National Treasure | Jim McCue

by Chris McGrath

Even in the heyday of the great owner-breeders, it would have been remarkable for a Classic winner to represent the seventh generation of a single program. In the commercial era, it is beyond extraordinary. Yet in the long, tenuous line linking GI Preakness S. winner National Treasure (Quality Road) to his foundation mare Mono, only once did Peter Blum come close to letting it break.

That was when a Mt. Livermore filly named Proposal was sold as a 2-year-old at Keeneland in 1999, for $375,000.

“I sold her to John Kimmel,” Blum recalls. “And I saw that he had her up at Saratoga, and she was working five-eighths in 57-and-change. And I thought, ‘My gosh, this filly must have a lot of talent.’”

She duly won her maiden and then missed a stakes sprint by a head.

“I thought that any mare with that kind of speed, in this family she’s got to make a broodmare,” Blum continues. “And the gentleman apparently wanted to sell her. So I talked to John, he’s a good guy, and he said they were going to put her in the sale.”

It says much about our strange business that a stakes-placed winner should fetch barely half her original price, at $200,000, when returning to Keeneland for the 2001 November Sale. Cont.

former Vet Chan Imprisoned 30 Mos. For Role in Doping Ring by T.D. Thornton

The former New York-based veterinarian Alexander Chan got sentenced to 30 months in federal prison Wednesday for his role in the wide-ranging 2020 racehorse doping conspiracy case.

Back in December, he had cut a deal with prosecutors that involved pleading guilty to a single felony charge of drug adulteration and misbranding in exchange for two other felony counts against him being dropped.

Presentence reports filed by both the government and the defendant painted contrasting pictures of Chan’s role. He was arrested in March 2020 as part of a series of coordinated law enforcement sweeps in the years-long federal investigation of a network of 31 horsemen, veterinarians, and equine pharmaceutical suppliers who ended up facing charges. Most of those who were accused are already behind bars. Cont. p7

Best of luck from your friends at Spendthrift.
Owner Rick Dawson has chosen Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott to take over the training duties of the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby winner.

Churchill Downs issued a statement following a summary judgment that dismissed Bob Baffert’s lone remaining claim in his lawsuit.

GISW and sire Discreet Cat has been euthanized due to the infirmities of old age at Darley’s Hokkaido base.
But Blum was going to retrieve her, whatever it took. In fact, there has only ever been one other occasion when he has gone to an auction with the same implacable determination. And that had been 26 years previously, in the same ring, when he bought Mono herself at the January Sale.

The 12-year-old daughter of Better Self was being sold by King Ranch, and this aspiring young breeder saw her as an unmissable chance to strike genetic oil through the famed Kleberg farm. Though no more than a modest winner herself, she had produced serial winners by mediocre sires; and she was out of a sister to 1946 Triple Crown winner Assault, whose own third dam was a sibling to none other than Man o’ War.

“I still have the bill of sale,” Blum says. “I remember it like it was yesterday. Back then, I didn’t have much money to spend. But I went to that sale with one goal. I was going to buy that mare. I just hoped that she would go cheap enough.”

Actually Mono was being sold from the estate of Howard Rouse, who had managed King Ranch’s Kentucky farm.

“It answered a question: why would you breed this mare to those $500 or $250 sires, when you have a pedigree that commanded the best stallions?” Blum explains. “Mr. Rouse apparently didn’t want to spend a lot! Even so, you saw 16 wins on one [foal], 15 wins, 10 wins. There was one that had run in New York and made six figures in earnings. I remember watching that horse wearing two bar shoes, and winning race after race.”

He asked Allen Jerkens about this horse, Wildcat Country.

“You got to be kidding me,” the trainer replied. “One of the hardest-knocking horses, the kind anybody would dream about. Who knows how great he could be, if he didn’t have those foot problems?” Cont.
Better Self had doubtless contributed plenty of that iron. He had stood at King Ranch with moderate success, but majored in old school soundness. (One son won 24 of 256 starts!) Seeing how his daughter could produce Wildcat Country by a cheap stallion, while also giving that diminishing access to Man o’ War, Blum sensed what Mono has actually proved to be: the chance of a lifetime.

“I thought I was never going to be able to do this again,” Blum said. “She wasn’t a big, striking, beautiful mare. In fact, she was kind of plain. But I just thought I was never going to get another opportunity like this. So I wasn’t going to walk out of there without her. I didn’t have any price in mind, any point where I was going to stop. I was going to buy her. And I think I paid $17,500.”

Now, after almost half a century patiently cultivating this dynasty, Blum has bred another Classic winner to follow 2020 Horse of the Year Authentic (Into Mischief). In both cases, Blum has been grateful for the expertise both of his own team—notably Bridie Harrison, who has raised his stock for so many years, and advisor Doug Cauthen—and of those who took up the project, from Donato Lanni and the other interested scouts, to Bob Baffert and John Velasquez. But Authentic came from a younger line of his program, so this probably feels even more special for a man who first dipped his toe with a Thoroughbred purchase when still at the University of North Carolina. For he has turned a personal “Mono”-mania into an authentic National Treasure.

His very first decision with Mono showed auspicious flair. He sent her to an unproven young stallion in Florida, and when the resulting colt won at Del Mar on debut (added a stakes win at three) he sent Mono back to Mr. Prospector at his new base at Claiborne.

This time the outcome was a filly, Mine Only, who won just a maiden in Blum’s colors from eight starts for Allen Jerkens. But she proved far better as a broodmare—much like her dam, and so establishing a pattern that would recur right along this line—in producing three graded stakes scorers, all on turf. One of these, Statuette (Pancho Villa), subsequently secured a $2.5 million payday when her yearling son by Seattle Slew was bought by Demi O’Byrne at Keeneland in 2001. (Named Tomahawk, this colt duly proved an elite juvenile for Ballydoyle.)

Statuette was by Pancho Villa, whose late sire Secretariat had been chosen for Mine Only’s first two covers. The first of these resulted in GI Manhattan H. winner Academy Award; the second gave Blum a filly, Chosen Lady, who was placed a couple of times in a light career but, again, proved a better producer than runner.

Her second foal was Grade III winner In Contention (Devil’s Bag), who chased home Unbridled’s Song in the GI Wood Memorial; and soon afterwards she produced Well Chosen (Deputy Minister), whose GI Ashland success for Coolmore connections doubtless heightened their subsequent enthusiasm for Tomahawk. In time Well Chosen evidently found her way to Darley, giving them a homebred GI Sword Dancer H. winner in Telling. (Interestingly, then, another turf distinction for this family even though he was by A.P. Indy.)

But the key link in the chain proved to be Chosen Lady’s very first foal, a daughter of Storm Bird named Lady of Choice whose track career closely mirrored that of her dam, with a couple of placings from four starts. She produced no fewer than 18 named foals, the last at 25. Half managed to win, but it turned out that she actually did as much as anyone could have hoped with her first two foals.

The second was Multiple Choice (Mt. Livermore), who in his prime lived up to his name by winning graded sprints on both turf and dirt (also made the podium in the GI Forego H.). Cont.

But Lady of Choice had already produced a daughter by the same sire—and that was Proposal, the filly of whose sale Blum repented with all the determination that he had shown with Mono herself.

“Yes, that was the only other time I went to a sale where I just was not going to stop,” he says. “Mono, and Proposal.”

And now she is second dam of a Preakness winner. On the face of it, to retrieve Proposal might have represented fairly stubborn fidelity to the family. Among Lady of Choice’s many well-bred daughters, it would take until the 5-year-old Leofric (Candy Ride {Arg}) went on a spree in 2018—culminating in the GI Clark H.—before she earned a really notable credit as a granddam. (Admittedly the next generation has recently produced a decent one in GIII Iroquois S. winner Major General {Constitution}.)

She was cut out to be really good filly,” Blum recalls. “But she bowed as a 2-year-old and because of that incident we could never get the talent out of her. We loved the mare and then her foals were nice too, just didn’t have much luck. If I know they’re talented, I don’t let anybody change my impression of their ability, or who I breed them to.”

Proposal would lavishly vindicate her return to the fold. Her 10 named foals would include seven winners, including three at stakes level plus graded stakes-placed sprinter Elope (Gone West). One of her daughters by Unbridled’s Song has meanwhile produced Carmel Road, who finished second in the GII Los Alamitos Futurity last winter.

That colt was by Quality Road, and the Lane’s End stallion would also enter the equation for one of Proposal’s other foals, a daughter of Medaglia d’Oro named Treasure. Blum did test the water at auction for this girl, a $375,000 RNA at the 2013 September Sale, before sending her into training. She started with promise but became frustrating with serial near-misses in eight starts spread across three years.

“Treasure was one of my favorites,” Blum says. “The first time she ran, she drew the outside post position at Saratoga, which was awfully hard. But she made a big run down the stretch and finished second.”

One of the newspapers promptly anointed her as a potential Oaks winner, but it has turned out that she was reserving her Classic destiny for her second career. After producing a couple of sons by Speightstown (both fair winners), Treasure produced a filly to extend this precious line. This daughter of Quality Road has so far proved unable to break her maiden—she’s now four—with three seconds from six starts. But if she ultimately emulates her dam, in becoming yet another female in the Mono line to reserve her best for the paddocks, then Blum will not be complaining. Because she is now a sister to a Classic winner.

Cont.
For it was Treasure’s second visit to Quality Road that produced National Treasure—already named, presciently enough, when sent to the Fasig-Tipton’s Saratoga Sale in 2021. Prepared as usual by Harrison, he caught the eye of Lanni and the rest of the team working for Bob Baffert’s “Avengers,” who gave $500,000 in the hope of finding another Authentic. (Some of them had taken a stake in that colt, for $350,000, at the 2018 September Sale.)

And the rest is history. But that’s only the case because it is also a story without end. For all the recurring themes in this family, the art of breeding requires constant experiment; the constant posing of fresh questions even when things appear to be going solidly well.

Remember Blum routinely needs to sell and cull, sometimes with reluctance, to maintain a degree of viability. Even Authentic’s dam Flawless (Mr. Greeley) was offered for sale after her son became a champion, albeit ultimately retained at $4.1 million. But that makes the continuity of this line all the more impressive, and its success all the more fulfilling. Certainly it feels safe to say that Treasure’s yearling filly by Authentic will not be going anywhere: a half-sister to one Classic winner bred by the program, sired by another.

“Most of the time, we sell everything,” Blum confirms. “But there are times... She’s not going to go through any sale.” He feels similarly about sisters to Authentic consecutively produced by Flawlessly, who for a while had produced only colts. Blum has named the yearling Priceless.

“They’re very different types, which is great,” he says. “The yearling has regal presence. She’s big, tall, has a lot of scope; but she’s always been very feminine. The suckling, on the other hand, is a tank.”

Again, that’s something that only a program like this can deal with. Who, at public auction, could confidently predict which of these physiques might best channel the genes that made their brother a champion? Nobody. But persevering with both is only feasible if you are prepared to play a very long game. For instance, Blum still has a 20-year-old daughter of Mine Only-herself, remember, the first link in the chain from Mono to National Treasure—producing on the farm.

“I believe this family will continue to be just the same,” he says. “There’ll be new branches on the tree, and it’s not going to stop coming up with good horses. I have more mares than I should have, I don’t know the exact number. But I think the word to describe all this is maybe ‘intoxicating.’ It’s hard for me to explain. But it’s what I’ve done for such a long time, and I know these mares and their families so well.

“For example, Elope [Proposal’s daughter by Gone West] was a flying machine, won three out of her four starts. She was second in a Grade II, in New York, and then won a stake. But she bowed in that race and I retired her. She’s now 19, but I’m still driven because I believe she is going to finally come up with a good foal. I know that’s foolish, but there are times you just have a gut [feeling]. I know how talented she was, and it’s very hard to get rid of one like that.

“You have to be careful about selling. You can’t say, ‘Well, if they haven’t had anything by the time they’re 10...’ I don’t subscribe to that. With me, it’s a question of feel, of what my memories tell me. A question of what I think, and what Bridie thinks, about an individual. But we could sell the worst five yearlings we have, or even the worst three, and you might still come up with one [that can run]. That’s one of the things about this family, it keeps generating interest.”

This game never permits guarantees, one way or another. At the very same sale where Blum bought Mono, he also made a bid for a mare in foal to Icecapade. A prominent breeder came up and cautioned him. Did he know that the first foal had been a shocker, an albino in fact? He’d better pray somebody else would meet his $12,500 bid. Somebody did, the auctioneer blessedly holding out for another $500. And it turned out that this young mare was carrying the dam of Lady’s Secret (Secretariat), whose achievements meant she could later be sold on for $2.7 million.

Many vagaries of this business, then, are condensed by that single day back in 1975. One way or the other, however, it proved to be the start of quite an odyssey.

“You can’t keep them all,” Blum reflects. “You have to sell sometimes, when you don’t want to, and sometimes you sell the better ones. But then other times the rejects turn out to be as good. It’s just a question of good luck, but also of perseverance. If you believe in something, try not to give up. Just see it through.”
In the view of the feds, Chan was described as "a former veterinarian for the New York Racing Association (NYRA), and a practicing veterinarian for over 15 years [who] abdicated his duty of responsibility to the horses under his care."

"After spending three years as a traveling veterinarian for NYRA, the defendant worked under convicted co-defendant Kristian Rhein at Empire Veterinary Group and soon after began providing and/or administering adulterated and misbranded drugs without valid prescriptions, knowing that their use violated New York’s racing rules, medical ethics, and the law," the prosecution’s presentence report stated.

Chan’s own presentence report filed by his legal team stated that, "Dr. Chan’s sterling career and the beautiful young family it supported have since been destroyed because—at the direction of his boss and the owner of the veterinary practice in which he worked, Dr. Kristian Rhein—Dr. Chan participated in the distribution of misbranded substances for use on Thoroughbred racehorses."

But, the report continued, "In contrast to Rhein and nearly every other defendant who reached a felony misbranding disposition, Dr. Chan had no financial interest in any adulterated or misbranded substance, nor in any company that manufactured, sold, or marketed any such substance. Nor did Dr. Chan receive any commissions, bonuses, or other benefits based on any amount of any substance that was sold, distributed, or administered."

According to a trove of wiretap evidence (plus implicating testimony from plea-bargaining defendants who are already imprisoned) Klein and Chan’s client list included co-defendant trainer Jason Servis, who is alleged to have doped almost all the horses under his control in early 2019.

As the lone remaining—and highest profile—defendant in the case, Servis is currently awaiting a July 26 sentencing after pleading guilty to one felony charge in his own plea bargain.

One of Servis’ elixirs of choice was allegedly SGF-1000, the adulterated, misbranded and purportedly performance-enhancing drug.

Rhein, after being caught on a wiretap bragging that he sold “assloads” of SGF-1000 to racehorse trainers, is currently serving a three-year prison sentence for his role in the drug conspiracy.

When Rhein pleaded guilty back in 2021, he had implicated both Servis and Chan by telling the judge, "I, along with Jason Servis, were leaders and organizers [of others who performed allegedly criminal actions], which included my associate, Dr. Alexander Chan."

Chan however, has repeatedly denied that he ever directly administered any misbranded or banned substances to racehorses.

"Dr. Chan readily acknowledges that his conduct with respect to improperly distributing Clenbuterol and assisting Rhein in distributing SGF-1000 with the knowledge that Rhein and others were administering it was entirely wrong," the defendant’s presentence report stated. "But with candor to the Court, Dr. Chan did not administer SGF-1000 to any horses under his care."

Federal prosecutors disagreed, writing in their presentence report that that assertion by Chan was a "falsity." The report added that, "the Government brought to [Chan’s] counsel's attention evidence and statements contradicting that notion [and the] Court should thus give no credence to Chan’s passing argument that he never injected a horse with SGF-1000."

Chan’s legal team had asked for as sentence “of no more than 10 months’ incarceration,” basing that upon “the same sentence the Court imposed on the almost identically situated veterinarian, Dr. Erica Garcia. Although Dr. Garcia was convicted of two misdemeanor misbranding offenses while Dr. Chan pleaded guilty to one felony misbranding offense, [their] offense conduct was highly similar..."

Prosecutors had urged the judge for a sentence "comparable" to the 30-month terms that were imposed on two other co-defendants, Rick Dane, Jr. (a harness racing trainer), and Michael Kegley, Jr. (the sales director for the company that sold SGF-1000).

In the end, Judge Mary Kay Vyskocil of United States District Court (Southern District of New York) ended up siding with the government’s 30-month ballpark recommendation.

As part of his plea bargain, although Chan is not responsible for any restitution, he is jointly liable with Rhein for a $311,760 forfeiture obligation, which represents the value of “any and all drugs that were adulterated or misbranded when introduced into or while in interstate commerce or while held for sale,” according to court documents. Cont.

Chan's portion of that obligation may be satisfied by him paying $50,000 within five years following his release from incarceration.

Chan is to report to his to-be-designated prison Sept. 25, and the judge stated in her orders that the facility is to be "close to New York City to facilitate family visits."

Chan's presentence report detailed hardships that his family would likely face upon his imprisonment. While working as a Thoroughbred veterinarian in Dubai a number of years ago, Chan met and married a horse caretaker from Estonia. The couple later relocated to the United States, and they now have two sons, ages eight and two.

After his arrest, Chan had to give up his racetrack work. He found employment as a small-animal veterinarian for substantially lower pay, but had to surrender his license to practice six months ago when he pleaded guilty.

Chan's presentence report articulated a fear that his wife would not be able to support the family by herself living in the New York area, and that she would have to move back to Estonia with the boys to live with the help of her family.

"It is Dr. Chan's understanding that, under Estonian law, if he were sentenced to a term of imprisonment of more than one year, he would also be ineligible to immigrate to Estonia to reunite with his family there," Chan's presentence report stated.

Rich Strike TO BILL MOTT
by Bill Finley

Two weeks after it was announced that Eric Reed had resigned as the trainer of Rich Strike (Keen Ice), the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby winner has found a new home. Owner Rick Dawson has chosen Hall of Famer Bill Mott to take over the training duties.

The story was first reported by Horse Racing Nation.

"I have followed Bill's career for a while and have always been impressed with how he prepares his horses," Dawson said. "I wasn't on the inside, but it always seemed to me that he is very patient. In particular last year, I witnessed him preparing [GISW] Olympiad [Speightstown] through a number of races and eventually in the Breeders' Cup where he ran second to Flightline. I was very impressed with what he did with that horse. He would run third or fourth and then would bounce back and win. I saw that Bill was able to take a horse that last time out didn't run the way they wanted and then in next race he was in the winner's circle. That was huge for me. A friend of mine who I lean on in this business, Everett Dobson out of Oklahoma, he was a part-owner of Olympiad, so he was familiar with Bill. He reached out to Bill on my behalf and Bill was kind and gracious. After a few conversations, he said he would look forward to the opportunity to train Rich Strike and see where things go."

Mott will also train three other horses owned by Dawson. Dawson's five other horses have been sent to trainer Jerry O'Dwyer.

Reed and Dawson were at odds over a movie deal Reed worked out with Omaha Productions, which was founded by Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning. Dawson said that he was "kept out of the loop" over the movie deal and that his rights as the owner of the horses were never taken into consideration. Reed contended that there was no need to involve Dawson in the process because the planned movie is not about Rich Strike but Reed's relationship with his father, Herbert.

While Dawson was searching for a new trainer, Rich Strike and other horses Reed trained for Dawson were sent from Reed's training center to the Blackwood Training Center in Lexington.

Mott will have his work cut out for him when it comes to Rich Strike. The 4-year-old has lost six straight since his stunning win in the Derby at odds of 80-1. He made his 4-year-old debut in the GII Alysheba S. on May 5 at Churchill Downs and finished fifth, beaten 16 3/4 lengths.

"I hope this will be a shot in the arm for him," Dawson said. "I'm a pretty loyal guy and I was loyal to Eric and wanted to give him every opportunity to continue. It just didn't work out. Now we've gone to Plan B. I feel like getting Bill to take over the training of a few of my horses, especially Rich Strike, is a blessing. We got the opportunity to get our horse into the barn of a Hall of Famer. That couldn't have worked out any better. Now we'll have a new set of eyes and a new environment. It's a new chapter in my life as a race horse owner, but it's exciting." Cont.

Because Rich Strike was taken out of training briefly after leaving the Reed stable, he probably won’t start again until some time this summer. Dawson said the major stakes at Saratoga would be a good place to resume his career.

“He’s run two very mediocre races in a row,” he said. “That was totally unlike him. We are at the point in his career where if there are issues we need to figure out what they are, we need to address them and get him back as close to perfect as possible. In the next race, wherever it might be, we need to compete and not just run up the track.”

CDI RELEASES STATEMENT REGARDING BAFFERT LAWSUIT

Following a summary judgment issued by a federal judge Wednesday that dismissed Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert’s lone remaining claim in his lawsuit against Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI), Churchill Downs issued a statement on Thursday. The statement appears in its entirety below.

“Churchill Downs is pleased that the Court granted our Motion for Summary Judgement in the Civil Action brought against our company, CEO and Board Chairman by Bob Baffert, resolving in our favor the last remaining claim, just as the Court had ruled in our favor on all of his previous claims. While he may choose to file baseless appeals, this completes the seemingly endless, arduous and unnecessary litigation proceedings instigated by Mr. Baffert.

“Our actions to suspend Mr. Baffert following Medina Spirit’s confirmed positive for a prohibited race-day substance, coupled with his extensive history of drug violations, was done in the best interest of protecting the integrity of horseracing. Now more than ever, participants and operators in this industry must individually and collectively assume responsibility to take every reasonable measure to protect our equine and human athletes and reject any practice that jeopardizes that mission.

“We are encouraged that the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) Program has gone into effect this month which will allow uniform rules to govern the industry and expedite both the testing and adjudication process which has historically created confounding delays and threatened the confidence and trust of our fans.

“As we stated when we suspended Mr. Baffert in June 2021, we reserve the right to extend his suspension and will communicate our decision at the conclusion of the initial two-year suspension period. This U.S. District Court ruling in our favor is a victory in our ongoing actions and steadfast commitment to protecting the safety of our equine and human athletes.”

DISCREET CAT EUTHANIZED IN JAPAN

GISW Discreet Cat (Forestry--Pretty Discreet, by Private Account) has been euthanized due to the infirmities of old age at Darley’s Hokkaido base. He was 20.

Trained by Saeed bin Suroor for Godolphin (having been acquired after breaking his maiden in impressive “TDN Rising Star”-style at Saratoga at two), Discreet Cat chalked up five straight victories during an unbeaten 3-year-old campaign. He commenced with a pair of wins at Nad Al Sheba, including a six-length romp in the G2 UAE Derby. Upon returning to the U.S., he went on to win the G2 Jerome H. by 10 1/2 lengths.

Discreet Cat initially retired to Darley’s Jonabell Farm in Kentucky, where he sired 62 stakes performers, including Grade I winners Discreet Marq, Dads Caps, Secret Compass and Secret Spice. He also successfully shuttled to Brazil, siring Group 1 winner Taksim among his 16 stakes performers.

He relocated to Japan in 2017 going on to sire Group 1 horses Combustion and recent G2 Keio Hai Nisai winner Obamburumai. 2022 was his best year yet in Japan, with 23 juvenile winners and eight black-type performers.

Harry Sweeney, President of Darley in Japan, said, “This has been a very tough day for us at Darley Japan. Though Discreet Cat was already 14 years old when he arrived in Japan, he was nevertheless embraced by Japanese breeders and covered more than 750 mares during his sojourn here and the resulting progeny have collectively already won more than $20,000,000 on the track. Though primarily a dirt sire, he was also capable of getting elite turf performers which further heightened his appeal. Indeed, one such horse, Obamburumai, was narrowly beaten into third in the G1 NHK Mile Cup earlier this month. “Discreet Cat was a very gentle horse and was a pleasure to work with. There were plenty of tears in our stallion barn today.”

Every week, the TDN publishes a rundown of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky. Here’s a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where. With the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) having gone into effect on July 1, 2022, the TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant HISA-related rulings from the same week.

New York

Track: Belmont Park
Date: 05/21/2023
Licensee: Caitlin Owen, racing official
Penalty: $1,000 fine
Violation: Failure to tend to business in a “proper manner”
Explainer: Racing Official Dr. Caitlin Owen is hereby fined the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars for failing to tend to business in a proper manner necessitating a scratch in the 8th race at Belmont park on May 21st 2023. The TDN has asked for clarification on the issue and will update as needed.

Kentucky

Track: Churchill Downs
Date: 05/18/2023
Licensee: Irad Ortiz, Jr., jockey
Penalty: $1,000 fine
Violation: Wearing unapproved promotional materials
Explainer: After waiving his right to a formal hearing before the Board of Stewards, Irad Ortiz, Jr. is hereby fined $1,000 for failure to comply with the regulation that governs advertising by wearing promotional materials in race 11 at Churchill Downs on May 6, 2023, without written approval. Upon receipt of this ruling, the licensee is required within thirty (30) days to pay any and all fines imposed to the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission. Failure to do so will subject the licensee to a summary Suspension of license pursuant to 810 KAR 3:020 Section 15 (CC).

NEW HISA STEWARDS RULINGS

The following rulings were reported on HISA’s “rulings” portal, except for the voided claim rulings which were sent to the TDN directly. Some of these rulings are from prior weeks as they were not reported contemporaneously.

One important note: HISA’s whip use limit is restricted to six strikes during a race.

NATIONAL TREASURE JOGS AT BELMONT; TAIBA TO MET MILE

National Treasure (Quality Road), winner of last Saturday’s GI Preakness S., has made his way to Belmont Park for a potential start in the GI Belmont S. June 10. Bob Baffert said National Treasure got a feel for the Belmont Park main track Thursday with a light jog.

“He’s going well. We’re going to get him up there, train him and see how he’s doing,” Baffert said.

He added National Treasure will have one work at Belmont before a decision is made whether to test the 1 1/2-mile race.

“When he breezes, he’s going to have to show me he’s up for it,” Baffert said.

Other potential Belmont S. starters for Baffert are Arabian Lion (Justify), winner of the Sir Barton S., and Reincarnate (Good Magic), who most recently was 13th in the Kentucky Derby.

Baffert also reported that Taiba (Gun Runner) remains on track to run in the GI Metropolitan H. on the Belmont S. undercard. He most recently was eighth in the GI Saudi Cup in Riyadh Feb. 25.

GABE PREWITT TO THE RED MILE

Harness racing's Gabe Prewitt has been named VP of Racing & Sports Wagering Operations at The Red Mile in Lexington, Kentucky. Caesars Entertainment has an agreement with a joint venture between Keeneland Association and The Red Mile to open Central Kentucky's only brick-and-mortar retail sportsbook locations, subject to regulatory approvals from the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission.

Prewitt was formerly the Director of Racing with Caesars Entertainment, overseeing racing operations at five properties, as well as serving as a track announcer and as part of several broadcast teams on harness racing’s biggest days.

ALOGON (g, 4, California Chrome--Scamper, by Scat Daddy) switched from the Peitz barn to the Allard outfit following a pair of well-beaten Oaklawn starts and promptly graduated against maiden claimers on turf last fall at the Meadowlands. With a signature score over that surface a month later at Aqueduct against allowance types at 58-1, the gelding was last seen running second Jan. 20 at Tampa. Installed as the 4-1 shot here after the layoff, the homebred let Zyramid (City Zip) show the way. Alogon took aim at the pacesetter rounding the far turn and went on to a one-length victory under confident Jevian Toledo handling. GSW Favorable Outcome (Flatter) and his group-winning full-brother Mouheeb are both half-siblings to the winner's dam, who is responsible for a 2-year-old named Tanmancan (Speightster). That colt went for $10,000 during the OBS March sale. She also foaled a colt by Vekoma Feb. 10. Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-0, $103,666. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

STARSHIP AURORA (f, 3, Khozan--Realgoodlookin, by Unbridled's Song) missed by a half-length when second over the local turf on debut Mar. 23 before graduating by a nose over this course and distance Apr. 15. A bit difficult to handle while working out a spot at the rail into the first turn, Starship Aurora pulled fairly hard in a share of third spot down the back. Full of run on the second turn, she was roused to the lead in upper stretch and scampered home to score by daylight. The winner is a half-sister to Lovely Luvy (He's Had Enough), MSW, $308,333. Sales history: $1,200 Ylg '21 OBSWIN; $40,000 Ylg '21 OBSOCT; $75,000 RNA 2yo ‘22 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $60,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

APPLE PICKER (f, 3, Connect--Silent Fright, by Yes It's True), a four-length debut winner at Belmont for Rudy Rodriguez last July, was well-beaten in the GIII Adirondack S. and GI Spinaway S. and was last seen finishing a distant fifth of six over this track and trip Oct. 28. The 19-10 second pick having her first run for this white-hot barn, Apple Picker dueled for the early lead, raced three wide on the turn and sprinted away in the final furlong to score by 6 3/4 lengths. On behalf of Michael Dubb, Sean Perl Bloodstock acquired this dam--a half-sister to Sovereign Award-winning turf male Grand Adventure (Grand Slam) and to the dam of last year’s GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. winner Ready To Purrform (Kitten’s Joy)—for $21,000 with this filly in utero at Keeneland November in 2019. Silent Fright is the dam of the juvenile colt Jimmythetooth, from the first crop of the Dubb part-owned World of Trouble, a yearling colt by that stallion and was most recently covered by Curlin grandson Mr. Monomoy (Palace Malice), also campaigned by Dubb in partnership. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $87,720. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

GO OTTO GO (c, 2, Bolt d'Oro--Court Dancer {SW, $483,751}, by War Chant) was sent away at odds just shy of 2-1 for his debut run and overcame a bit of a sluggish beginning from the inside stall to graduate by four lengths Thursday. Off about a half-step slowly, the $42,000 Keeneland November buyback turned $180,000 Fasig-Tipton July purchase was forced to steady off the heels of pacesetting second-timer Suga Steve (Goldencents), but was athletic enough to re-engage to that one's outside entering the turn. More or less on even terms as they raced around the bend, the dark bay was asked for his best in upper stretch by Florent Geroux, opened an unassailable advantage into the final eighth of a mile and proved a handy winner under only mild encouragement. Beaudacious Colton (Race Day), already a veteran of two prior starts, ran on nicely for second.

4th-Pimlico, $54,160, Msw, 5-25, 2yo, f, 4 1/2f, :52.90, ft, 1/2 length.

KRISTINACHRYSLASIS (f, 2, Maximus Mischief--Tiz Her Now, by Tiznow) notched the first winner for her freshman sire (by Into Mischief) and former 'TDN Rising Star' with a maiden-breaking score at Old Hilltop. Flashing early speed along the rail, the 9-2 chance contested the lead with 7-5 favorite Buckin' Great (Great Notion), but around the far turn the bay filly began to get away from her rival and went on to graduate by 3/4 of a length over the hard-charging Kellan (Divining Rod). The winner's unraced dam, who counts MSW Rush Now as a full-sister, also produced a yearling colt by this same sire. She dropped a filly by Independence Hall Apr. 11. HOLY COFFEE (f, 2, Brethren--Carmel Coffee {SP, $161,700}, by Holy Bull), sent on her way as the 7-2 second choice behind 3-2 chalk Panda Peak (Distorted Humor), broke slowly, but made up ground to capture the lead halfway down the backstretch. The bay filly continued to pour on the speed rounding the far turn and cruised home to win by four lengths over Casually (Flameaway) under a hand ride. MGISW Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) is a half-brother to Carmel Coffee, while the winner is her first offspring to make the races. Visiting Wait these past two seasons have yielded a colt and another Jan. 30. Sales History: $40,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR. LINE OF SIGHT (g, 3, Gun Runner--Coppermine, by Unbridled’s Song) debuted a well-beaten fifth going a mile Jan. 27 at Turfway Park. Landing here as the blinkered 5-2 second choice, the first-time gelding scampered along with an easy lead from the bell. Rounding the far turn, Line of Sight began to extend the margin and ran on down the lane to a 2 1/4-length success over the late-running chalk Swore (Broken Vow). RUNAWAY JACK (c, 4, Not This Time--Melody Girl, by Unbridled’s Song) was second in each of his first four starts, the last one coming Apr. 1 at Oaklawn when he was sandwiched between a pair of next-out winners in Federal Judge (Army Mule), who scored against optional claimers on the Derby undercard with a 90 Beyer, and Zambezi (Candy Ride {Arg}). The chestnut colt trailed early as the 2-5 short-priced favorite here, but launched a bid along the fence into the far turn. Looking for running room into the stretch, Runaway Jack finally got clear and with a sixteenth left, unleashed a strong charge to win easily by 3 3/4 lengths over Dats Mr. Mo (Uncle Mo). The winner’s dam is responsible for a 3-year-old filly named Hialeah Hottie (Sharp Azteca) and 2-year-old colt Summer Diet (Vino Rosso), who was purchased for $250,000 by Kenny McPeek at the Fasig-Tipton Summer Yearling sale. AUTO GLIDE (c, 3, Tiznow-- Surge (SW & GSP, $287,500), by Malibu Moon) was just off-the-board on debut last summer over the turf at Ellis Park before heading to the bench. The bay colt emerged to run fourth again after the eight-month layoff Apr. 1 at Oaklawn and then was a well-beaten fifth in Hot Springs May 6. The 8-5 co-favorite here, Auto Glide tracked a longshot around the first turn and down the backstretch. Making his move before the final turn, the homebred fended off a brief challenge from fellow chalk Tabeguache (Into Mischief) at the top of the lane and kicked for home past the eighth pole en route to a 5 1/4-length success. The winner’s dam, who was acquired by Calumet for $245,000 at Keeneland January in 2016, last produced a 2-year-old colt named Ice Moon and a yearling colt, both by Keen Ice. MILLION DOLLAR CAT (f, 3, Tale of the Cat--Indy's Million, by A.P. Indy), under first time Lasix in her debut here, drifted on the tote from 7-2 on the morning line to 10-1. The dark bay filly took up a position mid-pack along the rail around the first turn before moving up between horses down the backstretch as tepid 7-2 favorite Tribest (Arg) (Seahenge) controlled a creeping pace of :51.10 through the first half mile. Getting in gear to the outside around the far turn, Million Dollar Cat, who was joined by Agent (Astern {Aus}), secured the lead past the sixteenth pole and found the wire in time to declare victory by a head over her pursuer.

The comebacking Bold Zone is closely related to GIII San Simeon S. winner Barraza in this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Sunday running at Kyoto and Tokyo Racecourses:

Sunday, May 28, 2023

2nd-KYO, ¥10,480,000 ($75k), Maiden, 3yo, 1800m

CHRYSO GRAND CHAT (c, 3, Bolt d'Oro--D'cats Meow, by D'wildcat), whose stakes-placed dam was purchased for $52,000 with this colt in utero out of the 2019 Keeneland November Sale, repaid that bill and then some when fetching $300,000 at the 2021 Keeneland September Sale. The Feb. 25 foal is out of a half-sister to three-time graded winner Pomeroys Pistol (Pomeroy), the dam of $1-million KEESEP grad and MGSW Thousand Words (Pioneerof the Nile), who stands alongside this colt’s sire at Spendthrift Farm. The Omaha Beach 2-year-old half-brother to Chryso Grand Chat was sold to Hickory Stables & T/C Stables for $95,000 at this week's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale. B-Chris Baccari (KY)

5th-TOK, ¥14,880,000 ($106k), Allowance, 3yo, 1600m

BOLD ZONE (c, 3, Mendelssohn--Halo Dolly, by Popular) stayed on very nicely to graduate over nine furlongs at first asking at Nakayama this past January (video, SC 7) and was last seen finishing a creditable third at this level at Chukyo back in March. A $40,000 KEESEP yearling turned $280,000 OBS March breezer, the bay--campaigned by the Silk Racing syndicate--is out of a dual turf graded victress who is also responsible for this colt’s close relation Barraza (Into Mischief), a Grade III-winning turf sprinter. DREAM DEBUT: BARLOW BIDS TO CAP OFF MEMORABLE YEAR AT TATTS IRELAND

Anna Barlow: the 22-year-old has made a great start to her breeze-up business | Brian Sheerin

By Brian Sheerin

Win, lose or draw at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale, Anna Barlow has already had a year to remember with a first foray into consigning her own horses under the banner of Byerley Stud.

The 22-year-old got off to a dream start by netting herself over €40,000 of a profit when selling a Starspangledbanner (Aus) filly to her boss Paddy Twomey for 65,000gns at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up Sale last month.

Barlow will bid to keep the momentum going this week when offering lot 137, a Phoenix Of Spain (Ire) filly she sourced for just €6,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale.

"She only cost €6,000 back here at the September Yearling Sale but she's after breezing well and we're very happy with her," Barlow said of the filly on Thursday. "She's the first foal out of a Dansili (GB) mare and is obviously by a first-season sire in Phoenix Of Spain.

"He's had a very good start to the season and has had his winners so we're hopeful. They seem to be running very well and trainers seem to like them. They are tough and hardy and this filly seems to be a nice type by him as well." Cont. p3

by Tom Frary

Thursday’s G3 Brigadier Gerard S. was one for the comeback kids, but not the one most expected as Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)--Aghareed, by Kingmambo) overhauled Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)) fair and square up the Sandown hill. As last year’s Derby hero loomed large on the front end under Richard Kingscote two out, Jim Crowley was in a pocket on the Shadwell homebred who had over a length to make up as he gave pursuit a furlong later. While the 2-5 favourite Desert Crown put a healthy margin into the remainder on the climb to the line, the 5-1 second favourite was grabbing the ground to make up the deficit and reel him in late to prevail by half a length.

Coming off a day-longer absence and more serious injury than Desert Crown here, Hukum had been on the brink of retirement following his emphatic G1 Coronation Cup victory last June.

Barlow’s Phoenix Of Spain is the only other breezer she took on this year. Like the Starspangledbanner, she breezed well and ranked highly on the various time sheets circulated after the breeze.

But this wise head on young shoulders refused to get ahead of herself on the eve of the sale and remained hopeful rather than confident of securing another profit to round off a memorable year with her breezers.

"We were delighted with the Starspangledbanner so hopefully the Phoenix Of Spain can go well now as well. We bought the Starspangledbanner at Goffs for €22,000 and she made 65,000gns at Tattersalls so we couldn’t have been happier with that.

"They are the only two horses I did this year. I work for Paddy Twomey full-time and these horses were based in Anthony Ryan’s which is only just across the road from him. Paddy kindly let me use his gallop so it’s worked out well. He has been some help to me now to be fair."

She added, "I always worked the sales and the breeze-ups. I worked two seasons for Con Marnane, worked for Willie Browne and always had a couple of horses here and there but never did them myself.

"The Starspangledbanner was a lot earlier than this one so I said I’d give the Phoenix Of Spain a bit more time and aim her at the Goresbridge Sale. I didn’t push her too early and did each horse individually."

Barlow is one of many young guns who could play a star role at Tattersalls Ireland on Friday. This sale ground has provided a springboard for many a shrewd young operator in recent years, including Shane and Alex Power, who sold the Group 1-placed Bright Diamond (Ire) (El Kabeir) here 12 months ago.

Their Tradewinds Stud is now an established name and the expectation is that the Power brothers will once again be in the spotlight at Tattersalls Ireland given their Iffraaj (GB) filly (lot 70) and Profitable (Ire) (lot 253) colt shaped particularly well in the breeze.

But Barlow is the newest name in the breeze-up game and, should her Phoenix Of Spain filly secure a profit on Friday, it will pave the way for a bigger and better consignment next year—not to mention a holiday!

"I’ll definitely go again next year," she says without flinching. "I won’t go mad, now—I won’t spend it all—all I need to keep some money for an auld holiday somewhere! But we’ll definitely go again and keep the numbers small."

The sale, which has produced Layfayette (Ire) (French Navy {GB}), Prince Of Pillo (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}) and Coralillo (Ire) (Havana Grey {GB}) in recent years, kicks off at 10am on Friday.

The Owen Burrows-trained 6-year-old seems to have taken a leaf out of his brother Baaeed’s book if this dynamic display was anything to come by.

While Crowley was surprised by the manner in which Hukum has reinvented himself during his convalescence and rebuild, he admitted that the trainer had issued a warning of what was to come.

“He’d been training well and Owen had said it was the best he’d ever known him,” he said. “He’s almost got quicker. The ground was beautiful tonight and it was a very good performance in my opinion—when things are in his favour he’s top drawer.”

“It was a mile and a quarter and things weren’t really in our favour,” his rider added. “I think when he goes back up to a mile and a half he is just as good, if not better. When he gets that toe in a bit, he is an absolute machine. I’d love to see him in a King George in the summer, a wet King George, as I think that would be his thing.

Owen’s done well to get him back—he’s done an amazing job with him.”

For Burrows, the result was the outcome of a prolonged labour of care and attention from all concerned with the winner, who was recording a seventh Group win from this trip to a mile and three quarters. His first had come over an extended 13 furlongs in Newbury’s G3 Geoffrey Freer S. three years ago, after which he was tried in the G1 St Leger only to not truly stay the trip.

“It’s a tremendous feeling for all who have been involved in his rehab—this has been a huge team effort,” he said. “He’s a handful, a big strong horse so you have to keep your wits about you. He is so bullish.”

“His injury was gutting for everyone in the yard, but Sheikha Hissa did say early on if this it goes well he can come back to you,” he added. “We’re in the [G2] Hardwicke and the King George—I didn’t envisage the Eclipse and so didn’t enter him, but it looks like he has developed a bit of speed from somewhere. He probably got pigeonholed a bit as a slow horse, but I’ve always said he is not. I know he has won over a mile and six, but he has always shown speed at home. What’s vitally important for him is good ground, as good-to-firm is a no-go.”

“Plenty have come back from an injury like his, but he was a 5-year-old that had just won a Group 1 and I didn’t think it would be in the realms that he could come back,” Burrows added. “He was my first Royal Ascot winner. He went to Dubai and won on Super Saturday which was massive for us. He was my first Group 1 winner. I will find it hard to replace him when the time comes when he does head off to stud. He has been a star for the whole team and is an absolute legend.”

Desert Crown beat his third-placed stablemate and triple group-winning yardstick Solid Stone (Ire) (Shamardal) by 4 1/2 lengths, so this was a highly respectable comeback run—we’d obviously have liked to have won, but I’m happy with him. He showed the gears for 10 again there to pick them up, but a good horse has come and got us.”

Sir Michael Stoute added, “He was a little ring-rusty. He looked as if he had his race won, but he just tied up in the closing stages. He has been a year off, which is a long time. There are two races he is in [at Royal Ascot], but we are not making a decision yet.”

Their dam, the Listed Prix de Liancourt scorer Aghareed, is out of the GI Breeders’ Cup Fully & Mare Turf and GI Flower Bowl Invitational heroine Lahudood (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). The fourth dam is the Listed Cheshire Oaks runner-up Bashayer (Mr. Prospector), a full-sister to the Listed Oh So Sharp S. scorer Sarayir who in turn produced the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. heroine Ghanaati (Giants Causeway). Ghanaati’s son Mutasaabq (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) has captured the G2 Joel S. and G2 Sandown Mile and was a respectable fifth in Saturday’s G1 Lockinge S. They all stem from the remarkable Height Of Fashion (Fr), whose initial gift to the late Sheikh Hamdan was the star triumvirate of Nashwan, Nayef and Unfuwain. Aghareed’s 3-year-old colt by Nathaniel (Ire) named Naqeeb (Ire) is on the improve after two starts, while she also has a 2-year-old colt by Night Of Thunder (Ire) named Waleefy (Ire) and a foal full-brother to Hukum and Baaeed.

ROBERTO ESCOBARR DIFS DEEP FOR HENRY II TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

Hussain Alabas Lootah’s elusive 6-year-old Roberto Escobarr (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}–Bewitched {Ire}, by Dansili {GB}), who has been sighted just twice since October 2021, stepped out of the shadows to notch a career high with a game victory in Thursday’s G3 Racehorse Lotto Henry II S. at Sandown.

The William Haggas trainee went postward as the 7-5 favourite returning off a third at Wolverhampton in March, that seasonal debut coming 399 days after running second at Kempton in February 2022, and assumed control approaching the judge first time in this marathon test. Holding sway thereafter, he was stoked up with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and stayed on resolutely under a final-quarter drive to bravely withstand the persistent threat of last year’s runner-up Nate The Great (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) by a neck. The pair finished 3 1/2 lengths clear of the remainder, headed by the veteran Sleeping Lion (Teofilo {Ire}).

“He was off for a lot of last year and we brought him back this year hoping he would qualify for All-Weather Finals Day,” said Richard Knight, representing winning owner Hussain Alabas Lootah. “He was just a little bit rusty in that race and we have just been waiting for this quicker ground. It is lovely for him to win his group race, his brother Pablo Escobarr won his group race as well and we are delighted. He is as genuine as anything and Richard [Kingscote] said he was relaxed in front. He was very comfortable travelling around there and he has stuck his head down and fought to the line which is fantastic. We hadn’t really discussed any further than today, we will get him out of this and I will have a chat with William [Haggas] and Mr Lootah and we will make a plan. At his age, how much is he going to improve I’m not sure, but he is still a horse who is slightly unexposed at the distance and he is genuine as anything. We were more positive today than we have ever been and those tactics worked well.”

FIRST MINISTER DICTATES AT PARISLONGCHAMP by Tom Frary

Providing a boost to TDN Rising Star Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}), Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Westerberg’s First Minister (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) mastered his peers in Thursday’s G3 Prix Hocquart at ParisLongchamp.

Runner-up to Pascal Bary’s G1 Prix du Jockey Club-bound colt in the Prix de Ferrières conditions event over just short of this 11-furlong trip at this track last month, the 9-2 shot was settled in third early under cover on the rail by Bauyrzhan Murzabayev.

Getting a gap on the fence to storm to the lead a furlong out, the bay who was also third behind the subsequent G1 Prix Saint-Alary runner-up Elusive Princess (Fr) (Martinborough {Jpn}) on unsuitably soft ground at Saint-Cloud at the beginning of April stayed on strongly to beat Harry Way (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. In doing so, he was providing Andre Fabre with a record-extending eighth winner of this staging post to the G1 Grand Prix de Paris.

First Minister is a son of the Gill Noble Damsel S. and Gill Marshua’s River scorer Naples Bay (Giant’s Causeway). A half-sister to the GI Travers S., GI Whitney H. and GI Donn H.-winning leading sire Medaglia d’Oro, her 2-year-old full-sister to the winner was bought by BBA Ireland for 230,000gns at the Book 1 Sale, while she also has a yearling colt by Wootton Bassett (GB) and filly foal by St Mark’s Basilica (Fr).

Hi Royal Heads Irish Guineas Eleven

by Tom Frary

TDN Rising Star Hi Royal (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) will bid to go one better than his second placing in the G1 2000 Guineas on Saturday, as Jaber Abdullah’s homebred headed 11 runners for the Curragh’s G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas. Reunited with Oisin Murphy, who steered him at Newmarket, the Kevin Ryan trainee received the favourable inside stall two with Fitri Hay’s Guineas third Royal Scotsman (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in seven under Jamie Spencer. He is deputising for the Paul and Oliver Cole-trained colt’s regular rider Jim Crowley, who is in action for Shadwell at York on one of the first multi-meeting Saturdays of the season.

A First For Murphy?

Incredibly, Oisin Murphy has yet to ride a winner at the Curragh and so Hi Royal would be providing a personal landmark for the jockey if he backs up his second effort over three weeks ago when 125-1. “I’ve been second [at The Curragh] before, so it would be lovely to break my duck this weekend,” he said. “Hi Royal apparently has come out of Newmarket very well. I’ve a lot of respect for Royal Scotsman, who I just finished in front of in the QIPCO 2000 Guineas but Hi Royal is a straightforward horse and I’m sure he’ll give his running. This meeting has a lot of history. I grew up watching the 2000 Guineas at the Curragh on RTE, so to be riding one of the favourites in the race is really nice. It’s a great feeling and I want to make the most of it.”

Ballydoyle Shuffle The Pack

Aidan O’Brien will run a trio in the Irish 2000, with the TDN Rising Stars Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Age Of Kings (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) joined by the smart Cairo (Ire) (Quality Road). As expected, Ryan Moore is on the former who captured the course-and-distance Listed Tetrarch S. at the start of the month and is currently the shortest-priced of the home-trained contingent. Ryan Moore’s commitment to the Classic means that Frankie Dettori will take the mount on Ballydoyle’s TDN Rising Star Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) in Haydock’s G2 Sandy Lane S. While The Curragh’s G2 Greenlands S. had been mooted as the intended target for last year’s champion juvenile immediately after the Guineas, connections have opted to keep him in his own age group and head to Merseyside with the G1 Commonwealth Cup the aim.

Classics Winner Eldar Eldarov Thriving in Advance of Gold Cup Bid

Classic hero Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who races for KHK Racing, Ltd., has exited his second-place effort in the G2 Yorkshire Cup in excellent order, and is pointing toward Royal Ascot’s G1 Gold Cup.

Trained by Roger Varian, the 4-year-old entire won the G2 Queen’s Vase during the iconic meeting last year, and, after a fourth-place run in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris, won the G1 St Leger in September. Unplaced in the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup, Eldar Eldarov was conceding anywhere from two to five pounds to his rivals on the Knavesmire.

“He’s great, he couldn’t have taken it [the run] better and I’ve been delighted with him this week,” said the Newmarket handler. “His profile looks good for the Gold Cup and the St Leger form is starting to show its worth now.

“His run at York would excite anyone, whoever’s camp he was in. It was just a good run, he hit the line strong, he gave weight to the field and looks like he’ll improve over a bit further.

“We’re looking forward to it.”

DIVERSE CATALOGUE FOR THE ARQANA SUMMER SALE REVEALED

A varied catalogue featuring 92 2-year-olds, 162 2- and 3-year-old stores, 151 horses-in-training, and 80 fillies and mares comprise the upcoming Arqana Summer Sale.

Flat-bred 2-year-olds will breeze at Deauville Racecourse beginning at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, July 4. The first day of the sale will consist of Flat-bred 2-year-olds and stores on Wednesday, July 5, while breeding stock and horses-in-training will sell the day after. Both sessions will begin at 11 a.m.

American Grade I winner Chez Pierre (Fr) (Mehmas {Ire}) was sourced as a juvenile out of this sale, and among the stallions represented are Group 1 sires Australia (GB), Churchill (Ire), Dark Angel (Ire), Footstepsinthesand (GB), Invincible Spirit (Ire), Kodiach (GB), Night Of Thunder (Ire), No Nay Never, Sea The Moon (Ger), Sea The Stars (Ire), Starspangledbanner (Aus), and Wootton Bassett (GB) among others.

The store portion of the sale highlights the best French National Hunt families, with full- or half-siblings to Grade 1 winner Docteur De Ballon (Fr) (Doctor Dino (Fr)) (lot 253) and Diego Du Charmil (Fr) (Ballingarry (Ire)) (lot 190) among many other quality lots. Both Flat and NH lots--divided between 56 mares and 21 fillies out-of-training--are set to sell as breeding stock. Drafts from Al Shaqab Racing, the Aga Khan Studs and Wertheimer et Frere highlight the horses-in-training section.

There are also 30 wildcard slots available for recent performers on the Flat and over jumps.

CORE PRINCIPLES IN THE 2024 FIXTURE LIST APPROVED BY BHA BOARD

Wide-spread innovative changes to the 2024 UK fixture list based on several core principles have been approved by the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) Board.

Part of British racing’s cross industry strategy, the principles will be tested over a two-year period and represent an important first step in delivering a more substantive racing product. The core principles unanimously agreed upon by the BHA Board are as follows:

- A “Premier” racing tier with higher prize-money and more competitive top-quality racing featuring the best horses
- A two-hour “shop window” on most Saturday afternoons with three fixtures, including up to two Premier fixtures, taking place during the peak customer engagement period (usually 2 p.m.-4 p.m.). Other Saturday fixtures will take place outside the protected window
- Piloting six Sunday evening floodlit fixtures between January and March 2024—a time of the week where betting activity tends to be strong
- Boosting Core racing—moving more fixtures later in the day in response to changing customer preferences, making the most of our Core fixtures during major festivals and supporting Summer Jumping Cont. p9
- More competitive racing with a reduction in 300 Jump races across the year, and some Flat races moved from summer to autumn/early winter, based on data showing these measures will help increase field sizes and betting
- Better quality racing on Sunday afternoons, including Premier fixtures.

These measures were created after research and analysis, underpinned by data from betting companies, racecourses, and the Horserace Betting Levy Board (HBLB), as well as customer insight, including from the Horserace Bettors’ Forum (HBF), and input from the industry’s Fixtures and Funding Group.

Joe Saumarez Smith, Chair of the BHA, said, “The BHA Board endorsed and approved these recommendations because it was clear to us that they were necessary and in the best interests of the sport.

“The information that was presented by the sport’s Commercial Committee included detailed consideration of both the upside and downside of all proposals. This allowed the Board to make its decisions based on the complete picture.

“The changes will be tested over an initial two-year period and will be closely evaluated to see how well they work, with the aim of permanently adopting the things that have been a success. I would like to thank the Commercial Committee, and everyone who has been involved in this process, for their work to date. It has been a truly collaborative, cross-industry effort.”

To view Saumarez-Smith’s full statement, please go to the BHA website.

Julie Harrington, Chief Executive of the BHA, said, “When the industry’s leaders came together in autumn last year, we agreed unanimously that innovation in the way the sport is presented is an absolute necessity. The core principles approved by the BHA Board were identified as the most time sensitive area and the foundation of our wider approach.

“There is still a huge amount to do as we seek to grow and future-proof British racing, but the development of a fixture list that seeks to attract new fans and grow the appeal of our sport to existing customers represents an important first step.”

David Jones, Chair of the cross-industry Commercial Committee, said, “I’m very grateful to all members of the Commercial Committee for their contributions through this extensive process. The sport needs to progress with the measures that have been agreed by the Board, in order to bring about the growth which will benefit all parts of the industry.”

The Professional Jockeys Association released a statement that read: “The PJA understands and remains fully engaged with the need for the fixture list to continue to evolve. There remain challenges ahead for all stakeholders, however it is vital that all parties involved continue to work together to ensure that British racing remains competitive and relevant whilst maintaining opportunities for horses and their connections under both codes.

“With another extensive fixture list for next year, we welcome the confirmation of clear code breaks for participants, which we have steadfastly supported, alongside further potential initiatives to be announced in the coming months.

“The PJA supports a pilot for the six Sunday evening floodlit fixtures on the understanding that our members are rewarded appropriately for these fixtures.

“The PJA thanks all concerned for their work to date on these initiatives.”

DAHLBURY TO SPONSOR CORONATION CUP AND STYLE AWARDS

The G1 Coronation Cup and Style Awards will continue to be sponsored by Dahlbury during the Betfred Derby Festival on June 2-3. Both events are scheduled for Ladies Day, on Friday, June 2.

Founded by Simon and Rhian Davies, the organisation possesses a stallion roster located at Chapel Stud and includes Group 1 winners Planteur (Ire) and Trueshan (Fr). The winning owner of the 2023 Dahlbury Coronation Cup will be presented with a perpetual trophy from the running of the race in 1902 when it was known as the Epsom Cup.

A variety of prizes will be awarded at the Dahlbury Style Awards, as Dahlbury, in collaboration with Emily-London, are gifting a £1,500 Emily-London Luxury Headwear gift card. Other prizes include tickets for Ladies Day in 2024 and a House of Cavani voucher. Cont. p10
The general public will vote on the winners for the first time, and racegoers must enter at the Derby Festival on Friday, June 2. There will be a public vote on the Epsom Downs Facebook page, open until Sunday, June 4. The winners of the DahlBury Style Awards will be announced on Monday, June 12.

Rhian Davies said, "DahlBury is delighted to continue its association and support, of the DahlBury Coronation Cup in the year of the Coronation of our new King. We are also thrilled to be the sponsor of this year’s Style Awards on Ladies Day in collaboration with Emily-London. This is a day we feel encompasses our brand values, whilst maintaining the heritage that is involved with British horse racing."

James Crespi, General Manager of Epsom Downs, added, "We must say a huge thank you to DahlBury for their support across our Ladies Day this year. The DahlBury Coronation Cup has an incredible heritage and to be able to present the Epsom Cup from early last century to the winning owner will add a suitably historic touch on what should be a spectacular day on the Downs."

MILLION IN MIND DISPERSAL TOPS GOFFS UK SPRING FINALE

The Goffs UK Spring HIT/PTP Sale's annual Million In Mind Dispersal closed the second session at Doncaster with a flourish Thursday. A pair of six-figure plus lots led the action, led by Ioupy Collonges (Fr) (Kitkou (Fr)--Ine Collonges (Fr), by Dom Alco) (lot 675). The 5-year-old, who has won two of his four hurdle starts for Paul Nicholls, is expected to return to the Nicholls yard after being purchased by his trainer and Tom Malone.

The final session also offered a 25-lot partial dispersal from Dai Walters, which produced three of the day’s four top lots, with the highlight coming with their Grade 2-placed mare Great Snow (Fr) (Great Pretender {Ire}) (lot 682), selling to Highflyer Bloodstock and Opulence Thoroughbreds for £100,000.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, “We are always aware that vendors have a choice, and these options have never been greater within the NH sector but, once again, the Goffs UK Spring Sale has proved to be the very best NH sale held every May with both sections comfortably outperforming all others. [Wednesday's] PTP day saw a top price of £215,000 which comfortably surpassed the competition, and our 15 six-figure transactions stand the closest scrutiny and is something of which we are incredibly proud.”

A total of 379 head sold this year for a gross of £8,923,450, up from £7,163,000 generated from 333 sold in 2022. The average also increased from £23,545 versus £21,511 one year ago. The two-day sale took the total six-figure sales to a record 17, with Thursday’s clearance rate closing out at 92%.

Kent added, “We can therefore look back on a fantastic four days in Doncaster where a wonderful atmosphere extended from start to finish and again highlighted the enduring popularity of this end of season finale. A packed sales ring has witnessed some frantic bidding at every level of the market, and we look forward to seeing the next Corach Rambler, Constitution Hill, Good Land or You Wear It Well on the racecourse later this year.”

REGISTRATION FOR YORKSHIRE THREE PEAKS CHALLENGES CLOSES MAY 31

Racing Welfare's all-new mass participation fundraising event for 2023—the Racing Welfare Yorkshire Three Peaks Challenge—is just shy of 100 participants and registration for the 12-hour challenge closes May 31. The event takes place Saturday, July 8, led by fully qualified guides from event partner Large Outdoors. Participants will tackle the famous three peaks of Ingleborough, Pen-y-ghent and Whernside, covering 25 miles and over 1,500 metres of ascent. The Tote and Tattersalls are confirmed as headline sponsors for the fundraiser.

Entry fees for the for the Racing Welfare Yorkshire Three Peaks Challenge are set at just £35pp, with participants asked to raise a minimum £300 sponsorship.

Those interested in taking part can register for the challenge on the Racing Welfare website.
ENFJAAR A NEW TDN RISING STAR AT CHELMSFORD by Tom Frary

On another big day for Shadwell, the 3-year-old bow of Enfjaar (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)--Tesoro (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)) could easily have gone under the radar were it not for the deep impression the operation’s latest TDN Rising Star created on Chelmsford’s Polytrack. Having had the current Derby favourite Military Order (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) back in fourth when scoring on debut over seven furlongs at Newmarket in October, the bay was the 4-7 favourite for the card’s Racing Welfare Novice S. over a mile and broke smartly before being restrained.

A touch fresh tracking the leading pair throughout the early stages, the 240,000gns Tatts December Foal Sale graduate ranged alongside Lion Tamer (GB) (Roaring Lion) a furlong out and was soon in total command. Surging clear for David Egan, he had an impressive six lengths to spare over that Gosden representative at the line to become the sire’s 13th TDN Rising Star. Among them are some big names such as Newspaperofrecord (Ire), Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) and Aunt Pearl (Ire).

The dam, a full-sister to the GI First Lady S. and GI Rodeo Drive S. heroine Photo Call (Ire), is also a half to the G2 Richmond S.-winning sire Land Force (Ire) (No Nay Never). They are out of the G3 Summer S. winner Theann (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)), one of three group winners produced by the electric G2 King’s Stand S. and G2 Temple S.-winning sprinter Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge (Ire)) including the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Nassau S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. winner Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal (GB)). Halfway To Heaven was in turn responsible for the seven-times Group-1 winning Magical (Ire) and triple Group 1-winning Rhododendron (Ire) from matings with Tesoro’s sire Galileo, with the latter responsible for last year’s G1 Futurity hero and possible imminent Derby winner Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact (Jpn)). Cassandra Go’s other pattern-race scorer is Tickled Pink (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)), whose career highs came in the G3 Abernant S. and G3 Sandown Sprint S. and who is now the dam of last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf hero Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior (Jpn)). Tesoro’s 2-year-old full-brother to Enfijaar named Nahy (Fr) caused a stir at the Book 1 Sale when going to Nawara Stud for 525,000gns, while her yearling colt by Almanzor (Fr) was a 72,000gns purchase by GHS Bloodstock at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale.

Margins: 5, 1, 1HF. Odds: 2.50, 11.00, 8.00.

Also Ran: Shayekh (Ire), Matters Most (GB), Blue Storm (GB), Son Of Corballis (Ire), On Point (Ire), Dapper Valley (Ire), Love Billy Boy (Ire).

“He is a long way from wound up, I think he is a very good horse and he has the potential to be a superstar sprinter,” enthused Havana Grey’s former trainer Karl Burke after posting his second win in the race. “He does things nice and easy at home, we haven’t forced him at all and he has got the scope as well. He will improve again on this and he will now go for the [G2] Norfolk at Royal Ascot. I’ve not watched a replay, but it looked very easy and I thought Clifford [Lee] made a great move after a furlong. I was worried about the horses on his outside coming over and boxing him in and I didn’t want that. I wanted it nice and simple as he is a lovely horse with a big stride. It was lot quicker ground than Doncaster, so we were a bit wary he might be a bit green and a bit outpaced early. Clifford did exactly the right thing after a furlong or so and switched out and got a lovely clear passage.” With thoughts of Royal Ascot very much to the fore, the trainer added, “We know Wesley Ward will come over with some rockets, but this fellow will stay very well and he will love that track. I was rushing through the stands and didn’t realise we were second [with World Of Darcy] until I looked up at the screen. He is a good solid horse and he will be winning plenty of races. He will probably go for the [Listed] Windsor Castle.”

Elite Status, full-brother to a yearling colt, is the first of two foals produced by a multiple-winning daughter of Luxuria (Ire) (Kheleyf), herself a half-sister to the 2007 winner of this contest Sweepstake (Ire) (Acclamation (GB)). Sweepstake, in turn, is the dam of G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud hero Broome (Ire) (Australia (GB)) and MGSW G2 Futurity S. and G2 Huxley S. victor Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia (GB)). Cont. p14

Havana Grey (GB) (Havana Gold (Ire)) notched a one-length tally in the 2017 renewal of Sandown’s Listed Racehorse Lotto National S. and the second-crop sire left his mark on the contest once more after his Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum-owned son Elite Status (GB) powered to a hugely impressive success in the five-furlong dash.

The 5-2 favourite had opened his account with a three-length triumph in his May 6 debut over the same trip at Doncaster and jumped to the head of ante-post betting lists for Royal Ascot’s G2 Norfolk S. with a five-length rout in this return.

Elite Status was well away to track the leaders in fifth through the early stages. Taking closer order at halfway, he went through an array of gears inside the final quarter-mile and powered away from eight previous winners to secure a career high by daylight from stablemate World Of Darcy (Ire) (Soldier’s Call (GB)).

SEA OF THIEVES (GB) (f, 3, Cracksman {GB}--Grande Bleue {Ire}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), a Nov. 28 debut sixth over this trip at Kempton in her only prior start, chased the leaders in fourth through halfway in this seasonal return. Angled off the rail for a clear passage approaching the final furlong, the 66-1 outsider quickened smartly in the closing stages and was pushed out to deny Via Corone (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) by a half-length nearing the line. Sea Of Thieves is the second of four foals and second scorer from as many runners produced by a winning half-sister to four black-type performers headed by G3 Prix du Bois victor Snowday (Fr) (Falco) and G1 King’s Stand S. runner-up Arcibo (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Immensitude taking Thursday’s Prix Finlande | ScoopDyg

Steadied to race at the tail of the field from the outset, she made relentless headway out wide in the straight to lead with 300 metres remaining and powered clear in impressive fashion from there to secure a career high by daylight.

“I am pleasantly surprised and especially so because she had run three very disappointing races this season after opening her account in very good style last December,” admitted trainer Stephane Wattel. “The improved performance may be down to a combination of factors. First of all, she was racing on faster ground for the first time and, secondly, she has also blossomed physically this past month, putting on plenty of weight and muscle. Nine [furlongs] his her best trip and I imagine the [G3] Prix Chloe will be next.”

Immensitude is the third of four foals and one of two scorers from as many runners produced by a multiple-winning half-sister to G3 Prix du Lys victor Remus De La Tour (Fr) (Stormy River (Fr)) and stakes-winning G3 Prix Cleopatre runner-up Chill (Fr) (Verglas (Ire)). Chill’s multitude of black-type descendants is headed by G3 Prix La Force victor Chilean (GB) (Iftraaj (GB)) and stakes-winning G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches runner-up Lindy (Fr) (Le Havre (Ire)). CAPE RACING SALES LAUNCHES BONUS STRUCTURE, PINHOOKING PROGRAMME

Cape Racing Sales has launched a new Bonus Structure and Pinhooking Programme. Beginning with the 2023 June Winter Sale, bonuses of R100,000 will be paid for the first juvenile win of any race, including open maiden races won by juveniles. The bonuses will be limited to the first 40 juvenile winners.

Justin Vermaak, Racing Operations and Bloodstock Executive for Cape Racing said, “We are returning R4-million in cash bonuses to our valued clients over 40 races, which we feel is an adequate number of races considering the number of horses we generally sell over three sales...the bonuses will be implemented alongside two further, gainful incentives, namely a reduction of the breeders commission from 8% down to the current 5%, as well as a 25% share of the bonuses paid—R75,000 will be paid to the winning owner and R25,000 to the winning vendor.”

While graduates of the 2023 CRS January Premier Sale won’t qualify for the first series of bonuses, they will qualify for the inaugural Cape Sales Slipper, and from the 2024 Premier Sale onwards will qualify for both.

Additionally, the CRS Pinhooking Programme will introduce pinhooking “assistance” incentive to help drive the June and October RTR sales. The programme will allow approved applicants to get an authorised budget from CRS. This will make it possible for the pinhookers to “purchase” a horse/s at the June sale, while only paying for them after selling at the RTR sale in October. In effect, this extends approved pinhookers a line of credit and the benefit of cash flow to keep their purchase at a good pre-training facility.

Potential pinhooking prospectors must apply through Cape Racing Sales to participate in the scheme. Upon approval, they’ll be afforded a credit limit to purchase horses accordingly.

“Vendors who sell to pinhookers will be paid out the full amounts owed to them within the standard CRS terms, so there is absolutely no reason for concern,” he added. It is mandatory for pinhooked horses to be entered for re-selling on the RTR Auction and entry will be free. Upon the selling of the pinhooked horse at the RTR sale, the pinhooker will have his or her outstanding balance deducted from their sales proceeds. Balances will be paid out on schedule.”

YULONG ACCOUNTS FOR 31% OF TOTAL TRADE AT MAGICS

$1.5 million Day 3 topper Macroura | Magic Millions

by Oz Wedmore

At the close of the 2023 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, Yulong had spent an incredible $33.46 million, nearly a third of the sale's entire trade.

At A Glance:

- The Newgate Consignment was the sale’s leading vendor by far, for a second consecutive year. They finished with total receipts of $27,358,500 for their 58 sold, after passing in just two. On average (three or more sold), Milburn Creek finished ahead, with eight mares selling at a rate of $639,375 apiece.

- Yarraman Park’s I Am Invincible finished the sale as the leading covering sire on average, with the five mares in foal to the Champion Sire commanding an average of $1,330,000.

- The highest-priced mare on Day 3 was Lot 991, Group 3 winner Macroura (Snitzel). Offered by Vinery Stud in foal to Deep Field, she sold to Yulong for $1.5 million, joining her half-sister Sunshine In Paris (Invader) as a millionaire, whilst their dam Zenaida (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) also made seven figures this week.

Bowditch Realistic Despite Slew of Star Sales

As the 2023 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale closed on Thursday evening, the sale company's Managing Director Barry Bowditch was left to reflect on trade which had largely followed the same pattern seen across sales as a whole this year.

Whilst there were plenty of headlines made by some very well-credentialled mares, results in the middle and lower parts of the market slowed in comparison to last year, as reflected in the lower median and clearance rate metrics.

This left opportunity open to buyers, where reserves were set accordingly, perhaps true of Magic Millions owner Gerry Harvey himself; his Barramul Stud secured Russian Revolution’s half-sister, Ballet De Joie (Snitzel) (Lot 1196), just four lots from the end of the sale for $700,000.

“Very much in line with expectations,” Bowditch said. “Ideally, we would have liked to sell a few more at the low to mid-end, but I think the top end made up for that from the gross perspective, and it’s our job to continue to improve the clearance rate in the hours and days to come. Hailing the gusto shown from the sale’s largest buyer, Yulong, as ‘unbelievable’, Bowditch added:

“It’s very exciting for Australia, and it’s exciting for Victoria, and the whole industry’s cheering Yulong on for their successes in the years to come.”

Lot 991 - Macroura (Snitzel x Zenaida (NZ) (Zabeel (NZ)) - $1.5 million to Yulong

Macroura, a daughter of the Champion Sire Snitzel, was offered by Vinery Stud on behalf of A List Stud, carrying a rare positive scan to Deep Field and was knocked down to Yulong for $1.5 million. Macroura will join her dam Zenaida (NZ) (Zabeel (NZ)) in the star-studded paddocks at the Victorian property, after she relished $1.4 million on Wednesday.

The 5-year-old mare hails from one of most sought-after families in Australia currently. Macroura’s a half-sister to the Group 1 victress Sunshine In Paris (Invader), who sold $3.9 million to James Harron Bloodstock on Tuesday.

Macroura herself was a class galloper when trained by Ciaron Maher and David Eustace she was victorious in the G3 Typhoon Tracy S. and Listed Woodlands S. Macroura foaled a filly by the Champion Yarraman Stud-based I Am Invincible.

Chief Operating Officer of Yulong Sam Fairgray hinted Macroura is likely to visit a top-class local stallion such as Yulong’s very own Written Tycoon.

“It’s great to secure Macroura after buying her mother yesterday and we’ll try and build a family with her.
“There are two very fast fillies out of the mare and we’ll keep breeding and try and keep fillies and see how we go with building the family.
“We haven’t decided who Macroura will visit yet, we’ll just wait and see, but Written Tycoon is probably the obvious one. Physically, she suits him and Snitzel works with them.”

Lot 1039 - Nomothaj (Snitzel x Real Stolle (Elusive Quality (USA))) - $1.2 million to Widden Stud and David Redvers Bloodstock

Sledmere Stud consigned a dual-Listed-winning daughter of Snitzel, Nomothaj carrying an October cover to the Champion Sire I Am Invincible, Nomothaj was knocked down to the combination of Widden Stud and David Redvers Bloodstock for $1.2 million.

Nomothaj hails from a precocious family being a daughter of the Elusive Quality (USA) mare Real Stolle, herself a winner of the G3 Maribyrnong P. as a juvenile.

Nomothaj showed plenty of ability beating the champion mare Sunlight (Zoustar) on debut in the Listed Maribyrnong Trial S. down the vast Flemington straight.

Furthermore, this is the family of Mariamia (Toronado {Ire}) who won the G1 The Galaxy in the autumn this season and claimed the G2 Expressway S.

Nomothaj is the dam of one named foal to date, a gelding by Exceed And Excel, Nazorian who is a winner, Nomothaj foaled a filly by the same sire last spring.

Antony Thompson, proprietor of the historic Widden Stud, was pleased to secure the daughter of Snitzel, having been a follower of Nomothaj after she beat Sunlight on debut.

“We’ve been trying hard but for me, Nomothaj was one that we really had our heart set on she we’re thrilled to have her.
“She ticks all the boxes. Carrying a Vinnie, I’ve seen the foal back at Sledmere. We were there that day when she debuted and beat Sunlight.
“She stuck clearly in my mind that day. We tried to buy her before and were disappointed we missed her. I’m glad we were able to get her today.”

Lot 958 - Kapralova (USA) (War Front (USA) x Lerici (USA) (Woodman (USA)) - $1 million to James Bester Bloodstock

Julian Blaxland’s Blue Sky Premium Consignment offered a daughter of the outstanding War Front (USA) who stands at the historic Claiborne Farm in Kentucky, Kapralova (USA).
Kapralova is carrying a valuable cover to Frankel (GB). War Front has nicked incredibly well with the late great Galileo (Ire), who stood at Coolmore Stud and of course is the sire of the Champion Frankel. When combined the War Front/Galileo cross has produced the triple Group 1-winner U S Navy Flag (USA).

Kapralova, an unraced 3-year-old, is a daughter of the Woodman (USA) mare Lerici (USA). She is a three-quarter sister to Grasshopper (USA) (Dixie Union {USA}) who won the G3 Mineshaft H. at Fair Grounds and was placed in the prestigious G1 Travers S. at Saratoga.

Kapralova is a sister to Avenge (USA), who won the G1 Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita twice and was placed in the G1 Gamely S. and the G1 Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Turf is a full sister to Liguria (USA) who claimed the G3 Jimmy Durante S. at Del Mar.

While Kapralova’s half-sister Lira (USA) (Giant’s Causeway {USA}) is a multiple Listed winner and is the dam of Lia Marina (USA) (Uncle Mo {USA}) - a Listed winner at Gulfstream in North America, and Pistoletto (USA) (War Front {USA}) who was placed in the G3 Cornwallis S. at Newmarket.

James Bester of James Bester Bloodstock was complimentary in his assessment of Kapralova as a type and on pedigree.

“She was always, obviously being in foal to Frankel and a full sister to a Group 1 winner and another Group 3 winner, going to be that kind of price I thought,” Bester said.

“But I thought she might make a little more, so I had something left in the tank.”

“Normally when one sees these full sisters to very good horses in foal to Frankel or that quality of stallion, one is disappointed by the physique. Often they are the weak sister or the ugly ducklings, but this was far from the case here.

“I found out that this filly herself had shown a lot of ability but cracked a knee early in training.

“She had the physique of one that should have run and of course her full sister won a Group 1, her full brother won a Group 3 and she wasn’t just the poor relation.

“She had the physique and the action, and she moved very well. I thought she was a very good play.”
