RUNHAPPY TRAVERS TOPS SUPER SATURDAY AT THE SPA

Epicenter | Sarah Andrew

The GI Runhappy Travers S. is one of the summer's most highly anticipated events and for the past several years it has been the centerpiece of a Super Saturday card at Saratoga that serves as a Breeders' Cup preview. The Travers is one of five star-studded Grade Is on the 14-race card, which also includes the GII Ballston Spa S. for turf fillies. Click here to watch our weekend preview, presented by Three Chimneys.

Intriguing storylines abound in this year's eight-horse renewal of the summer centerpiece for sophomore colts, which is topped by GII Jim Dandy S. winner Epicenter (Not This Time). The GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. runner-up looks to provide Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen with his first Travers and add another bullet point to his hot young sire's resume.

"I love the race that he ran over this racetrack. I like him at a mile and a quarter," Asmussen said. "Nothing but respect for some extremely good 3-year-olds, but I think we have the right one." Cont. p3

RECORD-SETTING INTERNATIONAL SIRE MORE THAN READY DIES by Alan Carasso

More Than Ready (Southern Halo--Woodman's Girl, by Woodman), whose 216 worldwide stakes winners is the fourth highest total of all time, was euthanized the morning of Aug. 26 at WinStar Farm from the cumulative effects of old age. He was 25 years old.

Bred in Kentucky by Woodlynn Farm Inc., More Than Ready was purchased by Edward Rosen, agent for owner Jim Scatuorchio, for $187,000 at the 1998 Keeneland September sale and won his first five starts for trainer Todd Pletcher, including the GIII Tremont S. and GII Sanford S. before tasting defeat for the first time when stretched to a mile in the GI Champagne S. Dead-heat winner of the GII Hutcheson S. in his sophomore debut, More Than Ready was second in the GII Louisiana Derby and was beaten a head when runner-up in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. ahead of a meritorious fourth to Fusaichi Pegasus in the GI Kentucky Derby.

Focusing on one-turn races for the balance of the season, More Than Ready earned Grade I laurels in Saratoga's King's Bishop S. and was second to stablemate Trippi (End Sweep) in the GI Vosburgh S. He retired to Vinery Kentucky for the 2001 breeding season with seven wins from 17 starts and earnings of $1,026,229, and was one of several Vinery stallions that moved to WinStar upon the closure of that nursery. Cont. p6

Chad Brown's best previous Travers finish was third with Miles D (Curlin) in last year's renewal. He saddles three this year in Preakness winner Early Voting (Gun Runner); GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner and Jim Dandy runner-up Zandon (Upstart); and impressive Curlin S. winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Artorius (Arrogate).

"The only reason I'm in this profession is from coming to Saratoga with my family as a kid," Brown said. "It doesn't get any bigger than that, to win the jewel of their meet and the history surrounding the race. Coming to the Travers with my parents when I was knee-high is the only reason I'm here in the first place."

Artorius is the lightest-raced horse in the field, but his late sire had just two more starts under his belt, and none in stakes company, when he powered home to a record-setting 13 1/2-length victory in this event in 2016. The last Travers winner to sire a Travers winner was 2004 victor Birdstone, who is responsible for 2009 scorer Summer Bird.

"The horse brought himself here since we got him to his debut at Keeneland," Brown said. "Moving forward, he's always worked right on schedule, and he's done everything that we've asked him to do. He's been stretching out nicely and his first two-turn race was impressive, his best race. I have a lot of optimism that horse will be able to carry another eighth of a mile."

Brad Cox captured last year's Travers with champion Essential Quality (Tapit) and looks to take the elusive GI Haskell Invitational S./Travers double this year with Cyberknife (Gun Runner). His phenomenal young sire could only manage third behind Arrogate in the 2016 Travers, but proved 10 furlongs was well within his wheelhouse when taking the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Cont. p4

The feel-good story of the year could add another chapter Saturday as Kentucky Derby upsetter Rich Strike (Keen Ice) looks to rebound from a sixth-place finish in the GI Belmont S. Saturday at the Spa.

Jackie and Jack Headline Grade I Sprints

Jackie's Warrior | Sarah Andrew

The first Grade I of the day should set the mood quite nicely as champion Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music) looks to take his Saratoga record to six-for-six in the GI Forego S. The fleet-footed bay is four-for-four this year, including a sizzling last-out score in this venue's GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. July 30.

"He's immortal," Asmussen said. "He's the only racehorse ever to win a Grade I three years in a row at Saratoga. The only horse, ever, at Saratoga."

None of the other six competitors even come close to being able to run with the Eclipse winner on paper, but GIII Westchester S. romper Cody's Wish (Curlin) appears best of the rest.

Just 117 minutes later sophomore sprinters get their turn, but once again it looks like a potential one-horse affair with the presence of 'TDN Rising Star' Jack Christopher (Munnings). The speedy chestnut suffered his first loss when attempting two turns for the first time last out in the Haskell. Undefeated around one turn, including a 10-length demolition of the GI Woody Stephens S., the chestnut will be just about impossible to catch at his best.

"I thought the horse ran great in the Haskell. He ran a fast three-quarters in 1:09 and change and he fought on nicely," Brown said. "He just didn't have quite enough late, but I thought it was a really good race. The horse has never disappointed me in a race. I'm happy to cut him back on a track that I know he likes. I hope he gets a good, clean break."

He is joined by GII Amsterdam S. one-two Gunite (Gun Runner), winner of the GI Hopeful S. last term, and the chalk's stablemate Accretive (Practical Joke).

Short, But Sweet Personal Ensign

Clairiere | Sarah Andrew

Four of the five runners from Belmont's June 11 GI Ogden Phipps S., including regular rivals Malathaat (Curlin) and Clairiere (Curlin) face off yet again in a five-horse renewal of the GI Personal Ensign S.

Clairiere has come out on top in her last two meetings with champion and GI Kentucky Oaks winner Malathaat, edging her by a head in the Phipps and besting her in this venue's GII Shuvee S. July 24. Her dam Cavorting closed out her career with a decisive score in the 2016 Personal Ensign.

"She's racing royalty and she's in great form," Asmussen said. "She's capable. It's within her and she continues to get better. I expect another huge race against great mares in the Personal Ensign. Letruska and Malathaat are as good as race mares can be."

Champion Letruska (Super Saver) looks to defend her title in this event. While she was well beaten by her younger foes when folding her tent in the Shuvee, the bay did triumph over Clairiere earlier this season in the Apr. 23 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn.

GIII Molly Pitcher S. winner and Phipps third Search Results (Flatter) and Shuvee third Crazy Beautiful (Liam's Map) round out the quintet.

Rounding out Saturday's Grade I action at Saratoga is the Sword Dancer S., a "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf S. at Keeneland in November. When Aidan O'Brien ships one in, it's a horse worth paying attention to and he saddles Group 1 winner Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) here. Winning the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot June 18, he wheeled back just five days late to be fourth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S.

Broome | Sarah Andrew

Gufo (Declaration of War) adds blinkers for this title defense and Chad Brown saddles three--Adhamo (Ire) (Intello {Ger}), Rockemperor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and Tribhuvan (Fr) (Toronado {Ire})--in search of his fourth win in this event.

The West Coast also plays host to a Breeders' Cup qualifier in the GII Pat O'Brien S., which grants the winner a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile starting gate. Bill Mott makes the journey to Del Mar with an imposing contender in GI Carter H. winner Speaker's Corner (Street Sense), who hit the board behind the country's top two racehorses, Flightline (Tapit) and Life Is Good (Into Mischief), in his last two outings.

His biggest competition here comes from GI Bing Crosby S. and GII Triple Bend S. winner American Theorem (American Pharoah).

A Dual-Hemisphere Sensation...

A stallion blessed with tremendous fertility, More Than Ready is the sire of an eye-popping and record-setting 2118 winners to date (72.4% winners to starters), making him the world's most prolific sire of individual winners. With a victory in the GII Wonder Again S. in June 2022, Klaravich Stables' Consumer Spending provided the stallion with his 100th worldwide winner at the group/graded level and the victory occurred on the same Belmont program where Morethanreadyeddie--named in honor of the aforementioned Rosen--won his maiden at first asking over five furlongs. Of his black-type winners (only Galileo {Ire}, Danehill and Sadler's Wells have more), some 26 have struck at the top level in seven racing jurisdictions, including Hong Kong and South Africa. The sire of 17 winners and three stakes winners from his first American crop in 2004, More Than Ready was an instant hit in Australia, where he shuttled to Vinery Stud to serve mares Southern Hemisphere time. To date, he has sired 971 winners in the U.S. and Canada and 905 in Australia and New Zealand. His progeny earnings are in excess of $219 million.

With Australasia's emphasis on speed and precocity, his foals hit the ground running, with six black-type winners among his 17 first-crop winners overall, including G1 Champagne S. heroine Carry On Cutie (Aus). His early Australian crops also featured Benicio (Aus), winner of the 2006 G1 Victoria Derby; Sebring (Aus) and Phelan Ready (Aus), victorious in the prestigious G1 Golden Slipper S. in 2008 and 2009, respectively; G1 Blue Diamond S. hero Samaready (Aus); and G1 Western Australian Derby victress Dreamaway (Aus). More Than Ready has also proven especially potent with Danehill-line mares, resulting in the likes of Group 1 winners More Joyous (Aus), Prized Icon (Aus) and More Than Sacred (Aus) in addition to Benicio (Aus), Sebring (Aus), Perfectly Ready (Aus) and Dreamaway (Aus). More Than Ready's other Southern Hemisphere Group 1 winners include Gimmethegreenlight (Aus) and Entisaar (Aus) in South Africa; and More Than Sacred in New Zealand. His progeny were brilliant enough in the early parts of their careers to score in races like the G1 Golden Slipper and G1 Blue Diamond S., but were equally effective at trips of 2000 meters and beyond in Australian fixtures such as the Queen Elizabeth S., and he accounted for Derby winners in New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland and Western Australia. In total, More Than Ready has sired Group 1/Grade I winners in seven countries.

More Than Ready's versatile son Catholic Boy takes the 2018 Travers. The Claiborne resident's first foals are yearlings.
Sarah Andrew

The top-level winners were a bit slower to come at home, but Buster's Ready became More Than Ready's first American Grade I winner in the 2011 Mother Goose S. Verrazano, raced in partnership by Kevin Scatuorchio's Let's Go Stable, became his sire's first male GISW in the 2013 Wood Memorial S. and Daredevil--also raced by Let's Go in partnership--his first Grade I-winning juvenile in the 2014 Champagne S. More Than Ready's son Catholic Boy holds the rare distinction of winning Grade Is on two surfaces--the GI Belmont Derby on turf and the GI Travers S. on the dirt. Catholic Boy is one of four sons of More Than Ready at stud in Kentucky (Copper Bullet, Daredevil, Funtastic), while Verrazano has gone on to become a productive stallion in South America.

More Than Ready is the leading sire of Breeders' Cup winners to date with seven and accounted for multiple Breeders' Cup winners on two separate occasions. He was represented by the winners of the Breeders' Cup juvenile turf events in 2010 (Pluck, More Than Real), while champion Roy H won the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint in 2017 and 2018. 'TDN Rising Star' and future Eclipse Award winner Rushing Fall posted the first of her six career Grade Is in the 2017 GI Juvenile Fillies' Turf. Uni (GB)--another maternal granddaughter of Danehill--beat the boys in the 2019 GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

More Than Ready has been represented by 13 champions around the world. Among his 16 offspring that earned the 'Rising Star' distinction is the versatile Emmanuel, third in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and front-running winner of his turf debut in the GII Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont this past June. More Than Ready is the only sire to have an Eclipse Award champion each year from 2017 to 2020.

A Broodmare Sire of Note...

More Than Ready is the broodmare sire of fully 135 stakes winners, 61 group or graded winners and 15 at the top level, including GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Structor (Palace Malice), top Australian sprinter Bivouac (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), the rags-to-riches Group 1-winning juvenile filly Miracles of Life (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) and Hong Kong champion Wellington (Aus). Other U.S. graded winners from More Than Ready mares include Kauai Katie (Malibu Moon), Breeders' Cup winner Four Wheel Drive (American Pharoah) and 'TDN Rising Star' and leading turf distaffer Regal Glory (Animal Kingdom), whose dam Mary's Follies is also responsible for Japan's top dirt galloper Cafe Pharoah (American Pharoah) and Night Prowler (Giant's Causeway), a dual graded winner in the U.S. whose success extended to Barbados and that island nation's richest event, the Barbados Gold Cup.

Rosen Remembers 'Life-Changing' Horse...

Eddie Rosen has been involved with any number of successful horses over the course of his bloodstock career, but it's safe to say none left the impression the same way More Than Ready did.

"Most people are aware of all the amazing statistics he compiled as the greatest dual-hemisphere sire in history, his versatility in the ability to sire dirt, turf, long and sprint winners," he reflected. "Sometimes forgotten is what a great 2-year-old he was, reeling off the first five starts of his career in spectacular fashion. My family and I will always cherish the wonderful memories sharing his career with the Scatuorchio family. For me, he was life-changing. During Derby week this year, I was able to visit with him and give him one last peppermint. I will miss him dearly!"

WILL TRAVERS STARS STICK TO THE SCRIPT?

Arrogate romps in 2016 GI Travers S. | Horsephotos

by Chris McGrath

Our sport thrives on anticipation; our business, on outcomes. But actually it can take a while to unpick one from the other--especially when even a race as storied as the GI Runhappy Travers S. is not just an end in itself, but also a potential means to viability for the whole program of whoever is lucky enough to own the winner.

In principle, the bare couple of minutes dividing anticipation from outcome at Saratoga on Saturday will be history tangibly in the making. From the flux of hopes and interests vested in the maturing Thoroughbreds that enter the gate, a single name will suddenly be petrified into the pantheon.

In reality, however, it's very seldom that we can know quite what it is we might be looking at. In terms of volunteering a stallion of due stature, for instance, it has to be acknowledged that the Travers overall shares a rather patchy profile with the GI Kentucky Derby either side of the last horse to win both, Street Sense in 2007. Take out Bernardini, who won the Travers the year before, and it's only recently that a couple of young stallions have begun to shore things up again for either race.

Poignantly, it does appear as though the spectacular flowering of Arrogate in 2016 was a legitimate signpost--only for the road to plunge clean off a cliff. Those bidding for his final crop of yearlings at Keeneland in a few days' time will be contesting a legacy that has very quickly evolved, from an unsurprisingly slow start, via the charismatic endeavors of Secret Oath and now Artorius.

For the time being, at any rate, Artorius does feel like quite a good example of the way we tend to look into the future through the prism of the past. He brings a fairly irresistible narrative into the Travers, being even more lightly raced than was his sire when picking up the pieces against exhausted Triple Crown protagonists. And, being out of an elite Ghostzapper racemare, he does look tantalizingly eligible to salvage Arrogate's legacy, if only he can cope with this steep elevation in grade. Yet it's almost as though those high emotional stakes have somehow been loaded into odds that imply some ordained destiny.

Yet who would presume to predict the future, when even the past can take so long to separate itself into coherence? Nobody, of course, could have foreseen the tragic denouement of Arrogate's tale. But most of us were pretty sure of where we stood with Gun Runner, when he staggered into third in the Travers, fully 15 lengths behind Arrogate: a horse that had shown his hand, precocious enough to run third in the Derby but apparently tapering off by this point. Gun Runner persevered, however, and after observing Arrogate reach the bottom of the barrel--presumably an oil barrel--in Dubai, he ran up that sequence of five Grade Is by an aggregate 27 1/2 lengths.

And now here he is, poised to seal one of the most remarkable stud debuts of recent times with two runners--and don't forget that he would have a third, but for the local prohibition of Taiba's trainer--in a race that offers a pretty instructive snapshot of the shifting landscape among Kentucky stallions. Another young gun, Upstart, fields a son who has had this race in mind ever since that fleeting flirtation with an uncontested coronation on the home turn in the Derby; while Not This Time, consolidating his own outstanding start, matches Gun Runner with two: Epicenter, whose candidature for divisional honors makes a Grade I feel pretty imperative, and Ain't Life Grand.

Of the established elite, indeed, only Medaglia d'Oro can muster a candidate to emulate his 2002 success in outsider Gilded Age. To be fair, he also has a stake in proceedings through the dam of Ain't Life Grand, Cat Moves. This is the only mare owned by Peggy and Ray Shattuck, whose homebred GII Iowa Derby winner would hardly be as stupefying a result here as Rich Strike, himself of course by a Travers winner in Keen Ice, back at Churchill in May. While expectations for Rich Strike seem pretty much back to what they were on Derby day, Ain't Life Grand announced himself at Saratoga with a molten 45.88 workout last week, fastest of 79 clocked that morning.

Certainly the game could do with another fairytale. There's no need to dwell on the potential for awkwardness, in showcasing our best to the outside world, when three of eight runners are saddled by a trainer currently subject to such uncomfortable attention. Having been raised locally, this race is one he would prize perhaps beyond any other. But there you go: all of us have to accept that human capacity for anticipation is distinctly finite; and that fulfilment belongs to the complex, unpredictable realm of outcomes.

Setting all that aside, my own anticipations remain stubborn as ever. As Chad Brown would agree, he is only one of many whose dreams are centered on these three horses. And our community could seek no more flattering representation, to those beyond, than Brereton C. Jones and his family at Airdrie Stud, breeders of Zandon. And if this colt can mark the 50th anniversary of the farm's foundation by finally getting it all together here, even greater laurels would be on the line just down the road at Keeneland in the fall.

Yes, I know: all I'm doing is choosing a different script from the one that appears to favor Artorius so inexorably. I'm shoehorning Zandon's ostensible need for a particular tactical scenario, and a different kind of race from the cat-and-mouse of his latest start, into a storyline of far greater neatness and symmetry than tends to be indulged by this unsentimental, unpredictable world. But we're all sports fans first. We all enjoy our anticipation while it lasts. And we can leave dealing with all those business outcomes until such time as we know what they actually are.

DAMS OF NEST, MO DONEGAL ENTERED IN BOOK 1 AT KEENELAND NOVEMBER

Marion Ravenwood (A.P. Indy), dam of multiple Grade I-winning sophomore filly Nest (Curlin); and Callingmissbrown (Pulpit), dam of Mo Donegal (Uncle Mo)--who beat his stablemate Nest in this year's GI Belmont S.--have been entered in Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale to sell on opening day, Nov. 7, during Book 1. Marion Ravenwood is carrying a full-sibling to Nest, while Callingmissbrown is carrying a full to the Belmont winner, who also took the GII Remsen S. last year and GII Wood Memorial S. in April. Ashview Farm, agent, will consign both mares. Cont. p10

"These two mares represent active families competing at the highest level of racing," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. "Nest is responsible for some of the most dominating performances of the season, prevailing in [last] Saturday's GI Alabama at Saratoga by 4 1/4 lengths. The fact that Mo Donegal and Nest ran 1-2 in the Belmont speaks to their quality. We are proud that both Nest and Mo Donegal are graduates of Keeneland's September Yearling Sale and excited to offer their dams, who are carrying full siblings to these Grade I winners, at the November Sale."

Mo Donegal and Nest go 1-2 in GI Belmont Stakes
Coglianese

Marion Ravenwood also is the dam of 2021 GI Santa Anita H. winner Idol (Curlin), who set Churchill Downs' 1 3/16-mile track record in 2020; and Lost Ark (Violence), a 5 1/2-length maiden winner in his career debut in July at Belmont. Lost Ark is entered in Saturday's Sapling S. at Monmouth Park.

Callingmissbrown also is the dam of the impressive 2-year-old 'TDN Rising Star' filly Prank (Into Mischief), who earned a 91 Beyer Speed Figure in her career debut at Saratoga last month.

SPEIGHTSTOWN COLT SUPPLEMENTED TO KEENELAND SEPTEMBER

A Speightstown half-brother to Grade II winner My Majestic Rose (Majestic Warrior) from the family of impressive 2022 juvenile maiden winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Newgate (Into Mischief) has been supplemented to the 2022 Keeneland September Yearling Sale and is scheduled to sell Sept. 12 on opening day of Book 1 as hip 182. St George Sales, agent, consigns the colt, who is out of the winning Pleasant Tap mare Victory On Tap. He also is from the family of Canadian Grade III winner Victress (Include). Victory On Tap is a half-sister to Majestic Presence (Majestic Warrior), the graded stakes-placed dam of Newgate, who won his career debut by 3 1/2 lengths July 30 at Del Mar.

THE JOCKEY CLUB ELECTS SIX NEW MEMBERS

The Jockey Club has elected six new members:

- Len Coleman, who served alongside Dr. Nancy Cox as co-chair of the blue-ribbon nominating committee that was formed to select members of the board of directors and standing committees of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA)
- Dr. Nancy Cox, who in addition to her aforementioned role is the vice president for Land Grant Engagement and the dean of the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment at the University of Kentucky (UK)
- Marc Holliday, who was elected chairman of the board of directors of the New York Racing Association (NYRA) in December 2021 and has chaired the NYRA Equine Safety Committee since 2015
- Kosta Hronis, who races under Hronis Racing LLC, which won the Eclipse Award for Outstanding Owner in 2018 and joined the board of directors for the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in 2018
- W. Gray Lyster IV, co-general manager of his family's Ashview Farm in Versailles, Kentucky and is a member of the advisory board of directors for the Keeneland Association as well as sitting on the Breeders' Cup's board of directors
- David O'Farrell, manager for his family's Ocala Stud, a member of Breeders' Cup Limited and vice chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association. He is also a member of the American Graded Stakes Committee.

BRODY'S CAUSE MOVES FROM KY TO PA

Multiple Grade I winner Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway--Sweet Breanna, by Sahm) will stand the 2023 breeding season at Equistar Training and Breeding in Pennsylvania after formerly standing at Spendthrift in Kentucky. The third-crop sire has been acquired by Rodney Eckenrode and will stand for $3,500.

A winner of both the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and the GI Blue Grass S., Brody's Cause is the sire of three black-type winners, including GI La Brea S. winner Kalypso and GIII Iroquois

LUKAS TO TRAIN FOR MYRACEHORSE

Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas is the newest addition to the MyRacehorse cast of trainers, as he will condition a yearling colt by Arrogate out of well-bred stakes-placed runner and producer Smart Shopping (Smart Strike) for the micro-share syndication company. The colt was purchased for $300,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale as hip 79.

"Adding a world-class name such as D. Wayne Lukas to MyRacehorse is an honor," MyRacehorse CEO Michael Behrens said. "Teaming up to provide our owners with the opportunity to say their horse is trained by the 'Coach', and an Arrogate no less, is very exciting and what we strive to provide as we celebrate racehorse ownership with our growing owner base."

Lukas also trains Arrogate's 2022 GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Oath.

"D. Wayne Lukas is still the King at the age of 86 as evidenced by his success in this year's Kentucky Oaks with Secret Oath," said Roderick Wachman, MyRacehorse's Global Head of Bloodstock and Racing. "A supreme master of his trade and one who has mentored some of the best trainers in the business, Wayne's horsemanship skills to this day are to be revered."

SALES CREDIT UPDATE FOR CANADIAN PREMIER YEARLING SALE

Thoroughbred owners with Ontario-breds competing in the claiming ranks at Woodbine or Fort Erie can check the Thoroughbred Improvement Program website for a list of sales credits eligible to be used on a yearling at the Canadian Premier Yearling Sale, Wednesday, Aug. 31.

The sales credits currently on the website include those earned through Aug. 23 and the list will be updated Aug. 29 to include the results from Woodbine through Sunday, Aug. 28. The sales credits will be posted on each sales barn during yearling previews. On sale day, a final list will be available at the Ontario Racing booth. Ontario Racing staff will be on hand to answer questions about the Sales Credits and TIP in general.

Click to view the current Sales Credit List and for more information on how sales credits are accrued. For additional questions or details about transferring Sales Credits, please contact the Program Coordinator at tbprogram@ontarioracing.com.

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) is seeking a full-time Safety Steward to work at Aqueduct Racetrack and Belmont Park.

Reporting to NYRA's SVP, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, the Safety Steward consults and advises stakeholders on matters relating to racing integrity and in areas of safety and health of jockeys, horsemen, and the equine athlete. The Safety Steward assists the Stewards in daily racetrack operations, monitors the treatment offered by private veterinarians, supervises and educates security personnel and provides support with all racing related investigations.

Qualified candidates should have extensive industry experience, knowledge of racing office procedures, backstretch activities, and regulatory experience. Previous experience as a racing official, veterinarian, or steward, preferred but not required.

BLUE-BLOODED JUVENILES DEBUT ON TRAVERS CARD

1st-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 11:35 p.m. EDT

The star-studded GI Runhappy Travers S. day card kicks off with a pair of juveniles events, starting with this main track sprint. VERIFYING (Justify), a $775,000 KEESEP acquisition by the Coolmore contingent, is one of the most intriguing firsters in this event. The Brad Cox pupil is out of GSW Diva Delite (Repent), who summoned $1.2 million with this colt in utero at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. That makes Verifying a half-sibling to champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute), who brought $5-million at the 2020 FTKNOV sale. Steve Asmussen unveils Courtlandt Farms' King's Glory (Speightstown), a $575,000 KEESEP buy. Out of MSP Jax El (Unusual Heat), the chestnut is a half to GSW & GISP Dr. Dorr (Lookin At Lucky). Mike Rutherford's $400,000 KEESEP purchase Game Warden (Tapit) also debuts in this spot for Bill Mott. The bay is out of a daughter of SW Dance Quietly (A.P. Indy), who is a half to Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), GISW Funtastic (More Than Ready) and GSW Quiet Giant (Giant's Causeway), who is the dam of Horse of the Year and top young sire Gun Runner. TJCIS PPs

2nd-SAR, $105K, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 12:08 p.m. EDT

Turf-routing juveniles get their chance next with a trio of interesting first timers. Wertheimer and Frere homebred TRIPLE START (American Pharoah) looks to get off the mark for Todd Pletcher here. The chestnut is a half to GI Personal Ensign S. winner Persistently (Smoke Glacken) and a full to SP Award It. Her second dam is champion Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold), dam of MGISW Good Reward (Storm Cat) and GSW sire Pure Prize (Storm Cat). This is also the family of Grade I winners Instilled Regard (Arch), Queen Goddess (Empire Maker) and Dancing Forever (Rahy). Chad Brown unveils one from a family he's pretty familiar with in Take Me to Jimmy (Kitten's Joy). The $335,000 FTSAUG buy is a half to Brown-trained MGSWs Tammy The Torpedo (More Than Ready) and Seek And Destroy (Verrazano). His dam is a half to MGSW Criminologist (Maria's Mon). Highland Lord (Lord Nelson) makes his first trip to the post for Barclay Tagg. The Young homebred is a half to MSW & GISP Highland Sky (Sky Mesa) and SW & GSP Highland Glory (Sky Mesa), both trained by Tagg. He also hails from the family of GISW Bit of Whimsy (Distorted Humor). TJCIS PPs

Bossmakinbossmoves | Sarah Andrew

The longest shot on the board at 6-1 in this four-horse affair, Bossmakinbossmoves hadn't seen the winner's circle since breaking his maiden by nearly 10 lengths against state-bred company Dec. 31. More recently, he was sixth in a state-bred allowance at Belmont May 30 and showed turf was not to his liking when ninth in a nine-panel event on the Belmont lawn June 24. The gelding most recently rallied for second behind re-opposing Price Discipline (Overanalyze) in a sloppy NY-bred allowance over track and trip July 28.

Despite launching straight up at the start and spotting the field several lengths, Bossmakinbossmoves raced patiently off the pace along the inside before tipping out several paths up the backstretch run. Angled back in to save ground around the far turn, he came under a ride past the quarter pole and was urged widest of all for his stretch run. As the pair of dueling leaders kept towards the rail, Bossmakinbossmoves rallied down the center of the track, took over inside the final eighth and was well clear late to score by daylight.

"He's never had gate issues before," said winning trainer and co-owner Rich Schosberg. "He's a kind horse. He's settled down. Early on in his career we called him a 'banana head' but he's much better now. We took the blinkers off. We took a lot of the equipment off of him and he's settled down."

Another stakes winner for prolific broodmare sire Bernardini, Bossmakinbossmoves has a yearling half-sister by Kantharos and a weanling half-sister by Instagrad. His dam was bred back to Solomini for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Andiamo A Firenze returned to winning ways with a dominant score in the Funny Cide S. Friday. Tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star' off a good-looking debut win against fellow Empire-breds June 3 at Belmont, the half-brother to GISW Firenze Fire checked in third next out in this venue's GIII Sanford S. July 16. Cont. p3

Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism off a string of speedy works, Andiamo A Firenze hustled up to contest the pace on the outside of a three-way duel for control through a sharp first quarter in :21.29. Gaining control just before the half went up in :44.84. Three wide at the top of the lane, the dark bay splashed clear with ease to win for fun. Recent maiden winner Donegal Surges rallied for second.

"Today, six-and-a-half [furlongs], he broke good, and they went a little faster than me so I sat," said winning rider Irad Ortiz. "I told Kelly [Breen] before the race, 'if they go crazy, I would love to sit,' and he gave me the green light. I bided my time there. At the quarter-pole, he was already on the lead. I tried to hit the best part of the racetrack and he did the rest. He was ready. Kelly did a good job as always."

"He won somewhat impressively," said winning trainer Kelly Breen. "When I saw :21 1/5, I said, 'Oh my, they're really running'. In his next race, they won't go nearly that fast. So, hopefully we get a horse that will go a little bit of a longer distance and at the same time, if he listens to us and learns to rate, he's going to be a nice top-class horse."

Andiamo A Firenze could make his next start in Belmont's GI Champagne S., a race won by his older brother Firenze Fire back in 2017.

"That's on the table," Breen said. "For [owner] Ron [Lombardi] to win it twice out of the same mare [My Every Wish], it's priceless."

Firenze Fire was the first foal out of My Every Wish and her second foal was stakes-placed Firenze Freedom (Istan). Her next foal Just Leo (Poseidon's Warrior) has two wins, but no black-type and was followed by Andiamo A Firenze. Her recent produce includes a yearling colt named Fuji Fire (Poseidon's Warrior) and a 2022 filly named Blakely's Wish (Honest Mischief). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Fingal's Cave | Sarah Andrew

Fingal's Cave kept her perfect record in tact and registered her first black-type score in the Fleet Indian S. She captured her first two starts sprinting against fellow NY-breds at Belmont this spring by a combined 17 1/2 lengths. The $75,000 OBSAPR acquisition took to two turns with aplomb last out with a front-running score in a track-and-trip allowance July 29.

Heavily favored to repeat here, Fingal's Cave broke on top and was instantly engaged by Let Her Inspire U, who assumed a narrow advantage, clocking a :24.19 opening quarter. The chalk continued to track from second through a :48.15 half-mile and re-engaged the pacesetter turning for home. The pair battled to the wire with Fingal's Cave edging clear late to score. Let Her Inspire U was an admirable second, well clear of GSP Venti Valentine.

"Her class prevailed," said winning trainer David Donk. "A big effort and I'm just really happy with her. Obviously, Todd's horse [Let Her Inspire U] ran really well, too. Before the third race I thought we needed to press Johnny [Velazquez, aboard Let Her Inspire U]. After the third race, I told Jose [Ortiz] to ride her like the best horse. It took a while to get her going. She's a nice horse. She dug down deep and was good today. I'll be curious on the speed figures of the race. We did run over a sealed track, but I told Jose that 'good horses are supposed to run over anything, so I don't want to use that at all but listen she won."

Fingal's Cave is a third-generation Broman-bred out of a daughter of GSW Seeking the Ante (Seeking the Gold). Her third dam is MGISW Antespend (Spend a Buck) and her family also includes GISW Friends Lake (A.P. Indy) and GSW sophomore Un Ojo (Laoban). Fingal's Cave is the first foal out of Barbie On a Budget, who failed to produce in 2020 and 2021, but had an Honest Mischief colt this year and was bred back to Volatile. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Just 16 days after her five length gate-to-wire maiden-breaking romp, which resulted in an impressive 81 Beyer Speed Figure, Maple Leaf Mel returned to kick off Saratoga's NY-Bred Showcase Day over a sloppy/sealed main track. Hammered into 3-5 favoritism for the second race in a row, the gray took her time from the gate, racing wide early on while dueling for the lead outside of Song Parody (Practical Joke). As that rival began to fade, Maple Leaf Mel powered on, setting the tempo away from the water-covered rail as Lady Mine came along to challenge from her outside around the turn. Three wide in upper stretch, she put away Lady Mine and dashed clear, building up a sizeable gap before gearing down through the final sixteenth on her way to the victory.

"She showed a lot of talent again here," said winning jockey Joel Rosario. "Second time out she really looked like she proved what she ran the first race."

Maple Leaf Mel's only younger sibling is a yearling half-brother by Brody's Cause. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Make Mischief | Sarah Andrew

Since her debut back in 2020, Make Mischief has been competing at the highest level, scoring a graded-stakes placing in each of her three racing seasons including a third behind Search Results (Flatter) in the GI Acorn S. last June. This season, she romped by 10 1/4 lengths against optional claimer company in her first start of the year at Aqueduct Apr. 14; faded to fifth behind Search Results in the GII Ruffian S. at Belmont May 8; and rebounded with a win against state-breds in the Critical Eye H. May 30. Third last time out behind champion Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) in the GII Princess Rooney S. July 2 at Gulfstream, Make Mischief was heavily favored in this rained-off affair scratched down to five.

Make Mischief set the tempo from just off the rail into the clubhouse turn before easing back behind Wasp up the backstretch. Tipped outside of that rival, she began to make up ground again into the far bend, taking over without being asked as the field passed the quarter pole. Clear by a wide margin down the lane, Make Mischief continued to draw off under a hand ride, winning by 8 1/2 lengths in the end.

"I actually wanted to run her on the grass," said winning trainer Mark Casse. "Gary [Barber] this morning goes, 'I'm a little disappointed if we don't get to run on the grass.' I said, 'yeah, right, OK.' I do want to try her on the grass, I thought she worked really well on the grass. The mare is 4-for-4 to produce. We'll wait for another day. As soon as they said it was off-the-turf my confidence rose. I wasn't sure how many had scratched but I knew there would be a few."

Make Mischief has an un-raced 2-year-old half-sister, Speightful Lily (Union Rags), and a weanling half-brother, Speightful Storm (Goldencents). Her dam was bred back to Mendelssohn for 2023. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Somelikeithotbrown | Sarah Andrew

A three-time graded winner, including this venue's GII Bernard Baruch S., Somelikeithotbrown scored his first victory of 2022 in the off-the-turf West Point S. Shedding blinkers in this event scratched down to just three, the bay tracked from second early off Jerry the Nipper, but took control as the half went in :48.04. He kicked clear in the lane for a facile score over Bankit.

"It [the race coming off the turf] didn't bother me," said winning trainer Mike Maker. "I knew it would be a short field. A mile and an eighth was probably a bit too far for him. We figured we'd give it a shot. Jose [Ortiz] has ridden him enough times. It was a three-horse field and he had ridden him plenty of times before. Todd's [Pletcher] horse [Jerry the Nipper] looked like the speed and it played out how it looked like on paper."

Closing 2021 with a win in Belmont's state-bred Mohawk S. Nov. 6, Somelikeithotbrown faded to fifth in his seasonal bow in the NY-bred Kingston S. May 30. Third in the open Jonathan B. Schuster Memorial S. at Horseshow Indianapolis July 9, he was sixth last out in the restricted Lure S. at this venue Aug. 6.

The winner's dam produced a Mendelssohn filly this year and was bred back to Nyquist. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Jan. 22. Second in an Empire-bred optional claimer Mar. 18 and fourth in her last start at the Spa July 22, Leeloo, away at 5-1 in this off-the-turf spot, was ridden hard from the gate to pressure Patria (Bustin Stones) to her inside for the front. With that rival put away into the far turn, Leeloo darted clear while racing wide into the stretch and was put to a run under a right-handed crop with a furlong to race. Much the best in the end, she won while eased up by 5 1/4 lengths over a fast-closing Aunt Virginia (Majestic City) who was storming up the rail after losing her footing at the start. KANT HURRY LOVE (f, 3, Kantharos--She's All Love, by Langfuhr), off the board only once in her career, put up a string of six consecutive on-the-board finishes last year and finally broke through to win in her first start of 2022. Using Lasix for the first time, the 3-1 second choice showed good speed from the gate to set the tempo, showing the way with no pressure while racing several paths off the rail. Still well in control turning for home, Kant Hurry Love race greenly through the lane, drifting out away from the crop twice in the final furlong and just holding off the closing favorite Photon (Bayern) to score by three-quarters of a length. She's All Love, herself a half-sister to MGSP Bonus Points (Majestic Warrior), has a yearling colt by Keen Ice in the pipeline and was bred to Unified for the 2023 season. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg '20 FTKSEL. Lifetime Record: 7-1-3-2, $115,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

4th-Saratoga, $88,000, (S), Msw, 8-26, 2yo, 7f, 1:26.50, sy, 3/4 length.

BOSS JIM (c, 2, Tapizar--Hold Me Down, by Hold Me Back), dispatched at 3-1 off a sixth-place debut effort where he sprinted 5 1/2 furlongs over the turf at Saratoga just 16 days ago, endured mild contact at the break, but was quickly into stride to show the way between horses. Still with a narrow lead into the far turn, Boss Jim shook clear at the top of the stretch and pulled away in the final furlong with enough of a gap built up to hold off the charging favorite Chulligan (Justify)--an $825,000 FTSAUG purchase and son of 2017 GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint winner Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro)--by three-quarters of a length. Boss Jim has a weanling half-sister by Thousand Words and his dam was bred to Modernist for 2023. Sales history: $77,000 Ylg '21 SARAUG. 3rd-Del Mar, $82,500, Msw, 8-26, 2yo, 1m, 1:37.53, ft, 8 3/4 lengths.

CARMEL ROAD (c, 2, Quality Road--Inspired {MSW, $439,785}, by Unbridled's Song) wound up third as the heavy favorite after traffic troubles early on in his five-furlong sprint unveiling at Del Mar Aug. 6. Back as the 6-5 chalk on the stretch out, Carmel Road fought off a pair of rivals into the clubhouse turn for the lead and was clear through the backstretch run. With two lengths in hand at the quarter pole, the bay continued to draw off down the stretch under an easy hand ride to win by 8 3/4 lengths. Riverside (Bernardini) closed from off the pace to fill out the exacta. Inspired, herself a full-sister to GSP Silver City and a half-sister to GSP Elope (Gone West), produced a yearling colt, Ambition (Street Sense), and a weanling colt, Innovator (Authentic). She was bred back to Street Sense for a 2023 foal. Sales history: $650,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $57,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

AH JEEZ (c, 2, Mendelssohn--Poetic, by Violence), a $55,000 OBSAPR purchase (:10.2), debuted fourth after a troubled trip over this same track and distance Aug. 5 and returned Friday with the addition of blinkers at odds of 3-1. Third outside of a dueling pair early, he bid three wide around the far turn and drew off under a right-handed ride to cruise home by

3 1/4 lengths. Even-money favorite Storming Machine (Cloud Computing) was second ahead of a trio of closing rivals. His freshman sire's (by Scat Daddy) 10th winner, Ah Jeez has a yearling half-brother by Kantharos and a weanling half-brother by Game Winner. Poetic was bred back to Knicks Go for 2023. JOKES ON BLUE (f, 2, Practical Joke--Bluegrass Miss, by Bluegrass Cat), one of the longer prices on the board at 19-1, raced off the pace in fourth, tucked along the inside up the backstretch. As rivals to her outside began to fade, Jokes On Blue tipped out wide into the lane and reeled in lone leader Two Minute Drill (Union Rags), just prevailing in the final jumps to score by a nose. Jokes On Blue has a yearling half-brother by Munnings, a weanling half-sister by Complexity, and her dam was bred back to Practical Joke for a full-sibling in 2023. BELLA RUNNER (f, 3, Gun Runner--Love and Pride {MGISW, $985,760}, by A.P. Indy) opened her account with a pair of fourths on the Turfway synthetic Dec. 2 and Jan. 1, respectively. A well-beaten sixth when switched to the main track at Oaklawn Mar. 5, she was given a 6-1 chance to improve here. Breaking a bit outwardly, the bay contested the early pace while racing two wide. Left with just one foe to contend with turning for home, Bella Runner gained control in mid-stretch and held Miss Everything (Tiznow) at bay by a head. The winner is a half to to Princesinha Julia (Pioneerof the Nile), SW, $111,053. Three Chimneys purchased MGISW Love and Pride for $4.9 million in foal to Distorted Humor at the 2013 FTKNOV sale. Her recent produce includes an unraced juvenile colt named First Defender (Quality Road) and a 2022 filly named Volatile. Sales history: $750,000 Wlg '19 FTKNOV. LOOKING FOR HOPE (f, 2, Practical Joke--Bella Collina, by Pleasantly Perfect), given a narrow 5-2 edge on debut, kept pace inside of Collectively (Collected) as the top pair shifted down towards the fence from their outside gates. They stayed one-two until Looking for Hope, a $70,000 OBSAPR RNA, began to wear down her rival around the turn and, once clear at the top of the lane, drew off handily and hit the line 7 3/4 lengths ahead. Collectively held on for second by a neck over Stuck in Malibu (Sky Kingdom). Looking for Hope has a yearling half-sister by Lemon Drop Kid and a weanling half-brother by Khozan. # 'IT'S ABSOLUTELY LIKE A FILM': PAUL VANDEBERG ON BREEDING TORQUATOR TASSO

Paul Vandeberg, breeder of Arc hero Torquator Tasso | Marc Ruehl

By Emma Berry

"I can't say I'm not fine because I'm such a lucky man in the last two years with my hobby of breeding horses. It's not a normal position to be in."

So says Paul Vandeberg, breeder not only of the reigning Arc hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) but also of Tunnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ire}), who as a 2-year-old last season won the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen. The colts are half-brothers and, remarkably, their dam Tijuana (Ger) (Toylsome {GB}) is the only mare owned by the Dutch breeder.

It is no case of beginner's luck for Vandeberg, however. For many years before thoroughbred breeding cast its spell over him he had been breeding Dutch warmbloods. And once he turned his hand to racehorses, it wasn't just the breeding that enthralled Vandeberg as he also trained for a time at Duindigt racecourse in The Hague, with a third-place finisher in the Dutch Derby the closest he came to major-race success.

He crept one position closer to Classic glory when Torquator Tasso finished second to In Swoop (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in the German Derby of 2020, and it wasn't long before the colt Vandeberg had sold for €24,000 at the BBAG Yearling Sale was a Group 1 winner in his own right.

THE MAJOR TALKING POINTS FROM THE PREMIER YEARLING SALE By Brian Sheerin

The first major yearling sale of the autumn in Britain or Ireland, the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale provided entertainment from the beginning to the end, but most importantly, boasted impressive figures.

Brian Sheerin was in attendance and discusses the major talking points from the sale.

Figures On The Up

The team at Goffs UK could hardly have wished for a better start to the Premier Yearling Sale. The day one figures were off the charts. Of the 218 lots offered on Tuesday, 199 were sold, representing a clearance rate of 91%.

The aggregate was up 28% to £8,954,500, the average rose 15% to £44,997 and the median climbed 27% to £38,000.

Torquator Tasso won the Grosser Preis von Berlin later that season, but it is of course what he achieved the following year that has brought him to the wider attention of the racing public.

Having beaten the 2021 German Derby winner Sisfahan (Fr) (Isfahan {Ger}) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, Torquator Tasso left his home nation for the first time for his famous 80-1 victory in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. His breeder, not daring to believe he could win, did not go with him.

"I had a good feeling about him, and I thought maybe he could have finished fifth," Vandeberg admits. "But winning? That was a surprise."

Based in The Netherlands at Hilleshagen, just kilometres from the German border, Vandeberg was active for decades in the Dutch thoroughbred breeding association but gradually based his breeding interests at Bergheim, not far from Cologne, as his home country's pool of broodmares dwindled.

Torquator Tasso and Rene Piechulek winning the Arc | ScoopDyga

"In the beginning, for the first 25 years, I bred only Dutch horses, and then when I became involved with Dutch racing, at that time we had a lot of good owners," he says. "Some of them went to England to have their horses trained. Then after 20, 25 years, the sport in Holland started going backwards. When I sat on the breeders' committee we had about 250 broodmares. Now at the moment in Holland, there are maybe five, six [thoroughbred] broodmares."

Vandeberg continues, "Then I bought a filly in Germany. I went to stallions in Germany, and for a long time now I have kept mares at a stud in Germany."

That stud is Gestuet Erftmuehle, just two kilometres down the road from the legendary Gestuet Schlenderhan, which plays a significant role in the Torquator Tasso story as the breeder of his dam.

Vandeberg cont.

"When I lost my last mare, I asked around in Germany about buying a filly," Vandeberg recalls. "Then sometimes at the track I saw Gebhard Apelt, the manager of Schlenderhan, and I asked him.

"I got Tijuana with one condition: that Schlenderhan could have the first filly out of the mare. So when Tellez was born, I gave her back, and they are her breeders on paper."

Tellez (Ger) is a full-sister to Tunnes, both of them being by the Erftmuehle resident and Schlenderhan-bred Group 1 winner Guiliani, whose pedigree combines two of Schlenderhan's most noted stallions in his sire Tertullian--who is closely related to Urban Sea--and his damsire Monsun (Ger).

Tijuana managed just one placed finish from an underwhelming racing career but there was plenty to encourage a small breeder to take her on. For starters she is a half-sister to the Group 2-winning filly Tusked Wings (Ger), who is by Torquator Tasso's German Derby-winning sire Adlerflug. Her granddam is Turbaine, the Trempolino half-sister to Urban Sea who features as the dam of Tertullian. In sending Tijuana thrice to Guiliani and four times to the late Adlerflug for her first seven matings, Vandeberg was thus inbreeding to Germany's most influential family.

Using a suffix local to him for those horses he has named, Vandeberg currently has Torquator Tasso's 2-year-old sister Tiara Hilleshage (Ger) in training with Marcel Weiss alongside her illustrious elder brother. He also wants to keep hold of the yearling full-brother named Tiamo Hilleshage (Ger). Tellez, now four, races for Schlenderhan, while the mare's first foal, Tibo Hilleshage (Ger), also by Guiliani, broke his leg while in training and never raced.

CLOTH OF STARS

The Arc colt bred on the same cross as Baaeed. Winning juveniles from his first crop and first yearling sold in 2022 makes €120,000. More selling now.

The 11-year-old mare, who has a Guiliani foal at foot, was covered this season by Gestuet Fahrhof's newcomer Alson (Ger), a son of Areion (Ger) who was also bred by Schlenderhan. This year's BBAG Yearling Sale takes place on Friday and Vandeberg admits to an internal tussle over whether or not to capitalise on the success of the Arc winner in offering his brother for sale.

He says, "I could have taken him to Arqana in Deauville. I could bring him to Baden-Baden. I spoke with a lot of people, and if I used my brains I would have decided sell him, but if I use my heart, I say, 'I don't want to sell him'."

While offers will doubtless continue to be made for members of Tijuana's family, Vandeberg can in the meantime continue to enjoy the exploits of her offspring, especially, imminently, the return of the 'big two'.

The 'Grosse Woche', Baden-Baden's most prestigious week of racing, gets underway this weekend. Tunnes, the one-time German Derby favourite, is set to make his long-awaited comeback after a setback ruled him out of the first half of his Classic season. The Peter Schiergen-trained colt is set to run in the BBAG sales race at the track on Wednesday, while Torquator Tasso, with Frankie Dettori booked to ride for the first time, will attempt to defend his crown in next Sunday's Grosser Preis von Baden.

"Torquator Tasso has many fans at the moment because he was Horse of the Year in Germany in 2020 and '21. I hope he has a chance for the third year to be Horse of the Year," says the justifiably proud breeder.

"It is fantastic what has happened with this horse and what has happened for me in that time because we have been breeding horses for more than 50 years, and then suddenly we have not just a Group 1 winner but one of the best horses of the world. It's absolutely like a film."

There were noticeably fewer people around the sales complex at Doncaster on day two. While the figures failed to match what took place on Tuesday, there were some impressive numbers recorded on Wednesday, with an 87% clearance rate on a day where the aggregate climbed 11% to £7,003,000.

The average on Wednesday went up 0.5% while the median fell by 4% to £32,000. That came despite the fact that there was some late drama in the ring with three of the last seven lots making six figures.

All told, the sale went well. Of the 406 yearlings catalogued, 363 were sold, translating to a clearance rate of 89%. The aggregate was up 20% to £15,987,500 while the average was up 8% and the median rose by 9%.

Big Results From Small Numbers For Fitzgerald

Alice Fitzgerald knows what she is doing. It was at the Premier Yearling Sale in 2021 when Fitzgerald sold her homebred Basil Martini (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) out of 10,000gns purchase Under Offer (Bated Breath (GB) to MV Magnier for £160,000.

Fast forward 12 months and Fitzgerald, who never brings more than one or two to the sales, bagged another big pay-day by selling her Kodiac (GB) colt out of Night Queen (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) to Manor House Farm for £160,000.

What's even more impressive about Fitzgerald? This isn't even her day job.

John and Jess Dance Stock Up

Given John and Jess Dance bought six-time Group 1 winner Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) at this sale in 2016, it's only natural that the owners would have an affinity towards Doncaster, which was evident in the results.

Under Manor House Stables, they signed for nine different yearlings at a total of £837,000, which was only bettered by the £1,162,000 that Peter and Ross Doyle spent across the two days on a whopping 17 different horses.

However, of the top 10 spenders at the Premier Yearling Sale, nobody boasted a better average than John and Jess Dance. The couple spent an average of £93,000 on their nine lots, illustrating that they are seeking quality over quantity more so than ever before.

High Praise From Doyle

Ross Doyle is renowned for being one of the best judges in the game. Along with his father Peter, he has sourced Mehmas, Barney Roy, Limato, Japan, Fairyland, Magna Grecia, Olympic Glory and much more. Cont. p6

Therefore, when he praised Goffs for attracting the best bunch of yearlings that he has seen for some time, it reflected well on the quality of the sale.

Doyle signed for two of the top lots in the sale, a colt by New Bay (GB) [211] for £200,000 on day one, and a lovely Dark Angel (Ire) colt [251] the following day for the same figure.

Grangemore signed for the Dark Angel colt at last year's Tattersalls December Foal Sales for 40,000gns and the sale to the Doyles, who didn't reveal where the horse would be trained, secured a tidy pinhooking profit. The New Bay colt will be trained by Richard Hannon.

Two Top-Notch Pinhooks

There were a number of good pinhooks over the course of the sale but two stood out. The first was that of lot 21, a gorgeous Ten Sovereigns (Ire) filly that Jamie Railton bought for €26,000 off Ballybin Stud at the November Foal Sales at Goffs last year before selling to Richard Hughes for a cool £110,000 on Tuesday.

The second was an even greater piece of inspiration as Violet Hesketh and Mimi Wadham, who run WH Bloodstock, and transformed lot 171 from a €38,000 purchase back in February to a £120,000 yearling just six months later.

A colt by Kuroshio (Aus), lot 171 was tipped to do well after a number of shrewd judges got him vetted and, in the end, he was knocked down to Mark McStay and it's understood the colt will be sent to Fozzy Stack to be trained.

Kuroshio Holding His Own

Kuroshio has been around the world and back but this year represented the classy Australian's first crop of runners since he took up residency at Starfield Stud in 2020. After a slow start to the season, Dontspoilasale (Ire) has come along and won for the stallion in Ireland, and looks potentially progressive, while Jessica Harrington's Panic Alarm (Ire) should be winning races for the stallion when he gets softer ground conditions.

All told, anyone who has backed Kuroshio will be a lot happier now than ever before as last week's figures were respectable. Away from the headline-maker, lot 171, the Baroda Stud-drafted filly [lot 258] also secured a solid sale for the stallion, and changed hands to join John and Jess Dance for £48,000. All four yearlings by the stallion were sold.

Force Behind Highclere Stallion

Some will argue that Land Force (Ire) is riding the crest of a No Nay Never wave, and that may have been an entirely plausible summation of the situation had his yearlings not been so impressive in the flesh.

Top judges Clive Cox-who went to £85,000 to secure lot 71-and Oliver St Lawrence bought progeny by the stallion. Some of the best in the breeze-up business, Katie Walsh, Longways Stables and Con Marnane, also rowed in behind Land Force this week.

Jake Warren even tipped the Highclere-based stallion for first-season sire honours and, while there is a lot of water to pass under that particular bridge, the early signs are promising for anyone with a Land Force in their stable.

Of the 17 offered this week, 14 were sold at an aggregate of £510,000, which averaged out at £36,429.

Noteworthy Buyers

A number of top agents, trainers and breeze-up buyers relayed how footfall had increased at the sale and, as a result, it was going to be even harder to smoke out a bargain.

Well, buyers also had to contend with major competition from afar as Wesley Ward also got in on the action, signing for lot 200, a Lynn Lodge-consigned £82,000 daughter of US Navy Flag.

Ward is clearly a fan of the stallion and why wouldn't he be? The Patrick Grogan-bred Love Reigns (Ire), whose only defeat in three starts for the American-based trainer, came when she finished fourth in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot. Time will tell if Ward has bagged himself another Royal Ascot filly.

It should be said that, for all that Eddie O'Leary has a host of international clients, he still made time for his neighbour at Goffs. At one point in the afternoon on Wednesday, Nick Nugent on the rostrum announced, 'from one corner of Mullingar to the other,' when Roger O'Callaghan of Tall-Ho purchased a Mehmas colt [lot 349] for £45,000 off his fellow Westmeath native.

O'Leary's Lynn Lodge Stud ended proceedings with 11 yearlings sold for £677,000 at an average of £61,545, making the operation the fifth most successful across the two days.

Tally-Ho Dominate

It was an excellent sale for Tally-Ho. Not only was the stud responsible for the top lot, the Blandford Bloodstock-bought Night Of Thunder (Ire) filly [lot 278] out of five-time winner and listed-placed Thiswaycadeaux (Thewayyouare), but they also ended proceedings as the leading consignors with 24 yearlings making £1,544,000 in total.

That was needed, according to Roger O'Callaghan, who revealed that there were 60 more yearlings standing in the field at home in Westmeath, with 40 needing to be broken in and prepared for the breeze-ups.

Away from the excellent results posted by their own stock, Tally-Ho will have been delighted by how all the progeny of their resident stallions were received with yearlings by Kodiac, Cotai Glory, Kessaar, Galileo Gold, Mehmas and young sire Inns Of Court doing well.

Night Of Thunder Stars

Night of Thunder | Darley

But the star of the show, without question, was Darley's Night Of Thunder. Along with Tally-Ho's sales-topping filly, the Mountarmstrong Stud-drafted Night Of Thunder [170] colt out of Pious Alexander, which ended day one on top at £230,000, ensured it was a memorable sale for the sire.

Mark McStay landed the day one leader, after which, the leading agent labelled Night Of Thunder, the sire of last week's spellbinding G1 Nunthorpe S. winner Highfield Princess (Fr), as a solid source of top-class talent.

Classy Siblings On Show

Some pedigrees leapt off the page. The Galileo Gold half-brother [280] to Nunthorpe runner-up The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) made £170,000 to join Richard Spencer, the Ulysses (Ire) half-brother [213] to Coventry S. winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) was knocked down to Dance Thoroughbreds for £150,000 and Whitsbury Manor's Havana Grey (GB) half-sister to Sandy Lane S. scorer El Caballo (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}) was all the rage at £230,000 with Jack Warren of Highclere doing the buying.

Havana Grey Shines

Of the 22 horses offered by Havana Grey, all bar one were sold for a total of £1,089,000, averaging at £51,857. Whitsbury's Ed Harper revealed that his performance is exceeding the wildest dreams but, with nine individual black-type horses in his first crop, perhaps buyers were cottoning on to the fact that they have been witnessing something special.

Soldier's Answers The Call

This game is all about looking towards the future and the early signs are that Joe Foley has another real one at Ballyhane Stud in Soldier's Call (GB).

The man knows how to launch a stallion and must have taken great credit about how Soldier's Call cleared £563,000 from 13 yearlings sold at an average of £43,308.

What's more, Foley was prepared to put his money where his mouth is, and bought the top lot [212] by the sire for £105,000 off Tinnakill House Stud for Steve Parkin.

AGARTHA BACK TO WINNING WAYS IN THE FAIRY BRIDGE by Tom Frary

Bouncing back from a disappointing effort when last in the July 9 GI Belmont Oaks Invitational, Scott Heider's G2 Debutante S. and G3 Silver Flash S. winner Agartha (Ire) (Caravaggio) was at her dynamic best as she made all under Declan McDonogh to capture Friday's G3 Coolmore Stud No Nay Never Fairy Bridge S. at Tipperary.

Dropping back from a mile and a quarter to 7 1/2 furlongs here, the Joseph O'Brien-trained 6-4 favourite had only stablemate Night Of Romance (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) to worry about in the straight but stayed on in typically tenacious fashion to score by a length.

"They thought the style of training in America didn't suit her and when she came home Pat McCabe, who rides her out, and I thought she was back working really well and we were proved right," McDonagh said. "She was lugging out off the fence and was pulling up a bit in the straight, but it is a good confidence-booster. She loves Leopardstown and maybe she'll go to the Matron or something like that now."

From the O'Briens' Whisperview operation, she is the first foal out of the strong-staying Listed Stanerra S. winner and G3 Irish St Leger Trial third Arya Tara (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) from the Aga Khan family of the G1 Prix Ganay hero Astarabad (Alleged), the high-class Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) and the six-times group 1-winning The Autumn Sun (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}). ## 'BRIGHT' START ON SATURDAY by Tom Frary

Bright Diamond | Racingfotos

It's that time of year where initial promise either fizzles out or becomes the preface to something greater and early on Saturday we get to find out what 'TDN Rising Star' Bright Diamond (Ire) (El Kabeir) is made of in Goodwood's G3 William Hill Prestige Fillies' S. This is not generally one of the big 1000 Guineas pointers, but Billesdon Brook (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), Nannina (GB) (Medicean {GB}) and Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) won it this century en route to their respective tilts at the stars and there was a high-calibre feel to the debut performance of the latest Karl Burke juvenile special.

Off the mark by nine lengths over this seven-furlong trip at Newmarket Aug. 6, Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum's bay recorded a rapid penultimate furlong split on that occasion and provided the slightly easier ground doesn't compromise her she could start the day with a bang for her on-fire stable.

Karl Burke has won notable domestic black-type races in 2022 with Pillow Talk (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), Dramatised (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) and Swingalong (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) from his excellent group of 2-year-old fillies and Bright Diamond's owner's assistant racing manager Philip Robinson is hoping she can continue the momentum.

"We're on a mission to find out how good she is at Goodwood," he said of the relative of the triple Group 3 winner Realtra (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) whose rivals include Amo Racing's fellow 'Rising Star' and July 8 G3 Duchess of Cambridge S. third Queen Olly (Ire) (No Nay Never). "Obviously she was very impressive at Newmarket. We don't really know how good those were behind her, but you can't do any more than win like she did. I went up to see her and she is very very laid-back and relaxed at home, she doesn't sparkle anyway, she is just so laid-back. Everyone is guessing and I don't think Karl really has a clue."

Never Ending Success Story

Five minutes after the Prestige, some choice Irish juvenile fillies are on display in The Curragh's G3 Newtownanner Stud Irish EBF S. with yet another of the No Nay Never crew carrying great expectations in Marc Detampel and Michael Buckley's Caroline Street.

Already successful over this mile trip at Leopardstown July 14, the Joseph O'Brien trainee had Ballydoyle's Library (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) well-beaten in third and that peer boosted the form by winning impressively at Tipperary on Friday evening. Also in the mix for this race known as the Flame of Tara which was won last year by the eventual Irish Oaks heroine Magical Lagoon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is the Rosegreen representative Maybe Just Maybe (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), who also beat Library at Leopardstown Aug. 11 and who is back just a week after finishing fourth to Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the G2 Debutante S. here.

In the proceeding G3 Heider Family Stables Round Tower S., another Aidan O'Brien-trained filly backs up quickly in Sunday's Naas maiden winner Dower House (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), with the full-sister to Churchill (Ire) and Clemmie (Ire) up against Juddmonte's 'Rising Star' Apricot Twist (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}) who has to prove her disappointing effort in Naas's Irish EBF Ballyhane S. at the start of the month all wrong.

Select Affairs At Goodwood

Small field sizes are firmly established at every level in Britain now and Goodwood's other two black-type races, the G2 William Hill Celebration Mile and G3 William Hill March S., have attracted a disappointing nine runners between them and not much in the way of excitement. Best of them is the Derby runner-up Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}), who looks to book his St Leger ticket in the March, while the Celebration Mile, which can be a stallion-maker, has only one who can fit that bill in Shadwell's nearly-horse Mutasaabeq (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). It is a measure of the renewal's quality that the son of Ghanaati (Giant's Causeway) may not even have to improve on his narrow defeat by Chindit (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in Ascot's G2 Summer Mile to take this race which badly needs another Poet's Voice (GB) or Raven's Pass but isn't going to get one this year.

TORNADIC TOPS ARQANA AUGUST ONLINE SALE

Tornadic (GB) (Toronado {Ire}), who went within a neck of winning the valuable Grand Handicap de Deauville when last seen Aug. 7, was sold for €150,000 to Youssef Mohammed Alturaif (YMT Farm) to top Friday's first edition of the Arqana August Online Sale.

The first of seven offerings during the online auction, the consistent 4-year-old, previously trained by Jerome Reynier, rode a three-race winning streak into the Grand Handicap, having won at handicap level at Compiegne in April before consecutive victories at Saint-Cloud in May and June.

YMT Farm was also the successful bidder on lot 2, Sahib's Joy (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). The 5-year-old, offered from the stables of Peter Schiergen, is a winner of four from 17 lifetime, with a career-high in the G3 Fritz Henkel Stiftung-Rennen at Dusseldorf Aug. 7.

POL ROGER (IRE) (c, 2, Churchill {Ire}--Passegiata {GB}, by Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who carried a seven-pound penalty for shedding maiden status over seven furlongs at Haydock earlier this month, broke well from an inside box and stalked the pace in second through halfway here. Coaxed forward once into the home straight, the 5-2 second choice gained a narrow lead passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to hold the rallying effort of She's Hot (GB) (Sioux Nation) by 3/4-of-a-length. Pol Roger, half to a yearling filly by Caravaggio, is the first of two foals produced by an unraced daughter of G3 Oh So Sharp S. victrix Souter's Sister (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}). The February-foaled bay's dam is thus kin to Listed Nottinghamshire Oaks winner and G2 Balanchine runner-up Mia Tesoro (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Sales history: 15,000gns Ylg '21 TATOCT. Also Ran: Ano Syra (Ire), Strong Johnson (Ire), The Highway Rat (Ire), Chocquinto (Ire), Saliteh (GB), Are We Dreaming (Ire), Tamazu (Ire).

This was as tight as it gets, with Tees Spirit inches ahead of Erosandpsyche and Moss Tucker in a thriller to earn a first black-type win and a fifth success from seven starts in 2022. Following wins at Beverley and Nottingham by taking Epsom's Dash June 4, the five-furlong specialist was sixth in The Curragh's Rockingham 22 days later and third at Newmarket July 8 before surging up the ratings again under a stopping weight at Doncaster Aug. 13. In front from the outset here, the bay needed the line as his two chief rivals lunged late but it came just in time to provide trainer Adrian Nicholls with an emotive success in the race he won three times in the saddle for his late father Dandy.

"I'd love to know the reason, but he is getting quicker," he said. "He came to me rated 62 last year and he loves rattling off fast ground over five. It was either come here or the Beverley Bullet and when I came over and walked the track, I was delighted with the very quick ground. He likes that and I thought this was the best option. He didn't get his ground at the Curragh previously. The owners Ingleby Bloodstock bought my dad's yard, so that's how I got to know them. They have been nothing but supportive, have left me run him where I want and it has paid off. You wouldn't get an easier five than either here or Longchamp and he will probably run in the Prix de l'Abbaye. Obviously the ground might be against him, as he hasn't run on soft ground but we'll take our chance."

2nd-Tipperary, €15,000, Mdn, 8-26, 2yo, f, 7f 110yT, 1:37.62, gd.

LIBRARY (IRE) (f, 2, Galileo {Ire}--Words {Ire} {GSW-Ire}, by Dansili {GB}), who hit the board in outings over the one-mile trip and seven furlongs at Leopardstown, tanked forward from an early fourth to lead after after the opening skirmishes of this third start. Comfortably clear turning for home, the even-money favourite was beyond recall entering the final quarter mile and kept on strongly under urging in the latter stages to easily outpoint Bella Blue Eyes (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) by 3 1/2 lengths. "She got hung up on the pace early the last day and Seamus [Heffernan] gave her a lovely ride today," said Aidan O'Brien. "The plan was to get a lead and, when they were going slowly, he let her dawdle to the front and she had a lovely breather around the bend before kicking. I'm delighted with her and she has a little bit of class. She is a lovely mover, she handles that good ground very well and we'll look for a stakes race now. A race like the [Listed] Ingabelle S. [back at Leopardstown] during Champions Weekend [next month] would suit lovely." Library, full-sister to a yearling colt, is the fourth of five foals by Galileo (Ire) and first scorer produced by G3 Munster Oaks victrix Words (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), herself one of five black-type winners out of G1 Irish Oaks heroine and G1 Oaks runner-up Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Moonstone, one of eight stakes performers for Listed-placed matriarch Solo De Lune (Ire) (Law Society), is also the dam of G3 Chester Vase victor and G1 Derby runner-up US Army Ranger (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and dual Group 3 winner Nelson (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).
