LETRUSKA JOINS ELITE COMPANY WITH APPLE BLOSSOM DEFENSE

Letruska goes back-to-back in the Apple Blossom | Coady

by Alan Carasso

St George Stable's Letruska (Super Saver) added her name to a select group in defense of her title in Saturday's GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park, joining the legendary Paseana (Arg), Azeri and Zenyatta as multiple winners of the track's signature event for the dirt distaff set. In winning for a remarkable 19th time in her 25-race career, the 6-year-old reigning Eclipse Award winner held off a late bid from Clairiere (Curlin) and fellow champion Ce Ce (Elusive Quality), herself an ultra-game winner of this race in the early throes of the COVID-19 outbreak two years ago.

Off as the 9-10 chalk, Letruska came out a bit at the break and bothered Clairiere slightly, but was unchallenged for the early lead and took the quintet into the first turn while charting a course three off the inside in advance of 63-1 Miss Imperial (Maclean's Music).

Allowed to lob them along down the backstretch through a relatively easy half-mile in :47.26, the 6-year-old led the Apple Blossom field into the turn, but soon had to brace for a challenge from Ce Ce, who was niggled along approaching the half-mile marker, but rolled up outside with about 2 1/2 furlongs to travel.

CLASSIC HOPEFULS TURN IT UP A NOTCH

With two weeks remaining until the first weekend of May, several chief protagonists for the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Longines Kentucky Oaks turned in some key breezes in Kentucky and California.

Jeff Drown's Zandon (Upstart), who cemented his spot in the Derby field with an eye-catching victory in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 9, has remained in Lexington to train up to the big race and went a half-mile in :48.60 (video). The $170,000 Keeneland September graduate covered his opening furlong in :12.80, then gradually picked up speed through subsequent splits of :25.20 and :37 flat, with trainer Chad Brown and big-race rider Flavien Prat observing from the grandstand. Zandon galloped out five furlongs in 1:00.80, three-quarters of a mile in 1:13.80 and was up seven panels in 1:27.80.

LAST SAMURAI 'SPRINGS' SURPRISE AT OAKLAWN 8

Off at odds just shy of 13-1, Last Samurai (Malibu Moon) got a second wind at the top of the stretch and kicked away late to give owner Willis Horton a second consecutive GII Oaklawn H. victory.

SCALDING PUNCHES HOME IN BEN ALI 11

In the meantime, last year's GI Cotillion S. heroine Clairiere had quietly crept into contention, followed the move of Ce Ce off the second turn and peeled out with a menacing three-wide challenge of her own in upper stretch. For a few strides, it appeared as if her momentum might carry her by Letruska, but the champ dug in--veering out into the path of Ce Ce, but never causing her to break stride or Victor Espinoza to cease riding--and was home first. Clairiere closed off well for second as the field crossed the wire in odds order.

The 2021 Apple Blossom was a coming-out party of sorts for Letruska, who caught the attention of most racing fans with a nose defeat of multiple champion Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) after losing the lead at midstretch. From there, the homebred rattled off victories in the GI Odgen Phipps S., the GII Fleur de Lis S., the GI Personal Ensign S. and GI Juddmonte Spinster S., locking up a championship prior to Breeders' Cup Saturday. The bay retreated to beat just one home at Del Mar in November after chasing a suicidal pace, but, kept in training for 2022, resumed with a smooth three-length tally in Gulfstream's GIII Royal Delta S. Feb. 26.

"This horse is different," said winning trainer Fausto Gutierrez. "To win the Apple Blossom twice is great. This was a handicap and now we're giving weight, you have to remember that."

Letruska carried top weight of 124 pound, three more than both Clairiere and Ce Ce.

"When we won the Apple Blossom last year, Monomoy [Girl] was giving us weight," he continued. "All the time I'm nervous with these races. She's come back in good form and now we're thinking about the next race."

Pedigree Notes:

St George Stables acquired the Grade II-placed Magic Appeal carrying the foal that would become Letruska for $100,000 at the 2015 Keeneland November Sale and has since gone on to become the dam of the late Trigger Warning (Candy Ride {Arg}), a two-time stakes winner and third at cricket-score odds behind McKinzie in the 2018 GI Pennsylvania Derby.

Magic Appeal's now 9-year-old stakes-placed daughter American Doll (Tiznow) is the dam of the Glen Hill Farm's twice-raced 3-year-old filly Wandering (Malibu Moon) and the 2-year-old filly Mischievous Doll (Into Mischief), a $275,000 KEESEP purchase by AMO Racing USA, who breezed three furlongs in :37.40 (9/22) at The Thoroughbred Center Saturday morning.

Letruska's 3-year-old homebred half-brother Ocotzingo (Hard Spun) broke his maiden over the Gulfstream synthetic track Apr. 15, and Magic Appeal is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Prudencio (Arrogate) and a yearling filly by Malibu Moon. The mare was most recently covered by Curlin.

"He was moving super; just what we wanted to see," Brown said. "We just wanted to maintain where he is. He does not have to get any fitter. I was impressed with how he galloped out."

Zandon is scheduled to ship to Churchill Sunday morning and will have his final Derby drill next Saturday.

Among those working beneath the Twin Spires Saturday was Blue Grass runner-up and 'TDN Rising Star' Smile Happy (Runhappy), who worked five furlongs in the company of his GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks-winning stable companion Tiz the Bomb (Hit It a Bomb). Smile Happy, whose docket includes a second-out victory in Churchill's GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., began the work about one length ahead of Brian Hernandez, Jr. and Tiz the Bomb (1:00.20), who moved to the outside of Smile Happy (1:00.40) and finished on even terms.

"We were just looking for an easy move today and we got that," trainer Kenny McPeek said. "We'll probably do the same thing again next week."

A day after stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Zozos (Munnings) sizzled six furlongs in 1:12.40, Gold Square's GI Arkansas Derby hero Cyberknife (Gun Runner) followed suit Saturday morning. Working at 5:15 a.m. with Florent Geroux at the controls, the Gold Square colorbearer went the same distance a tick quicker, then galloped out an extra furlong in :12.40, according to noted Churchill clocker John Nichols. Geroux also breezed Zozos on Friday, but retains the call on Cyberknife for the Derby. Cont. p6

"It was a really strong move and he's a really good work horse," Geroux said. "He continues to improve as time goes on and he showed that winning the Arkansas Derby. Even going back to his allowance win before the Arkansas Derby he showed a new level of class."(Click to hear Brad Cox discuss Cyberknife's work with Jennie Rees)

Cyberknife was sharp Saturday at Churchill | Coady

The one-eyed Un Ojo (Laoban) was also out for a serious move Saturday morning at Churchill, working five furlongs in :59.40 for trainer Ricky Courville in splits of :11.60, :23, :35 and :47.60 before galloping out six panels in 1:12.20.

"It's amazing being here at Churchill Downs," said Courville's son Clay. "I've been here before but nothing like this. [Un Ojo] is getting over the track really well."

At Santa Anita Saturday morning, 'TDN Rising Star' Messier (Empire Maker) went five furlongs in :59.80 for trainer Tim Yakteen, galloping out six furlongs in 1:12 and change, per a tweet from the ownership group's Tom Ryan. The Ontario-bred works again next Friday before shipping to Kentucky.

Expected to work Sunday are the Steve Asmussen duo of GII Louisiana Derby winner Epicenter (Not This Time) and Echo Zulu (Gun Runner), each among the favorites for the Derby and Oaks, respectively.

Kathleen O. Leads Oaks Workers...

Winngate Stables' Kathleen O. (Upstart), undefeated winner of the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks and also among the top fancies for the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks, prepped for that engagement Saturday at Keeneland, breezing a measured half-mile in :48.80 (video) for her Hall of Fame conditioner Shug McGaughey.

"She picked it up and galloped out strong," said assistant trainer Anthony Hamilton. "We are in good shape. She's a happy horse--that's what you look for."

Kathleen O. ships across to Churchill Monday or Tuesday, according to Hamilton.

Kathleen O. | Coady

Candy Raid (Candy Ride {Arg}), upset winner of the Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway Park Apr. 2, went four furlongs in :49.20 (video) with Rafael Bejarano in the irons.

"This was her last work here," said Bejarano, who rode Candy Raid for the first time in the victory at Turfway. "She's feeling good. I got her out five-eighths in 1:02 and change."

Candy Raid is scheduled to ship to Churchill on Thursday and have her final pre-Oaks work there.

Oaks workers at Churchill included GIII Pocahontas S. winner Hidden Connection (Connect, 5f in 1:00.60); GIII Gazelle S. victress Nostalgic (Medaglia d'Oro, 4f, :48.80); and Busher S. romper and Gazelle runner-up Venti Valentine (Firing Line, 4f, :47.40).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A TALE OF TWO APPLE BLOSSOM WINNERS

by Catherine Riccio

In the 1980s the horse racing game was filled with white bridles and D. Wayne Lukas winning just about every weekend stakes race from coast to coast. The slogan which handicappers used was "D. Wayne off the plane," referring to his ability to ship horses to different tracks and pick up stakes wins.

Several of Lukas's fillies included Landaluce, Terlingua, Lady's Secret, Life's Magic, Family Style, Lucky Lucky Lucky, Miss Huntington and the list goes on. When I think back of my first years working at the track, two fillies come to my mind: Heatherten and Sefa's Beauty. Both mares at one time were trained by Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott. Cont. p7

One prestigious thing that both athletes had in common was that they both were winners of the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park. The Apple Blossom has been known to attract the finest fillies and mares to the Hot Springs track. The race has usually produced several champions, including Horse of the Year honorees Zenyatta and Havre de Grace.

What also is interesting is neither of these mares [Heatherten nor Sefa's Beauty] were inducted in the National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame. Unfortunately, their careers were before internet so there are no charts to see how they ran. Were they speed favoring? Off the pace? No pictures or videos. The only photo I found was one I purchased on eBay of Sefa's Beauty winning at Fair Grounds. Also, I reached out to Barbara Livingston who had a photo of Heatherten and her groom Randy.

An Apple Blossom field a few years ago passes the finish line | Coady

What I do have is some statistics that are mind boggling. Both fillies made over 50 starts with a better than [combined] 44% win average.

Sefa's Beauty was a bargain at $30,000 and was purchased at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling sale. She was by Lt. Stevens out of Delightful Vie. Sefa's Beauty's record is 52 starts, 25 wins, 7 seconds and 8 thirds with earnings of $1,171,628.

Mott took over training when she was 4-years-old and she won 11 races before going out a winner in the Sixty Sails H. at Sportsman's Park in Cicero, Ill.

Sefa's Beauty raced under the colors of Farid Sefa. Jockeys Pat Day and Randy Romero were the mare's pilots while under Mott's care.

Sefa's Beauty only had two foals, both by Fappiano. One of them, Sefapiano, stood at stud in Michigan for a while, but was later moved to Louisiana. Cont. p8

The mothers of our backstretch community have perhaps been most impacted by the current crisis, as they are handling the responsibilities of childcare, and home schooling, which is challenging for everyone but even more so with limited resources, a crowded home environment, and in some cases a language barrier.

We would like to do something special for our backstretch moms on this Mother's Day*, and so we will be delivering* "Baskets of Blessings" to as many of our moms as we are able.

Would you like to join us and sponsor a basket for a special mom?

Each basket will be lovingly prepared and include an assortment of toiletries and special gifts.
Each basket will be hand-delivered by the NY Chaplaincy at Belmont Park, Aqueduct Racetrack, and Saratoga Race Course.

Race Track Chaplaincy of America

Send A Basket Of Blessings

Sefapiano's best offspring was Jonesboro, who was a multiple graded stakes winner and stands at stud in Arkansas.

Unfortunately, she died prematurely on Oct. 25, 1989 at Taylor Made Farm. Sefa's Beauty is buried at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington. She was owned by Farid Sefa until her death.

And then there was Heatherten. A big, beautiful gray mare by Forceten out of Heather Road by The Axe II. In 1984, while I was working at Churchill Downs, I remember walking through the barn area after feed time and would pass Mott's barn. You could not miss the tall mare in the corner stall weaving back and forth like she was listening to a disco song from the 70s.

Heatherten was purchased for $29,000 in 1980 at the Keeneland September yearling sale. In 53 starts, Heatherten had won 21 races, with 7 seconds and 4 thirds with earnings of $1,022,699.

She raced from ages three to six and had four different trainers: Robert Holthus, John Palmer, Jack Van Berg and finally Mott. From what I can see thanks to the Daily Racing Form and Equibase, John Franks had her until she was sold to [Fontainebleau Farm] for $650,000 in foal to Theatrical (Ire).

On June 2, 1984, Heatherten won the Locust Grove S. at Churchill Downs. Only eight days later on June 10, she was traveling to New York for the GI Hempstead H. at Belmont Park and she won. And 20 days later she headed back to Louisville and won the Fleur de Lis H. again at Churchill Downs. Talk about tough! In total Heatherten won five Grade I stakes races. And, still today some 38 years later, Heatherten's name can be seen in the Oaklawn program as she remains the track record holder for 1 1/16 miles in 1:40.20, which was set in the Apple Blossom in 1984.

She had several winners in Japan. Her best runner was Three Diamond (Jpn) (Theatrical {Ire}) with earnings of approximately $441,667. Heatherten was sent to Japan in 1991, while in foal to Theatrical (Ire). On June 20, 1999, the big mare passed away.

Overall, both fillies ran three times in the prestigious Apple Blossom.

Sefa's Beauty ran second in 1983; she won the Apple Blossom in 1985 and finished third in 1986.

Heatherten's quest for the Apple Blossom started in 1983, but she finished 10th; in 1984 she finished first and in 1985 she finished second.

This week, Oaklawn honored the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame members and one special trainer that came in was William I. Mott. I had the chance to sit and talk about both legends. Mott used to gallop horses that he trained and he rode both Heatherten and Sefa's Beauty in the mornings. Sefa's Beauty he said was easy to train, while Heatherten was an anxious mare that you had to be prepared for her next move.

Both girls were groomed by Randy, one of Bill's best grooms, who would always wear a suit when taking his stakes fillies to the paddock on race day.

I had the past performances of both mares to show Bill. He looked at them with amazement and asked, "Did I do that?" Yes, Mr. Mott, you sure did!

LAST SAMURAI 'SPRINGS' UPSET IN OAKLAWN H. by Alan Carasso

Last Samurai | Coady

Arkansas' own Willis Horton celebrated yet another big-race success right in his backyard, as Last Samurai (Malibu Moon) re-rallied at the fence beneath veteran reinsman Jon Court and ran away late to cause a 12-1 upset in Saturday's $1-million GII Oaklawn H.

Drawn two in a field reduced to seven by the early scratching of Thomas Shelby (Curlin), Last Samurai had good speed from the inside and shared the lead with second choice Plainsman (Flatter) under the wire for the first time, as favored Fearless (Ghostzapper)--runner-up to the Horton part-owned Silver State (Hard Spun) last year--tracked the duo from out wide. Court, still thriving at the age of 61, took Last Samurai in hand as they turned up the backstretch, allowing Plainsman to edge to the front, but held his spot at the fence as the field reached the half-mile peg. Last Samurai appeared to be struggling three-eighths of a mile out, but--busily ridden by Court--was back into the bridle and on the attack inside of Plainsman, Fearless and 2021 GI Arkansas Derby hero Super Stock (Super Saver) on the swing for home. Vigorously ridden, Last Samurai began to get away at the furlong grounds and was punched out to score impressively. Fearless was up on the line to touch Plainsman out of second.

"He's been training really well," said Court. "He's been fun to work with from the time the Hortons gave me the opportunity to work with Last Samurai. He's just been a joy in the mornings. As you may have noticed, I broke away from the pony because he's just so fun to ride in the morning. In the afternoon, he gives it his best effort and things set up perfectly for us and he was willing to take on the challenge. What a blast it certainly was."

Fifth in last year's GIII Southwest S. and in the Arkansas Derby, Last Samurai took a Colonial turf allowance in August, but was only ninth in the Dueling Grounds Derby at Kentucky Downs the following month. The chestnut, a neck second facing his elders in the GIII Greenwood Cup over 12 furlongs Sept. 25, bested Super Stock in the Dec. 11 Poinsettia S. at this venue, but was seventh to Plainsman in the GIII Razorback H. Feb. 12 and a latest near-miss second to marathoner Lone Rock (Majestic Warrior) in this track's Temperence Hill S. going a mile and a half Apr. 3.

Pedigree Notes:

Already one of 129 worldwide black-type winners for the late Malibu Moon, Last Samurai becomes the 52nd to succeed at the graded or group level and is his 20th male to do so.

A stakes winner and third in the GII Molly Pitcher S., Lady Samuri was sold for $130,000 at the 2013 Keeneland November Sale, then was knocked down to Stonestreet for $280,000 in foal to Union Rags at KEENOV the following fall. The mare is the dam of four winners from as many to the races, a number that also includes Candy Raid (Candy Ride {Arg}), who upset the Apr. 2 Bourbonette Oaks and worked Saturday towards an expected appearance in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks May 6 (see related story).

A $37,000 KEESEP buyback turned $175,000 OBS March breezer (:10 1/5), Last Samurai has a 2-year-old half-sister by Good Magic. After being given a year off, she foaled a filly by Maclean's Music Mar. 20.

There is still some life in the 8-year-old legs of Channel Maker, as the Ontario-bred kicked home strongly to snap a seven-race skid dating back to the 2020 GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. in Saturday's GII Dixiana Elkhorn S.

At his best when allowed to make the running and perhaps even a few lengths better on a course with some ease in it, Channel Maker was able to secure a prominent position early, as Two Emmys (English Channel), last year's GI Mister D S. upsetter and recent winner of the GII Muniz Memorial S. at the Fair Grounds, took them along at an above-par pace for the 12-furlong trip. The complexion of the race was altered further when Tiberius Mercurius (The Factor)--ostensibly a rabbit for the heavily bet Bemma's Boy--came to quicken the pace inside of Two Emmys passing the midway stage and the fourth quarter-mile was timed in :23.84, a demanding sectional at that stage of the race.

Kept in the clear throughout by Luis Saez, Channel Maker put Two Emmys to the sword at the five-sixteenths and turned them in as Two Emmys unsurprisingly hoisted the white flag.

Another Mystery charged down the center and Bemma's Boy did the same at the inside, but Channel Maker had things sewn up and crossed the wire in stakes-record time despite the widest passage.

"He's pretty tricky, but I rode him a couple times before and learned a lot from him," Saez said. "He used to run on the lead, but we decided last night to take him a little from behind, so the key today was to break and let the three horse (Two Emmys) go because we knew that was the speed in the race. So I sat right there at his shoulder, and when we came to the top of the stretch, it was all about him."

Channel Maker (green cap) | Coady

Fourth in the Queen's Plate and victorious in the 12-furlong Breeders' S. back in 2017, Channel Maker earned a maiden Grade I success in a soft-turf renewal of Belmont's Turf Classic in 2018 and added another in the Man o' War S. the following spring. He snapped a 10-race skein in the 2020 GI Sword Dancer S.--also contested in the soft--but handled the quicker ground just fine when taking out that year's Turf Classic en route to champion turf male honors.

His most recent dry patch included trips to Saudi Arabia--where he was a game runner-up in last year's $1-million Neom Turf Cup--and Dubai, and he was last seen finishing fifth behind Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Del Mar.

Pedigree Notes:

Ivan Dalos's Tall Oaks Farm acquired stakes winner and course-record holder In Return for $32,000 in foal to Proud Citizen at Keeneland November in 2009, one year after being led out unsold on a bid of $97,000 at the same sale. Channel Maker's third dam was responsible for Lazy F Ranch's Auntie Mame (Theatrical {Ire}), winner of the 1998 GI Flower Bowl Invitational and runner-up to Juddmonte's Ryafan (Lear Fan) in Keeneland's

GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup one year prior. Channel Maker is one of 12 worldwide Grade I/Group 1 winners for the late English Channel and is one of a surprising nine worldwide top-level scorers from daughters of South African legend Horse Chestnut (SAf). --@EquinealTDN

Scalding made it four in a row and a second consecutive graded win when facing his toughest field yet in Keeneland's GIII Ben Ali S. Saturday.

The 51-10 third choice was the last to load and gave an unexpected rear at the start, but quickly settled into position midpack on the outside. The dark bay stayed parked in the same spot through :23.72 and :47.71 fractions as Canadian Horse of the Year Mighty Heart (Dramedy), GSW and recent GI Santa Anita H. head runner-up Warrant (Constitution), and champion Monomoy Girl (Tapizar)'s full-brother Cowboy Diplomacy (Tapizar) traded punches up front. Warrant briefly poked his head in front on the turn with Scalding hot on his heels.

The two moved together for several strides until Scalding definitively collared Warrant and kept going, opening up under a hand ride. He changed to his wrong lead in the lane at the tap of the whip, then switched back as he was chased home by SW & last year's GII Wood Memorial S. runner-up Dynamic One. That one looked to threaten, but the 1 1/4-length win margin belied the ease of Scalding's victory. He galloped out with his ears pricked.

Scalding wins Keeneland's Ben Ali | Coady

A $400,000 purchase at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton New York Saratoga Select Yearling Sale by Solis/Litt, Scalding debuted off the board last November at Aqueduct before improving to second at the same track in December. Third time was the charm when he broke his maiden in early January at Gulfstream in the slop, then continued to rack up the wins, getting an optional allowance at Tampa in February and finally delving into stakes company with a GIII Michelob Ultra Challenger S. victory at Tampa Mar. 12. Dynamic One was third that day. The Ben Ali was Scalding's first try at 1 1/8 miles after his win streak featured a trio of 1 1/16-mile events.

"[Shug McGaughey said] just to let him break and run his race," said Anthony Hamilton, assistant to the Hall of Famer. "He'd been training really well through the Challenger and he came out of that really good, so we were expecting a big effort and we got one."

Pedigree Notes:

Godolphin co-bred Scalding with Cobalt Investments and there's heavy Darley influence--Godolphin's breeding arm--top and bottom in Scalding's pedigree. The Ben Ali winner's sire, Nyquist, stands at Darley at Jonabell, as does his broodmare sire, Medaglia d'Oro. Even Scalding's second dam was by a Darley stallion in Elusive Quality. Cont. p12

The young Nyquist, who will send just his third crop to the races this year, has five graded winners among his eight black-type winners, including champion 2-year-old filly Vequist and Canadian champion 2-year-old colt Gretzky the Great. He's also got GSW Turnerloose squarely on this year's GI Kentucky Oaks trail, as well as two others (GISP Sequist and MGSP Awake At Midnyte) who are on the bubble in the points standings to make that same field. Medaglia d'Oro, who is regularly among the leading sires with his own sons and daughters, is a growing presence among broodmare sires with 56 stakes winners to date out of his daughters.

Scalding is a half-brother to another Darley-sired SW & GSP runner in Street Sense's Tracksmith. Their unraced dam most recently produced 2-year-old colt Runhappy d'Oro (Runhappy), a $7,000 Keeneland September yearling purchased by Adco Farms, and a yearling filly by Omaha Beach, a $160,000 Keeneland November weanling bought by The Elkstone Group. She was bred back to War of Will for 2022.

Third dam Xtra Heat (Dixieland Heat), remembered for her blazing speed, was named champion 3-year-old filly in 2001. Sold as a weanling, yearling, and 2-year-old, each time for prices under $10,000, she won the GI Prioress S. and 10 other graded stakes, as well as placing against the boys in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen.

Kazmike overcame a rough start to dig in gamely and earn his diploma in the New York Stallion S. The colt came into this contest with two bridesmaid finishes Mar. 5 and Mar. 31, respectively, both going six furlongs on the main track at this venue.

Kazmike brushed the gate on exit, but was corrected quickly enough to secure a tentative lead from the inside through the turn. Losing the advantage to Unique Unions at the head of the lane, Trevor McCarthy called on his mount for more and respond he did to regain the lead passing the sixteenth pole.

"He lost a shoe last time, so we knew he was going to run big," winning owner Peter Kazamias said. I told [Trevor McCarthy] to go to the front. Speed is holding up today. McCarthy gave him an excellent ride. I'm very proud of my horse."

The winner is the most recent addition to his useful dam's record; six of his seven older siblings have all had their picture taken. lengths, he was transferred from the barn of Kelly Breen to Brad Cox. He rallied to a runner-up placing Nov. 14 beneath the Twin Spires for his new conditioner. The colt successfully stepped up to a mile and allowance company at Oaklawn Park Dec. 4 in service of first-time Lasix to wrap his 2-year-old season.

After not firing as the favorite in the aforementioned Kentucky Derby points race, he returned to Lasix for his second start of 2022, and was sent from the blocks as the 7-5 favorite. Contentedly stalking the early pace from third up the backstretch and into the far turn, Jose Ortiz pushed his mount for a rally midway on the bend. The Wests' hot-pink silks briefly found the lead turning for home, and were extending their advantage in the straight despite Home Brew lugging out past the furlong marker. Kuchar tried hard, but had to settle for second 1 3/4 lengths behind the winner.

The victor is the fifth winning offspring in a row for his dam from as many to race. He has a 2-year-old full-brother who is the last on record for the mare. This is the family of GI Hopeful S. winner Gunite (Gun Runner). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Tucking back along the rail under urging by the quarter pole, he swung out five wide turning for home to challenge for the lead and took control late for a career high. Chez Pierre (Fr) stayed unbeaten on two continents in five lifetime starts with a first black-type win in Laurel's Henry S. Clark S. Saturday. Breaking neatly from the outside seven post position, the bay found a midpack spot in the clear through fractions of :22.91 and :46.56. He visibly accelerated on the turn, was floated extremely wide by Field Pass, and, unbothered, bounded clear. Chez Pierre swapped to his wrong lead a number of strides before the wire, but it didn't matter as he cleared the win by 5 1/2 lengths with Mandate getting a head on Field Pass at the wire.

A €100,000 Arqana 2-year-old purchase for Americans Roy and Gretchen Jackson's Lael Stables, Chez Pierre won his first three races in France--two in the fall of his juvenile year and his sole start last May as a sophomore--for trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. He was then shipped stateside and made his U.S. debut Mar. 9 at Tampa in an optional allowance going a mile on the turf. The Henry S. Clark , part of the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred Championship (MATCH) Series, was his stakes debut.

"The plan was to start him in Europe and see what he could do," said trainer Arnaud Delacour. "He did very well over there but we thought more opportunity here. We had a little issue which was a setback, so we had to no matter what give him time off."

He continued, "It was the first time going two turns on the turf the last time, so I think he was a little surprised. He just wanted to go [because] previously he had only run six furlongs. I think he's a smart horse. He learned and obviously today he relaxed pretty well. He's been breezing very well so we were high on him. He's only confirming what we thought."

Chez Pierre's dam has had one reported foal after him, a now-3-year-old filly named Zelda (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}), who won the Prix Saraca last year in France. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

10th-Keeneland, $109,450, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 4-23, 3yo, 7f, 1:23.89, ft, head.

CONDEMN (c, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Sentence, by Blame)'s best finish as a juvenile was a runner-up effort in a seven-panel maiden at Ellis Park July 11, but he's faced tough customers. He ran seventh Sept. 23 at Churchill Downs in a maiden special won by GI Kentucky Derby bubble-horse Rattle N Roll (Connect). After getting his 3-year-old season started on a winning note last out Mar. 16 returning to a sprint at Fair Grounds, and in service of first-time Lasix, Condemn came north to Keeneland for this contest. Slightly overlooked by the public at 9-1, the Thomas Drury, Jr. trainee was away well from the gates and stalked the pace from the inside along the turn. Launching a long bid, he went from sixth to second by the top of the lane and furiously stormed home to catch Unikee (Unified) in the shadow of the wire by a head. Hailing from a deep Claiborne female family, Condemn is the first foal and winner for a young daughter of Yell (A. P. Indy), who claims Elate (Medaglia d'Oro) and Tax (Arch) directly beneath her. He has a yearling full-brother and a 2022 half-sister by Candy Ride (Arg). This is the family of graded stakes winner and producer Wild Applause (Northern Dancer) as well as leading Argentinian sire, Roar (Forty Niner). Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-0, $107,622. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

her third career start at this venue going a mile on turf last April. She returned to New York for her next two starts at Belmont Park and finished on the board both times--second May 28 against allowance company and third behind MGSP Runaway Rumour (Flintshire {GB}) last time June 26 in the Wild Applause S. Making her 2022 seasonal debut here, the 4-5 favorite left the blocks a bit awkwardly after hopping at the start, but righted herself quickly to step forward and command the pace. Coasting on an uncontested lead through moderate fractions of :23.04, :47.54, and 1:11.96 before hitting the final bend, Nevisian Sunrise was 3 1/2 lengths on top in the home stretch and comfortably held off Seasons (Tapit)'s late charge by 1 1/4 lengths. Her dam's first foal, the winner is a full-sister to GII Pilgrim S. winner Annapolis, GSW, $165,000 and a yearling colt. The mare, who sold for $2.15 million in 2014 at FTKNOV and again changed hands for $4 million in 2018 to Steven Young at KEENOV, came up barren after visiting War Front for a fourth time last season. This is the family of several GSWs including Afleet Express (Afleet Alex), Embellish the Lace (Super Saver) and Snow Ridge (Tabasco Cat). SHE'S THE ONE (f, 4, Macho Uno--Je T'aime, by Gold Token) has never been worse than second in her young career, all against fellow state-breds on grass. She broke her maiden at second asking Oct. 8 sprinting six furlongs at Belmont Park. After closing for second Nov. 6, she wrapped up her 2021 campaign with a second win, this time against first-level allowance company at Aqueduct Dec. 3. Making her 4-year-old bow here, She's the One stepped up to a mile and the betting public sent her off a heavy 6-5 favorite. Patiently tracking the early pace from third, the pretty grey held her ground-saving trip on the fence until she cut the corner coming into the lane, and took command nearing the eighth pole. Cara's Dreamer (The Factor) bravely tried to make it a race, but came short by a 3/4 of a length. The winner is half to Listentoyourheart (Afleet Alex), SW, $180,114; as well as a 2-year-old colt by Afleet Alex named I'm Just. The mare has a 2022 filly by Spun to Run. GATHER AS YOU GO (f, 4, Curlin--Theatre Star {SW & MGSP, $259,750}, by War Front) was third in her two starts last year--May 2 at Tampa Bay Downs sprinting over the main track and Dec. 29 over Gulfstream Park's synthetic surface. She opened her 2022 season on a winning note, taking a maiden field gate-to-wire first-time over the turf going a mile at Tampa. After finishing 11th last out Mar. 25 in a rained-off optional claimer at this venue, the Glen Hill Farm homebred bounced back to form here. She broke on top and never looked back, holding off the late charge of R Calli Kim (Revolutionary) by a neck. Gather as You Go is out of a half-sister to Taris (Flatter), GISW, $1,086,260, who produced GSW & MGSP King Fury (Curlin). The victress is her dam's second winner and has a 2-year-old full-sister named Armitage. There is also a yearling colt by Medaglia d'Oro on record and the mare is expecting a full-sibling to Gather as You Go this season. Five lengths in front at the head of the lane, the Elm Racing homebred expanded her margin to 12 3/4 lengths on the wire over Catwings (Cupid), who bested Please Be Kind (Violence) in a photo for runner-up honors. Hailing from a productive female family, Casa de Goat is a half to Holiday's Angel (Harlan's Holiday), MSP, $196,096; and two other winners. The mare also produced a 2-year-old colt by Nyquist as well as a yearling full-sister to the victress. Senorita Corredora is expecting a foal by Authentic this season. NEW YORK CITY COMMONWEALTH CUP BOUND

New York City throws down the gauntlet in Ireland's sophomore sprinting division | Racingfotos.com

This was as intriguing a Commonwealth Cup pointer as can be found at this stage of the season and full credit has to be handed to the race-hardened New York City (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) for making his presence felt despite being passed over by Ryan Moore.

Unable to win in five starts at two but tried in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket and beaten under five lengths when ninth in that September feature, the full-brother to the G2 Duke of York S.-winning sire Invincible Army was off the mark by seven lengths over five furlongs here Mar. 29. Building on that confidence boost, the bay raced alongside 'TDN Rising Star' Straight Answer (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) on the front end throughout and proved the stronger of the pair to earn a black-type success as the stable's G2 Norfolk S. fourth Cadamosto (Ire) (No Nay Never) did best of the chasers.

"He must have been a little bit babyish or something, but he is a big, powerful horse now," Aidan O'Brien said in reference to the winner's blank season as a juvenile. "We thought he would do plenty last year, but he took until this year to win. He was very impressive again today. The plan will be to go to the [June 17 G1] Commonwealth with him. Looking at him, you would hope he would get six." Cont. p2

LLOYD'S LIFE THROUGH A LENS

By Emma Berry

It was hard to imagine that we'd ever be able to smuggle a photograph of the late, great singer/songwriter Nick Drake into the pages of TDN, but thanks to the multi-talented Julian Lloyd, we have been presented with the perfect excuse to do just that.

Lloyd, longtime manager of Staffordstown Stud in Ireland for Kirsten Rausing, retired at the end of last year, and his career in bloodstock was honoured with a Special Recognition Award at the recent ITBA Awards. Perhaps unbeknown to many in the horse world, however, is the fact that this was merely the third or even fourth chapter in the career of Lloyd, who started out working as a local newspaper photographer before moving to London to assist a fashion photographer in the ultra-hip days of the Kings Road in the 1960s. During that time he mixed with musicians and actors before turning his hand to racehorses and training. Cont. p2

New York City is the last known foal out of the G1 Falmouth S.-winning dam, whose aforementioned Invincible Army was also successful in the G3 Pavilion S., G3 Chipchase S. and G3 Sirenia S. and was placed in the G1 Flying Five. His family includes the G1 Prix Morny heroine Hoh Magic (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and the G3 Fred Darking S. winner Dandhu (GB) (Dandy Man {Ire}).

Those two worlds collided when he trained several winners for rock legend Eric Clapton, but Lloyd retained a love of photography and is about to unveil an exhibition of his work in London in May.

"I'm not a photographer, I'm a farmer with a camera, and this is just what I've accumulated," says Lloyd modestly of a collection which includes portraits of various members of The Rolling Stones as well as the actor John Hurt. The accompanying portrait of the widely lauded Nick Drake, who died in 1974 at the age of just 26, has achieved iconic status, having been used on the cover of Drake's posthumous album Way To Blue. It was added to the collection of the National Portrait Gallery last year, and Lloyd's work has also featured on an album cover for Clapton's Derek and the Dominos.

"I bought my first camera when I was 15," Lloyd reflects. "When I left school I worked for a newspaper in Berwick-upon-Tweed, then I went to London and worked as an assistant to a fashion photographer in Chelsea, Bill King, doing a lot of work for Harper's Bazaar, Vogue, and that sort of stuff. During that time was when I was friends with Nick Drake. When I met my wife we moved to the country and I got interested in horses." Cont. p3

He continues, "I stopped working at the end of last year and this has always been in the back of the mind. I have gradually been scanning and filing. There are other Nick Drake images that I've had all those years that have never been seen or printed.

"I have a friend who has a shop off the Portobello Road. It's all rather spur-of-the-moment stuff and we're just going to do a pop-up show. But it's not centred on celebrities or musicians, it's really just autobiographical and quite light-hearted. The photos of Ronnie Wood, Keith Richards, Marianne Faithfull and co. are really just incidental. The exhibition is a photographic diary in a way."

The late musician Nick Drake | Julian Lloyd

Casting his mind back to the ITBA Awards in February, Lloyd, whose equine passion grew after a time living in a horse-drawn caravan, admits that he was honoured to be recognised by his peers in what has been his 'day job' for almost 50 years, with more than three decades spent at Staffordstown. Cont. p4

"It was very touching. It came out of the blue and you could have knocked me over," says Lloyd, who has recently moved to Shropshire.

"My time in Ireland means an enormous amount to me. I'm back in Britain now to be near the children but I was quite broken-hearted about leaving Ireland and I miss it very much. We went there initially for six months for me to do a season with Tim Rogers at Airlie [Stud] and it was 47 years before we left."

In Swedish-born Kirsten Rausing, an avowed music fan, Lloyd had a kindred spirit in more ways than one.

He says, "She always claims to have learnt English through Tattersalls catalogues and Bob Dylan lyrics."

The exhibition Julian Lloyd Photographs 1963-2021 is at 2 Blenheim Crescent, London W11 1NN, and runs from May 11 to 21.

AESOP'S FABLES POWERS TO TDN RISING STARDOM

Aidan O'Brien's juvenile band is approaching full swing and the trainer's latest representative to hit the track, Coolmore and Westerberg's Aesop's Fables (Ire) (No Nay Never), earned 'TDN Rising Star' status with a taking debut display in Saturday's Irish Stallion Farms EBF Maiden at Navan.

The 5 3/4-furlong dash was annexed last year by subsequent G3 Marble Hill S. runner-up, G2 Coventry S. fourth and G2 Railway S. third Masseto (GB) (Territories}) and Royal Ascot options abound for the half-brother to that meeting's Listed Windsor Castle S. hero Washington DC (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) following a 2 1/4-length defeat of Tanaiyla (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}).

The 7-4 second favourite was sharply into stride from the outside stall to stalk the experienced 10-11 favourite Midnight Toker (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) in a close-up second through the early fractions. Nudged along at halfway, he came under increased urging once quickening to challenge passing the quarter-mile marker and found an additional gear inside the final furlong to go comfortably clear of his rivals.

"He's a very smart horse and has done all his homework very nicely," commented Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong. "Aidan [O'Brien] was very happy with him and Ryan [Moore] has sat on him a few times and was very happy with him. We'll try and give him one run before [Royal] Ascot. It will either be in the valuable winners' race at Naas or there's a winners-of-one at the Curragh on June 1. Then hopefully on to Ascot. Fingers crossed he is a very smart horse going forward. He's obviously from the family of Washington DC, who was a precocious 2-year-old, he's got plenty of options and is one you would love to have in your stable."

Aesop's Fables is the latest of eight foals and sixth winner from as many runners produced by Listed Land O'Burns Fillies' S. third How's She Cuttin' (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}), herself the leading performer out of a half-sister to the stakes-placed Escape Plan (Ire) (Key of Luck) and to the unraced dam of G3 Firth of Clyde S. victrix and G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Aspen Darlin (Ire) (Indian Haven {GB}). Hailing from the family of MG1SW sire Grand Lodge (Chief's Crown), the February-foaled bay is a half to G3 Phoenix Sprint S. victor and MG1SP sire Washington DC (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and G3 Chester vase runner-up Sandhurst (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

NASHWA IMPERIOUS IN RISING STAR DISPLAY

Imad Al Sagar's 3-year-old filly Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) ran third contesting a hot Newmarket novices' heat over seven furlongs in her only prior start last October and illuminated Haydock's Saturday fixture with an impressive 6 1/2-length romp to earn 'TDN Rising Star' status on seasonal return in the Pendleton EBF Fillies' Novice S., going just shy of one mile.

The eventual winner was reined back to employ patient tactics behind the leaders in fifth after a sharp getaway. Looming large out wide on the bridle passing the quarter-mile marker, the G1 Epsom Oaks entry and 13-8 favourite cruised to the front soon after and bounded clear under minimal coxing inside the final furlong to easily outclass stablemate Wonderful Times (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}) by daylight and justify her Rising Star tag.

"It was her first run of the season and she was a little fresh early, but Hollie [Doyle] got her into cover and, when she pulled her out and asked her the question, she quickened up nicely," said trainer Thady Gosden. "The ground was probably a little too quick for her and I think we'd probably have to go for an Oaks trial after that performance. Owner Imad Al Sagar also bred the filly and any owner-breeder's target is the Oaks, so we'll pop her in a trial now and see where we go from there."

Nashwa, half-sister to a yearling filly by Decorated Knight (GB), is the third of four foals and second scorer produced by stakes-winning G1 Prix Jean Romanet runner-up Princess Loulou (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), herself a half-sister to Listed Pomfret S. third Easy Target (Fr) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Descendants of the May-foaled homebred bay's dual stakes-placed third dam Sweeping (GB) (Indian King), herself out of G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Glancing (GB) (Grundy {Ire}), include G1 Middle Park S.-winning sire Awzaan (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}), G2 Keio Hai Nisai S. winner Ball Lightning (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) and GIII Will Rogers S. victor Media Mogul (GB) (First Trump {GB}).

UK NATIONAL HUNT CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT SANDOWN

Brian Hughes, who became only the fourth NH jockey to ride a double century of winners in a season, was named the UK Champion Jumps Jockey for a second time. His win total sits at 204, 99 ahead of Sam Twiston-Davies in second.

Hughes, who won the title in 2019/20 said, "It is something at the start of the season I set out to try and do and it is great that it has come. I've never thought it was signed and sealed and I never wanted to let any sort of complacency set in. I just wanted to keep my head down and keep doing what I have done all season, so I haven't ever accepted that it was happening until it did."

The Champion Conditional Jockey was Kevin Brogan. Trainer Paul Nicholls and owner JP McManus were once again awarded year-end titles by earnings–their 13th and 15th, respectively.

"It's been tougher [to win the big races] this year but every year is tough. In recent years I've either been neck and neck with Willie [Mullins] or Nicky, but this year it's a bit more relaxed and I can enjoy the day," said Nicholls.

"I knew we were going to be quiet at Cheltenham but we had a good Aintree with some nice winners there and the horses are flying again now.

"I might have turned 60 recently, but there are absolutely no thoughts from me about retiring. I love what I'm doing and as long as I'm fit and healthy, I've no plans to cut back--I love it."

King Power Racing's Happy Power, who saluted in 2020's G3 Supreme S. and G2 Challenge S., went postward for this coming back off a runner-up finish in Wolverhampton's Mar. 12 Listed Lady Wulfruna S. and halted a winless streak of 10 with victory in yet another low-turnout affair. In touch racing third of the three contenders after an alert getaway, he cruised to the front hard on the steel passing the two pole and kept on strongly under whipless urging inside the final furlong to claim a fourth black-type success with plenty to spare.

Happy Power is the second of six foals and one of two winners out of an unraced half-sister to G2 Rockfel S. victress Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and Listed Dusseldorf Preis runner-up Tanamia (Ger) (Nayef). The January-foaled grey is a full-brother to the unraced 2-year-old colt Caulaincourt (Ire) and a yearling filly. His second dam Tanami (GB) (Green Desert), who ran second in the G1 Cheveley Park S., is kin to the excellent producer Wannabe (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}), who has four stakes winners to her credit headed by G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Wannabe Grand (Ire) (Danehill). Decendants of Tanami include MGSW G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Tamazirte (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), herself the dam of G3 Prix de Guiche and G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange winner Chachnak (Fr) (Kingman {GB}) and stakes-winning GIII Megahertz S. placegetter Into The Mystic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Attacked by her three out, the 8-11 favourite looked to be coming off second-best in their private duel but regained the upper hand passing the furlong marker and asserted for a half-length success. The dual listed-placed dam, who also has a yearling colt by Gleneagles (Ire), is a daughter of the owner's G1 1000 Guineas heroine Ameerat (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) from the family of the dual listed winner and G2 Lancashire Oaks runner-up Polly's Mark (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). Lengthening inside the final four furlongs, the 9-4 second favourite was soon beyond recall and coasted to the line to score by 1 1/2 lengths from Godolphin's newcomer Ruling Dynasty (GB) (Night of Thunder {Ire}). The unraced dam produced the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Matron S. heroine Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who has achieved legendary status at Coolmore by producing the multiple Group 1-winning dual Classic heroine Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and her G1 Irish 1000 Guineas-winning full-sister Empress Josephine (Ire). Also responsible for the Dahlia S. scorer and GIII Autumn Miss S. runner-up Danilovna (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and the Listed Celebration S. winner and dual Group 3-placed Count of Limonade (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), the dam has a 2-year-old filly by Dubawi (Ire) named Cruella de Vill (Ire) and a yearling filly by Siyouni (Fr). Cajoled to the lead with a furlong remaining, the bay looked to be idling from there en route to a 1 1/4-length success from Tothenines (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). The winner is the last known foal out of the unraced dam, who is a half to the G2 Futurity S. and G3 Prix de Fontainebleau-winning sire Dragon Pulse (Ire) (Kyllachy {GB}). BRAVE NATION (IRE) (c, 2, Sioux Nation--Suite {Ire}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}), well-supported into 2-1 favouritism, broke professionally from his outside draw to lead. In command when hanging right approaching the furlong pole, the bay stayed on strongly to record an impressive six-length verdict over Machito (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). The winner, who is the first for his exciting first-season sire in Britain, is the last known foal out of a half to the listed-placed pair Exactement (Ire) (Speightstown) and Skill Set (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). The family includes the GI American Oaks heroine Lady Prancealot (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) and the G2 Prix de Sandringham scorer Baqah (Ire) (Bahhare), dam of the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. winner Almanaar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Kyprios entered this G1 Gold Cup pointer something of an unknown quantity, having been absent since being withdrawn from Royal Ascot's G2 Queen's Vase in June after getting upset in the stalls. Previously successful in a 10-furlong Cork conditions race in April and fourth in the Listed Lingfield Derby Trial in May, the chestnut returned with a vengeance to inflict a heavy defeat of his full-sister and fellow Moyglare representative Search For a Song and the smart Baron Samedi to set out on the road to the Royal meeting's marathon feature June 16.

Always travelling easily tracking the leader, he was committed three out and when his dual Irish St Leger-winning full-sibling came to him soon after he knuckled down and drew clear for an impressive success.

Aidan O'Brien, who was completing a black-type treble on the card, commented, "We always thought he was going to be very nice. He went to Ascot last year and jumped out under the stalls and he hasn't run since then. He looks like a stayer with a bit of class, he relished that trip. He relaxes and he quickens. If we are going to Ascot, we could have a look at the [G3] Saval Beg [at Leopardstown May 13]. We might not travel him before Ascot, but we will see."

Kyprios is Moyglare royalty, being the last known foal out of the stellar producer Polished Gem, whose other seven black-type winners other than Search For a Song include the G1 Prince of Wales's S.-winning sire Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), the seven-times group scorer Custom Cut (Ire) (Nonowcato {GB}) and the G2 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. winner Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}). Polished Gem, whose two other black-type winners by Galileo are Amma Grace (Ire) and Falcon Eight (Ire), is a full-sister to the GI Matriarch S. heroine Dress To Thrill (Ire) with both being out of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Trusted Partner (Affirmed), who is also the third dam of the G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. hero Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}).

Settled behind the leading duo early, the daughter of the G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Was muscled her way through a gap to pursue Magical Lagoon and after gaining a slight advantage 150 yards from the line was tough to see it out.

Concert Hall is the fourth foal and first black-type winner for Was, a granddaughter of the esteemed Park Express who was responsible for the five-times Group 1-winning champion and prolific sire New Approach (Ire). Was's full-siblings include the G2 Curragh Cup winner and G1 Epsom Derby third Amhran Na Bhfiann (Ire), the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial S. scorer Douglas MacArthur (Ire) and the G3 Prix Cleopatre runner-up Al Naamah (Ire). Her 2-year-old is a full-brother to Concert Hall.

Needing room on the rail approaching the final two furlongs, the bay found enough space to squeeze through and get on top in the last 100 yards en route to a 1 1/4-length verdict over stablemate and 11-8 favourite Newfoundland (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). Another Ballydoyle runner, Realism (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), was a short head back in third and they finished clear of the remainder in a show of strength from the stable which had dominated the card. "He stays very well this horse and he liked the ground," Chris Armstrong, representing Aidan O'Brien, said. "It was a nice performance and it was probably a good maiden." The dam was high-class in Australia, capturing the G1 Manikato S., G1 Doomben 10,000 and G1 BTC Cup. WORLDWIDE NEWS

DERBY FORM FRONT AND CENTRE ON FWD CHAMPIONS DAY by Alan Carasso

While the ongoing complications caused by COVID-19 have resulted in no overseas competition, Sunday's FWD Champions Day meeting at Sha Tin will not lack for intrigue, as the region's top horses face a real challenge from the first two home in last month's BMW Hong Kong Derby.

Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) is the afternoon's pin-up horse as he seeks an unprecedented 21st career victory when he goes in defence of his crown in the G1 FWD Champions Mile. The 6-year-old suffered the second and third losses of his career in the G1 Stewards' Cup and G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup, respectively, but bounced back with a resounding success in the G2 Chairman's Trophy last time Apr. 3. He's drawn ideally in barrier two and it's full steam ahead, according to his connections.

"We've got a good draw and obviously there should be two or three horses that will have some good pace," said regular rider Vincent Ho. "Draw two is perfect for us and we can just track up to them and run them down in the straight. Since [his] last start, he's brought on his fitness more and we're confident going into this race."

California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) cuts back to the mile after finishing a gallant second in the 10-furlong Derby. He was unlucky to lose the Hong Kong Classic Mile after setting the pace from a horror draw and bounced back in the Classic Cup over 1800 metres before just giving in late in the Derby. He will have to be caught.

"It's an exciting part of it," said jockey Zac Purton. "I don't know where we stand against Golden Sixty--he could just be better than us and that might be the case on the weekend, but we're not going to know until we race against him and I feel that my bloke has still got room to improve."

After rallying to best California Spangle in the Classic Mile, he was dealt a bad draw of his own and worked home well to be a close fourth in the Classic Cup. He knuckled down late to grab his rival in the shadows of the post in the Derby and will try to keep the ball rolling Sunday.

"Stepping up to open age...will be a big challenge for him, because he won the Derby and it was only against 4-year-olds," said trainer Danny Shum. "Now, he's against Russian Emperor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is very good over 2000 metres, so it's a big challenge for him."

Russian Emperor steps back up in trip, having finished a sound runner-up to Golden Sixty in the Chairman's Trophy over a distance that is clearly short of his best. Prior to that, the former G3 Hampton Court S. hero took out the Gold Cup, leaving Golden Sixty in his wake.

The third of the day's Group 1s is the Chairman's Sprint Prize, headed by its defending champion Wellington (Aus) (All Too Hard {Aus}). It figures to be something other than a straightforward task, however, given the presence of G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint hero Sky Field (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}) and Lucky Patch (NZ) (El Roca {Aus}), who was the $3.20 (11-5) favourite in the Sprint, only to go down in that horrific spill at the 400-metre mark.
