SEVEN DAYS: ABUNDANCE

New Derby favourite Desert Crown with Richard Kingscote and Sir Michael Stoute | racingfotos.com

By Emma Berry

Can we have too much of a good thing? When it comes to racing in the spring the answer is almost certainly not, but the rapidity with which all the decent action takes place can make it difficult to take it all in. For example, in the last 11 days we have had three Derby favourites. First the horse who had held that honour all winter, Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), who was then replaced by his stable-mate Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), all the rage after his Derby Trial victory at Leopardstown following the defection of Luxembourg from Epsom. But Stone Age held his position for only four days before he was pipped by the Dante S. winner Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), about whom the dogs had apparently been howling that Sir Michael Stoute was on his way to claim the Derby for a sixth time, 41 years after Shergar (Ire) galloped his way into the history books.

By Derby day itself, Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}) will almost certainly shorten merely for the fact that Frankie Dettori has been booked to ride him, but there is plenty to suggest that he would not be unworthy of that support. We'll see.

In the meantime, thoughts have turned to the Prix du Jockey Club, a great stopgap between the Guineas and Derby since its distance was shortened to 2,100m back in 2005. On Sunday, Charlie Appleby said of his Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), "I always had it in the back of my mind that he might be a French Derby horse." Cont. p2

LIMITI DI GRECCIO AND INSPIRAL TO MISS IRISH 1000 GUINEAS By Brian Sheerin

Limiti Di Greccio (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) and Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}), both of whom held prominent positions in the betting for Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, have been ruled out of making their respective seasonal return in the Curragh Classic.

Paddy Twomey, who trains Limiti Di Greccio, told TDN Europe that his hugely exciting filly will be aimed at races in the autumn after she encountered "a small training problem" while connections of G1 winning 2-year-old Inspiral are charting a path towards the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot with their charge.

Inspiral failed to sparkle in a key gallop under Frankie Dettori on Saturday, after which, her joint-trainer John Gosden advised connections to skip the Irish 1000 Guineas and wait for Royal Ascot.

Speaking on Monday, Cheveley Park's Chris Richardson said, "She's not going to Ireland. John's recommendation is let's go straight to Royal Ascot for the Coronation Stakes." Cont. p4

With that colt having become the first British-trained winner of the race for 17 years, it would be no surprise to see him attempt to emulate the last one, Shamardal, by snaring a French Classic double. It would also help to alleviate one problem faced by Appleby in attempting to keep Modern Games, Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) apart. But let's face it, as problems go, it's high on the first-world list. Jean-Claude Rouget has also been waxing lyrical about the Prix des Suresnes winner Al Hakeem (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), drawing flattering comparisons to Sottsass (Ire), and seemingly not just for the very similar pattern of his breeding. Then there is the good-looking Lassaut (Fr), from the first crop of Jockey Club winner Almanzor (Fr), whose running-on fifth in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains can be regarded as a decent trial for June 5.

It would also be folly to overlook the claims of G2 Prix Greffulhe winner Onesto (Ire), the colt by Frankel (GB) who returned to Europe after being an unlikely candidate for a Florida breeze-up sale. But he breezed with ease, earning himself a $535,000 price tag and a place in Fabrice Chappet's Chantilly stable. We'll be hearing more about Onesto later this week in TDN, but a viewing of him during Chappet's second lot on Monday morning was enough to leave a strong impression that he is a horse with a perfect temperament for the big day.

Mosse's Pockets His Plans

The indefatigable Gerald Mosse, impeccably bedecked in his trademark white gloves and a silver brooch of two horses' head at the collar of his silks, rode his 15th French Classic winner at Longchamp on Sunday. It was his first since winning the Prix du Jockey Club on Reliable Man (GB) in 2011.

Of his latest, Mangoustine (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}), he said, "She really kicked strongly and fought all the way to the line. She kept something in the pocket for the end."

Mangoustine was not the only one. The 55-year-old jockey has already passed the necessary exams to start a secondary career as a trainer but, understandably after the elation of his second win in the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches following Zalaiyka (Fr) (Royal Academy) 24 years ago, he said thoughts of retirement are far from his mind.

"For now I'll keep my training licence in my pocket," added Mosse.

Born To Run

Somewhat unusually, four of the top five lots at last year's Arqana Breeding Stock Sale have remained in training this season, and three of them have enjoyed a real purple patch of late.

On Saturday, Rougir (Fr) (Territories {Ire}), the sale-topper at €3 million, made a triumphant comeback in her new home country of America, where she was the impressive victrix of the GIII Beaugay S. for Peter Brant, Michael Tabor and trainer Chad Brown. Cont. p3

Brant and Brown also teamed up with Speak Of The Devil (Fr) Wootton Bassett {GB}), a €1.95 million purchase, to win the GII Longines Churchill Distaff S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard. Meanwhile Grand Glory (GB) (Olympic Glory {Ire}), now six, has remained in training in France with Gianluca Bietolini for her new owner Haras de Hus, and she has added the Listed Prix Zarkava and G3 Prix Allez France to her tally of wins this season.

The World's Gone Mad

Stradivarius and Bradley Bosley | Emma Berry

It would be churlish to present a round-up of the action of the past week and not mention the mighty Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who won his third G2 Yorkshire Cup. It seems extraordinary that the horse who last week set a new European record for the number of Group wins (18) should have an invisible question mark hanging over him with regard to his future stud career.

Too small and the wrong colour for a National Hunt stallion, some say, but frankly that option shouldn't even be in the reckoning. Wouldn't it be refreshing if a son of one of the best horses most of us have ever seen, from a Wildenstein dynasty deep with talent, who has proved his own abundant ability and soundness year after year, be afforded the respect he deserves by Flat breeders. After all, who among us would not love to race a horse such as this?

Too much to ask? Let's hope not.

Titannia Upholds Family Honour

Two years ago we noted the Danish Classic double of Tassmania (Den), the filly whose existence is largely owing to her dam Transsylvania (Den) (Le Havre {Ire}) having won a nomination to Sir Percy (GB) as part of her prize for landing the Listed Lanwades Stud S. in Norway in 2015.

Transsylvania's owner/breeders Dean and Mette Olsen duly bred her to Sir Percy, resulting in victory in the Danish 1000 Guineas and 2000 Guineas for her daughter Tassmania. Now the family is at it again.

Transsylvania's current 3-year-old Titannia (Den), by Appel Au Maitre (Fr), won the Danish 1000 Guineas on May 7 and is now poised to attempt to emulate her half-sister by taking on the colts. The filly, who was retained by the Olsens, also provided Lars Kelp with his first Classic victory since returning to the training ranks with just five horses under his care.

Inspiral, unbeaten in four starts as a 2-year-old, with that brilliant juvenile campaign culminating with G1 Fillies' Mile glory at Newmarket, was also ruled out of the 1,000 Guineas last month with Richardson explaining at the time that the filly had not been "100 per cent straightforward" in the spring.

Connections are now concentrating on having Inspiral in top shape ahead of the Royal meeting.

Richardson added, “Frankie had a sit on her on Saturday and just felt we needed a little bit more time, so we’ll give her that and hopefully have her cherry-ripe and spot on for the Royal meeting.”

Time is also what Limiti Di Greccio needs, according to Twomey, who pointed to the G1 Matron Stakes in the autumn as being the new target for Martin Schwarz-owned filly.

Twomey said, “She picked up a minor training setback and is not ready to run at the Curragh on Sunday.”

He added, "The plan is to train her with a view towards the second half of the season where races like the Matron Stakes could be targeted."

In the absence of Limiti Di Greccio and Inspiral, the Aidan O'Brien-trained Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Dermot Weld's Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), herself having skipped Newmarket and more recently Paris Longchamp, are general 5-2 joint-favourites for the Irish 1000 Guineas.

Pearls Galore (Fr) | Horsephotos

He may be without one of the most exciting horses in his stable this weekend after being forced to rule Limiti Di Greccio (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) out of Sunday's Irish G1 1000 Guineas but Paddy Twomey has talked up the chances of Pearls Galore (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) ahead of the G2 Lanwades Stud S on the same day. Cont. p5

Pearls Galore was beaten just a neck in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown last season before chasing home Space Blues (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de la Foret at ParisLongchamp and Twomey is hoping to achieve top-level success with the 5-year-old at some stage during the campaign.

He explained, "Pearls Galore will run in the Lanwades Stakes at the Curragh on Sunday. That has been the plan since she won at Leopardstown on her return and she has been kept in training with the distinct aim of winning a Group 1. This looks the logical next step and then I'd be hopeful of targeting Group 1s for the rest of the year with her."

On future plans, Twomey added, "She's in the Queen Anne at Royal Ascot but I don't fancy taking on Baaeed with a filly so I'd say the Duke Of Cambridge Stakes, the Falmouth Stakes, the Prix Rothschild and even the Prix Maurice de Gheest, races like that could suit. Any of those mile or seven-furlong Group races, she could be aimed at those."

Rumbles Of Thunder (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) maintained the strong start to the season for the stable in carrying Twomey's own white and green colours to victory on just her second start for the trainer in the Listed McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park last month.

A Listed winner in France last term, Rumbles Of Thunder was picked up privately by Twomey, who shared that Group races will be on the agenda before a possible appearance at the December Mares Sale at Tattersalls.

He said, "Rumbles Of Thunder was very good at Gowran Park. We had her a little bit fresh going there, we didn't over-train her going to Cork and thought she'd come on for that, which she did at Gowran Park, and I think she's a filly who can progress throughout the season. She will have a Group campaign."

Twomey added, "The plan is to race her throughout the year and, if everything went to plan, we might send her to the December Sales if she is not sold beforehand. I think she will end up being traded at some stage.

"She's a nice filly, is well-bred, and showed a nice level of form before joining us. She showed an ability to quicken when winning at Toulouse, came from the back of the field to win a Stakes race quite readily, so we said we'd roll the dice on her."

La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}), who mowed down Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Blandford S. at the Curragh on Irish Champions Weekend last season, the recent Moyglare Stud-owned addition Just Beautiful (GB) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) and French Claim (Fr) (French Fifteen {Fr}) are others that Twomey is quietly hopeful about this term.

He said, "La Petite Coco is in great form and we purposely didn't run her in the first half of the season. She will probably start her season off in the Munster Oaks at Cork and her owners would like to have a tilt at the Breeders' Cup later in the year. The Pretty Polly and the Yorkshire Oaks could also be on her radar. We'll keep her to fillies' races for the first part of the campaign and if we have a good time we could look at taking on the colts at some stage.

"Just Beautiful has settled in well but, again, we're looking towards the second half of the season with her. She's a nice addition to the team and is training well."

Twomey added, "French Claim will be aimed at the St Leger. He won well at Cork on soft ground and we ran him in a Derby trial as connections were keen to explore the Epsom option but that faster ground didn't play to his strengths. He likes an ease in the ground and will be aimed at Doncaster."

PIZ BADILE CAMP SNAP UP DETTORI FOR DERBY RIDE By Brian Sheerin

Piz Badile | PA Images

Connections of leading G1 Cazoo Derby hope Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses) have been provided with a massive boost ahead of Epsom after legendary rider Frankie Dettori committed to ride the Donnacha O'Brien-trained colt in the Classic on June 4.

Dettori made his Derby breakthrough in 2007 aboard Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) for Peter Chapple-Hyam as well as partnering John Gosden's Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) to victory in the race back in 2015 and he will bid to win the iconic race for a third time aboard the impressive G3 Ballsax S. winner.

A general 10-1 chance for the Derby, Piz Badile has raced just three times, but that reappearance win in the Ballysax at Leopardstown received a major advertisement when the runner-up, Buckaroo (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), ran out an impressive winner of the Listed Tetrarch S. at the Curragh last month.

Confirming Dettori for the ride, Alan Cooper, racing manager to Piz Badile's owners the Niarchos Family, said: "Frankie is going to ride at Epsom. The horse is in good form. We've got just under three weeks to go, so hopefully he stays in good form between now and then."

He added, "I think Donnacha is very happy with his horse and the decision was made not to go to the Derrinstown (Derby Trial), which would have been the horse's third trip to Leopardstown.

"I'm in regular contact with Donnacha and he's delighted with his horse. They all need luck in running and we'll go from there."

TATTERSALLS ASCOT MAY SALE CATALOGUE RELEASED

The initial entries for the Tattersalls Ascot May Sale, which takes place on Tuesday, May 31, was released on Monday and includes entries from Godolphin, Blue Diamond Stud Farm and Cedar Lodge Stables.

The catalogue is currently numbered at 110 lots and comprises 24 fillies and mares in and out of training, 66 colts and geldings, six point-to-pointers and 14 store horses.

Dual winner Met Office (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and Naasma (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), who is out of Group 1-winning race mare Music Show (Ire) (Noverre), is one of the more interesting lots on offer.

Gordon Elliott's Cullentra House stables will offer a total of 14 lots including bumper winner Gun Runner Cash (Ire) (Jet Away {GB}), while leading National Hunt owners Gigginstown House Stud and Bective Stud will also be represented.

Further entries will be accepted up until Monday, May 23 and will be published online at tattersallsascot.com.

KINGENTLEMAN ON TOP IN CHANTILLY FEATURE

Kingentleman | SCOOPDYGA / CHOURAQUI Elliott

Guy Pariente's homebred sophomore colt Kingentleman (GB) (Kingman {GB}--Restiadargent {Fr}, by Kendargent {Fr}) was off the board in all three prior starts at black-type level and lined up for Monday's G3 Prix Texanita at Chantilly as the 27-1 outsider-of-eight coming back off a pair of sixths in last month's G3 Prix Djebel and G3 Prix Sigy. The eventual winner, successful twice at this venue earlier in the campaign, raced under a firm grip behind the leaders early and tanked forward to stalk the pace in second after the initial exchanges. Nudged along passing the quarter-mile marker, he launched his challenge approaching the furlong pole and was ridden out in the closing stages to assert by 3/4-of-a-length from Prix Sigy third Le Cadeau (GB) (Dabirsim {Fr}) for a career high.

"He's a nice horse, but is still immature and has needed time to learn the job," explained trainer Pia Brandt. "He has had to learn to run between horses and five-and-a-half [furlongs] was too sharp for him last time. He had already won over a mile, but in lesser company, and this trip--in this company--seems perfect for him. He is superbly bred and we hoped to earn some black type, so it's mission accomplished. We do very little with him in the mornings at home and he tells us when he is ready to go again. We shall discuss plans with the owner to see what will be next and this win has opened all manner of possibilities."

Kingentleman, the fifth of six foals, is one of four winners for MGSW G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte victrix and G1 Diamond Jubliee third Restiadargent (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}), herself a full-sister to stakes-winning G3 Prix Fille de l'Air runner-up Restiana (Fr). The March-foaled bay is a full-brother to the unraced 2-year-old filly Steady Woman (Fr) and kin to Listed Prix de Saint-Patrick victor Restiany (GB) (Frankel {GB}). His third dam, Listed Prix Caravelle victrix Restifia (Fr) (Night Shift), is out of a stakes-placed half-sister to G1 Prix de Diane heroine Resless Kara (Fr) (Akarad {Fr}) and hails from the family of MG1SW European champion Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}).

There is barely a year that goes by when Henry Candy doesn't produce a black-type sprinter and the master of Kingston Warren was at it again on Monday as Run To Freedom built on a latest fourth in the G3 Abernant S. to register this breakthrough win. Transformed since switched from seven to six furlongs, the bay won and was second in consecutive handicaps at Kempton in October before his comeback effort in the Newmarket sprint Apr. 13. Always close to the early pace, the half-brother to the stable's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup-winning sire Twilight Son began to assert from two out and despite veering left saw out his effort to the line.

Sent forward to tackle Sweet Fantasy (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) approaching the furlong pole, the 2-9 favourite managed to subdue that rival only in the final yards to score by a neck. The winner is a half-sister to the stable's G2 Hungerford S. and G3 Nell Gwyn S. winner Sacred (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), MGSW-Eng, $170,432. 5th-Chantilly, €27,000, Mdn, 5-16, unraced 3yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:42.97, g/s.
LEPARD (FR) (c, 3, Sommerabend {GB}--La Fortunela {Fr}, by Soldier of Fortune {Ire}) tanked forward into second after the early strides of this debut. Coming under pressure approaching the two pole, the 109-10 chance was ridden to the fore passing the furlong marker and drew off late to easily outpoint Afadil (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) by an impressive 4 1/2 lengths. Lepard is the lone foal produced by an unraced granddaughter of Listed Festa-Rennen victrix La Dane (Ire) (Danehill), herself kin to four black-type performers headed by MGSW G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine La Blue (Ger) (Bluebird). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,500. Video, sponsored by TVG.

7th-Chantilly, €27,000, Debutantes, 5-16, 3yo, f, 8fT, 1:41.76, g/s.
TARIYANA (FR) (f, 3, Sea the Stars {Ire}--Taniya {Fr} {GSW-Fr, $107,804}, by High Chaparral {Ire}), sent off at 13-2, was keen in front initially for her four-pound claimer Lea Bails and thought about jumping the road after the first two furlongs. Settled behind the leading pair after, the hooded homebred took it up again approaching two out and stretched enthusiastically to a three-length defeat of Pedra (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}). The G3 Prix Fille de l'Air-winning dam, whose yearling filly Tangara (GB) is by Siyouni (Fr), hails from the family of the dual GII American H. winner Takarian (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) and the G3 Fairy Bridge S. scorer Tanaza (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,500. Video, sponsored by TVG.

QUEEN OF DEAUVILLE (IRE) (f, 2, Showcasing {GB}--Syann {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by Daylami {Ire}) shadowed the pace in second after a sharp getaway in this unveiling. Pushed along passing the two pole, the 3-1 chance edged ahead approaching the final furlong and lengthened clear under continued coaxing to comfortably account for Monte Forte (GB) (Cotai Glory {GB}) by 2 3/4 lengths. Queen of Deauville is the sixth of seven foals and fifth scorer from as many runners produced by Listed Oyster S. third Syann (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), herself a half-sister to stakes-winning G3 Prix Marchand de Sable third Ivy League (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) and dual stakes victrix Intense Romance (Intense Focus). The January-foaled grey is kin to Listed Denford S. runner-up Dutch Treat (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) and a yearling colt by Kodiac (GB). Sales history: €40,000 Ylg '21 GOFOR. ELEGANT VERSE (GB) (f, 3, Galileo {Ire}--Special Duty {GB} {Ch. 2yo Filly-Eur, MG1SW-Eng & G1SW-Fr, $1,070,938}, by Hennessy), an Apr. 29 debut second over this trip at Newmarket last time, was swiftly into stride and tracked the leader in second after the early shuffling here. Looming alongside the pacesetting Remembering (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) at the quarter-mile pole, the 13-8 second choice led approaching the final furlong and kept on well under whipless rousting to deny that rival by 1 3/4 lengths. Elegant Verse's G1 Cheveley Park S.-winning dam Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy) remains the latest of four fillies to have achieved the G1 1000 Guineas-G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches double after Cachet's narrow miss at ParisLongchamp on Sunday. In addition to this second winner, she has also thrown Listed Prix Yacowlef second South Bank (Tapit), the unraced 2-year-old filly Conscribe (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a yearling colt by Frankel (GB) and the dam of GIII Dwyer S. third Snow House (Twirling Candy). Special Duty is a half-sister to the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Mile-winning sire Expert Eye (GB) (Acclamation {GB}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $10,819.

EPICENTER DRAWS EIGHT AS 6-5 PREAKNESS FAVE; SECRET OATH IN 4-HOLE

Epicenter | Coady Photography

GI Kentucky Derby favorite and runner-up Epicenter (Not This Time) drew post eight in a nine-horse renewal of the GI Preakness S. at Monday's pill pull for the second leg of the Triple Crown, while GI Longines Kentucky Oaks victress Secret Oath (Arrogate) got the four post for trainer D. Wayne Lukas as she attempts to become the second filly to win the Preakness in the last three years and give Lukas a seventh Preakness victory. The chestnut was installed as the 9-2 third choice on the morning line behind Epicenter and expected speed Early Voting (Gun Runner), who drew smack in the middle of the field in the five post for trainer Chad Brown. The 1 3/16-mile classic will carry a purse of $1.65 million, up from the expected $1.5 million due to the late supplement of Fern Circle Stables, Back Racing and Magdalena Racing's Creative Minister (Creative Cause).

"I thought it was ideal," said Epicenter's trainer Steve Asmussen of his colt's draw. It's a nine-horse field, plenty of run-up to the first turn. Several fresh horses and us coming back in two weeks, I think it's absolutely ideal. You could say we're half as nervous as the draw for the Derby, when you go from 20 runners to nine. I think that makes it that much more beneficial to everybody as far as post-position draw goes. With that being said, it's exciting to run against Early Voting, me being a huge fan of Gun Runner [who he trained]." Cont. p3

SLEZAK HOPING TO REPLICATE KENTUCKY DERBY TRIUMPH

Bloodstock agent and entertainment journalist Michael Slezak

by Katie Petrunyak

Michael Slezak may have been watching the Kentucky Derby alongside his 11-year-old twin boys from his living room in Jersey City, but he celebrated like he was about to receive the trophy himself when Rich Strike (Keen Ice) scored the second-largest upset in the race's 148-year history.

A former TVLine and Entertainment Weekly journalist, Slezak is now a full-time bloodstock agent who also dabbles in TV pilot script writing. One month and a day before Rich Strike made Derby history, Slezak claimed the colt's half-sister My Blonde Mary (Oxbow) for $5,000.

"I am not a quiet race watcher," Slezak admitted as he relived his Derby day experience. "My kids will be like, 'He's screaming again.' I'll also scream in a race for a $4,000 claimer but in this case, I lost my damn mind. I was like a crazy person. I felt like I had won the Derby." Cont. p4

"So I'm very excited to see [Early Voting], but obviously anxious for Epicenter's opportunity in the Preakness," Asmussen added.

Prior to running second in the Derby behind shocking winner Rich Strike (Keen Ice), whose connections decided to pass on the Preakness and an attempt at the Triple Crown, Epicenter impressively annexed the GII Risen Star S. and GII Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds. Bettors made him a clear 41-10 favorite in the Run for the Roses, where he led until deep stretch before getting overtaken late to his inside.

Secret Oath was a convincing winner of one of the strongest renewals of the Oaks in recent memory, rallying wide to score a two-length victory. Trying to follow in the footsteps of filly Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil), who beat back Derby winner and eventual Horse of the Year Authentic (Into Mischief) in the COVID-delayed 2020 Preakness, Secret Oath has already taken on males once, running third with a troubled trip in the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 9 at Oaklawn.

Of post four, Secret Oath co-owner Rob Mitchell commented, "I think it's fine. I mean, I'm happier with that than I was with the post position [#1] for the Oaks."

Klaravich Stables' Early Voting, an impressive victor of the GIII Withers S. and a narrow runner-up in the GII Wood Memorial S., had enough points to qualify for the Derby, but was pointed for the Preakness instead by Brown, who won the Preakness in 2017 with Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music), the four-time Eclipse champion trainer's lone Classic victory to date.

"Terrific," Brown said of drawing stall five. "I wanted to be somewhere in the middle, so that will work. I'm happy with the draw."

Only three horses from the 20-horse Derby will return to contest the Preakness in Epicenter, fourth-place finisher Simplification (Not This Time) and 14th-place finisher Happy Jack (Oxbow). Simplification, victor of the GII Fasig-Tipton Fountain of Youth S. this winter, drew the rail Monday as the 6-1 fourth choice.

"I saw speed to the outside. It doesn't change our strategy," said trainer Antonio Sano. "At first, I thought no good, but Johnny V [John Velazquez] is so smart. He will make the decision if he has to go outside."

The entire field, from the rail out with jockey assignments: #1 Simplification (Velazquez), #2 Creative Minister (Creative Cause, Brian Hernandez, Jr. 10-1), #3 Fenwick (Curlin, Florent Geroux, 50-1), #4 Secret Oath (Luis Saez), #5 Early Voting (Jose Ortiz), #6 Happy Jack (Tyler Gaffalione, 30-1), #7 Armagnac (Quality Road, Irad Ortiz, Jr., 12-1), #8 Epicenter (Joel Rosario), #9 Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator, Junior Alvarado, 20-1).

The purchase of My Blonde Mary for client Mary Jane Nuckols was a Michael Slezak special. The agent focuses on finding value with fillies and mares competing in the claiming ranks by meticulously studying every claimer entered to race while giving scrupulous attention to pedigree activity and family members that could have a breakout race performance or auction result. An array--or maybe a disarray--of notes cover the surface of his desk and on his computer, comprehensive spreadsheets would make little sense to anyone but Slezak himself.

"I look at every claiming race for fillies and mares in North America every day," Slezak said. "It's a lot of work, but I liken it to Roger Federer or Serena Williams. They go out on the court and hit thousands of forehands every day so it's like second nature. For me, looking at claiming races every day almost becomes muscle memory. Sometimes you get a sensation that things seem to be coalescing with a family. It's like puzzle pieces that come together."

Slezak first spotted My Blonde Mary well before Rich Strike came into the picture or had even made his first start. In her 4-year-old debut last February, she had one win from 10 starts, but Slezak noted that she was out of a Canadian champion and a half to a Grade II winner. The pedigree was enough for him to keep an eye on her, but he was still waiting for some recent activity in the family. When Rich Strike ran third in the GIII Jeff Ruby S., it was enough for Slezak to go after her as she competed in the claiming ranks at Tampa Bay this spring.

"It would be a bald-faced lie to tell you that I thought Rich Strike could win the Derby when we purchased the mare, but it's always cool to have a sibling on the Derby trail," Slezak said. "She was a terrific mare that we weren't spending an arm and a leg on, plus you have the extra cachet to say you own the half-sister to that horse when you're at your Derby party."

Slezak had an additional rooting interest on Derby Day. Last June, he purchased Time Sensitive (Nyquist), the half-sister to Derby contender Tawny Port (Pioneerof the Nile), after seeing Tawny Port's six-figure purchase price and noting that the colt was going to Brad Cox. When Tawny Port was two-for-two early this year, Slezak decided to run Time Sensitive through the Keeneland January Sale.

"She only brought $15,000, so my timing on that one was not stellar," he admitted. "Fortunately it was for me and not a client, so I had nobody to yell at me except for myself."

Even still, to pick out two half-sisters to Derby starters from bottom-level claiming races, Slezak was thrilled.

"I hope to repeat that every year," he said with a laugh. "Of course it's not going to be that easy, but you can dream and you can do the research. With a lot of my clients, they're looking for commercial success to make money, but if you have that additional boost of having a connection to someone running in the Derby, the Oaks or the Breeders' Cup, that's icing on the cake."

Rich Strike in the paddock before the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby
Coady

Growing up in upstate New York, Slezak's earliest memories are of his parents taking him to the races at Saratoga. He learned to read by studying the racing form and was always fascinated by pedigrees. He worked as an entertainment journalist for several decades, but racing always called to him. Seven years ago, he decided to make a career change and enter the Thoroughbred business.

When Slezak was first getting started, only a quarter of his purchases were for clients and he invested in the remainder himself. As he gained experience and celebrated early success, he began taking on more clients to where these days, the majority of his purchases are for other people.

Slezak said most of his principals have stayed the same from when he first started his business until now, but he added that his research system has become even more comprehensive.

"I think I've gotten better at understanding what the market wants," he explained. Cont. p5

"I'll find a hard-knocking, multiple stakes-placed mare, but if she's by a super obscure stallion, that's a harder sell. I'm also branching out a little more into buying in-foal mares at auction and selling their weanlings or yearlings. I'm trying to diversify and find other areas where I can identify horses selling for less than what they're worth."

Slezak has already amassed an impressive list of success stories.

In 2018, he purchased You Laughin (Sharp Humor) for $2,000 when she was the last mare through the ring in one of the final sessions of the Keeneland November Sale. He sold her for a profit a few weeks later after her colt Zenden (Fed Biz) won a stake at Gulfstream Park.

Last January, he purchased the mare I Dazzle (Hold That Tiger) in foal to Catalina Cruiser for $13,000. In November, he sold the resulting filly for $100,000.

Of course, not every purchase is a home run. While Slezak isn't afraid to go with his gut when purchasing a prospect, he must also be willing to sell them when a family update doesn't happen after a period of time. Several years ago, he claimed the filly Tizn'tshebeautiful (Uncle Mo) in her debut and later sold her as a broodmare prospect for $45,000 at the 2017 Keeneland January Sale. Two months later, her half-brother Tiz the Law (Constitution) was foaled.

"Had I held onto her until Tiz the Law was a Classic winner, we could have done better," he lamented. "I can't keep them all. But now, Tiz the Law won the Belmont and My Blonde Mary's brother won the Kentucky Derby, so I just need a Preakness winner to complete my own Triple Crown."

Slezak stressed that his program is built on more than just studying the horses he might claim. Another big piece of the puzzle is following stakes horses, impressive maiden winners, and auction results to find updates on the racemares he already has tabs on. As was the case with My Blonde Mary, one important result from a sibling could tip the balance to make a mare worth purchasing. He also noted that his network of connections at the track are essential in getting eyes on a mare before he claims her.

"There's so much potential to find value and it's really fun," he said. "There's something crazy about these hard-knocking mares running for a bottom maiden claiming tag when somewhere at a bigger racetrack in a different time zone, there's a horse percolating toward the Kentucky Derby."

Slezak hopes to continue to grow his business while keeping the same conservative approach with the mares he purchases. He said he enjoys the flexibility this career provides. Currently working on his third TV pilot script, he can also make time to attend his sons' soccer games and help them study for math tests.

"It has been a fun career change, even though my previous career was watching TV for a living which was also pretty fun," he said. "It's never dull and everything about it is completely fascinating to me. It's been something I've been interested in and reading about for my entire life and I feel like there's so much more to learn. There's constantly new information and things to get better at."

Slezak knows it will be difficult to replicate his results from this year's Kentucky Derby, but he is eager to give it a try.

"It was a great weekend, but now that those horses are claimed and the race is done, the question is, who is the next horse we're going to claim? How do I try and duplicate that? I couldn't wait to check out last week's claiming races to see what all was out there."

UK QUARTERBACK WILL LEVIS AND WALKER HANCOCK JOIN 'CATCHING UP WITH KATIE'

Will Levis and Walker Hancock join the first episode of 'Catching Up with Katie'

In the first episode of the TDN's new video series 'Catching Up with Katie,' host Katie Petrunyak sat down with the University of Kentucky's starting quarterback Will Levis and Claiborne Farm's Walker Hancock at Wallace Station Deli and Bakery outside of Lexington to discuss the NIL (Name, Image, and Likeness) deal between Levis and Claiborne stallion War of Will (War Front).

The partnership was announced early last month and is the first of its kind for any collegiate student-athlete with a Thoroughbred syndicate.

"The reaction that we have gotten has been incredible," Hancock shared. "The tweet that we sent out has over 500,000 impressions, so it literally went viral. It was cool to see other outlets that aren't necessarily in the horse industry pick it up. We are always trying to find new fans and when we can cross sports like this, getting football fans focused on racing and racing fans watching football, it works out really well for both sports. It has been a perfect synergy of our brands with what we are looking to do."

Set to take the field this fall for his second season as QB for the Wildcats, Levis talked about the opportunities this deal has provided not only for himself and War of Will, but for the Thoroughbred industry at large.

"[Horse racing] is so pertinent to Kentucky's economic success," he said. "To bring eyes to the industry and to the people that are a part of it has been really cool. You're getting not only the eyes of people in the horse industry and Kentucky football fans, you're expanding the possibilities for fans from brand new demographics because of the uniqueness of the deal and the amount of people that picked up on it. Regardless of if you have interest in horse racing or football, it's still a cool story to read about."

Levis, who threw for 2,826 passing yards and 24 touchdowns last year to lead UK to one of its most successful seasons on record, has quickly developed an interest in, and perhaps even a bit of a passion for, the sport of horse racing since his move to Lexington. He has already made several visits to Keeneland and this year, attended his first Kentucky Derby.

Asked if he had any desire to someday get further involved in the industry, Will responded enthusiastically. "100%. It's definitely something I want to keep myself involved in one way or another. I still have a lot to learn and I still have just a very surface-level knowledge of the sport, but I'm going to keep dipping my feet in and learning as much about it as I can because it's so interesting. There's a lot of money in it too, and that's not the main reason behind my interest, but while I'm here I have to take advantage of it."

Later in the conversation, Hancock shared how he envisions the future of other stud farms potentially partnering with athletes in the NIL space, and both Levis and Hancock discussed how each of their family legacies played a roll in building their own success.

HALF-SISTER TO DERBY WINNER AT HOME IN ONTARIO Edited Ontario Racing press release

Susan Foreman got outbid in a hot market at the Keeneland January sale earlier this year, but found a mare to bring home to her Ontario farm from among the sale's RNAs, purchasing Unostrike (Macho Uno) privately for $25,000 after the 12-year-old failed to meet her reserve in the sales ring the previous day. While half of the mare's purchase price was paid for by Ontario Racing's Mare Purchase Program, the acquisition was made even better when Unostrike's half-brother Rich Strike (Keen Ice) upset the GI Kentucky Derby two weeks ago.

"I didn't even know Rich Strike was entered into the Derby until Saturday," said Foreman. "I was watching on the farm, because I was foal watching with a friend, and I turned to her and said, 'I have the half-sister to the Kentucky Derby winner.'"

Foreman had been bidding on behalf of a client when shut out at the Keeneland January sale. Back in her hotel after the session, she was looking through the supplement book when she saw Ontario-bred Unostrike was an RNA at $22,000.

"What immediately caught my attention was she was in-foal to Caravaggio, a gorgeous son of Scat Daddy," said Foreman. "She's out of a Canadian champion mare [Gold Strike], a Smart Strike mare. It was a just beautiful page for me to take home to Canada." Cont. p7

Foreman arranged to look at the mare the following day at the St. George Sales consignment.

"When I got there, it took me two seconds to say, 'I'm not leaving without this mare,'" said Foreman. "She's beautiful. She's 16.1. She's correct and very good looking and had an early cover date to Caravaggio."

Unostrike produced a filly by Caravaggio Feb. 17.

"She is a lovely mare to be around, a good mom, and it's a beautiful foal," said Foreman. "Her nickname's Fancy. She's the niece of the Derby winner out of a hot stallion. I couldn't be happier."

Foreman plans to sell the filly as a yearling next year, while Unostrike is currently in foal to Maximum Security.

Ontario Racing's Thoroughbred Improvement Program has $5.89 million available to breeders in the province.

TDN SNIPPETS

by Gary King

It was a relatively quiet week in the U.S. as everyone drew breath between Derby and Preakness, but the action came thick and fast in Europe. Here's what grabbed our attention over the last seven days.

From San Antonio to Longchamp...

Tony Parker, former San Antonio Spurs icon, was in the headlines Sunday as part-owner of Mangoustine (Dark Angel), winner of the G1 Emirates Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. Parker, who joins a growing list of sports stars involved in horse ownership in France, won four NBA championships (2003, 2005, 2007, and 2014) with the Spurs. His number nine jersey was also retired.

Tony Parker after Mangoustine's victory | Scoop Dyga

Never-Ending Success...

We the People is the second consecutive son of Constitution to win the GII Peter Pan S., following Promise Keeper last year. He's also bred on the same cross as the stallion's best son, Tiz the Law, whose quartet of Grade I wins includes the Belmont S. Although it should be noted that was the year it was run at 1 1/8 miles as the first leg of the Triple Crown in 2020.

2022, No More Drama...

It was reported last week, by the KHRC, that the post-race tests for banned substances in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Longines Kentucky Oaks horses were cleared. Onwards and upwards.

The World's Greatest?...

Trainer William Haggas didn't quite go that far, after Baaeed (Sea The Stars {Ire})'s seventh win on the spin, but he also didn't really dismiss it. "I would not go as far as to say he is the best horse in the world--that is the sort of thing others might say--but he has done very well." Either way, it's worth watching his latest romp in the G1 Al Shaqab Lockinge S. on repeat. Enjoy.

All That Glitters Is Gold For Brant...

She may have cost €3-million when purchased by Michel Zerolo's Oceanic Bloodstock at Arqana in December, and Rougir (Territories) will have far bigger goals than Saturday's GIII Beaugay S. at Belmont, but she's off to a good start for Chad Brown and new owners Peter Brant and Michael Tabor. Brant is on a terrific run at moment, which is great to see for such a staunch supporter of the game.

THE JOCKEY CLUB PUBLISHES RACING CHRONICLE

The Jockey Club has announced it will offer The Jockey Club Fact Book Chronicle as part of its free online Fact Book. The Fact Book Racing Chronicle will offer past performances directly from Equibase, and charts from graded stakes races will be provided through links to equibase.com.

"The information in The Jockey Club Fact Book Chronicle is valuable for everyone from researchers and reporters to handicappers and casual racing fans, and we are pleased to be able to provide this resource as part of our Fact Book," said James L. Gagliano, president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club. "In the coming years, we plan to add additional content and make the information more dynamic, and we welcome feedback on potential additions to the Chronicle."

BOLDEN (c, 4, Square Eddie--Bas, by Flower Alley) made a single appearance at two for Peter Miller, crushing state-bred maidens by 5 1/2 lengths in June 2020 and was the 12-5 chalk to belie a lengthy spell here. The $100,000 FTCAYR yearling brushed the gate and exchanged bumps with a rival shortly after the start, then established a prominent position three deep. Bolden came calling for the lead outside of pacesetting longshot Stir the Pot (Boisterous) with a quarter-mile to race and kicked home smartly to score by a half-dozen lengths. The winner has a yearling half-brother by Pavel. Sales history: $100,000 Ylg '19 FTCAYR. 7th-Parx Racing, $35,000, (S), Msw, 5-16, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:12.54, ft, 3 1/2 lengths.

MOONBOOTS (f, 3, Bourbon Courage--Siege, by Malibu Moon), dismissed at 12-1, was away a step slowly and was hustled to rush up to chase a four-strong group vying for the lead. Four wide into the stretch, the chestnut filly strode to the lead in upper stretch and powered clear in the final furlong to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Pacesetting fellow firster Hidden Cache (Central Banker) settled for second. The winner's 2-year-old full-sister, the unraced Tipsy Girl, sold for $19,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall sale. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. LEGAL NOTICE

The New York Jockey Injury Compensation Fund (NYJICF) Amended 2022 Workers' Compensation Premium Assessment and Formula

This is the NYJICF's Amended Assessment Plan for 2022 (2022 Amended Assessment Plan) and, consistent with the last few years, continues to be structured on New York Racing Association (NYRA)-based horsemen contributing 86% of the NYJICF's annual cost, which is estimated to equal $6,608,774, and Finger Lakes Gaming and Racetrack (FLRA)-based horsemen contributing 14% of the NYJICF's annual cost, which is estimated to equal $1,075,847.

Similar to the last few years, the NYJICF has secured authority to use up to $2 million from the 2022 NYRA purse cushion fund. As a result, the NYJICF sought and received approval of the New York State Gaming Commission (Gaming Commission) to eliminate the scheduled second installment of the owner and trainer base payment for NYRA owners and trainers.

NYRA Owners assessment and payment is a $1,000 base premium, plus 2% of purses earned.
FLRA Owners assessment and payment is a $2,550 base premium, plus 2% of purses earned.

Each race with a purse over $1,000,000 will be capped at $1,000,000 for Workers' Compensation assessment purposes only.

NYRA Trainer assessment and payment is a $1,000 base premium plus:
NYRA trainers will pay a per stall charge of $1.60 per day for each stall allotted and accepted during each stall allotment period as designated by the track where each trainer races, provided that the first 12 stalls allotted and accepted will be free and the per stall charge for each stall allotted and accepted in excess of 12 will be $1.60 per day.

FLRA Trainer assessment and payment is a $2,550 base premium plus:
FLRA trainers will pay a per stall charge of $1.50 per day for each stall allotted and accepted during each stall allotment period as designated by the track.

These premium charges will be due as follows:
NYRA and FLRA Owners and Trainers base premium charge is due:
a. At NYRA, for those trainers already stabled on the grounds: $1,000 on or before January 1, 2022.
b. At NYRA, for those owners already stabled on the grounds: $1,000 before they run their first horse in 2022.
c. For those trainers shipping in: upon entering the horse on the grounds based on the "shippers" per start schedule set forth below.
d. For those owners shipping in: before they run their first horse in 2022 based on the "shippers" per start schedule set forth below.
e. At FLRA, for trainers: upon entering the horse on the grounds: $1,500 on or before April 1, 2022, and an additional $1,050 (for a total of $2,550) to be paid on or before June 1, 2022.
f. At FLRA, for owners: $1,500 before they run their first horse in 2022 through May 31, 2022, and an additional $1,050 (for a total of $2,550) to be paid on or before June 1, 2022.

Anything in this 2022 Assessment Plan to the contrary notwithstanding, FLRA's 14% of the NYJICF's cost, which is estimated to equal $1,075,847, will be paid by FLRA in eight equal installments in the amount of $134,480.88 between April 2022 and November 2022.

NYRA and FLRA Owners and Trainers
The stall charges will be due on the last day of the first month of each allotment period, for example: January 31 for winter 2022 at NYRA and thirty days after the opening of the stable area for the spring meeting at FLRA.

If the trainer accepts stalls for the summer meeting but ships in three weeks before that meeting begins, that trainer will be responsible for the entire summer meeting plus $1.60 per day ($1.50 at FLRA) times the number of stalls allotted, times the number of days that the trainer occupied the stalls prior to the summer meeting, provided that the first 12 stalls allotted and accepted at NYRA tracks will be free.

Owners/Trainers will be required to pay the base premium charge of $1,000 at NYRA and $2,550 at FLRA, plus 2% of purses earned, plus the stall allotment charge.

Private Trainers will be responsible for the base premium of $1,000 at NYRA and $2,550 at FLRA. The owner employing that trainer (whose payroll the exercise riders are on) will be responsible for the stall charge plus 2% of purses earned.

Shippers. At NYRA, owners and trainers will be charged $100.00 each per start for their first ten starts (for a maximum of $1,000 for 2022). At FLRA, owners and trainers will be charged $150.00 each per start for their first ten starts (for a maximum of $1,500 for 2022). Owners will also be charged 2% of purses earned. Shipping trainers will only be charged a stall fee if they are assigned stalls.

A suitable stall count to be determined by the racing secretary at the current stall assessment rate ($1.60 at NYRA tracks (except the first 12 stalls allotted and accepted will be free for 2022) and $1.50 at FLRA) will be assessed to those horsemen stabled off of the racetrack proper and who have daily access and use of the racetrack facilities.

Surcharge. Each trainer, upon such trainer's second claim and any subsequent claim filed with the workers' compensation insurance carrier in 2022, shall be charged a per-claim handling surcharge based upon the total number of horses then currently trained on the date of such claim(s) (as measured by the number of stalls allocated statewide as of the date of the claim for which a surcharge is to be collected), as follows: 1 to 10 horses: $200; 11 to 30 horses: $400; and 31 or more horses: $600.

General Information
Should NYJICF determine that the amounts which are actually collected from (i) NYRA is inadequate to cover 86% of the NYJICF's annual cost, which is estimated to equal $6,608,774 and and/or (ii) FLRA is inadequate to cover 14% of the NYJICF's annual cost, which is estimated to equal $1,075,847, respectively, then the NYJICF will seek additional funds pursuant to the Racing, Pari-Mutuel Wagering and Breeding Law Section 221 (7).

- For determining the responsibility for payment of workers' compensation, an owner is the person whose account would be debited or credited when a horse runs. In the case of multiple ownership, this would be the managing partner.
- In order for trainers to reduce their stall charge, they must officially return stalls to the proper association, stall man or racing secretary within 10 days after assuming the stalls.
- The charge per stall is in no way to be construed as a payment for stall rent. This is only a method which the NYJICF uses to estimate the appropriate premium charge that is due.
