THIS SIDE UP: FOR THIS ROAD, THE 'KNIGHT' WILL NEED ARMOR

‘TDN Rising Star’ Arabian Knight | Coady

by Chris McGrath

No matter where you start from, the choice on Saturday is the same for everyone: do you head southeast, or Southwest? Okay, if you happen to be in Key West, you'll uniquely have to head a little way north to join the party in Miami. For many of us, however, the compass needle will instead be quivering towards Florida to the GIII Southwest S.

The big bucks are obviously at Gulfstream. But it tells you plenty about the inside-out values of this business that even a prize exceeded in the U.S. by a single other race would not quite fund the docket signed on behalf of Zedan Racing Stables, up the road at OBS last April, for a son of Uncle Mo.

HILL 'N' DALE STALLIONS SPARKLE AT ECLIPSE AWARDS by Alan Carasso

Flightline was clearly the star among stars at the Eclipse Awards ceremonies held Jan. 26 in Palm Beach, Florida, but a trio of stallions that call the rustic environs of John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa home stole the show from a sires' perspective, accounting for half of the evening’s 10 winners among the Flat divisions.

Success at the Eclipse Awards is obviously directly correlated with horse racing on its biggest stages, and the results from the first weekend of November, not far away from Xalapa at Keeneland Race Course, hinted that a night of this sort of magnitude was a distinct possibility.

Breeders' Cup Friday featured a championship-clinching performance from 'TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) in the GI Juvenile and the momentum carried over into the first of Saturday's nine races when Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) raced away with the GI Filly & Mare Sprint.

Elite Power (Curlin) turned in a bit of a surprise in the GI Qatar Sprint—with Hill 'n' Dale sire Maclean's Music's reigning Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Jackie's Warrior third, and later in the program, the GI Longines Distaff provided the race of the meeting—if not the entire year—when Rising Star Malathaat was up in the final jump in a pulsating finish, with another daughter of Curlin, Clairiere, narrowly beaten into third.

And it’s in Hot Springs that we’ll start to find out whether even those giddy stakes might yet yield a dividend.

Now, anyone who spends as much as $2.3 million on a colt that has clocked 1:4 4/5 under tack will typically do so in the hope of putting him right where we find Arabian Knight now—as the current No. 1 in colleague T.D. Thornton’s GI Kentucky Derby “Top 12”. As things stand, however, his trainer remains ineligible to bank the 20 starting points available to the winner of this race. And there’s a curveball, this time, in that any Derby candidate in the Bob Baffert barn must move out by the end of February.

That’s over a month earlier than when Baffert had to send out his refugees last year. With his lawyers trying to break those chains next week, we can leave for another day what has for everyone become a rather wearisome sub-plot. For now, it will be compelling simply to see how Arabian Knight responds to some talented and rather more seasoned opposition, having presumably learned little in outclassing a field of maidens at Keeneland. It’s obviously encouraging that his closest pursuer that day has done so well since; and we saw, last year, how adeptly Baffert educated another expensive 2-year-old purchase for the same owners, Taiba (Gun Runner), so that he could win the GI Santa Anita Derby for his new trainer, with only a similarly undemanding debut behind him.

True, the first Saturday in May still came too soon for Taiba. Arabian Knight, however, is miles ahead of that curve and he’s going to learn plenty from this whole experience, however it plays out, after boarding a plane to run a second turn for the first time. Unsurprisingly, he has been laying a foundation of powerful works back in California, but he must square up to a rival in Corona Bolt (Bolt d’Oro) who has, despite a rather upright head carriage, looked extremely fast and professional in two sprints.
If these two instinctive talents are likely to resemble sparkling new sabres, sending sparks flying until one is finally forced clattering onto the floor, then they need to keep Corona Bolt’s barnmate Jace’s Road (Quality Road) in the corner of their eye. For here is a rival who knows the difference between a mere duel and a pitched battle; one who’s been learning self-defense and strategy at the marine training camp.

Yes, he too flashed raw talent with a ‘Rising Star’ sprint debut. But it was as long ago as September that he started on the kind of life lessons that still await Arabian Knight. Sampling the Derby surface in the GIII Iroquois S., he got drawn into pursuit of a couple that turned out merely to be hauling each other to the ground. But whereas they dropped out accordingly, Jace’s Road bravely renewed battle with the closers and grabbed a place. After that chastening rite of passage, his next start made it possible to wonder which way Jace’s Road was going: his whole demeanor was irritable, and his mood cannot have improved as he trailed home splattered in slop. But then came the Gun Runner S., over the same course as this race, and suddenly he had it all figured out. He broke sharply, went bounding along in the lead and opened up late for a decisive score.

Brad Cox, who additionally saddles Hit Show (Candy Ride [Arg]) here, has an absolute cavalry to sieve down on the Classic trail. Last weekend he saddled Instant Coffee (Bolt d’Oro) for that efficient score in the GIII Lecomte S., as well as two fillies that finished over a dozen lengths clear of the rest in the Oaks trial. It feels very much as though he has now entered upon an even more potent cycle, after his four winners at the 2020 Breeders’ Cup invited all the top programs to conclude that if they couldn’t beat him, they may as well join him.

Instant Coffee runs in the same silks as Cyberknife, who gets the chance to stage his very own, flesh-and-blood stallion promotion in the Pegasus. Knowing Spendthrift, he’s likely to enjoy a heroically lascivious lifestyle over the coming months. If only somebody could get him to understand the situation, he’d be the bet of all time.

Actually, I suppose the chances are that he’s already operating on some primal sense of the benefits reserved for the herd leader. Anyway, be that as it may, this will be Cyberknife’s 11th start in 13 months since he broke his maiden, so he evidently has the hardware to have sustained another campaign on the track. But we all recognize that he stands to make much more in his second career than in his first, even if he tops up an account already through $2 million by winning the Pegasus.

Certainly Cyberknife has achieved as much as anyone could dare to hope in spending $400,000 for a Saratoga yearling. But while everyone involved will thank him for his sterling service, and will miss him once he has moved on, the reality is that Instant Coffee—while not yet half the racehorse—has already supplanted Cyberknife in the attention of most.
For the Eclipse Awards are all on the mantlepiece now, and even Flightline’s only job is to nourish a new dream. And, actually, that’s great. Because it’s the next dream that will always refresh our appetite for the game; that will have all those mares waiting in line at Spendthrift.

It’s this mutual stimulus between racing and breeding, between track and field, that maintains human passion as the driver of the billions invested, not just in our industry, but in our sport. That’s why someone will give $2.3 million for a horse bought a few months earlier for $250,000; and also why a fellow can get it into his head, after a fairly random visit to the Bluegrass, to buy himself a horse farm and populate it with a few mares. That’s how Corser Thoroughbreds came to buy a young mare by Astrology at the 2019 Keeneland November Sale, carrying a first foal by Uncle Mo, for $285,000. That foal is Arabian Knight.

So the end of one chapter for Cyberknife will only open a new one. Who knows? Perhaps there’s another novice breeder out there, who will end up putting a colt by Cyberknife on the 2027 Derby trail. And if we’ll all be older then, and probably no wiser, then those are the kind of dreams--endlessly repeated, ever revitalized--that also keep us young.

Nest was fourth as the Distaff favorite, but had long since clinched the 3-year-old filly championship.

On that evidence, Thursday evening's results could hardly be deemed a total surprise, but Sikura is never one to take anything for granted and was duly humbled.

“It's very rewarding,” Sikura said. “It's hard to ask for more really. It was a magnificent evening, great recognition for the farm, the stallions and all of our supporters. It's a very competitive business and sometimes less is emphasized with regards to achievement as compared to sales ring performance and the like. It doesn't happen every year and hopefully it brings attention to the staff and the great work everyone does.”

In addition to his three winners—which took his total to 10 champions overall--dual Horse of the Year Curlin was also represented by two other finalists: the aforementioned Clairiere in the dirt female category and Cody's Wish, whose work over seven and eight furlongs landed him a spot on the sprint ballot.

“Curlin has really emerged and in my own opinion, he's the great classic sire of today,” said Sikura. “If you want to win the Breeders' Cup or any Classic race, you have a better chance of that with Curlin than any other sire. I think that's borne out in fact. There are a lot of really good [sires] out there, but I think he's unique.”

So what is it exactly that Curlin passes on to his progeny?

“He's one of those unique horses that imparts so much quality and talent into his offspring,” Sikura said. “He can sire a top-quality horse at any distance and I think that's the separating part between the good, very good and great sires. It's not easy to sire multiple Grade I winners and it seems like--maybe it's just nostalgia for me--but it seemed like it happened more in the day of A.P. Indy, Mr. Prospector, Northern Dancer and Nijinsky II, Alydar, Seattle Slew. I think Curlin is certainly in that category.
He continued, “It’s a tribute to Barbara Banke and her support and a tribute to all the breeders and a tribute to the horse himself. He was such a magnificent, tough racehorse and he’s not only imparted his ability, but his durability and soundness. No matter how much talent you have, if you can’t get to the races, it’s kind of insignificant. They’re tough, they’re not fragile. Whatever is their best race at two, they get better and better and better as they go.”

More Than A ‘Ghost’ of a Chance...

Ghostzapper joined the Hill ‘n’ Dale stallion roster after being transferred by Frank Stronach from Adena Springs for the 2021 breeding season. Having just turned 23, the son of Awesome Again just keeps on keeping on, Sikura says.

“I’d heard many negative comments that he’s too old, but I like to say you’re only old if you can no longer do it,” he commented. “Some people get old at 30 and some at 80 are creative and inventive in pursuing life and moving forward, and I think it’s that way with stallions. He has Moira who’s going to be Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old filly in Canada. Her best distance was a mile and a quarter on the turf, but then he can get you a champion sprinter.

“He’s such a good horse. I wish I would have had him earlier, but I thank Frank Stronach for doing a deal with me to stand Ghostzapper much the way Ken Ramsey did with Kitten’s Joy. I think we’ve brought a lot to the table and commercialized the horses a little bit. I bred 12 of my own mares to him last year and we’ll do the same this year. He can get a dirt horse or a turf horse and they’re fast, but they can also get two turns and have great versatility at the highest levels of racing.”

Goodnight Olive is a seventh worldwide champion for Ghostzapper.

A First For Violence...

The progeny of Hill ‘n’ Dale’s Violence have been increasingly sought after, both as commercial entities and also for their racetrack ability, but the 13-year-old son of Medaglia d’Oro was recording a first when Forte took home the hardware for champion 2-year-old male Thursday evening.

“While Violence has always been popular in the sales ring and with breeders, to sire a champion 2-year-old, that’s an accolade that he didn’t have before,” said Sikura. “He’s bred nice mares, but a champion seems to drive the quality to the next level. When buyers know a sire can get a champion, they’re certainly more determined to have them. This adds to his resume, which was already impressive. Champions are champions, there is only one a year, and it’s a great achievement for him.”

FTC PUBLISHES RESUBMITTED HISA ANTI-DOPING AND MEDICATION CONTROL RULES

Edited Press Release

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has published the resubmitted Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) rules to the Federal Register, initiating a 14-day public comment period, according to a press release from HISA Friday morning. The FTC now has 60 days to approve or deny the proposed rules.

HISA's draft ADMC rules were initially rejected by the FTC in late 2022 due to ongoing legal uncertainties. HISA resubmitted the rules for consideration by the FTC to give the agency more authority over HISA in order to address constitutional questions raised by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. That bill passed both houses of Congress in December and was signed into law by President Biden.

Now that the rules have been resubmitted and posted to the Federal Register, HISA said that they anticipated that its ADMC Program would go into effect March 27, 2023, pending FTC approval. The resubmitted rules include a small number of minor revisions from the version submitted in August, 2022. A clean version of the proposed rules is available on the Federal Register now and a red-lined version will be available on HISA's website within the next 48 hours, the Authority said. In its December, 2022 order, the FTC stated it would consider all previously posted comments on the Federal Register as well as any updated or new comments.

Upon implementation, the ADMC Program will be administered and enforced by the Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit (HIWU). The development of the ADMC rules included an initial public comment period, numerous open discussions and meetings with industry organizations and individuals, as well as the careful consideration of more than 200 comments submitted by racing participants and the general public.

Included in the rules package are the Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Protocol, the Prohibited List, Definitions, Arbitration Procedures, Equine Testing and Investigation Standards, and Equine Standards for Laboratories and Accreditation.

"The establishment of uniform, nationwide anti-doping rules in Thoroughbred racing will strongly enhance the safety and integrity of our sport and is a step many in our industry have long advocated for," said HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus. "The health and safety of horses is our paramount concern, and the consistent enforcement and efficient resolution of rule violations will transform how we protect our equine athletes." Cont.

“We deeply value the input we’ve received from racing participants throughout the development of these rules, and I encourage all participants to continue to share their thoughts with us moving forward.”

HISA’s ADMC Program will advance and modernize anti-doping practices across the sport with components including out-of-competition testing, uniform lab accreditation, a uniform results management process, a robust intelligence and investigations arm and consistent penalties.

As HIWU prepares for the ADMC Program’s launch, the organization will continue to publish and share educational material with industry stakeholders, available at hiwu.org, and will host meetings with groups of racing participants to further educate on the new rules and answer questions.

FROM THE TIF: FIXED-ODDS IN NY COULD BE NEXT

Fixed-odds betting options on horse racing could come to New York residents if a new bill introduced by Senator Joseph Addabbo, Chairman of the state Senate's Racing, gaming and Wagering Committee, is passed, according to a story from the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation.

Senate Bill 2343 is similar to a measure introduced a year ago, also by Sen. Addabbo, but which was never advanced for a vote, TIF reports.

"There should be no doubt amongst racing stakeholders that our existing pari-mutuel offerings are not enough in today's competitive market," said Thoroughbred Idea Foundation executive director Patrick Cummings.

"Fixed odds bets for racing won't replace pari-mutuel wagering, but rather complement our existing offerings, and meet modern customers with a modern product that they currently enjoy with widespread sports betting options.

"After adjusting for inflation, we estimate that mainstream handle on U.S. racing has declined by roughly two-thirds over the last 20 years. The pari-mutuel status quo with high takeout rates and the constant promotion of low-churn exotic bets have depleted our mass market customers." Cont.
The races covered in the TDN are as follows:

- Stakes: purses of $40,000/up
- Allowance Races: purses of $20,000/up
- Optional Claiming Races: purses of $20,000/up
- Maiden Special Weight Races: purses of $18,000/up
- Maiden Claiming Races: purses of $18,000/up & a minimum claiming price of $40,000

"Fixed odds betting offers racing a chance to recapture those that drifted from the sport while introducing our product to new audiences."

In a statement from the New York Racing Association published earlier this week by DRF, spokesman Patrick McKenna indicated the measure had NYRA’s support and “presents an enormous opportunity for horse racing to share in the rapid growth and unrivaled success of New York State’s mobile sports wagering marketplace.”

“Allowing mobile sports wagering platforms to offer premium horse racing content would generate untapped gaming revenue for New York State, attract new fans to horse racing, and deepen the sport’s overall economic impact.”

TIF supported the expansion into complementary fixed odds offerings for on-track customers at Monmouth Park in New Jersey, where the offering is managed by Australian firm BetMakers. Wider distribution to New Jersey customers, including ADW betting via fixed odds on Monmouth races and simulcasted races, is expected in 2023, the TIF reported.
STUDY ON THE IMPACT OF TRAINING ON BONE ROBUSTNESS IN RACEHORSES

University of California Davis released new research in the journal Scientific Reports exploring the relationship between training and bone health in racehorses in the US. The study reports that High-speed and intensity exercise may be associated with more damage and reduced robustness in injured lower leg bones in racehorses.

Among the findings, UC Davis’ Sarah Shaffer and her colleagues explored the relationship between exercise and bone damage, while examining the proximal sesamoid bone (a bone in the lower leg) during the necropsy of 20 racehorses. The authors examined the fractured and intact proximal sesamoid bones from 10 horses who had suffered fatal fractures. They compared the bone mineral density, bone volume, and microdamage in this sample to intact proximal sesamoid bones of 10 control horses. Case horses had a bone lesion with high levels of microdamage and low bone volume.

These observations were used to estimate the rate of remodeling occurring in the sesamoid bones. The authors also modeled the relationship between bone damage and remodeling, and exercise intensity, time off from exercise (layups), and exercise levels between two and 10 months before the racehorse died. For injured horses, damage at the lesion site was associated with high-speed workouts in the four months prior to death, as well as greater time between races while the horse was in active training. Frequent high-speed exercise before death was also associated with lower bone density at the lesion site. However, at other locations, higher rates of remodeling were associated with more cumulative races in the 10 months prior to death.

DR. DARYL TROPEA, FORMER HEAD OF GFAS, JOINS TRF BOARD

Daryl Tropea, Ph.D., who served for more than a decade as the equine program director of the Global Federation of Animal Sanctuaries (GFAS) has joined the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation as a member of its Board of Directors, the TRF announced Friday.

In her role at GFAS, Dr. Tropea visited and assessed hundreds of equine facilities in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the United Kingdom, including 14 of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's Second Chances Programs and Sanctuary Farms located across the United States.

"We are extremely excited to welcome Dr. Tropea to the TRF Board and feel very fortunate that she has accepted the position," said Patrick Mackay, Chairman of TRF. "We look forward to having her share her vast knowledge of Thoroughbred aftercare with us. Her experience and skills will be invaluable to the TRF."

NTRA CONTRIBUTES $10,000 TO TAA

As the official charity partner for the 52nd annual Eclipse Awards, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) was commemorated throughout the awards celebration and the National Thoroughbred Racing Association concluded the evening by announcing a $10,000 donation to the TAA.

“The work and mission of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance is vital to the growth and success of our industry,” said NTRA President and CEO Tom Rooney. "NTRA is grateful for the care and due diligence provided by the TAA each and every day to support our retired racehorses and we encourage everyone to join us in supporting their cause."

KEENELAND BID SPOTTER PETE MCCORMICK DIES AT 75

Pete McCormick, a longtime Keeneland bid spotter and U.S. Marine Corps veteran, passed away Thursday at the age of 75. A native of Ontario, California, Pete was just a boy when given his first job in the auction business from Tom Caldwell, the longtime head auctioneer at Keeneland, who took McCormick under his wing.

“The Keeneland family mourns the passing of Pete McCormick, who was an iconic presence in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion during his four decades as a bid spotter,” Keeneland said Friday in a statement. “Keeneland extends its deepest condolences to Pete’s family, especially his son, Ken. He will be greatly missed.”

LONGTIME DEL MAR EMPLOYEE SHEPARDSON DIES

Mary Shepardson, who spent more than 25 years at the Director of Publications at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, died last week at age 77 of natural causes.

A native of California, Shepardson retired from Del Mar several years ago to pursue her other passion as a member of the city of Poway’s Historical and Memorial Society. She was the organization's president at the time of her passing.

“She was Marketing & Media’s do everything and do-it-all for several decades at Del Mar,” Mac McBride, Del Mar's Director of Media said. “She had one of those steel-trap minds, knew many things about many things. Hard worker, loved the horses. She was a really good lady to get down and get it done with.”

Survivors include her companion of 42 years, Norman Elder, and her brother, Philip. Final arrangements are pending.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

6th-Turfway, $73,630, Alw, (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($50,000), 1-26, 3yo, f, 6f (AWT), 1:11.23, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.

MURKY (f, 3, Violence--Exaggerated {MSW, $206,037}, by Blame) returned to sprinting and made her all-weather debut with Lasix for the first time off a dismal 10th-place finish around two turns at this level at Keeneland two months ago. The 7-2 third choice broke like a rocket from her outside post position, but with speed to her inside, was forced to take back early and sit off the pace while running well out toward the center of the track. The waiting didn’t last long, and as she rounded the far bend, was in full flight and had reached even terms with the three rivals who were in front of her while still parked widest of all. She switched to her right lead as she passed the quarter pole and continued on gamely to the wire to win by 4 1/2 lengths.

Jersey Pear (Bee Jersey) checked in for second. The filly’s dam has also produced an unnamed 2-year-old colt by Dialed In, a yearling filly by Summer Front and is expecting a foal by Maxfield this year. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $135,775.

O-Lael Stables; B-M. Roy Jackson (KY); T-Wesley A. Ward.

8th-Gulfstream, $72,000, Alw, (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($25,000), 1-27, 4yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24.41, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

ROSEBUG (f, 4, American Pharoah--Taittinger Rose {GSW, $382,503}, by Menifee) returned to action after 10 months on the sidelines and found the class relief to her liking after two winless performances in listed stakes company, including a third in the Cicada S. last March, in New York in her last two starts.

Back in at seven furlongs for the first time since her maiden score 13 months ago and after both routing nine furlongs and sprinting six in her last two—and also with the benefit of first-time Lasix—the 4-1 fourth choice bobbled ever so slightly at the break, which forced her to take back early and allow her speedy rival American of Course (Awesome of Course) to gain the early lead and set the pace. The bay filly never lost touch with the frontrunner, who with three furlongs left to run reluctantly gave up the lead allowing Rosebug to gain command and open up to a clear advantage past a half-mile in :46.63. After sweeping wide into the top of the lane, she briefly was challenged by eventual runner-up Three Witches (Into Mischief) to her outside before shaking that rival off in mid-stretch and cruising to the victory by 1 3/4 lengths. The Bill Mott trainee, who hails from the immediate family of GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Twilight Ridge (Cox’s Ridge), is a half-sister to stakes winner Montauk Traffic (Cross Traffic) and her dam’s last reported foal is a 2-year-old filly named Austin Traffic, also by Cross Traffic.

Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-1, $129,680. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O/B-Mike G. Rutherford (KY); T-William I. Mott.

7th-Fair Grounds, $53,000, Alw (NW3X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 1-27, 4yo/up, f, 6f, 1:10.25, ft, 5 1/4 lengths.

STROBE (c, 4, Into Mischief--Flashing {MGISW, $633,226}, by A.P. Indy), tabbed as a ‘TDN Rising Star’ after breaking his maiden in front-running fashion on last year’s Derby undercard, was next seen Oct. 14 at Keeneland against allowance company and he won again on the engine, going away by six lengths.

Returning to Churchill Downs Nov. 12 in an attempt to clear his next condition, the homebred was second, 6 1/4 lengths behind stablemate Knocker Down (Cairo Prince), before shipping to the Fair Grounds where he returned to form against optional claimers with a wire-to-wire victory with a gaudy 105 Beyer Dec. 22. Facing a field of five and once again the heavy favorite, the bay colt did not break on top, but waited until the far turn to make his move. With good energy, he shot to the lead, distanced himself from the rest of the field and ran on to win by 5 1/4 lengths over Therideofalifetime (Candy Ride {Arg}). From a family that includes GI Kentucky Oaks winner Seaside Attraction and out of a MGISW dam, the winner is a half-brother to Floodlight (Medaglia d’Oro), SW & MGSP-Fr, $111,885. More recently, his mare produced a yearling colt by Street Boss and was covered by Liam’s Map last year. Lifetime Record: 5-4-1-0, $223,198.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

5th-Turfway, $70,000, Msw, 1-26, 4yo/up, 6f (AWT), 1:11.45, ft, neck.

PARTICULAR (c, 4, Classic Empire--Mriya, by Elusive Quality), eighth at Gulfstream in his final start for Saffie Joseph, Jr. Mar. 5, made his first start outside of Florida, on an all-weather surface and for trainer Mike Trombetta as the 5-2 second choice in this field of seven. After a clean break, the winner didn’t show much early speed and instead let Insolito (Connect), with Midnight Escape (Speightstown) in hot pursuit, lead the way. The early pacesetter maintained his clear advantage all the way up the backstretch and around the bend, but Particular was moving quickly for the front and had passed a tiring Midnight Escape on the outside just before the half went in :46.39. The early leader was also tiring as the winner took charge and began to pull away. The bay held off the late challenge from runner-up Park Place (Mastery) by a neck at the finish. Mriya also produced a 3-year-old filly by Hard Spun, who was exported to Panama in 2021. Sales History: $220,000 Wlg '19 KEENOV; $345,000 RNA Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $300,000 2yo '21 FTFMAR. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $53,130. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

7th-Gulfstream, $70,000, Msw, 1-27, 3yo, f, 5ft, :56.50, fm, neck.

SURE CAN (f, 3, Mor Spirit--Appealing Katie, by Summer Bird) sprinted over the slop Oct. 30 at Churchill Downs to finish fourth on debut, then was a distant sixth as the chalk over the same track Nov. 24. Trainer Brian Lynch tried her over the Gulfstream turf Jan. 8 and she responded with a second-place finish. This time at even-money, the chestnut filly exited from the rail gate and chased pacesetter Queen Karima (Practical Joke). Rounding the far turn, Sure Can set herself up on the outside, and surged late to defeat her opponent by a neck. The winner has a 2-year-old filly by Hard Spun, who was exported to Panama in 2021. Sales History: $220,000 Wlg '19 KEENOV; $345,000 RNA Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $300,000 2yo '21 FTFMAR. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $53,130. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT THE LATEST SON OF DEEP IMPACT TO STAND IN IRELAND?

By Brian Sheerin

Lemongrove Stud may have been the newest name on this year’s Irish Thoroughbred Stallion Trail and stallion master Tom Wallace, who is set to stand Tosen Stardom (Jpn) at the County Westmeath operation this year, is confident that the son of Deep Impact (Jpn) will provide something different for breeders.

Wallace, a notable breeder who has, up until now, yet to dip his toe into standing a stallion, said the opportunity to offer a dual Group 1-winning son of the late, great Deep Impact, was too great an offer to turn down.

Tosen Stardom began his racing career in Japan before transferring to Australia where he recorded both of his Group 1 successes.

Owned by Emiratis Hamad Al Kadfoor and his racing business partner Ali Farooq, Tosen Stardom is shuttling from Woodside Park Stud for the 2023 Northern Hemisphere breeding season and is already booked in to see over 40 mares.

Wallace said, “Obviously some people might be a little bit wary about a new unknown stallion who is standing at a stud they never heard of before but, to try and get your hands on a horse who has won two Group 1s in Europe, that’s extremely difficult.”

DUBAWI’S PRINCE EIJI HITS THE HEIGHTS IN FIREBREAK by Heather Anderson

Dubawi sired his second group winner in two weeks and 163rd overall when Prince Eiji (GB) got the job done over a sloppy main track in the 1600-metre $150,000 G3 Firebreak S. Presented By Longines. The first three home were all from the Doug Watson barn, as Everfast (Take Charge Indy) was 1 1/4 lengths back in second, a half-length to the good of Thegreatcollection (Saint Anddan) in third.

Several lengths off the pace in second as Ever Given (Kodi Bear {Ire}) opened up leaving the chute, Prince Eiji raced well off the fence to avoid the kickback over the sealed surface. He took dead aim on that foe at the half-way point and Sam Hitchcott let he loose leaving the bend. In front 300 metres out, he glided to the wire an easy winner, as Everfast and Thegreatcollection both made up ground in behind. Cont. p9

STEADY GROWTH IN IRISH RACING INDUSTRY

Following the publication of the full-year statistics by Horse Racing Ireland, Irish racing and breeding is experiencing growth across most sectors.

HANLON CELEBRATES ECLIPSE AWARD

Trainer John “Shark” Hanlon was euphoric after Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}) won an Eclipse Award for Champion Steeplechaser.

He added, "Has he been difficult to market? Not at all. The Deep Impact connection is working in our favour and the fact that he was an unbeaten 2-year-old in Japan is a major help as well. Everyone tells me that Deep Impact’s progeny do better with time, as this lad did, so for him to do what he did at two shows how good a horse he was."

He added, "Not only did he win a listed race as a 2-year-old, but he also started favourite for the Japanese Derby at three...He achieved a rating of 118 which is three pounds higher than Study Of Man (Ire) and only three pounds lower than Saxon Warrior (Jpn) who won the 2000 Guineas. He’s a gorgeous horse."

Tom Wallace

Tosen Stardom was not the first horse who was put to Wallace with a view towards standing him at Lemongrove. Based a couple of miles down the road from Tally-Ho Stud, an operation that knows a thing or two about producing speed, Wallace turned down the chance to stand a smart Australian sprinter in the opinion that he would be bringing an apple to an orchard. But in Tosen Stardom, he was confident he could offer breeders something different.

He explained, "I was asked if I had any interest in standing a good Australian sprinter but, where I am based, you have Tally-Ho Stud a couple of miles down the road and Starfield Stud isn’t too far from me either. Tally-Ho specialises in speed while Starfield have a number of sprinting stallions, including Kuroshio (Aus), so I didn’t think it made much sense to try and go into competition with them."

He added, “Then Tosen Stardom cropped up and, obviously Saxon Warrior had just had a brilliant year with his 2-year-olds, so I thought a son of Deep Impact could be something different. Study Of Man has also been well-supported in England so it made a lot of sense.”

Wallace added, “I have been following sons of Sunday Silence for over 20 years, which obviously Deep Impact is, so I just said to myself, the pedigrees have become saturated over here in Ireland by sons of Green Desert, Danehill or Galileo (Ire), so why not try a new sire line. This fella seemed to fit the bill, a real good-looking horse who retired sound of limb and wind. As well as that, he raced as a 2-year-old right up to his 7-year-old campaign. Why not give him a chance?”

Lemongrove Stud may be new to the stallion ranks but Wallace is no novice. He spent time working at Water Cress Farm in America, where Cigar was based while he was there, spent time with his neighbours Tally-Ho, Rathbarry and has sold many good horses in his own right as well.

Branching out into the Zenith Stallion Station at Lemongrove is by no means a step into the unknown and, given he is in the process of building a four-horse stallion barn, Wallace is hoping Tosen Stardom can be the first of many to stand at his burgeoning operation.

Wallace said, “We’re very happy with how things have gone so far with him. He went down well on the Irish Thoroughbred Stallion Trail. The fact that Tally-Ho weren’t taking part in the Stallion Trail probably lessened our footfall but we’d plenty of interest, which was great. I had over 50 different groups call here on the Friday and Saturday and not many of them were tyre-kickers either. There are over 40 definites booked in to him in his first season which is positive. It’s all about numbers so hopefully we can get a few more mares into him.

"I'm building a new four-box stallion barn because Hamad Al Kadfoor and Ali Farooq want to send another stallion next year and hopefully we can keep building it up. It would be nice to establish a stallion-standing stud."

STATISTICS REFLECT STEADY GROWTH IN IRISH RACING AND BREEDING

Most key statistics for the Irish Thoroughbred racing and breeding industry showed significant gains when compared to the pre-pandemic year of 2019, as the full-year statistics were released by Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) on Thursday.

In the areas of ownership (+17.1%, 4,757), horses-in-training (10,208, +14.1% on 2019), Tote betting (total Tote betting rose +18.3%), and bloodstock sales (€215.4m, +30.3% on 2019 and +17.8% on 2021), figures are well over 2019’s. Owner retention rate is now 72.8%, with the number of syndicates increasing for the fourth consecutive year to 825 (+3.4% on 2021 and +24.2% on 2019). 2022 fixtures decreased to 388 from a record of 394 in 2021, but the first half of 2021 saw a readjustment to accommodate point-to-pointers on the racecourse. For the full statistics, please click here.

Suzanne Eade, CEO of Horse Racing Ireland, said, “A strong and stable racing industry reflects well on rural communities in every county on the island and a key driver of our success is the number of horses-in-training which leads directly to employment in the country’s racing yards. While the overall number is down slightly on 2021, the figure of 10,208 is well ahead of the 2019 figure which bodes well as we start into a new year.

“Almost seven out of every 10 runners in Ireland (69.8%) won prize-money in Ireland in 2022, 5,686 horses in total, and that’s the highest number we’ve ever reported in this category. It’s an important indicator for us because we acknowledge the incredible loyalty displayed by owners to Irish racing during the Covid pandemic.

“While the cost of living continues to be an issue for all industries, we can be confident heading into 2023 that racing remains extremely popular in Ireland with attendances rallying strongly in the second half of 2022. Attracting more than nine out of every 10 people that went racing before the pandemic, back to the racecourse, is a tribute to the work put in by the tracks. It was encouraging to see such strong end-of-year crowds at Navan for Troytown Day and at Fairyhouse for the Drinmore meeting, at Naas, Punchestown and Down Royal to name just a few, and of course a very strong performance at the Leopardstown Christmas Festival. 2023 got off to a great start with an incredible day at a well attended Tramore.

SHARK HANLON HOLDS BACK TEARS AT ECLIPSE AWARDS By Brian Sheerin

Trainer John 'Shark' Hanlon was reduced to tears upon receiving his Eclipse Award on behalf of America's 2022 Champion Steeplechaser Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}) and even labelled the evening as "the biggest night of my life."

The County Kilkenny trainer sent out Hewick, a horse he famously bought for just €850, to win the American Grand National at Far Hills last October.

Hanlon made the trip over to America for the awards ceremony where he struggled to hold back the tears.

"I don't know what to say. I can't believe that we came over here and won the American Grand National in Far Hills," Hanlon said of his Grade I winner.

"He's been a very good horse for us, for the whole family. I bought him at my own local sales for 800 quid and he's after winning half a million. But tonight is definitely the biggest night of my life. Thank you everyone." Cont. p6

Hewick has won eight times and recorded notable victories in Britain and Ireland, including the Bet365 Gold Cup at Sandown and the Tote Galway Plate.

- Feb. 25: Saudi Cup - King Abdulaziz Racecourse in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
- Mar. 4: Super Saturday - Meydan Racecourse, Dubai

The World Pool Moment of the Year has been extended to all global World Pool meetings and will reward stable staff with a total of over HK$1 million (approx. £103,000) in prizes, as well as a VIP trip to Hong Kong, thanks to additional funding from the HKJC, UK Tote Group, Racecourse Media Group (RMG) and Ascot Racecourse. For more information, please visit the World Pool website for more.

Michael Fitzsimons, Executive Director Wagering Products of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, said, “We were absolutely thrilled with the results from our 21 World Pool meetings in 2022 and are excited to be extending that offering to 25 days this year.

“Having Australia and Saudi Arabia on the fixture list of 2023 World Pool meetings is another important step in the globalisation of World Pool, while adding some high-profile British and Irish meetings to the schedule is another exciting advancement.

“To complement our expanding list of World Pool meetings are the Moment of the Day and Moment of the Year initiatives, which for the first time will reward winning stable staff from all countries hosting World Pool races.

“Our continued thanks go to our partners the Hong Kong Jockey Club, and in collaboration with RMG and Ascot, we are delighted to see Moment of the Day and Moment of the Year now extended to include all countries hosting World Pool races.”

UNIQUE A’ALI BREEDING INCENTIVE ANNOUNCED
A unique breeding incentive for multiple group winner A’Ali (Ire) was announced by Newsells Park Stud on Thursday.

Any breeders that send mares to the three-time Group 2 juvenile victor this breeding season will be entered into a prize draw to win two tickets to the G1 Dubai World Cup on Mar. 25, the Wimbledon Ladies’ Singles Final on July 15, or the Oct. 28 Rugby World Cup Final in Paris.

South Africa, Australia, Saudi Arabia and Dubai.”
Alex Frost, Chief Executive of the UK Tote Group, said, “We are looking forward to another World Pool season which now extends its reach across eight countries worldwide. For the UK and Ireland, it is welcome to see new additions to this year’s schedule, with two races from Newbury’s Lockinge Day added, along with Irish Derby Day, taking World Pool events hosted in the UK and Ireland to a total of 18.

“The ambitions for a global wagering platform are already being realised with over 20 pool betting operators now part of World Pool. Last year alone, the UK and Ireland saw record turnover of £521 million across 17 World Pool events, showcasing the best of our racing to a global audience, ensuring an improved value proposition for our own wagering customers and creating a more sustainable funding mechanism for horseracing in the future, with additional income for our racecourse partners.

“Our continued thanks go to our partners the Hong Kong Jockey Club, and in collaboration with RMG and Ascot, we are delighted to see Moment of the Day and Moment of the Year now extended to include all countries hosting World Pool races.”

Besides his Norfolk S. score, the son of the late Society Rock (Ire) also captured the G2 Prix Robert Pain and G2 Flying Childers S. at two. He then added both the G2 Sapphire S. and G3 Sprint S. at three and was third in the G2 Meydan Sprint as a 4-year-old. He stands for £5,000 Oct. 1 SLF. For more details on the breeding incentives to utilise A’Ali, please visit the Newsells Park Stud website.

Newsells Park Stud General Manager Julian Dollar, said, “A’Ali’s partners were keen to highlight what a great sporting chance a mare had of producing quality, fast and precocious winners if she was covered by one of the fastest and most precocious sprinters of recent years. And what better way to do that than by offering great sporting prizes to the breeders themselves? Not only could your mare be visiting the next Ardad (Ire) or Havana Grey (GB), but you could also be attending a memorable sports final.”

JP MCMANUS’S DUAL GRADE 1 WINNER
FOREMAN DIES AGED 25 By Brian Sheerin

Frank Berry has paid tribute to Foreman (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), the Grade 1-winning hurdler and chaser, who passed away at the age of 25 at JP McManus’s Martinstown Stud in Limerick this week.

Foreman was described by Berry as a horse whose ability matched his looks and offered up his memorable Irish Champion Hurdle victory at Leopardstown in 2004 as one of the major highlights the McManus team enjoyed with the dashing chestnut.

A 10-time winner, Foreman also landed top-flight success over fences when landing the Maghull Novices’ Chase at Aintree in 2006 and recorded almost £400,000 in career earnings.

Berry said, “Foreman was a good horse and we had some great days with him. He was trained by Thiery Doumen and won the Irish Champion Hurdle in 2004. That was one of the great days we had with him but winning the G1 [Maghull Novices’ Chase] in Liverpool was another. He was a very consistent horse and a gorgeous-looking horse as well.”

He added, "Most importantly, though, he had the ability to go with his looks and we really fancied him one day to beat Kauto Star (Fr) at Newbury. We all know what Kauto Star went on to achieve so the fact that we were disappointed at the time tells you what sort of regard Foreman was held in. Everyone did a great job with the horse throughout his career and he was an old favourite at Martinstown. He had a great retirement but his age caught up with him during the week."

BEDDING-IN PERIOD FOR NEW WHIP RULES FOR JUMPS RACING EXTENDED BY A WEEK

The bedding-in period for the new whip rules in Jumps racing has been extended by one week, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) confirmed on Friday. This follows a meeting between the Professional Jockeys Association (PJA) and a selection of jockeys.

The extension, requested by jockeys and the PJA, was granted on account of the number of cancelled fixtures last week due to the frozen ground. The full implementation of the new rules for Jumps racing will begin on Feb. 13. The start of the bedding-in period for Flat racing remains Feb. 27, as does the Mar. 27 full implementation date for Flat racing.

“Fantastic result,” said trainer Doug Watson, winning this race for the second time. “I’m very happy for Sheikh Mohammed Obaid [Al Maktoum, owner] to see Prince Eiji come back like that. I thought Sam [Hitchcott] sat in the perfect position all the way around as you just don’t know how conditions like that are going to suit them.”

“He showed what he’s capable of there,” added Hitchcott. “It was a difficult decision for Pat [Dobbs] to ride Everfast but I learned a lot from riding this horse last time. He’s an athlete; he’s very natural when it comes to switching his leads, which is what you need on the dirt.”

A winner of his Ascot debut all the way back in 2018, Prince Eiji made just three starts in 2022, but his yearly finale was a victory in the Listed Dubai Creek Mile at the beginning of December. The 7-year-old ran fifth in the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 on the opening day of the Dubai World Cup Carnival earlier this month.

Pedigree Notes

Part of a legion of 249 stakes winners for Dubawi, Prince Eiji is the fourth group winner bred on the Dubawi/Pivotal cross with his victory on Friday. G2 Queen’s Vase scorer Kemari (GB), G3 Prix de Flore victress Intimation (GB) and Desert Wisdom (GB), successful in the G3 Burj Nahaar, were earlier representatives.

His dam, Classic-placed in the 2011 G1 Oaks, would go onto greater things as a 4-year-old, taking both the G1 Prix Jean Romanet and G1 Pretty Polly S. At stud, Izzi Top’s second foal was the 1.9m gns Tattersalls October yearling turned stakes-placed Willie John (GB) (Dansili [GB]), with Prince Eiji her third, a 2.6m gns sale darling also during Book 1 in 2017. Her record currently stands at eight foals, with five to race and five winners. Her gelding of 2018, Zagato (GB) (Frankel [GB]), collected his black-type win in Bahrain. In 2021, she foaled an Invincible Spirit (Ire) filly, and her latest produce is a colt by Frankel (GB), born on Apr. 14, 2022.

Izzi Top is a half-sister to Grade III winner Emaraat (GB) (Dubawi [Ire]), and G2 Prix de la Nonette heroine Jazzi Top (GB) (Danehill Dancer [Ire]), who ran second in the G1 Prix de l’Opera. Their dam is the high class Group 1 winner Zee Zee Top (GB) (Zafonic), herself a daughter of the G1 Irish Oaks-winning blue hen Colorspin (Fr) (High Top [Ire]).
Naval Power added another tick in the win column with a stalk-and-pounce triumph in Meydan’s Listed Jumeirah Classic Presented By Longines on Friday.

Punching the breeze from his wide draw, he was content to let One Nation take the lead for the opening quarter mile. Eventually steered back through the field to get some cover, the hooded bay revved back up by the 500-metre mark and arrived with his run at the 300-metre pole. It took him until the 50-metre mark to collar One Nation, but once he was in the clear, he motored home a facile winner. One Nation was 3 1/4 lengths ahead of Highbank in third to give Charlie Appleby and Godolphin the trifecta.

“That was lovely in a competitive race, as the second and third set a good standard,” said William Buick. “He’ll be a better horse on better ground.”

A winner of his first four starts, including to at listed level in England, Naval Power’s flawless record ended with a sixth in the G1 Dewhurst S. in October. The Jumeirah was his 3-year-old bow. Emirates Rewards did her best running at three where she accrued three victories. At stud, she has three winners from four runners, a Harry Angel (Ire) juvenile filly and a yearling filly by Raven’s Pass. Her dam is GI Spinster S. heroine Asi Siempre (El Prado {Ire}), who also foaled GI Breeders C Sterna Juvenile Turf hero and sire Outstrip (GB). Click for the VIDEO.

The dam, who was runner-up in the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert and has also produced the listed-placed Richemont and Rock Blanc, also has the unraced 3-year-old filly Rockmantique (Fr) (Recoletos (Fr)). MAWJ (IRE) (f, 3, Exceed And Excel (Aus)--Modern Ideals (GB), by New Approach (Ire)), named a ‘TDN Rising Star’ after winning her May 14 Newmarket novice by 4 3/4 lengths, went on to take the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. two starts later and ended her juvenile season with a third in the G1 Cheveley Park S. in her fifth start. Perched out wide in an ideal stalking position, she tackled longtime leader Alseyoob (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) at the quarter pole and appeared home free. However, fellow Godolphin colourbearer Dream Of Love (Ire) (Shamardal) was rocketing home up the outside and cut the margin down to a short head at the line. “To be honest I got racing too far out and I wasn’t really going too well at the 600 metres,” said winning jockey Pat Cosgrave. “She’s an Exceed And Excel and she doesn’t really want this ground. It was tight at the line but class got her through.” Although Epitome never placed, she has made a large impact on the breed, as she is already the dam of three stakes winners including the winner. Modern News (GB) (Shamardal) won at listed level in England and was also placed in a pair of Group 3s there, while her fourth foal was recently crowned Eclipse Champion Turf Male. Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)), who won the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile and GI Woodbine Mile S. to go along with his Classic score in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains.
