KENTUCKY DERBY REPORT:
TUESDAY'S TRIO OF BREEZERS BRING THE MORNING 'THUNDER'

Derma Sotogake | Sherackatthetrack

by Steve Sherack
LOUISVILLE, Ky.-- A trio of GI Kentucky Derby workers enjoyed the spotlight during training hours on a brisk Tuesday morning beneath the Twin Spires.

Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits) was hard held beneath Masatoshi Segawa and ready to do much more as he hit the top of the stretch. He finished up strongly once let loose down the lane and completed his four-furlong breeze in :49.60 (13/20). The G2 UAE Derby winner will be ridden in the Kentucky Derby by Christophe Lemaire.

His countrymate Mandarin Hero (Jpn) (Shanghai Bobby), a fantastic second beaten just a nose in the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby in his U.S. debut and currently on the outside looking in on the Kentucky Derby also-eligible list, worked five furlongs in a leisurely 1:05.60 (15/15). He will target the second leg of the Triple Crown if unable to secure a spot in the Derby.

The blinkered Sun Thunder (Into Mischief) also breezed during the 15-minute training window reserved for Kentucky Derby and Oaks horses as temperatures hovered in the mid-40s just after 7:30 a.m. Cont. p3

TWO PHIL'S CARRIES THE FLAG FOR HIS CHICAGO HOME TEAM by Katie Petrunyak

This week, Larry Rivelli is counting himself lucky in more ways than one. Before this year, he had never seriously considered ever running a horse in the Kentucky Derby, but here he is now in Barn 1 at Churchill Downs with a 12-1 morning-line contender. After training for more than two decades, Rivelli is sharing his first Derby journey with an ownership group that he calls family.

Two Phil's (Hard Spun), the winner of the Gill Jeff Ruby Steaks and a seasoned veteran among the Derby contenders with eight lifetime starts, is owned by a collection of Chicagans who, like Rivelli, are hoping to make their hometown proud.

“I believe War Emblem was the last horse from Chicago to run in the Derby and win,” said Rivelli, who followed in the footsteps of his grandfather and uncle by basing his stable in Chicago. “That's as far as I can remember in 20-some years of doing this. Back home, all my friends and owners and trainers are sending me texts saying, 'We're behind you Riv! Get the money!'”

LAUREL ‘TWEAKS’ QUELL SAFETY CONCERNS
Concerns over the safety of the troubled main dirt track at Laurel Park have quieted since racing was halted there Apr. 21-28.

The GI Blue Grass S. fourth-place finisher worked a "maintenance half-mile" beneath jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. in :47.80 (3/20). Trainer Ken McPeek’s best result from eight previous Kentucky Derby starters was a second-place finish with Tejano Run in 1995.

As for Tuesday’s Derby gallopers, a pair of grays made their presence felt on the sunsplashed backstretch. ‘TDN Rising Star’ and $1.3-million KEESEP yearling purchase Tapit Trice (Tapit) immediately caught the eye as trainer Todd Pletcher watched his three Derby runners train near the chute.

Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}) also made a very favorable impression for trainer Brad Cox galloping powerfully with his neck arched.

The Pletcher barn was the place to be afterwards as champion 2-year-old colt and ‘Rising Star’ Forte (Violence), the unbeaten Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) and the aforementioned Tapit Trice got cleaned up following their routine 1 3/8-mile gallops.

Forte co-owner Mike Repole, sporting an Uncle Mo jacket, of course, was among a very large group of admirers lined up to get a closer look at the Kentucky Derby morning-line favorite as training hours began to wind down.

Two Phil’s Carries Flag for Home Team

“We’ve been on a zillion podcasts and articles in Chicago, so hopefully we can represent well. I think we will,” Rivelli said. The first Phil that Two Phil’s is named after is his co-owner and breeder Phillip Sagan, an advertising executive in Bloomingdale who is still relatively new to the Thoroughbred breeding business. The second Phil represents the father of the Sagans’ family friend Jerry La Sala. Once a Chicago-based jockey, La Sala played a role in the decision to mate Sagan’s mare Mia Torri (General Quarters) with Hard Spun.

Sagan co-owns Two Phil’s with Patricia’s Hope LLC, a longtime Rivelli client with strong ties to Chicago. Vince Foglia Sr. founded the medical devise company Sage Products, which is based just outside of Chicago. Later with his wife Pat, he established a nonprofit outreach called The Foglia Foundation in their home city. Their son Vinnie got connected with Rivelli years ago and the rest is history.

“The Foglias are like family to me,” said Rivelli. “Vinnie is like a brother to me. We bought houses close to each other. We golf all the time. His mother Patricia and his father Vince are fantastic people.”

“We’re all Italian and we’ve kind of got a whole vibe going on,” Rivelli added with a laugh. “It’s a really great relationship to actually do something like this with a friend. It’s like I’m happier for him than I am for me and I think vice versa. They’re the same way. They’re great people and I’m just fortunate to be a part of their lives.”

While Two Phil’s is now a serious Derby contender, he was once a horse that slipped through the cracks in the sales ring. He was a $150,000 RNA at Keeneland September and he failed to garner much interest the following spring at OBS. The Sagans decided to send the colt to Rivelli, hoping that the conditioner could get a win on his record as a juvenile and they could find a buyer from there.

At first, Rivelli did not know what to make of the big chestnut.

“My earliest memory was the first or second day that I got him,” he recalled. “We know this now, but from 10:30 to 11:30 every morning, he sleeps. It doesn’t matter what’s going on. There could be a circus in town and he just loves to sleep. Other horses walking by, blacksmiths banging shoes, it doesn’t matter. That’s my first memory of the horse.”

Rivelli’s second memory of Two Phil’s was the first time he worked in company and easily bested some of the more talented horses in the Rivelli stable.

When Rivelli realized the colt’s potential, he reached out to the Foglias in the hopes that he could keep the horse in his barn. It was an easy sell. Patricia’s Hope purchased 80% ownership, with the Sagans staying in for a piece and later selling 10% of their share to Madaket Stables.

While Two Phil’s has never actually raced in Illinois, he has trained out of Rivelli’s barn at Hawthorne Park and shipped to six different tracks, collecting four wins and two more placings from eight career starts. Rivelli decided to keep the same routine for the Derby, with Two Phil’s putting in his final five-furlong prep in :59 flat Mar 27. at Hawthorne before heading to Churchill Downs on Sunday.
“We stayed home as long as I could,” his conditioner noted. “I had no issues with him because he ran on this track before and won on it, so I was confident that there would be no guessing about if he liked the track.”

Rivelli will readily admit that, while Two Phil’s is already a winner at Churchill, having claimed the GIII Street Sense S. last October, the big question surrounding the colt is about just how strong his affinity for synthetic might be. His 101 Beyer Speed Figure at Turfway Park in the Jeff Ruby, which is the biggest number among the Derby contenders, is 13 Beyer points higher than his second-best figure from a second-place finish in the GIII Lecomte S. in January.

“The Jeff Ruby was the most impressive race to me by far,” said Rivelli. “If he can emulate that race, I think he'll win. He has a race over this track in the mud and won. There was less competition in that race—not a Forte (Violence) or horses like that—but he couldn't be going into this race any better and that's all we can ask for.”

With Jareth Loveberry aboard (read more on that from Chris McGrath here), Two Phil’s drew the number three post position for Saturday’s race.

Rivelli has taken four horses to the Breeders’ Cup, bringing home three fourth-place finishes and a fifth, but the Derby never seemed like a realistic dream for the conditioner. Even after the Jeff Ruby Steaks victory, Rivelli said he tried his best to tamp down his Derby dreaming.

“We don’t normally point for the Derby because of the type of horses that we’ve had,” he explained. “But as a horse trainer, it’s like you’re a football player and you always want to go to the Super Bowl. It’s the ultimate goal. Two weeks ago, everyone is saying ‘Congratulations! You made it to the Derby!’ But I would tell them that we didn’t make it yet. I know a lot can happen.”

Now that Derby week is well underway and the Two Phil’s contingent is in Louisville, the dream is starting to become a reality for Rivelli as he represents his grandfather and uncle who went before him, his fellow Chicago horsemen back home and, perhaps in some ways, his beloved Arlington Park, where he won nine training titles before it closed two years ago.

KENTUCKY DERBY 149: EARLY IMPRESSIONS
WITH ALBAUGH FAMILY STABLE'S JASON LOUTSCH

Angel of Empire at KEESEP | ThoroStride

by Steve Sherack

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – TDN Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack catches up with the connections of leading GI Kentucky Derby contenders to get their 'Early Impressions.'

Albaugh Family Stables purchased a total of nine yearlings either alone or in partnership out of the 2021 Keeneland September Sale for a total of $3.37 million. Two of them have made the 20-horse field for the Kentucky Derby and a third will need a scratch to draw into the body of the field.

Angel of Empire (Classic Empire) punched his ticket to Louisville following consecutive come-from-behind wins for trainer Brad Cox in the GII Risen Star S. and GI Arkansas Derby. The bay, listed at 8-1 on the morning-line for the Kentucky Derby, earned a career-high 94 Beyer Speed Figure in the latter. Bred in Pennsylvania by Forgotten Land Investment Inc. and Black Diamond Equine Corp., Angel of Empire brought just $70,000 from Dennis Albaugh's operation during the eighth session at KEESEP. He previously RNA'd for $32,000 as a KEENOV weanling.

“When we got done with Books 1 and 2, we were headed home and I just felt like I wanted to add one or two more colts,” said Albaugh’s son-in-law and the stable’s general manager Jason Loutsch.

“It’s a numbers game and I just kept sorting through the books trying to find something that pedigree-wise met all of our criteria. Being a Pennsylvania-bred by a young sire with first runners, I thought that we could get him for a good price in Book 4 or 5. Obviously, I wasn't expecting this to be the one to get us to where we’re at today. But he was a great physical and we said, 'Hey, let's take a chance.'
He continued, “There’s a lot of luck involved in this game. We typically don’t buy horses in Books 4 and 5. But it just shows you the reason you do is because you never know where they’re gonna come from. We were trying to offset our average a little bit and get our numbers up and that’s the way we did it.”

The operation knows Angel of Empire’s young sire all too well. Classic Empire (Pioneerofthe Nile) defeated the Albaugh family’s Not This Time (Giant’s Causeway) in dramatic fashion by a painful neck in the 2016 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita. Subsequently retired to Taylor Made Stallions, Not This Time is already the sire of four Grade/Group 1 winners, including last year’s champion 3-year-old colt Epicenter.

“Boy, down the stretch it was a heck of a race,” Loutsch reflected. “We thought we were gonna get there and were just a neck short. That was a stinger. Unfortunately, he came out of race with a soft tissue issue and we had to retire him. It was a tough weekend all around. But it’s come full circle. Not This Time has had some unbelievable success in the stallion barn and Classic Empire is paying us back a little bit by saying, ‘Hey, I’m gonna get you a Derby horse.’"

Angel of Empire, the first foal out of the To Honor and Serve mare Armony’s Angel, is one of four graded winners for Ashford Stud sire Classic Empire.

Cyclone Mischief (Into Mischief), a $450,000 KEESEP purchase by Albaugh Family Stables and Castleton Lyons, is one of three also-eligibles entered in the Derby. Trained by Dale Romans, he was third behind champion Forte (Violence) in his last two attempts, including the GI Curlin Florida Derby. Bred in Kentucky by Castleton Lyons and Kilboy Estate, Cyclone Mischief is out of the Bernardini mare Areyoucominghere.

Albaugh Family Stables has had three previous Kentucky Derby starters--Brody’s Cause (seventh in 2016), J Boys Echo (15th in 2017) and Free Drop Billy (16th in 2018).

“My father-in-law Dennis came to us in 2014 and said that we’re gonna start going to the sales and try to buy 10-15 colts every year and the goal is the Kentucky Derby,” Loutsch said. “The Taylor Made boys are good friends of mine and helped me come up with a plan to succeed, starting with helping me find a great guy on the sale’s grounds in Barry Berkelhammer. He is tremendous. He inspects them all with me and also breaks them at his AbraCadabra Farms. We’ve developed a system through pedigree and heart scans and try to find horses that we think can get the distance. We feel like it works. I give my team a lot of credit.”

He concluded, “We’re real excited for the Saturday in May.”

NO CHANGE TO CEDILLO’S CONDITION

Jockey Mauro Cedillo remains in intensive care on a ventilator in Cleveland’s Metro Health Medical Center after a horrifying spill in the first race at Thistledown Monday, according to his agent, Luis Quinones, who spoke to the TDN Tuesday morning.

Cedillo was thrown from his mount, Spectacular Road, when the horse stumbled entering the turn. The 24-year-old native of Guatemala was trampled by one or more trailing horses.

“It’s the same as yesterday,” said Quinones, himself a successful jockey who won the George Woolf Memorial Award in 2020. “The doctor didn’t say anything else. They’ve got him on a ventilator. He has some leg movement. His fiancee was there with him and his uncle was there. They’re only allowing two people in at a time. He’s in the ICU, and I’m going to go see him again today.”

Quinones said he expected to have an update on Cedillo’s condition after doctors performed tests later Tuesday.

“The doctors can’t really tell us much now, except to say that he is alive and on the ventilator,” Quinones said. [Monday night] they said that tomorrow they would know more, because of the impact and everything. They were talking to his uncle, and they don’t want to tell him he’s going to be okay, in case something goes south, but they say his vitals and everything is looking the right way. He has no internal bleeding, or anything like that. They want to check him today. It’s too early to say much, but he’s breathing.”
A popular and well-liked rider on the Ohio circuit, Cedillo has had 31 wins from 252 mounts in 2023, after being the leading rider at Mahoning Valley at the fall meet in 2022. His cousin is Abel Cedillo, who rides in Southern California.

After the accident Monday, the Thistledown jockey colony elected to cancel the remaining races on the card. Cedillo was initially transported to the nearby Cleveland Clinic-South Pointe Hospital, but was quickly airlifted to Metro Health.

LAUREL 'TWEAKS' HAVE QUELLED TRACK SAFETY CONCERNS by T.D. Thornton

Concerns over the safety of the troubled main dirt track at Laurel Park have quieted since racing was halted there Apr. 21-28. Mike Rogers, the president of the racing division for 1/ST Racing, which owns both Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course, told the Maryland Racing Commission (MRC) Tuesday that several “tweaks” to the maintenance routine represent the only significant changes to the surface since racing resumed Apr. 29.

The tone was noticeably less tense and in-person attendance was diminished during the MRC’s regular monthly meeting at Laurel May 2. Those dynamics stood in contrast to when the commission met one week previously on Apr. 25 for an emergency session to address five recent main-track equine fatalities at Laurel, including two that occurred there Apr. 20.

Last week, the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association (MTHA) and the management team at 1/ST Racing announced an “access agreement” that allowed for the MTHA’s preferred track maintenance consultant, John Passero, to be retained to perform testing. Passero used to be the MJC’s superintendent several decades ago, and the horsemen had previously lobbied for his inclusion as a consultant during the winter of 2021-22, which was when the last significant spate of equine deaths occurred over the Laurel dirt.

On Tuesday, Rogers said track executives and the horsemen “definitely appear to be on the same page right now.... Clearly, both sides are feeling that the track is in [such] a safe place that horses are able to run on it. I think Mr. Passero's quote said, 'If I owned a horse, I'd have no issues racing it.’”

Rogers acknowledged the two sides initially had differences: “Our group took the position that we felt the track was safe,” he said. “I know the horsemen took a different position. So we allowed an access agreement with Mr. Passero to come to the track. So Mr. Passero came on the grounds, and he recommended a couple of tweaks--slowing the tractors down; I think he had them go the opposite way in one direction, which I think our gentlemen were actually doing already anyways.

“But I think he increased the number of times that they go in reverse around the course. So it was kind of little tweaks of the Emerald Downs has lowered takeouts on Daily Doubles and Pick 3s to an industry low 10% for its upcoming season, which opens Saturday and continues through Sept. 17.

“There are a lot of takeout promotions on Pick 4 and Pick 5 wagers, but those are tough to hit,” said Emerald Downs President Phil Ziegler. “We wanted to give the players a better chance to win with a 10% takeout on all our Daily Doubles and Pick 3s.”

The track’s win, place, show wagering has a takeout rate of 16.1%, while the exacta, trifecta, superfecta, Pick 4, Pick 5 and Jackpot Pick 6 all have takeouts of 22.1%.

APPLICATIONS FOR T.I.P. AWARDS ONLINE

Applications for The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program’s (T.I.P.) Thoroughbred of the Year Award and the Young Rider of the Year Award are now available online and are due by June 30.

The Thoroughbred of the Year Award recognizes a Thoroughbred that has excelled in a non-competitive career, such as equine-assisted therapy or police work. The award includes a $5,000 grant to the non-profit organization associated with the horse or, if no organization is associated with the horse, to a horse-related charity chosen by The Jockey Club.

The Young Rider of the Year Award recognizes young riders under 18 on Jan. 1, 2023, who own or lease a Thoroughbred for use in 4-H, Pony Club, or other activities. Winners will be decided via and essay contest and awarded $5,000 which can be applied to the college of their choice or to their participation in an event that furthers their involvement with horses.

Thoroughbreds registered with The Jockey Club are eligible for participation in both awards.

THE JOCKEY CLUB ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Jockey Club has announced the recipients of five scholarships to be awarded for the 2023-2024 academic year.

Megan Elcombe has been selected to receive The Jockey Club Scholarship, which provides $15,000 to a student who is pursuing a bachelor’s degree or higher at any university and has demonstrated interest in pursuing a career in the Thoroughbred industry. Elcombe is studying veterinary medicine at UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine.

Carly Schuenger, who will graduate in May 2024 from California State University, San Marcos, with a bachelor’s degree in Kinesiology and a minor in Business Administration, was awarded The Jockey Club Advancement of Women in Racing Scholarship ($20,000). She plans to become a racehorse trainer.

Silke Hoffman is the recipient of The Jockey Club Vision Scholarship ($20,000), which is open to students from a minority racial or ethnic group who are pursuing a career in the Thoroughbred industry. Hoffman is studying veterinary medicine at UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine with a graduation date of May 2024.

Xochilt Solorio, a high school senior who plans to attend Northeastern University at the Boston campus in the fall of 2023 to study civil engineering and agriculture studies, is the recipient of the need-based The Jockey Club Benevolence Scholarship ($15,000). Solorio’s parents work at Belmont Park; her father is a groom and day watcher and her mother is a hotwalker.

The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarship ($6,000) is awarded annually to a student enrolled in the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program (RTIP). This year’s recipient is Ben Atkinson, a junior in the program who has interned in the racing department at Del Mar and who plans to work in racetrack management.

“It is encouraging for our sport that each year we receive a promising and diverse group of candidates for our scholarship program,” said James L. Gagliano, president and chief operating officer of The Jockey Club. “This year’s applicants were no exception, and we have no doubt that the scholarship recipients will make a great impact on various segments of the industry.” Applications for the 2024-2025 academic year will open this fall.
Australian stakes-winning fillies and mares off the track are significantly less expensive than their equivalents in America (57%) and Europe (36%).

Le Levre as a yearling | Tattersalls/Laura Green

4th-CD, $120k, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT, 2:15 p.m. ET

LE LEVRE (Le Havre {Ire}) makes her first trip to the races for the sneaky debut barn of Al Stall, Jr. and is a half-sister to four winners from as many to race out of Sunny Again (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}), whose notable produce include Italian highweight and Group 3 winner Elisa Again (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}); Berkshire Rocco (Fr) (Sir Percy {GB}), a winner at listed level in England and narrowly beaten in the 2020 G1 Pertemps St Leger; and Group 1-placed Sunset Shiraz (Ire) (Time Test {GB}). Bred by Luke Lillingston’s Mount Coote Estates and sold for 125,000gns from that operation’s draft at Tattersalls October in 2021, the chestnut filly is also kin to a now-juvenile colt by Sea The Stars (Ire) that fetched 550,000gns from Godolphin at TATOCT last fall. La Voie (Quality Road) lands the deepest draw in the field of 12 and brings a million-dollar pedigree to the table. A May-foaled daughter of Debonnaire (GB) (Anabaa), she is a half-sister to Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), a Group 3 winner in England before adding four Group 1 tests once sent to continue his career in Australia. She capped her worktab with a best-of-51 half-mile from the gate in :47 3/5 at Keeneland Apr. 27.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

8th-Churchill Downs, $133,765, Alw (NW2$X), Opt. Clm ($80,000), 5-2, 3yo/up, 5 1/2fT, 1:01.95, fm, 4 1/2 lengths. COPPOLA (c, 4, Into Mischief--Blind Copy, by Distorted Humor), twice a winner in four starts for trainer Jonathan Thomas, changed hands for $105,000 at Keeneland November last fall. Last of nine in a Dec. 30 allowance for Carlos Martin, the bay entered this off consecutive fourths in five-furlong allowances at Gulfstream in March and April. Easing back off a duel to sit the box-seat trip from third, Coppola appeared to be angling for a run up the fence, but instead split horses, took over a furlong from home and sailed clear at odds of 9-1. The winner has a 2-year-old half-brother named Trucker (Flatter) and a yearling half-brother by Authentic. Blind Copy, a half-sister to the stakes-winning dam of GSP Ambitieuse (Medaglia d’Oro), was most recently covered by Essential Quality. Daily Racing Form’s Marty McGee tweeted that three-time stakes winner Chasing Artie (We Miss Artie) collapsed and died following the race. Sales history: $800,000 Ylg ’20 FTKSEL; $105,000 3yo ’22 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 8-3-0-0, $149,626. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
9th-Churchill Downs, $120,000, Msw, 5-2, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m, 2:03.80, ft, 4 1/4 lengths.

PROVE WORTHY (c, 3, Curlin--Endless Chatter {SW & GISP, $221,652}, by First Samurai) made a pair of starts over an extended mile at Tampa, finishing fourth on debut Jan. 21 and runner-up last time behind next-out Federico Tesio S. hero Perform (Good Magic). Off at 7-2 in a rare maiden going the Derby distance and carrying the St Elias colors to be borne by Forte this weekend, the $325,000 Keeneland September purchase settled midfield down the backstretch and raced between rivals one off the fence into the final half-mile. Right on the back of the leading trio as they neared the stretch, he was produced four wide off the home corner and took flight in the final furlong to score by daylight. Mount Craig (Arrogate) was second. Endless Chatter, third in the GI Beldame S. in 2014, is a half-sister to English SW & GSP and French G1SP Whitecliffsofdover (War Front) and SP Berate (Blame). Second dam Orate (A.P. Indy) was a daughter of GISW Preach (Mr. Prospector), making her a full-sister to Pulpit. Endless Chatter is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Baytown Chatterbox (Street Sense) and a yearling colt by Improbable. She was barren to Game Winner for this season. Sales history: $325,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $76,590. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

O-Repole Stable & St Elias Stable; B-Alpha Delta Stables LLC (KY); T-Todd A Pletcher.

7th-Churchill Downs, $115,095, Msw, 5-2, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:09.85, ft, 2 1/4 lengths.

SWEET AZTECA (f, 3, Sharp Azteca--So Sweetitiz {MSW, $180,480}, by Grand Slam) trained forwardly ahead of this debut, both at the Trackside training center and over the local strip, and was bet down from 8-1 to be off at just over 9-2 on debut. Hustled along to dispute the early pace through a quarter-mile in :20.82, the homebred grey maintained a narrow advantage as they raced around the turn. Bracing for an outside challenge from fellow firster Little Prankster (Practical Joke) and a rails rally from Generous Lover (Bolt d’Oro), Sweet Azteca pulled out more in the final furlong and went on to take it by 2 1/4 lengths. The first foal to race out of her dam, a two-time stakes winner over turf sprint trips, Sweet Azteca hails from the female family of dual GI Breeders’ Cup Classic hero Tiznow (Cee’s Tizzy) and his graded-stakes winning full-siblings Budroyale and Tizbud. So Sweetitiz is also the dam of a 2-year-old filly by Dialed In, a yearling colt by Mucho Macho Man and was most recently bred to Tonalist. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

SEVEN DAYS: MONARCHISTS MAKE MERRY

By Emma Berry

Monday’s email bulletin from the The New York Times told us that Britain is largely apathetic about Saturday's coronation. I guess they’d know, being on the other side of the Atlantic and all, but the bunting had already been strung through various Cambridgeshire and Suffolk villages by Sunday. In the leafy shires at least, the monarchists still hold sway.

On Friday at Newmarket, the King Charles II Stakes will be run in honour of the ‘Merry Monarch’ whose patronage made the Suffolk town famous around the world as an important centre of horse racing and who, until the late Queen Elizabeth II, can arguably be said to have had the closest links to the sport of any member of the Royal Family. Indeed, the Rowley Mile, on which both Guineas will be run, takes its name from Charles II’s mount Old Rowley.

This coming weekend, in Britain at least, most of the attention will be centred on King Charles III, who, for a tantalising moment, looked as though he could have a runner in the first Classic of the season in the midst of his coronation.
Ascot hosts a pair of group races on Wednesday, and G2 Coventry S. hero Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) contests the G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial S. Tom Frary has the preview.

Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is one of the strongest fancies in the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas at Newmarket on Saturday.

Juddmonte’s Juliet Sierra (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) will not run in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas this weekend.

By Monday, the King and Queen Consort’s racing manager John Warren had confirmed that the unbeaten Slipofthepen (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) will be aimed instead at Royal Ascot, when the attention of his owners can be fully focused on the action in front of them rather than having to make an excuse on Saturday to leave the Buckingham Palace balcony to catch the 4.40 at Newmarket on their iPhones.

The slightly belated start time for the 2,000 Guineas is a minor inconvenience compared to the massive reshuffling of plans for those involved in Derby day after it was announced last week that the Derby would be run at 1.30pm to avoid an ITV scheduling clash with the FA Cup Final. It is an undesirable outcome, for sure, but anyone who thinks that racing could flex its puny muscles in the face of the behemoth that is football has clearly never tried to find the few column inches of racing reports beyond the pages and pages of soccer analysis in the national papers. Good luck with that.

QIPCO has retained its sponsorship of both the 2,000 and 1,000 Guineas this coming weekend, as well as the British Champions Series, but its name, and that of Qatar Racing, is absent elsewhere on the card. It has, however, been replaced in quite emphatic fashion by that of Howden, a huge enthusiast for most equine pursuits, especially eventing, and increasingly for racing. Best of luck to him with Running Lion (GB), who, appropriately, is a daughter of the late Tweenhills stallion Roaring Lion and is entered for Sunday's Oaks trial, the Howden Pretty Polly S.

Kingman Ruling

In the midst of such regal goings-on, it is appropriate to see Kingman (GB) having quite the time of it. His son Epictetus (Ire), representing a blend of two excellent breeders in George Strawbridge and the late Lady Rothschild, took the Listed Blue Riband Trial at Epsom on his first start since finishing runner-up to the lauded Auguste Rodin (Ire) in the G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy.

Epictetus was in utero when his dam, the G1 Pretty Polly S. winner Thistle Bird (GB) (Selkirk), was sold to James Wigan on Strawbridge's behalf for 750,000gns as part of Lady Rothschild's Waddesdon Stud dispersal at Tattersalls in 2019. The half-brother to Group 3 winner Jumbly (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) has done little wrong since setting foot on a racecourse, with a Newmarket maiden win on debut, and two second-place finishes at two in group contests, behind Silver Knott (GB) and Auguste Rodin respectively, both of whom are on course for Saturday's 2,000 Guineas.

The Prix du Jockey Club appears to be Epictetus's Classic target, and here he may meet the progressive Feed The Flame (GB). Unbeaten in his two starts this season for Pascal Bary, the Kingman colt, bred by Ecurie des Monceaux, Lordship Stud and Clear Light Sas, is reportedly Chantilly-bound on the first Sunday of June, having been nominated as a TDN Rising Star on debut and then following that success with victory in the Prix de Ferrières last Thursday.

Before that, Kingman looks likely to be represented by the Gimcrack winner Noble Style (GB) and Fred Darling victrix Remarquée (GB) in the Newmarket Classics this weekend.

The Juddmonte stallion's early star was of course Calyx (GB), the winner of the G2 Coventry S. who has made a fast start to his own stud career. Cont. p4

On Monday, he was represented by two new winners in France and England, Grand Son Of Calyx (Ire) and Nellie Leylax (Ire), to add to his previous pair which included the impressive Persian Dreamer, another TDN Rising Star when winning on debut at the Craven meeting. With those results coming from just seven starters, the Coolmore-based Calyx is at the top of the freshman table by prize-money, though his Darley rival Blue Point (Ire) is ahead by number of winners, on five.

The past week has seen the names of Soldier’s Call (GB), Phoenix Of Spain (Ire), Inns Of Court (Ire) and Invincible Army (Ire) added to the list of those stallions with their breakthrough first winners, while Aidan and Donnacha O’Brien, the trainers respectively of the two winners to date for Ten Sovereigns (Ire), both appear to have group-race targets in mind for Brighter (Ire) and Monday’s Curragh winner Do It With Style (Ire).

Never On Monday

Ten Sovereigns’s sire No Nay Never had a banner year in 2022, with his top runners including Alcohol Free (Ire), Blackbeard (Ire) and this season’s Classic contender Little Big Bear (Ire). His five-year-old son Visualisation (Ire), trained by Josep O’Brien, posted the biggest win of his career to date when landing Monday’s G2 Mooresbridge S., and though Aidan O’Brien may have been miffed at a relatively lacklustre return in the same race for Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot (GB)), he can at least take some solace in having bred the winner with his wife Annemarie (and indeed the winning trainer). Visualisation’s family is one that has served the O’Briens and the Crowleys well. Cont. p5

Italian Guineas double on Monday...

Gr.2-winning Champion 2YO VERO ATLETA (bred by Corrin Stud) lands the Italian 2,000 Guineas-Gr.3 by 4½ lengths.

SHAVASANA (bred by Razza Del Velino Srl) won the Italian 1,000 Guineas-Gr.3 from Estrosa (Sioux Nation) to remain unbeaten.

Now 4 Group winners in 2023 following INSINUENDO (Park Express S.-Gr.3, Curragh) and TIMOUR (Manion Cup-Gr.3, Rosehill). Also sire of Dewhurst runner-up and 2,000 Guineas prospect ROYAL SCOTSMAN.

His third dam Offshore Boom (GB) (Be My Guest) was bought by Annemarie's father Joe Crowley from her breeder Moyglare Stud in 1997 for IR£11,000 and in turn gave them the outstanding miler Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill). The latter's unraced full-sister Ruby (Ire) produced Group 3 winner Precious Gem (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and the multiple Grade 1-placed Fiero (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) as well as Visualisation's dam Roselita (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

No Nay Never had featured earlier on Monday's card as the sire of the first juvenile stakes winner of the year. The colt has been given the lofty title of His Majesty (Ire) (not to be confused with the broodmare sire of Danehill of the same name), and it will be no surprise to see him head for his own juvenile coronation at Ascot in June after his imperious debut win. His Majesty's dam Czabo (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}) was fourth in the Irish 1,000 Guineas before winning the G3 Park Express S. the following year for the partnership of David Wachman, MV Magnier and Linda Shanahan, after she was bought privately from her breeder Norman Court Stud.

The enduring lure of Royal Ascot was evident in the post-race comments from the connections of two other winners at the Curragh on Monday. American owner Jonathan Green spoke to Brian Sheerin about his family's desire to take the aforementioned Do It With Style to the G3 Albany S., while Honey Girl (GB) (Mayson {GB}), winner of the G3 Athasi S., is owned by Australia-based Tim Porter.

"We don't have anything immediately in mind," reported Honey Girl's trainer Joseph O'Brien. "But her owners are Australian and they are going to Royal Ascot so there is a fair chance she'll turn up there."

Irresistible Iresine

It is not uncommon to encounter soft ground in France but this season's Classic trials in the country have so far generally been run in pretty testing conditions. The Ballydoyle raider Greenland (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) had a fight on his hands for the G3 Prix Greffulhe and squeaked home a nose in front of the game Harry Way (Fr) (Galiway {GB}). The result gave a boost to the form of the G3 Prix La Force, which had been won by the Christopher Head-trained Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) with Greenland in third. They look likely to meet again in the Prix du Jockey Club.

A few big bubbles popped over the weekend as the Group 1 winners Luxembourg, Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) and Vadeni (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) all ran below expectations on their seasonal debuts, but there is a long year ahead. Cont. p6

The last two named finished third and fourth in the G1 Prix Ganay, which produced arguably the biggest crowd-pleaser of a result this year when Marie Velon, the country’s leading female jockey, posted another top-level win aboard Iresine (Fr) (Manduro (Ger)).

Back-to-back group races at Longchamp on Sunday went to horses sired by stallions with Schlenderhan connections. Manduro was a rare non-homebred to race for Baron Georg von Ullmann, and he was represented posthumously by the six-year-old Iresine, the star of Jean-Pierre Gauvin’s stable who, like his sire, demonstrated his versatility by taking the Ganay over 2,100m, having won last season’s G1 Prix Royal-Oak over almost two miles and the 2,400m G2 Prix Foy. He’s a smashing horse, who traces back to the Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Riverqueen (Fr) (Luthier (Fr)) as his fourth dam, and he was bought as a yearling by his trainer for just €6,000. Not bad for the winner of 12 of his 17 races, including two Group 1s.

Iresine was followed by India (Ger), a five-year-old Gestut Ittlingen homebred by the late Schlenderhan representative Adlerflug (Ger), whose talents by now need no explanation. She, too, is a consistent campaigner. Prior to her G3 Prix Allez France victory, India’s six wins had all come on home turf in Germany where she is already a treble Group 3 winner.

Notably, India was runner-up in last season’s G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis to Amazing Grace (Ger) (Protectionist (Ger)). Both Amazing Grace and the third-placed filly that day, Atomic Blonde (Ger) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}), have now relocated to America and they are among four German-bred runners in a field of only five for Friday’s GII Sheepshead Bay S. at Belmont Park. Recent Gulfstream Grade III winner Mylady (Ger) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) and the dual Grade II winner Virginia Joy (Ger) Soldier Hollow ((GB)) complete the quartet, with Higher Truth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) ensuring an all-European line-up.

In Kentucky Derby week, the 2011 winner Animal Kingdom had his name in lights at Longchamp when his son Big Call landed the G3 Prix de Barbeville. The six-year-old boasts a truly international profile, having been bred in America, exported to Ireland after being bought as a yearling by Eddie O’Leary at Keeneland, and then breezed in France at the Arqana Breeze-up Sale. Back to Ireland he went, initially to be trained by Joseph O’Brien, before making three starts in Hong Kong for Richard Gibson and then returning to France to the stable of Christophe Ferland, who owns him with Flora Scott. Since then, Big Call has packed his case again several times to race in Spain and Saudi Arabia, and he landed his first group success at the age of five in the G3 Prix Gladiateur. Let’s hear it for the well-travelled oldies.

He said, “The breeze-ups are where I got my first taste of riding racehorses properly. I have been riding in breeze-ups since I was 12 years old and can even remember riding in them when they were back in Dundalk. "It’s something I enjoy doing and, while I was home, I didn’t want to be tipping in and out of a yard for a month or two. By riding the breeze-up horses, it gives me a chance to keep my eye in and the fitness levels up without having to make any commitments to anyone."

He added, “I rode a nice filly last week for Danny O’Donovan. She was a good model and came up good and fast. That’s what the buyers want. But this is a tough environment as well. When you are racing, if things don’t go right on the day, you always have another chance.

“The breeze-up handlers don’t have that luxury. They have one shot at this and, if it doesn’t go to plan, it can take a lot of value off their stock. There’s a different kind of pressure involved in race-riding and riding in the breeze but it’s something I enjoy doing and I’m looking forward to Wednesday to be honest.

“I ride for Danny O’Donovan again, as well Stevie Byrne, Eoin McDonagh, Paddy Vaughan and Conor King. I’ve sat on a few very nice horses in the pre-breeze and hopefully the clock will reflect that on Wednesday."

To have a rider of Doyle’s calibre in action at the breeze-ups speaks to the professionalism of the sphere. Here is a jockey who rode multiple stakes winners aboard the Denis Hogan-trained Make A Challenge just a couple of seasons ago and would still have his supporters were he still riding in Ireland. However, without a big-name runner to throw his leg over, Doyle elected to give New Zealand a go earlier this year, and the decision has been vindicated with 19 winners on the board including that all-important Group 1 victory aboard Pignan (NZ) (Staphanos {Jpn}) in the Manawatu Sires’ Produce S.

Doyle said, “It was great to get that Group 1 and it wasn’t something I was expecting to do. It was a great way to round off the trip as it came on my final day riding in New Zealand."

"Sometimes the Group 1 races in New Zealand can get a bit of stick for being handicaps but this was a two-year-old set weight race for fillies and colts and I think the winner is a proper filly, too."

He added, “I was absolutely elated to get that sort of a result and I think she could even be a Guineas filly for next year. I am heading back to New Zealand on July 1 and the 1,000 Guineas would look the right race for her down there. We’re very excited and hopefully she will train on. “There’s no reason why she wouldn’t. She will have a prep and then it will be all systems go for the Guineas, hopefully."

There has been no shortage of Irish jockeys trying their hand at Australia, but not many have come to the conclusion that New Zealand was the place to be. But it was on the recommendation of Doyle’s friend that the offerings in New Zealand were worth exploring and he hasn’t looked back.

Doyle explained, “I bumped into Samantha Finnegan, whose sister is Chrissy Bambury, who does very well down there. She just happened to ask me what I was up to for the winter and I didn’t have any plans as such."

He added, “It was Samantha who suggested I go to New Zealand and she got me a job. That’s how it all came about. Australia is a very big place and there is a big pool of horses and jockeys. I thought that I could do New Zealand first and get a feel for the place and perhaps move on but I don’t think there’s any sign of me moving on at the minute as I am happy down there. The people have been so good to me in New Zealand.”

He added, “I was in Ballydoyle every day at the time, which was fantastic, and I couldn’t thank Aidan [O’Brien] enough. You learn an awful amount riding out at Ballydoyle every morning when you’re working alongside the likes of Seamie Heffernan and Wayne Lordan, two top-class jockeys.

“Things are bound to rub off on you when you are working alongside that calibre of jockey, but the thing is, Ireland is an extremely difficult place to do well in as a jockey, and I just wanted to be busy. I didn’t mind taking a hit with the prize-money if it meant I was to be as busy as I am riding down in New Zealand and long may it continue.”

Of course, reinventing himself is something that comes second nature to Doyle. Some people may forget that Doyle had all but retired but for being lured back to race-riding by Hogan in 2019.

“I have reinvented myself a couple of times alright, yea—I didn’t race-ride for 18 months at one stage! I had no plans to come back race-riding and then Denis twisted my arm at that time.

“We got on really well and had some great seasons together. We’re still the best of friends but things got a bit quiet for me at home in Ireland. I was trying to find the right horses and I just needed a fresh start.”

He added, “But I like going racing for eight or 10 rides and a few favourites as well. It’s good to be riding for the big trainers in New Zealand and sitting on the nicer types of horses.”

Be it New Zealand or breeze day at Newmarket, Joe Doyle is back in demand, that’s for sure.

RACE PREVIEWS

BRADSELL BACK AT ASCOT

by Tom Frary

Ascot’s Wednesday fixture features some interesting pointers to the Royal meeting and, while the card needs some work to be seen as a true “trials” event, the G3 British Racing School 40th Anniversary Commonwealth Cup Trial is likely to provide some meaningful clues ahead of the main event. The six-furlong test, registered as the Pavilion S., sees the return of Victorious Racing’s impressive G2 Coventry S. winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) who has not been seen since sustaining an injury during the G1 Phoenix S. in August.

“He’s looking like a typical sprinter now and he’s a chunky little horse,” jockey Hollie Doyle said of the TDN Rising Star. “His work has been pretty solid and it’s a great starting point. It’s practically the Commonwealth Cup minus a few, so it’s a very hot race. He has his course-and-distance form and although he may be unknown on the ground, a few of them are in the same boat.”

Paying The Penalty

Forced to race under a four-pound extra burden are Godolphin’s G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and Rockcliffe Stud’s G2 Flying Childers S. and G3 Molecomb S. scorer Trillium (GB) (No Nay Never). Cont. p9

Charlie Appleby saying of the former, “He is better suited to a bigger field and a sounder surface, but it’s very much a starting point for the season and hopefully a stepping stone to the Commonwealth Cup.” Both failed to make a serious impact in their Newmarket Group 1 tests in the autumn and Trillium needs to prove she can see out this sixth furlong and race with more restraint.

New Route For Marbaan

Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum’s G2 Vintage S. winner Marbaan (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) failed in two Group 1 contests at two, leaving Charlie Fellowes keen to test the waters back at sprinting. “I felt towards the end of last year that maybe he didn’t quite see out the seven furlongs,” he said. “Being by Oasis Dream, I think there’s a good chance he might be happier over six furlongs and I think Ascot will really suit him. I think the ground will be perfect and I guess we’ll find out where we really stand for this year. He took a while to come to hand this year but he did a really nice piece of work last week and that’s given me the confidence that six furlongs should be fine.”

The Long And The Short Of It

Wednesday’s G3 Longines Sagaro S. and Listed Howden Bloodstock Paradise S. offer the chance for the Gold Cup and Queen Anne hopefuls to stretch their legs, with the former hosting another encounter between gunslingers Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) and Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who duked it out in the course-and-distance G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup in October while the Paradise sees Sunderland Holdings’ G1 Champion S. third My Prospero (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) revert to the mile over which he was third in last year’s G1 St James’s Palace S.

EUROPEAN NEWS

ALL SYSTEMS GO FOR CHALDEAN IN GUINEAS

Group 1 winner Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who races for Juddmonte, is reportedly in good order ahead of a start in the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas on Saturday, according to trainer Andrew Balding.

The colt, who dislodged Frankie Dettori at the start of the G3 Craven S. before completing a circuit of the course, worked “extremely well” on Saturday, Balding noted.

“We will only know on Saturday what we missed out on at Newbury and the benefits of having a run as obviously it would have been far more of a benefit for him to have had a jockey on board and have a proper race,” he said.

“At the same time, it wasn’t totally lost as he had to go through the preliminary tests of saddling, walking around the paddock and cantering down to the start, which are the extras that go with a run and not just a gallop at home. Thankfully he didn’t go and do another circuit loose. He was fairly sensible. “I couldn’t be happier with him at the moment and Frankie rode him on Saturday and he worked extremely well. It was a very solid piece and his fitness levels are as good as we could hope for in the circumstances.”

Chaldean won the G3 Acomb S., G2 Champagne S., and G1 Dewhurst S. in succession as a juvenile. The Craven was his 3-year-old bow. Cont. p10
Chaldean Cont.
Dettori, who has won the Guineas three times, will be aboard on Saturday, and the duo face a stiff challenge, especially from Ireland, in the form of the Coolmore partners’ Group 1 winners Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

JULIET SIERRA REMOVED FROM GUINEAS CONSIDERATION
Juddmonte filly Juliet Sierra (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) will not proceed to Sunday’s G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas over Newmarket’s Rowley Mile, according to trainer Ralph Beckett. The winner of the G3 Dick Poole Fillies’ S. at Salisbury last autumn, the homebred ran fifth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at the end of September.

“We have decided not to run Juliet Sierra in the Guineas, as we feel she needs a little more time,” said Beckett, who will still field Cheveley Park heroine Lezoo (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Remarquee (GB) (Kingman {GB}). “So, we are re-routing her to the [G3] Chartwell Fillies’ S. at Lingfield on Saturday week.”

DANTE LIKELY FOR THE FOXES
Group winner The Foxes (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), second in the G3 Craven S. to Indestructible (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) last month, is likely for the G2 Dante S. at York mid-month, according to jockey Oisin Murphy.

The King Power runner secured Newmarket’s G2 Royal Lodge S. in September, and he will be trying the 10-furlong distance for the first time at York.

“He’s a lovely horse,” said Murphy, who rode the colt in the Craven at Newmarket. “In hindsight I wish I had just followed Indestructible a bit longer.

“We felt before the race he would stay a mile and a quarter well and Andrew and Alastair Donald [racing manager for owners King Power Racing] mentioned he will probably go for the Dante.

“He’s by Churchill who is a son of Galileo and his best distance was over a mile and we also know the family—we had Bangkok (Ire) (Australia {GB}) who is the half-brother. He is a lovely horse.”

WHITE BIRCH ‘IN SUPER FORM’ AHEAD OF DERBY TRIAL BID
White Birch (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) has been confirmed for the G3 Derby Trial S. at Leopardstown on Sunday.

A winner last out of the G3 Ballysax S., the colt would follow in the wake of Battle Of Marengo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}), and Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) as colts to have won both of the Irish Derby Trials in the past 10 years. If successful, the G1 Betfred Derby could be on the horizon at Epsom on June 3.

“He came out of the race at Leopardstown really well and we couldn’t be happier with how things are going,” said George Murphy, assistant to his father John. “His work has been great and he is in super form.

“The plan is to go back to Leopardstown for what was the Derrinstown—’it’s just the Derby Trial now—and after that we can make a decision over whether we go to the Derby or not.

“I have no doubt the trial will be a difficult race, but he’s in great form and we’re looking forward to it.”

The grey is one of 14 colts entered in the race, which sports a six-pronged Aidan O’Brien entry.

£117.6M IN MEDIA AND DATA RIGHTS PAYMENTS GENERATED BY RMG FOR BRITISH RACECOURSES
A total of £117.6 million will be paid to racecourses from their media and data rights generated by Racecourse Media Group (RMG) in 2022. This amount was £110m in 2021.

The payments are derived from a range of RMG businesses including both digital (streaming and TV) and concrete (betting shops) among others.
Roger Lewis, the Chairman of RMG, said, “The RMG model has once again proved to be resilient and reliable—in the face of significant challenges—producing record results, and performing ahead of expectations. The results are a testimony and tribute to the vision and dedication of those racecourses who came together and stuck together to create, grow, and develop the RMG business.

“On behalf of everyone at RMG I thank all the racecourses, owners, breeders, trainers, jockeys, stable staff and our valued media, technical broadcast, commercial and betting partners for their help and support in enabling RMG to play its role effectively.

“I step down from the Board of RMG this year, having joined the company in 2012. It has been a huge privilege and a great honour to have worked with so many wonderful people. I sincerely welcome my successor, Conor Grant, formerly CEO of Flutter UK and Ireland, who takes up the reins as Chairman, on October 1 2023.”

The payments generated last year were achieved despite the long-running Gambling Act Review process. As a result, bookmakers have ramped up levels of affordability checking, with betting turnover decreasing from early summer of 2022 onwards as a result.

Martin Stevenson, Chief Executive of RMG, said, “We believe that innovation is key for the business and racecourses to help grow appeal and engagement with the sport, and provide a platform to deliver growth in licence fees to racecourses and the sport in the future.

“A fundamental building block in technical innovation for the business is the deployment of a highly reliable and accurate tracking system, which we have achieved via the award-winning Coursetrack.

“Beyond purely providing timing, the importance of tracking is that it provides a wealth of real time data that the business can now utilise to develop new products and innovations. These include the roll-out of in-play betting on RMG’s content, currently deployed by BetVictor and William Hill, and with more bookmakers in the pipeline.

“Another key application of tracking data is to help create stimulating, insightful data—a suite of new facts and statistics—to engage our audiences and support betting markets.

“In addition, our Self Service Betting Terminal (SSBT) racing product is being rolled out this month. It’s worth noting that c.80% of football bets struck in shops are placed via SSBTs, compared to just 10% for racing, so this could be a real opportunity for racing to generate additional consumer engagement and turnover in the important betting shop space.

“We have also significantly enhanced our broadcast output, with advances to the virtual studio, the roll-out of augmented reality graphics, the gradual move to remote production, and developments to the production of dedicated racecourse streams. This is bringing horseracing TV coverage up to the high levels that other sports, like football and cricket, enjoy.

“Our social media initiative, #raceday, which brings an influencer-led approach to the racecourse and engages with a young demographic, has surpassed 20m views, while our free-to-play games, run in conjunction with Paddy Power, have generated 2m entries and proved to be an excellent data capture platform.

“With media increasingly being consumed through digital channels, driving innovation is key to growing audiences and engagement through these platforms. This approach blends well with our focus on strengthening the core capabilities which have enabled us to grow to where we are today, ensuring the business remains ready for the future.”

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR QUINTET OF STABLE STAFF RACES DURING RACING STAFF WEEK

Five new races for stable staff are part of the new format of Racing Staff Week from June 24-July 1, Racing Welfare announced on Tuesday.

Applications are now open to participate in the event, organised by Racing Welfare and sponsored by Betfair, and must be submitted by May 7. Racing Staff Week brings the racing industry and its followers together to celebrate racing staff, and showcase their passion, skills and dedication, across the breadth of the industry, without which, the sport would not be possible.

FIRST-SEASON SIRES WITH RUNNERS

The five races will be held at the following courses, up from two races in 2022:

- June 24 – Ayr racecourse – 6f
- June 26 – Chepstow racecourse – 1m2f
- June 27 – Newbury racecourse – 1m
- June 29 – Newcastle racecourse – 1m
- June 20 – Nottingham racecourse – 6f.

Michael Vokins, who won of last year’s races at Doncaster, said, “Riding in the race was an unbelievable experience. It gives you a small insight into what our jockeys are seeing and doing when we take our own horses to the races, and just to experience another side to being at the races that we don’t often see. There’s just no way of describing it [winning].”

To apply and to find out more about Racing Staff Week, please visit Racing Welfare’s website.

PIPING HOT, DAM OF COOLANGATTA, TO SELL AT MAGICS

Coolangatta in full flight | Bronwen Healy

by Jessica Owers

Highclere Racing will this month offer the dam of Coolangatta to the market as a supplementary addition to the 2023 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. It’s a superb addition for Magic Millions and a bittersweet situation for Highclere’s John Warren.

In a significant scoop for auction house Magic Millions, it was revealed on Tuesday that the 9-year-old mare Piping Hot, a daughter of More Than Ready (USA), will be offered for sale at the upcoming Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale.

Piping Hot is the dam of the dual Group 1 winner Coolangatta (Written Tycoon), whose repertoire also includes the R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic, and she will be offered in foal on an early cover to I Am Invincible.

Piping Hot will be consigned by John Muir’s Milburn Creek, where she has lived since her retirement from the track in 2017, and she will enter the Bundall sale ring as Lot 676 on Tuesday, May 23. By all accounts, she is a powerful offering.

“To be honest, if I think back on the history of the broodmares that have been sold in Australia in foal, a mare of the calibre of Piping Hot is very hard to compare to,” said Magic Millions’ Barry Bowditch, speaking to TDN AusNZ. “I’ve been here for some 18 years now and I don’t believe there’s been a mare go to market of this calibre. She is only nine years old by one of the world’s best sires and she is the dam of Coolangatta.

“I think that, on top of her having a very early cover to I Am Invincible, is a recipe for every commercial breeder worldwide to be playing a part when she enters the ring later this month.”

Piping Hot is owned by John and Carolyn Warren in the United Kingdom. She is one of five broodmares in Australia that the Warrens’ Highclere operation keeps at Milburn Creek in the Southern Highlands. The mare is from the Danehill (USA) producer Ribe, who won the G2 Moonee Valley Oaks, and she is a half-sister to the 2008 G1 Blue Diamond winner Reaan, a sire son of Hussonet (USA).

Piping Hot was co-bred by Arrowfield and bought by Jake and John Warren at the 2015 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling. She cost $320,000 and, despite a succinct career at Tulloch Lodge that lasted just four starts for two wins before going amiss, Piping Hot was worth every penny.

“She was a most talented filly,” said Gai Waterhouse. “Not only did she win several races for me, but she was a filly that I felt could have gone right on to Group 1 level. Alas, she went amiss, but she has certainly produced, in a filly like Coolangatta, a remarkable individual.”

Coolangatta was Piping Hot’s second foal, born in 2019 and a well-documented $280,000 yearling purchase for Ciaron Maher Bloodstock. The mare’s first foal, the Snitzel gelding Snitzonfire, went to Gai Waterhouse, Adrian Bott and Mt Hallowell Stud as a Magic Millions yearling for $425,000, and he’s won three of his 10 starts.

Last year, Piping Hot’s Dundeel (NZ) filly was sold at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale for $400,000, going to a consortium of Kennewell Racing, Group 1 Bloodstock (FBAA) and Trilogy Racing.

However, the jewel for Piping Hot has been the 3-year-old Coolangatta, who is just shy of $3.1 million in eight lifetime starts.

She won the G3 Gimcrack S. on debut in dazzling fashion, then the G3 BJ McLachlan S. and R. Listed Magic Millions 2YO Classic. She was third to Fireburn (Rubick) in the G1 Golden Slipper and third to Rothfire (Rothesay) in the G2 McEwen S.

Since then, Coolangatta has won the G1 Moir S. in a glittering sprint battle with Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai), and after her only unplaced effort in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. in the spring, she was electric in the G1 Lightning S. on February 18, winning arguably the best sprint feature in Victoria.
“Coolangatta... what can you say about a filly like that?” Bowditch said. “She’s not only running in the King’s Stand S. at Royal Ascot in June; she’s favourite for the King’s Stand S. in June.”

The Coolangatta story has captivated Australian racing for two years now, so the sale of Piping Hot is timely. Bowditch expects, without much argument, that the mare will attract big dollars.

“She’s the mare that should make the most money in this marketplace in 2023,” he said. “She ticks every box that could be ticked. She’s young, she’s in foal to an outstanding sire who has taken all before him this year, and she’s produced a world-class filly, which will be proven next month.

“I’m very excited about this, and it’s a privilege to be able to offer a mare like this on behalf of Magic Millions for clients as international in profile as John and Carolyn Warren.”

Worldwide Interest

For John Warren, the buzz around Piping Hot’s sale is equal parts excitement and regret. Selling a proven producer of this calibre isn’t easy, particularly when his numbers are so boutique in Australia.

However, Highclere Australia is a commercial operation just like any other and the wheels must spin for everyone.

“We are commercial breeders, it’s what we do,” Warren said, speaking on Tuesday to TDN AusNZ.

“That’s our business model and we, as a family and as an organisation, are commercial breeders.

“Yes, it was a hard decision to make but we’ve got an exceptional weanling filly out of her and everyone that’s seen her has been blown away by her. So there is a daughter there, even though we’re yet to decide what to do with her, whether we keep her or sell her next year.”

Piping Hot’s weanling filly is a full-sister to Coolangatta. She is striking, a rich chestnut in colour with three white socks. Warren has had a good look at her, spending much of January and February in Australia, as he does each year.

“It’s fun having mares in Australia,” he said. “We enjoy it and it gives us a great interest in Australian racing.”

One of the critical elements of Piping Hot’s sale is the expected international interest in her. She is a mare by More Than Ready, who has worked so well in this country, but also so well in the United States and Europe. That sireline brings a versatility to Piping Hot’s useability around the world, and it’s one of the reasons Highclere bought her in the first place.

“Being by More Than Ready, she had a pedigree that we could relate to,” Warren said. “In respect to her sale, that has made her much more appealing because she will fit some of the best stallions in the world. There’s little stopping anyone from mating her to any top-end stallion in America, Europe or Japan, and that’s where it’s going to be interesting, to see how that shapes itself out.”

The international interest in Piping Hot will make her sale very good theatre. She will be offered ahead of her daughter’s tilt at the King’s Stand S. at Royal Ascot, but the promise of that result will work in her favour.

International breeders as far away from Australia as Kentucky and Japan could potentially buy a mare that will not only deliver a foal by a Champion Australian sire as part of the package; they will have the rare accolade of owning a half-sibling to a prolific, potentially Group 1-winning Royal Ascot filly.

It could be enough to tickle the interest of buyers who wouldn’t normally shop the Australian market.

“There will be significant international interest in her, and there should be,” Bowditch said. “The Europeans could potentially be buying the dam of a King’s Stand winner, and from an American perspective, she’s by More Than Ready and she possesses all they look for in a mare.

“She looks fast and she’s producing fast horses. Realistically, you could be outlaying with the idea of getting a lot of your money back just with that first foal by I Am Invincible. The investment, to me, could end up being very, very sound.”

For Warren, with all his years attending the major bloodstock sales of the world, Piping Hot is a well-named commodity now. He said they’re just not easily available, mares of this calibre, and it’s a consistent conversation at the elite end of the broodmare-buying market.
“She’s a left-field, rare thing to come about,” Warren said.

Full Of Confidence

John Warren will be ringside for Piping Hot’s sale this month. He’s an annual visitor anyway, keeping in touch with Highclere's Australian connections and its local bloodstock market.

For Bowditch, Piping Hot will not only add a new level to the 2023 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale; she could add a new benchmark.

“As a sales company, you’re always on the lookout for mares like this,” he said. “You hope to be able to offer them from one time to another, and in this instance we’ve got a very strong relationship with the Warrens. Relationships count for a lot in this industry and Piping Hot is something we are very excited to bring to the marketplace.”

As far as health of the buying bench goes, Bowditch said Piping Hot’s level is doing extremely well and he expects she will be sought after, hotly contested and rich in return.

“Buying at this end of the market, you’re always rewarded,” he said. “You’ve got that upside of selling the progeny with the big pedigrees, and I’m full of confidence that this end of the market, where Piping Hot sits, will remain very strong and very buoyant.

“Internationally, when you convert what you’re spending to your own currency, you’re buying extremely well. And as I said, it’s a great recipe to participate in Australia on mares of Piping Hot’s quality.”
