CHAMPION FORTE FAVORED AT 3-1 FROM POST 15 FOR DERBY

by Steve Sherack

LOUISVILLE, Ky. -- There was very little suspense during Monday afternoon’s GI Kentucky Derby post position draw held in the Aristides Lounge at Churchill Downs as Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable’s champion 2-year-old colt and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Forte (Violence) immediately kicked things off by drawing very well on the outside in post 15.

Tabbed as the 3-1 morning-line favorite in the full field of 20, last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile winner overcame more than his share of adversity beneath regular rider Irad Ortiz, Jr. while punching his ticket to Louisville with a valiant win in the GI Curlin Florida Derby. Only Street Sense and Nyquist have pulled off the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile-Kentucky Derby double so far.

Two-time Kentucky Derby-winning trainer Todd Pletcher will also saddle GI Blue Grass S. winner and fellow ’Rising Star’ Tapit Trice (Tapit), the second choice on the morning line at 5-1 (post five); and unbeaten GII Louisiana Derby winner Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) (post six; 12-1).

The latter will look to win the Derby in just his career fourth start, a feat previously accomplished by dual Classic winner Big Brown in 2008 and subsequent Triple Crown winner Justify in 2018.

THISTLEDOWN RACING CANCELED AFTER JOCKEY CEDILLO INJURED IN FIRST RACE

Jockey Mauro Cedillo was seriously injured the first race at Thistledown Racetrack on Monday, and has been taken to the Metro Health Medical Center in Cleveland, where a media relations specialist confirmed he was being treated in the emergency room, but was unable to provide any further information. The jockeys at Thistledown Racetrack voted to cancel the remainder of the racing card, according to a member of the Thistledown racing office.

Cedillo was aboard Spectacular Road, the 2-1 second choice and was on the lead a quarter-mile into the race when his horse took a bad step and unseated him at the three-eighths pole. He was thrown forward, and appeared to be struck by one or more horses who were behind him. The track condition was listed as muddy.

"It was the jockeys' decision to cancel racing," said the official. "We have no update on the jockey right now. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance."

The Equibase chart of the race reads, "Spectacular Road made the lead soon after the start, set the pace in the two path, stumbled entering the turn and unseated his rider." Cont. p6

WET PAINT HEADLINES FULL OAKS FIELD

Godolphin homebred Wet Paint (Blame) was tabbed as the 5-2 morning-line favorite for Friday’s GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs.

DERBY EARLY IMPRESSIONS

In his first of a Derby week series, Steve Sherack talks early impressions of morning-line favorite Forte (Violence) with Ocala Stud’s David O’Farrell.

BELMONT PARK CONSTRUCTION LOAN APPROVED

Approval of a loan to NYRA for reconstruction of Belmont Park was included in the final version of the New York state budget released to the public Monday.
Fortе Favored at 3-1 From Post 15

"I'm good with all of them," Pletcher said. "Good draws. We're very happy with it."

Trainer Brad Cox, extremely well-represented by GI Kentucky Oaks morning-line favorite Wet Paint (Blame) and second-choice Botanical (Medaglia d'Oro) in Friday's feature, will also have a fantastic shot in the Derby. Cox will have four chances for a second Derby victory including: GI Arkansas Derby winner Angel of Empire (Classic Empire) (post 14; 8-1); game Blue Grass runner-up Verifying (Justify) (post two; 15-1); Louisiana Derby third and 'Rising Star' Jace's Road (Quality Road) (post 12; 15-1); and narrow GII Wood Memorial S. runner-up Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) (post one; 30-1).

The Oaks/Derby double has only been pulled off three previous times by Herbert J. Thompson in 1933 with Brokers Tip (May 6 Derby) and Barn Swallow (May 20 Oaks); Ben Jones in 1949 with Wistful (May 6 Oaks) and Ponder (May 7 Derby); and Jones again in 1952 with Real Delight (May 2 Oaks) and Hill Gail (May 3 Derby).

The Louisville-born Cox won the 2021 Kentucky Derby via disqualification with Mandaloun. "Hit Show, it's OK," Cox said. "We'll live with it. We have to. He's doing great. Manny [Franco] is obviously going to have to work out a trip from down in there. Same thing with Verifying. Tyler [Gaffalione] rides Verifying and both riders are going to have to find a way into the first turn. Angel of Empire, I think it's a good draw. Flavien [Prat] will be able to break running and get a good spot mid-pack. That's what I'm envisioning. Jace's Road will probably be more forwardly placed as opposed to Angel of Empire. Hopefully, he can get himself up into the mix."

Practical Move (Practical Joke), listed at 10-1 on the morning-line, will exit from post 10 following three straight victories in Southern California, led by a nose decision in the GI
Runhappy Santa Anita Derby. Trainer Tim Yakteen will also tighten the girth on Arkansas Derby third Reincarnate (Good Magic) (post seven; 50-1). Drawn on the outside, G2 UAE Derby winner Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits) (post 17; 10-1) and UAE Derby third Continuar (Jpn) (Drefong) (post 20; 50-1) will both fly the flag for Japan.

The 1 1/4-mile Classic for 3-year-olds will go as the 12th race on Saturday's 14-race Derby Day program with a 6:57 p.m. post time.

From the rail out, the complete field for the Kentucky Derby with morning-line odds: 1-Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) (30-1); 2-Verifying (Justify) (15-1); 3-Two Phil’s (Hard Spun) (12-1); 4-Confidence Game (Candy Ride {Arg}) (20-1); 5-Tapit Trice (Tapit) (5-1); 6-Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) (12-1); 7-Reincarnate (Good Magic) (50-1); 8-Mage (Good Magic) (15-1); 9-Skinner (Curlin) (20-1); 10-Practical Move (Practical Joke) (10-1); 11-Disarm (Gun Runner) (30-1); 12-Jace’s Road (Quality Road) (15-1); 13-Sun Thunder (Into Mischief) (30-1); 14-Angel of Empire (Classic Empire) (8-1); 15-Forte (Violence) (3-1); 16-Raise Cain (Violence) (15-1); 17-Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits) (10-1); 18-Rocket Can (Into Mischief) (15-1); 19-Lord Miles (Curlin) (30-1); 20-Continuar (Jpn) (Drefong) (50-1); Also-Eligibles: Cyclone Mischief (Into Mischief) (30-1); Mandarin Hero (Jpn) (Shanghai Bobby) (20-1); and King Russell (Creative Cause) (50-1). STREAKING WET PAINT HEADLINES FULL FIELD DRAWN FOR KENTUCKY OAKS

by Steve Sherack

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – Godolphin homebred Wet Paint (Blame), an impressive come-from-behind winner in three straight while sweeping the Oaklawn Park series for 3-year-old fillies headed by the GIII Fantasy Stakes Apr. 1, was tabbed as the 5-2 morning-line favorite for Friday's Grade I Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs. Conditioned by two-time Kentucky Oaks-winning trainer Brad Cox, Wet Paint was assigned post seven in the full field of 14.

Flavien Prat will ride.

Cox will also saddle impressive Bourbonette Oaks heroine and 4-1 second-choice Botanical (Medaglia d’Oro) (post six), who tries dirt for the first time; and GII Fair Grounds Oaks third-place finisher The Alys Look (Connect) (post two; 15-1).

Cox won the 2018 Oaks with Monomoy Girl and the 2020 Oaks with Shedaresthedevil.

"I thought it was a good draw for all of these fillies," Cox said. "Botanical and Wet Paint are in the middle of the gate, which is fine for both of them. The Alys Look is inside, but can work out a trip from there."

Southlawn (Pioneerof the Nile) (post four; 8-1) figures to receive plenty of tote support following a pair of visually impressive tallies for trainer Norm Casse this term, headed by a 3 1/4-length win over Pretty Mischief (Into Mischief) (post 14; 10-1) in the Fair Grounds Oaks.

"I think it's a perfect draw," Casse said. "I played baseball my entire life and I was No. 4. So, it's my lucky number."

Champion Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) (post five; 12-1), trained by Norm's father Mark Casse, looks to get back on track following a head-scratching sixth in the GI Central Bank Ashland Stakes at Keeneland.

The gone-too-soon Arrogate, responsible for last year's Oak's winner Secret Oath, will be represented by GII Gulfstream Park Oaks heroine Affirmative Lady (Arrogate) (post 13; 10-1) and GII Santa Anita Oaks runner-up And Tell Me Nolies (Arrogate) (post nine; 15-1).

The Oaks field also includes last out 20-1 Ashland S. upsetter Defining Purpose (Cross Traffic) (post 11; 12-1).

The 1 1/8-mile Kentucky Oaks serves as the highlight of Friday's 13-race program that begins at 10:30 a.m. The Oaks will go as the day’s 11th race with a 5:51 p.m. post time.

From the rail out, the complete field for the Kentucky Oaks with morning-line odds: 1-Mimi Kakushi (City of Lights) (20-1); 2-The Alys Look (Connect) (15-1); 3-Gambling Girl (Dialed In) (15-1); 4-Southlawn (Pioneerof the Nile) (8-1); 5-Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) (12-1); 6-Botanical (Medaglia d’Oro) (4-1); 7-Wet Paint (Blame) (5-2); 8-Promiseher America (American Pharoah) (30-1); 9-And Tell Me Nolies (Arrogate) (15-1); 10-Flying Connection (Nyquist) (15-1); 11-Defining Purpose (Cross Traffic) (12-1); 12-Dorth Vader (Girvin) (20-1); 13-Affirmative Lady (Arrogate) (10-1); 14-Pretty Mischief (Into Mischief) (10-1). Also-Eligibles: Taxed (Collected) (20-1); Julia Shining (Curlin) (15-1); and Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) (30-1).

HALF-MILE WORK FOR DISARM MONDAY

Winchell Thoroughbreds’ Disarm (Gun Runner) completed his major preparations for Saturday’s Grade I Kentucky Derby with a half-mile work in :49.20 (15/30) at Churchill Downs Monday.

With exercise rider Wilson Fabian in the saddle, Disarm was accompanied to the track by assistant trainer Scott Blasi aboard one pony, while trainer Steve Asmussen followed close behind on another.

Disarm completed an opening quarter-mile of :25 and was not asked to gallop out past the wire, which is typical in Asmussen’s works less than one week out of a race.

“We’ve been behind on his training going into the Road to the Kentucky Derby but he’s responded well with each task we’ve asked him to complete,” Asmussen said.

Disarm was second behind Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) in the Mar. 25 GII Louisiana Derby before earning his spot in the Derby starting gate with a third-place effort in the GII Stonestreet Lexington S. Apr. 15. He worked five furlongs in a bullet 1:00.00 at Churchill last Wednesday.
KENTUCKY DERBY 149 EARLY IMPRESSIONS: Ocala Stud's David O'Farrell on Forte

by Steve Sherack

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – TDN Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack catches up with the connections of leading GI Kentucky Derby contenders to get their ‘Early Impressions.’

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's champion 2-year-old colt and 'TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) will look to join Street Sense and Nyquist as GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winners to capture the roses the following spring.

The dark bay heads to the Kentucky Derby as the one to beat following impressive victories in this term's GII Fountain of Youth S. and GI Curlin Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park. A runaway debut winner going five furlongs at Belmont Park late last May, he concluded his juvenile campaign with three straight wins at the top level.

Forte learned his early lessons at Ocala Stud in Florida before heading to two-time Kentucky Derby winning-trainer Todd Pletcher last spring.

"He's the one that we identified early on as being the cream of the crop," Ocala Stud's David O'Farrell said.

"He was very forward. He was a horse that from day one was super athletic. We felt like he could be a really good 2-year-old and he had enough stretch that maybe he could be a two-turn horse. You just never really envisioned him as being the Derby favorite a year later, but anything is possible. He was a horse that never had a bad day. He was one of the first two that we sent in to Pletcher in March of last year to get ready for Saratoga. We felt like he was going to be really precocious and a horse that would be a lot of fun in the summertime for the partnership of Repole and St. Elias. He's one of those that not only did he perform as a 2-year-old, he just kept getting better and better and better."

A spokesperson at the Cleveland Clinic-South Pointe Hospital said Cedillo was initially brought in, but was sent on to the Metro Health Medical Center in Cleveland.

Cedillo started his career in 2021, riding 30 races without a win. In 2022 he had 70 winners from 509 starts, and has won 31 races so far this year, riding primarily at Thistledown. He is a native of Guatemala and is a cousin of jockey Abel Cedillo, who rides at Santa Anita.

Herbie Rivera Jr., the representative for the Jockeys' Guild in Ohio, said that Cedillo's agent, Luis Quinones, was at Metro Health Center with him.

Jockey agent Derek Lawson, who tried to persuade Cedillo to come to California to ride last year, described him as "a very nice young man. I tried to get him to come to California with the bug, and that never materialized because the people in Ohio wanted him to stay there. I got to speak to him quite a bit. He's a real good guy."

Spectacular Road appeared to be uninjured.
BELMONT PARK CONSTRUCTION LOAN PART OF FINALIZED NY BUDGET

The 2024 New York budget bills approved by Governor Kathy Hochul and the State Senate and Assembly and released to the public Monday includes authorization for the New York Racing Association to utilize a $455-million loan to build new Thoroughbred racing facilities at Belmont Park. With the state approval, NYRA plans construction of a new building that will completely replace the existing grandstand and clubhouse. The current 1.25-million sq foot structure, which was last renovated in 1968, will be replaced with a roughly 275,000-sq ft facility featuring modern amenities and hospitality offerings.

“The transformation of Belmont Park will secure the future of Thoroughbred racing in New York State, create thousands of good jobs and drive tourism to Long Island and the region for decades to come,” said NYRA President & CEO David O’Rourke. “We thank Gov. Hochul and our legislative leaders for recognizing the importance of this project to the countless New York families and small businesses reliant on a strong horse racing economy.”

Belmont Park | Horsephotos

The new Belmont grandstand will dramatically increase the amount of parkland available to fans throughout the year by expanding the current Belmont backyard, while new vehicular and pedestrian tunnels will allow access to the 45-acre Belmont infield for the first time. NYRA expects to also expand its ongoing campaign to modernize backstretch housing and barn area facilities throughout the property.

“NYRA is committed to building a world-class venue that honors the history and traditions of this iconic property within a modernized overall facility,” added O’Rourke. “We will deliver a revitalized Belmont Park that will reclaim its place as a global capital of Thoroughbred horse racing.”

According to an analysis performed by HR&A Advisors, the multi-year project to build a new Belmont Park will generate $1 billion in construction-related economic impact and create 3,700 construction-related jobs. Upon completion of the project, additional racing and non-racing activities at the new Belmont Park will generate $155 million in annual economic output, support 740 new full-time jobs, and produce $10 million in new state and local tax revenue per year.

The addition of a winterized building, paired with new racing surfaces and a synthetic track will result in a facility suitable to host Thoroughbred racing on a year-round basis. When completed, the redevelopment will allow for the 110 acres of state-owned land now occupied by Aqueduct Racetrack to be redeveloped. The Aqueduct parcel was recently appraised at a value of $1 billion.

NO MAS TEQUILA NAMED ’22 TEXAS HORSE OF THE YEAR

James Sills’s No Mas Tequila (Northern Afleet) was named the Texas Thoroughbred Association's 2022 Horse of the Year. The now 6-year-old mare, who amassed four wins on the grass last year, all in Texas-bred stakes races at Lone Star Park and Sam Houston Race Park, was also named the state's champion older filly or mare.

No Mas Tequila’s dam, Foxy Boss (Street Boss), was named the 2022 Texas Broodmare of the Year and her breeders, Ronald and Margaret Ellerbee, were named the Texas Thoroughbred Association’s 2022 Breeder of the Year.

Also honored as 2022 champions in Texas are: 2-Year-Old Filly: Come To The Party (Bradester); 2-Year-Old Colt/Gelding: Vietnam Victory (Klint); 3-Year-Old Filly: Texas Thunder (Bradester); 3-Year-Old Colt/Gelding: Lucky’s Special (Special Rate); and Older Horse: Mr Money Bags (Silver City).
Australian stakes-winning fillies and mares off the track are significantly less expensive than their equivalents in America (57%) and Europe (36%).

Named in honor of a furious late closer who often found himself very far out of contention early in his races, Silky Sullivan earned a spot in the American lexicon with his patented style, and the late runners—led by Hacking It Up—would do his memory justice, here.

Jumping from the gates and placed fifth, the eventual winner maintained his spot two off the fence into the backstretch and made up a fair bit of ground on the early leaders though the far bend. Four wide for the homeward drive, the George Papaprodromou trainee was closing with a full head of steam in the final stages and nailed Clovisconnection to win by a half-length. Cousin Richie came from next to last to take third and Happy Does (Southern Image) roared in from the very back to just miss hitting the board.

Hacking It Up swapped barns from Doug O’Neill to Papaprodromou after his fifth-place effort in a Del Mar statebred stakes last year, and returned to the winner’s circle in his seasonal bow Feb. 5 going a mile over Santa Anita’s turf against an optional-claiming field with first-time Lasix. A troubled fourth last out Mar. 3 against an open optional-claimer group at the venue going this distance, the winner Low Expectations (Nyquist) would go on to place second behind the ill-fated Wild On Ice (Tapizar) in the GIII Sunland Derby.

Hacking It Up is the flagbearer for dam Hacktivism, who is also responsible for placed Recalcitrant (Pavel) and a yearling colt by I’ll Have Another.

4th-Parx Racing, $59,650, Msw, 5-1, 2yo, 2f, :23.40, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

Factor U and Me In (c, 2, The Factor--You Betcha Babe, by Yes It’s True) came out running in this baby dash and the 6-1 shot managed to put 1 3/4 lengths on his rivals before cruising home in hand as Rebel Invasion (Normandy Invasion) came out on the better end of a photo for second. The Blackstone Farm homebred is the most recent to the races for You Betcha Babe, with a yearling half-sister by Demarchelier (GB) waiting in the wings. Factor U And Me In is cataloged to go through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-olds In Training sale as Hip 2. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $37,800. 9th-Parx Racing, $45,500, Msw, 5-1, 2yo, f, 4 1/2f, :54.83, ft, 1/2 length.

Living Magic (f, 2, Justify--Living The Life {Ire} {MGSW & GISP, $1,028,394}, by Footstepsinthesand {GB}) was outrun early after the jump, but loomed boldly coming three wide on the turn as she began to uncork a rally. Moving clear by the eighth pole, she put a comfortable margin on closing Troubled Dreams (World of Trouble) and won by a half-length. Out of an accomplished millionaire racemare, Living Magic is the second winner. She has a yearling full-brother and the dam visited both American Pharoah and Constitution for this season. Living The Life hails from the female family of course-record holder MGSP Step With Style (Gulch), who herself went on to produce GSP Firey Red (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and is the granddam of GSP Firey Speech (Street Cry {Ire}). This is also the family of MGSW Kool Kompany (Ire) (Jeremy). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

AIR ANEMOI (c, 4, Point of Entry--Nokaze, by Empire Maker) won on debut back in December 2021, but was well-beaten in his next three and was trying the dirt for the first time in this spot. Quickly into stride from a low draw, the homebred galloped his rivals at a sensible clip and, when confronted at the furlong grounds by fellow U.S.-bred Hana Kiri (Tapit), dug in resolutely to take it by a measured neck as the 16-5 second betting selection. The winner certainly has the right to transfer his turf form to the dirt, as he is a half-brother to Air Almas (Majestic Warrior), GSW-Jpn, $1,905,411; and Air Fanditha (Hat Trick [Jpn]), SW-Jpn, $958,319; as well as three-time winning full-brother Air Sage and debut winner Air Meteora (Goldencents). Air Anemoi is out of a winning half-sister to SW Yuzuru (Medaglia d’Oro), whose daughter Yuugiri (Shackleford) added this year’s Carousel S. to her victory in the 2022 GIII Fantasy S. Nokaze is the dam of a yearling filly by Gun Runner and foaled a full-sister to SW Yuzuru (Medaglia d’Oro), whose daughter Yuugiri (Shackleford) added this year’s Carousel S. to her victory in the 2022 GIII Fantasy S. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $120,276.

Saturday’s Results:

2nd-Tokyo, ¥10,480,000 ($76,232), Maiden, 3yo, 1600m, 1:37.1, ft.

WAYWARD ACT (c, 3, Maclean’s Music--Warrior Kat, by Majestic Warrior) took solid action for this debut run at just over 7-1 and was asked for some early speed from jockey Ryusei Sakai, shooting through to argue the pace while down along the inside before easing back into a stalking third into the turn. Content to take the kickback on the bend, he was produced three deep into the lane and kicked on powerfully to graduate by eight promising lengths. “He moved nicely warming up and his performance was better than I expected,” said winning rider Ryusei Sakai. “He has a fair bit of class and is a 3-year-old with a bright career ahead of him.” Produced by a half-sister to Willet (Jump Start), Wayward Act has a 2-year-old half-brother named Mugshot (World of Trouble) and a yearling half-brother by Maclean’s Music’s Grade I-winning son Complexity. Warrior Kat was most recently covered by Beau Liam. Sales history: $190,000 Wlg ’20 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $40,349.

IN JAPAN:

Santa Ana Tesoro (Jpn), f, 3, Speightstown--January Jones (Brz), by Shirocco (Ger). Niigata, 4-29, Maiden, 1000mT, :55.6. Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-2, $80,727. O-Kenji Ryotokuji Holdings; B-Ryoken Farm; T-Toru Kurita.

TAHIYRA ON COURSE FOR 1000 GUINEAS, SLIPOFTHEPEN RULED OUT OF 2000

By Brian Sheerin

Dermot Weld’s Tahiyra (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) features among the 22 confirmations for the Qipco 1000 Guineas on Sunday. However, the King and Queen Consort’s Slipofthepen (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) will not run in the 2000 Guineas on Saturday.

The John and Thady Gosden-trained colt was a 20-1 chance for the opening Classic of the season but did not feature among the 15 confirmations that featured the Aidan O’Brien-trained Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never).

Speaking on Nick Luck’s Daily Podcast, the King’s racing manager John Warren said, “I think we were all hoping for that to be the case [that Slipofthepen would run in the 2000 Guineas], especially because it would have been both the King and the Queen Consort’s first Classic runner.

“But I think once we pieced all the jigsaw together and really analysed his prospects, I think we thought it’s come a little bit too soon. He’s an inexperienced horse who is only just learning how to use his legs as fast as he needs to.

“He’s won two races on the all-weather impressively and John Gosden thinks he’s up to becoming a high-class performer, [but] when we added it all together we felt it would be kinder to the horse to give him a little bit more experience.”

AMERICAN OWNERS DREAMING OF ROYAL ASCOT WITH O’BRIEN’S DO IT WITH STYLE

By Brian Sheerin

Royal Ascot is calling for American owner Leonard Green and his son Jonathan after Do It With Style (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}), named after the family’s first Grade I winner from over 30 years ago, marked herself down as a top-notch prospect on debut for Donnacha O’Brien at the Curragh on Monday.

This is becoming a familiar success story for the Green family in Ireland who, frustrated with competing with the big guns in the sales ring back home in the States, decided to come up with a plan to concentrate on sourcing their talent elsewhere.

The link-up with O’Brien has been a natural fit and Jonathan Green is now planning a trip to the royal meeting with his family to see Do It With Style tackle the G3 Albany S. after Monday’s stylish victory.

FORTE FAVOURED FROM 15 IN KENTUCKY DERBY

Weld also told Nick Luck about how he was leaning towards running Tahiyra at Newmarket on Sunday. A general 7-2 chance for Classic glory, Tahiyra was a brilliant winner of the G1 Moyglare S. at the Curragh when last seen at two.

"We've left her in at the forfeit stage for the 1000 Guineas on Sunday and the present plan is that she will run," Weld said on Monday.

He added, "But we will make a definite decision later in the week--we'll see how she is. She's coming all the time and is a filly who hasn't really grown from two to three but I am happy. I think she has progressed nicely over the past two weeks and the present thought is that we'll let her take her chance."

O'Brien's Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never), who was beaten by Tahiyra in the Moyglare before landing the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, is also on course for Newmarket. She could be joined by Ballydoyle stablemate Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Green said, "This filly is actually named after our first Grade I winner in the States. We'd a Grade I winner called Do It With Style back in 1991 and we had been saving this name for the right kind of filly.

"When we bought this Ten Sovereigns filly, there was no discussion whatsoever, we knew she was the next one to have the Do It With Style moniker. I'm glad that she won but, internally, I'm really pleased that it looks as though she can carry the name on and hopefully be as successful as her previous namesake. That's the confidence that we had with her. If we're going to run this filly in the Albany, which I think is the plan, you will see us there in top hat and tails."

The Green family need no introduction to international racing fans. Their colours were carried to victory in the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies at Keeneland last November by Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief) and the hope is that Do It With Style will eventually continue her career in America. However, Jonathan is eyeing some big-race riches in Europe along with O’Brien before that happens.

He said, "It looks like she can go on to bigger and better things. We’d like to think that she has the scope and the physical ability to cope with running here [in America] but Donnacha is going to map out a campaign for her in Europe until she shows us when it’s time to possibly bring her over. We’ve had some success over the past few years with three-year-old fillies and won last year’s Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies on dirt with Wonder Wheel. Hopefully Do It With Style will come over here for the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf later in the year but a lot of things have to happen between now and then. The next big step will probably be Royal Ascot. That is what we are communicating about right now."

He added, "The most important thing for us was to buy a filly who we thought had some substance and athleticism and certainly, when Donnacha came to us with his shortlist of yearlings from the Orby Sale last year, she was at the top of our list. We stretched a little bit for her, spending over $200,000, but we really felt like she had the substance and the pedigree that we look for in a filly."

Do It With Style was picked up for €235,000 to be precise. She was sourced from Coulonces at the Goffs Orby last September when the dollar was trading particularly strong compared to the euro, which helped Green in his decision to stick his neck out for the filly.

"We’re businessmen by practice. My Dad [Leonard] was a CPA for over 50 years and I am a financial planner for 30 years. The dollar to euro ratio was certainly in our favour at the time. We look to spend somewhere between $150,000 to $175,000 for well-bred fillies. That's the lane that we feel comfortable in. We stretched a little bit for this filly but she really ticked all the boxes for us, both physically and on breeding."

The Greens had a multitude of different trainers to choose from when setting out to source fillies from Ireland. So, why Donnacha O'Brien?

"Donnacha is easy," comes the reply. "He is a young trainer who has been groomed by his Dad [Aidan] to be one of the best trainers in the country if not the world. When I interviewed him a few years ago, we just really hit it off. He's a hard-working guy and I love the fact that he has such great knowledge, not only from being around horses all of his life, but from being a top-class rider himself. I think that gives a trainer a tremendous amount of insight into how a horse is going and how it's doing."

He added, "It was a few years ago that we decided to look for other opportunities because the American market was extremely difficult to find a top horse. Unless you were willing to partner with some of the big farms, it really wasn't financially viable so we looked elsewhere. We sat down with Kim Valerio, who is our primary agent, and put together a game plan to try and buy some fillies overseas with the plan of bringing them over here. We've had some success. "Diabolic (Ire) was a Dark Angel (Ire) filly we bought in our first year and she did well. We also purchased Papillio (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) who just won a Grade 2 at Keeneland. And now with this filly, we feel like we have a pretty good game plan with picking out young fillies who can compete overseas and here in America."

Green admits that there is now heightened competition at the Goffs Orby Sale compared to when his family first dipped their toe in the Irish market but, through forging relationships with Coolmore and the O'Brien family, says he is hoping to continue to pick up a select amount of yearlings every year.

He said, "We felt like we were ahead of the curve three years ago by coming to Goffs and looking for our yearlings at the Orby Sale but, the last time we came over, there were 50 of us on the plane."

"People are recognising that there is tremendous value in Ireland and we love the fact that we have the opportunity to buy these fillies at Goffs or privately from the Magnier family and working with the O'Briens. Especially at Goffs, they look after us so well and roll out the red carpet every time we arrive. Charles O'Neil [CEO of Irish Thoroughbred Marketing] certainly makes us feel very comfortable there and we always love coming over to Goffs."

FAMILY FORTUNES

by Tom Frary

Monday’s Curragh card became the latest celebration of the wizardry of O’Brien Senior and Juniors, with all four black-type races and the opening juvenile maiden going the way of either Aidan, Joseph or Donnacha. In the feature G2 Coolmore Stud Sottsass Irish EBF Mooresbridge S., in which the Ballydoyle bigwig Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) was making his seasonal reappearance, it was not Rosegreen but Owning Hill who held the upper hand as the well-tried Visualisation (Ire) (No Nay Never) delivered a career-best under a perfectly-judged front-running ride from Declan McDonogh.

Sent off at 12-1 having won the Listed Devoy S. at Naas in March and been undone by Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia (GB)) in the G3 Alleged S. over this 10-furlong trip and track last month, Harold John Millar’s 5-year-old who had been third to Lafayette (IRE) (French Navy (GB)) in this 12 months ago dictated and dug deep to beat that rival by 1 1/2 lengths as the 10-11 favourite Luxembourg finished a non-threatening fifth.

“The horse loves soft, tacky, ground,” O’Brien said of the winner. “He was third in this last year on goodish ground. He missed most of last season after a hold-up, but he’s come back in real good shape this season. Declan said that he felt he moved a bit early on him the last day and he was going to move a bit later today. He said his kick lasted him until 100 yards from the line last time and that he was going to wait an extra 100 yards today. Wherever he goes, the ground will have to have soft in the description.”

GODOLPHIN’S TRIBALIST DOMINATES SAINT-CLOUD FEATURE

by Sean Cronin

Godolphin’s Tribalist (GB) (Farhh (GB)--Fair Daughter (GB), by Nathaniel (IRE)), who hit the board in last term’s G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains, took care of business in Saint-Cloud’s G3 Prix Edmond Blanc on seasonal return last month and revisited the Parisian venue to dominate Monday’s G2 Prix du Mouget.

The 27-10 second choice broke smartly from the inside stall to gain early control and held a two-length advantage into the home straight. Untroubled throughout, he was shaken up with 300 metres remaining and ridden out inside the final furlong to easily hold the late threat of familiar rival Facteur Cheval (IRE).

HONEY GIRL TAKES THE ATHASI

by Tom Frary

Having belatedly broken her maiden for the Joseph O’Brien stable at The Curragh in March, Tim Porter’s Honey Girl (GB) (Mayson GB) upped her game to double her tally in style in Monday’s G3 Coolmore Stud Circus Maximus Irish EBF Athasi S. over the same track and seven-furlong trip. Always in her comfort zone tracking the leading trio, the 4-1 shot was sent to the front passing the furlong marker and surged clear to record an emphatic 3 1/2-length success from stablemate Agartha (Ire) (Caravaggio).

“She’s an exciting filly for the future,” Joseph commented. “We don’t have anything immediately in mind, but her owners are Australian and they are going to Royal Ascot so there is a fair chance she’ll turn up there somewhere but she’ll probably be at her best in the spring and autumn when she has a bit of juice in the ground. Dylan gets a nice tune out of her, she had been awkward and quite tricky in the stalls.”

GREENLAND PREVAILS IN GREFFULHE THRILLER

Aidan O’Brien trainee Greenland (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}--Aktoria {Fr}, by Canford Cliffs {Ire}) lined up for Monday’s G3 Prix Greffulhe coming back off a third in last month’s G3 Prix La Force at ParisLongchamp and dipped into deep reserves to prevail in a thrilling finish to the 10 1/2-furlong test. Cont. p9

He had concluded a five-race juvenile campaign with a fourth in Newmarket’s Sept. 24 G2 Royal Lodge S. in his penultimate start and stalked the pace in second for the most part. Readied for his challenge passing the quarter-mile marker, he joined long-time leader Harry Way (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) approaching the final furlong and was driven out to deny that tenacious opponent by a nose in a nip-and-tuck tussle.

“He is a physically imposing colt who, gave me a great feeling going to post on the dirt surface,” said winning rider Christophe Soumillon. “It wasn’t easy on that very soft ground today, which is why I didn’t want to come too late and I anticipated the move early in the straight. He will come on for that and no doubt that he will be among the favourites for the [G1 Prix du] Jockey Club.” Coolmore representative Hermine Bastide added, “We are very happy to win as it is quite important for Saxon Warrior. Soft ground is not what he prefers and, all being well, he will come back to France for the Prix du Jockey Club.”

MR HOLLYWOOD STARS IN MUNICH’S

BAVARIAN CLASSIC by Sean Cronin

Wanja Soren Oberhof and Sebastian Weiss’s Mr Hollywood (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}) -- Margie’s Music (Fr), by Hurricane Run (Ire)) provided evidence of above-average ability when streaking to a 16-length triumph, and ‘TDN Rising Stardom’, in his Apr. 2 debut at Mulheim last time and photobombed the G1 Deutsches Derby picture with a decisive success in Monday's G3 Wettstar.de - Bavarian Classic at Munich.

Positioned off the clear leader in fifth until turning for home in this 10-furlong contest, the 2-1 joint-favourite powered forward in the straight to lead approaching the final furlong and, despite rolling around in front, kept on strongly in the closing stages to account for G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen victor and market rival Alpenjager (Ger) (Nutan {Ire}) by three lengths in taking fashion. Last year’s G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten hero Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), hitherto undefeated, finished 4 1/2 lengths adrift in third.

“it is usually a very difficult race to win, but not with him as he is such a fast horse on this ground,” winning rider Lukas Delozier told GallopOnline. “He was very green today, in every way, but he coped well with the softened ground. This is a good track, he is sure to improve for his next start and I think he is good enough for the [Deutsches] Derby.” Trainer Henk Grewe added, “He had worked very well at home [in Cologne] and we were expecting him to run well under the given circumstances, but working and racing can differ a great deal. He is sure to have learned a lot and will improve.” Connections indicated Germany’s premier Derby trial, the [June 11] G2 Union-Rennen [at Cologne], is next on the agenda.

Reigning champion 2-year-old male Vero Atleta stormed down the centre of the course at the Cappannelle Monday afternoon and easily stamped his authority on the Parioli, leading home the commonly owned Amabile.

With Frankie Dettori taking the ride for the first time, Vero Atleta jumped fairly and settled in about mid-division while racing about three or four away from the inside over rain-affected ground. Held together into the long straight, the chestnut was felt for inside the 600 metres, struck to the front a quarter-mile out and came away to score convincingly.

A half-sister to 2019 G2 Derby Italiano hero Keep On Fly, Shavansana ran her career unbeaten streak to five in the Regina Elena, completing a Italian Guineas double for her sire.

Having jetted in from Hong Kong after partnering with a pair of Japanese gallopers on the Champions Day program at Sha Tin on Sunday, Cristian Demuro settled a tugging Shavansana in second position within a couple of lengths of the Frankie Dettori-ridden favourite Aquila Reale. Shavansana traveled strongly into the final 600 metres, was asked for her best entering the final two furlongs and edged clear. Cont. p12

DAYTONA SEA SNAGS RISING STAR TAG IN HANNOVER

Gestut Ittlingen’s well-regarded G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) entry Daytona Sea (GB) (Sea The Moon (Ger)--Daytona (GB), by Motivator (GB)) was usurped at the tills for Monday’s Primetec-Pokal at Hannover, but was unmatched in the 11-furlong contest and powered to ‘TDN Rising Stardom’ with an impressive debut triumph. She was rousted from the gates to occupy a slot along the rail in a handy third for the most part. Improving one spot off the home turn, the 29-10 second choice swooped for control approaching the final furlong and was ridden clear in the closing stages to easily outclass Ultima (Ger) (Amaron (GB)) by an impressive 3 3/4 lengths.

“I was expecting her feature to prominently, like she does in her work, but I did not anticipate she would win so easily,” trainer Markus Klug told GaloppOnline. “Her next run could be at Hamburg [in the July 2 G3 Mehl Mulhens Trophy].”

Daytona Sea, half to the unraced 2-year-old filly Dua Lina (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)), becomes the third winner from as many runners for G3 Hamburger Stutenpreis victrix Daytona Bay (GB) (Motivator (GB)), herself kin to G3 La Coupe winner Dallas Affair (GB) (Soldier Hollow (GB)) and the stakes-placed Diamond Daisy (Ger) (Shirocco (Ger)). The April-foaled bay’s multiple stakes-winning second dam Daytona (Ger) (Lando (Ger)) is a full-sister to G1 Deutschland-Preis hero Donaldson (Ger) and to the dam of G3 Preis der Winterkonigin victrix and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Diamond Dove (Ger) (Dr Fong).

Howden Steps in as Major Sponsor of Guineas Festival

Insurance broker Howden has extended its backing of British racing with mass sponsorship at this weekend’s Guineas meeting at Newmarket. While QIPCO retains the sponsorship of the first two Classics of the season, the 2,000 and 1,000 Guineas, the Howden name is now attached to 13 races across the Saturday and Sunday of the three-day fixture that kicks off the QIPCO British Champions Series. These include the G2 Howden Dahlia S. and G3 Howden Palace House S.

David Howden, who was profiled last year in TDN, is the founder of the global insurance group that bears his name and has a growing presence in the racing world as both owner and breeder. His company has a five-year deal as an official partner of Royal Ascot and it was also recently announced that Frankie Dettori would be a brand ambassador for Howden in the jockey’s final year of race-riding.

“We are thrilled to have the opportunity to partner with The Jockey Club for The QIPCO Guineas Festival,” said David Howden, who is also the company’s chief executive. “The excitement of top-class juvenile horses making their debuts, alongside the return of some of last year’s stars, is always eagerly anticipated. And there are few races more prestigious in the British racing calendar than the QIPCO 1000 and 2000 Guineas. This sponsorship further enables Howden to build on our equine industry relationships, and continue our support of racing and its stakeholders.”

Sophie Able, manager and international director of Newmarket Racecourses, added, “The team at Newmarket Racecourses is delighted to be partnering with a brand of Howden’s standing and commitment to British racing for our premier fixture of the year.

“We are counting down the final days to what should be a historic QIPCO Guineas Festival with the Coronation of King Charles III and some of exceptional Flat racing, and we look forward to working with our partners at Howden next weekend.”

Richard Aston, co-owner of Goldford Stud and one of the leading lights of the National Hunt breeding scene, died on Saturday at the age of 68 after recently being diagnosed with cancer.

A former amateur rider over jumps, Aston was also chairman of Bangor-on-Dee racecourse and previously a director of its neighbouring Chester racecourse for eight years. Among his many roles within the bloodstock industry, he was a former member of the TBA’s National Hunt Committee and one of the driving forces behind the popular TBA National Hunt Foal Show.

David Futter of Yorton Stud, who worked closely with Aston on the National Hunt Committee, said on Monday, “Richard was a great ally to me, and a friend and confidant. I used to pick his brains and ask for his advice when I was buying stallions. He has been a big part of my life over the last 20 years and it’s extremely sad.”

He added, “He was integral to the foal show. If it wasn’t for Richard getting it organised and staging it at Bangor we would never have got it off the ground. He’s been a great supporter of National Hunt breeding and very successful at it, and he’s been taken well before his time.”

Broadcaster Nick Luck was also heavily involved with the TBA National Hunt Foal Show over the years, both as breeder and master of ceremonies, and he paid tribute to Aston on his Nick Luck Daily podcast, describing him as “a man of great knowledge, great humility, great humour, and enormous wisdom and insight.”

Leading National Hunt bloodstock agent David Minton also shared his thoughts on his friend on the podcast in conversation with Luck. He said, “[Richard] was a wonderful person. I’ve known him all my life really, as my father used to ride his grandfather’s point-to-pointers.

“He was a very competent horseman in his own right. He rode winners and then commented a bit, and then of course he set up Goldford Stud with Sally, which has become a tower of strength in the National Hunt business, both at Doncaster and at the Derby Sale, which they topped regularly.”

The Astons’ hugely successful Goldford Stud in Cheshire has been the birthplace of a raft of decent jumpers, including Cue Card (GB) and, more recently, this season’s Morebattle Hurdle winner Benson (GB). Though more readily associated with the National Hunt sphere, Goldford has also featured prominently at Flat sales and is home to mares owned by Allan Belshaw, breeder of G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Newspaperofrecord (Ire). In 2021, Goldford Stud sold her dam Sunday Times (GB) on Belshaw’s behalf to Coolmore for 1.8 million gns, making her the third-top lot of the Tattersalls December Mares’ Sale.

Richard Aston is survived by his wife Sally and son Charlie, to whom we extend our sincere condolences.

Maintaining the Ballydoyle momentum at The Curragh on Monday, TDN Rising Star Paddington justified favouritism with a degree of comfort to point the way to the upcoming mile Classics. Coming off a win in the Madrid Handicap at Naas, the bay who was bred and raised at Monceaux for the Wildenstein tracked the leading pair up to a mile for the first time. Coaxed to the front by Seamie Heffernan two out, he was challenged by stablemate Drumroll but stretched away from that full-brother to Saxon Warrior (Jpn) to score with something in hand.

According to Aidan O’Brien, Paddington could now follow the route of the stable’s famous son of Siyouni, St Mark’s Basilica (Fr). “He’d have the option of going to the French Guineas or the Irish Guineas and then he could end up being a French Derby horse after that,” he said. “He handles the ground well, he’s by Siyouni out of a Montjeu mare so should handle it on both sides.”

Four withdrawals marred this opening black-type test for the juveniles, with the winners and likely favourites Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Noche Magica (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) among them, resulting in the bizarre circumstance of just five runners with two outings between them. In the event, it was the three newcomers who filled the frame with Ballydoyle’s His Majesty coming out on top to provide the stable with back-to-back renewals. Looking set to play a bit-part at best when caught flat-footed two out, the bay picked up for Seamie Heffernan’s whip to head the Adrian Murray-trained Valiant Force inside the final 50 yards.

“He did it lovely, he’s a lovely big sleepy horse,” Aidan O’Brien said. “Seamus said he had loads of speed but he was relaxed, he said when he clicked he found plenty. He’s like a four-year-old, a big mature horse. You always try to get two runs before Ascot, but it’s hard enough to do it here because there aren’t many races.”

Czabo, who was successful in the G3 Park Express S. and Listed Prix des Lilas, produced as her first foal the useful Coill Avon (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) who beat St Mark’s Basilica (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in a maiden here three years ago. DO IT WITH STYLE (IRE) (f, 2, Ten Sovereigns [IRE]--Sodashy [IRE], by Noverre), the 3-1 second favourite, was reserved with one behind early after a smart break. Making steady headway down the outer, the bay overhauled Ocean Baroque (IRE) (Caravaggio) inside the final 100 yards en route to a length success to provide Coolmore’s first-season sire (by No Nay Never) with his second winner. On a day when the O’Briens ruled the roost once again, Donnacha was enjoying his slice of the pie. “We thought she was smart. I was a little bit worried about the ground, as she’ll be better on better ground, but it was nice to see her do that,” he said. “I’ll speak to the owners and we’ll see, but I suppose the [G3] Albany could definitely be an option. Usually on that track when it pans out like that, it’s a big disadvantage to be away from the rail and she was a bit green but Gavin gave her a nice ride.” The dam, who also has a yearling full-brother to the winner, has produced the Listed Prix Francois Mathet and Peach Street S. winner and GII Dinner Party S. runner-up Talk Or Listen (Ire) (Alhebayeb {Ire}) and the Listed Windsor Castle S. runner-up Roussel (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). 625K CAPITALIST COLT TOPS INGLIS WEANLINGS

$625,000 Captivist Colt Sales Topper | Inglis

by Oz Wedmore

The first day of the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale ended with a $625,000 top lot from the Ashleigh Thoroughbreds Dispersal, with the brother to Captivant heading to a Newgate Farm-led partnership.

At A Glance:
• At the end of trade on Day 1 of the sale, the aggregate stood at $7,929,000, down from last year's gross of $8,650,000, whilst it was $8,643,000 in 2021, when there was only one session of weanlings.
• At $30,000, the median held steady against the 2022 figure, which was up from $24,000 in 2021.
• At the close of trade, 156 horses had changed hands at a clearance rate of 71 per cent. At the same point last year that figure stood at 74 per cent.
• The top lot, a joint-top in the sale’s history, was a $625,000 Capitalist colt, a brother to Kia Ora's young sire Captivant. He was secured from the Ashleigh Thoroughbreds Dispersal by a Newgate-led partnership, the same team which raced his older brother.
• The sires were led on average (with three or more sold) by Newgate Farm’s Capitalist, which had five sell at a rate of $193,800 apiece. With first-season sire representation spread around after Day 1, Vinery Stud’s Ole Kirk led those with two or more to sell with an average of $117,500.

• The dispersal of Ashleigh Thoroughbreds left them as leading vendors with 12 sold at the end of Day 1 for a total of $1,360,000. Tyreel Stud led the vendors on average (with three or more sold), with a figure of $124,000 for four sold.
• Following the Newgate partnership, the combination of Sledmere Stud and Cangon Stud Farm led the buyers, spending $324,000 on four weanlings.

Hutch adds perspective

In the wake of a yearling market which saw a correction in the middle and lower sections, Inglis Bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch was satisfied with the results from the first day of the sale, as the averages remained similar and a slight dip in the clearance rate was reflected in a lower aggregate figure.

“The reality is, the figures reflect a sale where there was good demand for quality stock with the physical and pedigree criteria that buyers, particularly pinhookers, desire,” Hutch said. “It was certainly more difficult outside of those horses, but by the same token the clearance rate is fairly consistent with what was a fantastic sale last year. There’s a lot to be positive about while recognising the fact that the market has its challenges.”

Hailing the sale-topper as his true highlight of the day, Hutch labelled the brother to Captivant “a pretty special horse.”

“Really, it was an honour to be asked to disperse that draft for Senga Bissett and Ivan Woodford-Smith, not because that horse was going to be part of the draft, but they’ve been fantastic breeders in the Hunter Valley for a long time.”
Ashleigh sign off in style

Last year’s sale-topper, a $400,000 half-sister to Group 2 winner Fiesta (I Am Invincible) by Pierro, was eclipsed late in the day on Monday when China Horse Club, Newgate Farm, Go Bloodstock and Trilogy Racing refused to budge on the brother to Newgate’s young sire Captivant.

Knocked down to their partnership for $625,000, the son of Capitalist becomes the most expensive colt ever sold at this sale, joining a filly at the same price, and provided a show-stopping sign off for Senga Bissett and Ivan Woodford-Smith’s dispersing Ashleigh Thoroughbreds.

“That was a really great result, I couldn’t be happier,” Bissett said. “I didn’t expect that much, it’s just so exciting. The horse has just been an absolute superstar all week, he’s a beautiful colt and I just hope he goes on and does a good job for Henry and the team.”

“I wasn’t expecting that price, I really was hoping for $450,000, possibly $500,000 but nothing like that.”

Asked if it’s been an emotional week, Bissett added: “Yes, but I’ve been so busy, it makes you not dwell on those things. I’ve never been busier... Parades, it was about 130 per horse over the few days.”

A rare purchase for Newgate-led partnership

Whilst Captivant now stands at Kia Ora, the Newgate-led partnership which raced him still own a share in him, and Henry Field was buoyed by their involvement in the sire, happy to secure his younger brother to race earlier than he might otherwise have been offered.

“I thought he was a very special colt,” Field said. “It’s not something we do that often, to buy a weanling colt for our racing syndicates, very rarely, but when a special one comes up you’ve got to look at them and take them seriously and he was very special.

“We are very pleased to get him, and we were determined to get him. We thought it was a very fair price—we paid $550,000 for Captivant and thought this horse was at least the equal if not better... and the mare’s been a great producer since that point in time.”
