'FOR' THE LOVE OF THE GAME

Forte all heart winning Saturday's Jim Dandy | Sarah Andrew

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's champion 'TDN Rising Star' Forte (Violence) just got up to nail the pacesetting Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) by a nose and had to survive a stewards' inquiry in a roughly run renewal of Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S. in the Saratoga slop.

Racing with blinkers for the first time, the 3-4 favorite traveled kindly on the inside in third beneath Irad Ortiz, Jr. as Saudi Crown led the field of five through fractions of :23.93 and :48.10.

All dressed up with nowhere to go approaching the quarter pole, Ortiz Jr. forced his way out at the top of the stretch and Forte bumped repeatedly with Angel of Empire (Classic Empire) as they straightened. Racing in between rivals down the lane, Forte kept on fighting from very tight quarters and showed the heart of a champion to nail the narrow GIII Dwyer S. runner-up, who was drifting out several paths late himself, on the money.

"You're the one with a target on your back and you've got another stable (Brad Cox) with three horses in there," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said. "We were expecting some race tactics. I think once he was able to get himself in the clear and the horse on the lead (Saudi Crown) kept drifting out, out, out and maybe into the eight path at one point. Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] said that compromised him a little bit from moving forward sooner."

'BILT' DIFFERENT: CHAMPION ELITE POWER MAKES IT EIGHT STRAIGHT

Now, that's how you celebrate a birthday.

Champion sprinter Elite Power (Curlin) came charging down the sealed, sloppy stretch at Saratoga to nail Gunite (Gun Runner) by a head in Saturday's GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. on Hall of Famer Bill Mott’s 70th birthday.

Racing over a wet surface for the first time, the even-money favorite was sixth though an opening quarter in :22.64. He was tipped out by Irad Ortiz, Jr. approaching the quarter pole and set his sights on the aforementioned slight second choice, who enjoyed first run and was beginning to get away. Elite Power was just getting started, however, and kept on motoring home to get there in dramatic fashion to win his eighth straight.

Pletcher added, “He loves the game. He’s always been that way, he’s always trained super. He’s very competitive in the afternoons, he’s an intelligent horse.”

Ortiz Jr. said, “I was close to the rail (looking for room in stretch run). The horse in front stayed there. I had a chance to hit the clear, I did. As soon as I hit the clear, my horse go forward.

He continued, “The horse in front, I don’t know if he see something, but he was getting out bad. He kept coming out, coming out, but I’m on his heels. It was hard to stop at the moment of the race. I was right there. I was close to making the lead. At the same time, I have the other horse (Angel of Empire), finally we get straight and he corrects his horse and we get to the wire and thank God, we get a head in front at the end.”

Goal for Forte.

Last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile winner Forte, scratched on the morning of the GI Kentucky Derby with a well-documented foot bruise, ran a strong second in the 1 1/2-mile GI Belmont S. while making his first start since capturing the GI Curlin Florida Derby Apr. 1.

Forte’s connections are currently appealing his disqualification from a win in last summer’s GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga due to the presence of meloxicam in his system.

Pedigree Notes:

Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola bought 43 yearlings for more than $16 million to top the sheets for the first of two straight years at the 2021 Keeneland September sale. Forte was a $110,000 purchase out of that auction.

Forte is one of six top-level winners for Violence. Forte’s broodmare sire Blame has 14 stakes/six graded winners out of his daughters.

Forte is the first foal out of Queen Caroline, with her now-juvenile colt Dr. Park (Uncle Mo) hammering for $850,000 to Mayberry Farm at Keeneland September. Her third dam is the MGSW Jeano (Fappiano), whose descendants also include champions Folklore (Tiznow) and Essential Quality (Tapit); Japanese champion Contrail (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}); and additional GISW Come Dancing (Malibu Moon). The family traces tail-female to the great La Troienne through her Broodmare of the Year granddaughter by War Admiral, Striking.

“lt looked like Gunite certainly had the jump on him turning for home,” Mott said. “Great, great, great effort on this horse. He's a big, strong horse, heavy horse. He handled (the off track) well, but it doesn’t have to be his best surface and I think it’s great.
There was that question beforehand. You just don’t know. It’s like trying a new distance for the first time. When you try a new track surface, you just don’t know what’s going to happen. But class came through.”

Elite Power | Sarah Andrew

Keeneland Nov. 5, a 3 1/4-length win over Gunite in the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint in Saudi Arabia Feb. 25 and the GII True North S. at Belmont Park June 10.

“For him to put up a streak like this against top competition just really boils down to him being a really good horse,” Mott said. They don’t do it by accident.”

Mott added that Elite Power would likely target the GI Forego S. at Saratoga Aug. 26.

Pedigree Notes:

Elite Power, a $900,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Juddmonte, is one of 54 graded winners, 20 at the Grade I level, for the mighty Curlin.

Broodmare sire Vindication, the unbeaten winner of the 2002 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile at Arlington, is responsible for 12 graded winners, six at the top level.

Elite Power is bred on the same Curlin/Vindication cross as GI Preakness S. winner Exaggerator. Elite Power’s dam Broadway’s Alibi, a MGSW & GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up and Robsham homebred, brought $2.15 million from Alpha Delta Stables while in foal to Smart Strike at the 2013 KEENOV sale. Broadway’s Alibi is also represented by a Curlin colt of 2021.

Elite Power’s fourth dam is champion 2-year-old filly and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine Eliza (Mt. Livermore). This is also the family of GISW and young sire Dialed In (Mineshaft).

“(The late) Prince Khalid was the one that wanted to win the Kentucky Derby,” Juddmonte’s Garrett O’Rourke said. “We bought this guy by Curlin out of a mare that was second in the Kentucky Oaks. That was our dream. But this is a very, very good consolation prize. That was Prince Khalid’s idea and dream at the time, but now we’ve moved on to his sons who are taking a tremendous interest and they’re the ones carrying this forward.

I’m thanking them for the point of view of Juddmonte and I think it’s great for the whole legacy of Juddmonte that they’re carrying it through.”

MOTT MAKES 70TH BIRTHDAY A WINNING ONE by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Arriving just in time at the wire, Elite Power (Curlin) added to Bill Mott’s massive resume of Grade I triumphs Saturday and yet another birthday victory to his remarkable total at Saratoga Race Course.

With his thrilling come-from-behind score by a head over Gunite (Gun Runner) Saturday in the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H., the 5-year-old Juddmonte horse provided the Hall of Famer with a very nice present on his 70th birthday. By extending his winning streak to eight, Elite Power gave Mott his 24th Saratoga victory on his birthday. Since the birthday countdown started in 1992, Mott has had at least one winner in 18 of the 27 years there has been racing at Saratoga on July 29.

"It’s been a productive date up until this point," Mott said with a smile.

Elite Power was the last of Mott’s six starters on the Saturday program affected by rain. By the time the Vanderbilt was run at 4:45 p.m., the main track was sealed and listed as sloppy and turf racing had been curtailed. In his first try on a wet track, Elite Power was able to collar and get his head in front of Gunite just before the wire.

According to Equibase, Mott entered this season at Saratoga with 464 victories, 91 of them in stakes. Elite Power was his fifth winner so far and third in a stakes race. Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) started the stakes run this summer in the GII Kelso S. and Scotland (Good Magic) got to the wire first in the Curlin S.

Mott saddled his first horse at Saratoga Race Course in 1984 but did not have a starter on his birthday until 1992 when he won the fourth with Missed the Storm, the fifth with Richman and the sixth with Patriot Strike. In the eighth, Tourney finished second by a head to Distinct Habit in the GII Schuylerville S. Missed the Storm returned the next year to win the GI Test S., which was run two days after his birthday.

Following his breakout birthday year, Mott won with three of five starters. He had one winner in 1994 and two in 1995. Since then, he has been 0-for-the-29th eight times. In 2015, he did not have a starter on the program. On his birthday, Mott is 24 of 86, with a .27.9 winning percentage. Among the wins are the 2000 Test with Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold) and the 2006 GI Diana S. with Angara (GB) (Alzao).

Mott said he figured that his lineup on Saturday might produce another birthday win.

"I really thought I was in with some good chances, starting out in the second race and we finished second with [High Oak (Gormley)], the longest odds we had on the board. I thought we were in with a chance with a couple horses particularly there, particularly with this horse and then we've scratched the filly [Spungie (Hard Spun)] in the [ninth] race. They're off the turf. So I thought we had some chances. You Look Cold [Frosted] finish third [in the fifth]. She ran well. She gave a good effort. The main thing is that they all run well. The birthday thing, winning on your birthday is fun, but the most important thing is that we generate Grade I winners for a major stable like this horse did today. That's what it's really all about. It's about winning, winning the major races and horses like this going to the stud barn."

CAL-BRED THE CHOSEN VRON TAKES 'WIN AND YOU'RE IN' BING CROSBY

The hometown hero got it done.

Facing an exceptionally deep field of sprinters in Saturday's 'Win and You're In' GI Bing Crosby S. at Del Mar, it was the California-bred The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) who got the money. He, however, is not nominated to the Breeders' Cup and would have to be supplemented for this fall's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

With the victory, the 5-year-old gelding matched a bar set earlier in the day by Eclipse champion male sprinter Elite Power (Curlin) with both horses stretching their respective winning streaks to eight.

He entered off a series of state-bred stakes races dating back to last summer at Los Alamitos. Running over both turf and dirt at exclusively California tracks, The Chosen Vron last raced at Santa Anita May 28 with a 5 1/2-length romp in the Thor's Echo S.

Away from the gate in good order, the chestnut settled in the second flight of horses behind pacemakers Peaceful Waters (Daled In) and Todo Fino (Chi) (Verrazano). The field shuffled around as Todo Fino was pulled up into the far turn and The Chosen Vron had to angle out to avoid clipping heels. Caught between horses now in seventh as the opening quarter went in :21.92, he came through a generous gap to be part of a six-horse cavalry charge at the top of the lane.

Only three remained with less than a furlong to run and The Chosen Vron had to fend off a pair of rivals to his outside as all three runners came to the line together. With just a head separating the trio, the son of Vronsky got the bob over The Anarchist (Distorted Humor) and the 2021 winner of this race Dr. Schivel (Violence).

"If the next Cal-bred race had been on the dirt, I probably would not have gone today," winning trainer Eric Kruljac said. "I went back and forth and my foreman told me he would shoot me if I didn't run. So I thought we might take a shot."

Pedigree Notes:

The Chosen Vron is one of five graded winners, two at the top level, for his sire Vronsky. Tiz Molly, a half-sister to the stakes-placed Modacious (Uncle Mo), has produced fillies by Clubhouse Ride in 2022-23. Modacious, in foal to Quality Road, sold for $600,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November sale. The Chosen Vron's third dam, Deputy's Delight, produced multiple graded stakes winner Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris), as well as Canadian champion Delightful Mary (Limehouse).
SENOR BUSCADOR SPRINGS THE SHOCKER IN THE SAN DIEGO

If there is a will, there is a way, and the ‘Senor’ found a way.

Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) mowed down rivals late in the GII San Diego H. to pick up the second graded stakes victory of his career.

Starting his 2023 season with a dominating score in Sunland’s Curribot H. Mar. 5, he ran fourth in a salty edition of the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 22, and could not overcome early crowding in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup, finishing fifth behind returning foe Defunded (Dialed In).

Last after the jump and in the rear of the field for the lion’s portion of the contest, Senor Buscador was perfectly content to watch it all unfold as Brickyard Ride (Clubhouse Ride) and Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) duelled for pace control. Off the rail into the leading bend and five wide around the second as runners closed ranks, he was rolling under a full head of steam as he arrived in the lane in fourth but quickly closing the gap. Drawing alongside a leg-weary Brickyard Ride, who was about to be overtaken by Slow Down Andy, the winner continued his relentless grind to eventually prevail by 1 1/4 lengths at odds of 13-1.

After the race, both rider and trainer—who picked up their first stakes win of the meet here—were thrilled with the effort, and echoed similar sentiments about the horse’s propensity to leave the blocks on the slower side.

"I told him [jockey Geovanni Franco] to just let the horse do his thing, don’t panic and start riding early," winning trainer Todd Fincher said. "He’s got one strong kick. He’ll start picking them up at the half-mile pole on his own. Wait as long as you can, then push the button. He’ll never do anything but fall back out of the gate, so we needed a good set-up."

Hailing from a very busy family, a half-brother to a graded stakes winner and two listed winners, Senor Buscador is out of New Mexican icon Rose's Desert, who made her name dominating that circuit. The 10-time winning racemare found similar acclaim as a producer, and has several young offspring in the wings including 2-year-old filly Aye Candy (Candy Ride [Arg]); a yearling Rose A (Hard Spun); and 2023 colt The Hell We Did (Authentic). NOTHING MYSTIFYING ABOUT IT: OCCULT DOMINATES MONMOUTH OAKS

It was a Halloween exacta come early as Occult (Into Mischief) dominated the Gill Monmouth Oaks over a determined Foggy Night (Khozan), giving jockey Feargal Lynch a black-type double in New Jersey.

Steadied at the start last out in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont, but recovering well enough to finish third, the 7-5 favorite had already tasted success earlier this year in New York as the Busanda S. victress at Aqueduct before running fifth in the Gill Gazelle behind Promiseher America (American Pharoah).

Racing four wide after the jump and settling well in that spot off the rail, she was content to watch the contest unfold from seventh as the leading flight debated the pace. Advancing on the backside and five wide into the far bend, Occult caught the eye as she effortlessly circled the field to take charge at the top of the lane. Widening with every stride, she drew off from her rivals and left them 10 1/4 lengths in her wake as Foggy Night and Riding Pretty (Jack Milton) closed out the trifecta.

"She’s a very big filly who needs time to find her stride and get into a nice rhythm. She’ll keep going all day once she gets into her stride, so stamina was never an issue with her. I saw there was some cheap speed in here, so I let them go," said the winning rider. "At the half-mile pole, I was just trying to find a way clear. Because she’s such a big striding filly, you think you’re going nowhere. But when I watch the replay, I am sure I will be impressed with the way she was moving. It’s all about rhythm and momentum with a big horse like that."

When asked if he’d been given any specific instructions to adhere to, Lynch replied, "Chad Brown never really ties you down with any instructions. He’s great to ride for that way. We have a lot of faith in each other. He just said, ‘Get a good trip and win.’"
Pedigree Notes:

Tyson keeps punching in Seagram win

by Stefanie Grimm

Never off the board in his four prior career starts, Tyson (Tapit) avenged his sole defeat--a third behind Treason (Constitution) in the GII Eclipse S. June 4--with a win last time out over that rival in the GIII Dominion Day S. July 1.

Heavily bet down to 2-5 going for his second straight graded-stakes win in Saturday's GII Seagram Cup, the 4-year-old wasted no time going right for the lead and assumed command a path off the rail ahead of Carrothers (Mshawish). Always under a wrap by jockey Rafael Hernandez, Tyson was briefly headed as he faced pressure up front from that same rival as the opening half went in 49.88. The top pair raced in tandem around the far turn but the grey had another gear left to find and, when roused at the furlong marker, easily dispatched Carrothers and quickly put open lengths on him to hit the wire much the best.

"He's a really nice horse," said Hernandez. "[Trainer] Josie [Carroll] told me, 'Raffi, just play it by ear. It's a small field, just see what happens and try to give a good race to the horse.' He'll do anything you want him to do. He showed up today."

"It's one of our best pedigrees, one that we've cultivated for more than 30 years," added owner/breeder John Sikura. "I have great admiration for Mike Tyson, and I thought this is a special horse, so I wanted to name him Tyson. Wonderful horse, beautifully bred and I want to thank everyone at the farm for the great job they've done, and Josie, for being a magnificent trainer and holding this horse together and getting him on the right track. It looks like he's going to be a champion."

Third dam Better Than Honour is responsible for a pair of Belmont S. winners in champion 3-year-old filly Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) and Jazil (Seeking the Gold) along with GSW/G1SP Casino Drive (Mineshaft) and GSW/GISP Greatest Honour (Tapit). Honouring has not produced a live foal since reporting a full-sister to Tyson in 2021 but did visit leading general sire Into Mischief for the 2024 season.

SECOND CHANCES: 'MOR' TO COME FROM MUNNINGS FILLY AT THE SPA by Steve Sherack

In this continuing series, TDN’s Senior Racing Editor Steve Sherack catches up with the connections of promising maidens to keep on your radar.

Lamorna (f, 2, Munnings–Freudie Anne, by Freud) kicked off her career for Hall of Famer Bill Mott with a better-than-it-looked fourth-place finish sprinting over the Saratoga grass July 20.

Last of 10 after getting squeezed at the start, the 7-1 chance was immediately under a ride from jockey Luis Saez and caboosed the field through an opening quarter in a sharp :22.02. She began to catch the eye with a flashy, sweeping move on the far turn and was hung out seven wide as they straightened for home.

The blaze-faced chestnut continued to rally down the stretch, and, despite racing a bit greenly from there with multiple lead changes, finished only 1 1/4 lengths adrift of the very promising Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies S.-bound Kodiac Wintergreen (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}).

Campaigned in partnership by Arnmore Thoroughbreds and West Paces Racing, Lamorna earned a strong 70 Beyer Speed Figure for the effort.

“I was so proud of her,” Arnmore Thoroughbreds’s Megan Jones said. “She ran a 14 1/4 Ragozin, which is a huge 2-year-old filly number on the grass. I didn’t think she had it easy, either. They came in on her at the start and the winner came out on her at the top of the lane.”

Jones, a former vice president of Team Valor International, continued, “As a baby, when they make that big move on the...

turn and catch up, you expect that they might flatten out and get tired, but she just kept dropping her head down and trying. I would look to see her back here at Saratoga. She came out of the race super, really good energy. And mentally, she figured out what it was all about.”

Bred in Kentucky by Fergus Galvin, Marc Detampel, Jayne Johnson and Adrian Wallace, Lamorna went through the ring twice at Keeneland, bringing $155,000 from Stoneriggs Farm as a KEENOV weanling and $320,000 from Arnmore Thoroughbreds as a KEESEP yearling.

SECOND CHANCES HONOR ROLL

- Cody’s Wish (Curlin), GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile & GI Hill ‘N’ Dale Metropolitan H. winner, MGISW, $2,328,530.
- Speaker’s Corner (Street Sense), GISW, $739,963. *Standing at Darley.
- Paradise Woods (Union Rags), MGISW, $1,123,890.
- A Mo Reay (Uncle Mo), GISW, $809,275.
- Spielberg (Union Rags), GSW & MGISP, $546,900.
- Backyard Heaven (Tizway), GSW, $386,240.
- Moonlight d’Oro (Medaglia d’Oro), GSW, $222,670.
- Creative Minister (Creative Cause), GISP, $537,572. *Third in 2022 GI Preakness S.

3-YEAR-OLDS OF 2023

- Disarm (Gun Runner), GSW, $750,200.
- First Mission (Street Sense), GSW, $276,500.
- Skinner (Curlin), MGISP, $241,300.

The versatile New York-bred Freudie Anne, a half-sister to MSW Frostie Anne (Frost Giant), won eight of her 25 career starts, including the New York Stallion Series S. over the Saratoga grass and East View S. on dirt at Aqueduct.

The Munnings over Freud cross is responsible for GSW & GISP Catalina Red. Lamorna is also bred similarly to MGISW and two-time GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint runner-up Om (Munnings), who was produced by a Tabasco Cat mare. Leading young Ashford Stud stallion Munnings is the sire of 26 graded winners.

“I think she's gonna be a pretty versatile filly,” Jones said. “Her mother won short and long, turf and dirt. We were just getting her started there. She's just a real pleasure.”

Jones’s fledgling partnership has approximately 10 horses in training, including the 4-year-old homebred filly Poppy Flower (Lea), winner of the GIII Intercontinental S. earlier this summer at Belmont Park.

“I buy fillies as yearlings to race and to add to the broodmare band,” Jones said. “It’s hard to win first out, but at the end of the day, as long as you come out of that first race feeling like you have a good individual that we can keep with us for years to come, that’s what’s really important to us. I am really grateful to my partners because I loved her so much (at Keeneland September) last year.”

West Will Power (Bernardini), a last-out winner of the GI Stephen Foster S., worked five furlongs in 1:02.24 (1/4) in company with the stakes-placed Tapit Shoes (Tapit) for trainer Brad Cox over Saratoga’s Oklahoma training track Saturday.

West Will Power, owned and bred by Gary and Mary West, is under consideration for either next Saturday’s GI Whitney S. or the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Sept. 2 at the Spa.

"It's a very prestigious race. It means a lot," Cox said of the Whitney. "We'll see how things unfold after this work and make a decision a little bit later. We'll speak with the West team and come up with a plan."

The Cox-trained Verifying (Justify), a narrow winner of the GIII Indiana Derby, worked a half mile in :48.75 (13/53).

"He went a really good half. I wasn't looking to do a whole lot with him, but he was on it," Cox said. "He was ready to do something."

Cox said that Verifying will point to the seven-furlong GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial Aug. 26 at Saratoga.

'TDN Rising Star' Charge It (Tapit), a front-running winner of the GII Suburban S. last out downstate, worked a half mile in :48.77 (28/101) Saturday morning over the main track in his final tune up for next Saturday's Whitney.

"I thought it was excellent," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He did it well in hand and looked good doing it. I've been very pleased with the way he's trained since the Suburban." Pletcher continued, "He's a horse that's always trained really strongly and shown hints that he's capable to run a big race. His (Gili) Dwyer was brilliant. His Suburban, I thought, was his most professional race. He's starting to put it all together consistently. It's a very tall order going up against the best older horses in training, but we're happy with the way he's coming into it."

Pletcher added that fellow 'Rising Star' Tapit Trice (Tapit), fifth in the GI Haskell, will target the GI Travers S. Aug. 26.

THE NEXT CODY’S WISH? AN EMOTIONAL WIN AT SARATOGA FOR CARSON’S RUN
by Bill Finley

The tale of Cody’s Wish (Curlin) and his association with Cody Dorman continues to be a powerful, feel-good story for the sport of racing. Cody’s Wish was named for Dorman, a young man who suffers from Wolf-Hirschorn Syndrome, and the horse’s six-race winning streak has brought joy to Dorman and his family.

Wade Jost knows just how the Dormans feel.

The first race at Saratoga Saturday was won by Carson’s Run (Cupid), who is owned by West Point Thoroughbreds and Steven Bouchey. The 2-year-old colt was named after Carson Jost, 30, who also suffers from Wolf-Hirschorn Syndrome, a chromosomal deletion syndrome resulting from a partial deletion on the short arm of chromosome 4. Features include a distinct craniofacial features, delayed growth and development, intellectual disability, and seizures.

Jost’s father, Wade, is a co-owner of the horse through West Point and was classmate of Finley at the U.S. Military Academy.

“I get emotional talking about this,” Jost said. “We were overwhelmed. We weren’t expecting that. That the horse performed the way he did was phenomenal.”

Finley and Jost had stayed close since their West Point days and the two had conversations at the annual Army-Navy game about the possibility of West Point naming a horse after Carson. Finley told Jost he would find a horse for him and did just that at this year’s OBS April sale, where he purchased Carson’s Run for $170,000.

“No. Carson has the mental capacity of about a one-year-old,” Wade Jost said when asked if Carson understood that a horse named for him was running. “We put him right in front of the TV and when the race took off he really got animated. It was kind of cool. He doesn’t usually get all that animated, so it was neat to watch him do that.”

“We run a lot of horses but this was extra special,” Finley said. “Wade and I have been friends for a long time. It was very, very cool.”

While Cody Dorman has seen several of Cody’s Wish’s race in person, Carson Jost has yet to meet his namesake. Wade Jost said he hopes that will soon change.

“We would love to come for one of his races,” Jost said. “We found out just last week he was going to race today and we need more lead time than that. It is our plan to try to make it out.”

Jost said he first became aware of the Cody Dorman story while watching this year’s GI Kentucky Derby broadcast on NBC. Cody’s Wish ran on the Derby undercard, winning the GI Churchill Downs S.

“"I’ve talked to him for the last couple of years and he said ‘I really want to get a horse for our boy Carson,’ and over the years, he’s had a lot of challenges and has really been an inspiration to all of us,” Finley said. “And when we bought this horse, it all just came together. I said, ‘I think I need to call Wade,’ and I did and he said, ‘I’m in. Whatever you need me to do.’”

Carson is Wade’s oldest child and has three siblings. None of the other children in the family suffer from Wolf-Hirschorn Syndrome. According to a story posted on West Point’s website, Jost served in the Gulf War, and was conceived and born shortly after Wade returned home. According to the West Point report, it was later determined that members of Wade’s unit in the Army had a high rate of abnormal births with their kids born after they returned from the war. The fathers and children were put into a study group to try to determine the cause. Ultimately the results were inconclusive, but the Gulf War has been a proven link to many multi-symptomatic disorders in hundreds of thousands of U.S. veterans who served.

The Jost family gathered in front of a television set Saturday in their home in Washington State. Making his first career start, Carson’s Run was sent off at 5-1 and was ridden by Dylan Davis. Trained by Christophe Clement, the two-year-old was sixth early on in the mile-and-a-sixteenth turf race and took control inside the final furlong to win by a neck.

“When we decided to do this early in the spring with Carson I hadn’t known anything about Cody’s Wish,” Jost said. “I sat down to watch the Kentucky Derby and saw the story about Cody come on. As soon as I saw Cody I knew before they even said anything about Wolf-Hirschorn Syndrome that Carson and Cody had the same thing. The similarities and facial features is just overwhelming.”

Both Jost and Finley said they didn’t want their story to compete with the story of Cody’s Wish or do anything to deflect from the attention the horse and the Dorman family has received. There was no need to worry. Within minutes of the finish of the race, Finley received a text from Kelly Dorman, Cody’s father, congratulating him on the victory.

“I didn’t want anybody to think we were trying to copy Cody’s Wish and their story,” Finley said. “I got a beautiful text from Cody’s father Kelly after the race. He had introduced himself to me at the Belmont. He said that he saw me saw me at the Breeders’ Cup (where Flightline (Tapit), co-owned by West Point, won the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic) and noted how emotional I was. It was very moving for me. I I told him how much I admired how they had handled the story of Cody and how it was very inspiring.”

“We will be reaching out to the Dorman family,” Jost said. “I didn’t want to take away from the great story that is Cody’s Wish. So I was happy that they reached out. We will get together. I look forward to that.”

Finley said that Carson’s Run’s next start would likely come in the GIII With Anticipation S. on Aug. 31 at Saratoga. Maybe the Jost family can make it for that race. Win or lose, the presence of Cody’s Run will make the With Anticipation a race worth following. It looks like Carson’s Run is a good horse who will have a good chance of picking up a graded stakes win. A good horse and a great story.

JUSTIFY’S HEARTLAND IMPRESSES IN 'RISING STAR' DEBUT AT DEL MAR

by Stefanie Grimm

When Hall of Famer Bob Baffert debuts a well-bred 2-year-old colt at Del Mar's summer meeting, the horse racing world pauses to pay attention. Taking money opposite the MyRacehorse entry of A Day to Remember (American Pharoah), Heartland (Justify) proved his mettle with a near last-to-first effort to become the newest ‘TDN Rising Star’.

Off at 4-5 as the gates opened, the race looked like it may be over for the colt before it even began when Heartland ducked to the inside in the opening strides and nearly unseated jockey Juan Hernandez. Now racing next to last as the field carried on up front, the Baffert trainee never looked panicked, rating nicely through an opening quarter in :21.23 set by Slider (Jimmy reed) and A Day to Remember racing in tandem.

Still with just one horse beat into the far turn, Heartland began to make up ground, first overtaking the second flight of Invincible (Uncle Mo) and Head Lad (St Patrick's Day) before spinning through a wide gap along the fence to draw even with the pacesetters a furlong from the wire. Doing his best running late, Heartland cruised by Slider and opened up for the decisive victory before galloping out a mile ahead of the competition.

The seventh 'Rising Star' for second-crop sire Justify, who was a ‘Rising Star’ himself, Heartland will surely seek to follow in the footsteps of his half-brother, champion 2-year-old colt, MGISW, and young sire Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile). Sambuca Classica, herself a daughter of SW/MGISP In Her Glory, is also responsible for Exclamation Point (Concord Point), SP, $290,540, Anytime Magic (Fusaichi Pegasus), MSW, $202,945 and Uptown Twirl (Twirling Candy), MSW, $170,714. More recently, she foaled a yearling filly from the first crop of Eclipse Champion older dirt male Improbable (City Zip) but failed to report a foal this year when bred to Quality Road. She was part of the first book of mares to visit MGISW Life Is Good (Into Mischief) for a 2024 foal.

SEIZE THE GREY REBOUNDS OFF OF POOR DEBUT TO CAPTURE SPA MAIDEN

by Bill Finley

Seize the Grey (Arrogate) didn’t show a thing in his debut, a July 1 maiden special weight race at Ellis Park. Trained by Hall of Famer Wayne Lukas and a $300,000 purchase at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale as a yearling, he beat just one horse and lost by 17 1/4 lengths.

So it was no surprise when he was sent off at 16-1, a price that looked about right considering the competition he was set to face in Saturday’s seventh race at Saratoga, a 6 1/2-furlong maiden race. The race included, among others, Dornoch (Good Magic), a full-brother to this year’s GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic), and Lambo (Uncle Mo), who cost $950,000 at the OBS March sale and was second in his debut for Steve Asmussen.

But a very different Seize the Grey showed up Saturday. Ridden by five-pound apprentice Jaime Torres, who picked up his first ever Saratoga win Friday, the grey colt led every step of the way to win by by 1 3/4 lengths over Dornoch. Lambo, who pressed the early pace, faded in the stretch and finished fifth.

Seize the Grey showed no speed in his debut in which he was ridden by Luis Saez.

“He didn’t break too well last time and he might not have liked the pressure of being around other horses,” said Lukas after picking up his first winner of the meet. “Today, he just took off and he looked very professional.”

Lukas added that he thought the five-pound apprentice allowance might come in handy.

“I thought if he could get him away the five pounds we were getting because he is an apprentice would really help us,” he said. “It might have helped us a little bit in those last 50 yards.”

Said Torres: “As soon as they opened the gate he was determined to go to the lead. I just helped him a little bit. Then I tried to get him to relax. On the turn, I was thinking ‘let’s go, let’s get it.’”

Seize the Grey is owned by MyRacehorse.

“The photographer loves me after this one,” said Lukas, who turns 88 in September. “He’ll be able to sell about 400 pictures off of this one. I am really happy for all the people who own him.”

Run over a sloppy, sealed track, Seize the Grey covered the distance in 1:17.95 and paid $34.80. The colt was bred in Kentucky by Jamm, Ltd.

Heading to Saratoga’s turf, there are number of first timers here worth mentioning. Sands of War (War Front) brought $550,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling sale and the Cherie DeVaux trainee’s dam Egyptian Storm (Pioneerof the Nile)—a $750,000 purchase at FTKNOV in 2019—is a half-sister to Triple Crown champ Justify (Scat Daddy). Speaking of that Horse of the Year, he is the sire of Justdeny, who was a $175,000 KEEJAN and $460,000 KEESEP buy and whose second dam Nell Gwyn (Ire) (Danehill) counts European Horse of the Year Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) as a full-brother.

Ozara (Ire) (Lope de Vega (Ire)) from Christophe Clement’s stable was a TATTOCT Ylg graduate who was purchased by Mike Ryan for $416,346 and her dam Cercle d’Or (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) is a half to G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Another Chad Brown trainee will seek to break her maiden in $240,000 KEENOV weanling turned $650,000 KEESEP yearling Spendalot (More Than Ready). The gray filly is a full-sister to stablemate and MGSW Consumer Spending.

SEIZE THE GREY (c, 2, Arrogate--Smart Shopping (SP), by Smart Strike) debuted a well-beaten eighth July 1 at Ellis Park before heading to New York. Off at 16-1, the gray colt set the pace along the rail down the backstretch, held four competitors at bay around the far turn and digging down deep past the eighth pole, the Lukas trainee splashed home by 1 3/4 length over Mage’s full-brother Dornoch (Good Magic) who was second. Out of an extended female family which includes GISW and MGSW Miss Shop (Deputy Minister) and MGSW Tin Type Gal (Tapit), GISW Power Broker (Pulpit) and SW Fierce Boots (Tiznow) are both half-siblings to the winner’s dam. Smart Shopping is responsible for a yearling filly by Justify and she was bred to Life Is Good for next year. Sales History: $300,000 Ylg ’22 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $57,750. Swinging out west to Del Mar, Gate of Paradise (Arrogate) will be making her debut for trainer John Shirreffs. At OBSMAR, the gavel dropped at $950,000 and to view her prior under tack breeze, along with others from this race, click here.

Another filly to watch is Thermal (Nyquist) from John Sadler’s shedrow, who brought $625,000 at FTSAUG sale. Her latest works July 17 at Santa Anita (4f, :47.60, 8/39) and July 24 at Del Mar (5f, :59.60, 3/53) flatter.

Also Ran: Sir Wellington, Threes Over Deuces. Scratched: Ladneedsahandler, Synthesis.

Lightening Larry, winner of last year’s GIII Chick Lang S. and coming to Laurel Park for the first time after black-type wins at Monmouth Park May 29 in the Mr. Prospector S. and July 1 at Delaware Park in the Alapocas Run S., added to his trophy haul.

As the heavy 3-5 favorite here, the chestnut colt chased Sir Wellington (Palace) and Wonderwherecraigis from the outside up the backstretch, made his move around the far turn and under a drive down the lane, he swept by Wonderwherecraigis just past the sixteenth pole to win by 1/2 length.

The winner’s dam produced a 2-year-old colt named Savage Dragon (Enticed) and she visited Gunnevera for next year.

After breaking her maiden by 3 3/4 length in what was her second career race June 11 at Belmont Park, Amidst Waves stepped up her game at Monmouth Park to win the Colleen S.
Sent on her way as the favorite at odds of 12-5, the chestnut filly tracked just to the outside of a longshot up the backstretch, was given her cue around the far turn and ran on nicely with good energy to win by 1 1/4 length over Lady d’Oro.

“She’s a Midshipman filly and a lot of the Midshipman offspring seem to like the grass,” said trainer George Weaver. “There have been quite a few that have been good sprinting on the grass. We ran her on the dirt first time out. She’s okay on the dirt, too. We had a chance to work her on the grass. It seemed like she was really happy on it. So it was natural to try. She ran big at Belmont (on the turf). I was impressed with her win at Belmont and this is the natural next step for her. I thought she would be really tough in here.”
The winner’s dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Bolt d’Oro and she foaled Mar. 8 another filly, this one by Classic Empire. She visited both Yaupon and Bolt d’Oro for next year.

Eighth over a mile in this track’s Osunitas S. 12 months ago, the bay cut back in distance to win the Sen. Ken Maddy S. at Santa Anita Oct. 29 and followed that with a comfortable score in the Gill Las Cienegas S. Jan. 2.
A first-up third in the Gill Intercontinental S. at Belmont June 9, Amy C was the second betting choice and was clearly last to leave the stalls, but made steady inside progress to sit just behind midfield on the turn. Cont. p7

Hooked wide into the lane, the gaps at the right time and Amy C raced over the top of them to win cozily. Even-money favorite and “TDN Rising Star” Twilight Gleamng (Ire) (National Defense (GB)) also sat a ground-saving trip from the inside post, but was less fortunate than the winner, as she was stopped cold when trying to rally up the fence at midstretch and lost any conceivable chance.

From the family of European champion 2-year-old filly Attraction (GB) (Efisio (GB)), Amy C has a 2-year-old half-brother named Rebel Empire (Fr) (Goken (Fr)) in training with Richard Hannon and a yearling half-sister by Wooded (Ire). Be Better was a two-time winner from seven runs for the Todd Pletcher barn and placed in his first two starts for this outfit before clearing his second-level allowance condition on the Preakness undercard at Pimlico May 20. Last seen posting a 94 Beyer in annexing an open allowance locally June, the clear pari-mutuel alternative to odds-on Nimitz Class--runner-up in the GIII Salvator Mile--was a half-step slow to begin and cabossed the field as they turned up the backstretch. Shuffled back to last, but still going well on the second bend, Be Better shifted out into the three path in upper stretch, but still had a few lengths to find as Nimitz Class claimed Ournationonparade at the eighth pole. But Be Better found his best stride in that final furlong and closed off strongly for a breakthrough victory at stakes level.

social Call, a half-sister to GSW Old Time Hockey (Smarty Jones), was purchased by this owner for $325,000 in foal to Uncle Mo at the 2016 Keeneland November Sale. After producing three straight foals by Uncle Mo, the mare delivered a colt by City of Light in 2021, but her Uncle Mo filly of 2022 likely has a date at next year’s breeze-ups after being purchased by Hartley/DeRenzo for $290,000 at this year’s Fasig-Tipton July Sale. Be Better is the 95th worldwide stakes winner for Uncle Mo. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Sunday at Saratoga and Del Mar.

Qualifying horses entered for the cards cancelled at Ellis Park July 28 and 29 will appear in editions of July 31 and August 1, respectively:

Sterling Silver (f, 4, Cupid--Sheet Humor, by Distorted Humor) took on a who's who of the 3-year-old division last year, running behind champions Nest (Curlin) and Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) and just losing by a head to MGSW Wicked Halo (Gun Runner). Dropped back into state-bred company for her two more recent stakes starts as a 4-year-old, the grey earned a 2-1 chance in this field facing just three rivals and, after enduring a brief weather delay, broke last of the quartet while well off the rail over a muddy track. Tucked in with cover around the turn, she fanned out past the quarter pole, split rivals with a furlong to run and edged away late to defeat favorite Good Sam (Good Samaritan) by a length. The winner's unraced 2-year-old half-brother, Rhetorical (Not This Time), brought a final bid of $320,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York Bred Yearling Sale and Sterling Silver has a yearling half-brother by...

Fifth to that same foe in the GII Chandelier S. around two turns Oct. 8, the Three Amigos runner was a comebacking and distant fourth in Santa Anita allowance company June 16. The 5-2 second choice was in the vanguard early before taking back just a bit to stalk a lone pacesetter from second. Allowed to stride into the lead with less than a quarter-mile to travel, the half-sister to Gold for Kitten (Kitten's Joy), MSP-US, SP-Can, $162,465, refused to switch her leads, but maintained a safe margin on SW Power Surge (Straight Fire) at the line.

WELCOME BACK (f, 2, Adios Charlie--Lady Marchella, by Afleet Alex) was the rank outsider at 25-1 in a field of six and with good reason, as she was the only member of the sextet without previous racetrack experience. Outspun from the one hole and gapped to the turn, the homebred was switched out and was building some momentum while still last into the stretch. The bay continued to gain on the leaders while on her incorrect lead passing the eighth pole and finished with good energy to score by a widening 1 3/4 lengths. Produced by a half-sister to a pair of black-type earners, Welcome Back has a yearling half-sister named Flamant (Khozan). Up on the pace inside of early leader Stolen Valour (Exaggerator), she was taken in hand by jockey Ryan Munger and eased just back off the top pair through the half in :45.43. Just in behind horses around the turn, she squeezed through a gap at the rail as the field straightened out for the wire, took over command close to home, and just held on to win by a head as War Painter (Danish Dynaformer) charged late. Out of a daughter of MGISW Raing Fever (Storm Cat), Fourfiftyfour has a pair of full-siblings born in 2022 and 2023 respectively. CARSON'S RUN (c, 2, Cupid--Hot N Hectic, by Henny Hughes) was the priciest of his sire's seven juveniles (nine ring) reported as sold this year when hammering to Lane's End Bloodstock, agent for West Point, for $170,000 at the OBS April Sale (breeze video). Debuting as the 11-2 fourth choice for a barn that knows how to get one ready to fire first time out, the chestnut came away without incident and settled one from the rear as Modica (Hard Spun) was allowed a soft lead up front. Steadily making ground on the leaders down the backstretch, Carson's Run was ridden quietly into the final quarter mile, was produced widest off the home turn, struck the front while having a good look around with about 150 yards to race and outfinished favored fellow OBS grad Moonlight (Audible) by a neck. Carson's Run, also a $35,000 short yearling at KEEJAN and $67,000 FTKJUL yearling, is the first foal from a winning half-sister to the durable MGSW and recent Old Friends retiree Rated R Superstar (Kodiak Cowboy). CALLIE'S GRIT (f, 3, Maclean's Music--Neith, by Dynaformer) had gone favored in three of her last four starts but failed to come home first while running over both turf and dirt around Kentucky. Favoring once more on the stretch out at 3-2 in her first start at Saratoga since her debut nearly a year ago to the date, she showed the way from the break ahead of She's Mo Bubbly (Uncle Mo) in the off-turf heat and held that advantage all the way around the track. Her rival made a race of it late but Callie's Grit had just enough to hold on, graduating by a neck. ANGIOLLETA (IRE) (f, 2, Calyx (GB)—Angelic Guest (Ire), by Dark Angel (Ire)) began her career in the yard of Christopher Head in France, where she lacked a kick on debut May 9 at Chantilly sprinting five panels on the straight course, but produced a much-improved rally to be outbattled on the wire when facing the boys last out June 1 in a Nantes seven-furlong race. Changing barns to Doug O'Neill for her American debut here, she broke a step slow and settled into eighth to watch the race unfold. Looming with a run, she was stuck in traffic on the far turn and the 6-1 shot had to be tipped out for the racing room she lacked. Angled in hitting the top of the stretch, Angiolleta produced her winning kick and outran fellow Irish-bred Loterie (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns (Ire)) to sail in a length best. HUKUM PREVAILS IN KING GEORGE WAR

by Tom Frary

After all that build-up, Saturday’s G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II QIPCO S. had to live up to the billing and it managed it with a stirring finale provided by Shadwell’s Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire) – Aghareed, by Kingmambo) and Westover (GB) (Frankel (GB)) as the older horses ruled the roost at Ascot.

Kept away from fast ground after his defeat of Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown in May, the Owen Burrows-trained full-brother to Baaeed (GB) would have been any price for this prior to that revelatory comeback but traded at only 13-2 after the significant rain during the week tipped the scales in his favour.

Always travelling easily under cover in mid-division with Jim Crowley content to wait with the homebred, he went forward as Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) disappeared out of view turning for home with Ryan Moore giving up the unequal struggle and easing the 9-4 favourite out of the race. It was Westover who provided the target as Rob Hornby committed approaching two out, but Hukum had that extra helping of speed and after gaining the edge a furlong out denied the rallying Juddmonte runner by a head in this ‘Win and You’re In’ for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf in November.

DEAUVILLE: ROTHSCILD HEADS AUGUST FESTIVAL OPENER by Tom Frary

Deauville’s month-long racing fest is back upon us on Sunday, with the G1 Prix Rothschild the key event on a talent-packed card. British and Irish interests always excel at this meeting, so the first port of call must be the reinvented miler Rogue Millennium (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) who was able to transfer the scintillating speed she had shown over middle distances of late to this trip in Royal Ascot’s G2 Duke of Cambridge S. The pride and joy of Tom Clover’s stable may have found an ideal opportunity to garner one of these precious contests with the big cats playing elsewhere.

“She travels so well and it is hard to have a horse to take her far enough through her races,” Clover said. “We won over a mile, so it makes sense to stay at a mile. Obviously it was a fantastic day at Ascot and one we will always remember, but let’s hope we can continue on the path we’ve been going on.”

FILLY A NEW STAKES WINNER FOR DARK ANGEL

The G3 Bateaux London Princess Margaret S. went to Sacred Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

GALILEO SIRES NEW STAKES WINNER

Jackie Oh (Ire) is the latest stakes winner for her deceased sire with a victory in the G3 Darley Rathbride S. at Gowran Park.

JUDDMONTE’S FRANKEL COLT A NEW RISING STAR

Task Force (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is the latest ‘TDN Rising Star’ for his Juddmonte sire, this time at Salisbury.
There was a 4 1/2-length margin back to the 3-year-old King Of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in third, with some tired horses further back in what turned into a war of attrition with the winning time the third-slowest since 1997. "I’ve always believed in this horse and he’s out of his brother’s shadow now," Crowley said. “That was something special. It went real smoothly and although Westover got first run on me it gave me something to aim at. He’s so tough and it never felt like he was going to come off second best there.”

First emerging on the scene with a win in the course-and-distance King George V H. at the Royal meeting here three years ago, Hukum was St Leger-bound after beating up the older horses in the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. but was ill-equipped for such a stamina test at that stage and could manage only fifth to close out a decent 3-year-old campaign. After his third on soft ground in the G2 Hardwicke S. the following June, he was confined to Group 3 company and looked to have reached a ceiling with a second to this race’s absentee Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}) in the G3 September S.

What that defeat actually did was create a dividing line between Hukum Part 1 with limitations and the new sleeker model which was on display at Epsom last June as he blew away Pyledriver (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) by 4 1/4 lengths in the G1 Coronation Cup. Injury struck there and so the fates looked sealed, particularly while Baaeed took a sibling rivalry that had never looked a fair fight to new levels. Instead of retirement, there was in its place a concerted effort between the Burrows stable and Shadwell to give Hukum a 6-year-old campaign which would answer some lingering questions and the Brigadier Gerard did that and how. G1 King George Cont.

While the heavy rain into Thursday played against Auguste Rodin and Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and probably also the fleet-footed King Of Steel most notably, it meant that Hukum had all boxes ticked in a race that was always going to boil down to small margins. For Auguste Rodin, this was a re-run of the 2000 Guineas disaster, only played out over a greater time scale as the all-or-nothing dual Derby hero proved unequivocally that he needs it fast. Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and Bolshoi Ballet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) went as quick as they could in front, but all bar the favourite were comfortable in behind and turning for home the eventual one-two-three were those with jockeys sitting the most quiet.

Any prospect of a blanket finish diminished rapidly straightening up, with Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and Pyledriver treading water and Emily Upjohn floundering as the front two drove on into daylight with King Of Steel coming to the end of his stamina reserves. Looking at Westover, who had been such a flop here 12 months ago and who ran away from Hornby’s whip to lose momentum in the closing stages, the deciding factor was probably the two years of hardening and extra maturity that the Shadwell representative had in his favour. Emerging as two true King George giants, they in the process gained overdue credibility having endured their fair share of being at times under-rated and under-valued by the press.

For Owen Burrows, the outcome was a dream scenario which 12 months ago would have seemed fanciful to even the biggest romantic. “He’s an absolute star, isn’t he? It is a big team effort, especially from my head lad who rides him every day, John Lake, and this season for whatever reason he’s shown a lot more speed.”

Owen Burrons
“I can’t put into words what it means,” he added. “The guys back at Shadwell rehabilitated him after his injury at Epsom, so huge credit to them. It was the type of injury that wouldn’t retire a horse, but he’d just won a Group 1 and he was five so hats off to Sheikh Hissa for giving him a chance. This horse has been a huge part of my career. He was my first Royal Ascot winner, first Group 1 winner and he won in Dubai when we first went out after the sad passing of Sheikh Hamdan.”

Juddmonte’s Barry Mahon described connections’ mixed feelings after going so close. “We’re devastated but delighted,” he said. “What a horse, what a horse race. He’s run a career-best in what was being touted beforehand as the middle-distance race of the year and he went down gallantly. I felt he was even battling back again at the finish. He put it all on the line and he’s doing what we thought he’d do this year. Last year he was big and immature and he’s mentally and physically grown up. To break the track record the last day in Saint-Cloud was a big performance and to back it up with a run like that three weeks later is unbelievable.”

Rob Hornby added, “This race deserves a spectacle like that and to have an ovation for this horse, coming second like we did, was special. It is tough to take, but I’m really proud of him. He stays very well. He rolled around twice and I pulled my stick through and corrected him. When he got into a head-to-head, he was tough all the way to the line and he was just edged out unfortunately.”

Roger Varian said of King Of Steel, “I think he ran a great race, he lost nothing in defeat and came there with a great chance. He has been beaten by two mature, good, older horses. I’m not sure he got home as well as the first two. We have always got the option of coming back to 10 furlongs, but he had some great horses in behind him, two very good ones in front of him, and it’s only his fifth run so he can only improve can’t he?”

“He has the scope and is a big horse,” Varian added. “I’m sure he needs a little time between races. He’s had a tough race today, but he’s like a teenager, still. We got beat, but it was a super race—a championship race. He turned up and really ran his race.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Auguste Rodin, “Whatever happened, the power ran out and it ran out early. That is the unusual thing. The race wasn’t even started. He was calm in the paddock, we were very happy with him. There is obviously a reason and we’ll find it. It is frustrating, but that’s the way.”

Pedigree Notes

Hukum, who was the fifth member of his family to run in this and the second to win it as he emulated the feat of Nashwan in 1989. It was in this race in 1982 that his fifth dam Height Of Fashion (Fr) raced for Sheikh Hamdan for the first time after he had purchased her from The Queen and she was seventh after banging her head coming out of the stalls. Prior to the victory of Nashwan, her son of Northern Dancer, Unfuwain, was second to Mtoto (GB) in 1988 while her other participant Nayef went down by a head to Golan (Ire) in a finish almost identical to this in 2002. He was also here a year later, but finished seventh as the 3-1 favourite on ground similar to this.

The Listed Prix de Liancourt winner Aghareed is nothing short of a goldmine for the operation, having been the best bred from the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf and GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. heroine Lahudood (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) who like Hukum took time to gather momentum before exploding as champion grass mare in the Autumn of 2007. The fourth dam Bashayer (Mr. Prospector) is a full-sister to the Listed Oh So Sharp S. scorer Sarayir, who produced the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. heroine Ghanaati (Giant’s Causeway) who is in turn responsible for the classy miler Mutasaabeq (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Less than 24 hours after her 3-year-old colt Naqeeb (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) managed to get beaten for the third time at Newmarket, Aghareed’s story has gained an extra momentous chapter. She also has the 2-year-old colt by Night Of Thunder (Ire) named Waleefy (Ire) and a 2023 full-brother to Hukum and Baaeed to come.

ALFLAILA TO THE FORE AT YORK
by Sean Cronin
Shadwell’s ultra-consistent Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel (Ire)--Adhwaa (GB), by Oasis Dream (GB)) had not been sighted since annexing October’s G3 Darley S. at Newmarket, but was ready, willing and able to deliver a decisive burst for a career best in Saturday’s G2 Sky Bet York S. on the Knavesmire.

The Owen Burrows trainee, who also saluted in last term’s G3 Strensall S. at this venue, employed patient tactics from flagfall and settled into a smooth rhythm with just one rival behind until turning for home. Taking closer order in the straight, the 5-1 chance quickened stylishly to challenge inside the final furlong en route to a half-length verdict from the dual Group 1-placed G2 Prix Eugene Adam victor My Prospero (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}).

“If it was a very good training performance and, obviously, Owen Burrows’s horses are running very well at the moment,” said rider Andrea Atzeni. “Now that I’m a freelance, I was able to commit to the ride. I have sat on him twice at home as Owen was very keen for me to get to know the horse. He hasn’t run for a while, but his work was good. With the likes of My Prospero and Royal Champion running, it was a competitive race for such a small field and it was a very good race.”

Pedigree Notes
Alflaila, one of his sire’s 56 pattern-race winners, is one of two winners from as many runners out of Listed Montrose Fillies’ S. runner-up Adhwaa (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)). Adhwaa’s dam, Listed Cheshire Oaks winner Hammiya (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), also produced Listed Nereide-Rennen victrix Shaqira (GB) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}) and is the leading performer for Listed Prix Herod winner Albacora (Ire) (Fairy King), herself a half-sister to G3 Prix de Saint-Georges winner and G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches runner-up Pont-Aven (Ire) (Try My Best). Pont-Aven produced a quartet of black-type winners headed by dual G2 Prix du Gros-Chene victrix Sainte Marine (Ire) (Kenmare {Fri}), G2 Gimcrack S.-winning sire Josr Algarhoud (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) and the stakes-producing Listed winners Traou Mad (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and Cap Coz (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). Adhwaa has also produced the hitherto unraced 3-year-old filly Kick A Rhyme (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

SACRED ANGEL DOMINATES THE PRINCESS MARGARET by Tom Frary

Purchased privately by Nurlan Bizakov following her success in the Newmarket July Festival’s six-furlong fillies’ maiden, the Charlie Johnston-trained Sacred Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)) provided instant justification for the acquisition by making all in Ascot’s G3 Bateaux London Princess Margaret S. on Saturday.

Electric from her outside stall under Jason Hart, the 16-1 shot who was a £52,000 purchase for original owners the Titanium Racing Club at the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, had pressure throughout but shook it off to go clear inside the final furlong.

Veering left in the run to the line, the grey daughter of the Listed Tipperary S. winner Sacred Aspect (Ire) (Haatef) had three lengths to spare over Pretty Crystal (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) at the line.

This was a first group win for Charlie Johnston since taking up the licence in his own name at the famed Middleham stable and he said, “She is improving dramatically—very much so. On her first run at Pontefract I thought she was the best horse on the day, but she was quite green and got beat by two horses who’d had experience. If you had told me then that within two starts we’d be at this level, I’d have thought ‘I’m not so sure about that’ but she took a nice step forward at Newmarket and a step forward again.

“The owners obviously sponsor quite a high-profile race in France [the G1 Prix Morny] and on the back of that I would suspect they will want her to go there next. Possibly the [G1] Cheveley Park at the end of the year will be the obvious real highlight target.”

Richard Fahey said of the runner-up, “I thought it was a good run, but it just didn’t work out again for her. She’s been a bit unlucky. But she is quite a nice filly and she’ll definitely go for the [G2] Lowther at York.”

Pedigree Notes

The aforementioned dam, whose yearling full-sister to the winner is catalogued in this year’s Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale in a month’s time, hails from the family of last year’s G1 Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp heroine The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory (GB)), the G3 Greenslands S. winner Tiger Royal (Ire) (Royal Academy) and the listed winner and G2 Mill Reef S. runner-up Sir Xaar (Ire) (Xaar (GB)).

JACKIE OH WINS THE RATHBRIDE

by Tom Frary

Bouncing back from an unplaced effort in Royal Ascot’s Sandringham, Ballydoyle’s Jackie Oh (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) made her presence felt in the nine-furlong G3 Darley Rathbride S. at Gowran Park on Saturday.

Sent off the 3-1 second favourite, the daughter of Jacqueline Quest {Ire} (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) was far happier back on this easy surface as Colin Keane waited behind the leading trio. Tackling Village Voice (GB) (Zarak {Fr}), approaching the furlong pole, Triermore Stud, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor’s chestnut powered clear for a three-length verdict over that rival.

“The ground, at this stage, is probably important to her,” stable representative Chris Armstrong said. “A mile-and-one or a mile-and-two is probably her trip. Aidan left her in the [G1] Nassau at the confirmation stage the other day just as a back-up and it will probably come too soon. We’ll probably give her a bit of time and maybe bring her back on Irish Champions Weekend for something like the [G2] Blandford S. She could go to France as well, she has plenty of options.”

Pedigree Notes

Jackie Oh, who had been second to Village Voice in Navan’s 10-furlong Listed Salsabil S. in April and fifth in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh in May before her Royal Ascot flop, is the eighth foal out of the aforementioned Jacqueline Quest, disqualified from first in the G1 1000 Guineas runner-up and also placed in the G1 Coronation S. Her best so far is the G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf hero and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp-placed Line Of Duty (Ire) also by Galileo, while she also produced the listed-placed Hibiscus (Ire) from another mating with the Coolmore giant who in turn produced this year’s G3 Derby Trial S. and G3 Ballysax S.-placed Up And Under (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Also responsible for the Sandringham winner Onassis (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who also scored in the Listed October Fillies S. and Listed Prix de Bagatelle and was second in the G3 Oak Tree S., and her full-brother Secret State (Ire) who was runner-up in last year’s G2 Great Voltigeur S., Jacqueline Quest is a half to the dam of this year’s G3 Amethyst S. runner-up You Send Me (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). Her unraced 2-year-old full-sister to Jackie Oh named Faifa (Ire) was a 500,000gns acquisition by Nawara Stud at the Book 1, while she also has a yearling filly by Wootton Bassett (GB) named Yam Sing (Ire).

RANDOM HARVEST PREVAILS IN ASCOT’S VALIANT by Sean Cronin

Lady Bamford homebred Random Harvest (Ire) (War Front--Seta (GB), by Pivotal (GB)), winless in four starts since posting a breakthrough tally in last October’s G3 Premio Elena e Sergio Cumanì, was back in the winner’s enclosure after registering a game success in Saturday’s G3 Longines Valiant S. at Ascot.

This year’s G3 Princess Elizabeth S. and G2 Duke of Cambridge S. runner-up was sent to the front after an alert break and held sway throughout. Nudged along when strongly pressed passing the quarter-mile marker, the 10-3 chance refused to yield and was driven out inside the final furlong to hold the late charge of Roman Mist (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)) by a neck for a second group-race triumph.

“She’s such a game filly and deserved this so much,” said Saffie Osborne, who was also aboard the winner in Milan last year. “It means so much because it’s been a long time coming. She’s been so unlucky and I’m so grateful to Ed [Walker] and Lady Bamford for keeping me on a filly like this at this point of my career.”

Walker added, “She is a legend, this filly, and she really deserved that. She is just so consistent and loves it here. It never really happened for her in the [G1] Falmouth [last time] and she was just wheel-spinning. She never really got her own way, she was out on the wing and it was a non-event [at Newmarket].

“I’m bang up for trying again at the highest level as she’s so tough and game. She definitely can get some Group 1 form and something like the Sun Chariot would be ideal for her. Whether we look at North America, or not, I’m not sure. I think a mile is her trip, but maybe if we went to America it would be nine or 10 [furlongs]. Something at the Breeders’ Cup is a possibility.”

Pedigree Notes

Random Harvest, one of her sire’s 62 pattern-race winners, is the leading performer for multiple stakes-winning G2 May Hill S. third Seta (GB) (Pivotal (GB)), herself kin to four stakes winners including G2 Prix de Pomone winner Armure (GB) (Dalakhani (Ire)) and stakes-winning G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin runner-up Berlin Berlin GB) (Dubai Destination). Random Harvest’s third dam is the G1 Prix de la Foret heroine Brocade (GB) (Habitat), who produced G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 Breeders’ Cup Mile-winning sire Barathea (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) and his G1 Irish 1000 Guineas-winning full-sister Gossamer (Ire). Gossamer, in turn, is the dam of G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination) and is the second dam of G1 Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint victor Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed And Excel (Aus)). FRANKEL’S TASK FORCE A NEW TDN RISING STAR AT SALISBURY by Sean Cronin & Tom Frary

There was a buzz about Juddmonte’s Task Force (GB) (Frankel (GB)), the 10th foal produced by unique dual Classic heroine Special Duty (GB) (Hennessy (GB)), as he went postward as the even-money favourite for Saturday evening’s Starman At Tally Ho Stud British EBF Maiden S. at Salisbury. He proved why as he returned with a TDN Rising Star rosette after delivering a deeply promising 3 1/4-length success in the six-furlong contest.

Swiftly into stride from an outer stall, the G2 Champagne S. entry cut across to shadow the pace in a close-up second throughout the early stages. Inching ahead passing the two-furlong pole, the homebred quickened beyond recall soon after and kept on powerfully under mild coaxing to outclass Kingswood Flyer (Ire) (Sioux Nation).

“Mr [Ralph] Beckett had me in Friday morning just to sit on him and to get a feel,” explained winning rider Rhys Clutterbuck. “He did a quick bit of work and he felt special. Mr Beckett told me he was very professional out of the gate, so I shouldn’t have any problems getting a nice position. I got him into a nice position so that I was able to see how the race developed and he put the race to bed quite nicely. I think he’d like it softer, but he handled that [good] ground very well today.”

Pedigree Notes

Special Duty, who captured the G1 Cheveley Park S. and G2 Prix Robert Papin and was second in the G1 Prix Morny before being twice promoted from second to first by the stewards in the G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches, has yet to hit the heights as a broodmare with her best progeny being the listed scorer Elegant Verse (GB) by Frankel’s sire Galileo (Ire). Also responsible for the Listed Prix Yacowlef runner-up South Bank (Tapit), she is a daughter of Quest To Peak (Distant View) who is also the second dam of the operation’s GI Breeders’ Cup Mile and G2 Vintage S.-winning sire Expert Eye (GB) (Acclamation (GB)).

The third dam is the Listed Prix Melisande winner and G3 Prix de Psyche runner-up Viviana (Nureyev), who produced Quest To Peak’s seven-times grade I-winning full-sister Sightseek (Distant View) and the GI Yellow Ribbon S. winner Tates Creek (Rahy) and the dam of the four-times grade III winner and GI Clark S.-placed Fulsome (Into Mischief). Also from the family of the champion sire Chief’s Crown, Special Duty’s yearling filly is by Sea The Stars (Ire), while her colt foal is a full-brother to Task Force.

He added, “She seems well and has been since Ascot and hopefully we have some luck.”

Also from England is Wathnan Racing’s G1 Coronation S. and G1 Falmouth S. runner-up Remarquee (GB) (Kingman (GB)), who has the edge over the Jessie Harrington challenger Sounds Of Heaven (GB) (Kingman (GB)) on the Coronation form, while France’s best chance of keeping this at home could rest with the Wertheimers’ TDN Rising Star Kelina (Ire) (Frankel (GB)). She beat the subsequent shock G1 Prix Jean Prat heroine Sauterne (Fr) (Kingman (GB)) in Chantilly’s G2 Prix de Sandringham last time and is only going one way at present.

Richard Brown, racing adviser to Wathnan, said of Remarquee, “We are conscious it is her third run in a fairly short space of time, but we are going to give her a break next, win, lose or draw.” Cont. p11

Brown added, “She has come out of Newmarket in great form. She’s still quite green and still learning her job. She came up against Nashwa at her best last time and that is a hard task for any filly.”

An Elite Cabourg

In the fixture’s G3 Prix de Cabourg, Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s Listed National S.-winning sensation Elite Status (GB) (Havana Grey (GB)) goes up to six furlongs for the first time having been found out for sharpness in Royal Ascot’s G2 Norfolk S. Bad news for him is he has White Birch Farm’s TDN Rising Star Havana Cigar (GB) (Havana Grey (GB)) lying in wait having entered the leading juvenile conversation when dynamic at Chantilly at the start of the month. Then there is the Fabre unknown in Prince Faisal’s Saint-Cloud scorer Sajir (Ire) (Make Believe (GB)), who follows in the steps of the likes of Zamindar, Xaar (GB) and Earthlight (Ire) (Shamardal). François Boutin still holds the record of nine wins in this important staging post, but one more for Fabre and it will be shared.

Sunday’s Support

Also at Deauville, the seven-furlong G3 Prix Six Perfections Sky Sports Racing for 2-year-old fillies features Gousserie Racing and Jean-Etienne Dubois’s Classic Flower (GB) (Calyx (GB)), who will give further evidence in the ongoing investigation into the true merit of TDN Rising Star Ramatuelle (Justify) who thrashed her in the G2 Prix Robert Papin. Fabre saddles a granddaughter of Goldikova (Ire) (Anaba) for Juddmonte here in the Chantilly winner Cavalletti (GB) (Kingman (GB)), while Ecurie des Charmes’ impressive Compiegne debut winner Minushka (GB) (Starspangledbanner (Aus)) could be another big name for the Lerners.

Munich’s G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis sees Liberty Racing’s G1 Deutsches Derby hero Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon (Ger)) take on Godolphin’s G1 Saratoga Derby winner Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo (Ire)) who is back in Europe after his third from a horror draw in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Turf.

Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s homebred Rosallion became his first-crop sire’s third stakes winner when scooting to an impressive four-length triumph in Saturday’s Listed Flexjet Pat Eddery S. at Ascot.
The 11-1 chance, who annexed his June 7 debut over 6 1/2 furlongs at Newbury when last seen, raced under cover in eighth through the early fractions of this straight seven-furlong test. Making eye-catching headway on the bridle once past halfway, he cruised to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and quickened clear in impressive fashion to easily outclass fellow 11-1 chance Al Musmak (Ire) (Night Of Thunder (Ire)) by daylight. Godolphin’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) was unable to match the winner’s kick and finished 3/4-of-a-length further adrift in third.

“His a good horse, we always thought he was a good horse and he’s my [G1 2000] Guineas horse,” said trainer Richard Hannon after doubling his win tally in the contest. “The further he goes, the better he goes. He’s in the [G1 Vincent O’Brien] National S. in Ireland and will obviously be in the [G1 Dewhurst]. He’s not a small horse, he has loads of scope and he behaves like a very good horse. We’re thinking about next year.”
Rosallion becomes the first stakes winner out of an unraced full-sister to G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein victor Ostilio (GB). The April-foaled bay’s second dam, Listed Hoppings S. runner-up Reem Three (GB) (Mark Of Esteem (Ire)), has six stakes winners to her credit headed by this term’s G1 Queen Anne S. hero Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and G1 Prix Jean Romanet victrix Ajman Princess (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). She is also the dam of G3 Bengough S. victor Cape Byron (GB) (Shamardal) and Listed Heron S. winner Captain Winters (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Reem Three, who is a half-sister to G2 Celebration Mile and G3 Sovereign S. victor Afsare (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), is out of a half-sister to stakes-winning G3 Dubai City of Gold runner-up Lost Soldier Three (Ire) (Barathea (Ire)). From the family of G2 Derby Italiano hero Summer Festival (GB) (Poet’s Voice {GB}), Rosallion is kin to a yearling colt by Make Believe (GB).

SONMARG (IRE) (c, 2, Dandy Man ( Ire)--Baileys Pursuit (GB), by Pastoral Pursuits (GB)), a June 5 debut seventh over this course and distance last time, chased the leaders in sixth through the early fractions. Ridden to go fifth passing the quarter-mile pole, the 14-1 chance was driven to improve two spots entering the final furlong and kept on relentlessly in the closing stages to nail Shayekh (Ire) (Kodiac [GB]) by a head on the line. Sonmarg is the latest of four foals, all winners, produced by a multiple-winning daughter of Listed Prix Roland de Chambure third Royal Mistress (GB) (Fasliyev). Royal Mistress is also the dam of Listed Prix La Fleche victrix and G3 Prix du Bois third Ardenode (Ire) (Hellvelyn {GB}). Sonmarg’s stakes-winning third dam Regal Peace (GB) (Known Fact), who ran third in the G3 Flying Five S., is a half-sister to G1 Middle Park S.-winning sire Stalker (Ire) (Kala Shikari {Ire}). Goliath, untested as a juvenile last year, debuted up with a May 23 score at Saint-Cloud, before doubling up over this strip last time, and extended his unbeaten run with a narrow verdict here. Tracking the leaders in fourth through halfway, he made headway out wide off the home turn to challenge with 350 metres remaining and was ridden out underneath the stands’ side rail to deny the long-time leader Salahudin for a career high. “He is a nice, improving horse who has a tendency to be lazy, but the more he runs the more he understands,” explained trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. “I had reservations about him truly staying one-and-a-half miles and Bauyrzhan [Murzabayev] confirmed as much to me. He is good, he fought well to prevail and I will most certainly run him over shorter next time. I am thinking about the 10-furlong [G3] Prix du Prince d’Orange at ParisLongchamp in September.”

1st-Clairefontaine, €30,000, Cond, 7-29, 2yo, f, 8fT, 1:37.50, sf. FREVILLE (FR) (f, 2, Gleneagles (Ire)--Freauville (Fr), by Le Havre (Ire)), who ran second at Chantilly in May and at Lyon Parilly last month, was under a firm grip in fifth through the initial fractions here. Rowed along to reduce arrears at the top of the straight, the 13-10 joint-favourite challenged with 300 metres remaining and lengthened clear inside the final furlong to defeat market rival Teeran (Ire) (Kingman (GB)) by three lengths. Freville is the lone reported foal produced by an unraced daughter of Listed Prix Miss Satamixa victrix Fresles (Ire) (Royal Applause (GB)), herself a half-sister to G3 Prix Andre Baboin winner Celtic Rock (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)) and G3 Prix Vanteaux runner-up La Pernelle (Ire) (Beat Hollow (GB)). Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, €25,600. [Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.]

2nd-Clairefontaine, €30,000, Cond, 7-29, 2yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:40.00, sf. TEN HORN (FR) (c, 2, Ten Sovereigns (Ire)--Rivalba, by Street Cry (Ire)), third on debut over seven furlongs at Compiegne last month, was restrained early to race with one behind. Following Grey Fighter (Fr) (Iffraaj (GB)) as the remainder peeled away to the stand's rail, the 4-1 second favourite had his measure approaching the furlong pole and put the race to bed quickly en route to a two-length success from that rival. The eighth winner for No Nay Never's Coolmore-based first-crop sire, Ten Horns is out of a daughter of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches-placed Rahliah (Rahy) whose three black-type performers were headed by the G3 Nad Al Sheba Turf Sprint winner, G1 Al Quoz Sprint runner-up and G2 Queen Mary S. third Final Song (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)). Her yearling daughter of Ribchester (Ire) is catalogued at next month's Arqana Deauville v2 Yearling Sale. Sales history: €48,000 RNA Ylg '22 ARQAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, €19,500.
