ARCHIE WATSON: 'ASCOT'S BEEN PRETTY BIG IN THE STORYLINE OF MY CAREER'

Archie Watson congratulates Hollie Doyle after Bradsell's Coventry win | Racingphotos.com

By Emma Berry

Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) was the juvenile star of the opening day of Royal Ascot last year and the G2 Coventry S. winner has been supplemented to return next week in the G1 King's Stand S. for Archie Watson.

"I guess Ascot's been pretty big in the storyline of my career," admits the Lambourn trainer, who also won't be short of two-year-old runners at the royal meeting in an attempt add to a record which includes the Windsor Castle S.

"Soldier's Call (GB) was obviously our first big winner. I know it was a Listed win, but it was a Royal Ascot winner. And the fact he then went on and won a Flying Childers and was very good in those Group 1 sprints, being only narrowly beaten in the Abbaye and then the following year he found Battaash (Ire) a few times, but he was a very good horse and he put us on the map for sure.

"Ascot has really been very important in the few years I've been training because we've had a Coventry winner, a British Champions Sprint winner and then obviously the whole Dragon Symbol debacle as well, winning a Commonwealth Cup and then not winning a Commonwealth Cup." Cont. p3

'THERE'S NO CEILING' ECLIPSE THOROUGHBRED TEAM HAS BIG HOPES FOR SELENAIA By Brian Sheerin

It was hard not to love the performance Selenia (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) posted in the GIII Honeymoon S. at Santa Anita last weekend.

One man who loved it more than most was Derek Icton of Tara Stud in County Meath. Icton bought the dam [Dettoria (GB) (Declaration Of War)] of the Grade I-bound performer for just 12,000gns at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale in 2018.

Dettoria is still based at Tara Stud and has a Space Blues (Ire) colt at foot. She is happily reported to be back in foal to the young Darley stallion by Icton, who describes America as being a lucky place for him.

That is largely down to the fact that Tara Stud graduate River Boyne (Ire) recorded his best days on a racecourse in America, notably when landing a Grade I at Santa Anita before returning home to embark on his stallion career, where he currently stands at the Meath outfit for €5,000. Archie Watson's Royal Ascot Team Cont. from p1

Glen Shiel (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) was the first Group 1 winner for Watson and for his stable jockey Hollie Doyle on Champions Day in 2020, two years after Soldier's Call had brought his trainer to wider prominence at Royal Ascot. Though Watson is still only in his seventh full season with a licence, the cyclical nature of the business means that his stable now contains a number of youngsters by the Ballyhane Stud stallion, who currently leads the European first-season sires' table with 12 winners.

"Soldier's was such a dude of a horse to train," he recalls. "It was in my second season training that we got sent that first batch of Clipper Logistics horses, and Soldier's was one of them. That was massive for us.

"He had such a lovely character and I'm just glad that he is really taking off as a stallion. We've got eight by him and we've won with three of the four that we've run. He's going great guns and it's really great to see, for Steve Parkin and Joe Foley and everybody involved in the horse."

Watson has nine juvenile winners on the board already for the year, with a selection of those being primed for next week. These include Army Ethos (GB) (Shalaa {Ire}), who will aim to give the stable a second Coventry success in the same colours as Bradsell, for Victorious Racing and Fawzi Nass.

"He's a very talented horse," says Watson. "I do really think that he can be a proper stakes horse in six-furlong sprints this year.

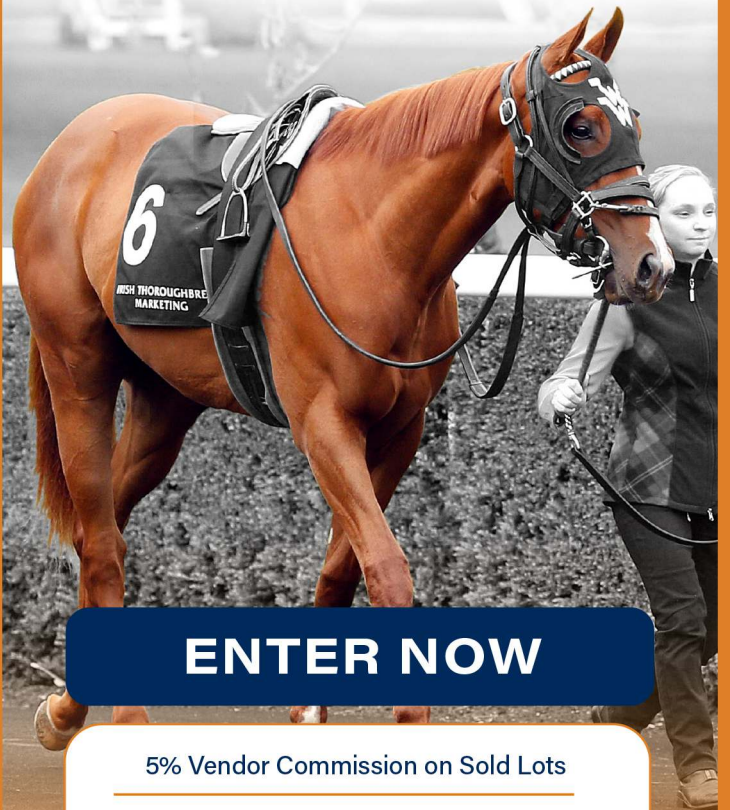

"We're going to run two in the Queen Mary, a Zoustar (Aus) filly called Out Of The Stars (GB) for Qatar Racing. She's out of a mare called Out Of The Flames (GB), who was third in the Queen Mary. She's a homebred. She won at Kempton and she's very talented." Cont. p4

He added, "She goes to the Queen Mary along with the Mehmas (Ire) filly called Ba'Hoa (GB), who won at Newcastle for the Cool Silk Partnership."

For the Windsor Castle, Watson will be saddling Action Point (Ire), who was the first winner for another freshman sire, Blue Point (Ire).

"He's a very nice horse," says the trainer. "He won on debut and then was second in the Royal Ascot two-year-old trial. He's come on plenty since then, physically."

"We had a Soldier's Call winner called Reveiller (Ire) at Salisbury a couple of weekends go. He won impressively, he came from the breeze-ups, and he's going to go to the Norfolk, all being well."

Watson also fields Lightning Leo (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in the Chesham S. for Lone Star Investments. "He won the first seven-furlong race of the year at Yarmouth, which was a very strong field," he says.

"I'm not going in there with one like Bradsell who'd won his maiden by 10 lengths last year. But I think we're going with some nice horses. It does look on paper that a few of the races are very strong this year, but it probably does every year, doesn't it?"

He continues, "Bradsell is probably our main hope. I took him out of the Commonwealth. He's run two very solid races, third in both his runs this year, but he's really sharpened up and has looked like a five-furlong horse. It's very sporting of Sheikh Nasser to roll the dice and supplement him for the King's Stand, and then he will hopefully have a campaign over five furlongs for the rest of the season."

While Watson has been successful with juveniles runners from the start, and in 2019 alone trained 76 two-year-old winners, he says that it is not something he specifically set out to do.

"I don't like to be defined by it, and we've had plenty of jumps winners and good staying winners," he says. "I wouldn't want to be emphasising that it's just speedy horses, but it's obviously something that we've done well with."

"This year we've had a good start with the two-year-olds because they're a quality group of horses, and I think that's the main thing. We had a quieter couple of years but we always manage to find a good one. Bradsell last year, and obviously Eddie's Boy (GB), and Nazanin (GB) won a Group 3 the one year, Mighty Gurkha won a Group 3 the year before that."

Watson adds, "But I think this year the quality is definitely up. We've been very fortunate to have been sent a nice bunch of horses and Tom Biggs has done his job well buying a nice group of horses for me. He works very, very hard. Whilst I'm obviously there and making decisions with him, it does take 99% of the work out of my hands in terms of the sales."

While he can lean on Biggs, of the Blandford Bloodstock team, Watson takes sole responsibility for the placing his horses.

"I was assistant to William Haggas and he always did the placing and entering himself. And that's something that I've always been adamant that I should do, and I do enjoy it. But obviously when you've got large numbers of horses and large numbers of race meetings, it takes up a lot of time figuring out where to run them all." Cont. p5

Watson takes pride in the upward trajectory of the career of Hollie Doyle, whom he says has been "massive for the yard".

He continues, "She'd ridden out her claim and wasn't really getting the rides at Richard Hannon's because they've got nice apprentices coming through every year, so I said, 'Come and ride out for us.'

"We just always got on very well, and when Eddie [Greatrex] got injured, Hollie took over, riding a lot more, and it's just gone from strength to strength. She's a great rider. She understands exactly how I like the horses ridden and I think the one thing about her is that she's very consistent and she very rarely makes mistakes.

"For me, she's a top-five jockey and it's just a massive bonus for a yard like ours, that's only been training seven years, to have a top-tier jockey in the country riding for us day in, day out. We had our 200th winner together the other day."

Doyle is not the only talented female jockey in the Watson yard. Straight after last year's Royal Ascot the trainer married amateur rider Brodie Hampson, who rides under both codes but has a particular affinity with National Hunt racing.

"I've always had an interest in it but Brodie loves it," says Watson, whose success over jumps includes the G2 Leamington Novices' Hurdle winner Stag Horn (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}).

"Brodie trains the jumps portion of the string and she does a great job. It's something we enjoy and it's great. Originally it was just a few handicappers that Brodie rode herself, but then Simon Turner said, 'Let's buy a couple of point-to-pointers', and we've been very lucky so far. I think we'll have a team of eight or 10 jumpers next year."

In the meantime, however, the tweeds have been cast aside for top hats and tails next week at Ascot.

"We've always been fortunate enough to have a good team to take," Watson says. "I try not to send horses that are just there as social runners. I'd say we'll have 15 or so runners this year and I hope that they've all got a squeak in some way, for sure."

Iceton is hoping that there will be more Grade I riches to be enjoyed with Selenaia and explained what led him to roll the dice on Dettoria for what looks a bargain price now.

He said, "I love buying mares off top breeders. Last year for example, I bought a lovely mare off Lady Bamford. They're the type of people I try and buy mares from because I know there will be a few half-sisters floating around the system."

"Dettoria has a colt foal by Space Blues and, the foal was so good, I took the mare back to him. She's back in foal with Space Blues. It's something I never normally do but, because the foal was so nice, I went back.

"Redpender Stud has the Earthlight (Ire) yearling [bought for 78,000gns as a foal] and they are more than happy with him. He was a lovely foal now to be honest. I think he's going to Book 1. The Golden Horn (GB) [bought for €50,000 as a yearling by Gerry Hogan] two-year-old filly is going to Henry de Bromhead."

He added, "I've been very lucky with America and very fortunate with Red Baron's Farm as well. I hope they will come back and buy a River Boyne off me this year. Interestingly, in the race that Selenaia won last week, I also sold the third Paris Secret (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) at the Goffs Open Yearling Sale for €8,000. It's strange that two fillies who were in the same field at one stage in their lives went on to finish first and third at Santa Anita."

Derek Iceton | Tattersalls

Selenaia carried the increasingly-recognisable colours of the Eclipse Thoroughbreds to victory for trainer Jonathan Thomas. Although the ownership group tends to shop relatively infrequently at the major yearling sales in Britain and Ireland, its strike-rate is something to behold, with Selenaia a 85,000gns purchase from Baroda Stud at Tattersalls Book 2 in 2021.

The black, light blue and white colours of Eclipse is perhaps best known in Europe for being carried by Gavin Cromwell's Queen Mary winner Quick Suzy (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) in 2021 and, according to Aron Wellman, the man behind the ownership vehicle, there could be more to shout about at the royal meeting next week.

Reflecting on Selenaia, he said, "We've dabbled in the yearling market in Europe and fortunately we're starting to hit our stride. We bought one yearling at Tattersalls a couple of years ago with the goal of bringing her to America and thankfully Selenaia delivered. She showed brilliance in her training and it translated to the racetrack which is a pleasure to see." Cont. p6

He added, "We're going to take a deep breath but, based on that performance and that she has now stretched out to nine furlongs, we'll take a look at some options at Saratoga with her and potentially look at going back to California to Del Mar. At this point, there's no ceiling to her and she's completely unexposed in this country."

Wellman added, "We're really fortunate to be in the position we are in ahead of Royal Ascot. Last year, before we bought Selenaia, which was a one off, Amy Murphy in England did a really nice job with a filly called Manhattan Jungle (Ire) (Bungle Inthetjungle {GB}), who has since become a stakes winner and Group-placed in the States for us. She took us to Ascot last year. "This time, we went back and bought three yearlings, and two of the three have run.

"One is called Passionately (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) [cost 55,000gns from Baroda Stud at Book 2], who won very well at Wetherby and goes to the Albany and the other filly, Geologist (GB) (Territories {Ire}) [cost 35,000gns from Galloway Stud at the Somerville Sale], was just beaten on debut at Redcar. We're going to take a swing at the Queen Mary with her. Two of the three yearlings we purchased are Royal Ascot candidates."

COOLANGATTA AND CANNONBALL WARM UP WITH ASCOT GALLOP

Australian sprinters Coolangatta (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) and Cannonball (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}) took to the Ascot straight on Wednesday morning for a racecourse gallop ahead of next Tuesday's G1 King's Stand S.

The G1 Lightning S. winner Coolangatta is staying in Lambourn during her time in England and was overseen by her co-trainer Ciaron Maher, who arrived in the UK on Tuesday. Ridden by James McDonald, she worked over just less than five furlongs.

"The idea was to bring Coolangatta here and have a look at the whole surrounds," Maher said. "We did a bit of paddock schooling and then had a nice look at the track. She stretched nicely to the line and James said she took quite a while to pull up. He was beaming about the work and it was everything I wanted to see. She has really thrived since being here."

Explaining a recent disappointing effort when Coolangatta was third in a barrier trial, he added, "In the jump out at Flemington, she ran her second fastest half-mile that she has ever run. I still cannot get my head around it, but I guess that is why we have the trackers and stuff on them, because trials can be deceiving. The track was quite damp and, although she ran well as a two-year-old on a damp track, there were a lot of good horses in that trial—but James said it was the weirdest jump out that he has ever been in. Hopefully, it was just that, because she has thrived since then.

"I suppose winning the Lightning Stakes down the straight at Flemington gives you some confidence about handling the track here. Straight track racing can be quite different to some of the tighter tracks at home like Moonee Valley, where she has won before. We have come here thinking that the track would not be a problem."

Coolangatta with Ciaron Maher | John Hoy

Maher was the initial trainer of Merchant Navy (Aus) (Frastnet Rock {Aus}), who won the 2018 G1 Diamond Jubilee S. on his second start for Aidan O'Brien, and he is understandably eager to get his own name on the Royal Ascot roll of honour.

"I was just as keen as anyone to get over here and have a crack at it," he said. "There are not a lot of five-furlong races at this level, even at home. Coolangatta is good fresh and, even after her win in the Lightning Stakes, I still feel she is a filly that is developing. We think she is the right horse for Ascot and my training partner Dave Eustace knows his way around here.

"Winning here would be huge. We have had a very good season at home and this would be the icing on the top should it come to fruition. In terms of international racing, the world seems to be getting smaller and we would be keen to come again if we have a horse good enough. Whether it is here, Hong Kong or elsewhere, there are plenty of places that we would like to explore."

He added, "Royal Ascot is one of the greatest weeks in racing. I definitely circle it every year and, if I am lucky enough to come here, then I am on the plane straightaway. With the racing and the whole atmosphere, it is one of the best carnivals in the world.

"Nature Strip was a champion racehorse but Coolangatta is getting there and I have no doubt she will run well on Tuesday. This morning has given me a lot of confidence."

The Peter Snowden-trained Cannonball worked on his own over the same distance.

"He is quite a gross colt and he needed that," said the trainer. "He arrived here on Friday and had a few easy days, which he had taken the benefit of. The gallop today will bring him back up to the mark somewhat. He will do a bit more on Saturday morning and then he will be ready to go."

Winner of the G3 Maurice McCarten S in March, Cannonball returned to Rosehill a week later to run third in the G1 Galaxy over 1,100m.

Snowden continued, "He is a fast horse, he is a tough horse, and he has handled this trip over here like it's nothing. This is his first time away from home, and the longest he has been on a truck before is two hours. He has just had 24 hours on a plane and it did not faze him one bit. That attitude will carry him a long way.

"The five furlongs of the King's Stand Stakes is all about speed and toughness, and he has both in abundance. I hope he is flying under the radar, because he should be on form, but I quite like the horse and think he is up to it."

BHA WILL NOT ENGAGE IN PROPOSED DEBATE WITH ANIMAL RISING

Ahead of next week’s Royal Ascot meeting, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) will not take part in a nationally televised debate with Animal Rising, the organisation announced on Wednesday.

Earlier in the day, animal activist group Animal Rising reportedly stated at a Wednesday press conference they would “pause” their protest activity this summer if UK racing’s leaders took part in such a debate.

BHA chief executive Julie Harrington said in a statement, “At a press conference today, Animal Rising said they will cease their protest activity this summer if British racing agrees to take part in a public debate about ‘the morals of horseracing’. We will never allow British horseracing to be coerced into any activity by threats of protests.”

Protestors had previously disrupted the Grand National, and Scottish Grand National this spring. Prior to the G1 Betfred Derby, Animal Rising claimed they would not attempt to enter the racecourse once the Derby was under way, but one member did so and was arrested on the track.

She added, “Animal Rising have shown by their reckless actions at the Epsom Derby that their public promises cannot be trusted. They have demonstrated they are prepared to commit potentially unlawful acts and to directly threaten the safety of horses and people to generate publicity around their wider aims. These aims include the end of all use of animals by human beings.

“Spokespeople for the sport have already taken part in well over an hour of televised debate since April. Throughout those debates the message was clear--that British racing is a sport which is proud of its welfare record, which provides an unparalleled quality of life for the 20,000 horses that compete each year, and which constantly works to minimise the levels of avoidable risk.

“Once again I call on Animal Rising to end their reckless acts against a sport legally enjoyed by millions of people every year.”

At the end of May, Epsom was granted an injunction against protestors prior to the G1 Betfred Derby Festival, and officials at Ascot said they would not be seeking a similar injunction “at this time” last week.

RENAMED HARRY’S HALF MILLION BY GOFFS RACE WILL BE WORTH 500K IN 2024

The Harry Beeby Premier Yearling S. at York will be worth £500,000 and be renamed the Harry’s Half Million by Goffs in 2024, Goffs UK announced on Wednesday.

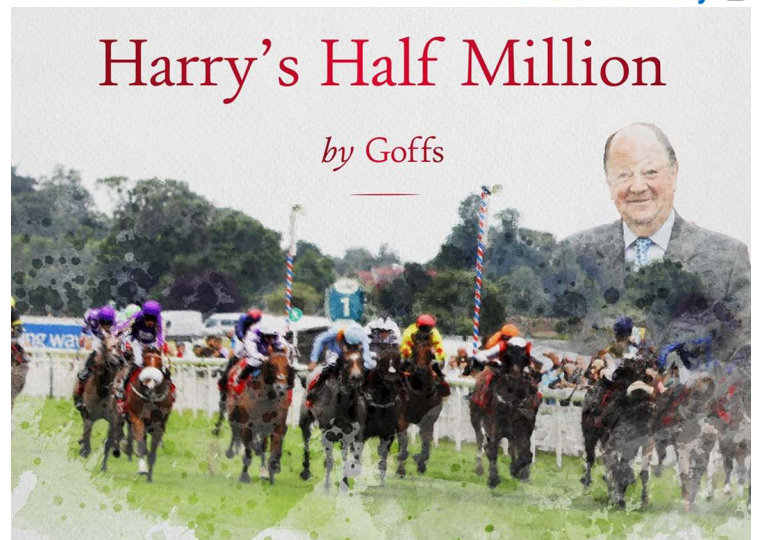

Launched in 1998 by the late Goffs UK Chairman and Honorary President Harry Beeby with current Goffs UK Chairman and Goffs CEO Henry Beeby, the race continues the commemoration of Harry Beeby by the sales company. The 2023 Goffs UK Harry Beeby Premier Yearling S. will be run over six furlongs on Thursday, Aug. 24.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, “This race has been a huge success for our Premier Sale since its launch over 25 years ago. Every year we hear from owners and trainers ‘I would love to win your race’--it has become more than taking home its sizable prizemoney, it’s one people want to win and become a part of its heritage which is a wonderful accolade.

“When it was launched, it was Europe’s richest 2-year-old race and it has been won by some outstanding horses such as Acclamation (GB), Dark Angel (Ire), Tasleet (GB) and Wootton Bassett (GB) to name just a few. We feel the time is right to further elevate the race’s profile and increasing the prize fund to £500,000 in 2024 demonstrates our commitment to it--whilst it will also be a big draw card for buyers ahead of this year’s Premier Yearling Sale on 29-30 August.

“Harry was immensely proud of the race, he attended every running until 2019 and always enjoyed the spectacle of it as well as meeting clients and friends, many of whom were one and the same. We would like to extend our sincere thanks to William Derby and York Racecourse for their continued and enthusiastic support of the race and we look forward to returning to York in August for the 26th running on the Thursday of the Sky Bet Ebor Festival.”

KING RASCO GREY LIVES UP TO HIS NAME WITH 250K SALE TO MULLINS AT GOFFS

It was the French sires who dominated on day two of the Goffs Arkle Sale with Willie Mullins and Harold Kirk going to €250,000 to secure a Galiway (GB) gelding [King Rasko Grey (Fr)] from Treannahow Stables.

That was followed by a Doctor Dino (Fr) gelding that was snapped up by Gordon Elliott for €185,000 from Altenbach Bloodstock and a Jeu St Eloi (Fr) gelding to Paul Nicholls and Tom Malone for €175,000.

Galiway, the sire of dual Group 1 winner Sealiway (Fr), has made huge strides as a National Hunt sire with Mullins training two of his best jumpers, Vauban (Fr) and Gala Marceau (Fr).

The dominant force of National Hunt racing returned to the market to secure the strapping King Rasko Grey from Tony Costello, who Mullins bought Goffs Defender Bumper winner Predators Gold off.

Mullins said, "He's a gorgeous horse by a sire who has been very good to us. He was poetry in motion walking around the ring and I loved him. We've gone back to the source of success in Treannahow Stables."

Mullins saw off the attention of Nicholls for the Wednesday top lot who was christened by the Costellos as Elvis for a very simple reason.

"Very simply he was the king," Tony Costello told Bernard Condren, head of sales at Goffs.

"I bought him as a foal in Osarus [for €18,000] in the height of Covid. There were only a hundred people at Dublin Airport when we got there. His racing name is King Rasko Grey so Elvis was an easy decision. He's the king today."

Of the 217 lots offered on Wednesday, 185 were sold for an aggregate of €9,514,000, representing an average of €51,427. The median stood at €45,000.

Goffs chief executive Henry Beeby said, "The Arkle Sale may have a new name this year but there was nothing new about the hunger for top class NH prospects at Goffs in June. For the last number of years this sale has enjoyed a meteoric rise as so many NH vendors have sent a larger and larger share of their best to us and we cannot thank them enough for we are nothing without their horses.

"Over the last two days trade has matched the outdoor temperatures as both were hot, hot, hot! That trade was generated by a simply stunning group of three-year-olds and it was so gratifying to hear judge after judge commend the standard of entry over the two days. Last year the sale grew by 25% so we are delighted to have consolidated those results and it is especially pleasing to see an average and median so close as that points to a sale of true consistency with the latter important figure growing by another 7%."

He added, "The top of the market enjoyed some titanic bidding duels, none more so than for the top lot with Harold Kirk for Willie Mullins just outlasting Tom Malone for Paul Nicholls. To have the two champions battling it out is testament to the horse in question and the sale in general, and they were just two of the many significant personalities to play an active part from start to finish.

"So the two days have clearly illustrated the appeal of NH sales at Goffs and we have been so pleased to welcome shoals of buyers from the UK, France and USA following a very proactive campaign by the Goffs Purchaser Attraction Team working in tandem with our friends at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. They have locked horns with every Irish buyer of note including the mighty band of Point-To-Point handlers who have made such an impact in recent times.

"As we turn our focus to Part 2 of the sale tomorrow, which is bound to produce another significant group of winners, we extend our thanks to every vendor for the trust they placed in the Goffs service and wish each purchaser the best of luck, safe in the knowledge that they have bought from a sale that is truly the measure of any."

NEWBURY DEBUT FOR SISTER TO NEWSPAPEROFRECORD

14.50 Newbury, Novice, £40,000, 3yo, f, 8fT
CLASSIC TIMES (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is a full-sister to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf and GI Just a Game S. heroine Newspaperofrecord (Ire) who makes her belated debut for her owner-breeder Allan Belshaw and the Roger Varian stable. Also related to Camelot's Irish Derby hero Latrobe (Ire) and the Oaks runner-up Pink Dogwood (Ire), she has a stiff test on her bow against some promising types headed by Valmont's G3 Oh So Sharp S. runner-up Lose Yourself (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) from the Ralph Beckett stable.

TRUTHFUL (IRE) (f, 3, Sea The Stars {Ire}--My Timing {GB}, by Street Cry {Ire}) graduated over a trip just shy of 10 furlongs at Salisbury in her May 18 debut last time and bounded along in a handy third for the most part here. Stoked up approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 10-11 chalk was driven to launch her challenge entering the final furlong and stayed on strongly from there to assert by 2 3/4 lengths from Shagpile \(GB\) \(Frankel {GB}\). Truthful, full-sister to an unnamed 2-year-old filly, is the second foal and winner out of an unraced half to stakes-winning G3 Prix Texanita runner-up Beau Ideal \(GB\) \(Exceed And Excel {Aus}\). LAKE FOREST (GB) (c, 2, No Nay Never--Lady Aquitaine {GSP-Eng}, by El Prado {Ire}), sent off at 9-2, broke a touch tardily and ended up at the tail of the field throughout the early stages. Making a quick move down the outer passing three out, the chestnut was in front with over 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and stayed on powerfully to score by 2 3/4 lengths from Watcha Matey \(GB\) \(Land Force {Ire}\). The dam, who was third in the G3 Sirenia S., produced three stakes performers in the Listed Derby du Languedoc winner and G2 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Lady Of Kyushu \(Smart Strike\), the Woodhaven S. winner Clint Maroon \(GB\) \(Oasis Dream {GB}\) and Star Fortress (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) who was third in the Listed Chalice S. BY THE BOOK (IRE) (c, 2, Frankel {GB}--Cash In The Hand, by Exchange Rate), strongly-supported into 5-4 favouritism, broke slowly before racing towards the rear early. Making headway on the outer at halfway, the bay was in front with 1 1/2 furlongs to race and despite showing greenness strode away to win by 3 1/4 lengths from stablemate State Of Desire \(GB\) \(Frankel {GB}\).

"He's not electric, he gradually goes through his paces and will improve for this experience," jockey James Doyle said. "I was at the front fairly quickly, so that's usually a good sign and he showed inexperience but a nice turn of gear." The unraced dam, whose yearling filly is by Wootton Bassett \(GB\), is a half to the prolific Lord Admiral (El Prado {Ire}) who captured five black-type contests including the G2 Jebel Hatta and G3 Ballycorus S. and was third in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup and GII Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile. by Sea The Moon {Ger}), backed into 7-4 favouritism, raced on the rail behind the leader throughout the early stages. In front a furlong out, the bay drifted left and appeared to idle as she scored by 3/4 of a length from Ennereilly (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). "The horse in front of me was hanging out left and I think she half-went to go with it, but kept going," Jockey Gary Carroll explained. "I don't know what it was--possibly greenness, but to be fair in the last furlong I didn't push her as I was trying to keep her straight. BLAME COLT ON TOP AS NUMBERS DIP AT OBS JUNE

by Jessica Martini

OCALA, FL - The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's June Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training continued its measured pace Wednesday with figures falling off the auction's record-setting 2022 renewal, while a colt by Blame brought the day's highest bid of $485,000 when selling to bloodstock agent Clay Scherer. The session-topping colt, who was consigned by Wavertree Stables, was one of four to sell for $200,000 or more during the day, bringing the total to reach that mark so far at the sale to seven. Eleven had reached that mark at the same point in the 2022 auction.

Through two sessions of the three-day sale, 410 juveniles have sold for $14,922,600. The average of $36,397 is down 5.1% from the 2022 figure of $38,358--which includes post-sale transactions--and is down 8.9% from the $39,961 close-of-day average from a year ago. The median of $20,000 dipped 13% from last year's final figure and 20% from the end-of-day figure.

The cumulative buy-back rate stood at 21.9% after the fall of the last hammer Wednesday.

At this same point a year ago, with 125 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 22.9%. With 32 additional post-sales transactions, 452 horses had sold for $17,337,600 and the two-day final buy-back rate was 17.1%. Cont. p3

NTL KICKOFF EVENT AT HUDSON YARDS PROMISES CHANGE FOR RACING by Sue Finley

An event to announce the team owners, names, colors and logos for the six National Thoroughbred League (NTL) teams promised the assembled crowd at Hudson Yards in Manhattan to do racing in a new and different way, and at least on this night, they delivered.

The evening featured a fashion show--not of the racing silks or owners--but for the horses. Two horses brought into the city from Long Island showed off the six team colors and logos in compression suits, compression hoods and paddock blankets, parading up and down in the Public Square and Gardens of Hudson Yards.

But while the horses were the stars of the evening, there were human celebrities as well, including New York Giants outside linebacker Kayvon Thibodeaux, one of the owners of the New York Knights, one of the six NTL teams. Cont. p5

Wavertree Stables, which sold two of Wednesday's top five lots, was the session's leading consignor.

Following a season of polarized results at the 2-year-old sales, the June figures were no surprise to Wavertree's Ciaran Dunne.

"It's not anything we didn't expect," Dunne said. "For what are perceived to be the top-end horses, there are plenty of people there. For everything else, we are just fighting over scraps. The attendance is probably a little disappointing, but I think that is reflective of small fields and super trainers. It's harder for the smaller trainers to drum up clients, so it makes it even harder for them to come here and buy. A thousand horses is a lot of horses in the June sale. I think they are doing very well to have the clearance rate they have."

The OBS June sale concludes with a final session beginning at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Scherer Takes the Blame

A colt by Blame (hip 430), who worked a co-bullet quarter-mile in :20 3/5 during last week's under-tack show, will be joining the barn of trainer Brad Cox after bloodstock agent Clay Scherer signed the $485,000 ticket to acquire the youngster on behalf of an undisclosed client Wednesday at OBS.

"He was a big, strong colt who worked fast, did everything like you want to see here and he acted fresh every day," Scherer said of the juvenile's appeal.

The dark bay colt is out of Soul Spirit (Quality Road), a daughter of multiple Grade I-placed Soul Search and a half-sister to graded winner Journey Home (War Front). He was purchased by Ciaran Dunne for $210,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale and was making his first trip through the sales ring this year with Dunne's Wavertree Stables consignment.

“He’s big, tall and long legged,” Dunne said following the colt’s bullet breeze last week. “He looks like a horse who will go two turns easily. So the fact that he has that speed makes you think he’s going to be very dangerous going long.”

Of the colt’s yearling price tag, Dunne admitted, “It did seem like a lot, but he was a beautiful yearling. The trend at the 2-year-old market is that they want big, two-turn horses and if you can get a horse like him who looks like he’ll go long to show the kind of speed he showed, then you’re going to get paid, more so than with the ready-made spring 2-year-old types. So it was a lot of money for him, but he was a beautiful horse.”

Scherer said the June sale has become an increasingly reliable source of good horses, pointing to 2021 graduate and multiple graded winner Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) who won Saturday’s GI Santa Margarita S. at Santa Anita.

“Every year, people have been putting good horses in June and good horses have come out of June every year,” he said. “Adare Manor just ran off the screen. There is always a good one here.”

Trainer Jena Antonucci, fresh off her history-making GI Belmont Stakes win, was also on hand to greet well-wishers. "I think it's super exciting, one, being a player, two, now being a part of a league," said Thibodeaux, explaining his involvement in the NTL. "My little sister has been riding horses for a while, so I told her I did this for her. And being able to bring a different look, bring some new ideas and just a whole new perspective, one, to horse racing and, two, to my own life and the people that follow me. So I'm super excited. I think it'll be amazing."

The NTL concept was introduced May 23, the brainchild of Randall Lane, the chief content officer for Forbes, and Bob Daugherty, an investor and educator. Set to launch on Sept. 2, the league will consist of six teams representing six cities. League races will take place on five weekends, points will be accrued in the races and the team that has the most points when the season ends on Dec. 31 at Tampa Bay Downs will win $1 million.

Each of the six teams were represented Tuesday night in Manhattan by all or part of their ownership groups. The New York Knights will be owned by Thibodeaux and Lane, who were both on hand. The California Shamrocks will be owned by Daugherty and partners. Other teams revealed were the Nashville Dreams, the Philadelphia Stallions, the New Jersey Royals, and the Seattle Gems.

The emcee for the night, longtime racing t.v. executive Billy Rapaport, a member of the NTL's advisory group, said that the NTL was designed to promote fan loyalty.

"It's about building not only awareness, but building rooting interest," he said. "So you're going to root for your team from your hometown, you're going to root for your team from your home state." Cont.

Rapaport continued: "And we're going to build this around not only the fan loyalty, but about the fan experience because the NTL is not just about racing. It will be great racing and team racing, but it will be all about the festive, fun, great events that surround the NTL. So it's a weekend of concerts, music, fashion, fun, food, all the things that you would expect from high-level top-shelf entertainment, but we also have a little horse racing going on, too. And that's exciting for us, especially for people like myself who've been around the sport for so long to see new ideas come to the fore, but also to know that we're going to get some new people to come try this sport out for a few hours on a Sunday afternoon."

Said Lane of his involvement, "This is a big night. My father and my grandfather were horsemen. My grandfather spent 50 years going to the track, and the reason he went is because he loved the animals, he loved the horses, he loved the athletes, and he cared about them. That's very, very important to us. So safety and protecting our athletes is paramount to everything we do at the National Thoroughbred League.

"We have an independent chief safety officer who will be in charge of the horses' well being," he continued. "And it is their job to make sure the horses are ready to race, so it's not the owners' decision for the team, it's not the trainer's decision, it's the central league's. The chief safety officer will have a whole panel of veterinarians to decide which horses are fit. So we think that adds an extra layer because the thing that's most paramount to this league is that we celebrate our stars, we celebrate our teams, and that starts with keeping our stars safe and healthy. So that's what we're here announcing today." Cont.

JENA ANTONUCCI JOINS THE TDN WRITERS' ROOM

Prior to the running of the GI Belmont S., Jena Antonucci was hardly a household name, even within racing circles. Not anymore. The win she pulled off with Arcangelo (Arrogate) in the Belmont and the story it involved, a female trainer with a small stable and her $35,000 yearling creating history at Belmont Park, has energized an industry that was desperate for some good news.

How did she do it and what did the win mean to her? Those were among the questions we asked her when Antonucci joined the team for this week's TDN Writers' Room podcast presented by Keeneland. Antonucci was the Green Group Guest of the Week.

So far as why her story has been such a popular one, Antonucci believes people relate to someone who keeps going in the face of adversity.

"There have been opportunities that I have wanted or that I have been asking for and the answers were no. And no is two letters," she said. "It doesn't define where you're going and what you're doing. It's a no right now, but it may be a yes later. So handle yourself appropriately. But if you're not happy with what's happening in your space, don't be a victim to that. It's up to you to take ownership of that and to pivot."

It remains to be seen if the Belmont win will change the course of Antonucci's career and improve the type of horses she gets to train. Whether it does or not, the trainer said she will keep doing things the way she has always done them, focusing on surrounding herself with quality people and doing her best by the horses.

"My focus is to deal with good people," she said. "When you deal with good people, good things will happen and our focus will never change with that. As for the horses, we're going to do our best to steward the best possible outcomes for the horses that come into our hands. That's always been a core foundation of who I am as a person. I've said it from day one--I'll never train a million horses, but any horse that comes through our hands, we're going to do our absolute best to make responsible decisions and steward the best possible outcomes we can no matter what those outcomes are."

Antonucci has been on a whirlwind media tour since the Belmont and has been an ambassador for the sport. What is the message she wants to convey about racing?

"That it's amazing and it's full of amazing people," she said. "I'll talk about the taboo topic and I don't have a problem talking about it. It's breakdowns and fatalities. I very clearly understand that the general public views our industry as [if] we're profiting from horses and we're killing them. That's the thread that we are all trying to navigate and do better with. So if we aren't telling our story and if we aren't sharing with people how we're doing better, whether you want to lean into HISA or not, we have to. We have to and we are. We are doing better and we will continue to do better. It's about setting realistic expectations and educating people on what amazing things happen and what amazing lives these horses have and how much they enrich life for so many people."

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, 1/st Racing, WinStar Farm, XBTv, Lane's End and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Bill Finley, Randy Moss and Zoe Cadman reviewed the Belmont and the races on the Belmont undercard and delved into the recent developments involving Linda Rice and Kent Desormeaux.

MOULTON DONATION TO BENEFIT LEXINGTON'S TOWN BRANCH PARK

An artist's rendition of the water play area at Town Branch Park

Prominent owner/breeder Susan Moulton has made a $2-million donation to Town Branch Park in Lexington which will be used to fund the construction of a water play area named in honor of Moulton's son Will Naylor Smith, who passed away 16 years ago at the age of eight.

Moulton, who for the last five years has been splitting her time between San Antonio, Texas, and her Versailles farm, has expressed an interest in becoming more involved in the community--especially with children.

Town Branch Park is helping to transform acres of space behind Lexington's Rupp Arena previously used for parking into green space. The project is being funded, programmed and maintained by private donations and grants.

"I love the location of the park," said Moulton, who bred and raced last year's GII Castle Key Bourbon S. winner Andthelwinneris (Oscar Performance). "Families and visitors will have access to a big park in the heart of Lexington. I was attracted to the water feature because Will loved water and the outdoors. You don't ever get over the loss of a child, but you get through it by carrying them along with you.

"I believe that water heals. I hope people will go there and feel a sense of relaxation and release. Children will be able to play and learn as they play."

"This is truly a transformational gift," said Allison Lankford, executive director of Town Branch Park. "The water play area will be one of the most treasured and active assets of the park. I can hardly wait to see children of all ages and abilities playing in this fun, safe and inclusive environment."

The area also will include a bronze sculpture of Will by artist Christine Turnbull. The sculpture is based on a photo of Will and will be a replica of a sculpture at the DoSeum Museum in San Antonio and the Imua Discovery Gardens in Hawaii.

Construction on the park is set to begin this summer.

KEENELAND LIBRARY DIRECTOR RYDER RETIRING, FERRARO NAMED AS SUCCESSOR

Becky Ryder (l) and Roda Ferraro | Kirk Schlea

Keeneland Library Director Becky Ryder will retire as of Oct. 31, 2023, following better than a decade at the helm of the Thoroughbred information repository and public research facility, and Roda Ferraro, who formerly served as Head Librarian at Keeneland Library and recently curated its popular The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers exhibit, has been named her successor. Ferraro will serve as the incoming Library Director effective immediately and will work alongside Ryder as she transitions to retirement this fall. Cont.

Ryder began her career as a college student working in the Music Library at the University of Virginia. She moved to Lexington for Library School at the University of Kentucky and soon became Head of Preservation Services at the UK Libraries, where she served for 18 years before joining Keeneland. Among the highlights of her tenure as Keeneland Library Director, Ryder oversaw the conversion of a manual card catalog into an online catalog system, which offered the opportunity to implement the Library of Congress shelving system. She initiated the Daily Racing Form Preservation Project while at the University of Kentucky, and with help from interns from UK's School of Information, Keeneland Library continued to make progress toward moving its extensive DRF collection online. Ryder established a framework for Keeneland's Digital Library and hopes to launch the collections by fall of 2023.

"During my career, I've had the good fortune to have had positions that I truly loved: music, books, photographs, travel, book and paper conservation, digital library development and the rich history of Thoroughbred racing," said Ryder. "I have to say that the 13 years working with the Keeneland family have been the very best in my professional lifetime."

In her new role, Ferraro brings more than 20 years of experience leading, assessing and promoting library, museum, research and educational services, highlighted by her work with Keeneland Library and the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in Saratoga Springs, New York, since 2014.

"I am grateful to be back home at Keeneland Library," Ferraro said. "I have connected the public, students and faculty to research and education services at several libraries, museums and universities, but I have never worked with patrons as dedicated and passionate as those I am privileged to engage with every day at Keeneland Library. It has been a joy to build relationships with industry and community partners over the past 10 years, and I look forward to cultivating new collaborative efforts with industry stakeholders as we move the Library forward."

Said Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin: "Keeneland Library's role in preserving Thoroughbred racing's storied history and making it accessible to fans worldwide is incredibly important to Keeneland. Becky and Roda have both been dedicated stewards of this legacy, using technology, innovation and creativity to advance the Library's goal of being a true public service institution. We thank Becky for expertly guiding the Library through a decade of key expansion and preservation efforts and look forward to continued growth, particularly in education and outreach, under Roda's oversight."

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS, JUNE 6–12 by Dan Ross

Todd Pletcher | Sarah Andrew

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky.

Here's a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

BLUE GRASS FARMS CHARITIES RECEIVES HOKC GRANT Edited Press Release

BGFC Treasurer Tom Thornbury accepts the HOKC grant

Officials at Blue Grass Farms Charities (BGFC) have announced that the organization has received a grant from the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels (HOKC) in the amount of $6,354.00 to purchase 75 middle school backpacks and 200 grade school backpacks. Blue Grass Farms Charities serves individuals and their families who work in the Central Kentucky Thoroughbred industry by providing health and human services in six counties.

HOKC awarded $3.1 million in grants supporting 343 non-profits, impacting more than 3.8 million Kentuckians.

Grants are made possible through donations from Kentucky Colonels from throughout the Commonwealth and around the world who chose to exercise the honor of being named a Kentucky Colonel in a meaningful way.

According to Commanding General Gary Boschert: "2022/2023 was another generous year for Colonels. Kentucky Colonels generosity is heartfelt and well spent on worthy agencies across the Commonwealth. Our long-term efforts in both western and eastern Kentucky are ongoing with funds remaining for each effort. We work with other agencies to ensure Kentucky Colonels money is spent wisely and deliver goods and products needed for the rebuild."

BGFC provides health and human services to those who work in the Central Kentucky area. One of the most popular programs each year is the 'back-to-school backpack program.' This year the charity will distribute 1,100 backpacks to farm and backstretch workers' children from kindergarten to eighth grade.

"We are grateful for this grant award by the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels to help with the cost of such an important tool for students to have when school starts," stated Julie Kwasniewski, director of BGFC.

TLORE ANNOUNCES HISA INTEGRATION

Tlore Equine Management system has launched a new software application which includes integration with the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) for protocol compliance.

Tlore successfully launched the initial phase of integration several months ago, which includes the ability for users to assign and remove responsible persons, make location changes, enter eligibility to race, and add/remove attending veterinarians for any horse registered in the program.

The new HISA compliance software continues commitment to that principle. HISA has access only to horse locations or other data submitted with authorized user consent into the compliance section of the Tlore application.

THURSDAY'S INSIGHTS: PRICED INTO MISCHIEF COLT DEBUTS AT ELLIS

Into Mischief | David Coyle

by Christina Bossinakis

2nd-ELP, $120K, MSW, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 2:20p.m.

BC Stables's Cowboy Code (Into Mischief) gets a start for Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas. Bred by Aaron and Marie Jones, the grey was a $1-million yearling purchase out of the Taylor Made Sales consignment at Keeneland last September. Out of Not In Jest (Unbridled's Song), the filly is a granddaughter of MGISW Stop Traffic (Cure the Blues). OXO Equine's Balta (Munnings) debuts for trainer Paulo Lobo. Working sharply at The Thoroughbred Center, the half to SW Opus Forty Two is a $685,000 OBSMAR buy (video). Mike Maker saddles fellow firster Mi T Caden (Ghostzapper), a $450,000 OBSMAR purchase following a :10 flat move. TJICIS PPs

2nd-BEL, $100K, OC $62,500, 3yo/up, f, 7f, 3:36p.m.

Peter Brant's Good Sam (Good Samaritan) makes her seasonal debut for trainer Chad Brown at Belmont Thursday. A $310,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, she was the highest priced produce by the sire sold in 2021, when the WinStar stallion's yearling average was $36,190 with a median of $25,000 for 63 sold. A debut winner over flashy next out winner Seduction (Bernardini) sprinting in the slop at the Big A last October, the granddaughter of GISW Twist Afleet remained perfect with another confident score in Aqueduct's one-mile Tempted S. Nov. 6. TJICIS PPs 2nd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $42,000, (S), Alw, 6-14, (NW4LX), 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2f, 1:04.79, gd, 3 lengths.

HOT LITTLE THING (f, 3, Army Mule--Bouffant, by Uncle Mo) won second out going a sixteenth shorter here last July before making it two straight with a runaway score facing statebreds in the Back Home Again S. in September. Tiring to third while trying a route of ground in the Miss Indiana S. in October, she returned to the races with a fifth in the Mar. 18 Cicada S. at Aqueduct. In her final race for trainer Rodolphe Brisset, she ran off to an eye-catching 6 1/2-length victory over this track and trip Apr. 18. Off a beat slow this time, the chestnut found herself midpack as a pair of longshots led through a :22.49 opening quarter. Eager to go but needing room along the inside, Hot Little Thing finally found room at the head of the lane, squeezed through to take control midstretch and rolled home a much-the-best winner over Trafalgar Square (Lord Nelson). Bouffant foaled a full sibling to the winner in 2021 and a filly by Tacitus this term. Sales history: $35,000 Ylg '21 FTKOCT; $80,000 2yo '22 OBSMAR; $125,000 3yo '23 KEEAPR. Lifetime Record: SW, 7-4-1-1, $169,930. Click for the Equibase.com.

3rd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $38,000, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($40,000), 6-14, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10.07, gd, 4 3/4 lengths.
TWICE AS SWEET (f, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Snowbell {GSW, $373,490}, by Tapit), winner of last fall's Smart Halo S., finished seventh in the seven-furlong GIII Forward Gal S. Feb. 4 prior to a sixth in her synthetic debut in Turfway's Serena's Song S. Apr. 1. Prompting the pace through initial splits of :22.67 and :45.81 this time, the 3-5 choice took over approaching the quarter pole and ran clear late en route to an emphatic win over Let's Be Clear (Munnings). GIII Comely S. winner Snowbell is also responsible for a juvenile filly by Medaglia d'Oro and a yearling colt by the Darley sire. The daughter of GSW Burmilla (Storm Cat)--a full-sister to MGSW Magicalmysterycat--was bred back to Street Sense. Lifetime Record: 8-3-2-0, $157,930. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
 O-Godolphin, LLC; B-Godolphin (KY); T-Brendan P. Walsh.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
6th-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,000, Msw, 6-14, 3yo, 1m 70y (off turf), 1:42.77, ft, 7 1/4 lengths.
HAVILDAR (c, 3, Arrogate--Pachinko, by Tapit), sent off at 5-1 in this off-turf affair, settled off the early pace as El Cerrito (Runhappy), flanked by Midnight West (Get Stormy), crawled through an opening quarter in :25.27. Joining the front-running duo following a :49.57 half, the Juddmonte homebred was given his cue exiting the far turn, swung out four paths wide turning for home and powered clear, racing home an easy winner over Cerrito with Midnight West hanging on for third.

The winner's dam Pachinko dropped a Not This Time colt last season and a filly by the sire this term. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
 O-Juddmonte; B-Juddmonte Farms Inc (KY); T-Brad H. Cox.

5th-Presque Isle Downs, $31,700, Msw, 6-14, 2yo, 4 1/2f (AWT), :51.74, ft, 3 3/4 lengths.
GOTTS GOT IT (g, 2, Kantharos--Sokie, by Indian Charlie), fourth in his career debut at Pimlico May 26, was installed the 6-5 choice to get off the mark here. Exchanging blows with Face Down (Speightster) through an opening quarter in :22.90, the Maryland-bred inched ahead at the quarter pole and set sail from there, scoring by 3 3/4 lengths over Ramming Speed (Flashback). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $20,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.
