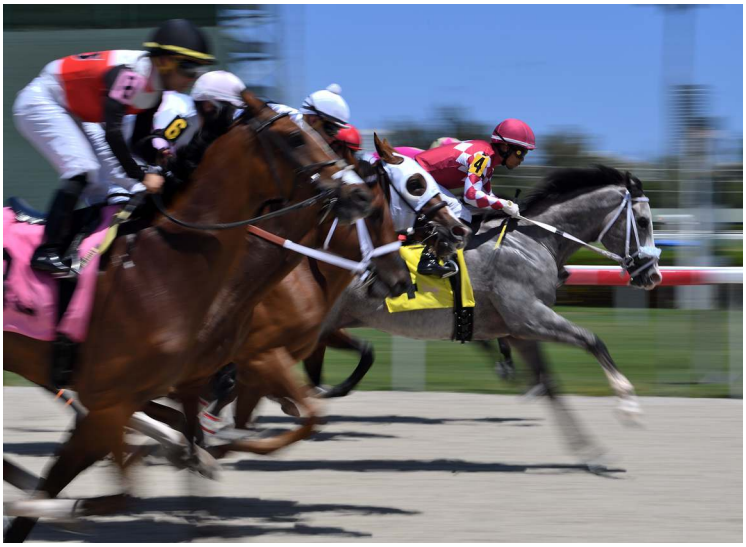
TDN'S HISA LAUNCH CHEAT SHEET



Coglianese

by Dan Ross

Only those living under rocks would be forgiven ignorance of the July 1 launch of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA).

Thanks to HISA's shifting goal posts and sometimes opaque approach to the dissemination of information, however, even those without such domiciles would be forgiven confusion as to what is expected of them between now and takeoff.

The following, therefore, is aimed at providing a basic guide to help industry participants navigate the weeks ahead, from the registration process to important new rules that will be in place July 1.

TDN will update the page with new information over the course of the next few weeks.

If anyone in the industry has any unanswered questions about the process, let us know at suefinley@thoroughbreddailynews.com and we will try our best to get those answers and update the page accordingly.

The information below is taken from information already in place on the HISA website--which can be found here--and in the rules, as well as from background conversations with HISA officials.

TRAINER PETER MILLER SET TO RETURN

by Bill Finley

Peter Miller, who has not started a horse since Nov. 28, will make his return Sunday at Churchill Downs when he sends out Respect the Code (Honor Code) in the eighth race.

Miller announced last fall that he was taking a break from training, explaining in a press release that he wanted to "spend more time with his family, focus on overall health and wellness, and pursue other interests." At the time, the bulk of his stable was moved over to his former assistant Ruben Alvarado.

In a text message, Miller, 55, explained that he chose to launch his comeback with Respect the Code because he wanted his first horse back to be owned by Gary Barber. "He's been my biggest supporter for over 15 years," Miller wrote. Cont. p6

Registration

Come July 1, all "covered persons" and "non-covered persons" should be registered with HISA, as should the horses in each trainer's care. Click here for a HISA registration explainer.

What does this mean?

"Covered persons" is a broad catch-all encompassing everyone already licensed by a state racing commission including trainers, owners, breeders, jockeys, veterinarians, farriers, agents, along with backstretch employees like grooms, hotwalkers and exercise riders.

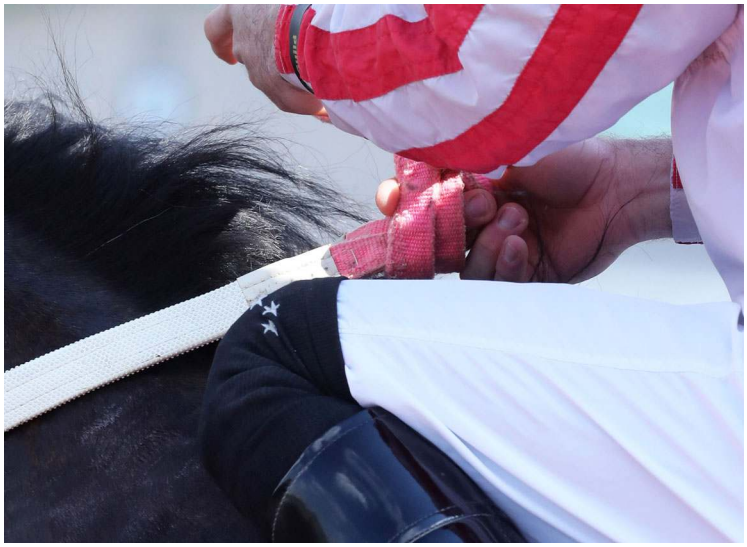
The second camp concerns those with a horseracing job that requires them access to licensed facilities--think stewards, industry representatives, track superintendents and commission members--who must register with HISA as "non-covered persons."

Those people who have no direct working relationship with the industry--but who nonetheless wish to comment on the draft rules--are also permitted to sign up.

While "covered persons" do need to be licensed by a state racing commission to be able to register, "non-covered persons" don't.

The online portal to register--which has a separate Spanish-speaking button--can be found here.

Once an owner or trainer is registered, the process isn't necessarily over. You'll then be prompted to register your horse or horses as well. For horses with multiple owners, there needs to be only one designated owner to register.



Coady

Which horses need to be registered? Any of the following events should trigger the registration of a horse:

- A timed and reported workout at a racetrack or training center.
- A horse's race entry.
- A horse's race nomination.

In some instances, the nomination and entry date for races scheduled for July 1 onward will arrive before that date.

In those instances, horses won't need to be registered at the time of the nomination or entry. Rather, owners or trainers will be given what HISA terms a "grace period" up until scratch time of raceday to register the horse.

What about our international cousins?

International participants like owners and trainers, grooms and exercise riders are considered "covered persons" and therefore must be licensed by a U.S. state racing commission prior to registering for HISA.

Currently, the online portal is the only way to register. But it can also prove glitchy.

The registration process currently asks users for their email address and/or mobile phone number. But according to HISA officials, some mobile phone companies are sending text messages as spam.

As such, HISA recommends that users submit only their email address to register where possible until the glitch is fixed.

What are the possible ramifications if you're not registered by July 1? That's currently unclear.

HISA officials explained, however, that the registration of backstretch staff like grooms, hotwalkers and exercise riders will fall under the racetrack accreditation rules (which gives racetracks leeway to incrementally implement the new standards in "good faith").

As such, while it's imperative that everyone is registered as soon as possible, they say, there will be a bit of registration wriggle room for these backside employees.

HISA will also apparently, within the next few weeks, begin sending representatives out to certain racetracks to help with the registration process.

Trainers

Come July 1, trainers will be required to maintain a record of any medication administration, therapeutic procedures, treatments and surgical procedures to the registered horses in their care. These are separate to the records that veterinarians are expected to maintain.

Trainers will also be required to make these records available to regulatory veterinarians, stewards and HISA officials upon request. Click here for a HISA explainer on trainer requirements.

So, how will this record-keeping requirement work on an everyday basis?

That's up to the individual, with trainers allowed to keep either written records or electronic records (if indeed they have such an electronic online program).

According to HISA, they will soon make public a template document for these treatment records, to be used as a possible blueprint.

The ultimate goal, says HISA, is to have a centralized electronic database where trainers can input and maintain their daily treatment records online. But when that will be in place is unclear.

Bearing in mind the program's anti-doping and medication control rules won't go into effect until early next year, there are nonetheless some noteworthy veterinary-related mandates come July 1:

- Shockwave treatments are prohibited within 30 days of a race. During that time, both racing and high-speed workouts are prohibited.
- Pin-firing, freeze-firing and blistering will be prohibited.
- Chemical or surgical neurectomies--otherwise known as "nerving"--are similarly prohibited.
- You won't be able to use within 48 hours of a breeze or a race any electrical medical therapeutic devices capable of producing an analgesic effect including magnetic wave therapy, laser therapy, electro-magnetic blankets, boots and electro-shock units.

Jockeys and Exercise Riders

An infographic geared toward jockeys has been available on the HISA website for a while.

The infographic lays out registration requirements, equipment requirements, the uniform crop rules and penalty structure, annual fitness and baseline concussion exam mandates, and "return to racing" assessments.

Because of supply chain issues, jockeys won't be required to acquire a crop that fits the new requirements under HISA until Aug 1. The other parts of the jockey-related rules, however, will still go into place on July 1.

Also come July 1, all jockeys and exercise riders must have a medical information card attached to their safety vest at all times.

According to the rules, the medical information card should include medical history, conditions pertinent to emergency care, previous injuries, allergies and current medications.

For exercise riders especially, this is something of a novel requirement. But according to HISA officials, such a medical card could be something as basic as a piece of laminated cardboard with handwritten details.

The same infographic on the HISA website states that all jockeys and exercise riders "must complete at least 2 hours of continuing education on safety, rider &/or racetrack protocols prior to the beginning of a Race Meet."

This education component won't be required prior to July 1.

Farriers

A month later than anticipated due to supply chain issues, new shoeing requirements will go into effect.

From Aug. 1 onward, therefore, all traction devices such as rims, toe grabs, bends, jar calks and stickers are prohibited during racing or training. The only exception is 2mm outer rims on dirt or synthetics.

Miller went on to explain that Respect the Code is his only horse he has in Kentucky and that the bulk of his stable will be in Southern California. He said he is gearing up for the meets at Los Alamitos and Del Mar. The Los Alamitos meet begins June 22 and the Del Mar season begins July 13.

When asked via text if the horses that had been turned over to Alvarado will return to his stable, Miller wrote, “I hope so.”

Miller’s status at Santa Anita remains unclear. By deadline for this story, Aidan Butler, the chief operating officer for 1/st Racing, which owns, Santa Anita, had not responded to a text asking whether or not Miller’s entries would be accepted at the Arcadia, California track.

Miller’s announcement that he was stepping away from training came shortly after a horse under his care died at the San Luis Rey training center. In 2021, five horses in his care suffered catastrophic injuries, the highest number of any single trainer in California this year. Though 1/st Racing did not publicly take any action against Miller, there was speculation that he was forced out. When announcing his hiatus, Miller said the decision was strictly his own.

“I know that there may be some speculation related to this decision; however, I want to make it very clear that it is not a result of any regulatory action, secret agreement or hidden agenda of any kind,” he said in the press release. “This is strictly a personal decision.”

Miller, who has won nine training titles at Del Mar, has 1,338 career wins.

THIS SIDE UP: READY FOR OUR CLOSE-UP?

by Chris McGrath

"Wait a minute, haven't I seen you before? I know your face... You're Norma Desmond. You used to be in silent pictures. You used to be big."

"I am big. It's the pictures that got small."

That, unforgettably, is how we meet Gloria Swanson in Sunset Boulevard; and that, you fear, is rather how we meet the faded star of Memorial Weekend.

Aptly, the first name carved onto the Hollywood Gold Cup has

Country Grammer (inside) won last year's Hollywood Gold Cup itself become that of an Oscar nominee. Seabiscuit was followed by some of the icons of our sport's golden age: in the 1950s, Bill Shoemaker won the race three years running on Swaps, Round Table and Gallant Man. But the race was exiled from the rubble of Hollywood Park after 2013, and Monday's edition will not match its legacy in quality nor even in quantity.

In fairness, we are actually on a hugely credible streak of winners, including a couple who consecutively rounded off the same campaign with success in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, in Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky) and Vino Rosso (Curlin). But while last year's winner Country Grammer (Tonalist) has also reiterated his excellence since, he has done so in the opulent desert races that have drastically diluted another storied race, and one native to this track, in the GI Santa Anita Handicap.

My compatriots in England will bleakly recognize that syndrome, whereby heritage must serve as a substitute for purse money. (Interestingly the welcome restoration of the Hollywood Gold Cup, after an uncomfortable stint as "the Gold Cup at Santa Anita", was accompanied a couple of years ago by a further decline in its value.) But the past can only ever be a viable foundation for the future if we engage properly with its lessons, and respect the standards that it has handed down.

Because while there have been specific issues for this race and the Big 'Cap, a short field is also a snapshot of far deeper challenges facing our sport--and not just in California, albeit our friends there certainly find themselves in the front line.

Okay, so the bloodstock market appears heroically invulnerable even to war and inflation, doubtless stimulated by cheering glimpses of viability in Kentucky and elsewhere. But nobody, coast to coast, can be complacent about California's exposure in recent years in terms of what we're learning to call the "social licence". While we owe a debt of collective gratitude to those who did so much to get their house in order, the subsequent travails of the West Coast's outstanding achiever have hardly been helpful to the image of the sport.

But while a few investors appear to have defected east, many of the factors behind short fields are plainly operative even in environments that imagine themselves to be thriving. For the fact is that the elite program has never been tightened in response either to a long decline in the foal crop, nor to the changing behavior of modern trainers and their patrons.

The latter have corralled their most expensive stock in the hands of a few so-called "super-trainers", whose neurosis about strike rates will keep their horses apart when possible. And these trainers, in turn, have compounded that problem in their apparent dread of running a horse any more than once every three moons.

And that's where the rather tiresome arguments renewed over the past couple of weeks, about the competence of the 21st Century Thoroughbred for the Triple Crown schedule, can be virtually repeated when it comes to scarcity of competition across the next tier of the pyramid.

Chad Brown is to be congratulated for expertly completing another ambush of the GI Preakness S. field, with a fresh horse, and we know him to be resolute in spacing out the starts made by his horses. As such, his huge success has certainly contributed to the prevailing culture. It was heartening, then, to hear him tell the TDN Writers' Room of his opposition to any change to the Triple Crown series--especially when so many people suddenly want to retreat from standards set by great horses and horsemen of the past, simply because the GI Kentucky Derby fell into the laps of some guys who have given themselves another three weeks before running the risk of being shaken awake from the dream.

Chad Brown | Sarah Andrew

California, of course, was a rather more competitive environment when Bobby Frankel was around. It's good to see Brown now breaking out of the kind of pigeon-holing that once saw his mentor treated as somewhat of a turf specialist himself. It's pretty scary to hear him already talking about a horse as blazingly fast as Jack Christopher (Munnings) having the kind of stretch that Frankel eked out of Ghostzapper. Candidly, however, I still have a hunch that another sophomore in the barn could yet prove the best of the crop, once Brown gets back to his cherished Saratoga. For one reason or another, Zandon (Upstart) didn't see out the last 10% of the Derby but come the GI Travers S., I won't be forgetting the way he went through the other 90%.

Even the Travers and certainly the GI Haskell S. would bump up against the Triple Crown series if we were foolish enough to countenance its extension. Most likely, the GI Belmont S. would instead end up being squeezed from the other side. Paradoxically, however, the reason why we can't change the Classics is the exact same reason why we do have to consolidate the rest of the stakes program. Because just as the measure of a Triple Crown horse has been the work and wisdom of generations, so we inherited the black-type or graded stakes horse as a reliable gauge of quality in the breed.

Trainers today insist on waiting until every horse, to adapt the final delusion of Norma Desmond at the end of Sunset Boulevard, is ready for its close-up, Mr. DeMille. But future breeders are relying on standards remaining consistent. The ultimate badge of excellence, as a Triple Crown winner, would be devalued by change. Conversely the lesser currency, of stakes horse, will continue to be devalued by the status quo. As it is, we're handing out Oscars for a nice little routine at the high school prom. But the Triple Crown is still big. It's either the horses, or the horsemen, that got small.

PLETCHER STARS HIGHLIGHT BUSY BELMONT WORKTAB

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher's potential GI Belmont S. duo of Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) and the filly Nest (Curlin) worked in company Friday morning.

Nest, with Jose Ortiz aboard, and Mo Donegal, who was piloted by Irad Ortiz, Jr., went to the fast main track under cloudy skies and temperatures in the 60s. Nest worked to the inside of Mo Donegal as both horses completed their five-furlong moves in 1:02.99, followed by an extended three-eighths gallop out.

"The main thing I tried to emphasize to Jose and Irad was that I wanted a good, steady, long gallop out breeze. I wasn't concerned about how quickly they went," Pletcher said. "They got into a good rhythm. I had them out in 1:02 4/5, but what I particularly liked was the three-eighths after the finish line, they galloped out strongly. Both riders said that when I told them on the radio to let them go ahead and go out another eighth, both horses jumped up underneath them and showed they still had something left in the tank, so I was happy. I think both horses have good foundations. I just wanted a good, steady, stamina-building breeze and I thought we were able to accomplish that."

Mo Donegal, owned by Donegal Racing and Repole Stable, was fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby on May 7 at Churchill Downs, where he broke awkwardly from the rail and was forced wide in the final turn. He entered the Derby following a neck win over eventual GI Preakness S. winner Early Voting (Gun Runner) in the GII Wood Memorial S. Apr. 9.

Mo Donegal | Sarah Andrew

Produced by the A.P. Indy mare Marion Ravenwood, the full-sister to GI Santa Anita H. winner Idol was a dominating winner of the GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland en route to a runner-up effort as the lukewarm favorite in the GI Kentucky Oaks.

"Pedigree wise, it's a no brainer. You've got Belmont all over her pedigree, so I think she'll run that far. That's a huge part of the consideration," Pletcher said. "She's given us every indication since the Oaks that she's doing well."

Last year's champion 3-year-old filly 'TDN Rising Star' Malathaat (Curlin) was also on the Belmont work tab Friday, working in company with graded stakes winner Fearless (Ghostzapper) through five-eighths in 1:00.60 over the training track. She is currently on track for the GI Ogden Phipps S. June 11. Three-time graded winner Fearless is being aimed at the GII Brooklyn Invitational June 11.

'TDN Rising Star' Life Is Good (Into Mischief), a last out fourth in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, breezed a half-mile in :49.05 over the training track. The GI Pegasus World Cup hero resumed serious training at WinStar Farm in Kentucky earlier this month. Pletcher said Life Is Good is targeting the GII John A. Nerud July 2 at Belmont with the GI Whitney Aug. 6 as a long term goal.

"He worked this morning in :48 and change, did it very easily," Pletcher said. "I think he's maintained his conditioning level very well, so right now we have the Nerud on July 2, which gives us five weeks back to the Whitney. That's what we're thinking right now."

Also on the work tab for Pletcher was GIII Bay Shore S. winner 'TDN Rising Star' Wit (Practical Joke), who posted a five-eighths breeze in 1:01.05 in preparation for the GI Woody Stephens S. June 11.

We the People Breezes for Belmont Stakes...

WinStar Farm, CMNWLTH and Siena Farm's We the People (Constitution) put in his penultimate work Friday in preparation for the GI Belmont S., covering a half-mile in :48.39 over the Belmont main track.

"It was an easy half, very routine for him," said trainer Rodolphe Brisset, who was aboard for the work. "It was exactly what we were looking for. Just a maintenance work to put us in a perfect spot for next week. We just like the way he's been acting and training here. He's not an easy horse and he looks like he's maturing at the right time. Hopefully, the next two weeks will be the same."

The 'TDN Rising Star' posted a resounding win in the GIII Peter Pan S. May 14, the final local prep for the "Test of the Champion." We the People led every step of the way over a good and sealed Big Sandy to win his first graded stakes by 10 1/4 lengths. He earned a 103 Beyer Speed Figure for the effort.

"We were happy with the number and you will always have people say it was a sealed track and an easy lead," said Brisset. "But I just feel like that was the right effort right before the Belmont and I think it's the right move to point him to the big one now."

NYRA ASSISTANT STARTERS THREATEN TO STRIKE ON BELMONT DAY by Bill Finley

Horses break from the gate at Belmont Park | Sarah Andrew

At an impasse with NYRA over health insurance benefits, the union representing assistant starters at Belmont, Aqueduct and Saratoga has informed the racing organization that it will wage a strike starting on the day of the GI Belmont S. if its demands are not met.

With recent discussions between NYRA and Local 3 of the International Brotherhood of Electric Workers failing to produce a solution, the union served NYRA with a Notice of Intent to Strike.

The union is asking for NYRA to pick up the health coverage from the time an assistant starter retires until they are eligible for medicare. When reached by the TDN, union representative Robert Olenick refused to comment.

"NYRA has negotiated in good faith throughout this process," said NYRA spokesman Pat McKenna. "The same cannot be said for Local 3 IBEW, who have now resorted to threats and intimidation tactics to extricate themselves from a contract agreed to by both parties that has been in place for more than a decade. NYRA is committed to achieving an equitable solution, but it is unfortunate and counterproductive for the union to threaten to intentionally disrupt the Belmont Stakes."

McKenna added that NYRA believes a strike will not cause a major disruption to the Belmont card.

"The reality is that NYRA has contingencies in place to ensure there would be absolutely no impact to the event no matter the action taken by Local 3 IBEW," he said.

Contingency plans include bringing in non-union starters to man the gate on Belmont Day.

This is not the first time the union has threatened to strike on Belmont Day. Prior to the 2012 Belmont, the assistant starters threatened to strike, but the two sides reached an agreement in the days leading up to the race. The core issue in 2012 was a dispute about how overtime pay would be awarded.

DAZZLINGDOMINIKA SELLS FOR $120,000 AT F-T FLASH SALE

Dazzlingdominika (Ghostzapper), a 2-year-old filly who broke her maiden at Churchill Downs May 13 for trainer Will Walden, sold for $120,000 as the sole offering in Fasig-Tipton Digital's Ready Made Racing Flash Sale, which closed Thursday. Eric Waller purchased the filly from consignor Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent for Ready Made Racing. Bidding opened on Monday, May 23 at noon EDT and closed Thursday, May 26 at 2 p.m. EDT.

A new venture, Ready Made Racing bought the Ghostzapper filly as a yearling for $30,000 at the 2021 Keeneland September Sale with the intent to sell if she broke her maiden. When Dazzlingdominika did so in her second start at Churchill Downs on May 13, the principals opted to offer her to the public in a flash sale conducted by Fasig-Tipton Digital.

"We came up with a game plan six, seven months ago," trainer and Ready Made Racing partner Will Walden told Bill Finley in a story in Wednesday's TDN. "In order for Ready Made to do this again next year, we have to sell these horses in order to raise money to go to the sales again. This has been the plan all along."

A winner in two starts at two, Dazzlingdominika has earned $53,720 to date. The chestnut filly is the first foal out of the winning Trappe Shot mare Trappingsofsilver, who is a half-sister to Grade I winner Heir Kitty. Dazzlingdominika hails from the immediate family of last year's GI Arkansas Derby winner and millionaire Super Stock.

The sale marked the second time Fasig-Tipton Digital offered a flash sale, following up on the success of the Fox Hill Flash Sale in early April, when broodmare prospect Sweet Tea sold for $320,000 to Vicente Perez from the consignment of Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent for Fox Hill Farm.

Fasig-Tipton is now accepting nominations for the June Digital Selected Sale, to open Monday, June 6 at noon EDT and close Thursday, June 9 at 2 p.m. EDT.

Nominations are recommended by Friday, June 1. Contact Leif Aaron at laaron@fasigtipton.com or (859) 255-1555 for more information or to enter the June Digital Selected Sale.

DEEP FIELD OF 13 CLASHES IN SOARING SOFTLY by Joe Bianca

A tough-to-separate baker's dozen of 3-year-old turf fillies will face off in Saturday's seven-furlong GIII Soaring Softly S. at Belmont, with many promising runners looking poised to jump into the division's upper echelon.

Three horses, each from powerhouse barns, figure to vie for favoritism, and Chad Brown's Haughty (Empire Maker) was given the slight nod on the morning line at 5-2. Disqualified out of an impressive, 3 1/4-length first-out score debuting over a mile on the local turf Sept. 17, the $310,000 OBS April buy had no problem breaking her maiden for real by four lengths next out at Keeneland and overcame a wide post to finish a close third when last seen in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Nov. 5 at Del Mar.

Waterville Lake Stables' New York-bred Derrynane (Quality Road) looms a big chance. A heavily-bet debut victress last July at Saratoga, the homebred annexed the Woodbine Cares S. two starts later Sept. 19 before running a sneaky-good, late-closing fourth against males in the GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Returning in the Limestone S. Apr. 15 at Keeneland, the bay was flying late and just missed by a neck to wire-to-wire Wesley Ward runner Ruthin (GB) (Ribchester {Ire}). The Soaring Softly will be Derrynane's first try beyond 5 1/2 furlongs.

Ward will send out third choice Chardy Party (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) for Stonestreet Stables. Making her belated bow as a 9-5 favorite against 11 rivals Apr. 27 at Keeneland, the gray broke a bit slowly from the rail before uncorking a monster closing kick despite racing greenly, rallying from 10 lengths back in the final three-sixteenths to get up by an improbable half-length.

Other intriguing runners include Breeze Easy (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), who makes her 3-year-old and North American debut for Christophe Clement after placing in multiple stakes in Great Britain last fall, Sail By (Astern {Aus}), who returns to the site of her 12-1 GII Miss Grillo S. upset in October, and Ouraika (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}), who Graham Motion shipped west to capture the GIII Sweet Life S. two back at Santa Anita Feb. 12.

VIOLENCE COLT TURNS IN 'STRONG' DEBUT, EARNS 'RISING STAR' NOD

Forte | Susie Raisher

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's Forte (Violence) was no secret to the betting public as the heavy 1-5 favorite for the Friday lid-lifter at Belmont Park and ran away from his overmatched rivals down the lane to earn 'TDN Rising Star' accolades.

The$80,000 Keeneland November weanling turned $110,000 Keeneland September acquisition had registered three works since shipping up from trainer Todd Pletcher's South Florida base at Palm Beach Downs and signaled his readiness with a best-of-24 half-mile from the gate that was timed in :48 flat May 20, just outworking Summonyourcourage (Practical Joke), who was third when making his first career appearance at Churchill Friday afternoon (see below).

Debuting in the Repole blue-and-orange, Forte was not the quickest away and was under a hustling ride from third behind a :22.43 opening quarter. Pulled out three wide to deliver his challenge as they neared the stretch, the prohibitive chalk engaged pacesetting Wasabi Boy (Lord Nelson x Gas Station Sushi) a furlong and a half from home, got a few left-handed reminders from Irad Ortiz, Jr. and was in hand for the final sixteenth of a mile. The winning margin was 7 3/4 lengths, while Wasabi Boy was over eight lengths ahead of the rest of the field.

Forte is the first foal from his dam, herself a four-time stakes winner and a half-sister to a pair of stakes horses. Queen Caroline is also the dam of a yearling colt by Uncle Mo that is ticketed for the Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services consignment at Keeneland this coming September and was most recently bred to Authentic. The colt's third dam is a half-sister to Contrive (Storm Cat), the dam of champion 2-year-old filly Folklore (Tiznow).

This is also the family of GSW Tizahit (Tiznow), GSP Divided Attention (A.P. Indy), GSP Iqbaal (Medaglia d'Oro) and Japanese Triple Crown hero Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

TIZ SPLENDID NEWS (f, 4, Maclean's Music--Tiz News, by Tiznow) drew into this heat as the lone main-track-only entrant and was the 4-5 chalk to build on a 9 1/4-length allowance score going 6 1/2 furlongs at Gulfstream Mar. 6 and a half-length tally over seven panels at Keeneland Apr. 15. Speediest from the stalls, the chestnut crossed down onto the fence and covered the opening quarter in :21.80. Ridden cold into the lane by Tyler Gaffalione, Tiz Splendid News received a mild wake-up call approaching the sixteenth pole, but was never in any danger, scoring by 1 1/2 deceptively easy lengths.

Tiz Splendid News | Coady

The winner was produced by an unraced daughter of Grade III victress Sue's Good News (Woodman), also the dam of GISW Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) and granddam of GSP Serein (Uncle Mo) and SW and recent Churchill allowance winner Surfer Dude (Curlin). Tiz Miz Sue is a half-sister to Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint hero Bulletin (City Zip) and to Kateri (Indian Charlie), the dam of GSW & GISP 'TDN Rising Star' Souper Sensational (Curlin). Tiz News fetched $550,000 at the 2018 FTKNOV sale and produced a Curlin filly in 2020 before changing hands for $190,000 in foal to Good Magic at KEENOV in 2020. She produced a colt by the champion in 2021 and delivered a McKinzie foal this year. Sales history: $100,000 Wlg '18 FTKNOV; $75,000 RNA Ylg '19 FTKJUL. R CALLI KIM (m, 5, Revolutionary--It Takes Two, by More Than Ready), a three-time winner while under the care of Georgina Baxter, came off an almost nine-month layoff Apr. 23 at the venue to miss by a neck after a troubled trip in her first start for this barn. Going off here at the highest price of her career at 5-1 when the race was rained off the turf, R Calli Kim showed the longest race of her career was no problem after taking control early, turning away pressure from Queen Bourbon (Empire Maker) through :24.05, :48.67, and 1:13.85 fractions, and fighting off a final challenge from her shadow in the lane. Kicking clear, she held the late charge of Good Measure (Smarty Jones) by 1 1/2 lengths. Cont. p3

The victress claims half-sister Temple City Terror (Temple City), SW & MGSP, $338,996 and two other winners as siblings from as many to race. The former is entered for a title defense in Saturday's Keertana S. at Churchill Downs. R Calli Kim's 4-year-old half-brother Silent Steve (Dominus) is his dam's last registered foal as It Takes Two has no report or was barren for the last four years. FOUETTE (f, 4, Nyquist--Allez Marie {GSP-Brz}, by Unbridled's Song), acquired by Lady Sheila Stable for $140,000 at last year's KEENOV sale, ran sixth Jan. 2 and fourth Jan. 22 at Turfway Park for trainer J. Reeve McGaughey before shipping up to join this Belmont stable. Hustled from the break by Irad Ortiz, Jr. and showing the way through a :46.54 half, Fouette refused to concede her lead when rolling into the stretch. The 9-1 shot was kept to the task and won by 4 1/2 lengths over a closing Betsy Blue (Tonalist). A half to Tomato Bill (More Than Ready), GSP, $131,174; and Workaholic (Sky Mesa), SW, $144,828, Fouette is the third multiple winner from three elder offspring to race. Her 3-year-old half-sister Allez Lele (Strong Mandate) is unplaced and there is a 2-year-old half-brother by More Than Ready named Morethanreadyeddie. Allez Marie, a daughter of 2005 GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Summerly (Summer Squall), also has a yearling colt by Constitution and a 2022 filly by Gun Runner. MISCHIEVOUS DREAM (f, 4, Into Mischief--Just Livin a Dream, by Trippi), winner of the 2020 Sorority S., filled third spot behind the late Con Lima (Commissioner) in the Honey Ryder S. last May and was likely in need of the run when an allowance fourth going a mile over the Aqueduct turf first off an August layoff Apr. 23.

Cutting back in distance for this second-up test, the homebred settled slightly worse than midfield and remained locked away at the inside for the opening four furlongs. Full of run, but short of room turning for home, Mischievous Dream found daylight three off the inside approaching the furlong grounds and was home narrowly best. Sassy Melissa (War Dancer) was checked repeatedly at the tail of the field down the backstretch and rallied widest of all in the lane, but the wire came a few strides too soon. The winner's dam is a half-sister to front-running machine Presious Passion (Royal Anthem), two-time winner of the GI United Nations S. and runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf in 2009. Christophe Clement signed the ticket on Mischievous Dream's Practical Joke half-sister for $37,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton October sale and Livin the Dream is the dam of a colt by the Generazios Disco Partner. NO CHALK (f, 3, Tapiture--Justleavemealone, by Speightstown), an 11-1 rail-riding winner on unveiling Mar. 25 at Aqueduct, followed up that six-panel effort with a runner-up appearance May 2 at Finger Lakes against allowance non-winners of two. Sent on her way here at 12-1 against fellow state-breds, No Chalk dueled with a rival all the way around, cut the corner coming off the far turn, and had just enough--despite getting leg-weary--late to deny Mia Bea Star (Race Day) by a nose. The newest addition for her dam, No Chalk is the fourth winner from as many to race, and is the last registered offspring for Justleavemealone, who's been barren the last two years. MAIDENS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Churchill Downs, $117,143, Msw, 5-27, 2yo, 5f, :58.78, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

OWEN'S LEAP (c, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Defy Gravity {SW, $171,240}, by Bandini) became his freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro)'s third winner with a powerful performance here on unveiling. Sent off at 5-2 for the contest, the Tom Amoss trainee stalked the early pace of :22.86 and :46.35 from third, challenged outside through the far turn, and came five wide into the lane to take over in the upper stretch. Kept under strong handling, the $175,000 KEESEP alumnus came home 1 3/4 lengths best over 9-5 favorite Justafever (Justify) and $500,000 KEESEP purchase Summonyourcourage (Practical Joke).

Owen's Leap | Coady Photography

Owen's Leap hails from a productive racing and producing family being a half-brother to Ellis Park Debutante S. winner Green Destiny (Super Saver) and three other winners from four of racing age. His 3-year-old half-sister by Uncle Mo named Gravitation is unraced, and he has a yearling half-brother by Justify. Defy Gravity is a half-sister to GISW Callback (Street Sense)--the dam of recent Caesars S. runner-up Tommy Bee (Medaglia d'Oro)--and is expecting a foal by McKinzie this season. This is the female family of several sires including Cyrus Alexander, Brethren, Accelerator, Harborage, Girolamo, Imagining, Bluegrass Cat, and Super Saver. There are no fewer than 12 graded-stakes winners beneath his second and third dams. Sales history: $175,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,460.

OSIRIA (f, 3, Malibu Moon--Rosy Humor, by Distorted Humor), not a fan of the dirt on debut Feb. 6 at Gulfstream Park when finishing ninth, relished the switch to turf last out Apr. 9 at Aqueduct, finishing third in that six-panel contest. Staying at the distance and moving over to Belmont Park, the $400,000 KEESEP purchase put it all together here for a hard fought wire-to-wire victory by 1 3/4 lengths. Frosted Oats (Frosted) followed that one all the way around, and was turned away after initiating a challenge in the final sixteenth. A full to Stanford, MGSW, $1,385,510; and a half to Hedge Fund (Super Saver), SW & MGSP, $379,060, Osiria also claims the winning dam of stakes-winner Big Thorn (The Big Beast) as a sibling. The victress is the latest winning addition for Rosy Humor, who also has a yearling filly by Justify and a 2022 filly by Vino Rosso. This is the family of European and American champion 2-year-old colt Johannesburg (Hennessy), and sires Fed Biz (Giant's Causeway) and Tale of the Cat (Storm Cat). Sales history: $400,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $59,630. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

2nd-Gulfstream, $61,000, Msw, 5-27, 2yo, 5f (AWT), :59.42, ft, neck.

DANGEROUS RIDE (c, 2, Lord Nelson--Ride a Wave, by Medaglia d'Oro) showed a lot of heart on debut here to duel between rivals, overcome a bump on the turn and hold off a late charge by Valiancer (Tapiture) to win by a neck. A half to five winners from six to race, Dangerous Ride is the 24th winner for the late Lord Nelson (by Pulpit). The mare has a 2022 foal by Street Boss. Beneath this colt's third dam Flippers (Coastal), GI Santa Anita Oaks winner Hail Atlantis (Seattle Slew) makes an appearance; she is also known as the dam of stalwart sire Stormy Atlantic (Storm Cat). This is the family of such graded-stakes winners as GI Toyota Blue Grass S. conqueror Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus), GI Central Bank Ashland winner Out For A Spin (Hard Spun), two-time G1 DP World Dubai Turf and G1 Prince of Wales's S. winner Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {ire}), and GI Summer S. victor Decorated Invader (Declaration of War).

APPLEBY WILL SUPPLEMENT NATIONS PRIDE TO DERBY

Charlie Appleby | Megan Ridgwell

Charlie Appleby has confirmed that Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) will be supplemented at a cost of £75,000 for the G1 Cazoo Derby on June 4 after sparkling in what was a crucial workout on Wednesday.

The Moulton Paddocks handler already had two contenders for this year's renewal of the premier Classic in Blue Riband Trial winner Nahanni (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Lingfield Derby Trial runner-up Walk Of Stars (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

But after giving that pair an experience of Epsom at the Cazoo Gallops Morning on Monday, Appleby revealed that Nations Pride could be added to the field pending a crucial midweek workout.

"He worked on Wednesday with a reliable and very able lead horse and he looked very good. Importantly, he has done well since. I have been delighted with him since the gallop," Appleby said.

"He has the right profile for Epsom. He's got five runs under his belt, having won the Jumeirah Derby and then taking the Newmarket S., where William (Buick) was very pleased the way he went through the line, which has given us as good an indication as any that the step up to a mile and a half is going to suit him. Therefore, we think he deserves to be supplemented on Monday morning." Cont. p2

CART-HORSE – THE STORY BEHIND KEVIN BLAKE'S BELGIAN MISSION By Brian Sheerin

What did you get up to during the lockdown? Did you finally build that patio that you promised you'd complete years ago? Maybe you took up exercising? Or did you go searching for a broodmare after one of her sons put up an eye-catching performance on the track only to find her pulling carts in Belgium and, after initially being told that she's not for sale, did you finally strike a deal for the price of a small second-hand car? Thought not.

Kevin Blake, the popular ITV racing pundit and breeder, didn't spend his lockdowns mowing lawns and racking up 5ks. Oh no, Blake's interests peaked in finding Atalis (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), the dam of Atalis Bay (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}), after he posted a nice performance on his second start and it became something of a mission to track the mare down for the best part of a year. Cont. p2 Appleby sees the colt's experience as a valuable asset, adding "On Derby day there's a huge crowd, the fanfare of it all. I feel you have to have experience to take into it.

"Cantering a mile and a half down to the start as well. There's a lot of challenges for a 3-year-old early in his career, and the more experience is beneficial, which is what he brings to the table."

However, not long after looking for the mare online, he knew that she wouldn't be easy to find after she was sold for just 800gns at a mixed sale at Tattersalls just six months before Atalis Bay burst onto the scene.

"The story began with a WhatsApp message from a good friend called Michael Wilson," Blake explains. "We do a lot of work together to identify horses of interest on the track using data-based analysis. Back in August 2020, he flagged Atalis Bay after he ran a strong number when winning a maiden at Windsor for Marco Botti. He had only cost 800gns as a yearling, but had put up a stakes-class performance on Michael's numbers and was of obvious interest."

Blake added, "It transpired that Atalis Bay himself wasn't for sale at that stage, but we noted that his dam Atalis had also been sold for just 800gns at Tattersalls the previous February. At the time she was a barren 9-year-old that had produced three foals of no apparent consequence until Atalis Bay showed up.

"I wasn't familiar with the listed buyer, so I contacted the bloodstock agent Michael Kelly who is a great man for tracking down horses in all sorts of places. I gave him the only details I had, the name of the mare and the buyer, set him loose and wished him the best of luck.

"Just one hour later, he comes back to me with, 'Kevin, I found your mare. She's in some sort of equestrian yard in Belgium, I think they might have her pulling carriages or something like that, but they don't want to sell her.'"

Atalis Bay | Getty Images

Any elation that came with tracking down a mare who had apparently drifted off the face of the earth was short-lived. Atalis's new owners were so smitten with her, they weren't for changing their minds, and the project was parked.

There were heads in hands when Atalis Bay won his next two starts but it appeared missing out on his dam was all for luck when he disappointed in the Cornwallis S.

No sooner had Blake given up on the idea of bringing the Belgium cart-horse back to Golden Farm in County Tipperary, Atalis Bay got his 3-year-old campaign off to a flyer in winning at Nottingham, and another chase ensued.

"We decided to have one more try," Blake says. "Michael Kelly was again sent in pursuit of the Belgians and this time he had better news. 'They'll sell her, but only for a lot of money.'

"Value is in the eye of the beholder and a price was soon agreed that was very agreeable to both parties, so she was on her way to Golden Farm."

He added, "Michael Wilson took half of her, his first investment in a broodmare, and it wasn't long in bearing fruit."

Blake added, "Atalis Bay came out a couple of weeks later to finish second to Winter Power (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) in a listed race at York and then won the Listed Scurry S. at Sandown. He has since changed hands and joined Robert Cowell for whom he will hopefully continue to thrive in stakes company.

> Value is in the eye of the beholder and a price was soon agreed that was very agreeable to both parties, so she was on her way to Golden Farm.
> – Kevin Blake on Atalis

"As well as that, prior to buying Atalis we had noted that Marco Botti had bought the yearling colt by Ulysses out of her and enquiries had revealed that he quite liked him. He was subsequently named Odisseo (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) and has won four times and progressed up to a mark of 86 with the promise of more to come."

There will be heightened interest to how Atalis Bay performs in the Listed Betfred Nifty Fifty Achilles S. at Haydock on Saturday (1.45) given the legwork that Blake and his compadres put in to get involved in the family.

The Belgian cart-horse, as she is affectionately known on Blake's Golden Farm, does not appear to be missing her old job, and has settled into life in Tipperary well. Cont. p4

Blake revealed, “Not long after she arrived in Ireland, we sent Atalis to Starspangledbanner (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) and with all having gone well, she gave birth to a big, strong colt a few weeks ago. He already has enjoyed some fame, as I caught a nice video of him and Atalis in their stable that has reached over a million people on Facebook alone.”

He added, “Atalis is only 11 years of age and is a lovely mare in every way. She is clearly a very capable producer and we are looking forward to seeing where she takes us. While I'm not sure of how many carriages she actually pulled, she'll forever be known as the 'Belgian cart-horse' here!”

BON APPE-TOTE: YOUR BEST BETS FOR WINNING AND DINING AT ROYAL ASCOT

By Jocelyn Targett

Is it just me or do you remember what you ate at Royal Ascot almost as much as the horses who won? The pre-match picnics and asparagus rolled in soggy brown bread, picking flies out of warm Champagne, dribbling mint-choc-chip down a once-a-year waistcoat and forgetting about it until the following June, smuggling yourself into a friend-of-a-friend-of-a-friend's box in time for a swollen-footed tea, then ricocheting across Car Park One from gazebo to car-boot for ever more misguided imbibements; and, eventually, the agonising walk into a service station on the M25 for Big Macs and chocolate and crisps, bedecked in race badges and ridiculous trousers and trying hard not to look like the bumbling toff who used to have to spit-shine Jacob Rees-Mogg's brogues at Eton. Bon Appe-Tote Cont.

There was the year four of us serious-minded industry professionals spent an entire afternoon teetering on bar stools with numerous bottles of Bolly and several plastic boxes of almost-as-plastic seafood and didn't see even one actual live horse until it was time to stop laughing, mop ourselves up and find our way home. Absolutely no idea what won. Or the time I was fed a pissaladiere so perfect that I had to nab seconds from the picnic basket and stuff it in my pocket to eat later down by the track: never have I been so happy to be hampered in the final furlong.

My wife, a newspaper fashion journalist, once spent the whole of Ladies Day quite literally in the Ladies, reporting the behind-closed-doors gossip and impending style disasters as they happened. But even she didn't enjoy herself as much as when, a few years back, I bumped into an American chum in the queue for racecards and had the good fortune to be whisked away to a super fancy grandstand restaurant where, can you believe, a Michelin-starred chef served us never-ending fingerfuls of fairy-dust-sprinkled deliciousness while we gazed down on the sport from a balcony on the fifth floor, so high you feel you could reach over and pick your horse up like a small toy and place him in the lead.

That chef, it turns out, was Phil Howard, for decades the two-star chef patron of The Square in Mayfair, who was cooking in the Royal Ascot restaurant now called 'ON 5' for the first time. And I was dining, as it also turns out, not as the guest of my big-mouthed bonne vivante Bel Air babe buddy but, in fact, of her English Rose companion for the day, Kirsty Stanley-Hughes, who has the nearly unique profession of being a gastronomic talent agent, finding gigs for her constellation of multiple-Michelin-starred gourmets to cook in amazing places and at glittering events all around the world.

I called Kirsty last week ('Ah yes, all my racing friends seem to get in touch at this time of the year!') and, as I tried not to lick my lips too much, she told me she will have five chefs at Royal Ascot in June, the racecourse having developed new restaurants in old places (Holyroodhouse, the Old Press Room, the Pavonian), as well as serving racegoers on the Royal Enclosure lawns and on the infield and up on my cherished fifth floor. All her culinary luminaries have got day jobs (and, notoriously, long-into-the-night jobs) in some extremely upmarket addresses, and as she ticks off their form and pedigrees it's very tempting to abandon the idea of going to Royal Ascot for the racing and just be completely single-minded about lunch. Nieves Barragan Mohacho has a Michelin star for her work at her own restaurant Sabor, just off Regent Street in the centre of London.

She will be serving Spanish cuisine, champagne and sangria in the Queen Anne Enclosure overlooking the racecourse; her tapas-influenced tasting menu will be hot to trot with all the comings and goings of race day. The Old Press Room, where my wife once typed up her notes, has been converted into an exclusive space for just 40 diners, where the many-starred Tom Barnes--exec chef at Simon Rogan's celebrated Lake District bolthole L'Enclume--will be on duty, bringing his sommelier team with him to arrange hold-the-front-page wine pairings. His boss, meanwhile, is hosting at ON 5, where, I'm told, at least one long-in-the-tooth owner-breeder has relocated from his own private box on account of the sumptuousness of the setting and the splendiferousness of Chef Rogan's three Michelin star offerings.

Kirsty herself is as steeped in racing's traditions as any respectable jus is in half-decent claret. Her grandfather, George Owen, won a pre-war Cheltenham Gold Cup as a jockey, and a postwar Grand National as a trainer, when crime writer Dick Francis was, of all things, his secretary. Charlie Milbank, trainer of the upset 1980 French Derby winner Policeman, is her uncle. It was through Charlie that Kirsty started working in racing in Chantilly. Well I say, 'working in racing': she was a door-to-door debt collector for a satellite dish company, picking up unpaid subscriptions to the British bookmakers' live feed.

By force of personality and a keen taste for fine living, Kirsty ended up as 'the girl with the keys to the Dom Perignon cellar'. Her job was to arrange for the best of chefs to be flown out in the Dom Perignon private jet and come and cook in the Dom Perignon private chateau. The idea was to source exactly the right vintage for each dish and not to stop until you'd found it. Well you wouldn't want to get it wrong, would you? (You can quite see why she's made to measure for Royal Ascot. The perfect pairing.)

That, plainly, couldn't possibly last long into the 21st Century, and poor Kirsty now has to work for a living. Well I say, 'work for a living': she goes around beautiful cities eating in splendid restaurants procuring brilliant young chefs, then spiriting them away to championship sporting events to cook for adoring hedonists. Well, somebody's got to do it.

Back to Royal Ascot, 2022. Stanley-Hughes says, "The director in charge, Jonathan Parker, is 100% pivotal to why Ascot has so many incredible restaurants. The lovely JP used to be at Wimbledon––now he's my partner in crime!"

Two-star Brett Graham, the Australian co-proprietor of Phil Howard's The Ledbury in west London, is cooking in Holyroodhouse, with a balcony overlooking the Royal Enclosure gardens, and Ollie Dabbous, co-founder of the Michelin-starred Hide, on Piccadilly, is holding court in yet another new Royal Enclosure setting, Cont. p7

Clodagh McKenna (l) and Chef Nieves Barragan Mohacho attend the Royal Ascot food and drink preview evening | Getty Images

The Sandringham, modelled, I'm told, on an English country orchard. The deal is Kirsty brings her chefs--complete with front-of-house and all the sous chefs and pastry chefs, commis chefs and station chefs they desire--and JP stumps up for them and provides the waiting staff. 'I do have to make sure they all behave,' she says, before adding, disappointingly, 'But I don't have a single tricky chef on my books.'

When Charles Dickens wrote about the 1851 Derby, he reported that there were 350 pigeon pies and 'a large tub and a birch broom for mixing the salad'. That exceeds the number of pigeon pies at Royal Ascot 2022 by some 350 and the number of birch brooms to mix salad by precisely one. The racecourse puts up all the chefs locally, and--however much Kirsty protests--chefs will be chefs. Last year, by some accounts, it got just a little spicy and we've all seen enough Gordon Ramsay shows to know that a fly-on-the-wall commission to report from their hotel bar on Friday night, after a full week slaving over a hot stove, would be just the job for any journalist who can't face spending the afternoon with my wife in the lavatory.

So, with the hors d'oeuvre more like horse d'oeuvre and the starters under orders, I wish you happy racing and happy lunching--bon appe-tote!--and much winning and dining at the chef's table of Kirsty's chef stable.

SEA CALM BEFORE THE STORM

by Tom Frary

Saturday's action can safely be said to be low-key as far as this time of the season is concerned, but then the emphasis is on the upcoming jamboree at Epsom and the readying of the Platinum Jubilee celebrations so it is up to the contrasting parts of the racing world known as Haydock and Baden-Baden to supply the afternoon's European pattern races. At the former venue, the G3 Betfred Pinnacle S. witnesses another Sunderland Holding-William Haggas special in Sea La Rosa (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) who will be favourite for this traditional G2 Lancashire Oaks warm-up having blitzed her rivals in Lingfield's Listed River Eden Fillies' S. when last seen in October. Fortunately for his contemporaries, Haggas doesn't have a runner in the proceeding G3 Betfred John of Gaunt S. and the door is ajar for Marc Chan's Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) to register back-to-back renewals of the seven-furlong test.

Over To Iffezheim

While most are Derby dreaming, at Baden-Baden there are eyes cast to one of a different kind as Deutsches Derby protagonists line up for the G3 Jahre Deutscher Galopprennsport Derby-Trial. An open affair, it should help begin to sort the wheat from the chaff among the country's Classic generation and perhaps Darius Racing's Apr. 30 Listed Premio Emanuele Filiberto winner Pirouz (Ger) (Counterattack {Aus}) is the answer to this puzzle. Earlier on the card, the Listed Baden Racing Diana-Trial boasts the easy May 1 Hanover maiden winner Agneta (GB) (Almanzor {Fr}), a daughter of the G1 Preis der Diana third Amona (Ire) (Aussie Rules) from Gestut Brummerhof's dynasty of Abbashiva (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}), Abbadjinn (Ger) (Big Shuffle), Addicted (Ger) (Diktat {GB}) and Artistica (Ger) (Areion {Ger}).

Other choice offerings include the listed winner Symphony Perfect (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) from Richard Hannon; fellow listed-winning 3-year-old filly Ladies Church (GB) (Churchill {Ire}) from the yard of Johnny Murtagh; and the colts--Andrew Balding's Convivial victor Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}), who placed in the G3 Craven S. and holds entries in both the G1 Cazoo Derby and G1 Prix du Jockey Club; and Listed Dee S. runner-up Cresta (Fr) (New Bay {GB}) for Martyn Meade.

Breeding rights in young, Group 1 sires Aclaim (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who sired the 2022 G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas heroine and 'TDN Rising Star' Cachet (Ire), and Ardad (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), responsible for dual Group 1 winner Perfect Power (Ire) in his first crop, are offered as well.

Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, "We are delighted to see the Goffs London Sale so well supported once more with superb initial entries and more quality yet to come.

"The ability to purchase a horse on the eve of Royal Ascot at an event and location that befits the most prestigious week in Flat racing is what sets this sale apart and we are looking forward to welcoming a huge audience of international buyers seeking a runner for the Royal Meeting as well as international racing prospects, while breeding rights to Group 1 sires bring a new dimension to the sale."

AREION SIRES €52,000 BBAG TOPPER

Friday's BBAG Mixed Breeze-Up Sale featured 89 lots, and it was the 2021 G3 Kalkmann Fruhjahrs-Meile hero Zavaro (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) (lot 64) who took top honours at €52,000. Knocked down to Stall Villa Medici, he was a member of the Gestut Ohlerweiherhof draft. From the extended family of Group 1 winners Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway) and Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy), the 5-year-old was most recently seen running second in Thursday's G2 Kronimus Badener Meile.

Second on the buyers' sheets was the Gestut Brummerhof-consigned Promised (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) (lot 89). HFTB Racing shelled out €38,000 for the daughter of listed winner Promesse de l'Aube (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), who herself is a foal of Preis de Diane-placed White Rose (Ger) (Platini {Ger}).

A juvenile filly by Cloth of Stars (Ire) led the way in the 2-year-old portion of the sale, catching the eye of Laetitia Domenig for €32,000. Lot 79, from the Renello Bloodstock Agency, is out of Lightning Debut (Pivotal {GB}).

Overall, 56 sold from 76 offered (73%) for a gross of €586,500. The average improved 26% to €10,473 and the median was $10,111 (+19%).

ITBA CELEBRATES NEW CHAIR CATHY GRASSICK

The European Federation of Thoroughbred Breeders' Associations (EFTBA) and Irish Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (ITBA) held their annual general meetings--in a hybrid format--at the ITBA headquarters in County Kildare on May 25 and May 26, respectively. The EFTBA meeting was held in Ireland due to both the chairmanship and secretariat of the EFTBA being held by the ITBA. Cathy Grassick was named the new Chairperson of the ITBA, replacing John McEnery. ITBA CEO Shane O'Dwyer oversaw the proceedings, while the ITBA also welcomed Dr. Dean Harron as the new ITBA President.

on the European racing scene

HALF TO TENEBRISM STARTS AT NAVAN

1.05 Navan, Mdn, €16,000, 2yo, f, 5f 162yT
STATUETTE (Justify) is the fifth foal out of the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois heroine Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), making her a half-sister to last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Tenebrism (Caravaggio). Coolmore, Westerberg and Merriebelle Stables' March-foaled chestnut is joined by fellow Ballydoyle trainee Unless (Justify), another by the Triple Crown winner and the first foal out of another Cheveley Park heroine in Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). They will have to be smart to deal with Amo Coutinho Partnership's Curragh runner-up Olivia Maralda (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the Michael O'Callaghan trainee who at 460,000gns was the second-highest-priced lot and top-priced filly at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale.

1.40 Navan, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 5fT
AGE OF KINGS (IRE) (Kingman {GB}), the 1.1-million gns Book 1 graduate who went down by a whisker on debut at Naas earlier this month, appears to have things easier in this maiden won three years ago by the G2 July S.-winning sire Royal Lytham (Fr) (Gleneagles {Ire}). Like him, Westerberg, Magnier, Tabor, Smith and Brant's son of the G2 May Hill S. winner Turret Rocks (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) bears the Ballydoyle standard and after such a promising debut it is anybody's guess what he can achieve.

HOW THEY FARED

8.20 Fairyhouse, Mdn, €12,500, 3yo/up, f/m, 7fT
Neverland (Quality Road), the daughter of Marvellous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), faded out of contention in the straight and beat only one of her 15 rivals.

ROUSING ENCORE (IRE) (c, 2, Acclamation {GB}--Jolie Chanson {Fr}, by Mount Nelson {GB}), who scored with authority at Beverley Apr. 13, took a leaf out of the book of his half-brother Majestic Dawn (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) who had made all in Saturday's Listed Festival S. by taking the bull by the horns from the outset. Strong and resolute when in the clear in the straight, the 6-1 shot handed the 4-9 favourite Breege (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) a 2 1/4-length beating in this race won 12 months ago by future luminary Angel Bleu (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Majestic Dawn, who has also been third in the G3 Rose of Lancaster S., SW & GSP-Eng, $232,403, was the first foal out of the unraced dam who is a half to three stakes performers including the GII Charles Whittingham S. and GII Hollywood Turf Cup-placed Segway (Giant's Causeway). Also a half to the dam of the GII Tampa Bay Derby scorer and GI Arkansas Derby runner-up King Guillermo (Uncle Mo) from the family of Olmodavor, her yearling son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) was a 65,000gns purchase by Manister House Stud at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. ALMUHIT (IRE) (c, 3, Sea the Stars {Ire}--Ezima {Ire} {MSW-Ire, GSP-Eng, $273,672}, by Sadler's Wells), a full-brother to the 2014 Oaks and King George heroine Taghrooda (GB), Hwt. 3yo-Eng at 11-14f, Hwt. 3yo-Fr at 11-14f, MG1SW-Eng, G1SP-Fr, $2,404,603, was a disappointing eighth in an above-average maiden at Newbury Apr. 16 and started less than encouragingly in a detached last. Still being chivvied along at the top of the straight, the 5-1 shot got going two out and made up the significant deficit quickly to head Hello Jumeirah (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) a furlong later and stay on for a 1 3/4-length success. The triple listed-winning dam, who was second in the G2 Lancashire Oaks at this venue, has yet to produce anything even close to her high-class daughter who has herself produced the recent London Gold Cup winner Israr (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}). From the family of the Gold Cup-winning siblings Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), Ezima has the unraced 2-year-old filly Ezme (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) and a yearling colt also by that sire. In command throughout, the 3-1 second choice was shaken up approaching the final furlong and ridden out in the closing stages to hold It's Chico Time (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by a half-length. Jungle Fever is the latest of eight foals and sixth scorer produced by the dual winner Titian Saga (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}). The April-foaled bay is a full-brother to last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. heroine Winter Power (Ire) and a half-brother to Listed Land O'Burns Fillies' S. victrix Hay Chewed (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) and Listed Two-Year-Old Trophy runner-up Flying Sparkle (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}). Inching closer in the straight, the 18-1 outsider quickened smartly to launch his challenge out wide at the quarter-mile marker and was ridden clear before holding the late bid of Ajero (Ire) (Red Jazz) by a length. Sea The Casper, half to a yearling colt by Shamardal, is the first of two foals out of an unraced full-sister to G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Coronation S. heroine Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), herself the dam of G3 Prestige S. and G3 Prix Six Perfections placegetter Daneh (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Sent to the front with over a furlong remaining, the 5-2 favourite readily beat Spirit Genie (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. "We were a bit disappointed on his debut, we thought he got a bit tired in the final furlong so we were just hunting for a better surface," trainer John O'Donoghue commented after greeting his first 2-year-old winner. "We have him in the [G2] Railway S. His breeding would indicate he'll get a bit further and we'll just take it in stages with him." As O'Donoghue indicated, the listed-placed dam is a half to the G1 Epsom H. winner I'm Your Man (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and the G3 Prix Penelope winner and G1 Prix Saint-Alary-placed Perfect Hedge (GB) (Unfuwain) who in turn produced the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier-winning stayer Called To the Bar (Ire) (Henrythenavigator). WORLDWIDE NEWS

'DEUCE'-S WILD IN TOKYO YUSHUN?

By Alan Carasso

The reigning champion 2-year-old male in Japan, Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) will be out to avenge a pair of defeats this season in Sunday's middle jewel of the Japanese Triple Crown, the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) over 2400 metres.

Perfect in three starts last season, including a half-length success in the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. going the metric mile last December, Do Deuce just failed to reel in pace-pressing Ask Victor More (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the 10-furlong Group 2 event named in honour of the 2005 Triple Crown hero Mar. 6. Nevertheless favoured at just shy of 3-1 in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) Apr. 17, the bay colt found himself much farther back in the run than he'd ever been previously and was forced to cover ground, but kicked home his final 600 metres in a race-fastest :33.8 to finish an excellent third, beaten just over two lengths, before galloping out strongly. He has another double-digit gate to overcome in 13, but is in the capable hands of five-time Derby winner Yutaka Take. Cont. p13

"He has good racing sense, and I don't think it matters what the ground condition is like," said Take. "I have always had the ride on him, so I've been able to see him develop, including when he was good enough to become the 2-year-old champion. He has a lot of ability."

Do Deuce has an interesting mix of stamina and speed in his pedigree. His sire accounted for 2014 Derby winner One and Only (Jpn), while his dam, Dust and Diamonds (Vindication), was a two-time graded-winning sprinter and runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint before selling to Katsumi Yoshida for $1 million in foal to Pioneerof the Nile at Keeneland November in 2016.

Geoglyph (Jpn) (Drefong), who suffered his first loss when fifth in the Asahi Hai, resumed with a second to Danon Beluga (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) at Group 3 level in February, but sat a trip better than midfield in the Satsuki Sho and did his best work through the line to defeat the baldy faced and outposted Equinox (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) by a length.

"It was a hard race last time, so he deserved his break," said trainer Tetsuya Kimura. "He returned to the stable looking really well and is full of energy. He is in similar condition to how he was for the Satsuki Sho."

Danon Beluga enjoyed a cosy inside trip from the one hole in the Guineas, but is drawn further out this time, while Equinox, who did it tough in the Guineas and ran on admirably, once again has the widest alley to navigate. Christophe Lemaire was able to work out a trip from the 18 in last week's G1 Yushun Himba aboard Stars on Earth (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) over the same course and distance.

Pradaria (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) is likely to be best-backed to give his legendary sire a fifth straight Derby winner and eighth overall. Having finished second in a pair of tries over 10 furlongs to begin his career, the bay was a romping seven-length winner of a 2400-metre maiden at Hanshin Mar. 19 and proved that was no fluke with a half-length defeat of Lord des Ailes (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 Aoba Sho, a Derby trial over this track and trip Apr. 30. The latter has the services of the visiting Damian Lane, but is also drawn awkwardly in barrier 17.
