RISING STARS RENDEZVOUS AT THE JERSEY SHORE

With the morning sun bouncing off the parterre boxes, Taiba gallops at Monmouth Park | Equi-Photo

by Alan Carasso

The 'second season' for this year's crop of 3-year-olds--both boys and girls--gets underway in earnest with the running of the $1-million GI TVG.com Haskell S. at Monmouth Park for the males and the GI CCA Oaks about 2 1/2 hours earlier at Saratoga. And intriguing match-ups between the top two morning-line choices loom in each of the nine-furlong tests.

Zedan Racing Stable's 'TDN Rising Star' Taiba (Gun Runner) was made the narrow 7-5 Haskell favorite by oddsmaker Brad Thomas and was utterly brilliant in his first two career starts, winning his Mar. 5 debut by a wide margin for Bob Baffert before belying his relative inexperience to take out the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9 after being switched to the barn of Tim Yakteen. Cont. p3

'A GREAT CROWD PLEASER' AS HALL OF FAMERS CLASH IN CCA OAKS by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY - Though the GI Coaching Club American Oaks Saturday is short on depth, it is long on star power with Secret Oath (Arrogate) and D. Wayne Lukas taking on Nest (Curlin) and his long-ago former assistant Todd Pletcher.

The rematch of the most accomplished 3-year-old fillies in the land puts two Hall of Fame trainers, very friendly rivals indeed, back together on the big stage of Saratoga Race Course.

Seventy-nine days after Secret Oath beat favored Nest by two lengths in the GI Kentucky Oaks, the stars of the division meet again for the first of what could be two showdowns at Saratoga this summer. The historic GI Alabama S. will be run Aug. 20.

"If you're going to be the best, you better beat the best," Lukas said. "I think it'll be a super-good race, a great crowd pleaser. I respect the other horses that are going, too."

The nine-furlong CCA Oaks drew a field of five. From a low of four last year to twice having seven start, the race has averaged 5.5 starters since it was moved from Belmont Park to Saratoga in 2010. Also in the field are GIII Iowa Oaks winner Butterbean (Klimt), unbeaten Society (Gun Runner) and GIII Gazelle S. winner Nostalgic (Medaglia d'Oro).

There is no question who the headliners are, though.

"They are two very good fillies and it seems like the race will go through them, but at Saratoga, strange things can happen," Pletcher said with a knowing smile. Cont. p5

Somewhat surprisingly sent out the 5.80-1 second-elect in the GI Kentucky Derby, the $1.7-million Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream purchase retreated to finish a well-beaten 12th after racing in a prominent position early on.

The chestnut is now back with Baffert, who certainly knows his way to the Monmouth winner's circle, having won the Haskell on nine previous occasions. Can Taiba add to the record?

“We know he’s lightly raced, but I feel he’s doing really well,” Baffert said. “I wanted to watch him train. I wasn’t really convinced he was going to the Haskell. He breezed really well. He’s a big, strong heavy horse who won’t light it up in the mornings, but I was surprised what he did first out [to breeze]. I let him dictate if he was ready or not. I wasn’t going to throw him into the deep end of the pool.

“I would have liked an extra week with him,” Baffert admitted. But he’s doing really well. He has speed and he doesn’t get tired. The two turns won’t be a problem for him. The Kentucky Derby was a tall order for him. I don’t know what happened in the Derby. I wasn’t around. The Haskell is a great race and there are some really good horses in here. I hope the horse shows up.”

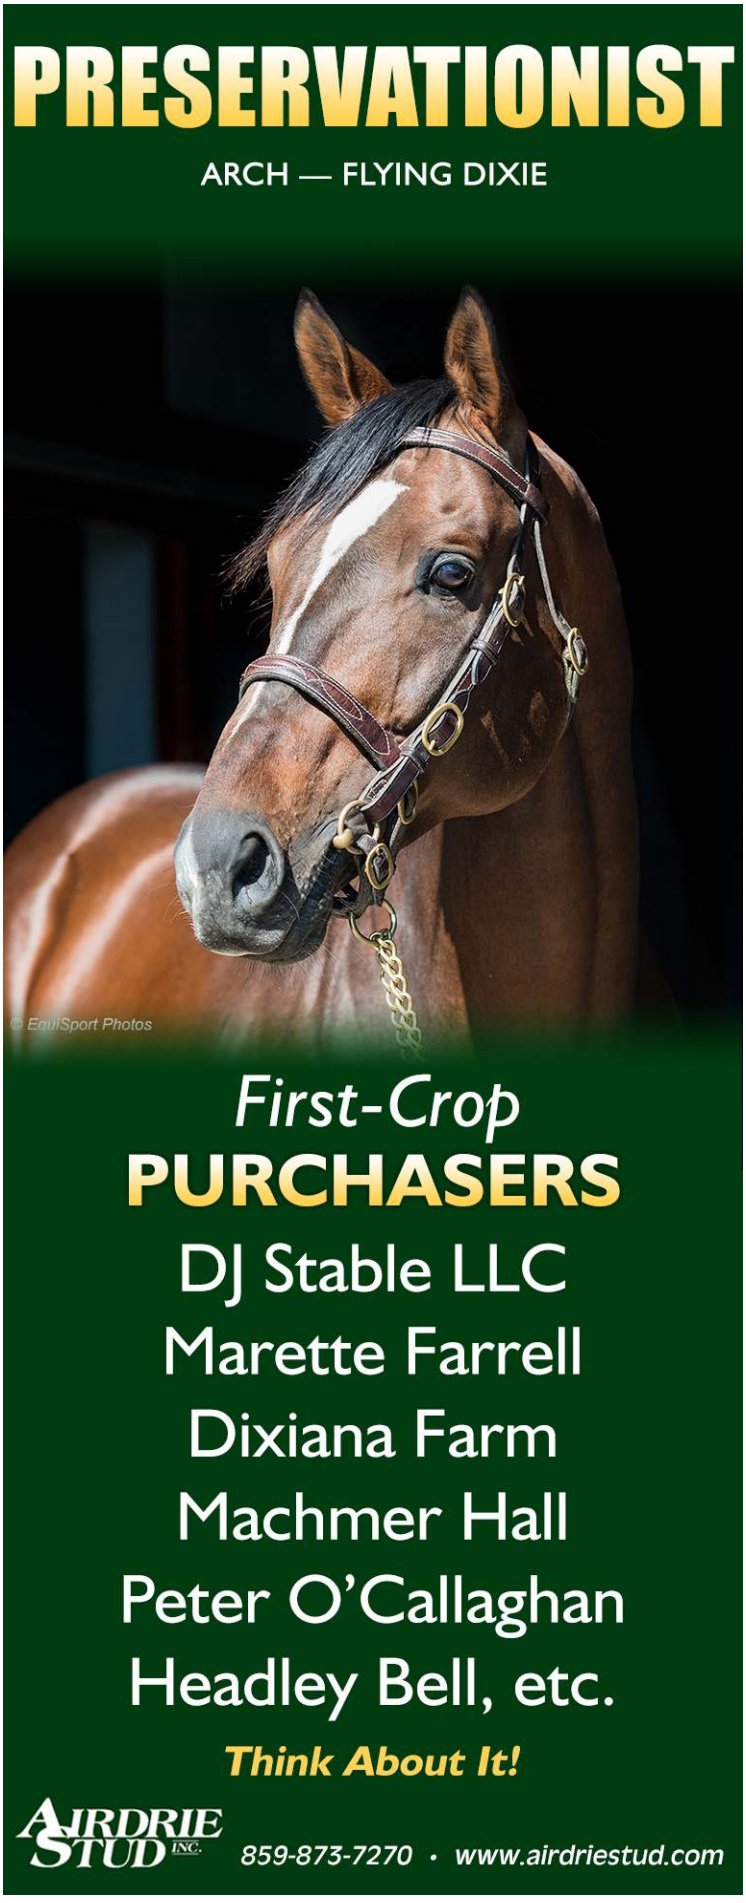
Even if he does fire his best shot, he will be made to work for it given the presence of undefeated 'Rising Star' Jack Christopher (Munnings), who could well jump the Haskell favorite. Perfect in four trips to the post, the bald-faced chestnut was the likely choice in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile last year after gliding home much the best in the GI Champagne S., but was sidelined by injury on the eve of the race. Winner of the GII Pat Day Mile first off the seven-month hiatus May 7, he stormed home to take the seven-furlong GI Woody Stephens S. by double digits June 11, earning some high praise from his trainer.

“This horse is an exceptional talent,” Chad Brown said following the Woody Stephens. “This is my 15th year of training and I’ve never had a dirt horse with this much pure brilliance. He reminds me a lot of Ghostzapper when I worked for Bobby Frankel. He’s a brilliant horse that can probably run any distance.

“Everybody wants to have horses like this--horse of a lifetime--including me.”

The Haskell serves as a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland the first weekend of November.

An equally inviting battle is in the cards at the Spa, where Secret Oath (Arrogate) and Nest (Curlin), both winners of important Grade Is and each exiting a run against the boys in a Triple Crown race, go head to head in the CCA Oaks. Mike Kane has our detailed preview.



U.N. Highlights Haskell Undercard...

The first three home in the June 11 GI Resorts World Casino Manhattan S. at Belmont renew acquaintances in the GI United Nations S. Tribhuvan (Ire) (Toronado {Ire}), who led every step of the 10 furlongs at Belmont, looks to join the likes of English Channel, Presious Passion and--going back to the days when the race was held as the Caesars at Atlantic City--Sandpit (Brz) as back-to-back winners of the race. Stablemate Adhamo (Ire) (Intello {Ger}) has a gap of 3 1/2 lengths to bridge, while Gufo (Declaration of War) should find Saturday's mile and three-eighths journey more to his liking. The two Grade Is anchor a run of five consecutive graded events, beginning with the GIII Monmouth Cup--where Brown fields the two market leaders--continuing with a contentious renewal of the GIII WinStar Matchmaker S. and concluding with GISW Search Results (Flatter) getting a fair bit of class relief in the GIII Molly Pitcher S.

In Other Action...

In Saturday's GII Connaught Cup at Woodbine, one of two steppingstones to the GI Woodbine Mile in September, 'TDN Rising Star' Shirls Speight (Speightstown) will have to overcome gate 14 and 13 other rivals, including last year's 1-2 finishers Avie's Flatter (Flatter, gate 13) and Olympic Runner (Gio Ponti, gate 12). The road to the GI Del Mar Oaks begins with the GII San Clemente S., where Phil D'Amato saddles four European imports, led by Bellabel (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}), who makes her first start since thumping her competition in the Jan. 2 Blue Norther S. at Santa Anita. Saratoga also stages the GIII Caress S. in which defending champion Caravel (Mizzen Mast) faces a challenge from 'TDN Rising Stars' Star Devine (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and Tobys Heart (Jack Milton) as well as the progressive Bout Time (Not This Time).

Just last year, Pletcher's unbeaten 1-5 favorite Malathaat (Curlin), finished second to 14-1 Maracuja (Honor Code) in the CCA Oaks.

Secret Oath carried the 86-year-old Lukas back to Saratoga after a two-year absence. He brought along 15 other runners, but getting the Briland Farm homebred into the Spa's championship-making races was the primary reason for his return. Five of the last six Eclipse Award-winning 3-year-old fillies won either the CCA Oaks or the Alabama. The sixth, Covfefe (Into Mischief) in 2019, did not run in either race, but had a victory in the GI Test S. on her resume.

Following her win in the Kentucky Oaks, Lukas ran Secret Oath in the GI Preakness S. She finished fourth, 6 1/4 lengths behind Early Voting (Gun Runner), and Lukas said she would get a bit of a breather and then prepare for Saratoga. The Preakness was her fifth race of 2022, second in two weeks and her second against males; she was third in the GI Arkansas Derby.

Lukas said Secret Oath has flourished between Pimlico and Saratoga and exceeded his expectations.

"We haven't missed a day," he said. "I thought that she put on weight and got a little bit stronger and filled out more than I thought she would. I didn't back up that much on her. I just didn't put those works real close together."

Like his old boss, Pletcher moved his standout filly, who is co-owned by Repole Stable, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Michael House, to the Triple Crown series after the Kentucky Oaks. Despite stumbling at the start, Nest turned in a solid second by three lengths to stablemate Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo) in the GI Belmont S.

"The one thing that we were monitoring closely after Belmont was how she came out of it," Pletcher said. "And we were saying, 'OK, if we need a little more time, we will go to the Alabama.' But she's done so well out of the race. I think she's gained weight since she ran in the Belmont. She's trained super. She's just doing really, really well. The concern when you run against colts is that it can potentially knock something out of them. In her case, she was so well-prepared and well-bred for the distance that it wasn't a hard race on her."

While Nest had an easy three weeks, Pletcher said it was clear right away that she did not need another month before her next start.

Nest opened the year with easy victories in the Suncoast S. at Tampa Bay Downs and the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland. She was the 2-1 favorite in the 14-horse Kentucky Oaks, while Secret Oath was next at 4-1. Lukas figured Nest was the horse to beat in the Oaks, a race he had not won since 1990 with Seaside Attraction (Seattle Slew).

"I'm not a very good handicapper, but I thought she was," he said. "I talked to Todd and he told me he really liked her. That was good enough for me. I respect his opinion. He told me that he really liked her and he said, 'I think it will be the two of us.'"

Pletcher was spot-on with that analysis and figured that Secret Oath was the standout in that crowd. Before the Arkansas Derby she had romped over females in three straight races at Oaklawn Park.

"It was a loaded Oaks," Pletcher said. "There were a lot of nice fillies with really strong records coming in. We felt that as impressive as she was, and she had the race against colts and kind of had a rough trip that day, that she certainly seemed liked the one to beat."

Nest at Saratoga last week | Sarah Andrew

Lukas said he did not tell jockey Luis Saez just to focus on Nest.

"We thought we had to beat them all," Lukas said. "Luis thought that when she was in front of us he could go get her whenever he wanted to, and pretty much did when he was ready to. I told him not to go too early. I thought we had to beat them all in the Oaks. That's the prestigious one. That's the one you want."

Saez was never far from Nest in the early stages of the Oaks, but he was a few paths off the rail, while Nest and Irad Ortiz, Jr. were committed to the inside. Secret Oath surged to the front at the top of the stretch and took command.

"She's a super-impressive filly," Pletcher said. "We love Nest and saw how strong Secret Oath could be in the Oaks. I think we would have made it a little closer if we got a little bit of a different trip. We kind of got bottled up for a moment in the far turn. And that's when Secret Oath kind of blew the race open. We're looking forward to the rematch and see what happens."

Pletcher is the career leader in wins in the CCA Oaks with seven. Lukas has a pair of victories, the most recent in 1989 with champion Open Mind (Deputy Minister) a few weeks after Pletcher joined his staff following his graduation from the University of Arizona. Pletcher worked for Lukas until late in 1995 when he opened his own stable.

As he discussed the race, Pletcher said aside from the meeting of two top fillies, the storyline should be about how well Lukas is doing this year.

"He's an amazing man," Pletcher said. "I've always said I think he's the greatest horse trainer of all time. Not only when you think about what he's done in the Thoroughbred business, but before that he dominated Quarter Horses. A lot of people have trained horses and won lot of races, but you can really say he's the guy that changed the training game.

"For him to still achieve at the highest level after all these years, it's remarkable that he continues to have the passion for it and the desire to come out here every morning and do it. It's great to see him still competing at the highest level."

BACKGROUND CHECK: CCA OAKS by Jill Williams

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they've had on the breed. Up today is the GI Coaching Club American Oaks, a significant 3-year old filly event on the Saratoga calendar.

The CCA Oaks is one of the revered traditions in the sophomore filly ranks. Like so many other races that have a century's worth of history, it has changed both distances and venues multiple times. The race began at nine furlongs in 1917 and was shortened to that distance again in 2010 after spending most of its tenure at 11 and 12 furlongs, in addition to 15 years at 10 furlongs. It's primarily been a fixture at Belmont Park, spent a few years at Aqueduct in the 1960s, and has now been at Saratoga since 2010. August Belmont, Jr.--breeder of Man o' War and a key builder of Belmont Park--was instrumental in molding the event after the Epsom Oaks. Many of the most celebrated fillies of the sport, including the legendary champions Ruffian and Twilight Tear, have won the CCA Oaks. The 106th edition of the storied race will be run Saturday.

Unbeaten MGISW Flightline traces to CCA Oaks winner Lady Pitt
Sarah Andrew

Following are the most compelling CCA Oaks winners in reverse chronological order. They haven't been reviewed by their own pedigrees or race records, but simply by what impact they have delivered through their sons and daughters.

Music Note (2005, A.P. Indy--Note Musicale {GB}, by Sadler's Wells): This still-active mare in the Godolphin broodmare band produced last year's wildly impressive G1 Dubai World Cup winner Mystic Guide, as well as last year's GIII Penn Mile winner Gershwin. She delivered a full-sister to Mystic Guide Apr. 23.

My Flag (1993, Easy Goer--Personal Ensign, by Private Account): This Phipps family mare did her bit to continue the legacy of her Broodmare of the Year dam. She had four stakes performers, including champion Storm Flag Flying, and her daughters and granddaughters have already produced 14 additional black-type horses, including July 9 GII Suburban S. winner Dynamic One.

Sky Beauty (1990, Blushing Groom {Fr}--Maplejinsky, by Nijinsky II): She is another mare who hailed from a wonderful family. Although her only stakes-winning foal was MGSW and Argentinean leading sire Hurricane Cat, she's leaving her mark in North America as well through GISW and sire Violence.

Chris Evert (1971, Swoon's Son--Miss Carmie, by T. V. Lark): This lovely chestnut is probably best remembered today for her grandson, champion and eight-time Grade I winner Chief's Crown, but the long list of other horses descended from her five daughters include MGISWs Classic Crown, Sightseek, and Tates Creek; GISWs Dominican and Etoile Montante; and more recent stars like May 7 GI Derby City Distaff winner Obligatory, as well as MGSW/MGISP Bonny South.

Music Note is the most recent CCA Oaks winner to turn into a notable producer | Sarah Andrew

Lady Pitt (1963, Sword Dancer--Rock Drill, by Whirlaway): It may be a surprise to learn Lady Pitt was never a Broodmare of the Year since she's so prevalent in pedigrees today, but just two of her 10 foals were stakes winners: GISW The Liberal Member and MGSW/MGISP Blitey. The latter launched a Phipps family dynasty all on her own. Among her important descendants are champion Heavenly Prize, MGISWs Dancing Spree, Finder's Fee, Good Reward, and current sensation Flightline, as well as GISWs Furlong, Fantastic Find, Oh What a Windfall, Persistently, and Instilled Regard.

Bramalea (1959, Nashua--Rarelea, by Bull Lea): A number of stakes winners trace to this mare, but it's her son, Irish and English champion Roberto, who put her on the map as a factor in pedigrees and will keep her there. Roberto was a leading sire in both the U.S. and the United Kingdom, as well as a leading broodmare sire. His continued influence through one of his major sons, Lear Fan, was recently detailed in TDN. Roberto has played a major part through both his sons and daughters in pedigrees of several significant stallions, including Giant's Causeway and Kitten's Joy.

Levee (1953, Hill Prince--Bourtai, by Stimulus): Named Broodmare of the Year in 1970, her foals included champion Shuvee (who also won the CCA Oaks in 1969 and has a Grade II event named after her, which will be run Sunday at the Spa) and three other stakes winners. Among the high-class horses produced by her daughters and granddaughters are champion Sacahuista, MGISW Raging Fever, and G1 Irish St. Leger winners Meneval and Strategic Choice.

High Voltage (1952, Ambiorix {Fr}--Dynamo, by Menow): Her three stakes winners included champion Impressive and eventual notable sire Bold Commander. Among the best foals produced by her daughters was MGISW and sire Majestic Light.

Cherokee Rose (1951, Princequillo {GB}--The Squaw II {Fr}, by Sickle {GB}): The brilliant Horse of the Year Ack Ack traces directly to her, as does Venezuelan champion Sweet Candy (Ven) and GISWs Reluctant Guest and Just the Time.

Real Delight (1949, Bull Lea--Blue Delight, by Blue Larkspur): This Calumet mare produced three stakes winners, but tracing to her through her daughters are Broodmare of the Year Sweet Tooth and her foals, including champion Our Mims, MGISW and leading sire Alydar, and GISW Sugar and Spice; plus champion Christmas Past, MGISWs Codex and Grand Slam, and many more high-class runners.

How (1948, Princequillo {GB}--The Squaw II {Fr}, by Sickle {GB}): A full-sister to fellow CCA Oaks winner Cherokee Rose (above), How produced just three foals, but one of them was 1965 Broodmare of the Year Pocahontas, who in turn produced champion and important sire Tom Rolfe, MSW and sire Chieftain, and a number of other accomplished runners.

Scattered (1945, Whirlaway--Imperatrice, by Caruso): The dam of Alabama winner Here and There and Hempstead winner Disperse, this King Ranch mare may not remain a significant force in Thoroughbred pedigrees, but her great-grandson is the breed-shaping Quarter Horse racing stallion Dash for Cash. According to the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA), he "defined Quarter Horse racing from the time he stepped onto the track" until his death. His ashes are buried at the foot of his life-sized bronze at the breed's Hall of Fame and Museum. Dash for Cash's trainer nearly 50 years ago was one D. Wayne Lukas.

MGISW and $3.2-million Fasig-Tipton sales mare Hard Not to Love traces to 1921 CCA Oaks winner Flambette | Benoit

Vagrancy (1939, Sir Gallahad III {Fr}--Valkyr, by Man o' War): This Belair Stud champion produced English champion Black Tarquin, as well as Test and Diana winner Vulcania. Her descendants include Broodmares of the Year Banja Luka and Natashka.

Among the most notable stakes winners tracing to her are Horse of the Year Ferdinand, multiple European champion Distant Relative (Ire), and champion Questing, who also won the CCA Oaks in 2012.

Black Helen (1932, Black Toney--La Troienne {Fr}, by Teddy {Fr}): Although she didn't produce any stakes winners herself, Black Helen originated her own branch of the immortal La Troienne line through her daughters. Among her descendants were U.S. champions But Why Not, Princess Rooney, and Pleasant Tap; Canadian Horse of the Year Travelling Victor; and GI Kentucky Derby winner Go for Gin.

Flambette (Fr) (1918, Durbar II {Fr}--La Flambee {Fr}, by Ajax {Fr}): A Belair Stud foundation mare, Flambette produced Gazelle winner Flambino and two other stakes winners. Her daughters produced champion and Triple Crown winner Omaha, Kentucky Derby and Belmont winner Johnstown, and champions Gallorette and Jacola. Among other top horses descended immediately from her were champions Phalanx and Nadir, Kentucky Derby winner Decidedly, and G1 Two Thousand Guineas winner Mark of Esteem (Ire). More recent GISWs tracing to her include Hard Not to Love, Avenge, Union Strike, and Secret Spice, in addition to Canadian Horse of the Year Wonder Gadot.

Cleopatra (1917, Corcyra {GB}--Gallice {GB}, by Gallinule {GB}): Three of this mare's foals were black-type winners, including champion Pompey. Her descendants include Broodmare of the Year Gaga, who produced not only Horse of the Year and good sire Tom Fool, but also champion Aunt Jinny.

DESPITE HEAT, MONMOUTH OFFICIALS CONFIDENT HASKELL CARD WILL BE A GO

by Bill Finley

With temperatures set to reach the high nineties this weekend in the Mid-Atlantic region, a number of tracks have announced adjusted schedules, but Monmouth Park officials remain confident that the Saturday card featuring the GI Haskell S. will go off as planned.

"First and foremost, we are concerned about the safety of the horses and jockeys and want to make sure we do the right thing," said Dennis Drazin, who heads the management team at the Jersey Shore track. "But we've been on top of it all week and right now nothing has changed. We think we will be ok."

The heat was a factor for the running of the 2019 Haskell when temperatures flirted with the 100-degree mark. A decision was made to change the post time of the Haskell from 5:47 p.m. to 8:05 p.m in hopes that the temperatures would drop by the early evening. Six races on the card were cancelled

Drazin explained that the New Jersey Racing Commission rule calls for racing to be halted if the heat index reaches 105. A heat index takes into account the combination of high temperatures and humidity. The Saturday forecast for the Monmouth area is calling for a high temperature of 91 degrees. The National Weather Service has issued a heat advisory for the area through Wednesday of next week.

Drazin said that adjusting the schedule and times of the races Saturday would be a no-win proposition.

"The bottom line is that you put yourself in jeopardy no matter what you do," he said. "If you move post time until later and the heat index is still bad at 5, 6 o'clock, then you can't run. If you move it up to 9 o'clock in the morning, you might get some races in but I don't want to start our card at 9 on Haskell day or any other day."

Post time for Saturday's first race at Monmouth is scheduled for 12:00 and post for the Haskell was listed as 5:45 p.m.

Drazin said the racing commission was monitoring conditions for Friday's card and gave the track the green light to run and hold the races at the regularly scheduled time. Temperatures Friday reached the low nineties.

"We were concerned about the heat index today," Drazin said Friday. "I've spoken to the racing commission and have been in touch with them all day long. Their executive director has been on top of the weather and we got the blessing to go ahead and start the card. If the heat index ended up later in day to be dangerous, they would stop the racing. Looking at the week and looking at the forecast, we thought Friday and Sunday would be worse than Saturday. So we are hoping it will play out ok and that Saturday will be fine. We are a little concerned about Sunday. We may have to do something about Sunday."

Meanwhile, tracks in the region were sent scrambling due to the excessive temperatures. The Maryland Jockey Club (MJC) has announced that the Sunday card at Laurel has been cancelled and rescheduled for Thursday. Post time for Saturday's races has been moved from a 12:40 start to 1:50. According to MJC Acting President Mike Rogers, the company uses a protocol called the WetBulb Globe Temperature (WBGT) measurement, which takes into account temperature, humidity, wind speed, sun angle and cloud cover to determine potential heat stress. It is different than the heat index, which takes into consideration temperature and humidity including for shady areas. Rogers said if the WBGT measurement is at 91.4, there is no choice but to cancel racing.

Colonial Downs has announced that Monday's card has been cancelled due to heat concerns. Their scheduled, featured stakes--the $150,000 Colonial Cup at 1 1/2m on turf--will now be run Wednesday, July 27 as originally drawn.

To the west, Ellis Park has announced that its races this weekend have been moved up to 10:30 a.m. local time because of the heat.

MULLING HISA INJUNCTION, JUDGE SAYS NO TO LENGTHY HEARING by T. D. Thornton

After receiving back-and-forth written briefs from both parties on whether or not to impose a preliminary injunction that would halt the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) Authority's rules until a lawsuit challenging them gets decided in full, the judge in charge of the case on Friday denied a request by the plaintiffs to hold a potentially lengthy in-person hearing to debate the issue any further.

The plaintiffs, led by the states of Louisiana and West Virginia, plus the Jockeys' Guild and various Louisiana-based "covered persons" under HISA rules, had told the judge Thursday that it was imperative to allow them to plead their case for an injunction in person.

The plaintiffs wrote in a July 21 court document that they were prepared to produce at least 10 witnesses to testify to the "extreme level of disruption that the HISA rules are inflicting on the States, racing commissions, industry, and its participants."

That witness list consisted of Louisiana-based horsemen's group and racing commission executives, plus racing officials, veterinarians, owners, trainers, jockeys, a state steward, and two Jockeys' Guild representatives. Some of the proposed witnesses were also plaintiffs in the case.

Judge Terry Doughty of U.S. District Court (Western District of Louisiana) wasn't persuaded that he needed to hear all of that testimony before making up his mind. Writing in a July 22 order, he stated that his pending decision on whether or not to grant a preliminary injunction will be based solely on the written pleadings.

The defendants, who consist of the HISA Authority, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and board members and overseers of both entities, are alleged to have violated the Fourth, Seventh and Tenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, plus the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), which governs the process by which federal agencies develop and issue regulations.

The defendants have already survived the plaintiffs' motion for a temporary restraining order that accompanied the original lawsuit. That complaint got filed two days before the July 1 effective date for the first phase of HISA's new rules that are now in effect nationwide.

At that time, Doughty wrote that "issuing a temporary restraining order regarding an Act of Congress would be inappropriate." But he added that the asked-for preliminary injunction could still be a possibility.

The preliminary injunction question the judge must now decide is fundamentally different, but it still has the potential to halt HISA's rules like a temporary restraining order would have.

A temporary restraining order is generally an "emergency" type of injunction to ward off immediate harm, and it has an expiration date. A preliminary injunction, on the other hand, is often used to restrain a party from taking a certain action while a case is pending, and it usually remains in force until the case gets settled in its entirety.

On July 15, the HISA-led defendants wrote in a filing opposing the injunction that, "The vast majority of stakeholders in the horseracing industry recognize the need for uniform regulations and are cooperating with the Authority and the FTC to ensure a smooth transition to this new congressionally mandated regime. But a small contingent of outliers, including Plaintiffs, have long opposed the Act on policy grounds and are growing increasingly desperate in their attempts to thwart its implementation."

Not so, responded the plaintiffs in their July 22 filing:

"The facts on the ground further expose the flaws in Defendants' description of the horseracing industry since July 1, when HISA's rules took effect. The industry is in chaos because of HISA's hastily adopted and imprudent regulatory scheme. The FTC shares blame for this chaos because it failed to provide proper oversight of a private, nonprofit corporation's takeover-by-regulation of the horseracing industry; its token consideration and rubberstamp approval of HISA's rules fall far short of the substantive and procedural consideration required," the document stated.

FORMER NHC CHAMPION MICHAEL BEYCHOK JOINS BETTOR THINGS

Michael Beychok, the 2012 National Handicapping Championship winner, has made plenty of headlines this year. A well-known, outspoken horseplayer, Beychok joined the latest episode of Bettor Things with Joe Bianca this week to talk about his class-action suit against Bob Baffert surrounding the since-vacated 2021 Kentucky Derby victory of Medina Spirit, his vow to move his handle to sports betting in response to drug issues in racing, the approach to tournament play that helped him win the NHC, his day job as a political consultant and more.

Also this week, Bettor Things welcomed its first sponsor in the Breeders' Cup. To kick off a handicapping series that will precede each of the six nationally-televised Breeders' Cup Win and You're In programs leading up the World Championships Nov. 4-5 at Keeneland, Bianca broke down all angles of this week's GI TVG.com Haskell invitational S. at Monmouth Park, a qualifier for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic. Though the bulk of the wagering money will be on big names Jack Christopher (Munnings) and Taiba (Gun Runner), Bianca is taking a shot against the favorites and also threw in an all-stakes Pick 4 play for Saturday at the Jersey Shore oval. Dolce Zel found running room late and just held off her favored stablemate Eminent Victor in a driving finish to win her second U.S. graded event Friday at Saratoga.

Sent off at 3-1, the bay filly tracked in third as longshot Al Qahira (Cairo Prince) took the field through fractions of :24.13 and :48.33. Dolce Zel had nowhere to go in upper stretch, but finally found a seam to run through, skimming the fence in deep stretch as Eminent Victor was closing on the outside. The two fillies closed powerfully in the final strides, but it was Dolce Zel who had her nose down first on the wire.

"Dolce Zel, although she had trouble, had a ground-saving trip and reserved so much energy that when they reached for the wire, she just had a little bit more there," said trainer Chad Brown, who was winning his sixth Lake George. "Eminent Victor stumbled at the start and had a wide run in the final turn and it might have just took a little bit of the fuel out of her that last 70 yards where she couldn't really accelerate past everybody. I think that was the difference."

Racing for her breeder and trainer Alessandro Botti, Dolce Zel broke her maiden in her second start at Longchamp last October. Transferred stateside to the barn of Chad Brown, the French miss took her U.S. debut in the Mar. 12 GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay Downs. She was second behind the talented Spendarella (Karakontie {Jpn}) in the Apr. 9 GII Appalachian S. and was a troubled third in the May 6 GII Edgewood S. at Churchill Downs last time out.

Dolce Zel is one of two graded winners from the first crop of Zelzal (Fr) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), victor of the 2016 G1 Prix Jean Prat. The stallion has also been represented by Ouraika, who won the GIII Sweet Life S. for the same owners in February at Santa Anita.

Botti signed for the winner's 2-year-old half-sister by Shalaa (Ire) for €47,000 at last year's Arqana October Yearling Sale. Named Dolceshal (Fr), she was fifth on debut in France last week.

FISHMAN APPEALS CONVICTION, 11-YEAR SENTENCE by T. D. Thornton

Veterinarian Seth Fishman, who was sentenced to 11 years in prison July 11 after two felony drug-supplying convictions in a decades-long international racehorse doping conspiracy, has appealed his case to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Fishman's notice of appeal landed on the electronic court docket shortly after 6 p.m. Eastern time Friday.

The filing noted that Fishman is appealing both the conviction and the sentence.

Fishman's 11-year sentence was the longest meted out in the case that led to charges against 31 individuals, including prominent trainers Jorge Navarro (who pleaded guilty last year and is currently serving a five-year sentence) and Jason Servis (who has pleaded not guilty and is set to stand trial in January).

ASSINIBOIA DOWNS REQUESTS REVIEW OF RACE

The Manitoba Jockey Club, operator of Assiniboia Downs Racetrack, has requested that its provincial regulator conduct a review of the fifth race (video) on the track's July 20 card. Jockey Sheldon Chickeness, aboard King Witt (Five Demon Bag), turned for home some five lengths in front in the maiden-claiming event before appearing to pull his mount up. Once passed by the majority of the field, King Witt re-rallied to ultimately finish second.

"The unusual nature of the stretch drive from race five last night has caused us to reach out and make this request," the club's CEO Darren Dunn said in a press release Thursday. "When I watched the race in real time, my first reaction was that the jockey was pulling the horse up due to a potential injury. When the jockey re-engaged the horse after the balance of the field caught up and then began to aggressively ride the horse to the finish line, the sudden change was very concerning.

"Though in our opinion there would not have been any adjustment to the ultimate order of finish in the race, due to a lack of any interference with any other horses, the fact that there was no inquiry posted by the stewards created great concern with the public from a perception standpoint. As such, we felt we needed to act and make this formal request.

"To be clear, we have full confidence in our regulator and stewards and value the significant experience they bring to our industry. We trust that they may already be reviewing this situation on their own. However, in light of what we saw last night as an operator and the significant feedback we have received, we felt an obligation on behalf of our customers and the ASD Live brand to crystallize our position of concern on this very important matter. While we can't instruct or direct our regulator on how to act on this matter, our request is for a formal review and the issuance of a statement on their findings that we can share with the public."

KARAOKE NIGHT IS BACK IN EAST-VS-WEST COMPETITION TO BENEFIT PDJF

Jockeys know how to warm up their mounts, but they're also warming up their vocal cords in Saratoga and Del Mar in advance of the third annual "Riders Up! Battle of East-vs-West" jockey karaoke contests to benefit the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF). The Saratoga jockeys are first out of the gate July 31 at Vapor Night Club.

Retired track announcer Tom Durkin will emcee the event, which will be judged this year by racehorse owner Lee Einsidler, trainer Graham Motion, New York Racing Association Fox Sports host Laffit Pincay III, and founder of Barstool Sports, Dave Portnoy.

The Del Mar jockeys will try to outdo their East Coast rivals at Belly Up Aug. 7. TVG host Mike Joyce will emcee with judges Del Mar Thoroughbred Club CEO Joe Harper and TVG host Todd Schrupp.

Both contests will be streamed live via PDJF's Facebook page and after the judges on each coast name their favorite performance, the public will vote for their favorite online via Facebook and Twitter.

General admission tickets (includes one drink coupon) for each person are $75 with 7:45 p.m. entry to Vapor Night Club and 7:45 p.m. entry to Belly Up. A limited number of VIP tickets are available at each venue for $150, which includes early entry 6 p.m. local time at both venues, open reserved seats, two drink coupons, and a buffet dinner with the jockeys.

Performances are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. local time. Both events feature live and silent auctions and a cash bar. Patrons must be 21 years of age or older to enter the premises. Tickets are now on sale.

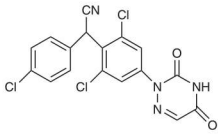
PROTAZIL®
(1.56% diclazuril)
Antiprotozoal Pellets

For Oral Use In Horses Only

CAUTION
Federal (U.S.A.) law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian.
NADA #141-268 Approved by FDA

DESCRIPTION
Diclazuril, (±)-2,6-dichloro- -(4-chlorophenyl)-4-(4,5-dihydro-3,5-dioxo-1,2,4-triazin-2(3H)-yl)benzeneacetonitrile, has a molecular formula of C17H9Cl3N4O2, a molecular weight of 407.64, and a molecular structure as follows:



Diclazuril is an anticoccidial (antiprotozoal) compound with activity against several genera of the phylum Apicomplexa. PROTAZIL® (diclazuril) is supplied as oral pellets containing 1.56% diclazuril to be mixed as a top-dress in feed. Inert ingredients include dehydrated alfalfa meal, wheat middlings, cane molasses and propionic acid (preservative).

INDICATIONS
PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets are indicated for the treatment of equine protozoal myeloencephalitis (EPM) caused by Sarcocystis neurona in horses.

DOSAGE AND ADMINISTRATION
Dosage: PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) is administered as a top dress in the horse's daily grain ration at a rate of 1 mg diclazuril per kg (0.45 mg diclazuril/lb) of body weight for 28 days. The quantity of PROTAZIL® necessary to deliver this dose is 64 mg pellets per kg (29 mg pellets/lb) of body weight.

Administration: To achieve this dose, weigh the horse (or use a weigh tape)). Scoop up PROTAZIL® to the level (cup mark) corresponding to the dose for the horse's body weight using the following chart:

Weight Range of Horse (lb)	mLs of Pellets	Weight Range of Horse (lb)	mLs of Pellets
275 - 524	20	1275 - 1524	60
525 - 774	30	1525 - 1774	70
775 - 1024	40	1775 - 2074	80
1025 - 1274	50	-	-

One 2.4-lb bucket of PROTAZIL® will treat one 1274-lb horse for 28 days. One 10-lb bucket of PROTAZIL® will treat five 1100-lb horses for 28 days.

CONTRAINDICATIONS
Use of PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets is contraindicated in horses with known hypersensitivity to diclazuril.

WARNINGS
For use in horses only. Do not use in horses intended for human consumption. Not for human use. Keep out of reach of children.

PRECAUTIONS
The safe use of PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets in horses used for breeding purposes, during pregnancy, or in lactating mares has not been evaluated. The safety of PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets with concomitant therapies in horses has not been evaluated.

ADVERSE REACTIONS
There were no adverse effects noted in the field study which could be ascribed to diclazuril. To report suspected adverse reactions, to obtain a MSDS, or for technical assistance call 1-800-224-5318.

CLINICAL PHARMACOLOGY
The effectiveness of diclazuril in inhibiting merozoite production of Sarcocystis neurona and S. falcatula in bovine turbinate cell cultures was studied by Lindsay and Dubey (2000).[1] Diclazuril inhibited merozoite production by more than 80% in cultures of S. neurona or S. falcatula treated with 0.1 ng/mL diclazuril and greater than 95% inhibition of merozoite production (IC95) was observed when infected cultures were treated with 1.0 ng/mL diclazuril. The clinical relevance of the in vitro cell culture data has not been determined.

PHARMACOKINETICS IN THE HORSE
The oral bioavailability of diclazuril from the PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets at a 5 mg/kg dose rate is approximately 5%. Related diclazuril concentrations in the cerebrospinal fluid (CSF) range between 1% and 5% of the concentrations observed in the plasma. Nevertheless, based upon equine pilot study data, CSF concentrations are expected to substantially exceed the in vitro IC95 estimates for merozoite production (Dirikoilu et al., 1999)[2]. Due to its long terminal elimination half-life in horses (approximately 43-65 hours), diclazuril accumulation occurs with once-daily dosing. Corresponding steady state blood levels are achieved by approximately Day 10 of administration.

EFFECTIVENESS
Two hundred and fourteen mares, stallions, and geldings of various breeds, ranging in age from 9.6 months to 30 years, were enrolled in a multi-center field study. All horses were confirmed EPM-positive based on the results of clinical examinations and laboratory testing, including CSF Western Blot analyses. Horses were administered PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets at doses of 1, 5, or 10 mg diclazuril/kg body weight as a top-dress on their daily grain ration for 28 days. The horses were then evaluated for clinical changes via a modified Mayhew neurological scale on Day 48 as follows:

0. Normal, neurological deficits not detected.
1. Neurological deficits may be detectable at normal gaits; signs exacerbated with manipulative procedures (e.g., backing, turning in tight circles, walking with head elevation, truncal swaying, etc.).
2. Neurological deficit obvious at normal gaits or posture; signs exacerbated with manipulative procedures.
3. Neurological deficit very prominent at normal gaits: horses give the impression they may fall (but do not) and buckle or fall with manipulative procedures.
4. Neurological deficit is profound at normal gait: horse frequently stumbles or trips and may fall at normal gaits or when manipulative procedures were utilized.
5. Horse is recumbent, unable to rise.

Each horse's response to treatment was compared to its pre-treatment values. Successful response to treatment was defined as clinical improvement of at least one grade by Day 48 ± conversion of CSF to Western Blot-negative status for S. neurona or achievement of Western Blot-negative CSF status without improvement of 1 ataxia grade.

Forty-two horses were initially evaluated for effectiveness and 214 horses were evaluated for safety. Clinical condition was evaluated by the clinical investigator's subjective scoring and then corroborated by evaluation of the neurological examination videotapes by a masked panel of three equine veterinarians. Although 42 horses were evaluated for clinical effectiveness, corroboration of clinical effectiveness via videotape evaluation was not possible for one horse due to missing neurologic examination videotapes. Therefore, this horse was not included in the success rate calculation.
Based on the numbers of horses that seroconverted to negative Western Blot status, and the numbers of horses classified as successes by the clinical investigators, 28 of 42 horses (67%) at 1 mg/kg were considered successes. With regard to independent expert masked videotape assessments, 10 of 24 horses (42%) at 1 mg/kg were considered successes. There was no clinical difference in effectiveness among the 1, 5, and 10 mg/kg treatment group results.
Adverse events were reported for two of the 214 horses evaluated for safety. In the first case, a horse was enrolled showing severe neurologic signs. Within 24 hours of dosing, the horse was recumbent, biting, and exhibiting signs of dementia. The horse died, and no cause of death was determined. In the second case, the horse began walking stiffly approximately 13 days after the start of dosing. The referring veterinarian reported that the horse had been fed grass clippings and possibly had laminitis.

ANIMAL SAFETY
PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets were administered to 30 horses (15 males and 15 females, ranging from 5 to 9 months of age) in a target animal safety study. Five groups of 6 horses each (3 males and 3 females) received 0, 5 (5X), 15 (15X), 25 (25X) or 50 (50X) mg diclazuril/kg (2.27mg/lb) body weight/day for 42 consecutive days as a top-dress on the grain ration of the horse. The variables measured during the study included: clinical and physical observations, body weights, food and water consumption, hematology, serum chemistry, urinalysis, fecal analysis, necropsy, organ weights, gross and histopathologic examinations.
The safety of diclazuril top-dress administered to horses at 1 mg/kg once daily cannot be determined based solely on this study because of the lack of an adequate control group (control horses tested positive for the test drug in plasma and CSF). However, possible findings associated with the drug were limited to elevations in BUN, creatinine, and SDH and less than anticipated weight gain. Definitive test article-related effects were decreased grain/top-dress consumption in horses in the 50 mg/kg group. In a second target animal safety study, PROTAZIL® (1.56% diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets were administered to 24 horses (12 males and 12 females, ranging from 2 to 8 years of age). Three groups of 4 horses/sex/group received 0, 1, or 5 mg diclazuril/kg body weight/day for 42 days as a top-dress on the grain ration of the horse. The variables measured during the study included physical examinations, body weights, food and water consumption, hematology, and serum chemistry. There were no test article-related findings seen during the study.

STORAGE INFORMATION
Store between 15°C to 30°C (59°F to 86°F).

HOW SUPPLIED
PROTAZIL® (1.56 % diclazuril) Antiprotozoal Pellets are supplied in 2.4-lb (1.1 kg) and 10-lb (4.5 kg) buckets.

SATURDAY INSIGHTS: CONNECT FILLY LOOMS LARGE AT FIRST ASKING by Alan Carasso

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

6th-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, post time: 3:51 p.m. ET

A full field of 10 is signed on for this typically loaded Saturday maiden at the Spa. PHELPSY (Into Mischief) goes out for the partnership of William Lawrence, Jeff Drown and Three Chimneys Farm LLC, who gave an even $1 million for the colt through agent Mike Ryan at last year's Keeneland September Sale. The bay is the second produce from the turf SW & GSP Secret Someone (A.P. Indy), whose SW dam Private Gift (Unbridled) bred MGSW Private Mission (Into Mischief) and the dam of GISW Dunbar Road (Quality Road). This is also the family of 2000 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Status (A.P. Indy). Jay Em Ess Stable homebred Full Moon Madness (Into Mischief) is the first foal to the races for By The Moon (Indian Charlie), a Grade I winner at two and victorious in the GI Ballerina S. over this course. TJCIS PPs

6th-ELP, $60K, Msw, 2yo, f, post time: 1:50 p.m.

BOSS LADY BAILEY (Connect) hammered for a respectable $80,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale, but worked a furlong in a brilliant :10 flat and was hammered down for $550,000 at the OBS April Sale, the priciest of 14 juveniles for her sire this year. The March foal looks to become the sixth winner from as many to the races for her SW/GSP dam Special Dream (Officer), who is also responsible for the stakes-placed Momomeamaria (Quality Road). Boss Lady Bailey breezed a bullet four furlongs in :47 2/5 at The Thoroughbred Center July16. Rey Gutierrez has the ride for the white-hot John Ortiz.

D J Stables' Killing Time (Gun Runner), a $420,000 KEESEP purchase, is out of an unplaced half-sister to MGSW Listen Here (Gulch) and to the Grade III-placed dam of GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup heroine La Coronel (Colonel John). TJCIS PPs

5th-GP, $45K, Msw, (S), 2yo, 6f, post time: 2:26 p.m. ET

TICKING (Bolt d'Oro), a half-brother to the excellent Maryland-bred handicap horse Harpers First Ride (Paynter), fetched $675,000 from Eddie Plesa, acting on behalf of his clients Leon Ellman, Karl Glassman and wife Laurie Plesa, after drilling a furlong in :10 flat at OBS this past April. He gets his career started in Florida-bred company here. The dark bay is out of the unraced Polyester (Tiz Wonderful), a half-sister to two-time stakes winner and 1995 GI Kentucky Oaks third Sneaky Quiet (Seeking the Gold). TJCIS PPs

4th-DMR, $80K, Msw, 2yo, f, 5f, post time: 6:34 p.m. ET

HALOSNHEAVEN (Curlin) is a daughter of Hal Earnhardt's irrepressible two-time champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie), who earned a 97 Beyer and 'TDN Rising Star' honors when airing by 5 1/4 lengths on Saratoga debut 15 years ago this August and later would later go on to add the GI Test S. at the same venue. Also the dam of GISP Ten Blessings--a son of Curlin's sire Smart Strike--Indian Blessing is a daughter of SW & MGSP Shameful (Flying Chevron), who also produced MSW Ax Man (Misremembered), GSW Roman Threat (Roman Ruler), MSP Leading Score (Midnight Lute) and the SP 'TDN Rising Star' Maker Or Breaker (Empire Maker) and Spaniard (Candy Ride {Arg}). It will be up to Juan Hernandez to work out a trip from gate 12. TJCIS PPs

Balnikhov | Benoit

Poor starts had been the Achilles' heel for Balnikhov in a couple of his previous defeats, and things didn't look especially good when he was squeezed out shortly after the break of Friday's Oceanport S. But, given a gutsy steer by Umberto Rispoli, the dark bay found his best stride entering the final furlong and shot away for an ultimately comfortable first success at stakes level.

Forced to steady when in tight a few strides out of the gate, Balnikov was guided down towards the inside to save some ground and raced with just one rival behind as 55-1 Barsabas showed the way through crisp fractions. Patiently handled and with the better part of a dozen lengths to make up passing the half-mile marker, Balnikhov commenced a two-path rally on the turn, but was he travelling so strongly that he was again forced to steady at the five-sixteenths. Going well and full of run on the swing for home, Rispoli steered his mount toward an opening nearer the inside when favored Mackinnon (American Pharoah) was angled wide to deliver his challenge, and Balnikhov quickened home impressively for the victory. Anmer Hall, prominent throughout, rounded out the exacta at 25-1. The trifecta paid nearly $3300 for a dollar.

A three-time winner from eight French starts for Rodolphe Collet, Balnikhov was slowly away when a nose second in the Singletary S. when making his U.S. debut Apr. 2 and found himself with plenty to do after trouble at the start of the May 7 GII American Turf S. at Churchill, where he settled for second after leading late. He was a disappointing fourth at long odds-on with blinkers added for the June 4 Cinema S. at Santa Anita, but was shedding that equipment Friday.

Balnikhov is the fourth black-type winner for his sire, a son of Kodiac (GB) who began his stud career at Whitsbury Manor Stud, but has since relocated to Italy. From the family of GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. hero Midships (Mizzen Mast), Balnikhov has a 2-year-old half-brother by the Scat Daddy stallion Sioux Nation. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

KEEPMEINMIND (c, 4, Laoban--Inclination, by Victory Gallop) was competitive at the highest level during his 2-year-old season, coming in behind only eventual champion 2-year-old Essential Quality (Tapit) in Keeneland's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and third in the GI TVG.com Breeders' Cup Juvenile S., before finally breaking his maiden in style, taking the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. in his last start of 2020. Brought back on the Derby trail as a 3-year-old, he struggled in his first three starts of the season, with his best finish being fifth in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S. last April. He found a bit better form following the GI Kentucky Derby, in which he was seventh, to be fourth in the GI Preakness S., third in the GIII Ohio Derby, and second in the GII Jim Dandy S. When last seen Aug. 28, Keepmeinmind was fourth to Essential Quality in Saratoga's GI Runhappy Travers S.

Keepmeinmind | Sarah Andrew

Sent off as the 4-5 favorite for his first start in nearly a year, he was held back off the pace, tucked along the fence in sixth. He rallied five wide leaving the far turn, engaged Tiwanaku (Tapit) in upper stretch, and drew clear to the line to win by 2 3/4 lengths over Naval Aviator (Tapit). A half-brother to In Jack's Memory, GSP, $100,553, Keepmeinmind has an unraced 2-year-old full-brother named Mr Midway. Inclination was bred to both Authentic and Laoban in 2021. FAST BUCK (g, 4, Gallant Son--Zorra Roja, by Falstaff), after a poor debut on the dirt last August, took seven months off and returned a dominating winner on the grass, breaking his maiden Mar. 27 at Santa Anita with an 89 Beyer Speed Figure. Kept on the turf, Fast Buck won again Apr. 30 and was last seen coming in third beaten just three-quarters of a length June 19. The 8-5 favorite for Friday's contest, Fast Buck linked up with Mac Daddy Two (Maclean's Music) on the front end, held a narrow advantage around the turn, and came away clear in upper stretch. Challenged by Gregory's Pride (Tamarkuz) late, the pair bobbed heads to the line with Fast Buck prevailing by a nose. The winner, a half-brother to Fast and Foxy (Thisnearlywasmine), MSW, $514,030, has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother by City Wolf. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-1, $156,824. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MAKIN MY MOVE (f, 3, Carpe Diem--Hard to Stay Notgo {MSW, $212,440}, by More Than Ready) thrashed state-bred maidens by 12 1/2 lengths on main-track debut last August, then was a close fourth after battling out the fractions in the GIII Matron S. on the Belmont turf in October.

Makin My Move (1) | Sarah Andrew

A low-odds seventh in the Nov. 21 Key Cents S. at Aqueduct, the homebred was a speed-and-fade sixth on the dirt at Belmont May 28 and returned to winning ways with a wire job going seven panels downstate July 2. A 15-4 chance to put them back-to-back, Makin My Move checked mildly in the opening stages , then settled mid-division while glued to the inside on the turn. Angled out into the clear, the half-sister to Gotta Go Mo (Uncle Mo), SP, $176,760, finished up well down the center of the track for a 3/4-length success. Out of a half to an additional pair of stakes winners and from the family of MGSW Fed Biz (Giant's Causeway) and GISW Joking (Distorted Humor), Makin My Move has a yearling half-sister by the late Flatter and a foal half-sister by Mendelssohn. Hard to Stay Notgo was most recently covered by Justify. Sales history: $190,000 RNA 2yo '21 OBSMAR. LET HER INSPIRE U (f, 3, Practical Joke--Caribbean Lady, by Speightstown) brought $500,000 as a 2-year-old last winter, working in :10.2 at Fasig-Tipton's Gulfstream Sale. She made three starts as a 2-year-old, debuting nearly a year ago at Saratoga in fourth. Third next time out Aug. 26, she just missed by a nose to GSP Venti Valentine (Firing Line) in her last start of the season Sept. 26 at Belmont. Brought back nearly nine months later, Let Her Inspire U broke her maiden in her first start as a 3-year-old, wiring a field of state-breds June 16. In her first start against winners Friday as the even-money favorite, she raced several paths off the rail before moving in closer to be three wide around the turn in third. Angled four wide as the field straightened, Let Her Inspire U took over nearing the three-sixteenths markers and was easily clear from there, hitting the line 3 3/4 lengths ahead of Silver Fist (Iron Fist). Caribbean Lady, a half-sister to MGSW Halory Leigh (Halory Hunter), is responsible for an unraced 2-year-old filly by Mendelssohn and a yearling colt by Lookin At Lucky. She birthed a full-brother to Let Her Inspire U in 2022 and was bred back to Honest Mischief for 2023. Sales History: $90,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $500,000 2yo '21 FTFMAR. BELLAMORE (f, 4, Empire Maker--Smart N Soft, by Smart Strike) made two starts for Chad Brown as a 2-year-old and just missed breaking her maiden by a nose in her second start. Switched to Simon Callaghan's barn after missing her entire 3-year-old season, Bellamore returned to break her maiden on the all-weather track at Golden Gate Feb. 26 and then came right back and won against allowance company Mar. 25. She found the waters much too deep when checking in eighth in Santa Anita's GII Santa Margarita S. Apr. 30. Though first under the line when last seen contesting 1 1/6 miles on the grass back at Golden Gate May 28, she was disqualified and place fourth for interference. A longshot at 22-1, Bellamore raced inside into the first turn before drifting out between rivals, bumping with Freedom Lass (Revolutionary). Angled four wide in the stretch, she came running outside of Eddie's New Dream (Square Eddie) and just got by to win by a half-length. Smart N Soft is responsible for a 2-year-old colt named Victory Formation (Tapwrit), a yearling filly by Karakontie (Jpn), and a weanling filly by Practical Joke. CAVALIER CUPID (f, 3, Quality Road--El Vedado, by Big Brown) landed a pair of restricted races over the Colonial turf last summer, including the non black-type Keswick S. Aug. 2, before closing the season with a fourth in the Ainsworth S. at Kentucky Downs in September. A money-burning eighth in her June 4 comebacker over course and distance, the homebred was nevertheless the 19-10 second favorite to get back to winning ways. Soon in front from the inside barrier, Cavalier Cupid set good fractions while well within the grasp of Horacio Karamanos, was quietly ridden into the final eighth of a mile and was punched out to score by 1 1/2 lengths over Justalittleviolent (Violence). Cavalier Cupid is the first foal from a winning half-sister to SW & MGSP Curlin's Honor (Curlin); SWs Swinger's Party (Medaglia d'Oro) and Hubba Shake (Street Sense); and GSP Powhatan County (Fusaichi Pegasus). El Vedado is the dam of the 2-year-old filly La Befana (Point of Entry), the yearling filly Salalah (Palace Malic) and was most recently bred to Mendelssohn. APPRAISE (IRE) (c, 2, Kodiac {GB}--Champagne Or Water {Ire} {SW-Ire, $109,065}, by Captain Rio {GB}), given an unconvincing 11-1 chance after drifting up from 4-1 on the morning line for his first time to the races, came away in the front group despite mild contact with Inflation Nation (Ire) (Speightstown) at the break. Beat to the lead by both Clubhouse (Speightstown) and Alibi Ike (Munnings), he chased in third into the far turn before coming three wide past the quarter pole. He took over with a furlong to run and, under left-handed urging, held on to just edge out Inflation Nation by a head on the line. IMPULSIVENESS (c, 3, Quality Road--Figarie, by Bernardini) came in a well-beaten seventh on debut June 26, checking in 16 lengths behind the winner going 6 1/2 furlongs over the dirt at Belmont. Switched to the grass and stretched out to a mile, the $240,000 OBSJUN 2-year-old broke inward from the gate and bumped with Growth Capital (War Front) before traveling three wide around the clubhouse turn with a head in front. He set the tempo under a hold up the backstretch, going the opening half in an easy :50.07. Repelling a brief challenge from Oglethrope (Arrogate) around the far turn, he inched away down the lane under a hard ride to score by three-quarters of a length. Indemnify (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), part of an entry favored at 1-2, came off the place to fill the exacta. The winner's second dam, champion 2-year-old filly Flanders (Seeking the Gold), produced Eclipse Awards winner Surfside (Seattle Slew). Figarie last produced the 2-year-old filly Feel Joy (Fr) (Kitten's Joy). Sales History: $145,000 RNA Ylg '20 KEESEP; $280,000 2yo '21 OBSJUN. ANACAPA (f, 3, Tiznow--Soot Z, by Empire Maker) ran a poor eighth on debut when tried over the grass at Santa Anita June 17. Given an 11-1 shot Friday on the dirt, she ran inside of rivals early in the pace battle before clearing into the turn. Keychain Girl (Practical Joke) pressured from the outside down the lane but Anacapa held her at bay and built a gap late, hitting the line 1 1/4 lengths ahead of that foe. The winner, a half-sister to Amalfi Sunrise (Constitution), GSW, $159,000 and UAE 2000 Guineas second Gotti (More Than Ready), has a 2-year-old unraced half-brother named Devilment (Into Mischief) and a yearling half-sister by Justify. JUSTA WARRIOR (f, 2, Justify--A Z Warrior {GISW, $286,906}, by Bernardini) capped off her worktab with a strong half-mile from the gate in :48 1/5 July 12 and was off as the 5-2 second choice to open her account at first asking. Away in good order from a middle gate, the $150,000 Keeneland September yearling took up a pace-pressing role to the outside, eased to the front with a furlong and a half to race and--despite a few swishes of her tail--pulled away to score by five emphatic lengths to become the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by Scat Daddy). A Z Warrior, the first-ever 'TDN Rising Star' for her sire, won the 2010 GI Frizette S. and was sold on for $1.25 million at Fasig-Tipton November in 2011. SUMMER BREEZES

Boss Lady Bailey sold for $550,000 at OBS April | ThoroStride

by Alan Carasso

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and even at Ellis Park, which attracts its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. Already this year at Saratoga, City Man (Mucho Macho Man), Mo Strike (Uncle Mo) and Empress Tigress (Classic Empire)--each a graduate of the 2-year-old sales--have already struck at stakes level, while the likes of juvenile purchases and 'TDN Rising Stars' Taiba (Gun Runner), We The People (Constitution) and Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) have also left their mark on graded/group competition this season. To follow are the horses entered for Friday at the aforementioned venues:

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Sunday running at Fukushima and Kokura Racecourses:

Sunday, July 24, 2022

3rd-FKS, ¥9,900,000 ($72k), Maiden, 2yo, 1800mT

MEINER VISION (JPN) (c, 2, Oscar Performance--Songoficeandfire, by Dynaformer) turned in a very promising debut effort when tried over this distance at Tokyo June 25, finishing a good third (video, SC 15), and stands to come on in leaps and bounds for the effort. The Apr. 12 foal's dam, twice placed in Grade III contests over 12 furlongs on the turf, is a half-sister to Irish Group 2 winner and three-times GI/G1SP Antonius Pius (Danzig), and cost Big Red Farm $200,000 carrying this foal in utero at Keeneland January in 2020. B-Big Red Farm

10th-KOK, ¥28,710,000 ($209k), Allowance, 3yo/up, 1700m

SHAILENE (f, 3, Arrogate--Amen Hallelujah, by Montbrook), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling turned $1-million OBSAPR breezer, a maiden winner at second asking over nine furlings, was third in a seven-furlong Tokyo allowance May 22 and most recently defeated fellow U.S.-bred Per Aa (American Pharoah) when stretched back out over course and trip July 10. The filly's dam was a two-time Grade II winner and placed in no fewer than six Grade I events from seven to 8 1/2 furlongs and on both dirt and turf. B-Town and Country Horse Farms LLC (KY)

CLASSIC COMPENSATION IN THE KING GEORGE?

Westover would be the first sophomore colt to complete the Irish Derby/King George double since Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck) in 2003
Getty Images

by Tom Frary

It seems strange to say that Saturday's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth QIPCO S., a "Win And You're In" for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf in November, has attracted the best available of the 3-year-olds of either sex without hosting a winner of either Epsom Classic. In Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), Ascot's jewel has the two that really count. Both suffered ill fortune of varying degrees in the Derby and Oaks, with the filly in particular a victim of savage circumstance having blown almost the key part of the race coming out of the stalls.

DERBY WINNER DESERT CROWN TO MISS JUDDMONTE AT YORK

Desert Crown (GB) (Narthaniel {Ire}), the unbeaten Derby winner, will not run in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York next month, his owner Saeed Suhail's racing manager Bruce Raymond has revealed.

Sir Michael Stoute's colt wowed racing fans with a devastating display in the Derby but has not been seen since that Epsom triumph.

He was being aimed at the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot on Saturday but was ruled out of that contest after missing a key piece of work with a foot injury.

In what is the latest blow to the connections of the outstanding 3-year-old, Desert Crown will not make it to York, with Raymond revealing that Soute has been taking things easy with the colt.

Raymond said, "We'll try to prepare him for the end of the season, either the Arc or the Champion S. I've not spoken to Sir Michael, but the York race is Aug. 17, he'd need to be galloping by now. I just don't think there is enough time to prepare him."

In the absence of Desert Crown, Coral cut Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) to 4-5 favourite from 5-4 for the York showpiece. Desert Crown can be backed at odds as big as 5-1 with some firms for the Prix de l Arc de Triomphe on Oct. 2.

RACE PREVIEWS

Few would argue that the Gosdens' 'TDN Rising Star', who now carries the Lloyd Webber silks, would not have beaten Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) had she been on a level playing field in an unsuitably slowly-run June 3 Classic and it could be that Saturday's well-documented missed flight acts as a blessing in disguise. Gifted a stone by the weight-for-age and sex allowances, she even has three pounds on Westover and the stable has a 100% record with 3-year-old fillies in this.

Frankie's Fortunes On The Up?

When it comes to the biggest topic in racing over the last few weeks, it is undoubtedly the sabbatical of the Gosdens and Frankie Dettori brought about in part by a run of ill fortune to which Emily Upjohn herself contributed. Back on the filly he described in the spring as one who took his breath away, Dettori is one win away from exceeding Lester Piggott, with whom he shares the current record with seven wins. "Epsom was a nightmare, but that's racing," he said on his Sporting Index blog. "Just when you think you've got everything covered, something like that happens. We get a massive pull in the weights, which is a big help. Barring any accidents, I'm hoping for a big performance. Fingers crossed, we got all the bad luck out of the way at Epsom."

Time For Westover To Shine

While Emily Upjohn's bad luck at Epsom was in plain sight, Westover's traffic issues halfway up the home straight a day later may or may not have cost him the Blue Riband. Perhaps only a few would argue that he was unlucky not to get past Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), but the way he was motoring when in the clear suggests it is not as clear-cut as most would state. His subsequent Curragh romp three weeks later showed what the Juddmonte homebred was capable of when allowed to fully flow and his wide draw in six may be an advantage with Colin Keane able to send him forward to get the lead from Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}). Juddmonte's general manager Barry Mahon is ready to relish the moment. "They're all elite animals and it's going to be a marvellous race," he said. "You never really know taking on the older horses for the first time and then you've the filly thrown in getting the weight allowance. It's going to make for a great race, to be fair."

Where Is His Limit?

At the start of the season, Westover had just a listed placing to his name with one win from three starts, so the homebred's upward momentum has been one of the stories of 2022. Last year, a Frankel colt who had come to the fore in the G3 Sandown Classic Trial had started the Derby at 16-1 and won this at only 9-4, showing how much progression is possible in the early summer weeks. Westover was 25-1 for this year's renewal despite winning that Derby prep and lines up on Saturday as the 6-4 favourite for the premier English 12-furlong prize, so the similarities are there for all to see. "At the start of the year none of us could have envisaged Westover getting quite this far, so this is a surprise to all of us, but he's kept on getting better physically and that's where all of the improvement has come from," trainer Ralph Beckett said of the stable star, whose jockey Colin Keane rode a four-timer at Down Royal on Friday evening.

The Generation Game

Sandown's Eclipse three weeks ago proved how hard it is to crack the 3-year-olds under the seemingly unchallengeable weight-for-age disadvantage and the fact that Prince Faisal's Mishriff (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) was a possibly unlucky runner-up there speaks volumes as to his level. He failed to get past Adayar (Ire) in this 12 months ago and has even more of a burden to overcome with the filly this time, so another honourable placing is perhaps the best he can hope for again. Victory under terms that are gruesome for the older horses would put even his stellar past performances in the shade and John Gosden is not ruling it out. "We freshened him up after Saudi and he ran a superb race in the Eclipse and finished strongly," he said. "We are aware that a mile and a quarter is probably his perfect distance, as he proved in the Juddmonte International, but we've been very happy with his preparation and he comes here a relatively fresh horse."

Mishriff | Scoop Dyga

Big Day For Team Tasso

Gestut Auenquelle's reigning Arc hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) bids to follow where compatriot Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) led 10 years ago and become the third German-trained winner since 2012. His swagger was back in Hamburg's G2 Grosser Hansa Preis July 2 and trainer Marcel Weiss thinks he has him worked out by now. "He has a very strong character but if you understand him and go with him, not against him, then he's a beautiful horse and has a lot of confidence in himself," he explained. "There are big horses in the race and we have a lot of respect for the 3-year-olds and Mishriff, but if you want to win the Arc you have to beat these horses and he is good enough."

Also At Ascot

While the attention was on Royal Ascot's opening day June 14, Thirsk played host to a 'TDN Rising Star' in Glenlaurel (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's homebred bids to justify that tag in the six-furlong G3 Princess Margaret Keeneland S. on the King George card. While she is in a lot deeper here, the manner of the display of the Kevin Ryan-trained relative of Dubawi (Ire) when powering to a 3 3/4-length success at the Yorkshire track suggests she will hold her own. In a strong edition, Ralph Beckett saddles Marc Chan and Andrew Rosen's June 25 Listed Empress Fillies' S. winner and July 8 G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. runner-up Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Juddmonte's Palm Lily (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}), who scored with plenty of pattern-race promise on her debut at Kempton June 1. Juddmonte's racing manager Barry Mahon said of the latter, "She's a filly that Ralph has always liked, she won very nicely the first day and she's just been growing since, so he's been patient and given her time." Charlie Appleby has won two of the last three renewals of the card's other black-type contest for juveniles, the Listed Flexjet Pat Eddery S., and looks set to add to that tally with the Yarmouth and Leicester novice winner Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), while in the G3 Longines Valiant S. for the fillies and mares Prince Faisal enjoys a King George warm-up with his Roger Varian-trained 10-length Windsor novice winner Kind Gesture (GB) (Decorated Knight {GB}).

Honour At Stake At York

The latter has not been seen since finishing down the field in the Mar. 26 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, with William Haggas waiting for the weather to break, but it is time to relaunch the 4-year-old who came to prominence last term when winning the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano and G2 Prix Dollar on an easy surface. "He's very well and ready to race, he was a bit battered and bruised after Meydan but he's back in great shape," his trainer said. He's better on soft and he needs it to rain, but we've been waiting for rain for some time and it hasn't come. We've got to get on with it as he needs to run, he's bored of galloping."

SCHMIDT REALLY GOING PLACES THANKS TO CLAYMORE By Emma Berry

Gunther & Elke Schmidt | Emma Berry

ASCOT, UK--One person at Ascot on Friday had a broader smile than most as Günther Schmidt, the German breeder of Claymore (Fr) (New Bay {GB}), was not only able to collect his Royal Ascot winning breeder's trophy but is also travelling on to the Knavesmire to see the colt in action in the G2 Sky Bet York S. on Saturday.

"The timing is perfect," said Schmidt, who was at Ascot with his wife Elke. "We've come straight here this morning from the Harwich ferry and then we are driving up to Yorkshire in our camper van this evening to see him run tomorrow, and it will be the first time we have seen one of his races in person."

The owner of the transport company Taxi4Horses added modestly, "We are very small breeders compared to the other people here. This is our first black-type horse and so it is unbelievable."

The couple board most of their mares in France at Haras des Rabodanges, though Claymore's dam Brit Wit (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) is currently in Germany at Gestut Zuiderhof after she was covered earlier this year by Gestut Etzean's freshman sire Japan (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

"Unfortunately we sold the mare but we have now got back involved with her in partnership," said Schmidt, who credits Elke with selecting the 11-year-old mare, a daughter of the Ascot listed winner Brisk Breeze (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Having admired her pedigree they bought Brit Wit in foal for the first time to Lord Of England (Ger).

"We own her 2-year-old filly by Cloth Of Stars, who is in training with Andreas Wohler. I saw her yesterday; Andreas is a top-class trainer and he didn't say much but he said I should be confident. She looks like a racehorse but we will see. The mare also has a yearling by Amaron (GB) and a filly foal by Areion (Ger). She's very easy: she only needs to visit a stallion one time and she gets straight in foal."

As every breeder knows, not all horses are easy. Schmidt, whose father became involved in racing and breeding in the 1950s, previously owned Gestut Friedrichsrhuh with Elke, and welcomed the first stallion to stand in Germany under the Darley banner when taking charge of the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner Morshdi (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}). Sadly, his stud career didn't last for long.

"We started our own stud in 1992 and in 2002 we got Morshdi from Darley. We were really proud to stand him but he turned out to be infertile. So it was a big step up and then an even bigger fall," Schmidt recalled.

Not long afterwards, when being disappointed in the service from a transporter taking one of his mares to Newmarket from Germany, Schmidt decided that this was an area of the breeding business that he could look after on his own. Cont. p6

"I bought a two-box and it started with word of mouth," he said. "I expected to do 30,000 miles in the first year but I did almost 100,000 miles. Then we decided from 2006 to focus on the transport and to sell the farm and board our mares mostly in France."

Taxi4Horses took off, and from one small two-box the company now has five large wagons on the road across Europe.

Schmidt admits, "I hadn't expected it to be so successful as it is now but horses are my passion. It is not my passion to be stuck in traffic but I get to meet people in all the different places in France and England and Ireland, and it is wonderful. I am more than happy with the Taxi4Horses business."

The breeder is regularly updated by Claymore's trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam but so far he has only viewed the horse in action from afar.

"We had a party at home for Royal Ascot with 30 of our neighbours," he recalled of Claymore's victory in the G3 Hampton Court S. "I think they thought they were going to have to take me to hospital because I went crazy when he won. But they are not horse people so I had to explain that winning at Royal Ascot was like winning the Football World Cup."

He added, "Jane is fantastic, she keeps us in contact all the time on what's app and she really makes us feel like we are part of the team.

"And how about this: Claymore was bred by Germans, born in France, pinhooked by Irish people, trained by an Australian lady in England, owned by a lady from South Africa, and ridden by an English guy. It couldn't be more of an international story."

FRESH TEAM AT KEENELAND BUILDING ON STRONG FOUNDATIONS By Emma Berry

ASCOT, UK--Racing at Ascot this Saturday may focus on the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., but a top-class card gets underway in style with the running of the G3 Princess Margaret Keeneland S., a race now in its fifth year of sponsorship by the American sales company.

Shannon Arvin, who was appointed Keeneland's eight president and chief executive officer last year, is the first woman to hold that position, and she arrived in the UK earlier in the week to meet some of the company's clients in this part of the world and enjoy a couple of days at the races.

As Ascot on Friday following a lunch celebrating all the winning breeders from the Royal Ascot meeting, Arvin outlined some of the key changes of personnel at Keeneland which took place during 2021. Along with her own appointment, Irishmen Tony Lacy and Cormac Breathnach were appointed vice president of sales and director of sales operations respectively, while Gatewood Bell, a familiar face to many on the European sales circuit in his days as an agent and representative of Goffs, became vice president of racing.

"We're a new team," Arvin says. "With Gatewood on board as head of racing, then Tony as head of sales and Cormac as director of sales operations, I think we all just share a common view that Keeneland is a special place. It's special to all of us for different reasons and I know we all see ourselves as stewards.

"And it's neat to come together and approach it from that vantage point because I know that all we are trying to do is to make Keeneland as good as it can be and do as much as we can for the industry, and as much as we can to perpetuate the best in racing. We were founded on that principle and we all believe so fervently in it that even when we have different ideas of how to get there, we are open to those new ideas and finding new ways, so that we attract more people to the sport."

Shannon Arvin | Keeneland

Reflecting on a tumultuous few years of international travel disrupted by the pandemic, she adds, "I think as difficult as Covid has been it has also given us some opportunities to try new things that may have been more difficult to have done at other times. People have got more used to change and we have all had to become more flexible."

The breeze-up pinhookers are a determined bunch, and a group that as a whole has benefited enormously from the buying and selling of American-bred yearlings sourced at Keeneland. Many of them found ways of travelling to Lexington, aided by Keeneland's tireless European representative Ed Prosser, but the planning was by no means simple. This year, happily, should be more straightforward.

"One of my most favourite aspects of this business, from the time when I was a lawyer and even more so now, is the fact that it's such an international business but it's a small world, so our European buyers are such an important part of our buying bench," says Arvin. Cont. p7

She added, "We sell horses to people from over 52 countries, but our European buyers are so important and when there was a question about whether we could get them over for last year's sales cycle we were all very anxious. Ed Prosser's hair turned whiter and we were in contact daily to work out ways to get them here.

"Last year, in September in particular, the market was so unusual, and usually when you get to the last day of the sale the back ring gets fairly empty but last year the back ring was full, and still with lots of European pinhookers."

Potential buyers planning their trips for September can rest safe in the knowledge that this year's sale will follow the pattern of 12 months ago.

Arvin continues, "Our consignors and buyers all agree that consistency from year to year in the format would be really helpful, and we haven't been able to do that in past years for a variety of reasons. But we will have the same format this year that we did last September: two-day Book 1, two-day Book 2, one-day break, and on. We will have a Book 6 this year. Our numbers are such that we will need a Book 6 this year instead of consolidating three days for Book 5."

But before the serious business begins there is some meeting and greeting to be done via two key European race sponsorships for Keeneland, at Ascot on Saturday and at the Curragh in Ireland on Aug. 6.

"We appreciate so much that the European breeders and buyers support our sales, and it goes both ways," Arvin explains. "That international aspect is so important to a healthy industry. Our sponsorship of racing in Europe goes back to the Nunthorpe S. at York in the 1990s. The Princess Margaret S. we have sponsored since 2018 and of course we sponsor the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at the Curragh in a few weeks. That's close to home for Tony so he will be there for that, and it's just fun to see our European customers on their turf as well as at Keeneland."

Just ahead of the breeding stock sale in November, the sales company's sister racecourse will welcome back the Breeders' Cup for the third time.

Arvin, who spent a day in Newmarket before heading to Ascot, adds, "The temporary structures are already going up and we're getting ready. Even for the few days I've been here in England I've seen lots of trainers who have talked about coming back to Keeneland for the Breeders' Cup, so we're getting very excited about that."

GOLD CUP HERO KYPRIOS SET FOR GOODWOOD

Kyprios| Megan Ridgwell

Aidan O'Brien is readying a strong squad for Goodwood, which will be spearheaded by Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Order Of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}).

Kyprios is a warm order to build on his G1 Gold Cup triumph at Royal Ascot when he lines out in the G1 Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup while Order Of Australia is on course to run in the G1 Qatar Sussex S.

O'Brien said, "We are happy with Kyprios and the Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup has always been the plan since Ascot.

"The plan is for Order Of Australia to run in the Sussex S., provided everything goes well between now and then. He has come out of the Curragh well."

O'Brien has a number of high-class entries across the week, with Concert Hall (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) set to tackle Thursday's G1 Qatar Nassau S. after finishing fourth in the GI Belmont Oaks earlier in the month, while New York City (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) could move up in trip for the seven-furlong G2 World Pool Lennox S. after coming home last in the G2 Sapphire S. over the minimum trip last Saturday.

Irish Oaks fourth Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is another who could make a swift return stepping back up to 14 furlongs in the G2 Qatar Lillie Langtry S.

O'Brien said, "The plan at the moment is for Concert Hall to run in the Nassau. She is just back from America and seems very well, so we are thinking of letting her take her chance.

"New York City has a couple of entries and, if he is to go anywhere, it would probably be the Lennox. We will speak to Ryan [Moore] closer to the time and see what the race looks like.

"Emily Dickinson is a possible for the Lillie Langtry. She only ran last weekend and we are just going to see how she is, but she is in good form and the trip will suit."

O'Brien has three contenders for the G2 Japan Racing Association Vintage S., headed by last Saturday's impressive Curragh scorer Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

Age Of Kings (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) was a beaten favourite in the Tyros S. on Thursday evening, with his other entry Greenland (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) yet to get his head in front.

O'Brien added, "We have not decided about the Vintage S. yet. Hans Andersen only won last weekend whereas Greenland is still a maiden and the other horse [Age Of Kings] ran at Leopardstown last night. We will decide nearer the time.

"The Vintage S. is a prestigious race and we like to have something good for it. If a horse does go to stud, it looks very good on their CV."

ATZENI LOOKING FORWARD TO "GREAT OPPORTUNITY" ABOARD STRADIVARIUS

Stradivarius | Emma Berry

Andrea Atzeni has described being reunited with Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) as "a great opportunity" with the rider bidding to maintain his unbeaten record aboard John and Thady Gosden's charge at Goodwood next week.

Frankie Dettori has partnered Stradivarius to three G1 Gold Cup triumphs at Royal Ascot and has been the man aboard the star-stayer for the majority of his career. However, a decision was made by "mutual consent" to change things up in the saddle, with Atzeni the prime beneficiary.

"It's a great opportunity for me to get back on him. I had a sit on him and gave him a blowout on the Cambridge Road-he feels in good order and I'm looking forward to Tuesday," Atzeni told Sky Sports Racing. Cont. p9

He said, "I didn't have much to do with him at home when I rode him as a 3- and 4-year-old. I'd say he's not a flashy worker, he just gets the job done.

"He's been there and done it a million times, he knows the time of day but he seems well within himself."

Atzeni added, "He's been solid all the way through. To keep a horse of his age, a full horse too, it's unbelievable what they've done with him.

"He owes us nothing, everyone connected with him, and hopefully he'll turn up on Tuesday and we'll see the Stradivarius we've seen in the past."

Stradivarius will be bidding to win the G1 Goodwood Cup for a fourth time on Tuesday but faces stiff opposition from his Royal Ascot conqueror, the reigning Gold Cup hero, Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Atzeni was aboard Stradivarius for his first two victories in the Goodwood Cup but hasn't ridden the chestnut since they were successful in this race back in 2018.

FRANCE GALOP AND QREC EXTEND ARC WEEKEND SPONSORSHIP THROUGH 2027

France Galop and the Qatar Racing and Equestrian Club (QREC) confirmed they have extended their sponsorship agreement of the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe weekend for five more years, from 2023-2027. Originally inked in 2008 for a five-year deal through 2012, an extension was agreed upon in 2010 through 2022's edition. Held from Friday, Sept. 30 (Saint-Cloud) and Saturday/Sunday Oct. 1-2 at ParisLongchamp, there will be 16 group races carded--eight Group 1s, three Group 2s, one Group 3 and another four top-level races dedicated to Arabians. Total prize-money on offer will be €10.4 million. The G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe will have a purse of €5 million, while the G1 Qatar Arabian World Cup will carry €1 million in prize-money.

THOROUGHBID MIDSUMMER SALE TOPPED BY POSTMARK

Postponed (Ire) gelding Postmark (GB) (lot 6), offered by Ralph Beckett's Kimpton Down Stables, topped Friday's ThoroughBid Midsummer Sale at £50,000. Sold to Avon Racing, Ltd., the 3-year-old will be prepared for a hurdling campaign. The second highest price on the day was Flashbulb (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) (lot 4), offered by Carriganog Racing. Placed in three starts to date, the 3-year-old filly from the family of stakes winner and G1 Sun Chariot S. second Dolores (GB) (Danehill) was snapped up by JOCKA EQUINE for £10,000.

Milton Harris, purchaser of Postmark, said, "We're delighted with the purchase of Postmark for £50,000. He was bought on spec to go juvenile hurdling and prior to the sale I spoke with a few jockeys that had ridden him before who agreed that they could see him going juvenile hurdling."

James Richardson, CEO of ThoroughBid, said, "Postmark topped our sale at £50,000 and we all are looking forward to following him with Milton Harris as he embarks on a juvenile hurdling campaign.

"We're now counting down to our next sale on Friday, Sept. 16, where we will have an exciting catalogue to mark the anniversary of our very first sale."

750,000GNS BOOK 1 YEARLING SET FOR HQ DEBUT

13.27 Newmarket, Nov, £8,000, 2yo, 7fT

Charlie Appleby incumbent HIGHBANK (IRE) (Kingman {Ire}), one of two Godolphin contenders for the trainer, was knocked down for 750,000gns at last year's Tattersalls October Book 1 sale and faces seven rivals in this first go. The April-foaled bay is a half-brother to Listed Prix Pelleas winner Bay Of Poets (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

HOW THEY FARED

17.40 Newmarket, Nov, £8,000, 2yo, 6fT

Juddmonte's Juliet Sierra (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), a half-sister to last year's GI Jenny Wiley S. victrix Juliet Foxtrot (GB) (Dansili {GB}), shaped with promise and ran on well in the closing stages to finish 1 1/2 lengths off the winner in second.

Climbing the ratings with handicap wins at Ascot and Goodwood this month last year, Achelois rounded off her 3-year-old campaign with a fourth in a competitive edition of the 10-furlong Listed Gillies Fillies' S. at Doncaster in November. Returning with a second in Epsom's prestigious City And Suburban H. Apr. 19, the bay was one of those handed a sound beating by My Astra (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) when a distant fifth behind the subsequent G1 Pretty Polly S. runner-up in Ayr's Listed Rothesay S. May 18. Returning from a break to run a half-length second here to the classy gelding Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) in another historic handicap, the John Smith's Cup, last time July 9, she went through this third attempt at black-type like an old hand. Cruising behind the leading trio throughout the early stages, she took command with David Probert virtually motionless approaching two out and only needed to be pushed out to secure the breakthrough from the penalised G3 Hoppings Fillies' S. scorer Poptronic.

The multiple listed-placed dam is out of the GIII Vinery Matchmaker S. winner Horatia (Ire) (Machiavellian), who also produced the G3 Pinnacle S. scorer, G2 Lancashire Oaks runner-up and GI E. P. CLOCHETTE (IRE) (f, 2, No Nay Never--Handbell {Ire}, by Acclamation {GB}), denied by a half-length when a fast-closing runner-up over this trip at Newbury in her June 30 debut last time, was swiftly into stride from the stands' side stall to seize an immediate lead. Holding sway throughout, the 8-13 favourite was last to come off the bridle when shaken up approaching the final furlong and was ridden out in the closing stages to hold the late bid of Aunt Violet (Noble Mission) by a neck. Clochette is the third of five foals and second scorer out of a winning full-sister to G3 Renaissance S. third Chessman (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). The April-foaled homebred bay's dam Handbell (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who is also a half-sister to Listed Hever Sprint S. victrix Hareem Queen (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), has also produced Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud third Galadriel (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), a yearling colt by Exceed And Excel (Aus) and a weanling filly by Dandy Man (Ire). Easing to the front on the bridle approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 8-13 favourite was untroubled thereafter and lengthened clear under minimal coaxing from the furlong pole to easily outclass Haughty (GB) (Adaay {Ire}) by 4 1/4 lengths. Candle Of Hope is the fourth of six foals and one of three scorers produced by a winning half-sister to G1 Queen Elizabeth S. hero Kingdom Of Fife (GB) (Kingmambo), G3 Autumn S. third Four Winds (GB) (Red Ransom) and the dam of stakes-winning G3 Prix Eclipse third Royal Spring (Fr) (Tamayuz {GB}). Shaken up with a quarter mile to go, the 7-1 chance quickened smartly to gain an edge approaching the furlong marker and was pushed out to defeat familiar rival Bailey Gate (Ire) (Shamardal) by 1 3/4 lengths, becoming the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Deep Impact {Jpn}). Buccabay, half-brother to a yearling colt by Waldgeist (GB), is the sixth of seven foals and third scorer produced by the stakes-placed Fifth Commandment (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), herself a daughter of G3 Prix des Reservoirs victrix Via Milano (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}). Margins: 2 3/4, HF, HF. Odds: 2.00, 5.00, 4.00.

Also Ran: Ever Present (Ire), Phoenix Cowboy, Dances With Stars (Ire). Scratched: Licence (GB), Master Of Reality (Ire).

Perotan, who had impressed when coming from far back to win on her debut over 12 furlongs on soft ground at Bellewstown at the start of the month, was made favourite to belie her inexperience following the withdrawals of the Frankel (GB) pair Licence (GB) and Master Of Reality (Ire). Always travelling easily in third, the bay was committed approaching the short straight and stayed on strongly once gaining the lead with just over a furlong to race.

Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong said, "Wayne gave her a lovely ride and she has got plenty of class. Aidan and the team always held her in high regard. They gave her all the time to fill her frame. We are reaping the rewards now. She has a very good pedigree and the sire is on fire. We'll step her up now and let her work through the grades."

Capping a strong July for Churchill, Perotan is bred in the purple as the sixth black-type performer out of the listed-placed dam. They include the G2 York S. and G3 Sandown Classic Trial winner Bangkok, the G1 Emirates Airline Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 winner Matterhorn and the G3 Curragh Cup winner Tactic. Also a half to the dam of the G1 Queen Anne S., G1 Lockinge S., G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois and G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp-winning sire Ribchester (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), her 2-year-old full-brother to the winner is the useful The Foxes (Ire) while she also has a 2022 filly by Churchill. The second dam is the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Mehthaaf (Nureyev), while the family of the legendary Fall Aspen also features Elnadim, Occupandiste (Ire) (Kaldoun {Fr}) and Intello (Ger). VIDEO.

3rd-Cork, €20,000, Mdn, 7-22, 2yo, 5fT, 1:00.55, gd.

EASY (IRE) (f, 2, Kodiac {GB}--Gharaaneej {Ire}, by Pivotal {GB}), sent off the 7-2 joint-second favourite, travelled notably strongly in mid-pack throughout the early stages. Moving to the leaders without being asked a serious question, the bay had control with 150 yards remaining and asserted to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Queen Of Ours (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). "She is very exciting, she has a couple of fancy entries and has justified our thoughts of her," trainer Andrew Slattery's brother Brian said. "She did that very well and is a big, good-looking and good-moving filly. She was bought from Shadwell, has a great pedigree and was well bought. Rachel Halley, who is married to vet David Halley, is a very lucky owner and that's her first winner." The winner is the first runner for the half-sister to the listed scorer and Group 3-placed Best Regards (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and to the dam of Kodiac's listed-placed Snazzy (Ire). A granddaughter of Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), which links her to Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) et al, her yearling colt is by Invincible Spirit (Ire) while she also has a filly foal by Dark Angel (Ire). Sales history: €48,000 Ylg '21 GOAUTY. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $12,275.

O-Mrs R J Halley; B-Shadwell Estate Company Limited (IRE); T-Andrew Slattery.

AMAZING SHOW (GB) (f, 2, Showcasing {GB}--Daring Day {GB}, by Acclamation {GB}), an eighth-length third going six furlongs at Naas last month, broke well and raced in a close-up second from flagfall in this return. Looming large approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 3-1 joint favourite led at the top of the straight and was driven clear in the final furlong before gearing down to defeat Gan Teorainn (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) by 1 3/4 lengths. "The first day she was very green and lacklustre, she's allowed that first time, and our horses come on an awful lot for the first run," explained assistant trainer Shane Lyons. "She was very smart today, smart out and got a lovely lead. As soon as Colin [Keane] asked her to go on, she looked at the big screen and looked at the crowds, so there is still a lot of improvement to come. All our fillies are all about black type and she is one of a couple of horses we still have in the Goffs Million. I presume that is where she might go. I know the second horse was catching her, but she was pulling up and the handbrake came on." Amazing Show is the third of four foals and second scorer produced by a sibling of G3 Albany S. victrix Habaayib (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}). Cont. p14

Also Ran: Integrant (Fr), Pamouschana (Fr), Breizh Eagle (Fr).

Last term's Listed Prix Montretout winner Reshabar, who also ran third in Chantilly's G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil Longines, lined up for this 15th start in black-type company coming back off a July 5 conditions second at Compiegne and secured a narrow victory to double his stakes tally here. Under restraint behind a slow tempo in third until shuffled back one spot at halfway, he was angled into the clear in readiness for the inevitable sprint approaching the two pole and kept on strongly under a drive inside the final furlong to prevail by a head from Runnymede.

Reshabar is the first of four foals and lone scorer produced by a winning half-sister to G3 Nell Gwyn S. victrix and G1 Fillies' Mile, G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Sun Chariot S. placegetter Nathra (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). He is a full-brother to the unraced 2-year old filly Ramree (GB) and a yearling filly. His dam is out of a a half-sister to G1 July Cup winning-sire Owington (GB) (Green Desert) and hails from a family which also features G1 Phoenix S. hero Dick Whittington (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}). Video, sponsored by TVG.

BELOUNI (FR) (c, 2, Fast Company {Ire}--Vienna View {GB}, by Dalakhani {Ire}), a June 26 debut runner-up at Lyon-Parilly last time, raced in a handy third through halfway here. Inching ahead passing the quarter-mile marker, the even-money favourite was ridden along with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and kept on well in the closing stages to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from So Gold (Fr) (Golden Horn {GB}). Belouni is the latest of six foals and fourth scorer produced by a daughter of Listed Prix Rose de Mai victrix and G3 Prix Penelope placegetter Bellona (Ire) (Bering {GB}). Descendants of Bellona, herself kin to G3 Prix de Flore-winning matriarch In Clover (GB) (Inchinor {GB}), include G1 Hong Kong Vase-winning Hong Kong champion Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}), G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris victrix Listen In (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and G2 Lennox S. scorer Es Que Love (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}). KIMI ORENDA (FR) (f, 2, Bated Breath {GB}--Sosquaw {Fr}, by Numerous), who hit the board tackling this distance in her June 16 debut at La Teste de Buch last time, was off the pace in mid division after an adequate break from the outside gate here. Nudged along to close in early straight, the 17-10 pick launched her bid passing the quarter-mile pole and was and was ridden out inside the final furlong to prevail by 1 1/4 lengths from Khahira (Fr) (Pedro The Great). Kimi Orenda is the seventh foal and winner out of an unraced half-sister to the dual stakes-placed Plissetskaia (Fr) (Caerleon) and Listed Prix Saraca third Karapucha (Ire) (Kaldoun {Fr}). Cont. p15
