GREG FERRARO Q&A, PART II: HISA ROLLOUT “INCONSISTENT AND UNEVEN”

by Dan Ross

After Sunday’s announcement that The Stronach Group (TSG) will close at the end of the year its flagship Northern California racetrack, Golden Gate Fields, the company at the helm of the sale has gone silent, ignoring all of TDN’s requests for comment this week.

To bring much-needed illumination on this seismic decision, the TDN spoke Thursday morning with Greg Ferraro, the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) chairman.

JOSE ORTIZ DAY-TO-DAY FOLLOWING SPILL

Jockey Jose Ortiz was taken to Albany Medical Center for evaluation after being dislodged from the Wesley Ward-trained Same Old Fears (Uncle Mo) as the field for race one was crossing the wire Friday at Saratoga.

"Same Old Fears unseated Jose Ortiz near the finish of today’s Saratoga opener," read a statement from NYRA. "Jose Ortiz was upright and alert but was transported to Albany Med for further evaluation and is off his mounts. The filly was unharmed and was provided a precautionary van ride home."

Ortiz was alert and walked on to the ambulance under his own power.

Steve Rushing, Ortiz’s agent, later said, "Thankfully only bruised ribs, not sure when he will return to riding. Taking [it] day by day."

A spokesman for NYRA reiterated, "Jose Ortiz was evaluated at Albany Medical Center this afternoon. He has bruised ribs, but X-rays revealed no fractures. Agent Steve Rushing describes Ortiz as day-to-day."

Sent off odds of 7-2 in a race moved from the turf and contested at 5 1/2 furlongs over a ‘good’ main track, Same Old Fears set the fractions and carried a narrow advantage into the final eighth of a mile. The filly remained in contention as they lined up approaching the wire, but Same Old Fears clipped heels with odds-on Foxhole (Constitution)–the mount of his brother Irad Ortiz, Jr.–and fell heavily, throwing Ortiz. Among several points raised, Ferraro shared his thoughts on the need for a fixed hub of racing in Northern California to secure the long-term viability of the state’s racing industry, and for necessary renovations of Santa Anita’s backstretch accommodation as a condition of licensure at the track.

Ferraro also expressed concern that TSG has not fully considered the potentially stark ramifications from Golden Gate’s closure on the rest of the state’s stakeholders, including the breeders, owners, trainers and other licensees.

“I have the feeling—I don’t know—but I have the feeling since The Stronach Group hasn’t put anything out there yet, that perhaps they don’t have their plans fully developed,” Ferraro said.

Read part one of the interview here.

The CHRB chair, however, didn’t just speak on Golden Gate Fields. Ferraro also shared his thoughts and concerns surrounding the ongoing rollout of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA)’s Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) program.

Part two of this interview has been lightly edited for brevity and clarity.

TDN: Let’s shift gears and move on to the ongoing rollout of HISA’s Anti-Doping and Medication Control program. Very broadly, how would you assess the job they’ve done so far?

GF: I would say it’s inconsistent and uneven. Their rules are somewhat complicated for people. Sometimes they haven’t made things completely clear. But their application of the rules and their disciplinary actions have been uneven and inconsistent.

What the basic plan is, is to make a major cultural change in the way racing operates. And in order to do that, you have to have some trust within the industry. I don’t think their initial steps have built any sense of trust. So going forward, the industry’s a little reticent, let’s put it that way.

TDN: What specifics can you point to when you say, ‘inconsistent and uneven’?

GF: The incident with the joint injections where some trainers were fine and others weren’t. Some horses were disqualified and others weren’t. They withheld the names of violating trainers for a long time. Nineteen trainers.

Then there’s the inconsistency in the enforcement of this provisional suspension [in the event of a positive for a banned substance]. That’s been quite a concern to trainers because a trainer could be put out of business with basically no warning, the way they are going about it. Cont.

From a California point of view, we're always quite concerned about due process. [Trainer Ray] Handal is a perfect example. They suspended him. Then, once they looked into it, they found out it was contamination in the feed. It's happened before. The mill runs the cattle feed before they run the horse feed, and the horse feed is contaminated.

So here, this guy is knocked out of business for [nearly] a week, traumatized financially and emotionally, and then it's reversed.

[Note: Read more on the Handal situation here.]

Instead, if they had just notified the trainer, investigated for a few days and had a hearing before [potentially] suspending somebody, it seems to me that's a fairer way to go. I think most of the trainers in California are used to that kind of system, and that's their feeling as well.

TDN: What you’re saying is the current system of an automatic provisional suspension after a positive for a banned substance needs to be eliminated or modified?

GF: Yes. Given the American jurisprudence system of innocence until proven guilty and due process, I think it needs to be reorganized.

TDN: You mentioned joint injections. In California prior to HISA, the intra-articular corticosteroid fetlock injection rule mandated a 30-day stand down period prior to racing, and all intra-articular corticosteroid joint injections had a 10-day stand down before workouts. HISA’s intra-articular joint injection rule requires a 14-day stand down before racing and a seven-day stand down before workouts. Do these weaker intra-articular joint injection rules concern you?

GF: Yes, that's a concern to us. It's a step backwards for California. We noticed once we put that rule in place in California, we dropped the musculoskeletal breakdowns dramatically. So, we think it's important.

We tried to get HISA to go along with [California's rules], but they wouldn't. We're still in discussions with them about it. We've cooperated a lot with HISA and we've been supportive of them. And I don't want to come across as being negative of HISA. But for California, you know, it's a bit of a step backward. It's a big expense. And we're not getting that much out of it because we've been ahead of the game nationally for quite some time now.

The corticosteroid issue is something they need to take another look at. Corticosteroids are not bad per se. But corticosteroids and high-speed works combined are not good at all.

Take any athlete that goes into training. Over time, their joint health degenerates. It's just part of what happens. You wear the surfaces down. You can't really slow that [process] down, but you can certainly speed it up. And one way to speed it up is to inject joints [with corticosteroids] in close proximity to high-speed works.

And so, what we've done in California--and what HISA needs to do--is impress upon the trainers that they need to discontinue this attitude of injecting to run or to work and look at corticosteroids as something that they use as a medical treatment combined with rest and other rehabilitative procedures.

Long-term, intra-articular corticosteroids should be eliminated completely from racing. Cont.

TDN: What argument does HISA give in pushing back against adopting California’s stricter rules?

GF: You have to realize that much of the rest of the country had [weaker] rules [than California]. And so they say, ‘we’re getting so much pushback from the rest of the country that we can’t do it.’

But what we’ve argued is to let California have its stricter rules and use us as a model. Then, at some point in time, you can go back to the rest of the country and say, ‘well, California’s had this rule in place and look what it’s done. It’s been beneficial. Why don’t we adopt it nationwide?’

California is the point of the spear in terms of dealing with the public and the liability of horse racing. I think they should use us as a sort of leader in animal welfare and jockey welfare.

TDN: Do you think HISA’s approach on this issue runs counter to their stated mandate of animal welfare and safety?

GF: Correct. What it takes is somebody with enough backbone to stand up to the pushback.

I mean, we got pushback in California, too. But we did what we thought was right and it’s proven to be beneficial. Now, the horsemen look at us and say, ‘well, we didn’t like it in the beginning, but we realize it was worth the sacrifice.’

TDN: Are you worried California, after a sharp downward trend in equine fatalities in recent years, might now see an uptick in fatalities and injuries as a result?

GF: Absolutely. That’s what our worry is.

TDN: Wow. Because of this, has the CHRB thought about the possibility of California opting out of HISA—at least until these fixes have been secured?

GF: No, we wouldn't do that. We’re supportive of HISA overall. We think the concept of a standard rule nationwide is beneficial to the industry overall. These are growing pains. I think we’re better off to work within [HISA]. Us pulling out is just not an option.
According to Equibase, Lynch has been training since 2020 and has had 21 winners from 214 starts. She is 5-for-56 on the year.

In regards to Lynch, NYRA issued the following statement Friday: “NYRA has been alerted via HIWU that a horse under the care of trainer Natalia Lynch has tested positive for the banned substance Altrenogest. Per HISA rules, Lynch is now under a provisional suspension nationally and cannot participate in any activities at NYRA tracks. HISA/HIWU rules allow for Lynch to request a formal hearing and the analysis of a split sample. Lynch had occupied four stalls at Saratoga Race Course and 11 stalls at Belmont Park. Horses under Lynch's care are being transferred to a covered person who is not affiliated with Lynch as required by HIWU.”

Also new to the list, trainer Mary Pirone was also provisionally suspended for an Altrenogest positive. Based at Emerald Downs, Pirone has been training since 1987. She has won just two races since 2020, going 2-for-31 over that time. Pirone's Benny the Jet (Bernardini) tested positive after finishing fifth in a $2,500 claimer at Emerald Downs June 24. He was also claimed out of that race and in his next start he won for trainer Jorge Rosales and owner Dawn Spillman.

Trainer McLean Robertson, the dominant trainer at Canterbury Park, was also provisionally suspended by HIWU for Altrenogest.

Trainer Javier Morzan was provisionally suspended after his horse Lady Liv (Bal a Bali {Brz}) tested positive for Metformin. Top Northern California trainer Jonathan Wong was also provisionally suspended for Metformin. Metformin is commonly used in humans to combat type 2 diabetes. While Metformin is a permitted medication by the U. S. Anti-Doping Agency (USADA) for humans in athletic competition, the National Institutes of Health published a study indicating it has an effect on athletic performance. In a study of 10 men, they determined that “time to exhaustion was significantly higher after Metformin than placebo ingestion,” and that “Metformin improved performance and anaerobic alactic contribution during high-intensity exercise.”

Morzan is currently racing at Delaware Park. He is 5-for-60 on the year and has won 18 total races during a career that began in 2020.

HIWU's list also includes trainer David Reid, who was provisionally suspended after a horse he trained tested positive for Venlafaxine. In humans, Venlafaxine is used to treat depression. It is also used to treat general anxiety disorder, social anxiety disorder, and panic disorder. Reid, who is based at Hawthorne, has a career record of 36 wins from 184 starters.

SATURDAY DRIVEN BY TRIO OF GRADE I RACES by J.N. Campbell

Not just anyone could join their club. You had to possess status, refinement, wealth and charm. Oh, and the real test was, “The ability to drive four horses with grace and skill,” which translated to holding the reigns in one fist—whew, tough.

Founded in 1875, New York's Coaching Club had strict guidelines for membership, which included that you could not be involved in racing of any kind. Interesting that the CC's annual parade was replaced in 1917, the same year America entered The Great War, by a race for 3-year-old fillies at Belmont Park. Hence, the Coaching Club American Oaks was born.

The Grade I affair at Saratoga Race Course that takes place this Saturday isn't the only one scheduled, as three other tracks also host graded stakes. Here's a preview of all the action. Cont.
Mage Returns on Loaded Haskell Card
Monmouth Park’s massive day includes the GI TVG.com Haskell S., which yielded some buzz on draw day when 'TDN Rising Star' Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo), who has not raced since winning the GII Southwest S. at Oaklawn Park Jan. 28, was named the 5-2 favorite over GI Kentucky Derby champ Mage (Good Magic) at 3-1. Numerous other storylines exist though.

Salute the Stars (Candy Ride (Arg)) arrives off his narrow win in the local prep June 17, the Pegasus S., and 'TDN Rising Star' Tapit Trice (Tapit) will try to duplicate that burst of speed that he exhibited so well back at Keeneland in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. While California shipper Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride (Arg)) looks to bring his tactical advantage east for Pin Oak Stud and Hall of Fame trainer Richard Mandella, who saddled Dixie Union (Dixieland Band) to win the 2000 Haskell.

Mike Maker, who is known for his strong turf routing program, sends three entries for the GI United Nations S. With over $1.7 million in earnings, Red Knight (Pure Prize) doesn't appear to be slowing down at the age of nine and he easily has the class edge here after winning the GI Man o' War S. May 13 at Belmont Park. Standing in this veteran's way will be Catnip (Kitten's Joy), who has ticked off three wins in a row during this form cycle for trainer Mike Stidham, and Planetario (Brz) (Il Doge (Brz)) for Mandella, who won a distance grass test in the GII San Juan Capistrano S. June 18 at Santa Anita.

Also carded for Saturday are some intriguing Grade III races.

Kentucky Oaks Alums Enjoy Spa Day
The aforementioned GI Coaching Club at Saratoga will feature a number of filly alums from the GI Kentucky Oaks. Both Gambling Girl (Dialed In), who just missed beating Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) by a neck in Louisville, and last-out Monomoy Girl S. winner Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief), will serve as the morning-line co-second choices at 5-2. Meanwhile, both Southlawn (Pioneerof the Nile) and 2-1 favorite Wet Paint (Blame), who finished 10th and fourth in the Oaks, respectively, will look to return to their winning ways.

Also on the card is a short field of five who assemble on the turf for the GII Caress S. Roses for Debra (Liam's Map), a gray 4-year-old filly who has only lost once in seven attempts, will look to raise her game in what will be her first graded start for trainer Christophe Clement. She'll square off against a pair of Bill Mott trainees in Poppy Flower (Lea), who won the GII Intercontinental S. at Belmont Park in early June, and Wakanaka (Ire) (Power {GB}), who drops out of the one-mile GI Just A Game S. where she finished fourth.

Woodbine and Del Mar Sport Grade IIIs
Rounding out the North American graded action, we head north to Toronto for the GIII Ontario Colleen S. where Kelsey Danner trainee Mohawk Trail (Pioneerof the Nile) will try to build on her win in the Alywow S. June 25. Also not to be missed will be Loyalty (Hard Spun), a 4-year-old dark bay filly from Josie Carroll's shedrow, who is the 9-5 morning-line favorite in the GII Hendrie S. Cont.

Of course, it wouldn't be mid-July without racing at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club. The track north of San Diego opened on Friday and the weekend brings the first graded stakes race in the GII San Clemente S. Over the Jimmy Durante Turf Course, 14 will go with also-eligible and 'TDN Rising Star' Justique (Justify) available. Anisette (GB) (Awaad (Ire)) could be the pick based on her U.S. debut against allowance company May 29 at Santa Anita, while Spicybug (Speightstown) comes in off maiden-breaking and optional claiming wins at The Great Race Place. But don't rule out Glen Hill Farm homebred and Gulfstream invader Ocean Club (Curlin) or Todd Fincher's Flying Connection (Nyquist), who was last seen finishing sixth in the GI Kentucky Oaks.

FLINTSHIRE FILLY GIVES BROWN YET ANOTHER LAKE GEORGE

It's a tall task to beat Chad Brown at Saratoga, especially when he has half the field. Surge Capacity (Flintshire (GB))--one of four entrants from the Brown barn in the GII Lake George S.--was the least experienced of the field but carried the day, taking Friday's featured race at the Spa after scraping the paint and finishing bravely for the win. A first-out Monmouth maiden winner June 10 at a sixteen further with an 80 debut Beyer Speed Figure, Surge Capacity gave Brown a fifth consecutive victory and seventh overall--all since 2015--in the race, while Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables was winning the race for the third time in the last four renewals. The team also scored the 2023 exacta as Klaravich's Brown-trained Tax Implications (GB) (Mehmas (Ire)) was the runner-up.

Away sharply, Surge Capacity was prominent early before Joel Rosario eased her back a bit to sit a joint third on the rail through the :24.97 first quarter and :49.84 half set by Secret Money (Good Samaritan) with Princess Bettina (Will Take Charge) hounding the leader from second. Restrained behind the frontrunners, Surge Capacity was ready to pounce when a hole opened up into the lane. The dark bay had the measure of Secret Money, poking her head in front a furlong from home, and still had enough to hold off her surging stablemate. Brown's Revalita (Fr) (Recoletos (Fr)) and Liguria (War Front) were fourth and fifth, respectively.

“She’s been straightforward,” said Brown of the winner. “She took a while to get to the races, but she’s two-for-two to start her career in only her second start winning a graded stakes against some nice fillies. She’s a pretty talented horse, I’d say.”

The turf was marked as yielding Friday with the Lake George remaining the day’s only race kept on the grass.

“This was the [filly] I was going to run if it came off [the grass]. I know, Flintshire on the dirt, but she has never trained bad on the dirt. I’m not saying I’ll put her there off this, but I’m going to see how she trains over it. She might be a pretty versatile horse. The female family is all dirt, so it wouldn’t surprise me.”

Pedigree Notes:

You'll be forgiven a case of deja vu if a graded-winning Klaravich homebred trained by Brown out of Strong Incentive (Warrior's Reward) sounds familiar. Last year's GIII Monmouth Cup S. winner and GII Toyota Blue Grass S. runner-up Highly Motivated (Into Mischief) is a half-brother to Surge Capacity. Klaravich Stable bought Strong Incentive as a 2-year-old for $200,000 at the OBS Spring sale and she was a minor listed winner at Woodbine for Brown in 2015 before turning into a two-time graded producer. Her most recent produce is an unraced juvenile filly named Ways and Means (Practical Joke), who posted a five-furlong work at Saratoga July 15 in 1:01 (6/31).

Surge Capacity is by Juddmonte's 2016 U.S. grass champion Flintshire (GB)--also a Group 1 winner in France and Hong Kong--who began his stallion career at Hill 'n' Dale in Kentucky before moving to Haras de Montaigu in France prior to the 2022 season. She marks the third graded/group winner and fourth overall black-type winner for the stallion who won three graded races at Saratoga himself, including the GI Sword Dancer S. twice. Surge Capacity also denotes the 10th black-type winner out of a daughter of the Medaglia d'Oro son Warrior's Reward, whose others include the aforementioned Highly Motivated and 'TDN Rising Star', GI Champagne S. winner, and Friday's Curlin S. third-place finisher Blazing Sevens (Good Magic).

PLAYED HARD COULD START NEXT IN GRADE I PERSONAL ENSIGN by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Though Rigney Racing's Played Hard (Into Mischief) will miss the GII Shuvee because of a fever, trainer Phillip Bauer said Friday that she might run in the GI Personal Ensign on Aug. 25.
Bauer said it's a moving target that he could set his sights on.
"We'll hopefully get time to get a breeze into her next week and see what she does," he said.
Another possible start could be in the GIII Locust Grove on Sept. 16 at Churchill Downs in the race she won last year.
Played Hard was found to have the fever before Bauer entered her Thursday in the Shuvee, where the GI La Troienne winner would have faced Clairiere (Curlin) and Nest (Curlin). He said she bounced back quickly after receiving treatment.
"She's good," he said. "It was one of those things that maybe we could have entered and ran, but if she did run bad, then you're mad at yourself. So, with that caliber horse you've got to do the right thing."
The Shuvee was the race Played Hard was pointed to after her third-place finish in the GI Ogden Phipps on June 10, with the Personal Ensign an option.
"It wasn't 100% sure," he said, "but it was definitely something that we're considering between that and the Locust Grove. It might be a blessing in disguise. Cont."
ANTONUCCI 'BEING PATIENT' WITH BELMONT WINNER ARCANGELO
by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - While many of the horses that Arcangelo (Arrogate) will face in the GI Travers S. on Aug. 26 are competing this weekend and next, trainer Jena Antonucci is midway through a deliberate, no-race prep program for her GI Belmont S. winner.

Antonucci and her pups Lucy and Mando completed the second leg of their drive from Ocala, Fla. to Saratoga Springs Friday morning in time to see Arcangelo gallop on the main track and frolic for a bit in the round pen near her barn before his bath. It was another quiet day on the way to the $1.25 million Travers, a race that could determine the 3-year-old male title.

After Arcangelo provided Antonucci with the biggest victory of her career, she decided to train the colt owned by Jon Ebbert’s Blue Rose Farm up to the Travers. He has been in Saratoga since the beginning of July and has worked twice. The next breeze will take place in the coming week, though it not yet scheduled. Antonucci said his timed works are typically about 10 days apart.

GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) and the Belmont third-place finisher Tapit Trice (Tapit) are tuning up for the Travers Saturday in the GI Haskell S. at Monmouth Park. Preakness runner-up Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) was third behind Scotland (Good Magic) in the Curlin S. Friday at Saratoga. On July 29, Belmont runner-up Forte (Violence) is scheduled to be the headliner in the GII Jim Dandy S.

"Some fun racing coming up," Antonucci said. "I’m looking forward to watching some good horse races."

Antonucci said that the Travers is part of a long-range route for the gray colt that Ebbert purchased as a Keeneland September yearling for $35,000.

"Honestly, we really are hoping to have a nice 4-year-old year with him," she said. "I know I’m getting quite a few bullets for being just very transparent about that. His owner, when he bought this horse--people laugh, but they kind of get it now--he’s like ‘I’m buying this horse because I want to focus on his 2024 Breeders' Cup.' And I’m like, 'Well, this horse isn’t going to keep his feet on the ground until then, so we have to have another plan, too.'"

Arcangelo broke his maiden on March 18 at Gulfstream in his third career start, won the GIII Peter Pan at Belmont on May 13 and on June 10 secured Antonucci a permanent place in racing history: the first woman to win the Belmont.

Six weeks after the Belmont and five weeks from the Travers, Antonucci is pleased with how Arcangelo looks and acts.

"We’re not ducking races," she said. "It’s just being patient with a horse to grow up, let him grow up. He has had his entire career spaced out. His closest races were the Peter Pan to the Belmont. It’s something that he’s quite used to and quite fine with. It’s just giving him his breathing room. You don’t need to force stuff with him."

Antonucci said the Travers is the current focus and did not want to talk about where she might run the colt after Saratoga. She said she does not know which jockey she will give a leg up to for the Travers since Javier Castellano won the Derby with Mage and the Belmont on Arcangelo.

"It’s nothing I can control," she said. "The rider thing is going to work out. Someone will hang on to him." Cont.

"I just feel that in life you can’t stress about things that you can’t control. I can’t control that. We’ll continue to do us and it will work out. It always does."

Antonucci has been around horses and racing throughout her life and saddled her first starter in 2010. She has been racing at Saratoga since 2012. Winning the Belmont with Arcangelo boosted her profile this summer. She smiled and acknowledged that things have been different since that victory.

"If you would have scripted, ‘You’re going to be the first woman to win the Belmont Stakes. And when you win that this is what it means,’ It still doesn’t cover the layering of how it’s reached past our sport, and what it means to people,” she said.

"That part, I'm extremely grateful for an immense amount of gratitude from people that give that to us, and finally, looked at our sport, maybe that is not like the worst thing on the planet.

"The other part that was interesting is just kind of how so many horsemen have actually been extremely gracious, which is in a sport where we tend to eat each other alive."

Antonucci said she has enjoyed the countless kind words from people in and out of racing, but said the Belmont success was about the horse, not her.

"I can't do this without all of us, without that horse, and I am extremely aware of that," she said. "So, it is his story that I happen to hang on to his tail for. It will continue to be his story and his owner's story. My job is to steward that. I understand logically that, but it's his journey that I'm trying to stay out of the way of."

Arcangelo has settled in well at Saratoga, Antonucci said, and enjoys his time in the round pen, where can roll in the dirt, and the opportunity to be out of his stall.

"He loves it here," she said. "He was here last summer, so this was probably just homecoming for him really. Our routine is very straightforward and boring, as far as every day. He does [the round pen] a couple times a day. I love being over here because you can go for big, long walks and that suits this horse, always has.

"He really has really taken all the attention well, where he thinks it's kind of cool. He knows where cameras are. He knows where people are. You'll see him just identify it. That's a part that you can't teach them. They either have that or they don't. They either fold from it or thrive in it. I'm super grateful that he's thriving. It makes my life a little easier."

Noting that Arcangelo is a mid-May foal, Antonucci said since he has grown since the Belmont it makes sense not to push him this summer.

"He's precocious and has speed," she said. "Obviously, Arrogate was extremely precocious with a high cruising speed, so I feel very blessed that he has that. I think when you are managing those things, you look at it eyes wide open. You have a horse that's showing a lot of talent that has a lot of speed and he's still a young, maturing frame. We would be absolutely stupid to go in the well, 100 times on him and not let him find his space and grow up and keep putting it all together."

"I give Jon a ton of credit on this. He has been absolutely 'Nope. Nope. Nope. Nope. Wait. We're fine. We'll take our time. Nope. Okay.' My job is to lay out the options. Here's X road maps. Here's how we're going to get to each one of these. It's just giving this horse the space that he needs, right? It works in our favor to have a cool horse the rest of this year and hopefully into next year."

CO-OWNER RESTREPO TO DONATE PORTION OF MAGE’S EARNINGS TO CANCER CHARITY

GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) is owned by OGMA Investments, LLC, Ramiro Restrepo, Sterling Racing LLC and CMNWLTTH, but when he tackles a tough group of opponents in Saturday’s GI Haskell S. he will be running for more than just the four ownership groups. Restrepo announced Friday that, starting with the Haskell, he will be donating a portion of Mage’s earnings to the Dwoskin Children’s Cancer Research Fund at the University of Miami’s Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center.

The story was first reported by the Daily Racing Form's Mike Welsch.

The fund was named in honor of Steve Dwoskin, a veteran trainer on the South Florida circuit, who estimates he has donated $15 million to cancer-related causes. Though a successful trainer, much of Dwoskin’s income has come from a career selling auto parts. Cont.

“Restrepo and Mage after the Derby | Coady

“What Ramiro is doing, it’s unbelievable,” the 80-year-old trainer said. “It’s a really beautiful gesture on his part. This is a good story. I think a lot of people will see this and they’ll all be rooting for Mage.”

Dwoskin started donating to cancer-related charities 22 years ago after his father and brother died of the disease. About eight years ago, he started to focus on cancer research for children. With Dwoskin’s help, the Dwoskin Children’s Cancer Research Fund at the University of Miami’s Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center was started.

“I met this woman whose husband was a big doctor down here,” Dwoskin said. “She lost an 8-year-old son to cancer. I saw it on TV, on channel 7, and I went to meet her. I just realized I have a calling. If somebody is 80 or 90-years-old and dies of cancer I can handle that. When someone who is 8-years-old dies, I can’t handle it. I just don’t understand it.”

Restrepo said he had long admired Dwoskin for his work and for his philanthropy.

“Steve has been a local, Florida horseman for many, many years and is real supportive of the South Florida racing industry,” Restrepo said. “He’s also a huge benefactor to the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Miami. I am a Miami alumni. I have lost two family members to cancer, my grandfather and an uncle on my father’s side. So I am sensitive to that disease. There’s a synergy between the University of Miami, Steve Dwoskin and the disease itself which has hit close to home for me. That all came together. I met with Steve and some of the fundraisers and chair members over at the University of Miami on the pediatric cancer side. We chatted about working with each other. This opportunity came up and I was more than happy to contribute. Mage is a horse that has many followers and it’s nice to be able to use his platform to create awareness for what Steve has been doing. There is such a depth to his commitment. Steve has donated so much money toward the pediatric cancer research foundation. When you sit down with him and hear it from the horse’s mouth, it’s pretty impressive.”

ANOTHER HBPA VS. HISA CASE HEADS TO FEDERAL APPEALS COURT by T.D. Thornton

Ten days after a federal judge denied a motion for a preliminary injunction that sought to halt the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) and its Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) program, the plaintiffs in the case, who are representatives of the Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA) chapters in Arkansas and Iowa, appealed that denial to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Led by Bill Walmsley, the president of the Arkansas HBPA, and Jon Moss, the executive director of the Iowa HBPA, the July 21 appeal by the plaintiffs is part of an underlying lawsuit trying to get HISA declared unlawful. That federal case is the most recent of five separate legal attempts within the past two years trying to derail HISA via alleged claims of unconstitutionality.

The defendants, who are executives with the HISA Authority and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), stated in a separate court document also filed July 21 that they could soon be seeking a stay of that court’s proceedings.

"Counsel for Authority Defendants have numerous upcoming deadlines, including in related cases that could bear on the issues raised in this case..." the HISA Authority's July 21 filing stated. "Authority Defendants may seek a stay of proceedings before this Court if and when Plaintiffs file an interlocutory appeal of this Court’s order denying their Motion for Preliminary Injunction." Cont.

The interlocutory appeal filed on Friday is a type of appeal that pertains only to that specific injunction denial, and not to the overall case that dates to Apr. 6, 2023.

This lawsuit in U.S. District Court (Eastern District of Arkansas, Northern Division) is separate from another lawsuit initiated by the National HBPA and 12 of its affiliates in 2021.

In that older lawsuit, a lower court judge has already ruled that a revised 2022 version of the HISA law is constitutional, but the HBPA plaintiffs are appealing that judgment to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Oral arguments are tentatively scheduled for the first week in October.

A third anti-HISA lawsuit, led by the states of Oklahoma, West Virginia and Louisiana, failed to strike down HISA in its appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Back on Mar. 3, that court affirmed the constitutionality of the amended HISA law that had been upheld by a lower court.

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK

Todd Pletcher stables Charge It (Tapit) and Far Bridge (English Channel), each victorious in stakes company on the July 8 program at Belmont Park, returned to the worktab for the first time since those efforts.

Whisper Hill Farm’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Charge It, who returned to winning ways with a dominating victory in the GII Suburban S. at a mile and quarter, went a half-mile in :49 flat over the Saratoga main track and is on track for a start in the GI Whitney S. Aug. 5.

“He worked really well. We’re on target for the Whitney,” Pletcher said. “The way he came out of his last race, he had good energy and was moving great. He’s settled in really well here. He seems like a horse that’s in really good form.”

Far Bridge, campaigned by Lawrence Sarf’s LSU Stables since being purchased privately from Calumet Farm, was the impressive winner of the GI Belmont Derby Invitational downstate and went four furlongs in the company of 4-year-old stable companion Al’s Rocket (Cairo Prince) in :49.95.

“I wanted to breeze him on the turf [Friday], but I didn’t like how the forecast looked, so I’m glad we got it in yesterday. He went well,” Pletcher said.

With the exception of the featured GIII Lake George S., Friday’s turf races were transferred to the main track.

Far Bridge is a candidate for the $600,000 GI Saratoga Derby Invitational S. over a mile and three-sixteenths on the Whitney undercard.

• New York-bred 3-year-old filly Maple Leaf Mel (Cross Traffic) fired a half-mile in :49.22 over the Oklahoma training track, the quickest of eight works at the distance as she prepares to put her unblemished five-for-five mark on the line in the GI Test S. Aug. 5. It was her first work since posting a 2 1/2-length success in the GIII Victory Ride S. at Belmont Park July 9.

“It went very good,” said Melanie Giddings, who trains the filly for Bill Parcells’s August Dawn Farm. “We didn’t do anything special and kept it simple. The track was a little wet, but it was tight enough. I like the surface here.”

Giddings, who is the subject of an upcoming TDN feature and for whom the filly is named, took over the everyday training from Jeremiah Englehart this past January.

“She came out of her last race really well with good energy,” said Giddings. “She’s great and she’s the star. She’s always been professional, even as good-feeling of a horse as she can be. When she was a baby, I was worried she may be goofy in the paddock or something, and she was awesome. She’s always been like that. The good ones do things a little different than most.”

INTO MISCHIEF’S TIMBERLAKE GROOVES TO ‘TDN RISING STAR’ STATUS

by J.N. Campbell

With a spring in his step from the word go, Timberlake (Into Mischief) lived up to his famous name on Friday afternoon at Ellis Park when he broke his maiden impressively and attained ‘TDN Rising Star’ status.

With blinkers on and traversing seven furlongs over the dirt as the 5-4 favorite, Timberlake controlled the pace throughout and, while jockey Florent Geroux served as a passenger, increased his margin around the far turn. Cruising down the lane, the bay colt was geared down with less than a furlong left and won by 9 1/4 lengths over 8-1 shot West Saratoga (Exaggerator). This was the Brad Cox trainee’s second start after finishing a well-beaten and puzzling sixth as the favorite in his debut at Ellis Park June 15.

Timberlake is Into Mischief’s 39th ‘Rising Star’. His Irish-bred dam is a half-sister to G2 Hardwicke S. and G2 King Edward VII S. hero Thomas Chippendale (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). They are out of MG1SP All My Loving (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells), who is a full-sister to G1 Irish Oaks victress and GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf placegetter Yesterday (Ire). The winner’s dam, who was stakes placed in England, is also responsible for a yearling colt by Army Mule and she foaled a filly by Known Agenda Apr. 21.

SATURDAY INSIGHTS: MAGE FULL-BROTHER ENTERED ‘MTO’ AT THE SPA by Alan Carasso

1st-SAR, $136k, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, post time: 1:10 p.m. ET

His full-brother Mage is about three hours south at Monmouth Park to contest Saturday’s GI TVG.com Haskell S., but DORNOCH (Good Magic) could still represent the family should the Saratoga opener be transferred to the main track. Whereas Mage cost $235,000 at Keeneland September in 2021 (before fetching $290,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale last year), Dornoch was a $325,000 acquisition in Lexington. The pair’s dam SW & GSP Puca (Big Brown), a ‘TDN Rising Star’ and also responsible for MSP Gunning (Gun Runner), is a half-sister to GISW Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}). Also entered for the main track only is Deterministic (Liam’s Map), a $625,000 KEESEP purchase who hails from the Helen Alexander family of champion Althea. TJCIS PPs

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the ‘baby’ races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Saturday at Saratoga and Ellis and Del Mar:

Scotland came into the Curlin S. a head shy of perfection but with less than a neck for his combined win margins, and put on a show to secure his career-first black-type in the race named for his paternal grandsire.

A head winner on unveiling Mar. 4 at Hallandale and a nose second to SP Tumbarumba (Oscar Performance) in a Apr. 23 Keeneland allowance two back, he was a gusty head winner last out June 3 beneath the Twin Spires over Cagliostro (Upstart).

Moving to secure his spot on the rail after the jump, Scotland loped along from the inside on the first turn and was challenged by Il Miracolo briefly on the far turn before opening up when asked outside the quarter pole. Shaking clear and kept to his task by the furlong marker, he was put into a hand-ride in the final sixteenth and was 3 1/4 lengths much the best as his long-time shadow held on to second. Blazing Sevens, the 3-5 favorite on this return post-game second in the GI Preakness S., fought on for third while no menace to the top two.

"Maybe this [two turns] is what he wanted all along. We got a good foundation in him. We sprinted him a few times--he got the job done a couple times. [This is Scotland’s] first time in a stakes and here we are," said Bill Mott from the winner’s enclosure. When asked if Scotland was a possibility for the GI Travers Aug. 26, he left the topic open.

"He is for me [laughs]," he said. "This was a test today to see if he could get the two turns, get the nine furlongs and get him a race over the Saratoga racetrack. He answered both questions today. Obviously, the Travers is a different race and different competition. I’m sure we’ll have that debate with the racing managers and the owners, but I’m sure the Travers would be up on the list."

A half to a multiple stakes-placed runner turned broodmare in Tapped (Tapit), who had back-to-back McKinzie foals after her 2-year-old Good Magic filly Top Magic--now in Kazakhstan, Scotland is the most recent black-type earner for his dam. Gemswick Park, an accomplished runner in her rights, produced her own McKinzie colt in 2022 and has a 2023 Audible colt. The female line gets very busy under the third dam as Gold Tiara (Seeking the Gold) makes an appearance, best known in Japan as the granddam of MGISP Stephanos (Jpn) (Deep Impact). This is also the family of G1SW Poet’s Voice (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and G1SW & MG1SP-Jpn Mozu Katchan (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BRIGHT FUTURE (c, 4, Curlin--Sophia’s Song {SW & GSP, $155,892}, by Bellamy Road) was victorious on unveiling last season as a 3-year-old and started his 2023 campaign in the winner’s enclosure at Gulfstream Park. Third May 6 beneath the Twin Spires, and eighth in his maiden try against graded company in Belmont’s June 10 GII Brooklyn S. at the marathon mile-and-a-half distance, he went off at 11-1 here. Bright Future went around the first turn in the two path and stalked GSP Speed Bias (Uncle Mo) on the far turn. Chasing from four wide into upper stretch, he shook clear in the final furlong after wresting away command under right-handed urging and came home 4 3/4 lengths best. BILLY THE GREEK (g, 2, Goldencents--Kitten's Dancer (SP), by Kitten's Joy) debuted here as a 12-1 shot in an off-turf dash and tracked the lone filly Same Old Fears (Uncle Mo) from third up the backstretch. Rounding the far turn, the Saffie Joseph trainee hugged the rail, kept on into the lane and, despite some jostling with four horses across the track just before the wire, Billy the Greek got up in time to win by a nose over favored Foxhole (Constitution). ABADIN (c, 3, Speightstown--Narrate, by Medaglia d'Oro) earned a lofty 85 Beyer when a length second on Belmont debut May 6, but disappointed when he could do no better than third facing softer Monmouth maidens June 11. The 2.70-1 second choice with blinkers going on for this effort, the Ontario-bred jumped alertly and led narrowly through comfortable fractions of :23.08 and :45.81. Popped the question in upper stretch, the dark bay put daylight on his rivals into the final eighth of a mile and had a margin of 1 3/4 lengths on Treaty Obligation (Maclean's Music) on the line. DR. VENKMAN (g, 3, Ghostzapper--Theory of Change, by Archarcharch), one of two first-starters in the field, took a fair bit of action at 4-1 with apprentice Armando Aguilar claiming a five-pound weight allowance. Off to a bit of a hesitant beginning, the $105,000 KEESEP yearling quickly made up for lost time and was right in behind the leading trio approaching the turn. Traveling strongly on the bend, he was produced four wide into the lane and pulled away smartly to score by open lengths. PASS THE HAT (c, 2, Collected–Veronique, by Mizzen Mast) collected on his prior experience here and broke his maiden at second asking. The half-brother to track record-setter, ‘TDN Rising Star’ SW Nashville (Speightstown) set up shop in a stalking position early as new gelding Nuevo Amanecer (Mastery) set the pace on the front end. Bidding around the turn, he drew off at the quarter pole and looked to be home free, but Omex (Bolt d’Oro) was coming fast from the back of the field. Pass the Hat managed to safely keep his dwindling one-length advantage at the wire. The most recent to the races for his dam, herself out of a full-sister to GI Kentucky Derby hero Giacomo and a half to MGISW Tiago (Pleasant Tap), the winner has a 2023 half-brother by Munnings. This is also the female family of MGISP Stanwyck (Empire Maker). Sales history: $300,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $52,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

THREE CARATS (f, 3, Practical Joke–Jennifer’s Jewel, by Pioneero of the Nile) debuted a well-beaten third for Jerry Hollendorfer last September before making the switch to former assistant-turned-trainer Dan Ward. Off the bench and drifting upwards to 10-1 on the tote here, the chestnut filly led from the bell and controlled the pace around the turn. However, past the eighth pole Three Carats was challenged to her outside by favorite Vivid Dreams (Arrogate) and the pair battled all the way to the wire before the longshot won the bob by a nose. The winner is her dam’s first offspring, but she does have a 2-year-old half-sister by Catalina Cruiser and a yearling half-brother by Blame. DIVIETO (c, 2, Dialed In–Exaggerated (MSW, $206,037), by Blame) came into this contest with a bullet five-furlong move over the main track in 1:00.17 on a rainy July 14, and put everything together at first asking to air over a much drier track. Off at 3-1, he stalked four off the rail in third before launching a bid into the turn as the field closed ranks. Taking command passing the quarter marker, Divieto was roused to open his advantage and went clear by 4 1/2 lengths as even-money favorite Le Dom Bro (Mucho Macho Man) followed him in. A half-brother to Murky (Violence), SP, $160,135, the victor is the most recent to the races for Exaggerated, who also has a yearling filly by Summer Front. She was bred to Maxfield for 2023. MOLLY’S TOWN (g, 2, Mo Town—Molly Slew, by Curlin) was crowned the 5-2 favorite before briefly settling into third from inside the early pace. Bidding for the lead on the turn, he skimmed the rail as his stablemate Girvin City Limits (Girvin) tried to mount a response, but could only watch the victor run away under mild urging. Five lengths separated the Genaro Garcia trainees in the end. The second winner for as many to race out of the dam, Molly’s Town has a yearling half-sister by Good Samaritan. Their dam had been bred to Independence Hall for 2023. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $21,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

REAL FAST (c, 3, Kitten’s Joy--Kiss Me Now {Brz} {MG1SW-Brz, G1SP-Arg}, by T. H. Approval) jumped from the gate as the only firster and the 6-5 second choice saved ground in fourth for the majority of the race. Shifting into the three path inside the eighth pole, he was under hand encouragement as he reeled in Hilton Head (Munnings) and extended his advantage to 3 3/4 lengths on the wire. The winner is his dam’s second. Her 2021 Speightstown foal died and she was most recently bred to Collected. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

THE CURRAGH: IRISH OAKS COMPENSATION FOR SAVETHELASTDANCE?

by Tom Frary

For many, there was an element of surprise in the failure of Chester sensation Savethelastdance (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to conquer her Oaks rivals and Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks offers the opportunity for the Ballydoyle starlet to put herself back in the spotlight.

Streaking up the short Roodeye straight to wrap up a 22-length annihilation of the Listed Cheshire Oaks on a dour day at the May Festival, the daughter of Daddys Lil Darling (Scat Daddy) appeared lost in the more familiar summer sun as she floundered at Epsom three weeks later.

Still second there despite her travails getting the better of Caernarfon (GB) (Cityscape (GB)) as Soul Sister (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) proved more fleet of foot on the quicker surface, Savethelastdance has been ensconced at Rosegreen while her stablemate and fellow Galileo flagbearer Warm Heart (Ire) has entered the elite. Despite the latter beating all the right fillies in Newbury’s Listed Haras de Bouquetot Fillies’ Trial S. and Royal Ascot’s G2 Ribblesdale S., Ryan Moore just can’t get off the one who looked so extraordinary in the Cheshire Oaks. GOLD CUP WINNER SUBJECTIVIST RETIRED, STUD PLANS PENDING Dual Group 1 winner Subjectivist (GB) (Teofilo {Ire})--Reckoning {Ire}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) has been retired from racing, his former trainer Mark Johnston revealed on Friday afternoon. Stud plans for the 2021 Gold Cup winner are pending.

The Dr. Jim Walker-owned 6-year-old is now trained by Mark’s son Charlie. In his first start back from sustaining an injury after his Gold Cup victory, the March foal was unplaced in the G3 Red Sea Turf H. in Saudi Arabia in February. He bounced back with two third-place efforts in the G2 Dubai Gold Cup at the end of March and in the 2023 edition of the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot in June, his final start.

Johnston, who is now assistant trainer to his son, said, “We have known this was coming, it’s been difficult keeping him going. I had slightly mixed feelings about his run at Royal Ascot as while he ran a good race, I didn’t think it was as good as his best of two years ago.” Cont. p6

GREG FERRAR Q&A PART II: HISA ROLLOUT

Dan Ross continues his interview with the CHRB chairman, who shared his thoughts on the ongoing rollout of HISA’s Anti-Doping and Medication Control programme.
A field of eight 3-year-old fillies will contest Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks and The TDN answers the question of how each made the field.

Stay Alert Set for G1 Prix Jean Romanet

Ben and Sir Martyn Airbib’s G1 Pretty Polly S. runner-up is being pointed toward the Deauville feature on Aug. 20.

Action Point Wins Irish Rose Bowl S.

Darley’s young stallion Blue Point (Ire) got his second black-type winner when the Archie Watson trainee captured the Newbury feature on Friday.
“Obviously the two of them don’t work together, so it’s going to be interesting,” O’Brien said. “There’s not much between them on the ratings, Savethelastdance is just a little higher. We always thought the Curragh would suit her better and the ground was quick enough in Epsom for her, so she’ll probably prefer a bit more of an ease on Saturday.”

More To Come From Bluestocking

Despite coming up short behind Warm Heart at both Newbury and Ascot, there is scope for Juddmonte’s TDN Rising Star Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot [GB]) to get much closer here having been too far back in the Ribblesdale. Trainer Ralph Beckett is confident she is still on an upward curve and this easier ground and the guarantee of a strong pace will play to her strengths. “On the formbook she has to improve, but she’s a lightly-raced filly with only three runs so we feel that there could be some progression there,” Juddmonte’s European bloodstock manager Barry Mahon said. “She’s met Warm Heart twice and been beaten twice so she has a bit to find, but she’s in good form, we feel that she’s learning on the job and we’re hopeful of a good run.”

“We saw how green she was at Newbury and Frankie felt she was green at Ascot. She got stuck on the rail and when the gap came, she didn’t really know what to do to get through it, but then picked up and finished off well. We hope she’ll be a bit more streetwise on Saturday, the track should suit her, it’s not a big field and a bit easier ground should suit as well.”

Azazat Another Improver

If there is one non-Ballydoyle Irish contender in the line-up capable of bridging the gap, it could be The Aga Khan’s Azazat (Ire), another daughter of Camelot who has already been up against the older fillies and mares. Runner-up to the solid yardstick Rosscarbery (Ger) (Sea The Stars [Ire]) in Cork’s G3 Munster Oaks last month, the Dermot Weld trainee has come a long way since her Leopardstown maiden third to Savethelastdance in April. “She has handled slow ground and she stays quite well,” Chris Hayes said. “She is bred to possibly get further and I’m looking forward to her. She is very straightforward to ride, uncomplicated. That form with Rosscarbery was a good run. I think she has come forward for that run and hopefully she can put up a good performance.”

Sapphire Heads Supporting Action

The Curragh also features the five-furlong G2 Barberstown Castle Sapphire S., where Art Power (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) bids to extend his unbeaten record in Ireland taking on the impressive Listed Sole Power Sprint S. winner Ladies Church (GB) (Churchill {Ire}). The G3 Jebel Ali Racecourse and Stables Anglesey S. sees the Listed Chesham S. runner-up Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never) take on the colts for what would be a remarkable 13th renewal for Aidan O’Brien, bringing him equal to the record of the late Dr. Vincent O’Brien. Also from Ballydoyle is the G1 Gold Cup fourth Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Comer Group International Curragh Cup, where she encounters the aforementioned Rosscarbery. At Newbury, last year’s G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Lezoo (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) looks to get back on track in the G3 Hackwood S. At Newmarket, one to watch is Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s unbeaten Truthful (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) as she tackles the Listed Ric And Mary Hambro Aphrodite Fillies’ S.

IRISH OAKS: WHERE DID THEY COME FROM?

by Emma Berry & Heather Anderson

A field of eight make up Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks, and a strong Irish contingent faces just one English challenger, Juddmonte’s Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot (GB)). Aidan O’Brien runs four fillies, including the favourite, Savethelastdance (Ire). The Aga Khan homebred Azazat (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) is another who is taking her chance in this 1 1/2-mile Classic at the Curragh, and will attempt to become the third winner for her owner/breeder after Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) in 1997 and Shawanda (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) in 2005.

Irish Oaks: Where Did They Come From Cont.

AZAZAT (IRE), Camelot (GB)--Azama (IRE) (Sea The Stars {Ire})
Owner: H H Aga Khan
Breeder: His Highness The Aga Khan’s Studs S C
Trainer: Dermot Weld

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis:
Out of an unraced half-sister to the top-class Azamour (IRE), this lightly-raced filly broke her maiden at Leopardstown in May and was then runner-up in the G3 Munster Oaks last month. She’s clearly progressive but this is a big step up.

BE HAPPY (IRE), Camelot (GB)--Frequential (GB) (Dansili {GB})
Owner: Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Mrs John Magnier & Westerberg
Breeder: Lynch Badges, Ltd. & Longfield Stud
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien
Sales History: 340,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: A sister to the Group 3-placed Hector De Mars (IRE), she counts the influential Allez Les Trois as her third dam. Be Happy won on debut last September over a mile and has been placed in her only two starts this season in the G3 Prix Penelope and Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial. Place claims.

BLUESTOCKING (GB), Camelot (GB)--Emulous (GB) (Dansili {GB})
‘TDN Rising Star’
Owner: Juddmonte
Breeder: Juddmonte Farms (East), Ltd.
Trainer: Ralph Beckett

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: With only three starts to her name, this daughter of the G1 Matron S. winner Emulous is the least experienced of the octet but is clearly well regarded and should step forward again from her third-place finish in the G2 Ribblesdale S. She was beaten only a head by Warm Heart in her seasonal debut at Newbury.

COMHRA (IRE), Vocalised--Gold Mirage (IRE) (Galileo {IRE})
Owner: Comhra Partnership
Breeder/Trainer: Jim Bolger

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Her full-sister Cimeara (IRE) won the G3 Stanerra S. along with two Listed races at 1m4f and 1m6f, and half-brother Fiscal Rules (IRE) (Make Believe {GB}) was fifth in the Irish Derby. A maiden winner and Group 3-placed in the May of her juvenile season, Comhra has been winless this season in four starts this year but was less than two lengths behind Tahiyra (IRE) when third in the Irish 1,000 Guineas.

LIBRARY (IRE), Galileo (IRE)--Words (IRE) (Dansili {GB})
Owner: Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Mrs John Magnier & Westerberg
Breeder: Coolmore
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: She is out of a G3 Munster Oaks heroine, herself a half-sister to group winner and G1 Derby second US Army Ranger (IRE) (Galileo {IRE}). Her second dam won the 2008 edition of this race. L’Ancresse (IRE) (Darshaan {GB}) was second in the 2003 edition and shares Library’s third dam. It is not out of the question that a steep improvement is possible. Cont. p6

Trainer: Joseph O’Brien
Sales History: 55,000gns Tattersalls October Book 2 yearling
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Already a juvenile Group 3 winner, this filly has turned in back-to-back runner-up efforts in the G3 Staffordstown Stud S. and G2 Ribblesdale S. Her dam is a half-sister to Deep Impact (Jpn) Group 3 winners Akihiro (Jpn) and Bartaba (Fr). Lumiere Rock is likely to take a slice of the pie, without running off with the whole dessert.

SAVETHELASTDANCE (IRE), Galileo (Ire)--Daddy’s Lil Darling (Scat Daddy)
Owner: Mrs John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith & Westerberg
Breeder: Daddys Lil Darling Syndicate
Trainer: Aidan’ O’Brien
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Out of an GI American Oaks heroine, this filly is also related to GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint winner Mongolian Saturday (Any Given Saturday). Her runner-up performance in the G1 Oaks looks even better in hindsight, after the winner, Soul Sister (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), ran third in the G1 Eclipse a fortnight ago. The likeliest winner.

WARM HEART (IRE), Galileo (Ire)--Sea Siren (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus})
Owner: Mrs John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith & Westerberg

Breeder: Coolmore
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: A winner of her last three starts including the G2 Ribblesdale S., the full-sister to the group-placed Celestial Object (Ire) (Galileo [Ire]) is a daughter of the accomplished triple Australian top-level winner Sea Siren. Kin to G1 Robert Sangster victress Ruthless Dame (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) and is one of the leading fancies.

He said, “The objective was to get him to Ascot and then we hoped we might get him to Goodwood, but it has always been there, rumbling away.

“His Gold Cup win was the highlight, but he won three races on the bounce, two at Group 1 level and one at Group 2, with his win in Dubai being very impressive—you could say that was his purple patch, those seven or eight months.”

A winner of the Listed Glasgow S., G3 March S., and G1 Prix Royal-Oak from eight starts as a 3-year-old in 2020, Subjectivist added the 2021 G2 Dubai Gold Cup before his crowning achievement at Royal Ascot that June, where he ran out an imperious five-length winner (video). He retires with a mark of 20-6-4-4, and $1,191,024 in earnings.

Johnston added, “We hope he will go to stud now. There were a couple of people interested after his Gold Cup win and one of those has kept in touch, so we will see what happens.” Cont. p7

Bred by Mascalls Stud, Subjectivist was sold for 62,000gns from the New England Stud to the elder Johnston as a Tattersalls October Book 2 yearling. A half-brother to three-time group winner Sir Ron Priestley (GB) (Australia (GB)), who was second in the G1 St Leger and third in the G1 Goodwood Cup, the bay is also a half to the G2 Rockfel S.-placed mare Alba Rose (GB) (Muhaarar (GB)). Their dam was placed thrice at listed level and is from the family of G1 Gran Criterium hero and Classic-placed sire Sholokhov (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells).

“If we can keep them apart we will,” said Morrison. “One goes better on softer ground and one is better on faster ground, but they both go on good ground.

“Actually, One For Bobby is in a Group 1 in Munich on Sunday week [Grosser Dallmayr-Preis], because we were keeping our options open. If it was in three weeks after that [run], I would probably be going to Munich.

“I haven’t had a long chat to the owner yet, but prior to having won a group race, [we felt] a Group 1 place would be at least as good as a Group 2 win, so be brave and aim high.

“I think Munich is unlikely, but we’ll keep options open. You could go for the [G1] Prix Vermeille [at ParisLongchamp in September] and it might suit her, a mile and a half in France, we’ll see.”

Multiple group winner Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) will contest the G1 Goodwood Cup next in the colours of Lady Blyth. A winner of three group races in 2022, the 6-year-old gelding was back to winning ways in the Listed Race To The Ebor Grand Cup S. last month.

“We were going to go to France, but the owners want to have a go at the Goodwood Cup, so that’s where we’re going,” said Morrison.

EFTBA ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING HELD IN NEWMARKET

The annual general meeting of the European Federation of Thoroughbred Breeders’ Associations (EFTBA) was held at the John Lambton Rooms of the National Horse Racing Museum in Newmarket on July 12.

The well-attended meeting also welcomed all new EFTBA representatives—Magdalene Donimirska - Wodzicka Poland; Frank Dorff, Germany; Jose Hormaeche Spain; Philip Lybeck Finland; Henrik Villadsen, Denmark; and Pierric Rouxel, France. Observers included Sarah Carmichael ITBF Secretariat and Victoria Murrell, The TBA. Progress has been made in several areas, including:

- facilitating freedom of movement between EU Member states
- continuing to push for mandatory vaccination policies for the global bloodstock industry
- research on the possible connection between wind surgery and inbreeding
- industry co-operation to sell our industry and way of life to the wider public
- the release of the EFTBA Promotional Video “The Amazing Story of the Thoroughbred”
- a carbon calculator tool project is in development.

Joe Hernon, who was invited to extend his chairmanship of the EFTBA at the AGM said, “Since Ireland last hosted it in 2019, many things have stayed the same; in terms of the desire of European breeders to produce first class thoroughbreds and equally the global demand and interest in European bloodstock, which is being proven time and time again in European auction houses and sales rings. However, we face many challenges in techniques, new methods of operations, which need a lot of consideration in order to maintain the history and standards of our glorious industry.

“Other positive changes include the development and roll out of the digital passport by Weatherbys, which once fully implemented will have a transformative and positive impact on the tracking and tracing of all thoroughbreds. This will aid us in determining the size and wellness of the European herd. EFTBA will continue to combat against the challenges facing breeders. Despite such challenges, it is hard not to take pride in our great industry, which for us all is a wonderful and rewarding way of life. It is in this vein we will continue to be the guardians of the thoroughbred and strive to make it current and acceptable in today’s world.”

CHALLIS NEW CEO OF THE RACING FOUNDATION

Tansy Challis has been appointed as the Racing Foundation's new Chief Executive Officer, the organization announced on Friday. She previously served as Head of Grants since 2014 and succeeds Rob Hezel, who departs the Foundation after eight years to pursue a portfolio career, which will include a non-executive role on the new Industry People Board.

“Tansy’s knowledge of the racing industry and its stakeholders, along with her experience in grant giving, is unparalleled. Equally important was her deep commitment to the work of the Racing Foundation.”

Challis will assume her new duties on Sept. 1.

GOFFS BRITISH NH BREEDERS SHOWCASE SALE TO HONOUR ASTON, CHUGG

The new Goffs British NH Breeders Showcase Sale for selected NH Foals, to be held at Doncaster on Friday Nov. 3, will feature a pre-sale NH Foal Show that will honour two figures from the British NH breeding world.

The NH Colts class will pay tribute to Richard Aston from Goldford Stud, who passed away in April. Aston ran the Cheshire stud alongside his wife Sally and was a breeder and consignor who regularly topped the NH Foal and NH Store Sales at Doncaster.

The NH Fillies class will honour Robert Chugg of Little Lodge Farm. Chugg, who died in 2022, was considered, “a master of the one-liner” and operated the Worcestershire stud with his wife Jackie. The pair were leading vendors at the NH Foal and NH Store Sales at Doncaster.

The NH Fillies class will honour Robert Chugg of Little Lodge Farm. Chugg, who died in 2022, was considered, “a master of the one-liner” and operated the Worcestershire stud with his wife Jackie. The pair were leading vendors at the NH Foal and NH Store Sales at Doncaster.

"It is extremely fitting that the Goffs team have chosen to honour two such stalwart British NH breeders as Richard Aston and Robert Chugg at the forthcoming NH Foal Show, which is a part of a new initiative to showcase the very best of British NH Breeding at Doncaster in November,” Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said. Henry Beeby, Goffs Group Chief Executive added, “For as long as I can remember Richard and Robert were leading the way at Doncaster NH sales and the success of DBS, now Goffs UK, would not have been possible without them.”

HENRY LONGFELLOW (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}) wins the award as the day’s best-bred runner, being the second foal out of the high-class and versatile Ballydoyle sensation Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was able to win at the top level at a mile in the 1000 Guineas and QEI and a mile and a half in the Oaks. This is an important maiden for Aidan O’Brien, with last year’s TDN Rising Star Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}) the latest in a line of winners which includes the luminary Australia (GB) and all eyes will be on this grandson of Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) whose immediate family also boasts Galileo’s fellow Classic heroines Tuesday (Ire) and Empress Josephine (Ire).

RELIEF RALLY (IRE) (Kodiac {GB}) is the star turn in the latest renewal of this valuable Weatherbys Super Sprint S., with William Haggas seeking compensation for the agonisingly narrow defeat of Simon Munir and Isaac Souede’s filly in Royal Ascot’s G2 Queen Mary S. Denied in the bobber there by Crimson Advocate (Nyquist), the half-sister to the G3 Chipchase S. winner Koropick (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) who was a bargain 58,000gns buy at the Tatts Somerville Sale is a warm order in one of the bigger “sales races” of the calendar but has 20 rivals to overcome.

Holding sway under a firm hold through halfway here, he was nudged along upon arrival at the quarter-mile marker and ran on strongly for one crack of the whip thereafter to double his black-type tally in style.

God Blessing is the third of five foals and one of two winners from as many runners out of Listed Prix des Lilas and Listed Prix de la Cochere placegetter Galaxe (Fr) (High Chaparral {Ire}), herself a half-sister to G2 Prix Hocquart second Galaxie Gold (Fr) (Dariyan {Fr}).

His second dam Galaxie Des Sables (Fr) (Marchand De Sable), who ran second in the Listed Prix des Sablonnets, is a granddaughter of G3 Prix de Royallieu runner-up and G3 Prix Minerve third Kruguy (Ire) (Try My Best). The April Fools’ Day bay is kin to the unraced 2-year-old filly Las Vegas Dream (Fr) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and a yearling filly by Le Havre (Ire). Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
