FAMED STEPS OUT IN GOLDEN ROD

by Jessica Martini

Famed (Uncle Mo), likely best known as champion Essential Quality (Tapit)'s younger half-sister, began to make her own reputation with a 'TDN Rising Star' graduation at Keeneland in October and the Godolphin homebred could take another step towards living up to her name when she goes postward in the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs Saturday.

Always well thought of by Sheikh Mohammed's operation, Famed's career nonetheless started with a defeat. The Brad Cox trainee was in the mix early as the 4-5 favorite in the six-furlong affair at Churchill Sept. 26 only to come up a length short of 44-1 longshot Sweet Dani Girl (Jess's Dream). That filly came back to win the Myrtlewood S. Oct. 29 at Keeneland.

"She really did run a winning race, but ran into an absolute buzz saw who was a longshot that day, but was a short shot when she won the stakes at Keeneland in her next start," Godolphin's Jimmy Bell said of Famed's runner-up debut effort.

"So that form held up. But obviously, in Brad's mind, that first start was just time to get going. There is nothing like that afternoon race versus two or three more works in the morning and getting that experience. While she ran a winning race, six furlongs was never going to be her best distance. But these individuals who have talent, show talent and that was the case that day."

LEXINGTON THOROUGBRED COMMUNITY MAKES TOWN BRANCH PARK A REALITY

by Katie Petrunyak

Urban parks are well-loved destinations in America's most developed and highly populated cities. Of course Central Park is the first that comes to mind, as well as perhaps Lincoln Park in Chicago or Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. These beautifully designed pieces of landscape architecture serve as gathering places for the city's community and are often stopping points for those visiting a bustling metropolis.

In a few years, Lexington, Kentucky--with a population of less than 400,000--will get a state-of-the-art park of its own in the heart of downtown. Ground is set to be broken next year to transform over nine acres of asphalt parking lot adjacent to Lexington's Convention Center into a green oasis that will be called Town Branch Park.

Four stallions were represented by new stakes winners over the last weekend.

Famed had another furlong to work with when she made her second start at Keeneland Oct. 30 and romped home to win by a geared-down 7 1/2 lengths (video).

"She came back, stretching out to seven-eighths at Keeneland and that suited her a lot better," Bell said. "We had all along been looking forward to stretching her out and seeing what she could really do at a distance that we felt would suit her style."

Famed tuned up for the Golden Rod with a five-furlong work in 1:00.00 (3/12) at Churchill Downs Sunday.

"She is a nice, growthy filly and she's certainly beginning to fill out nicely," Bell said of Famed's development. "She's doing very, very well. We've tried to get her races to be a building process and it's been very straightforward for us so far."

Famed will be trying two turns for the first time in the 1 1/16-mile Golden Rod and connections are eager to see how she takes both the stretch-out and the jump in class.

"What we are looking for is the obvious, the step up in competition and seeing if Brad's feeling of two turns is really going to be what she's all about," Bell said. "That's really what he's been wanting to do since before the first race. We are going to get that opportunity on Saturday."

Godolphin has enjoyed a banner year across the globe in 2021 and the operation could add to its 10 North American Grade I wins when Maxfield (Street Sense) makes his final career start in Friday's GI Clark H.

"Most of the time we get to have a joyful moment occasionally, but it's just been a very strong year," Bell said of the team's 2021 success. "And everybody has contributed so much; Billy Mott, Brendan Walsh, Mike Stidham, Eoin Harty and of course Brad."
Bell continued, “Everybody has had a major horse who had a major contribution. That made it all the more enjoyable that so many people have played such a major role in the success we’ve had this year.”

The idea for the park was born 10 years ago as Lexington was in the midst of a major downtown revitalization project within the hospitality sector. Town Branch Park would be unique in that it would be privately funded by the community. While the city had raised $10 million or even $15 million for projects before, this one would require over $30 million in funding.

It was a lofty goal, but today the fundraising target is already well on its way to being met thanks in large part to Lexington’s equine community.

Kip Cornett is Vice President of External Affairs for the Town Branch Park project and is also on the executive committee. He explained how Lexington’s signature industry has stepped up to turn the park vision into a reality.

"At this point, 26% of all the dollars that we have raised have come from the equine industry and it has really been in an unprecedented way," he said. "The industry has always been benevolent both within the industry and locally, but this is taking it to another level. It’s a really good cross section of farms, individuals and organizations with donations that range from $10,000 to $3 million. We’ve had people who are willing to step up because they see the vision the same way that we do."

When plans for the park were first laid out, a key goal was to focus on bringing the Bluegrass countryside into downtown. That concept resonated with Spendthrift’s Eric Gustavson, who has been a prominent supporter of the project.

"One of the things we were drawn to is the beautiful nature aspect of it in the middle of downtown," Gustavson explained. "We were also drawn to the ability for our team at Spendthrift to be proud of being a part of the amazing project. I think it’s going to be a crown jewel for the city. For tourists, the bourbon industry and Thoroughbred industry are big draws, but I think someday on their itineraries, you’ll see people wanting to visit Town Branch Park."

Spendthrift Farm has already committed to sponsoring the Great Lawn, a sprawling green space in the middle of the park that will resemble the rolling topography of Bluegrass horse pastures.

"With our racing and breeding industry being so related to the turf, we thought there was no better way to make that connection than to sponsor the Great Lawn," Gustavson noted.

The Great Lawn, which will seat over 5,000 people, will be located next to the largest amphitheater in Central Kentucky called The Stage, which will be designed to host everything from local art organization and after-school programs to national touring acts.

"We wanted to make sure the park was very active and not just something that's pretty and is there for people to look at," Cornett said. "There will be a reading room where folks can enjoy some quiet time, as well as a cafe, a large children's playground and a dog park. It will be a highly active 9 1/2 acres that we'll be able to do a lot of things with."

Programs will include Zumba and yoga classes, author readings and book clubs, acapella groups and dancing lessons, movie nights and trivia nights, cooking classes, farmers' markets and more.

2022 Fee $35,000
“We wanted the park to be very inclusive,” Cornett explained. “We see families, college students and senior citizens visiting. The overwhelming majority of the programming will be low cost or no cost. We want to make sure that there are a lot of different options for everybody. The folks behind the park have done a really good job of talking to people to make it their park.”

Lane’s End’s Bill Farish is a member of the Board of Directors for the park and said he is looking forward to the positive effects the project will have on the entire Lexington community.

“I’ve always been aware of private parks that have been built in other cities and how successful they’ve been at keeping them a lot cleaner and better policed than [public] parks,” Farish said. “What’s great about it is that we have a blueprint from other cities that have done the same thing and we’re able to find out what has worked and what hasn’t. It’s something that has had tremendously-positive effects on real estate values around other parks, which lifts everything up.”

To ensure that the park is welcoming to all community members, the Town Branch Board formed the Town Branch Park Partners, a diverse group of 29 community leaders that would reflect the greater Lexington community through their roles with universities, neighborhood groups, transit, urban design, safety and more to ensure that the park is safe and accessible for all.

“We want to make sure that the park is first class in how it’s built, but also in how it’s maintained,” Cornett said. “Once we’ve raised the money to build the park, we will set up a significant endowment and multi-year operating budget because we want this park to be looked on in five years exactly how it looks when we welcome the first visitors.”

The park’s name originates from the historic Town Branch stream, which was once integral to the founding of the city. The waterway will be cleaned and exposed and will run through the heart of the park along the amphitheater.

Upon completion, Town Branch Park will serve as the trailhead between the Town Branch Trail and the Legacy Trail, connecting over 22 miles of protected bike and pedestrian trails throughout downtown and into the countryside and ultimately leading to the Kentucky Horse Park.

“The Town Branch Park was really the last piece of the puzzle,” Cornett said. “We think it will be enjoyable for people whether they’re here every day or they’re visiting. A lot of visitors stay downtown and now they’re going to have a world-class park in their backyard.”

He continued, “With our fundraising, we’re not finished. But without the Thoroughbred industry we would be so far from our goal that it might be difficult to reach. I think it’s a very positive sign that numerous farm owners are not just people who have lived here all their lives, but people who have only lived here a few years. They’ve said, ‘This is my city and we’re a very important industry within it so we need to step up and do this.’”

“My wife and I moved to Lexington four years ago and we’re proud of our new town,” Gustavson said. “We thought there was no better way to show our support for our new city than to get involved with the Town Branch project. I’m so thankful for the people who have been so committed to making this a part of our city.”

“The whole revitalization of downtown that has happened over the last 20 years has been remarkable,” Farish added. “This project would just give it so much more momentum and would be such a positive thing for downtown. It’s a community-wide effort that I think benefits everybody.”

As funds continue to pour in, the team behind the Town Branch Park aims to welcome the first visitors by the end of 2024. Cornett said that along with Spendthrift and Lane’s End, over 20 Thoroughbred organizations have already shown their support for the project including Godolphin U.S.A President Jimmy Bell, who is also a Town Branch board member.

“It’s wonderful to see so many in our industry step up to support this project, whether it’s to help honor Mr. [Ted] Bassett or to ensure that this wonderful park becomes a reality for the community,” Bell said. “Many in our industry either come from or visit cities where parks like Town Branch already exist. I think they recognize the impact those parks have there and they want to provide Lexington the same opportunity through Town Branch. Anticipating the hundreds of programs and special events to be offered yearly to our community truly adds to the vibrant atmosphere this park will provide for one and all to enjoy. This park will be transformational for Lexington and I’m very honored to be involved.”
“There’s no question that sometimes people don’t fully recognize what an economic engine the equine industry is in Central Kentucky,” Cornett said. “It’s really the brand of the city. I think [their support] is two-fold. They see the vision of bringing the countryside into downtown and they see it as an opportunity for Lexington to continue on its path of becoming an even greater city.”

GIRVIN TOPS ROSTER AT OCALA STUD

Girvin (Tale of Ekati), whose first yearlings sold for up to $200,000 this season, will remain at $6,000 for his fourth year at Ocala Stud, the farm announced Monday.

Winner of the GII Risen Star S. and GII Louisiana Derby in 2017, the Brad Grady colorbearer made that year’s GI Haskell Invitational S. the biggest victory of his career. His yearling son of Grade III-winning juvenile filly Gold Edge (Eddington) was purchased by BSW/Crow for $200,000 at Fasig-Tipton this past July, the joint-highest price for a yearling by a first-crop sire.

Seeking the Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}), the 2017 GI Clark H. hero, will cover mares for the second straight year at $5,000, the same price as GI Forego S. victor Win Win Win (Hat Trick {Jpn}).

TRAINERS BAUER, FOLEY, HIT WITH KENTUCKY DRUG SUSPENSIONS by T.D. Thornton

Kentucky stewards have disqualified two winners and a third-place horse while assessing trainers Philip Bauer and Greg Foley 30-day suspensions and $500 fines for three separate post-race drug tests that came back positive in recent months.

It was not immediately known if appeals were in the works. Bauer’s two suspensions will run concurrently because the stewards cited mitigating circumstances (including “first medication violation in training career”), but he will be responsible for paying both fines. Foley’s one suspension got halved via stay to 15 days, also because of mitigating circumstances (”number of violations in relation to overall record”).

According to a pair of Kentucky Horse Racing Commission rulings dated Nov. 18, the Bauer-trained Angkor (Anchor Down), who ran third in a June 13 allowance/optional claiming sprint at Churchill Downs June 13, and Played Hard (Into Mischief), who won a maiden special weight route June 20, both returned positive tests for meloxicam, a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory analgesic listed as a Class B (second-most severe tier) substance in Kentucky.

The rulings stated that in addition to his prior clean record, the fact that Bauer was not notified of the first finding before the second one registered a week later was also a factor in allowing his suspensions to be served concurrently over Dec. 5-Jan. 3.

The Foley-trained On Your Mark (Mark Valeski) won a NW1X/N2L allowance turf sprint at Ellis Park Aug. 1 and then tested positive for an acepromazine metabolite. The tranquilizer known as ”ace” is a Class B penalty in Kentucky.

Foley’s suspension runs Dec. 5-19. The remaining 15 days will be stayed provided he does not register any Class A or B drug violations in any jurisdiction within a year of the Nov. 18 ruling.

'QUALITY' COLT DEBUTS IN STAKES

COMPANY by Alan Carasso

4th-ZIA, Zia Park Juvenile S., $50K, 2yo, 6f, post time: 3:21 ET

After New Mexico trainer Todd Fincher signed the winning ticket at $870,000 on a colt by Quality Road at last year’s Keeneland September Sale, Bob Baffert was overheard saying to Fincher and his owner Lori Owens, “You bought my horse.” The gray, now named BYE BYE BOBBY gets going in Tuesday’s Zia Park Juvenile S., the first of seven stakes on the Zia Park Derby undercard. Bred by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC, the April foal is out of Revel in the Win (Red Bullet) and is a half-brother to GSW Poker Player (Harlan’s Holiday), the MSW War Treaty (Scat Daddy) and the stakes-placed Coleman Rocky (Harlan’s Holiday). The female family also includes the talented turf horse of the mid- to late-1990s Ops Smile (Caveat). “This is the top of the line and that’s where we all strive to get to someday,” Fincher told the TDN’s Brian DiDonato at KEESEP last fall. “He was just perfect-bodied, perfectly balanced. The breeding was there. We couldn’t fault him in any way.” Bye Bye Bobby worked a bullet five-eighths from the gate in :59 1/5 Nov. 3.

Timeless Bounty | Conrad Photography
Claimed for $15,000 out of a non-threatening fourth at ThistleDown Oct. 6, Timeless Bounty earned over 11 times that with an improbable victory in Monday's $250,000 Steel Valley Sprint S.

Racing with three rivals behind early on—including the slow-starting and heavily favored Baby Yoda (Prospective)—as Beren and 'TDN Rising Star' Jaxon Traveler eyeballed one another up front, Timeless Bounty commenced his rally three furlongs out, but still appeared to have too much to do turning for home.

Beren got the better of the pace battle and set sail for the wire, but, produced down the center of the track by Malcolm Franklin, Timeless Bounty raced over the top to cause the boilover.

Seventh of eight in his lone previous black-type attempt in the Aug. 2 Tom Ridge S. at Presque Isle, Timeless Bounty was halted for $12,500 out of a victory at Thistle Aug. 24. Third in a starter/optional claimer at that track Sept. 6, he was taken two back by these connections and was exiting a third-place effort when connections were happy to dangle him for $25,000 in a local optional claimer Oct. 25.

Nava produced a filly by Dominus this year and was covered by the son of Smart Strike thereafter.

The 104th stakes winner for her leading sire, Call On Mischief is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to two black-type winners and has a yearling half-sister by Hard Spun and a weanling half-sister by Union Rags. Callmethesqueeze was RNAd for $110,000 in foal to Street Sense at the just-completed Keeneland November Sale.

Margins: HF, (NK, NK). Odds: 3.70, 14.10, 2.70.
Also Ran: Mundaye Call, Kamar Taj, Sheisthehero, Dark Honey, Blood Curdling, Two Sixtynie. Scratched: Clifton's Ballerina, Palace Avenger, Prodigy Doll, Trickizar.

Call On Mischief raced handy to the pace was thrown across the line by Jose Lezcano for an important first black-type victory in Monday's Mahoning Distaff S. at the Youngstown, Ohio, racino.

Content to settle in third as Ever Wonder duelled inside of favored Mundaye Call (Into Mischief), Call On Mischief loomed up and made a line of three into the stretch. Racing in lockstep with the long-time leaders into the final furlong, Call On Mischief refused to lie down and clawed her way home first. Victim Of Love was up on the wire to share second with Ever Wonder.

Claimed for $62,500 out of a third-place effort at Aqueduct last December, Call On Mischief had failed to win in eight starts for her new barn while earning her keep with placings in the Correction S. at the Big A in March and in the July 31 Alma North S. at Pimlico ahead of runner-up efforts in allowance company at Monmouth Sept. 6 and at Parx Oct. 18.

The 104th stakes winner for her leading sire, Call On Mischief is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to two black-type winners and has a yearling half-sister by Hard Spun and a weanling half-sister by Union Rags. SMARTEN UP (c, 2, American Freedom--Sarah Cataldo, by Smarty Jones) finished with interest to be runner-up on seven-furlong debut at this track Sept. 25 and was exiting a pace-pressing third in a one-mile test Oct. 20, good for a strong 71 Beyer Speed Figure. Four wide around the first time and right on top of a strong early pace, the even-money chalk punched the breeze down the backstretch. Allowed to poke his head in front in the three-eighths pole, the chestnut put a big break on them in upper stretch and cantered under the wire nine lengths to the good. Smarten Up, the 16th winner for his freshman sire (by Pulpit), is a half-brother to Tiger Blood (Cowtown Cat), MSW, $564,770. The useful Sarah Cataldo was purchased by Summerfield Sales for $20,000 with this colt in utero at the 2018 Keeneland November sale and she produced a colt from the first crop of Girvin in 2020 after being bought back for $17,000 at the OBS Winter Mixed Sale. Drawing ever closer to the front-runner nearing the stretch, Bullet Butch joined the battle in earnest at the eighth pole and edged clear to take it by a length. Bullet Butch is out of a winning daughter of MSW Hollow Miss (With Approval), also the dam of GSW He’s Got Grit (Songandaprayer), at one time the owner of the 4 1/2-furlong track record at Churchill Downs; and of MGSP Maria Maria (Curlin). DUGAT (c, 2, Practical Joke--Untraveled {MSP, $159,980}, by Put It Back) broke his maiden by an easy four lengths going six panels on turf at Hanshin Oct. 16 and was the 29-10 third betting favorite while adding an extra furlong here. Alertly away from gate nine for Yutaka Take, the $190,000 OBS March purchase quickly opened up daylight on his rivals and maintained a clear margin around the turn. Held together into the long straight at Tokyo, Dugat felt a right-handed stick approaching the eighth pole and switched onto his incorrect lead late, but managed to stay on for a neck success. Dugat is one of two winners from two Japanese starters for his sire, who has also been represented by this owner’s OBSMAR topper Clos de Mesnil, who scored at first asking Nov. 7. Sticking to the Into Mischief thread, Untraveled produced a colt by Goldencents this past April and was bred back to Audible. Sales history: $190,000 2yo ‘21 OBSMAR. RECORD MEDIAN BRINGS SOLID START TO DECEMBER SALE

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK—William Haggas will be the recipient of the full-brother to his erstwhile stable star Sea Of Class (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) after Ling Tsui went to 240,000gns through John Clarke to add the June-born youngster to her racing string for 2022.

Bred by the Botti family’s Razza del Velino from the stellar producer Holy Moon (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), lot 30 was consigned through Oak Lodge & Springfield House Stud. In addition to Sea Of Class, his half-siblings include three winners of the Oaks d'Italia in Charity Line (Ire), Final Score (Ire) and Cherry Collect (Ire). Cont. p2

PARKER, BATUM PURCHASE STUD FARM

Former basketball team mates, friends and business partners Tony Parker and Nicolas Batum have joined together to purchase the 86-hectare Haras de Quetieville outside Deauville.

Parker, who is a burgeoning racehorse owner under his Infinity Nine Horses banner, said, “This investment was not planned in the short term, but I loved [the stud] when I visited it for the first time. With [Infinity Nine Executive Director] Clement [Tropres], we worked hard before launching this acquisition. It is a real pleasure to share this adventure with Nicolas Batum, my partner in most of my projects. We really want our Domaine de Quetieville to be open to everyone--trainers, owners, but also to a new clientele.” Cont. p7

"Sea Of Class was a late May foal, so we hope we can do the same again. Time will tell," said Clarke after outbidding Jane Chapple-Hyam for the colt.

"He will eventually go to William Haggas but we will probably take him back to Ireland first to give him a bit of time to mature. He is an athletic horse but he is still quite a baby. Ling Tsui is absolutely thrilled, she had so much success with Sea Of Class."

The Tattersalls December Yearling sale brought the curtain down on the lengthy European yearling season with a new record median price for the sale of 27,000gns (+35%) and the second-highest turnover recorded at this auction. The tally of 5,067,500gns was up by 27% on last year with 23 more horses sold this time.

That was accrued from the sale of 145 horses of the 164 put through the ring for a slightly improved clearance rate of 88%. The average of 34,948gns was up by 7%.

With a dark day on Tuesday ahead of the start of the December Foal Sale, a strong start to a fortnight of trading at Tattersalls bodes well for the four days of weanlings followed by another four days of fillies and mares next week.

Invincible’s Army

A full-sibling to another Group 1 winner, this time the Prix Morny and Middle Park S. winner Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), was the leading filly of the day at 150,000gns. Originally offered during Book 1 of the October Sale and bought back at 200,000gns by her breeders Mark and Aisling Gittins, the daughter of Ghurra (War Chant) took the fancy of agent Mark McStay and trainer Hugo Palmer when passing through the ring as lot 22.

Mark McStay

"When you've purchased a full-sister to a champion you have to be pretty excited and she's a lovely filly," McStay said. "The mare has obviously done it and the filly is very athletic with huge residual value. It takes quite a lot for us to spec a filly at that level but thankfully we've already had someone interested in taking a share."

Palmer, who trains the filly's 2-year-old half-sister Nova Legend (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) for Bon Ho, added, "She's done so well since the October Sale. She's quite a late foal and I think the hard thing for people trying to sell horses is that it's a snapshot in a young horse's life. She has really improved since October and I think she will keep improving. As Mark said, she's a full-sister to a champion and Shalaa was a hell of a horse."

Three of the top seven lots sold on the day were all yearlings by the Irish National Stud's Invincible Spirit, with Shadwell's smartly-bred filly out of the G3 City of York S. winner Talaayeb (GB) (Dansili {GB}) having been bought to go breezing by Mick Murphy of Longways Stables for 120,000gns. A fourth-generation descendant of Sheikh Hamdan’s key foundation mare Height Of Fashion (Fr), lot 136 can boast black-type winners as her first four dams.

The sole colt by Invincible Spirit (lot 77) also owns an impressive pedigree as a half-brother to rising young stallion and G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Zelzal (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) as well as the G3 Prix Chloe victrix Ibiza (Fr) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}). Offered by The Castlebridge Consignment on behalf of breeders Viktor Tymoshenko and Andrey Milovanov, who will be retaining a share in the June-foaled colt, he was knocked down in the ring for 100,000gns to agent Tina Rau and trainer Nicolas Clement.

She said, "It's a family I know well. Nicolas Clement trained the half-sister Ibiza and Zelzal, and Zelzal is one of the most exciting young stallions in France. You couldn’t really fault the mare’s produce record. He's just a lovely little horse, he's quite babyish, but he was born in June. He's athletic and seems to have a good head on him for such a young horse. I'm chuffed to have got him."

On the Hunt For The Next Audarya

The recently retired dual Group 1 winner Audarya (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) is a hard act to follow but her owner Alison Swinburn has already made several yearling purchases this season through her agent and advisor Anthony Stroud and added two to her string on Monday at Tattersalls.

Close to the end of the sale, Stroud, signed for the Shadwell-consigned Teofilo (Ire) filly (lot 198) out of the listed-placed dual winner Dubai Fashion (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Another to hail from the family of Height Of Fashion (Fr), she brought the hammer down at 135,000gns.

Confirming that the granddaughter of G2 Premio Ribot winner Oriental Fashion (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) would be trained, like Audarya, by James Fanshawe, Stroud said, "She's going to need a bit of time but she is a very easy-moving filly." Cont. p5

Breeding the future

Territories: his best daughter Rougir has an official rating of 118 — higher than any filly by fellow second-crop sires Mehmas and New Bay.

His best son Aldaary is Timeform rated 124 — superior to any colt by Mehmas or New Bay.

And yet his fee... well, there’s just no comparison.

Earlier in the day, the same team had signed for lot 78, a colt from the second crop of Churchill (Ire), for 33,000gns.

A few minutes prior to the Teofilo filly’s sale, one of the best pinhooks of the day (lot 192) was secured by the Hanly family of Ballyhimikin Stud, who sold a New Bay (GB) colt for 125,000gns to Peter Doyle. The son of the French listed winner Crossover (GB) (Cape Cross (Ire)) had been bought for 26,000gns as a foal by Jack Hanly and will now go into training in Epsom with Jim Boyle for owners Paul Taylor and Richard Dwyer.

Pinhookers in Play

The breeze-up pinhookers were still out in force on Monday, with Tom Whitehead adding a well-bred son of the late Shamardal to his Powerstown Stud team for next spring.

Lot 138 was another from the Shadwell draft and is out of the G3 Prix Ris-Orangis winner Thawaany (Ire) (Tamayuz (GB)), herself a half-sister to the St Leger and Grand Prix de Paris winner Kew Gardens (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)).

Whitehead, who had to go to 92,000gns to secure the colt, said, “Pedigrees like this don’t come on the market very often. He looks a type to breeze—he’s strong and he looks like Shamardal.” Cont. p6
A filly from the first crop of the Breeders’ Cup Mile winner Expert Eye (GB) caught the eye of pinhookers Willie Browne and Jim McCartan in the walking ring and she is likely to return for the Craven Breeze-up in April after being bought for 85,000gns.
"She wasn’t on the list," Browne admitted. "I only pulled her out in the back ring, and I was blown away when I saw her. She’s the first I’ve had by the sire but he was a good racehorse, and she is such a good walker. We genuinely loved her."
Consigned by Barton Sales as lot 95, the filly, bred by Biddestone Stud, has Sir Michael Stoute-trained Breeders’ Cup winners on both sides of her pedigree as her dam Queen’s Charter (GB) is an Oasis Dream (GB) half-sister to Cheveley Park Stud’s Filly & Mare Turf winner Queen’s Trust (GB) (Dansili (GB)).

International Participation Continues
The veteran Tom Melbourne (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) has been one of the most popular horses in training in Australia in recent seasons and his yearling half-brother by Teofilo (Ire) will eventually follow in his footsteps, running in the same colours, having been bought by OTI Racing for 88,000gns.
Consigned as lot 106, the colt out of Roshanak (Ire) (Spinning World) was bred by Rathregan Stud and was purchased on OTI’s behalf by Conall Meegan of Beechwood Bloodstock, who confirmed that he would eventually head to Australia.
"He’s quite a robust and compact model and he was a must-buy for my client, OTI Racing," Meegan said. "He’s obviously related to a highly-rated horse in Australia and he has a pedigree that should fit the profile down there, so hopefully he will do well. He will probably stay in the UK for now, nothing has been discussed, but he will target Cup races in a couple of years."
Action returns to the ring at Tattersalls on Wednesday for the start of the foal sale at 10 a.m.

He added, “Our team will always be available for the external customers of the Domaine but also to serve a medium-term ambition: to breed the future early champion 2-year-olds, like my career. Ambition, patience, and determination were our leitmotifs when Infinity Nine Horses was launched. They are even more on the Domaine de Quetieville.”

CONTRAIL WILL RETIRE TO SHADAI AFTER JAPAN CUP RUN

Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)--Rhodochrosite, by Unbridled’s Song) will retire to Shadai Stallion Station in Japan after making his final start in the G1 Japan Cup on Nov. 28. The news was first reported by BloodHorse. A fee for the 4-year-old North Hills Co., Ltd-bred will be announced later.

The Shinji Maeda colourbearer, who is trained by Yoshito Yahagi, was named the Japanese Champion 2-Year-Old Colt of 2019 on the back of a flawless campaign that culminated in a 1 1/2-length win in the G1 Hopeful S. after taking the 1800-metre G3 Tokyo Sports Hai Nisai S. in a record time of 1:44.50 in November of that year.

Contrail made his 3-year-old bow in the Apr. 19 G1 Japanese 2000 Guineas, and maintained his unbeaten record with more victories in the May 31 G1 Japanese Derby and G2 Kobe Shimbun Hai on Sept. 27. He just lasted for a neck score in the G1 Japanese St. Leger to become the eighth Japanese Triple Crown Winner on Oct. 25, 2020. Although he lost the G1 Japan Cup to the Japanese Horse of the Year Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa (Jpn)) running second, Contrail still earned divisional honours as the Japanese Champion 3-Year-Old Colt. His 2021 record shows a third in the G1 Osaka Hai at Hanshin in April and a second in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) to 2021 Japanese 2000 Guineas hero Efforia (Jpn) (Epiphaneia (Jpn)) on Halloween. He has earned $8,311,887 from just 10 starts, with seven wins, two seconds and a third.

His dam, the placed Unbridled’s Song mare Rhodochrosite, was picked up by Koji Maeda for $385,000 as a Keeneland September yearling in 2011.

Contrail is her third foal, while his granddam Folklore (Tiznow) was a winner of the G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, the GI Matron S. and the GI Adirondack S. and was also named the Eclipse Champion Juvenile Filly in 2005. A half-sister to Folklore, the multiple stakes-placed Delightful Quality (Elusive Quality), is the dam of 2020 U.S. Champion Juvenile Colt and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile winner Essential Quality (Tapit), who progressed to take the 2021 GI Belmont S. as a sophomore and will stand for $75,000 at Darley America next year.

WHAT A WINTER FILLY LEADS BSA NOVEMBER

A juvenile filly by What a Winter (SAf) brought R800,000 (£37,797/E45,051/$50,687) to top the Bloodstock South Africa November 2-Year-Old Sale at the TBA complex in Germiston on Saturday. Purchased by Hollywood Syndicate, the full-sister to G2 Camellia S. and G3 Man O’War Sprint winner Celestial Love (SAf) (What a Winter SAf) was consigned by Hemel ‘N Aarde Stud as lot 29.

The sale’s priciest colt was lot 49, a son of Querari (Ger), who went to Greg Bortz for R750,000. A half-brother to the stakes-placed duo of Twinkle Toes (SAf) (Captain Al (SAf)) and Light On Her Toes (SAf) (Gimmethegreenlight (Aus)), the trio is out of Grade 1 winner On Her Toes (SAf) (Western Winter).

At the end of the day’s trade, 135 lots were sold for a gross of R18,800,000 (£888,464/E1,058,616/$1,190,758). The average was R140,299 and the median was R100,000 (£4,725/E5,632/$6,336). For the complete results, please visit the Bloodstock South Africa website.

THE COMPARATIVE VALUE OF GLOBAL STALLIONS

by Bren O’Brien

With the 2022 stallion fees for the upcoming Northern Hemisphere breeding season now released, TDN AusNZ has examined the comparative value of the world’s leading sires in North America, Europe and Australia.

Darley superstar Dubawi (Ire) will be the highest-priced advertised stallion in the world in 2022 when he serves his 16th book of mares at Dalham Hall Stud.

It will be his seventh season at his current fee of £250,000 (AU$460,000), and with a career-high tally of 38 stakes winners in 2021, including a recent treble of Breeders’ Cup winners in Space Blues (Ire), Yibir (GB) and Modern Games (Ire), his progeny have never been hotter on the racetrack.

Frankel (GB)’s fee at Juddmonte’s Banstead Manor jumped from £175,000 (AU$325,000) to £200,000 (AU$371,000) in 2022, off the back of a 2021 where he has had 26 stakes winners, including eight at Group 1 level. That list includes Australian-bred pair Hungry Heart and Converge as well as the winners of both the Epsom and Irish Derbies. He is now the second most expensive sire in the world.

Spendthrift’s Into Mischief (USA) is the highest-priced North American sire with his 2022 fee up to US$250,000 (AU$342,000), having backed up his brilliant 2020 with another 26 stakes winners in 2021, highlighted by multiple Grade I winner Gamine (USA) and GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile winner Life Is Good (USA).

Kingman (GB), who stands at Banstead Manor alongside Frankel, is fourth on the price list at £150,000 (AU$276,000), a price he has stood at for the past three years. He has had 18 global stakes winners in 2021 highlighted by triple Group 1 winner Palace Pier (GB).

Legendary Gainesway stallion Tapit (USA) rounds out the top five globally at US$185,000 (AU$253,000), remaining at his 2021 fee. He stood at US$300,000 (AU$413,000) in his pomp, but is still a prolific producer of stakes winners, with 13 in 2021, including GI Belmont S. winner Essential Quality (USA), who begins his own stallion career at Jonabell Farm in 2022 at US$75,000 (AU$104,000).

As a matter of comparison, in the 2021 season, I Am Invincible was the highest-priced Australian stallion at $200,000 (ex GST), with Snitzel, Fastnet Rock and Written Tycoon all at $150,000 (ex GST).

Austalian prices are quoted without GST as a means of standardising as overseas stallions are not typically advertised with tax included.

Stallion Fees by Region

One method of judging the relative fees for stallions in various jurisdictions is by looking at the average and median price of stallions in each jurisdiction.

For the sake of this article, Ireland and Europe have been grouped together as they operate in euro. We did not assess Japanese stallions, as the article’s intention is to look at comparisons between Australasia with the United States, Great Britain and Europe/Ireland.

In the United States, the average service fee across those ranked top 10 on price is AU$196,000, with a median price of around AU$188,000.

In Great Britain, across the top 10 stallions, the average price is AU$159,000 and the median is AU$83,000, while the average is almost identical in Ireland and Europe (AU$159,000) but with a much higher median of AU$154,000.

In Australia, the average price (ex-GST) of the top 10 stallions on service fee is AU$127,000, while the median is AU$130,000.

The Money Spinners

Comparing prizemoney across various jurisdictions can be fraught, but as things stand, Into Mischief (USA) is the top earning active stallion across the above jurisdictions in 2021 on global progeny earnings of around AU$31.6 million.
Dubawi is second on that list. Allowing for various currency conversions, his progeny have earned AU$26.6 million, while Ghostzapper (USA), Make Believe (GB) (through the deeds of his Saudi Cup-winning son Mishriff (USA) and Frankel have all earned in the AU$20-million range, along with the Australian stallion with the highest earnings so far this calendar year, Snitzel.

I Am Invincible’s 2021 progeny earnings stand sat just over AU$18.5 million, just ahead of Waikato Stud powerhouse Savabeel, who had AU$17.7 million and Widden Stud’s Nicconi with AU$17.6 million.

Outside the jurisdictions mentioned, and as a means of comparison, of the Japanese stallions, the late Deep Impact (Jpn) leads the world in 2021 with progeny earnings in the vicinity of AU$83 million, while Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) is the leading active stallion with around AU$45.6 million.

While Dubawi has been the leading global producer of stakes winners in 2021, with 38, Into Mischief is the leading winner-getter with 237 ahead of Lord Kanaloa on 232 while I Am Invincible has 202.

In the Ring

With the major yearling sales mostly completed on either side of the world, we can assess which are the most commercially successful stallions among those jurisdiction’s mentioned above.

On an aggregate basis, the honour belongs to Australia’s own I Am Invincible, who across his 104 yearlings sold in 2021 grossed $55.3 million. Among that list has been 11 $1 million-plus lots, or over 10% of those offered.

In fact, three of the top five spots on that list are filled by Australian sires, with Snitzel third on $41.5 million across his 90 sales, and Zoustar fifth, with $38.7 million in aggregate yearling sales in both hemispheres.

With his first crop available in the Northern Hemisphere this year, Zoustar had 185 sales through global rings in 2021, which on the data we have seen, puts him on top of any global list as to most number of yearlings sold.

Into Mischief (USA), the Northern Hemisphere-based stallion with the highest aggregate yearling sales, is second globally in what converts to AU$50.5 million, while Justify (USA) grossed AU$40.3 million with his first American crop to sit fourth. He’s the one likely to make the major move in 2022, with his first Australian yearlings to sell in the New Year giving him twice the commercial power.

The top European sire on aggregate sales is Kingman (GB), who has AU$31.2 million worth of yearlings sell, while Lope De Vega (Ire), who grossed AU$29.6 million, leads the Irish/European sires.

A compilation of the top five stallions in each of the regions when it comes to aggregate yearling sales points to the health of the commercial Australian stallion industry, particularly at the high end.

Australia's top five active stallions grossed a total of $180 million, around $30 million more than the stallions based in the United States, while Ireland/Europe’s top five grossed a combined $116 million and Great Britain, $95 million.

That is impacted by the volume of stock made available from those stallions, with 587 yearlings globally sold from Australia’s top five grossing stallions. That compares to 427 in Ireland/Europe, 407 in the United States and just 265 in Great Britain.

The Law of Averages

The low number of offered yearlings by elite stallions in Great Britain reflects the nature of an industry which simply doesn’t sell the same volume of horses in the top end. A lot of the stock of these stallions is privately held in major breeding operations.
What that means for a stallion like Dubawi (Ire), who has had just 23 yearlings go through the ring in 2021, is that they dominate when it comes to average selling price.

The average price of those 23 Dubawi yearlings, when converted to Australian currency for comparison purposes is $989,000.

That puts him top of the list across the four regions, ahead of Quality Road (USA), who has averaged the equivalent of $631,000 and Curlin (USA), who has averaged $560,000.

I Am Invincible is fourth and the leading Australian stallion by average on $532,000, just ahead of Into Mischief (USA) ($530,000) and Frankel (GB) ($519,000). Then follows Justify (USA) ($498,000), Tapit ($466,000) and Kingman (GB) ($466,000), with Snitzel ($461,000) rounding out the top 10.

The final point of comparison worth making is the relative affordability of these stallions based on their average yearling price as a percentage of their current service fee.

It is worth noting at this point, that for the purpose of this exercise, we are using their 2021 service fee, not the price when their 2021 yearlings were conceived, so it is not meant as a basis of measure commercial return from specific crops. It is useful, however, in determining the relative value of current stallion fees which tend to be influenced by the yearling market.

Among the stallions we included, which are the top 20 on service fee in each of the four jurisdictions, the stallion with highest ratio is Lane’s End City Of Light (USA), whose average yearling price in 2021 ($437,000) is 5.3 times what his 2022 service fee is ($82,118).

Second in that regard is Juddmonte’s Oasis Dream (GB), whose yearling average of $151,000 is 4.1 times his 2022 service fee, while Darley’s Harry Angel (Ire) is third, with a ratio of 3.7.

The top Australian stallion on that list is Snitzel, who is 10th on the list. His 2021 yearling average of $461,000 is 3.07 times his 2021 service fee at Arrowfield of $150,000. I Am Invincible is 16th at 2.66 and Lonhro 18th on 2.62.
