AUDIBLE COLT PROVIDES LATE FIREWORKS IN KEESEP BOOK 3 FINALE

Session-topping Hip 1952 in the ring | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

What was a solid final Book 3 session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale suddenly jumped into high gear in its final 45 minutes, producing its four highest prices in the span of some 80 hips, led by a session-topping son of Audible who sold for $725,000 to Flurry Racing Stables just six lots from the end of the all-day session.

Now midway through the 12-day auction, figures continue to be well ahead of 2021 levels. During the weekend's two Book 3 sessions, 586 yearlings sold for $92,258,500. The Book 3 average of $157,438 is up 14.5% from a year ago, while the median is up 20% to $120,000.

Through six sessions, Keeneland has sold 1,242 yearlings for $327,909,500. The average of $264,017 is up 10.67% from a year ago and the median is up 11.11% to $200,000.

A filly by Curlin brought the 2021 Book 3 section's top price of $800,000 and was one of 12 yearlings to sell for $500,000 or more during the two sessions. Curlin again had the highest-priced Book 3 yearling this year, with a colt selling for $900,000. That yearling was one of 19 to sell for $500,000 or over.

Asked to describe the action at Keeneland Sunday, Four Star Sales' Kerry Cauthen said, "Flipping incredible. It was just a great day." Cont. p3

LOPE DE VEGA FILLY LEADS BROWN 1-2-3 IN PEBBLES

Klaravich Stables' Faith in Humanity (Fr) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), the lightest-raced filly in Sunday's GIII Pebbles S. at Belmont at the Big A, proved her inexperience was no issue as she led home a Chad Brown trifecta in just her third career start.

Debuting as a 7-5 favorite going two turns on the Monmouth turf July 24, the bay pressed the pace and edged away late for a 1 1/4-length graduation. Stepped right into stakes company, she went clear in the stretch of the restricted Riskaverse S. Aug. 25 at Saratoga before getting run down late by re-opposing stablemate Gina Romantica (Into Mischief) and settling for second.

Made the distant second choice here as the money poured in on Gina Romantica, Faith in Humanity quickly established command and showed the way while traveling comfortably through fractions of :24.13 and :49.55. Cont. p9

“We came in with nice individuals that we thought would sell well,” Cauthen continued. “They had nice physicals that would probably suit a pinhooker or a higher-end racing stable. And we just found the competition for those individuals was incredible.”

The Keeneland September sale was strong out of the blocks last Monday and Cauthen agreed there was a carryover to the auction's later books.

“This sale started in Book 1 with a bang. We kept selling great horses above and beyond expectations,” Cauthen said. “But we were putting very good individuals in front of them. And that does tend to trickle down into the next books because if they keep getting pressed out of the market, they realize they have to adjust their sights and probably spend a little more.”

The domestic buying bench continued to dominate the results sheets through Book 3.

“The strength of the domestic market is directly related to the strength of our racing market,” Cauthen said. “You can go out with a racehorse and earn a horse's money back and continue to have enjoyment and have it make some sense. And that has led us to a very, very strong domestic market.”

Bloodstock agent Clay Scherer, who purchased Sunday's session-topper on behalf of Staton Flurry, agreed the country's purse structure has led to plenty of competition in the sales ring.

“There is still strong demand for a Thoroughbred,” Scherer said. “It's never been more profitable to own one on the racetrack with the purse money that we have now. You are almost at the point where you can run year-round for six-figure purses for a maiden special weight. That's incredible.”

The Keeneland September sale continues through Saturday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m. Cont. p4

A Late Flurry of Activity

Staton Flurry had already left Lexington when bloodstock agent Clay Scherer called to tell him about a colt by Audible (hip 1952) selling late in the day at Keeneland and, with Scherer's enthusiasm in high-gear, the owner went to a session-topping $725,000 to acquire the youngster from the Paramount Sales consignment as Book 3 came to a close Sunday.

Staton Flurry | Keeneland

"I've just seen pictures of him," Flurry said Sunday night. "I left the sale yesterday morning and Clay hadn't looked at him yet. But I had the Wi-Fi on in the plane when I was flying home and he texted me, '1952 is a freak.' He said, 'We have to buy this thing.' He sent me some photos and I saw the walking video online. He has been driving me crazy all morning about this horse--he's probably called 10 or 12 times today and texts and similar pictures. The last time he was this hyped up about a horse was at the 2-year-old sale last year and we ended up buying what became Interstatedaydream. She has worked out all right for us. For him to get this hyped up about a horse, I said it must be something special."

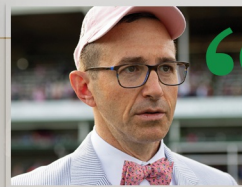

Interstatedaydream (Classic Empire), purchased for $175,000 at the 2021 OBS Spring Sale, won this year's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. and GIII Indiana Oaks.

Hip 1952 is out of Oh Boo Hoo (Kafwain), a half-sister to multiple Grade I placed Palacio de Amor (Dixieland Band).

"He was just a nice, beautiful horse," Scherer said of the yearling's appeal. "He has a typical Into Mischief look to him and bred the same way as [champion] Gamine. He looks like a fast horse who can carry it around two turns, a Classic distance type horse."

Asked if he thought he would have to go that high to acquire the colt, Scherer laughed and said, "Not even close. I was on the phone with Staton and, when you fall in love with one and you have the right people behind you, they don't want to lose when they think they have a shot to go win the biggest races."

A strong finish needs a good start.

Asked what he thought about the session-topping price tag, Flurry said, "We knew he was going to be expensive. We were thinking probably in the $600,000 range. I actually told Clay to stop bidding, but he said, 'Let's hit it one more time.' It's rare for Clay to get this excited or this hyped up about a horse, so for him to really say that told me all I needed to know."

Flurry admitted, among the many partnerships shopping for colts, it has been tough finding the Classic-type youngsters he is looking for in order to fulfill a lifelong goal.

"The top of my bucket list--everybody looks at me like I am crazy--but I want to win the Arkansas Derby more than anything," Flurry said. "It's home. I grew up about 1/4-mile from there. So we are looking for something that can win us that and, if you win that, you've got a good shot at the Kentucky Derby."

Flurry continued, "It's been especially tough at this sale. Normally you see a million-dollar horse sell. But this sale, it seemed like every other horse was a million-dollar horse. You've got the partnership groups partnering with each other where normally they go against each other and this year they are all forming teams to buy the big ones to go for the two-turn horses. It's like the whole dynamic of the sale has changed from last year to this year."

Duignan Calls an Audible

Gabriel Duignan hit a pinhooking home run with the $725,000 session-topping son of Audible. The horseman had purchased the colt for $160,000 as a short yearling at this past Keeneland January sale.

“He was a beautiful foal when I bought him,” Duignan said, while savoring the late-session fireworks. “It seemed like a good price at the time. He's just done super. He's just an absolutely beautiful horse. He's a horse that there is nothing you would change about him.”

Of the colt's development from January to September, Duignan said, “I think maybe the market has changed a bit, too, but he came in and he did super. He was squeaky clean on the X-rays. He was just a marvelous horse. He was probably the busiest horse I've ever had at a sale. And he showed like a champ. He never got tired. Every show was a good one. He turned out beautiful. He did everything you dream of.”

Yearlings by first-crop sire Audible (Into Mischief) have been in demand all summer and Duignan is at the top of the list of the stallion's fans. Just prior to selling hip 1952, Paramount sold another colt by the sire (hip 1941) for $350,000 to Mike McLoughlin. Duignan's Springhouse Farm purchased Mrs Vargas (Bernardini) with the colt in utero for $200,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November sale.

“I do love them,” Duignan said of Audible's offspring. “I think he was a very good racehorse with a nice pedigree. I think he is making nice stock. He's been very good to me at this sale.”

Through six sessions, 35 yearlings by Audible have sold for $7,747,000. In addition to Sunday's session topper, the sire was represented by a $675,000 son (hip 1167) Saturday.

Into Mischief Colt Joins Lynnhaven Roster

Jim and Dana Bernhard's Lynnhaven Racing continued its shopping spree at the Keeneland September sale with a pair of purchases Sunday. The duo was led by a colt by Into Mischief (hip 1871) who the couple purchased for $650,000 from the Four Star Sales consignment. Bred by Susan Casner, the yearling is out of stakes-placed Kayce Ace (Tiznow), a full-sister to Colonel John.

“He was a super nice colt,” said Four Star Sales' Kerry Cauthen. “Probably in the spring when we first saw him, he toed in a little bit and we didn't think he probably belonged in Book 2. He was probably a little weedy at that time. But he just bloomed into what was a heckuva nice, racy body. And matured. And we couldn't have been happier with him. That was rewarded in the marketplace today.”

Also Sunday, Lynnhaven Racing purchased a colt by Collected (hip 1672) for $300,000 from the Stone Farm consignment.

Through six sessions, the operation has purchased 10 yearlings for a total of $3,820,000.

Gun Runner Colt Rewards de Sousa

Sergio de Sousa freely admits he forms an attachment to his broodmares and the Hidden Brook managing partner, was rewarded for his faith in Wedding Jitters (Broken Vow) when the mare's colt by Gun Runner

(hip 1681) sold for $500,000 to Winchell Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm Sunday at Keeneland. De Sousa co-bred the yearling with Jonathan Mills from Cranford Bloodstock and in a foal share with Three Chimneys.

"He was a very straightforward colt and we always liked him at the farm," de Sousa said. "He showed well and he got a lot of action. You always hope for them to do well--$500,000 was great. We were hoping he would do something in there, but you never know until they go through and the hammer drops."

Wedding Jitters was bred by Hidden Brook and sold by the operation for $110,000 at the 2015 Keeneland September sale. She won twice in nine starts and set a track record at Gulfstream in 2017. De Sousa claimed the filly for $16,000 out of that 7 1/2-furlong record-setting performance.

"I have always been a huge fan of Broken Vow," De Sousa said of his decision to claim the mare. "And she was a beautiful foal.

We had her dam, Lightfoot Lane, and we sold her, I think she went to Saudi. But I like to buy back into our families."

Of the mating to Gun Runner, De Sousa said, "He was a tremendous race horse. He was typey and that's kind of what I wanted to breed the mare to. She has a Nyquist who is very nice and very typey. It was a bit of a gamble on Gun Runner. Three Chimneys was good enough, through Doug Cauthen, to do a foal share with us on the mare. It was a gamble, but the body type was what we were looking for, we were looking for a stallion to complement her. And we obviously got lucky that Gun Runner is just a fantastic horse having a great start at stud. Everything kind of lined up the right way." Cont. p7

FORMIDABLE!

FUN AND FEISTY cruises to victory in the G3 Pocahontas: that's Midshipman's third juvenile Stakes winner this year. It's the G1 Darley Alcibiades next for her.

Midshipman: his yearlings quite simply must be seen. The first one sold made $260k.

Just imagine...

Darley

De Sousa purchased back into another Hidden Brook family which was represented by a yearling in Sunday's sixth session of the Keeneland sale. Theory of Chance (Archarcharch) was sold by Hidden Brook for $95,000 at the 2014 Keeneland September sale and was reacquired by the operation for $45,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. Her Collected colt (hip 1652) sold for $210,000 to John Brocklebank, as agent for Bill Peeples.

"I have a problem sometimes with some of these mares, especially some of the ones we sold," De Sousa said with a chuckle. "It's hard for me to let them go. I really enjoy breeding horses because there is a connection and a story behind the ones we have. I can only imagine how people like Claiborne and Mr. Hancock, they go so far back on these families, it's very neat to be able to talk about the family that deep. Obviously, we want to make as much money as everybody else, that is what our business is, but I think there is also an attachment to the families or the horses as individuals."

Made the distant second choice here as the money poured in on Gina Romantica, Faith in Humanity quickly established command and showed the way while traveling comfortably through fractions of :24.13 and :49.55. Confidently handled by Manny Franco moving around the far turn, she cut the corner sweetly into the lane and darted clear entering the final three-sixteenths. Gina Romantica started to get going in the center of the course at the furlong grounds and ate into the leader's margin late, but Faith in Humanity was never in serious danger and held safely on the wire. Bahamian Club filled out the Brown trifecta.

"She was so nice and comfortable on the lead with her ears up," said Franco. "I think that was the key, that she relaxed for me. I had a lot of horse under me when I asked her to go. I was worried about [Gina Romantica] because she beat me last time and I knew that was the horse to beat." Cont. p10

“But at the same time I had a good feeling going to the three-eighths pole because I knew I had horse,” Franco continued. “I knew they'd have to run hard to get me. The turns are pretty good for the horses being near the pace.”

With the victory, Faith in Humanity becomes the 101st stakes winner and 60th graded stakes winner for Ballylinch Stud's star resident Lope de Vega. She's the second foal to race out of her dam, a half-sister to French G1SW Indonesienne (Ire) (Muhtathir {GB}) and three additional black-type performers in France. Her third dam is a half-sister to MG1SW Matiara (Bering {GB}), two other MGSWs and the dam of Australian G1SW Unforgotten (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Unraced dam Sharavana is responsible for a yearling filly by Churchill (Ire).

*Travel awards for ALL Championship starters (based outside KY)

Moving up one spot as the pace quickened a tad through six furlongs in 1:17.16, he dropped back to the tail of the field again while driven on the far turn. Looking odds-on to run last at that point, he finally started to pick it up three-sixteenths from home and closed furiously in the final furlong to just overtake British Royalty in the shadow of the wire to score.

“He just keeps coming,” said winning rider Emma-Jayne Wilson. “I was confident that he’d suit the distance and very optimistic about the ground—it had some cut to it—but he traveled over it nicely. I had to motivate him quite early and build and build, but I’ll tell you, when we straightened, he had dead aim on them and he was just flying. I was impressed.”

“Actually, he was a horse that was so studdish last year, he just didn’t have any desire,” added winning trainer Roger Attfield, who picked up his ninth Singspiel victory. “I knew there was ability there, but he wasn’t putting it out. All of a sudden he started to do better and put his mind to it a little bit more and allowed me to train him a little bit harder. This was kind of an interesting experiment almost because I wasn’t going in this race originally. I knew that a mile and three-eighths was probably a better race for him than the allowance race. When I heard it that it rained here, I thought that would help him too.”

NEW CONNECTIONS CORNER TO DEBUT AT 2022 THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

With a little less than a month to go before the 2022 Thoroughbred Makeover kicks off Oct. 12 at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, connections of retired racehorse entries planning to attend may be wondering how to find more information on their particular horses. With that in mind, Erin O'Keefe, Development Director for the Retired Racehorse Project, spoke about a new feature at this year's event: Connections Corner.

"Former connections of competing horses will be able to come to the booth, located in the TCA Covered Arena, to find out ride times, ring locations, and stabling information, as well as be directed to those locations if needed," said O'Keefe. "We want to encourage anyone who was involved with the Makeover horses (breeders, consignors, trainers, former owners, etc) to come out and see these horses thriving in their second careers, and possibly even meet their new connections."

"Whether members of the Thoroughbred industry are highly involved in aftercare and retraining, or want to learn more about how horses transition out of racing, there is something to be gained from seeing the incredible work so many trainers put in over the last 10 months to retrain these remarkable athletes," O'Keefe continued. "Aftercare is a multifaceted issue, and there are many approaches needed to fully address ensuring these athletes can thrive in all phases of their lives. The Makeover showcases one piece of the aftercare puzzle, and is a great opportunity to learn more about Thoroughbreds after racing and cheer on former connections once again."

"Everyone smiles in the winner's circle, but I would encourage former connections (and any industry participant) to come out to the Makeover and see another side of the successful Thoroughbred. It might be different, but I bet they'll still end up smiling."

HANDLE JUMPS 25% AT MONMOUTH; LOPEZ, GONZALEZ TAKE MEET TITLES

Monmouth Park showed a 25.2% increase in total handle and a 16.07% increase in on-track handle, while Paco Lopez won his ninth riding title and Claudio Gonzalez earned his first training title as the Jersey Shore track closed out its 77th season Sunday.

Total handle was $217,243,199 this summer compared to $173,511,611 a year ago. On-track handle was $17,753,794 in 2022 compared to $15,216,978 a year ago.

Total attendance was 368,101. Monmouth ran 60 live days of racing this year compared to 55 a year ago.

“We’re extremely pleased by the increase in handle for the 2022 meet, which we feel is a reflection of the quality of the product we were able to offer and the commitment from the horsemen to our program,” said Dennis Drazin, Chairman and CEO of Darby Development, operators of Monmouth Park.

Thoroughbred racing in New Jersey now shifts to the Meadowlands Racetrack for a nine-day all-turf meet that gets underway Friday, Sept. 23, and runs through Saturday, Oct. 22. First race post time throughout the meet will be 7 p.m.

Lopez, 36, easily outdistanced the competition with 91 winners. His nine riding titles leave him behind only Joe Bravo’s 13 for the most in Monmouth Park history. He punctuated his latest title with a four-winner day on Sunday. Gonzalez, who started his career at Monmouth Park as an assistant to Ben Perkins, Jr. in 1995, finished with 32 winners, three better than runner-up Kelly Breen.

“I started here. I still feel like this is my home,” Gonzalez said of Monmouth Park. “I feel this one is special for me. I really wanted to win the title here this year, especially after we got off to such a fast start. And we got it. I’m very happy. I have a great crew of workers. Any time you win a title it’s a team effort.”

How horse racing was Queen Elizabeth II's enduring passion

The races were among the few occasions when the Queen could allow her guard to drop in public for a few moments and she could mix amongst the racegoers as a pure racing fan. However, as those in the sport know, she was far from just being a fan. Horses were central to the Queen's life from a very young age. She was just 16 when she first visited a racing stable. Her father, George VI, went with her to cast his eye on two prime race horses--Big Game and Sun Chariot.

INTO MISCHIEF FILLY ON BEST BEHAVIOR, BECOMES A RISING STAR

Pretty Mischievous | Coady

by Alan Carasso

Sent off at odds of 2-1 despite a potentially tricky draw in gate 12, Godolphin's Pretty Mischievous (f, 2, Into Mischief--Pretty City Dancer, by Tapit) did it toughest of all, but was there for Tyler Gaffalione when push came to shove and went on to prevail by 2 1/4 deceptively easy lengths to become the 33rd 'TDN Rising Star' for her boom sire.

Away without incident from the wide outside, the homebred raced four wide in the breeze just off a trio of pacesetters up ahead of her. Cruising along in hand as they raced around the turn, Pretty Mischievous breezed up to her rivals to make a line of four at the head of the stretch, showed some agility to open up when asked approaching the final furlong and was not fully extended to take it by a comfortable margin.

Pretty Mischievous is the second foal to the races from her dam, who shared the spoils with her sire's daughter Sweet Loretta in the 2016 GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga. Pretty City Dancer is a half-sister to Lear's Princess (Lear Fan), who defeated GI Belmont S. heroine Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) in the 2007 GI Gazelle S., and was acquired by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock on behalf of Godolphin for $3.5 million in foal to Medaglia d'Oro at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. The cross of Into Mischief over Tapit mares has resulted in 13 winners, including SW Travieza.

Barren to Uncle Mo for 2021, Pretty City Dancer produced a filly by Medaglia d'Oro this season and was bred back to Street Sense.

FAIR DINKUM (g, 4, Twirling Candy--Secret Song, by Dunkirk) capped his worktab with a bullet five furlongs from the gate in :59 flat at the Trackside Training Center Sept. 9 and was given an 8-1 chance while making a very belated first trip to the races.

One of the last to link up with the track proper after a tardy dispatch, the homebred gelding improved to a midfield position as the half went up in a very slick :44.88. Steered out into the three path on the turn, Fair Dinkum had aim on the leaders in upper stretch, but raced erratically into the final furlong. He was joined not long after by Redemption Time (Runhappy), but dug in gamely to hold by a head. J'ADORO (g, 2, Medaglia d'Oro--Caren {Horse Of The Year & Ch. 3yo Filly-Can, GSW, $821,790}, by Society's Chairman), gelded since a well-beaten seventh on the turf at Saratoga Aug. 20, returned here for Michael DePaulo, who trained him to a pair of unplaced efforts locally. Bet down to 4-1 off his 15-1 morning line, J'adoro kept to the rail in mid-pack in company with Glenholme (Mo Town). The dark bay tried to angle out but was blocked and had to tip back inside with a furlong to run to engage Twin City (Klimt) and the pair bobbed heads to the line, with J'adoro just getting the better of his rival. Out of Canadian Horse of the Year Caren (Society's Chariman), J'adoro's only younger sibling is a yearling half-brother by Omaha Beach. Caren was bred to Charlatan for 2023. EXPECTED VALUE (c, 2, Flatter--Midnight Visit {SW, $141,140}, by Henny Hughes) was no match for 'TDN Rising Star' Echo Again (Gun Runner) last month, checking in third when first seen going 6 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 20. Stretched out to a mile Sunday, the 4-1 runner got off to a slow beginning and settled patiently at the rear of the field until asked to run with a five-wide move around the far turn. Coming with an outside rally with an eighth to run, Expected Value made a simultaneous run towards the front with Ohana Honor (Honor Code) and won the photo, prevailing by a nose on the line. Point Proven (Gun Runner) was third, Big Wicks (Medaglia d'Oro) checked in fifth, and Phelpsy (Into Mischief) settled for sixth. A half-brother to the dam of MGSP Awake At Midnyte (Nyquist), Expected Value's only younger sibling is a yearling half-sister by Hard Spun. Sales History: $180,000 Wlg '20 KEENOV. 3rd-Belmont The Big A, $95,000, Msw, 9-18, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, time: n/a, fm, 1 3/4 lengths.

VERONICA GREENE (f, 3, Tapit--Adorable Miss {MSW, $162,590}, by Kitten's Joy) made two attempts on the dirt to begin her career back in April before switching to the turf for her most recent start where she came up just a neck short at Saratoga July 23. Kept over the same mile distance this time at Aqueduct, the 6-5 choice, had to check sharply into the first turn to avoid clipping heels and was swung out wide into the clear for the backstretch run. Advancing into third while still racing four wide past the quarter pole, she displayed a strong closing kick to blow by Sareeha (Ire) (Shamardal) on the outside and sustained her rally to the wire for a 1 3/4-length win. Already a half-sister to Battle of Normandy (City of Light), recent unlucky runner-up in Saratoga's Gill With Anticipation S., Veronica Greene is out of a full-sister to GSW Noble Beauty. She has a yearling half-brother by Twirling Candy who brought $225,000 at the Keeneland September Sale, and a weanling half-brother by War of Will. Adorable Miss was sent to Tapit's two-time champion son Essential Quality for 2022. Sales History: $260,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. BINSKY (f, 2, Curlin--Retraceable {SW, $370,564}, by Medaglia d'Oro), entered off an off-the-pace fourth place at first asking July 21 at Saratoga and, given only a mild 13-1 shot in this spot, raced much closer to the pace while tracking inside of odds-on pacesetter Peace Cruiser (Violence). Cont. p5

Hugging the rail while still engaged with that rival, Binsky came under a ride as the pair turned for home together and found herself on the winning end of a stretch-long duel, just edging Peace Cruiser by a nose. Tangential (Justify) came in fifth while Aniston (Curlin) checked in seventh. A half-sister to Another Miracle (Americah Pharoah), MSW & GSP, $274,909, Binsky's only younger sibling is a weanling half-sister by Nyquist. Her dam was bred to Maxfield for a 2023 foal. FORBIDDEN SECRET (c, 2, Outwork--Market Buzz, by After Market), made the heavy 1-2 favorite off a narrow half-length defeat at Saratoga Aug. 18 in his second career start, breezed out to an early lead with heavy pressure from Going in Style (Mastery). In his first race beyond six furlongs, Forbidden Secret distanced himself from the field after dispatching a pair of rivals into the far turn. Fanned wide as the top trio straightened for the line, he easily went clear under a hard ride, coasting under the wire 9 3/4-lengths ahead of 37-1 longshot Weekend Tizzy (Bernardini), who closed for second. Market Buzz, herself a half-sister to MGISW Giant Oak (Giant's Causeway), last produced a colt by Caracaro in 2022 before being sent to Beau Liam for next season. WHISTLEJACKET (c, 2, Violence--Wave the Flag {SP}, by Empire Maker), the 5-2 choice in this debut spot, kept in touch while racing against the rail before having to check abruptly entering the far turn. Back quickly into stride, he moved between horses to strike the front as the field passed the quarter pole and continued to edge away, chased home by Playground Legend (Collected) who came up a half-length short. That Sun of a Gun (Gun Runner) split the field in fifth. FRENCH KISSING (f, 3, Violence--Forbidden Kiss, by Touch Gold) found a spot of trouble nearing the stretch of her Aug. 6 bow at Monmouth, but stayed on determinedly for second. The 8-5 favorite to go one better, the $220,000 FTKSEL buyback eased back into a chasing position after racing with the pace for the opening exchanges and tugged her way into second as they hit the turn. Asked to come after pacesetting longshot In Her Cups (Dialed In) approaching the stretch, French Kissing surged past and pulled clear to graduate by 2 1/2 lengths despite switching leads several times in the final couple of furlongs. The winner is a half-sister to Indulgence (Macho Uno), GISP, $239,116, the 2-year-old colt Batata (Street Sense) and a yearling full-brother. WEST COAST COWBOY (c, 2, West Coast--Coco's Sweetie {SW, $365,332}, by Tenpins) became the seventh winner for his freshman sire (by Flatter) and second in two days with a hard-fought debut success. Drawn the fence as the lone firster in a field of seven, the half-brother to Strike Hard (Flashback), MSP, $178,885, took the field out of the chute and made a fairly easy lead through a half-mile in :47.52. Put to a hard drive three furlongs from home, West Coast Cowboy looked in all sorts of bother leaving the eighth pole as 1-2 Peregrino G (Curlin) looked to have all the momentum and perhaps even headed his rival, but West Coast Cowboy punched back in the nick of time to prevail. BARODA STUD AIMING TO STAND OUT AT TATTERSALLS IRELAND

David Cox: "It's all about trying to make your horse stand out." | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

If a major part of a trainer's job is to place horses in the right races, then a consignor must select the right sale for their offerings, which is exactly what David Cox of Baroda Stud gets right more times than not. Baroda have had some well-received yearling drafts in Britain and France this autumn and Cox is quietly optimistic of breaking into the top bracket of the September Yearling Sale at Tattersalls Ireland this week with his 21-strong draft. "It's all about trying to make your horse stand out. No matter what sale you go to, you want to be in that top 10 to 15 per cent," Cox said at the end of a busy day showing at Barn G at Tattersalls Ireland on Sunday. "You have to think about what physical you have, what pedigree you have and then try and make your horse stand out wherever you send it. All of the yearling sales so far this year, the top end of the market has been very strong, so, if you can position yourself to be in the top 10 to 15 per cent of that market, you are going to get well-paid.

"Take our horses at this sale for example, we have a broad arrangement of sires there; we've sharp types and staying types, so we've something for everyone. A lot of the breeze-up men and women, they didn't really do a lot of shopping in Britain this year because of the expenses involved, but they will shop here."

TUNNES TOO GOOD IN DORTMUND'S DEUTSCHES ST LEGER

By Sean Cronin

Holger Renz's accidental purchase Tunnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ire}--Tijuana {Ger}, by Toylsome {GB}), a half-brother to G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) who was acquired as the result of an online oversight, brought the curtain down on his juvenile campaign with a win in Krefeld's Nov. 14 G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen. Having passed on his G1 Deutsches Derby engagement this term, he made a successful comeback in a Baden-Baden conditions heat at the end of last month and continued his winning streak with a wide-margin domination of Sunday's G3 Racebets 138th Deutsches St Leger at Dortmund, providing his owner with a second straight renewal of the 14-furlong Classic. The 13-10 favourite fought for his head through the initial stages and was allowed to stride on in front after passing the judge first time.

DEBUT WINNERS FOR LE HAVRE AND SEAHENGE 8

Le Havre and Seahenge enjoyed first-out juvenile winners at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat Sunday. The former was represented by Lindy (Fr), while the latter gained the distinction with Seakine (Fr).

He added, “This is a good sale. It’s an Irish sale as well, which is important, because we need to support the Irish sales as well as the English ones.”

It being an Irish sale is a relevant point. There was a noticeably small representation of Irish trainers at the Premier Yearling Sale at Doncaster and the Somerville Sale at Tattersalls UK but Paddy Twomey, Ado McGuinness and many more were spotted doing some early legwork on Sunday.

Travelling horses to and from Britain has become far more expensive since Brexit and, according to Cox, is a major factor in when it comes to trainers, agents and owners deciding where to select the raw material from.

However, judging by the footfall at Tattersalls Ireland on Sunday, a good 48 hours before the sale commences on Tuesday, trade at the first Irish yearling sale of 2022 should be strong.

“Even for ourselves,” Cox explained, “sending yearlings to the sales in Britain has become extremely expensive. The cost is roughly double what it used to be and, if you don’t sell one and have to bring it back, it’s far from ideal.

“If you were to look at the amount of British runners in Ireland this season, I can only imagine that it is much less than what it used to be, and that’s because of the costs in travelling these horses and the hassle that comes with Brexit.”

On his hopes for the week ahead, he added, “There aren’t many Irish trainers who splash out at the yearling sales and buy on spec. There aren’t many Richard Hannons over here and, to be honest, there are less and less trainers buying on spec on the whole.”

“It’s more agents, owners and syndicates who are doing the buying but the yearling sales have been strong so far this year so I’d be positive heading into this week.

“We’ve had a lot of footfall today, there’s plenty of English over, which is great so I think this sale will go well.”

Maintaining control in testing conditions thereafter and lobbing along for the most part, he had all rivals under pressure off the home turn and romped further clear under urging once shaken up approaching the quarter-mile marker to rout 37-1 outsider Sir Filip (Ger) (Ito {Ger}) by eight lengths, himself 3 1/2 lengths ahead of the winner’s stablemate Nerium (Ire) (Camelot {GB}).

Tunnes returning to the winner's circle earlier this season
Emma Berry

Cont.

“I didn’t really want to make all over such a long trip, but I did not want to take the risk of him pulling hard either, so it worked out well,” said winning jockey Bauyrzhan Murzabayev after claiming his first Deutsches St Leger. Trainer Peter Schiergen added, “The way he won was really quite impressive and he is a true and excellent stayer. We will now run in the Group 1 event at Munich [Nov. 6 G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern] and maybe once before that at ParisLongchamp on the [Oct. 16 G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris] weekend following the Arc meeting.”

Pedigree Notes:

Tunnes, one of two pattern-race winners for his sire, is the fourth of seven foals and one of two winners out of a half-sister to four stakes performers headed by the G2 Diana-Trial victrix Tusked Wings (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}), G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil third Titurel (Ger) (Dr Fong) and last year’s G3 St Leger Italiano runner-up Tangut (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). The April-foaled chestnut, full to a weanling filly, is a half to the aforementioned Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), the hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly Tiara Hilleshage (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) and a yearling colt by Adlerflug (Ger). His third dam, Listed Prix Occitanie runner-up Turbaine (Tremolino), produced Guiliani’s sire Tertullian (Miswaki) which gives Tunnes a 3x3 inbreeding to Turbaine, herself a half-sister to G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe-winning blue hen Urban Sea (Miswaki).

Second and third to the “Frankel of the fjords”, Square de Luynes (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}) in this 12 months ago, Outbox (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Master Bloom (Swe) (Pastorius {Ger}) got a lot closer this time but still had to fill the same places behind the unexposed 3-year-old Hard One To Please (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}). Successful in the July 17 Svenskt Derby at Jagersro and the Norsk Derby at Ovrevoll Aug. 21, the bay needed every yard of this mile-and-a-half trip and after being covered up by Pat Cosgrave behind the leaders grafted hard from the end of the back straight to wear down Outbox in the final stride.

“He got me out of trouble a couple of times and with a smoother run he could have won by farther,” said Cosgrove.

Tattersalls October Yearling Sales

Luke & Tabitha Lillingston: +353 (0)87 9195780

“He’s a nice horse and he could be quite special next year. If he hadn’t have won it would have been my fault. The good ones will always get you out of trouble.”

Pedigree Notes:

The dam Alyssum, who is also responsible for the recent G3 Sweet Solera S. runner-up Dandy Alys (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), is a daughter of the G1 1000 Guineas third and GI E. P. Taylor S. runner-up Alasha (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and therefore a half to the G3 Ballycorus S. and G3 Sceptre S. winner Alanza (Ire) (Dubai Destination) and the Listed Star S. scorer Alonsoa (Ire) (Raven’s Pass). From the family of the G1 Irish St Leger winner Alandi (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the champion Aliysa (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), her yearling filly by Camacho (GB) is catalogued in next month’s Book 3 Sale.

Having given three pounds and a short-head beating to the proven group 1 performer Nerium (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) in a 10-furlong conditions event at Baden-Baden Sept. 3, Wiesentau was asked to try black-type for a sixth time and answered the call in style as this became a test. Always happy taking a lead throughout the early stages, the bay waved goodbye from the top of the straight and came home alone for the breakthrough win. The triple group 3-winning dam, who has produced the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli scorer Wiesenbach, is fittingly a half to the G2 Deutsches S. Leger heroine and excellent producer Wurftaube (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}). Included in this dynasty is GI Man O'War S. hero Wake Forest (Ger) (Sir Percy {GB}), the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Wonderment (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), the Arc-winning Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the G1 St Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Wurfscheibe also has the 2-year-old filly by Maxios (GB) named Wiesenjagd {Ger}.

LINDY (FR) (f, 2, Le Havre {Ire}--Llanita {GB}, by Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) was well away from the outside gate to stalk the leaders in a handy third after the initial exchanges of this debut. Shaken up to go second with 300 metres remaining, the 25-2 chance hit the front passing the eighth pole and kept on strongly under mild urging in the closing stages to assert by two lengths from Missvenicia (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}). Lindy is the third foal and scorer produced by a dual stakes-placed half-sister to Listed Prix Vulcain third Viridorix (GB) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) and stakes-winning G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris third Childa (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}), herself the dam of G3 Prix La Force victor Chilean (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}). The March-foaled dark bay is a half-sister to Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon winner Nirliit (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}), Listed Prix Coronation and Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr runner-up Almeida Girl (GB) (Temple City) and a yearling colt by Siyouni (Fr).
