

ALOHA WEST TO STAND AT MILL RIDGE AFTER BREEDERS' CUP

Aloha West winning the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint
Bill Denver/Eclipse Sportswire

Mill Ridge Farm will add a second stallion to its roster for 2023 in this year's defending GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Aloha West (Hard Spun--Island Bound, by Speightstown), according to Mill Ridge's general manager Price Bell.

Owned by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and trained by Wayne Catalano, Aloha West is from the family of Fappiano, out of a winner of the six-furlong GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill.

"Aloha West himself very much resembles this side of his family with the speed of Speightstown and his physical quality and presence," said Bell. "Also, the granddam is a daughter of A.P. Indy, and this provides a wonderful pedigree blend of Danzig through Hard Spun, Gone West through Speightstown, and A.P. Indy. These are three of the most influential sire lines today."

A $160,000 2018 Keeneland September yearling, Aloha West was initially owned by Gary West and trained by Bob Baffert. Turning in impressive works at two, he was injured prior to his first start, requiring surgery. He was turned over to Catalano for his 3-year-old year, and didn't make his debut until February of his 4-year-season, breaking his maiden in his first start. He was purchased by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners after his next outing. Cont. p3

GOLDEN PAL HEADLINES KEENELAND'S FRIDAY WORKTAB

Mrs. John Magnier, Derrick Smith, Michael Tabor and Westerberg's Golden Pal (Uncle Mo), undefeated in four prior starts at Keeneland, worked five furlongs over the turf in 1:03.80 as he completed his preparations toward defending his title in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint.

"Sometimes when you come up to a big event like the Breeders' Cup, you can get a little nervous and try to overdo things," said trainer Wesley Ward. "But we are just sticking with the plan."

Also working Friday for Ward was Stonestreet Stables's 'TDN Rising Star' Love Reigns (Ire) (U S Navy Flag), who breezed five furlongs in 1:08 in anticipation of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Cont. p4

He went on to win five of nine starts that year, culminating with a win in the Qatar Racing Breeders' Cup Sprint over champion Jackie's Warrior (Maclean's Music).

"This history of brilliance in training also resembled that of Speightstown, who showed promise as a 3-year-old and was injured and missed his entire 4-year-old season before returning as a 6-year-old and winning the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint," said Bell. "With the speed Aloha West demonstrated winning the Breeders' Cup Sprint, and influence from Speightstown and the Fappiano family, as well as his physical good looks, we expect he will be attractive to commercial breeders."

Mill Ridge was formerly the home of champion sires Diesis (GB) and Gone West, but the farm took a hiatus from the stallion business for several years until Oscar Performance's arrival in 2019.

"To stand another Breeders' Cup winner in Aloha West is a great addition to the farm," said Bell. "He will be located in the Gone West stallion barn and paddock. We are so excited to announce Aloha West as our next Mill Ridge stallion. With his will to win, pedigree blend and outstanding physical presence, we believe breeders will be drawn to him. We think he has an opportunity to contribute to our breed."

"Over the years, we have stood a number of horses, including Bien Bien and Valiant Nature," said Bell, who added that as a smaller stallion operation, they needed to choose carefully. "In the end, we can't make mistakes," he said. "We have to carve our niche. The Amermans gave us a tremendous opportunity in Oscar Performance, who we raised, and we had the confidence we could buck the trend and stand a turf horse in America because he had the pedigree, the looks and the race record."

Oscar Performance is currently the ninth-leading first-crop sire by earnings, and has three offspring pointing to next week's Aloha West's stallion career will be managed in the same way, said Bell. "There are a ton of programs going to lifetime breeding rights, and share the upside, which are great programs and which have changed the market," he said. "We're trying to go the other way and have a traditional 40-share syndicate, with a diverse group of breeders. We're all on the journey together, paying the bills, and giving him the best chance possible. We are trying to price our horses as fairly as possible so everyone can 'share the upside.' We said we were going to breed Oscar Performance to 150-160 mares, and we'll do the same in Aloha West."

Bell said that the Eclipse partners would stay in on the stallion. "There is a broad group of Eclipse partners in this horse and they're excited to try and experience the next stage of a horse's career in being a stallion," he said. "Eclipse is excited to provide that opportunity and they're some of the best at bringing people into the business."

Bell said that half of Aloha West would be syndicated. "We all believe in these horses for a variety of reasons and believe they should be given an opportunity at stud, while leaving enough opportunity for others who also believe.

"Aloha West was a great racehorse--a tough, hard knocking, great racehorse," said Bell. "If we're trying to further the breed, we need a greater body of work than just one race. For us, Aloha West and Oscar Performance have given us the confidence that they can contribute to the breed."

(Constitution). Each worked a half-mile, with Wonder Wheel going in :48.40 on the dirt and Webslinger covering the same distance on the grass in :50.40.

Trainer Todd Pletcher sent out 'TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) and Lost Ark (Violence), both pre-entered in the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile, to work in company. The pair went a half-mile in :48.80. Shortly after, Pletcher's two GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies entries, Chocolate Gelato (Practical Joke) and Atomically (Girvin), also went a half together in :49.80.

Manny Wah (Will Take Charge), one of two GI Qatar Racing Breeders' Cup Sprint pre-entries for trainer Wayne Catalano, covered the same half-mile distance in :47.40. Last seen taking the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Downs Sept. 17, Curly Jack (Good Magic) went a half-mile in :49.80 at Keeneland Friday.

"This is his last work going into the race," trainer Tom Amoss said. "I know the big question on everyone's mind is the time between races and how he will respond to that. I am very comfortable with that. Today's work was designed to be an easy half-mile with a good gallop out. We got just that."

COX JUVENILES TOP BREEDERS' CUP WORKTAB AT CHURCHILL

Verifying (outside) and Chop Chop at Churchill Friday | Coady

Brad Cox stablemates Chop Chop (City of Light) and Verifying (Justify) worked five furlongs in company Friday morning at Churchill Downs as they prepare for next Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, respectively.

The pair broke off and began their breeze at the 4 1/2-furlong pole and were clocked in fractions of :11.80, :23.40, :35.80 and :47.40 before galloping out six furlongs in 1:13 flat, according to Churchill clocker John Nichols. Joe Talamo was aboard Chop Chop, last seen finishing a close second to Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland, while Florent Geroux partnered with Verifying, an impressive debut winner on the GI Runhappy Travers S. undercard at Saratoga Aug. 27 ahead of a runner-up effort to Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) in the GI Champagne S. at Aqueduct.

"It was a real good move for both of them," said Cox, who will saddle five horses on Breeders' Cup weekend. "I thought Chop Chop was moving maybe a little easier. They both cooled out well and will head over to Keeneland Monday. (Chop Chop) ran a winning race in the Alcibiades and came up short. If she has a similar effort and gets out of the gate well I think she'll run well. I'm really happy with both her and Verifying at this stage of their career. They seem to be developing the right way into the Breeders' Cup."

There was an unfortunate development during Friday trackwork at Churchill when Cox assistant Katie Tolbert suffered a serious injury to her left leg and was transported to a local hospital via ambulance, according to Daily Racing Form's Marty McGee. Tolbert was reportedly thrown off an unraced 2-year-old in the pre-dawn hours and struck a grandstand box-seat railing. DRF reported that training at the track was halted for about 40 minutes while Tolbert was attended to.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE NIGHT OF THE STARS:

ONSHORE by Katie Petrunyak

With a star-studded lineup preparing to go through the ring on a night showcasing some of racing's most prestigious broodmares and broodmare prospects, Fasig-Tipton's Boyd Browning has high praise for Onshore (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}--Kalima {GB}, by Kahyasi {Ire}), a royally-bred Group 1 producer who will sell as Hip 216 at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale.

"I believe Onshore is one of the most exciting broodmare offerings that we've had the privilege of selling in my lifetime at Fasig-Tipton," Browning said. "She embodies everything you look for in the Thoroughbred industry. She has an amazing Juddmonte family. She's in foal to Wootton Bassett, who is a very influential rising star in the European stallion ranks. She has produced a Grade I winner in Onesto (Ire) (Frankel), who has demonstrated tremendous ability on the racetrack. I can't imagine any mare having a brighter future with the resume she has put together thus far.”

The Sea The Stars mare now has five foals on her produce record led by her brilliant son Onesto, the winner of this year's G1 Grand Prix de Paris. At the 'Night of the Stars' sale, Onshore will be consigned by Gainesway.

“It's a privilege to be able to offer a mare like Onshore,” said

Gainesway's Alex Solis. “To be just nine years old and the dam of a French Classic winner with your second foal, that's pretty remarkable. She could be the cornerstone of any broodmare band wherever she goes.”

Onshore was one of the first remunerative Thoroughbred purchases for Adam Bowden's Diamond Creek Farm (profiled by Chris McGrath here). Diamond Creek launched as a Standardbred operation in 2005, when Bowden was just 24, and then made its foray into the Thoroughbred business several years ago. During one of Bowden's first buying trips overseas, he found Onshore at the 2016 Tattersalls December Mares Sale.

“She fit the bill for what we were looking for,” he recalled. “She had a well-bred pedigree and physically, she fit the European style of racing. She was in foal to Frankel, who was young at the time but I was a huge fan of his.”

Bowden purchased the maiden mare from Juddmonte for 320,000gns. Diamond Creek liked her resulting filly so much that the next year, Onshore returned to Frankel. That mating producing Onesto.

“I actually never got to see him as a foal because it was during the COVID year,” Bowden explained. “My advisor there, Eddie Fitzpatrick at Coolmore, told me that he was a nice horse and that I shouldn't give him away.”

When the colt failed to meet his reserve as a yearling, he shipped to Ciaran Dunne of Wavertree Stables and sold for $535,000 to Hubert Guy at the 2021 OBS April Sale before making his way back to Europe. Onesto landed with trainer Fabrice Chappet and earned the 'TDN Rising Star' nod when he broke his maiden on debut as a juvenile. This year, he took the G2 Prix Greffulhe before claiming his Group 1 score in the Grand Prix de Paris while also placing second in the G1 Irish Champion S.

“Anyone who has watched Onesto run has to be impressed by his turn of foot,” Browning noted. “He’s explosive when he makes his move. He demonstrates the brilliance that is so critical to racing around the world, but especially in Europe.”

Onshore’s produce record also includes an unraced juvenile filly by Australia (GB), a yearling Gleanagles (Ire) filly that sold for €460,000 to Michel Zerolo of Oceanic Bloodstock at Arqana this summer, as well as a another filly by American Pharaoh.

“To have four daughters working for her going forward is pretty awesome, but really the big appeal to her is that it’s such an international family,” said Solis. “She comes from an amazing Juddmonte family anchored by Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi), who threw five Group 1 winners herself and two other graded stakes horses including the very influential stallion Dansili (GB). Onshore is even a half to an international Group 3 winner Jet Away (GB) (Cape Cross), who went to Australia and proved himself there.”

“It’s literally the who’s who of the Thoroughbred breeding industry all combined into one package,” added Browning of Onshore’s pedigree. “She’s also in foal to Wootton Bassett, who produced a champion in his first crop. More importantly, he’s a sire that Coolmore has made a significant commitment to. So you’ve got the Juddmonte pedigree with the Coolmore influence in the covering sire, and if that’s not a good bet in the Thoroughbred industry, I can’t think of a better set of circumstances.”

Bowden is looking forward to seizing the moment with Onshore while Onesto is in the limelight, but he said that the mare has forever made her mark on Diamond Creek’s story.

“I think we’re in the business to make money,” he explained when asked why Onshore is for sale. “The money we make from Onshore will be put right back in the market to try to do it again. She’s really the first big-time horse for us to sell back to the market so there’s a soft spot in my heart for her and part of me doesn’t want to sell her, but the other part of me knows that it’s the right financial decision and one that could provide us with more and more capital to go back to the market.”

This year has been a fruitful era for Diamond Creek with the likes of Bashford Manor S. winner and GI Hopeful S. runner-up Gulfport (Uncle Mo) and three-time Grade I-placed Family Way (Uncle Mo) both representing their breeder at the highest levels of the sport in the U.S. while Onesto carries the banner abroad.

“I don't know that we were originally planning on having Group 1 winners,” Bowden admitted. “I think we were looking for sales and racing success, and whatever grew out of that would be great. To have this kind of success this quickly was obviously not what we had planned, but we're very happy with it.”

As for Onshore, Browning said he believes the mare could wind up starting the next chapter of her story anywhere in the world.

“I think Onshore truly has international appeal,” he said. “She's a collector's pedigree. I don't know if the new buyer will reside in Europe or Japan or America, but I do know that the new buyer will have an opportunity to have a tremendously accomplished mare with a tremendous amount of potential in front of her.”

“This mare could go anywhere and be a standout,” added Solis. “It will be exciting to see who shows up.”

PLENTY OF GRADED ACTION ON FINAL SATURDAY AHEAD OF BREEDERS' CUP

In the weeks leading up to the Breeders' Cup, most of the news is focused on when the stars are shipping and breezing. But, with one week left to go before World Championship Saturday, there is plenty of racing action with seven graded events from coast-to-coast.

Sophomore colts take center stage at Keeneland in the newly upgraded GIII Bryant Station S. GI Belmont Derby hero Classic Causeway (Giant's Causeway) looks to make amends after an unplaced effort in the course-and-distance GI Shadwell Turf Mile Oct. 8. His best efforts have come at longer distances, but he may just outclass most of these as he takes a step down from top-level company.

A two-time graded winner sprinting on dirt, Wit (Practical Joke) will be Classic Causeway's biggest competition. He debuted on grass in Saratoga, finishing second to Ready to Purrform (Kitten's Joy) in the Aug. 5 GII Hall of Fame S. and winning the Aug. 28 Better Talk Now S., both at a mile.

Also on tap in Lexington Saturday is the GII Hagyard Fayette S., which is led by 'TDN Rising Star' First Captain (Curlin). The GIII Pimlico Special S. winner missed by a nose in the GII Suburban S.

in July and was third in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup S. last out Sept. 3. Another son of Curlin, King Fury, enters off a pair of thirds at Churchill Downs in the Aug. 13 Fort Larned S. and the Oct. 1 GII Lukas Classic S.

The Belmont at the Big A meet also plays host to a pair of graded events, starting with the GII Kelso H. Baby Yoda (Prospective) looks to secure his first black-type win in this event off a 10 3/4-length thrashing of optional claimer foes over track-and-trip Oct. 7.

Talented sophomore Morello (Classic Empire) won his first three starts at this oval, including the GIII Gotham S. in March. He failed to fire in his next two efforts, but returned to winning ways in a Laurel optional claimer Oct. 8.

His stablemate Jaxon Traveler (Munnings) appears to be the one to beat in the GIII Bold Ruler S. a few races later. Winner of the GIII Maryland Sprint S. in May, he enters off a well-beaten second in Pimlico's Lite the Fuse S. Sept. 10 on dirt. He is joined by hard-knocking GIII Runhappy S. winner Drafted (Field Commission) and GII Vosburgh S. runner-up Eastern Bay (E Dubai).

Meanwhile, on the West Coast, Santa Anita offers a trio of graded races, including the GIII Autumn Miss S. for 3-year-old turf fillies. MGSW Cairo Memories (Cairo Prince) looks to get back on track after finishing fifth in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. July 9 and third in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 20. Pammy's Ready (More Than Ready) enters off a close second in the local Unzip Me S. Oct. 1 and her stablemate Rhea Moon (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) prepped with an optional claimer win at Del Mar Aug. 21.

Sophomore colts also get a chance at graded glory in the GII Twilight Derby. War at Sea (War Front) won three in a row before his streak was halted when third in the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 3. Graham Motion ships in with Hawthorne Derby winner Speaking Scout (Mr Speaker). Also, GIII La Jolla H. winner Cabo Spirit (Pioneerof the Nile) looks to rebound off a fifth in the GII Del Mar Derby.

Last, but not least, GISW Going Global (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) is the heavy morning-line favorite in the GII Goldikova S. GII John C. Mabee S. winner Avenue de France (Fr) (Cityscape {GB}) will take a crack at the chalk yet again.

Sparkle Blue proved she was aptly named when she kicked home from the nine post to brilliantly take the GIII Rubicon Valley View S. in her first career graded victory ahead of a blanket charge for the minors.

After capping her 2021 season with a distant 10th in the GIII Jimmy Durante S. Nov. 27 at Del Mar, her connections gave her some time away and brought their filly back July 2 in Delaware's Christiana S. sporting first-time blinkers. Gamely overcoming contact in the stretch, she held on to win by a half-length at 15-1 over a field which included dominating next-out winner Gizala (Ire) (Invincible Spirit). Resurfacing last out Sept. 6 in Colonial's Woodford Reserve Virginia Oaks with first-time Lasix, she again fought through contact in the stretch to pick up second over familiar face Lady Puchi (Into Mischief) and SP Omixochitl (More Than Ready) at 30-1 odds.

Tracking from third on the fence after the jump here without the diuretic, Sparkle Blue pursued a clearing leader into the upper stretch after :23.02 and :47.77 splits to launch her winning bid outside of that rival at the furlong marker. Sustaining her kick and inching clear to a 2 1/2-length margin, she was comfortably clear of a hard-charging California Angel and Turnerloose, who chased her in to close out the trifecta.

"[Trainer] Graham [Motion] told me to let her be happy, let her be comfortable. She showed a little bit of speed going into the first turn and she was really happy there. She did great and we had a good trip," said jockey Joel Rosario. "It looked like to the inside there the horse in front was coming in a little bit. I was trying to work it out to get her clear outside, and she did, and after that she just went on. It was perfect."

Pedigree Notes:

Sparkle Blue hails from the sought-after line of Silk n' Sapphire, making her a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf heroine Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect), who would later accomplish the rare feat of producing a Breeders' Cup winner herself when daughter Sharing (Speightstown) planted her flag in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf in 2020. She would later travel to Royal Ascot in the second start of her 3-year-old season, and finish a game second in the G1 Coronation S.

In addition to the mother-daughter pair, Sparkle Blue also claims GSW & MGSP Colonial Flag (Pleasant Tap). The mare has had a bit more hard luck than their famous shared sister with only two of her first four foals being registered. Of those two, the winning Demimondaine (Tapit) sold for $900,000 at KEENOV in 2020 to Claiborne Farm. Her yearling colt by Speightstown brought $450,000 last month at KEESEP from White Birch Farm and Whitehorse Stables.

Half-sister Secret Jewel (Bernardini)—a $1.2 million KEESEP purchase by Besilu Stables—also flies the female line’s flag as the dam of GIII Belmont S. winner Twenty Carat (Into Mischief) and her four-time winning, older full-sibling Mystic Night. Mark of Success (Mt. Livermore), his dam’s lone graded stakes-placed male, found the enclosure on four occasions and ran second in the GIII Risen Star S. Sparkle Blue is the last registered foal for Silk n’ Sapphire.

Rudder's Men airs on career debut | Coglianesse

BATTALION RUNNER FLASHES HIS HAND AS A SIRE VIA RUDDER'S MEN

by Patrycja Szpyra

It might feel a touch trite to repeat it, but the timeworn observation is such for a reason: the stallion market is one packed to the brim with tough customers and salty competition. And it turns out, both literally and metaphorically, as evidenced by the recently released Report of Mares Bred. Breeders gravitate to quality and are more frequently turning to tried-and-true sources to find it, or are becoming more demanding of first-year sires before taking the chance.

In an economy where connections are forced to steadily tighten their belts, it's not an unreasonable nor unforeseen response to current trends to ask for more before opening a wallet. Many owners/syndicates with stallions outside of Kentucky usually find themselves among their stallion's chief supporters until the first-crop runners make their first impressions.

An example of this would be the case of Ocala Stud's Battalion Runner (Unbridled's Song) and his son, Rudder's Men. Unveiled last Saturday, Oct. 22 at the Belmont The Big A meet for breeder--and sire owner--St. Elias Stable, the dark bay was hard to miss as he sailed through a brisk :22.53 opening quarter while under wraps, and sprinted home to an easy 4 1/4-length score. With the effort, he became Battalion Runner's third winner after Lady Runner and Lightnin Runner. The latter carried her sire's banner into the winner's enclosure Sept. 17 in Charles Town's Rachel's Turn S., his first black-type horse. Not a bad feat for any sire to have his first winner also turn out his first stakes victory, no matter the track.

Battalion Runner's first crop tally? A grand total of nine foals.

"We foaled, raised, and trained Rudder's Men," said Ocala Stud's general manager David O'Farrell. "He's a runner. When we shipped him up to Todd Pletcher, we all felt that [Rudder's Men] would have to be the one to help carry the load and really gave Battalion Runner a chance to come on the scene. We thought he would be better suited running in Florida as a state-bred by a Florida sire, but Todd realized when he got him up there that the horse could run in open company in New York and that's what he did."

A part of a still-growing legacy from Tamboz (Tapit), Battalion Runner claims a host of accomplished siblings. One of which being a more recent and easily recognizable name in GI Preakness-placed Creative Minister (Creative Cause), who started his career at Gulfstream Park before finding himself on the national stage in just his fourth career start.

And it's not just his immediate family, either. Battalion Runner's dam is a full-sister to Tapizar, whose determination en route to victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile--by some genetic magic--was passed on to his offspring. None were more famous than the fabulous Monomoy Girl, who accumulated quite a career crowned by victories in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks and dual GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaffs. Tapizar tragically passed away in a stall accident a few weeks before he was scheduled to travel to Japan to begin his 2021 season at Yushun Stallion Station.

However, misfortune has a counter-balance as successes in the pedigree hail notably in the form of Olympio (Naskra), Fun House (Prized), and Cuvee (Carson City), who make appearances deep in Battalion Runner's female line; genetics which still enjoy a long-arching impact on the breed today.

On the back of a workman's female family--even before the most recent additions--and as a son of the great Unbridled's Song, the stallion's eye-catching conformation helped him command a princely sum as a Keeneland September yearling in his day; bringing $700,000 from Crupi's New Castle. Racing for the partnership of Teresa Viola Racing Stables and St. Elias Stable, the striking grey overcame such an eventful second career start (winning by over eight lengths after playing bridesmaid on debut) that the effort attracted even the TDN to his side, awarding him the title of 'Rising Star.'

Battalion Runner would duel his way to a second, gutsy victory in his 3-year-old bow in 2017 before traveling north to the Big A for a start in the Gill Wood Memorial. The defeated favorite that day by Irish War Cry (Curlin), and finishing ahead of names like Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) and Mo Town (Uncle Mo), he'd run third three months later in the Gill Dwyer after his connections opted to bypass the GI Kentucky Derby. The winner that day was Practical Joke (Into Mischief).

Unknowingly, the Gill Smarty Jones S. at Parx, where he steadied to fifth, would end up being a career finale; the connections valiant, but ultimately unsuccessful, in their efforts to bring him back from injury.

Then came a curious initial phone call to O'Farrell.

"[St. Elias Stables'] Vinnie [Viola] reached out to me at a time when breeding season was just about under way and said that they'd had Battalion Runner at Crupi's New Castle Farm. They were trying to bring him back, and he just wasn't able to do it."

He admits that the timing was less than ideal: the stallion register had already been printed, many breeders had already committed their mares, they'd be behind the eight-ball on getting him advertised, and that was only the start.

"I told Vinnie that I just didn't feel that we could do the job he'd expect. He was an awfully nice horse but as a non-stakes winner getting a late start, it would be very tough to get mares to the horse. With all the expenses of registering, advertising, and so on, I told him I didn't think [Battalion Runner] would generate enough to pay his way."

O'Farrell says Viola understood the concerns and the uphill battle his stallion prospect was facing. Such was racing luck; it could be kind but it could also be cruel, and it seemed like Battalion Runner had just missed the favorable side. But like all good sportsmen in the industry, Viola refused to ignore his gut feeling and sometime later, the second call came in to O'Farrell with a counteroffer.

"He said, 'You're going to think I'm crazy, but we still have this horse. I know it makes absolutely zero business sense, but would you stand the horse if I breed a few mares to him? I'll pay the registration fees; I just want to have a little fun with it. I believe in him, I just have a feeling.'...And I was all for it."

Battalion Runner arrived to his new Florida home and the owner was good to his word, but in a way O'Farrell admitted he wasn't entirely expecting. There would be fillies, yes, but 12 claimed straight from the track as opposed to experienced broodmares. The second challenge to overcome would be the impending end to the season, and getting all covered by a stallion who had never jumped a mare before. It was a tall order, but remarkably, one Battalion Runner rose to. Of his initial group, 11 caught and nine foals hit the ground; all late, but they were here.

"It was a very unconventional way to start, and market a stallion, but they're having fun with it. And they're being rewarded."

For everything to navigate through, it might well end up an understatement. The sire currently sits at a 33% win and 11% stakes rate coupled with the fact that, of their eight combined starts, the offspring have won half of them. The chance to become the sire of a multiple stakes winner will come Saturday, Oct. 29 when Lightnin Runner goes to post in the Eleanor Casey Memorial S. at Charles Town. In many aspects, the grey stallion has thrown his hat into a familiar ring; one where Florida breeders carefully and patiently prove their 'eye' for horses is as good as any in the big markets.

As for Rudder's Men, it appears the cliché 'the sky is the limit' runs true. Much like his sire, the colt hails from an active female family. His young dam Unblemished (Speightstown) is a half-sister to the second-busiest stallion in North America; Spendthrift's Yaupon (Uncle Mo). That sibling-turned-sire won the infamous rendition of the GI Forego at Saratoga where rival Firenze Fire (Poseidon's Warrior) chose violence and took to savaging him over gracefully accepting defeat.

A $140,000 Keeneland September graduate--purchased by Crupi's New Castle--the mare is also a half to GII Del Mar Derby and GII Twilight Derby-placed Sawyer's Hill (Spring At Last), who enjoyed a fruitful career as a multiple winner in California. As one of the 12 claims by St. Elias Stable in 2019, she was picked up for $40,000 in a maiden claimer over the Belmont turf, a race in which she finished eighth after breaking through the gate and dumping her rider. For all the chaotic circumstances leading to his arrival, Unblemished's first foal is already showing a lot of promise and so to is the gut feeling Viola would not ignore.

"It's really a passion project of Vinnie's. He raced and campaigned Battalion Runner...the horse is absolutely gorgeous. He's putting a lot of bone on his babies, and I wouldn't be surprised when he has more than one runner. If he gets the chances, he's one who could really make it," said O'Farrell. "From what we've seen, the St. Elias weanling crop this year is exceptional. He's passing on his good looks, and if they run like anything close to what Rudder's Men is capable of, they're going to be in business for a long time."

JESSICA PAQUETTE NAMED NEW PARX TRACK ANNOUNCER

Jessica Paquette, a New England native with nearly 20 years of experience in horse racing, will be the new voice of Parx Racing starting in December. In accepting the position, Paquette becomes the only full-time, year-round female track announcer in the United States.

"I am grateful for the women in the racing industry who have paved the way for my generation to work in so many different areas," said Paquette. "My hope is that I can similarly help inspire young women who may want to be part of our sport."

Paquette has previously called races at both Suffolk Downs and Sam Houston Race Park. Additionally, she has been a racing analyst at Colonial Downs Racetrack and Sam Houston and most recently worked as the Director of Communications for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jessica to the Parx family," said Joe Wilson, Chief Operating Officer for Parx Racing. "The high regard with which she is held in our industry along with a tremendous work ethic makes her the perfect person to usher in this new era for Parx."

Key of Life became the first black-type winner for her freshman sire (by Uncle Mo) with a decisive score in Keeneland's Myrtlewood S. Friday. Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism off consecutive scores, the $350,000 OBSAPR acquisition seized the early advantage, zipping through a :22.34 opening quarter with a rival in hot pursuit. Turning for home in front after a half in :45.91, the bay opened up with ease in the lane to win for fun.

"She really has put it together over the last month or so," said winning trainer Brad Cox. "Her win at Churchill she ran big, but she came back here and I thought really showed who she is opening weekend (when she won by 6 1/4 lengths). We took her back to Churchill and she was training well, and this race came up with a big field so (we decided to) give it a shot. We liked the (post position) she drew. She broke well. Very happy with her performance today."

Third on debut behind a 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy performance from Summer Promise (Uncle Mo) at Churchill Downs June 25, Key of Life broke through next out there Aug. 13 and followed suit with an optional claimer score at this oval Oct. 7. Longride to Wisdom did not have a foal in 2021, but had a Caracaro filly this year and was bred back to Honor A.P. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Implicated | Coglianese

Implicated was the less fancied of the Chad Brown runners, but proved the bettors wrong with a mild upset. Taking closer order Friday, the gray kept a close eye from third, saving ground as Smokie Eyes clocked a :23.16 opening quarter and :48.08 half. Inching up a bit on the backstretch run, Implicated tipped out to take on the pacesetter at the top of the stretch, wearing her down late to get the win. Favored Tax Implications also rallied late for a Brown exacta.

"Today, Implicated was a deserving winner," said Brown. "She got a great trip, but she did everything she was supposed to do and finished off her race the right way. She was best today."

"I had a great trip," said winning rider Flavien Prat. "She broke well and I was able to get myself right behind the pace. Turning for home, I got a nice gap and she kicked on well. I was a bit afraid that they would slow down, but the pace was fair and it gave me a good chance to get going down the lane."

A well-beaten third when unveiled in a main track sprint at Saratoga Aug. 17, Implicated rallied from well back to score next out when switched to the turf and stretched to two turns at this oval Sept. 23.

Implicated is the first foal out of Wysteria, who failed to get in foal to Accelerate for 2021, but had a colt by The Factor in 2022. She was bred back to Horse of the Year Knicks Go. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

OUTADORE (g, 4, Outwork--Adore You {SP, $276,240}, by Tactical Cat), a three-time stakes winner, kicked off this term with a second in the Karl Boyes S. at Presque Isle Downs on seasonal bow July 5. Soundly beaten in the GIII Bold Venture S. at Woodbine Aug. 13, he was third last out in a turf sprint at Kentucky Downs exactly one month later. Favored at 5-2 in this stakes-quality field, the gray sprinted up to take control right from the get-go, blazing through a :22.18 opening quarter. Showing the way into the lane, Outadore poured it on in the lane for a decisive victory over Mark Of The Z (Zulu Magic). Adore You's most recent foal is a yearling colt named Adore Him (Uncle Mo). She was most recently bred to Authentic and Yaupon. The winner is a half to to Piedi Bianchi (Overanalyze), MSW & MGISP, $829,497. Sales history: $140,000 Wlg '18

MOON SWAG (f, 4, Malibu Moon--Yara {GSW, $398,390}, by Put It Back), a stakes winner at age two, was third in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. last year and second in the GIII Indiana Oaks. Closing 2021 with a third in Churchill's Seneca Oven S. Oct. 1, she was given a 4-1 chance for this seasonal bow. Racing in mid-pack early, the bay advanced into third after a half-mile in :47.87. Seizing control entering the far turn, Moon Swag kicked clear in the lane to register a 2 3/4-length success over Powder River (Mineshaft). Yara is also responsible for an unraced juvenile colt named Gentle Yara (Gormley), who was sent to Kores, a yearling filly by Mastery and a weanling colt by Liam's Map. She was bred back to Connect. Sales history: $150,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: SW & MGSP, 11-3-1-4, $250,080.

TIZZY IN THE SKY (f, 3, Sky Kingdom--Tiz the Tide, by Tiznow) finished second in her first two attempts, debuting under Ray Handal in July and switching to this barn for her Aug. 25 race at Saratoga. She wired the field next out going a mile here Sept. 23 and was hammered down to 1-2 favoritism in this five-horse field. Hustling up from her outside draw, the dark bay opened up on the field, clicking off opening splits of :24.53 and :49.81. Well clear turning for home, Tizzy in the Sky cruised clear to win as she pleased by 9 3/4 lengths. Suspended Campaign (Honor Code) was best of the rest in second. The winner has an unraced juvenile full-sister named Words Unspoken and a yearling full-brother. Her dam did not have a foal in 2022, but was bred back to Instagrاند. Heavenly Sunday | Coady Photography 5th-Keeneland, $100,145, Alw, 10-28, (NW1X), 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:36.88, gd, 2 3/4 lengths.

HEAVENLY SUNDAY (f, 2, Candy Ride {Arg}--Alien Giant {SP}, by Giant's Causeway) was hammered to 7-5 favoritism on debut Sept. 27 in a Horseshoe Indianapolis 7 1/2-panel maiden turf race and made it look like a gift when she won by seven lengths while geared down. Once again enthusiastically supported at 8-5 here, she mildly brushed with the inside horse at the jump, but secured a ground-saving position from midpack early. Advancing between runners approaching the five-furlong marker, she loomed dangerously around the far turn and slipped to the inside of the leader through a narrow hole at the three-sixteenths. Kicking away in the furlong grounds, she put a comfortable 2 3/4 lengths on Isabel Alexandra (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}). Cont. p5

6th-Keeneland, $100,000, Msw, 10-28, 3yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f, 1:18.02, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.

SCARLET STRIPE (f, 3, Gun Runner--Divine Dawn {GSP, $187,875}, by Divine Park) checked in fourth in her career bow at Churchill Downs Aug. 13 and was a close second last out there Oct. 1. Given a 2-1 chance this time, the gray went straight to the lead, ticking off early fractions of :22.40 and :45.91. Bowling along on the lead, she kept on finding in the lane to win by 4 1/2 lengths over Parents Pride (Maclean's Music). GSP Divine Dawn, a full-sister to GSW Divine Miss Grey, is also responsible for a yearling colt by Twirling Candy and a weanling filly by Gun Runner. She was bred back to Twirling Candy. THREE UNIONS (f, 2, Unified--Explicable, by Pioneerof the Nile) checked in third on debut on grass at Saratoga Aug. 12 and was fourth next out when trying the main track here Sept. 22, both times against state-bred company. Dispatched at 11-1 in this return to the turf, the dark bay went straight to the front and never looked back, zipping through respectable splits, en route to a 2 3/4-length score. Three Girls (Collected) filled the place spot. The winner is a half to Excellent Timing (Not This Time), SW, $141,300. Explicable had a Mximus Mischief colt in 2021 and a Laoban colt in 2022. She was bred back to Rock Your World. Sales history: $65,000 2yo '22 EASMAY. RYDER RYDER RYDER (f, 2, Quality Road--More Hennessy, by Hennessy), favored at 6-5 in this off-the-turf career bow, moved up to contest the pace, pressing from second through a :23.94 opening quarter. The $600,000 FTSAUG buy kept after the leader Kantbackoff (Kantharos) through a :47.58 half-mile and ran down that foe in the lane to graduate by a length over. The winner is a full-sister to Hootenanny, GISW-USA, SW-Eng, G1SP-Fr, GSP-Can, $876,698. Jany Lyon of Summer Wind Farm purchased their dam More Hennessy for $1.5 million in foal to Galileo (Ire) at the 2015 FTKNOV sale. More Hennessy's only produce since the winner is a yearling filly named Tipple (Constitution). She failed to get in foal to Maximum Security for 2022, but visited Gun Runner this term. ALLA BREVE (f, 2, Mendelssohn--Split It, by Curlin) was given a 14-1 shot in this debut to become her freshman sire (by Scat Daddy)'s 18th winner. Away a breath slow from her rail draw, the chestnut raced in second last early off an opening quarter in :23.86. Charging up four wide turning for home, she kept grinding away in the lane and hit another gear late, forging clear for a 3/4-length score. Opus Forty Two completed a Mendelssohn exacta. 6th-Laurel, $54,760, Msw, 10-28, 2yo, 6f, 1:11.77, ft, 11 3/4 lengths.

PRINCE OF JERICHO (c, 2, Munnings--Golden Review, by Medaglia d'Oro) completed the trifecta in his off-the-turf unveiling at this oval Oct. 7 and was hammered down to 3-2 favoritism to improve here. Away well from post 12, the dark bay kept tabs from a close third through a :22.68 first quarter. Moving into second with his sights set on the leader on the backstretch run, Prince of Jericho took command at the top of the stretch and rolled clear for a 11 3/4-length triumph. Feeling Woozy (Irish War Cry) was second. The winner is the first foal out of Golden Review, who has since produced a yearling filly by Distorted Humor and a weanling colt by English Channel. She was bred back to Take Charge Indy. Sales history: $50,000 Ylg '21 FTKJUL; $85,000 Ylg '21 FTKOCT. OH DARLIN (f, 2, Uncaptured--Solitaire's Vision, by Court Vision) missed by a nose on debut over course and distance Oct. 7 and was backed down to even-money to get the job done this time. Pressing the pace from second through a :21.69 first quarter, the dark bay slipped out to confront the pacesetter in the lane, forging clear late for a three-length graduation. Twinning N Winning (Uncaptured) completed the exacta. The winner is the first foal out of Solitaire's Vision, who did not have a foal in 2021, but had a Justify filly in 2022. CATS INTHE TIMBER (f, 2, Honor Code--Wychwood, by Tale of the Cat) split rivals bravely on debut Sept. 23 at track and near trip to run on for second behind a seven-length, long-gone winner. Breaking cleanly from the outside and allowed to settle unbothered in fourth here, she shifted inside nearing the three-eighths pole behind contesting leaders through a half in :47.20. Five wide into the lane and gaining momentum with every stride, Cats InThe Timber was under an all-out drive to the wire, but nailed Apropos (Mendelssohn) on the money by a neck as the 3-2 favorite. Cats InThe Timber has a 2022 half-sister by Hard Spun. Their dam visited More Than Ready for 2023.

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Sunday entered to run on Tenno Sho day at Tokyo and at Hanshin Racecourse:

Meta Max was the second highest-priced offering at this year's OBS March Sale | Judit Seipert

Sunday, October 30, 2022

4th-HSN, ¥13,400,000 ($91k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200mT

META MAX (c, 2, Into Mischief--Zapara, by Not For Love) was purchased by Eddie Woods's Quarter Pole Enterprises for $180,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale and was one of four seven-figure sellers at this year's OBS March Sale, hammering to trainer Hideyuki Mori for $1.1 million after breezing an eighth of a mile in :9 4/5. A half-brother to the stakes-placed Basso (Cairo Prince), Meta Max is out of a half-sister to GSW Seeking Daylight (Seeking the Gold), GISW Hedonist (Alydeed) and SW Zaha (Kingmambo). B-Brookstone Farm & Lee Mauberret (KY)

4th-TOK, ¥13,400,000 ($91k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1600m

PARAIBA TOURMALINE (f, 2, Malibu Moon--Private Jet, by Smart Strike) was led out unsold at last year's Keeneland September sale on a bid of $70,000 and made that decision look shrewd when fetching $450,000 from Katsumi Yoshida at OBS March (:9 4/5). The Mar. 1 foal is out of a full-sister to dual Eclipse Award winner and Coolmore stallion Lookin At Lucky and a half-sister to MGSW Kensei (Mr. Greeley) and MGSW 'TDN Rising Star' Shahama (Munnings). This is also the family of champion Wait a While (Maria's Mon). B-Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings (KY)

6th-HSN, ¥13,400,000 ($91k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

MALEFICENT LOVE (f, 2, Arrogate--Highway Mary, by U S Ranger), a half-sister to Grade I-winning turf miler Hit The Road (More Than Ready), is out of an unraced daughter of GII E.P. Taylor S. winner Wandering Star (Red Ransom), also the dam of G1SW War Command (War Front) and GSW Naval Officer (Tale of the Cat). Maleficent Love was a $110,000 KEESEP buyback last fall. Also debuting is Godolphin homebred CACCIUCCO (f, 2, Nyquist--Livorno, by Bernardini), the first foal out of a half-sister to SW & GISP Arethusa (A.P. Indy) and to the dam of this year's GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker H. runner-up Fleetridge (Ghostzapper). B-Fred W Hertrich III (KY)

APPLEBY ON GODOLPHIN: 'ALL THE PLAYERS PLAY THEIR PART'

William Buick & Charlie Appleby at Saratoga after Nations Price's Derby victory | Sarah Andrew

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK—Dawn hasn't even broken on Thursday morning at Godolphin's Moulton Paddocks and trainer Charlie Appleby is discussing with his lieutenants Marie Murphy and Chris Connett which rugs to pack for his team of seven horses travelling to the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland.

"That's 14 crates we're up to now," he says, rolling his eyes and smiling. "Wasn't like that back in the day."

Appleby is a lifer when it comes to racing, from his days as a youngster working for Jackie Retter and Susan Piggott, to his role as Godolphin's trainer at Moulton Paddocks. To say that the private Newmarket estate on which his horses stretch their legs each morning is state of the art doesn't even begin to do justice to the eye-popping facilities available, from figure-of-eight covered rides, to spas, and a selection of gallops on turf, irrigated woodchip, and Polytrack.

By far the most endearing trait of Appleby--a widely-liked member of both the Newmarket and wider racing community--is the lightness with which he wears his success. In fact, he barely acknowledges it for himself, referring regularly to what "we've achieved". Cont. p3

BECKETT 'HAPPY' WITH KINROSS IN ADVANCE OF MILE, AS 'SAFFRON' RULED OUT OF BC WITH POOR BLOOD WORK

Sharp miler Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) has pleased trainer Ralph Beckett in his preparations for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Keeneland, the trainer revealed on Friday.

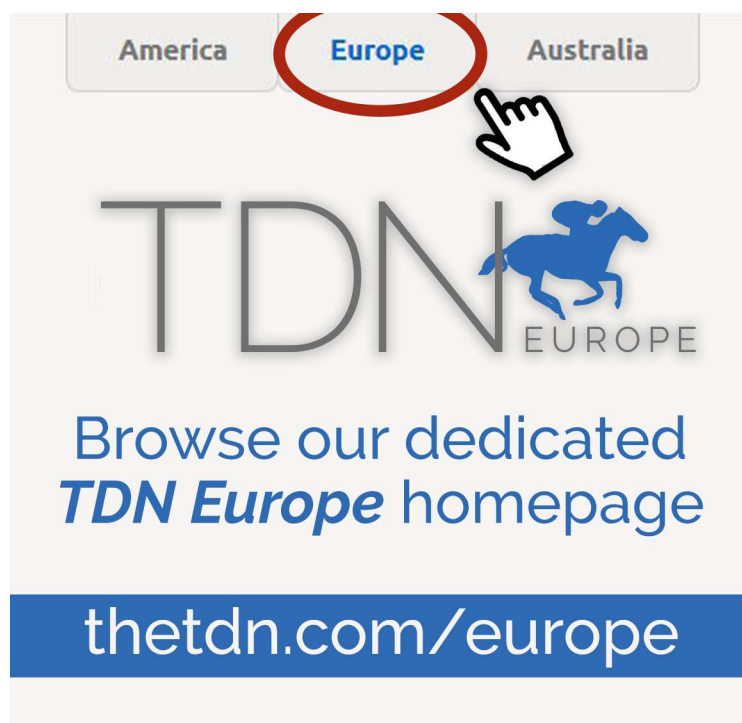

Marc Chan's 5-year-old gelding is riding a four-race winning streak, and after victories in the G2 City Of York S. and the G2 Park S. in August and September, found France to his liking with a two-length victory in the G1 Prix de la Foret. He added an exclamation point to his season with a 2 1/4-length tally in the G1 British Champions Sprint S. at Ascot on Oct. 15 and appears in prime condition to add to his laurels at Keeneland next month.

Not the royal we, it's the team of which he is nominally the captain and very much a part.
 As he stands alongside the canters that spread across the side of a gentle hill awaiting his first lot of 60 horses, Appleby chats about which surface he prefers (turf or woodchip over Polytrack) and says wryly, "I dread having a bad spell because when you look at all this, it's not like we could be let down by the facilities."
 Fortunately, he hasn't had to worry about too many bad spells, and certainly not in the last few years. As his 10-year anniversary at the helm approaches, he can boast of a record that most of his colleagues in the training ranks could only dream about. Not that he does.

Since taking up the reins at Moulton Paddocks in July 2013, following a turbulent spell in the operation's history culminating in an eight-year ban for his former boss Mahmood Al Zarooni, Appleby, with his collaborative approach, has deftly steered

Godolphin back into the big time of top-class winners the world over. In that relatively short time he has trained two Derby winners, an Irish Derby winner, six Breeders' Cup winners, Horse of the Year Ghaiyyath (Ire), champion 2-year-old Native Trail (GB), Melbourne Cup hero Cross Counter (Ire), and a dual Royal Ascot Group 1 winner in one week in Blue Point (Ire). Following last year's sensational hat-trick at the Breeders' Cup, a season in which he became champion trainer for the first time, Appleby followed up this spring by becoming the first trainer to win 2000 Guineas equivalents in three countries with three different horses.

"It's amazing how, when you come to the end of the season now, it just seems so far away what was achieved in the spring," he says as he casts his mind back to Coroebus (Ire) beating Native Trail in the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, before the latter took the Irish 2000 Guineas and Modern Games (Ire) won the Poule d'Essai des Poulains."

He added, "I have to remind myself of that, and also remind the team. It's like a football team here, all the players play their part and so you want to keep morale up during times where sometimes it might be a bit quiet. But it is also to just remind them of what they've achieved. Three Guineas winners in three different countries--that hadn't been done before. I take great pride in what the whole team has achieved."

Modern Games winning at the 2021 Breeders' Cup | Horsephotos

A key factor in the success of that team is in its longevity. Appleby himself, now 47, has been with Godolphin for almost quarter of a century, and he is surrounded by many longstanding colleagues, as well as an abundance of highly regarded former jockeys, both still in the saddle and on the ground.

As we head out to meet first lot, led by Modern Games, appearing from the trees after their warm-up, a figure emerges from the darkness and Appleby says, "Here's Benny The Dip's rider." Step forward Derby-winning jockey Willie Ryan, the trainer's eyes and ears as the horses approach the canter. Among those still riding, spotted as daybreak eases the viewing, are former champions Kieren Fallon and Seb Sanders, one rather more stylish than the other.

Three equine-related subjects occupy Appleby's mind this morning. Uppermost is his septet about to depart for the Breeders' Cup, all of whom came through a final strong workout on Wednesday with no issues, and who will board the flight to America on Saturday. Next comes the matter of the trainers' championship, in which he has been duelling with fellow Newmarket trainer William Haggas for much of the season but now has the upper hand. Of no less importance on the personal front is how his twin daughters, the eldest two of four children he has with his wife Aisling, are faring in a half-term show jumping championship in Cheshire. Cont. p5

Very well, it appears, and it will be no surprise to see the name Appleby become a dominant force in the pony racing ranks in the not-too-distant future.

The vagaries of the British Flat racing season mean that both the owners' and the jockeys' championships have already been decided, with Godolphin and William Buick lending a true blue hue to Champions Day when collecting their trophies at Ascot. The trainer has to wait until the end of the year to see if he will retain his title, but it is hard to imagine now that he won't. Furthermore, the stallion to whom Appleby owes a significant debt of gratitude, the 20-year-old Darley stalwart Dubawi (Ire), looks set to earn his first champion sire title in Britain and Ireland this year. It is nothing short of a bluewash.

"I know people will say, 'Well, it's done', but the championship runs until the end of the year and I think there are still some little chances for both myself and William to try and gain a bit more," says Appleby, clearly not resting on his laurels.

"We've had those three Guineas horses, but we haven't had that standout horse that's gone through the season, and I take my hat off to William and Baaeed (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) for keeping that consistency throughout the season at that top level. We've not had that horse."

At the beginning of the year, it could well have been hoped that the standout horse would be Derby winner Adayar (Ire), but niggling problems meant that his return was delayed until September, when we saw him easily win a conditions race before chasing home Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) for second in the G1 Champion S. Happily, the imposing son of Frankel (GB) will remain in training at five, while his fellow Classic winners Native Trail and Modern Games look set to return at four.

This will no doubt be music to the ears of those who remember the elite Godolphin team of yesteryear, which was famed for its globetrotting older horses such as Fantastic Light, Kayf Tara (GB), and Daylami (Ire). Appleby, who certainly doesn't want for firepower when it comes to the bluebloods in his stable, has added another dimension of dominance at home and abroad.

"Most importantly, it was a brief from His Highness Sheikh Mohammed right at the start of all of this, very kind words, which were, 'I've got the confidence in you to do what you need to do, and the horses will repay you'. And, frankly, that's what they've done," says Appleby.

"Last year, winning the championship was fantastic, but some people forget what we've achieved internationally. We're going to the Breeders' Cup hopefully with seven runners, and legitimate runners as well. And we've got a horse that campaigned in Germany all summer, and horses have been to France, and obviously we had our small team in America that did well. And that draws away from your home team. We are going out to try and win a championship, but we're also going out to try and win as many Grade I races as possible, because at the end of the day, we're an operation that is trying to produce stallions and trying to improve the broodmare band, so that's foremost in our programme." Cont. p6

The cyclical nature of such a business means that next season the trainer will be overseeing the careers of some of the first-crop runners of his first Derby winner Masar (Ire), as well as top sprinter Blue Point.

"That's exciting," he says, "Especially with Blue Point being so close to everybody's heart. The only thing is that it reminds you you're getting a bit older."

Season's end can also bring with it pause for reflection but, despite some rip-roaring years, Appleby appears intent on looking forward rather than revelling in past glories.

MV Magnier & Charlie Appleby | Emma Berry

He adds, "Every year since we've started training, myself and the management, we've got together at the end of the year and pointed out our highs and our lows. We look at what we can try to do to make things better.

"We're approaching that time now, and one thing I want to applaud them all for is the consistency. We haven't dropped below a 30% strike-rate, thankfully, throughout the season. I don't purposely go out there to try and achieve good stats, but it's something that I will monitor throughout the season to see how we are doing, because at the end of the day, they don't lie."

An international racing programme, peppered with regular trips to Dubai's Marmoon Stable for the trainer, means that consistency in the personnel at home, too, is paramount.

"Alex Merriam and Marie Murphy will represent us at a lot at race meetings internationally," says Appleby. "They've got a great support team behind them as well, in the head lads that are involved here. We've all worked together for years and I very rarely have to give an instruction now, everything just happens." Cont. p7

He added, "When I'm away and I phone the guys, we're all speaking the same language and we all look at the horse in the same manner. When I go round into those stables and I look at the horses, and I might say a certain horse looks light perhaps, Marie will already be on it because they're seeing it the same way as I'm seeing it."

He continues, "And again, with the travelling team, Chris Connett and Chris Durham, they do such fantastic jobs on these trips, looking after these horses and training them in the same way. We're in a very luxurious position in that I very rarely have to tell them what to do. There's a system in place. The same people jump the horses off at the bottom of the canter, and the same people meet them at the top. I don't have to see those parts of their training because they will report back to me and say, 'So and so is sweating, he doesn't normally sweat'. We'll get straight back and look at the horse ourselves, and if we feel there's something that needs to be investigated, then we'll ask the farriers and the vets to be involved as well. You're always trying to nip something in the bud early."

It would appear that Sheikh Mohammed shares his trainer's desire to look to the future. As well as an abundance of homebreds to come into training next year, Appleby can presumably anticipate the arrival of a significant number of the 35 yearlings recently bought by his boss for the equivalent of £26.5 million at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale.

"The enthusiasm from His Highness and the royal family is relentless, and it's fantastic for us, as well as for the sport and the industry," says Appleby. "All we've spoken about lately is the yearlings. How are the yearlings getting on? That's the new generation, looking to the future, and that's why Dubai is what it is. There's always a vision there to keep driving on."

The season may be coming to an end, but even in winter, there is little downtime for the modern-day Flat trainer. The yearlings are already being broken in by Tim Denniff and his team at a separate yard on the Moulton Paddocks estate, and of course the Dubai Carnival is another important focus for all employed at Godolphin. No wonder then that Appleby says in a brief reflection on the events of the last decade, "Where's the time gone?"

He adds, "We all stood at the top of that hill back in 2013 talking about what we were going to try to achieve. There have been some bumps in the road, when the winners haven't flowed, or we haven't had those group winners that we'd like to have had. But I think generally, if I step back and look at our anniversary of 10 years, we could say we've not done too badly."

Not too badly at all.

EUROPEAN NEWS

"He's been training well," said Beckett, who won the 2008 Breeders' Cup Marathon with Muhannak (Ire) (Chester House). "We are treading quite a fine line as he has been so busy. I'm happy with him, he is moving well and looks well."

Added Beckett, "I don't think he will better that performance on Champions Day. That is as good as it gets--to drop back to six furlongs and win as he did, it takes a bit of doing. He will have to equal that performance in America if he is to win."

"The [G1] Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint would have been too sharp for him. He is very adaptable. He has won around Goodwood and York, it comes all alike to him in that sense, so I have no concerns around him handling the track at Keeneland."

"He is very effective on soft ground. I don't think he is capable of winning over six furlongs on fast ground, but he won the City of York S. over seven on fast ground. The ground won't matter to him."

'Saffron' To Stay Home

Dual Group 1 winner Saffron Beach (Ire) (New Bay {GB}), who will be offered during the Sceptre Sessions of the Tattersalls December Mares Sale at the end of November, will not take her chance in the G1 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf after returning poor blood work, according to trainer Jane Chapple-Hyam.

Racing in the red and white colours of Ben and Lucy Sangster, their son Ollie and James Wigan, the 4-year-old claimed the G1 Sun Chariot S. in 2021, and after running a good fourth in the G1 Dubai Turf in March, scored a resounding success in the G2 Duke Of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot. A 2 1/2-length tour-de-force in the G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville in August followed, and she was second in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown last month. She ran eighth in defence of her Sun Chariot crown on Oct. 1, and returned a dirty scope off of that effort.

Chapple-Hyam said, "I drew blood on Wednesday to look at her profile and it wasn't good, so we started her on a course of antibiotics and we looked at the profile again on Thursday."

"Even though it had improved, it is not in the right zone to be putting her on an aircraft and potentially giving a bug to everyone else and perhaps getting travel sickness."

"We couldn't take the risk for the welfare of her and all the others on the aircraft, so we decided not to go."

Chapple-Hyam has entered the chestnut in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile on Dec. 11, and, depending on who purchases Saffron Beach at Tattersalls, an international campaign has not been ruled out. Cont. p8

“She has an entry in the Tattersalls December Mares’ Sale and if the lucky purchaser would like to run her in the Hong Kong Mile, if she is fit and well, she has been invited to that race and I have accepted,” Chapple-Hyam added. “It is disappointing not to run in the Breeders’ Cup, but that is horse racing. We take the good and the bad.

“We have been very lucky to win two Group 1s with her and, who knows, the new owner may want to run her in Hong Kong.”

POSITIVE STATS AT ARQANA’S YEARLING SALES

The majority of Arqana’s yearlings have now gone through the ring this season, with only the November Yearling Sale’s 155 lots left to sell, and indices are positive across a range of categories for the Deauville-based sales company when taken as a whole.

For the first time, more than 1,200 horses were offered, with more than 1,000 of them finding new homes for a clearance rate of 82.7%. The turnover (€80,499,000) and average (€75,871) both increased, while the median settled at €31,000. In addition, 227 (+17%) horses sold for €100,000 or more, up from 193 in 2021. Four horses brought €1 million or more this year, double last year’s two. One marked change was the creation of the September Yearling Sale, which replaced and extended the previous v.2 Yearling Sale, with 275 horses catalogued, an additional 100 lots over 2021.

Eric Hoyeau, President of Arqana and Freddy Powell, Executive Director, said of the combined yearling results through Friday, “Each year we reflect on the format of our sales in order to adapt to the offer. Our aim is to ensure that every yearling achieves its best possible value. In particular, we have had to change the v.2 Yearling Sale to accommodate a greater number of horses in September.

“Despite the 150 extra horses sold at the three sales, the market absorption rate remained very satisfactory, testifying to the attractiveness of French breeding at all levels and the quality of the work of our vendors. The 227 yearlings sold for €100,000 or more are further proof of this. We hope that the November Yearling Sale will continue in this vein, as will the Autumn Sale, which this time will welcome the cream of National Hunt yearlings to Deauville.”

SEPTET OF WILDCARDS ANNOUNCED FOR ARQANA’S AUTUMN SALE

Seven wildcards, led by the group-placed Make Me King (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) (lot 345), have been added to the Arqana Autumn Sale, which begins on Monday, Nov. 14 and ends on Nov. 17. Other late Flat additions include the 95-rated Corcovado (Fr) (Kheleyf) (lot 362), Weston (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) (lot 363), and the listed winner Niagara (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) (lot 376).

Over jumps, a trio of winning wildcards have signed on in Les Yeux Noirs (Fr) (Doctor Dino {Fr}) (lot 387), Umfolozi (Fr) (Spanish Moon) (lot 397), and lot 398, the AQPS Joyeuse (Fr) (No Risk At All {Fr}) from the family of multiple Grade 1 winner Epatante (Fr) (No Risk At All {Fr}).

BHA SIGNS ARMED FORCES COVENANT

The British Horseracing Authority (BHA) signed an Armed Forces Covenant during a ceremony at Horse Guards Parade on Friday. The agreement was co-signed by Catherine Beloff, BHA Director of Legal, Governance and Business partners, and Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Armitage, Commanding Officer of the Household Cavalry Mounted Regiment.

Following this show of commitment, and as a 'forces-friendly' employer, the BHA will:

- Support existing employees who choose to be members of the Reserve forces--accommodating their training and development wherever possible.
- Continue to recruit from the community of veteran service personnel, both directly and through the Career Transition Partnership.
- Provide support for the spouses and partners of Service personnel, with employment opportunities and additional flexibility around leave for duty--before, during and after deployment.

Beloff said, "British horseracing has a strong and long-standing connection with the Armed Forces, and the BHA is proud to reinforce these close ties by signing the Armed Forces Covenant.

"Through this pledge, we will continue to ensure that all current and future colleagues from the Forces community are not only treated with fairness and respect, but always have the opportunity to flourish in their role."

NICOLA PARAMO WINS CATS PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD

Nicola Paramo, a freelance racing and bloodstock sales photographer, has been awarded the CATS Personal Development Award at Newmarket Racecourse. Sponsored by Hartpury University, the award is in its second year and recognises the person who has put the most dedication and effort into developing their career in racing after using Racing Welfare's Careers Advice and Training Service (CATS).

Paramo utilised CATS for some career coaching to set up her freelance business offering sales photos and videos to the industry, as well as social media management. Cont. p10

Group 1 producer Onshore (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), the dam of French Classic hero Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), will sell at Fasig-Tipton November. CATS Award Cont.

After the coaching, she then accessed a CATS grant to help her invest in the specialist equipment required. As a result, her business has been expanding and she has provided photography for a number of trainers, including Sir Mark Prescott, whose social media accounts she now manages. This year, Paramo has also provided her first sales imagery and videos, and will be working with more industry stakeholders.

Catherine Porter, Head of Hartpury University's Equine Department, selected the winner and said, "It was hard to choose a winner from three really strong finalists, but I chose Nicola Paramo as it was a clever initiative and she utilised CATS well to support her venture--as noted in her nomination, it is niche and she looks to be carving out a good business for herself."

LORDSHIP STUD'S BOOK 1 HIT DEBUTS AT NEWMARKET

1.38 Newmarket, Novice, £8,000, 2yo, f, 7ft
GLOWING SKY (IRE) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) cost Lordship Stud 380,000gns at last year's Book 1, partly due to the fact that she is a half-sister to the G1 Preis von Europa winner Aspetar (Fr) (Al Kazeem {GB}) and also to the fact that she is a granddaughter of the Oaks, Irish Oaks and Yorkshire Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). John and Thady Gosden introduce the April-foaled bay as well as Cheveley Park Stud's Medici Chapel (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), a daughter of the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Nannina (GB) (Medicean {GB}).

HOW THEY FARED

13.30 Newmarket, Nov, £8,000, 2yo, 7fT

Godolphin's Majestic Pride (GB) (Shamardal), a half-brother to dual Group 1-winning sire Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) out of dual Group 1 victrix Gonbarda (Ger) (Lando {Ger}), was within range throughout this debut, but was unable to catch an experienced long-time leader and finished 1 3/4 lengths adrift in second.

Bringing a lofty form standard to this contest, Matilda Picotte did not disappoint to provide her first-season sire with a third black-type winner and her trainer with a breakthrough first.

Showing talent from the outset, the bay who had opened her account on debut at The Curragh May 2 had finished third in both that venue's G2 Airlie Stud S. June 26 and in York's G2 Lowther S. when last seen Aug. 18. Showing the same dynamism from the front under Declan McDonogh, she drew the sting from her closest pursuer Believing to allow the lone runner up the centre Queen Oilly to get second late on.

"She is tough and genuine and has a high cruising speed," trainer Kieran Cotter said. "She had a lot of them in trouble at the halfway mark, as she has lot of speed and it was just a case of if it was too late in the season for her but she has not been over-raced."

He added, "We might have half an eye on coming back here next year for the 1000 Guineas. Would she stay another two furlongs? I don't know, but at least she has experience of the track. It might make sense to look at a Guineas trial and if she doesn't get that then we can step back down in trip."

The winner is currently the last known foal out of the dam, who was third in the G3 C L Weld Park S. and is a half-sister to Along Came Casey (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) who captured the Listed Hurry Harriet S. and Listed Glencairn S. and was placed three times at Group 3 level. She is in turn responsible for the G3 Darley S. scorer Felician De Vega (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), while this is the family of Stravinsky. VIDEO.

ESTIDAMA (GB) (f, 3, Farhh {GB}--Kitty For Me {GB}, by Pour Moi {Ire}), sent off the 11-8 favourite on this belated debut, settled towards the rear. Looming on the front end approaching the final furlong, the bay who is entered in next month's Tattersalls December Mares Sale, was green but in total command from there en route to a 2 1/4-length success from One For The Frog (Ire) (Dabirsim {Fr}). The dam, whose colt foal is by Study Of Man (Ire), is a half to three black-type performers headed by the G3 Prix du Calvados and G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. winner Purr Along (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}). She is also related to the G2 Falmouth S. scorer and GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. third Ronda (GB) (Bluebird), who is the dam of the GIII Ack Ack H. winner Istan (Gone West). PHYSIQUE (IRE) (g, 2, Kingman {GB}--Shapes {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by So You Think {NZ}), a neck second tackling six furlongs at Newbury in his Oct. 21 debut last week, broke sharply and led from flagfall here. Unperturbed through halfway, the 7-4 pick was shaken up at the foot of the hill and beyond recall on the climb to withstand the late bid of Majestic Pride (GB) (Shamardal) by 1 3/4 lengths. "We wanted to get him out again quickly and he has only really just come to hand," revealed trainer Oliver Cole. "He was a bit green in his last race and [rider] Mohammed [Tabti] said he idled in front, but felt that if something came to him he would go again." Cont. p13

He added, "I think this trip is fine for him and he is a nice prospect." BODORGAN (IRE) (c, 2, El Kabeir--Silver Rose {Ire}, by Dark Angel {Ire}), who hit the board in an Oct. 1 course-and-distance maiden last time, hit the lids running and raced in the vanguard throughout. Rowed along with three furlongs remaining, the 6-5 chalk bounded to the fore heading into the dip and surged clear inside the final furlong to rout Milteye (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}) by 4 1/4 lengths. "He was very green first time out, but he did well the last day and that form has worked out," said owner David Martin. "He stayed on well and Ryan [Moore] seemed to be quite relaxed on him. He didn't really have to push too many buttons and he will definitely get further." Bodorgan is the second of four foals and first runner out of an unraced full-sister to G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 victor Golden Goal (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). His dam is also kin to Listed Doncaster S. third Rosie's Premiere (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}), who produced Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud victrix Rose Premium (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and stakes-winning G3 Prix Imprudence and G3 Prix Texanita placegetter Louliana (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). Staying on powerfully down the outer to take control a furlong from home, the 5-6 favourite hit the line strong to score by 3 1/2 lengths from Idee Fixee (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Aside from Benbatl, the G1 Prix de l'Opera and GI Flower Bowl Invitational-winning dam has also produced the triple listed-placed Foorat (Ire) from her only Continuing William Haggas's year of years well into the autumn, Golden Lyra outshone the domestic fillies to make her own breakthrough and point to a potentially profitable 2023. Runner-up on her seasonal bow to Stay Alert (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the Listed Abingdon S. at Newbury June 9, the homebred had used a moderate Kempton novice July 6 to springboard back to that level but failed to handle the quick surface at York's Ebor meeting and wound up eighth when favourite for the Aug. 18 Listed Galtres S. Held up towards the rear early, she made a powerful move to take command with 300 metres remaining and put daylight between her and her outclassed rivals.

The dam, who has the unraced 2-year-old colt Sir Callisto (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and a yearling colt by Ribchester (Ire), is a full-sister to the brilliant Deutsches Derby hero and successful sire Sea The Moon (Ger) and to the Listed Prix Joubert scorer and G3 Prix Minerve-placed Sea The Sky (Ger). This is also the family of the Monsun (Ger) pair of Deutsches Derby winners Schiaparelli (Ger) and Samum (Ger) and G1 Preis der Diana Heroine Salve

JACK D'OR HAS REGENCY ADVANTAGE IN STAR-STUDED TENNO SHO by Alan Carasso

A formidable trio exiting this year's Japanese Triple Crown returns to the races in Sunday's G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) at Tokyo Racecourse, but while each makes his first start since the G1 Tokyo Yushun in late May, the flashy Jack d'Or (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) may have a slight advantage over his younger rivals--at least this time around.

The recognizable chestnut, whose sire took this race back in 2016, made meteoric progress early on this season, winning in listed company over course and distance in January before besting the classy Lei Papale (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in all-the-way fashion in the G2 Kinko Sho and running the 2000 metres in a record time of 1:57.2. Only fifth to Potager (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) after setting the majority of the pace in the G1 Osaka Hai in April, Jack d'Oro was asked to settle off the speed of G1 Dubai Turf dead-heater Panthalassa (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) and ran that one down in the shadow of the post to take the G2 Sapporo Kinen Aug. 21 (video, SC 4). Cont. p17

“The races take a lot out of him and the rotation going in to the Osaka Hai was tight,” trainer Kenichi Fujioka opined. “The ground was worse than I thought it’d be, and the early lap times were faster than I expected. Last start, he was a bit heavy, but this time his weight should be down. Physically, he’s always been good, and I don’t think he’s changed much. Though he’s become calmer, he switches on well. He has had good results at Tokyo 2000 meters and lots of experience to the left. I would say it’s his best trip.”

Leading the 3-year-old challenge is Equinox (Jpn), a son of 2017 Tenno Sho hero Kitanon Black (Jpn). A veteran of just four career starts, the Silk Racing colourbearer was a Group 2 winner at headquarters as a juvenile and contested the first two legs of this year’s Classics, missing narrowly to Geoglyph (Jpn) (Drefong) in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) in April and by even a slimmer margin to Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry {Jpn}) in the G1 Toyko Yushun (Japanese Derby) last time, with Geoglyph not running out the 2400 metres in seventh.

“This Wednesday, he breezed with two others on the woodchip flat course, and again, all looked good,” said trainer

Tetsuya Kimura. “His footwork was excellent. The distance shouldn’t be a problem. We will keep preparing him to bring out his best on raceday.”

The lightly raced Danon Beluga (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry {Jpn}) sports a profile similar to Equinox, with a pair of wins from his four outings, including a defeat of Geoglyph in a Group 3 at this venue ahead of the Classics, but he was somewhat disappointing when fourth in both the Guineas and--as the 5-2 favourite--in the Derby.

Last year’s Japanese Derby hero Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) makes his first start at home this season, having contributed to a massive Dubai World Cup program for Japan with a victory over GI Breeders’ Cup Turf hero Yibir (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic in March ahead of a forgettable effort when fifth to State of Rest (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the G1 Prince of Wales’s S. at Royal Ascot in June. The Sunday Racing runner clearly deserves his place in this field, but it can be argued that he’ll be using this as a prep for next month’s G1 Longines Japan Cup, in which he was third last season.
