RESPECT HELPS QUEEN KEEP HER ROYAL APPOINTMENT

by Chris McGrath

He recalls it as "a crazy idea" that came to him at Saratoga one summer, nearly a decade ago now. It didn't look too crazy at Royal Ascot last week, when Bill Crager's silks were carried to a flamboyant success by Villanova Queen (Ire) (Mastercraftsman (Ire)). What really is crazy, however, is how obtusely the bloodstock industry in his homeland responded to the sense of adventure quietly animating the attempts of Staghawk Stables to bridge the transatlantic divide.

The inspiration, back in 2014, was to send Jane Buchanan to prospect for yearlings at the Goffs Orby Sale in Ireland. At the time, there wasn't yet the level of American interest that has since developed in the European market. The agent picked out a Dark Angel (Ire) filly from the same branch of the Highclere (GB) dynasty as Deep Impact (Jpn), costing Crager and racing partner Paul Hondros €130,000. Miss Katie Mae (Ire) broke her maiden at the Curragh on her second start, and later shipped to Graham Motion to be beaten a neck in a Listed sprint at Belmont.

As a turf runner with turf blood, however, Crager found that she could not get access to the stallions he wanted to use in Kentucky, even in an era when so many of them corral such huge books. Returned to Europe, in contrast, she has been granted an audience with a series of elite stallions: Kingman (GB), Frankel (GB), Sea The Stars (Ire), Lope De Vega (Ire). See p3

PAT CUMMINGS JOINS THE TDN WRITERS' ROOM TO TALK CAW PLAY

Computer Assisted Wagering (CAW) has been a hot topic of late. What we know is that there are a handful gamblers that use computer algorithms to formulate their wagers, are allowed to make their bets at the very last second and receive substantial rebates. But there’s a lot we don’t know, like how much are they betting, what pools they most prefer and what affect has that on the “regular” player? In his latest report for the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation (TIF), entitled Sharks & Minnows, TIF Executive Director Pat Cummings dug into the issue. To find out more about his findings, the TDN Writers' Room podcast presented by Keeneland was joined this week by Cummings. He was the Green Group Guest of the Week.

Using data from Del Mar, Cummings concluded that CAW players are betting more each year and that the amount of betting from “everyone else” is declining.

So while Crager emphasizes that his program is modest in both conception and scale, its priorities give rise to important challenges for his compatriots—not least at a time when a congenial racing surface feels so central to the future of the American sport.

"Well, first, we enjoyed turf racing," says Crager, asked to explain the initial impetus to investment in Europe. "There's the traditional part of the sport that we love. Not the gambling part, not the party part, it's a cultural thing around the horse: respect for the horse, and the way the horse is treated. In Ireland they do a tremendous job; in England, they do a tremendous job. The horse is the center.

"Now, there are challenges in every racing jurisdiction around the world, maybe with the exception of Japan. But at the end of the day, we just respect tradition quite a bit. In the U.S., racing on dirt, there's speed, speed, speed, and we really don't enjoy that as much. We've been successful here on the turf with trainers like Graham Motion and Mark Hennig. We have a few with Riley Mott. But wherever we are, it's the reverence to the horse that is important."

And it seems that trying to do things right can also get results. This is a program that tries to see the bigger picture, to position itself in a way that can maintain and improve the sport's social traction in the years to come. The partners' children William Crager and Julia Hondros participate in its direction, at 27 and 25 respectively; Riley Mott is another of their generation, as is Phil Hager who has helped to find their horses in that barn; while the involvement of Buchanan and indeed Villanova Queen's trainer Jessica Harrington manifest a determination to correct an appalling gender imbalance in the sport's overall profile.

"It's a tough ceiling to crack, but somebody like Jessica certainly has broken it," Crager remarks. "Here in the States, we've just seen a female trainer win the Belmont. And what a great story that was, after a Triple Crown season which was not the greatest. The fact that [Jena Antonucci] was able to become the headline story, after all of that, has been phenomenal.

"But it has to change. I mean, it just has to-because this is an inclusive sport, but only at the lowest level. And, to me, you really don't make progress until you get highly visible people. And Jessica is just that, in how successful she is, in that competitive of a racing environment, in the determination and strength she has."

Harrington has needed all of that in her recent recovery from cancer. And the good news she received on the eve of the meeting made the success of Villanova Queen in the Kensington Palace Fillies' H. all the more special.

"Incredibly so," says Crager. "She has shown such poise and strength and determination. I cannot tell you how wonderful it was, that last week happened when it did, with all the progress she has made. Because she's just a very special person. Her family--Kate and Emma, and Richie Galway--these are friends, phenomenal people who care so much about the horse and break the mold, in terms of the way things have always been done. To me that's so important, and not enough of it is happening across the world."

Villanova Queen has certainly been an exemplary exercise from all concerned. Another Goffs Orby graduate, she was acquired through Ben McElroy for €60,000 from Grove Stud at the 2020 sale. She broke her maiden on her second juvenile start before finishing well for third in the GIII 1,000 Guineas Trial on her reappearance last year. She was duly fancied to run well in the real thing, but didn't muster the same finish and then disappeared for 11 months. Cont. p5

"She picked up a little injury that day," Crager explains. "We thought maybe she'd hit the board, but just didn't fire. She's so tough that she didn't really show anything for a week or two, just seemed a little off. We didn't need to do surgery or anything. We just gave her some time and rest and she was able to recover. We're like that, though. I mean, we've never pushed a horse. If you look at the horses we've run, no one gets pushed along too quickly. We just try to be sensible, and we have low expectations. That helps a lot!"

There were signs of a maturing talent in Villanova Queen's three starts this spring: a win at Tipperary and a sneaky-good run at Naas either side of a mud bath. So while she was 25-1 against 18 rivals at Ascot, she circled the field and ran them down in the straight under Colin Keane, deputizing for the injured Shane Foley.

"It was so disappointing for Shane that he couldn't be there, but Colin had ridden our first runner and first winner in Europe, years ago at the Curragh," Crager says. "And Jessica had given him great direction, which was to get her to the outside because if she has a clear lane, she'll run. I don't think many horses win from that far back, and going that wide, on that course or any other. So it was kind of incredible."

It will surely be in the back of the team's mind that a filly that can accelerate like that, while rounding a bend on firm ground, might have opportunities on American soil before long.

"If she does well, I think that's what we'd like to do," Crager admits. "But we can't get ahead of ourselves. She has a lot of options. We'll take small steps, try not to overdo it, just see where she takes us. She can probably go longer, as well."
Vexingly neither of the program principals could be present for the race, and Harrington is now teasing Crager that he should be prohibited from changing their luck by attending in future. As it was, Crager had to settle for yelling at a television in a New York hotel room before a speaking engagement. But for both Crager and Hondros it felt just as important that so many others in their family could be at Ascot, an especially memorable experience for the younger generation. And actually, Crager was able to fly out to London that night, do a little business (he's co-founder of a leading financial technology company) and then head out to the races.

"They all had an incredible time," Crager reports. "Just an amazing experience. We've been buying in Europe since 2014 with the idea that we'd like to have an Ascot runner, and we kept at it modestly, one or two fillies a year and never breaking the budget. But our pledge was that we weren't going to go [to Ascot] until we had a runner--and there you go. Incredible."

They won't be getting carried away, mind. They'll stick to the principles that have been working to this point: buying fillies from good families at sensible money, and then entrusting their development to people who set standards for a sport that must remain be viable under the examination of the next generation.

"We approach it pretty conservatively," Crager stresses. "We're not spending at the top of the market. We're not buying a lot of horses. We try to find the ones that fit our program, and then there'll be 9/10ths disappointments and 1/10th a moment like last week. We're happy just to be closing at the finish. We'll walk away and say, 'Well, that was a really good day: the horse ran well.' So we kind of celebrate things that most people might hang their head on, just because we have reasonable expectations."

In its temperate way, then, Staghawk are building up a couple of families between mares at Baroda Stud in Ireland, and fillies on the racetrack.

That very first acquisition, Miss Katie Mae, has so far launched only the first foal from those elite covers in Europe: Kingman's daughter Miss Carol Ann (Ire).

"She was named for my mother, and won on debut at Newmarket for Roger Varian," Crager says. "She then came back and won on July Cup Day, and we were there on the summer course for that. She's with Graham Motion now."

Her dam, as already noted, had to return to Europe for her second career after failing to break down grass prejudices in Kentucky. Unfortunately, she lost her Frankel foal, but it has been all quality since and now she's in foal to Blackbeard (Ire), with the idea of brewing up a little extra speed on the page.

Hennig meanwhile has a filly by Blackbeard’s sire No Nay Never acquired at the breeze-ups in Ireland. “She’s been knocking on the door,” Crager reports. “She’s very fast, a thrilling horse to watch, and hopefully we’ll see her at Saratoga this summer. We also have a young mare Helen of Albany (Ire) (Exceed And Excel (Aus)). She was with Ger Lyons and very well thought of, but had a wind issue and we could never get her right. So she didn’t display her talent on the track.”

Her son by Highland Reel (Ire), with Harrington, is the only colt retained by the program for now: he was not a commercial prospect but can get to work for the page. Helen Of Albany also has a Waldgeist (GB) filly on the ground, and was bred this time to Sioux Nation. There’s also a Churchill (Ire) filly in training with Varian, and another by Gleneagles (Ire) still with Richard Brabazon before eventually making her way to Harrington. With Carol Ann and indeed Villanova Queen ultimately destined for the paddocks, then, the broodmare band will quietly continue to evolve.

In the meantime, Staghawk will strive to meet the expectations of a changing world—to which Crager feels the next generation will help to keep their seniors attuned.

"With Riley, we were part of the partnership that gave him his first horses," he explains. "We’re shareholders in Unifying (Union Rags), who got Riley his first win last year, and then his first stakes win a couple of weeks ago. She runs on the dirt. But I just think that the sport has to open up, has to have new energy and new perspectives that generationally bring the sport along to where culture is, and where societal opinion of horseracing can evolve to a better place than it is today. In America, we keep beating our heads against the wall saying, 'Oh, racing has to be fixed' but it gets in its own way in too many ways.

“My son’s very involved, has really become very interested in the sport. And he’s part of that next generation, connecting Europe and the U.S. to build a modest but thoughtful racing stable. Last week felt like a statement. A small statement: it was the Kensington Palace, a handicap. But we did it, and everyone that you’d speak to in America would like to do it.

"Having being around for a number of years now, you learn the ups and downs, and you roll with them. You’re dealing with animals, with competition, with conditions, with weather, with tracks and trips. So much can go for or against you. But when you do get one of those magical days, like last week, it’s unlike almost anything else in life."

“Not only are the sharks growing, but the minnows are declining,” he said. “For the first time in this paper, were able to really separate how the CAW play has grown and how all other customers have in almost every pool shrunk. Total handle figures are often marketed in the industry press releases, they’re touted. It looks like on an annual basis that not a whole lot has changed. That’s not telling us the accurate picture. For years now, the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation has wanted to really dive into who’s betting, how are they betting, how are they participating and how is the market changing? What we’re seeing now more clearly than ever before is what’s happening with all other customers. We’re talking about people that may bet $10 a year or maybe even $2 million a year. They are a smaller percentage of the pools and declining.”

When asked if this could lead to a “doomsday” scenario, whereby the “sharks” have driven all the “minnows” out of the game, Cummings said that is in fact a concern. “I’d call it a real threat,” he said. “And I would suggest that some of the biggest sharks are eating some of the smaller ones too.”

He estimated that CAW players now account for 33% of the total handle in U.S. racing.

Cummings is not in favor of banning CAW players. He recognizes that if they go away overall handle would plummet, which could be catastrophic. The answer he says is to find ways to level the playing field when it comes to the sharks versus the minnows, starting with the takeout.

“Takeout rates have not come down commensurate with all of this money coming in (from CAW players) at low price points and driven by technology,” he said. “That’s the opposite experience that investors have had in almost all other areas, where we have seen costs for customers come crashing down.

“The days of the $35 stock commission are long gone. And yet 50, 60, maybe even 70% of all trading on the stock market now is high-frequency trading. Ordinary investors in 401Ks and IRAs, regular mutual fund holders, exchange traded funds, different products have been created to allow ordinary investors to buy and hold. And their costs have come down from where they were 20 years ago. We have not seen that same evolution in American horse racing wagering, which remains one of the most expensive gambles out there.”

Cummings also called on the industry to end all jackpot bets. He has found that not only do they keep money out of circulation by cutting down on churn, but that the CAW players often come in and take home a disproportionate amount of the pool at the expense of the regular player.

“If you run a parimutuel wagering business and your goal is to keep collecting commissions on parimutuel wagering, then why introduce a bet that limits the number of times that a customer can keep coming back to your window and churning their money?” he said. “You’re going in the complete opposite direction to all traditional business logic, which is you should drive customers back into your wagering pools. Yet, tracks continued to persist with these bets. The jackpots need to go as quickly as possible. Tracks need to revert to a traditional play, get that daily payout, get that churn up. The sport needs churn. It’s better for every stakeholder along the way.”

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by Coolmore, the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, 1st Racing, WinStar Farm, Lane’s End, XBTV.com and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Bill Finley, Randy Moss and T.D. Thornton, took a look at the win by Two Phil’s (Hard Spun) in the GIII Ohio Derby and his subsequent injury and retirement. There was a look back at the Royal Ascot meet, where one of the highlights was the win by the U.S. based 2-year-old filly Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) in the G2 Queen Mary S., and a look ahead at Saturday’s GI Stephen Foster S. at Ellis Park. The podcast wrapped up with a discussion on a new proposed rule by the New York Gaming Commission which would require all horses to undergo checks by a veterinarian 72 hours prior to a race or a workout.

HISA TEMPORARILY SUSPENDS FULL ENFORCEMENT OF INTRA-ARTICULAR JOINT INJECTION RULES By Dan Ross

The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) has temporarily suspended full enforcement of its rules surrounding intra-articular joint injections.

Under HISA’s rules as written, trainers are prohibited from giving their horse intra-articular joint injections within 14 days prior to the post-time of a race, and within seven days prior to any timed and reported workout.

A violation of these rules could result in a 60-day suspension for the trainer.

According to an announcement dated June 26, the prohibition of such injections within seven days prior to a workout shall be enforced only by making the horse ineligible to race for a period of 30 days. This temporary measure will last until July 15, 2023. HISA had also issued a bulletin to stakeholders on June 23 stating the new policy.

All other provisions of the rule will continue to be enforced. According to HISA Chief Executive Lisa Lazarus, between 15 and 20 trainers have breached the rule surrounding intra-articular joint injections prior to a workout. The reason HISA decided to temporarily modify its enforcement of the rule was due to confusion among trainers about the specifics of the rules related to workouts, Lazarus added.

“On the workout side, while it was mentioned in the education process, it seems that a lot of trainers just really didn’t understand it, and most of the violations we saw were only off by one day,” said Lazarus. Cont. p9

Lazarus added that the temporary modification of enforcement of the rules was deemed the most “fair and equitable” way to proceed “given the number of violations.”

According to Lazarus, there has been only one violation of the rule surrounding intra-articular joint injections prior to a race. Lazarus said she was unaware which trainers had breached the rule. “That would be a HIWU question,” said Lazarus, pointing to the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit, which oversees implementation of HISA’s anti-doping and medication control (ADMC) program.

“When horses are suspended, you’ll be able to figure that out,” Lazarus added, pointing to HIWU’s “public disclosures” webpage.

The Authority—the non-profit umbrella broadly overseeing implementation of the federal law—has the legal discretion to modify rule enforcement, said Lazarus.

“We can’t modify the rules,” she said. “But we can—and we have in the past on the safety rules—decided to not enforce a particular provision of the rule,” said Lazarus.

“This general discretion to not enforce a portion of the rule is we believe within HISA’s authority,” she added.

When asked if this was fair to other industry stakeholders facing sanctions as per the rules, Lazarus said that sanctions are still being metered out, even though they are less stringent than the rules require.

“There are a lot of folks who don’t like the decisions that we [make]. But it’s our job to make tough decisions, and I fully stand behind this decision,” said Lazarus.

When asked if this action was unfair to the owners of the horses in question, Lazarus said that it was ultimately a welfare decision.

“Protecting the horse is always in our view our responsibility,” said Lazarus. “And so, we believe it is not appropriate to allow a horse to race within 30 days of it having the injection.”

Lazarus said that the Authority is not “at this time” considering tweaking the enforcement of other rules on the books.

Daily Racing Form reported that HISA’s Anti-Doping and Medication Committee is also considering modifying the sanctions surrounding the 60-day trainer suspension for violating the workout portion of the rule.

ELITE POWER AND CODY’S WISH BREEZE AT SARATOGA FOR MOTT

Juddmonte’s GISW Elite Power (Curlin) and MGISW Cody’s Wish (Curlin) both worked for trainer Bill Mott over the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga this past week.

Elite Power went three-eighths in :36.02 on Saturday, June 24 in his first breeze since his 1 3/4-length score in the GII True North S. on Belmont Stakes Day. The 5-year-old Curlin chestnut is targeting Saratoga’s GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. on July 29.

“He worked fine. We’ll run in the Vanderbilt,” the Hall of Fame trainer said.

Mott indicated that Elite Power’s main year-end goal is likely a title defense in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint.

Cody’s Wish covered a half-mile in 48.48 seconds on Monday, June 26 in his first breeze back since winning the GI Metropolitan H. on June 10 at Belmont Park.

“It was a nice breeze, very smooth,” said Mott. Winner in 9-of-13 starts, Cody’s Wish remains under consideration for Saratoga’s GI Whitney H. on Aug. 5 that offers a “Win and You’re In” berth to the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic.

“That’s possible,” Mott said of the Whitney. "It’s [nine furlongs] always a question. He’s won his Breeders’ Cup going a two turn-mile, but he’s not won at a mile and an eighth. You never know until they do it."
The operators of the Humboldt County Fair in Ferndale, California, are scrambling for a solution after just finding out this week that an earthquake from six months ago so badly damaged the grandstand at the half-mile racetrack that county officials now won’t permit the structure to be occupied for the six-day race meet Aug. 18-20 and 25-27.

Larry Swartzlander, who serves as both the executive director California Authority of Racing Fairs (CARF) and the director of racing for Ferndale, told the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) during Thursday’s meeting that plans are already underway to bring the grandstand up to code while also securing the use of tents as a backup so the races won’t have to be scrapped.

"The county has said that the grandstand was not safe to conduct racing at the August meet," Swartzlander said. "What has occurred since then? You know, the position of Humboldt and CARF is very clear: We will race.

"The [fair's] board, I’ve talked to the president and the vice-chair [Thursday] morning," Swartzlander said. "We’ve already identified a contractor that will do the work, and they’re having a meeting later [Thursday] with the county to put the details together. And it will be completed by Aug. 1.

"I’ve already got my staff working on a contingency if it would happen that we couldn’t use the grandstand, [and] everything could be moved to another location [on the property], so I don’t see that as a concern."

Swartzlander did not go into greater detail about the damage and the costs to repair it, and the CHRB did not press him on those issues prior to moving ahead and unanimously approving the track’s license to conduct the meet. The board did, however, instruct Swartzlander to keep the CHRB informed on the status of the repair work.

Published reports this week in two publications that cover Humboldt County filled in some of the blanks that didn’t get addressed at the June 29 CHRB meeting.

The Lost Coast Outpost reported June 28 that "an engineering firm surveyed the damage at the fairgrounds following the Dec. 20 earthquake, and found that though the stands can hold the weight of the people expected to sit upon it, it would likely crumble in the event of an earthquake."

Quoting from a recently released county report on the damage, the Lost Coast Outpost stated, "the structural engineering inspection determined that the building currently appears adequate to support vertical loads, but not lateral (seismic) loads of the type that need to be taken into account for occupant safety. Even though there is a limited window of time where the structure might be occupied, the risk of doing nothing and allowing occupation is not acceptable."

That story further estimated a $1-million cost for a short-term fix just to enable the fair to conduct its races with people in stands shored up by bracing, while a more permanent repair would take longer to complete and would cost in the neighborhood of $2.3 million.

The North Coast Journal reported June 27 that, "The announcement of the price tag was met with palpable dismay by the board. The association currently has $628,317 in its accounts [and that the] state Office of Emergency Services would only reimburse for either the temporary fix or the permanent one, but not for both."

It’s also an open question right now as to whether the association (which runs the fair) or the county (which owns the property) is responsible for making the call on the extent of the repairs and initially paying for them before applying for whatever emergency reimbursements might be available.

The county fair itself would be allowed to operate without fixing the stands, so long as they were cordoned off. But without the revenue from racing, the fair association is facing a losing financial proposition.

"Our structural engineer says that the risk of an earthquake during that period of time is very low, but if there were to be one during the fair, it would be catastrophic," Tom Mattson, the Humboldt County director of public works, was quoted in the North Coast Journal as saying at a public meeting.

When asked at that meeting which entity would make the call on the extent of the repair work, Mattson said, "That’s a political decision, not my decision."

Asked to provide his recommendation, Mattson said, "My recommendation would be to do the long-term fix."

Ferndale’s survival as California’s northernmost county fair racing outpost has faced multiple stressors over the past year.

Back on Nov. 15, 2022, police arrested the fair association’s bookkeeper on charges of embezzlement, and the fair association’s general manager and three long-time directors also stepped down around the same time. The North Coast Journal reported in this week's story that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is now handling the case.

In March, the CHRB ruled that the 2023 Ferndale meet would once again have to run its second of two weeks of racing against overlapping competition from the commercial licensee Golden Gate Fields. Ferndale representatives have repeatedly told the CHRB in recent years that a second week of un-overlapped racing is required for any racing there to be viable. They have also noted that the fair plays an important role in supporting lower-level racing in the state, and have pointed out that Ferndale routinely outdraws Golden Gate in attendance.

Beyond this week’s unexpected news about the grandstand being declared unfit for occupancy, the North Coast Journal additionally reported that the stands "have also been vandalized recently, with people breaking monitors and leaving broken glass behind."

Just prior to the CHRB vote to green-light the August meet, CHRB vice chair Oscar Gonzales told Swartzlander, "I do know you guys can improvise so that if the grandstands are not able to be used, [there are] other areas of the premises [where] patrons can be at in a safe manner. But we have to really rely on the county's expertise, and we always put safety first..."

"I remain a supporter of Humboldt racing, so we'll be looking forward to getting the 'all clear' sign if that's the case. And if not, the plans that will be made to ensure that people are safe," Gonzales said.

WEEKLY STEWARDS AND COMMISSIONS RULINGS, JUNE 20-26

by Dan Ross

Every week, the TDN publishes a roundup of key official rulings from the primary tracks within the four major racing jurisdictions of California, New York, Florida and Kentucky.

Here’s a primer on how each of these jurisdictions adjudicates different offenses, what they make public (or not) and where.

The TDN will also post a roundup of the relevant Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) related rulings from the same week. These will include decisions from around the country.

Kentucky
Track: Churchill Downs at Ellis Park
Date: 06/18/2023
Licensee: Rey Luis Gutierrez, jockey
Penalty: Three-day suspension
Violation: Careless riding
Explainer: After waiving his right to a hearing before the Board of Stewards, Rey Luis Gutierrez, who rode Miranda Rights in the sixth race at Ellis Park on June 17, 2023 is hereby suspended three (3) racing days, June 24, June 25 and June 29, 2023 for careless riding in the stretch that resulted in the disqualification of his mount.

Track: Churchill Downs at Ellis Park
Date: 06/23/2023
Licensee: Gregory Romero, jockey
Penalty: Three-day suspension
Violation: Careless riding
Explainer: For failure to properly serve the suspension imposed by rule #22-0054 issued on April 27, 2022 (was also suspended in another jurisdiction during the Kentucky suspension dates), Gregory Romero is now suspended three racing days, June 25, June 29, and June 30, 2023.

NEW HISA/HIWU STEWARDS RULINGS

The following rulings were reported on HISA’s “rulings” portal and through the Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit’s “pending” and “resolved” cases portals.

This does not include the voided claim rulings which were sent to the TDN directly. Some of these rulings are from prior weeks as they were not reported contemporaneously.

One important note: HISA’s whip use limit is restricted to six strikes during a race.

Violations of Crop Rule
Alameda County Fair Grounds
Epifanio Garcia – violation date June 23; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes
Evin Abdiel Roman – violation date June 24; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes

Delaware Park
Keimar Trotman – violation date June 22; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes

Finger Lakes
Carlos Damian Camilo – violation date June 21; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes

Hawthorne
Alexander Bendezu – violation date June 21; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes
Luis H Colon – violation date June 21; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 8 strikes

Los Alamitos
Joe Bravo – violation date June 23; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 8 strikes
Assael Espinoza – violation date June 24; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 8 strikes
Diego Herrera – violation date June 24; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 8 strikes
Barrington Harvey – violation date June 25; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 7 strikes

Thistledown
Hector L Rosario – violation date June 24; $250 fine and one-day suspension, 1-3 strikes over the limit

Pending ADMC Violations
Date: 06/02/2023
Licensee: Arnoud Dobber, trainer
Penalty: Pending
Alleged violation: Medication violation
Explainer: For the presence of Phenylbutazone—Controlled Medication (Class C)—in a sample taken from Fast Fixer, who finished first in Race 8 at Gulfstream Park on 6/02/23. This is a possible violation of Rule 3312—Presence of Controlled Medication Substance.

CLARIFICATION: In Thursday’s edition, Cary Frommer told the TDN that Mike Ryan bought hip 78 (Arrogate--Summer Shade) at OBS March but returned the filly due to a “problem with the owner,” resulting in her resale at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic June. In fact, the Arrogate filly was returned after testing positive for an allowed but undisclosed corticosteroid in a post-breeze blood test taken by OBS.

AIR QUALITY ISSUES CANCEL THURSDAY CARDS
Acting upon the recommendation of the Delaware Thoroughbred Racing Commission (DTRC) veterinarians in conjunction with the Horse Racing Integrity and Safety Authority’s (HISA) air quality guidelines, Delaware Park cancelled its Thursday card, the track said in a release. Live racing is scheduled to resume Friday, June 30th.

Poor air quality also prompted officials at JACK Thistledown and at Charles Town to call off their live racing programs Thursday.
ADDITIONS MADE TO ‘23 THOROUGHBRED INDUSTRY EMPLOYEE AWARDS PROGRAM

The Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards (TIEA), sponsored by Godolphin, named 1/ST Racing as a new sponsor and also the inclusion of Canadian nominations for 2023, the organization said in a release Thursday.

1/ST Racing will sponsor the Support Services Award, which is one of seven categories in which nominations can be made this year.

“1/ST Racing is honored and excited to be part of this important industry initiative that recognizes the hard-working individuals who are the backbone of our industry,” said Jodie Vella-Gregory, Vice President of Industry Relations.

Another change to the TIEA program is the opportunity for individuals working in the Canadian Thoroughbred industry to be nominated.

“Following a recent meeting with our partners, the Jockey Club, the HBPA, TOBA and the Breeders’ Cup, we felt it appropriate to extend nominations across the border to Canada,” said Katie LaMonica, Charities Manager for Godolphin USA.

While we might be separated by a border, our industries are very much interconnected, and it really does make sense to make this meaningful revision.”

For more TIEA information, contact Katie LaMonica (859) 255-8537, or click here for the nomination form.

9TH ANNUAL JOCKEYS AND JEANS FUNDRAISER SETS RECORD

The ninth annual Jockeys and Jeans fundraiser at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas June 24 to benefit the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF) set a record of over $400,000, the organization said in a release Thursday.

The previous record was $340,000 last year at Churchill Downs. To-date, the total raised by the group is $3.1 million, including the $110,000 accepted during the 2022 stallion season sale.

“It is impossible to sufficiently thank all the staff who at the beginning promised to ‘Vegas-Size’ the event,” said Jockeys and Jeans President Barry Pearl. “They absolutely did. It was professionally choreographed and staged. From the lighting to the sound effects to the special guests and our speaker, it represented the apex of our development.”

With over 300 in attendance, 11 jockeys who suffered career ending injuries and 13 Hall of Fame riders were present. An anonymous donor left a check for $50,000 and Caesars Entertainment presented a check for $30,000. The Indiana HPBA, led by Director Brian Elmore, contributed $25,000 and Canterbury Park’s CEO Randy Sampson accounted for $17,500 in donations.

PDJF donor Jim "Mattress Mack" McIngvale accepted the Person of the Year Award and spoke of “horse racing’s stars,” calling for nationwide Workers Compensation Insurance and for horse owners to finance better injury insurance, retirement benefits and funds for severely injured riders.

FRIDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS:
by Stefanie Grimm

DAUGHTER OF DISTAFF WINNER BLUE PRIZE DEBUTS AT ELLIS
5th-ELP, $120K, Msw, 2yo, f, 5f, 1:18 p.m.

The first foal out of MGISW Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize), who sold for $5m to OXO Equine out of the 2019 Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Sale, Playback (Into Mischief) hails from a successful South American family including her dam's half-sister, Argentinian champion older mare Blue Stripe (Arg). Further back in the family is GSW/G1SP Far Away Love (Arg) (Violence). An OXO Equine homebred, Playback enters off a best-of-four work, going five furlongs in 1:01 3/5 for trainer Paulo Lobo.

Opposing her from the inside gate, Love to Eat (Mitole) brought a final bid of $230,000 from this past year's OBS March sale and is out of a half to MGSW Ventana (Toccet). TJCIS PPS

2nd-GP, $50K, Msw, 3yo, 1m 70yds (AWT), 1:20 p.m.

Purchased as a $650,000 yearling out of Keeneland September by Repole Stable and St Elias Stable, Make Decisions (Into Mischief) is a gelded son of GI Alabama S. runner up Joint Return (Include) making his first start for trainer Todd Pletcher. TJCIS PPS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
8th-Ellis, $127,000, Alw (NW1X)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 6-29, 3yo, f, 1 1/8m, 1:49.82, sy, 7 lengths.

SHE'S LOOKIN LUCKY (f, 3, Lookin At Lucky--Worldly Heiress, by Wildcat Heir) broke her maiden emphatically by 13 1/4 lengths in her third career start at the Fair Grounds Feb. 9 after two prior unsuccessful attempts as a juvenile. Tested for class, she faltered when 10th to MGSW Wet Paint (Blame) in the GIII Fantasy S. before returning to optional claiming company with a fourth last time out at Churchill Downs June 2. Sent off at 5-2 Thursday, she kept company up front with Bru Na Boinne (Arrogate), exchanging the lead back and forth through three-quarters in 1:11.98. As the pair swung off the turn, She's Lookin Lucky shook off that rival and found an extra gear, clearing off to the wire to win by seven lengths. Bru Na Boinne was another four lengths clear of Peak Popularity (Mendelssohn) for second.

Her dam's fourth winner from as many to make the races, She's Lookin Lucky has a 2-year-old half-brother by Midnight Lute, a yearling half-sister by Maclean's Music, and a newborn half-brother by Midshipman. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-0, $145,810.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Ellis, $120,000, Msw, 6-29, 2yo, 5f, :58.81, sy, 3 3/4 lengths.

MARKET STREET (c, 2, Street Sense—Quality Way, by Quality Road), the longest shot on the board at 10-1, endured a lengthy weather delay and showed an affinity for the slop, breaking to the lead and refusing to relinquish it throughout. Chased home by Gottaneedforspeed (Accelerate), the $275,000 Keeneland September grad only increased his winning margin down the stretch, hitting the wire 3 3/4 lengths to the good of that rival. Dam Quality Way, herself a half-sister to GSW/GISP Super Ninety Nine (Pulpit), traces back to MGSIW Exogenous (Unbridled). She foaled a yearling Tapiture filly and reported a colt by leading sire Into Mischief this spring. Sales History: $275,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

O-Les Wagner; B-Robert & Lawana Low (KY); T-D. Wayne Lukas.

9th-Ellis, $120,000, Msw, 6-29, 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2f (off turf), 1:04.85, sy, 2 1/4 lengths.

ANNA’S ARABESQUE (f, 3, Munnings--Classy Music, by Maclean’s Music) drew in off the also-eligible list for her first try over the main track after a trio of on-the-board finishes all sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs over the grass, including a third in Churchill’s Mamzelle Overnight S. May 3. Heavily bet at 3-5, she dueled for the lead with Ruby Tap (Tapit) into the stretch before pulling away with a furlong to run, winding up the 2 1/4-length winner. First-time starter Proud Mary (Point of Entry) outfinished Ruby Tap to finish second. Out of a half-sister to SW/MGSP Sueno (Atreides), Anna’s Arabesque has only one younger sibling—a 2-year-old half-brother by Yoshida (Jpn) who was exported to Saudi Arabia this year. Sales History: $220,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-2-1, $125,300. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

O-Rigney Racing, LLC; B-Patrick Waresk (KY); T-Philip A. Bauer.

3rd-Ellis, $118,200, Msw, 6-29, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/4m (off turf), 2:05.26, sy, 1 3/4 lengths.

PRETTY PROVOCATIVE (f, 4, Union Rags--Pretty Prolific {GSW & MGISP, $332,551}, by Lion Heart) placed twice as a juvenile at Gulfstream in the Fall of 2021 but raced only sporadically since and made her first start Thursday after a year-long layoff under the care of new trainer Thomas Molloy. Taking the least amount of money at 16-1 and equipped with blinkers for the first time, she checked in third through much of the early going in this classic-distance event, tracking the pace of Sri Lanka (Munnings) through a half in :49.45. As that leader came off the rail exiting the far turn, Pretty Provocative took the inside opening and came through to lead, moving away from the field late to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Out of a successful race mare in Pretty Prolific, herself a full-sister to MGSP Missyoulikecrazy and a half to MGSP Seattle Bay (Opening Verse), Pretty Provocative's third dam was champion older mare Waya (Fr) (Faraway Son). She has a 2-year-old half-sister, Pretty Pertinent (Liam’s Map), still to race behind her. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-2, $80,759. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

3rd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,000, Msw, 6-29, 2yo, f, 7 1/2fT, 1:32.38, fm, 1 1/4 lengths.

KAMIKAZE UMAGI (f, 2, Karakontie {Jpn}--Divine Presence, by A.P. Indy), made the 8-5 favorite off a series of quick works, took her time from the gate and had only one rival beat as the opening quarter passed in :23.37. Tipped out to make a run as the field swung off the far turn, she swerved between traffic, found room between horses inside the final sixteenth, and got up in time to defeat You're Kitten Me (Kitten's Joy) by 1 1/4 lengths. Already a half-sister to Kitoan (Point of Entry), GSW, $779,641 and Market King (Into Mischief), GSP, $257,624, Kamikaze Umagi is out of a daughter of dual European champion Divine Proportions (Kingmambo) and has a yearling full-sister. Sales History: $17,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

O-Thorough Crowd; B-Flaxman Holdings (KY); T-Ethan W. West.

3rd-Belterra, $23,700, (S), Msw, 6-29, 2yo, f, 5f, :59.70, ft, 3 3/4 lengths.

ARTISTIC LANEY (f, 2, Preservationist--Artistic License {SW, $196,488}, by Heart of the Storm), chilly on the board at 9-1, tucked in behind Pretty Patty (Bold Warrior) and Twisted Justice (Biondetti), content to sit off them through fractions of :22.73 and :48.80. Shaken up to take the lead with a four-wide move into the stretch, she was easily the class of the field, hitting the line 3 3/4 lengths ahead of Pretty Patty. The first winner for her freshman sire (by Arch), Artistic Laney has yearling half-sister by Complexity and a newborn half-sister by Jimmy Creed. Sales History: $20,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,220. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Chukyo, Fukushima and Hakodate Racecourses:

Saturday July 1, 2023

5th-HAK, ¥13,780,000 ($95k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200mT

DONA NOBLE (f, 2, Medaglia d’Oro--Gender Agenda {GB}, by Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) cost JS Company $200,000 at last year’s Keeneland September Sale and is out of a mare who upset the GIII Robert J. Frankel S. in 2015 for Carla Gaines and owners Keith Brackpool, Alon Ossip and Tim Ritvo. Gender Agenda changed hands for $80,000 at Keeneland November last fall and produced a filly by Violence this season. The deeper female family includes G1 Oaks and St Leger victress User Friendly (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}). B-Town & Country Horse Farms LLC (KY)

6th-FKS, ¥13,780,000 ($95k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1150m

ESCALE (c, 2, American Pharoah--Pretty Girl {Arg}, by Harlan’s Holiday) is the latest to make the races from his well-traveled dam, a Group 1 winner in her native Argentina for Stud RDI in 2014, a listed winner in France for Mikel Delzangles in 2016 and twice placed at Grade II level in California in 2017, with Bonne Chance Farm part of the ownership. Escale was a $310,000 purchase by Koji Maeda at Keeneland last September. B-Bonne Chance Farm LLC (KY)

11th-FKS, ¥35,040,000 ($242k), Allowance, 3yo/up, 1700m

AIR SAGE (h, 5, Point of Entry--Nokaze, by Empire Maker) won three of his first four career appearances and did not disgrace when beaten just over eight lengths into eighth behind Titleholder (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) in the 2021 G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger). He makes his first start since a dead-heat third in a 10-furlong allowance in February 2022 and switches to the dirt, a surface his family has proven more than capable over. Half-brother Air Almas (Majestic Warrior) is a Group 3 winner on dirt, while full-brother Air Anemoi successfully negotiated the surface when tried for the first time Apr. 30. Nokaze is a half-sister to the stakes-placed dam of dirt GSW Yuugiri (Shackleford). Keita Tosaki sees fit to ride. B-Winchester Farm (KY)

RINGFORT STUD TAKES CENTRE STAGE AT NEWMARKET

By Emma Berry

There are few, if any other, 12-week-old babies with races named after them but Victor Veitch will have his name in lights early in life as the namesake for the EBF fillies' maiden which opens the card at Newmarket on Friday evening.

In fact, Newmarket's entire meeting is sponsored by Victor's grandparents, Derek and Gay Veitch of Ringfort Stud in Rhode, Co Offaly. The second and third races on the card will be run in the name of two Shadwell Group 1 winners, Minzaal (Ire) and Anmaat (Ire), both of whom were bred at Ringfort, along with the Group 2-winning trio of Threat (Ire), Indie Angel (Ire) and Ubettabelieveit (Ire), who will also have races run in their names on the July Course.

"We've invited a few people along who have helped us at the sales over the years, as we've never given anything back to Newmarket directly," explained Derek Veitch, a familiar face on the sales circuit in Britain and Ireland, predominantly as a vendor of foals and yearlings.

"Tatts has been very lucky for us in the past and we're at the stage where we are getting close to retirement, so we thought we would use the sponsorship as a launchpad for selling the farm on 1 July." Cont. p3

KING GOLD REIGNS AT PARISLONGCHAMP

by Tom Frary

A big fan of ParisLongchamp, Christian Wingtans and Nicolas Caullery's King Gold (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}) found things falling into place on Thursday as he registered a personal-best win in the venue’s G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot. Having mastered the tricky conundrum of the track's turning seven-furlong trip when successful in a handicap and when promoted to first from second in a conditions event in April, the grey had been denied a clear run when a staying-on third in last month’s G3 Prix du Palais-Royal on his third consecutive visit. Compromised again by stall eight as he had been on his latest outing, King Gold was held up in last early by Stephane Pasquier and this time stayed wide for his effort as the 21-10 favourite Garrus (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) was committed with 300 metres remaining. Stealing the British raider’s lead from him inside a furlong later, the 7-1 shot was driven out to score by a length. Cont. p3

The plans have now changed somewhat for the Veitch family, however, as daughter Stephanie, who recently married John Kilbride and has been resident in England, has recently decided to return to Ireland.

"Stephanie said that she and John are interested in coming back to the farm, so that has changed our minds and we are going to hold off selling for now," Veitch added. "She will do some of the veterinary work on the farm and hopefully there will be a seamless transition. We're going to try it for a year, and if we are not happy or they are not happy then we'll think again about selling."

Shadwell is not the only major operation to have enjoyed success with a Ringfort graduate. Indie Angel, a daughter of Dark Angel (Ire) and the Sir Percy (GB) mare Indigo Lady (GB), was bred by the Veitches in partnership with Paul Hancock and was one of the top lots of her generation at the December Foal Sale at Tattersalls when selling for 600,000gns to Cheveley Park Stud. Trained by John and Thady Gosden, she went on to win the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot.

Veitch said, "Indie Angel is breeding away at Cheveley Park and has a Frankel colt as her first foal and a Kingman filly. The other horses have their first crops coming to the sales, so we felt that it was nice to identify the fact that Ubettabelieveit has his first crop of foals and Threat has his first yearlings. That's all we were trying to do."

He added, "We've about 60 people invited over from Ireland. Instead of having a summer barbecue here on the farm we thought we'd have a bit of a do in England. Everybody has managed to take a few days off and Laura Gibson-Brabazon at Newmarket Racecourses is a great friend who has helped to get everything organised for us. We're looking forward to what should be a really fun weekend for everyone, and our grandson Victor will be there, too."

"Nicolas [Caullery] could not be here, as he is at a wedding but he's just sent me a video of him all smiles and crying," owner-breeder Raymonde Wingtans explained. "This horse deserved it so much, he had been incredibly unlucky last time out. It is a possibility that he will go next in the [G1] Prix Maurice de Gheest. but Nicolas will make the decision after he sees how he has come out of the race. He has run quite a few times already and might need a break. He might also return to Dubai this winter."

Pedigree Notes

The unraced dam, who also has the 2-year-old filly Nadelia (Fr) (Spanish Moon), is a full-sister to the G2 Prix Robert Papin, G3 Prix du Calvados and G3 Prix d'Aumale-placed Queensalsa (Fr). She produced the Listed Prix Isonomy scorer and G3 Prix de la Grotte-placed Whip And Win (Fr) (Whipper), who was in turn responsible for the Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr winner and GII Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf S.-placed Pas De Soucis (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand (GB)).
This is also the family of Queen America (Fr) (American Post (GB)), who was successful in the Listed Prix des Jouvenceaux et des Jouvencelles and was third in the Prix du Calvados when it was staged as a group 3.

NEWCASTLE: NASHWA LOOKING TO GET BACK ON TRACK IN THE HOPPINGS
By Tom Frary
Friday sees an above-average renewal of Newcastle’s G3 Hoppings Fillies’ S. as Imad Al Sagar’s G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Nassau S. heroine Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)) looks to start her 2023 campaign in earnest on the Tapeta. Disappointing when too fresh in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud last month, the Gosdons have opted to go back to basics with one of the cream of last year’s TDN Rising Stars. This is no foregone conclusion with Shadwell’s G2 Dahlia S. runner-up and Listed Rothesay S. winner Al Husn (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) in attendance, while the extended 10-furlong trip could bring out the best in another TDN Rising Star, last year’s G1 Fillies’ Mile third Bright Diamond (Ire) (El Kabeir).

Al Sagar’s racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe is hoping for a return to form from Nashwa. “She had hard races in the Opera and at the Breeders’ Cup and really needed her first run back in the Prix Corrida,” he explained. “We wanted her to hopefully get back to her level with the plan then possibly being to head to the Nassau. Imad has shown patience, these fillies pretty much tell us when they are ready so it is a question of hopefully getting everything lined up in the right order.”

Weekend Action Shapes Up...
Ahead of what promises to be an intriguing three days of action, The Curragh’s G1 Yulong Pretty Polly S. will see nine fillies and mares in the line-up including Coolmore’s 2022 G1 Prix Saint-Alary-winning TDN Rising Star Above The Curve (American Pharoah) and the highly impressive G2 Dahlia S. winner Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)) from the George Boughey stable. The draw was also made for Sunday’s G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg, with Gestut Karlshof’s Straight (Ger) (Zarak (Fr)) in pole position after his five-length dismissal of TDN Rising Star Mr Hollywood (Ire) (Iquitos (Ger)) in Cologne’s G2 Union-Rennen earlier this month. He is drawn in eight, with Wanja Soren Oberhof and Sebastian Weiss’s Mr Hollywood, who had previously won Munich’s G3 Bavarian Classic, in stall four. Liberty Racing 2021’s G3 Baden-Baden Derby-Trial winner Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon (Ger)) has stall 16 to contend with, but six of the last 10 winners of the Classic were coming from double-figure stalls including his sire who was drawn 15 in 2014.
GREAT TRUTH BECOMES DUBAWI’S 35TH
TDN RISING STAR

By Tom Frary

Making his debut in the same seven-furlong Leicester novice contest won 12 months ago by his smart stablemate Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), Godolphin’s Great Truth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire})—Beyond Reason {Ire}, by Australia (GB) created a big impression to become the operation’s latest TDN Rising Star.

Content to track the leading pair throughout the strongly-run early stages, the Charlie Appleby-trained 8-11 favourite loomed on the front end under James Doyle two out as he received a bump from the front-running Paladin (Ire) (Justify).

Striding on from there, the first foal out of the G2 Prix du Calvados and G3 Prix Six Perfections-winning dam veered right through greenness but still managed to power to a 5 1/2-length success from fellow newcomer Love You Darling (GB) (Land Force {Ire}), with 1 1/4 lengths back to the useful yardstick Phone Tag (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) in third. Great Truth is the 35th TDN Rising Star for his outstanding sire in a list including Zarak (Fr), Coronet (GB), Benbatl (GB), Wild Illusion (GB), Too Darn Hot (GB), In Italian (GB) and Eldar Eldarov (GB).

“I sat on him last week and he showed that he had ability in his work,” Doyle said. “He was quite green cantering to post today and he took his eye off the ball and had a bit of a wander once he got to the front, but he responded good. That will come with experience and I couldn’t be happier. Beyond Reason was a handy mare for us and it’ll be interesting to see how far he’ll get, as he’s quite a reactive horse. I didn’t expect him to quicken up quite as much as he did, as at home he had been going through his gears gradually but was probably just sleeping a bit.”

Pedigree Notes

Beyond Reason, a classy juvenile who was also third in the G2 Cape Verdi as a 4-year-old, also has a yearling full-brother to the winner and a colt foal by Lope De Vega (Ire). She is out of No Explaining (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) who was successful in the GIII Gallorette H. and was third in the GII Dance Smartly S. and GII Lake George S. The family includes the GII American H. scorer Bayamo (Ire) (Valanour {Ire}), who was also runner-up in the GI Eddie Read H. and GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H.

EBOR GRANTED GOLDEN TICKET FOR MELBOURNE CUP

York’s historic Ebor Handicap will become the seventh win-and-you’re-in race for the £4.4 million Melbourne Cup in November.

The Ebor, which will be run on August 28 for total prize-money of £500,000, is the first race outside Australia to provide automatic entry to the prestigious staying contest, which has been won over the years by European trainers Dermot Weld (twice), Alain de Royer-Dupre, Mikel Delzangles, Andreas Wohler, Joseph O’Brien (twice) (Rekindling 2017 and Twilight Payment 2020) and Charlie Appleby.

William Derby, chief executive and clerk of the course at York, said: “It is fantastic to officially connect two iconic races in the Sky Bet Ebor and the Lexus Melbourne Cup with the introduction of a golden ticket for the Ebor winner into the race that stops a nation and indeed much of the world.”
The Melbourne Cup

In 2017, the Tony Martin-trained Heartbreak City (Fr) went directly from winning the Ebor to finishing second, beaten a head by Almandin (Ger), in the Melbourne Cup.

He added, "With the York winner having finished in the top 10 at Flemington in three of the four years preceding the pandemic, this great news will give confidence to winning connections that that their start at Flemington is secure, further linking two great races.

"We look forward to welcoming the 2023 Lexus Melbourne Cup on all four days of the Sky Bet Ebor Festival (23-26 August) on its annual tour across the world. This makes us more hopeful that it can return to Britain after the first Tuesday in November."

Victoria Racing Club chief executive Steve Rosich said, "The Ebor Handicap has been a proven pathway into the Melbourne Cup over the years and it is fantastic to be able to build on the association with Flemington and York racecourses.

"The introduction of a seventh golden ticket is exciting for both clubs and the connections of all potential Ebor runners. It further cements the Lexus Melbourne Cup's international reach and appeal."

DETTORI TO MISS CORAL-ECLIPSE AFTER NINE-DAY RIDING BAN UPHELD

Frankie Dettori will miss the ride on Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the Coral-Eclipse after failing in his appeal against the nine-day careless riding ban imposed for his ride on Saga (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) at Royal Ascot.

Dettori attempted to switch right-handed towards the rail in the early stages of the Wolferton S. and, in doing so, caused James McDonald to quickly snatch up Cadillac (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Owned by the King and Queen and trained by John and Thady Gosden, Saga eventually finished fifth in the 10-furlong Listed event, which was won by Royal Champion {Ire} (Shamardal).

An independent disciplinary panel of the British Horseracing Authority on Thursday considered evidence from all relevant parties, including Dettori, and elected to uphold the careless riding offence originally decided upon by stewards on the first day of Royal Ascot.

The panel then retired to deliberate over submissions from Dettori’s legal representative seeking a reduction in the penalty, but ultimately decided that nine days was appropriate and made no amendment to the sanction.

CASTLEDILLON’S KAYF TARA GELDING HEADS DERBY SALE

Kayf Tara (GB) may be gone, but his exploits are certainly not forgotten and late in the day at the Tattersalls Ireland Derby Sale his 3-year-old son consigned by Timmy Hillman’s Castledillon Stud brought the hammer down at €265,000. Becoming the highest-priced store horse of the year, the full-brother to the winning point-to-pointer Romeo Coolio (GB) was bought by Eddie O’Leary and Gordon Elliott.

Hillman, who topped the Derby Sale for this first time, said of lot 397, "We bought him privately off Will Kinsey and it was through Covid so it is all due to him. He was a smasher at the time. He has done nothing wrong at all and let’s hope he is lucky for his new owners."

Haras du Mesnil’s Doctor Dino (Fr) is a stallion with an increasingly lofty reputation among the National Hunt ranks, and he provided not only the second-top lot of the concluding day but four of the top 10 lots across the whole sale.

Johnny Collins of Brown Island Stables pulled off a major touch when selling the 3-year-old gelding (lot 249) out of Countess Comet (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) to Ian Ferguson for €240,000. Collins had only had the relation to Group 2-winning stayer Air Pilot (GB) (Zamindar) in his care for five months, having bought him at the Goffs UK January Sale from Mill Farm Stud for €58,000.

"There was no imagination when I bought him, it was only a matter of keeping him for a few months, he was a lovely three-year-old then," he said. "I bought him to come here, I was wanting something by this stallion. I had been trying to buy one by him in France and I could not get them."

Collins added, "This gelding is by an amazing sire and is an incredible mover. He is the same horse in January as he is now - he came from a good farm and was well prepped, I was just in the right place at the right time."

Collins also bought the Nathaniel yearling-half-brother to the Doctor Dino gelding in January for €20,000. On Thursday at the Derby Sale, his Brown Island Stables was responsible for another of the top lots, a daughter of the rising French sire Beaumec de Houelle (Fr), who stands at Haras de Montaigu. The grey filly (lot 226) is already named Kisuron Enki (Fr) and was bought by Bobby O'Ryan for €160,000. Britain's champion jumps trainer Paul Nicholls snapped up two of the day's more expensive lots with bloodstock agent Tom Malone. The pair went to €165,000 for lot 269, a 3-year-old Authorized (Ire) gelding out of a winning full-sister to the dual Cheltenham Gold Cup winner Al Boom Photo (Fr) (Buck's Bound {Fr}) from Ballincurrag House Stud.

A fall in clearance rate to 81% from a stellar 93% last year also led to reductions in other sectors. Twenty-one fewer horses sold this year brought the aggregate down to €16,075,000 (-14%), with the average of €53,583 down by 7% and the median also dropping by 14% to €43,000.

KEY IHRB FIGURE TAKES 'VOLUNTARY LEAVE' FOLLOWING 'GRAVE' FINANCIAL MATTER

The Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board [IHRB] revealed to the Public Accounts Committee (PAC) on Thursday morning that its chief financial officer Donal O'Shea is taking what the organisation described as "voluntary leave" after serious financial irregularities came to light this week.

The news was delivered by the IHRB chief Darragh O'Loughlin, who was before the PAC to discuss the circumstances around the early retirement of his predecessor Denis Egan and other costs.

However, O'Loughlin dropped the bombshell news in his opening statement, and revealed that in preparation for his meeting with the PAC, he had discovered another financial issue from early 2022 which were of "grave concern."

He said, "Within the past 48 hours, in the course of preparing for this meeting, I became aware of a hitherto unknown issue that occurred in early 2022 which caused grave concern."

"I immediately brought it to the attention of the chair of the audit and risk committee and the board of the IHRB. The board has commissioned a full review of the matter to be conducted by an independent firm. The preliminary facts, as they are known, have been disclosed to the relevant bodies, including the office of the comptroller and auditor general, Horse Racing Ireland, and the department of agriculture, food and the marine."

He added, "The committee will appreciate that I am not in a position to give any further details on the matter, pending the outcome of the independent review."
Godolphin: sponsored the initiative

The Godolphin-sponsored Schools Together exchange programme initiative, which involved 16 students, was launched in March this year. The Irish leg of the visit took place from 8-10 March, with a reciprocal Newmarket trip from 17-19 May.

The purpose of the exchange was to give participating second year students an opportunity to learn more about the culture of their host country, the thoroughbred industry and most importantly, develop their own skills and abilities.

The schedule for each leg of the exchange was designed to include educational, cultural and thoroughbred industry visits and insights. During the first part of the exchange in Ireland, students were taught about Irish language, music and culture at St. Paul’s Secondary School in Monasterevin.

They participated in the award-winning Irish Racehorse Experience at the Irish National Stud and finished off their trip with a visit to Croke Park Stadium to learn about Ireland’s national games.

The UK leg included educational activities at Newmarket Academy, a cultural visit to Cambridge town where the group enjoyed an afternoon of boating on the river and visits to Newmarket gallops and Godolphin’s European Headquarters at Dalham Hall Stud.

Deirdre Garrett, Career Guidance Teacher from St Paul’s said, "It's been amazing seeing these young people, from two towns steeped in racing history, come together and forge relationships that could last a lifetime."

O’Loughlin was pressed on the matter but stated that he could not give any details for fear of prejudicing the independent investigation and report, which is likely to take months to complete. O'Shea was a late absentee from the hearing after taking "voluntary leave" yesterday. O’Loughlin declined to comment on whether his absence was related to the financial issue discovered this week.

Egan took early retirement from the IHRB in 2021 and received an exit payment of €384,870, a figure that was 58 per cent above what he was entitled to under the terms of the redundancy scheme.

The extra €140,000 included payments from the Turf Club and the Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee and did not come from public money.

The 2023 INS Graduates | Irish National Stud

The Irish National Stud held its Thoroughbred Breeding Management Class of 2023 graduation ceremony on Wednesday June 28 in the Osborne centre and garden pavilion. In attendance were the graduates, their families, staff, lecturers, and prominent industry representatives.

The ceremony began with CEO Cathal Beale giving a heartfelt speech, congratulating the graduates on their hard work and achievement. Students Brian Banahan and Ciara Russell then took their turn to give their own speeches on behalf of the class. Banahan and Russell spoke of the memories and friendships made, and expressed their gratitude to those that had helped them on their six-month journey.

Each year, gold and silver medals are awarded to the top two achieving students and this year the prestigious Gold Medal was presented to French native Maël Thilbault who demonstrated an outstanding performance in all aspects of the course with the Silver Medal being awarded to fellow French student Faustine Otero-Chinot.

The INS 'Jonathan Fitzpatrick Business Internship' was awarded to Ciaran Phelan from County Kilkenny, who will commence his internship with the INS in July.

The CEO award for the highest score in the Equine Business exam went to Sean Berns from County Kildare and the continuous assessment award was presented to Gerard Donworth of Limerick.

Australian William Macdonald was the recipient of the Irish Field "Blue Hen" Award. Macdonald was presented with a cheque for €250 and a trophy by Leo Powell for his winning article which will be published in The Irish Field in the coming weeks.

Education Manager Anne Channon commented, "We would like to thank all who attended the graduation ceremony and everyone who dedicated their time to teaching and guiding the students over the past six months. We would like to congratulate the class of 2023 and we wish them the best for their future endeavours within the thoroughbred Industry."

Class of 2023
Robert Acheson (Ireland), Brian Banahan (USA), Sean Berns (Ireland), Aoife Boland (Ireland), Julia Coenen (France), Thomas Connolly (Ireland), Gerard Donworth (Ireland), Emma Hunter (Ireland), Scott Innes (Scotland), William Macdonald (Australia), Georgina Macintyre (Australia), Darcie Murray (Ireland), Hilda Ntlatleng (South Africa), Faustine Otero-Chinot (France), Ciaran Phelan (Ireland), Orla Queally (Ireland), Annelie Rodde (Germany), Charles Shanahan (Ireland), Ailish Sinnott (Ireland), Maël Thilbault (France), Dayna Walsh (UK), Rory Woods (Ireland) Lachlan Bruce (Australia) recipient of the HTBA Scholarship, Jarrod Robinson (Australia) recipient of the TBA scholarship, Ciara Russell (Ireland) recipient of the Gerry Dilger Equine Scholarship, Alice Jeffries (New Zealand) and Morgan Wilks (New Zealand) recipients of the NZTBA Scholarship.

Among the horses in training is the Ralph Beckett-trained Come Together (Ire) (Gleneagles) (lot 9), third most recently, in addition to two-time winner in 2023, Berkshire Phantom (Ire) (Expert Eye) (lot 8).

Among the mares in foal, Glebe Farm Stables consign the Apple Lily (Fr) (Almanzor) (Lot 31) in foal to Whitsbury Manor Stud’s sire Lope Y Fernandez. Apple Lily is a half-sister to Kilfrush Memories, a four-time winner who also placed third in the G3 Prix d’Arenberg at Chantilly and who is from the family of Group 1 winners Hydrangea and Hermosa.

Others sure to attract plenty of attention include the Cois Coille Stud consigned mare Glace (Ire) (Verglas) (lot 33), who is being offered in foal to first season sire Calyx. The dam of three winners to date, Glace is out of the Invincible Spirit Mare Swynford Lady, a full-sister to G1 July Cup winner and Champion European Sprinter Fleeting Spirit.

DEADLINE TO REGISTER TO EBF JUNE 30

The deadline to register 2yo's to the European Breeders Fund by a stallion not registered to the EBF is Friday, June 30.

"Owners and trainers looking to campaign a horse in Europe should check that it is EBF nominated as over 80% of 2-year-old maiden/novice races are confined to EBF eligibles," said Kerry Murphy of the EBF said. “Once eligible, horses can compete for a pool of over €5million available in added prizemoney throughout Europe, including the valuable series being staged in GB and Ireland. This nomination stage largely relates to horses by stallions standing in North America".

FRANKEL BOOK 1 SENSATION DEBUTS AT THE CURRAGH

17.30 Curragh, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, f, 7fT
YLANG YLANG (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who debuts for Ballydoyle in the maiden won in the last two years by the subsequent Group 1 performers Never Ending Story (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Discoveries (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), was one of the six Frankel millionaire lots at the most recent Book 1 Sale. The second-highest-priced filly at that auction, the March-foaled bay is the first foal out of the G1 Fillies =Mile fourth Shambolic (Ire) (Shamardal), a half to the accomplished pair Viva Pataca (GB) (Marju {Ire}) and Laughing (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). Ryan Moore rides her in preference to the stable’s Opera Singer (Justify), a half-sister to War Front’s top-level winners Hit It A Bomb and Brave Anna, while there is another regally-bred individual in the line-up in Michael Ryan’s Finsceal Luas (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), the 11th foal out of his champion Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) starting out for Jim Bolger.

14.45 Doncaster, Novice, £9,950, 2yo, 7f 6yT
ARABIC LEGEND (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}), the second foal out of Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s GI E.P.Taylor S. heroine Sheikhha Reika (Fr) (Shamardal), is poised to make his debut for the Andrew Balding stable. Also starting out is Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum’s Al Mootamarid (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), a Marco Botti-trained half-brother to none other than Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) who despite that cost a mere 200,000gns at the Tatts Craven Breeze-Up; and Godolphin’s Stormy Waves (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a Charlie Appleby-trained grandson of the prolific producer Pieds De Plume (Fr) (Seattle Slew) who was a 525,000gns Book 1 purchase.

17.00 Curragh, Mdn, €20,000, 2yo, 6fT
BENNU (IRE) (Magna Grecia {Ire}) is a big-deal representative of Coolmore’s first-crop sire, being the 11th foal out of the Niarchos Family’s excellent producer Alpha Lupi (Ire) (Rahy). Trained for the operation by Willie Browne, the May-foaled half-brother to the heavyweight pair Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and Alpine Star (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and the former’s group 1-winning full-sister Discoveries (Ire) is up against some big-yard runners including Ballydoyle’s second-string and fellow newcomer House Of Aviz (Uncle Mo), a full-brother to the Gill Santa Ysabel S. winner and GI Starlet S. and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up Donna Veloce.

20.25 Curragh, Mdn, €20,000, 3yo/up, 10fT
SATURN (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) carries on the theme set earlier on the card by his relative Bennu (Ire) (Magna Grecia {Ire}), with this Jessie Harrington-trained newcomer the landmark first foal out of the brilliant Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). Grey like his dam, the Niarchos colour-bearer has a wide draw to contend with on his racecourse bow.

SPRING DAWN (IRE) (f, 3, Kodiac {GB}–Policoro {Ire}, by Pivotal {GB}), runner-up to stablemate English Rose (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) over this trip on the Rowley Mile here last month, was instantly on the lead. Veering left towards the rail late on, the 5-6 favourite had enough in reserve to score by two lengths from Resonance (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The dam, whose first foal was the German listed scorer Firebird Song (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), also has a yearling full-sister to that performer. She is out of the G3 Prix de Barbeville winner Magna Graecia (Ire) (Warning {GB}), whose listed-placed daughter Taranto (GB) (Machiavellian) produced Invincible Spirit’s G1 Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Territories (Ire). This is the family of Street Cry (Ire), Shamardal and the latter’s Classic-winning sire son Victor Ludorum (GB). Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $13,142.
