CHEZ PIERRE RIGHT AT HOME IN MAKER'S MARK; MODERN GAMES SECOND

by Alan Carasso

The public bet reigning Eclipse Award-winning turf male Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) like he couldn't lose Friday's GI Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland, but Lael Stables Chez Pierre (Fr) (Mehmas {Ire}) had other designs, as he kicked hard into the stretch and ran out a very easy winner in stakes-record time.

Alertly into stride from gate three, the 5-year-old dueled inside and heads apart with Peter Brant's Dr Zempf (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) around the first turn and tugged his way to the front beneath Flavien Prat to lead passing the five-furlong peg. The Brown trainee, trying a two-turn mile for the first time, proved a handful for Tyler Gaffalione down the backstretch and was allowed to stride to the front with a half-mile to race, but Prat remained unhurried aboard Chez Pierre, who was never off the bridle and re-engaged Dr Zempf going well at the top of the lane. The two-time Arqana sales grad pinched a break in upper stretch and really poured it on from there to prevail by 3 1/2 lengths. The final time of 1:33.46 lowered the previous mark of 1:33.54 set by Perfect Soul (Ire) back in 2004.

“I talked with [trainer] Arnaud [Delacour] that we could find ourselves on the lead, which happened,” said Prat. “But he wasn't really comfortable. He was looking around, and when [Dr Zempf] down the backside made a move, it actually helped me a lot because then I had a target and he was able to settle down and get in a good rhythm.” Cont. p3

ONE LAST DERBY BULLET TO FIRE

Currently on the GI Kentucky Derby bubble with 40 points, rallying GII Louisiana Derby runner-up and 'TDN Rising Star' Disarm (Gun Runner) will look to punch his ticket to the big dance in Saturday's GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. at Keeneland.

The Stonestreet Lexington is the final race on the Road to the Kentucky Derby and carries 40 points that will be awarded on a 20-8-6-4-2 basis. A top-three finish by Disarm would secure the Winchell Thoroughbreds homebred a spot in the starting gate on the first Saturday in May.

The deep field of 11 also includes Godolphin homebred and fellow 'Rising Star' First Mission (Street Sense), who is favored on the morning-line at 3-1. He earned his diploma in style for trainer Brad Cox at second asking while making his two-turn debut at Fair Grounds Mar. 18.

"BEAU LIAM is as good of a looking horse as you’re going to see. He reminds me of Malibu Moon and Maclean’s Music in that he had that speed and raw talent. My Beau Liam foal is a bit special, she’s all quality with a beautiful hip and nice balance."

Modern Games looked a bit flat-footed when Dr. Zempf rolled to the front and was hard-ridden the remainder, but could do no better than second, just ahead of second pick Up To the Mark (Not This Time) in third.

“He had a good trip,” William Buick said of the beaten favorite. “The winner went well. I was under pressure a little bit earlier than I thought I would be. The pace was even. I’m sure he will improve from this run. I was closing, but I was under pressure quite soon.”

Trained in France by Francis-Henri Graffard after selling for €100,000 at the 2020 Arqana July Sale, Chez Pierre was perfect in a pair of starts at two at Chantilly and added a conditions event at that venue in May 2021 before shipping stateside. A big-figure allowance winner at Tampa in his U.S. bow last March, he was sidelined off a blowout victory in the Henry Clark S. at Laurel the following month and resumed with a keen sixth behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ Emmanuel (More Than Ready) in the Gilli Tampa Bay S. Feb. 4.

Chez Pierre is the 13th graded/group winner and fourth top-level scorer for Tally-Ho Stud’s Mehmas (by Acclamation {GB}), half of which have come in this country, the other being Del Mar Oaks heroine Going Global (Ire).

Chez Pierre’s dam was purchased by Mandore International Agency for €15,000 at the 2015 Arqana February Sale and has since gone on to punch well above her weight in the breeding shed. The half-sister to Gilli Buena Vista H. heroine Uraib (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) is also the dam of Chez Pierre’s year-younger Listed Prix Saraca-winning half-sister Zelda (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}) and produced a full-brother to the latter in 2021.

Empirestrikesfast (Empire Maker), nominated to the Triple Crown late last month, also heads right into the deep end following an impressive maiden victory. The Pink Oak Stud colorbearer kicked off his career for Bill Mott with a 23-1 upset debut victory around two turns at Gulfstream Mar. 11. The runner-up and beaten favorite that day Dreamlike (Gun Runner) returned to finish a very close third in the GII Wood Memorial S. Apr. 8.

The Bob Baffert-trained 'Rising Star' Arabian Lion (Justify), drawn widest of all in post 11, resets following a disappointing last-of-four finish in the GIII Robert B. Lewis S. Feb. 4.

Keeneland's 11-race program also prominently features the grassy GI Jenny Wiley S.

Likely favorite and ’Rising Star’ In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) returns for a 5-year-old campaign following a strong second-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf in Lexington Nov. 5. The Peter Brant colorbearer annexed the GI First Lady S. over this same course last fall. Seeking a sixth Jenny Wiley victory, trainer Chad Brown will also saddle last term’s impressive GII Longines Churchill Distaff Turf Mile S. heroine Speak of the Devil (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)). In Italian was 2 3/4 lengths back in second that day.

Godolphin homebred With The Moonlight (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) will also be well-backed at the windows. Last term's GIII Saratoga Oaks Invitational S. heroine and GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. runner-up won her two previous tries in Dubai this season, most recently impressively capturing the G2 Balanchine S. Feb. 24.

The nine-deep Jenny Wiley also includes 2021 GI American Oaks heroine Queen Goddess (Empire Maker), a last-out winner of Gulfstream's GIII TAA Pegasus World Cup Filly and Mare Turf Invitational S. Jan. 28.

Heavyweight Rematch at Oaklawn...

Secret Oath (Arrogate) and Clairiere (Curlin), one-two across the line while launching their 2023 campaigns in the GII Azeri S. Mar. 11, will meet for the third consecutive time in a four-horse renewal of Oaklawn's GI Apple Blossom H.

Last term’s GI Kentucky Oaks heroine ended a five-race losing streak by defeating favored MGISW Clairiere by 2 3/4 lengths in the Azeri. Secret Oath has won four of five career starts in Hot Springs and was a respectable third as the favorite against the boys last spring in the GI Arkansas Derby.

Clairiere, second in last year's Apple Blossom, came up just a head short in a wild renewal of the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Keeneland Nov. 5. Secret Oath faded to fifth after making a bold early run to lead in the stretch that day.

Oaklawn’s 12-race card also includes the highly anticipated stakes debut of 'Rising Star' Strobe (Into Mischief) in the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H.
BACKGROUND CHECK: APPLE BLOSSOM

by Jill Williams

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they’ve had on the breed. Up today is the GI Apple Blossom H., Oaklawn’s signature distaff event.

The Apple Blossom is such a mainstay in the older filly and mare ranks that it might be a surprise to all but those with the longest memories that the first several winners were males. It’s the last 50 years that have been devoted exclusively to the ladies, resulting in a steady diet of champions in the older mare division. Despite past winners including Zenyatta, Azeri, Paseana (Arg), and Susan’s Girl, the Apple Blossom seems to get better and better. Surely races don’t get more exciting than in 2021 when Letruska, Monomoy Girl, and Swiss Skydiver--eventually all three Eclipse champions--came off the final turn together for an epic showdown.

Following are some of the most important Apple Blossom winners by what impact they’ve had on the sport through their sons and daughters.

Close Hatches (2010, First Defence--Rising Tornado, by Storm Cat), bred by Millsec, LTD.: Her first foal was Tacitus (Tapit), now a young sire whose first foals have been arriving this spring. He won three graded stakes, but also placed in six Grade I events, including the Kentucky Derby, Belmont S., and Travers S.

Dream of Summer (1999, Siberian Summer--Mary’s Dream, by Skywalker), bred by James Weigel: This lovely California-bred has consistently punched above her weight, producing GISW and sire Creative Cause (Giant’s Causeway), GISW
Vexatious (Giant’s Causeway), and MGSW & GISP Destin (Giant’s Causeway). Her current 3-year-old filly, Summer Promise (Uncle Mo), is a ‘TDN Rising Star’ and was runner-up in the GII Schuylerville S. last year.

Heavenly Prize (1991, Seeking the Gold—Oh What a Dance, by Nijinsky II), bred by Ogden Phipps: This Phipps homebred Hall of Famer produced MGISW Good Reward (Storm Cat) and GSW Pure Prize (Storm Cat), while her daughters and granddaughters have already imparted upon the sport GISWs Persistently (Smoke Glacken), Queen Goddess (Empire Maker), and Instilled Regard (Arch); GSW & MGISP Stays in Vegas (City Zip); and SW & MGISP Faithfully (Smart Strike).

Halo America (1990, Waquoit—Ameriangel, by Halo), bred by John Franks: Young sire and GI Preakness S. winner Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) is out of this gray’s MGSP daughter Quick Temper (A.P. Indy).

Gorgeous (1986, Slew o’ Gold—Kamar, by Key to the Mint), bred by Hermitage Farm, Inc., A. G. Clay, and R. N. Clay: Her descendants include English champion and G1SW Music Show (Ire) (Noverre); Venezuelan champion La Alpujarra (Ven) (Pioneerof the Nile); four-time GISW Turbulent Descent (Congrats); GISW Swift Temper (Giant’s Causeway); GSW & MGISP All Included (Include); and a number of other black-type winners.

Bayakoa (Arg) (1984, Consultant’s Bid—Arlucea {Arg}, by Good Manners), bred by Haras Principal: Despite limited opportunities, this Hall of Famer and two-time Breeders’ Cup winner is the granddam of MGISW and Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Fort Larned (E Dubai), MGISW Affluent (Affirmed), and GSW Walkabout (Stroll).

Love Smitten (1981, Key to the Mint--Square Angel, by Quadrangle), bred by E. P. Taylor: A full-sister to the dam of Gorgeous, above, the final three of her five living foals were all black-type winners, but she’ll be remembered best as the dam of the glorious Swain (Ire) (Nashwan). The globetrotting English and Irish champion was a MG1SW on the grass, but it was his placings on the dirt in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic and G1 Dubai World Cup just a neck and a nose behind Silver Charm that endeared him to American audiences.

Track Robbery (1976, No Robbery--Left At Home, by Run For Nurse), bred by Edgar Kitchen: Dam of MGSW & MGISP Train Robbery (Alydar), she’s also granddam to GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner Cat Thief (Storm Cat) and GSW Pohave (Holy Bull). A great-granddaughter is GSW and $2.2-million Summer Wind broodmare purchase Tapicat (Tapit).

Miss Baja (1975, Mr. Leader--Double Tollgate, by Carry Back), bred by Spears-Olsson Breeding Syndicate: She produced GSW Stoneleigh’s Hope (Damascus), while her descendants include two winners of Keeneland’s GI Darley Alcibiades S. in the last decade, Peace and War (War Front) and British Idiom (Flashback). The latter also won the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies and was named an Eclipse champion. Others tracing to Miss Baja include GSW & GISP Rushie (Liam’s Map), GSW Princess Pietrina (Spectacular Bid), and Argentina’s MGSW & G1SP Papa Inc (Arg) (Include).

Summertime Promise (1972, Nijinsky II--Prides Promise, by Crozier), bred by Paul Mellon: U.S. GISW and Japanese graded producer Teddy’s Promise (Salt Lake) descends from her, as do GSWs and useful sires Carson City (Mr. Prospector) and General Meeting (Seattle Slew).

Susan’s Girl (1969, Quadrangle--Quaze, by Quibu (Arg)), bred by F. W. Hooper, Jr.: They don’t come more hale and hearty than this Hall of Famer, multiple champion, and winner of 24 black-type events ranging from the Kentucky Oaks to the Apple Blossom, so it should be no surprise her triple Grade I-winning son Copelan (Tri Jet) would sire a number of tough and successful Florida-breds.

MOIRA TAKES HOME CANADIAN HORSE OF THE YEAR HONORS

Moira (Ghostzapper), dominant winner against males in last year’s Queen’s Plate S., took home both Horse of the Year and Champion 3-Year-Old honors at the 48th Annual Sovereign Awards ceremony hosted by the Jockey Club of Canada on Thursday.

The evening began with a commemoration of the club’s 50th anniversary and recognition of the founding members from 1973. The top three finalists in each category are determined by the online ballots of the Jockey Club of Canada’s voters. The media category award finalists were determined by professionals within the industry selected from across North America.

Owned by X-Men Racing, Madaket Stables and SF Racing, Moira won the Fury S. June 11 at Woodbine before crushing the competition by 10 3/4-lengths in the Woodbine Oaks July 24. Her victory by seven-lengths Aug. 24 in the first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown with a final running time of 2:01.48 set a track record. Bred by Adena Springs, who took home Outstanding Breeder, Moira garnered 103 votes, followed by Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown) with 75 and Filo Di Arianna (Brz) (Drosselmeyer) with 24.

KEENELAND CATALOGS 80 HORSES FOR APRIL SALE

MGSW ‘TDN Rising Star’ Cazadero (Street Sense), GISW Doppelganger (Into Mischief) and MGSW Messier (Empire Maker) can be found in the catalog for Keeneland’s April Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale, to be held on Apr. 30 at 4 p.m. ET. The sale will be live-streamed on their website, Keeneland said in a Friday release. Cont. p10
The April Sale will take place at a key time, two days after Keeneland’s Spring Meet and at the start of Kentucky Derby week, when the energy and excitement for Thoroughbred racing are at a high,” Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. “The auction will be an opportunity to buy or sell quality individuals after spring racing seasons as owners and trainers transition to summer racing.”

Keeneland will accept approved supplemental entries to the April Sale until the sale date. Due to the changeable nature of horses-of-racing-age catalogs, consignments will be stabled and a barn order list produced and distributed around Monday, Apr. 24, when the catalog is close to finalization. A printed version will be available on Monday, Apr. 17 and a supplemental catalog will also be available prior to the sale.

Participating consignors in the April Sale are Claiborne Farm, ELiTE, Four Star Sales, Gainesway, Grovendale Sales, Highgate Sales, Hunter Valley Farm, Mill Ridge Sales, Taylor Made Sales Agency, Tom Amoss Racing Stable and Vinery Sales.

Buyers who plan to attend or participate remotely should register and establish credit within the Keeneland Sales Portal, as soon as possible due to the impending date. Online and phone bidding is available.

ROYAL ASCOT HERO MISSED THE CUT SWITCHES TO JOHN SADLER

By Brian Sheerin

The lure of winning top-level dirt races in America has prompted the owners of Missed The Cut (Quality Road) to transfer the Royal Ascot winner from Newmarket trainer George Boughey to John Sadler’s California-based barn.

Missed The Cut propelled Boughey onto the big stage when landing the Golden Gates S. H. at the royal meeting last year but disappointed as a 13-8 favorite when only managing fourth behind Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G3 Neom Turf Cup in Saudi Arabia when last seen.

A decision was made shortly after that Riyadh effort to transfer Missed The Cut to America, where he will now be trained with a dirt campaign in mind, according to Bill Farish of Lane’s End Farm, part-owners in the horse.

"He’s joined John Sadler and he is excited to get him," Farish told TDN Europe on Friday. "Missed The Cut looks wonderful and travelled over well. He’s gone through his quarantine and now he’s in John's barn. George Boughey did a great job with him and had him in great shape for the trip. It’s exciting to get him over here and he doesn’t have a lot of miles under him."

Sam Haggas of Hurworth Bloodstock and Boughey bought Missed The Cut for just 40,000gns from Shadwell at the Tattersalls February Sale in 2022.

It proved a shrewd investment with Missed The Cut winning three of his first four races, including that Royal Ascot triumph, after which Lane’s End bought into the colt.

On future plans, Farish said, "We’re hopeful for Missed The Cut. He trained on the dirt in Saudi Arabia and looked like he really liked it—moved really well on it. We’re hopeful that he can be as good or better on the dirt."

He added, "The idea is to angle him for Grade I races on the dirt if he shows an affinity for it. We have a good ownership group that is hopeful that we can have some fun with him. If not, we can always go back to the turf with him.

"We’re just going to see how he gets on. He obviously likes racing over a mile-and-a-quarter and there are a lot of great races over here on the dirt over that distance."

PLETCHER DERBY CREW WORKS BEFORE HEADING TO LOUISVILLE

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Forte (Violence) returned to training Friday morning for his last local work before shipping to Louisville to begin final preparations for the GI Kentucky Derby.

Working in company with Bright Future, a 4-year-old son of Curlin, the Derby favorite went a half-mile in :50.28 at Palm Beach Downs for trainer Todd Pletcher, according to Mike Welsch of DRF.

"With Forte we were just looking for a nice, easy first work back. He ran in the Florida Derby 13 days ago and he’s getting ready to ship on Sunday to Churchill, so we just wanted to let him stretch his legs a little bit and not do too much," Pletcher said. "It looked like he was just kind of in an open gallop out there, doing really well."

Also breezing together for Pletcher Friday and bound for Louisville were Spendthrift Farm-owned pair Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) and Major Dude (Bolt d’Oro) who were timed in :49.49 seconds for four furlongs, according to DRF. Cont. p12
Confidence Game is assured a place in the Derby starting gate with 100 qualifying points after his victory in the GII Louisiana Derby, good for eighth overall. Second in the GII Jeff Ruby Steaks, Major Dude— who is ranked 23rd—is on the bubble with 40 points.

“We were looking for a little more from Major Dude and Kingsbarns. I thought they both went really well [with] good enthusiasm and energy in their gallop-outs and seemed to be moving well so, overall, very pleased,” Pletcher said. “I thought they all went according to plan.”

Friday’s works were a relief for Hall of Fame trainer after heavy rains swept through South Florida this week and threatened to disrupt their schedules.

“They’ve been doing well, they’ve been eating well, they’ve been galloping nicely. I was happy to get the works in on the day we scheduled,” he said. “We’ve had a lot of rain so I wasn’t positive that was going to happen, but the track dried out nicely and we had good conditions for it.”

Pletcher also reported that Whisper Hill Farm and Gainesway Stable’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Tapit Trice (Tapit) exited his Apr. 8 victory in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland in good order and will join his stablemates in Louisville over the weekend. The gray colt is ranked fourth in the Derby leaderboard with 150 points.

“Tapit Trice came back super, really good energy. He’s been galloping the last few days at Keeneland,” Pletcher said. “He’ll ship over to Churchill after training on Sunday. Knock on wood, so far so good.”

CONFIDENCE GAME WORKS, RICH STRIKE PREPS FOR RETURN

With three weeks until the GI Kentucky Derby, trainer Keith Desormeaux has accelerated Confidence Game (Candy Ride [Arg])’s work pattern, as the dark bay colt put in a mile breeze in 1:38.20 from the starting gate on Friday morning at Churchill Downs.

Jockey James Graham began his mount’s training session by breaking inside of an unraced 3-year-old workmate. Around the far-turn, after the Derby hopeful completed five furlongs in 1:00.20, fellow stablemate Giant Awakening (Mor Spirit) was waiting for him around the 5 1/2 furlong pole. Running in concert, Confidence Game finished his work around the sixteenth pole and galloped out an extra quarter mile.

“At first when I looked at the final time, I was a little disappointed,” Desormeaux said. “Then I got back to the barn and went through the splits and I had a renewed sense of confidence—for a lack of a better term. He really started to pick it up late in the work even when he went fast early during the work. The gate works at Churchill are timed when the doors open so if you take into account that during a race there is a little bit of a run-up before the timer starts, he worked really well. I was definitely looking to get a lot of out of the work and I think we accomplished that. He needed it.”

Owned by Don’t Tell My Wife Stables and Ocean Reef Racing, the GI Rebel S. victor completed splits of :24.60, :36, :47.80, 1:00.20, 1:13 and 1:25.60, with a gallop out of 1 1/4 lengths in 2:05.80. Desormeaux opted to bypass Saturday’s GII Lexington S. at Keeneland to train up for the Derby and said the colt would likely work back next Saturday.

Rich Strike Looks To Return Soon

RED TR-Racing’s Rich Strike (Keen Ice) continued to prepare for his 2023 debut by working five furlongs in :59.80 early Friday morning over a fast track at Keeneland for trainer Eric Reed.

With Gabriel Lagunes aboard, the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby champ posted fractions of :23.80, :47.80, :59.80 and galloped out six furlongs in 1:13.40.

“Gabe said he was perfect this morning and worked the way he did before the Derby,” Reed said of Rich Strike, who is nominated to the 92nd running of Keeneland’s GIII Ben Ali S. on Apr. 22. “I want to get him as tight as I can before his first time out against horses that have been running. If all goes well, that will point him for the GI Stephen Foster.”

Reed said the Ben Ali is in the mix for the 2023 debut along with next Saturday’s GII Oaklawn H. and GII Alysheba S. at Churchill on May 5.

“I’ll talk it over with [owner] Rick [Dawson] the next couple of days,” Reed said. “The Alysheba is probably the most likely spot. He would work again in nine or 10 days, and it would be at Churchill Downs.”
FIFTH ANNUAL PDJF TELTHON SCHEDULED
APR. 23

Hall of Fame riders Sandy Hawley, Chris McCarron, Mike Smith and John Velazquez, among many others, will team with FanDuel TV, the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA), Keeneland and Santa Anita on Sunday, Apr. 23rd for the fifth annual telethon to raise money for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF), presented by Lane’s End.

The event will be broadcast on both FanDuel TV and America’s Day at the Races in collaboration with NYRA and FOX Sports as well as livestreamed. Fans can participate by calling 1-844-884-7353 between 12:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. ET or can click here to donate directly. Callers who give via the telethon will be entered in a drawing to win assorted autographed memorabilia, which will take place each hour.

“We are proud of the way this event has grown each year and that is largely due to the collaborative efforts from the Guild and our partners at Santa Anita, Keeneland, NYRA and FOX Sports,” said FanDuel’s Mike Joyce who also serves on the Board of Directors of the PDJF. “Every single day, jockeys assume incredible risk. This event raises important funding and showcases the work that the PDJF does to support these athletes.”

The 2022 edition raised $418,300 to support jockeys who have suffered serious on-track injuries, which was added to $1.2 million in support of the PDJF since the inaugural telethon in 2018.

KENTUCKY DERBY TRAINERS’ DINNER SET FOR MAY 2

The Kentucky Thoroughbred Association’s annual Kentucky Derby Trainers’ Dinner is set to take place Tuesday, May 2, at The Speed Art Museum in Louisville. Cocktails will be served from 6 p.m., with dinner service beginning at 6:45.

In addition to the food and drink, there will be a review of all the important prep races leading up to the Derby and interviews with some of the trainers of this year’s Derby contenders. The event will be streamed live at TwinSpires.com and all net proceeds from the event will go to support backside charities at Churchill Downs, including The Backside Learning Center.

The KTA/KTOB expresses its appreciation to the event sponsors, including this publication, Hallway Feeds, Anthem, KY Proud, Spendthrift Farm, TwinSpires, Stonestreet Stables, H.E. Tex Sutton, Keeneland, Churchill Downs, Daily Racing Form, FarmPaint/Tenda, HRRN, NTRA Advantage, Paulick Report, Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, Stark Equine Transportation, Claiborne Farm, Coolmore, Crestwood Farm, Hermitage, and Three Chimneys.

Individual tickets are available for $210 or tables of 10 can be purchased for $2,100. For more information, contact Vickie Garcia at (859) 381-1414 or by email at vgarcia@kta-ktob.com.

“OEPS TO HOST SEMINAR IN EFFORT TO RECRUIT MORE VETS

In an effort to encourage students to enter equine practice upon graduation, the Opportunities in Equine Practice Seminar (OEPS) will hold a professional forum Sept. 1-3 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Lexington, Kentucky. After a 10-year hiatus, the event was re-established to address the emerging crisis of the diminishing number of graduating veterinary students entering equine practice.

The seminar will host third-year veterinary students (Class of 2025) with presentations by practitioners in various disciplines. The estimated 200 attendees will be able to engage in interactive discussions with industry partners, tour equine hospitals, local horse farms and Keeneland racetrack and participate in workshops.

“We are thrilled to announce the return of OEPS and welcome veterinary students, equine practitioners and industry partners to join us for an amazing educational and networking opportunity,” said lead organizer, Dr. Craig Lesser. “With dwindling numbers of students pursuing careers in equine practice, we aim to inspire and equip students with knowledge about the vast opportunities within equine practice that make our careers uniquely gratifying.”

Click here for more information or contact LaTonna Wilson at (859) 233-0371 or sponsorships@oeps.com for more details.

SATURDAY’S RACING INSIGHTS:
by Stefanie Grimm

JUDDMONTE’S TACITUS HALF STEPS OUT AT KEENELAND

6th-KEE, $100K, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 3:40 p.m.

The latest daughter out of champion older mare and MGISW Close Hatches (First Defense), SCYLLA (Tapit) debuts in the silks of Juddmonte Farm for trainer Bill Mott. Already responsible for Scylla’s full-brother in MGSW & MGISP Tacitus, Close Hatches is herself a full-sister to MGISP Lockdown, the dam of Latonia S. winner Idiomatic (Curlin). This is also the female line of G1 Tattersalls Irish Two Thousand Guineas hero Siskin (First Defence).

Breaking just to Scylla’s outside is Brenda (Curlin)–the half-sister to GSW & MGISP Thank You Marylou (Birdstone)–who debuts Saturday for John Ennis and owner Mathiesen Racing LLC. TJCIS PPS

1st-KEE, $100K, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:00 p.m.

Another homebred makes his delayed career bow Saturday in Kentucky as Braggadocious (Gun Runner), the half-brother to GSW & MGISP Bravazo (Awesome Again), gets the start for owner/breeder Calumet Farm.

Just to his outside is Magical Power (Good Magic), a $460,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select yearling purchase making his second start since debuting second as the beaten favorite at Gulfstream Mar. 18. TJCIS PPS

7th-AQU, $70K, Msw, 3yo/up, f, 1 1/16mT, 4:34 p.m.

In action taking place outside of Kentucky, Inflationary Trend (Mendelssohn) is the latest filly to take to the turf for the powerhouse connections of Klaravich Stables and Chad Brown.

The filly’s second dam is MGISW Missy’s Mirage (Stop the Music), herself a half-sister to GSW Classy Mirage (Storm Bird), producer of GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. victor Dublin (Afield Alex). TJCIS PPS

Love Reigns

Stuck behind rivals after a sharp break Friday, the filly was at least able to save ground as she beat only a handful of horses up the backstretch led by Accomplished Girl (Street Boss). Still boxed in as the field swung past the quarter pole, Love Reigns had to check sharply before tipping inside to regain her momentum. Under an expertly-timed ride by Joel Rosario, she dove through an opening between rivals with a sixteenth to run and charged up the fence to nail stablemate Lady Hollywood just before the wire as the 5-2 favorite.

“She’s a special filly,” praised trainer Wesley Ward. “I’ve kind of been waiting for this to come out since her maiden win here. She likes Keeneland, she loved the course when she broke her maiden here a year ago, and we’re just real, real happy it worked out. (Jockey) Joel (Rosario) is kind of my come-from-behind guy that I ride on horses that I like to do that with—which aren’t many, but this being one. He’s just a phenomenal rider. He gets them back there, gets them to relax. He had us a little worried there at the eighth pole, but thank God the seas parted and he came through and he won.”

Love Reigns has a pair of younger siblings—a 2-year-old half-sister by Kodiac (GB) and a yearling half-brother by Mehmas (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

DISTINCTLYPOSSIBLE (f, 4, Curlin--Funny Proposition (GSW, $230,295), by Medaglia d’Oro), twice raced as a juvenile, earned a second behind Jujus Map (Liam’s Map) over this track in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. before breaking her maiden as the favorite next time out over this same surface and distance nearly a year ago. After finishing eighth behind Interstatedaydream (Classic Empire) in the GII George E. Mitchell Black-Eyed Susan S. last May, she went to the sidelines for nearly nine months before returning sixth on the grass at Gulfstream Feb. 26. Back on the main track Friday, Distinctlypossible rated back off the early pace in fifth, riding the rail up the backstretch behind horses. Still stuck inside and needing racing room exiting the far turn, she charged through a narrow opening with a furlong to run and hit another gear to open up a two-length winning margin on pacesetter She’s Keen (Keen Ice). The fourth straight winner out of as many to make the races for her graded-stakes winning dam, Distinctlypossible has a pair of half-brothers by Flameaway still to race behind her. Funny Proposition was bred to Classic Empire for a 2023 foal.

5th-Keeneland, $109,550, 4-14, (NW1X), 3yo, f, 1 1/8mT, 1:48.50, fm, 1/2 length.

ALLAMERICANBEAUTY (f, 3, Into Mischief--Apologize, by Lemon Drop Kid) found the class drop from a fifth in the GIII Florida Oaks last month and the change of scenery back to Kentucky to her liking and logged an impressive near last-to-first score over the Keeneland turf. Though drawn on the far outside, she was in no hurry in the early going, content to tuck in along the rail and follow the unhurried pace set by Safeen (War Front) all the way around the clubhouse turn and for the run up the backstretch. As the early leader passed the half in :47.21, allamericanbeauty was winding up and weaving her way between rivals, first closest to the rail around the far turn then outside at the head of the lane, where she bumped hard with a rival and nearly lost her footing underneath her with just under two furlongs left to run. In deep stretch, Safeen still held a significant advantage over a handful of rivals still holding on, but the winner was much the best and dug in resolutely under a vigorous ride, switching to her right lead inside the sixteenth and reached the front in time to pull away for the half-length win. allamericanbeauty's dam, who hails from the family of champion Althea (Alydar) and therefore Broodmare of the Year Courtly Dee (Never Bend), also produced an unnamed 2-year-old colt by Tapit, a yearling filly by Medaglia d'Oro and is set to have a foal by Maclean's Music this spring. Ryvit (c, 3, competitive edge--She Is Bedazzling, by Medaglia d'Oro) showed enough promise as a juvenile to enter the Kentucky Juvenile S. at second asking and didn't disappoint, checking in third before going to the bench for the rest of 2022. In his two starts this year, he didn't show much over this same track and distance Feb. 18 but rebounded nicely to break his maiden last time out against restricted company Mar. 25. Given a 6-1 shot back in the open ranks Friday, Ryvit split the field just off the rail before angling out three wide to challenge down the lane. American Outlaw (American Pharoah) had opened up an advantage but Ryvit kept on coming and drew past to win going away by two lengths. She Is Bedazzling last produced a yearling colt by Collected and was not reported bred for this year. Sales History: $70,000 Ylg '21 TTAYHR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $136,418. tow, in third and on the far outside. The top three didn’t change position for more than three-quarters of a mile until the winner began his move on the far turn and after repelling the bid from Tshiebwe (Race Day) at the quarter pole, challenged for the lead to the outside of the pacesetter down the lane before pulling away and posting the half-length win as the 2-1 favorite. His dam also produced the stakes winner and $158,400 earner Miss Interpret (Street Sense) and an unnamed 2-year-old filly by Mendelssohn, who was exported to Korea last year. CLEAR CONSCIENCE (c, 3, Blame--Blank Slate, by Gio Ponti) was third at this maiden special weight level and the same distance in his debut to close out 2022 back in November and returned where he left off to launch his 2023 campaign here with a drawing-away win. At the break the New York-bred brushed slightly with a rival from his outside post and was immediately after asked for a little run to gain his preferred position just off the pace before heading into the first bend. He was content to rate in fourth position and just behind the first flight of rivals, led by 22-1 outsider Vince the Prince (War Dancer), for three-quarters of a mile. As the early pack rounded the far turn, Clear Conscience slipped over toward the rail, and just past the quarter pole was threaded between rivals to gain clear aim at the wire. He dug in gamely under a vigorous ride, took the lead just before the sixteenth pole and drove clear to post the 3 1/2-length victory. His winning dam also produced the 2-year-old Cognoscenti (Palace Malice) and an unnamed yearling by McKinzie. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $46,900.

CAMPON (c, 3, Uncle Mo--Samiam {SP, $146,659}, by Dynaformer) didn’t do much running when debuted as the favorite at Sam Houston Jan. 14 but rebounded nicely with a narrow defeat to be second at the same track Feb. 24. Favored once again at 3-2 Thursday, he broke in a nice line from the far outside gate but was shuffled back and held wide up the backstretch. Fourth while making an outside move into the far turn, Campton was under a ride a long ways from home but coming on strongly as the field passed the furlong marker. Pacesetter Look Sharp (Dialed In) was game along the rail but Campton had enough to get by, defeating that rival by three-quarters of a length. From the family of GSW/GISP Economic Model, GSW/MGISP Well Monied (Maria’s Mon) and Gill Louisiana S. winner Happy American (Runhappy), Campton’s only younger sibling is a newborn half-sister by Not This Time. NOBLE FISH (g, 4, Uncaptured--Street Symphony, by Street Hero), given a 4-1 chance behind heavily-favored 3-5 choice Duke of Gloucester (Air Force Blue), stalked from third in the early going as Sir Robert Hall (Lord Nelson) and the favorite battled up front. Up to take the lead just past the quarter pole, Noble Fish doggedly began to draw away, putting the favorite to bed to win by 2 1/4 lengths. The gelding is his dam's only reported offspring though she visited Ami's Flatter for the 2023 season. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $16,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

REHAB. RETRAIN. REHOME.
WEST POINT THOROUGHBREDS has generously donated a 2% interest in their 2-year-old-racehorse LADY BONHEUR during her racing career to Habitat for Humanity of Monmouth County’s Veterans Build Program.

The interest will be auctioned off by silent auction on Saturday evening, APRIL 29.

Lady Bonheur is an unraced 2-year-old filly by Munnings trained by Hall-Of-Fame nominee Christophe Clement. The filly is expected to compete on the New York and Florida racing circuits.

This incredibly awesome ownership experience includes:

🌟 Absolutely NO BILLS EVER
🌟 Access to online communications about your horse and the entire West Point stable
🌟 Access to paddock and (hopefully) winner's circle
🌟 Invitations to partner and industry special events
🌟 You get ALL the fun and we guarantee NONE of the training bills. You’ll receive any net racetrack purse distributions the horse may earn.

Habitat for Humanity's Veterans Build program equips houses for vets to allow them to stay in their own homes with dignity, provides home repairs, builds new homes, and more.

SOUTH AFRICAN CHAMPION CHEYN RELISHING UK CHALLENGE

By Emma Berry

It is not unusual to see Group 1-winning jockeys riding work in Newmarket, but it is a less familiar sight to find one riding four lots a day through the depths of winter. That, however, is how South Africa’s multiple champion Greg Cheyne has been spending his time since relocating from his native country last August.

Cheyne and his wife Claire are both now employed by William Haggas at Somerville Lodge, and the jockey has recently been given the green light by the British Horseracing Authority to resume his race-riding career in the UK. That starts on Saturday when he partners Eastern Charm (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the Haggas colours at Yarmouth.

Cheyne, 46, signed off in South Africa in July by winning a Group 3 for Ridgemont Highlands, the stud owned by the Kieswetter family who retained his services through the previous eight years. In this part of the world, the Kieswetter name is more readily associated with the family’s Irish-based Barnane Stud, which celebrated a first homebred Royal Ascot winner last year with the Haggas-trained Candleford (Ire) (Kingman {GB}).

APPLEBY CLASSIC CONTENDERS PRIMED FOR RETURN

Charlie Appleby pulled off an historic clean sweep of the 2,000 Guineas in England, Ireland and France last year and the Godolphin trainer has outlined plans for his runners in the forthcoming Classic trials next week at Newmarket and Newbury.

Appleby’s challenge for the 2,000 Guineas could include Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), Mysterious Night (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Silver Knott (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). While the latter is set to head straight to the Classic on 6 May, both Naval Power and Mysterious Night are planned runners in the G3 Craven S. on Thursday.

"Running in the Craven Stakes, you are potentially pointing towards a Guineas, and whether that is an English 2,000 or the French version will be decided after they have raced," Appleby commented via Godolphin’s website. Cont. p4

The lure of winning top-level dirt races in America has sent Missed The Cut (Quality Road), the Royal Ascot winner, from Newmarket trainer George Boughey to John Sadler’s California-based barn.

British-bred Maxident led throughout against a short field of three and won geared down by a facile 50 lengths at Leicester on Friday.

Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) could continue a magical roll for his sire and will contest the G1 Satsuki Sho at Nakayama Racecourse in search of three straight victories.

It was for the same family that Cheyne was given his first taste of Newmarket aboard Whisky Baron (Aus) (Manhattan Rain (Aus)), on whom he had won the G1 Sun Met at Kenilworth. “I was a little bit wowed by what Newmarket had to offer when Whisky Baron brought me over here, even though that was just part of his preparation to move elsewhere,” says Cheyne of the gelding’s run in the G2 Joel S. of 2017. “That was always in the back of my mind, what I’d experienced. I’ve been race-riding for the best part of 30 years, and then when I experienced this, I thought, ‘Wow, I want a part of that.’”

He adds, “During Covid, I looked at options in Australia and New Zealand, and then my wife came out to the UK and did the Diploma Course at the National Stud. She was away from home for six months and she absolutely loved it, and then worked for William Haggas for three weeks as she had a few weeks left over. One thing led to another and we discussed options of moving abroad again.”

Cheyne was in good company earlier in the week when riding work on the turf gallop adjacent to the Rowley Mile. His fellow riders included Cieren Fallon and Dougie Costello, as well as retired jockeys Michael Hills, Ted Durcan, Andrew Tinkler and Colm Sharkey.

“I saw a little bit of it in 2017, but now that I’ve been here on a more permanent basis, just to see all the gallops has been fantastic,” he says. “Even last week I rode on a new gallop and I’ve been here how many months? It’s just incredible the facilities here, and how things can be so different.”

Highlighting the varied approaches to racehorse training around the world, he continues, “We have a certain way of doing it in South Africa, where you will get a horse to a certain level, then you’ll find a race, and even if it’s a mile-and-a-quarter horse, you’ll find a race probably over six furlongs, then you’ll step up to a mile, and then maybe a mile one, and then the race that it’s targeted for.”

"Whereas here, a horse can be off the track for a year for whatever reason, and you can bring it back in a Group 1 ready to be at its best. And that's purely because of the facilities. We couldn't try and replicate that in South Africa because we don't have the facilities to get a horse to that level to compete. We basically race them fit in South Africa, whereas here there are all the facilities you need to get a horse to peak fitness for any given race."

Cheyne's riding experience is not restricted to South Africa. In a career which has already garnered more than 2,300 winners and 12 Grade 1 victories, he has also spent two seasons in Hong Kong and 18 months in Singapore, as well as riding in Malaysia, Macau, Korea, Zimbabwe and Germany.

"I could ride in South Africa for another five-plus years successfully," he says. "I was very fortunate with the job that I had in Port Elizabeth as well as the support that I got in Cape Town, so I could have carried on there, but I just felt that while I'm still in what I'd consider to be my prime we'd come over to the UK and work towards a future here.

"I know I'm not going to be a jockey for all that much longer. God willing, I've got another five years minimum in me, but what do I do when I'm not a jockey any more? I thought there might be better opportunities here than there would be back home."

With Laura Way signed up as his agent, Cheyne is fully aware of the stiff competition for rides in Britain. Even in his own stable, Tom Marquand and Cieren Fallon get first and second call, with Adam Farragher also well supported by Haggas. However, during a busy summer schedule, the rule that now prevents jockeys from riding at more than one meeting in a day will likely work in his favour.

"I've sent in my application to the BHA, and let's hope we can find a ride or two," he says modestly.

"That would be great if that's from the boss's side, and then I'll look to pick up outside support as well. You've got to get the ball rolling somehow, and getting rides is hard because there are so many jockeys here in the UK and they're working hard for their rides. So, I know it's not going to be easy, and when you're younger you can work your way in. I've got a CV to back me up, but whether that means anything, I don't know."

In the meantime, winter has finally ceded power to spring and the promise of the Craven meeting. Cheyne admits that he has enjoyed the recent months working with some of the finest Thoroughbreds in Britain as the yearlings have turned two and the tempo has started to increase. That work has been on the ground in every aspect of the stable's routine, as well as in the saddle.

"We're very fortunate," he admits. "The stock that I'm seeing and riding here is, it's quite incredible. I think I'm a little bit spoiled in what I'm experiencing in Newmarket because of the yard I'm working for. And you can see some of the other big yards out there, the horses that are going around. It's awesome. Working for William has been quite an eye-opener really."

Five-time winner Naval Power won back-to-back listed contests last season and his sole defeat in five runs at two came when he finished sixth behind Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Dewhurst S.

"He bounced back well after the Dewhurst and he was last seen winning the Jumeirah Classic on turf at Meydan in January, which was proof that he has wintered well," said the trainer. "He goes to the Craven obviously with race fitness under his belt, and with plenty of experience as well." Cont p5

"He should be a serious contender."

Mysterious Night rounded out his juvenile season with a wide-margin victory in the GI Summer S. at Woodbine in September.

"I'm pleased to say his preparation has gone well for the Craven, which is the starting point of his three-year-old career," Appleby noted. "Both he and Naval Power are the ones who have risen to the top at this early stage of the season."

Another pair of three-year-old colts will represent Godolphin in the Listed Feilden S. Bold Act (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) won the Cardinal Conditions S. at Chelmsford at the start of the month, while Regal Honour (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-brother to dual Group 1 winner Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), landed a seven-furlong novice at Newmarket in October.

"Bold Act has won his last four starts and has progressed into the type who deserves to be pitched in at this level," said Appleby. "[Regal Honour] has had course experience, being placed and also winning on the Rowley Mile. On pedigree, stepping up in trip should suit him."

Fairy Cross (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the winner of the G3 Prestige Fillies' S., will be the stable's sole representative in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. on Wednesday. She has had one outing this year when second at Meydan.

"She's come forward for that last run and she has done well at home. She should be a key player in the Nell Gwyn," Appleby said.

The trials switch from Newmarket to Newbury on Saturday, where Godolphin will be represented in the G3 Greenham S. by the unbeaten G2 Gimcrack S. winner Noble Style (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

Appleby added, "We are going into the race completely open-minded regarding his trip. This is the first time he has gone beyond six furlongs. He shows a lot of natural pace and stepping up to the mile of a Guineas could be a question mark."

"It will be his first time at seven furlongs, and after the dust settles later, we will make the call on whether it will be the English or the French Guineas...or whether he drops back in distance for the Commonwealth [Cup] at Royal Ascot."

Newbury also marks the potential return of older stable stars Yibir (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) or Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G3 John Porter S., with Appleby cautioning that soft ground will be required for the latter.

He said, "With his programme, we are working back from the Arc, that's our main aim. He revels in soft ground and there is a good chance he could get those conditions at Longchamp in October."

"You cannot fault the horse at home. He retains all his old zest and he looks great. We will know early in his five-year-old campaign whether or not the Arc is a realistic target."

Appleby continued, "Yibir wants quick ground. He suffered a setback after winning the Princess Of Wales's Stakes at Newmarket last July but he's back on track now and he looks great. Looking globally, it will be more trips to America for him, or even Hong Kong this year."

Top sprinter Creative Force (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is also set to return next week, in Thursday's G3 Abernant S., after being ruled out of appearances in the Saudi Arabia and Dubai when a raised temperature scuppered his travel plans.

"I can report he is now back in sparkling form, in great order," Appleby said. "He heads to the Abernant and hopefully he will embark on his usual summer campaign, which takes in races such as the G1 Platinum Jubilee, over six furlongs at Royal Ascot."

ROYAL ASCOT HERO MISSED THE CUT SWITCHES TO JOHN SADLER

By Brian Sheerin

The lure of winning top-level dirt races in America has prompted the owners of Missed The Cut (Quality Road) to transfer the Royal Ascot winner from Newmarket trainer George Boughey to John Sadler's California-based barn.

Missed The Cut propelled Boughey onto the big stage when landing the Golden Gates S. Handicap at the royal meeting last year but disappointed as a 13-8 favourite when only managing fourth behind Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G3 Neom Turf Cup in Saudi Arabia when last seen.

A decision was made shortly after that Riyadh effort to transfer Missed The Cut to America, where he will now be trained with a dirt campaign in mind, according to Bill Farish of Lane's End Farm, part-owners in the horse.

"He's joined John Sadler and he is excited to get him," Farish told TDN Europe on Friday. "Missed The Cut looks wonderful and travelled over well. He's gone through his quarantine and now he's in John's barn. George Boughey did a great job with him and had him in great shape for the trip. It's exciting to get him over here and he doesn't have a lot of miles under him."

Sam Haggas of Hurworth Bloodstock and Boughey bought Missed The Cut for just 40,000gns from Shadwell at the Tattersalls February Sale in 2022.

It proved a shrewd investment with Missed The Cut winning three of his first four races, including that Royal Ascot triumph, after which Lane's End bought into the colt.

On future plans, Farish said, "We're hopeful for Missed The Cut. He trained on the dirt in Saudi Arabia and looked like he really liked it--moved really well on it. We're hopeful that he can be as good or better on the dirt."

He added, "The idea is to angle him for Grade I races on the dirt if he shows an affinity for it. We have a good ownership group that is hopeful that we can have some fun with him. If not, we can always go back to the turf with him."

"We're just going to see how he gets on. He obviously likes racing over a mile-and-a-quarter and there are a lot of great races over here on the dirt over that distance."

STAND UP FOR RACING FORMED TO REPRESENT RACING AND BREEDING INDUSTRIES

In light of criticism from animal rights activists in the build-up to the Grand National at Aintree on Saturday, Stand Up For Racing, a gathering of passionate horse racing professionals that will seek to represent the racing and breeding industries, has been formed.

The concept arose out of a widely-held frustration that the racing and breeding industries are not always well represented when questioned in the mainstream media and on social media, often allowing damaging misinformation and misconceptions to prevail.

The aim of the group is to unite all of the various organisations and representative groups within the racing and breeding industries in Europe in the interests of the greater good of the image and reputation of our great game. Fueled by a database of information and facts providing by the various interest groups in European racing, it will draw on a group of experienced members of the racing and breeding media that will be made available to any media outlet to provide balanced comment on the subject matter when required.

The founding group of Sally Ann Grassick, Kevin Blake, Caoimhe Doherty and Cathy Grassick are all council members of the Irish Thoroughbred Breeders Association and are professionally involved in various sectors of the industry, with the latter being the current Chairperson of the ITBA.

In the coming weeks they will form a committee of members drawn from the major racing nations of Europe as well as putting together the aforementioned panel of media representatives.

In less than 48 hours, Stand Up For Racing has already resonated with a wide section of social media, attracting over 4,000 followers on Twitter, including numerous high-profile figures in the industry, and the hashtag #StandUpForRacing has been used over 1,700 times and reached 1.2 million people.

Stand Up For Racing had their first opportunity to contribute to the mainstream conversation when one of our representatives Kevin Blake appeared on Piers Morgan Uncensored on TalkTV on Thursday evening.

DAI WALTERS DISPERSAL FEATURES AT GOFFS UK SPRING SALE

Dai Walters, a leading owner in the National Hunt sphere and founder of Ffos Las Racecourse, will offer a partial dispersal of his jumping stock at the Goffs UK Spring HIT/PTP Sale on May 25. Cont. p7
Walters, 77, has been associated with a number of top horses over the years. Running in the name of his Walters Plant Hire firm, they include the Grade 1 winners Oscar Whiskey (Ire) and Whisper (Fr). His blue-and-white silks will be carried in Saturday's Grand National by Our Power (Ire), trained by Sam Thomas.
The owner and trainer were both involved in a helicopter crash in Wales last November in which all five people on board survived but which left Walters with serious injuries. Having spent a number of months in hospital, he has now returned home to continue his recovery.
Commenting on the 25-strong draft from the owner, which contains 19 horses in training, four mares and two stores, Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, "The Doncaster Spring HIT/PTP Sale is the largest National Hunt horses-in-training sale in the world, and we are grateful to Mr Walters and his family for choosing it as an outlet for their Walters Plant Hire Partial Dispersal. The Spring Sale has hosted many high-class dispersals over the years and this draft, which will be offered along with the annual Million In Mind Dispersal in May, will certainly be among the highlights for 2023."
All horses in the dispersal, consigned by The Hollies, will be offered without reserve on the final day of the sale.

IRISH BARRIER TRIALS TO RESUME
The popular Irish EBF Barrier Trials initiative will return from May, with dates at three different racecourses having been approved by Horse Racing Ireland.
The first trials will be held at Naas on Monday, May 29, using the inside course over six and seven furlongs. On Monday, July 3, the action will switch to Limerick, which will stage trials over six-and-a-half and seven-and-a-half furlongs.
Dundalk hosts the final session on the all-weather on Tuesday, September 5, with trials set to be run over five, six and seven furlongs.
The trials will be restricted to unraced two- and three-year-olds. Every runner must be named and returned in training with a stalls certificate.
The Irish EBF Barrier Trials and their updated terms and conditions will be advertised in advance on the RAS website.

NH SIRE NO RISK AT ALL TAKEN OUT OF SERVICE FOR 2023
Leading National Hunt sire No Risk At All (Fr) (My Risk {Fr}) will miss the remainder of the 2023 covering season after suffering an accident in a paddock at Haras de Montaigu in France.
According to the farm, the 16-year-old stallion, whose produce include G1 Aintree Hurdle and two-time G1 Christmas Hurdle winner Epatante, will be off rest for a month and the farm hopes to have him in full readiness to resume his career in 2024.

Left Sea, kin to a weanling filly by Siyouni (Fr), is the second foal and scorer for G1 Prix Vermeille heroine and G1 Prix de Diane second Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), herself a half to G1 Prix Jean Romanet third Romanciere (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and Listed Prix Charles Laffitte winner Bilissie (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The April-foaled homebred bay’s second dam, G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Balladeuse (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}), is a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud victrix Plumania (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Listed Prix de Liancourt third Dancequest (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). Plumania, in turn, is the dam of four black-type performers, headed by G2 Prix du Muguet victor Plumatic (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), and she is also the ancestress of stakes-winning G1 Prix Vermeille heroine and G1 Prix de Diane winner Balladeuse, and of a weanling filly by Siyouni (Fr), is the second foal and scorer for G1 Prix Vermeille heroine and G1 Prix de Diane second Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), herself a half to G1 Prix Jean Romanet third Romanciere (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and Listed Prix Charles Laffitte winner Bilissie (GB) (Dansili {GB}). WORLDWIDE NEWS

SOL ORIENS GOES FOR THREE STRAIGHT IN 'IMPACT'-FREE SATSUKI SHO by Alan Carasso

For the first time in what seems a lifetime—13 years, to be precise—no 3-year-old son of Deep Impact (Jpn) heads to the gate for the opening leg of the Japanese Triple Crown, the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) at Nakayama Racecourse. But the 2000-metre affair does not lack for intrigue, as a typically full field of 18 is set to face the starter Sunday afternoon.

Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitasan Black (Jpn)) could continue a magical roll for his sire—who is also responsible for the world’s top-rated runner Equinox (Jpn)—and should sit a cosy trip from barrier one for Takeshi Yokoyama. A veteran of just two well-spaced starts, the half-brother to the newly retired Vin de Garde (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) annexed a newcomers’ event going Tokyo’s one-turn mile last November and in his lone racetrack appearance since, overcame a bit of greenness to stamp his authority on the Jan. 15 G3 Keisei Hai over this course and distance.

“His cornering has become a lot smoother after the fitting of a ring bit, and he looks to be more mature compared to before, as well as easier to ride,” said trainer Takahisa Tezuka. Cont. p11

“In his last two races, the pace was quite slow. He’s a horse with ability, and I think the pace will be quicker this time, but I’m confident he can run a good race with the potential he has and the condition he’s in.”

Phantom Thief (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) has tasted defeat just once in his career when finishing a slow-starting fourth to Dura Erede (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) and Top Knife (Jpn) (Declaration of War) in the 10-furlong G1 Hopeful S. at this venue back in December. He atoned for that effort when outfinishing Touch Wood (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) in the G3 Kyodo News Hai at Tokyo Feb. 12.

“The horse is in top condition and has finished off strongly in training,” said jockey Christophe Lemaire. “His balance is good and he doesn’t feel heavy at all. If he starts like he did last time, things will be fine, and I’m looking forward to this Grade 1 with him.”

Yuga Kawada rode four of Sunday’s entrants in their most recent races and he elects to stick with Danon Touchdown (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) for the Guineas. A first-out winner over a mile at Chukyo last October, the half-brother to 2020 Hopeful S. winner Danon the Kid (Jpn) (Just a Way {Jpn}) was narrowly beaten in his last two, including the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity last December. A horse that seems to take some time to hit top gear, he should appreciate stretching out to the 2000 metres for the first time.

Bellagio Opera (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) is three-for-three lifetime, having come through the grades prior to handing the re-opposing Ho O Biscuits (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits) a 1 1/4-length beating in the G2 Spring S. going nine furlongs over this course Mar. 19.
