ROSEN MADE TO MEASURE FOR THE CHIEF’S CROWN

by Chris McGrath

He was tailor-made for both walks of life; raised to be equally at home with the racetrack cavalcade or the catwalk parade. From the outside, fashion and the Turf perhaps share their most obvious bond in pageant: all those shimmering silks, all those sleek creatures. To Andrew Rosen, however, it's a more internal thing. Outlook, not aspect.

In both cases, he explains, you're adding one plus one and hoping to get four. "Or six, or eight," he says, smiling. "So, it's all about anticipating the future. In the clothing industry, you're always reading six, nine, 12 months ahead. In the horse industry it's even longer, because it's 11 months from conception to foal, and then a couple of years till they race. So there's always this thing that the future is going to be better than the past. You're going to find a better way to make this dress, or fit that jacket; you're going to find a way to produce a better racehorse. And that's just the way I was brought up, the way my mind works. I always believe that maybe the horses next year are going to run better than they did this year."

He gives a shrug, another wry smile. "Sometimes they do," he adds. "Most of the time they don't."

Rosen inherited an aptitude for both these different worlds from his father Carl, who had turned the small Massachusetts dress company founded by his own father into fashion giant Puritan; and then, incredibly, made Hall of Famer Chris Evert (Swoon's Son) his first-ever yearling purchase at Keeneland. FOR LOYA, IT ALL COMES FULL CIRCLE FOR OBS DEBUT by Jessica Martini

Cesar Loya, who was first introduced to Thoroughbreds as a kid when his father worked for Dr. Pug and Susie Hart, will offer his first consignment at the Ocala Breeders’ Sales Company's March 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale next week and it seems fitting the star of his five-horse draft may well be a filly by Mitole (hip 738) that Loya and his wife Danielle Jones-Loya raised on behalf of the Harts on their Ocala farm.

“My dad worked for Dr. Pug and Susie Hart. I grew up at their farm from when I was seven years old,” Loya said. “I’ve known Dr. Hart for 30 years now. I have this horse for them and they’ve given me an opportunity to go out on my own. So it’s all come full circle.”

Despite his early immersion in the Thoroughbred world, Loya initially had other career plans.

“I did a stint in the military,” Loya, who was stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, explained. “I did four years in the military.” Cont. p7

His premature death, in 1983, created a challenging test of precocity in his 25-year-old son. In soon breaking out his own brand, however, Rosen would ultimately make the third Rosen generation in the trade the most successful yet. In the meantime, his parallel legacy on the Turf had already brought him to new heights virtually overnight.

Just weeks after losing his father, Rosen went to Claiborne and saw a Danzig colt, bred from Chris Evert's daughter by Secretariat, getting his basic training alongside the other yearlings. It was decided to name him for Rosen's father, who had been known throughout firm and family as "The Chief."

"I remember looking at this colt with Seth [Hancock] and Roger Laurin, who was training the horses," he recalls. "First crop of Danzig, a little on the small side but well-balanced. Who could have said, then, what was going to happen the next year? But I soon knew that something was different because Roger, before, was, 'Don't bother me, kid.' And then when Chief's Crown came around, all of a sudden, he was paying lots of attention to me! And actually, Roger and I ended up being amazing friends.

"Roger badly wanted to win the Kentucky Derby, because he should have won with Secretariat. He was the trainer of Meadow Stable when Eddie Neloy had a heart attack and died. Bull Hancock called him and said, 'You have a new job.' He had to give up his public stable to train for the Phipps family, but who wouldn't have done that? And he said, 'Well, okay, as long as my father can train these horses.' And that's how Lucien got to train Secretariat and Riva Ridge."

In the event, Chief's Crown had to settle for third in the Derby, but it was nonetheless a remarkable and emotional journey for the whole Rosen family, with championship laurels secured in the inaugural GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

"Maybe in those days, so soon after Chris Evert, you didn't understand how hard it really was to have a horse of that caliber," Rosen admits. "But he ran 21 races in two years and won eight Grade Is. That's unthinkable today. My father always wanted a Derby horse so something like Chief's Crown, that would have been the ultimate for him. He'd said to me, 'I don't want you to sell the horses, I think there's something special there.'"

Seasoned horsemen immediately recognized the caliber of the young heir, when the time came to syndicate Chief's Crown, and many cherished friendships have been maintained ever since. Rosen still talks most days with John Stuart of Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services, while a round of golf with Roger Laurin and Shug McGaughey identified a lasting successor once his first trainer retired.

"I have a lot of good relationships in the horse business," Rosen says. "I understand the clothing industry: that's how I make my living. The horse racing, I'm still learning a lot. In both cases, it's what I grew up with, hanging out with my father. I would go with him to the factory or the office, and they're always talking about clothing. Same thing with the horses, though he was more into the gambling. He'd come home after a big day, and I'd be allowed to count the money and tell him how much he'd won. (And he'd give me $100!) So it was something that I just naturally gravitated towards, as I got older."

Evidently his father made no more valued bequest than the counsel of his friend Miles Rubin, who did everything possible to redress the grievous void in a young man's life. But while plainly inheriting the same, uncommon acumen, Rosen's coolly confident and reflective nature has made him a contrasting if no less natural "chief" than his extrovert father.

"My father and I had a really great relationship," he says. "Parenting in the '60s and '70s was not the same as today. But we had a connection: I understood how he thought, appreciated what he did, and learned so much from him. He died when he was young, and I was very young. But I'd had the opportunity to work with him, I'd been long exposed to what he did and thought, and that gave me a platform for the future.
"In some ways, I admire people that go off and do things very different from their family. But it felt like my responsibility to take over. I had a feel for the clothing business, and I had a feel for the horses. Everything was there for me, all I had to do was follow in my father’s footsteps. And that’s what I did, without ever looking back.

"I ask myself now, ‘How the hell did I do that?’ But my father was sick for a while, so he had prepared me as best as he could. And you’re young, and bold, and confident. Sure, that there were things I did right and things I did wrong. But there’s nothing I look back on and say, ‘Oh, I should have done that differently.’ Other than maybe when my mother called me the night before the Preakness and told me to change the jock!" (He couldn’t do that, and Chief’s Crown lost by a head.)

Going back to our opening premise, the common challenge both on the Turf and in couture is not merely to anticipate the future (i.e. demand) but to shape it, too. Is there perhaps some equivalence between breeding purely to sell and mass-producing cheap threads? Because surely, it’s those who keep faith in quality who set standards, and ultimately set trends?

"I'm in the business I'm in because I love the clothing industry," Rosen replies. "I want to do things that I'm proud of, and that people working for the company are proud of. I want to be able to inspire somebody. I'm not in that end of the clothing business which is just about finding a way to make money. I want to create something meaningful, part of the future of our industry. And I think it's a lot the same with breeding. I'm trying to produce horses that can run on Saturday.

"I understand that there's a market for everything. The clothing industry is huge. I focus on one part of it, try to be really good at that. And horseracing is another enormous industry. As many people have tried to own it, and control it, it just doesn’t work that way. So, again, I try to focus on what I think works for what I believe in."
He looks a lot like his sire. Lots of leg, well-balanced, with a strong, powerful build. He already has a commanding walk.”

This aspiration has prompted Rosen to develop a transatlantic program that needs to be curated with exceptional skill, given how the competition at that level tends to enjoy apparently infinite resources.

"I always had the relationships in America but had to develop them in Europe as well, because I wanted exposure to bloodlines over there," he explains. "I always felt that the 2-year-old racing in Europe was much better. It started earlier and, because it was all on the turf and on the straight, it was that way. The 2-year-old racing there is pretty open and can be competitive for everyone. But then, as the horses get older, I think the big outfits—the Godolphins, the Coolmores, the Juddmontes—have a huge advantage. As the racing heats up for the 3- and 4-year-olds, it’s pretty tough to compete."

On this model, the likes of Icon Project (Empire Maker) and Theysken’s Theory (Bernardini) have thrived Stateside after laying foundations on European grass. With the right material, however, Rosen is also happy to keep campaigning indigenous stock in Europe. Last year, for instance, in partnership with Marc Chan he celebrated Group 1 success with Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Prosperous Voyage (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}).

Prosperous Voyage was actually recommended by trainer Ralph Beckett when her original owners were looking to cash out; while Lezoo was proposed at the Arqana Breeze-Up by another of Rosen’s trusted collaborators, Jamie McCalmont. Rosen told McCalmont that she would bring €300,000 after a breeze like that, and that would be too much. "Jamie looked at me and laughed," he recalls. "Then Marc saw her and liked her, so we said we’d follow her through. None of us thought we would get her at that price [€110,000]. Then, before she ran first time, Ralph told us that this one wasn’t very good. ‘Oh well,’ I said, ‘We have to go through bad ones to get good ones…’ So she has been a very pleasant surprise!"
Rosen is hardly alone in recognizing how Beckett has now sealed a place in the European elite, but remains a grateful admirer of Brian Meehan along with Andrew Balding, Roger Charlton and John Gosden. "Although really good horses can overcome everything, it's obviously best if you can have them managed the right way, put them in the right spots and so on," he says. "But I'm very lucky that way, and I like having these relationships with a few different people over there. In America, basically all the horses go to Shug first. The American system is very different. But the racing is very different, too. The Americans don't really understand Europe, and the Europeans don't really understand America!"

"But listen, that kind of polarization creates opportunities. The Americans are strictly focused on dirt racing, yet 60 percent of their major racing is on turf. That's why Europe has benefited from so many of us coming over to support the yearling sales and the secondary market. In the old days you had Gainesway and Claiborne and others bringing those top turf stallions over, and I do believe that we're not far away from that kind of horse working again [in Kentucky]. Peter Brant, a few other people are trying. The only reason it hasn't happened yet is because none of them has worked. But it only takes one."

As things stand, a little over half of Rosen's 30-odd horses in training are based in Europe; while he has 10 broodmares either side of the water, respectively divided between Watership Down and Kilshannig, in Europe; and Claiborne, Gainesway and Merriebelle in America. If you add young stock, you're looking at around 70 to 75 horses. But there's constant refinement: fillies retiring from one division to the other; other horses culled or sold to fund reinvestment.

"My philosophy is that I want to sell enough to cover the overhead of my operation," Rosen explains. "Generally, I would always sell the colts, and sometimes fillies as well. My intention is for the horseracing to be a business, too. So, I have to do things that are commercially acceptable, and try to make the pieces fit together that way. But I wouldn't think of myself as a commercial breeder. Ultimately, what am I trying to do? Just develop good racehorses so I can have better broodmares. But that process requires me to sell horses, for sure. Because my operation would [otherwise] cost several million a year to run, and there has to be some logic to it."

"Ultimately, you want your business to get a little bigger, a little better, each year. You're always looking at how to build. So, I am a commercial breeder to the extent that if I ever need to sell something, I want somebody always to be interested in what I have produced."
As the conversation proceeds, it feels increasingly as though Rosen's twin enthusiasms share the same impetus: a dynamic, empathetic interest in where we find identity, and how we might cultivate it into something better. Maybe that drive traces to his grandfather, a Russian immigrant who was a cutter in a dress factory until launching this remarkable, dynastic engagement with American opportunity.

At one point, for instance, Rosen discusses efforts to preserve the historic identity of the Garment District in New York. He recently started a company where everything is manufactured locally. That's not easy, when Americans today are evidently reluctant to sit at a sewing machine all day, while expecting wages far in excess if those that suffice in other economies. But the quality Rosen seeks can't be produced by robots.

"I understand that this has to be more of a niche, that it's not for everyone," he says of this domestic venture. "And I know it's never going to come back to what it was in the '60s and '70s. But I do think it's important to have a manufacturing base close to your design, because they go hand-in-hand. The closer they are, the better both are going to be. It's just like the countries that have the best stallions will also have the best horses. But to make these things happen, you need vision, passion, commitment. Without that, and without integrity-well, you won't ever keep something just because you always had it before."

That last remark applies to us all, in that we all share the same patrimony, the same cumulative bequest from breeders past. But it also applies to Rosen on personal level, in terms of a passion inherited from his father.

"My early days in horseracing were so exciting," he reflects. "First the Chris Evert times, with my father, and then all of us remembering him with Chief's Crown. There was no way I could not like it. And I have enjoyed it, all the way, with all the highs and lows. The lows haven't scared me, neither have the highs deceived me into thinking it's always going to be that way. I have always just really enjoyed it all: not only the racing and the breeding, and the trading, but above all the people."

After four years, Loya decided it was time for a new direction. "When I got out, I went to work for Steve Venosa," Loya said. "He pretty much took me under his wing. He gave me the opportunity. That’s when I knew that I loved the horses."

In addition to Venosa, Loya said he gained valuable experience from his late mother-in-law, Brenda Jones, who passed away in 2018.

"Brenda Jones was a great, great horse buyer and pinhooker," Loya said. "Getting to be around her taught me a lot."

Loya spent 16 years working for Venosa before deciding to head out on his own last year. Asked what had prompted the decision, Loya chuckled and said, "I had a newborn."

He continued, "We have a farm here in Ocala. So we can train and be self-employed. My wife travels to the sales, too, so now I can travel with her. And I can spend more time with my family."
As he headed into the under-tack show last week, Loya admitted to some anxiety.

“I think there is always nerves when you do anything you love and are passionate about,” Loya said. “But it was more excitement, I would say. Especially about this filly.”

“This filly,” is the daughter of Mitole out of Olive Branch (Speightstown), a graded-stakes placed mare and half-sister to graded winner Moonlight d’Oro (Medaglia d’Oro). Loya had to wait until the fourth and final session of the under-tack show to unleash the filly, who worked a furlong in :9 4/5 last Friday.

“We raised her,” Loya said of the filly. “I was very high on her since the farm and my expectations [for her Friday] were very high. She has a great disposition. She is very light on her feet and she is an athletic, smart filly.”

Of the filly’s work, Loya said, “She proved me right. To myself.” Loya’s connection to the Harts and their faith in him make the filly’s stellar work even more meaningful.

“When I decided to go on my own, they were the first people to say, ‘We will give you a horse,’” Loya said. “And they gave her to me.”

The sales scene is nothing new to Loya. But what was it like to have horses working under his own name?

“I did it for 16 years for Steve—and he had a lot of fast horses—and you have expectations about what it’s going to be like. But to hear your name? It’s definitely different.”

Looking back at his first under-tack show as a consignor, Loya said, “I think I had a very good breeze show. They all showed up and did what I thought they would. And I thought their gallop outs were excellent.”

For his first sales season, Loya expects to concentrate on the upcoming OBS sales.

History has a habit of repeating itself!

Scat Daddy, Uncle Mo, Practical Joke, Tiz The Law and Jack Christopher all won the sire-making Champagne Stakes. Not only that, but all were multiple Grade 1 winners and top-class in their sophomore season before retiring to Ashford.

Scat Daddy became a world-class sire, Uncle Mo is one of the leading stallions in the US, and after a Stakes treble on March 4th headed by Practical Move in the San Felipe, Practical Joke must be one of the best value young sires around.

This season is the first at stud for Jack Christopher, an even better racehorse than his top-class sire Munnings. Next year the first juveniles by the brilliant four-time Grade 1 winner Tiz The Law will be hitting the tracks which could make this year a most opportune time to breed to him.
“We own our own horses and we take outside clients,” he said. “I will end up traveling, but this being my first year, I will have horses at April and a few in June.”

With two days left before sales time, Loya has been pleased with the activity at the OBS sales barns. “I think it’s very vibrant,” he said. “All of the top people that you can think of are here on the sales grounds now. There is just a really good feeling in the air.”

The OBS March sale begins Monday and continues through Wednesday with bidding commencing each day at 11 a.m.

Last Samurai made it back-to-back graded stakes wins at Oaklawn Park with a hard-charging one-length victory in the GIII Essex H. Saturday. The even-money favorite was hustled from his outside post and chased the early leaders while four wide into the first turn. He was within striking distance down the backstretch as Classic Causeway took the field through a quarter in :24.05 and a half in :48.28. Classic Causeway attempted to extend his advantage into the far turn, but Last Samurai was winding up for his three-wide rally approaching the stretch. The favorite eye-balled the pacesetter at the top of the lane and put that stubborn foe away at midstretch before striding clear to a confident victory.

“He’s a horse that it takes a long time to start going, but I was in the perfect spot today,” said winning rider Cristian Torres. “I was where I wanted to be. Right when I hit the half-mile pole, I started asking him because I know he takes a while. When he turned for home, he just exploded. He finished up really well.”

Trainer D. Wayne Lukas gave Torres credit for the winning ride.

“He got a beautiful ride from Cristian,” Lukas said. “I was worried about the 10 hole, frankly, when we drew that. Getting into that first turn from the 10 hole, the race is usually won or lost right there. When he dropped in nicely like that and showed a little speed, I thought that we had a great chance. It was a very smooth run. I don’t think it took that much out of him for his next run.”

Last Samurai has now won three graded races at Oaklawn Park. He captured the GII Oaklawn H. last April when trained by Dallas Stewart. The 5-year-old opened 2022 with a fourth-place effort in the Jan. 28 GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational before returning to Oaklawn for a 1 1/2-length score in the Feb. 18 GIII Razorback H. last time out.

The mare, in foal to Kantharos, sold for $30,000 at the 2020 Keeneland January sale and was exported to South Korea. She produced a colt by Kantharos that year.

Practical Joke started March off with graded wins by Practical Move in the GII San Felipe S. and Little Vic in the GIII Tom Fool H., as well as a win in the Busher S. with Shidabhuti. Tejano Twist is the stallion’s 13 worldwide graded stakes winner.

PRACTICAL MOVE, REINCARNATE WORK FOR YAKTEEN

Practical Move (Practical Joke), coming off a win in the Mar. 4 GII San Felipe S., worked four furlongs in :47.60 (8/39), while stablemate Reincarnate (Good Magic), most recently third in the GII Rebel S., went six furlongs in company in 1:12.40 (3/4) at Santa Anita Saturday for trainer Tim Yakteen.

“He came out of the San Felipe in great shape and it’s all systems go,” Yakteen said of Practical Move, who is expected to start next in the Apr. 8 GI Santa Anita Derby.

Reincarnate is likely heading back to Oaklawn Park to attempt to earn a trip to the GI Kentucky Derby in the Apr. 1 GI Arkansas Derby.

Yakteen’s third Derby prospect, National Treasure (Quality Road), who was forced to skip the San Felipe because of a bruised hoof, is likely to work Sunday or Monday, according to the trainer.

“We’re just playing the weather, but you’ll see him on the tab in the next couple of days,” Yakteen said.

Another rainstorm is scheduled to hit Santa Anita early in the week.
Third in the Jan. 8 GIII Sham S. in his lone 3-year-old start to date, National Treasure returned to the work tab with a six-furlong work in 1:11.80 (1/4) Mar. 14 at Santa Anita.
He was second in last year’s GI American Pharaoh S. and third in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile.

ON A 'MISSION': STREET SENSE COLT ROMPS TO 'TDN RISING STARDOM'

First Mission | Hodges Photography

First Mission (c, 3, Street Sense--Elude, by Medaglia d’Oro), a strong second at first asking behind his highly regarded Brad Cox-trained stablemate Bishops Bay (Uncle Mo) with a gaudy 96 Beyer sprinting at Fair Grounds Feb. 18, ran to the money as the 1-5 favorite with a ‘TDN Rising Star’ performance in his two-turn debut in New Orleans Saturday.

Fractious in the gate, the Godolphin homebred shot out to front and bobbed slightly shortly after the start. The blinkered dark bay recovered nicely and tracked in the garden spot in second. He struck the front 2 1/2 furlongs from home and ran up the score in the stretch to win under a hand ride by 6 3/4 impressive lengths over fellow Godolphin homebred St. John’s (Hard Spun).

First Mission becomes the 15th 'Rising Star' for Street Sense. He was produced by the winning Medaglia d’Oro mare Elude, a daughter of Argentinian champion 3-year-old filly and MG1SW Forty Marchanta (Arg) (Roar). Elude, purchased by International Equities Holding for $105,000 at the 2022 KEEJAN sale, produced a full-brother to First Mission in 2022 and was bred back to Protonico.

The aforementioned Bishops Bay returns in an optional claimer going two turns at Fair Grounds Sunday.

Featured earlier this week in Steve Sherack’s ‘Second Chances’ series, click here for more on First Mission, including comments from Godolphin’s Michael Banahan.

LATEST 'MONOMOY' SIBLING DEBUTS IN NEW ORLEANS

7th-FG, $50K, Msw, 3yo, 1 1/16mT, 5:15 p.m.

The latest foal to the races out of Drumette (Henny Hughes), TAPTHEDRUM (Tapit) is a Bridlewood Farm homebred racing out of the Brad Cox barn. Bridlewood paid $1.85 million for Drumette, the half-sister to GSW Drum Major and dam of dual champion Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) and GSW Mr. Monomoy (Palace Malice), out of the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale. The grey colt has put in consistent works at Fair Grounds and picks up Florent Geroux for his career debut.
One gate to his outside, Gettleman (Hard Spun) gets things rolling in the Godolphin blue for trainer Brendan Walsh. His third dam, MGISW Golden Ballet, produced GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor). Reylu Gutierrez gets the call. TJCIS PPS

1st-GP, $84K, Msw, 3yo, f, 1 1/8mT, 12:40 p.m.

Another pair of homebreds take to the grass in South Florida led by TAWARET (Pioneerof the Nile), a bay filly out of $1.3 million China Horse Club purchase Tapas (Tapit). That mare is a half-sister to MGISW & GIS P Justwhistledixie (Dixie Union), herself the producer of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile victor New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}), MGISW Mohaymen (Tapit), GSW & GIS P Enforceable (Tapit), and GSW Kingly (Tapit).

Strategerized (Justify), breaking to the inside, debuts for Anderson Farms Ontario Inc. and Narola LLC. The Ontario-bred is out of a half-sister to GI Beholder Mile heroine Secret Spice (Discreet Cat) while under the third dam is Loving Vindication (Vindication), the dam of Canadian Horse of the Year Wonder Gadot (Medaglia d'Oro) and GIS P Hard Not to Love (Hard Spun). TJCIS PPS

Margins: 1HF, 3HF, 3HF. Odds: 0.50, 9.30, 9.20.

Also Ran: Fancy Azteca, Hot Little Thing, Musicmansandy.

Downtown Mischief brought another stakes win home for super sire Into Mischief on Saturday afternoon at Aqueduct Racetrack. The New York-bred filly is now a perfect three-for three after her victory in the Cicada S.

Breaking her maiden on-track Jan. 14, the Linda Rice trainee won that debut by a sparkling 7 3/4-lengths at six panels and followed that up at Ozone Park Feb. 17 by clearing the next optional claiming hurdle in the slop by 1 1/4-lengths over the next-out winner, Midtown Lights (Redesdale).

Supported at the windows to the hilt, the 1-2 favorite tracked leader Fabulously Funny briefly from the fourth position down the backstretch, but decided to make her move for the front as Hot Little Thing (Army Mule) tried to make up ground after a slow start. As the trio dueled around the far turn, the chalk poked her head in front and past the eighth pole dug down to find enough in the end to win by 1 1/2-lengths over the late charging Tappin Josie.

“I told Jose [Lezcano, aboard Downtown Mischief] that I thought the little filly on the inside of us had tremendous speed. She looked fast in the paddock. I was also a little concerned about the four-horse on the outside, but Jose had ridden her before and he said she’s not that fast. I said, ‘OK, you're going to be sitting second to the two.’ And he said, ‘that’s probably where we’ll be, sitting right outside.’ It totally went upside down. The two don’t break and then she comes rushing up through, but Jose is such a pro and he never loses his cool. When he needed to hold his ground, he did—and I think that makes a difference.”

Second dam Alpha Mama (Unbridled’s Song) is a sister to GISW Marylebone, and she is also responsible for GSW Alpha Kitten (Tale of the Cat). The winner is Downtown Mama’s first progeny, but she does have a yearling filly by Maclean’s Music and was bred to Violence last year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

3--Tea N Conversation, 120, f, 3, Candy Ride (Arg)--Lady Ten, by Rock Hard Ten. ($400,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-Spendthrift Farm LLC; B-Barry & Judith Becker (KY);
Princess Bettina | Benoit

T-Michael W. McCarthy. $12,000.
Margins: 4 1/4, 1, 1. Odds: 2.70, 1.50, 11.50.
Also Ran: Paris Secret (Ire), Havana Angel (Ire), The Wild Grazer (Ire). Scratched: Fast and Shiny.

Princess Bettina took three tries to break her maiden but was really just asking for turf all along, getting the win in her first try on the grass last October. Only out of the trifecta once in three starts since, the chestnut exits a narrow third behind Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) in the Lady Shamrock S. at Santa Anita Feb. 12. Back in stakes company Saturday as the 5-2 third choice, Princess Bettina shot to the front and was able to clear down from an outside gate while leading two wide. Havana Angel (Ire) (Havana Grey {GB}) kept her company through three-quarters in 1:12.65 before she was able to gain separation, clearing under a right-handed ride past the eighth pole. Comanche Country chased her home but was well back of the winner.

“I had no plans,” said jockey Frankie Dettori. “I rode the filly the other morning and I told Pete that I thought she was quite useful, she’s a little bit hot. She broke well. Nobody wanted the lead, so I took it. I got her into a nice rhythm into the backstretch and as soon as we got to the quarter pole, she kicked and found a new gear, it was all over.”

Princess Bettina is out of a half-sister to GISP Flora Dora (First Dude) who last produced a colt by Collected in 2022 before visiting Iron Fist for this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

After opening her year with a stakes win over this same track at 6 1/2 furlongs Jan. 28, Opening Buzz came up empty at a mile in the Wintergreen S. when last seen Feb. 25. Shortened back to six furlongs Friday as the 8-5 favorite, the chestnut was away smoothly despite being slightly fractious in the gate. Allowed to race in the back flight with only a pair of rivals behind her as the leaders went the opening quarter in :21.80, Opening Buzz took her time to really amp up, still trailing in third around the far turn. Tipped out four wide for a sustained run down the lane, she found her best stride late and had enough of a gap built up to just hold off a late closing 15-1 shot Baby No Worries for the narrow score.

This is the extended family of MGSW & MGISP E Dubai (Mr. Prospector), GISW No Matter What (Nureyev), and her offspring led by European champion 2-year-old filly Rainbow View (Dynaformer) and GSW & GISp Just As Well (A.P. Indy). Open Mic produced three consecutive full-siblings to Opening Buzz and visited Om for the 2023 season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

Super Chow returned to his familiar spot in the winner's circle following a second-place finish last out in the GIII Swale S. For the first time in his career, Super Chow failed to make the lead after the break, which might have been a concern for some horses, but not the heavy 1-5 favorite. Two of a Kind had the lead for the first quarter mile as the winner sat two lengths off the pace in third and to the outside, but as the early leader rounded the far bend, Super Chow was on the move and had taken command before reaching the quarter pole to post the half-mile split in :45.18. The race was over from there as the son of Lord Nelson increased his advantage with each stride down the stretch, and though on the wrong lead, cruised to the wire and safely held his closing stablemate Life is Life safe at the wire. Bonita Mia also produced an unnamed 2-year-old full sister to Super Chow, a yearling colt by Into Mischief and visited Authentic for a foal this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart. PACHUCA (f, 3, Ghostzapper—Goodbye Kid, by Lemon Drop Kid) had a promising start to her career, winning on debut at Gulfstream last July and coming in a close second in the Runhappy Ellis Park Debutante one start later. But after an unsuccessful attempt on the grass at Saratoga and a sixth back on the main track at Churchill, she was benched for the remainder of the season. The even-money favorite for her return to the races Saturday, Pachuca trailed the field but was never far out of it in the tightly bunched pack paced by Devra Warrior (Malibu Moon). With a ground-saving trip against the fence around the turn, she came under a ride past the quarter pole and just got up to nail that leader in the final yards, winning by a half-length. Goodbye Kid, already responsible for Omixochitl (More Than Ready), SW, $179,710, is herself a half to MGSW & GISP Tom’s Ready (More Than Ready) and GSW Jean Gros (More Than Ready). ARCANGELO (c, 3, Arrogate--Modeling, by Tapit) debuted second sprinting in the slop Dec. 17 in Hallandale before catching a fast track going a mile Jan. 14 when he was fourth behind the the GII Louisiana Derby-bound Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo). Off as the 2-1 second choice in this spot, the gray lagged early, but past the three-eighths pole he split runners, which included favorite Magical Power (Good Magic). He paused as he looked for running room behind a fading pacesetter, but at the top of the lane cut to the outside and mowed down the chalk by 3 1/2 lengths. CLEVER THOUGHT (c, 3, Quality Road--Puzzling (SP, $127,312), by Ghostzapper), who traversed the Tapeta at Gulfstream and debuted third Feb. 16, was sent on his way as the 3-5 favorite in this turf switch. Stretching out to nine panels, the bay colt was content to languish towards the back of the field as 5-1 price Missionaire (Noble Mission (GB)) loped along loose on the lead. Settled towards the rail, as several suitors sought the front, Clever Thought made his move by swinging to the outside just before the top of the lane, and with a well-timed burst at the last possible moment, snatched the score away from the pacesetter at the wire. NOT NOW (f, 3, More Than Ready--Interrupted (MSW & GSP, $251,005), by Broken Vow) turned in a very solid debut third despite an unlucky trip behind next-out stakes winner Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) going 6 1/2 furlongs over the lawn in a live-looking maiden special weight here Jan. 22. Favorited at even-money over the good going this time, she chased from fifth as they sped through an opening quarter in :21.35. PLEASANT (f, 3, Munnings--Fair Lady, by Medaglia d'Oro) jumped well at odds of 9-2 despite getting bumped leaving the gate in her debut run and forced the issue from an outside second. Traveling kindly while racing in hand, she turned up the heat on the far turn and braced for the challenge of heavily favored $1.2-million FTFMAR graduate and second-time starter Ruby Nell (Bolt d'Oro) leaving the quarter pole. Pleasant still had plenty left in the tank, however, and powered home to graduate by 1 1/2 lengths. DESERT TEMPEST (f, 3, American Pharoah--Stormy B, by Cherokee Run) broke her maiden in her fourth career start and back on the main track here after a fourth-place finish over the Fair Grounds turf six weeks ago. After a clean break from her inside post, she tucked into a pocket along the rail and rated behind the unhurried early pace of :24.23 and :48.42 set by Amisfield (Justify) with Urban Force (Creative Cause) just to the leader's outside. As the rivals in front of her rounded the far bend, she was full of run and looking for room, and after briefly heading toward the outside, found a hole between rivals at the quarter pole. She slipped easily through the gap and was guided inward toward the rail for the stretch run, and under a strong ride, she safely held off the late closing Boltoro (Bolt d'Oro) to post the 1 1/2-length win as the 8-5 favorite. IKO IKO (f, 4, Kitten’s Joy--Sweet Strike, by Smart Strike) returned off a ten-month layoff and found the change of scenery to Tampa Bay Downs after her first two starts last year at Gulfstream Park to her liking, breaking her maiden by a widening 7 1/2 lengths. A clean start from her outside post in the gate set up the chestnut filly to comfortably stalk the early pace set by Red Tiara (Distorted Humor) around the clubhouse turn and halfway up the backstretch. Soon after the leader posted a half-mile in a moderate :48.17, Iko Iko took command and the race was all but over from there as she maintained her advantage, dismissed a stubborn runner-up Red Tiara inside the final eighth and continued on with energy to post the win as the public’s 2-5 favorite. Balding keen on Greenham prep run with Guineas livewire Chaldean

By Brian Sheerin

Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}), one of the most exciting horses in Britain, is likely to have a prep run for the 2000 Guineas in the Greenham S. at Newbury next month, his trainer Andrew Balding has revealed. A general 8-1 chance for Guineas glory, Juddmonte's Chaldean will be bidding to chart the same path to victory as his sire Frankel, who took the Greenham before turning in one of the most memorable performances of all time in the Newmarket Classic. Balding is no stranger to Guineas success himself. In 2020, he sent out Kameko to win the race under Oisin Murphy. While Kameko won the 2000 Guineas without having a prep race, Balding is happy to adopt a different approach with Chaldean, given how the colt thrived on his racing last year. Balding told TDN Europe, "We are very happy at this moment in time. Chaldean has done very well in his coat and has come forward in his work so, at this moment in time, we are just where we want to be."

He added, "I think we'd prefer a prep for the Guineas with him and the Greenham would be the obvious one for him. He's not penalised in that and it's eight miles down the road from us. It would be the equivalent of having a good gallop at home to go there and have a race. Cont. p3

WOOTTON BASSETT COLT LOOKS CLASSIC MATERIAL

Having wowed with a six-length win over this course and distance in November, the exciting American Flag (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) returned to put his name among the 2023 Classic hopefuls with an impressive success in this early Poulains pointer. Held up initially by Christophe Soumillon, the bay was cajoled forward nearing the end of the back straight and seized the advantage passing the two-furlong pole. Soon clear, he was eased late on to register a commanding verdict and spark inevitable talk of bigger things.

"Last year after his win over the course and distance he showed us that he could be a horse with a great potential," trainer Yann Barberot said of the €102,000 purchase at the 2021 Arqana Deauville August Sale. "He confirmed that today, even though he was not fully fit having only had an easy piece of work on the grass last Tuesday. That opens up possibilities, but so far he has only raced on soft ground and I don’t know how he will do over good or faster. The [G3] Prix de Fontainebleau is an option, but we won’t commit at this stage." Cont. p3

"He's a horse who improved with racing last year—with every race he got better—so we have been planning for a prep with him. That is the intention at the moment, to go to Newbury and then on to Newmarket all being well."

Chaldean went from strength to strength last season. After suffering defeat on debut, he went on to win his next four starts, culminating with victory in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster followed by a battling victory over Royal Scotsman (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in the G1 Dewhurst S at Newmarket.

Asked if the fact that Chaldean is a May foal contributed to his stupendous progression last term, Balding said, "It could well be. If I'm honest, he was a little unlucky first time out as he got caught in a pocket and was just a little bit inexperienced but he learned a lot from that and, as I said, with each run he seemed to get better. It was a very rewarding two-year-old career and hopefully he can do as well this year. After he ran a few times last year, he became not particularly flashy at home. He's very relaxed and every time we took him to the track, he put it in. He's just a great horse to have anything to do with."

Frankie Dettori partnered Chaldean to his Champagne and Dewhurst wins and Balding confirmed that the intention is for the legendary jockey to maintain the partnership.

He concluded, "That's the intention [for Dettori to keep the ride this season]. We are hoping that is the case."

The dam is a daughter of the dual group-placed Tres Ravi (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), whose six black-type performers include the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville winner and G1 Deutsches Derby runner-up Tres Blue (Ire) (Anabaa Blue {GB}) and the multiple group-winning sire Tres Rock Danon (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). Another of her progeny, Anabaa Blue’s G2 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Tres Rapide (Ire), is the second dam of Pretty Tiger (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) who excelled here when capturing the G2 Prix Eugene Adam and G3 Prix Exbury and was second in the G1 Prix Ganay and Pretty Boy (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) who was second in this venue’s G3 Prix Thomas Bryon. Tres Americanqueen’s 2-year-old colt American Thunder (Fr) is by Night Of Thunder (Ire). Results cont. p4

Haya Zark winning Saturday | ScoopDyga

“He prefers soft ground and all summer the ground was fast and he started to grow,” his owner-breeder explained. “He has grown three centimetres since last year, so it was the right decision to give him a break and the horse has rewarded us today. I imagine the [G2] Prix d’Harcourt could be next and then the [G1] Ganay, providing he gets his favoured ground. In the fall, we dream of the Arc where his aunt Haya Landa had run so well. Why not him?”

Pedigree Notes
Haya Zark is the second of three foals out of Haya City (Fr) (Elusive City), a half-sister to the aforementioned G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly-placed Haya Landa (Fr) (Lando (Ger)) who was fourth in the 2012 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe at 150-1. Haya City, whose third dam Terre De Feu (Fr) (Busted (GB)) produced the 1991 Arc hero Subotica (Fr) (Pampabird (Ire)), also has the unraced 3-year-old filly Zarkhaya (Fr) also by Zarak.

TREBLE G1SW PASTORIUS DIES AT 14

The G1 Deutsches Derby winner and dual-purpose sire Pastorius (Ger) has died at the age of 14 after failing to respond to treatment for a "multinodular pulmonary fibrosis syndrome".

Bred by Franz Prinz von Auersperg and Florian Haffa, the son of Soldier Hollow (GB) landed three Group 1 victories in Germany and France for trainer Mario Hofer and owner Stall Antanando. He followed up his Derby win with success in the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis before returning at four to win the Prix Ganay. Pastorius, who was out of the multiple-winning Monsun (Ger) mare Princess Li (Ger) and a full-brother to the Group 3 winner and German joint-champion juvenile colt Parthenius (Ger), stood his first four seasons in his native Germany at Gestut Fahrhof. In 2018, he moved to France to stand at Pascal Noue’s Haras de la Hetraie, where he died on Saturday. On Friday at Cheltenham, Pastorius’s daughter Zenta (Fr) was third in the G1 Triumph Hurdle having won the G3 Norman Colfer Winning Fair Juvenile Hurdle at Fairyhouse in February.

His growing profile as a jump sire has also been boosted by the Group 1 AQPS bumper winner July Flower (Fr). On the Flat, Pastorius is also the sire of last season’s GI Beverly D S. winner Dalika (Ger) and the Group 3 winners Parol (Ger) and Riocorvo (Ger).

Confirming the stallion’s death, Noue said that Pastorius had not been shown to breeders during the Route des Etalons in January while suffering from a then-unexplained illness.

“Very quickly following this, he was diagnosed a multinodular pulmonary fibrosis syndrome,” he said. “The outcome is generally very gloomy. Shock treatment was nevertheless put in place and the situation seemed to have stabilised to such an extent that we were even considering being able to provide a minimum covering service until the end of the breeding season. However, in the last 48 hours his condition worsened and the treatment was no longer reasonable.”

Noue added, "I would like to thank all those who have supported us over the past few weeks and all the veterinarians, specialists and friends whom I have asked to learn more about this disease and who have always been there with kindness."

Not out of the first two in five starts prior to this, Harry Way had been second in the Listed Prix Delahante at Marseille-Borely in October and in the Prix Sky Lawyer conditions event on Cagnes-Sur-Mer’s Polytrack when last seen Feb. 2.

In front from the outset, the chestnut raced ears pricked and when threatened wide in the straight was able to hold his peers at bay with a degree of comfort.

“I am not surprised at all, this is a horse I have always held in high esteem,” trainer Nicolas Perret said of the winner, whose 2-year-old half-brother is by Silverwave (Fr). “He needed the race last time at Cagnes and we knew it would set him up perfectly for this one. I am delighted to win my first listed race, especially with Stephane Pasquier who is my friend of thirty years and we were apprentices together. We will enjoy this, see how he comes out of it when returning to my base in Marseille and see from there but it will be a group race next.”

This race was not a target, just a reintroduction and we hoped that she would run well,” trainer Stephane Wattel said.

We didn’t expect to see her win, so that is probably a very good sign. She has done well physically during the winter and will come on for that. We will see about her next start, but it is not hard to imagine that it could be the [G3] Prix de la Grotte.”

Autumn Starlight is the second foal and first runner for the dam, a daughter of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Again whose 2-year-old son of Kingman (GB) was a €260,000 purchase by Paul Nataf at the Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale. Again was responsible for a trio of Galileo black-type performers in the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. and G1 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Delphinia (Ire), the Listed El Gran Senor S.-winning sire Indian Maharaja (Ire) and Delano Roosevelt (Ire) who was placed in four group races. The third dam Cumbres is kin to the mighty Montjeu (Ire) linked to top-level scorers and sires Aclaim (Ire) and Galileo Gold (GB).

DUBAI DAWN (IRE) (c, 3, Dawn Approach {Ire}--Dorraar {Ire}, by Shamardal), a half-brother to the stable’s talented sprinter Far Above (Ire) (Farhh {GB}) whose career was cut short after his G3 Palace House S. success, was free early in the box seat. Finding plenty when asked the question in the straight, the 15-8 favourite wore down Erosion Risk (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) with half a furlong remaining and asserted to score by a length. Far Above, who stands at Starfield Stud, was the first foal out of the dam who is a granddaughter of the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner and G1 Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks-placed Bahr (GB) (Generous {Ire}). Therefore connected to the G1 Prix de l’Opera and G1 Flower Bowl Invitational heroine Nahrain (GB) (Selkirk) and her triple group 1-winning son Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) as well as the G2 Railway S. winner and G1 Phoenix S.-placed Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), Dorraar has 2021 and 2022 colts by Dark Angel (Ire) to come, with Joe Foley paying 155,000gns for the former and Linden Bloodstock 115,000gns for the latter at the last two editions of the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Committed approaching the furlong pole, the homebred asserted to score by 1 1/4 lengths from Ebauche (Fr) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). The dam is a daughter of Changing Skies (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), winner of the GII The Very One S. and Gill La Prevoyante H. who was also second in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational. Her dam is the G3 Musidora S. scorer and famed prolific stakes producer Magnificent Style (Silver Hawk), whose progeny include the Galileo (Ire) stars Nathaniel (Ire) and Great Heavens (GB) and Sadler’s Wells’ G1 Fillies Mile heroine Playful Act (Ire). #1 KEEFY (AUS) (PP #5)
(All Too Hard {Aus}--Urban Rocker {Aus}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}) (A$105,000 Ylg '20 INGFEB) O-Chong Min Onn; B-Raffles Dancers (NZ) Pty Ltd (NSW); T-Frankie Lor; J-Derek Leung. Current Rating: 99

A two-time winner from eight starts in Australia, Keefy kicked off his Hong Kong career on a fairly lofty rating of 75 and took that to triple digits with a romping victory in the C1 Chevalier Cup H. over 1600m in November. A meritorious third under top weight in Class 2 next time, he has not factored in the first two legs of the Classic series and is unlikely to here either.

#2 BEAUTY ETERNAL (AUS) (PP #7)
(Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Ithaca Queen (NZ), by Savabeel {Aus}) (A$90,000 Ylg '20 INGFEB) O-Patrick Kwok Ho Chuen; B-P Raftopoulou (Vic); T-John Size; J-Zac Purton. Current Rating: 94

Everyone's idea of the Derby favourite, having won four of his five trips to the post, including an on-the-bridle, two-length victory going a mile Feb. 26. Carrying the same silks as Horse of the Year Beauty Generation (NZ), third in this in 2017, Beauty Eternal will look to become the rare horse to win the Derby without having started in either the Classic Mile or Classic Cup.

#3 SUPER SUNNY SING (AUS) (PP #9)
(Nicconi {Aus}--Red Centre {Aus}, by Rubiton {Aus}) (A$48,000 Ylg '20 INGFEB) O-Janice Wong Oi Ying; B-Miss J Henderson, Etak T'breds (NSW); T-Chris So; J-Vincent Ho. Current Rating: 94

Super Sunny Sing defeated Classic Mile winner Voyage Bubble (see below) over 1400 metres on International Races day Dec. 11 and added two more victories in Class 3 competition before turning in a scintillating late turn of foot to defeat Sword Point (see below) when last seen in the Classic Cup. Vincent Ho swept the series in 2020 with Golden Sixty (Medaglia d'Oro).

#4 VOYAGE BUBBLE (AUS) (PP #14)
(Deep Field {Aus}--Raheights, by Rahy) (A$380,000 Ylg '20 INGFEB) O-Sunshine and Moonlight Syndicate; B-Torryburn Stud (NSW); T-Ricky Yiu; J-Alexis Badel. Current Rating: 93.

Was allowed a soft time of things in the Classic Mile and made all the running beneath Jamie Kah for a 1 1/4-length defeat of Tuchel (see below). The pace proved far more demanding in the Classic Cup, and it took its toll late, as he finished four lengths adrift of Super Sunny Sing. Hard to see the 2000 metres as a plus. One of two Torryburn Stud-breds in the race.

#5 SWORD POINT (AUS) (PP #6)
(Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Ithacan Queen {NZ}, by Savabeel {Aus}) (A$750,000 Ylg '20 MMGCYS) O-Li Chi Pong; B-Miss J Henderson, Etak T'breds (NSW); T-Chris So; J-Hugh Bowman. Current Rating: 89

Expensive Easter Yearling was a two-time winner in New South Wales for Chris Waller and owns a single Class 3 score from five local starts. Was inconvenienced by the lack of pace in the Classic Mile and was given a positive Hugh Bowman ride in the Classic Cup before staying on for second. Drawn well, trip suits, Bowman sticks around and could outrun his odds.

#6 TUCHEL (NZ) (PP #1)
(Redoowood {GB}--Trista Rossa {Aus}, by Testa Rossa {Aus}) (NZS$130,000 Ylg '20 NZBJIAN) O-Philip Chan Kwok Chung; B-G Harvey; T-John Size; J-Ryan Moore. Current Rating: 88

Low-odds winner in Class 3 and Class 2 over 1400m, boxed on gamely when second in the Classic Mile and was beaten under 4L in the Classic Cup. Three-time Derby-winning trainer John Size reaches out for Ryan Moore and the two teamed to win this in 2018 with Ping Hai Star (NZ). Should sit a cushy trip from the rail draw, but that final 200 metres looks a bit iffy.
Encountered (IRE) (PP #8)

(Churchill (IRE) -- Enrol (GB), by Pivotal (GB))

(160,000gns Ylg '20 MMGCYS) O-Winnie Law Wing Yin; B-Bird Rock Thoroughbreds (Vic); T-Caspar Fownes; J-Damian Lane. Current Rating: 83

Winner of a Doncaster novice for Marco Botti in 2021, Encountered has done his best work at the city circuit at Happy Valley, where he has won two from four. He was forwardly placed in the Classic Cup last time and ran into a bit of traffic, but he never looked like a serious threat finishing 8 1/2 lengths behind Super Sunny Sing. Looks overmatched.

Flagship Warrior (AUS) (PP #13)

(Foxwedge (Aus) -- Inishmore (Aus), by More Than Ready (Aus))

(A$45,000 RNA Ylg '20 MGMMAR) O-Kwok Chan Yiu; B-Mill Park Stud Pty Ltd, Robert & Helen Dinham (SA); T-David Hayes; J-Karis Teetan. Current Rating: 84

Won a listed event at Morphettville last April and stayed this trip well enough to be second in the G3 Chairman's S. before finishing well-beaten in the G1 South Australian Derby (2500m). Won his local debut and his Classic Cup effort was sound enough. Races with a hood for the first time and has a poor barrier, but won't be surprised if he's running on.

Sweet Encounter (NZ) (PP #2)

(Toronado {Ire} -- Haumea {Aus}, by Encosta de Lago {Aus})

(NZ$80,000 Ylg '20 NZBJAN; NZS110,000 2yo '20 NZBRTR) O-Vicky Tang; B-Hong Kong Breeders Club Ltd; T-John Size; J-Luke Currie. Current Rating: 86

Looked a real Classics contender early in the season, with a pair of wins at odds-on in C3 and can be forgiven a second-place effort with a big weight in his next start. But his runs in the Classic Mile (eighth) and an on-pace 11th in the Classic Cup fall well short of what will be needed here. John Size puts the blinkers on for the first time.

Galaxy Witness (AUS) (PP #3)

(Star Witness (Aus) -- Block Tulip (Aus), by Lonhro (Aus))

(A$160,000 Ylg '20 MMGCYS) O-Winnie Law Wing Yin; B-Bird Rock Thoroughbreds (Vic); T-Caspar Fownes; J-Damian Lane. Current Rating: 86

Galaxy Witness looked like any kind last season, going four-for-five, but he really hasn't built on those efforts this term. That said, he ran with merit when fifth behind the dawdle in the Classic Mile and clocked the third-fastest final 400m to be third in the Classic Cup. Damian Lane continues his world tour here on a horse not without a puncher's chance.

Straight Arron (AUS) (PP #10)

(Fastnet Rock (Aus) -- Imperial Lass (NZ), by Tavistock (NZ))

(A$270,000 Ylg '20 INGEAS) O-Karen Lo Ki Yan; B-Torryburn Stud (NSW); T-David Hayes; J-Blake Shinn. Current Rating: 81

Another former Chris Waller inmate, Straight Arron won last year's G3 Carbine Club S., but made no impact in his first three local starts, all since the first of the year. He needed a bit of a miracle to make the Derby field at all and delivered with a Class 3 tally over 1800 metres Feb. 26. He'll go back from a high gate and will be saved for a finish, likely behind midfield.

Bon's a Pearla (AUS) (PP #4)

(Bon Hoffa (Aus) -- Treasure Island (Aus), by Duporth (Aus))

(A$160,000 Ylg '20 TATOC) O-Leung Lung Ping; B-Ken King Thoroughbreds (Vic); T-David Hayes; J-Lyle Hewitson. Current Rating: 80

It's been 20 years since David Hayes sent out the filly Elegant Fashion (Aus) to win the Derby and tries again here with the lowest-rated galloper in the Derby field. She gets the blinkers on, figures to sit a decent trip from gate four and wasn't totally embarrassed in the first two legs. Still, hard to endorse.

COOLMORE’S SHINZO WINS GOLDEN SLIPPER

Two of racing’s global powerhouses battled it out up the Rosehill straight, with Godolphin’s Cylinder (Exceed And Excel) looking the likely winner as he cruised to the front at the 300-metre mark, but it was Coolmore who came on top as their homebred Shinzo charged home up the rail and drew readily clear in the closing stages to score decisively by 1.17l.

Colts dominated the finish in the $5 million juvenile feature, with the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained King’s Gambit (I Am Invincible) running on for third ahead of his stablemates Don Corleone (Extreme Choice) and Empire Of Japan (Snitzel).

Blanc De Blanc (I Am Invincible) was the first filly home in sixth, 4.23l adrift of the runaway winner.

Shinzo’s victory handed Chris Waller the richly desired Golden Slipper win that had, until now, eluded the Champion Trainer, while it was also a first success in the race for visiting British jockey Ryan Moore, who had already tasted Group 1 glory earlier in the afternoon aboard the William Haggas-trained Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai).

Coolmore enjoyed mixed fortunes in the $5 million contest, with the more fancied of their two runners, the previously unbeaten Learning To Fly (Justify [USA]), unshipping Chad Schofield midway through the contest having missed the kick.

Both horse and rider escaped serious injury, but the gloss was still taken off a memorable first Golden Slipper success for Coolmore’s Tom Magnier, who was quick to heap praise on the winning jockey.

“It’s hard to enjoy the moment,” Magnier said. “I’m just hoping Learning To Fly and Chad Schofield are okay. I feel for Annabel (Neasham).

“We asked Ryan Moore to come out and ride Shinzo at short notice and what can you say about him? Thank God for Ryan Moore, he is on another level, he is so patient.”

“I’ve watched more Golden Slippers than anyone my age, from a young age, some from New Zealand, some from Kembla Grange, some from Newcastle, I guess one or two sitting at home,” said Chris Waller.

“I know it’s a big deal. Emotionally, it means a lot to me, simple as that. But I’m not here to prove things to anyone.”

Pedigree Notes:

Bred by Katom and raced by a group of big-hitters led by Coolmore, the regally bred colt is the second Snitzel (Estijaab in 2018) to win a Slipper and he is his Arrowfield Stud-based, four-time Champion Sire’s 19th Group 1 winner. He is the second live foal and second stakes winner for the terrific mare Samaready (More Than Ready [USA]) who won six of her 13 starts including the G1 Blue Diamond S. and the G1 Moir S.

Her first foal, an All Too Hard filly, died when showing promise at two. Her next was Exhilarates (also by Snitzel) who is now at stud (last spring producing a Street Boss {USA} colt) won the R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic and the G3 Quezette S. Not having much luck at stud — Samaready’s third foal died and she slipped and missed the following two seasons — Samaready (who was purchased by Coolmore for $1.8 million in foal with Shinzo) is currently in America in-foal to Justify.

Samaready is one of the seven winners produced by the dual city winner Samar (Secret Savings {USA}), also dam of the dual Group winner Night War (General Nediym) and the Group 2-placed Samartested (Testa Rossa).

Anamoe's second elite-level win on the bounce handed both Cummings and winning jockey James McDonald their 10th Group 1 wins of the season, with the latter particularly pleased with how the odds-on favourite overcame adversity.

“I think he did an extremely good job, albeit the margin was small,” McDonald said. “He had to do it a different way this time instead of last time.

“He didn't have the perfect barrier, he didn't have the perfect set-up. He had to overcome a wide run, but he's good enough to do it and he's taken that next step all the time.”

Pedigree Notes:
The Royal Ascot-bound 4-year-old is one of the 62 stakes winners and eight Group 1 winners sired by his Darley-based sire, a horse who has been going from strength to strength in recent years; his service fee rising from $11,000 (inc GST) in 2015 to $77,000 (inc GST) in 2022.

Anamoe’s dam is the G1 Australasian Oaks winner Anamato (Redoute’s Choice) who was campaigned overseas by the David Hayes stable - finishing third in the G1 Hollywood Park American Oaks whilst locally she was also able to win the G2 Kewney S., the G2 Moonee Valley Oaks and the G3 SAJC Sires’ Produce S. Served last spring by, not surprisingly, Street Boss (USA), Anamato missed the previous year to him with her most recent foal being a Blue Point (Ire) filly.

HAGGAS’S DUBAI HONOUR A CLASS APART

by TDN AusNZ

“Dubai Honour’s impressive Australian debut sets up a mouthwatering clash with Anamoe (Street Boss {USA}) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. next month, where he will bid to emulate his former stablemate Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) by landing the Ranvet-Queen Elizabeth Group 1 double. Winning rider Ryan Moore has plenty of respect for Anamoe’s achievements but feels that Dubai Honour is more than capable of serving it up to the nine-time Group 1 winner when they lock horns at Royal Randwick on Apr. 8.

“Anamoe is an incredible racehorse, he’s got a tremendous record,” Moore said. “From what I see he only really tends to do enough so you wouldn’t be sure what’s in the tank. That will be a different level of opposition. I suppose strictly on form Dubai Honour, it would appear that he will give him a good race.”

Pedigree Notes:

Bred by Macha Bloodstock/Meridian International and purchased by Rabbah Bloodstock for 110,000gns (AU$209,900) at the 2019 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Dubai Honour is part of a great recent run for her Coolmore Stud-based sire. One of his 18 stakes winners - and his second Group 1 winner, Dubai Honour is out of the unraced Mondelice (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) whose G3 Prix Daphnis winning half-brother Last Kingdom (USA) stands at Kooringal Stud. Mondelice is a granddaughter of the Irish Champion 2YO Filly Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}) whose nine winners include the dual Group-winning stallion Requinto (Ire).

LINDERMANN BATTLES BACK TO EDGE OUT

PERICLES by TDN AusNZ

On a terrific day for the Chris Waller stable, progressive 3-year-old colt Lindermann showed the same fighting qualities that were a hallmark of his sire Lonhro’s incredible racing career when prevailing in a thrilling finish to the G1 Rosehill Guineas on Saturday.

The short-price favourite Pericles (Street Boss {USA}) hit the front and looked all over the winner with 100m to run, but Lindermann dug deep under the trademark Nash Rawiller drive to score by the narrowest of margins, with the pair pulling three lengths clear of the third placegetter Williamsburg (Snitzel).

Although yet to win a stakes race prior to Saturday’s $600,000 contest, Lindermann had put the writing on the wall with a gutsy second to Communist (Russian Revolution) in the G1 Randwick Guineas on his most recent outing, a performance that gave his trainer Chris Waller every reason to expect another bold showing from him on Saturday.

“He got eye-balled by the favourite with 300 metres to go and he lifted off the canvas,” Waller said.

“He has really learned to fight and at the same time matured as a man. Nash woke him up two starts ago when he won over 1400 (metres) here and it has been the making of him.”

Pedigree Notes:

Part of a massive day for an owner who has had plenty of massive days - Lindermann (Lonhro) was bred and is raced by Debbie Kepitis who is also part-owner of the G1 Golden Slipper hero Shinzo (Snitzel). And how nice for her to win a big one with a son of her family’s stars, the mighty Lonhro. A member of his 15th crop, Lindermann is Lonhro’s 95th stakes winner - taking out a Group 1 won by Lonhro’s sire Octagonal (NZ) in 1996 and by Lonhro’s brother Niello in 2004. The second foal produced by the stakes placed dual city winner Self Esteem (Stratum), Lindermann hails from the same family as fellow Group 1
winners Reset, Assertive Lad (Zeditave) and Assertive Lass (Zeditave). Served last spring by Written By having missed the previous season to Yes Yes Yes, Self Esteem (Stratum) has a Written Tycoon yearling colt whilst her yet to race 2-year-old daughter Cranberries (Nicconi) is also a member of the Chris Waller stable.

FIRST GROUP 1 FOR TYLER SCHILLER

by TDN AusNZ

Emotions ran high after the final Group 1 on the Rosehill card on Saturday as apprentice jockey Tyler Schiller guided rejuvenated mare Mariamia (Toronado {Ire}) to a memorable first top-flight success in the G1 The Galaxy H.

Having claimed the scalp of Group 1-winning colt Golden Mile (Astern) in the G2 Expressway S. on her penultimate start, the drop back in trip to 1100 metres worked the oracle for the 6-year-old mare as she powered to a 0.9l victory over last-start G1 Oakleigh P. hero Uncommon James (Cable Bay {Ire}).

Expensive yearling purchase Cannonball (Capitalist), a $975,000 Magic Millions graduate, finished a further 0.5l adrift in third on what was his first attempt in Group 1 company, while talented mare Asfoora (Flying Artie) endured a luckless passage before running on for fourth.

Retirement had been considered for Mariamia following the second stakes placing of her career in the G3 Bletchingly S. back in July, but trainer Joe Pride convinced her connections to race on for another season, a decision which has been well and truly vindicated this preparation.

“That’s her crowning moment, she’s won a Galaxy now,” a delighted Pride said.

“She didn’t see the 1300 metres out the other day but freshened up and back to a sprint trip, she was really dynamic there today.

Pedigree Notes:

Bred by Adam Sangster and purchased by Gasper Stellato for $18,000 from Book 2 of the 2018 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, Mariamia changed hands in March last year - topping an Inglis online sale when purchased by Newhaven Stud for $335,000. One of the 32 stakes winners for her Swettenham Stud-based sire (his fourth Group 1 winner and his second The Galaxy winner in a row with Shelby Sixtysix successful last year), Mariamia is out of the unplaced Quinta Lago (Encosta De Lago) (no longer at stud) whose Group 2-placed dam Flying Spice (Flying Spur) is a half-sister to the durable stakes winner Chattanooga (Scenic {Ire}).
There were jubilant scenes at Trentham on Saturday as trainer Jim Wallace tasted Group 1 success courtesy of Pennyweka (NZ) (Satono Aladdin {Jpn})’s emphatic victory in the G1 New Zealand Oaks, a win that comes after a difficult period in the trainer’s personal life having lost his mother and daughter-in-law in recent weeks.

Held up in the second half of the field by Ryan Elliot, who was enjoying a third elite-level winner in as many weeks, Pennyweka travelled into the contest strongly and looked the winner a long way from home, before bursting clear at the 200-metre mark to score a decisive 3l victory.

Pedigree Notes:

A daughter of one of the rising stars of the New Zealand stallion ranks, Pennyweka (NZ) (Satono Aladdin {Jpn}) recorded an impressive win for her big group of excited owners. Looking to be one of the main contenders on the back of her game third in the G2 Lowland S. in the lead-up, Pennyweka relished the Classic distance. Bred by Jim and Les Wallace and raced by them with their families and friends, Pennyweka is the fourth stakes winner and second Group 1 winner for her Rich Hill-based sire, a Deep Impact (Jpn) horse who has been in great form of late. Her dam is the unraced Threepence (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) whose other two runners are also winners including the multiple city-winning South Australian-based galloper Lord Bouzeron (NZ) (Burgundy {NZ}). Due to having foaled to Time Test (GB) last spring (slipping to him the previous season after foaling a colt by him in 2020), Threepence is a half-sister to the durable G1 Auckland Cup winner Titch (NZ) (Lord Ballina) who managed another 17 wins.

Pennyweka and Ryan Elliot | Peter Rubery

A chorus of cheers reverberated around the Trentham grandstand as Pennyweka crossed the line, and no one was more delighted than her trainer.

“I’ve virtually retired from training but this filly has rekindled my interest and it is great to win a Group 1 after having my mother die and my daughter-in-law pass away three weeks ago, so this is a great fillip for the whole family,” Wallace said. “That is just really special as it has been a very rough week. For this to happen is right up there.”

ROMANCING THE MOON SOARS TO LEVIN SUCCESS by TDN AusNZ

It was a familiar result to the G1 Levin Classic at Trentham on Saturday as the famous tangerine of Te Akau Racing was carried to victory for the second year in succession courtesy of talented filly Romancing The Moon (NZ) (El Roca), who showed tenacity in spades to battle back and defeat her stablemate Skew Wiff (NZ) (Savabeel) to provide trainer Mark Walker with a Group 1 quinella.

Having split star fillies Legarto (NZ) (Proisir) and Prowess (NZ) (Proisir) in the G3 Soliloquy S. earlier in the season, Romancing The Moon had plenty of form in the book coming into Saturday and tuned up for the Group 1 feature with a confidence-boosting win at Listed level last start.

The daughter of El Roca was left in front a long way from home and looked to be headed by her stablemate Skew Wiff halfway down the straight, but jockey Kozzi Asano continued to get a tune out of Romancing The Moon and eventually pulled clear in the closing stages to score by 1.5l.

Fillies filled the first four places, with Blue-blooded 3-year-old Luella Cristina (Snitzel), a daughter of multiple Group 1 winner Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel) another 1.3l further adrift in third.

Pedigree Notes:

Bred by H G W and K L McQuade, she was purchased by David Ellis for NZ$50,000 from the Westbury Stud draft at the 2021 New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Yearling Sale. She is one of eight stakes winners - and the second Group 1 winner - for her Westbury Stud-based sire, a dual Listed-winning son of Fastnet Rock. She is the first foal for the dual Group and Listed winner Underthemoonlight (NZ) (El Hermano (NZ)) whose half-brother Storming The Tower (NZ) (Storm Creek USA)) won the G3 Rotorua Cup. Due to having foaled to Ocean Park (NZ) last spring, Underthemoonlight - a descendant of the great Round Table's (USA) dam Knight's Daughter (GB) (Sir Cosmo (Ire)) - has a colt by Ardrossan having had the previous season off.
