MOREAU HAPPY TO STAND UP TO THE BIG GUYS

Xavier Moreau | Chris McGrath

by Chris McGrath

His conversation still retains a charming French inflection, all these years later, but when Xavier Moreau first crossed the water his English was really quite rudimentary. And he remembers going into a men's clothing store in Houston and being baffled by the gigantic measurements on every single garment.

An assistant wandered over. "May I help you, sir?"

Moreau gesticulated. "I can't find anything my size," he said.

As he recalls, the guy "was looking at me like I had come down from the moon."

"Well, no, you won't find anything to fit you here. This store is for bigger people."

Moreau began to feel slighted. Even now, in his 60s, you can tell that he was formerly an expert show rider rather than a little Flat jockey. Was this some weird condescension toward the French?

"Sir, this store is called Big and Tall."

In laughing at the memory, however, Moreau is entitled to find a double pertinence to his small offering at Keeneland next week. For one thing, purely in terms of their build, he could aptly rebrand his consignment as just that: Big and Tall.

HRONIS: "GREAT POSSIBILITY" FLIGHTLINE WILL RACE NEXT YEAR by Bill Finley

It appears that the door is open more than just a crack when it comes to whether or not racing's superstar Flightline (Tapit) will race next year as a 5-year-old. Appearing as the Green Group Guest of the Week on this week's Thoroughbred Daily News Writers' Room podcast presented by Keeneland, Kosta Hronis, a co-owner of Flightline, said there was a "great possibility" that Flightline would race in 2023 rather than beginning his stallion career. "Just like with Stellar Wind (Curlin), which we left on the track an extra year, just like with Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky), which worked out great after we decided to bring him back for another year, our philosophy has always been that they were born to be race horses," Hronis said, referring to two former stars that ran for Hronis Racing LLC. Cont. p8

Hill ‘n’ Dale Stallions

The Best Value in the Stallion Business

At the most prestigious race meet in America against the stiffest competition in the country the Hill ‘n’ Dale stallions proved their value across the board.

The fireworks began in the sales ring at Saratoga where Curlin’s hip #126 sold as the filly sales topper for $2,000,000.

NO FEWER THAN 8 OF THE 13 GRADE 1 RACES AT THE SPA
ON DIRT WERE WON BY PROGENY OF HILL ‘N’ DALE STALLIONS.

Curlin’s daughter Nest posted the highest filly Beyer of the year in the Grade 1 CCA Oaks which she won by an eye popping 12 ¼ lengths.
She likely cemented divisional honors with her subsequent win in the Grade 1 Alabama.

History was made when Champion Jackie’s Warrior, by Maclean’s Music, clinched his 5th Grade 1 win in the Grade 1 Vanderbilt becoming the first horse in the history of Saratoga to win a Grade 1 race three years in a row.

Grade 1 Kentucky Oaks winner Malathaat, by Curlin, traded places throughout the year with rival Clairiere, 1 of 5 Grade 1 winners for Curlin.
Last year’s Eclipse Champion’s form was on display in the Grade 1 Personal Ensign.

Stalwart Ghostzapper proved once again that you can get a top class runner by him.
Just one week after his daughter Moira won the 2nd leg of the Canadian Triple Crown in the fastest time in the race’s 163 year history, Goodnight Olive was lights out in the Grade 1 Ballerina.

The Grade 1 Forego turned out to be a Hill ‘n’ Dale exacta with Curlin’s Cody’s Wish nosing out Jackie’s Warrior.

With Vinny Viola proclaiming that he and his partner Mike Repole are always dreaming, their hope is that Forte’s fortuitous victory in the Grade 1 Hopeful portends favorably for next year’s Grade 1 Kentucky Derby. The owners of Blazing Sevens, who placed behind Forte in the Hopeful, are clearly dreaming of roses as well.

Making the honorable mention list were Grade 2 National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame Stakes winner Ready to Purrform by Kitten’s Joy and Grade 3 Forbidden Apple Stakes winner City Man by Mucho Macho Man along with Graded Stakes Performers Obligatory (G1) and First Captain (G1) by Curlin and Coastana and New Year’s Eve by Kitten’s Joy.

Hot fun in the summertime. Retirees Cheetah's Purr, Maestro's Legacy, Downgoesfrazier, and Go Mikey Go cool off last week in Shushan, NY. | Diana Pikulski

WEEKLY RULINGS: AUG. 29 - SEPT. 4 9

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky. With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

STAKES SCHEDULE FOR AQUEDUCT FALL RELEASED 12

The 2022 fall meet at Aqueduct Racetrack will offer 33 stakes, 10 of them graded events, worth a total of $6.375 million. As previously announced, the Belmont Park fall meet will be held at Aqueduct due to the construction of vehicular and pedestrian tunnels designed to provide access to the Belmont Park infield.

Far more importantly, however, he offers a perfect example of how a marketplace dominated by industrial consignments also allows the "little guy" to stand tall; to punch far above weight, indeed, with a horsemanship that is absolutely commensurate.

It was at this sale in 2009, for instance, that Moreau went into the offices by the back ring, where the staff had adjusted to the tempo of the second week. Moreau and some friends had pinhooked a Bernstein weanling out of the same ring in the final session of the November Sale, for $55,000, and now brought him back as Hip 1544.

"Excuse me," he said. "But I have this horse here with a lot of action."

Someone raised an eyebrow. "Like, how much action?"

"Like, 29 scopes."

Suddenly he had their attention.

"It's ridiculous," he told them. "The vets have been standing in line. I've told them it's got to stop, it's getting out of hand. One of the vets should put the scope in, and then everyone can look."

It was unheard of, that deep in the sale. Sure enough, the colt made $475,000. There was only one regret. Moreau had also wanted to buy the dam the previous November, but the groom cautioned him that the colt had been weaned early because she was such a mean mother; and that she had aborted. Moreau pictured the reaction of his (then) wife, and ruefully decided against. That enabled Carrie and Craig Brogden of Machmer Hall to pick her up for just $4,500. After seeing her son sell so well, they had an obvious cover the following spring. And the resulting filly turned out to be none other than Tepin (Bernstein).

"Mine was a gorgeous colt," Moreau recalled. "He actually ran in the [GI] Belmont S., and was twice graded stakes-paced.

Unfortunately he had pneumonia, he was in a clinic for a month, and never really showed what he was capable of."

But horses Moreau has bred and/or raised have not just looked the part. When he was based in Ocala, he bred triple Grade I winner Bushfire (Louis Quatorze) from a $35,000 mare; and millionaire Wildcat Red (D'wildcat) from one that cost even less. Nowadays, at the same Nicholasville farm where Barbaro (Dynaformer) was foaled--he's amazed to see fans still making a Springmint pilgrimage every spring--Moreau this year himself had an exciting ride all the way to the GI Kentucky Derby.

Co-bred with White Bloodstock LLC, Smile Happy (Runhappy) won the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. last year before chasing home Epicenter (Not This Time) and Zandon (Upstart) respectively in the GII Risen Star S. and GI Blue Grass S. Moreau went to see Kenny McPeek three days before the Derby and the trainer told him: "I'm going to make you a famous breeder!" But he had always been skeptical about the distance, and the colt has yet to resurface after running eighth at Churchill. Sadly, moreover, the unforgiving realities of the game had long since intervened.

Smile Happy's dam Pleasant Smile, even at $57,000, was as expensive a mare as Moreau has ever bought: a daughter of Pleasant Tap from Adena Springs, in foal to Awesome Again. The resulting filly was picked out for the Select Sale at Saratoga, but didn't show well after getting hurt in the lorry. She still brought $100,000, while her next filly raised $130,000 though by the cooling Bodemeister. And Smile Happy, foaled two stalls down from the one where Barbaro was born, made more again.

"People said that $175,000 was a lot of money for a horse that basically had no page," Moreau recalls. "But he was a beautiful colt, very sure of himself. I worked with show horses for many years and try to teach my Thoroughbreds to stand a bit like that: 'Look at me, I'm tough.'"

Medaglia d'Oro's September yearlings are from his best-bred crop ever.

Tragically, there could be no dividend for Moreau after Smile Happy upgraded the pedigree. "The mare aborted one night the previous December," Moreau says. "It was very hard for her: she broke a hip, she was a big heavy mare and couldn't get up. It was a sad story. But things always happen like that. I lost the mother of Bushfire right after she'd won the Florida Oaks."

Moreau, as just indicated, entered the Thoroughbred world via a somewhat unusual avenue. His family had raised a mixture of half-breds, jumpers and Arabians in the South of France, albeit they did actually stand a son of Native Dancer for a time. They emigrated to the U.S. in 1980, but things did not work out: a valuable stallion prospect died, the insurers wouldn't pay up, there was trouble with partners. Worst of all, Moreau's sister was killed in an automobile accident.

Moreau returned to France, where he was fast-tracked as a precocious judge of show horses. Soon he was judging national championships all round the world, while also experimenting as a bloodstock agent. He bought Arabian horses for the Maktoums and other clients in the Middle East, notably Sheikh Abdullah al-Thani, and from 1995 started boarding a few mares in Ocala. He also bought one Thoroughbred privately for Sheikh Mohammed, Express Tour (Tour d'Or). Though another with no pedigree (literally "born in a friend's backyard"), he took his chance in the Kentucky Derby after turning over Street Cry (Ire) in the G3 UAE Derby, and later won the GII Jerome H.

One way or another, such a varied apprenticeship has perhaps given Moreau a slightly less "standard" eye.

"In Europe, you saw things a little bit differently," he reflects. "Then, in Ocala, you needed a very fast-looking horse, stocky, more like a Quarter Horse. And now, if you look in my pasture, you'll see mares that are a bit more classy-looking. But I still want strong, muscular types. Pleasant Smile looked that way: she wasn't very tall, but she was stocky and correct."

The most important lesson he retained, however, was always to maintain that intimate connection with his horses.

"Right from when I was in the show ring, I have always been hands-on," he notes. "So I never wanted to have a lot of horses. The most foals I ever had in one year, with my partners, was 18. Every evening after dinner, I love to go and watch those babies. Even after 50 years, you're still always trying to get in their minds. To me, the best racehorses tend to be those that are most willing to work with people. Having said that, Eddie Woods said Bushfire was very difficult to break, dumped all his riders. But she wasn't mean: she was tough, she had character."

What Moreau does resent, quite candidly, is the market imperative for unproven stallions that then inundate the sales.

"I hate having to go to first-year sires all the time," he says. "If you think about how many good mares are wasted on those horses, every year, it's crazy. And then you go to the yearling sale and find yourself against 35 others by same stallion. That really happened to me once, in one day! So I prefer to go where they don't overbreed, like Airdrie, Claiborne, Darley, Lane's End, etc.

"This business works off a lot of negatives. As soon as a trainer has had a couple by a stallion, and they're no good, he won't want another. And we all know how many champions have not been very good in front. But if you take your horse out of the stall, and those front legs aren't perfect, then that's it."

Sure enough, Moreau's absolute priority in his mares is conformation. Ideally they will have been able to run, as well, but he simply can't afford the top pedigrees. None of these good horses--Bushfire, Wildcat Red, Smile Happy--had any kind of blood, but he raised an athlete every time.

Moreau was duly proud to sell a colt by Wildcat Red, this horse he had made, for as much as $180,000 to become top colt at OBS October a couple of years ago. "Out of a mare that had produced nothing," he says. "But he was so gorgeous! People couldn't believe that any horse with so much 'white' on the page could make that kind of money. So this is the kind of stuff that makes me happy: to create a beautiful horse, with a big eye, smart, athletic."

And that's just what he believes he will be offering at the September Sale, between just two in his own consignment and a couple selling with his friend Nicky Drion.

Certainly he cannot suppress his excitement over Hip 541, a filly from the final crop of Arrogate out of a graded stakes-placed mare. The half-sister by Malibu Moon proved a fine pinhook (Moreau sold her as a weanling for $90,000 to Glencrest Farm, and Four Star Sales moved her on last September for $290,000) and Moreau plainly views this one as something else again.

"Keeneland wanted to put her in Book 1," he discloses. "They really loved her. She's not a typical Arrogate. You know, sometimes they can be kind of rangy. This filly is all muscle. I mean, she is a beast. I don't think I ever had a filly as strong as this. In fact I was afraid she was going to be 'musclebound', but she walks so well. She's extremely correct and, though she looks like a colt when she comes out of the stall, she has a filly head and beautiful eye. She's just a force of nature, and really should make an impression over there."

Moreau has four in KEESEP, including two by Enticed | Darley

He hopes that Hip 755, a filly by Audible, will not suffer by comparison with her neighbor at Barn 28.

"Because she's very classy," Moreau stresses. "I haven't seen tons of Audibles, of course, but I feel he tends to get horses slightly longer-backed than his sire; a little bit 'tubular' in the body. But not this filly. She has a very good hip and she's very strong, fairly compact, with a beautiful neck and throatlatch. She's very correct, as well."

The pair with Drion, meanwhile, are both by Enticed. "And the filly [Hip 3484] is the biggest I've ever had in my life," he marvels. "She's got to be 16.3, you would think there's no way she can be yearling. Yet everything is in proportion: she's so well balanced, just moves like a racehorse. And she's 100% Godolphin because the dam is by Street Cry out of a [French Classic-placed] daughter of Groom Dancer.

"The colt [3531] is out of a Smart Strike mare and moves like a cat. He reminds me of the horses my family had, in France, long ago: rangy, a lot of leg, maybe not biggest hip but a beautiful shoulder, perfectly straight and correct."

It's been a trying summer for Moreau, who was hospitalized on holiday in France with an infection, before promptly contracting COVID; and he has just had knee surgery. But nothing will ever dampen his enthusiasm for his vocation.

"After all, we're supposed to be tough in this horse business!" he exclaims. "I will have my daughter Natalie helping me at OBS in October, she's always been so good. I have six there, including a couple of spectacular colts, the pinhookers should be all over them.

"You know, I was kind of broke when I came to Kentucky, after my divorce. The economy was down, I had $7,000 in my pocket and three old mares. But if you have the passion, you can survive.

"I remember when I was young, my family lost nearly everything. All the mares aborted in two days. There was no pneumonia vaccine, then, and we lost 13 foals on one day, and the 14th the next. It was atrocious, we had to pile up those babies and burn the carcasses. So raising horses, it's tough, it's very up and down.

"But I've been in the business for 50 years now. I left school when I was 14 to work for my parents. And when young people want to work with horses, I tell them: If you have that passion, you will succeed. You may not become a billionaire, and sometimes it's easy to give up. But if you're prepared to work, and don't get discouraged, you can get so much out of horses. Every time a foal is born, a new dream begins. I would not want to trade my life--the wonderful experiences I have had, and the life I have now--for any other."

Hronis said, “Let’s let them do what they want to do as long as they want to do it. I can’t really give you a percentage when it comes to his running next year. You’d have to ask Flightline. But I really believe as long as he is healthy and happy with what he is doing and he still wants to go to the racetrack every day and be a part of this and he still wants to run the way he has been running, then I think there is a great possibility that we will see him next year as 5-year-old.”

Hronis added: “We’re going to the Breeders’ Cup, we’ll come out of the race, see how we do and just go to the next step. I race horses, that’s what I like to do. That is Hronis Racing. When it comes to their after-racing careers, we’re not heavily into that.”

The situation is complicated by the fact that Hronis Racing LLC is one of just five entities that own a part of the horse. The others are Siena Farm LLC, Summer Wind Equine LLC, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing, LLC. Hronis said that while he wants to see Flightline race next year, he will listen to the opinions Bill Farish of Woodford Racing and Jane Lyon of Summer Wind Farm. Lyon is also the breeder of Flightline.

“As far as me personally, I will defer to Bill Farish and Jane Lyon because they are the absolute experts when it comes to this,” he said. “I still consider myself to be kind of a newcomer. I’ve only been in the sport for 10, 11 years. As far as that second career for a horse, it’s not something we are heavily involved in. As far as what happens on the racetrack, I defer to John Sadler. He is the man and he makes the decisions. As far as his second career, I will defer to Jane and Bill and let them call the shots and I will follow along. I will be a good partner.”

Yet, Hronis made it clear which way he is rooting.

“We'll keep our fingers crossed for Flightline to continue his career and to continue to be as successful as he has been,” he said. “He’s good for horse racing and that’s good for every owner in the country. I believe (Flightline running next year) might be the shot in the arm we need. So I really hope that we can continue this.”

Hronis also made a point of commending trainer John Sadler and exercise rider and assistant trainer Juan Leyva for the work they have done with Flightline. After his sensational 19 1/4-length win the in GI TVG Pacific Classic, Flightline is 5-for-5 lifetime and has never been challenged.

We support myriad initiatives that uphold our mission of being dedicated to the improvement of Thoroughbred breeding and racing.

"John has done a great job with him in between races teaching him," he said. "Him and Juan Leyva constantly teach him how to be a race horse and taught him how to go from six furlongs to a mile-and-a-quarter. I have to give them all the credit. The plan was laid out quite a long time ago and it has come to fruition. We have a great trainer. I have said this a few times: As blessed as we are to have Flightline, I think Flightline is really blessed to have John Sadler. He took his time, he didn't rush him and he taught him how to be a race horse."

Elsewhere on the show–which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, XBTV, West Point Thoroughbreds and Legacy Bloodstock–Joe Bianca, Bill Finley and guest host Randy Moss recapped closing weekend at Saratoga and, in the Weekend Preview presented by Three Chimneys, took a look at stellar race cards at Kentucky Downs and Del Mar.

U OF A ADDS MARK THURMAN SCHOLARSHIP TO ROSTER

The Mark Thurman Endowed Scholarship in Racing has been established at the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program (RTIP) due to a donation from CHRIMS, a "not-for-profit, mutual benefits organization focused on providing technology solutions for the pari-mutuel gaming industry." CHRIMS made the donation to honor Mark Thurman's contributions to the racing industry upon his retirement as CEO.

"Mark dedicated over three decades to building his vision of CHRIMS from a set of spreadsheets into a unique and powerful service critical to the operation of California racing," said Gunner laCour, president of CHRIMS. "His contributions to the sport of horse racing in California and nationally will continue for decades to come. It is only fitting that his legacy is commemorated through this scholarship designed to support the next generation of racing innovators."

FORMER VICE CHAIR OF CHRB MANCINI PASSES AWAY

Patsy Freeman "Patti" Mancini passed away peacefully Aug. 14 in Thousand Oaks, California, at the age of 86. She was the first female vice president at Rockwell International and received numerous awards from NASA. She also served on various boards unrelated to aeronautics, including the California Horse Racing Board.

As a racing commissioner, she actively sought to reform medication regulations during nearly six years of service on the Board, from September 1980 to March 1986.

She is survived by her son, William Mancini and his wife, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Memorial donations can be made to the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Foundation and the Rocket Center Foundation.

Sendero | Coady Photography

Sendero became the second stakes winner and seventh winner overall for his freshman sire City of Light (Quality Road) with a maiden-breaking victory in the Jamestown S. at Colonial Downs Wednesday. Sent off the 1-5 favorite, the bay colt was hustled out of the gate and rushed up to press the pace four wide down the backstretch through a quarter in :22.66. He stuck his head in front nearing the stretch and bound clear while Bee Mountain chased him home in second.

Sendero missed by just a neck when second in his debut over this same course and distance July 18.

City of Light was represented by his first stakes winner over the weekend when Chop Chop won the Aristocrat Gaming Juvenile Fillies S. at Kentucky Downs Saturday.

Trishas Even has a yearling colt by Omaha Beach. With no foal reported this year, she was bred back to Bolt d'Oro. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Hot Little Thing, coming off a seven-length maiden romp at Horseshoe Indianapolis, became the first stakes winner for her freshman sire Army Mule (Friesan Fire) with a dominant victory in the Back Home Again S. at the Indiana oval Wednesday. The even-money favorite zipped out to the early lead and was in control through fractions of :23.18 and :46.47. She skipped effortlessly clear down the lane and cruised home under wraps a much-the-best winner.

"She's been great," said Ted Nixon, who along with his wife, Mary, co-own the filly under Storyteller Racing. "Rodolphe [Brisset] found her for us at the Ocala Sale and we were super excited to have an Indiana-bred. She has been everything we hoped for. This is our first stakes win in Indiana and as Rodolphe said, she'll be back."

Hot Little Thing contested the pace before coming up 3/4-lengths short when second in her off-turf debut in Indiana July 19 before her emphatic maiden victory going five furlongs last time out Aug. 6.

Army Mule currently has 13 winners, including Danse Macabre who was second in the Bolton Landing S. at Saratoga.

Hot Little Thing has a yearling full-brother who sold for $25,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale. Her dam--who sold for $11,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November sale--was bred to Tacitus this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

The chestnut gelding found a narrow seam to run through in upper stretch and surged to the lead and strode home an easy winner.

2nd-Saratoga, $88,000, (S), Msw, 8-26, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:11.23, sy, 3/4 length.

KANT HURRY LOVE (f, 3, Kantharos--She's All Love, by Langfuhr) O-Ken Wheeler, Jr.; B-Dr. John M & Laura G McDermott (NY); T-Christophe Clement.

The name of recent Saratoga winning filly KANT HURRY LOVE is simply magic wordplay: a clever double alliteration with the name of the sire KANTHAROS and the title of the glorious 1966 hit of Diana Ross and the Supremes "You Can't Hurry Love". The lyrics of the song are so overflowing with wisdom that even a possible long-shot connection with world champion philosopher Immanuel Kant does not seem out of place.

Aboukir Bay, f, 3, Lord Nelson--Fairy Star (Aus) (SP-Aus), by More Than Ready. Kentucky Downs, 9-3, 6 1/2fT, 1:16.93. Lifetime Record: 8-1-4-0, $127,213. B-Spendthrift Farm (KY). *$30,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP; $375,000 2yo '21 OBSAPR.

The stallion LORD NELSON has already given us winner TRAGALGAR, after Horatio Nelson's greatest and final victory, and now we have Kentucky Downs-winning 3-year-old filly ABOUKIR BAY, named after the second greatest triumph of the British Admiral: the 1798 destruction of Napoleon's fleet near the delta of the Nile. The naval defeat left the French general in Egypt (and his army) with the Napoleonic equivalent of a flight cancellation problem, greatly affecting his Middle East adventure.

Dakota Territory, g, 3, Stroll--Sakakawea (MSW, $371,850), by Rossini. Prairie Meadows, 9-3, (S), 5 1/2f, 1:06.13. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,146. B-Black Oak Farm (IA). *1ST-TIME STARTER.

It is fitting and geographically consistent that a horse baptized DAKOTA TERRITORY and out of a mare named SAKAKAWEA is a winner at Prairie Meadows in Iowa. The "Sakakawea" connection with the great Northern plains could be via the name of an Indian female guide in the 1804-1806 Lewis-Clark expedition (spelling can be different), or a lake and park (with that exact spelling) in North Dakota, in a location included in the long-lasting, pre-statehood Dakota Territory (1861-1889) – America's own ancient land of the sheltering sky.

DR. TERESA GAROFALO MEMORIAL S., $100,000, Parx Racing, 8-22, (S), 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10.93, ft. 1--REMAIN ANONYMOUS, 123, m, 5, Tapiture--Secret Witness, by Tiznow. O-Sanford J. Goldfarb; B-Horseshoe Valley Equine Center, LLC (PA); T-Robert N. Falcone, Jr.; J-Irad Ortiz, Jr.

That a secret witness remains anonymous makes an awful lot of sense, legally and otherwise. On the other hand, the mare REMAIN ANONYMOUS, who is out of SECRET WITNESS, was actually fully discovered in plain daylight when "charging six deep in the early stretch, pouring it on for a no-doubt victory", as the record shows--in a stakes race at Parx Racing on 8-22. Happy disclosure.

By John Berry

James Delahooke, an outstanding horseman who played a key role in the creation of the late Prince Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte empire, died of a heart attack Wednesday morning while grouse hunting in Yorkshire with friends, according to his brother Matthew Delahooke. He was 77.

A large proportion of the greatest horses bred and raced by Juddmonte from the late 1980s onwards have descended from fillies or mares bought by Delahooke on the Prince's behalf. The Juddmonte families which have yielded the likes of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), Zafonic (Gone West), Workforce (GB) (King's Best), Warning (GB) (Known Fact) and the legendary broodmare Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) all trace to the foundation mares selected by Delahooke; while his yearling purchases for the Prince included Rainbow Quest (Blushing Groom {Fr}) and Dancing Brave (Lyphard), winners of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in 1985 and '86 respectively.

Another yearling purchase who played a massive role in the Juddmonte success story was Razyana (His Majesty), from whom the Prince bred Danehill (Danzig); while the Prince's first two home-bred Derby winners, Quest For Fame (GB) (Rainbow Quest) and Commander In Chief (GB) (Dancing Brave), were notable for having both of their parents bought by Delahooke.

BLOW FOR BURROWS AS INJURY FORCES MINZAAL INTO RETIREMENT By Brian Sheerin

Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), the brilliant G1 Sprint Cup winner at Haydock last Saturday, has been forced into retirement after sustaining a slab fracture en route to recording that career highlight. The news comes as a bitter blow to his trainer Owen Burrows, who earlier this season also had to retire his breakthrough Group 1 winner Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

Like Hukum, Minzaal is owned by Shadwell, whose racing manager Angus Gold confirmed the news on Wednesday morning.

He said, "I'm afraid it's not very good news. I'm sad to say he's got a slab fracture in his knee so he is finished, very sadly.

"He'll be retiring unfortunately. We were keen to get him to Ascot which was always the plan as we always thought he handled easy ground, but sadly the gods decided it wasn't to be." Cont. p5

Delahooke inspecting a yearling | Fasig-Tipton

Delahooke was not on the Juddmonte team from the very beginning in 1978 but he was recruited shortly afterwards by the Prince's original manager Humphrey Cottrill and soon was both buying the yearlings and breeding prospects and managing the original Juddmonte Farm at Wargave. In these roles he did more than anyone to plant the proverbial acorns from which the mighty Juddmonte oaks have grown. He was obviously working on a large budget, but his genius is even better illustrated by the much less expensive horses whom he bought on behalf of patrons of the Coombelands stable of his friend Guy Harwood (trainer also, of course, of numerous Juddmonte champions including Dancing Brave). Heading the list were the 1979 G1 Derby place-getter Ela-Mana-Mou (Ire) (Pitcairn {Ire}) and the 1981 G1 2,000 Guineas winner To-Agori-Mou (Ire) (Tudor Music {GB}) as well as the 1982 G1 Eclipse S. and G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. winner Kalaglow (Ire) (Kalamoun {Ire}), the 1980 G1 Grand Criterium winner Recitation (Elocutionist), the 1984 G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner Lear Fan (Roberto) and the 1979 G1 2,000 Guineas place-getter Young Generation (Ire) (Balidar {GB}). These he picked up for 4,500 guineas, 20,000 guineas, 11,500 guineas, $35,000, 64,000 guineas and 9,000 guineas respectively.

While Juddmonte ranks as the most obvious beneficiary of Delahooke's wisdom and judgement, several other great breeders were also recipients of his invaluable assistance.

In particular, the late Gerald Leigh was on record as saying, "James Delahooke has a flair and knowledge. He is an outstanding judge of a horse. He helped lay the foundations of my stud in the early years as a breeder."

Delahooke also played a big part in the success enjoyed by the late William Barnett, standing High Line (GB) (High Hat {GB}) for him at his Adstock Manor Stud, the stallion covering merely 14 mares in his first year before going on to become one of the most successful sires in Europe, most notably siring four winners in one afternoon at York's Ebor Meeting in 1981, a four-timer which included two Group 1 winners headed by the Barnett home-bred Master Willie (GB), successful that afternoon in the G1 Benson & Hedges Gold Cup (now Juddmonte International S). Adstock Manor was Delahooke's home for 25 years prior to his relocation to Yorkshire in 1992, and while there he owned and trained the 1987 Aintree Foxhunters winner Border Burg (GB) (Perhapsburg {GB}).

James Delahooke played a less conspicuous role in the bloodstock world in recent years but still continued to advise a select band of clients including Bobby Flay, who has paid him a fulsome tribute.

IN THE PIPELINE!

When Coolmore purchased WOOTTON BASSETT in the summer of 2020 he had just one Group 1 winner to his credit, albeit a very special one in European Champion 3-Year-Old ALMANZOR (from his sire's first crop of just 23 foals). In the intervening period that tally has risen to five, courtesy of Prix Jean Romanet and Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare heroine AUDARYA, 'Abbaye' winner WOODED, Prix Saint-Alary winner INCARVILLE and Prix Marcel Boussac winner ZELLIE. And remember that these were all conceived at fees ranging from just €4,000 to €20,000.

At Deauville in August, his 30 yearlings offered all sold for prices up to €750,000 and at an average of €212,667 - more than five times the €40,000 at which they were conceived.

But the really exciting part is what comes next, so read on!

"James's influence on the breed has made an indelible and permanent mark on some of the most important pedigrees in the Western Hemisphere. For the last 15 years I've had the good fortune of employing his knowledge and keen eye to identify my most important bloodstock. I will miss his insight, love of good food and wine and his opinionated teachings. Although James has left us suddenly, his influence will be felt for decades at the highest end of the stud book. I, for one, will do my best to honour his ongoing impact."

A countryman born and bred who rode over 50 winners in point-to-points or under National Hunt rules in his youth, James Delahooke passed away on the Yorkshire moors on Wednesday and we offer our condolences to the family and friends of a legend of the bloodstock world who was once described by the late Lord Oaksey as "arguably the best judge of yearlings in the world".

Said his brother, Matthew, "I was fortunate enough to work for him for a few years. He was a mentor for me, a great brother. We had some good times at the sales. He was very well respected and loved and was a good man."

He is survived by his wife, Angie; his brothers, Matthew and Tom; four children, Amber, Rorie, Holly, and Eve, and nine grandchildren. Arrangements have not yet been made, but they will be shared as soon as they are available.

SOMETIMES YOU JUST HAVE TO THANK THE UNIVERSE By Barry Weisbord

James Delahooke died Wednesday, and I lost a very special friend. I had the great pleasure of working together with him, especially over the last 15-plus years. Tuesday, we spoke about our Keeneland filly short list, of Chris McGrath's great profile of Bobby Flay's equine program to which he had been a major contributor, and meeting in Lexington on Friday for dinner. Life can pivot from normal to abnormal with a phone call, but our initial meeting is a great reminder of the special goodness that can also randomly present itself.

I was walking through the car park after racing at Royal Ascot almost 40 years ago. There was post-race merriment everywhere, but one group caught my eye. They were bouncing a sock-like ball and using a champagne bottle for a bat, cricket-style. I said, "If you pitch it, American-style, I will drill it over a few rows of cars." They granted my wish, and I delivered, channeling my best Mike Schmidt and startling a picnic a few rows away. The cricketers were James and Guy Harwood--a few years my seniors--and although we had never met, this random moment proved most serendipitous.

James Delahooke | Tattersalls

I was invited to stay with them at their house in Newmarket. I felt like I had been invited into the locker room at the Super Bowl. They were at the top of the game, winning Group 1s and buying bloodstock that will remain significant forever. I was mostly an energetic novice, who offered no professional aid. But they were generous with their knowledge, their friends, and their fun.

James was never shy about sharing his opinions (of which there were many) and his passions. His horsemanship is legendary, but he was also effusive in his love of family, the outdoors (especially fishing), food and wine, the arts, history, and the world at large. James and Angie's Cardigan Street, Newmarket table was always the place for interesting company and great food. It has remained my Tattersalls can't-miss spot for decades. When going to England, I could always count on a tip from James about an art exhibit, museum show, new play, or restaurant to add a special event to my trip.

As for the outdoors, many of you know that I didn't share his love of fishing and shooting. He had a yearly timeshare on the Spey and invited me regularly to join him. My response was always to take someone who would appreciate the experience. One year, he declared it was his 60th birthday celebration there, and of course I said I would be there. I arrived into the "fishing cottage" to find a fine manor home with 10 bedrooms and staff. Yes, I tried the fishing but did not get converted.

I did enjoy the local golf club a few times with his brother Matt. Of course, the food, drink, and company, including friends from his childhood, were all exceptional.

I will miss him this weekend at Keeneland and on our planned visit to Stone Farm to see our stock. I will miss him next month in Newmarket but will dine with Angie and share some laughs and tears. It will be hard to look at the pedigrees and the horses he helped Bobby and I shape over the last 15 years. But I am glad to have those horses and their pedigrees to remind me for years to come of this very special man and his contributions to my life. I'm really glad I delivered on my promise to park that sock ball in the upper deck.

Love you, James.

Gold added, "At least he went out in a blaze of glory, he's a Group One winner and showed everybody what he was capable of. It's such a shame for Owen, extraordinary given what happened with Hukum, too, but there you go. He showed his true colours and he was a proper Group One horse. Hopefully he will have a good second career."

'I JUST LOVE THE GAME,' - PAT COSTELLO OF PARAMOUNT TAKES THE Q&A

Pat Costello of Paramount Sales | Keeneland

By Brian Sheerin

Paramount Sales has fast become one of the leading consignors in America with Jack Christopher, Life Is Good and Kameko an example of the recent graduates.

Pat Costello, who emigrated to America in 1984 and climbed the ranks in the industry before setting up Paramount Sales in 2001 with fellow Irish ex-pat Gabriel 'Spider' Duignan, shares all about his racing backstory in this week's Q&A.

From turning a profit pinhooking for 10 years on the trot to revealing what horses in the Paramount Sales draft he's most looking forward to at next week's September Yearling Sale at Keeneland, the top operator makes for an engaging subject.

Brian Sheerin: We know plenty about Paramount but tell us a bit more about yourself.

Pat Costello: America has been great to me, as has the horse business. I would consider America my home. I came out here in 1984 to muck out stalls and worked my way up the ladder in this business. I used the opportunities that came my way and ran with it. I spent a year working at Ashleigh Stud before joining an equine hospital as a barn foreman where I learned a bunch on the medical side which was great training for me. From there, I joined Crescent Hill Farm, and managed that for 10 years before setting up my own place. My wife and I rented a place just outside of Keeneland, called Drumkenny Farm, and we boarded for people there and getting all of the Sam-Son Farm mares was a huge boost for us at the time. They have been a top Canadian outfit over the years so that was huge. We were at Drumkenny for seven or eight years and Paramount evolved out of that. As the fella says, the rest is history.

BS: Who have been your biggest mentors?
PC: Michael Osborne was brilliant for me. When I arrived here, he was running North Ridge Farm and he was a father to all of us. He was instrumental in my career.

BS: And how did your relationship with Gabriel Spider Duignan, another Irish ex-pat, develop?
PC: Spider arrived in America about six months after I did. He started working with Bill O'Neill of Circle O Farm and was based just 15 minutes from me. We became fast friends and remain so to this day. There is a great Irish community over here and we all look out for each other.

BS: Yourself and Spider enjoyed a lot of success initially through pinhooking.
PC: None of us had any money starting out so, what we did was, we set up a syndicate made up of mostly Irish people. I think we gathered up roughly $40,000 and bought eight horses in our first year with that. We were working with tiny money, given to us by friends that we had built up, but managed to turn that into $80,000, so we doubled our money in that first year. We kept ploughing the money back in and got a few more people in on it and it ended up becoming quite a big pinhooking partnership. We decided after a few years that we could do this for ourselves so that's how it evolved. There's four of us still doing that now; Spider, Adrian Regan from Hunter Valley, Ted Campion of Dundrum Farm and myself. We pinhook a few together every year.

ELLIOTT BLOODSTOCK SERVICES
+44 (0) 7753 142007 | www.elliottbloodstock.com

BS: We're knee-deep in the yearling season in America and in Europe. I know you are operating with a much different budget now than when you were just starting off but what are the most important things that you look for when buying a yearling?
PC: When we started, it was definitely a steep learning curve for us and we learned by our mistakes. We rely mostly on a good physical. If the horse has a good pedigree to go with the physical, we'll be happy with that, but our primary focus has been concentrating on the physical. That approach has been good to us over the years.

BS: Was there ever a moment where you thought you had cracked the code or can you ever think that way in this game?
PC: One of the last years of the syndicate, which we operated under the name, 'The Lads,' we had a powerful year. We bought one horse for $100,000 as a foal and got $900,000 for him as a yearling. There was another we paid $70,000 for and turned that into roughly $600,000. We thought we knew it all by the time the sales season rolled around the following year. But, what happened? We had our arses handed to us. Luckily we were young enough to take it and learn from it. You always have to be humble when buying these horses and you have to trust your judgment.

BS: Have you ever thought about dipping your toe in the European market given turf racing is expanding in America and there does not appear to be an array of turf stallions over there?
PC: We stick with what we know, which is why we concentrate on America. Personally, I think the turf sires over here are starting to get a little more recognition and the whole thing is expanding. Also, the American market, what they really want is to win the Derby, so it's the dirt horses that they want most over here. Even though Saratoga has nearly as many grass races as they do on dirt, and turf racing is definitely becoming more important over here, it's the dirt horses that prevail. But I would say that grass sires are certainly becoming more relevant in America, yes.

BS: It has been noticeable the amount of European buyers, especially on the breeze-up circuit, to have purchased yearlings in America in recent times.
PC: Yes, and they've done well. I do believe that there will be another boat load coming over this year as well. They are very sharp people who come over and they know what works. I think it works well and it provides them with an edge. They work hard at what they do and they're very good at it.

BS: Looking through some of the graduates of Paramount, we've already mentioned Jack Christopher, Life Is Good and Kameko, but could you identify any particular highlights?
PC: It's very special and we're so lucky to have some great clients who trust us with their stock year in and year out. They produce lovely horses and we get the privilege of selling them. Life Is Good, he's as good a miler that we've seen for a long, long time and Jack Christopher is an incredible 3-year-old. We have to pinch ourselves. It's been an incredible year. People see the results that we're getting and you get repeat business out of it. When people have had success buying from you, they tend to come back.

BS: And looking ahead to the September Yearling Sales at Keeneland next week, you have another strong draft to look forward to.
PC: We do and I will just highlight a few rather than listing them all out. Hip number 52 is an Into Mischief filly. She's out of Grade 3 winner Song Of Spring (Spring At Last) and is a beautiful physical with a page as well. The family goes back to Dream Rush (Wild Rush) and Dreaming Of Julia (A.P Indy). Malathaat (Curlin) is in the pedigree as well so it's hugely exciting. Into Mischief is one of the best sires over here, he gets it done every weekend, so we feel that she is one to look forward to and will be well-received. We also have a Munnings filly [Hip 112] who is quite exciting. Munnings has come up the hard way, I think he stood at $15,000 at one stage, and you couldn't get to him this year he was that popular at $85,000. This is a half-sister to the stakes-winning Stitched (Mizzen Mast), who runs in a Grade 2 at Kentucky Downs this weekend, so hopefully we'll get another update there. She's a beautiful filly. Lastly, Hip 272 is a Gun Runner colt, and this sire is phenomenal. As long as I have been in America, I have never seen a sire to do what Gun Runner has done in two years, and this is a really well-balanced colt by him. He has a great walk to him and, being by Gun Runner, he is as hot a prospect as there is. We have a lovely draft of 15 or 16 horses but they are the three I'd highlight.

BS: You mentioned the extraordinary start made at stud by Gun Runner. Obviously Justify is having a good start as well. Are there any other stallions whose progeny are of particular interest to you?
PC: Justify has got off to an incredible start and his stats are comparable to Gun Runner at the same stage of his career. He is hugely exciting, for sure. Not This Time is another. He was standing for 10 of 15 grand at one stage and the talk is that he will be standing for $125,000 next year. He's a brilliant horse and he's a stallion for the future.

BS: What gives you the most pleasure about your role?
PC: I just love seeing horses we've had here go on to do well. Especially with horses you've pinhooked, when they go on and become good racehorses, it gives you great satisfaction when they confirm your judgment to be correct. That's a great part of the game. I also enjoy the art of selling a horse and get great satisfaction about getting a good price on behalf of our owners. I just love the game. If we are not at the races ourselves, the television is on, and there's always racing on here. From top to bottom; breeding mares, pinhooking, seeing the new sires coming through, selling horses, every aspect of it, we're involved in. It's our passion. Some people have golf but I have horses and it's a pleasure to do what you love.

DONCASTER'S SCEPTRE GOES TO BOUNCE THE BLUES

Bounce The Blues | racingfotos.com

Barbara Keller's 5-year-old distaffer Bounce The Blues (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}--Jazz Up {GB}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), winless in 11 tries since annexing 2020's Listed Owenstown Stud S. for the Johnny Feane yard, hit the board in that year's renewal of Doncaster's G3 Sceptre Fillies' S. and bounced back to form in game style to claim this Wednesday's Japan Racing Association-sponsored edition of the seven-furlong contest. The March-foaled chestnut lined up as a 5-1 chance returning off a fifth in Sandown's Aug. 20 G3 Atalanta S. and was steadied in midfield after an alert getaway. The first to come under pressure when bustled along with three furlongs remaining, she was ridden to go third approaching the eighth pole and kept on resolutely for continued rousting in the closing stages to prevail by a neck from Umm Kulthum (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). The remainder was headed by 150-1 outsider Romantic Rival (Ire) (Shamardal), who finished 3/4-of-a-length further adrift in third.

"She was tough there, she went through the gears nicely and the race opened up nicely for her as well," said William Buick. "She's run some nice races and ran well here two years ago. Everything was ideal for her today and she was really tough. She has [group-race] black type now and that's what they wanted. I don't know what the plans will be, but that's very valuable for her."

Pedigree Notes:

Bounce The Blues, the 13th of 14 foals, becomes the second pattern-race winner for the unraced Jazz Up (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and she is a half to G3 Athasi S. and G3 Park S. victrix Jazz Princess (Ire) (Bahhare) and Listed Jebel Ali Sprint third Sholaan (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Her Listed Prix Petite Etoile-winning second dam Slow Jazz (Chief's Crown) produced dual stakes-winning G3 Premio Primi Passi runner-up Mister Cavern (GB) (Lion Cavern) and the dual stakes-placed Zoola (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). Slow Jazz is also the second dam of G3 Prix Perth winner Miss O Connor (Ire) (Roderic O'Connor), dual stakes scorer Jokes N Jazz (It's No Joke), Listed Knockaire S. third Irish Admiral (Ire) (French Navy {GB}) and Listed Eternal S. runner-up Improvise (GB) (Lend A Hand {GB}), with the latter being the dam of G3 Round Tower S. third Big Issue (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Descendants of her G2 Prix Maurice de Gheest-winning third dam Blue Note (Fr) (Habitat) include G1 Middle Park S.-winning sire Zieten (Danzig) and G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Blue Duster (Danzig).

RACE PREVIEWS

ALL EYES ON DONCASTER

Believe In Love running in Thursday's G2 Fillies' S. | ScoopDyga

By Tom Frary

It may be the least lauded of all the British festivals, but Doncaster's St Leger meeting is arguably the most varied with its cherished feature race still held in the highest regard by its many ardent fans. While Town Moor hosted day one of the festival on Wednesday, the relatively low-key action served mainly as a prologue or appetiser to the major upcoming events. Perhaps this week's jewels are the 2-year-old races, which lean more towards next year's Classics than those at Ascot, Newmarket, Goodwood and York and one of which serves as the main focus on Thursday. Aside from the G2 Cazoo May Hill S. over a mile for the juvenile fillies, there is the G2 Coral Park Hill Fillies' S., or the "Fillies' St Leger" as it was always known, and also the small matter of the reappearance of Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).

First Dance

What the May Hill always needs is an unbeaten filly apparently on the march to the Classics and Jaber Abdullah's Dance In The Grass (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) fits the bill, having mastered the subsequent G3 Prestige S. winner Fairy Cross (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Sandown's Listed Star S. July 21. The likes of Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) took this with similar profiles in recent times and this test will tell us which way the Charlie and Mark Johnston trainee will go. One who comes from the other end of the experience spectrum is the Tom Clover-trained Crystallium (GB) (Expert Eye {GB}), a granddaughter of the Lloyd-Webber's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Crystal Music (Nureyev) who impressed on her winning debut over seven at Chelmsford Aug. 25. Bought for a mere 22,000gns at the Book 2 Sale, she was unsold at 28,000gns at the Craven Breeze-Up but has obviously made giant strides in the interim. "She is an exciting prospect and has shaped up well in her work at home," Clover said. "I wouldn't run her on quick ground and I wouldn't run her on heavy ground, but I think she'll be fine on ground in between." Also on the card is the £300,000 Weatherbys Scientific £300,000 2-Y-O S., where Amo Racing Limited's exciting filly Magical Sunset (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) is in action having beaten the subsequent TDN Rising Star Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in what could turn out to be an important Windsor maiden Aug. 15.

Success Breeds Success

It has been another mixed week for Shadwell, but few among Sheikha Hissa's organisation have any reason to complain about their overall racing fates in 2022 and the Park Hill sees another great opportunity for the blue-and-white. Last year's G1 Qipco British Champions Fillies & Mares S. heroine Eshaada (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) is back on her favoured easier ground again with another potentially profitable autumn ahead and holds a distinct class edge over all her exposed rivals here. The exception could be Woodford Thoroughbreds' 3-year-old filly River Of Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), an unknown quantity who put the Belmont Gold Cup winner Loft (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in his place in the Aug. 20 Listed Chester S.

Welcome Back

For all that the current flat campaign can safely be categorised as above-average, the one star it has been missing all along is Godolphin's 2021 Derby and King George hero Adayar. Doncaster's 10-furlong Hilton Garden Inn Doncaster Conditions S. is the stage for his keenly-anticipated comeback, not the Coronation Cup or Prince of Wales's or King George as was expected at varying stages of the season, but for those who revelled in his barnstorming performances last summer it matters little. The fact is, the one horse who could light up the autumn like none other than Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) is here and under race conditions once again. There is still time for the imposing bay to make a serious impact this year and this is more about how he goes through the race rather than whether he has the class to easily dispose of Mick and Janice Mariscotti's often-disappointing Derby fourth Masekela (Ire) (El Kabeir). Sir Henry Cecil brought a low-on-confidence Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) here in 2009 and two starts later he was winning the Champion S., so that is welcome precedent.

Making Waves At ParisLongchamp

At ParisLongchamp, the G3 Prix d'Aumale sees the Wertheimers' TDN Rising Star Left Sea (GB) (Frankel {GB}) meet some intriguing rivals but the manner of the performance of the Carlos Laffon-Parias-trained daughter of Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) on her Deauville debut Aug. 18 suggests she has nothing to fear. In the G3 Prix des Chenes, Ballydoyle make another rare foray to one of France's lesser-contested juvenile contests with the stable even more replete than usual with potential Classic contenders. The Aug. 15 Dundalk maiden winner Adelaide River (Ire) (Australia {GB}) from the family of Uncle Mo is the chosen one and he is joined by compatriot Pivotal Trigger (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), Yuesheng Zhang's Jessica Harrington-trained son of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak and Park Hill winner Allegretto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who took an always-competitive Galway maiden July 25.

Moving Colours (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), the half-sister to the 2018 G1 Jebel Hatta winner Blair House (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), was not the subject of the usual strong support that Charlie Appleby runners attract at this track and after a slow start briefly flattered before weakening to be seventh.

Manaccan who triumphed in last month's Shergar Cup Dash at Ascot, lined up for this fourth black-type start coming back off a third in Newmarket's Aug. 27 Listed Hopeful S. and made the breakthrough with a career high in this all-aged dash. Finding cover and racing fifth through halfway, he quickened smartly to go second passing the furlong marker and was driven out in the closing stages to assert superiority in determined fashion.

"We were probably a bit unlucky at Newmarket, we raced over six [furlongs] and hit the front a bit too soon and just got mugged on the line," explained trainer John Ryan. "Ryan [Moore] has given him a superb ride and, hopefully, we'll go to Newbury for the [G3] International Trophy. Ground is a big issue for him and he prefers it on the good side rather than the soft side. He's such an easy horse to deal with, he's so professional and has been since day one. We travelled up here in the horse box today and you wouldn't have known he was on the back. He's a pleasure to deal with. He's got a very patient owner in Graham [Smith-Bernal] and to have someone who gives you that free rein and says 'if not today, we'll go next week' is a dream for a trainer."

Manaccan | racingfotos.com

Manaccan is the latest of eight foals and one of five scorers for G2 Queen Mary S. second Shyrl (GB) (Acclamation {GB}), herself a granddaughter of G3 Prix de Flore victrix and G1 Prix Saint-Alary third Benicia (Ire) (Lyphard). The April-foaled chestnut is a half-brother to multiple Group-placed Listed Hopeful S. victor Raucous (GB) (Dream Ahead) and G3 Prix d'Arenberg second Divine Spirit (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

4th-Kempton, £25,000, Hcp, 9-7, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f (AWT), 1:27.36, st/sl.
MANAAFITH (f, 2, Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Almashooqa, by Dubawi {Ire}), not seen since extending her tally at Chelmsford in November, tracked the leading duo under cover against the fence throughout the early stages. Sent to the front passing the two pole, the 15-8 favourite was quickly in command and only had to be pushed out to record a comfortable two-length success from Flame Of Freedom (Ire) (Dragon Pulse {Ire}). The dam is kin to the G3 Thoroughbred S. and G3 Criterion S.-placed Turjomaan (War Front) from the family of the GI Personal Ensign H. heroine Summer Colony (Summer Squall). She also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Madaket's Arrow (The Factor), a yearling colt by Noble Mission (GB) due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 and a colt foal by Medaglia d'Oro. She was bred to Tiz The Law this year. Lifetime Record: 4-3-1-0, $30,235.

LUCKIN BREW (IRE) (f, 2, Lope De Vega {Ire}--Witches Brew {Ire} {MSP-Ire}, by Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), fifth last time behind the Gosdens' promising Commissioning (GB) (Kingman {GB}) at Newmarket July 30, broke well to lead after the initial stages. Tackled by Miss Dolly Rocker (GB) (Frontiersman {GB}) approaching the two-furlong pole, the 4-5 favourite had to battle to subdue that rival and won that tussle only in the final 100 yards to prevail by a neck. The winner is a full-sister to the stable's G3 Prestige S. and G3 Princess Royal S. scorer Antonia De Vega (Ire), MGSW-Eng, $154,358. The dam, whose full-sister to both was purchased for €260,000 by Rabbah Bloodstock Limited at the recent Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale, is a half to the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois-winning sire Al Wukair (Ire) (Dream Ahead) and a granddaughter of the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Caerlina (Ire) (Caerleon). Six of the dam's seven foals have been by Lope De Vega and all have been fillies, including her 2022 foal. Sales history: €190,000 Ylg '21 ARAUG. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $8,807.

Sent to the front passing the two-furlong marker, the 11-4 second favourite readily asserted to score by a length from Sobegrand (GB) (Decorated Knight {GB}). The winner is a half-sister to this year's G3 Silver Cup and Listed Grand Cup scorer and G2 Dubai City Of Gold runner-up Without A Fight (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), GSW-Eng, GSP-UAE, $275,437. Wednesday's Results:

1st-Cork, €16,000, Mdn, 9-7, 2yo, f, 8fT, 1:45.47, sf/hy. BE HAPPY (IRE) (f, 2, Camelot {GB}--Frequential {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) raced off the tempo in sixth through the early fractions of this debut. Nudged along to close off the home turn, the well-backed 9-4 favourite was ridden to challenge passing the furlong marker and ran on strongly thereafter to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Foniska (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "She's a lovely, big filly and has been coming along nicely at home," said stable representative Chris Armstrong. "Wayne [Lordan] gave her a lovely ride and it was lovely to get the win when the penny dropped with her. She is a filly to look forward to next year, for some of those staying races, and the next step is for her to probably step into a listed or group race." Be Happy is one of three foals by Camelot (GB) and the second scorer out of an unraced half to G3 Prix Messidor victor Impulsif (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). The February-foaled bay, whose third dam is Group 3-winning matriarch Allez Les Trois (Riverman), is a full-sister to G3 Ballyroan S. third Hector De Maris (Ire) and a yearling colt. Asserting from the furlong marker, the bay who was bred by the late Paddy Bolger and co-owned by his wife Marguerite stayed on strongly to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Heartrate (Ire) (Dragon Pulse {Ire}). Entered in Saturday's Listed Ingabelle S., the winner was an emotive one for the Bolger family. "We're delighted, as Marguerite is here today," Una Manning said. "Kevin [Manning] was confident enough and it was just a nice win given the circumstances. She's a nice filly and she didn't mind that ground." The dam, whose filly by Belardo (Ire) is catalogued in the upcoming Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale, is a full-sister to the Listed Navigation S. scorer Sun On The Run (Ire) (Whipper). Seizing the advantage quickly approaching the furlong pole, the homebred stayed on strongly to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Dark Side (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}). Jockey Ronan Whelan commented, "He enjoyed the ground and I probably got there a little bit soon and he's idled a bit, he was probably value for a little bit more. He's a colt that will only improve with time as well." The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of the Italian listed scorer She Is Great (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) who was a rare purchase by the operation at the 2015 Tattersalls December Foal Sale. The third dam is the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani winner She Bat (GB) (Batshoof {GB}), with the family including the stakes winners She Breeze (GB) (Selkirk), She Spirit Di Su (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas)-placed She Basic (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}). YULONG PURCHASES ENTRIVIERE FOR NZ$900,000

by Lydia Symonds

She was a brilliant winner of the G1 Sistema Railway at Ellerslie on New Year's Day, having earlier snared a victory in the G2 Sheraco S. (1200 metres) in Australia during the spring, along with a win in the G3 Concorde H. the previous season. Entriviere also finished in the frame in the G1 BCD Group Sprint at Te Rapa, and from a wide draw in the G1 Doomben 10,000 in Brisbane. A fetlock injury has brought a premature end to the racing career of the mare, leading her to be offered online as a broodmare prospect and Te Akau principal David Ellis told TDN AusNZ he was very pleased with Wednesday's result.

"We thought she would make somewhere between NZ$800,000-NZ$1 million, so we're very happy to get NZ$900,000 for her," he said.

Te Akau have had good success selling on the Gavelhouse Plus platform, having struck gold last year when nine-time Group 1 winner Avantage (Fastnet Rock) sold to Coolmore for an eye-watering NZ$4.1 million.

Meanwhile, this is the second good result Te Akau have been handed by Yulong, with the Victorian Stud having purchased Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) for $2.6 million at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale last year.

"New Zealand Bloodstock and Gavelhouse promoted her (Entriviere) beautifully and it is great doing it this way because you get the market value," continued Ellis.

"There were some really good judges bidding on her. It's a shame she can't stay in New Zealand, but it's great to see her being bought by the same really good stud that bought Melody Belle."

Impressive First Crop

With spring in full swing, studs up and down the country have begun welcoming foals into the world and Fairgray said they have been very impressed with Lucky Vega's (Ire) first crop of Southern Hemisphere breds.

"We're really pleased with what he's producing. We sent a lot of mares to him last season and he is putting quality into mares that might have been a little bit plain, the foals have a lovely balance about them," he said.

"He himself is a very neat sort of horse and is very much in the Australian sprinting mould and the foals he's leaving are similar types."

At the beginning of the week, Yulong decided to retire talented racemare Away Game (Snitzel) and Fairgray said the daughter of Snitzel has arrived safely back on their property, where she is now awaiting to be covered by Yulong's headline stallion, Written Tycoon.

Baggy Green's multiple Group 1-winning daughter Tofane (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}), who was retired a few weeks ago, was covered by Written Tycoon on Tuesday, while fellow elite-level winner Hungry Heart (Frankel {GB}) has also been covered by the former Champion Sire.

The G1 Queensland Oaks scorer Winning Ways (Declaration Of War {USA}), who they purchased off the Inglis Digital August (Late) Sale for $700,000 has already been mated to their resident G1 Blue Diamond S. winner Tagaloa.

"We have started off with some of those top-end mares, which is obviously very exciting. To be able to work with these quality mares and for the stallions to have the opportunity with these sorts of mares, is obviously exciting," said Fairgray.

"We really look forward to the progeny out of these mares and taking them forward to yearling sales. Over the last couple of years, we have obviously grown at quite a rate, but we have a great team of people at Yulong and everyone is working towards the same goals of trying to breed and rear a couple of champions."
