED BY WAR FRONT

War Front | Claiborne

War Front (Danzig) heads all Claiborne stallions in 2022 with a stud fee of $100,000. The 19-year-old stallion, who stood for $150,000 in 2021, was represented by 10 stakes winners, led by Group 1 winner Homesman and four other Grade I/Group 1 performers worldwide. Showing his prowess in the sales ring this season, he is the sire of 29 seven-figure yearlings lifetime, including a$1.2 million filly this year.

Standing alongside his sire at Claiborne is War of Will, a winner in four graded stakes, including the GI Maker's Mark Mile on turf and the GI Preakness S. on dirt. During his second season at stud in 2022, he will once again stand for $25,000.

Also unchanged for 2022, Flatter (A.P. Indy) will command a fee of $35,000 next season. With over $80 million in progeny earnings to date, the 22-year-old sired six stakes winners and 11 stakes horses, led by the Grade I winner Search Results.

Two new stallions join Claiborne's roster for 2022--MGSW and GISP Performer (Speightstown) and Silver State (Hard Spun). Undefeated as a 3-year-old, homebred Performer is from the Phipps family of champion Storm Flag Flying and Hall of Famer Personal Ensign. He will stand for $12,500.

GI Metropolitan H. winner Silver State, who is aiming for this year's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, will enter stud at Claiborne in 2022. His stud fee will be announced at a later date.

THIS SHOULD BE REQUIRED READING FOR EVERY TRAINER AND OWNER

by Andrew J. Mollica, Esq and Len Green, CPA

What an industry! The recent, well-publicized ongoing legal sagas of both Ahmed Zayat and Ken Ramsey have brought issues surrounding owner-trainer financial relationships into clear focus. Yet, the truth is that no-pay or slow-paying owners probably have been a small, but existing part of racing since the game was invented. Despite its topical nature, the problem is not going away anytime soon, and the reason is simple: horse racing is a 21st-century industry that is based on an 18th-century business model. At this late date, virtually all owner-trainer relationships are still based upon oral contracts. While established contract law renders verbalized agreements legally binding, the pragmatic reality is that oral contracts are not easy to enforce and are even more difficult to litigate. In the words of the late, great movie producer Samuel Goldwyn ring true: "Oral contracts are not worth the paper they are written on." Cont. p3

Consider that for any contract to be enforceable in court there must be a "mirror image" displayed between the offer of one participant and the acceptance of the other. Agreement terms reflect one another very well when they are written down and subscribed by each party.

The establishment of an oral contract almost always degenerates into a he-said/she-said scenario and eventually turns on the credibility (or lack thereof) of the respective parties.

It's for this reason that judges and juries look askance at purported contracts not memorialized in writing and often refuse to find for the litigant (in this case the trainer) who is seeking contract enforcement.

Suggested Solutions

Clearly, written contracts would make things much easier, both to abide by and to litigate, but a future proliferation of written contracts between owners and trainers would be sea change that is nowhere in sight. Why? The reason is simple: most racetrackers (and people in general, for that matter) hate change.

That said, many would argue that mucking up the existing system--in place for decades if not centuries--with written contracts and more lawyers is not worth the effort. Ironically, it's exactly the opposite; where a writing is missing, it actually encourages non-performance by the owner, and actually clogs the system with more cases, more lawyers, and big problems.

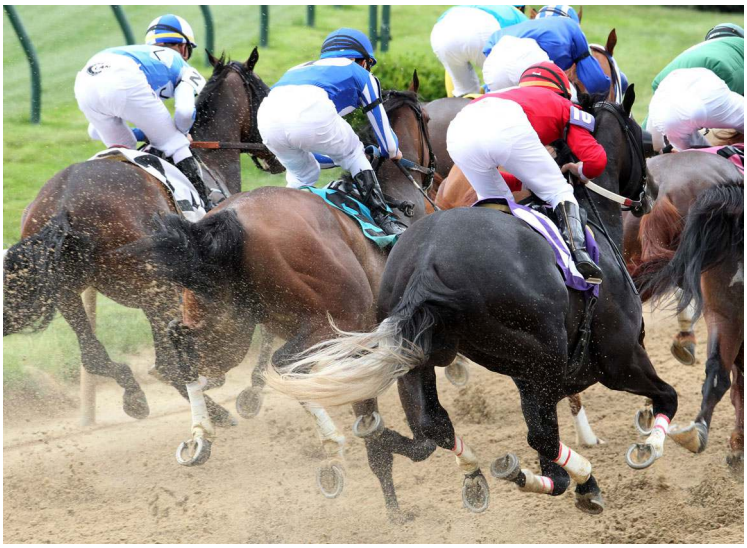
Horsephotos

Let's take a common example. An owner and trainer orally agree upon a $100 per-horse day rate--at many tracks, today's standard of what trainers charge.

The question posed is whether a written agreement or an up-front retainer is really necessary for such a simple, straightforward agreement. Consider that by the time a trainer gets her first check from the owner, she has already fronted that owner the training fees for about 45 days. If our hypothetical owner gave our imaginary trainer 10 horses, by the time the trainer bills the first $30,000 at the end of the first month, she is in serious trouble if the owner fails to make timely payment.

Worse, the owner might send a check for less, claiming that the day rate verbally agreed to is much less than what the trainer is claiming.

In businesses like law, construction or big-ticket specialty retail, up-front payments, deposits or retainers are the norm. But it is not the standard in the horse industry.



Coady

Why are they virtually nonexistent in our industry? The answer is simple. Most successful trainers would tell you they could never ask for either a retainer or a written contract for fear they would not get the horses offered by the owner into their barn, and therein lies the rub.

The late Hall of Fame trainer P.G. Johnson used to say, "An empty stall is better than a no-pay horse." What Johnson was saying is true: an empty stall does not cost the trainer any money, but the horse of a no-pay owner triggers the same care, custody and control responsibilities (and costs) of any other horse in the barn. Of course, that's when the downward spiral begins.

The simple fact is that obtaining clients and horses to train is very competitive.

Many times, new owners, who can afford to spend large sums of money on purchasing horses, are greatly influenced to select their trainers based on which trainers win the big races.

Trainers increase their opportunities to win these big races based on the number and quality of the horse they train.

Trainers need horses to train, so when an owner falls behind, the trainer is put in an even more unenviable position.

The options are limited: demand payment and most likely lose the horses, or stay the course and hope for a miracle.

The clear answer is demand payment, and don't get further behind. Yet, trainers often keep their no-pay owners on an ever-elongating leash in the faint hope the horse will earn money and the bill will be paid. The consequences of this decision are evident in the headlines today.

Bottom Line

Is there any tax benefit for writing off the accounts receivable as a bad debt? No. Most trainers are paid on a cash basis. They only record income as they are paid.

Therefore, they receive no tax benefit for not getting paid.

The Legal Remedy

In every state in the Union except one (Vermont), trainers, or stablemen, have the protection or remedy commonly referred to as an agister's, or stablemen's, lien. In New York, the law is codified as 183 of the New York State Lien Law and in New Jersey it is codified in 2A:44-51.

Sarah Andrew

Under these statutes, a trainer having care, custody and control of a horse has an automatic lien on the horse against unpaid bills. To perfect the lien, the trainer must both formally notify the owner of the indebtedness and the intention to satisfy the debt by selling the horse at public auction. The power of the tool is obvious, because if the horse is worth appreciably more than the bill owned, the wayward owner will usually run to the barn, cash in hand, rather than lose his valuable, income-producing asset in an agister's sale.

Despite this potent legal remedy, most trainers never utilize it.

For one, they often receive bad advice, sometimes from the stewards, who inform them that they had better give up the horse to the non-paying owner lest they be sued and that they should instead sue the owner to get a judgment or, worse yet, they are encouraged to hold the foal papers. None of these “steward tips” have any validity under the law.

First, if an owner is going to sue a trainer, she will do it whether the trainer has possession or not, so the advice is simply bad.

Second, if the trainer turns possession of the horse back to the owner, the trainer loses possession, hence his statutory lien is now forfeited and the trainer has lost the remedy and most likely any chance of recovering her money.

Third, holding the foal papers is an illegal act and, moreover, foal papers are soon to go the way of bobby socks and land-line telephones, as electronic papers become the norm. This is very bad advice as well.

Aside from this, trainers who are owed vast sums of money often don't perfect their liens because they are afraid they will be looked at as bad guys in the industry, while others simply don't want to pay the legal fees to get their money.

Whatever the reason, trainers who are owed money have a legal recourse, but they have to make the hard decision to perfect their liens and sell the horse. If they don't, we have seen the results.

In sum, although it may be unlikely to ever become a reality, all agreements with owners involving the trainer's care and custody of the horse should be expressed in a clear, concise, comprehensive, straightforward writing signed by the parties, and one of the terms that should not be left out is the payment of an up-front training fee.

Lastly, the question should not be whether to auction off the horse of a non-paying owner, but rather how quickly it can be done after the first training bill is more than 30 days late.

NOT THIS TIME HEADS TAYLOR MADE STALLIONS 2022 ROSTER

Leading second-crop sire Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) tops Taylor Made Stallions roster for 2022 with a fee of $45,000 S&N. Also joining Taylor Made for the 2022 season is four-time Grade I winner Knicks Go (Paynter), likely favorite for the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar. A stud fee for Knicks Go, winner of the 2018 GI Breeders' Futurity in addition to this season's GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational GI Whitney S., will be announced following the Breeders' Cup.

Currently, Not This Time leads all second-crop sires with 14 black-type horses, 10 black-type winners, two graded stakes winners, and heads his division this year with progeny earnings of $4,006,812.

Not This Time | Jon Siegel

In his first crop, he was represented by Grade I winner Princess Noor. His top performers this year include graded stakes winners Easy Time and Yes This Time.

Also highlighting Taylor Made's 2022 roster are Instagrand (Into Mischief) and Instilled Regard (Arch), both standing their second seasons at stud for $7,500 S&N.

A $1.2 million Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream purchase, Instagrand was named a "TDN Rising Star" following his impressive debut at Los Alamitos before annexing the GII Best Pal S. by 10 3/4 lengths at Del Mar in just his second lifetime start.

Instilled Regard, a $1.05-million OBS March Sale graduate, a four-time graded winner on dirt and turf recorded his most important career score in the GI Manhattan S.

Also standing for $7,500 S&N, GI Shoemaker Mile winner Midnight Storm (Pioneerof the Nile) and Mshawish (Medaglia d'Oro), a Grade I winner on the dirt and turf. The latter will stand the upcoming breeding season for $5,000 S&N.

In 2021, Mshawish has seven stakes horses and is the co-leading second-crop sire of graded stakes winners this year along with Not This Time.

The complete 2022 roster of stallions and fees:

STALLION	2022 FEES (S&N)
Not This Time	$45,000
Knicks Go	$To be Announced
Instagrand	$7,500
Instilled Regard	$7,500

CAIRO PRINCE & COLLECTED TOP AIRDRIE'S 2022 ROSTER

Cairo Prince (Pioneerof the Nile) and Collected (City Zip) top Airdrie's 2022 roster, each standing for $15,000. Cairo Prince, who stood for the same price last year, has the most 2-year-old winners of any stallion this year and has a Breeders' Cup contender in Cairo Memories. Offered for a fee of $17,500 last term, Collected was represented by his first yearlings this season with several six-figure sellers.

GI Champagne S. winner Complexity (Maclean's Music) remains at $12,500 for his second season at stud. Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) and Preservationist (Arch) are also entering the second year at stud with the former at $5,000 and the latter at $10,000.

"I believe Airdrie has earned the reputation as a stallion farm that will stand behind our product and put our breeders in position to profit in the sales ring or on the race track," said Airdrie's Bret Jones. "As always, we will be supporting our young and exciting roster with the full force of our broodmare band and take great pride in making the same investment in our stallions that we ask of our customers. The commercial breeder knows that we will not flood the market with excessively high booking numbers and racehorse owners know that our stallions throw runners. We are extremely bullish on this year's roster and look forward to working with the incredible breeders that have long supported Airdrie."

MGISW RAGING BULL TO GAINESWAY

Raging Bull (Fr) | Horsephotos

Multiple Grade I winner Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}--Rosa Bonheur, by Mr. Greeley) will stand the 2022 season at Gainesway Farm following his retirement from racing. The winner of this season's GI Maker's Mark Mile is expected to make his final start in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. Raging Bull will enter stud in 2022 with an advertised fee of $10,000 LFSN.

"Raging Bull is a knockout physically," said Gainesway General Manager Brian Graves. "His six triple digit Beyer speed figures and his performances over 14 Grade I events are impressive. His sire, Dark Angel, has become one of the most influential sires in International racing."

Included among his black-type victories at three, Raging Bull took the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S., GIII Saranac S. and Del Mar's GI Hollywood Derby. At four, he made five starts, all in Grade I company, placing in the GI Manhattan S., GII Fourstardave H. and GI Woodbine Mile. The Chad Brown trainee returned last season to capture the Shoemaker Mile in addition to placing in the Maker's Mark Mile and GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. at Keeneland.

"Raging Bull is the best looking horse I have ever trained," said Brown. "He has run fast numbers at many different tracks, winning Grade I's in three different years, the ultimate confirmation of incredible soundness."

Bred by Dayton Investments Limited, he was campaigned by Peter Brant. The French-bred accounted for seven wins from 21 lifetime starts, encompassing 18 consecutive starts in graded stakes company, and finishing in the top three in nine of 14 Grade I events.

"I am extremely bullish on his chances at stud. We are excited to be partnering with Gainesway on Raging Bull and will be supporting him strongly with our mares," said Brant.

CONGRESSMAN ROONEY NAMED NTRA PRESIDENT & CEO

Tom Rooney | Courtesy NTRA

Thomas J. Rooney, a former U.S. Congressman, has been named to succeed Alex Waldrop as the president and CEO of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA). As has been previously announced, Waldrop will retire at the end of this year.

Rooney is an owner and breeder and has been part of his family's Shamrock Farm, a Thoroughbred breeding and lay-up operation in Maryland. The farm was founded by his grandfather, Art Rooney, Sr. He has also served on the board of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association for the past year. The Rooney family has been the majority owners and operators of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers since 1933. Rooney family members also own the Palm Beach Kennel Club in Florida, owned Yonkers Raceway in New York until 2019, and owned former racetracks Green Mountain in Vermont and Liberty Bell in Pennsylvania.

"It is a great privilege for me to join the NTRA and serve as the organization's next leader," said Rooney. "Having been immersed in horse racing my entire life, I know the issues and have a solid understanding of the needs of the industry. Coupled with my 10 years serving as a member of Congress, I know how to get things done in Washington, D.C. and look forward to increasing our advocacy efforts with our nation's lawmakers. I'm excited to join the team and look forward to working with all our member organizations to move our agenda forward."

Rooney served with the U.S. Army as a lawyer in the JAG Corps. During his tenure, he was Special Assistant U.S. Attorney at Fort Hood, Texas, prosecuting all civilian crimes on post, and he served in the 1st Cavalry Division.

After completing active duty with the rank of captain, Rooney taught constitutional and criminal law at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

"On behalf of the NTRA Board, I am excited to confirm Tom Rooney's appointment as the next president and CEO of the NTRA," said Alan Foreman, Chairman and CEO of the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (THA) and the NTRA Board member who led the NTRA's transition and search committee. "We are incredibly fortunate to have engaged such a talented and experienced individual as Tom as we position the NTRA to address the challenges facing our industry. I believe Tom's taking on this position will be a game-changer for the NTRA and the Thoroughbred racing industry. Tom's track record of experience and leadership will be invaluable as we move forward and as we expand our presence and advocacy on the federal level."

In conjunction with Rooney's appointment, the NTRA will conduct a strategic review of the organization and its activities as it places additional focus on its role as the trade association for the Thoroughbred racing and breeding industry. The NTRA plans to open an office in Washington, D.C., where it will focus primarily on federal legislative and policy issues. As part of his appointment, Rooney will also become President of Horse PAC, the NTRA's political action committee.

As a Congressman, Rooney focused on economic, agricultural, national security, and military issues. He was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from Florida from 2009 to 2019. He served on the Committee on Agriculture, the Committee on Armed Services, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence where he played a prominent role in the House Intelligence Committee's investigation of Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election.

Rooney lives in Florida with his wife, Tara, and three sons.

PIN OAK'S BROKEN VOW PENSIONED

Pin Oak stalwart Broken Vow (Unbridled--Wedding Vow, by Nijinsky II), the sire of 2016 Eclipse champion Champagne Room and 79 other black-type winners, has been pensioned from the stallion barn and will remain at his lifetime home.

Racing as a homebred for Pin Oak Stud, the nom de course of Josephine Abercrombie's historic racing and breeding operation, Broken Vow was a five-time stakes winner for trainer Graham Motion. His top wins included the 2001 GII Philip H. Iselin H. and the GIII Ben Ali S., as well as another four graded placings, including the 2001 GI Gulfstream Park H. Broken Vow retired to his birthplace to stand his first season in 2002 at age five for $10,000.

Broken Vow's first crop included GI Beldame S. winner Unbridled Belle and GII Futurity S. winner Private Vow. While he only topped 100 foals twice in 17 crops of racing age to date, the bay continued to deliver consistent quality, with runners including MGISW Sassy Image, GISWs Rosalind and Cotton Blossom, and MGSW Imprimis. Overall, the 24-year-old's 80 stakes winners include 26 graded winners to date and progeny earnings of more than $80 million. Broken Vow is also making a name for himself as a broodmare sire with the 36 black-type winners out of his daughters including champion and sire Runhappy (Super Saver).

Broken Vow | Asuncion Pineyrua

"First as a race horse and then as an anchor to our stallion roster for 20 seasons, Broken Vow is the embodiment of Ms. Abercrombie's breeding program, producing sound, competitive racehorses whose bloodlines endure," said long-time Pin Oak Stud manager Clifford Barry. "We appreciate the industry's support through the years, but mostly we thank Broken Vow for his loyal service to the farm and look forward to providing a well-deserved retirement for him here at Pin Oak."

Broken Vow stood his final season this year for $20,000. Last month, Pin Oak Stud dispersed 23 mares and foals at a special sale held at Fasig-Tipton. In addition, Chris McGrath recently delved into the legacy of Pin Oak and Abercrombie.

LA DRAGONTEA SUPPLEMENTED TO FASIG-TIPTON

La Dragontea (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}--La Concorde {Fr}, by Sadler's Wells), second in Sunday's GI E. P. Taylor S. after a win in last month's GII Canadian S., has been supplemented to the Fasig-Tipton November Sale, which will take place Nov. 9.

Catalogued as hip 267 in the sale known as the "Night of the Stars," La Dragontea will be consigned as a racing/broodmare prospect by Hunter Valley Farm, agent.

The 4-year-old filly, who was bred by Bartisan Racing Ltd., began her career in England, but thrived when coming stateside and being placed under the tutelage of Christophe Clement.

La Dragontea winning the Canadian Sept. 18 | Michael Burns

She began her North American campaign with a Belmont allowance win in May and later added a Saratoga allowance before the Woodbine campaign that resulted in the Canadian win and E. P. Taylor runner-up finish.

"La Dragontea should appeal to a wide variety of racing and breeding operations," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "She is beautifully bred, has current Grade I form, and at just 4-years-old, she has a lot of racing still ahead of her."

Owned by Reeves Thoroughbred Racing and Rebecca Hillen, La Dragontea is from the immediate family of European champion and leading sire Montjeu.

MYRACEHORSE TO OFFER SHARES IN YEARLINGS WITH $2M BONUS

MyRacehorse will offer ownership in six yearlings that were purchased at the recent Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale of selected yearlings. The yearlings, referred to as the "Fasig Select Six," each come with a $2-million bonus designed specifically for horses purchased by MyRacehorse at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. For colts, the bonus would be paid if any were to win the GI Kentucky Derby and for the fillies, the bonus would be paid for a GI Kentucky Oaks victory.

Unlike past MyRacehorse offerings, where bonuses were split in partnership with co-owners, these bonuses would be paid out exclusively to MyRacehorse shareholders.

"Our goal is to provide fans access to horses that have the opportunity to become classic horses; elite horses, racing on the biggest days for the biggest prizes," said Michael Behrens, CEO & Founder of MyRacehorse. "The Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale provided us the opportunity to navigate through a select set of impeccably bred, well-conformed horses that are sure to have several champions amongst the crop. We walked away with many of our favorites and are excited so many fans will have the opportunity to participate in this level of quality."

The Fasig Select Six is comprised of:

- Who Runs the World, a Quality Road filly out of Lucy N Ethel for $104/share
- Tufnel, a colt by Into Mischief out of Count to Eleven for $62/share
- A first-crop Justify filly out of Essential Rose for $105/share
- Classic Cut, an Empire Maker colt out of Bluejeans for $51/share
- Balletic, an Into Mischief filly out of RicketyRacketyRuss for $80/share
- A Quality Road colt out of Song of Bernadette for $97/share

OVER 35K HORSES NOW HAVE DIGITAL TATTOOS

Over 35,000 Thoroughbreds have now been digitally tattooed, the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau (TRPB) announced Thursday. The digital tattoo is an electronic authentication confirming the identity of a horse by a trained TRPB technician.

"Every racing 2-year-old, every 3-year-old and a significant share of 4- year-olds have digital tattoos and by the end of 2021, we estimate that 75% of Thoroughbreds will enter the racetrack paddock with a digital tattoo," said J. Curtis Linnell, executive vice president, TRPB.

"We have 56 TRPB Technicians under contract throughout the United States and Canada and even with the COVID-19 pandemic, they have been able to inspect, document and authenticate the identity of Thoroughbreds before their first lifetime start."

The digital tattoo process begins when the technician scans the horse's microchip and if correctly reported, the microchip number hyperlinks to The Jockey Club electronic registration information viewed on a tablet.

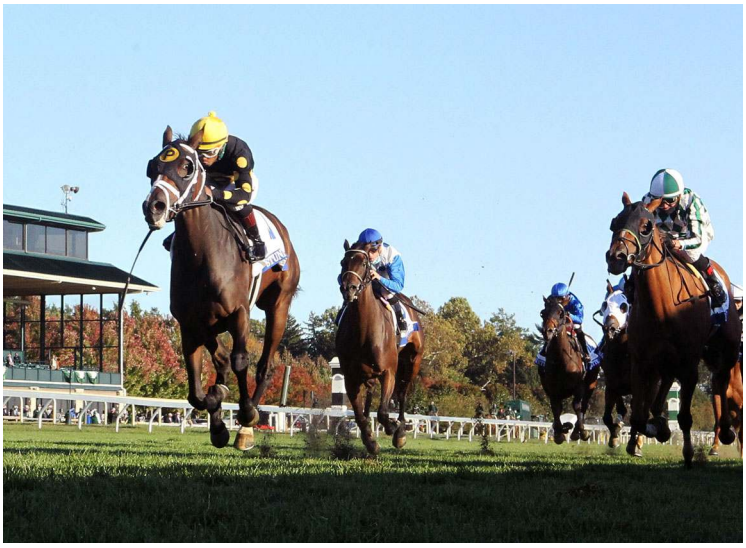
RUBICON SPONSORS KEENELAND'S VALLEY VIEW



Stunning Sky, winner of the 2020 Valley View | Coady

Rubicon, a Lexington-based software company that provides smart waste and recycling solutions, is the new sponsor of Keeneland's $150,000 GIII Valley View S., which will be run Friday, Oct. 29.

The Rubicon Valley View, a 1 1/16-mile turf stakes for 3-year-old fillies, is named for Kentucky's oldest recorded commercial business, the Valley View Ferry, which has operated since 1785. The ferry crosses the Kentucky River to connect Fayette and Madison counties. Stunning Sky (Declaration of War) won the most recent edition of the race, formerly known as the Pin Oak Valley View S., in 2020.

"Keeneland is proud to have Rubicon join as sponsor of the Valley View," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said.

TERF AWARDS $12K TO CORNELL VET MED

The Thoroughbred Education and Research Foundation (TERF) awarded $12,000 to Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine to be used as grants for two need-based scholarships totaling $12,000 ($6,000 each) for students interested in pursuing equine medicine after graduation. The latest scholarship recipients are Bianca Ruspi and Tyler Olson.

“The Cornell College of Veterinary Medicine is very grateful for the support TERF is providing to its students, especially those planning to pursue equine medicine,” Sheila Reakes, Director of Annual Giving at Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine states. “The availability of scholarships has become increasingly important in helping graduates lower their debt load and in allowing them to consider a broader array of careers, including those in more rural areas where quality veterinarians are much needed, upon graduation."

Founded by Herb and Ellen Moelis, TERF's current board includes co-chairs Kathleen Anderson DVM and James Orsini DVM, Margaret H. Duprey, Gretchen and Roy Jackson, Ellen and Herb Moelis, Wendy Moon, Anita Motion, Toni Orsini, Scott Palmer VMD, Josh Pons, Lucy Zungailia, Katelyn Jackson, and Lynn Cassimeris, Ph.D.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

3rd-Belmont, $92,000, Alw, 10-21, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:16.91, ft, neck.

WUDDA U THINK NOW (g, 4, Fast Anna--Unbridled Grace {MSP}, by Unbridled Jet) ran second in the New York-bred Affirmed Success S. over this track Apr. 23 before filling the same slot behind recent GII Vosburgh S. winner Following Sea (Runhappy) at this level June 3. Fourth in a salty allowance July 17 at Saratoga, he was last seen being eased to last in the state-bred John Morrissey H. in the Spa slop 12 days later and was made a fractional 5-2 favorite off the brief break here. Leading narrowly in a four-way pace duel through a :22.80 quarter, the gelding found a bit of daylight past a :46.19 half, was taken on by Mahaamel (Into Mischief) turning for home, lost the lead briefly outside the sixteenth pole and gamely battled back to edge that rival by a neck on the wire. The winner is a half to James Jingle (Harlan's Holiday), MSP, $158,808; and C d'Cat (D'wildcat), SP, $166,760. Sales History: $60,000 Ylg '18 SARAUG. DENNIS' MOMENT (c, 4, Tiznow--Transplendid, by Elusive Quality) was backed to odds-on in the 2019 GI TVG Breeders' Cup Juvenile off a two-for-three start to his career that included a 19 1/4-length maiden rout and an easy score in the GIII Iroquois S., but he stumbled badly at the start that day at Santa Anita and never recovered, jogging home last of eight. Last again upon return in the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S., he failed to beat a horse for the third straight time in a Churchill allowance/optional claimer last fall before rebounding somewhat to be a head second Aug. 20 at Ellis. Regressing once more, however, when a well-beaten fifth in his return to stakes company in the Louisville Thoroughbred Society S. Sept. 18 under the Twin Spires, the 'TDN Rising Star' was made a lukewarm 21-10 chalk here and found a cozy spot at the rail in third past a :22.77 quarter. Shuffled just a bit going by a :46 flat half, the $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga buy swung into the clear four deep outside the three-sixteenths pole and wore down Shoplifted (Into Mischief) in deep stretch to prevail by three-quarters of a length. The winner's dam, bought for $1.4 million by Sugar Valley Farm at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale, is responsible for an unraced juvenile Into Mischief filly named Knockout Kisses and a yearling filly by More Than Ready. She visited Uncle Mo this term. Sales History: $400,000 Ylg '18 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: GSW, 9-3-1-0, $246,052. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

SPICY MARG (f, 3, Into Mischief--Tizasong, by Tiznow), runner-up in Monmouth's Tyro S. on debut last summer, graduated at third asking sprinting on the Churchill turf in October but had failed to find the mark in three starts since, most recently running fourth in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 7. Backed to 8-5 to rediscover the winning thread here, the bay broke smartly and dictated terms in the clear through a sharp :21.43 quarter. Scooting further clear once straightening for home, the favorite stayed in command from there, hitting the wire 1 3/4 lengths to the good of longshot Amusing Antics (Super Saver) despite staying on her inside lead. The winner's second dam is a half-sister to five stakes winners, including MGISW and sire Shackleford (Forestry) and GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate).

LOVE AND MONEY (f, 3, More Than Ready--Witchy One, by Smart Strike) was privately purchased from Jay McKee and transferred from the John Stephens barn off a wire-to-wire debut victory in a Monmouth turf sprint June 6 before fading late to finish fourth in a one-mile Saratoga allowance/optional claimer July 17 and stopping badly when eighth in the Riskaverse S. over the same distance there Aug. 26. Back to one turn as a 3-2 chalk here, the bay took charge early and sped clear through a sizzling :21.34 quarter. Turning for home all by herself, the favorite breezed past a :44.71 half split and cruised home under hands and heels a 3 1/4-length victress. Street of Dreams (Street Sense), the longest shot on the board, completed the exacta. The winner, a half to Convict Pike (Broken Vow), GSP, $255,823, has an unraced juvenile Bernardini half-sister named Senaia and a weanling half-brother by Catalina Cruiser. Her dam was paired with Union Rags this season. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg '19 FTKOCT; $95,000 RNA 2yo '20 OBSOPN. MARVELOUS MAUDE (f, 3, Slumber {GB}--Wait Your Turn, by Warrior's Reward) closed to be third after a troubled beginning debuting over a mile on this turf June 11 and graduated in a washed-off Saratoga state-bred maiden heat Aug. 19 before just missing when second by a head back here on the lawn Sept. 26. Away as a 3-2 chalk in this spot, the dark bay settled in seventh at the hedge behind fractions of :24.79 and :48.22, closed in on the leaders starting around the eighth pole and edged past Home for Christmas (Shanghai Bobby) in the final sixteenth for a one-length success. The winner's dam has an unraced 2-year-old Freud filly named Jet Set Juliet and a yearling filly by the same sire. She returned to the winner's sire this spring. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $115,750. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MARION FRANCIS (f, 3, Constitution--Sophie's Destiny, by Two Punch) ran a close fourth in the GIII Indiana Oaks July 7 before finishing third in both the Cathryn Sophia S. Aug. 24 and Pennsylvania-bred Plum Pretty S. Sept. 25 at Parx. Off as a 6-5 favorite here, the bay dealt with some early traffic trouble and traveled near the tail of the field behind fractions of :23.97 and :47.55. Still in tight between horses on the far turn, she finally tipped into the clear in nearing the furlong grounds and overtook Shesa Mystery (Verrazano) in the shadow of the wire for a neck success. Cont. p3

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

7th-Belmont, $90,000, Msw, 10-21, 2yo, 1 1/16m, ft, 1 1/2 lengths.

MO DONEGAL (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Callingmissbrown, by Pulpit) finished full of run after early trouble to be third debuting locally at 6 1/2 furlongs Sept. 30 and was hammered down to 6-5 favoritism to go two better in this stretchout attempt. Breaking a step slowly, the $250,000 Keeneland September grad ran in fourth in the clear up the backstretch before dropping back a bit nearing the turn. Still appearing to be spinning his wheels while wide past the five-sixteenths pole, he found his best stride in the final furlong and swept past pacesetter Fromanothamutha (Unified) late to score going away by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner's second dam is millionaire and 2004 GI Acorn S. heroine Island Sand (Tabasco Cat). He has a yearling Into Mischief half-sister who was bought by Solis/Litt for $500,000 at Keeneland September and his dam was paired with Curlin this season. Sales History: $250,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. 2nd-Keeneland, $82,020, Msw, 10-21, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 1:17.73, ft, 1 length.

SOCIETY (f, 2, Gun Runner--Etiquette, by Tapit) drifted all the way up over 27-1 from a 10-1 morning-line quote in this debut off a modest-looking worktab at The Thoroughbred Center. Traveling in sixth behind splits of :22.24 and :45.73, the chestnut started to close in on fellow longshot Hypersport (Blame) while on the wrong lead passing the eighth pole, switched over at the sixteenth marker and surged past that rival late for a one-length score. The winner, the 16th for her star freshman sire (by Candy Ride {Arg}), has a yearling Union Rags half-brother named Punctuality and her dam produced a filly by Street Sense named Finesse this term before visiting Omaha Beach. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $50,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

SHUTTERS (c, 3, Get Stormy--Scarlett Madeleine, by Smart Strike) ran a no-factor sixth debuting as an 8-5 favorite against state-breds Aug. 7 at Saratoga and was given an 11-4 chance to make amends here. Away last, the $115,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-Bred buy quickly moved up two spots to sit third just off dawdling fractions of :26.32 and :51.03. Advancing three wide as the pace picked up through three-quarters in 1:14.73, the bay overhauled favored Umbria (Munnings) just inside the eighth pole and held on late to best second choice Mr. Connecticut (Lemon Drop Kid) by a neck. The winner, who is slated to sell as Hip 3614 during Keeneland November's Horses of Racing Age session, is out of an unraced daughter of champion and four-time Grade I winner Escena (Strawberry Road {Aus}) who was bred to Oscar Performance this spring. Sales History: $115,000 Ylg '19 SARAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $42,100. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

US BRED WINNING HAS NO BOUNDARIES

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Tokyo and Hanshin Racecourses. The 3-year-old fillies' Classics concluded with last weekend's G1 Shuka Sho and 3-year-old males get their final chance at Classics glory in Sunday's G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger) at Hanshin. A full field of 17 colts and one filly includes the progressive US-bred Air Sage (Point of Entry), winner of three of his four starts to date:

Saturday, October 23, 2021

2nd-TOK, ¥9,680,000 ($85k), Maiden, 2yo, 1400m

SPEED GLAMOUR (f, 2, Into Mischief--Island Escape, by Petionville) debuted with a solid fourth behind the highly promising $4.7-million juvenile colt Dobune (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn} x Premier Stars {Ire}) at Sapporo Sept. 4 and just missed over this course and distance Oct. 10. A $250K Keeneland September buyback turned $500K OBS March breezer (under-tack video), the bay filly is out of a dual stakes winner whose daughter Tricky Escape (Hat Trick {Jpn}) was successful three times at the graded level on the turf. B-Machmer Hall (KY)

4th-HSN, ¥13,400,000 ($118k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1400m

ADVANCE DREAM (c, 2, Speightstown--Jolene, by Malibu Moon) was acquired for $220K in utero by David Fennelly's Mountmellick Farm and was the last of four KEENOV purchases ($970K gross) in 2018 for the native of County Cork, Ireland. Advance Dream was sold on for $150K as a weanling at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale and was retained on a bid of $190K at KEESEP last fall a few months before his half-brother Arabian Prince (Mshawish) finished third in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Advance Dream's stakes-placed dam is out of MSW Velvet Snow (Subordination). B-Mountmellick Farm (KY)

PER AA (f, 2, American Pharoah--Nomee, by City Zip), a $210K graduate of the 2019 KEENOV sale, is out of an unraced half-sister to MGSW Secret Gypsy (Sea of Secrets), whose three other graded placings include a runner-up effort in the 2008 GII Lexus Raven Run S. Secret Gypsy was sold to Shadai Farm for $540K at KEEJAN in 2011 and has produced six winners from as many to start. Her final foal is the unraced 2-year-old colt Herrenchiemsee (Jpn) (Isla Bonita {Jpn}), who fetched the equivalent of $230K at the 2019 JRHA Select Foal Sale. B-Zayat Stables LLC (KY)

8th-HSN, ¥19,110,000 ($168k), Allowance, 2yo, 1400m

CONCH PEARL (f, 2, American Pharoah--A Z Warrior, by Bernardini) finished runner-up on debut behind 'TDN Rising Star' Command Line (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) on the turf at Tokyo June 5 and the form was flattered when the latter resumed from a four-month absence to scoop the G3 Saudi Arabia Royal Cup two weekends ago. Third in a local grass maiden June 26, Conch Pearl most recently broke the track record when graduating by eight lengths over 1700 meters in her first spin on the dirt Sept. 4 (video, gate 7). The daughter of the 2010 GI Frizette S. heroine, a $340K KEESEP yearling acquisition, cuts back to seven furlongs for this test. B-Triemore Stud (KY)
